If the grievance is not appealed to arbitration within said twenty (20) working days, the Public Employer's Step III answer shall be final and binding upon the aggrieved employee and the Union. Upon appeal to arbitration, the Union, Public Employer or employee may, in the written notice requesting arbitration, include the names of two (2) Florida Supreme Court approved mediators for the Fourth Judicial Circuit, either of whom is acceptable to the Union, Public Employer or employee to arbitrate the grievance. If the two (2) parties involved in the selection do not mutually agree upon the selection of one (1) of the persons listed or some other person qualified to arbitrate, then the parties may request the services of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS). If the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) is utilized, the arbitrator shall be chosen pursuant to their procedures. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an arbitrator other than outlined above may be mutually selected by the parties to the arbitration proceedings.

Section 1. At the conclusion of the arbitration hearing, post hearing briefs may be filed at the request of either party or the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall have thirty (30) days after the hearing is concluded, or receipt of briefs, to render his award and findings of fact. Post-hearing briefs must be filed within ten (10) working days of the arbitration hearing.

All testimony given at the arbitration hearing will be "under oath". The arbitrator may not issue declaratory or advisory opinions and shall be confined exclusively to the question(s) which is presented to him, which question(s) must be actual and existing. The arbitrator shall submit in writing his decision within thirty (30) days following the close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever is later, provided that the parties may mutually agree in writing to an extension of said limitation. Consistent with this section, the decision of the arbitrator shall be exclusively based upon specific findings of fact and conclusions based thereon, which findings of fact and conclusions shall be the predicate for any decision made by him. In rendering any decision, the arbitrator shall only consider the written, oral or documentary evidence submitted to him at any hearing set. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding. If any event occurred or failed to occur prior to the effective date of this agreement, it shall not be the subject of any grievance hereunder, nor shall the arbitrator have the power to make any decision concerning such a matter.

Section 4. It is specifically and expressly understood that taking a grievance to arbitration constitutes an election of remedies and a waiver of any and all rights by the appealing party and all persons it represents.

Section 5. The cost and expense incurred by the impartial arbitrator shall be shared equally by both parties. If a transcript of the proceedings is requested, then the party so requesting shall pay for it. If an employee acting independently of and in disregard of the position of the Union in matters relating to arbitration, such employee shall pay his share of the expenses of the arbitrator's costs and expenses.

Among those employees determined to be qualified to perform the work required, the one with the greatest seniority with the county shall be promoted to the position.

25.4 Any employee that feels he was unjustly passed over for promotion shall have the right to appeal his rejection through the grievance procedure starting with Step II.

25.5 Whenever it is necessary to fill a position in the classified service on a temporary basis due to the incumbent, whether he or she is on probation or permanent, being off work on sick leave, leave of absence, or any other reason, this temporary assignment shall be made by management. Management shall determine job qualifications, provided such determination is limited to those factors directly required to perform the job. In the event of an absence exceeding two (2) days during the work week, or in the event the employee whose absence resulted in the need to fill the position temporarily arranged for his/her absence in advance, or if the Employer elects to fill a position other than due to the absence of an employee as outlined above, the qualified employee with the greatest seniority shall be appointed, where at all possible.

Employees who feel they have been unfairly denied the temporary appointment may utilize the grievance procedure. When an employee is temporarily assigned to duties outside his or her job specification for a period of time exceeding ten (10) working days, the activity head shall notify the employee in writing of the proposed duration of such assignment. Any such temporary assignment shall not exceed six (6) calendar months, without review by the activity head to determine if an extension of said appointment is appropriate.

The County Coordinator shall review the assignment of employees to temporary positions as provided above on a monthly basis. The Employer and the Union agree to meet upon request of either party to review the assignment of employees to temporary positions.

25.6 Upon promotion and in accordance with other sections of Article 25, an employee promoted to a position for which he or she was previously assigned in a temporary capacity, shall be credited with a combined total of time actually served in that capacity towards the completion of the six (6) months probationary period.

ARTICLE 26

Immediate family is defined as the spouse, the grandparents, grandchildren, parents, brothers, sisters and children of both the employee and the spouse.

Employees shall be granted one (1) day of leave with pay (day of the funeral) for brother-in-law, sister-in-law, uncle, aunt and also other relatives who permanently resided with the employee. Employees who attend a funeral on the weekend of a brother-in-law, sister-in-law, uncle, aunt, or other relative who permanently resides with the employee, shall be granted one (1) day of leave with pay as bereavement leave as follows;

APPENDIX B

EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE EVALUATION SYSTEM

PROCEDURES

These procedures have been developed to implement Section 19.05(5) of Chapter 67-1320, Laws of Florida which directs Nassau County to:

Develop and implement a performance evaluation system to be used in evaluating employee performance and in making employment decisions, which system shall be adopted by the County. The system shall include mandatory annual performance evaluations of all bargaining unit employees covered under this Agreement. A copy of the written performance evaluations shall be provided to each employee and discussed with the employee. The employee may make any written comments concerning the evaluation and the comments shall be made part of the employee's employment record.

The purpose of these procedures is to provide a uniform system of performance evaluation for covered employees.

I. OBJECTIVES

- A. The primary objective of this Employee Performance Evaluation System is to provide for improved employee performance.
- B. This Employee Performance Evaluation System will also provide;
 - 1. Better communications between employees and supervisors.
 - 2. Better understanding of job duties and responsibilities.
 - 3. Identification of training needs.
 - 4. Supportive documentation for merit and disciplinary action.

II. PERFORMANCE EVALUATION FORMS

- A. The original completed Performance Evaluation Form is to be forwarded to the Personnel Department for placement in the employee's official personnel file. The activity head is responsible for providing the employee with a copy of the form and for retaining a copy for the Department file.

III. PERFORMANCE EVALUATION DATES

- A. Mid-way through the probationary period. In most cases this will be three (3) months from the time the employee is placed in probationary status. The completed form is due in the Personnel Department no later than fifteen (15) working days after the mid-probation date.

- B. At the end of probation. This evaluation must be completed no earlier than the beginning of the final month of the probationary period and no later than the last day of the probationary period. In most cases, the probationary period is six (6) months. If the probationary period is extended, the Personnel Department must be notified immediately. The completed form is due in the Personnel Department no later than fifteen (15) working days after the end of probation date.
- C. Annually, twelve (12) months from the date of last evaluation, to be defined as the performance evaluation date. The completed form is due in the Personnel Department no later than fifteen (15) working days after the annual performance evaluation date.
- D. Within ninety (90) days after an overall performance evaluation rating of Below Satisfactory is given.

IV. THE PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

- A. Conduction and Reviewing the Performance Evaluation
 - 1. The rater shall be the Assistant Superintendent. The rater together with the person to whom the employee normally reports shall complete the Employee Performance Form and discuss it with the employee. In those cases where an employee may be assigned work by various supervisors, the Assistant Superintendent will make rating decisions after consulting with others for whom the employee has performed work.
 - 2. The Superintendent shall be the reviewer. All ratings must be reviewed. Before the reviewer signs the form, the ratings should be discussed and any differences of opinion should be resolved. The reviewer shall not change the original rating; however, unresolved differences may be noted by comments on the evaluation form by the reviewer.
 - 3. Upon completion of the review by the Superintendent, the activity head shall review and shall have final approval of all evaluations.
- B. The Performance Evaluation Conference
 - 1. Review the employee's job specification prior to the conference.
 - 2. Choose a quiet location where you will not be interrupted for the conference.

3. First, discuss the employee's strong points.
4. Discussion of the employee's weak points should be a foundation for development. At this point, a program of suggestions and improvements should be outlined in Section E, Performance Improvement Plan, of the Performance Evaluation Form.
5. Evaluations for an employee should always be based on observable, objective facts.
6. To close the conference, summarize the major points discussed and the future goals that were established.

C. Completion of the Employee Performance Evaluation Form:

Section A. General Information. Fill out all spaces as instructed.

Section B. Performance Factors To Be Evaluated.

1. List the factors which make up the overall job. These factors should consist of specific duties performed and other measurable job-related factors in areas such as attendance, quantity of work, meeting deadlines, etc. Job factors should be developed from class specifications, your knowledge of the job, and any other resources available to you. Each job factor should describe a tangible, observable action or series of actions. Upon assignment to a position an employee is to be given a list of the job factors pertaining to that position.
2. Examples of job factors are provided on the sample Performance Evaluation Forms.
3. The rating scale to be applied to each job factor consists of Satisfactory, Above Satisfactory and Below Satisfactory. An explanation of each value is found on the evaluation form.
4. Unable To Appraise should be indicated for duties not regularly assigned to the position held by the employee being evaluated or for duties which were not performed during the current performance evaluation period.

Section C. Overall Rating

1. An overall rating of job performance is to be indicated in the appropriate space, based on the collective ratings for the job factors listed in Section B.
2. In determining the overall rating, give greater value to the job factors which are more important in terms of total job performance.

Section D. Explanation of Above Satisfactory and Below Satisfactory

1. All ratings of Above Satisfactory or Below Satisfactory must be fully explained, with specific examples given.
2. The extent to which performance exceeds or fails to meet job requirements should be clearly described.

Section E. Performance Improvement Plan

1. This section is to be used for development of a plan for improvement of employee performance or for career development and may be applicable for employee whose overall performance falls in any of the three rating categories.
2. The plan should include the objectives or goals toward which the employee will be working, methods for achieving those objectives, and the anticipated completion date for each objective.

Section F. Signatures

The Rater, Reviewer, Activity Head and Employee being evaluated must sign the form in the appropriate space. The Rater must advise the employee that it is permissible for him/her to attach comments to the form. If he/she wishes to do so, the space below the employee signature which indicates this must be checked.

Overall Rating of Below Satisfactory

1. When an employee's overall rating is Below Satisfactory, another evaluation of job performance is required within ninety (90) days after the date of the performance evaluation conference.
2. Performance evaluations will continue to be made at ninety (90) day intervals until:

- a) performance has improved and the overall rating is at least Satisfactory or;
 - b) you have reason to believe that the employee's overall performance in the class to which assigned will not improve to a level of at least Satisfactory. At this point, appropriate disciplinary action should be initiated including termination.
3. If the probationary period of an employee rated as Below Satisfactory has been extended and the maximum length of time permitted for a probationary period is reached, removal of the employee from the class will be necessary.
