

INTERLOCAL AGREEMENT
WAIVING PERMIT AND BUILDING FEES

THIS AGREEMENT entered into this 8th day of March, 2010, by, among and between the BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF NASSAU COUNTY, FLORIDA, a political subdivision of the State of Florida, (the "County"), the TOWN OF CALLAHAN ("Callahan"), and the TOWN OF HILLIARD ("Hilliard") to waive permit fees on public projects undertaken by any of the Parties within the jurisdictional limits of any of the other Parties.

WHEREAS, the Parties acknowledge that it serves a public purpose to waive permit fees typically assessed to a local governing body for construction projects when the local governing body has agreed to reciprocally waive permit fees assessed within its jurisdiction;

WHEREAS, the local governing bodies of the Parties met on October 27, 2009, in a joint meeting and, by consensus, authorized an agreement reciprocally waiving fees normally charged for construction permits be drafted for full consideration of the governing bodies.

NOW, THEREFORE, FOR GOOD AND VALUABLE CONSIDERATION, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged the Parties agree to exempt each other from any permit fee assessed by the Parties for construction undertaken within the jurisdictional limits of the Parties, provided that formal application is made.
