Non-reproducible Errors may require dispatch of an engineer on-site, which will be charged on a time and materials basis. After receipt of any such written notice of an Error from Customer, Quantum will promptly notify Customer if Quantum cannot reproduce the Error. If Quantum cannot reproduce the Error, Customer will provide such additional information regarding the Error as Quantum may request in order to assist Quantum with reproducing the Error. ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, OBLIGATIONS, LIABILITIES, CUSTOMER'S RIGHTS AND REMEDIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, ORAL OR WRITTEN, ARISING BY LAW OR OTHERWISE INCLUDING THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, TITLE, AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND THOSE ARISING FROM COURSE OF PERFORMANCE, COURSE OF DEALING AND USAGE OF TRADE. The Receiving Party acknowledges that use or disclosure of Proprietary Information of the Disclosing Party in any unauthorized manner will destroy its value to the Disclosing Party. Unless the Disclosing Party agrees otherwise in writing, the Receiving Party (including its employees, agents and contractors) (i) will not sell, disclose, copy or reproduce any Proprietary Information of the Disclosing Party; (ii) will only permit or allow access to Proprietary Information of the Disclosing Party to those employees or third parties who require such access in order to perform work on the Disclosing Party's behalf pursuant to these Terms and Conditions; (iii) agrees to protect the Proprietary Information of the Disclosing Party as carefully as it would protect its own proprietary information but never less than a reasonable standard of care; (iv) agrees to be responsible for any unauthorized use or disclosure of Proprietary Information of the Disclosing Party by any of its employees, agents or contractors; and (v) agrees to leave intact all copyright, patent, trademark, confidentiality and similar notices in connection with the Proprietary Information of the Disclosing Party. The parties agree to return all Proprietary Information to the Disclosing Party upon the termination of these Terms and Conditions. Quantum recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which may require that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

7. Classified Environments

Purchases of Services (of any kind) to be located, utilized or performed in US federally classified environments, and requiring response or services by cleared personnel, must be supported by a DD254 which must be generated by the Prime Contractor or the appropriate US Government Agency and issued to Quantum before services can be provided. Failure to do so may result in a delay of or inability to provide service for which Quantum shall not and does not assume liability. Customer shall, prior to the time of purchase, (1) confirm to Quantum whether classified environments are involved, (2) if so, that a DD254 will be issued, and (3) provide the name and contact information for the responsible Prime Contractor Contracting Officer.

8. Notices

No waiver or modification of these Terms and Conditions or of any provision contained herein shall be valid unless in writing and duly executed by Quantum and Customer.

10. Choice of Law

These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the USA without regard to any conflict of laws rules thereof. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached QuSecure, Inc. (“Manufacturer”) product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America (“Contractor”) to provide Manufacturer’s information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America’s GSA MAS IT contract number GS-35F-0511T (the “Schedule Contract”). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.
2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the “Manufacturer Specific Terms” or the “Attachment A Terms”) are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer (“Licensee”) is the “Ordering Activity”, defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.
  - b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.
  - c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.
  - d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.
  - e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.
  - f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.
  - g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.
  - h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

- i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.
- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

  - (e) Grant sublicenses in the Software solely as permitted under the terms of this Agreement and subject to the following:
    - (i) all sublicenses shall be in form and substance as approved in advance by Licensor; and
    - (ii) Licensee will be responsible and liable pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement for its sublicensees' actions and failures to take required actions with respect to the Software.
3. Third-Party Materials. The Software includes Open Source Software, content, data, or other materials, including related documentation, that are owned or licensed by Persons other than Licensor and that are provided to Licensee on licensee terms that are in addition to and/or different from those contained in this Agreement ("Third-Party Licenses"). Any fees charged by Licensor in connection with the Software, do not apply to the Open Source Software for which fees may not be charged under the applicable license terms. A list of all materials included in the Software and provided under Third-Party Licenses including without limitation Open Source Software can be found at <https://oss.qusecure.com>. Licensee is bound by and shall comply with all Third-Party Licenses, which are separate from the Licensor applications that are subject to the terms of this EULA. Any breach by Licensee or any of its Authorized Users of any Third-Party License is also a breach of this Agreement.
4. Use Restrictions. Licensee shall not, and shall require its Authorized Users not to, directly or indirectly:
- (a) use (including make any copies of) the Software or Documentation beyond the scope of the license granted under Section 2;
  - (b) except as may be permitted by Section 2(e) and strictly in compliance with its terms, provide any other Person, including any subcontractor, independent contractor, affiliate, or service provider of Licensee, with access to or use of the Software or Documentation;
  - (c) modify, translate, adapt, or otherwise create derivative works or improvements, whether or not patentable, of the Software or Documentation or any part thereof;
  - (d) combine the Software or any part thereof with, or incorporate the Software or any part thereof in, any other programs;
  - (e) reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile, decode, or otherwise attempt to derive or gain access to the source code of the Software or any part thereof;
  - (f) remove, delete, alter, or obscure any trademarks or any copyright, trademark, patent, or other intellectual property or proprietary rights notices provided on or with the Software or Documentation, including any copy thereof;
  - (g) except as expressly set forth in Section 2(a) and Section 2(c), copy the Software or Documentation, in whole or in part;
  - (h) rent, lease, lend, sell, sublicense, assign, distribute, publish, transfer, or otherwise make available the Software, or any features or functionality of the Software, to any Third Party for any reason, whether or not over a network or on a hosted basis, including in connection with the internet or any web hosting, wide area network (WAN), virtual private network (VPN), virtualization, time-sharing, service bureau, software as a service, cloud, or other technology or service;
  - (i) use the Software or Documentation in, or in association with, the design, construction, maintenance, or operation of any hazardous environments or systems, including:

- (i) power generation systems; aircraft navigation or communication systems, air traffic control systems, or any other transport management systems;
- (iii) safety-critical applications, including medical or life-support systems, vehicle operation applications, or any police, fire, or other safety response systems; and
- (iv) military or aerospace applications, weapons systems, or environments;
- (j) use the Software or Documentation in violation of any law, regulation, or rule; or
- (k) use the Software or Documentation for purposes of competitive analysis of the Software, the development of a competing software product or service, or any other purpose that is to the Licensor's commercial disadvantage.
5. Responsibility for Use of Software. Licensee is responsible and liable for all uses of the Software and Documentation through access thereto provided by Licensee, directly or indirectly. Specifically, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Licensee is responsible and liable for all actions and failures to take required actions with respect to the Software and Documentation by its Authorized Users or by any other Person to whom Licensee or an Authorized User may provide access to or use of the Software and/or Documentation, whether such access or use is permitted by or in violation of this Agreement.
6. Compliance Measures.
- (a) The Software may contain technological copy protection or other security features designed to prevent unauthorized use of the Software, including features to protect against any use of the Software that is prohibited under Section 4. Licensee shall not, and shall not attempt to, remove, disable, circumvent, or otherwise create or implement any workaround to, any such copy protection or security features.
- (b) On a semi-annual basis, and otherwise on Licensor's written request, Licensee shall conduct a review of its and its Authorized Users use the Software and certify to Licensor in a written instrument signed by an officer of Licensee that it is in full compliance with this Agreement or, if Licensee discovers any noncompliance:
- (i) Licensee shall immediately remedy such noncompliance and provide Licensor with written notice thereof. Licensee shall provide Licensor with all access and assistance as Licensor requests to further evaluate and remedy such noncompliance.
- (ii) If Licensee's use of the Software exceeds the number of copies or Authorized Users permitted under the license, Licensor shall have the remedies set forth in Section 6(d).
- (c) During the Term, Licensor may, in Licensor's sole discretion, audit Licensee's use of the Software to ensure Licensee's compliance with this Agreement, provided that (i) any such audit shall be conducted on not less than ten days' prior notice to Licensee, and (ii) no more than two audits may be conducted in any six-month period except for good cause shown. Licensor also may, in its sole discretion, audit Licensee's systems within six months after the end of the Term to ensure Licensee has ceased use of the Software and removed all copies of the Software from such systems as required hereunder. The Licensee shall fully cooperate with Licensor's personnel conducting such audits and provide all reasonable access requested by the Licensor to records, systems, equipment, information, and personnel, including machine IDs, serial numbers, and related information.
- (d) If the audit/any of the measures taken or implemented under this Section 6 determines that the Licensee's use of the Software exceeds or exceeded the use permitted by this Agreement then:
- (i) Licensee shall, within seven (7) days following the date of Licensor's written notification thereof, pay to Licensor the retroactive License Fees for such excess use and, unless Licensor terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 6(d)(i), obtain and pay for a valid license to bring Licensee's use into compliance with this Agreement. In determining the Licensee Fee payable pursuant to the foregoing, (x) unless Licensee can demonstrate otherwise by documentary evidence, all excess use of the Software shall be deemed to have commenced on the commencement date of this Agreement or, if later, the completion date of any audit previously conducted by Licensor hereunder, and continued uninterrupted thereafter, and (y) the rates for such licenses shall be determined without regard to any discount to which Licensee may have been entitled had such use been properly. If the use exceeds or exceeded the use permitted by this Agreement by more than ten (10) per cent, Licensee shall also pay to Licensor, within seven (7) days following the date of Licensor's written request therefor, Licensor's costs incurred in conducting the audit. If the use exceeds or exceeded the use permitted by this Agreement by more than twenty (20) percent, Licensor shall also have the right to terminate this Agreement and the license granted hereunder in accordance with the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act).

Licensor's remedies set forth in this Section 6(d) are cumulative and are in addition to, and not in lieu of, all other remedies the Licensor may have at law or in equity, whether under this Agreement or otherwise.

7. Maintenance and Support.

- (a) Subject to Section 7(c), the license granted hereunder entitles Licensee to the basic software maintenance and support services described on Schedule B or from time to time on Licensor's website located at <https://supportagreement/qusecure.com>:
- (i) for the term of the License set forth on the Order Form; and thereafter, solely if Licensee extends the applicable License and/or purchases additional support services.
- (b) Maintenance and support services will include provision of such updates, upgrades, bug fixes, patches, and other error corrections (collectively, "Updates") as Licensor makes generally available free of charge to all licensees of the Software then entitled to maintenance and support services. Licensor may develop and provide Updates in its sole discretion, and Licensee agrees that Licensor has no obligation to develop any Updates at all or for particular issues. Licensee further agrees that all Updates will be deemed Software, and related documentation will be deemed Documentation, all subject to all terms and conditions of this Agreement. Licensee acknowledges that Licensor may provide some or all Updates via download from a website designated by Licensor and that Licensee's receipt thereof will require an internet connection, which connection is Licensee's sole responsibility. Licensor has no obligation to provide Updates via any other media. Maintenance and support services do not include any new version or new release of the Software that Licensor may issue as a separate or new product, and Licensor may determine whether any issuance qualifies as a new version, new release, or Update in its sole discretion.
- (c) Licensor reserves the right to condition the provision of maintenance and support services, including all or any Updates, on Licensee's registration of the copy of Software for which support is requested. Licensor has no obligation to provide maintenance and support services, including Updates:
- (i) for any but the most current or immediately preceding version or release of the Software;
- (ii) for any copy of Software for which all previously issued Updates have not been installed;
- (iii) if Licensee is in breach under this Agreement; or
- (iv) for any Software that has been modified other than by Licensor, or that is being used with any hardware, software, configuration, or operating system not specified in the Documentation or expressly authorized by Licensor in writing.

8. Collection and Use of Information.

- (a) Licensee acknowledges that Licensor may, directly or indirectly through the services of Third Parties, collect and store information regarding use of the Software and about equipment on which the Software is installed or through which it otherwise is accessed and used, through:
- (i) the provision of maintenance and support services; and
- (ii) security measures included in the Software as described in Section 6.

- (b) Licensee agrees that the Licensor may use such information for any purpose related to any use of the Software by Licensee or on Licensee's equipment, including but not limited to:
- (i) improving the performance of the Software or developing Updates; and
  - (ii) verifying Licensee's compliance with the terms of this Agreement and enforcing the Licensor's rights, including all Intellectual Property Rights in and to the Software.
9. Intellectual Property Rights. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the Software and Documentation are provided under license, and not sold, to Licensee. Licensee does not acquire any ownership interest in the Software or Documentation under this Agreement, or any other rights thereto, other than to use the same in accordance with the license granted and subject to all terms, conditions, and restrictions under this Agreement. Licensor and its licensors and service providers reserve and shall retain their entire right, title, and interest in and to the Software and all Intellectual Property Rights arising out of or relating to the Software, except as expressly granted to the Licensee in this Agreement. Licensee shall safeguard all Software (including all copies thereof) from infringement, misappropriation, theft, misuse, or unauthorized access. Licensee shall promptly notify Licensor if Licensee becomes aware of any infringement of the Licensor's Intellectual Property Rights in the Software and fully cooperate with Licensor, at Licensor's sole expense, in any legal action taken by Licensor to enforce its Intellectual Property Rights.
10. PAYMENT. All License Fees and Support Fees are payable upon delivery in the manner set forth in the Order Form. Any renewal of the license or maintenance and support services hereunder shall not be effective until an order has been executed for such renewal.
11. Term and Termination.
- (a) This Agreement and the license granted hereunder shall remain in effect for the term set forth on the Order Form or until earlier terminated as set forth herein (the "Term").
  - (b) Licensee may terminate this Agreement by ceasing to use and destroying all copies of the Software and Documentation.
  - (c) Licensor may terminate this Agreement, effective upon written notice to Licensee, if Licensee, breaches this Agreement and such breach: (i) is incapable of cure; or (ii) being capable of cure, remains uncured for thirty (30) days after Licensor provides written notice thereof.

- (d) Licensor may terminate this Agreement, effective immediately, if Licensee files, or has filed against it, a petition for voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy or pursuant to any other insolvency law, makes or seeks to make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors or applies for, or consents to, the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or custodian for a substantial part of its property.
- (e) Upon expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, the license granted hereunder shall also terminate, and Licensee shall cease using and destroy all copies of the Software and Documentation. No expiration or termination shall affect Licensee's obligation to pay all Licensee Fees and, if charged separately, Support Fees that may have become due before such expiration or termination, or entitle Licensee to any refund, in each case except as set forth in Section 12(c)(ii).

12. Limited Warranties, Exclusive Remedy, and Disclaimer/Warranty Disclaimer.

- (a) Solely with respect to Software for which Licensor receives a License Fee, Licensor warrants that, for a period of one (1) year (or such other period mandated by local law) following the license date set forth on the Order Form:
  - (i) any media on which the Software is provided will be free of material damage and defects in materials and workmanship under normal use; and
  - (ii) the Software will substantially contain the functionality described in the Documentation, and when properly installed on a computer meeting the specifications set forth in, and operated in accordance with, the Documentation, will substantially perform in accordance therewith.

THE FOREGOING WARRANTIES DO NOT APPLY, AND LICENSOR STRICTLY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, WITH RESPECT TO ANY THIRD-PARTY MATERIALS.

- (b) The warranties set forth in Section 12(a)(i) and Section 12(a)(ii) will not apply and will become null and void if Licensee breaches any provision of this Agreement, or if Licensee, any Authorized User, or any other Person provided access to the Software by Licensee or any Authorized User, whether or not in violation of this Agreement:
  - (i) installs or uses the Software on or in connection with any hardware or software not specified in the Documentation or expressly authorized by Licensor in writing;
  - (ii) modifies or damages the Software, or the media on which it is provided, including abnormal physical or electrical stress; or
  - (iii) misuses the Software, including any use of the Software other than as specified in the Documentation or expressly authorized by Licensor in writing. (c) If, during the period specified in Section 12(a), any Software covered by the warranty set forth in such Section fails to perform substantially in accordance with the Documentation, and such failure is not excluded from warranty pursuant to the Section 12(b), Licensor will, subject to Licensee's promptly notifying Licensor in writing of such failure, at its sole option, either:
    - (i) repair or replace the Software, provided that Licensee provides Licensor with all information Licensor requests to resolve the reported failure, including sufficient information to enable the Licensor to recreate such failure; or
    - (ii) refund the License Fees paid for such Software, subject to Licensee's ceasing all use of and, if requested by Licensor, returning to Licensor all copies of the Software.

If Licensor repairs or replaces the Software, the warranty will continue to run from the initial date specified on the Order Form, and not from Licensee's receipt of the repair or replacement. The remedies set forth in this Section 12(c) are Licensee's sole remedies and Licensor's sole liability under this Agreement/the limited warranty set forth in Section 12(a).

(d) EXCEPT FOR THE LIMITED WARRANTY SET FORTH IN SECTION 12(a), THE SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION ARE PROVIDED TO LICENSEE "AS IS" AND WITH ALL FAULTS AND DEFECTS WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, LICENSOR, ON ITS OWN BEHALF AND ON BEHALF OF ITS AFFILIATES

AND ITS AND THEIR RESPECTIVE LICENSORS AND SERVICE PROVIDERS, EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY, OR OTHERWISE, WITH RESPECT TO THE SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION, INCLUDING ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT, AND WARRANTIES THAT MAY ARISE OUT OF COURSE OF DEALING, COURSE OF PERFORMANCE, USAGE, OR TRADE PRACTICE. WITHOUT LIMITATION TO THE FOREGOING, THE LICENSOR PROVIDES NO WARRANTY OR UNDERTAKING, AND MAKES NO REPRESENTATION OF ANY KIND THAT THE LICENSED SOFTWARE WILL MEET THE LICENSEE'S REQUIREMENTS, ACHIEVE ANY INTENDED RESULTS, BE COMPATIBLE, OR WORK WITH ANY OTHER SOFTWARE, APPLICATIONS, SYSTEMS, OR SERVICES, OPERATE WITHOUT INTERRUPTION, MEET ANY PERFORMANCE OR RELIABILITY STANDARDS OR BE ERROR FREE, OR THAT ANY ERRORS OR DEFECTS CAN OR WILL BE CORRECTED.

13. Limitation of Liability. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW:

(a) IN NO EVENT WILL LICENSOR OR ITS AFFILIATES, OR ANY OF ITS OR THEIR RESPECTIVE LICENSORS OR SERVICE PROVIDERS, BE LIABLE TO LICENSEE OR ANY THIRD PARTY FOR ANY USE, INTERRUPTION, DELAY, OR INABILITY TO USE THE SOFTWARE; LOST REVENUES OR PROFITS; DELAYS, INTERRUPTION, OR LOSS OF SERVICES, BUSINESS, OR GOODWILL; LOSS OR CORRUPTION OF DATA; LOSS RESULTING FROM SYSTEM OR SYSTEM SERVICE FAILURE, MALFUNCTION, OR SHUTDOWN; FAILURE TO ACCURATELY TRANSFER, READ, OR TRANSMIT INFORMATION; FAILURE TO UPDATE OR PROVIDE CORRECT INFORMATION; SYSTEM INCOMPATIBILITY OR PROVISION OF INCORRECT COMPATIBILITY INFORMATION; OR BREACHES IN SYSTEM SECURITY; OR FOR ANY CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, WHETHER ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), OR OTHERWISE, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER SUCH DAMAGES WERE FORESEEABLE AND WHETHER OR NOT THE LICENSOR WAS ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. THE FOREGOING LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

(b) IN NO EVENT WILL LICENSOR'S AND ITS AFFILIATES', INCLUDING ANY OF ITS OR THEIR RESPECTIVE LICENSORS' AND SERVICE PROVIDERS', COLLECTIVE AGGREGATE LIABILITY UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ITS SUBJECT MATTER, UNDER ANY LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY, INCLUDING BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), STRICT LIABILITY, AND OTHERWISE, EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNT PAID TO THE LICENSOR PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT FOR THE SOFTWARE THAT IS THE SUBJECT OF THE CLAIM DURING THE TWELVE MONTHS PRIOR TO THE INCIDENT GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM..

(c) THE LIMITATIONS SET FORTH IN SECTION 13(a) AND SECTION 13(b) SHALL APPLY EVEN IF THE LICENSEE'S REMEDIES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FAIL OF THEIR ESSENTIAL PURPOSE.

14. Export Regulation. The Software and Documentation may be subject to U.S. export control laws, including without limitation the Export Control Reform Act and its associated regulations, the International Traffic in Arms Regulations. The Licensee shall not, directly or indirectly, export, re-export, or release the Software or Documentation to, or make the Software or Documentation accessible from, any jurisdiction or country to which export, re-export, or release is prohibited by law, rule, or regulation. The Licensee shall comply with all applicable federal laws, regulations, and rules, and complete all required undertakings (including obtaining any necessary export license or other governmental approval), prior to exporting, re-exporting, releasing, or otherwise making the Software or Documentation available outside the US.

15. US Government Rights. The Software is commercial computer software, as such term is defined in 48 C.F.R. §2.101. Accordingly, if the Licensee is the U.S. Government or any contractor therefor, Licensee shall receive only those rights with respect to the Software and Documentation as are granted to all other end users under license, in accordance with 48 C.F.R. §12.212, with respect to all other US Government licensees and their contractors.

16. Miscellaneous.

- (a) All matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. Service of process, summons, notice, or other document by mail to such party's address set forth herein shall be effective service of process for any suit, action, or other proceeding brought in any such court.
- (b) In accordance with GSAR 552.212-4(f), Licensor will not be responsible or liable to Licensee, or deemed in default or breach hereunder by reason of any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder where such failure or delay is due to strikes, labor disputes, civil disturbances, riot, rebellion, invasion, epidemic, hostilities, war, terrorist attack, embargo, natural disaster, acts of God, flood, fire, sabotage, fluctuations or non-availability of electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning, or Licensee equipment, loss and destruction of property, or any other circumstances or causes beyond Licensor's reasonable control.
- (c) All notices, requests, consents, claims, demands, waivers, and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given: (i) when delivered by hand (with written confirmation of receipt); (ii) when received by the addressee if sent by a nationally recognized overnight courier (receipt requested); (iii) on the date sent by facsimile or email (with confirmation of transmission) if sent during normal business hours of the recipient, and on the next business day if sent after normal business hours of the recipient; or (iv) on the third day after the date mailed, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid. Such communications must be sent to the respective parties at the addresses set forth on the Order Form (or to such other address as may be designated by a party from time to time in accordance with this Section 16(c)).
- (d) This Agreement, together with the Order Form, and all other documents that are incorporated by reference herein (including the Master Software and Services Agreement, if any), constitutes the sole and entire agreement between Licensee and Licensor with respect to the subject matter contained herein, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, representations, and warranties, both written and oral, with respect to such subject matter.
- (e) Licensee shall not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights, or delegate or otherwise transfer any of its obligations or performance, under this Agreement, in each case whether voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law, or otherwise, without Licensor's prior written consent, which consent Licensor may give or withhold in its sole discretion. For purposes of the preceding sentence, and without limiting its generality, any merger, consolidation, or reorganization involving Licensee (regardless of whether Licensee is a surviving or disappearing entity) will be deemed to be a transfer of rights, obligations, or performance under this Agreement for which Licensor's prior written consent is required. No delegation or other transfer will relieve Licensee of any of its obligations or performance under this Agreement. Any purported assignment, delegation, or transfer in violation of this Section 16(e) is void. Licensor may freely assign or otherwise transfer all or any of its rights, or delegate or otherwise transfer all or any of its obligations or performance, under this Agreement without Licensee's consent. This Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns.
- (f) This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer on any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit, or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.
- (g) This Agreement may only be amended, modified, or supplemented by an agreement in writing signed by each party hereto. No waiver by any party of any of the provisions hereof shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and signed by the party so waiving. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, no failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any right, remedy, power, or privilege arising from this Agreement shall operate or be construed as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power, or privilege.
- (h) If any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction.
- (i) For purposes of this Agreement, (a) the words "include," "includes," and "including" shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation"; (b) the word "or" is not exclusive; and (c) the words "herein," "hereof," "hereby," "hereto," and "hereunder" refer to this Agreement as a whole. Unless the context otherwise requires, references herein: (x) to Sections and Exhibits refer to the Sections of, and Exhibits attached to, this Agreement; (y) to an agreement, instrument, or other document means such agreement, instrument, or other document as amended, supplemented, and modified from time to time to the extent permitted by the provisions thereof and (z) to a statute means such statute as amended from time to time and includes any successor legislation thereto and any regulations promulgated thereunder. This Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting an instrument or causing any instrument to be drafted. The Order Form and all Exhibits referred to herein shall be construed with, and as an integral part of, this Agreement to the same extent as if they were set forth verbatim herein.

RAPIDRATINGS INTERNATIONAL, INC.
86 CHAMBERS ST
SUITE 701
NEW YORK, NY 10007

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached Rapid Ratings International, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates antideficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the AntiDeficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Customer’s access and use under this Section extends only to the number of Users described in the applicable Order Form.

2.2 Restrictions. Without limitation, Customer shall not, and shall not permit any third party to: (a) use the Subscription Services in a manner not expressly permitted by this Agreement or in violation of applicable law; (b) attempt to access or access data, research, or software services that Customer is not expressly permitted to access in the Subscription Services or any database owned or maintained by RapidRatings, such as to access information of third parties without express written authorization or to benchmark or develop a competitive product or service; (c) copy, reproduce, distribute, publish, or otherwise make available copies or extracts in any medium of the Subscription Services, except that Users may download, use, and copy Subscription Reports for Customer’s internal (confidential) use only; (d) sell, resell, rent, license, sublicense, rent, lease, or otherwise commercialize (such as in a service bureau offering) the Subscription Services; (e) use the Subscription Services to store or transmit malicious code (meaning code, files, scripts, agents or programs intended to do harm, including, for example, viruses, worms, time bombs and Trojan horses) or transmit malicious code to RapidRatings; (f) decompile, disassemble or reverse engineer any aspect of the Subscription Services or RapidRatings’ software generally (except to the extent that Customer cannot by law waive its right to do so); or (g) permit direct or indirect access to or use of any Subscription Service or database owned or maintained by RapidRatings in a way that circumvents a contractual usage limit, is excessive, or otherwise interferes with RapidRatings’ ability to provide the Subscription Services or other customers’ use or enjoyment of the Subscription Services.

At RapidRatings’ option, RapidRatings reserves the right to prorate a new User for the portion of a Subscription Term remaining at the time a new User was added, such that any added User access will terminate or expire on the same date as a prior User group. Customer will be responsible for each User’s, and for its other employees’ and contractors’, compliance with this Agreement. It is Customer’s responsibility to monitor credentials, password usage, and otherwise prevent unauthorized access to or use of the Subscription Services and to promptly notify RapidRatings if unauthorized access or use is detected or suspected.

2.5 Monitoring and Audit Rights. RapidRatings reserves the right to use tracking software and similar technology that automatically collects information about Customer’s use of the Subscription Services to ensure Customer’s compliance with the restrictions in this Agreement and to confirm the access to the Subscription Service does not exceed the purchased number of Users. On not less than thirty (30) days’ advance written notice to Customer, no more than once a year, and at RapidRatings’ cost and expense, RapidRatings will have the right to audit Customer’s and any of its employee’s and contractor’s use of the Subscription Services to assure compliance with the terms of this Agreement. Customer will be responsible for assuring reasonable cooperation with RapidRatings in connection with such audits and will provide RapidRatings with or obtain for RapidRatings access to such properties, records, and personnel as RapidRatings may reasonably require for such purpose. RapidRatings will comply with Customer’s Government security policies provided to RapidRatings in writing reasonably in advance of any such audit and will take commercially reasonable steps to avoid material disruption of Customer’s business. Any audit will occur during Customer’s normal business hours. If RapidRatings reasonably determines that Customer used the Subscription Services in excess of its number of purchased Users or otherwise in excess of its rights hereunder, RapidRatings may invoice Customer for such overuse and Customer will pay such invoice within thirty (30) days of receipt.

2.6 Modifications. RapidRatings reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to amend, change, modify, update, or discontinue any aspect of the Subscription Services at any time without notice to Customer, provided such changes are not material and will not decrease the overall level of service. For clarity, nothing in this Section supersedes the warranty provisions of Section 5.

SECTION 3. RESERVED

SECTION 4. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS.

4.1 Ownership of Intellectual Property Rights; Feedback. RapidRatings, including RapidRatings licensors, own all intellectual property rights in and to the Subscription Services. Subject to the limited rights expressly granted hereunder, RapidRatings, including RapidRatings licensors, hereby reserve all rights not expressly granted to Customer in this Agreement, and Customer will not acquire any such rights, whether by virtue of this Agreement, operation of law, estoppel, or otherwise. Customer shall not contest, directly or indirectly, the validity or RapidRatings’ ownership of any intellectual property rights in and to the Subscription Services. Customer shall not do anything that may adversely affect the validity or enforceability of any intellectual property right licensed to or owned by RapidRatings, including any act, or assistance to any act, that may infringe or misappropriate or lead to the infringement or misappropriation of any such intellectual property right. Customer hereby irrevocably assigns to RapidRatings all right, title, and interest in and to any suggestions, enhancement requests, recommendations, or corrections (collectively “Feedback”) related to the Subscription Services, and agrees to provide RapidRatings with any assistance required to document, perfect, and maintain the rights in the Feedback at RapidRatings’ expense. RapidRatings will not be obligated to compensate or credit Customer or any third party for such Feedback or hold any Feedback in confidence. RapidRatings acknowledges that the ability to use this Agreement and any Feedback in advertising is limited by GSAR 552.203-71.

4.2 Enforcement. To the extent practicable, Customer shall make a good faith attempt to notify Rapid Rating promptly in writing if it has knowledge of a suspected infringement or misappropriation of an intellectual property right of RapidRatings by a third party, and shall provide RapidRatings with a copy of all documents and information relating thereto as long as such production is not proscribed by contract or other reason. RapidRatings shall have the right, but not the obligation, to take action in its own name to secure the cessation of any infringement or misappropriation of any intellectual property right or to bring an action against an alleged infringer. Customer shall cooperate with RapidRatings in RapidRatings' enforcement of its intellectual property rights. Nothing in this Agreement or otherwise will be construed to impair or limit RapidRatings' right to enforce its intellectual property rights against any third party. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516.

4.3 Confidential Information. Each Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent the unauthorized use, disclosure, or publication of the other Party's Confidential Information and treat the other Party's Confidential Information with the same degree of care that it uses to protect the confidentiality of its own Confidential Information (but not less than reasonable care); provided, however, that each Party may disclose the Confidential Information of the other Party to third parties who: (i) have a need to know such Confidential Information for purposes of carrying out this Agreement, but only to the extent that such Confidential Information is needed to perform their obligations under this Agreement, and (ii) have entered into a written confidentiality agreement with a substantially similar standard of care. Each Party will use the other Party's Confidential Information only as expressly permitted in this Agreement or as necessary to perform its obligations or enforce its rights in this Agreement. Customer grants RapidRatings a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free, perpetual, irrevocable, transferable, sublicensable license to store, host, reproduce, access, use, transmit, create derivative works of and display all Customer data provided to RapidRatings for use with the Subscription Services Subscription Reports. The following information will not be deemed Confidential Information: (i) information that is or becomes publicly available through no fault of either Party; (ii) information with regard to a Party that was rightfully known by the other Party prior to commencement of discussions regarding the subject matter of the Agreement; (iii) information that was independently developed by a Party without use of the Confidential Information of the other Party; or (iv) information rightfully disclosed to a Party by a third party without continuing restrictions on its use or disclosure. Each Party shall notify the other Party immediately if it becomes aware of any unauthorized use, disclosure, or publication of such other Party's Confidential Information. Each Party shall have the right to disclose the other Party's Confidential Information as required by law or legal process or under the applicable rules of a securities market or exchange; provided, however, that the disclosing Party shall use reasonable efforts to give the other Party a reasonable opportunity to intervene to prevent such disclosure or to obtain a protective order, and that any Confidential Information so disclosed otherwise remains subject to the confidentiality obligations set forth in this Section. Neither the terms of this Agreement nor the pricing are Confidential Information. The Subscription Service, including any Feedback, is considered Confidential Information of RapidRatings. This provision expressly survives the expiration or termination of this Agreement in perpetuity with respect to the Subscription Services, Feedback, and Subscription Reports or other information downloaded, copied, or removed from the Subscription Service. RapidRatings recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

THE FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS INVOLVE RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES. RapidRatings' software is a proprietary quantitative system that analyzes financial information contained in publicly available company filings made by issuers pursuant to applicable securities laws or private company financial statements provided by Customer or a third party. Periodically, RapidRatings randomly selects a small number of public company filings used in the ratings process to test the accuracy of the information provided by the third party(ies) by comparing the information received from the third party to the public filings posted on the relevant governmental websites. RapidRatings is not responsible for either the accuracy or completeness of any public filings or any private company financial statements provided by Customer or a third party. Customer hereby acknowledges and agrees that RapidRatings has conducted a reasonable investigation of the factual elements relied upon in determining Subscription Reports, and that RapidRatings' procedures to verify a company's financial information are reasonable.

SECTION 7. RESERVED.

SECTION 8. TERM AND TERMINATION.

8.1 Term. The term of this Agreement will commence as of the Effective Date set forth in the Order Form and will continue for one year (the "Initial Term"), unless terminated sooner. Thereafter, the term of this Agreement may be renewed for unlimited, successive one-year periods (each a "Renewal Term"), by Customer issuing an Order Form for such Renewal Term.

8.2 Termination. Termination shall be governed by the FAR and the Contract Disputes Act. Recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, RapidRatings shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer.

8.3 Suspension. RapidRatings may temporarily suspend Customer access to or use of the Subscription Services if Customer or Users violate any provision within Sections 2.1 (Access to the Subscription Services), 2.2 (Restrictions), 2.3 (API Services), 2.4 (Users), 4.1 (Ownership of Intellectual Property Rights; Feedback), or 4.2 (Enforcement) in the Agreement, or if in RapidRatings' reasonable judgment, the Subscription Services or any component thereof are about to suffer a significant threat to security or functionality. RapidRatings will provide advance notice to Customer of any such suspension in RapidRatings' reasonable discretion based on the nature of the circumstances giving rise to the suspension. RapidRatings will use reasonable efforts to re-establish the affected Subscription Services promptly after RapidRatings determines, in its reasonable discretion, that the situation giving rise to the suspension has been cured.

8.4 Effect of Termination. #### SECTION 9. GENERAL.

9.1 Marketing. Rapid Ratings may, in connection with the RapidRatings website, marketing, advertising, press release or other publicity, identify Customer as a customer of RapidRatings by use of Customer's name and trademark logo in a manner no more prominent than RapidRatings other customers, to the extent permitted by GSAR 552.203-71.

9.3 Force Majeure. Except as may be otherwise provided herein, this Agreement is subject to FAR 52.212-4 (f) Excusable delays. (JUN 2010).

9.4 Severability. If any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement should be ruled wholly or partly invalid or unenforceable, then the provisions held invalid or unenforceable will be deemed amended, and the court or other government body is authorized to reform the provision(s) to the minimum extent necessary to render them valid and enforceable in conformity with the Parties' intent as manifested herein.

All notices will be deemed effective upon delivery (or attempted delivery), except that electronic notification shall be deemed effective upon receipt acknowledgement by the receiving Party. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, all of which together will constitute the entire fully-executed instrument. If there is any conflict of terms between this Agreement and an Order Form, the Order Form will control for the subject matter of the Order Form. Facsimile, photocopy, or electronic signatures will be given the same effect as originals or ink signatures. The headings to Sections of this Agreement are for convenience or reference only and do not form a part of this Agreement and will not in any way affect its interpretation. All capitalized terms not defined in this Agreement are defined as set forth in the Order Form and vice versa. Neither Party will be afforded or denied preference in the construction of this Agreement, whether by virtue of being the drafter or otherwise. The terms "including", "includes", and "include" will be deemed to be followed by "without limitation".

9.6 Use by U.S. Government. The Subscription Services, including any Feedback or derivatives thereof, made available by RapidRatings under this Agreement may be subject to export control, procurement, and/or other laws and regulations of the United States and other jurisdictions applicable to government contractors. Customer agrees to comply with all applicable laws and regulations. Customer represents that it is not currently debarred, suspended, or proposed for debarment by any government entity, including U.S. federal, state, and local government entity. Customer specifically acknowledges that it must comply with all applicable export control laws and agrees that it shall not permit Users to access or use any Subscription Services in a U.S. embargoed country (currently Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, Syria or Crimea) or in violation of any U.S. export law or regulation. The Subscription Services provided by RapidRatings under this Agreement constitute a "commercial item," as defined at FAR 2.101 and FAR Part 12. Use of any RapidRatings software is restricted by the terms of this Agreement and, in accordance with FAR Section 12.212, is further restricted in accordance with the terms of RapidRatings' commercial end user license agreement/terms of use as displayed in the Subscription Services. Except as described herein, all other use is strictly prohibited. Neither Customer nor the government is entitled to the software's object code or source code.

9.7 Assignment. Neither Party shall assign, delegate, or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations under this Agreement, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other Party (to be granted or withheld in its reasonable discretion). This Agreement will be binding upon and will inure to the benefit of the Parties and their permitted successors and assigns.

9.8 Merger and Amendment. This Agreement (including the applicable Order Form(s), which are hereby incorporated herein) together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule price list and Purchase Order(s) constitutes the entire understanding and agreement, and supersedes any and all prior or contemporaneous representations, understandings, and agreements between the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, all of which are hereby merged into this Agreement. No amendment to this Agreement or waiver of any provision hereof will be valid or binding unless reduced to writing and duly executed by the Party or Parties to be bound thereby.

9.9 Waiver, Relationship, Third Parties. A Party's failure to enforce a right or remedy in this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of such right or remedy. Nothing contained in this Agreement will be deemed to create, or be construed as creating, a joint venture or partnership between the Parties. Neither Party is, by virtue of this Agreement or otherwise, authorized as an agent or legal representative of the other Party, except that Customer authorizes Rapid Ratings to collect information from third parties on Customer's behalf. There are no third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement.

EXHIBIT A

RapidRatings API Services Terms

Customer has requested access to RapidRatings application programming interface (API) and associated services and software (collectively, "API Services"). The API Services include a API that provides access to RapidRatings computed ratings and other computed quantitative metrics. The scope of data available using the API Services is as described in API Services Documentation. The API Services will facilitate Customer's extraction of Subscription Service content and data as defined in the Customer Agreement and the API Services Documentation. The scope of the Subscription Services, including the Subscription Reports of companies to which Customer may have access via the API Services, is additionally limited by applicable Order Form(s).

Customer agrees to these terms and conditions as fully incorporated into the Customer Agreement (the "API Services Terms"). If there is a conflict between these API Services Terms and the Customer Agreement, the API Services Terms will control only for the applicable API Services. All capitalized terms have the definitions as provided in the Customer Agreement above, unless otherwise expressly stated herein.

Section 1. API Services, Limitations.

1.1 API Services. According to the terms and conditions of these API Services Terms and any applicable Order Form, Customer may access and use the API Services. For clarity, the API Services are provided pursuant to the Subscription Services terms and restrictions in the Customer Agreement and the API Services are provided on a non-exclusive basis.

1.2 Access Limitations. Customer may allow any employee or contractor to view the API Services. However, any use of any other Subscription Services content, such as Subscription Reports, obtained through access or use of the API Services, is limited to valid Users of Customer. Customer will require Users to comply with (and not knowingly enable them to violate) applicable law, regulation, and the API Service Terms. Customer will only access (or attempt to access) the API Services by the means described in the Documentation. If RapidRatings assigns Customer any credentials (e.g. client IDs, tokens, etc.), Customer must use them with the applicable API Services per the Order Form and Documentation. Customer will not misrepresent or mask either Customer's or any User's identity or any Customer's API client identity when using the API Services.

1.3 Data Limitations. Customer agrees that data provided by RapidRatings through the API Services is provided on a company by company basis. All API Services queries shall be per permitted frequencies in the API Services Documentation and caching is not permitted, without the written consent of RapidRatings. Customer agrees that the API Services facilitate access and use of highly confidential third-party data that must be handled in accordance with the terms of these API Services Terms. Data must also be stored separately in the case of third-party application providers or data aggregators who are acting on behalf of (or contracted by) Customer to display the API Services. Customer understands that the API Services provide access to data that is deemed highly confidential by RapidRatings and third-parties. Customer further understands that release of this information may irreparably harm RapidRatings. Customer will use industry best-practices and comply with any applicable laws related to data security to prevent unauthorized access or use of the data available through the API Services.

1.4 Usage Limitations. RapidRatings may set and enforce limits on Customer's use of the API Services (e.g. limiting the number of API requests that Customer may make in a given interval or the data that is returned), in RapidRatings sole discretion. Customer agrees to not circumvent or disable any such limitations. If Customer intends to use the API Service beyond the limitations, Customer must obtain RapidRatings' express written consent. RapidRatings may decline such request or condition acceptance on Customer's agreement to additional terms and/or charges for that use. RapidRatings may request reasonable information regarding any third-party contractor of Customer performing integration services or other services related to the API Services. When using the API Services, Customer will not (and will not allow others acting on Customer's behalf to): a) sublicense the API Services for use by a third party, b) create an API Application that functions substantially the same as the API Services and offer it for use by third parties, c) perform an action or inaction with the intent of introducing any viruses, worms, defects, Trojan horses, malware, or any items of a destructive nature, d) use the API Services to defame, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten others, in violation of the law or industry self-regulatory rules or principles, e) interfere with or disrupt the API Services or the servers or networks providing the API Services, f) promote or facilitate online gambling, equities or derivatives trading of any kind, g) reverse engineer or attempt to extract the source code of the API Services, h) copy, translate, modify, create a derivative work of, sell, lease, lend, convey, distribute, publicly display, or sublicense to any third party any of the API Services content therefrom; i) use the API Services for any activities where the use or failure of the API Services could lead to death, personal injury, or environmental damage (such as the operation of nuclear facilities, air traffic control, or life support systems), or i) remove, obscure, or alter any RapidRatings terms of service or any communications or links to notices of those terms.

2.4 Linking. The API Services data must be displayed per the API Services Documentation, which RapidRatings reserves the right to update, modify, or change from time to time. Any third-party company name or data point displayed in the API Application using the API Services must be linked to a RapidRatings client portal. For example, if a link is provided with the RapidRatings FHR® data point, Customer will hyperlink the FHR data to the discrete URL provided.

Section 3. Communications.

3.1 Communication of Changes. RapidRatings may send Customer notices in connection with use of the API Services. These may contain important API Services changes that RapidRatings may make at its sole discretion that require action by Customer for uninterrupted API Services or Subscription Services access. While RapidRatings will work to ensure Customer is notified in advance of any such changes, Customer is responsible for evaluating whether a change affects the API Application. Customer is solely responsible for evaluating and reacting to these notices. RapidRatings makes no representation that API Services changes will not affect or disrupt the API Application. Any updates to this agreement or the API Services Terms or Documentation shall be presented to Customer for review and will not be effective unless and until both parties sign a written agreement updating the terms. If RapidRatings issues a new version of the API Services, Customer must update their API Services and RapidRatings will continue to support and maintain the previous version for no more than six (6) months. If Customer does not agree to the changes or updates, Customer should discontinue use of the API Services.

3.2 Confidential Communications. Customer credentials (such as passwords, keys, and client IDs) are intended to be used by Customer and to identify Customer's organization (entity), API Application, and other potentially unique or personally identifying information. EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Red Hat, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Affiliates. Red Hat and Client agree that Affiliates of Client may acquire Software and Services from Red Hat or its Affiliates by entering an Order Form with Red Hat (or a Red Hat Affiliate) that incorporates the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The parties acknowledge that adjustments to the terms of this Agreement may be made in a particular Order Form (for example, to address disparate tax and/or legal regimes in other geographic regions). “Affiliate” means an entity that owns or controls, is owned or controlled by, or is under common control or ownership with a party, where “control” is the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of an entity, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise.

Business Partners. Red Hat has entered into agreements with other organizations (“Business Partners”) to promote, market and support certain Software and Services. When Client purchases Software and Services through a Business Partner, Red Hat confirms that it is responsible for providing the Software and Services to Client under the terms of this Agreement. Red Hat is not responsible for (a) the actions of Business Partners, (b) any additional obligations Business Partners have to Client, or (c) any products or services that Business Partners supply to Client under any separate agreements between a Business Partner and Client.

Obligations of the Parties

On-Site Obligations. If Red Hat personnel are working on Client's premises (a)

Client will provide a safe and secure working environment for Red Hat personnel, and (b) Red Hat will comply with all reasonable workplace safety and security standards and policies, applicable to Client's employees, of which Red Hat is notified in writing by Client in advance.

Changes to Work and Delays. Changes to the Services will be made only through a written change order signed by both parties. In the event that (a) Client fails to timely fulfill its obligations under an Order Form, and this failure adversely impacts the provision of Services, or (b) events outside of either party's reasonable control cause a delay in or otherwise affect Red Hat's ability to perform its obligations under an Order Form, Red Hat will be entitled to appropriate relief, including adjusting the timing of its delivery of applicable Services.

Assistance. Client may provide Red Hat access to Client information, systems, and software (“Client Information”), and resources such as workspace, network access, and telephone connections as reasonably required by Red Hat in order to provide the Services. Client understands and agrees that (a) the completeness, accuracy of, and extent of access to, any Client Information provided to Red Hat may affect Red Hat's ability to provide Services, and (b) if reasonable access to Client Information is not provided, Red Hat will be relieved from providing any Services dependent upon such access. Client will obtain any third party consents necessary to grant Red Hat access to the Client Information that is subject to the proprietary rights of, or controlled by, any third party, or which is subject to any other form of restriction upon disclosure.

Payment

Fees and Expenses. Fees for the Services (the “Fees”) will be identified in an Order Form and are (a) due upon Red Hat's acceptance of an Order Form or, for renewal of Services, at the start of the renewal term, and (b) payable in accordance with Section 3.2. Fees are stated in United States Dollars, must be paid in United States Dollars, and, unless otherwise specified in writing, do not include out-of-pocket expenses or shipping costs. Client will reimburse Red Hat for all reasonable expenses Red Hat incurs in connection with the performance of Services. Client agrees to pay Red Hat the applicable Fees for each Unit. “Unit” is the measurement of Software or Service usage defined in the applicable Order Form. Any renewal of Subscription Services will be at the same price per Unit listed in the applicable Order Form. “Subscription Services” mean feebearing subscriptions for a defined period of time for a certain scope of Services.

Invoices

If Client desires credit terms with respect to the payment of Fees, Client will reasonably cooperate with Red Hat in establishing and periodically re-confirming Client's credit-worthiness. If credit terms are provided to Client, Red Hat will invoice Client for the Fees upon Red Hat's acceptance of the applicable Order Form and upon acceptance of any future order. Unless otherwise specified in an Order Form and subject to Red Hat's approval of credit terms, Client will pay Fees and expenses, if any, no later than thirty (30) days from the date of each invoice; provided, however, that Fees for professional services, training, training credits and other service credits are due prior to delivery. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any and all payments made by Client pursuant to this Agreement are non-refundable. Red Hat reserves the right to suspend or cancel performance of all or part of the Services and/or change its credit terms if actual payment has not been received within thirty (30) days of the invoice date.

If Client is paying by credit card, Client (a) authorizes Red Hat to charge Client's credit card for the Services and for the amount due at the time of renewal of Subscription Services, and (b) agrees to provide updated credit card information to Red Hat for renewal purposes.

Taxes. All Fees are exclusive of Taxes. Client will pay Red Hat an amount equal to any Taxes arising from or relating to this Agreement or an applicable Order Form which are paid by or are payable by Red Hat. “Taxes” means any form of sales, use, value added or other form of taxation and any fines, penalties, surcharges or interest, but excluding any taxes based solely on the net income of Red Hat. If Client is required to withhold or deduct any portion of the payments due to Red Hat, Client will increase the sum payable to Red Hat by the amount necessary so that Red Hat receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had Client made no withholdings or deductions.

License and Ownership

Software. Each type of Software is governed by a license grant or an end user license agreement, which license terms are contained or referenced in the appendices to this Agreement or the applicable Order Form.

Freedom to Use Ideas. Subject to Section 9 and Client's rights in Client Information and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or an Order Form, the ideas, methods, concepts, know-how, structures, techniques, inventions, developments, processes, discoveries, improvements and other information and materials developed in and during the course of any Order Form may be used by Red Hat, without an obligation to account, in any way Red Hat deems appropriate, including by or for itself or its clients or customers.

Marks. Unless expressly stated in an Order Form, no right or license, express or implied, is granted in this Agreement for the use of any Red Hat, Red Hat Affiliate, Client or third party trade names, service marks or trademarks, including, without limitation, the distribution of the Software utilizing any Red Hat or Red Hat Affiliate trademarks.

Reporting and Inspection

Reporting. Client will notify Red Hat (or the Business Partner from whom Client purchased Software or Services) promptly if the actual number of Units of Software or Services utilized by Client exceeds the number of Units for which Client has paid the applicable Fees. In its notice, Client will include the number of additional Units and the date(s) on which such Units were first utilized. Red Hat (or the Business Partner) will invoice Client for the applicable Services for such Units and Client will pay for such Services no later than thirty (30) days from the date of the invoice.

Inspection. During the term of this Agreement and for one (1) year thereafter, Red Hat or its designated agent may inspect Client's facilities and records to verify Client's compliance with this Agreement. Any such inspection will take place only during Client's normal business hours and upon no less than ten (10) days prior written notice from Red Hat. Red Hat will give Client written notice of any noncompliance, including the number of underreported Units of Software or Services, and Client will have fifteen (15) days from the date of this notice to make payment to Red Hat for the applicable Services provided with respect to the underreported Units. If Client underreports the number of Units utilized by more than five percent (5%) of the number of Units for which Client paid, Client will also pay Red Hat for the cost of such inspection.

Term and Termination

Term and Termination of Agreement. The term of this Agreement will begin on the Effective Date and will terminate at the expiration of ninety (90) days following written notice of termination given by one party to the other. Termination of this Agreement will not operate to terminate any Order Form and the terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect to the extent necessary to give effect to any Order Form in effect at the time of termination of this Agreement and until such time as the applicable Order Form expires or is terminated in accordance with Section 6.2 below.

Term and Termination of Order Form

The term of an Order Form begins on the date the Order Form is executed (“Order Form Effective Date”) and continues for the term stated in the Order Form. Thereafter, the term for Subscription Services will automatically renew for successive terms of one (1) year each, unless either party gives written notice to the other of its intention not to renew at least sixty (60) days before the commencement of the next renewal term. Client must use any other Services set forth in an Order Form during the term specified in the Order Form or within one (1) year of the Order Form Effective Date, whichever is shorter; if unused, such Services will be forfeited.

If Client or Red Hat materially breaches the terms of an Order Form, and such breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice of the breach is given to the breaching party, then the other party may, by giving written notice of termination to the breaching party, terminate the applicable Order Form and/or this Agreement; provided, however, that no cure period will be required for a breach of Section 9 of this Agreement. The termination of an individual Order Form will not terminate any other Order Form or this Agreement unless otherwise specified in the written notice of termination. Without prejudice to any other right or remedy of Red Hat, in the event either party terminates an Order Form, Client will pay Red Hat (or the Business Partner from whom Client purchased such Software or Services) for all Services provided up to the effective date of termination.

Survival. If this Agreement or an Order Form is terminated for any reason, Sections 3, 4, 5.2, 6.3, 7, 8, 9, 10.2, 12, 13.1, 13.5-13.14, and 14 of this Agreement (as the same are incorporated into each Order Form) will survive such termination.

Continuing Business

Nothing in this Agreement will preclude or limit Red Hat from providing software, materials, or services for itself or other clients, irrespective of the possible similarity of such software, materials or services to those that might be delivered to Client. The terms of confidentiality in Section 9 will not prohibit or restrict either party's right to develop, use or market products or services similar to or competitive with the other party; provided, however, that neither party is relieved of its obligations under this Agreement.

Limitation of Liability and Disclaimer of Damages

Limitation of Liability. FOR ALL EVENTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES, RED HAT AND ITS AFFILIATES' AGGREGATE AND CUMULATIVE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND ALL ORDER FORMS, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ON ACCOUNT OF PERFORMANCE OR NON-PERFORMANCE OF OBLIGATIONS, REGARDLESS OF THE FORM OF THE CAUSE OF ACTION, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, NEGLIGENCE), STATUTE OR OTHERWISE WILL BE LIMITED TO DIRECT DAMAGES AND WILL NOT EXCEED THE AMOUNTS RECEIVED BY RED HAT DURING TWELVE (12) MONTHS IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE FIRST EVENT GIVING RISE TO LIABILITY, WITH RESPECT TO THE PARTICULAR ITEMS (WHETHER SOFTWARE, SERVICES OR OTHERWISE) GIVING RISE TO LIABILITY UNDER THE MOST APPLICABLE ORDERING DOCUMENT.

8.2 Disclaimer of Damages. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY CONTAINED IN THIS AGREEMENT OR AN ORDER FORM, IN NO EVENT WILL RED HAT OR ITS AFFILIATES BE LIABLE TO CLIENT OR ITS AFFILIATES FOR DAMAGES OTHER THAN DIRECT DAMAGES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION: ANY INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, INDIRECT, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, WHETHER ARISING IN TORT, CONTRACT, OR OTHERWISE; OR ANY DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH ANY MALFUNCTIONS, REGULATORY NON-COMPLIANCE, DELAYS, LOSS OF DATA, LOST PROFITS, LOST SAVINGS, INTERRUPTION OF SERVICE, LOSS OF BUSINESS OR ANTICIPATORY PROFITS, EVEN IF RED HAT OR ITS AFFILIATES HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. LIABILITY FOR THESE DAMAGES WILL BE LIMITED AND EXCLUDED EVEN IF ANY EXCLUSIVE REMEDY PROVIDED FOR IN THIS AGREEMENT FAILS OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE.

Confidentiality

Obligations. During the term of this Agreement, both parties agree that (i) Confidential Information will be used only in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; (ii) each will use the same degree of care it utilizes to protect its own confidential information, but in no event less than reasonable care; and (iii) the Confidential Information may be disclosed only to employees, agents and contractors with a need to know, and to its auditors and legal counsel, in each case, who are under a written obligation to keep such information confidential using standards of confidentiality not less restrictive than those required by this Agreement. Both parties agree that obligations of confidentiality will exist for a period of two (2) years following initial disclosure of the particular Confidential Information. “Confidential Information” means all information disclosed by either Red Hat or Client (“Disclosing Party”) to the other party (“Recipient”) during the term of this Agreement that is either (i) marked confidential or (ii) disclosed orally and described as confidential at the time of disclosure and subsequently set forth in writing, marked confidential, and sent to the Recipient within thirty (30) days following the oral disclosure.

Exclusions. Confidential Information will not include information which: (i) is or later becomes publicly available without breach of this Agreement, or is disclosed by the Disclosing Party without obligation of confidentiality; (ii) is known to the Recipient at the time of disclosure by the Disclosing Party; (iii) is independently developed by the Recipient without use of the Confidential Information; (iv) becomes lawfully known or available to the Recipient without restriction from a source having the lawful right to disclose the information; (v) is generally known or easily ascertainable by parties of ordinary skill in the business of the Recipient; or (vi) is software code in either object code or source code form that is licensed under an open source license. The Recipient will not be prohibited from complying with disclosure mandated by applicable law if, where reasonably practicable and without breaching any legal or regulatory requirement, it gives the Disclosing Party advance notice of the disclosure requirement.

Representations and Warranties

General Representations and Warranties. Red Hat represents and warrants that: (a) the Services will be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner by qualified personnel; (b) it has the authority to enter into this Agreement with Client; and (c) to Red Hat's knowledge, Red Hat branded Software does not, at the time of delivery to Client, include malicious or hidden mechanisms or code for the purpose of damaging or corrupting the Software.

Disclaimer of Warranty. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN SECTION 10.1 OR BY A THIRD PARTY VENDOR DIRECTLY TO CLIENT UNDER A SEPARATE AGREEMENT, THE SERVICES, SOFTWARE AND ANY HARDWARE ARE PROVIDED BY RED HAT “AS IS” AND WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, INCLUDING THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, NON-INFRINGEMENT, AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. RED HAT DOES NOT GUARANTEE OR WARRANT THAT THE USE OF THE SERVICES, SOFTWARE OR HARDWARE WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED, COMPLY WITH REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS, BE ERROR FREE OR THAT RED HAT WILL CORRECT ALL SOFTWARE ERRORS. FOR THE BREACH OF THE WARRANTIES SET FORTH IN SECTION 10.1, CLIENT'S

EXCLUSIVE REMEDY, AND RED HAT'S ENTIRE LIABILITY, WILL BE THE REPERFORMANCE OF DEFICIENT SERVICES, OR IF RED HAT CANNOT SUBSTANTIALLY CORRECT A BREACH IN A COMMERCIALY REASONABLE MANNER, CLIENT MAY TERMINATE THE RELEVANT SERVICES AND RECEIVE A PRO RATA REFUND OF THE FEES PAID FOR THE DEFICIENT SERVICES AS OF THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF

TERMINATION. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing disclaimer, the Software, Services and any hardware provided are not specifically designed, manufactured or intended for use in (a) the planning, construction, maintenance, control, or direct operation of nuclear facilities, (b) aircraft navigation, control or communication systems, weapons systems, or (c) direct life support systems. Client agrees that it is solely responsible for the results obtained from the use of the Software and Services.

Open Source Assurance Program

For Software that is Red Hat branded, purchases under this Agreement may entitle Client to participate in Red Hat's Open Source Assurance Program which is described at www.redhat.com/rhel/details/assurance/. The terms for this optional program are subject to a separate agreement which can be viewed at www.redhat.com/legal/open\_source\_assurance\_agreement.html.

Governing Law/Consent to Jurisdiction

The validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States and of the State of New York without giving effect to the conflicts of laws provisions thereof or the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods. All disputes arising out of or relating to this Agreement will be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state or federal courts of competent jurisdiction located in Raleigh, North Carolina, and each party irrevocably consents to such personal jurisdiction and waives all objections to this venue. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal or state laws or regulations are enacted, it will not apply to this Agreement, and the governing law will remain as if such law or regulation had not been enacted.

Miscellaneous

Notices. Notices must be in English, in writing, and will be deemed given when delivered by hand or five (5) days after being sent using a method that provides for positive confirmation of delivery to the respective addresses or facsimile numbers indicated in an Order Form; provided that any notice from Client to Red Hat includes a copy sent to: Red Hat, Inc., Attention: General Counsel, 100 East Davie Street, Raleigh, North Carolina 27601; Facsimile: (919) 754-3704.

Assignment. This Agreement is binding on the parties to this Agreement, and other than the rights conferred on Business Partners in Sections 5.1 and 6.2.2, nothing in this Agreement or in any Order Form grants any other person or entity any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever, except for the parties' Affiliates as expressly provided in this Agreement. This Agreement is assignable by either party only with the other party's prior written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided, however, either party may, upon written notice and without the prior approval of the other party, (a) assign this Agreement to an Affiliate as long as the Affiliate has sufficient credit to satisfy its obligations under this Agreement and the scope of Service is not affected; and (b) assign this Agreement pursuant to a merger or a sale of all or substantially all of such party's assets or stock.

Independent Contractor. Red Hat is an independent contractor and nothing in this Agreement or related to Red Hat's performance of any Order Form will be construed to create an employment or agency relationship between Client (or any Client personnel) and Red Hat (or any Red Hat personnel). Each party will be solely responsible for supervision, direction, control and payment of its personnel, including applicable taxes, deductions, other payments and benefits. Red Hat may subcontract Services under an Order Form to third parties or Affiliates without the approval of Client; provided, however, that (a) subcontractors agree to protect Client Confidential Information, and (b) Red Hat remains responsible to Client for performance of its obligations hereunder.

Force Majeure. Neither party will be liable for nonperformance or delays caused by acts of God, wars, riots, strikes, fires, floods, hurricanes, earthquakes, government restrictions, terrorist acts or other causes beyond its reasonable control.

Non-solicitation. Client agrees not to solicit or hire any personnel of Red Hat involved with the delivery of Services in connection with any Order Form during the term of and for twelve (12) months after termination or expiration of such Order Form; provided that Client may hire an individual employed by Red Hat who, without other solicitation, responds to advertisements or solicitations aimed at the general public.

Export and Privacy. Red Hat may supply Client with technical data that is subject to export control restrictions. Red Hat will not be responsible for compliance by Client with applicable export obligations or requirements for this technical data. Client agrees to comply with all applicable export control restrictions. If Client breaches this Section 13.6 or the export provisions of an applicable end user license agreement for the Software, or any provision referencing these sections, Red Hat may terminate this Agreement and/or the applicable Order Form and its obligations thereunder without liability to Client. Client acknowledges and agrees that to provide the Services, it may be necessary for Client Information to be transferred between Red Hat, its Affiliates, Business Partners, and/or subcontractors, which may be located worldwide.

Dispute Resolution. Each party agrees to give the other a written description of any problem(s) that may arise and to make a good faith effort to amicably resolve any such problem before commencing any proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may take any action reasonably required to protect such party's rights. No claim or action, regardless of form, arising out of this Agreement or an Order Form may be brought by either party more than one (1) year after the cause of action has accrued.

Headings. All headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for identification and convenience and will not be deemed part of this Agreement for purposes of interpretation.

Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason but would be valid and enforceable if appropriately modified, then such provision will apply with the modification necessary to make it valid and enforceable. If such provision cannot be so modified, the parties agree that such invalidity will not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of the Agreement.

Waiver. The delay or failure of either party to exercise any rights under this Agreement will not constitute or be deemed a waiver or forfeiture of such rights. No waiver will be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the party against whom such waiver is sought to be enforced.

Complete Agreement. Each Order Form (a) is a separate agreement and is deemed to incorporate this Agreement, unless otherwise expressly provided in that Order Form; (b) constitutes the exclusive terms and conditions with respect to the subject matter of that Order Form, notwithstanding any different or additional terms that may be contained in the form of purchase order or other document used by Client to place orders or otherwise effect transactions under this Agreement; and (c) represents the final, complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between the parties with respect thereto, notwithstanding any prior written agreements or prior and contemporaneous oral agreements with respect to the subject matter of the Order Form. In the event of any conflict between this Agreement, any Order Form and any end user license agreement for Software, this Agreement will take precedence unless otherwise expressly provided in the Order Form.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, any applicable end user license agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of New York and of the United States, without regard to any conflict of laws provisions. Any claim relating to the provision of the Services by Red Hat, its Affiliates or their respective personnel will be made against Red Hat alone.

Amendment. Neither this Agreement nor any Order Form may be amended or modified except in a writing signed by the parties, which writing makes specific reference to this Agreement or the applicable Order Form.

Counterparts and Facsimile Signature. In the event this Agreement is executed with signatures, this Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original and all of which will constitute one and the same document. The parties may exchange signature pages by facsimile and such signatures will be effective to bind the parties to all the terms contained in this Agreement.

United States Government End Users. The Software and its documentation are "Commercial items," "Commercial computer software" and "Computer software documentation" as defined by the Federal Acquisition Regulations ("FAR") and Defense Federal Acquisition Regulations Supplement ("DFARS"). Pursuant to FAR 12.211, FAR 12.212, DFARS, 227.7202-1 through 227.7202-4, and their successors, the U.S. Government acquires the Software and its documentation subject to the terms of this Agreement.

Waiver of Jury Trial

TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EACH PARTY WAIVES THE RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

PRODUCT APPENDIX 1 SOFTWARE AND SUPPORT SUBSCRIPTIONS

This Product Appendix (which includes Exhibits applicable to specific Red Hat Products) contains terms that describe the parameters and govern your use of Software Subscriptions and Support Subscriptions. This Product Appendix does not apply to Red Hat hosted or on- line subscription offerings. When we use a capitalized term in this Product Appendix without defining it, the term has the meaning defined in the Agreement to which this Product Appendix applies, such as the Red Hat Enterprise Agreement. In the event of a conflict, inconsistency or difference between this Product Appendix and an Exhibit to this Product Appendix, the terms of the Exhibit control.

Red Hat may modify or update this Product Appendix either by posting a revised version of this Product Appendix at <http://www.redhat.com/agreements>, and/or by providing notice using other reasonable means. If you do not agree to the updated terms then, (a) the existing Product Appendix will continue to apply to Red Hat Products you have purchased as of the date of the update for the remainder of the then-current Subscription term(s); and (b) the updated or modified terms will apply to any new purchases or renewals of Red Hat Products made after the effective date of the updated terms.

This Product Appendix does not apply to generally available open source projects such as www.wildfly.org, www.feedhenry.org, www.fedoraproject.org, www.openstack.redhat.com, www.gluster.org, www.centos.org, Ansible Project Software or other community projects.

1. SUBSCRIPTION SERVICES

1.1 Subscription Unit Definitions. Fees for Subscription Services are based on metrics that are referred to as “Units”. Table 1.1 below defines the various Units that are used to measure your use of Software Subscriptions. The specific Units that apply to the various Software Subscriptions are contained in the Order Form(s) applicable to your purchases and in the Exhibit(s).

Unit	Software Subscription Unit Definitions
API Call	is one inbound message to your API backend server and a response, if any, from the server.

1.2 Use of Subscription Services.

Basis of the Fees. While you have Subscriptions entitling you to receive Subscription Services for a Red Hat Product, you are required to purchase the applicable Software Subscriptions and Support Subscriptions in a quantity equal to the total number and capacity of Units of that Red Hat Product. For purposes of counting Units, Units include (a) non-Red Hat Products if you are using Subscription Services to support or maintain such non-Red Hat Products and (b) versions or copies of the Software with the Red Hat trademark(s) and/or logo file(s) removed.

Supported Use Cases. Subscription Services are provided for Software only when used for Supported Use Cases as described in the Exhibits to this Product Appendix. The Supported Use Case(s) associated with a Red Hat Product also determine the type of Subscription that is required. If your use of any aspect of the Subscription Services is contrary to or conflicts with a Supported Use Case, you are responsible for purchasing the appropriate Subscription(s) to cover such usage. For example, if you are using a Red Hat Enterprise Linux Desktop Subscription on a System that is a server, you are obligated to purchase Red Hat Enterprise Linux Server Subscription Services.

Support Levels. You agree not to use Software Subscriptions with support service levels (e.g. Standard and/or Premium) higher than the support levels (e.g. Self-support and/or Standard) you have purchased.

Transferring Subscriptions. You may transfer, migrate or otherwise move Software Subscriptions provided you are accountable for the number and types of Units associated with the Software Subscriptions.

Scope of Use of Subscription Services. The Agreement (including pricing) is premised on the understanding that you will use Subscription Services only for your internal use (which may include Affiliates). Your internal use may include running a web site and/or offering your own software as a service, provided that such use (a) does not include a distribution, sale or resale of any of the Subscription Services and (b) provides as the primary component of the web site or service a material value added application other than the Subscription Services. However, providing the Subscription Services to, or using them for the benefit of, a third party (for example, using Subscription Services to provide hosting services, managed services, Internet service provider (ISP) services, or third party access to or use of the Subscription Services) is a material breach of the Agreement.

Use by Contractors. Subscription Services may be used by third parties acting on your behalf, such as contractors or outsourcing vendors provided (i) you remain fully responsible for all of your obligations under the Agreement and this Product Appendix and for the activities and omissions of the third parties and (ii) in the case of a migration to a third party cloud or hosting provider, you are qualified for and comply with the terms of the Red Hat Cloud Access program as set forth in Section 3 below.

Unauthorized Use of Subscription Services. Any unauthorized use of the Subscription Services is a material breach of the Agreement, such as (a) only purchasing or renewing Subscription Services based on some, but not all, of the total number of Units, (b) splitting or applying one Software Subscription to two or more Units, (c) providing Subscription Services (in whole or in part) to third parties, (d) using Subscription Services in connection with any redistribution of Software and/or (e) using Subscription Services to support or maintain any non-Red Hat Software products without purchasing Subscription Services for each such instance.

Subscription Start Date. Unless otherwise agreed in an Order Form, Subscription Services will begin on the earlier of the date you purchase or first use the Subscription Services.

End User and Open Source License Agreements. The Red Hat Products are governed by the EULAs set forth at www.redhat.com/licenses/eulas. Software Subscriptions and Subscription Services are term-based and will expire if not renewed. This Agreement establishes the rights and obligations associated with Subscription Services and is not intended to limit your rights to software code under the terms of an open source license.

Red Hat Software Subscription Bundles. Red Hat offers combinations of Software Subscriptions with complimentary feature sets and price discounts (“Bundle(s)”). The basis of the fees for these Bundles is the combined use of such Software Subscriptions on a single Unit. When any of the combined Software Subscriptions are used independently from the Bundle, the fees for such independent usage will be Red Hat’s standard fees associated with the Unit for the particular Software Subscription.

2. SUBSCRIPTION SERVICE SUPPORT TERMS

2.1 Evaluations. Red Hat may offer Evaluation Subscriptions for evaluation and not for Production Purposes. Evaluation Subscriptions may be provided with limited or no support and/or subject to other limitations. If you use the Evaluation Subscription(s) for any purpose other than evaluation, you are in violation of this Agreement and are required to pay the applicable subscription fees for such use in accordance with Section 1 above, in addition to any and all other remedies available to Red Hat.

2.2 Support from a Business Partner. If you purchase Software Subscriptions that include support provided by an authorized Red Hat Business Partner (not by Red Hat) then Section 2.3 does not apply to you and you should work with your Business Partner to obtain support services. Section 2.3 only applies if you have purchased Software Subscriptions with Support provided by Red Hat.

2.3 Support from Red Hat.

Development Support. Certain Software Subscriptions include Development Support. “Development Support” consists of assistance with architecture, design, development, prototyping, installation, usage, problem diagnosis and bug fixes, in each case, for the applicable Software when used for Development Purposes. Requests for deployment and maintenance assistance and/or assistance for Production Purposes are not included within the scope of Development Support, but may be available on a consulting basis under the terms of a separate agreement.

Production Support. Certain Software Subscriptions include Production Support. “Production Support” consists of assistance with installation, application testing, usage, problem diagnosis and bug fixes, in each case, for the applicable Software when used for Production Purposes. Production Support does not include assistance with (i) code development, system design, network design, architectural design, optimizations, tuning recommendations, development or implementation of security rules or policies, (ii) third party software made available with Red Hat Software, (iii) software on the supplementary, optional or Extra Packages for Enterprise Linux (“EPEL”) channels and/or (iv) preview technologies.

Support Coverage. Support is provided in the English language but may be available in other languages based on available resources. Red Hat does not provide support for (a) any underlying infrastructure or for any third party products; (b) Software that (i) you (or a third party) have modified or recompiled, (ii) is running on hardware or platforms that are not Supported Configurations or (iii) is not running in its Supported Use Case. You are responsible for testing the Software before deploying it in your environment, backing up your systems on a regular basis and having those backups available if needed for support purposes. Except as otherwise expressly stated, Support does not include data migration or data recovery support.

Service Level Guidelines. Red Hat will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Support at one or more of the following support levels, depending on the Red Hat Product: Self-support, Standard or Premium, as set forth at <https://access.redhat.com/support/offerings/production/sla>. After the initial response to a support request, Red Hat will provide status updates on the issue consistent with the update guidelines applicable to the Severity Level (which may be downgraded to a lower Severity Level during the course of resolving the support request) until the issue is resolved or the parties agree on an alternative update schedule.

Obtaining Support. To receive Support, you must provide Red Hat with sufficient information to validate your entitlement to the relevant Support. Certain Support is provided only during Red Hat's local standard business hours. You may contact Red Hat through your designated Support Contacts. You may designate up to the number of contacts described at <https://access.redhat.com/support/offerings/production/contacts> based on the number of Standard and Premium Software Subscriptions you have purchased (other than for Academic Edition Customers with Campus Wide Subscriptions which are based on the number of FTEs).

2.4 Software Subscription Lifecycle. During the life cycle of Software, the scope of Software Maintenance and Support evolves and, after a number of years, we discontinue Software Maintenance and Support for older versions of Software. The life cycle for Software Maintenance and Production is described at https://access.redhat.com/support/policy/update\_policies.html and, in certain instances, in the Exhibit(s). For certain versions of Software, you may purchase Extended Update Support ("EUS") and/or Extended Life Cycle Support ("ELS") Add-On Subscription(s) to extend your Subscription Services as further described at <https://access.redhat.com/support/policy/updates/errata/>, provided EUS Subscriptions are included in certain Software Subscriptions.

3. CLOUD ACCESS: DEPLOYING SOFTWARE SUBSCRIPTIONS IN A PUBLIC CLOUD

3.1 Transferring Eligible Subscriptions to a Cloud. You may transfer Eligible Subscriptions for use in a Vendor's Cloud under the Cloud Access program if you (a) complete the registration set forth at <https://engage.redhat.com/forms/cloud-access-registration> and (b) have a sufficient number of Eligible Subscriptions to transfer. For Eligible Subscriptions that you purchased for on-premises use and transfer to a Vendor's Cloud, the Unit of measurement will be the Unit as set forth in the conversion table located at <http://www.redhat.com/en/technologies/cloud-computing/cloud-access>. For Eligible Subscriptions that were originally purchased for use in a Vendor's Cloud, no conversion is required. The number of concurrent Units used under the Cloud Access program in the Vendor Cloud may not exceed the total number of Units (a) transferred from Eligible Subscriptions and/or (b) purchased for use in a Vendor Cloud. The transfer of Software Subscription(s) to a Vendor's Cloud via Cloud Access does not change the start date or the duration of the original Software Subscription(s). This means that when your Software Subscription expires, your access to the Software Subscription in the Vendor's Cloud will cease, unless renewed.

3.2 Cloud Usage Reporting. You consent to the Vendor reporting to Red Hat your usage of Red Hat Software Subscriptions in the Vendor's Cloud.

3.3 Public Cloud Terms of Service. Through the Cloud Access program, you may obtain access to Software images and/or updates to the Software, if and when available, either (a) via new images obtained from the Vendor's Cloud or (b) from a Red Hat Portal. Certain information (such as Software related notices) may only be available to you via the Red Hat Portal. Payments to Red Hat for Software Subscriptions do not include any fees that may be due to the Vendor for the Vendor's Cloud services. Red Hat is not a party to your agreement with the Vendor and is not responsible for providing access to the Vendor's Cloud or performing any other obligations of the Vendor. The Vendor is solely responsible and liable for the Vendor's Cloud. Red Hat may have a support relationship with the Vendor that enables Red Hat and the Vendor to collaborate and you consent to (i) Red Hat discussing your Software Subscriptions and related Support with the Vendor and (ii) Red Hat and the Vendor sharing information for the purpose of providing Services. Red Hat will provide Support to you for each Eligible Subscription pursuant to this Agreement. Certain software components or functionality of the Software contained in the original Software Subscription (or Add-on Subscription) may not be available or supported when used in the Vendor's Cloud.

3.4 Vendor Specific Services. Vendors may offer other services, offerings or commitments related to their Clouds, which may include the provision of services by US only personnel, compliance with various legal regimes or other Vendor Cloud specific obligations. Notwithstanding what may be offered by a Vendor, the Software Subscriptions are not provided subject to the terms of those Vendor offerings, and any Vendor offerings solely relate to the Cloud itself and not to the Software Subscriptions operated on the Cloud. As between Red Hat and you, you are solely responsible for complying with any applicable export laws or regulations related to your use of the Software Subscriptions and you agree not to transmit information, data or technology governed by the International Traffic in Arms Regulations to Red Hat in the course of your use of the Software Subscriptions.

3.5 Vendor Termination. Red Hat may terminate the availability of a particular Vendor that offers Cloud Access with sixty (60) day notice, provided you may continue to use any Software Subscription for the remainder of the term of the Software Subscription on another Vendor's Cloud or on your premises under the terms of this Agreement.

2. Red Hat Enterprise Linux Server Add-Ons

Red Hat Enterprise Linux Server Subscriptions may be purchased with one or more optional Add-On Subscriptions. Add-On Subscriptions require a separate paid and active Software Subscription for each Unit that deploys, installs, uses or executes such Add-On. Each Unit of an Add-On Subscription (i) must match the Unit of Measure and capacity of the underlying Red Hat Enterprise Linux Unit and (ii) inherits the Support Level of the underlying Red Hat Enterprise Linux Unit. Add-On Subscriptions are not supported on Red Hat Enterprise Linux Subscriptions with a Self-support service level except Smart Management Add-Ons.

Red Hat Enterprise Linux ELS Software Maintenance is limited to those Software updates that Red Hat considers, in the exercise of its sole judgment, to be (a) critical impact security fixes independent of customer support requests and (b) selected urgent priority defect fixes that are available and qualified for a subset of the packages in specific major releases of Red Hat Enterprise Linux beyond the end of its regular production cycles. The Red Hat Enterprise Linux ELS stream will be maintained for an additional period of time immediately after the end-date of the regular production cycles of the relevant release as set forth at <https://access.redhat.com/support/policy/updates/errata/>. Red Hat will only provide one code base for Red Hat Enterprise Linux ELS and will not make functional enhancements to versions of Red Hat Enterprise Linux during the ELS cycle.

3. Red Hat Ansible Tower and Red Hat Ansible Engine Subscriptions

The Red Hat Ansible Tower offering consists of the Red Hat branded graphical application and REST API, designed for use with (i) Red Hat Ansible Engine or Ansible Project Software. Red Hat Ansible Tower does not include the Ansible Project. “Ansible Engine” means the installed package, which consists of the connection plugins, inventory plugins, fact plugins, Ansible-playbook language and directives, core modules, and other miscellaneous core or plugins provided in the package. “Ansible Project Software” means the community version of the Ansible deployment and configuration management engine.

Red Hat Ansible Engine Subscriptions provide access to additional software components (Certified Components and Community Components) with varying levels or no support as set forth at <https://access.redhat.com/articles/3166901> (“Ansible Support Matrix”). “Certified Components” means third party components listed on the Ansible Support Matrix and maintained by such third party. “Community Components” means components (e.g., modules, plugins...etc.) that are created and submitted by community members. Red Hat will provide limited assistance for Certified Components solely to the extent required to run Red Hat Ansible Engine and/or Red Hat Ansible Tower Software but otherwise does not provide Support or Software Maintenance for Certified Components or Community Components.

3.1 Units of Measure and Purchasing Requirements. Table 3 sets forth the Unit of measure and Supported Use Cases for Red Hat Ansible Engine and Red Hat Ansible Tower Software. You must purchase the appropriate number and type of these Subscriptions based on the Unit and other parameters described in Table 3 below.

Red Hat Ansible Tower	Managed Node	Red Hat only provides Subscription Services for this Software (a) when used on a system that is a server, (b) on platforms that are Supported Platforms (set forth at:
Software Subscription	Unit	Supported Use Case
		http://docs.ansible.com/ansible-tower/latest/html/quickinstall/prepare.html#prerequisites http://docs.ansible.com/ansible-tower/latest/html/quickinstall/prepare.html - prerequisites and requirements) and (c) that is within the supported Ansible Tower Life Cycle. Support of Red Hat Ansible Tower Software does not include Subscription Services for Ansible Engine or Ansible Project Software. Red Hat may provide assistance with Ansible Project Software, solely to the extent required to run Red Hat Ansible Tower Software.
Red Hat Ansible Engine	Managed Node	Red Hat Subscriptions Services for this Software is limited to Support for the Ansible Engine and components that make-up the Ansible Engine. Red Hat provides Subscription Services for Software (a) on systems that are Supported Platforms, (b) modules identified via Section 4 above, and (c) that is within the supported Red Hat Ansible Engine Life Cycle. The Support of Ansible Engine does not include the creation, maintenance, support, or services related to customer playbooks, and/or roles or Ansible Project Software.

3.2 Data Analytics. Red Hat Ansible Tower Software versions 2.4 or later may collect and transmit usability data (including information identifying the source of that data) to Red Hat. Red Hat intends to use the data to enhance future releases of the Red Hat Ansible Tower Software and help streamline customer experience and success. Usability data includes information such as dashboard items clicked in the Tower Software, amount of time spent on individual pages and paths taken throughout the Red Hat Ansible Tower Software. Usability data is collected and transmitted to Red Hat via a javascript file that is downloaded to a customer’s web-browser. The collection and transmission of such usability data is optional and you may (a) completely opt-out by editing the Red Hat Ansible Tower Software configuration and restarting the Red Hat Ansible Tower Software, or (b) choose between two opt-in scenarios: (i) “anonymous mode” that will provide usability data to Red Hat without any information identifying the source of that data, or (ii) “detail mode” that will provide usability data with the customer name to Red Hat. For Red Hat Ansible Tower Software (versions 2.4 or later) you may opt-out from usability data collection and transmission by following the directions found at: http://docs.ansible.com/ansible-tower/latest/html/administration/usability\_data\_collection.html

3.3 Red Hat Ansible Tower and Red Hat Ansible Engine Software Life Cycle. The supported life cycle for Red Hat Ansible Engine and Red Hat Ansible Tower Software are set forth at: https://access.redhat.com/support/policy/update\_policies.

3.4 Red Hat Ansible Engine Networking Add-On

Red Hat Ansible Engine Networking Add-On provides Support to networking modules listed on the Ansible Support Matrix. You are required to purchase a Unit of Red Hat Ansible Engine Networking Add-On for each Red Hat Ansible Engine Software Subscription (regardless of the number of Managed Nodes). Red Hat Ansible Engine Networking Add-On Subscription is only supported on Red Hat Ansible Engine Subscriptions with Premium support.

5. Red Hat Directory Server Software Subscriptions

Table 5 sets forth the Unit of measure and Supported Use Cases for Red Hat Directory Server. You must purchase the appropriate number and type of these Subscriptions based on the Unit and other parameters described in Table 5 below. The Service Level(s) for Directory Server is determined by the Service Level of the underlying Red Hat Enterprise Linux Subscription for the System, Physical Node or Virtual Node running Directory Server (for example, if the Service Level for the underlying Red Hat Enterprise Linux Software Subscription is Premium, then Directory Server would receive Premium level support).

Software	Unit	Supported Use Case
----------	------	--------------------

Red Hat Directory Server	System	A Replica Red Hat Directory Server must have an active Software Subscription for a Master Red Hat Directory Server and Red Hat Directory Server must be installed on a physical server with a standard Red Hat Enterprise Linux Software Subscription (not a Red Hat Enterprise Linux Desktop, Red Hat Enterprise Linux for HPC or Red Hat Enterprise Linux Workstation Software Subscription). “ Replica ” means a second instance of a Directory Server configured as a slave to the first instance of Directory Server. Red Hat Enterprise Linux Server is supported solely for the purpose of running Red Hat Directory Server Software. “ Master ” means the authoritative Red Hat Directory Server from which Replica Red Hat Directory Servers derive Red Hat Directory Server information.

SUPPORT SUBSCRIPTIONS

This Exhibit 1.F. to Product Appendix 1 contains terms that describe the parameters and govern your use of TAM Services.

1. Technical Account Management (“TAM”) Service

The TAM Service is a Support Subscription that you may purchase in addition to your underlying Standard or Premium Software Subscription in order to receive enhanced Support. The TAM Service does not include support for (1) Self-support Software Subscriptions, (2) any Unit of Software (such as a System, Physical Node, Core, etc.) for which you do not have an active paid Software Subscription or (3) any Software Subscription for which support is provided by a Business Partner. When you purchase a TAM Service, you receive access to a Red Hat support engineer to provide you with (a) access to Red Hat’s technology and development plans, including beta testing and bug/feature escalation, (b) weekly review calls, (c) up to two (2) on-site technical review visits per year, (d) up to four Support Contacts, (e) quarterly service performance metrics via the TAM electronic dashboard, and (f) a subscription to Red Hat’s TAM monthly newsletter.

Support Subscription	Unit Description
TAM Service TAM Extension	Point of Contact: a Red Hat associate whom you are authorized to contact to request support for a particular team, geography or Red Hat product line.

1.1 TAM Service Coverage. Each TAM Service Subscription will be limited to certain parameters (that is, a region, a customer team and/or a product line) and will be listed in the Order Form and, if not listed, the TAM parameters will be established upon the initiation of the TAM Service.

Regions: North America, Latin America, EMEA, Asia-Pacific (excluding Japan, China and India), China, India or Japan.

Customer Team: The customer team supported by the TAM, such as your development team, your system administration team, your support team, etc.

Red Hat Product Line: The supported Red Hat product line, such as the Red Hat Enterprise Linux, Red Hat JBoss Middleware, Red Hat Mobile Application Platform, OpenShift, Red Hat Storage, Ansible or Red Hat Cloud product lines.

TAM Service Level. The TAM Service is offered during local Red Hat Support Standard Business Hours as set forth at <https://access.redhat.com/support/contact/technicalSupport.html> (based on the physical location of the TAM representative). If you have purchased Premium Red Hat Software Subscriptions, you will receive 24x7 Support for Severity 1 and 2 issues through Red Hat’s 24x7 Production Support teams and not necessarily from your assigned TAM representative. Red Hat’s 24x7 Production Support team will be responsible for addressing issues, but will consult with your TAM representative, as your TAM representative is available, for advice and to gain a better understanding of your infrastructure, environment and specific needs. If you have purchased multiple TAM Service Subscriptions in each of Red Hat’s primary Support Regions, you will receive the benefit of extended TAM Service coverage hours, but you should follow the same process and contact the Red Hat 24x7 support numbers at <https://access.redhat.com/support/contact/technicalSupport.html>.

TAM Extension Service. The TAM Extension Service is an extension of a Red Hat Enterprise Linux TAM Service to provide additional technical knowledge such as SAP implementations on Red Hat Enterprise Linux. The TAM Extension Service requires a separate active and paid standard TAM Service Subscription.

Relativity ODA LLC*EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Relativity ODA LLC, (“Manufacturer”) product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America (“Contractor”) to provide Manufacturer’s information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America’s GSA MAS IT contract number GS-35F-0511T (the “Schedule Contract”). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the “Manufacturer Specific Terms” or the “Attachment A Terms”) are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer (“Licensee”) is the “Ordering Activity”, defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

  - b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

  - c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

  - d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

  - e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

  - f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

  - g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

  - h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

- i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.
- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.
- u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All

Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

RELATIVITYONE END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

Relativity is a software manufacturer and subcontractor to various prime contractors (each a "Prime Contractor"). Pursuant to a purchase order ("Order") authorized by governmental authority (the "Customer"), Relativity grants Prime Contractor a limited, non-exclusive license ("License") for the sole purpose of transferring such License to the Customer on a non-exclusive, non-sub-sublicensable, nontransferable, basis and as described in each Order. The Order, the corresponding buyer's guide attached to, or otherwise provided by, the Prime Contractor in connection with any Order (the "Buyer's Guide"), and this End User License Agreement ("EULA") shall be referred to collectively as the "Agreement". Capitalized terms used herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this EULA, any Appendix attached hereto, or the Buyer's Guide.

1. SaaS Software License, Customer Data. The License includes permission to import, process, review, use, copy, store, and transmit Customer Data to, in and from the products set forth in the applicable Order (collectively, the "SaaS Software" or "RelativityOne"), subject to the additional terms set forth in the Buyer's Guide, by Customer or any other parties whom Customer enables to use the SaaS Software, subject to the provisions hereof. "Customer Data" means all documents, files and other data that Customer or its end users, import into the SaaS Software, and all work product results of all work that Customer and such parties perform respecting such data in the SaaS Software; provided, however, Customer Data does not include system and data usage metrics and billing information, or any systems operations, performance or security information.
2. SaaS Software Warranties and Support Services.

a. Warranties. Relativity warrants to Customer that: (i) Relativity will provision and configure the RelativityOne Infrastructure to make the SaaS Software "Available" as further described in Appendix 1; (ii) Customer shall be entitled to claim service level credits from the Prime Contractor for Unexcused Downtime under Appendix 1; (iii) the SaaS Software will perform substantially in conformance with Relativity's Documentation which Relativity will always make available on Relativity's website and is currently available via this link: <https://help.relativity.com>; (iv) Relativity will, without additional charge, provide the maintenance and support services set forth in Appendix 2 ("Support Services"); and (v) Relativity will maintain its Authorization to Operate (ATO) status via the Federal Risk and Authorization Management Program (FedRAMP) with a minimum Impact Level of Moderate, including public trust security clearance for any Relativity personnel providing Support Services under the Agreement or any Relativity personnel who would otherwise have access to Customer Data.

b. Clarifications and Limitations. The warranties and Support Services herein do not apply to the extent of any non-conformance or problems arising from: (i) abuse, misapplication, or other user errors by Customer (or by any person to whom Customer has provided access to RelativityOne); or (ii) any combination or operation of the SaaS Software with other software, components, or equipment not provided by Relativity. Relativity does not warrant that: (1) the functions or the results of using the SaaS Software will be suitable for Customer's intended use (beyond the purposes described in the Documentation); (2) the operation of the SaaS Software will be timely, uninterrupted or error-free (although Customer will be entitled to claim service level credits for Unexcused Downtime under Appendix 1 and Relativity will provide Support Services under Appendix 2); or (3) the SaaS Software will be secure from unauthorized access or hacking or free of viruses or malware that could not reasonably be prevented or detected by the security programs employed by Relativity. Customer shall use its own choice of commercial virus and malware protection software programs on Customer Data before sending or exporting such Customer Data to Relativity or the SaaS Software. The express warranties made herein are in lieu of, and to the exclusion of, all other warranties, conditions or representations of any kind, express or implied, statutory or otherwise, relating to the SaaS Software or Support Services. WITHOUT LIMITING THE GENERALITY OF THE FOREGOING, RELATIVITY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OR OTHER OBLIGATIONS ARISING FROM COURSE OF PERFORMANCE, COURSE OF DEALING OR USAGE OF TRADE, AND ALL SUCH WARRANTIES, CONDITIONS AND REPRESENTATIONS ARE EXCLUDED FROM THE AGREEMENT AND WAIVED TO THE FULLEST EXTENT NOT PROHIBITED BY LAW. THIS CLAUSE DOES NOT LIMIT OR

DISCLAIM ANY OF THE WARRANTIES SPECIFIED IN FAR 52.212-4(O). IN THE EVENT OF A BREACH OF WARRANTY, CUSTOMER RESERVES ALL RIGHTS AND REMEDIES UNDER THE AGREEMENT, THE FEDERAL ACQUISITION REGULATIONS, AND THE CONTRACT DISPUTES ACT, 41 U.S.C. 7101-7109.

- 3. Proprietary Rights. Relativity and its third-party vendors own and shall continue to own the entire title and interest in and to all intellectual property rights and other proprietary rights related to the SaaS Software and all Derivative Works therefrom, the Documentation, and any know-how, methodologies or other materials Relativity provides. Nothing in the License, or the negotiation or performance thereof, shall be construed as transferring to Customer or any other party any intellectual property or other proprietary rights of Relativity or its third-party vendors. The License is not intended to, and does not, convey any license, by implication, estoppel or otherwise, under any patent, copyright or other intellectual property not expressly granted hereunder. All rights not expressly granted to Customer are reserved by Relativity. Customer shall retain and not cover-up or obscure any trademark, trade name, copyright notice or other proprietary notice on the SaaS Software or Documentation. The License is limited to accessing and using the SaaS Software on a hosted basis through Relativity and does not include source code nor permission to download the SaaS Software in any format. Relativity may use any suggestions, ideas, enhancement requests, feedback, or recommendations relating to Relativity or the SaaS Software for purposes of modifying the SaaS Software, creating Derivative Works, or creating new products (all of which Relativity will own exclusively without any obligation to pay any royalty or other compensation); however, Relativity's use of such information shall be at Relativity's sole risk without any representations, warranties or liability of Customer. All SaaS Software and documentation that are provided to Customer are provided with restricted rights as contained herein. Customer MAY NOT in any fashion modify, combine with other software products, reproduce and/or distribute, other than as specifically permitted by these terms, any SaaS Software or documentation. The SaaS Software and documentation are "commercial items" as that term is defined in 48 C.F.R. 2.101 (October 1995) consisting of "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation" as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. 12.212 (September 1995). Consistent with 48 C.F.R. 12.212, the Software and documentation are licensed hereunder (i) only as a commercial item, and (ii) with only those rights as are granted pursuant to the terms and conditions herein.
- 4. License Restrictions. Except as expressly permitted in the Agreement, Customer shall not, directly or indirectly (through any other party), while the Order is in effect or thereafter, engage or permit any other person or party to copy, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, modify, translate, or make any attempt to discover the source code of, or create Derivative Works from, the SaaS Software. "Derivative Works" means every translation, portation, modification, correction, addition, extension, upgrade, improvement, compilation, abridgment or other form in which an existing work may be recast, transformed or adapted. Derivative Works also includes derivative technology and any materials derived from existing trade secret material, including materials protected by copyright, patent and/or trade secret, and all documentation and software of Relativity and its vendors. If at any time, Customer or anyone else makes any modification to the SaaS Software, whether authorized or unauthorized, such modification shall be considered Derivative Works and owned by Relativity or its applicable third-party vendor.
- 5. Limitations of Liabilities. IN NO EVENT WILL RELATIVITY, ITS SUPPLIERS OR LICENSORS BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY OR OTHER DAMAGES OR LOSSES (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF BUSINESS PROFITS, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, LOSS OF BUSINESS INFORMATION, DATA, GOODWILL OR OTHER PECUNIARY LOSS) ARISING OUT OF THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE SAAS SOFTWARE, PROBLEMS WITH THE SAAS SOFTWARE, OR ANY BREACH OF RELATIVITY'S WARRANTIES OR OBLIGATIONS, EVEN IF SUCH DAMAGES OR LOSSES WERE FORESEEABLE OR RELATIVITY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES OR LOSSES; CUSTOMER WAIVES, RELEASES AND AGREES NOT TO ASSERT ALL SUCH CLAIMS. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAWS, RELATIVITY'S AGGREGATE TOTAL LIABILITY UNDER ALL CAUSES OF ACTION AND ALL THEORIES OF LIABILITY (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO STATUTORY, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY, WARRANTY, INDEMNITY, CONTRIBUTION, AND CONTRACT THEORIES) WILL BE LIMITED TO: (a) TERMINATION OF THE LICENSE IF RELATIVITY FAILS TO CURE A DEFECT OR OTHER PROBLEM WITH THE SAAS SOFTWARE OR RELATIVITY'S SUPPORT SERVICES WITHIN THIRTY (30) DAYS AFTER RECEIVING WRITTEN NOTICE OF THE PROBLEM AND REASONABLE COOPERATION BY CUSTOMER IN RELATIVITY'S EFFORTS TO CURE; AND (b) IN SUCH CASE OF TERMINATION, A REFUND OF THE FEES PAID BY CUSTOMER FOR THE PERIOD DURING WHICH CUSTOMER WAS UNABLE TO USE THE SAAS SOFTWARE BEFORE THE TERMINATION OCCURRED AND ANY FEES PREPAID FOR ANY PERIOD FOLLOWING THE TERMINATION. THIS CLAUSE DOES NOT LIMIT OR DISCLAIM ANY OF THE WARRANTIES SPECIFIED IN FAR 52.212-4(O) AND FAR 52.212-4(P). IN THE EVENT OF A BREACH OF WARRANTY, CUSTOMER MAY RESERVE ALL RIGHTS AND REMEDIES UNDER THE AGREEMENT, THE FEDERAL ACQUISITION REGULATIONS, AND THE CONTRACT DISPUTES ACT, 41 U.S.C. 7101-7109.
- 6. Termination. If Relativity fails to cure (a) a breach of any representation or warranty provided in Section 2, or (b) any breach of its obligations to provide Support Services as required under this EULA, in each case within ten (10) days after Customer delivers a notice describing such breach in reasonable detail, Customer may terminate the Agreement in whole (or in part with respect to any SaaS Software product or Service which is the subject of the failure and for which there are separate fees under the Agreement) by delivering a termination notice to Relativity within the next thirty (30) days. Customer may also terminate the Agreement in accordance with FAR 52.212-4. Following termination of the License: (i) Customer will discontinue using the SaaS Software; and (ii) Customer will export or otherwise delete all Customer Data in the applicable SaaS Software. If Customer fails to export or delete any Customer Data by the time required hereunder, Relativity reserves the right to delete the Customer Data from the SaaS Software. In the event of a breach of warranty, Customer may reserve all rights and remedies under the Agreement, the Federal Acquisition Regulations, and the Contract Disputes Act, 41 U.S.C. 7101-7109.

7. Miscellaneous Terms

- a. Publicity, Trademarks and Restrictions. While the License is in effect, either party ("Listing Party") may include the name, logo and trademark of the other party ("Other Party") to the extent permitted by the General Services Acquisition Regulation (GSAR) 552.203-71 on the Listing Party's website alongside an attributed quote (if provided by the Other Party), and in other publicly disseminated marketing materials; provided: (i) the Other Party's name, logo and trademark shall only appear alongside the names, logos and trademarks of other customers or vendors; (ii) the Listing Party will comply with all of the Other Party's guidelines and requirements for such matters; and (iii) the Listing Party will remove the Other Party's name, logo and trademark promptly after the Other Party's written request which provides a reasonable basis for objecting to continued use. For the avoidance of doubt, Listing Party's identification of the Other Party's name, logo and trademark, the identification and value of the contract, and the goods/services procured under the contract by the Other Party shall be considered to be in compliance with GSAR 552.20371.
- b. Anonymized Aggregated Data. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, but subject to the restrictions in this paragraph: (i) as between Relativity and Customer, Relativity shall solely own Aggregated Data and all intellectual property rights therein; and (ii) accordingly, Relativity may collect, reproduce, distribute, modify, and otherwise use and publish Aggregated Data, including any data and other information derived therefrom. The term "Aggregated Data" herein means data and other information relating to or arising from the performance or use of the SaaS Software by customers and their authorized users that Relativity compiles or derives in an anonymized and aggregated manner, including statistics, metrics and analytic data; provided, Aggregated Data shall never contain any information by which any person would reasonably be able to identify the Confidential Information of Customer, Customer, or any other person or party.
- c. Interpretation; Language. Capitalized terms not defined in the body of this EULA shall have the meanings set forth in the Order, the Buyer's Guide, or in the Appendices attached hereto. Under no circumstances will the "Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act," the American Law Institute's "Principles of the Law of Software Contracts," act as model laws or as adopted in any jurisdiction, or the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, or similar acts, laws and conventions have any bearing on the interpretation or enforcement of this Agreement and the parties hereby elect to opt out of all such acts, laws and conventions.

APPENDIX 1: RELATIVITYONE AVAILABILITY AND CREDITS

1. Introduction. The separate RelativityOne General Support Terms (“General Support Terms”) set forth in Appendix 2, apply to support issues respecting the SaaS Software and RelativityOne infrastructure (“Infrastructure”). For example, the Severity Levels and Response Times in the General Support Terms also apply to Infrastructure support issues. In addition, this Appendix 1 establishes credits to be paid to Customer for downtime caused by problems with the RelativityOne Infrastructure as described below.

2. Definitions.
  - a. “Availability SLA” means ninety-nine and seventy-five hundredths percent (99.75%) of the total number of minutes in a given calendar month.

  - b. “Availability Deficiency” means the number of minutes when the SaaS Software is not Available in any given calendar month, excluding Excused Downtime.

  - c. “Available” means Customer can log into and access the core Relativity Review functionality at the RelativityOne production data center’s Internet connection points.

  - d. “Cloud Vendor” means the cloud vendor Relativity uses to provide the infrastructure environment to run the SaaS Software.

  - e. “Excused Downtime” means twenty-five hundredths of a percent (0.25%) of the total number of minutes in a given calendar month, and any other time when RelativityOne is not Available due to Relativity’s planned service maintenance time of up to sixteen (16) hours per month or due to emergencies or other circumstances beyond Relativity’s reasonable control, including without limitation force majeure, general Internet outages, actions of Customer or any third-party providing services or software to Customer, failure of Customer’s infrastructure or connectivity to the Internet or other issues with Customer’s Internet connectivity to the SaaS Software, other telecommunications or computer failures and delays, network intrusions, or denial-of-service or other criminal attacks.

3. Credits. If Customer’s RelativityOne production instance (“RelOne Instance”) has an Availability SLA Deficiency for a given calendar month, Customer’s remedy for such failure is to request that the Prime Contractor issue a service credit to Customer equal to the dollar value of the number of minutes of the Availability SLA Deficiency (determined at a per minute rate for Customer’s use of the affected SaaS Software for Customer’s applicable RelOne Instance). For clarity, Customer will be entitled to service credits for an Availability Deficiency regardless of whether the unavailability is caused by Relativity or the Cloud Vendor. If there are problems with infrastructure that the Cloud Vendor must handle, Relativity will use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain responses and resolutions from Cloud Vendor. Nothing contained herein limits Customer’s rights and remedies under the Agreement, the Federal Acquisition Regulations, and the Contract Disputes Act, 41 U.S.C. 7101-7109.

4. Credit Requests. Customer must request all service credits in writing to Prime Contractor within thirty (30) days of the end of the period in which the Availability SLA was not met and the credits applied, identifying the support requests relating to such period. Failure to make a timely request will constitute a waiver to the extent permitted Federal Acquisition Regulations Part 33, and the Contract Disputes Act, 41 U.S.C. 7101-7109.

5. Planned Maintenance Time. Currently, planned service maintenance for the RelOne Instance is scheduled for two (2) hours weekly (“Weekly Maintenance”) and eight (8) hours monthly (“Monthly Maintenance”) as follows:

Planned Maintenance Schedule

Weekly Maintenance	Monthly Maintenance
22:00 - 24:00	22:00 - 06:00
Saturday	Saturday-Sunday
CDT / CST	CDT / CST

Except in emergencies or other non-standard circumstances, Relativity will keep planned maintenance schedules on weekend nights and will provide reasonable notice of any changes (which may be an email to Customer’s regular point of contact respecting support for the RelOne Instance). Customer may request a deferral of planned maintenance in accordance with the procedures set forth in Relativity’s Documentation.

6. RTO and RPO. In the event of prolonged RelativityOne downtime, Relativity will declare a disaster and implement disaster recovery procedures. During disaster recovery, Customer continues to accrue downtime service credits as applicable under the above provisions, and Relativity endeavors to achieve: (i) the recovery time objective (“RTO”) in the schedule below measured from the end of the disaster occurrence (i.e. the moment from when Relativity’s access to the system is restored) until Availability of RelativityOne is restored; and (ii) the recovery point objective (“RPO”) that is no more than the stated number of hours prior to the disaster in the schedule below.

EVENT TYPE	RTO	R 'O BASED ON DATA LOCATION
		SQL	File Server and Analytics Indexes	Other
Data Restore	24 hours	1 hour	24 hours	4 hours
Partial DR	24 hours	1 hour	24 hours	4 hours
Full DR	72 hours	1 hour	24 hours	4 hours

“Data Restore” means only Customer’s RelOne Instance is down in a data center.

“Partial DR” means one or more RelOne Instances are down in a data center and Relativity is able to restore Customer’s RelOne Instance without requiring Relativity’s cloud vendor to assist in restoring the applicable RelOne Instances.

“Full DR” means Relativity’s cloud vendor declares a data center disaster (or in any event, Relativity declares a disaster because more than a majority of the RelOne Instances in the data center are down, regardless of whether Relativity’s cloud vendor declares a disaster).

APPENDIX 2: RELATIVITYONE GENERAL SUPPORT TERMS

1. Free Support Services. There are no additional fees for the services that are included under this Appendix 2 (“Support Services”) while the Order is in effect.

2. Customer Admins. Customer may designate up to five (5) Relativity Support Administrators (each an “Admin”) as points of contact for support. Customer may update the contacts as needed via email to support@relativity.com. Customer will use reasonable efforts to escalate support issues within Admins and to minimize duplicative support requests. Customer may designate additional Admins, provided that once Customer exceeds ten (10) Admins in total, at least one (1) out of every ten (10) Admins must be a full-time Customer employee who has passed the Relativity Certified Administrator exam (i.e., one at 11 Admins, two at 21 Admins, and so forth).

3. Support Services.

3.1 Relativity Customer Support Team

The Relativity customer support team (“Customer Support Team”) will provide technical support for the SaaS Software, subject to the exclusions set forth below, via telephone and email 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. The telephone numbers for the Customer Support Team are located at <https://www.relativity.com/support/>. Alternatively, Customer may send support requests via email to support@relativity.com. Requests for support are entered into the Customer Support Team’s tracking system, which typically logs the requestor’s name, email address and phone number. Customer will receive a case number from the Customer Support Team for each support request which Customer should reference when requesting any update on the status.

3.2 Covered Support

Technical support includes providing technical services to Customer to enable users to log into and access the core functionality of the SaaS Software, assisting Customer in diagnosing Errors in the SaaS Software, and providing Corrections of diagnosed Errors. “Error” means an error, defect, or malfunction in the SaaS Software or a mistake in the Documentation that prevents one or more material functions of the SaaS Software or Customer’s use thereof from functioning in substantial conformance to the Documentation. “Correction” means a change to a function of the SaaS Software or to the Documentation that reestablishes or maintains substantial conformity between the SaaS Software and the Documentation.

3.3 Certain Exclusions

Relativity is not responsible for and is under no obligation to resolve any issues, errors, or other events impacting the SaaS Software or its availability to Customer which are caused by Customer or Customer's third-party products or services. At its sole discretion and for additional fees, Relativity may assist Customer and its third-party providers in diagnosing and resolving such issues or errors.

3.4 Severity Levels and Response Times.

Relativity will assign a severity level to issues identified in each support request as they are received. Relativity may, upon further review, reclassify the severity level at its reasonable discretion. Initial responses may be provided by phone or email and will contain the assigned severity level for the request and initial questions to begin troubleshooting or a potential resolution.

- Severity 1 – Catastrophic: System is not operational and no work can take place in the production environment. Catastrophic severity level will be assigned when a production failure results in a debilitating impact to business operations. The Customer Support Team will provide an initial response to a Catastrophic issue report within one (1) hour, dedicate staff to work on the issue until resolved, and provide continual status updates until the issue is resolved. Recipients of all updates to Catastrophic issue reports will include the requestor, as well as the appropriate Customer account and support leads.

- Severity 2 – Critical: System is operational, but at least one mission critical function or one entire case is not operational. Critical severity level will be assigned when a critical service interruption or degradation is encountered which creates difficulty but not total impairment in business operations. The Customer Support Team will provide an initial response to a Critical issue report within two (2) hours, work continually on the issue during normal business hours until resolved, and provide continual status updates until the issue is resolved. Recipients of all updates to Critical issue reports will include the requestor, as well as the appropriate Customer account and support leads.
- Severity 3 – Serious: System is operational, but at least one non-mission critical function is not operational. Serious severity level will be assigned when some functionality is impaired, but overall Customer operations continue to function. The Customer Support Team will provide an initial response to a Serious issue report within four (4) hours, work on the issue during normal business hours, and provide daily status updates until the issue is resolved.
- Severity 4 – Minor: All functions are operational; the nature of request is cosmetic, a product enhancement, or a general question. Minor severity level will be assigned to all cosmetic defects, enhancement requests regarding the product, or general questions. The Customer Support Team will provide an initial response to a Minor issue within 24 hours (if a response is required), address the issue during normal business hours, and provide status updates if and as necessary.

3.5 Escalating Issues.

If Customer believes the severity level assigned to an issue is insufficient, Customer may request that the severity level be upgraded. If Customer believes that a Catastrophic issue is not being adequately addressed, Customer may contact Relativity's VP, Global Support, or their designee, at +1 (816) 604-9393.

4. Additional Support.

At its discretion, the Customer Support Team may make additional support services available upon request for additional fees, including:

- Training and certifications
- Customer requested enhancements and features
- Troubleshooting issues with the environment not associated with the SaaS Software
  - Troubleshooting issues with data not formatted per Relativity's standard load file specifications
  - Data migration services.

RIVERBED TECHNOLOGY, INC.
501 SECOND STREET, SUITE 410
SAN FRANCISCO, CA 94107

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Riverbed Technology, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

RIVERBED TECHNOLOGY, INC. LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

These terms and conditions ("Attachment A") shall apply to the sale or license of Products or Services from Contractor to the customer on the applicable Order ("Ordering Activity"). This Attachment A constitutes the agreement between Contractor and Ordering Activity with respect to such Products and Services, to the exclusion of any pre-printed or contrary terms of any purchase order (or similar document) and supersedes and cancels any prior discussions, understandings or representations between the parties. "Products" are Riverbed's currently generally available products, including hardware, software and documentation, listed on Contractor's GSA price list. "Services" means Riverbed's currently generally available maintenance and support services and any professional services listed on Contractor's GSA price list or that are otherwise sold to Ordering Activity hereunder. "Software" means machine readable software provided by Riverbed, whether incorporated into or provided for use in or with a hardware Product or provided as a Product separate from any hardware (whether initially, as part of maintenance or support or otherwise), and any related documentation.

Ordering Activity will purchase from Contractor the Products and/or Services by submitting a written purchase order to Contractor (an "Order"). The terms and conditions of this Attachment A will apply to the Order and supersede any different or additional terms on Ordering Activity's purchase orders. The Products and Services are not for resale.

Contractor warrants to Ordering Activity that the Services will be provided in a professional manner in accordance with generally accepted industry standards. Contractor warrants to Ordering Activity that the Products, upon original shipment by Contractor, will conform in all material respects to the applicable published specifications for such Products for a period of one (1) year with respect to hardware and ninety (90) days with respect to Software from the date of original shipment by Contractor of the nonconforming Product (but not replacements). Products obtained from Contractor that do not comply with the warranty and are returned by Ordering Activity to Contractor during the warranty period (and for which a Contractor through Riverbed RMA has been issued) will be repaired or replaced at Contractor's option. Ordering Activity's remedy with respect to any nonconformity, deficiency, warranty or defect with respect to the Products and/or Services is as stated above.

Any Software is not sold, but rather is licensed pursuant to the applicable Riverbed license agreement, Exhibit A herein, that governs use of the Software solely for Ordering Activity's internal use in or with that Product strictly in accordance with the accompanying documentation and any other use restrictions applicable for that Product. Such license is non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable and does not include the right to (and Ordering Activity will not) modify, reverse engineer (except to the extent applicable law prohibits reverse engineering restrictions), incorporate or use in any other works, create derivatives of, or copy any portion of such software, or use the software or Product for the benefit of any third party. If a Product is provided to any unit or agency of the United States Government ("U.S. Government"), the following provisions shall apply: All software and accompanying documentation are deemed to be commercial, including computer databases, related documentation, technical data and manuals as defined in FAR 2.101. Ordering Activity may purchase annual Support for a Product that provides for one (1) to five (5) years of support subject to Riverbed's end of sale policy at www.riverbed.com/supportpolicy. #### Product Obsolescence Riverbed's End of Sale and End of Support policy is available at: www.riverbed.com/supportpolicy.

Support Service Levels

A problem is defined as a situation where the software does not function as intended. The detail below defines priority levels of each problem type. Contractor through Riverbed will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide the service level responses included below.

Priority 1

Definition: A catastrophic problem that severely impacts the Ordering Activity's ability to conduct business. This may mean that the Ordering Activity's systems and/or Product are down or not functioning and no procedural workaround exists.

Riverbed Response: Contractor through Riverbed to respond within one (1) hour. The objective is to get the Ordering Activity back on line within 24 hours and to downgrade the problem severity accordingly. Efforts to isolate, diagnose, and deliver a work-around or repair shall be continuous. When the severity level has been changed to "Priority 2" or "Priority 3," the appropriate guidelines should be followed.

Priority 2

Definition: A high-impact problem in which the Ordering Activity's operation is disrupted but there is capacity to remain productive and maintain necessary business-level operations. The problem may require a fix be installed on the Ordering Activity's system prior to the next planned commercial release of the software.

Riverbed Response: Contractor through Riverbed to respond within four (4) hours following receipt of a call. Efforts to isolate, diagnose, and deliver a work-around or repair problems shall be continuous during business hours.

Priority 3

Definition: A medium-to-low impact problem that involves partial loss of non-critical functionality. The problem impairs some operations but allows the Ordering Activity to continue to function. This may be a minor issue with limited loss or no loss of functionality or impact to the Ordering Activity's operation.

Riverbed Response: Contractor through Riverbed to respond within eight (8) hours following the receipt of a call. Action should be appropriate to the nature of the escalation.

Priority 4

Definition: Minor problems: all other errors. This includes documentation errors. The inconvenience is slight and can be tolerated.

Riverbed Response: Contractor through Riverbed to respond within the next business day following the receipt of a call during normal business hours. Riverbed's support organization will respond in a manner appropriate to the nature of the call.

Escalation Procedures

If problems are not responded to as targeted above, Ordering Activity may escalate the issue to appropriate Riverbed management personnel. Contractor through Riverbed provides systematic escalation management to Ordering Activity with current service plans. The Riverbed escalation process notifies levels of management throughout the life cycle of the technical issue. This ensures that the appropriate resources resolve outstanding technical problems as efficiently as possible.

SEVERITY	NOTIFICATIONS
	Escalation Engineer	Manager	Executive Staff
1. Critical	Within 1 Hour	1 Hour	4 Hours
2. High	Within 4 Hours	8 Hours	24 Hours
3. Minor	Within 8 Hours	Weekly	N/A
4. Informational	Within 24 Hours	N/A	N/A

To escalate a case, email support@riverbed.com or call 1-888-RVBD-TAC (1-888-782-3822) or 1-415-247-7381. A case follows this escalation path: Support Engineer to Local TAC Manager to Regional Support Director to Director of Support Operations to VP Support.

Continuous Support Coverage

Regardless of where the case originates, Riverbed Support endeavors to solve the case when it is opened. The Support team uses a “follow the sun” process to hand-off cases between different Support Centers.

For example, between Monday and Friday, 8 AM - 5 PM GMT, a case from Europe will be routed to the Amsterdam Support Center. After regular business hours in Europe, the case may be routed to the New York or San Francisco Support Center, when the Amsterdam office is closed. If the case remains open, it is passed back to the Amsterdam Support Center for the beginning of their next business day.

Case Handling

Contractor through Riverbed is committed to ensuring Ordering Activity success and satisfaction. All support services professionals are rigorously trained on Riverbed products, their underlying technologies, and industry leading technical problem-solving methodologies. Case handling follows these steps:

An Ordering Activity can open a case in one of the following ways:

- call 1-888-RVBD-TAC (1-888-782-3822) or 1-415-247-7381
- send an email to support@riverbed.com
- generate a ticket directly from the Riverbed Support web site support.riverbed.com

When Ordering Activities open a case, they should be prepared to provide the following:

- Serial number of hardware component with issue
- Detailed description of the problem
- Priority level and impact of the problem
- Indication of the activity that was being performed when the problem occurred
- Software version
- Configuration data

Once a case is submitted, the issue is assigned to an escalation engineer (“EE”). Every EE is trained to perform extensive troubleshooting to quickly resolve the issue. All opened cases are tracked in Riverbed’s online support tracking system. While working to resolve an issue, the EE may need to access information on the Ordering Activity system relative to the failure, or may need to recreate the failure to get additional information. If the problem is related to the system configuration, the Ordering Activity may be asked to provide a network diagram and configuration information. If the Ordering Activity and the EE agree, the Ordering Activity may send log files or trace files to Riverbed through email or upload them to the Riverbed Support FTP site for further review.

Note: Any information sent to Riverbed to help resolve Ordering Activity problems is treated as confidential.

A case is closed when all parties agree the reported issue has been resolved. If the Ordering Activity issue is determined to be an enhancement, a Feature Request is entered into the Riverbed defect tracking system. A Feature Request is handled and processed by Product Management and Engineering.

Consistently improving quality of service is a very high priority within Riverbed. After closing a case, a survey is sent to the Ordering Activity asking for feedback as to how the case was handled and where Riverbed can improve. Ordering Activity Support managers and executives review the survey responses, and take action where appropriate. Individual entries in this survey may be shared on the Support website anonymously, but identifiable submitter details are not shared. Individual entries will not be used for marketing purposes. The sole purpose of these survey results is to evaluate and improve Riverbed services.

(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached RSA Security ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

3. PRODUCT WARRANTY.

A. Software Warranty. LICENSOR warrants that Software will substantially conform to the applicable Documentation for such Software and that any media will be free from manufacturing defects in materials and workmanship until the expiration of the warranty period. LICENSOR does not warrant that the operation of Software shall be uninterrupted or error free, that all defects can be corrected, or that Software meets Customer's requirements, except if expressly warranted by LICENSOR in its quote. Should any such Product or Service become, or in LICENSOR's opinion be likely to become, the subject of such a claim, LICENSOR may, at its option and expense, (1) procure for Customer the right to make continued use thereof; (2) replace or modify such so that it becomes non-infringing; (3) request return of the Product and, upon receipt thereof; refund the price paid by Customer, less straight-line depreciation based on a five (5) year useful life for Products; or (4) discontinue the Service and refund the portion of any pre-paid Service fee that corresponds to the period of Service discontinuation. LICENSOR shall have no liability to the extent that the alleged infringement arises out of or relates to: (A) the use or combination of a Product or Service with third party products or services; (B) use for a purpose or in a manner for which the Product or Service was not designed; (C) any modification made by any person other than LICENSOR or its authorized representatives; (D) any modifications to a Product or Service made by LICENSOR pursuant to Customer's specific instructions; (E) any technology owned or licensed by Customer from third parties; or (F) use of any older version of the Software when use of a newer Software Release made available to Customer would have avoided the infringement. THIS SECTION STATES CUSTOMER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY AND LICENSOR'S ENTIRE LIABILITY FOR THIRD PARTY INFRINGEMENT CLAIMS.

5. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

A. Limitation on Direct Damages. EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO CLAIMS ARISING UNDER SECTION 4 ABOVE, LICENSOR'S TOTAL LIABILITY AND CUSTOMER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR ANY CLAIM OF ANY TYPE WHATSOEVER, ARISING OUT OF PRODUCT OR SERVICE PROVIDED HEREUNDER, SHALL BE LIMITED TO PROVEN DIRECT DAMAGES CAUSED BY LICENSOR'S SOLE NEGLIGENCE IN AN AMOUNT NOT TO EXCEED (i) US$1,000,000, FOR DAMAGE TO REAL OR TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY; AND (ii) THE PRICE PAID BY CUSTOMER TO LICENSOR FOR THE SPECIFIC SERVICE (CALCULATED ON AN ANNUAL BASIS, WHEN APPLICABLE) OR PRODUCT FROM WHICH SUCH CLAIM ARISES, FOR DAMAGE OF ANY TYPE NOT IDENTIFIED IN (i) ABOVE OR OTHERWISE EXCLUDED HEREUNDER.

B. No Indirect Damages. EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO CLAIMS REGARDING VIOLATION OF LICENSOR'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OR CLAIMS ARISING UNDER SECTION 4 ABOVE, NEITHER CUSTOMER NOR LICENSOR SHALL HAVE LIABILITY TO THE OTHER FOR ANY SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, EXEMPLARY, INCIDENTAL, OR INDIRECT DAMAGES (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, LOSS OF PROFITS, REVENUES, DATA AND/OR USE), EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY THEREOF.

C. Regular Back-ups. As part of its obligation to mitigate damages, Customer shall take reasonable data back-up measures. In particular, Customer shall provide for a daily back-up process and back-up the relevant data before LICENSOR performs any remedial, upgrade or other works on Customer's production systems. To the extent LICENSOR's liability for loss of data is not anyway excluded under this EULA, LICENSOR shall in case of data losses only be liable for the typical effort to recover the data which would have accrued if Customer had appropriately backed up its data.

D. Limitation Period. Unless otherwise required by applicable law, the limitation period for claims for damages shall be eighteen (18) months after the cause of action accrues, unless statutory law provides for a shorter limitation period.]

E. Suppliers. The foregoing limitations shall also apply in favor of LICENSOR's suppliers.

6. # RSA SOFTWARE USE RIGHTS

RSA software products (“Software”) are licensed by RSA to customers who order 1) directly from RSA (“Direct End-Users”) under a signature-bearing agreement between RSA or the applicable EMC affiliate and the Direct End-User, 2) under the terms of an End-User License Agreement (“EULA”) that is between RSA or the applicable EMC affiliate and the entity making productive use of the Software, or 3) through channel partners under the terms of a EULA that is between RSA or the applicable EMC affiliate and the entity making productive use of the Software. The information in this Software Use Rights (“SUR”) document is provided to further define the license rights and limitations for Software products.

RSA Software is licensed via a Unit of Measure used to quantify the scope of license rights based on a particular licensing model for such RSA Software. Some Agreements, schedules, or quotes refer to the UOM as a “license unit” or such other similar term. Use of the RSA Software beyond the scope of the rights granted requires additional or modified license grants, and additional payment of applicable license and maintenance fees.

- Appliance (APP). An appliance is the Hardware provided to Customer which has been loaded with the RSA Software.
- Central Processing Unit (CPU). RSA Software licensed on a “per CPU” basis means the maximum number of CPUs upon which you may install and use this RSA Software. A CPU is a single central processing unit within a computer system.
- Collector Device (CD). RSA Software licensed on a “collector device” basis means the number of source devices and applications from which events are collected within the Customer environment. The Server is licensed to run a single instance on the RSA® enVision® Appliance.
- Concurrent (CNC). RSA Software licensed on a “per concurrent User” or “per concurrent client connection” basis means the maximum number of Users or client connections that may concurrently use or access the RSA Software.
- Database (DB). RSA Software licensed on a “per Database” basis means the maximum number of Databases with which you may use the RSA Software. A “Database” is a data repository managed by a Server.
- Events per Second (EPS). RSA Software licensed on an “Events per Second” basis is defined as the number of events collected per second within the customer environment.
- Field of Use (FOU). RSA Software licensed on a “Field of Use” basis is licensed with a license restriction on a field of use, number of users, servers, platforms, or other restrictions. A “Field of Use” is defined as a license restriction as outlined in a Schedule, Quote, or Purchase Order subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement.
- File System (FS). RSA Software licensed on a “per file system” basis means each file server to be encrypted. Separate licenses for production and development systems are required.
- Instance (INST). RSA Software licensed on a “per Instance” basis means the maximum number of individual installations of an RSA Software application, or “Instances,” you may use at the same time in a production environment. For each Instance of the RSA Software license hereunder for production use, the Customer will receive the right to use two (2) additional Instances in non-production use (including standby/development/disaster recovery). License fees for additional Instances (both production and non-production) will be quoted on request.
- Number of Connections. RSA Software licensed on a “Number of Connections” basis means the RSA Software is licensed per connection between each computer FIM connects to.

- Server (SVR/SRVR). RSA Software licensed on a “per server” basis means the maximum number of physical servers on which you may install and use the RSA Software.
- User (USR). RSA Software licensed on a “per User” basis (sometimes referred to as a per “seat”) basis means the maximum number of Users that may be authorized to use or access the RSA Software, regardless of whether such Users are actively using or accessing the RSA Software at any given time. Except as otherwise agreed in an applicable Agreement, Schedule, or Quote, “User” means your agents, employees, consultants, or independent contractors authorized by you to use the RSA Software on your behalf. RSA Archer® Software Specific USR qualifiers: Different categories of Users (USR) will apply for RSA Archer Software licensed on a per User basis (these do not apply where the RSA Archer Software is licensed on a per Instance (INST) basis).

Additional terms applicable to RSA Archer Software: RSA may identify Customer for reference purposes and use Customer’s logo in its marketing material unless and until Customer expressly objects in writing.

Restrictions on use of RSA SecurID solution: For all purposes under the Agreement, token records to RSA SecurID authenticators shall be deemed RSA Software and be subject to the restrictions on transferability set forth in Section 4(c) of the Agreement.

Restrictions on use of RSA enVision Software:

- (1) RSA enVision Software identified in an order as a test system may be used in non-production environments only;
- (2) enVision Software identified in an order as a standby system may be used with cold-standby deployments only. The foregoing is subject to the following exception: In the event the production system that the standby system has been purchased with is unavailable due to failure or maintenance, the standby system may be used in a production environment. In no event may redundant system pairs operate concurrently beyond the use required due to failure or maintenance. Use of the standby system in a production environment shall be subject to the license restrictions of the production environment it is replacing;
- (3) Customer may receive the enVision Software in more than one medium. Customer may not use or install the other medium on another computer and may not loan, rent, lease, or otherwise transfer the other medium to another user; and
- (4) Customer understands that enVision Software is bundled with products which are subject to the Microsoft Software License Terms, currently located at <http://www.rsa.com/node.aspx?id=2469> and <http://msdn.microsoft.com/en-us/sqlserver/aa937726>, which Customer agrees to accept.

Restriction on Use of RSA Authenticators: Customer shall use the RSA authenticators only to authenticate to RSA Software. Customer shall not use any hardware cards, tokens, or other devices not provided by RSA to authenticate to the RSA Software, unless otherwise authorized by RSA in writing.

Restriction on Use of RSA Archer Software:

If Customer is licensing RSA Archer software on a term basis, the following provisions shall apply:

Software License Term: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Quotation or the Governing Agreement(s), whether stated in a section entitled "Grant of License" or elsewhere, no perpetual licenses are granted to Customer for the use of the RSA Archer Software and the following provisions shall apply:

The initial term of the license granted by RSA to Customer to use the such RSA Archer Software (the "Initial Term") shall commence on the effective date of this Quotation and remain in effect for (i) the period stated on the first page of this Quotation; or (ii) where no such period is so stated for three (3) years, unless sooner terminated in accordance with the Governing Agreement(s). The Initial Term shall automatically renew for consecutive additional one (1) year periods (each a "Renewal Term") provided that (1) Customer pays the applicable license fee (as specified in this Quotation or as otherwise quoted by an RSA representative or channel partner) prior to expiration of the then current term, and (2) neither party has sent the other party written notice of termination at least sixty (60) days prior to the end of the then current term.

No rights of termination for convenience will apply during the Initial Term or any Renewal Term and any provisions to the contrary in the applicable Governing Agreement(s) will be deemed amended to give effect to this provision. The license rights granted hereunder shall not survive termination of the Governing Agreement(s) and such Agreement(s) are deemed amended to give effect to this provision.

Pricing and Payment: The "Net Price" listed on the first page of this Quotation in the applicable row of the "Products" table shows the total amount that Customer shall pay for the license of RSA Archer Software for the Initial Term. RSA shall invoice Customer annually in advance for one (1) year's worth of license and maintenance fees for each year of the Initial Term and any Renewal Term. For example: if the Initial Term is three (3) years RSA will send Customer an invoice for 1/3 of the "Net Price" after the RSA Archer Software is made available to Customer through electronic file transfer or shipment of media containing such Software. In certain instances, RSA may invoice term licenses for RSA Archer software in a different manner. In such a case, the amount due for each year of the term license shall be set forth in the row entitled "Miscellaneous" on the first page of this Quotation.

If Customer is licensing RSA Archer Software bundled with other RSA software (SKU: BLP-P Solution Platform-perpetual license), the following provision shall apply:

Software License: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Quotation or the Governing Agreement(s), whether stated in a section entitled "Grant of License" or elsewhere, Customer shall only be able to utilize the RSA Archer Software for internal purposes with other RSA software which Customer has licensed.

Restriction on Use of RSA NetWitness Products:

If Customer is purchasing RSA NetWitness Products, the following provisions shall apply:

RSA may use all or any portion of information and knowledge gained by RSA in connection with such products, including, without limitation, such information and knowledge regarding attacker and beacon activity, to improve hardware, software, and/or services. RSA may also share it with others, such as hardware and software vendors who may use it to improve how their products interoperate with or support RSA products or services. To the extent that any services specified in any contract resulting from this Quotation, including without limitation installation, configuration, and/or maintenance services, constitute "defense services" as defined under the U.S. International Traffic in Arms Regulations ("ITAR"), 22 CFR 120.9, then RSA's commitment to provide such services shall be subject to the receipt of any required authorization from the U.S. Department of State, and the delivery schedule and pricing for such services shall be reasonably adjusted as appropriate to reflect such requirements. RSA shall not be liable for any delay in performing or failure to perform defense services due to delays or refusal by the U.S. Department of State to grant any such required authorization.

If Customer is licensing RSA NetWitness products or services on a term basis, the following provisions shall apply:

To the extent the first page of a Quotation offers a NetWitness product or service on a term or subscription basis, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Quotation or the Governing Agreement(s), no perpetual licenses are granted to Customer for the use of such product or service. The term license to such product or service shall commence on the effective date of this Quotation and remain in effect for the period stated on the first page of this Quotation.

RSA “eFraud Network™” database means a database owned and operated by RSA which contains information aggregated by RSA, discovered by the parties as part of the performance of their obligations under this Schedule, obtained, and/or procured from third parties and/or resulting from risk and fraud assessments carried out by RSA and includes without limitation IP addresses, Phishing website URLs, and any other related data.

“Exhibit” means Exhibits A, B, and/or C attached hereto, the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference;

“Product” means (a) the RSA consumer software suite described in Exhibit A and developed by RSA together with any Software releases, fixes, or patches delivered pursuant to the Maintenance Services, known as the RSA Adaptive Authentication Web Protection System.

2. License, Ownership.

A. RSA hereby grants Customer a perpetual, non-exclusive, nontransferable license to run and use those components of the Product as selected an RSA issued Quote, for Customer's own use for the purpose of processing Active End User authentication information on its web portals, online services, and/or its electronic transaction clearing systems. Such license shall be subject always to the Active End User Ceiling as further detailed in this Schedule.

B. Additional Software License Restrictions. Customer will not directly or indirectly use the Product for its internal enterprise authentication purposes. For the purpose of the Schedule, “internal enterprise authentication” means authenticating a login request (which request may originate either remotely or from Customer or an Affiliate's premises) of an employee, consultant, or an agent of Customer (or an Affiliate) for the purpose of granting the requestor access to Customer (or an Affiliate's) computer networks for the purpose of performing their assigned work.

C. Ownership and/or License of the eFraud Network database information. RSA shall retain and own all right, title, and interest and all intellectual property rights (including but not limited to copyrights, trade secrets, trademarks, and patent rights) to all information which is collected, submitted to, and made available on the eFraud Network in the course of the performance by either party of their obligations under this Schedule (or where such title cannot be granted or otherwise transferred to RSA, then Customer agrees to grant RSA an unconditional, unlimited, unrestricted, royalty free license to use, distribute, and/or otherwise make available such information).

D. RSA Trademark License. For so long as this Schedule remains in force, RSA grants Customer the right to use the “Secured by RSA” trademarks described in Exhibit C (the “RSA Mark”) solely for the purpose of displaying the RSA Mark on the End User facing web-based log in pages of its online services in compliance with Section 3 (on next page). Customer's use of the RSA Mark will conform at all times with RSA's quality and usage requirements and will be subject to prior review and approval by RSA. Customer will not seek to register any trademarks of RSA in any country in the world. Any use of the RSA Mark shall be in accordance with RSA's reasonable policies regarding advertising and trademark usage as established from time to time.

3. RSA Branding of the Active End User interface to the Licensed Software.

For so long as Customer is subscribing for the Maintenance Services, Customer will (unless it is a U.S. governmental entity) place the following words: “Secured by RSA”, in the form of the trademark logo attached hereto under Exhibit C, on (i) the client facing web-based user interface which is deployed by Customer for the purpose of allowing Active End Users access to the Product; and (ii) whenever the personal security image of the site-to-user authentication module (as described in Exhibit A) is shown. Nothing else herein shall prevent Licensee from separately branding its security processes which may use the Licensed Software and other security processes.

4. Billing Files.

Customer will provide RSA with the billing files as generated by the billing utility component of the Product (as further detailed in the Documentation) at the end of each calendar month for the purpose of evidencing its ongoing compliance with the Active User Ceiling from time to time and subject to RSA’s audit rights under the Agreement.

5. Product Delivery.

RSA Software shall be delivered to the Customer at the email address specified in Exhibit A.

6. Authorized Active End Users; Active End User Ceiling Increases.

Customer may increase the authorized Active End User Ceiling from time to time by way of a purchase order referencing this Schedule. Where Customer has exceeded its then authorized Active End User Ceiling, Customer will promptly (and in any event in not less than thirty (30) days from the date the Active End User Ceiling is first exceeded) procure an increase to its then licensed authorized Active End User Ceiling, for the fees and in the minimum increments set out in a Quote so as to meet or exceed its actual use of the Product. Such increases will be procured by way of a purchase order referencing the Quote. Where Customer has upgraded the authorized Active End User Ceiling, RSA will invoice Customer the adjusted Maintenance Services fees on a pro-rata basis for the Maintenance Services year then in progress on the date of such upgrade in a Quote.

7. Maintenance Services.

Customer hereby purchases the Enhanced Support and Data Services as further described in Exhibit B for the Products ordered under this Schedule for a term of one (1) year (the “Initial Maintenance Term”) commencing on the date the Product is first made electronically available for download. Thereafter, Maintenance Services shall renew on an annual basis, subject to Customer’s payment of RSA’s invoice for the applicable Maintenance Services fees. RSA may increase the Maintenance Services fee, to be effective at the commencement of any future annual period, provided that RSA notifies Customer, in writing, of such fee increase at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the previous annual period.

(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached SDL Government ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable Federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Please read the terms and conditions of this Agreement carefully. Licensor is willing to license the Software to you only if you agree to be bound by all the terms and conditions of this Agreement. This written Agreement supersedes any other End User Software License Agreement embedded via an installer for the Software.

1. Grant of License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Licensor grants to Customer a nonexclusive, nontransferable license: (a) to use the Software in the configuration for which you have paid a license fee (or in the event Licensor has provided you with the Software on a no fee basis for beta, evaluation, testing or demonstration purposes, your use of the Software shall be limited to such purposes), and only for your internal use; and (b) to copy the Software as reasonably necessary to exercise the license rights granted in subsection (a), including making a reasonable number of copies for internal archival purposes so long as no more than one such copy is used at any time. All copies of the Software made pursuant to subsection (b) shall be true and complete copies, and shall include all copyright, trademark and other proprietary notices as are contained on or in the original. Licensor reserves all rights in the Software not expressly granted to Customer in this Agreement.

2. Restrictions. Except as may be expressly authorized in this Agreement, Customer shall not: (a) copy or modify the Software, in whole or in part; (b) transfer, sublicense or otherwise distribute the Software to any third party; (c) lease, lend or rent the Software, use the Software to provide service bureau, time sharing, application services provider, hosting, language translation or other computer services to third parties, or otherwise make the functionality of the Software available to third parties with or without consideration; or (d) disassemble, decompile or reverse engineer the Software nor permit any third party to do so, except to the extent such restrictions are prohibited by law.

3. Ownership. You expressly acknowledge that, as between Licensor and Customer, Licensor owns all worldwide right, title and interest in and to the Software and all improvements thereto, including all worldwide intellectual property rights therein. You will not delete or in any manner alter the copyright, trademark and other proprietary rights notices appearing on the Software as delivered to you. You will reproduce such notices on all copies you make of the Software. In the event Licensor has provided Customer with the Software for evaluation purposes, you will be issued an Evaluation Agreement and will be asked to provide feedback to Licensor regarding the Software (including comments, questions, suggestions and the like) ("Feedback") in accordance with that Evaluation Agreement. You agree that any Feedback can be used by Licensor for purposes of improving the Software. In the event the end user of this license is a U.S. government agency, you will obtain written permission from the U.S. government agency to release any Feedback to Licensor, and for Licensor to use the Feedback for purposes of improving the Software. Any licenses for test and development purposes will be sold under separate terms and conditions. Test and development licenses are only to be used for internal assessment or testing purposes, and software provided for test and development purposes will not be installed, used or incorporated into any production environment.

4. Term. This Agreement will begin on the date Customer accepts this Agreement and will remain in effect for the term for which you have paid a license fee as set forth in the applicable ordering document, unless terminated earlier in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, you shall discontinue all use of the Software, and provide Licensor with a written certification stating that you have uninstalled the software and ceased using the license.

5. Support. If Customer issues an order for support, Licensor will provide you with technical support services for the Software. All technical support services will be subject to and performed in accordance with Licensor's Support and Maintenance Agreement issued at time of license delivery. Licensor reserves the right to change its technical support practices at any time, but will not reduce the level of technical support practices for which fees have been paid.

6. Limited Warranty. Licensor warrants that, for a period of sixty (60) days after the shipment date of the Software, the Software will be capable of performing in all material respects in accordance with the functional specifications set forth in the applicable documentation for the Software that has been provided with installation. As your sole and exclusive remedy and Licensor's entire liability for any breach of the warranty set forth in this Section 6, Licensor will, at its option: (a) promptly correct any Software that fails to meet this warranty; (b) provide you with a reasonable procedure to circumvent the nonconformity; or (c) refund the license fees paid by you for the non-conforming Software upon your return of such Software to Licensor. The warranty set forth in this Section 6 does not apply in the event Licensor has provided you with the Software on a no fee basis for beta, evaluation, testing or demonstration purposes.

7. Disclaimer. Licensor does not warrant that the Software will meet Customer's requirements, that the operation of the Software will be error-free or uninterrupted or that all Software errors will be corrected. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 6, THE SOFTWARE PROVIDED HEREUNDER IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND LICENSOR MAKES NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND WITH REGARD TO THE SOFTWARE. LICENSOR DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NONINFRINGEMENT, AND ANY WARRANTIES ARISING OUT OF COURSE OF DEALING, USAGE OR TRADE. No advice or information, whether oral or written, obtained from Licensor or elsewhere will create any warranty not expressly stated in this Agreement.

8. Reserved.

9. Reserved.

10. Proprietary Information.

10.1 Restrictions. Customer acknowledges that, in the course of this Agreement you may obtain certain confidential or proprietary information of Licensor ("Proprietary Information"). "Proprietary Information" includes (a) Licensor's technical, engineering, manufacturing, product, marketing, servicing, financial, personnel and other information, (b) the licensed software, and (c) documentation such as manuals and other supporting materials related to the software. As between Customer and Licensor, the Proprietary Information shall belong solely to Licensor. You agree: (i) to protect Proprietary Information from unauthorized dissemination and use, (ii) to use Proprietary Information only for the performance of this Agreement and the exercise of any rights granted to you under this Agreement, (iii) not to disclose any Proprietary Information to any of your employees, contractors, agents or any other individuals, except to those who are under confidentiality obligations no less restrictive than the requirements of this Section 10, and (iv) not to remove or destroy any proprietary or confidential legends or markings placed upon or contained within the Proprietary Information.

10.2 Equitable Relief. Customer agrees that, due to the unique nature of the Proprietary Information, the unauthorized disclosure or use of Proprietary Information or any other breach of any provision of Section 10.1 will cause irreparable harm and significant injury to Licensor, the extent of which will be difficult to ascertain and for which there will be no adequate remedy at law. Accordingly, you agree that Licensor, in addition to any other available remedies, shall have the right to obtain an immediate injunction and other equitable relief enjoining any breach or threatened breach of Section 10.1 without the necessity of posting any bond or other security. You shall notify Licensor in writing immediately upon becoming aware of any such breach or threatened breach.

11. U.S. Government End User Terms

11.1 Applicability. The U.S. Government end user terms and conditions set forth in this Section 11 shall apply to all instances where Customer is the U.S. Government, or a Prime Contractor or Subcontractor that is using the Software to provide services to or for the U.S. Government (each, a "U.S. Government End User"). In the event that Customer is a U.S. Government End User, the following provisions of this Agreement do not apply, and, where relevant, are superseded by the applicable provision of FAR 52.212-4 or other applicable law, such as the Contracts Disputes Act: 4 (to the extent it permits termination by Licensor), 5 (to the extent it permits unilateral alteration of support terms by Licensor), 8, 10 (to the extent inconsistent with the Freedom of Information Act), 12.6, 12.7.

11.2 Government End User Rights.

(a) The Software and any derivatives are "commercial items" as defined in 48 C.F.R. 2.101 ("Commercial Items"). If Customer is a U.S. Government End User, then the use, duplication, reproduction, release, modification, disclosure or transfer of the Software and any associated documentation and technical data is restricted in accordance with 48 C.F.R. §12.211; 48 C.F.R. §12.212, 48 C.F.R. §227.7102-2, and 48 C.F.R. §227.7202, as applicable. A third party may resell the Software to a U.S. Government End User, if and only if, the Software is licensed to the U.S. Government End User subject to the terms of this Agreement.

(b) Consistent with 48 C.F.R. §12.211, 48 C.F.R. §12.212, 48 C.F.R. §227.7102-1 through 48 C.F.R. §227.7102-3, and 48 C.F.R. §§227.7202-1 through 227.7202-4, as applicable, the Software is provided to U.S. Government End Users: (i) only as Commercial Items, (ii) with only those rights as are granted to all other users pursuant to this Agreement (except as otherwise noted in Section 11.1), and (iii) the terms of this Agreement are incorporated into any Reseller, Prime Contractor, or Subcontractor's contract with the U.S. Government or otherwise agreed to by Customer in a way that legally binds the U.S. Government to these terms. This U.S. Government Rights clause is in lieu of, and supersedes, any Federal Acquisition Regulations ("FAR"), the Defense FAR Supplement ("DFARS"), or other clause or provision that addresses U.S. Government rights in computer software or technical data.

12. General

12.1 Independent Contractor and Subcontractors. Licensor is an independent contractor and not an agent or representative of Customer or any Reseller. No employee of Licensor shall be deemed an employee of Customer or any Reseller. Customer will have no direct control over Licensor or its employees. Licensor may engage subcontractors without notice to or consent of Customer.

12.3 Third-Party Hardware and Software. The Software provided under this Agreement may necessitate use of certain third party hardware, software and/or data products by Customer. Customer shall be solely responsible for obtaining licenses to such third party hardware, software or data for its own use. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, and for the avoidance of doubt, Licensor has no liability for such third party hardware, software or data, whether in warranty, indemnity, or otherwise.

12.4 Publicity. Licensor may make reference to the existence of this Agreement and disclose that Customer is a customer of Licensor, including, without limitation, that Customer is a customer of Licensor with respect to the Software, without Customer's further consent. Customer may not make any reference to this Agreement, including the existence of this Agreement, in any prospectus, proxy statement, offering memorandum, or similar document without Licensor's prior written consent, which Licensor may grant or withhold, in its reasonable discretion.

12.5 Severability. If the application of any provision of this Agreement to any particular facts or circumstances shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then (a) the validity and enforceability of such provision as applied to any other particular facts or circumstances and the validity of other provisions of this Agreement shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby, and (b) such provision shall be enforced to the maximum extent possible so as to effect the intent of the Parties and reformed without further action by the Parties to the extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable.

12.6 Reserved.

12.8 No Waiver. No course of dealing, course of performance or failure of either Party strictly to enforce any term, right or condition of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of any other term, right or condition. No waiver or breach of any provision of this Agreement shall be construed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision.

12.9 Relationship of the Parties. This Agreement shall not be construed as creating an agency, partnership, joint venture or any other form of association, for tax purposes or otherwise, between the Parties, and the Parties shall at all times be and remain independent contractors. Except as expressly agreed by the Parties in writing, neither Party shall have any right or authority, express or implied, to assume or create any obligation of any kind, or to make any representation or warranty, on behalf of the other Party or to bind the other Party in any respect whatsoever.

12.10 Notices. Licensor shall deliver all notices and communications concerning the Software or this Agreement to the attention of the individual or group designated by the Parties in writing on the signature page of this Agreement. Any notice, request, demand, or other communication required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing, shall reference this Agreement and shall be deemed given upon receipt when: (a) delivered personally; (b) sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid; (c) sent via express courier, with written confirmation of receipt; or (d) delivered via email with read receipt or reply confirming recipient viewed the message.

12.11 Compliance with Laws. Customer agrees that it shall comply with all laws and regulations of the United States and other applicable jurisdictions in access and using the Software. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Customer shall not make the Software available to any person or entity that: (a) is located in a country that is subject to a U.S. Government embargo; (b) is listed on any U.S. Government list of prohibited or restricted parties; or (c) is engaged in activities directly or indirectly related to the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction.

12.12 Export Laws. The Software and related documentation are subject to U.S. export control laws and may be subject to export or import regulations in other countries. Customer agrees to strictly comply with all such laws and regulations and acknowledges that Customer is responsible for obtaining such licenses to export, re-export, or import as may be required.

12.13 Headings. The headings in this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not constitute a part hereof or affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

12.14 Complete Agreement. This Agreement, any exhibits and schedules attached to it, any other terms and conditions incorporated by reference herein, and the terms and conditions of the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, contain the entire understanding of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersede any and all related prior understandings, agreements, representations, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written. This Agreement cannot be modified or amended except in a writing signed by both Parties.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Seceon Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

3. From the date You purchase Products, Seller warrants that the Products it manufactures and You purchase shall be free from defects in materials and will function substantially in accordance with the normal, ordinary and customary use of the Products, when used in accordance with how Seller intends the Products to be used and in compliance with all instructions provided to You. Seller warrants that Services performed by Seller shall be performed in accordance with generally accepted industry standards. Limited warranty periods for Products and Services are specified on Seller's invoice. Seller's warranties apply only to Products which are manufactured by Seller or Services performed by Seller. All other products, expendable parts and/or peripheral devices from Seller's Suppliers ("Supplier Products"), even if included with Products and which may not be invoiced separately to You, all original equipment manufacturer products ("OEM Products") and OEM services associated with OEM Products ("OEM Services") are subject to Supplier's or OEM's standard warranty, which is expressly in lieu of any other warranty, express or implied, by Seller, Supplier or OEM. If there is no Supplier or OEM warranty, You take all such Supplier Products, OEM Products and OEM Services "as-is" without any warranty. Your exclusive remedy, if any, under Seller's warranties is limited, at Seller's election, to: (a) refund of Your purchase price, (b) repair or reperformance of any Products or Services found to be defective, or (c) replacement of any Product. Repairs or replacements may be performed using factory-refinished parts or comparable products. Any parts or Products exchanged by Seller in repairing or replacing any parts or Products shall become the sole property of Seller. Repaired or replaced Products and reperfomed Services shall be subject to the original warranty period. Seller does not provide repair services or any other services at Your place of business or any other place other than at Seller's facilities. You acknowledge that except as specifically set forth herein, THERE ARE NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND BY SELLER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AS TO THE CONDITION OR PERFORMANCE OF ANY PRODUCTS OR SERVICES, THEIR MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR USE, NONINFRINGEMENT, OR OTHERWISE. SELLER ASSUMES NO RESPONSIBILITY OR LIABILITY FOR SUPPLIER PRODUCTS, OEM PRODUCTS OR SUPPLIER SERVICES, THE PERFORMANCE OR ADEQUACY OF ANY SUPPLIER OR OEM DESIGNS OR SPECIFICATIONS OR THE PERFORMANCE OR ADEQUACY OF ANY DESIGN OR SPECIFICATION PROVIDED TO SELLER.

4. Seller's warranty in paragraph 3 shall not apply in the event (a) A Product has been damaged or rendered defective as a result of: (i) the use other than for its usual and customary use; (ii) the failure of You or any other party to use the Product in accordance with the component user manual(s) and any other written directions or instructions provided with the Product at the time of sale or subsequently; (iii) the condition or use of Supplier Products, OEM Products or parts or accessories purchased other than directly from Seller; (iv) a modification or repair of the Product by You or any party other than Seller; (v) services performed by any party other than Seller; (vi) improper transportation or packaging in the shipment of the Product to Seller or its repair facility; or (vii) the installation of third-party products into the Product, for example, memory cards; (b) Any third party software provided with the Products (which software may or may not be provided with a licensor warranty); and (c) Operation of the Products in conjunction with equipment, software or other items manufactured or sold by any third-party or You.

5. Seller's rights and remedies will be cumulative and not exclusive. You are responsible for all losses, costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by Seller in collecting any sums You owe. Seller shall have the right to offset against any amounts owed by Seller to You. These Terms, and any matter arising out of or related thereto, are governed solely by the laws of the State of New York, without regard to its conflict of law principles. No provisions of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for International Sale of Goods, including any amendments thereto, will apply. Any proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement must be commenced in any court of competent jurisdiction located in New York County in the State of New York. The parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of such court and waive (a) any right to a jury trial or (b) defense of lack of personal jurisdiction in such court. EACH OF THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY OBJECTION THAT THEY MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY SUCH PROCEEDING IN SUCH COURTS AND ANY CLAIM THAT ANY SUCH PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURTS HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN ANY INCONVENIENT FORUM. Each party agrees that a final judgment in any such proceeding is conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.
5. Products or Services are deemed accepted by You unless You notify Seller of shortages, damage or defects in writing within 10 days of delivery of Products or performance of Services. All returns must comply with Seller's return policy and procedure as set forth at <https://www.senecadata.com/support/rma-policy/> ("RMA Policy") and paragraph 13 with respect to NCNR Products. If You refuse to accept tender or delivery of any Products or return any Products without complying with the RMA Policy, Seller will hold such Products awaiting Your instructions for 20 days, after which Seller may deem the Products abandoned and dispose of them, without crediting Your account. You warrant that any Products returned are the original Products Seller shipped to You and are unaltered. All returns are subject to a restocking fee up to 50% of the value of the Products being returned.
6. Seller will not be liable for any damages due to any failure or delay in its performance as result of any events beyond its reasonable control. Seller may cancel without liability any order delayed by any such cause(s). In its sole discretion, Seller may allocate, defer, delay, or cancel the shipment of any Product which is in short supply.
7. These Terms are subject to change and are effective upon Seller posting the updated Terms to its website (available at <https://www.senecadata.com/support/xxxxxxx>).
8. If Your order is placed under a contract with the United States Government, Seller agrees to comply only with those contract provisions and regulations that meet both of the following conditions: (a) Seller must comply with such provisions and regulations applicable to a distributor as a matter of law, and (b) You have identified them in writing and they have been accepted in writing by Seller at the time of order placement. In no event will United States Government Cost Accounting Standards apply. To the extent not exempt, You shall abide by the requirements of 41 CFR §§ 60-1.4(a), 60-300.5(a) and 60-741.5(a). These regulations prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals based on their status as protected veterans or individuals with disabilities, and prohibit discrimination against all individuals based on their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.
9. You covenant that Products and Services provided by Seller will not be used in life support systems, human implantation, nuclear facilities or systems or any other application where product failure could lead to loss of life or catastrophic property damage. In the event that You breach such covenant, You will fully defend, indemnify and hold harmless Seller, its agents and Suppliers from any claims resulting from such breach.
10. You will comply with any applicable export or resale restrictions and regulations. Seller does not warrant and will not be liable for any error regarding the accuracy of any statement as to product country of origin, ECCN, HTS Code, RoHS compliance, parametric or conflict mineral data or compliance with applicable law. You certify that You: (a) comply with all applicable laws, including the labor laws and regulations and anti-bribery regulations in the jurisdictions where You operate and (b) comply with Seller's Business Partner Code of Conduct (available here).
11. Except for the limited warranty in paragraph 3, NEITHER SELLER, SUPPLIER(S) OR OEM(S) WILL HAVE ANY LIABILITY OR OBLIGATION TO YOU OR ANY OTHER PERSON FOR ANY CLAIM, LOSS, DAMAGE, OR EXPENSE CAUSED IN WHOLE OR IN PART BY (a) ANY INADEQUACY, DEFICIENCY, OR DEFECT IN ANY PRODUCTS OR SERVICES (WHETHER OR NOT COVERED BY ANY WARRANTY), (b) THE USE OR PERFORMANCE OF ANY PRODUCTS OR SERVICES, OR (c) ANY FAILURE OR DELAY IN SELLER'S PERFORMANCE HEREUNDER. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY HEREIN OR AS REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NEITHER SELLER, SUPPLIER(S) NOR OEM(S) WILL HAVE ANY LIABILITY THESE TERMS OR UNDER ANY CONTRACT, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHER LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, LOST PROFIT, LOST BUSINESS OR COST OF REPLACEMENT GOODS OR SERVICES, REWORK OR LOSS OF DATA HOWSOEVER CAUSED, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OR LIKELIHOOD OF ANY SUCH DAMAGES. IN NO EVENT WILL SELLER'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY FOR ANY DAMAGES, REGARDLESS OF BASIS, EXCEED THE PRICE PAID FOR THE SPECIFIC PRODUCTS OR SERVICES GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM.
12. Notwithstanding paragraph 3, the performance of any value-added service to OEM Products may void OEM's warranty. Orders incorporating value-added services may become non-cancelable and the Products non-returnable under paragraphs 13 or 15. Your third-party value-added service provider is deemed to be Your agent. Seller shall have no liability for any technical advice offered or given.
13. Seller may designate Products, Supplier Products or OEM Products as end-of-life or obsolete ("EOL"), required to be ordered in minimum quantities ("MOQ"), an OEM Product modified by Seller's value-added services as described in paragraph 12, or otherwise cannot be canceled and cannot be returned except for a valid warranty claim (collectively, "Non-Cancellable/Non-Returnable" or "NCNR") Products). Orders for NCNR Products are subject to Seller's NCNR Agreement, which You will sign before Seller accepts such Orders. If You do not take delivery of NCNR Products by the delivery date mutually agreed in the NCNR Agreement, You agree that Seller may ship NCNR Products to You and You will accept and pay for such NCNR Products. Orders for NCNR Products are not eligible for cancellation, rescheduling, reconfiguration or assignment under paragraph 15.
14. All rights in intellectual property owned or licensed by Seller, Supplier(s) or OEM(s) are hereby reserved and deemed restricted or limited. Seller makes no representation or warranty with respect to such rights and will have no liability in connection with them. You agree to comply with all requirements with regard to any intellectual property (including any requirement to enter into a separate license agreement and prohibitions against duplicating, reverse engineering or disclosing the same), even if Seller has broken the seal on any "shrink wrapped" software. If You provide Seller with any intellectual property, You warrant that You have all necessary legal rights to such intellectual property. You will indemnify Seller against and defend and hold it harmless from all liability, cost or expense arising out of or relating to any (a) breach or alleged breach of these terms and conditions, or (b) Your use or sale of the Products or Services, including infringement claims that arise from Your use of Products or Services in combination with other products or services.
15. None of Your orders may be cancelled, rescheduled, reconfigured, or assigned without Seller's prior written authorization and, in such event, You will be liable to Seller for any additional costs and expenses incurred by Seller. Prices are subject to change by Seller for any reason, including (a) upon Your rescheduling or reconfiguration of orders, or (b) in response to Supplier's price increases or if a price has been quoted in error, whereupon You may cancel the undelivered portion of any affected order by delivering written notice to Seller prior to the shipment thereof and within 10 days of Your receipt of notice of the price increase. Seller may assign its accounts receivable. In order to defray the cost of Your account administration, any amount owed to You which remains unclaimed by You for a period of 12 months will become the property of Seller.
16. If any term or provision set forth herein is deemed to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. Upon a determination that any term or provision is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the court may modify these terms and conditions to affect our original intent as closely as possible in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated to the greatest extent possible as originally contemplated.

HOLLYWOOD, FL 33020

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Siemens Industry, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

SIEMENS INDUSTRY, INC.

SIEMENS INDUSTRY, INC. LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

1. Buyer's Requirements. Timely performance by Contractor through Siemens is contingent upon Ordering Activity's supplying to Siemens all required technical information and data, including drawing approvals, and all required commercial documentation.

2. Limited Warranty. (a.) Limited Product Warranty Statements. For each Product purchased from Contractor or an authorized reseller, Contractor makes the following limited warranties: (i) the Product is free from defects in material and workmanship, (ii) the Product materially conforms to Siemens' specifications that are attached to, or expressly incorporated by reference into, these terms, and (iii) at the time of delivery, Siemens has title to the Product free and clear of liens and encumbrances (collectively, the "Limited Warranties"). Warranties with respect to software which may be furnished by Contractor as part of the Product, if any, are expressly set forth elsewhere in these terms. The Limited Warranties set forth herein do not apply to any software furnished by Contractor. If software is furnished by Contractor, then the attached Software License/Warranty Addendum shall apply.

(b.) Conditions to the Limited Warranties. The Limited Warranties are conditioned on (i) Ordering Activity storing, installing, operating and maintaining the Product in accordance with Siemens' instructions, (ii) no repairs, modifications or alterations being made to the Product other than by Contractor through Siemens or its authorized representatives, (iii) using the Product within any conditions or in compliance with any parameters set forth in specifications that are attached to, or expressly incorporated by reference into, these terms, (iv) Ordering Activity discontinuing use of the Product after it has, or should have had, knowledge of any defect in the Product, (v) Ordering Activity providing prompt written notice of any warranty claims within the warranty period described below, (vi) at Contractor's discretion, Ordering Activity either removing and shipping the Product or non-conforming part thereof to Contractor through Siemens, at Ordering Activity's expense, or Ordering Activity granting Contractor through Siemens access to the Products at all reasonable times and locations to assess the warranty claims, and (vii) Ordering Activity not being in default of any payment obligation to Contractor under these terms.

(c.) Exclusions from Limited Warranty Coverage. The Limited Warranties specifically exclude any equipment comprising part of the Product that is not manufactured by Siemens or not bearing its nameplate. To the extent permitted, Contractor hereby assigns any warranties made to Siemens for such non-Siemens equipment. Contractor shall have no liability to Ordering Activity under any legal theory for such non-Siemens equipment or any related assignment of warranties. Additionally, any Product that is described as being experimental, developmental, prototype, or pilot is specifically excluded from the Limited Warranties and is provided to Ordering Activity "as is" with no warranties of any kind. Also excluded from the Limited Warranties are normal wear and tear items including any expendable items that comprise part of the Product, such as fuses and light bulbs and lamps.

(d.) Limited Warranty Period. Ordering Activity shall have 12 months from initial operation of the Product or 18 months from shipment, whichever occurs first, to provide Contractor with prompt, written notice of any claims of breach of the Limited Warranties. Continued use or possession of the Product after expiration of the warranty period shall be conclusive evidence that the Limited Warranties have been fulfilled to the full satisfaction of Ordering Activity, unless Ordering Activity has previously provided Contractor with notice of a breach of the Limited Warranties.

(e.) Remedies for Breach of Limited Warranty. Buyer's sole and exclusive remedies for any breach of the Limited Warranties are limited to Siemens' choice of repair or replacement of the Product, or non-conforming parts thereof, or refund of all or part of the purchase price. The warranty on repaired or replaced parts of the Product shall be limited to the remainder of the original warranty period. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Siemens, (i) Contractor shall be responsible for any labor required to gain access to the Product so that Siemens can assess the available remedies and (ii) Contractor shall be responsible for all costs of installation of repaired or replaced Products. All exchanged Products replaced under this Limited Warranty will become the property of Siemens.

(f.) Transferability. The Limited Warranties shall be transferable during the warranty period to the initial end-user of the Product. THE LIMITED WARRANTIES SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION ARE SIEMENS' SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE WARRANTIES AND ARE SUBJECT TO THE LIMITS OF LIABILITY SET FORTH IN SECTION 8 BELOW. SIEMENS MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, COURSE OF DEALING AND USAGE OF TRADE.

3. Patent and Copyright Infringement. Siemens will, at its own expense, defend or at its option settle any suit or proceeding brought against Buyer in so far as it is based on an allegation that any Product (including parts thereof), or use thereof for its intended purpose, constitutes an infringement of any United States patent or copyright, if Siemens is promptly provided notice and given authority, information, and assistance in a timely manner for the defense of said suit or proceeding to the extent permitted by 28 U.S.C. 516. Siemens will pay the damages and costs awarded in any suit or proceeding so defended. Siemens will not be responsible for any settlement of such suit or proceeding made without its prior written consent. In case the Product, or any part thereof, as a result of any suit or proceeding so defended is held to constitute infringement or its use by Buyer is enjoined, Siemens will, at its option and its own expense, either: (a) procure for Buyer the right to continue using said Product; (b) replace it with substantially equivalent non-infringing Product; or (c) modify the Product so it becomes noninfringing.

Siemens will have no duty or obligation to Buyer under this Article to the extent that the Product is (a) supplied according to Buyer's design or instructions wherein compliance therewith has caused Siemens to deviate from its normal course of performance, (b) modified by Buyer or its contractors after delivery, (c) combined by Buyer or its contractors with devices, methods, systems or processes not furnished hereunder and by reason of said design, instruction, modification, or combination a suit is brought against Buyer. In addition, if by reason of such design, instruction, modification or combination, a suit or proceeding is brought against Siemens, Buyer shall protect Siemens in the same manner and to the same extent that Siemens has agreed to protect Buyer under the provisions of the Section above.

THIS ARTICLE IS AN EXCLUSIVE STATEMENT OF ALL THE DUTIES OF THE PARTIES RELATING TO PATENTS AND COPYRIGHTS, AND DIRECT OR CONTRIBUTORY PATENT OR COPYRIGHT AND OF ALL THE REMEDIES OF BUYER RELATING TO ANY CLAIMS, SUITS, OR PROCEEDINGS INVOLVING PATENTS AND COPYRIGHTS.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached Siren Data Intelligence, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.2293.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a

United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule

Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY

4.1 "Confidential Information" means all information disclosed (whether in writing, orally or by another means and whether directly or indirectly) by a party (the "Disclosing Party") to the other party (the "Receiving Party") whether before or after the date of this Agreement which ought reasonably to be regarded as confidential including, without limitation, information relating to the Disclosing Party's products, services, operations, processes, plans or intentions, product information, knowhow, design rights, trade secrets, market opportunities and business affairs.

4.2 During the term of this Agreement and after termination or expiration of this Agreement for any reason the Receiving Party: will not use Confidential Information for a purpose other than the performance of its obligations or exercise of its rights under this Agreement; will not disclose Confidential Information to a person except with the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party or in accordance with Clause 4.3, 4.4 and 4.5; and shall make every effort to prevent the use or disclosure of Confidential Information.

During the term of this Agreement the Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information to any of its Affiliates, directors, other officers, employees or agents, (a "Recipient") to the extent that disclosure is reasonably necessary for the purposes of this Agreement provided that the Receiving Party shall ensure that a Recipient is made aware of and complies with the Receiving Party's obligations of confidentiality under this Agreement as if the Recipient was a party to this Agreement.

Each party may disclose Confidential Information if and to the extent that:

this is required by the law of any relevant jurisdiction or pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction;

this is required by any securities exchange or regulatory or governmental body to which that party is subject to, wherever situated, whether or not the requirement for information has the force of law;

the information is disclosed on a strictly confidential basis to the professional advisers, auditors and bankers of that party;

the information was obtained by the Receiving Party from a third party who was free to divulge same PROVIDED THAT any such information disclosed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) shall be disclosed only after notice to the other party.

Siren recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which may require that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

4.5 The obligations of both parties as to confidentiality shall continue in force notwithstanding the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

5. PERSONAL DATA

5.1 Each party will comply with Data Protection Law of the United States. Each party will not use any personal data of the other party in any manner, except that each party may process personal data, for the purposes of (i) this Agreement, (ii) maintaining their administrative or customer relationship management systems, including the use of IT outsource providers, (iii) quality and risk management reviews.

5.2 The Customer acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent that it acts as a data controller, it is responsible for ensuring that it procures consent from data subjects for the processing of their personal data through the Products.

6. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

6.1 The Customer acknowledges that all Intellectual Property Rights and any other proprietary rights in the Products shall at all times vest in and be the absolute property of Siren or its licensors, as appropriate. The Customer shall give Siren all reasonable assistance. The costs incurred or recovered in such negotiations or settled claim shall be for Siren's account. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516.

6.3 If at any time an allegation of infringement of Intellectual Property Rights is made in respect of the Products or, in Siren's reasonable opinion such an allegation is likely to be made, Siren may at its own expense modify or replace the Products so as to avoid the infringement making good to the Customer any loss arising from such modification or replacement. If the Products cannot be replaced or modified within thirty (30) days then the Customer may terminate this Agreement without liability and Siren shall promptly refund to the Customer the pro rata amount of any fees paid under this Agreement.

it will comply with all applicable laws in respect of the performance of its obligations and exercise of its rights under this Agreement.

In the event of any failure of the Products to function in accordance with the documentation supporting the Products, Siren will attempt through reasonable endeavours to correct or cure any reproducible non-compliance notified to it in writing, provided always that the Products have not been misused or damaged by the Customer in any respect, and that the existence and nature of any such nonconformity or defect is promptly notified to the Customer in writing upon Siren discovering it.

Siren does not warrant that the Products will meet the Customers' requirements. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, all warranties, conditions, representations, statements, terms and provisions express or implied by statute, common law or otherwise are excluded to the greatest extent permitted by law. EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached SmartBear Software, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ)), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

SmartBear Product Support Procedures

SmartBear provides assistance in several ways.

Our customers or trial prospects can access online information via our SmartBear website, www.smartbear.com. Our web-site contains online documentation, troubleshooting, and many other tools that will help you get the most out of our products.

We also have several community forums for SmartBear products in which you can find responses to various questions asked from other customers. This is also where you can post your own question. Both our customers and SmartBear monitor these forums and provide answers.

Finally, if you cannot find an answer to your question via our web-site, you can also submit a ticket to our Customer Care team via our web-site by selecting the contact support button at the bottom of the support page.

For some of the products, we also provide chat and telephone support. Please see more detail regarding this below.

Support Services will be available to individuals who have been named, in writing, by customers or prospects eligible to receive support. Support eligibility requires an active maintenance contract, current product subscription, or a valid trial license.

Contacting Support

When our support teams receive your ticket, an individual will review the information you provide with the objective to provide an answer on our initial response. Our goal is to respond in the time frames mentioned below. This will be based on the urgency of the situation and product. Sometimes we do not have all of the information to provide an answer or we may need to perform more research before providing an answer. In these scenarios our initial response will be to let you know we have reviewed the information and what our next steps will be.

We will also provide updates on a regular basis. The time frames of these updates are documented below.

Our team also tracks our dialogue with you as well as captures and tracks any information you have provided us such as log files, screen captures, etc. This information is tracked in our ticketing system. Consequently you'll be able to find out the status of your ticket simply via our updates or by contacting us.

If the support engineer who initially took your issue requires assistance from someone, he/she will either consult with a colleague or escalate your issue to a more skilled engineer, e.g. senior technical support engineer, developer, etc. The timeframe of these escalation goals are driven by the severity of the issue and are listed below.

If you feel you are not receiving the appropriate response for an issue, please check to make sure we understand the urgency of the situation properly. You can also contact your Account Manager or Customer Success Manager who will ensure the appropriate manager is aware of your situation.

Product Support Definitions

Initial Response, Follow-Up and Escalation

The SmartBear Software Product Support organization has established service-level objectives regarding the timing of the Initial Response provided to our Customers when a new support case is received as well as for Follow Up communication regarding the status of open cases.

Initial Response

Initial Response is defined as the first communication from Product Support acknowledging receipt and review of a support request.

New tickets will be created either automatically by a web-form or manually by a Technical Support team member.

When a ticket is created automatically, the submitter will receive an automatic response which will include the ticket number which we use for tracking purposes. This is part of the initial response.

The initial response is completed when a Product Support team member acknowledges receipt of the ticket. This can be a follow-up from an automatic submission or initial entry of the ticket when submitted via phone or chat.

During the initial response, the support engineer may request additional information or may communicate that additional research is required. The support engineer may also escalate to a more skilled engineer if required.

The Initial Response may be provided in various forms including:

Via a support ticket response from Product Support, which would include the assigned case number, status, and next steps
 If applicable via a customer's first telephone or chat contact with the Product Support organization during which the issue was discussed with a Support Representative.

Follow-Up Communications

SmartBear Software Product Support defines Follow-up as communication between the assigned Support Representative and the Customer. This may include a status update, additional information exchange and/or next steps. Communication may be in many forms such as the telephone, chat (if applicable), e-mail or directly updating the case information if it is available to the customer on-line.

Escalation

SmartBear Software Product Support defines Escalation as the protocol under which Product Support will escalate a case to higher skilled individuals in which their assistance is required to move a case forward. For example, when an issue needs additional help from development, the support representative will escalate to the development manager. Priority Definitions

SmartBear will commit to initial response, follow-up and escalation times based on the severity of an issue. These severities are defined by product state or behavior so we can be as transparent as possible and set the proper expectations with you, our customer. The table below lists these severity definitions.

Priority Definitions Table

Product	Urgent/Sev 1	High	Standard

Update Policy

Product defects and enhancement requests are reviewed regularly by the SmartBear Software Product Management and Development organizations to assess whether the request represents an enhancement or defect and if it is assigned the appropriate priority. Product Management will determine, based upon the assigned priority, whether a patch will be made available for the current generally available release or whether an issue will be addressed in a future release through an update.

All defects and enhancements must be reported using the instructions provided in the Product Support Procedures at the beginning of this document.

Enhancements

An enhancement is any additional feature or function that would make the product easier to use, improves workflow or end-user experience, embeds new technology, or provides easier integration with other application or databases. An enhancement is not of an urgent nature, but is an improvement on the current product. Enhancements are therefore handled as a standard priority matter.

Defects

A software defect is a flaw in the product that is not working as designed or documented and impedes the workflow of a client.

Defect/Enhancement Priorities

Product Management determines the priority of defects. The defect priority drives when a fix will be available. Refer to the Severity Definitions for an explanation of each priority.

Urgent / Sev 1 Priority – SmartBear Software will work to provide a patch or work around that can be applied to the current generally available product release.

High Priority – SmartBear Software will consider a patch or work around for the current generally available product release or will work to provide the fix in a future maintenance release.

Standard Priority – SmartBear Software will consider a fix for a future major release based on market indicators.

SPIRENT COMMUNICATIONS, INC
SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT

This Software License Agreement ("Agreement") is made by and between (i) Spirent Communications, Inc. and its affiliates ("Spirent"), and (ii) the undersigned Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts ("Customer" "You" "User" or "Ordering Activity"), who, intending to be legally bound and for good and valuable consideration hereby acknowledge and agree as follows. If you are accepting the terms of this Agreement on behalf of an entity, you and such entity represent and warrant that you have the authority to bind such entity to this Agreement, and, in such event, "Customer" will refer to such entity.

THIS AGREEMENT GOVERNS CUSTOMER'S USE OF SPIRENT SOFTWARE, INCLUDING EMBEDDED OR PRE-INSTALLED SOFTWARE IN SPIRENT HARDWARE, (THE "SOFTWARE"), UNLESS SPIRENT AND CUSTOMER HAVE EXECUTED A SEPARATE AGREEMENT IN WRITING. BY BOTH PARTIES EXECUTING THIS AGREEMENT IN WRITING, CUSTOMER IS EXPRESSLY ACKNOWLEDGING AND AGREEING THAT THIS IS A BINDING AGREEMENT AND CUSTOMER HEREBY AGREES TO THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT. IF CUSTOMER DOES NOT ACCEPT ALL THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS SET FORTH HEREIN, CUSTOMER MAY NOT OPERATE, DOWNLOAD, INSTALL, REGISTER OR OTHERWISE USE THE SOFTWARE.

1. SOFTWARE LICENSE

1.1. Licensed Rights. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Spirent grants to Customer a limited, nonexclusive, nontransferable license, without right of sublicense, to use, solely for Customer's internal business purposes, the Software, in object code form only and only in accordance with (a) the technical specification documentation generally made available by Spirent to its customers with regard to the Software ("Documentation"), (b) this Agreement and (c) any term, user, number of licenses or other restrictions set forth in the applicable Spirent quotation ("Quote") or, if not expressly specified in such Quote, the number of licenses, users and/or test sessions for the part numbers listed in Spirent's price list as of the date of such Quote. Licenses designated as "subscription" licenses are for a twelve (12) month period only (unless otherwise designated in the Quote), and may be renewed for additional successive one (1) year terms by executing a new Purchase Order in writing. Software shall also include any Documentation and any maintenance and support releases, improvements, enhancements, and other updates of the same Software product provided to Customer under this Agreement. The Quote shall specify the license type for each license of the Software:

Global Floating: Customer may install the Software on any number of internal systems and any of Customer's employees, consultants or agents may use the Software on behalf of Customer, provided however, no more than the specified maximum number of simultaneous instances may be executed at any one time.

Floating: Customer may install the Software on any number of internal systems and any of Customer's employees, consultants or agents may use the Software on behalf of Customer, provided however, that (i) no more than the specified maximum number of simultaneous instances may be executed at any one time, and (ii) the Software may not be installed on any system or used by any user outside of the specified jurisdiction(s).

Named: Customer may only permit one registered, unique named individual to use each licensed instance of the Software and may only be installed on a reasonable number of systems utilized by such individuals. Named licenses must be registered with the individual's actual name and may not be shared by individuals or allocated to a job function. Once a license is associated with an individual, the license may not be transferred to another individual without the express prior written consent of Spirent.

Node Locked: Customer may install each license of the Software on one specific system and that system is the only one which may access that instance of the Software. Once a license is associated with a specific system, the license may not be transferred to another system without Spirent's prior written consent.

Spirent and Customer may agree on alternate types of licenses as set forth in a Quote. If no license type is specified in a Quote, the Software is licensed as a one-year subscription of a single Named license.

1.1.1 Pre-installed Software. To the extent that the Software is pre-installed on Spirent hardware acquired by Customer, Customer may use such Software solely as installed on and to the extent necessary for the normal and intended uses of, such Spirent hardware, subject to the terms of this Agreement.

1.2. Restrictions on Licensed Rights. Customer acknowledges that the components of the Software are subject to copyrights owned by Spirent or its licensors and the Software is licensed, and not sold, to Customer. Customer is prohibited from modifying or permitting anyone else to modify the Software or any module or other portion thereof. Except as necessary to exercise the rights expressly granted in this Agreement, Customer is prohibited from copying or duplicating, or permitting anyone else to copy or duplicate the Software or any module or other portion thereof, other than for purposes of replacing a worn copy or creating an archive copy. Any such copy shall contain the same copyright notice and proprietary markings as the copy of the Software furnished by Spirent to Customer hereunder. In addition to the other restrictions in this Agreement, and other than as may be required or impermissible by applicable law or third-party licenses, Customer shall not, and shall not permit others to: (i) create derivative works, distribute, transmit, license or otherwise transfer the Software directly or through third parties; (ii) reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile the Software or any component of the Software or otherwise attempt to obtain the source code of the Software; (iii) use the Software in a service bureau environment nor use the Software to process any data other than Customer's own internal data; or (iv) use the Software for any illegal or malicious purpose or to access any information not owned by Customer or for which it does not have express permission to access; (v) tamper with, or attempt to circumvent or disable, any license key; or (vi) use the Software on any networks, devices or applications not owned or controlled by the Customer. The Software may contain certain devices or mechanisms that Spirent may use to disable or terminate Customer's access to or use of the Software pursuant to the procedures for bringing a dispute for an alleged breach of this Agreement under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). Nothing in this Agreement limits or restricts the rights granted to Customer under the license terms applicable to the open source or other third-party software provided hereunder.

U.S. Government Users. The Software is commercial computer software and commercial computer software documentation within the meaning of the applicable acquisition regulations. If acquired by or on behalf of a civilian agency of the United States government, the Software will be subject to terms of this Agreement as a "license customarily provided to the public" as specified in 48 C.F.R. ch. 1 Part 12.212 of the Federal Acquisition Regulations and its successors. If Spirent receives a request from any Customer agency of the U.S. Government to provide Software with rights beyond those stated above, Spirent will promptly, in its sole discretion, accept or reject such request.

2. INVOICING/PAYMENTS

2.1. License subject to Payment. The license of the Software granted under this Agreement is subject to the payment of Spirent's then-current GSA Schedule Pricelist list price for the Software or such other amount as set out in the Quote ("Fees") in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist.

2.2. Payment of Fees. Customer shall pay Spirent the Fees for the Software and any associated software or services net thirty (30) days from the receipt date of Spirent's invoice for the same. If Customer wishes to expand the scope of its license, additional agreed-upon license fees shall become due and payable to Spirent prior to the effective date of any expansion of the scope of the Customer's license. Such invoice shall be issued in accordance with the Quote or absent such a Quote upon the delivery or download of the Software whichever is the earlier. Any amounts not paid within such thirty (30) day period shall bear interest governed by the Prompt Payment Act (31 USC 3901 et seq) and Treasury regulations at 5 CFR 1315. All Fees will be paid in US dollars.

2.3. Taxes. Spirent shall state separately on invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the [Customer] agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

3. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS; CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

3.1. Ownership of Software. Other than the limited licenses set forth in this Agreement, any and all rights, title and interest in and to the Software, and the intellectual property and proprietary rights to the Software, shall not pass to Customer, but shall remain the exclusive property of Spirent or its licensors.

3.2. Spirent Confidential Information. Customer acknowledges that the following categories of information constitute Spirent Confidential Information: (a) all components of the Software; and (b) reserved; and (c) other information disclosed by Spirent that would reasonably be understood to be confidential or proprietary. Spirent Confidential Information will not include, however, any information which: (a) is or becomes part of the public domain through no act or omission of Customer; (b) was in the Customer's lawful possession prior to the disclosure and had not been obtained by Customer either directly or indirectly from Spirent or the Software; (c) is lawfully disclosed to Customer by a third party without restriction on disclosure; or (d) is independently developed by the Customer. For a period of ten (10) years from and after disclosure of Spirent Confidential Information to Customer, Customer agrees to hold all such Spirent Confidential Information in strict confidence, and agrees not to disclose (or permit others to disclose) it to others or use it in any way, commercially or otherwise, except in exercising its rights pursuant to this Agreement. Customer shall not disclose any Spirent Confidential Information to a recipient not authorized in writing by Spirent or use the Confidential Information for any purpose not expressly authorized by this Agreement. Any disclosures by Customer of Spirent Confidential Information shall only be to Customer's employees, consultants, or agents as expressly permitted hereunder on a "need to know" basis for the purposes of this Agreement and subject to such third parties' acceptance of terms and conditions with respect to the disclosed information at least as restrictive as those set forth in this Agreement. If Customer is compelled by law or a court of competent jurisdiction to disclose Spirent Confidential Information, Customer will promptly notify Spirent in writing and will cooperate at Spirent's expense in seeking a protective order or other appropriate remedy. If disclosure is ultimately required, Customer will furnish only that portion of Spirent Confidential Information that is legally required and will exercise reasonable efforts to obtain assurance that it will receive confidential treatment. Spirent recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which requires that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

3.3. Reserved.

4. TERMINATION

4.1. Termination. When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Spirent shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. Customer Obligations Upon Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement for any reason, (a) all licenses granted to Customer hereunder shall immediately terminate and Spirent may disable access to the Software, (b) Customer shall discontinue use of the Software and the other Spirent Confidential Information, and any portion thereof, and return the Software and any and all other Spirent Confidential Information in its possession to Spirent, or, at Spirent's option, destroy the Software and such other Spirent Confidential Information, including all copies or partial copies thereof, and shall certify to Spirent in writing that Customer has retained none of the Spirent Confidential Information, and (c) all outstanding Fees for the Software use prior to the termination date shall become due and payable within thirty (30) days of invoice receipt. The following Sections will survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement: 1.2, 2, 3, 4.2, 5, Error! Reference source not found., and 8.

5. LIMITED WARRANTIES AND INDEMNIFICATION; EXCLUSIVE REMEDIES

5.1. Software. For a period of ninety (90) days from the date of delivery of the Software to Customer, or such other period as stated in the Quote accepted in writing by Spirent, Spirent warrants to Customer that the Software, if used in accordance with this Agreement, will operate in material conformity with the specifications for the Software which Spirent may publish. The warranties set forth herein do not apply to any material deviation from the accompanying documentation or specifications which results from (a) modification of the Software by anyone other than Spirent or in accordance with Customer's instructions, (b) use of the Software for any purpose other than intended, (c) use of Software in combination with any other software or devices, if such claim would have been avoided but for such combination, (d) any misuse or incorrect use of the Software, (e) Customer's failure to use the latest release of the Software provided by Spirent, or (f) any hardware malfunction. CUSTOMER EXPRESSLY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT BECAUSE OF THE COMPLEX NATURE OF COMPUTER SOFTWARE, SPIRENT CANNOT AND DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE FUNCTIONS CONTAINED IN THE SOFTWARE WILL MEET A SPECIFIC REQUIREMENT OR THAT THE OPERATION OF THE SOFTWARE WILL BE WITHOUT INTERRUPTION OR ERROR-FREE. During the aforementioned warranty period, Spirent will, at Spirent's expense and as its entire liability (and Customer's exclusive remedy) for any breach of the warranty and provided Customer has notified Spirent in writing of the nature of the non-conformity within ten (10) days of Customer's discovery of the non-conformity and provided Spirent is able to verify such non-conformity: (i) correct the non-conformity or (ii) replace the non-conforming Software with Software meeting Spirent's then-current published specifications.

5.2. Infringement.

5.2.1. Cure. In the event of a determination that the Software infringes, or is likely to infringe, any proprietary right of any third party, Spirent shall have the option, at its own discretion and expense, to (a) obtain for Customer the right to continue using the actual or potential infringing component of the Software or (b) replace the actual or potential infringing component of the Software or modify such component so that it becomes non-infringing, or (c) terminate the licensed rights granted herein and grant Customer a refund of the license fee, less reasonable depreciation based on usage, which shall in no event be less than the result of a straight-line computation based upon a three (3) year usable life.

5.2.2. Indemnification. Spirent shall indemnify, defend and hold Customer harmless from and against any and all liability, damages, loss or expense (including reasonable fees of attorneys) arising from any claim, demand, action or proceeding initiated by any third party alleging the Software infringes the copyright, US registered patent or trademark of any third party; provided, however, that as a condition to this indemnification obligation, Customer shall promptly (a) notify Spirent of any threat or initiation of any claim, demand, action or proceeding to which the indemnification obligation may apply, (b) assist Spirent in the defense or settlement of the matter, and (c) provide Spirent control over the defense and settlement of such matter. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516.

5.2.3. Exclusions. Spirent shall have no obligations under Section 5.2 for any alleged infringement based upon: (a) modification of the Software by anyone other than Spirent, (b) use of the Software in combination with other software or any other Software or devices if such claim would have been avoided but for such combination, (c) Customer's continued use of the infringing Software after receipt of notice of an infringement claim or after receipt of a remedy from Spirent under this Agreement, (d) Customer's use of the Software other than in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or Documentation, or (e) modifications to the Software made pursuant to Customer's express instruction.

THIS SECTION 5.2 STATES SPIRENT'S ENTIRE LIABILITY, AND CUSTOMER'S EXCLUSIVE REMEDY, WITH RESPECT TO ANY INFRINGEMENT OF ANY THIRD-PARTY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS.

5.3. Disclaimers. THE LIMITED WARRANTIES AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INDEMNIFICATION SET FORTH HEREIN ARE EXCLUSIVE AND IN LIEU OF, AND CUSTOMER HEREBY WAIVES, ALL OTHER REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND GUARANTEES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS OF THE SOFTWARE FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR NONINFRINGEMENT, AND ANY WARRANTIES ARISING BY STATUTE OR OTHERWISE IN LAW OR OUT OF COURSE OF DEALING, COURSE OF PERFORMANCE, OR USAGE OF TRADE.

5.4. Reserved.

6. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

6.1. Limitations and Exclusions. IN NO EVENT SHALL SPIRENT OR ANY OF ITS SUPPLIERS BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY DAMAGES OR LIABILITY RELATING TO INTERRUPTION OF SERVICE, COST OF PROCUREMENT OF SUBSTITUTE SOFTWARE, LOST PROFITS, OR LOSS OF DATA), INCURRED BY THE CUSTOMER, WITHOUT

REGARD TO CAUSE OR THEORY OF LIABILITY AND REGARDLESS OF WHETHER OR NOT SPIRENT OR ITS SUPPLIERS WERE ADVISED SUCH DAMAGES MIGHT ARISE. The foregoing limitation of liability shall not apply to (1) personal injury or death resulting from Licensor's negligence; (2) for fraud; or (3) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law.

6.2. Maximum Liability. THE LIABILITY OF SPIRENT AND ITS SUPPLIERS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER ARISING OUT OF BREACH OF CONTRACT (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO BREACH OF WARRANTY) OR TORT OR ANY OTHER REASON, SHALL IN NO EVENT EXCEED THE TOTAL FEES PAID TO SPIRENT BY CUSTOMER, AND IF SUCH DAMAGES RELATE TO PARTICULAR SOFTWARE OR HARDWARE SUCH LIABILITY SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE FEES PAID FOR THE RELEVANT SOFTWARE OR HARDWARE GIVING RISE TO THE LIABILITY.

7. GOVERNING LAW

7.1. Governing Law. This Agreement and any disputes arising from or related to it, or its subject matters, shall be governed, resolved and remedied in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. The Parties agree that the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods is specifically excluded from application to this Agreement.

7.2. Reserved.

7.3. Compliance with Laws; Export Control Laws. Customer shall be solely responsible for its compliance with, and agrees to comply with, all applicable laws in connection with its use of the Software. Customer acknowledges that the Software may be subject to export controls imposed by the U.S. Export Administration Regulations (the "EAR"). Customer will not export or reexport (directly or indirectly) the Software, or any derivatives of the Software without complying with the EAR or other applicable laws with respect to the export of technology from the United States.

8. GENERAL TERMS

8.1. Amendment; Waiver. No amendment, modification or discharge of this Agreement, and no waiver hereunder, shall be valid or binding unless set forth in writing and duly executed by the party against whom enforcement of the amendment, modification, discharge or waiver is sought. Failure of either party to insist upon strict performance of any of the terms and conditions hereunder, or the delay in exercising any of its remedies shall not constitute a waiver of such terms and conditions or a waiver of any default or remedy.

8.2. Audit. Customer shall maintain complete and accurate records of its use of the Software during the applicable subscription term (if applicable, or otherwise the term of the Agreement) and for 2 years thereafter. Upon 10 days' written notice from Spirent, and no more than once per calendar year, Customer shall provide Spirent with reasonable access to Customer's premises during normal business hours and subject to Government security requirements to conduct an audit of Customer's records and systems to verify compliance with this Agreement, including calculation of Fees. Spirent shall bear the costs of any such audit.

8.3. Assignment. This Agreement and any rights granted hereby may not be assigned by Customer, directly or indirectly, including without limitation by merger, sale of assets or stock, change of control, or operation of law, without the prior written consent of Spirent. Spirent may not assign this Agreement and its rights and obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Customer. Any attempt by Customer to assign any rights, duties or obligations without such consent shall be void and without force or effect.

8.4. Force Majeure. Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f).

8.5. Reserved.

8.6. Severability. In the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be held by a court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, the remaining portions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

8.7. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Quotes, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule Pricelist, and Purchase Order(s), embodies the entire understanding and agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all oral and written prior or contemporaneous agreements related to such subject matter.

8.8. Headings. Section and subsection headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only, shall not be deemed to be a part of this Agreement for any purposes, and shall not in any way define or affect the meaning, construction or scope of any of the provisions hereof.

8.9. Relationship of the Parties. Spirent and Customer will be and shall act as independent contractors, and neither party is authorized to act as an agent or partner of, or joint venturer with, the other party for any purpose. Neither party by virtue of this Agreement shall have any right, power or authority to act or create any obligation, express or implied, on behalf of the other party.

8.10. Third-Party Components. Customer acknowledges that the Software contains components made available to Spirent by third party suppliers.

8.11. Precedence of Documents: The terms and conditions of this Agreement, insofar as they relate to the rights licensed to the Software will control over any conflicting or inconsistent terms contained in any Quote, or Spirent invoice unless otherwise mutually agreed to in writing. No terms in any quotation, acknowledgment or other form provided by Customer will modify this Agreement, regardless of whether Spirent objects to such terms, and any such additional or conflicting terms are expressly rejected. A negotiated Government Purchase Order, signed by both parties, shall supersede the terms of the Agreement. Notwithstanding Section 8.7, the terms and conditions of this Agreement insofar as they relate to matters other than the rights licensed to the Software shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the master purchase agreement between Spirent and Customer (if any) (the "Master Agreement") only to the extent that such Master Agreement expressly contradicts the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

SQUIRRELWERKZ, INC.
20258 ISLAND VIEW COURT
STERLING, VA 20165

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached SquirrelWERKZ, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC

America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract").

Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17

U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

STACKROX, INC.

STACKROX, INC. WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

1. Order Forms; Product License

StackRox, Inc. ("StackRox") and the Ordering Activity ("Customer" or "Ordering Activity") placing an order under a GSA Schedule contract that includes this Agreement (any such order being an "Order Form") mutually agree to be bound to these Terms. Subject to Customer's compliance with the Terms, StackRox grants Customer the right and license to use the software product specified in each Order Form (the "Product") during the applicable Order Form Term (as defined below) for the business purposes of Customer, only in object code form and as provided herein and only in accordance with StackRox's applicable official product documentation (the "Documentation").

2. Implementation; Support

StackRox agrees to use reasonable commercial efforts to provide standard implementation assistance for the Product only if and to the extent such assistance is set forth on such Order Form as authorized, in advance, by StackRox ("Implementation Assistance").

StackRox will provide support for the Product in accordance with the attached StackRox Support Policy.

3. Product Updates

From time to time, StackRox may provide upgrades, patches, enhancements, or fixes for the Product to its customers generally without additional charge ("Updates"), and such Updates will become part of the Product and subject to this Agreement; provided that StackRox shall have no obligation under this Agreement or otherwise to provide any such Updates. Customer understands that StackRox may cease supporting old versions or releases of the Product (which Customer failed to Update) at any time in its sole discretion; provided that StackRox shall use commercially reasonable efforts to give Customer sixty (60) days prior notice of any major changes and will give Customer a reasonable opportunity to implement available Updates to retain support.

4. Ownership; Feedback; Customer Data

As between the parties, StackRox retains all right, title, and interest in and to the Product, and all software, works, and other intellectual property and moral rights related thereto or created, used, or provided by StackRox for the purposes of this Agreement, including any copies and derivative works that are minor modifications of the foregoing. All software which is distributed or otherwise provided to Customer hereunder is licensed and not sold. No rights or licenses are granted except as expressly and unambiguously set forth in this Agreement. Customer may from time to time provide suggestions, comments or other feedback to StackRox with respect to the Product ("Feedback"). Feedback, even if designated as confidential by Customer, shall not create any confidentiality obligation for StackRox notwithstanding anything else. Customer shall, and hereby does, grant to StackRox a nonexclusive, worldwide, perpetual, irrevocable, transferable, sublicensable, royaltyfree, fully paid up license to use and exploit the Feedback for any purpose. Vendor acknowledges that the ability to use this Agreement and any Feedback provided as a result of this Agreement in advertising is limited by GSAR 552.203-71. Nothing in this Agreement will impair StackRox's right to develop, acquire, license, market, promote or distribute products, software or technologies that perform the same or similar functions as, or otherwise compete with any products, software or technologies that Customer may develop, produce, market, or distribute.

As between the parties, Customer shall own all right, title, and interest in and to the Customer Data. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly set forth herein, Customer does not grant StackRox any rights (i) to any Customer Data (other than for StackRox to perform its obligations under the Agreement), and (ii) any intellectual property rights owned or licensed by Customer. "Customer Data" means all data or information contained in Customer's virtual containers, submitted by or on behalf of Customer or protected by the Product.

StackRox does not permit its third-parties licensors, including third-party licensors of software or technology providers (e.g., open source software, online software applications, software-as-a-service, application program interfaces, and offline software products) delivered with, incorporated into or interoperate with the Product or that interoperate with and/or are incorporated into the Product (the "Third-Party Applications"), to access Customer Data except to the extent required for the interoperation of such Third-Party Applications with Products or as specifically set forth in the Agreement, the applicable Product Schedule and/or Documentation. StackRox may freely use, copy, modify, disclose and make available to third parties for their use and other exploitation, and otherwise exploit any aggregated, anonymized data that does not specifically identify Customer, submitted to, collected by, or generated by StackRox in connection with Customer's use of the Products (including without limitation, for purposes of improving, testing, operating, promoting and marketing products and services).

5. Fees; Payment

Payment terms are as set forth in the Order Form between Customer and the prime contractor in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist. All Fees paid are non-refundable by StackRox and are not subject to set-off against any other StackRox payment, except that, if the Ordering Activity is entitled to a refund under the prime contract, such refund shall be paid by the prime contractor and not by StackRox.

6. Restrictions

Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Customer shall not (and shall not permit any third party to), directly or indirectly: (i) reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or otherwise attempt to discover the source code or underlying structure, ideas, or algorithms of the Product (except to the extent applicable laws specifically prohibit such restriction); (ii) modify, translate, or create derivative works based on the Product; (iii) copy, rent, lease, distribute, pledge, assign, or otherwise transfer or encumber rights to the Product; (iv) use the Product for the benefit of an unauthorized third party; (v) remove or otherwise alter any proprietary notices or labels from the Product or any portion thereof; (vi) use the Product to build an application or product that is competitive with any StackRox product; (vii) interfere with the proper working of the Product; or (viii) bypass any measures StackRox may use to prevent or restrict access to the Product (or other accounts, computer systems or networks connected to StackRox). Customer is responsible for all of Customer's activity in connection with the Product, including but not limited to handling Customer's data used with the Product. Customer (i) shall use the Product in compliance with all applicable local, state, national and foreign laws, treaties and regulations in connection with Customer's use of the Product (including those related to data privacy, international communications, export laws and the transmission of technical or personal data laws), and (ii) shall not use the Product in a manner that violates any third party intellectual property, contractual or other proprietary rights.

7. Confidentiality

Each party (the "Receiving Party") understands that the other party (the "Disclosing Party") has disclosed or may disclose information relating to the Disclosing Party's technology or business (hereinafter referred to as "Proprietary Information" of the Disclosing Party). The Receiving Party agrees: (i) not to divulge to any third person any such Proprietary Information, (i) to give access to such Proprietary information solely to those employees with a need to have access thereto for purposes of this Agreement, and (iii) to take the same security precautions to protect against disclosure or unauthorized use of such Proprietary Information that the party takes with its own proprietary information, but in no event will a party apply less than reasonable precautions to protect such Proprietary Information. The Disclosing Party agrees that the foregoing will not apply with respect to any information that the Receiving Party can document (a) is or becomes generally available to the public without any action by, or involvement of, the Receiving Party, or (b) was in its possession or known by it prior to receipt from the Disclosing Party, or (c) was rightfully disclosed to it without restriction by a third party, or (d) was independently developed without use of any Proprietary Information of the Disclosing Party. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent the Receiving Party from disclosing the Proprietary Information pursuant to any judicial order or subpoena, provided that the Receiving Party gives the Disclosing Party reasonable prior notice of such disclosure to contest such order. StackRox recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. 552, which requires that GDSVF&H\2668473.2 GSA Approved 17-Jun-19 3 certain information be released if not exempt from release under FOIA, and Customer recognizes that Proprietary Information that is "trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential" is exempt from release under FOIA (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4)). Subject to 48 C.F.R. §552.203-71 (Restriction on Advertising – Sept 1999) if the Customer purchased under a GSA prime contract, StackRox is permitted to disclose (including through display of Customer's logo) that Customer is one of its customers (including in its publicity and marketing materials) to the extent permitted by the General Services Acquisition Regulation (GSAR) 552.203-71.

8. Term; Termination

This Agreement shall commence upon the Effective Date set forth in the first Order Form, and, unless earlier terminated in accordance herewith, shall last until the expiration of all Order Form Terms. For each Order Form, the "Order Form Term" shall begin as of the Effective Date set forth on such Order Form, and unless earlier terminated as set forth herein, (x) shall continue for the initial term specified on the Order Form (the "Initial Order Form Term"), and (y) following the Initial Order Form Term, may be renewed for additional successive one (1) year terms by executing a new Agreement in writing (each, a "Renewal Order Form Term") if Customer exercises an option for such successive period or enters into a new Order Form with the prime contractor. When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, StackRox shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any dispute regarding a material breach or regarding whether such breach has been materially and timely cured shall be subject to the Contract Disputes Act. All provisions of this Agreement which by their nature should survive termination shall survive termination, including, without limitation, ownership provisions, warranty disclaimers, indemnity and limitations of liability.

9. Indemnification

StackRox ("Indemnitor") shall defend (subject to 28 USC §516), indemnify, and hold harmless Customer, its affiliates and each of its and its affiliates' employees, contractors, directors, suppliers and representatives (collectively, the "Indemnitee") from all liabilities, claims, and expenses paid or payable to an unaffiliated third party (including reasonable attorneys' fees) ("Losses"), that arise from or relate to any third-party claim that (i) Customer's use of the Product violates any applicable statute, regulation, ordinance or other law (so long as Customer's use is in accordance with the Product's intended use and in compliance with the Product's documentation), (ii) StackRox gross negligence or willful misconduct or, (iii) the Product infringes, violates, or misappropriates any third party intellectual property or proprietary right. Indemnitor's indemnification obligations hereunder shall be conditioned upon the Indemnitee providing the Indemnitor with: (i) prompt written notice of any claim (provided that a failure to provide such notice shall only relieve the Indemnitor of its indemnity obligations if the Indemnitor is materially prejudiced by such failure); (ii) the option to assume control over the defense and settlement of any claim (subject to 28 USC §516 and provided that the Indemnitee may participate in such defense and settlement at its own expense); and (iii) reasonable information and assistance in connection with such defense and settlement (at the Indemnitor's expense). The foregoing obligations of StackRox do not apply with respect to the Product or any information, technology, materials or data (or any portions or components of the foregoing) to the extent (i) not created or provided by StackRox, (ii) made in whole or in part in accordance to Customer specifications, (iii) modified after delivery by StackRox, (iv) combined with other products, processes or materials not provided by StackRox (where the alleged Losses arise from or relate to such combination), (v) where Customer continues allegedly infringing activity after being notified thereof or after being informed of modifications that would have avoided the alleged infringement, or (vi) Customer's use of the Product is not strictly in accordance herewith. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516.

10. Disclaimer

StackRox warrants that the Software will, for a period of sixty (60) days from the start date of the Term, perform substantially in accordance with Documentation. THE PRODUCT IS ACCEPTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GSA SCHEDULE TERMS AND CONDITIONS AND EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE FOREGOING, THE PRODUCT IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE" AND IS WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND ANY WARRANTIES IMPLIED BY ANY COURSE OF PERFORMANCE, USAGE OF TRADE, OR COURSE OF DEALING, ALL OF WHICH ARE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED.

11. Limitation of Liability

EXCEPT FOR THE PARTIES' INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS IN SECTION 9 OR BREACH OF SECTION 6 (RESTRICTIONS) or 7 (CONFIDENTIALITY), IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY, NOR STACKROX'S DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES, AGENTS, PARTNERS, SUPPLIERS OR CONTENT PROVIDERS, BE LIABLE UNDER CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR ANY OTHER LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY WITH RESPECT TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS AGREEMENT (I) FOR ANY LOST PROFITS, DATA LOSS, COST OF PROCUREMENT OF SUBSTITUTE GOODS OR SERVICES, OR SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER, (II) FOR ANY BUGS, VIRUSES, TROJAN HORSES, OR THE LIKE (REGARDLESS OF THE SOURCE OF ORIGIN), OR (III) FOR ANY DIRECT DAMAGES IN EXCESS OF (IN THE AGGREGATE) THE CONTRACT PRICE, INCLUDING FEES PAID (OR PAYABLE) BY CUSTOMER TO STACKROX HEREUNDER. FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SECTION 11, LIMITATION OF LIABILITY, "CONTRACT PRICE" MEANS AN ORDER PLACED UNDER THE GSA SCHEDULE PRIME CONTRACT. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT THEIR TOTAL LIABILITY SHALL NOT EXCEED THE LIABILITY OF THE OTHER PARTY, IF THE LIABILITY OF A PARTY IS LIMITED FOR ANY REASON.

12. U.S. Government Rights. The Product and accompanying Documentation are "commercial items" as that term is defined at FAR 2.101. If Licensee is the US Federal Government (Government) Executive Agency (as defined in FAR 2.101), StackRox provides the Product and Documentation, including any related technical data, and/or professional services in accordance with the following: If acquired by or on behalf of any Executive Agency the Government acquires, in accordance with FAR 12.211 (Technical Data) and FAR 12.212 (Computer Software), only those rights in technical data and software customarily provided to the public as defined in this Agreement. In addition, if DFARS 252.227-7015 (Technical Data – Commercial Items) is applicable to the contract, this clause governs technical data acquired by DoD agencies. Any Federal Legislative or Judicial Agency shall obtain only those rights in technical data and software customarily provided to the public as defined in this Agreement. If any Federal Executive, Legislative, or Judicial Agency has a need for rights not conveyed under the terms described in this Section, it must negotiate with StackRox to determine if there are acceptable terms for transferring such rights, and a mutually acceptable written addendum specifically conveying such rights must be included in any applicable contract or agreement to be effective. If this Agreement fails to meet the Government's needs or is inconsistent in any way with Federal law, and the parties cannot reach a mutual agreement on terms for this Agreement, the Government agrees to terminate its use in accordance with Contract Disputes Act of the Product and Documentation and return the Product and Documentation and any other software or technical data delivered as part of the Product and Documentation, unused, to StackRox. This U.S. Government Rights clause in this Section is in lieu of, and supersedes, any other FAR, DFARS, or other clause, provision, or supplemental regulation that addresses Government rights in computer software or technical data under this Agreement.

13. Miscellaneous

This Agreement represents the entire agreement between Customer and StackRox with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous communications and proposals (whether oral, written or electronic) between Customer and StackRox with respect thereto. Nothing in this Agreement modifies Customer's agreement with the prime contractor, however, the prime contractor's terms and conditions are solely between prime contractor and Customer and are not a part of this Agreement between Customer and StackRox. Neither party may transfer any or all of its rights or obligations hereunder without the other party's consent; and (ii) StackRox may utilize contractors/subcontractors in the performance of its obligations hereunder provided that StackRox shall remain liable for the actions and services provided by such subcontractors at all times. Any assignment is subject to the requirements of FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreement to the extent applicable to this Agreement and/or to GSAR 552.212-4(w) if this is included in an Order Form under a GSA prime contract. No agency, partnership, joint venture, or employment relationship is created as a result of this Agreement and neither party has any authority of any kind to bind the other in any respect. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be unenforceable for any reason, such provision shall be reformed only to the extent necessary to make it enforceable. EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached SunView Software, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.

q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

If Contractor is unable by remote telephone or on-line support to address an Error, then Contractor, at its sole discretion, may dispatch a software engineer to Ordering Activity's site to address the Error. The travel and other reasonably-incurred expenses of such on-site assistance (excluding the personnel cost) shall be borne by Ordering Activity and shall be billed to Ordering Activity in accordance with the Federal Joint Travel Regulations. EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

- 1. Scope. This Rider and the attached SyncDog, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.
- 2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.
  - Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.
  - Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.
  - Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.
  - Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.
  - Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.
  - Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.
  - Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.
  - Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

End User License Agreement

GRANT OF LICENSE;

License. Affiliates and Managing Parties. During the term of this Agreement, Tanium grants Customer a revocable, nontransferable, nonexclusive license to use the proprietary software in object code form and related proprietary components provided by Tanium to Customer in connection with this Agreement (the “Licensed Software”) in accordance with the Documentation for Customer’s internal use only during the applicable Licensed Term. The term “Licensed Software” will include Tanium’s then-current documentation made generally available by Tanium to its licensees for use of the Licensed Software, as updated from time-to-time by Tanium in its discretion (the “Documentation”), and any updates, bug fixes, and versions (collectively, “Enhancements”) made generally available by Tanium in connection with a Support Services entitlement or subscription-based license grant to use the Licensed Software (the “License”).

License Metric. The Licensed Software is licensed on a per Managed OS Instance basis. A “Managed OS Instance” means a physical or virtual hardware device where the Licensed Software can be installed, and where that device is capable of processing data. Managed OS Instances include any of the following types of computer devices: mobile/smart phone, diskless workstation, personal computer workstation, networked computer workstation, homeworker/teleworker, home-based system, file server, print server, e-mail server, internet gateway device, storage area network server, terminal servers, or portable workstation connected or connecting to a server or network. In the case of a virtual system, in addition to the virtual Managed OS Instances, the hypervisor is considered to be a single instance if Licensed Software is installed at the hypervisor level.

Affiliates and Managing Parties. The term “Affiliate” means an entity that is controlled by, controls, or is under common control of the Customer, where “control” means the ownership, in the case of a corporation, of more than fifty percent (50%) of the voting securities in such corporation or, in the case of any other entity, the ownership of a majority of the beneficial or voting interest of such entity. Customer may allow its Affiliate(s) to use the Licensed Software provided that (a) the Affiliate only uses the Licensed Software for Customer’s or Affiliate’s internal business purposes and up to the authorized number of Managed OS Instances in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and (b) Customer is responsible for and remains liable for the Affiliate’s use of the Licensed Software in compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. If Customer enters into a contract with a third party that manages Customer’s information technology resources (“Managing Party”), Customer may allow its Managing Party to use Licensed Software, provided that (a) the Managing Party only uses the Licensed Software for Customer’s internal business purposes and not for the benefit of any third party or for the Managing Party, (b) the Managing Party agrees to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and (c) Customer is responsible for and remains liable for the Managing Party’s use of the Licensed Software in compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

System Configuration. Hardware and software requirements for proper installation and use of the Licensed Software are set forth in the relevant Documentation. Customer is solely responsible and fully liable for purchasing, providing, installing, and using all required equipment, networks, peripherals, third-party software and hardware, including, but not limited to, third-party software, scripts or other technologies that may interoperate and be used in conjunction with the Licensed Software, all of which are expressly excluded from all warranty, indemnity and support obligations described elsewhere in this Agreement.

Restrictions. Customer’s license to the Licensed Software is subject to the following license conditions and restrictions:

Customer’s Benefit. Customer must not use or permit the Licensed Software to be used in any manner, whether directly or indirectly, that would enable Customer’s personnel or any other person or entity to use the Licensed Software for anyone's benefit other than Customer or its Affiliates. Customer must purchase each license it intends to use.

Limitations on Copying and Distribution. Customer must not copy or distribute the Licensed Software, whether directly or indirectly, except to the extent that copying is necessary to use the Licensed Software for the purposes set forth herein. Customer may make a single copy of the Licensed Software for backup and archival purposes.

Limitations on Reverse Engineering and Modification. Except to the extent such a limitation is expressly prohibited by applicable law, Customer must not reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, modify or create derivative works of the Licensed Software whether directly or indirectly.

Sublicense, Rental and Third Party Use. Except to the extent expressly permitted by this Agreement, Customer must not assign, sublicense, rent, timeshare, loan, lease or otherwise transfer the Licensed Software, or directly or indirectly permit any third party to use or copy the Licensed Software. Customer must not operate a service bureau or other similar service for the benefit of third parties using the Licensed Software.

Proprietary Notices. Customer must not remove any proprietary notices (e.g., copyright and trademark notices) from the Licensed Software. Customer must reproduce the copyright and all other proprietary notices displayed on the Licensed Software on each permitted back-up or archival copy.

Use in Accordance with Documentation. All use of the Licensed Software shall be in accordance with the Documentation and this Agreement.

Use of the Licensed Software. Customer shall be solely responsible and fully liable for its use of the Licensed Software, including, but not limited to, for ensuring that the use of the Licensed Software is in compliance with all applicable foreign, federal, state and local laws, rules, and regulations.

Tanium's Intellectual Property. Customer shall not use the Licensed Software or Tanium Confidential Information whether directly or indirectly to contest the validity of any Tanium intellectual property, including the Licensed Software.

Competition. Customer shall not use the Licensed Software or Tanium Confidential Information in a manner to compete with Tanium or to assist a third party in competing with Tanium, or for benchmarking or competitive analysis.

The Licensed Software is licensed to Customer, not sold. The Licensed Software, Documentation, and Services provided by Tanium contain material that is protected by United States copyright, trade secret law, and other intellectual property law, and by international treaty provisions. All rights not expressly granted to Customer under this Agreement are reserved by Tanium. All copyrights, patents, trade secrets, trademarks, service marks, trade names, moral rights, and other intellectual property and proprietary rights in the Licensed Software, Documentation, and Services provided by Tanium whether or not registered will remain the sole and exclusive property of Tanium or its licensors and suppliers, as applicable. Customer shall notify Tanium promptly upon learning of any attempt by anyone to misuse, misappropriate, copy, modify, derive, or reverse engineer any Licensed Software and Customer shall cooperate and assist Tanium in discovering, preventing, and recovering damages for any such misappropriation, copying, modification, derivation, or reverse engineering of the Licensed Software.

If Customer enters into a contract with a third party that manages Customer's information technology resources ("Managing Party"), Customer may allow its Managing Party to use the Licensed Software on Customer's Managed OS Instances, provided that (a) the Managing Party only uses the Licensed Software for Customer's internal business purposes and not for the benefit of any third party or for the Managing Party, (b) the Managing Party agrees to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and (c) Customer is responsible for and remains liable for the Managing Party's use of the Licensed Software in compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. In addition, Customer shall ensure that its personnel comply with the terms of this Agreement.

Term and Termination. Unless otherwise agreed in a Schedule, the License(s) will commence upon the initial delivery of the license keys that allow Customer to download or access the Licensed Software (“Delivery”) and will continue for the term of the applicable License(s) or until this Agreement is terminated as provided in this Section, whichever occurs first (the “Licensed Term”). When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Tanium shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. Upon any termination or expiration of this Agreement, the license granted in Section 1 (Grant of License) will automatically terminate and Customer will have no further right to possess or use the Licensed Software. Tanium reserves the right to seek all remedies available at law and in equity for Customer’s material breach of this Agreement.

FEES AND EXPENSES; DELIVERY AND TAXES.

Fees and Expenses. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary, if Customer orders from a Tanium authorized business partner (“Reseller”), final terms of the transaction (e.g., pricing, discounts, fees, payments, and taxes) are solely subject to the agreement between Customer and its Reseller of choice. This Agreement will govern Tanium’s provision and Customer’s license to the Licensed Software and Services whether Customer orders the Licensed Software and Services from Tanium or a Reseller. Unless Customer orders directly from a Reseller, Customer will pay the Licensed Software and Services fees directly to Tanium and Tanium will fulfill all orders. The parties will enter into a schedule(s) or purchase order(s) that describe the Licensed Software and/or Services to be acquired by Customer (each a “Schedule”). This Agreement applies to any Schedule that references this Agreement. When a purchase order will be utilized as a Schedule, the purchase order must reference and be made pursuant to this Agreement and the applicable Quote. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary, any terms and conditions in the purchase order that conflict or are inconsistent with the current approved Tanium-provided quote issued to the Customer for the Licensed Software and Services in accordance with the GSA Schedule Contract and GSA Schedule Pricelist (the “Quote”) or this Agreement will have no force or effect. The purchase order will not add or remove terms from the Quote or this Agreement. Tanium further reserves the right to expressly reject any purchase order that does not comport to the requirements of this Section.

Unless otherwise set forth in a Schedule: (a) fees for Licenses and Support Services will be billed, due, and payable fully in thirty (30) days after Customer’s receipt of an invoice. Payments will be made by electronic transfer to a bank account designated by Tanium on the invoice in the amount of fees for the Licensed Software and Services ordered (less any applicable credits and deductions and plus any applicable shipping and other charges). The effective date of payment shall be the date on which the entire amount due is credited to Tanium’s bank account or the instrument enabling immediate collection of the entire amount due is received. All payments not made by Customer when due will be subject to late charges of the maximum amount permitted under the Prompt Payment Act (31 USC 3901 et seq) and Treasury regulations at 5 CFR 1315.

Taxes. Tanium shall state separately on invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Customer agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3. Taxes do not include any taxes payable by Tanium for its employees or for its net income.

All Licensed Software will be delivered and accessed electronically. In conjunction with the billing, collection and payment of any Taxes, Customer must provide Tanium with a physical address of the download site for the Licensed Software. This address will be used as the “shipped to address” on all invoices.

SERVICES; SYSTEMS INFORMATION.

Services. The term “Services” means, collectively, the Support Services, training and any other services acquired by Customer from Tanium. If Customer has a current Support Services entitlement or License governed by this Agreement, then Tanium will provide Customer with the support and maintenance services described in Exhibit A (the “Support Services”). Once the relevant Support Services entitlement or License has expired, Customer has no further right to receive any Support Services. All Services are provided subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Systems Information. During the term of the Agreement, Customer may provide to Tanium or Tanium’s Licensed Software and Services may collect information including, but not limited to, performance and analytics information relating to Customer’s use of Tanium’s products and services, metadata relating to Customer’s networks and systems, device identifiers, network telemetry, endpoint telemetry, system configuration, and data generated through any of the foregoing (collectively, “Systems Information”). Customer agrees that Tanium may use Systems Information to provide Customer with technical support and to research, develop, and improve Tanium’s products and services, and, on an aggregated, anonymized basis, for marketing purposes (the “Permitted Purpose”). To the extent Systems Information constitutes Customer’s Confidential Information, Systems Information will be held in confidence by Tanium in accordance with Section 10 (Confidentiality). For clarity, any data that is derived by Tanium from its use of the Systems Information for the Permitted Purpose, such that the Customer cannot be identified from the derived data, is not considered Customer’s Confidential Information. Customer, rather than Tanium, determines which types of data, including Personal Data (as defined in the Data Processing Addendum), exists on its systems. To the extent that Tanium obtains Personal Data in connection with providing the Licensed Software and Services, Tanium will process such Personal Data pursuant to the Data Processing Addendum found at <http://www.tanium.com/dpa>. Because Customer’s endpoint environment is unique in configurations and naming conventions, the Systems Information could potentially include Personal Data. Customer may redact, edit, or otherwise suppress any Systems Information, including Personal Data, prior to providing to Tanium for processing. To the extent any Systems Information includes Personal Data, Customer represents and warrants that it has made all necessary disclosures and has a lawful basis to share the Personal Data with Tanium for the Permitted Purpose. In addition, Tanium may process, use or disclose such Personal Data only: (i) in furtherance of its obligations pursuant to this Agreement; (ii) as required or permitted by law; (iii) as directed or instructed by Customer; or (iv) with prior informed consent of the data subject to whom the Personal Data pertains. As between Customer and Tanium, the foregoing states Tanium’s entire obligation with respect to Personal Data.

Limited Warranty; Disclaimer. Tanium warrants that (i) for a period of ninety (90) days from the Effective Date, the Licensed Software will operate in substantial conformity with the Documentation; and (ii) it shall use commercially reasonable efforts to screen the Licensed Software prior to Delivery to Customer for viruses, Trojan horses, and other malicious code. The foregoing warranties are solely for the benefit of Customer and Customer shall have no authority to extend such warranty to any third party. The sole and exclusive remedy of Customer, and the sole and exclusive liability of Tanium, for breach of the foregoing warranties in this Section, shall be to repair or replace the non-conforming Licensed Software, or if repair or replacement would, in Tanium’s opinion, be commercially unreasonable, then Tanium shall terminate the relevant licenses and refund to Customer the portion of prepaid license fees paid for such non-conforming Licensed Software. This warranty is contingent upon the proper installation and use of the Licensed Software as described in the Documentation and this Agreement; Tanium shall not be responsible for Customer’s use of the Licensed Software if not operated in a manner recommended in the Documentation. Any modification to the Licensed Software by Customer or any third party or failure by Customer to implement any Enhancements to the Licensed Software may void Tanium’s obligation to provide Support Services and Tanium’s warranties under this Section. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN THIS SECTION, THE LICENSED SOFTWARE AND ALL SERVICES ARE PROVIDED ON AN “AS-AVAILABLE,” “AS-IS” BASIS. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, TANIUM AND ITS LICENSORS AND SUPPLIERS DISCLAIM ALL OTHER WARRANTIES WITH RESPECT TO THE LICENSED SOFTWARE AND SERVICES, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF NON-INFRINGEMENT, TITLE, MERCHANTABILITY, QUIET ENJOYMENT, QUALITY OF INFORMATION, AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. TANIUM DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE LICENSED SOFTWARE OR SERVICES WILL MEET CUSTOMER’S REQUIREMENTS, OR WILL CAUSE CUSTOMER TO BE COMPLIANT WITH APPLICABLE LAW; THAT CUSTOMER’S USE OF THE LICENSED SOFTWARE OR SERVICES WILL SATISFY ANY STATUTORY OR REGULATORY

OBLIGATIONS; THAT THE OPERATION OF THE LICENSED SOFTWARE WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE; OR THAT ERRORS OR DEFECTS IN THE LICENSED SOFTWARE WILL BE CORRECTED. TANIAM DOES NOT MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY REGARDING THE PERFORMANCE OR RESULTS OF THE LICENSED SOFTWARE OR SERVICES. TANIAM DOES NOT PROVIDE WARRANTIES WITH RESPECT TO ANY THIRD-PARTY PRODUCTS, SCRIPTS, CONTENT OR OTHER TECHNOLOGIES. NO ORAL OR WRITTEN INFORMATION OR ADVICE, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, SUGGESTIONS, ROUTINES, SCRIPTS OR QUERIES, PROVIDED BY TANIAM SHALL CREATE ANY ADDITIONAL TANIAM WARRANTIES OR IN ANY WAY INCREASE THE SCOPE OF WARRANTIES OR TANIAM'S LIABILITY OR OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. TANIAM HAS NO RESPONSIBILITY OR LIABILITY FOR ANY THIRD-PARTY PRODUCTS OR TECHNOLOGIES USED BY CUSTOMER WHETHER INDEPENDENTLY OR IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE LICENSED SOFTWARE. If applicable law affords Customer implied warranties, guarantees or conditions despite these

exclusions, those warranties will be limited to one (1) year from the Effective Date and Customer's remedies will be limited to the maximum extent allowed by Sections 7 (Limited Warranty; Disclaimer) and 9 (Limitation of Liability).

Indemnities. If a third party claims that Customer's licensed use of the Licensed Software in compliance with the terms of this Agreement infringes a United States: (i) patent, (ii) copyright, or (iii) trade secret of that third party, Taniam, at its sole cost and expense, will have the right to intervene to defend Customer against any such claim, and indemnify Customer from any damages, liabilities, costs and expenses awarded by a court to the third party claiming infringement or set forth in a settlement agreed to by Taniam. The foregoing obligation of Taniam is contingent upon Customer promptly notifying Taniam in writing of such claim, permitting Taniam authority to control the defense or settlement of such claim, and providing Taniam reasonable assistance in connection therewith. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516. If a claim of infringement under this Section occurs, or if Taniam determines a claim is likely to occur, Taniam will have the right, in its sole discretion, to either: (i) procure for Customer the right or license to continue to use the Licensed Software; or (ii) modify the Licensed Software to make it non-infringing, without loss of material functionality. If either of these remedies is not reasonably available to Taniam, Taniam may, in its sole discretion, immediately terminate this Agreement and return the license fees paid by Customer for the infringing Licensed Software, prorated for use over the lesser of: (i) reserved (ii) the remaining unused Licensed Term. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Taniam shall have no obligation with respect to any claim of infringement that is based upon or arises out of (the "Excluded Claims"):

(i) the use or combination of the Licensed Software with any third-party or Customer hardware, software, products, data or other materials; (ii) modification or alteration of the Licensed Software by anyone other than Taniam; (iii) Customer's failure to implement any fix or release that would have avoided the claim; (iv) Customer's use of the Licensed Software in excess of the rights granted in this Agreement; (v) any third-party components; or (vi) a business method or process that is inherent to Customer's business. The provisions of this Section state Customer's sole and exclusive remedy and the sole and exclusive obligations and liability of Taniam and its licensors and suppliers for any claim of intellectual property infringement arising out of or relating to the Licensed Software and/or this Agreement and are in lieu of any implied warranties of non-infringement, all of which are expressly disclaimed.

Limitation of Liability. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL TANIAM OR ITS LICENSORS OR SUPPLIERS BE LIABLE TO CUSTOMER OR ANY THIRD PARTY FOR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE, OR INDIRECT DAMAGES, WHICH THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE SHALL INCLUDE, WITHOUT LIMITATION AND REGARDLESS OF ITS LEGAL CATEGORIZATION, ANY DAMAGES FOR LOST PROFITS, LOST DATA AND BUSINESS

INTERRUPTION, COMPUTER FAILURE AND MALFUNCTION, AND/OR COST OF REPLACEMENT GOODS AND SERVICES OR ANY OTHER DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THE LICENSED SOFTWARE, SERVICES OR THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, ANY ACTIONS OR ITEMS DISCLAIMED IN SECTION 7 (LIMITED WARRANTY; DISCLAIMER), EVEN IF TANIUM HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. IN ANY CASE, THE MAXIMUM AGGREGATE LIABILITY OF TANIUM AND ITS LICENSORS AND SUPPLIERS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FOR ALL DAMAGES, LOSSES, AND CAUSES OF ACTION (WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, OR OTHERWISE) SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE FEES PAID BY CUSTOMER FOR PURCHASE ORDER(S) GIVING RISE TO SUCH CLAIM. THE FOREGOING IS INTENDED TO BE AN AGGREGATE LIMIT, NOT PER INCIDENT. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT ONLY CUSTOMER CAN IMPLEMENT BACK-UP PLANS AND SAFEGUARDS APPROPRIATE TO THEIR OWN NEEDS TO PROTECT THEMSELVES IF AN ERROR IN THE SOFTWARE CAUSES COMPUTER PROBLEMS AND RELATED DATA LOSSES. FOR THESE REASONS, CUSTOMER AGREES TO THE LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY IN THIS SECTION AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT WITHOUT CUSTOMER'S AGREEMENT TO THESE TERMS, THE FEE CHARGED FOR THE LICENSED SOFTWARE WOULD BE HIGHER. NO ACTION, REGARDLESS OF FORM, ARISING OUT OF ANY OF THE TRANSACTIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT MAY BE BROUGHT BY CUSTOMER MORE THAN ONE (1) YEAR AFTER SUCH ACTION ACCRUED. IN THE EVENT TANIUM MAKES A REFUND PURSUANT TO AN EXPRESS REMEDY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, ANY SUCH MONIES REFUNDED BY TANIUM WILL BE APPLIED TO THE MEASURE OF DAMAGES SUBSEQUENTLY AWARDED BY THE COURT, IF ANY. THE FOREGOING LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

Confidentiality. Each party agrees to hold the other party's (and that of its affiliates disclosed in connection with this Agreement) Confidential Information in confidence using the same degree of care that it uses to protect the confidentiality of its own confidential information of like kind (at all times exercising at least a commercially reasonable degree of care in the protection of such Confidential Information), and not to make each other's Confidential Information available in any form to any third party (other than their authorized agents) or to use each other's Confidential Information for any purpose other than as specified in this Agreement (subject, in all cases, to the rights granted to Tanium in Section 11.2). Each party agrees to take all reasonable steps to ensure that Confidential Information of the other party is not disclosed, used or distributed by its employees, agents, or consultants in violation of the provisions of this Agreement. In addition, Customer must ensure that any Managing Party will hold Tanium's Confidential Information in confidence and otherwise comply with this Section. "Confidential Information" shall mean, with respect to a party hereto, all information or material disclosed or made available by one party or its affiliates to the other or its affiliates in connection with this Agreement which (i) gives that party some competitive business advantage or the opportunity of obtaining such advantage or the disclosure of which could be detrimental to the interests of that party; or (ii) from all the relevant circumstances should reasonably be assumed to be confidential. Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to, the Licensed Software. Each party's Confidential Information shall remain the sole and exclusive property of that party. Neither party shall have any obligation with respect to Confidential Information which:

(i) is or becomes generally known to the public by any means other than a breach of the obligations of a receiving party; (ii) was previously known to the receiving party or rightly received by the receiving party from a third party without restrictions on disclosure; (iii) is independently developed by the receiving party without reliance upon or use of the disclosing party's Confidential Information; or (iv) is approved for release by the disclosing party in writing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Customer acknowledges and agrees that Tanium may use Customer's Confidential Information internally at Tanium for sales/support analytics and training. In the event the parties previously executed a non-disclosure agreement related to Customer's prospective license of the Licensed Software or Services, the terms of this Section 10 (Confidentiality) will supersede such non-disclosure agreement from and after the Effective Date.

EVALUATION SOFTWARE AND FEEDBACK.

Evaluation Software. This Section only applies to Licensed Software designated by Tanium as "Evaluation Software." Subject to Section 2 (Restrictions), Tanium grants to Customer a non-transferable, non-exclusive limited license to use the Evaluation Software for its internal evaluation and lab purposes only. The term of this license is for a period of thirty (30) days following Delivery of the Evaluation Software (“Evaluation Period”). Tanium may extend the Evaluation Period in writing at its discretion. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by Tanium, Customer agrees to use the Evaluation Software in a non-production environment. Customer bears the sole risk of using the Evaluation Software. TANIUM PROVIDES THE EVALUATION SOFTWARE TO CUSTOMER “AS-IS” AND GIVES NO REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY, INDEMNITY, GUARANTEE OR CONDITION OF ANY KIND. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, TANIUM’S TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY AND THAT OF ITS LICENSORS, SUPPLIERS, AND PARTNERS IS EXPRESSLY LIMITED TO FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($500) FOR ANY AND ALL DAMAGES REGARDLESS OF THE NATURE OF THE CLAIM OR THEORY OF LIABILITY. Because the Evaluation Software is provided “AS-IS,” Tanium may not provide Services for it. This Section supersedes any inconsistent term in the Agreement for purposes of the Evaluation Software.

Feedback. Customer may provide suggestions, comments, or other feedback (collectively, “Feedback”) to Tanium with respect to its products and services, including the Licensed Software. Feedback is voluntary and Tanium is not required to hold it in confidence. Tanium may use Feedback for any purpose without obligation of any kind. To the extent a license is required under Customer’s intellectual property rights to make use of the Feedback, Customer hereby grants Tanium an irrevocable, non-exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free license to use the Feedback in connection with Tanium’s business, including enhancement of the Licensed Software. Vendor acknowledges that the ability to use this Agreement and any Feedback provided as a result of this Agreement in advertising is limited by GSAR 552.203-71.

Beta Software. If the Licensed Software released to Customer has been identified by Tanium as “Beta Software,” then the provisions of Section 11.1 (Evaluation Software) will apply, in addition to this Section 11.3. Customer is under no obligation to use any Beta Software; doing so is in Customer’s sole discretion. Because Beta Software can be at various stages of development, operation and use of the Beta Software may be unpredictable. Customer acknowledges and agrees that: (1) Beta Software has not been fully tested; (2) use or operation of Beta Software should not occur in a production environment; (3) Customer’s use of Beta Software will be for purposes of evaluating and testing new functionality and providing Feedback to Tanium; and (4) Customer will inform its personnel regarding the nature of the Beta Software. In addition, Tanium has no obligation to Customer to (1) further develop or release the Beta Software or (2) provide Services for the Beta Software. If Tanium releases another version of the Beta Software, Customer will return or destroy all prior version(s) or release(s) of the Beta Software that it received from Tanium.

Governing Law/Jurisdiction. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws in force in the United States. This Agreement will not be governed by the conflict of laws rules of any jurisdiction or the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, the application of which is expressly excluded. The Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act as enacted shall not apply.

General. This Agreement, together with the attached Data Processing Addendum, Schedules and any exhibits attached hereto, constitutes the entire understanding and agreement between Tanium and Customer with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous oral or written communications, including without limitation pre-printed terms and conditions on Customer’s purchase order, with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, all of which are merged in this Agreement. This Agreement shall not be modified, amended or in any way altered except by an instrument in writing signed by authorized representatives of both parties. In the event any provision of this Agreement is found invalid or unenforceable pursuant to judicial decree, the remainder of this Agreement shall remain valid and enforceable according to its terms. Any failure by Tanium to strictly enforce any provision of this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that provision or any subsequent breach of that provision. All notices, demands, or consents given under this Agreement will be in writing to the address on Page 1 of this Agreement, “Attention Legal Department.” Notices will be considered when delivered personally, or three (3) days after deposit in the mail (registered mail), or one

(1) day after being sent by overnight courier. There are no intended or implied third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement. The following provisions shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement:

Sections 2 (Restrictions), 4 (Term and Termination), 5.1 (Fees and Expenses; Delivery and Taxes), 6.2 (Systems Information), 9 (Limitation of Liability), 10 (Confidentiality), 11.2 (Feedback), 12 (Governing Law/Jurisdiction), 13 (General), 15 (U.S. Government Rights), 16 (Audit), 17 (Force Majeure), and Customer's indemnity obligations hereunder. Tanium may assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder as it deems necessary. IT IS EXPRESSLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED THAT IN THE EVENT ANY REMEDY HEREUNDER IS DETERMINED TO HAVE FAILED OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE, ALL LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY AND EXCLUSIONS OF DAMAGES SET FORTH HEREIN SHALL REMAIN IN EFFECT.

Export. Customer acknowledges that the Licensed Software is subject to the export control, economic sanctions, and import laws, regulations and requirements of the United States and other countries including European Union regulations. Without limiting the foregoing, Customer agrees that it will not export, re-export, or re-transfer the Licensed Software or Services in contravention of the foregoing, or provide the Licensed Software or Services to any person, in any jurisdiction, or to any user that would create a licensing requirement under U.S. Export control and economic sanctions laws, regulations and requirements without first obtaining any such license. Customer acknowledges that certain Licensed Software that contains encryption may be subject to export and/or import restrictions in other countries. Tanium will reasonably cooperate, in Tanium's discretion, in assisting Customer with respect to an application for any required export or import licenses and approvals; however, Customer acknowledges it is Customer's ultimate responsibility to comply with all export and import laws and that Tanium has no further responsibility after the initial sale to Customer within the original country of sale. In addition to the other requirements of this Section, Customer shall be solely responsible for complying with the import laws and regulations and other relevant restrictions, if any, of any country into which Customer imports the Licensed Software or Services. Customer will not export or use any Licensed Software or Services in any country not supported by Tanium, including, but not limited to, embargoed and sanctioned countries as promulgated by the United States Government.

U.S. Government Rights. The Licensed Software is commercial computer software as described in DFARS 252.227-7014(a) (1) and FAR 2.101. If acquired by or on behalf of any agency, the U.S. Government acquires this commercial computer software and/or commercial computer software documentation subject to the terms of this Agreement as specified in FAR 12.212, Computer Software.

Audit. During the term of this Agreement and for one (1) year thereafter, no more than once in any twelve (12) month period, Tanium may audit Customer's use of the Licensed Software ("Audit"). An Audit will generally consist of Customer providing a system-generated deployment report evidencing Customer's deployment of the Licensed Software. An Audit may also include the inspection and review of computers or servers on which the Licensed Software has been installed or hosted, and Customer's compliance with the terms of this Agreement. Tanium (or an auditor retained by Tanium) shall provide Customer at least five (5) days' advance notice of an Audit. Customer will reasonably cooperate with Tanium and any auditor retained by Tanium in the conduct of the Audit. Audits will be conducted during Customer's normal business hours and are subject to Government security requirements. The cost of the Audit shall be borne by Tanium. Customer will immediately remit payment for any Licensed Software deployed in excess of the Licensed Software licenses purchased by Customer under this Agreement.

Force Majeure. Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f).

During the site visits, the TAM may:

act as a primary Tanium console operator in a staff augmentation capacity for the Customer;
help plan, communicate and monitor the status, health and challenges associated with installation and deployment of the Licensed Software in Customer’s environment;
provide consolidated reporting of current deployment status to Tanium’s senior technical and sales leadership and designated Customer representatives;
maintain ongoing technical relationships with Customer and provide weekly reporting to Tanium’s senior technical and sales leadership and designated Customer representatives;
track all tickets, bugs, feature requests, improvement requests and ongoing communications regarding the Licensed Software within the customer’s environment;
observe ongoing operations for potential problems and improvements; such observations will be brought to the attention of Tanium’s senior technical and sales leadership and designated Customer representatives; and independently undertake tuning and configuration of the Tanium system as well as provide more advanced technical support.

The TAM will not and the Customer shall ensure that its personnel do not request that the TAM:

create custom content such as sensors, packages, and ‘Saved Questions’ for the Licensed Software;
execute an action (e.g., deploying a patch) using the Licensed Software without the advance written review and approval by a designated Customer representative;
use the Licensed Software to perform any incident response services;
use any destructive content (e.g., file delete action) on behalf of the Customer; or act in a capacity to directly support the underlying operating system, hardware, network or other involved hardware or software on which the Tanium instance is running or dependent.

In addition, Tanium will designate a lead onsite TAM during the Premium Support Term (“Lead OTAM”) where Tanium and Customer agree that the level of support and/or necessary access and privileges require the TAM to be a named individual. The Lead OTAM will be the primary TAM supporting Customer during the Premium Support Term. Tanium and Customer will cooperate to select a Lead OTAM who will be eligible for all necessary access and privileges to perform the support services described herein. Customer acknowledges and agrees that the timeline for the Lead OTAM to on-board at Customer’s location is approximately sixty (60) to ninety (90) days from the order date (“On-Boarding Period”). During the On-Boarding Period, Tanium will assign an interim support resource, which may be an interim Lead OTAM or other available TAM, to facilitate the support services. In any event, site visits for all resources will be scheduled by phone, email, or through the Tanium’s TAM scheduling tool and in accordance with applicable Government security requirements. Customer may not be able to schedule a site visit for specific days due to paid-time-off, illness, holidays, training, vacations or meetings. Even on days when a TAM is not available for a site visit, Customer may obtain TAM support through interim resources using the TAM scheduling tool or through Tanium’s standard Technical Account Management procedures set forth in the Agreement. The interim TAM will support Customer until the Lead OTAM commences or returns, as applicable, or a new Lead OTAM is designated by Tanium.

TAMs will work with Customer to schedule site visits. Scheduling may be accomplished by planning visits one day at a time or by designating regular office hours on a recurring basis. If the Lead OTAM is unavailable or has not yet been designated, an interim lead or other TAM resource will conduct site visit(s). Customer bears the ultimate responsibility to schedule the TAM site visits. No refunds for Premium Onsite Support Services will be provided because Customer did not schedule visits or was unable to provide access, materials, credentials, escorts or anything else necessary to conduct the support services described herein during the Premium Support Term.

Customer Responsibilities. While Tanium endeavors to complete Support Services in a reasonable period of time, certain factors are beyond Tanium’s control, including force majeure events and delays caused by third parties and Customer. Tanium shall not be responsible for any delays or liabilities resulting from such factors. In addition to any Customer responsibilities set forth in the Agreement, to facilitate prompt and efficient completion of the Support Services, Customer and its personnel shall cooperate fully with Tanium and its personnel in all respects, including, without limitation, providing information as to Customer requirements, providing access to the equipment/hardware on which the Licensed Software is or will be installed, and providing access to all necessary information regarding Customer’s systems. Customer shall be responsible for making, at its own expense, any changes or additions to Customer’s current systems, software, and hardware that may be required to support operation of the Licensed Software. In addition, Customer is responsible for providing the TAM or Lead OTAM with all access, materials, credentials, escorts, or anything else necessary to conduct the Support Services described herein.

In addition, Customer will assign an action reviewer/approver to act in as the final Tanium Action Approver for all Tanium Actions submitted by the Lead OTAM who will have final approval authority for all actions issued in the Tanium console; and enable action approver within the Tanium console and enforce the use thereof.

Scope and Progress Meeting. Tanium and Customer will develop a mutually acceptable work plan for any services that are beyond the scope of Premium Onsite Support Services set forth above. Customer will appoint a senior-level technology professional to serve as a liaison with the Lead OTAM. Customer’s representative and the Lead OTAM will meet once a week to discuss the status and progress of all work related to the Premium Onsite Support Services.

Remote Support. Certain Support Services may be provided remotely via telephone or electronic communications. Customer agrees that Tanium resources may access Customer's systems during the relevant Premium Support Term, using a defined standard virtual private network (VPN). If a network connection between Tanium and Customer's systems is required for Tanium to perform the Support Services, Customer will provide such access as follows:

Customer is responsible for ensuring that (i) its network and systems comply with specifications provided by Tanium; (ii) all components of Customer's Tanium environment are accessible through the VPN; and (iii) the VPN is installed in a timely manner for Tanium to perform the Support Services.

Customer is responsible for acquiring and maintaining any equipment and performing any activities necessary to set-up and maintain network connectivity at and to Customer's Tanium environment.

Customer will provide and maintain user accounts for, and access to, the VPN for the Tanium resources, including, but not limited to, Tanium's onsite and remote resources.

Tanium is not responsible for network connection issues, problems or conditions arising from or related to network connections, such as bandwidth issues, excessive latency, network outages, and/or any other conditions that are caused by an internet service provider, or the network connection. If Customer's VPN client software and/or VPN infrastructure fails to allow Tanium access to perform Support Services, Customer agrees to pay for any increased costs resulting from such failure.

ENTERPRISE SUPPORT SERVICES RESOURCES.

General. Tanium Enterprise Support Services Resources may be obtained from Tanium at its then-current list price or mutually negotiated price during the relevant Enterprise Support Services term, the length as specified in the Agreement or Schedule ("ESR Support Term"). The Enterprise Support Services Resource ("ESR") will be available to provide Enterprise Support Services for a specified period of time, as determined by Tanium, during the ESR Support Term, which may consist of remote and onsite support. If applicable, unless otherwise set forth in the Agreement or Schedule, Tanium and Customer will determine the number of site visits required during the ESR Support Term. A site visit will generally be based on an eight (8) hour work day, during normal business hours, but a particular visit may vary based on the specific needs of the Customer that can reasonably be accomplished in a business work day. If Customer purchases Tanium Enterprise Support Services, Tanium will provide an ESR to Customer in accordance with the following terms and conditions.

The ESR may:

act as a primary Tanium console operator in a staff augmentation capacity for the Customer;
help plan, communicate and monitor the status, health and challenges associated with installation and deployment of the Licensed Software in Customer's environment;
provide consolidated reporting of current deployment status to Tanium's senior technical and sales leadership and designated Customer representatives;
maintain ongoing technical relationships with Customer and provide weekly reporting to Tanium's senior technical and sales leadership and designated Customer representatives;
track all tickets, bugs, feature requests, improvement requests and ongoing communications regarding the Licensed Software within the customer's environment; and observe ongoing operations for potential problems and improvements; such observations will be brought to the attention of Tanium's senior technical and sales leadership and designated Customer representatives.

The ESR will not and the Customer shall ensure that its personnel do not request that an ESR:

create custom content such as sensors, packages, and 'Saved Questions' for the Licensed Software;
execute an action (e.g., deploying a patch) using the Licensed Software without the advance written review and approval by a designated Customer representative;
use the Licensed Software to perform any incident response services;
use any destructive content (e.g., file delete action) on behalf of the Customer;
act in a capacity to directly support the underlying operating system, hardware, network or other involved hardware or software on which the Tanium instance is running or dependent; or change any settings, undertake Tanium server or client tuning or conduct advanced troubleshooting without direct instruction from the assigned primary TAM or such delegate as assigned by said primary TAM.

Customer acknowledges and agrees that the timeline for the ESR to on-board at Customer's location is approximately thirty (30) to ninety (90) days from the order date ("On-Boarding Period"). During the On-Boarding Period, Tanium will assign an interim support resource, which may be the TAM, to facilitate the Enterprise Support Services until the parties agree upon the individual to be placed as the ESR. Tanium and Customer will work together in good faith to select the ESR. In the event Customer rejects the ESR candidate or delays in the selection of a reasonable candidate Tanium has offered for consideration, Tanium will assign an interim ESR. The ESR will work during normal business hours or as mutually agreed upon between Tanium and Customer. The ESR may be required to be out-of-the-office due to PTO, illness, holidays, training, vacations or meetings. During this time out-of-the-office, or should the ESR's employment with Tanium end, Tanium may provide to Customer an interim support resource that will support Customer until the ESR returns or a new ESR is designated by Tanium through the ESR Support Term. In all instances, an interim support resource will provide Enterprise Support Services remotely and may be a shared resource.

Customer acknowledges that any delay in the selection of an ESR candidate may: (1) result in Customer not being able to have its desired individual perform the Enterprise Support Services; (2) result in the use of an interim support resource; and (3) hinder the performance of the Enterprise Support Services as described herein. Customer also acknowledges that it might not be possible to retain a particular individual for the ESR Support Term. Customer will not receive any refunds or credits for any period in which an interim support resource is utilized.

Customer Responsibilities. While Tanium endeavors to complete Enterprise Support Services in a reasonable period of time, certain factors are beyond Tanium's control, including force majeure events and delays caused by third parties and Customer. Tanium shall not be responsible for any delays or liabilities resulting from such factors. In addition to any Customer responsibilities set forth in the Agreement, to facilitate prompt and efficient completion of the Enterprise Support Services, Customer and its personnel shall cooperate fully with Tanium and its personnel in all respects, including, without limitation, providing information as to Customer requirements, providing access to the equipment/hardware on which the Licensed Software is or will be installed, and providing access to all necessary information regarding Customer's systems. Customer shall be responsible for making, at its own expense, any changes or additions to Customer's current systems, software, and hardware that may be required to support operation of the Licensed Software. In addition, Customer is responsible for providing the ESR with all access, materials, credentials, escorts, or any other thing necessary to conduct the Support Services described herein.

In addition, Customer will assign an action reviewer/approver to act in as the final Tanium Action Approver for all Tanium Actions submitted by the ESR who will have final approval authority for all actions issued in the Tanium console; and enable action approver within the Tanium console and enforce the use thereof.

Scope and Progress Meeting. Tanium and Customer will develop a mutually acceptable work plan for any services that are beyond the scope of Enterprise Support Services set forth above. Customer will appoint a senior-level technology professional to serve as a liaison with the ESR. Customer's representative and the ESR will meet once a week to discuss the status and progress of all work related to the Enterprise Support Services.

Remote Support. Certain Support Services may be provided remotely via telephone or electronic communications. Customer agrees that Tanium resources may access Customer's systems during the relevant ESR Support Term, using a defined standard virtual private network (VPN). If a network connection between Tanium and Customer's systems is required for Tanium to perform the Enterprise Support Services, Customer will provide such access as follows:

Customer is responsible for ensuring that (i) its network and systems comply with specifications provided by Tanium; (ii) all components of Customer's Tanium environment are accessible through the VPN; and (iii) the VPN is installed in a timely manner for Tanium to perform the Support Services.

Customer is responsible for acquire and maintaining any equipment and performing any activities necessary to set-up and maintain network connectivity at and to Customer's Tanium environment.

Customer will provide and maintain user accounts for, and access to, the VPN for the Tanium resources, including, but not limited to, Tanium's onsite and remote resources.

Tanium is not responsible for network connection issues, problems or conditions arising from or related to network connections, such as bandwidth issues, excessive latency, network outages, and/or any other conditions that are caused by an internet service provider, or the network connection. If Customer's VPN client software and/or VPN infrastructure fails to allow Tanium access to perform Support Services, Customer agrees to pay for any increased costs resulting from such failure.

This Subscription Agreement for Tanium Cloud and Tanium-as-a-Service (the "Agreement") is entered into by and between Tanium Inc., a company organized under the laws of Delaware with offices located at 3550 Carillon Point, Kirkland, Washington 98033 ("Tanium"), and the Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts identified in the Purchase Order (hereinafter "Customer"), to permit the use of the Service and Support, as defined herein. This Agreement is made effective as of the last date signed below (the "Effective Date"). The parties will enter into schedule(s) or purchase order(s) that describe the Service and any Support to be acquired by Customer as set forth in this Agreement (each a "Schedule"). Tanium and Customer may be referred to collectively as the "parties" or individually as "party." The Agreement consists of two parts: PART 1 – General Terms; and PART 2 – Countryspecific Terms. The terms of PART 2 may replace or modify those of PART 1.

PART 1 – General Terms

1. Grant of License.

- 1.1 License.* Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Tanium grants Customer a revocable, non-transferable, non-exclusive, term-based license ("Subscription License") to access and use the internet-based service, and to access, use and copy the proprietary software in object code form and related proprietary components, APIs, sensors, scripts, packages, actions, and 'Saved Questions' made Generally Available by Tanium and provided by or on behalf of Tanium to Customer in connection with this Agreement, as may be updated by Tanium from time to time (collectively, the "Service") in accordance with the Documentation for Customer's internal use only during the applicable Service Period (as defined in Section 4). The term "Service" includes Tanium's then-current documentation made available by Tanium in English for use of the Service, as updated from time-to time by Tanium in its discretion (the "Documentation"). During the Service Period, Tanium may also provide Customer with non-GA materials including 'Labs' or 'Community' content, sensors, scripts, releases, and 'Saved Questions' (the "Support Materials"). Customer may use the Support Materials during the applicable Service Period only as needed for Customer to use the Service. The term "Generally Available" or "GA" means a production version of the Service made available to all of Tanium's customer base.
- 1.2 Ownership.* The Service and Support Materials are licensed to Customer, not sold. The Service, Documentation, Support Materials, and Services provided by Tanium contain material that is protected by copyright, patent, trade secret law, and other intellectual property law, and by international treaty provisions. All rights not expressly granted to Customer under this Agreement are reserved by Tanium. All copyrights, patents, trade secrets, trademarks, service marks, trade names, moral rights, and other intellectual property and proprietary rights in the Service, Support, and Support Materials provided by Tanium, whether or not registered, will remain the sole and exclusive property of Tanium or its suppliers, as applicable.
- 1.3 License Metric.* The Service is licensed on a per Managed OS Instance basis. Certain Tanium modules may be licensed and charged on a per container basis, as more fully set forth in the Tanium provided quote for the Service and/or Support (the "Quote") or Schedule. In the case of a virtual system, in addition to the virtual Managed OS Instance(s), the hypervisor is considered to be a single Managed OS Instance if the Service is installed at the hypervisor level. Customer acknowledges that the Service includes access to certain software to be installed on Customer's Managed OS Instances, all of which is included in the defined term, "Service."
- 1.4 System Configuration.* Hardware and software requirements for proper installation and use of the Service are set forth in the relevant Documentation. - 1.5 Customer Data.* As between the parties, Customer and its affiliates, licensors, partners, or suppliers will retain all right, title and interest (including any and all intellectual property rights) in and to any data or data files of any type that are uploaded by or on behalf of Customer to the Service ("Customer Data"). Customer hereby grants to Tanium a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free right to use, copy, store, transmit, modify, create derivative works of, and display the Customer Data solely to the extent necessary to provide the Service and Support. Customer will ensure that its use of the Service and Support and all Customer Data is at all times compliant with this Agreement, Customer's privacy policies, and all applicable local, state, federal and international laws, regulations, and conventions, including, without limitation, those related to data privacy and data transfer, international communications, and the exportation of technical or personal data. Customer is solely responsible for the accuracy, content, and legality of all Customer Data. Customer represents and warrants to Tanium that Customer has sufficient rights in the Customer Data to grant the rights granted to Tanium in this Section and that the Customer Data does not infringe or violate the intellectual property, publicity, privacy, or other rights of any third party.
- 1.6 Data Sharing.* Certain features of the Service may provide Customer with the option to share Customer Data as well as data files generated by the Service which are based on Customer Data with third parties and to access or use similar data shared by third parties (collectively "Shared Data"), as further described in the Documentation (such sharing or receiving of such data, "Data Sharing"). Customer understands and agrees that Data Sharing is optional and if Customer participates in any Data Sharing, it does so at its own risk. Tanium has no control over and makes no representations or warranties with respect to the accuracy, completeness or adequacy of any Shared Data, and it is Customer's sole responsibility to evaluate the risks related to Shared Data.

2. Restrictions. Customer's Subscription License to the Service is subject to the following license conditions and restrictions:
  - 2.1 Customer's Benefit. Customer must not use or permit the Service or Support Materials to be used in any manner, whether directly or indirectly, that would enable Customer's personnel or any other person or entity to use the Service or Support Materials for anyone's benefit other than Customer or its Affiliates. Customer must purchase each license it intends to use. Use of and access to the Service and Support Materials is permitted only by Customer-designated personnel ("Users").
  - 2.2 Limitations on Copying and Distribution. Customer will not copy or distribute any part of the Service or Support Materials, whether directly or indirectly, except to the extent that copying is necessary to use the Service or Support Materials for the purposes set forth herein.

  - 2.4 Sublicense, Rental and Third Party Use. Except to the extent expressly permitted by this Agreement, Customer will not assign, sublicense, rent, timeshare, loan, lease or otherwise transfer the Service or Support Materials, or directly or indirectly permit any third-party to use or copy the Service or Support Materials. Customer will not operate a service bureau or other similar service for the benefit of third parties using the Service or Support Materials.
  - 2.5 Proprietary Notices. Customer will not remove any proprietary notices (e.g., copyright and trademark notices) from the Service or Support Materials. Customer shall reproduce the copyright and all other proprietary notices displayed on the Service or Support Materials on each permitted back-up or archival copy.
  - 2.6 Use in Accordance with Documentation. All use of the Service and Support Materials must be in accordance with the Documentation, Tanium's Acceptable Use Policy attached as Exhibit B ("AUP"), and this Agreement.
  - 2.7 Use of the Service. Customer is solely responsible and fully liable for its use of the Service and Support Materials, including, but not limited to, for ensuring that the use of the Service and Support Materials is in compliance with all applicable foreign, federal, state, and local laws, rules, and regulations.   - 2.8 Tanium's Intellectual Property. Customer must not use the Service, Support Materials, or other Tanium Confidential Information whether directly or indirectly to contest the validity of any Tanium intellectual property, including the Service; any such use of Tanium's information will constitute a material, non-curable breach of this Agreement.
  - 2.9 Competition. Customer must not use the Service, Support Materials or Tanium Confidential Information in a manner to compete with Tanium, to assist a third-party in competing with Tanium, or for benchmarking or competitive analysis.
  - 2.10 Credential Protection; Authentication. Customer will require that all Users keep user ID and password information ("Credentials") strictly confidential and not share such information with anyone, including any other User. Customer agrees that neither Tanium nor its suppliers have any liability under this Agreement for actions taken using Customer's Credentials, including any unauthorized use or access caused by misuse or misappropriation of such Credentials. Customer will be responsible for initiating and facilitating the removal of Service access by any User who is no longer authorized to access the Service. Customer will use security assertion markup language 2.0 and multi-factor authentication when accessing the Service unless other related security measures are required in the Documentation. Customer will notify Tanium promptly upon learning of any attempt by anyone to misuse, misappropriate, copy, modify, derive, or reverse engineer any Service and Customer shall reasonably cooperate and assist Tanium in discovering, preventing, and recovering damages for any such misappropriation, copying, modification, derivation, or reverse engineering of the Service.
  - 2.11 Prohibited Data. Customer will not use the Service to store, maintain, process, or transmit any sensitive or special data that might impose specific data security or data protection obligations on Tanium, including, without limitation (i) "protected health information" as defined under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), (ii) "cardholder data" as defined under the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI DSS); or (iii) "nonpublic personal information" as defined under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999, in each case as such Acts and standards have been or may be supplemented and amended from time to time.

responsible for and remains liable for the Affiliate's use of the Service and Support Materials in compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. If Customer enters into a contract with a third party that manages Customer's information technology resources ("Managing Party"), Customer may allow its Managing Party to use the Service and Support Materials on Customer's Managed OS Instances, provided that (a) the Managing Party only uses the Service for Customer's internal business purposes and not for the benefit of any third party or for the Managing Party, (b) the Managing Party agrees to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and (c) Customer is responsible for and remains liable for the Managing Party's use of the Service and Support Materials in compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. 4. Term and Termination. Unless otherwise set forth in the Schedule, the Subscription License will commence upon the Effective Date and will continue for the duration of the Subscription License term or until this Agreement is terminated as provided in this Section, whichever occurs first (the "Service Period"). The term of the Service Period will be as set forth in the Schedule. When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Tanium shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. Upon expiration of the Subscription License or any termination or expiration of this Agreement, the Subscription License granted in Section 1 (Grant of License) will automatically terminate and Tanium shall (at Customer's election) destroy, delete, or return to Customer all Customer Data in its possession or control that Tanium processes as a data processor. If Customer does not notify Tanium of its election within thirty (30) days following termination or expiry of the Service Period, then Tanium shall automatically delete all such Customer Data. Tanium shall not delete Customer Data to the extent (i) it is required by applicable law to retain some or all of Customer Data, or (ii) Customer Data was archived on back-up systems, which Customer Data Tanium shall use commercially reasonable efforts to securely isolate and protect from any further processing except to the extent required by such law. Unless otherwise stated in this Agreement or any Schedule, termination of the Agreement will not entitle Customer to a refund of any fees. Tanium reserves the right to seek all remedies available at law and in equity for Customer's material breach of this Agreement. All sales are final except as expressly provided herein. In the event of any termination authorized under this paragraph, by the GSA MAS, or any other express or implied right of termination for convenience, no partial refunds are granted by Tanium.

5. Fees and Expenses; Payment Terms; Taxes.

- 5.1 Fees and Expenses. All payment terms shall subject to the agreement between the Ordering Activity and the Tanium authorized partner ("Reseller").

6. Support; Personal Data and Systems Information; Supplemental Support and Training.

- 6.1 Support. The term "Support" means, collectively, the Support Services, Supplemental Support, Training, and any other services acquired by Customer from Tanium, all of which are provided in accordance with, and governed by, the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The type, term, and level of Support are as set forth in the applicable Schedule. With respect to the Service, the support and maintenance described below in Section 6.2 ("Support Services") are provided during the Service Period. Geographic limitations may apply. Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the parties or expressly stated in the Documentation, Support Services will be provided in English only.

- 6.2 Support Services. Unless otherwise set forth in a Schedule, Tanium will provide the following Support Services to Customer.

6.2.1 General. During the Service Period, Tanium shall provide Customer with reasonable support for the person(s) designated by customer that may contact Tanium for Support Services ("Technical Support Contact(s)"). Customer may contact Tanium for Support Services Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Pacific Standard Time, excluding Tanium holidays. Tanium shall use good faith efforts to work with Customer during Customer's normal business hours in the time zone in which the Customer is located to resolve any issues raised by Customer. Customer may designate up to a maximum of two (2) Technical Support Contacts and may change its designation of Technical Support Contact(s) upon written notice to Tanium.

6.2.2 Contacting Tanium. Customer's Technical Support Contact(s) may contact Tanium for Support Services by submitting a request via the internet-based support platform, which requires registration to use.

6.2.3 Customer's Obligations. Customer is responsible for: (1) preparing and maintaining their systems (e.g., multi-factor authentication) and facilities in accordance with the Documentation and specifications of the appropriate suppliers; (2) securing all required permits, inspections, and licenses necessary to use the Service; (3) complying with all applicable laws while using the Service; and (4) determining whether the Service adheres to any applicable laws to which it subject. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Customer is solely responsible for the function, performance, and results achieved in using or accessing any Support Materials that Tanium may make available to Customer in connection with Support Services.

6.2.4 Third-Party Support. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in this Agreement, if Customer enters into an agreement with a Reseller under which the Reseller will provide support or maintenance to Customer for the Service ("Third-Party Support"), Customer must contact the Reseller, and not Tanium, for support and maintenance. Customer acknowledges that (i) all terms and conditions related to Third-Party Support are solely subject to the agreement between Customer and the Reseller; and (ii) Tanium has no responsibility or liability for Third-Party Support.

- 6.3 Personal Data and Systems Information.

- 6.3.1 Personal Data. Customer, rather than Tanium, determines which types of data, including Personal Data (as defined in the Data Processing Addendum), exists within its endpoint environment, and determines to what extent Personal Data is processed through its use of the Service. To the extent that Tanium processes Personal Data on behalf of Customer while providing the Service, Tanium will process such Personal Data pursuant to the Data Processing Addendum found at <http://tanium.com/dpa>, which is hereby incorporated into and made a part of this Agreement.
- 6.3.2 Systems Information. During the term of the Agreement, Customer may provide to Tanium and the Service may collect performance, usage, and analytics information relating to Customer's operation and use of the Service, metadata relating to Customer's networks, software, applications, and systems, device identifiers, network telemetry, endpoint telemetry, system configuration, and data generated through any of the foregoing (collectively, "Systems Information"). Because Customer's endpoint environment is unique in configurations and naming conventions, the Systems Information could potentially include Personal Data. Customer may redact, edit, or otherwise suppress any Systems Information, including Personal Data, prior to providing to Tanium for processing. To the extent any Systems Information includes Personal Data, Customer represents and warrants that it has made all necessary disclosures and has a lawful basis to share the Personal Data with Tanium for the Permitted Purpose.
- 6.3.3 Customer agrees that Tanium may use Systems Information: (a) to provide the Service and Support; (b) to research, develop, and improve Tanium's products and services; (c) as directed or instructed by Customer; and (d) on an aggregated and/or anonymized basis, for marketing purposes (the "Permitted Purpose"). To the extent Systems Information identifies Customer, such Systems Information will be held in confidence by Tanium in accordance with Section 10 (Confidentiality).
- 6.3.4 As between Customer and Tanium, this Section 6.3 states Tanium's entire obligation with respect to Personal Data.
- 6.4 Supplemental Support and Training. Supplemental Support may be purchased by Customer and provided by Tanium in accordance with Appendix A. Product training may be purchased by Customer and provided by Tanium with respect to the Service ("Training").
7. Limited Warranty; Disclaimer; Integrations with Third-Party Software and Services.
- 7.1 Limited Warranty. During the Warranty Period, Tanium warrants that (i) the Service will operate in substantial conformity with the Documentation; and (ii) it shall use commercially reasonable efforts to screen the Service prior to delivery to Customer for viruses, Trojan horses, and other malicious code. The term "Warranty Period" means ninety (90) days from the Effective Date. If the Service Period is less than ninety (90) days, the Warranty Period will be for the length of the Service Period. The foregoing warranties apply only to the Service provided to Customer during the Warranty Period and are solely for the benefit of Customer. Customer shall have no authority to extend such warranty to any third party. The sole and exclusive remedy of Customer, and the sole and exclusive liability of Tanium, for breach of the foregoing warranties in this Section, shall be to repair or replace the non-conforming Service, or if repair or replacement would, in Tanium's opinion, be commercially unreasonable, then Tanium shall terminate the relevant licenses and refund to Customer the portion of prepaid license fees applicable to such non-conforming Service. This warranty is contingent upon the proper installation and use of the Service as described in the Documentation and this Agreement; Tanium shall not be responsible for Customer's use of the Service if not operated in a manner recommended in the Documentation. Any modification to the Service by Customer or any third party may void Tanium's warranties under this Section.
- 7.2 Additional Warranty. In addition, Tanium warrants that the Service, any Supplemental Support and Training will be provided in a professional and workmanlike manner consistent with relevant industry standards. If Tanium breaches the foregoing warranty, Customer's sole remedy will be to terminate the applicable Supplemental Support and/or Training and receive a refund of any prepaid unused fees for such non-conforming Supplemental Support and/or Training.
- 7.3 Warranty Disclaimer. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 7.1 AND 7.2, THE SERVICE, SUPPORT MATERIALS, AND SUPPORT ARE PROVIDED ON AN "AS AVAILABLE, " "AS-IS" BASIS. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, TANIUM AND ITS SUPPLIERS DISCLAIM ALL OTHER WARRANTIES WITH RESPECT TO THE SERVICE, SUPPORT MATERIALS, AND SUPPORT, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF NON- INFRINGEMENT, TITLE, MERCHANTABILITY, QUIET ENJOYMENT, QUALITY OF INFORMATION, AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. TANIUM DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE SERVICE OR SUPPORT WILL MEET CUSTOMER'S REQUIREMENTS; THAT CUSTOMER'S USE OF THE SERVICE OR SUPPORT WILL SATISFY ANY STATUTORY OR REGULATORY OBLIGATIONS; THAT THE OPERATION OF THE SERVICE OR SUPPORT WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE; OR THAT ERRORS OR DEFECTS IN THE SERVICE OR SUPPORT WILL BE CORRECTED. TANIUM DOES NOT PROVIDE WARRANTIES WITH RESPECT TO ANY NON-GA PRODUCTS, SCRIPTS, CONTENT, OR OTHER TECHNOLOGIES, INCLUDING THE SUPPORT MATERIALS AND ANY INFORMATION OR ADVICE PROVIDED BY TANIUM PERSONNEL IN THE COURSE OF PROVIDING SUPPORT. TANIUM HAS NO RESPONSIBILITY OR LIABILITY FOR DATA SHARING OR
- FOR ANY THIRD-PARTY PRODUCTS OR TECHNOLOGIES USED BY CUSTOMER WHETHER INDEPENDENTLY OR IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE SERVICE. If applicable law affords Customer implied warranties, guarantees or conditions despite these exclusions, those warranties will be limited to one (1) year from the Effective Date and Customer's remedies will be limited to the maximum extent allowed by Sections 7 (Limited Warranty; Disclaimer; Integrations with ThirdParty Software and Services) and 9 (Limitation of Liability)

7.4 Integrations with Third-Party Software and Services. Customer acknowledges that the Service may contain features designed to integrate or interoperate with third-party software or services, that Tanium reserves the right to remove or alter any such Service features, and that any such removal or alteration does not entitle Customer to any refund, credit, or other compensation. If Customer elects to use non-Tanium software or services with the Service, Customer grants Tanium permission to allow the non-Tanium software or services or its provider to access Customer Data and information about Customer's usage of the non-Tanium software or services as appropriate for the integration or interoperation of the non-Tanium software or services with the Service.

8. Indemnification

8.1 Tanium Indemnities. If a third party claims that Customer's licensed use of the Service in compliance with the terms of this Agreement infringes a United States (i) patent, (ii) copyright, or (iii) trademark, or misappropriates a trade secret of that third party, Tanium, at its sole cost and expense, will have the right to intervene to defend Customer against any such claim, and indemnify Customer from any damages, liabilities, costs and expenses awarded by a court to the third party claiming infringement or set forth in a settlement agreed to by Tanium. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516. If a claim of infringement under this Section occurs, or if Tanium determines a claim is likely to occur, Tanium will have the right, in its sole discretion, to: (xx) procure for Customer the right or license to continue to use the Service; (yy) modify the Service to make it non-infringing, without loss of material functionality; or (zz) replace the Service with a functionally equivalent, non-infringing service or offering. If none of these remedies is reasonably available to Tanium, Tanium may, in its sole discretion, immediately terminate this Agreement and return the license fees paid by Customer for the infringing Service, prorated for use over the remaining unused Service Period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tanium shall have no obligation with respect to any claim of infringement that is based upon or arises out of (each of the following an "Excluded Claim"): (A) the use or combination of the Service with any third-party or Customer hardware, software, products, data or other materials; (B) modification or alteration of the Service by anyone other than Tanium; (C) Customer's failure to implement any workaround that would have avoided the claim; (D) Customer's use of the Service in breach of or excess of the rights granted in this Agreement; (E) any third-party components; or (F) a business method or process that is inherent to Customer's business.

The provisions of this Section state Customer's sole and exclusive remedy and the sole and exclusive obligations and liability of Tanium and its suppliers for any claim of intellectual property infringement arising out of or relating to the Service and/or this Agreement and are in lieu of any implied warranties of non-infringement, all of which are expressly disclaimed.

8.3 Indemnification Procedures. The party seeking indemnification under this Agreement shall promptly notify the indemnifying party in writing of such claim, permit the indemnifying party sole authority to control the defense or settlement of such claim, and provide the indemnifying party with reasonable assistance in connection therewith. The indemnified party may participate in the defense at its sole cost. The indemnifying party will not enter into any settlement agreeing to any injunctive relief, payment or admission of liability affecting the indemnified party without the indemnified party's written consent.

9. Limitation of Liability. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL TANIAM OR ITS SUPPLIERS BE LIABLE TO CUSTOMER, ITS AFFILIATES OR ANY THIRD PARTY FOR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE, OR INDIRECT DAMAGES, WHICH THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE INCLUDE, WITHOUT LIMITATION AND REGARDLESS OF ITS LEGAL CATEGORIZATION, ANY DAMAGES FOR PERSONAL INJURY, LOST PROFITS, LOST DATA, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, COMPUTER FAILURE OR MALFUNCTION, AND/OR COST OF REPLACEMENT GOODS OR SERVICES, EVEN IF TANIAM HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. IN ANY CASE, THE MAXIMUM AGGREGATE LIABILITY OF TANIAM AND ITS SUPPLIERS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FOR ALL DAMAGES, LOSSES, AND CAUSES OF ACTION (WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, OR OTHERWISE) IS LIMITED TO THE FEES PAID BY CUSTOMER FOR THE SERVICE OR SUPPORT GIVING RISE TO SUCH CLAIM DURING THE THIRTY-SIX (36) MONTHS IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE FIRST EVENT GIVING RISE TO SUCH CLAIM. THE FOREGOING IS INTENDED TO BE AN AGGREGATE LIMIT, NOT PER INCIDENT. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT ONLY CUSTOMERS CAN IMPLEMENT BACK-UP PLANS AND SAFEGUARDS APPROPRIATE TO THEIR OWN NEEDS TO PROTECT THEMSELVES IF AN ERROR IN THE SERVICE OR SUPPORT CAUSES COMPUTER PROBLEMS AND RELATED DATA LOSSES. FOR THESE REASONS, CUSTOMER AGREES TO THE LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY IN THIS SECTION AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT WITHOUT CUSTOMER'S AGREEMENT TO THESE TERMS, THE FEES CHARGED FOR THE SERVICE WOULD BE HIGHER. NO CAUSE OF ACTION, REGARDLESS OF FORM, ARISING OUT OF ANY OF THE TRANSACTIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT MAY BE BROUGHT BY CUSTOMER MORE THAN SIX (6) YEARS AFTER CUSTOMER IS MADE AWARE OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES THAT RESULTED IN SUCH CAUSE OF ACTION. IN THE EVENT TANIAM MAKES A REFUND OR CREDIT UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, ANY SUCH MONIES REFUNDED OR CREDITED BY TANIAM WILL BE APPLIED TO THE MEASURE OF DAMAGES SUBSEQUENTLY AWARDED BY THE COURT, IF ANY. NEITHER PARTY WILL SEEK A DUPLICATE AWARD OF DAMAGES FOR ANY REFUNDED OR INDEMNIFIED MONIES PAID UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. THE FOREGOING LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

10. Confidentiality. Each party agrees to hold the other party's (and that of its affiliates disclosed in connection with this Agreement) Confidential Information in confidence using the same degree of care that it uses to protect the confidentiality of its own confidential information of like kind (at all time exercising at least a commercially reasonable degree of care in the protection of such Confidential Information), and not to make each other's Confidential Information available in any form to any third party (other than their authorized agents) or to use each other's Confidential Information for any purpose other than as specified in this Agreement (subject, in all cases, to the rights granted to Tanium in Section 11.2). Each party agrees to take all reasonable steps to ensure that Confidential Information of the other party is not disclosed, used, or distributed by its employees, agents, or consultants in violation of the provisions of this Agreement. In addition, Customer shall ensure that any Managing Party will hold Tanium's Confidential Information in confidence and otherwise comply with this Section. "Confidential Information" shall mean, with respect to a party hereto, all information or material disclosed or made available by one party or its affiliates to the other or its affiliates in connection with this Agreement which is marked confidential or proprietary or from all the relevant circumstances should reasonably be assumed to be confidential. Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to, the Service and Support Materials. Each party's Confidential Information shall remain the sole and exclusive property of that party. Neither party shall have any obligation with respect to Confidential Information disclosed or made available by one party or its affiliates to other party or its affiliates in connection with this Agreement which: (i) is or becomes generally known to the public by any means other than a breach of the obligations of a receiving party; (ii) was previously known to the receiving party or rightly received by the receiving party from a third party without restrictions on disclosure; (iii) is independently developed by the receiving party without reliance upon or use of the disclosing party's Confidential Information; or (iv) is approved for release by the disclosing party in writing. In the event the parties executed a non-disclosure agreement related to Customer's prospective license of the Service, the terms of this Section will supersede such non-disclosure agreement after the Effective Date. Tanium recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which may require that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

11. Evaluation Software, Feedback and Preview Software.

11.1 Evaluation Software. This Section only applies to Services provided by Tanium free of charge for evaluation or lab development (collectively, "Evaluation Service(s)"). Subject to Section 2 (Restrictions), Tanium grants to Customer a nontransferable, non-exclusive limited license to use the Evaluation Service(s) for its internal lab development, demonstration, evaluation, training, and testing only. The term of this license is for the term set forth on the applicable License Key Notice, or if no term is described, a period of thirty (30) days following delivery of the Evaluation Service(s) ("Evaluation Period"). Tanium may extend the Evaluation Period in writing at its discretion. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by Tanium, Customer agrees to use the Evaluation Service(s) in a non-production environment. Customer bears the sole risk of using the Evaluation

Service(s). TANIUM PROVIDES THE EVALUATION SERVICE(S) TO CUSTOMER "AS-IS" AND GIVES NO REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY, INDEMNITY, GUARANTEE OR CONDITION OF ANY KIND. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, TANIUM'S TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY AND THAT OF ITS SUPPLIERS IS EXPRESSLY LIMITED TO FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($500) FOR ANY AND ALL DAMAGES REGARDLESS OF THE NATURE OF THE CLAIM OR THEORY OF LIABILITY. Because the Evaluation Service(s) are provided "AS-IS," Tanium is not obligated to provide support for them. Tanium may receive service credits from its subprocessors in association with the Evaluation Service. This Section supersedes any inconsistent term in the Agreement for purposes of the Evaluation Service(s).

11.2 Feedback. Customer may provide suggestions, comments, or other feedback (collectively, "Feedback") to Tanium with respect to its products and services, including the Service and Support. Feedback is voluntary and Tanium is not required to hold it in confidence. Tanium may use Feedback for any purpose without obligation of any kind, except that Tanium acknowledges that the ability to use this Agreement and any Feedback provided as a result of this Agreement in advertising is limited by GSAR 552.203-71. To the extent a license is required under Customer's intellectual property rights to make use of the Feedback, Customer hereby grants Tanium an irrevocable, non-exclusive, perpetual, worldwide, transferable, royalty-free license, with the right to sublicense, to use the Feedback in connection with Tanium's business, including enhancement of the Service.

11.3 Preview Software. If the Service released to Customer has been identified by Tanium as "Beta", "Pre-release" or "Pilot" (collectively, "Preview Software"), then the provisions of Section 11.1 (Evaluation Software) will apply in addition to this Section 11.3. Customer is under no obligation to use any Preview Software; doing so is in Customer's sole discretion. Because Preview Software can be at various stages of development, operation and use of the Preview Software may be unpredictable. Customer acknowledges and agrees that: (a) Preview Software has not been fully tested; (b) use or operation of Preview Software should not occur in a production environment; (c) Customer's use of Preview Software will be for purposes of evaluating and testing new functionality and providing Feedback to Tanium; and (d) Customer will inform its personnel regarding the nature of the Preview Software. In addition, Tanium has no obligation to Customer to (1) further develop or release the Preview Software or (2) provide support for the Preview Software. If Tanium releases another version of the Preview Software or upon notice from Tanium, Customer will return or destroy all prior version(s) or release(s) of the Preview Software that it received from Tanium.

12. Governing Law/Jurisdiction. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws in force in USA. This Agreement will not be governed by the conflict of laws rules of any jurisdiction or the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, the application of which is expressly excluded. The Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act as enacted shall not apply.

13. General. This Agreement (including PART 1 and PART 2 where applicable), together with the Schedules and any exhibits attached hereto, the Data Processing Addendum, Documentation, appendices, and the AUP provided in Exhibit B, constitutes the entire understanding and agreement between Tanium and Customer with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous oral or written communications, including without limitation the terms and conditions on any Customer purchase order, payment portal, or other document with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement (even where Tanium has not explicitly objected to them), all of which are merged in this Agreement. This Agreement is provided in English and the English version will govern over any translations. This Agreement shall not be modified, amended or in any way altered except by an instrument in writing signed by authorized representatives of both parties and specifically referencing this Agreement, and this Agreement shall supersede any non-disclosure agreement required to be signed by Tanium employees or contractors prior to accessing Customer facilities or systems. In the event any provision of this Agreement is found invalid or unenforceable pursuant to judicial decree, the remainder of this Agreement shall remain valid and enforceable according to its terms. Any failure by Tanium to strictly enforce any provision of this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that provision or any subsequent breach of that provision. Any notice or consent under this Agreement addressed to Tanium should be marked "Attention Chief Legal Officer" and may be sent (i) to the address identified on the Quote, which will be considered delivered three (3) days after deposit in the mail (registered mail) or one (1) day after being sent by overnight courier, or (ii) via email, to Legal@tanium.com, which will be considered delivered when receipt is confirmed by Tanium. Any notice or consent under this Agreement addressed to Customer should be marked "Attention Chief Legal Officer" and may be sent (a) to the address provided when purchasing the Service, which will be considered delivered three (3) days after deposit in the mail (registered mail) or one (1) day after being sent by overnight courier, or (b) via email, to the email address provided by Customer when purchasing the Service, which will be considered delivered when receipt is confirmed by the recipient. There are no intended or implied third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement. The following provisions of PART 1 shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement: Sections 2 (Restrictions), 4 (Term and Termination), 5 (Fees and Expenses; Payment Terms; Taxes), 6.3 (Personal Data and Systems Information), 9 (Limitation of Liability), 10

(Confidentiality), 11.2 (Feedback), 12 (Governing Law/Jurisdiction), 13 (General), 15 (U.S. Government Rights), 16 (Audit), 17 (Force Majeure), 18 (Construction), and Customer's indemnity obligations hereunder. All provisions of PART 2 will survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement. Tanium may assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder as it deems necessary. IT IS EXPRESSLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED THAT IN THE EVENT ANY REMEDY HEREUNDER IS DETERMINED TO HAVE FAILED OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE, ALL LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY AND EXCLUSIONS OF DAMAGES SET FORTH HEREIN SHALL REMAIN IN EFFECT.

14. Export or Import. Customer acknowledges that the Service, which contains encryption, is subject to the export, import, economic sanctions, and trade restriction laws, regulations and requirements of the United States and other countries including European Union regulations. Tanium will reasonably cooperate, in Tanium's discretion, in assisting Customer with respect to an application for any required export or import licenses and approvals; however, Customer agrees and acknowledges that it is Customer's ultimate responsibility to comply with all export and import laws and that Tanium has no further responsibility after the initial sale to Customer within the original country of sale, including Customer's importation of the Service into other countries. Without limiting the foregoing, Customer agrees that it will not export, re-export, re-transfer, or provide access to the Service in contravention of the foregoing, or provide the Service to any person, in any jurisdiction, or to any user that would create a licensing requirement under U.S. Export control and economic sanctions laws, regulations and requirements without first obtaining any such license. Customer will not export to, or use the Service or Support in, any country not supported by Tanium, including, but not limited to, embargoed and sanctioned countries as promulgated by the United States Government. Customer shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Tanium from and against any and all damages, fines, penalties, assessments, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) arising out of or relating to any claim the Service was imported, exported, accessed, or otherwise shipped or transported by Customer in violation of applicable laws, rules and regulations as described in this Section.
15. U.S. Government Rights. The Service is commercial computer software as described in DFARS 252.227-7014(a) (1) and FAR 2.101. The U.S. Government acquires this commercial computer software and/or commercial computer software documentation subject to the terms of this Agreement as specified in FAR 12.212, Computer Software.
16. Audit. During the term of this Agreement and for one (1) year thereafter, no more than once in any twelve (12) month period, Tanium may audit Customer's use of the Service ("Audit"). An Audit will generally consist of Customer providing a system-generated deployment report evidencing Customer's deployment of the Service. Customer will reasonably cooperate with Tanium and any auditor retained by Tanium in the conduct of the Audit. Audits will be conducted during Customer's normal business hours and are subject to Government security requirements. Customer will immediately remit payment for any Service deployed in excess of the Service licenses purchased by Customer under this Agreement.
17. Force Majeure. In accordance with 52.212-4(f), Except for Customer's payment obligations, neither party will be liable for any failure or delay in performance under this Agreement which is due to any event beyond the reasonable control of such party, including without limitation, fire, explosion, unavailability of utilities or raw materials, unavailability of components, labor difficulties, war, pandemic, epidemic, riot, act of God, export control regulation, laws, judgments, or government instructions.
18. Construction. This Agreement has been negotiated and approved by the parties and, notwithstanding any rule or maxim of law or construction to the contrary, any ambiguity or uncertainty will not be construed against either of the parties by reason of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement.
19. Additional Terms for Tanium Cloud for US Government (TC-USG). TC-USG is a version of the Service offered by Tanium to Eligible Customers. "Eligible Customers" means federal, state, local, and tribal government entities, educational institutions, and any entity that collects, processes, or stores Customer Data for which Customer determines and Tanium agrees that the use of TC-USG is appropriate to help Eligible Customer comply with regulatory and compliance requirements of the US federal government. Any Customer that purchases, accesses, or uses TC-USG ("TC-USG Customers") hereby represents and warrants to Tanium that it is an Eligible Customer as defined in this Section 19 and it will strictly comply with this Section 19 and other terms in this Agreement when accessing and using TC-USG. For TC-USG Customers, the following changes are made to the terms of PART 1 of this Agreement:

19.1 The following is added to Section 2.10 (Credential Protection):

In addition, TC-USG Customers will ensure (a) each User abides by the appropriate Rules of Behavior and (b) each User who has administrator access to TC-USG is a US Person, as defined by 22 CFR part 120.15 ("US Person"), is not subject to export restrictions under US export control laws, and is not an excluded or sanctioned party. Customer will ensure it notifies Tanium if it will appoint a new User with administrator access to TC-USG.

19.2 The following is added to Section 2.11 (Prohibited Data):

In addition, TC-USG Customers will not use the Service to store, maintain, process, or transmit any data that is (a) classified, (b) federal tax information subject to Internal Revenue Service Publication 1075, (c) criminal justice information subject to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's Criminal Justice Information Services Security Policy, or (d) that requires an authorization level higher than Federal Risk and Authorization Management Program ("FedRAMP") Moderate or Department of Defense Impact Level 2. If Customer introduces any such prohibited data onto the Service, Customer is solely responsible for all sanitization costs incurred by Tanium or its Affiliates, and any third party which Tanium uses to provide the Service.

19.3 Information Security for TC-USG.

For TC-USG Customers, Tanium will continuously monitor the privacy and security controls consistent with its FedRAMP System Security Plan ("SSP"). In providing the Service, Tanium may use public cloud infrastructure services offered by third-party provider(s) as detailed in the SSP. Each third-party provider is responsible for managing the servers on which their cloud service is run and for providing physical security measures at their data centers. Security measures may vary by provider and more information may be available on their respective websites. This section 19.3 will take precedence over Tanium's commitments about data privacy and security in this Agreement and, except as required by law, reflects Tanium's sole commitment with respect to data privacy and security for TC-USG.

Appendix A

Tanium Supplemental Support

1. Supplemental Support.

1.1 General. Tanium Supplemental Support ("Supplemental Support") may be obtained from Tanium at its then-current GSA Schedule list price or mutually negotiated price during the Service Period, and the length of the engagement will be specified in the Agreement or Schedule ("ESR Support Term"). If Customer purchases Supplemental Support, Tanium will provide a Tanium enterprise support resource ("ESR") who will be available to provide the relevant level of Supplemental Support during the ESR Support Term, which may consist of reasonable remote and onsite support.

The ESR may provide the following support as agreed with Customer:

- assist with the deployment, configuration, and optimization of the Tanium products;
- plan, coordinate and implement Tanium-related projects and communicate updates;
- provide consolidated reporting of current deployment status to Tanium's senior technical and sales leadership and designated Customer representatives;
- collate technical documentation on behalf of the customer;
- help plan, communicate, and monitor the status, health and challenges associated with installation and deployment of Tanium products;
- maintain ongoing technical relationships with Customer and provide weekly reporting to Tanium's senior technical and sales leadership and designated Customer representatives;
- track all tickets, bugs, feature requests, improvement requests and ongoing communications regarding Tanium products; and
- observe ongoing operations for potential problems and improvements; such observations will be brought to the attention of Tanium's senior technical and sales leadership and designated Customer representatives.

The ESR will not:

- execute an action, including, but not limited to deploying a patch, using Tanium products without the advance written review and approval by a designated Customer representative;

- use Tanium products to perform any incident response services;
- use any destructive content (e.g., file delete action) on behalf of the Customer;
- act in a capacity to directly support third-party hardware or software on which the Tanium product is running or dependent; or
- change any settings, undertake Tanium server or client tuning or conduct advanced troubleshooting without direct instruction and prior authorization from the Action Approver (or other designated Customer representative) and from the assigned primary Tanium technical account managers working with Customer ("TAM").

The ESR Support Term will commence on the date set forth in the Schedule, or the effective date of the Schedule if a start date is not otherwise indicated. Customer will provide the ESR access to the Tanium environment and related Customer's systems within thirty (30) days from agreed upon on-boarding date ("On-Boarding Period"). In the event Customer fails to provide the ESR with the required systems access noted above, Tanium may withdraw the assigned ESR until access is granted. Supplemental Support will be provided during normal business hours or as mutually agreed upon between Tanium and Customer. The ESR may be required to be out-of-the-office due to PTO, illness, holidays, training, vacations, or meetings. During this time out-of-the-office, or should the ESR's employment with Tanium end, Tanium will provide to Customer with standard Support Services, unless otherwise agreed by Tanium, or when a replacement ESR is available, through the ESR Support Term.

1.2 Customer Responsibilities. Customer and its personnel shall cooperate fully with Tanium and its personnel in all respects, including, without limitation, providing information as to Customer requirements, providing access to the equipment/hardware on which the components of the Tanium products are or will be installed, and providing access to all necessary information regarding Customer's systems. Customer shall be responsible for making, at its own expense, any changes or additions to Customer's current systems, software, and hardware that may be required to support operation of the Tanium products.

1.3 Action Approver. Customer will assign an action reviewer/approver to act as the final Customer approver for all Tanium actions submitted by the ESR ("Action Approver"). The Action Approver will have the authority to approve all actions issued in the Tanium console. Any other requested changes to the Customer's environment will require a change review process to be agreed by the parties.

1.4 Remote Support. Supplemental Support may be provided remotely via telephone or electronic communications. Customer agrees that Tanium resources may access Customer's systems during the relevant ESR Support Term, using a defined standard virtual private network (VPN). If a network connection between Tanium and Customer's systems is required for Tanium to perform the Supplemental Support, Customer will provide such access as follows:

- Customer is responsible for ensuring that (i) its network and systems comply with specifications provided by Tanium; (ii) all components of Customer's Tanium environment are accessible through the VPN; and (iii) the VPN is installed in a timely manner for Tanium to perform the Supplement Support or other Support Services.
- Customer is responsible for acquiring and maintaining any equipment and performing any activities necessary to setup and maintain network connectivity at and to Customer's Tanium environment.
- Customer will provide and maintain user accounts for, and access to, the VPN for the Tanium resources, including, but not limited to, Tanium's onsite and remote resources.
- Tanium is not responsible for network connection issues, problems or conditions arising from or related to network connections, such as bandwidth issues, excessive latency, network outages, and/or any other conditions that are caused by an internet service provider, or the network connection. If Customer's VPN client software and/or VPN infrastructure fails to allow Tanium access to perform its obligations, Customer agrees to pay for any increased costs resulting from such failure.

TENABLE PUBLIC SECTOR LLC
7021 COLUMBIA GATEWAY DR
COLUMBIA, MD 21046

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions (for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached Tenable Public Sector LLC (“Manufacturer”) product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America (“Contractor”) to provide Manufacturer’s information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America’s GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the “Schedule Contract”). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the “Manufacturer Specific Terms” or the “Attachment A Terms”) are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ’s jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ)), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer (“Licensee”) is the “Ordering Activity”, defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor’s assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor’s assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Product licenses shall commence upon Delivery and shall be either perpetual or subscription in nature. If Customer exceeds the license restrictions, Tenable shall promptly invoice Customer for an upgraded license to allow for all actual or additional usage.

If during the course of a perpetual license Customer terminates or fails to renew the Support Services, Customer may, at any time during the term of this Agreement, request that Tenable reinstate the Support Services provided that Customer pays for the lapsed Support Services in an amount equal to the total fees Customer would have paid for the Support Services between the time Customer's Support Services lapsed and the then-current date.

Confidentiality.

Definition. "Confidential Information" means information learned or disclosed by a Party under this Agreement that should reasonably be assumed to be confidential or proprietary, including the Products. Confidential Information will remain the property of the disclosing Party, and the receiving Party will not be deemed by virtue of this Agreement or any access to the Confidential Information to have acquired any right, title or interest in or to the Confidential Information.

Obligations. Each Party agrees to only use the Confidential Information in connection with this Agreement or a purchase hereunder. The receiving Party agrees to hold the disclosing Party's Confidential Information confidential and to use at least the same level of protection against unauthorized disclosure or use as the receiving Party normally uses to protect its own information of a similar character, but in no event, less than a reasonable degree of care. Each Party may share Confidential Information with its Affiliates or authorized contractors in the performance of its duties under this Agreement; provided, however, each Party shall be responsible to ensure that such Affiliate or authorized contractors are bound by obligations of confidentiality at least as stringent as those set forth in this Agreement.

Furthermore, if Customer intentionally or unintentionally requests or performs scans on third party Scan Targets, Customer agrees that Tenable may provide all relevant information to the owner of the Scan Targets of such unlawful or impermissible scanning as well as to relevant legal authorities, and such disclosure shall not be considered a breach of confidentiality.

Information Not to be Disclosed. The Parties agree not to disclose to each other any sensitive, non-public, personally identifiable information (such as social security numbers, personal credit card information or health care data, etc.) which may be the subject of any data privacy regulations as well as any Personal Data of an EU Data Subject as such terms are defined under the European Union General Data Protection Regulation (together, hereinafter, "PII"). Tenable does not require the transmission or processing of any such PII in order to perform its duties under this Agreement or sell any Products hereunder. If Customer inadvertently or unintentionally discloses any PII to Tenable, Customer shall identify to Tenable that it has disclosed PII and Tenable shall promptly return and/or destroy such PII.

Legal Disclosures; Remedies. The receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information if required to do so by law provided the receiving Party shall promptly notify the disclosing Party so that the disclosing Party may seek any appropriate protective order and/or take any other action to prevent or limit such disclosure. If required hereunder, the receiving Party shall furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information disclosure of which is legally required. The receiving Party will notify the disclosing Party promptly of any unauthorized use or disclosure of the disclosing Party's Confidential Information. Tenable recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which requires that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

Representations and Warranties; Disclaimer.

Products. Product warranties and associated warranty periods are set forth in the relevant Schedules attached hereto.

Antivirus Warranty. Tenable represents it has taken commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the Products, at the time of Delivery, are free from any known and undisclosed virus, worm, trap door, back door, timer, clock, counter or other limiting routine, instruction or design that would erase data or programming or otherwise cause the Products to become inoperable or incapable of being used in the manner for which it was designed or in accordance with the Documentation.

Warranty Disclaimer. The express warranties for products and services are set forth in the applicable Schedules attached hereto. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY STATED IN THIS AGREEMENT AND TO THE GREATEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, TENABLE OFFERS ITS PRODUCTS "AS-IS" AND MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTIES OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, SECURITY, INTEGRATION, PERFORMANCE AND ACCURACY, AND ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES ARISING FROM STATUTE, COURSE OF DEALING, COURSE OF PERFORMANCE OR USAGE OF TRADE. THE WARRANTIES SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT ARE MADE TO CUSTOMER FOR CUSTOMER'S BENEFIT ONLY. CUSTOMER'S USE OF THE PRODUCTS IS AT CUSTOMER'S OWN RISK. CUSTOMER UNDERSTANDS THAT ASSESSING NETWORK SECURITY IS A COMPLEX PROCEDURE, AND TENABLE DOES NOT GUARANTEE THAT THE RESULTS OF THE PRODUCTS WILL BE ERROR-FREE OR PROVIDE A COMPLETE AND ACCURATE PICTURE OF CUSTOMER'S SECURITY FLAWS, AND CUSTOMER AGREES NOT TO RELY SOLELY ON SUCH PRODUCTS IN DEVELOPING ITS SECURITY STRATEGY. CUSTOMER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE PRODUCTS MAY RESULT IN LOSS OF SERVICE OR HAVE OTHER IMPACTS TO NETWORKS, ASSETS OR COMPUTERS (INCLUDING MODIFICATION OF SCAN TARGETS), AND CUSTOMER IS SOLELY RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY DAMAGES RELATING TO SUCH LOSS OR IMPACT.

In Case of Infringement. If Customer's use of the Products is, or in Tenable's opinion is likely to be, the subject of an infringement claim, Tenable may, in its sole discretion and expense: (i) modify or replace the infringing Products as necessary to avoid infringement, provided that the replacement Products are substantially similar in functionality; (ii) procure the right for Customer to continue using the infringing Products; or (iii) terminate this Agreement and, upon Customer's return or certified destruction of the infringing Product, provide Customer a pro-rata refund calculated as follows: (x) for infringing Products licensed on a subscription basis, the refund shall consist of any prepaid but unused fees for the remainder of the applicable License Term; or (y) for infringing Software licensed on a perpetual basis, the refund shall consist of a straight line depreciation of the license fee based on a three (3) year useful life. This Section 9 sets forth Tenable's sole and exclusive liability and Customer's sole and exclusive remedy with respect to any claim of intellectual property infringement.

Exclusions. Tenable shall have no liability with respect to a third party intellectual property infringement claim arising out of: (i) modifications of the Product made to conform with Customer's specifications; (ii) modifications of the Product made by anyone other than Tenable or a Tenable authorized third party; (iii) Customer's use of the Product in combination with other products or services not provided by Tenable; (iv) Customer's failure to use any updated versions of the Product made available by Tenable; or (v) Customer's use of the Product in a manner not permitted by this Agreement or otherwise not in accordance with the Documentation.

Requirements. Tenable shall only be responsible for the indemnification obligations set forth in this Section 9 if the Customer: (i) provides Tenable prompt written notice of such action or claim; (ii) gives Tenable the right to control and direct the investigation, defense, and/or settlement of such action or claim in accordance with and to the extent permitted under 28 U.S.C. § 516; (iii) reasonably cooperates with Tenable in the defense of such a claim (at Tenable's expense); and (iv) is not in breach of this Agreement. Nothing herein shall prevent Customer from engaging in defense of any such claim with its own legal representation, provided that this does not materially prejudice Tenable's defense. Tenable may not settle any claim on behalf of Customer without obtaining Customer's prior written consent; provided, however, Tenable shall not be required to obtain consent to settle a claim which settlement consists solely of: (x) discontinued use of infringing Products and/or (y) the payment of money for which Tenable has a duty to indemnify.

Legal Compliance.

Generally. The Products are intended solely for lawful purposes and use. Each party agrees to perform their respective obligations in a manner that complies with all applicable national, federal, state and local laws, statutes, ordinances, regulations and codes ("Applicable Laws") including, without limitation, the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act (CFAA), 18 USC Sec. 1030.

Exporter of Record. Applicable Laws include U.S. export laws (including the International Traffic in Arms Regulation (ITAR), 22 CFR 120-130, and the Export Administration Regulation (EAR), 15 CFR Parts 730 et seq.). Customer agrees that it will be the exporter of record any time it causes the Products to be accessed outside the United States or by a national of any country other than the United States. The parties further agree to comply with sanctions administered by the Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control and shall not engage in prohibited trade to persons or entities on the Specially Designated Nationals list.

Governing Law.

This Agreement shall be governed in all respects by the Federal laws of the United States. The Parties agree that: (i) no aspect or provision of the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act shall apply to this Agreement; and (ii) this Agreement shall not be governed by the U.N. Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods.

Other Legal Clauses.

Third Parties. Customer may permit a third party ("Customer's Agent") to use the Products to perform security services for and on behalf of Customer but solely for Customer's benefit and solely for Customer's internal business purposes. Customer shall be fully responsible for Customer's Agent's use of the Products including liability for any breaches of the Agreement or use beyond the licensed quantities set forth in the Ordering Document. If Customer elects to utilize a Customer's Agent to perform Scans on its behalf, then only Customer's Agent (and not Customer) will be permitted to contact Tenable Support Services. Tenable shall have the right to withdraw its consent to the use of any Customer's Agent in its reasonable discretion.

Notices. Any legal notices or other communication pursuant to this Agreement must be in writing, in English, and will be deemed to have been duly given when delivered if delivered personally or sent by recognized overnight express courier. All notices to Tenable must be sent to the address described in this Agreement to the attention of the Legal Department (unless otherwise specified by Tenable). All notices Tenable sends to Customer shall be at the physical address referenced in this Agreement (or otherwise provided to Tenable). Tenable may provide notices with regard to Products via the email address Customer provided during Product registration and Customer hereby consents to receive such communications from Tenable in an electronic form.

Assignment. Neither Party may assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld.

Reserved.

General.

This Agreement, together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule pricelist and applicable purchase order, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties, and supersedes all other prior or contemporaneous communications between the Parties (whether written or oral) relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. No Customer document or purchase order shall modify or supersede this Agreement, unless expressly agreed to in writing by both parties. The provisions of this Agreement will be deemed severable, and the unenforceability of any one or more provisions will not affect the enforceability of any other provisions. If any provision of this Agreement, for any reason, is declared to be unenforceable, the Parties will substitute an enforceable provision that, to the maximum extent possible under applicable law, preserves the original intentions and economic positions of the Parties. Section headings are for convenience only and shall not be considered in the interpretation of this Agreement. Customer agrees that Tenable may use Customer's name or logo in a customer list. Customer may not use Tenable's name or logo without prior written consent and in accordance with Tenable's guidelines. No failure or delay by a Party in exercising any right, power or remedy will operate as a waiver of that right, power or remedy, and no waiver will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the waiving Party. If a Party waives any right, power or remedy, the waiver will not waive any successive or other right, power or remedy the Party may have under this Agreement. The Parties are independent contractors and this Agreement will not establish any relationship of partnership, joint venture, employment, franchise or agency between the Parties. This Agreement is not intended nor will it be interpreted to confer any benefit, right or privilege in any person or entity not a party to this Agreement. Any party who is not a party to this Agreement has no right under any law to enforce any term of this Agreement. Any provision of this Agreement that imposes or contemplates continuing obligations on a party and any section which by its nature is intended to survive will survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement, including Sections 3, 4, 9 and 11.

Government Entities. This Section 15 shall only apply to Government Customers, as defined below.

If Customer is an agency or instrumentality of a sovereign government (a "Government Customer"), all Government Customer end users acquire the rights to use and/or access the Products and/or Services with only those rights set forth herein (consistent with 48 C.F.R. 12.212). The terms and conditions of this Agreement govern Government Customer's use and disclosure of the Products and supersede any conflicting terms and conditions that may be applicable through the Government Customer's procurement regulations. If this Agreement fails to meet the Government Customer's needs or is inconsistent in any way with federal law, the government must return the Product, unused, to Tenable. If Customer is prohibited by law, regulation, or relevant attorney general opinion from agreeing to any clause of this Agreement (collectively, "Restrictions"), the Agreement shall be modified to the extent required under such Restrictions. Each of the components that constitute the Product is a "commercial item" as that term is defined at 48 C.F.R. 2.101, consisting of "commercial computer software" and/or "commercial computer software documentation" as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. 12.212.

SCHEDULE A: SOFTWARE

This Schedule for Tenable Software (this "Schedule") is subject to and made part of the Agreement.

License; Right to Use. Subject to the terms of the Agreement, Tenable grants Customer for the duration of the License Term a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable license to use the Software (in object code form only) solely for Customer's own internal business purposes. Customer's right to install such Software is limited to use with the computers or machines for which the Software is registered for use. Customer is permitted to make one copy of the Software for backup or archival purposes.

Warranty. Tenable warrants that the Software shall materially conform to the Documentation for a period of sixty (60) days after Delivery. Customer's sole and exclusive remedy for breach of this warranty shall be for Tenable to, at its sole option: (i) use commercially reasonable efforts to modify or correct the Software such that in all material respects it conforms to the functionality described in the Documentation; or (ii) if Tenable is unable to restore such functionality within a reasonable period of time, Customer shall be entitled to a refund for the non-confirming Software.

Open Source and Third Party Software. Any code or other intellectual property included as part of the Software that was licensed to Tenable by third parties that is not marked as copyrighted by Tenable is subject to other license terms that are specified in the Documentation available on Tenable's website at <https://docs.tenable.com/licensedclarations/> (or a successor location). Customer agrees to be bound by such other license terms.

Audit Rights. Subject to applicable Government security requirements, Tenable may, by itself or through a third party independent auditor, audit Customer's usage of the Software to confirm compliance with this Agreement or the applicable Ordering Document. Tenable shall: (i) provide Customer with reasonable advance notice of the audit; (ii) not request such audit more than once per year; and (iii) not unreasonably interfere with Customer's business activities when conducting the audit.

SCHEDULE B: HOSTED SERVICES

This Schedule for Tenable Hosted Services (this "Schedule") is subject to and made part of the Agreement.

General. This Schedule governs Customer's purchase and use of the Hosted Services.

License: Right to Use. Subject to the terms of the Agreement, Tenable grants Customer for the duration of the License Term a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable right to access the Hosted Environment and use those modules of the Hosted Services set forth on a valid Ordering Document solely for Customer's own internal business purposes.

Warranty. Tenable warrants that the Hosted Services will materially comply with the functionality described in the Documentation. Customer's sole and exclusive remedy for breach of this warranty shall be for Tenable to use commercially reasonable efforts to modify the Hosted Services to provide in all material respects the functionality described in the Documentation. If Tenable is unable to restore such functionality within sixty (60) days, Customer shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement and receive a pro-rata refund of any prepaid but unused fees for the nonconforming Hosted Services. Tenable shall have no obligation with respect to a warranty claim hereunder unless Customer notifies Tenable of such claim within thirty (30) days of the date the underlying condition first arose. This warranty shall only apply if the applicable Hosted Service has been utilized in accordance with the Agreement and the Documentation.

Acknowledgements. Customer authorizes Tenable to perform the Scans, including accessing the Scan Targets in the context of the Scans. Customer understands and acknowledges that the Scans may originate or appear to originate from a Tenable URL which could cause Customer (or the owner of the Scan Targets) to believe they are under attack. Customer agrees not to pursue any claims against Tenable as a result of any access to Scan Targets when such access was made in connection with an authorized Scan unless such a claim is based on the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Tenable.

Usage Requirements. Customer must provide current and accurate information in all submissions made in connection with the Hosted Services, including registration information and the location of the Scan Targets to be Scanned. Tenable may, in its reasonable discretion, temporarily suspend access of certain users of the Hosted Services. Customer agrees to safeguard and maintain the confidentiality of all user names and passwords. Customer further agrees to use best efforts to ensure that no unauthorized parties have access to the Hosted Services through Customer's account and/or log-in credentials. Customer will promptly notify Tenable of any unauthorized access of which Customer is aware or reasonably suspects. Customer is responsible for compliance with this Agreement and all use of the Hosted Services through Customer's account.

PCI Scans. Tenable makes no guarantee that a successful completion of a PCI Scan will make Customer compliant with the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard.

Data Retention Policy. Tenable will maintain Customer Scan data stored in the Hosted Environment for a period of not less than one year from the Scan date. Customer acknowledges that Tenable is in no way responsible for any of Customer's data retention compliance requirements. Tenable's data retention policy with respect to PCI Scans will match then-current requirements set forth by the PCI Security Standards Council.

Service Level Agreement. Tenable commits to make access to the Hosted Environment available in accordance with Tenable's then current service level agreement, available at http://static.tenable.com/prod\_docs/Service\_Level\_Commitment.pdf (or a successor location).

SCHEDULE C: PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

This Schedule for Tenable Professional Services is subject to and made part of the Agreement.

General. The Parties may agree, from time to time, on the purchase and sale of Tenable Professional Services. Professional Services shall be as further described in a separate SOW or Services Brief. No SOW shall be binding upon the Parties until it has been executed by both Parties. Except as otherwise agreed to by the Parties in writing, all Services Briefs or signed SOWs will be governed by this Agreement. In the event of inconsistency between the Agreement and a signed SOW, the signed SOW shall govern.

Type of Services. Tenable offers a range of Professional Services; provided, however, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing, Tenable does not offer creation of custom intellectual property. Tenable is not obligated to provide any Professional Services except as mutually agreed in a Services Brief or SOW.

Deliverables. "Deliverable(s)" means the reports, analysis, codes, scripts slides, documents, examples and other written materials or work results provided as part of the Professional Services.

Intellectual Property Rights.

Grant of License in Deliverables. Tenable grants Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable, irrevocable (except in case of breach of the Agreement or SOW) perpetual right to use, copy and create derivative works from the Deliverables (without the right to sublicense) for Customer's internal business operations, as contemplated by the applicable SOW or Services Brief.

Reservation of Rights. Except for the rights expressly granted herein to Customer, Tenable expressly reserve all other rights in and to the Professional Services and Deliverables. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Schedule, nothing shall prevent Tenable from providing similar Professional Services to other customers and nothing in this Schedule shall be construed to provide any intellectual property rights whatsoever in the Products (or any modifications or enhancements thereto) that Tenable develops or makes generally available for sale to its customers.

Pre-Existing Materials. Any pre-existing materials, proprietary item or intellectual property rights of either Party which is disclosed or used in performing the Professional Services shall remain fully vested in such Party. Nothing in this Schedule shall transfer any rights whatsoever in Tenable's Products. Customer hereby grants to Tenable the intellectual property rights (if any) required for Tenable to perform the Professional Services.

Warranty. Tenable warrants that all Professional Services shall be performed in a professional manner and in accordance with industry standards. Tenable further warrants for a period of ten (10) days from the service completion date that the Professional Services shall materially conform to with the applicable SOW or Services Brief. If Customer provides written notice of a non-conformity during this warranty period, Tenable shall promptly confirm the non-conformity and upon confirmation, Tenable's entire liability and Customer's exclusive remedy shall be for Tenable to use commercially reasonable efforts to re-perform the Professional Services within a reasonable amount of time. If Tenable is unable to reperform the Professional Services, then Tenable may elect to refund amounts paid by Customer for the non-conforming Professional Services.

Scheduling: Cancellation. Professional Services must be scheduled within three (3) months of the date of the Ordering Document under which such Professional Services were purchased and completed within six (6) months of the of the Ordering Document. Customer must provide Tenable at least ten (10) business days' notice to reschedule any Professional Services.

Customer Responsibilities. For Professional Services occurring on Customer's site, Tenable agrees to comply with applicable and reasonable security procedures provided Customer provides Tenable with such written procedures in advance. Some of the Professional Services may require Customer to have specialized knowledge or meet particular software or hardware requirements (for example, appropriate computers or appliances, stable Internet connection or up-to-date web browsers or operating system, etc.). If technical issues arise during the Professional Services, Tenable will use commercially reasonable efforts to resolve such issues, but will have no liability based on Customer's failure to meet technical requirements.

Changes. Either party may request that a change be made to the Professional Services. Tenable reserves the right to charge a fee for any material changes to the Professional Services. No changes shall be binding unless executed by both Parties.

Non-Solicitation. During the term that Professional Services are being provided and for a period of one (1) year after their completion, Customers will not, either directly or indirectly, solicit for employment any person employed by Tenable or any of its Affiliates that have provided Customer Professional Services under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, this restriction shall not prevent Customer from hiring based on a response to Customer's advertising in good faith to the general public a position or vacancy to which an employee or worker of Tenable responds, provided that no such advertisement shall be intended to specifically target Tenable personnel.

Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

To the extent consistent with the provisions of FAR 52.227-19 (Commercial Computer Software License), the following restrictions shall apply to Government End Users. Where a restriction is inconsistent with the provisions of FAR 52.227-19, the FAR provisions shall control and the restriction shall not apply to Government End Users. For other customers, the restrictions shall apply.

A. You shall not (a) make more copies than the Number of Units (except for a reasonable number of copies for archival and disaster recovery purposes) or use any unlicensed versions of the Software; (b) use any Software not listed in an Order Form, even if such unlicensed software is made available to you as part of the general delivery mechanism for the Products; (c) provide access to the Products to anyone other than employees, contractors, or consultants who agree in writing to be bound by terms at least as protective of TIBCO as those in this Agreement; (d) sublicense, transfer, assign, distribute to any third party, pledge, lease, rent, or commercially share the Products or any of your rights under this Agreement (for the purposes of the foregoing a change in control of your company is deemed to be an assignment); (e) use the Products for purposes of providing a service bureau, including, without limitation, providing third-party hosting, or third-party application integration or application service provider-type services, or any similar services; (f) use the Products in connection with ultrahazardous activities, or any activity for which failure of the Products might result in death or serious bodily injury to you or a third party; or (g) directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, modify, translate, reverse engineer, decrypt, decompile, disassemble, make error corrections to, create derivative works based on, or otherwise attempt to discover the source code or underlying ideas or algorithms of the Products. You may engage in such conduct as is necessary to ensure the interoperability of the Software as required by law, provided that prior to commencing any decompilation or reverse engineering of any Software, you agree to observe strict obligations of confidentiality and provide us reasonable advance written notice and the opportunity to assist with or conduct such activity on your behalf and at your expense.

B. Any additional license parameters applicable to particular Products are set forth in Appendix B.

12. Proprietary Notices. The Products, Documentation and Materials are proprietary to TIBCO and its licensors and protected by applicable U.S. and international patent, copyright, trademark and trade secret laws. 13. Extraordinary Corporate Event. For Government End Users, the rights contained at FAR 52.227-19 shall apply in lieu of the following provision. For customers other than Government End Users, to the extent you or your successors or assigns enter into an Extraordinary Corporate Event after the Purchase Date, this Agreement shall not apply to those additional users, divisions or entities which were added to your organization as a result of the Extraordinary Corporate Event until those additional users, divisions or entities are added to this Agreement by way of a written amendment signed by our respective duly authorized officers.

THE TERMS OF ANY MAINTENANCE SERVICES OR RELATED WARRANTY SHALL BE AS AGREED BY AND BETWEEN YOU AND THE TIBCO AUTHORIZED THIRD PARTY. WE PROVIDE NO WARRANTY TO YOU WITH RESPECT TO MAINTENANCE SERVICES PROVIDED BY ANY THIRD PARTY.

B. Maintenance, if ordered (or if included in Cloud or Hosted Services), is provided under the policies set forth in the Maintenance Program Guide attached as Appendix C for Products other than Equipment, and at Appendix D for Equipment.

C. Any Updates provided by us or by our authorized resellers or distributors (if applicable) are subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. To receive Maintenance, all Products must be properly licensed and Maintenance fees paid. We are under no obligation to provide Maintenance in the event that Maintenance fees have not been paid when properly due and owing.

15. Consulting Services.

A. You may procure installation, configuration, training or other consulting or support services ("Consulting Services") either through a Purchase Order issued against a Consulting Services quotation, or through a work order executed by authorized representative of both parties ("Work Order"). Consulting Services available under this Agreement are limited to those defined as Commercial Items in FAR 2.101, Commercial Item definition at (5) and (6).

B. We hereby grant you a nonexclusive license to use the Materials (and a reasonable number of copies thereof) solely for your internal operations in conjunction with your use of the Products. Materials obtained during your attendance at or from your purchase of virtual training courses, unless otherwise agreed in an Order Form, are limited to the one (1) copy received by each attendee and may not be duplicated.

C. In the event that you are purchasing a license to specific training course content as set forth in an Order Form, the content of each such training course shall constitute a Product for the purpose of this Agreement. Subject to your payment of fees due, you are granted a limited, non-transferable and non-exclusive license to use, modify, translate, create derivative works from, reproduce and distribute the Product solely for your internal business use; provided, however, that the copyright notices and any other legends of ownership are reproduced on each complete or partial copy of such Product. We retain all right, title and interest in the Product, excluding your Confidential Information. All complete or partial copies of the Product in any form shall be subject to the same terms as the original copy. The term of each license and level of annual Maintenance for the Product shall be as set forth in the Order Form.

16. Limited Warranty.

The following Limited Warranty provisions shall apply to Government End Users to the extent permitted by applicable Federal law, including FAR 12.404(b)(2); to the extent that these limitations are not permitted or are unenforceable under applicable Federal law, they shall be of no force or effect for Government End Users. For all other customers, the following Limited Warranty provisions shall apply.

A. If you obtained Software directly from us, we warrant for a period of thirty (30) days from the Purchase Date that (i) the media on which the Software is furnished will be free of defects in materials and workmanship under normal use; and (ii) the Software will substantially conform to its Documentation. This limited warranty extends to you personally and is not transferable. Your sole and exclusive remedy and the entire liability of TIBCO and its licensors under this limited warranty will be, at our option, to repair or replace (with respect to the affected Software product), or refund the Software license fee. In the event of a refund, this Agreement shall terminate solely with respect to the affected Software product, and you shall immediately cease all use of and return or destroy all copies of such Software.

B. THIS WARRANTY DOES NOT APPLY TO ANY SOFTWARE WHICH (I) IS LICENSED FOR ALPHA, BETA, EVALUATION, TESTING OR DEMONSTRATION PURPOSES FOR WHICH WE DID NOT RECEIVE A LICENSE FEE; (II) HAS BEEN ALTERED OR MODIFIED (UNLESS BY US); (III) HAS NOT BEEN INSTALLED, OPERATED, REPAIRED, OR MAINTAINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH INSTRUCTIONS SUPPLIED BY US; (IV) HAS BEEN SUBJECTED TO ABNORMAL PHYSICAL OR ELECTRICAL STRESS, MISUSE, NEGLIGENCE, OR ACCIDENT; OR (V) IS USED IN VIOLATION OF ANY OTHER TERM OF THIS AGREEMENT.

C. EXCEPT AS SPECIFIED IN THIS LIMITED WARRANTY OR AS OTHERWISE REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PRODUCTS AND SERVICES ARE PROVIDED "AS IS". ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED CONDITIONS, REPRESENTATIONS, AND WARRANTIES INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OR CONDITION OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NONINFRINGEMENT, SATISFACTORY QUALITY OR ARISING FROM A COURSE OF DEALING, USAGE, OR TRADE PRACTICE, ARE HEREBY EXCLUDED TO THE EXTENT ALLOWED BY APPLICABLE LAW. CERTAIN THIRD PARTY SOFTWARE MAY BE PROVIDED TO CUSTOMER ALONG WITH CERTAIN PRODUCTS

THIS THIRD PARTY SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS IS", IS SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE THIRD PARTY LICENSE, AND MAY ONLY BE USED WITH THE PRODUCTS WITH WHICH IT IS PROVIDED TO YOU. SUCH THIRD PARTY SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED SOLELY AS AN ACCOMMODATION TO YOU AND YOU ARE UNDER NO OBLIGATION TO USE SUCH THIRD PARTY SOFTWARE. NO WARRANTY IS MADE REGARDING THE RESULTS OF ANY PRODUCTS OR SERVICES, THAT THE PRODUCTS WILL OPERATE WITHOUT ERRORS, PROBLEMS OR INTERRUPTIONS, THAT ERRORS OR BUGS WILL BE CORRECTED, OR THAT THE PRODUCT FUNCTIONALITY OR SERVICES WILL MEET YOUR REQUIREMENTS. NO TIBCO DEALER, DISTRIBUTOR, AGENT OR EMPLOYEE IS AUTHORIZED TO MAKE ANY MODIFICATIONS, EXTENSIONS OR ADDITIONS TO THIS WARRANTY ON TSFI'S OR TIBCO'S BEHALF.

17. Indemnity. For Government End Users, claims that Products infringe any patent, copyright or trade secret shall be subject to the provisions of FAR 52.227-2 and 52.227-3.

For customers other than Government End Users, if you obtained the Software from us directly, then we agree at our own expense to defend or, at our option, to settle, any claim or action brought against you to the extent it is based on a claim that the unmodified Software infringes any patent issued by the United States, Canada, Australia, Japan, or any member of the European Union, or any copyright, or any trade secret of a third party. We will indemnify and hold you harmless from and against any damages, costs and fees reasonably incurred (including reasonable attorneys' fees) that are attributable to such claim or action and which are assessed against you in a final judgment provided that you promptly notify us in writing of such claim, we have the exclusive right to control such defense and/or settlement, and you provide reasonable assistance (at our expense) in the defense thereof. In no event shall you settle any claim, action or proceeding without our prior written approval. In the event of any such claim, litigation or threat thereof, we, at our sole option and expense, shall (a) procure for you the right to continue to use the Software, or (b) replace or modify the Software with functionally equivalent software. If such license or modification is not commercially reasonable (in our sole reasonable opinion), we may cancel this Agreement with respect to the affected Software product upon sixty days prior written notice to you and refund to you the unamortized portion of the associated license fees paid by you to us based on a five-year straight-line depreciation. This Section states our entire liability with respect to the infringement of any intellectual property rights, and you hereby expressly waive any other liabilities or obligations we have with respect thereto. The foregoing indemnity shall not apply to the extent that (x) any claim is based on or attributable to modifications made by you to the Software, or portions thereof, (y) such claim would have been avoided by use of the then-current release version of the Software, or (z) your continued allegedly infringing activity after being provided with modifications that would have avoided the alleged infringement.

18. Limitation of Liability.

FOR GOVERNMENT END USERS, THE FOLLOWING LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY SHALL APPLY ONLY TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE FEDERAL LAW. TO THE EXTENT THAT THESE PROVISIONS ARE INCONSISTENT WITH APPLICABLE FEDERAL LAW, THEY SHALL BE OF NO FORCE OR EFFECT WITH REGARD TO GOVERNMENT END USERS.

FOR CUSTOMERS WHO ARE NOT GOVERNMENT END USERS, THE FOLLOWING SHALL APPLY:

A. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED UNDER THE INDEMNITY ABOVE; OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE MISAPPROPRIATION OF THE OTHER PARTY'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, TRADE SECRETS; DAMAGES FOR BODILY INJURY, DEATH, DAMAGE TO REAL OR TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY; OR INTENTIONAL OR GROSS NEGLIGENCE (THE "EXCLUDED MATTERS"), IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY OR TIBCO'S LICENSORS BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOSS OR UNAVAILABILITY OF OR DAMAGE TO DATA, LOST REVENUE, LOST PROFITS, FAILURE TO REALIZE EXPECTED SAVINGS, DAMAGE TO REPUTATION, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, DOWNTIME COSTS, OR ANY OTHER INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY OR SIMILAR TYPE OF DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, THE USE OR THE INABILITY TO USE THE PRODUCTS, OR THE PROVISION OF ANY MAINTENANCE, CONSULTING SERVICES, EVEN IF A PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OR WAS AWARE OR SHOULD HAVE BEEN AWARE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH COSTS, EXPENSES OR DAMAGES.

B. EXCEPT FOR THE EXCLUDED MATTERS, IN NO EVENT SHALL A PARTY'S LIABILITY TO THE OTHER, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING ACTIVE OR PASSIVE NEGLIGENCE), BREACH OF WARRANTY, CLAIMS BY THIRD PARTIES OR OTHERWISE, EXCEED THE GREATER OF FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS ($50,000 USD) OR THE PRICE PAID BY YOU UNDER THE APPLICABLE ORDER FORM. This clause shall not impair the U.S. Government's right to recover for fraud or crimes arising out of or related to this Agreement under any federal fraud statute, including the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729-3733. Furthermore, this clause shall not impair nor prejudice the U.S. Government's right to EXPRESS remedies provided in the Agreement.

C. THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS SHALL APPLY EVEN IF THE ABOVE-STATED REMEDY OR LIMITED WARRANTY FAILS OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE. BECAUSE SOME STATES OR JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW LIMITATION OR EXCLUSION OF CONSEQUENTIAL OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES, THE ABOVE LIMITATION MAY NOT APPLY TO YOU. TO THE EXTENT ALLOWED BY LOCAL LAW, THESE LIMITATIONS WILL APPLY REGARDLESS OF THE BASIS OF LIABILITY, INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE, MISREPRESENTATION, BREACH OF ANY KIND, OR ANY OTHER CLAIMS IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE.

19. Confidentiality.

For Government End Users, confidentiality obligations shall be pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act and other applicable Federal law, and Sections 19A through 19E, below, shall not apply. TIBCO software Products delivered under this Agreement constitute commercial computer software products as defined in the FAR and are delivered with no greater than the rights identified in FAR 52.227-19; data delivered under this Agreement constitutes Limited Rights data, and was developed at private expense, embodies trade secrets, or are commercial or financial and confidential or privileged. Pursuant to FAR 52.227-14(g) (Alternate II, DEC 2007), these data may be reproduced by the Government with the express limitation that they will not, without written permission of TSFI, be used for purposes of manufacture nor disclosed outside the Government.

For customers other than Government End Users, the following provisions shall apply:

A. "Confidential Information" means any information disclosed by either party, whether or not marked, including, without limitation, the terms of this Agreement; the Products; Materials; individual contact information provided by either party; Product or related performance test results derived by you, including but not limited to benchmark test results; and your Protected Data (as defined in Section B below) and Output. Each party agrees to protect Confidential Information in the same manner as it protects its own Confidential Information (but using no less than a reasonable degree of protection) and shall only disclose Confidential Information to those with a need to know that information and who have agreed in writing to be bound by terms at least as protective as those contained in this Agreement. Information will not be deemed Confidential Information if (i) available to the public other than by a breach of a confidentiality obligation, (ii) rightfully received from a third party not in breach of a confidentiality obligation, (iii) independently developed by one party without use of the Confidential Information of the other; (iv) known to the recipient at the time of disclosure (other than under a separate confidentiality obligation); or (v) produced in compliance with applicable law or court order, provided the other party is given reasonable advance notice of the obligation to produce Confidential Information. Each party agrees to indemnify the other for any damages (including reasonable expenses) the other may sustain resulting from the unauthorized use and/or disclosure of the other's Confidential Information. The parties further agree that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for a breach of confidentiality. The parties shall be entitled to seek injunctive or other equitable relief without the necessity of posting a bond even if otherwise normally required. Such injunctive or equitable relief shall not be the exclusive remedy for any breach of confidentiality, but shall be in addition to all other rights and remedies available at law or in equity.

B. To the extent we are exposed to individual personal data owned or otherwise held by you during the provision of Hosted Services, Cloud, or Services, which is subject to various data protection laws and/or regulations ("Protected Data"), we agree to treat such Protected Data in accordance with the Customer Privacy and Security Statement set forth at http://www.tibco.com/customer\_privacy\_security\_statement.jsp (the "Statement"). The policies and procedures set forth in the Statement as well as those set forth in the Data Protection Policy Statement at http://www.tibco.com/resources/data\_protection\_statement.pdf are in place to meet our obligations for the protection, integrity and confidentiality of any Protected Data which exceed our standard obligations to safeguard Confidential Information.

C. Confidential Information shall remain the sole property of the disclosing party, and each party acknowledges and agrees that it does not acquire any rights therein. Use by a recipient of Confidential Information for the purposes contemplated under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, any configuration or use by you of Products or Materials shall not affect or diminish the disclosing party's rights, title and interest in and to Confidential Information.

D. We may use any individual contact information provided by you or your users for support, product information and other business to business communications in connection with this Agreement. In the event you or your users wish to opt-out from receiving such communications, you or your users should do so on the web store or website page where you originally submitted provided your information or at <http://forms2.tibco.com/unsubscribe/u/5042/768537d8eeb3af5338448782d1fa356e>. Please note that communications may still be transmitted after the opt-out request has been submitted but before it has been processed.

E. You acknowledge and agree that any feedback, suggestions, comments, improvements, modifications and other information (including any ideas, concepts, "know-how" or techniques contained therein) that you provide to us about our Products or their performance (collectively, "Feedback") shall not be deemed as your Confidential Information and may be used, disclosed, disseminated and/or published by us for any purpose, including developing, manufacturing and marketing products incorporating Feedback, without obligation of any kind to you, and you waive any rights whatsoever in or to all Feedback.

20. Export. Products, Documentation, Materials and related technical data, are subject to U.S. export control laws, including without limitation the U.S. Export Administration Act and its associated regulations and may be subject to export or import regulations of other countries. You agree that you will not nor permit your users to export or re-export the Licensor Software, Documentation and Materials in any form in violation of applicable export or import laws.

21. Government Use. The Products and Services are COMMERCIAL ITEMS AS DEFINED BY THE FEDERAL ACQUISITION REGULATION. Use by the Government is restricted according to the terms of this Agreement. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY PROVISIONS TO THE CONTRARY IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND AS REQUIRED BY FAR 12.302(b), THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS FOUND AT FAR 52.212-4 SHALL APPLY:

- (1) Assignments; (2) Disputes;
- (3) Payment (except as provided in subpart 32.11); (4) Invoice;
- (5) Other compliances; and
- (6) Compliance with laws unique to Government contracts.

22. Entire Agreement. For Government End Users, to the extent permitted by applicable Federal law and regulation, this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the use of the Products and Services, and supersedes all proposals, oral or written, and all other representations, statements, negotiations and undertakings relating to the subject matter hereof. All orders of Products or Services by you to us shall be deemed to occur, with or without reference, under the terms of this Agreement, unless expressly superseded by a signed written agreement between the parties.

For other customers, this Agreement, and any terms which are incorporated by written reference (including written reference to information contained in a URL, Documentation or reference policy) constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the use of the Products and Services, and supersedes all proposals, oral or written, and all other representations, statements, negotiations and undertakings relating to the subject matter hereof. All orders of Products or Services by you to us shall be deemed to occur, with or without reference, under the terms of this Agreement, unless expressly superseded by a signed written agreement between the parties. Except for additional terms you have agreed to in connection with our web stores or web sites, none of the terms of the Order Form (other than the product names, Number of Units, level of Maintenance, description of Consulting Services, and fees due in connection therewith) shall apply for any reason or purpose whatsoever, regardless of any statement on any Order Form to the contrary.

Neither the license to use granted in this Agreement nor the obligation to pay license fees are dependent upon the performance by any party of any Consulting Services or the supply of any other software program or product.

23. Termination.

Between TSFI and Government End Users, termination shall be pursuant to FAR 52.212-4(l) (Termination for the Government's convenience) and 52.212(m) (Termination for cause); no other termination rights shall apply, including paragraphs 23(A) through (F). Nothing in the foregoing, however, shall be understood to grant the Government the right to use Products or Services acquired on a term basis beyond the term set forth in the applicable Purchase Order.

For customers other than Government End Users:

A. This Agreement and all Order Forms shall automatically terminate if: (i) either party files for bankruptcy, or otherwise goes into receivership, becomes insolvent or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or (ii) a writ of attachment or execution is levied on the Equipment (where we are lessor) and is not released or satisfied within ten (10) days thereafter, or (iii) where we are lessor or in a Purchase where payment in full to us has not been made, if a receiver is appointed in any proceeding or action to which you are a party with authority to take possession or control of the Equipment. In all cases, the Equipment shall be promptly returned to us and not be treated as your asset.

B. Maintenance or Consulting Services may be terminated: (i) by either party upon a default of the other, such default remaining uncured for fifteen (15) days from written notice from the non-defaulting party; (ii) upon the filing for bankruptcy or insolvency of the other party, (iii) by either party upon prior written notice at least sixty (60) days prior to the end of any annual Maintenance term; or (iv) by you for Consulting Services, upon ten (10) days prior written notice or (e) by us for Consulting Services upon thirty (30) days prior written notice. Termination of Maintenance or Consulting Services shall not terminate this Agreement.

C. A Cloud will terminate if or when your or our agreement for services with a Provider is terminated or otherwise expires for any reason. In the event of a termination of your Provider services, by Provider, in connection with a Cloud, without cause (where you are not in breach), to the extent you have pre-paid us fees for the Cloud, you may submit written notice requesting a refund, such notice to include evidence of Provider's termination without cause (e.g. a copy of Provider's notice of termination). Following receipt of such written notice, we will refund the pre-paid unearned pro-rata portion, from the date we received your notice, for the remaining Cloud term, or in the case of multiple Cloud purchases, each remaining term. In the event of a termination, for any reason, of TIBCO Provider service accounts upon which we rely to provide Hosted Services or the Cloud, to the extent you have pre-paid us fees for Hosted Services or Cloud to us, we will refund, as of the date of notice of termination from Provider to us, for the unearned pro-rata portion of the prepaid fees.

D. You may terminate this Agreement in its entirety at any time, in regard to Software, by destroying all copies of the Software. We may terminate this Agreement at any time, in regard to Software provided to you for evaluation or alpha/beta purposes. In the case of an evaluation of Equipment, where we exercise our right to terminate the Lease for a reason other than your breach of the Agreement, and you have pre-paid fees for the month in which our termination occurs, we will refund the unearned monthly pro-rated fee to you within thirty (30) days following our receipt of the returned Equipment.

E. If a license, Cloud, or Hosted Services under this Agreement terminates or expires, or upon termination of this Agreement in its entirety for any reason, you shall (i) cease using the Products, Documentation, and related Confidential Information, and (ii) return or notify us in writing within thirty (30) days after termination that you have destroyed such Software, Documentation, related Confidential Information, and all copies thereof, whether or not modified or merged into other materials.

F. Termination of this Agreement, any license, Cloud, or Hosted Services, or any Order Form shall not limit either party from pursuing other remedies available to it, including injunctive relief, nor shall such termination relieve you of your obligation to pay all fees that have accrued or are otherwise owed by you under this Agreement. Except as set forth in sections entitled "Termination", "Limited Warranty" or "Indemnity", all fees paid under or in connection with this Agreement are non-refundable and no right of set-off exists. The parties' rights and obligations under this section and sections entitled "Limited Warranty", "Indemnity", "Limitation of Liability", "Proprietary Notices", "Confidentiality", "General", "Governing Law" and your warranties in connection with Hosted Services and the Cloud, shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

24. Open Source Software. If you use any third party software not supplied by us, including any open source software, in conjunction with any Product, you must ensure that such use does not require any of the following, pursuant to the terms of such software: (i) disclosure or distribution of any Product in source code form; or (ii) licensing of any Product for the purpose of making derivative works; or (iii) redistribution of any Product at no charge. For the avoidance of doubt, you may not combine Product with any software licensed under any version of or derivative of the GNU General Public License ("GPL") in any manner that could cause, or could be interpreted or asserted to cause, the Product or any modifications to the Product to become subject to the terms of the GPL.

25. Special Product Provisions. Software products TIBCO BusinessEvents®, TIBCO Collaborative Information Manager™, TIBCO ActiveMatrix® Service Performance Manager and TIBCO® ActiveFulfillment (and each of the foregoing, when included in any Bundle or Embedded/ Bundled Products) are subject to a restricted license and contain third party proprietary code that you may only use in conjunction with the Software and may be subject to additional terms as set forth in Appendix B.

26. General.

A. As between TSFI and the Government, interest in connection with this Agreement shall be pursuant to the provisions of FAR 52.212-4(i)(6).

B. As between TSFI and other customers: All payments of fees due shall be made in U.S. dollars, net 30 from Purchase Date or, for any other amounts coming due hereafter, net 30 from our invoice. Fees do not include sales, use, withholding, value-added or similar taxes, and you agree to pay all sales, use, value-added, goods and services, consumption, withholding, excise and any other similar taxes or government charges, exclusive of our income tax. You agree to pay all reasonable costs incurred (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in collecting past due amounts. Except as set forth in the sections entitled "Limited Warranty", "Indemnity" and "Termination" all fees paid under or in connection with this Agreement are non-refundable and no right of set-off exists. A service charge of one and one-half percent (1 ½%) per month will be applied to all invoices that are not paid on time. No delay in the performance of any obligation by either party, excepting all obligations to make payment, shall constitute a breach of this Agreement to the extent caused by Force Majeure.

C. You hereby grant us and our independent auditors the right to audit your compliance with this Agreement and report any results to our licensors. You agree to provide reasonable assistance to ensure a complete and accurate audit by us and our independent auditors. If any portion of this Agreement is found to be void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect. All notices related to this Agreement shall be in writing. Notices will be effective if dispatched by facsimile; or electronic mail; by hand; reliable overnight delivery service or first-class, pre-paid mail if sent to the contract address for the intended recipient set forth in the Order Form. A copy of any notice of default, breach or termination shall also be sent to that party's General Counsel.

27. Governing Law. For Government End Users, this Agreement shall be governed by applicable Federal law, including but not limited to the Contract Disputes Act of 1978 as amended, with venue in the Federal courts of competent jurisdiction. For other customers, to the extent permitted by law, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, United States of America, as if performed wholly within the state and without giving effect to the principles of conflict of law. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act are excluded from application hereto.

In no event may the Licensor Software which comprises a Bundle be used on a standalone basis. A "Bundle" is sold at a discount to the cost of licensing the individual components due to the restrictions imposed on the use of the Bundle by this section and any specific license restrictions imposed by this Agreement. If the terms of this Agreement with regard to a Bundle are breached, such breach must be cured within ten (10) days of Licensor notifying Licensee in writing of the breach. Licensor does not permit aggregation of products, services, purchase or license models and cumulative fees paid across separate Product Lines to trigger preferred pricing or discounts.

"Production" means an operational environment into which the licensed Licensor Software has been installed, which is processing live data and which has been deployed so that the intended users of the environment are able to access the live data.

"Project" means (unless otherwise set forth in an Order Form) an unlimited Number of Units of the Licensor Software, where the Number of Units is identified as Project in the Order Form, to be deployed by Licensee until the Project Term Expiration Date set forth in the Order Form, (the "Project Term"), at which time, the Number of Units then deployed in Production and Non-Production use by Licensee becomes fixed and Licensee may not thereafter deploy additional Units. During the Project Term, Licensee's right to deploy an unlimited Number of Units does not extend beyond the scope of the Project set forth in the Order Form, or to any Extraordinary Corporate Event. Licensee hereby agrees to provide Licensor, within sixty (60) days after the end of the Project Term, with written notice of the Number of Units deployed at the end of the Project Term by Unit and License Type. In the event Licensee elects to renew Maintenance (subject to any termination provisions in this Agreement), then during the Project Term and each annual renewal thereafter, Licensor agrees the annual Maintenance fee for the Licensor Software licensed on a Project basis shall not increase by more than the percentage rate change in the Consumer Price Index for the twelve month period immediately preceding each anniversary date of Maintenance.

"Purchase" means when used in connection with "Equipment", the purchase of the hardware appliance, where Licensor transfers title of the hardware appliance to Licensee. The Licensor Software is licensed under the terms of this Agreement and not sold. Licensor (or a third party) owns the Licensor Software.

"Read-only User" means an identifiable individual, not necessarily named at the time of license grant and regardless of whether the individual is actively using the Licensor Software at any given time, designated by Licensee to access the Licensor Software for the sole purpose of searching for and viewing data.

"Record" means a unique data item stored in and counted by the applicable Licensor Software product. The total number of Records shall in no event exceed the Number of Units set forth in the Order Form, unless Licensee purchases additional Units.

"Server" means a single computer performing common services for multiple other machines.

"Server Instance" means a computer with one (1) CPU, unless otherwise agreed in writing, performing common services for multiple other machines.

"Site Copy" means the number of copies of the Licensor Software licensed for use at the physical location of the Licensee entity signing an Order Form or as otherwise specifically designated as the site location in an Order Form.

"Spare" means a unit of Equipment identified by use of the word "Spare" in its product name, which is kept in storage at the same location as Equipment in productive use. In the event Equipment in productive use becomes inoperable, Licensee may set up and configure a Spare for productive use, until the original Equipment becomes operational again, but in no event for a period greater than three (3) months, without first obtaining Licensor's written consent.

"Third Party Software" means third-party software identified by its company and/or product name, the provision of which by Licensor is made solely as an accommodation and in lieu of Licensee purchasing a license to Third Party Software directly from the third party vendor.

"TIBCO Processing Unit" or "TPU" means a Unit for measuring computing power as designated in the applicable TPU Conversion Table located and incorporated by reference at <http://www.tibco.com/software/cloud-instance-type-tpu-conversion-table.jsp> and as are set forth in an Order Form.

"TIBCO Processor Licensing Policy" means the document published by TIBCO from time to time which explains how to count Virtual and/or Physical Processors in order to determine the number of Processors.

"Trading Partner" means an entity or individual with whom the Licensee engages in accordance with this Agreement in electronic commerce by means of Licensor Software and, in the case of TIBCO® KPSA, TIBCO® KxDR and TIBCO Kabira® Licensor Software products, an individual with whom Licensee engages to provide services, which may include, electronic commerce and or general service activation and provisioning of wireline and wireless packages for the exchange of data and content.

"Unit" means a license restriction describing the manner in which a copy (or multiple copies) of the Licensor Software may be deployed (including, without limitation, Processor, Named User, Connected Processor, and Processor Source Locked) and is the mechanism used to determine the Number of Units licensed under this Agreement, an Order Form or a purchase order.

"User" means an employee of Licensee who is authorized by Licensee to use the Licensor Software in accordance with this Agreement. The number of Licensee computers on which the Licensor Software is installed shall not exceed (but may be less than) the number of licensed Users.

"Virtualized Environment" means an operating system environment where multiple Virtual Machines can run on a single physical machine or cluster, sharing the physical machine resources. In a Virtualized Environment, a Virtual Processor can run on only one Physical Processor at a time.

"Virtual Machine" means a software implementation of a machine that executes programs like a physical machine. An essential characteristic of a Virtual Machine is that the software running inside of the Virtual Machine is limited to the resources and abstractions provided by the Virtual Machine. The processing capacity of a Virtual Machine is measured in Virtual Processors.

"Virtual Processor" means a simulation of a Physical Processor that is serially time-multiplexed across one or more Physical Processors. Special Provisions Regarding Processor Licensing:

Certain Licensor Software is licensed by the Unit type "Processor." The following describes how to calculate the number of Processor Units which should be licensed in a Virtualized Environment and in all other environments.

Calculation

The number of Processor Units of Licensor Software required to be licensed shall be calculated as follows:

1. In a Virtualized Environment, the number of Virtual Processors shall be calculated by following the steps below:

1. For each Virtual Machine running the Licensor Software, the number of Virtual Processors shall be counted in increments of whole numbers. For clarification, the lowest unit of measurement for Virtual Processors is one; any fraction shall be rounded upward to the next whole number.

2. If the number of Virtual Processors of a Virtual Machine can increase or decrease, then for the purpose of counting Virtual Processors, the number of Virtual Processors shall be the maximum whole number of Virtual Processors that could ever be assigned to the Virtual Machine running the Licensor Software.

3. Add the total number of Virtual Processors across all Virtual Machines within the entire Virtualized Environment that runs the Licensor Software.

2. In all other environments (e.g. running on physical machine(s) or if a Virtual Processor can run on more than one Physical Processor at a time), the number of Physical Processors shall be calculated by following the steps below:

1. For each Licensor Software, the relevant partition boundary shall be set:

(a) where the allocation is defined by Fixed Partitioning, to include all Physical Processors that could ever execute the Licensor Software. (b) where the allocation is not defined by Fixed Partitioning, to include all Physical Processors on the physical machine.

2. Count the total number of Physical Processors for the relevant partition boundary for each physical machine, and aggregate the counts across all physical machines within the entire environment that runs the Licensor Software.

3. For all environments, if multi-threading is enabled for the underlying physical cores, then the total count of Physical Processors or Virtual Processors, as the case may be, shall be multiplied by 0.5.

1. If the multi-threading function is disabled, then a multi-threaded core shall be treated as a single-threaded core, in which case, (a) when calculating the number of Processors in a Virtualized Environment, the 0.5 multiplier shall be inapplicable; and (b) when calculating the number of Processors in all other environments, the number of cores instead of threads shall be the number of Processors Units required to be licensed and the 0.5 multiplier shall be inapplicable.

4. Any fraction shall be rounded upward to the next whole number.

The above calculation yields the total number of Processor Units required to be licensed for the Licensor Software.

TFSI EULA Appendix C – Maintenance Program Guide

1 Overview

TIBCO is dedicated to the success of our customers by providing timely responses to problems with TIBCO software products. TIBCO's highly skilled support engineers are well versed in TIBCO's software products. TIBCO's support services group is a global organization that uses a "follow-the-sun" model to ensure that support is available whenever it is needed. Support centers are located around the world to support all the TIBCO product lines.

In the event you have contracted for Maintenance Services at the Bronze Level, the supported time zone assigned for Service Hours will be based on the TIBCO software delivery address for your company.

3 Maintenance

For the purpose of any license or maintenance agreement under which Maintenance is provided, as used below, "Licensor Software," shall include "TIBCO Software," "Spotfire Software" or "Software" as defined in any such agreement. "Customer," as used below, shall have the same meaning as defined for the customer company entity licensed to use the Licensor Software in any such agreement.

3.1 Severity Level Definitions

"Severity 1" is an emergency production situation where the Licensor Software is totally inoperable or fails catastrophically and there is no workaround;

"Severity 2" is a detrimental situation (and there is no workaround) where (a) performance degrades substantially under reasonable loads causing a severe impact on use, (b) the Licensor Software is usable but materially incomplete; or (c) one or more mainline functions or commands is inoperable;

"Severity 3" is where the Licensor Software is usable, but does not provide a function in the most convenient manner; and

"Severity 4" is a minor problem or documentation error, which is reasonably correctable by a documentation change or by a future maintenance release from TIBCO.

3.2 Scope

TIBCO will use commercially reasonable efforts to resolve matters according to the problem Severity ("Maintenance") level determined by TIBCO. All communications will be in English. Customer will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide: (a) a detailed problem description; (b) a method for repeatedly reproducing the problem; and (c) reasonably continuous access to a Customer authorized contact. During the Maintenance term, Customer authorized contacts as applicable for the Maintenance level selected in Customer's order, and which are registered at TIBCO's support website: <https://support.tibco.com/esupport/>, may notify TIBCO's Technical Assistance Center of an error, defect, or malfunction in the Licensor Software. Maintenance includes the right to use Updates (as defined below) as replacements for existing copies, whether provided under Maintenance, Warranty or which are provided for any other reason by TIBCO, or TIBCO's their respective authorized resellers or distributors (if applicable); Updates are subject to Customer's license agreement limitations and restrictions. "Updates" means Licensor Software bug fixes, enhancements, and upgrades, if and when made generally available by TIBCO under Maintenance to Customers for a specific Licensor Software product. Subject to the quantity of Licensor Software licensed and payment of any applicable Maintenance fees, Customer's right to use Updates extends to any supported Platform then currently available for each discrete Licensor Software product under Maintenance. Updates may include new or additional Platforms that are deemed (at TIBCO's sole discretion) to have no more than a minimum different in price, features and functionality from previously available Platforms. TIBCO will notify Customer in writing in the event that Maintenance is materially affected by TIBCO licensor(s). TIBCO will provide Maintenance for a release version of the Licensor Software products for at least (a) six months after a new release version is generally available, but in no event for more than (b)(i) two years from the general availability of a Licensor Software release version or (b)(ii) one year from the general availability of a subsequent release version, whichever of (b)(i) or (b)(ii) is later, after which Maintenance shall be discontinued for that release version.

3.3 Limits

Customer must purchase the same service level of Maintenance for all quantities of Licensor Software products that it has licensed from TIBCO or any other third party. Unless otherwise stated in an Order Form, each license grant is incremental to all prior license grants and consequently each grant is subject to additional Maintenance, if purchased. For the avoidance of doubt, Maintenance fees are based on cumulative license fees paid. Maintenance does not include support for any non-TIBCO software, custom configuration, product modification, new products and functionality for which TIBCO is charging an additional license fee, services at a Customer site, any work product provided under Consulting Services or for Licensor Software products with non-matching service levels. TIBCO reserves the right to make fixes only to the most current version of the relevant Licensor Software, and may elect, at its discretion, to make fixes generally available for minor release versions or the latest service pack for a supported version.

3.4 Perpetual Term Licenses

The initial Maintenance term shall be for one year commencing on the effective date of the applicable Customer order, unless otherwise stated in the relevant Order Form. In the event Customer elects to renew Maintenance (subject to any rights of termination as set forth in a contract with TIBCO), Maintenance will be renewed for successive one (1) year terms and the annual Maintenance fee for the first renewal term shall not increase by more than the percentage rate change in the Consumer Price Index for the 12 month period immediately preceding the anniversary date of Maintenance. Maintenance fees for subsequently acquired Licensor Software will be prorated to expire with the then-current annual Maintenance term.

3.5 Limited Term Licenses

The initial Maintenance term shall be for one (1) year commencing on the effective date of the applicable Order Form. During the license term, and in the event the Customer elects to renew Maintenance (subject to any rights of termination as set forth in a contract with TIBCO), Maintenance may be renewed for successive one year terms, and the annual Maintenance fee for the first renewal term shall be equal to the annual Maintenance fee for the initial term.

3.6 Reinstatement of Maintenance

Reinstatement of Maintenance is subject to payment of Maintenance fees for any period during which Maintenance had lapsed.

3.7 Non-Continuous Coverage

In the event Customer elects not to maintain continuous Maintenance, TIBCO may, at its discretion, refuse to provide any Maintenance to Customer until payment for the period of discontinuity is made current.

3.8 Discontinued Support for Prior Release Version

When a prior version goes out of Maintenance, it means that fixes will no longer be generally available for that version. Support will continue to accept problem reports for that prior version, and when feasible, will attempt to provide Customer with reasonable assistance to troubleshoot and resolve the problem. Engineering will only evaluate reported issues in the supported versions of the Licensor Software product.

When a Customer:

encounters a known defect, which is already corrected in the most current or a supported version of the Licensor Software, the Customer will need to upgrade to the most current or supported version of the Licensor Software to obtain the fix; or discovers an unknown defect, engineering will make the fix in the most current version of the Licensor Software and the Customer will need to upgrade to that version to obtain the fix.

Additionally, with typically 12 months prior notice, TIBCO may announce the end of support (i.e. stop accepting SRs) on significantly older versions by publishing a Late Breaking News (LBN) article on the TIBCO Support Web site (<https://support.tibco.com/esupport/>). Even in such a case, access to the knowledge base of the older versions is always available to a Customer currently under Maintenance. A Customer may submit a service request via the TIBCO Support Web to request a product version be included under the TIBCO Extended Support Program.

3.9 Product End-of-Life

Notwithstanding 3.2 above, Customers are provided advance written notice (up to twelve months) when Licensor Software is to be retired. This information is published as "Retirement Notices" under the Late Breaking News (LBN) section of the TIBCO Support Web.

3.10 TIBCO Extended Support Program

TIBCO is pleased to offer customers extended Maintenance on certain Licensor software product versions. The scope and terms of extended Maintenance:

Include

The ability to submit service requests for eligible product versions.

TIBCO assistance providing workarounds and existing fixes for issues reported; staging of issues by TIBCO will be on the latest version of eligible product(s).

Maintenance service level initial response and target resolution times are according to customers' existing Maintenance service level.

Exclude

Enhancements, service packs, or defect corrections

Support for new platforms (database versions, operating system versions, TIBCO infrastructure products, etc.)

Back porting of any fixes (including, but not limited to, bug or security fixes) from later product versions

Partners participating in the TIBCO Partner Network or any other TIBCO Partner program.

Extended Maintenance is subject to eligibility requirements. Please contact your TIBCO Sales Account Executive or the TIBCO Maintenance Renewal team at renewals@tibco.com for more information and to obtain the then current list of product versions currently supported under extended Maintenance.

TIBCO reserves the right, at its discretion, without notice of any kind, to change products and product versions included in any extended Maintenance product version list. Changes to the extended Maintenance product version list will have no impact during any Maintenance term for which TIBCO Extended Support Program Maintenance fees have already been paid.

3.11 Virtualized Environments Support

Although TIBCO does not include all virtualization environments in our product test plans, and subject to there being no more than minimal differences in price, features, functionality and quantity, we will provide Maintenance for Licensor Software in any Virtualized Environment if the following criteria are met:

The operating system running in the Virtualized Environment is supported by TIBCO for Licensor Software version in question, and
The Virtualized Environment being used is officially certified and approved by the operating system vendor in question, and The Virtualized Environment presents a true image of the native operating system.

TIBCO does not make any claims for the performance of Licensor Software running in a Virtualized Environment nor can we make any recommendations for optimal configuration of the Virtualized Environment in question.

Should it become necessary to engage the Virtualized Environment vendor, it will be the responsibility of the Customer to open a service request with their vendor. TIBCO Support will provide reasonable assistance to the Customer or vendor as it relates to the use and understanding of Licensor Software in the case at hand.

4 TIBCO Support Web

It is recommended that the Customer establish and maintain an internal support organization to provide front line support services to their users and that all authorized contacts be trained on the TIBCO software products in classes provided by TIBCO Education, as reasonably required by TIBCO to enable the customer to support licensed TIBCO software products.

Step 1: Identify the assigned contacts within your company. Review your maintenance agreement to see how many contacts are authorized.

Step 2: Register assigned contacts and one management-level individual (for verification and escalation) by sending an email to support@tibco.com. Be sure to include the name, email address, physical address and phone number of each contact.

All contacts will be registered with our call tracking system and given access to TIBCO Support Web.

Step 3: Have all assigned contacts view the Support Overview Presentation as well as review the "Support Policies" section within TIBCO Support Web.

Additional information about Getting Started can be found at <http://www.tibco.com/services/support/getting-started/default.jsp>.

4.1 Opening a Service Request

There are two ways to report a problem:

TIBCO Support Web (preferred method). Cases reported online are automatically entered into TIBCO's Call Tracking system and assigned a Service Request (SR) number. TIBCO requires that all Severity 1 cases be followed up with a phone call to our Technical Assistance Center (TAC) to ensure immediate attention to your issue.

Phone. Each TIBCO customer is assigned a regional Technical Assistance Center (TAC) that they can contact to request support via phone. The support line phone number for each regional TAC in the America's, EMEA and APAC is published on the TIBCO Support Web. A service request will be created in TIBCO's call tracking system and an SR number is provided.

4.2 Processing a Service Request

Once a service request is submitted, the TAC specialist will review, access and assign the appropriate severity level. All severity 3 and 4 calls will be assigned to the appropriate product and workgroup where our technical support engineers will start working on the call on a First in – First out (FIFO) basis. TAC will notify support managers of any SRs that are assigned to Severity 1 or 2, so that they are handled in an escalated manner. The TIBCO Support Engineer will communicate with the customer until the issue is resolved. Depending on the nature of a Service Request, a Service Request can be resolved by a Support Engineer or logged by a Support Engineer as bugs/enhancements with product engineering.

TIBCO support level and responsibilities:

- First level (Technical Assistance Center):

Review Service Requests reported by Web, Email or phone from a customer authorized contact Validate customer maintenance status, product entitlement and check for any special handling required.
Identify type of request, problem definition, configuration, products, product versions and platforms.
Determine severity of the problem and execute any escalation procedures necessary.
Direct problems for resolution to workgroups

- Second level (Product Support):

Confirm problem and configuration used by the customer
Evaluate against known problems or issues
Stage the problem

Reproduce problems and provide workarounds
Escalate to engineering where required to develop patches and fixes
Keep the SR updated at all times within the Call Tracking system
Keep the customer Authorized Contact updated on the progress

- Third level (Engineering):

Develop fixes as needed
Test and verify functionality and performance
Update the source code control system as needed
Ensure patches and fixes are incorporated into a future product release

4.3 Escalations

Special procedures apply to Service Request escalations. An escalated issue is generally one of the following:

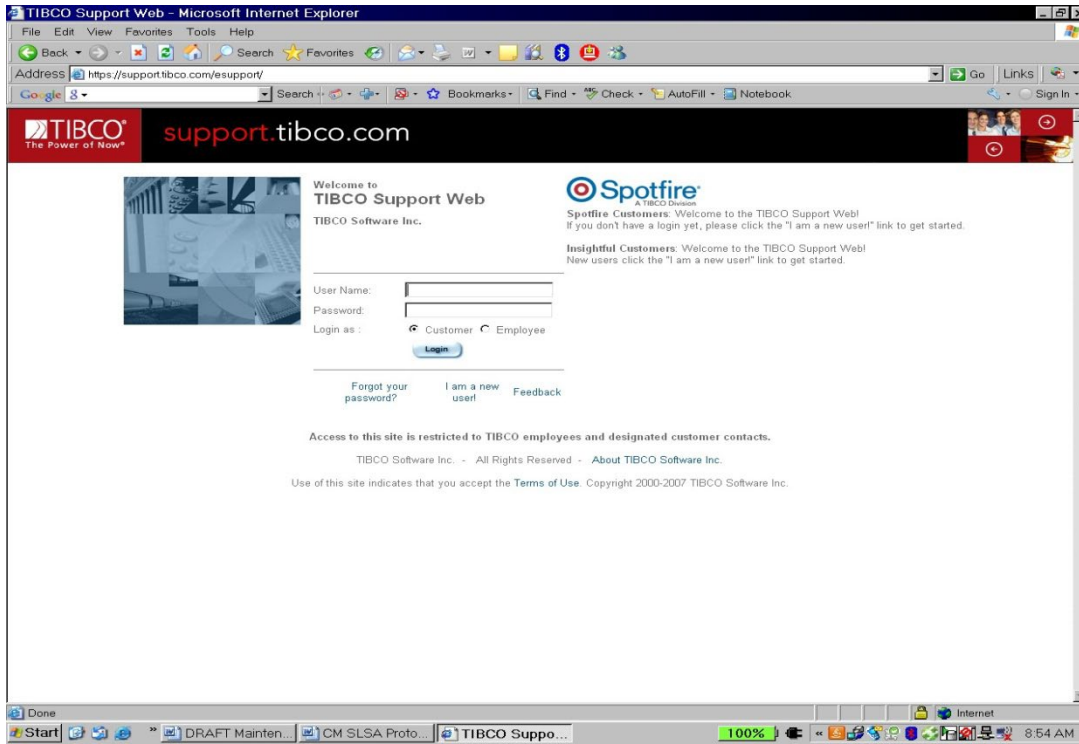

No response to a problem reported, within the designated time given by the call response coordinator or technical engineer
Response times out of severity guidelines
Customer dissatisfaction with Service Request resolution you've been given

North and South America +1.650.846.5789
EMEA (Europe, Middle East, and Africa) +44(0).870.909.3889
Asia and Australia +61.2.4379.9322 or 1.800.184.237 (within Australia only)

The above telephone numbers provide access to a TIBCO Support Manager. This phone number is to be used if or when a customer is dissatisfied with the progress of problem resolution, or wants the problem reported brought to the attention of TIBCO's management. If voicemail is reached, the customer should leave a message containing the company name, a contact telephone number, and estimated severity level for the issue. The voice mail will trigger an immediate page to a Support Manager, who will contact customer at the number left in the message.

4.4 TIBCO Support Web Login

4.5 Creating, Updating and Tracking a Service Request

4.6 User Profile

Authorized contacts are able to change their login password, update their phone numbers, select their time zone and subscribe to Product FAQ's and LBN in this section.

Customer Satisfaction Survey: It is our goal to continuously improve the services we provide and a key part of this process is to hear how we are doing from our customers. The valuable input we receive will help us spotlight areas where we need to focus more attention. Customer Satisfaction Surveys are being conducted using the telephone by our global TAC team. They will contact customers who have recently completed a service request and will collect feedback on satisfaction measured on a 5-point scale (5-very satisfied; 1- Very Dissatisfied). Results will be shared with our support team as well as be made available on the Support Web for our customers to view. Authorized contacts can access the TIBCO Support Overview presentation, which provides useful information about TIBCO's support model, support centers around the world, how service requests are processed, escalation mechanisms available, and much more.

5 TIBCO Spotfire Customer Support

Spotfire and S-Plus customers can submit technical support requests via the TIBCO Support Web portal. The Support Web site allows customers to create, track, and update your product Service Requests (SRs), Enhancement Requests, Knowledge base, Late Breaking News items and more. ## 6 TIBCO Foresight Customer Support

3. Equipment Maintenance Terms and Conditions

3.1. Equipment Maintenance - Scope. This Section 3 applies to Maintenance of Equipment, specifically excluding Maintenance for the TIBCO Messaging Appliance™ ("TMA"), and is subject to Section 5 (Maintenance Exclusions) and Section 6 (Customer Responsibilities) set forth below. TMA Maintenance terms are set forth in Section 4 below.

3.2. Equipment/Component Repair or Replacement Protection. During the Maintenance term, for all Equipment Maintenance levels, and subject to Customer's compliance with the Agreement, TIBCO shall, at its sole option, either repair or replace the covered Equipment or component thereof that TIBCO can confirm is causing an error.

3.3. Contacting Support; Troubleshooting. Upon discovering an error, Customer must promptly first place a call to the designated support number. TIBCO will provide basic telephone technical assistance for installation, product configuration, setup and problem resolution for the Equipment. Prior to scheduling Equipment replacement or repair, TIBCO may ask Customer to provide relevant information, start diagnostic tools and perform other supporting activities outlined in Section 6 below.

3.4. On-site Equipment Repair Process.

3.4.1. On-site repair support is available solely for TIBCO LogLogic® Security Event Manager ("SEM") and TIBCO LogLogic® Security Event Viewer ("SEV") Customers in the United States and Europe.

3.4.2. If TIBCO determines that the Equipment or component thereof may be repaired at Customer's location, TIBCO will endeavor to dispatch a TIBCO (or TIBCO-contracted) technician to the Customer's location by the next business day; provided, however, that Customer must immediately notify TIBCO in writing in advance if the Equipment is located in an area with restricted access which may require a technician with special qualifications. In such instance, TIBCO will use commercially reasonable efforts to locate and contract, if necessary and at Customer's expense, a technician with such special qualifications; provided that Customer understands and agrees that any reasonable delay or failure in procuring such technician shall not constitute a breach of the Agreement.

3.5. Equipment Replacement – Processes and Procedures. Except as otherwise provided in Section 3.4 above, TIBCO will take all commercially reasonable steps to replace the Equipment or component thereof, as applicable; provided that Customers follow the return material authorization ("RMA") procedure described in this Section 3.5. In the event that TIBCO recommends replacement of a component, TIBCO will provide Customer with instructions for the removal of the component and the installation of the replacement component.

3.5.1. Customer must obtain an RMA from TIBCO prior to returning any Equipment to TIBCO.

Customer may request an RMA by telephone (1-800-957-LOGS) or by email at support@loglogic.com. Customer must provide the following information related to every Equipment or component thereof to be returned:

Model number, and serial number, eth0 MAC address or Tag ID of the Equipment, and, if returning an Equipment component, a description of such component;
Sender's name, telephone, email address and fax number;
Reason for return, i.e. a description of the error; and Ship-to address, including contact name, email address and phone number of the individual to receive the TIBCO replacement Equipment.

3.5.2. If the RMA is received, authorized and processed by TIBCO before 2 PM Pacific Standard Time (USA) or 2PM UK (GMT) Time, TIBCO will ship replacement Equipment: (1) on the same business day where the Equipment or component to be replaced does not require customization; and (2) within forty-eight (48) business hours where the replacement Equipment requires customization. Non-customized shipped replacement Equipment or components will be factory-default/off-the-shelf. Any shipped repaired or replaced Equipment or components may be refurbished or include refurbished components.

3.5.3. TIBCO will ship replacement Equipment for next local business day standard delivery to Customer's location free of freight charges. Unless otherwise specified or agreed upon, factory default/off-the-shelf Equipment will be shipped with the latest Software.

3.5.4. TIBCO will provide Customer with a shipping account number or prepaid shipping label to use for purposes of returning defective Equipment or components. While Customer is not obligated to return defective Equipment or components before TIBCO will ship replacements, Customer is nonetheless required to ensure that the returned Equipment is received by, or is in transit to, TIBCO or its designee within ten (10) business days of Customer's receipt of the replacement Equipment.

3.5.5. TIBCO strongly recommends that Customer keep all original packing material received with the Equipment for use in any Equipment return. If Customer no longer has the original packaging, Customer may request that TIBCO send them replacement packaging at Customer's cost. Customer shall also be wholly responsible for any damage or loss of the Equipment in transit; TIBCO recommends that Customer procure sufficient insurance before shipping Equipment to TIBCO.

3.5.6. Customer acknowledges that Customer-returned Equipment shall become the property of TIBCO upon delivery to TIBCO.

3.6. Keep Your Hard Drive Option: For an annual additional fee, Customers may purchase an option to "Keep Your Hard Drive," entitling Customer to retain the defective hard drive(s). Subject to compliance with instructions provided by TIBCO, Customer may extract and retain or destroy the original hard drives from the Equipment. In no instance may Customer transfer, connect or otherwise use any drive(s) from returned Equipment in the replacement Equipment; doing so will result in Customer's breach of the Agreement, and will void TIBCO's warranty obligations.

3.7. Extended Support: Extended support for Equipment is available, subject to Section 3.10 of the MPG (TIBCO Extended Support Program).

4. TMA Maintenance Terms and Conditions

4.1. TMA Maintenance – Scope. This Section 4 applies solely to the TMA, and is subject to Section 5 (Maintenance Exclusions) and Section 6 (Customer Responsibilities) set forth below.

Packaging instructions and a prepaid shipping label for the return of the failed TMA will be included in replacement TMA shipping container. At TIBCO's discretion, TIBCO or TIBCO's authorized third party provider may elect to collect failed TMA at your location.

4.4.3. The replacement TMA will be a new or a refurbished TMA.

4.4.4. To return the failed TMA, Customer must:

a) unless Customer will deliver the failed TMA to TIBCO in person, package the failed TMA carefully in the original shipping container, or a shipping container that prevents the TMA from being damaged while in transit to TIBCO or TIBCO's authorized third party provider.

b) ship the failed TMA to TIBCO or TIBCO's third party provider (as directed by TIBCO) within three (3) business days of receipt of the replacement TMA and obtain a prepaid insurance receipt to be retained by Customer as proof of shipment to TIBCO.

END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

This End-user License Agreement (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of the date set forth in the Purchase Order, Statement of Work, or similar document (the "Effective Date") between the eligible Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts identified in the Purchase Order, Statement of Work, or similar document (hereinafter "Customer" or "Ordering Activity"), and the GSA Multiple Award Schedule Contractor acting on behalf of Tufin Software North America, Inc., whose main office is located at 2 Oliver Street, Boston, MA, 02109, United States, on behalf of itself, its parent companies and subsidiaries (together "Tufin" or "Tufin Technologies").

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1 "Affiliate" means any partnership, joint venture, corporation or other form of enterprise, that directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a party hereto.

1.2 "Product" - the object code copy of the software provided to Customer subject to this Agreement, together with the associated original digital media and all accompanying manuals and other documentation, and together with all enhancements, upgrades, and extensions thereto that may be provided by Tufin Technologies to Customer from time to time (subject to the provisions of Section 5 below).

1.3 "Licensed Configuration" - to the extent applicable, as indicated on the License Key, the choice of features and the maximum number of firewalls configured per Check Point Management Server, or the license type of the Check Point Provider-1 Customer Management Add-On or the maximum number of Juniper devices, or the maximum number of Cisco devices, or the maximum number of Fortinet devices, or any other hardware or Product specifications, as declared by Customer in its purchase order, and upon which the licensing fee was based.

1.4 "Licensed Server" - the server which enables the Product to operate in accordance with the Licensed Configuration.

1.5 "License Key" - the code provided to Customer by Tufin Technologies, which enables the Product to operate on the Licensed-server for the specified Licensed Configuration.

1.6 "Third Party Product" - any software programs provided by third parties and contained in the Product.

2. END USER RIGHTS AND USE

Subject to Customer's compliance with the terms hereunder, Tufin Technologies grants Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sub licensable limited license to use the Product in accordance with the documentation provided by Tufin Technologies only on the Licensed Server and only for the Licensed Configuration (the "License").

3. LIMITATIONS ON END USER RIGHTS

Customer may not copy, distribute, reverse engineer, or make derivative works of the Product except as follows:

3.1 Customer may make only one copy of the Product on magnetic media for archival backup purposes, provided that such Customer's archival backup copy is not installed or used on any computer without Tufin Technologies' prior written consent. Any other copies Customer makes of the Product are in violation of this Agreement.

3.2 Customer may not use, modify, translate or reproduce the Product, or assign or transfer the right to use the Product or copy the Product except as expressly provided in this Agreement.

3.3 Customer may not resell, sublicense, rent, lease, or lend the Product.

3.4 Customer agrees to use the Product solely for its internal business purposes, and not to let others use the Product and not to use the Product for the benefit of third parties.

3.5 Customer acknowledges that the source code of the Product, and its underlying ideas and/or concepts, are valuable intellectual property of Tufin Technologies and Customer agrees not to attempt to (or permit others to) decipher, reverse engineer, reverse compile, disassemble, or otherwise attempt to discover the source code of the Product or create derivative works based on the Product.

3.6 Customer agrees that Customer shall only use the Product in a manner that complies with all applicable laws in the jurisdiction in which Customer uses the Product, including, but not limited to, applicable restrictions concerning copyright and other intellectual property rights.

3.7 Evaluation License. This Section 3.7 shall only apply if Customer is licensing the Product for an initial evaluation period. In such case and subject to Customer's compliance with the provisions of this Section 3.7, Tufin Technologies grants to Customer a limited in time, a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sub licensable license to use the Product in accordance with the relevant documentation provided by Tufin Technologies, only on the Licensed Server and only for the Licensed Configuration (the "Temporary License"). The Temporary License is valid only for the designated evaluation period and is designed to allow Customer to evaluate the Product during such period. In the event that Customer wishes to enter into a full License Agreement with Tufin Technologies, Customer may request a License Key from Tufin Technologies which if provided to Customer will allow Customer to use the Product after such evaluation period, but only subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. In the event that Customer and/or Tufin Technologies determine not to enter into a licensing transaction with the other party, both during or at the end of such evaluation period, then Customer's rights under this Agreement shall terminate at the end of the evaluation period and Customer shall, at Tufin Technologies' discretion, promptly return to Tufin Technologies or destroy all copies of the Product. It is a violation of this End User License Agreement to create, set-up or design any hardware, software or system which alters machine's date or time during the evaluation period. Sections 3.2 to 3.6 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to any Temporary License.

4. MAINTENANCE AND SUPPORT

4.1 Tufin performs Maintenance and Support services in accordance with Tufin's standard Software Maintenance Program: http://web.tufin.com/hubfs/Tufin\_Maintenance\_\_Support\_Services.pdf Tufin may modify its Software Maintenance Program upon written notice to Customer, provided, however, that in no event may Tufin make any modifications to its Software Maintenance Program that would materially reduce the level of maintenance and support services that Tufin provides to Customer hereunder during the then-current term for which Customer has paid maintenance and support fees.

4.2 Tufin will provide Maintenance and Support services on an annual (twelve month) basis, provided that Customer pays Tufin's then-current annual maintenance and support service fees according to Tufin's price list and the GSA Schedule Pricelist. Customer will purchase maintenance and support for all licensed Software during the first twelve (12) months from the date of delivery of the Software ("Initial Term").

4.3 Customer may choose to continue maintenance and support on an annual basis ("Renewal Term") after the Initial Term. Customer shall notify Tufin at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term or any Renewal Term of its intent to renew maintenance and support services under this Agreement. Maintenance and support services for the Software shall not automatically renew on annual basis. If Customer elects to purchase maintenance and support, Customer must purchase maintenance and support services with respect to all of the licensed Software. Reinstatement of lapsed maintenance and support services is subject to payment by Customer of Tufin's reinstatement fees equal to the amount that would have been paid by the Customer for the past maintenance and support services period(s) had coverage been maintained continuously.

4.4 Exclusions to Maintenance and Support Services. Tufin shall have no obligation of any kind to provide maintenance and support services for problems in the operation or performance of the Software caused by any of the following (each, "Customer-Generated Error"): (a) non-Tufin software or hardware products; or (b) Customer's failure to properly maintain Customer's site and equipment on which the Software is installed or accessed. If Tufin determines that it is necessary to perform maintenance and support services for a problem caused by a Customer-Generated Error, Tufin will notify Customer thereof as soon as Tufin is aware of such Customer-Generated Error and, upon Customer's approval, Tufin will have the right to perform such services and invoice Customer at Tufin's then-current published time and materials rates in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist for all such maintenance and support services performed by Tufin.

5. COPYRIGHT

The Product and all rights, without limitation including proprietary rights therein, are owned by Tufin Technologies and/or its licensors and Affiliates and are protected by international treaty provisions and all other applicable national laws of the country in which it is being used. The structure, organization, and code of the Product are the valuable trade secrets and confidential information of Tufin Technologies and/or its licensors and Affiliates. Customer must not copy the Product, except as set forth in clause 3.1 (Limitations on End-User Rights). Any copies which Customer is permitted to make pursuant to this Agreement must contain the same copyright and other proprietary notices that appear on the Product.

6. COMMENCEMENT & TERMINATION

This Agreement is effective from the first date Customer installs the Product and shall remain in effect until terminated, in accordance with the terms herein. When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Tufin shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. Upon termination of this Agreement, Customer agrees to cease any and all use of the Product and to return to Tufin Technologies or destroy, at Tufin Technologies' discretion, the Product and all documentation and related materials in Customer's possession, at Customer's own costs, and so certify to Tufin Technologies in writing. Except for the License and/or Temporary License granted herein and except as expressly provided herein, the terms of this Agreement shall survive termination.

7. INDEMNIFICATION

Tufin Technologies shall have the right to intervene to defend or settle, at its option, any action at law against Customer resulted directly from a claim that Customer's permitted use of the Product under this Agreement infringes any patent, copyright, or other ownership rights of a third party (a "Claim"). Notwithstanding the aforementioned, claims associated with any or all of the following are excluded from Tufin Technologies' indemnification obligations: (i) any alterations, modifications, or adaptations to the Products made by anyone other than Tufin Technologies (including – without limitation – Customer); (ii) the use of the Products in combination with products and/or information not provided and/or approved by Tufin Technologies; or (iii) use of any version other than the then current, unaltered version of the Product, where Customer was previously advised not to make any further use of previous versions. Customer agrees to provide Tufin Technologies with written notice of any such Claim within ten (10) days of Customer's notice thereof and provide reasonable assistance in its defense. Tufin Technologies has sole discretion and control over such defense and all negotiations for a settlement or compromise, unless it declines to defend or settle, in which case Customer is free to pursue any alternative Customer may have, provided that Tufin Technologies shall not be required to indemnify Customer for any settlement reached without Tufin Technologies' prior written consent. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or suit brought against the U.S. pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516.

8. WARRANTY DISCLAIMER

TUFIN WARRANTS THAT THE PRODUCT WILL, FOR A PERIOD OF THIRTY (30) DAYS FROM THE DATE OF YOUR RECEIPT, PERFORM SUBSTANTIALLY IN ACCORDANCE WITH PRODUCT WRITTEN MATERIALS ACCOMPANYING IT. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE FOREGOING, CUSTOMER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE PRODUCT IS PROVIDED "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AND TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. TUFIN TECHNOLOGIES, ITS LICENSORS AND AFFILIATES, EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR THAT THE PRODUCT WILL NOT INFRINGE ANY THIRD PARTY PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS, TRADEMARKS, OR OTHER RIGHTS. THERE IS NO WARRANTY BY TUFIN TECHNOLOGIES OR BY ANY OTHER PARTY THAT THE FUNCTIONS CONTAINED IN THE PRODUCT WILL MEET CUSTOMER'S REQUIREMENTS OR THAT THE OPERATION OF THE PRODUCT WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE. CUSTOMER ASSUMES ALL RESPONSIBILITY AND RISK FOR THE SELECTION OF THE PRODUCT TO ACHIEVE CUSTOMER'S INTENDED RESULTS AND FOR THE INSTALLATION, USE, AND RESULTS OBTAINED FROM IT.

9. LIMITATION ON LIABILITY

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL TUFIN TECHNOLOGIES BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOST PROFITS, REVENUE, SALES, DATA, OR COSTS OF PROCUREMENT OF SUBSTITUTE GOODS OR SERVICES, PROPERTY DAMAGE, INTERRUPTION OF BUSINESS, LOSS OF BUSINESS INFORMATION, OR FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, ECONOMIC, COVER, PUNITIVE, SPECIAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, HOWEVER CAUSED AND WHETHER ARISING UNDER CONTRACT, TORT, OR OTHER THEORY OF LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF THE USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE THE PRODUCT, EVEN IF TUFIN TECHNOLOGIES OR ITS LICENSORS OR AFFILIATES ARE ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. BECAUSE SOME COUNTRIES/STATES/JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW THE EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY, BUT MAY ALLOW LIABILITY TO BE LIMITED, IN SUCH CASES, TUFIN TECHNOLOGIES, ITS EMPLOYEES OR LICENSORS OR AFFILIATES' LIABILITY SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE AMOUNT ORDERING ACTIVITY PAID FOR THE PRODUCT DURING THE LAST TWELVE (12) MONTHS. Nothing contained in this Agreement limits Tufin Technologies' liability to Customer for its indemnification obligations under Section 7 (other than as specified therein), or in the event of death or personal injury resulting from Tufin Technologies' gross negligence. Tufin Technologies is acting on behalf of its employees and licensors or Affiliates for the purpose of disclaiming, excluding, and/or restricting obligations, warranties, and liability as provided in this clause 9, but in no other respects and for no other purpose. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT IMPAIR THE U.S. GOVERNMENT'S RIGHT TO RECOVER FOR FRAUD OR CRIMES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS CONTRACT UNDER ANY FEDERAL FRAUD STATUTE, INCLUDING THE FALSE CLAIMS ACT, 31 U.S.C. 3729-3733. FURTHERMORE, THIS CLAUSE SHALL NOT IMPAIR NOR PREJUDICE THE U.S. GOVERNMENT'S RIGHT TO EXPRESS REMEDIES PROVIDED IN THE GSA SCHEDULE CONTRACT (E.G., CLAUSE 52.238-75 – PRICE REDUCTIONS, CLAUSE 52.212-4(H) – PATENT INDEMNIFICATION, AND GSAR 52.215-72 – PRICE ADJUSTMENT – FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE INFORMATION).

10. EXPORT CONTROLS

The Product is subject to various export control laws including, without limitation, the export control laws of the United States. Customer agrees that Customer will not ship, transfer, or export the Product into any country, or make available or use the Product in any manner prohibited by any applicable export control laws.

11. GENERAL

11.1 Taxes. Tufin shall state separately on invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Customer agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

11.2 Miscellaneous. Except by operation of law, neither party may assign its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any party without the prior written consent of the other party. Both parties shall remain fully responsible to the other party for a breach of this Agreement by its assignees. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, that provision of the Agreement will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible so as to affect the intent of the Agreement, and the remainder of the provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

11.3 Governing Law; Venue. The Federal laws of the United States shall govern all issues arising under or relating to this Agreement. This Agreement will not be governed by the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sales of Goods, the application of which is expressly excluded.

11.4 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule Pricelist, Purchase Order(s), sets forth the entire understanding and agreement between Customer and Tufin Technologies and may be amended only in writing signed by both parties.

11.5 Third Party Software. The provisions of this Agreement shall apply to all Third Party product providers and to Third Party products as if they were the Product and Tufin Technologies, respectively.

11.6 Government Restricted Rights. This provision applies to Product acquired directly or indirectly by or on behalf of any government. The Product is a commercial product, licensed in accordance with FAR 12.212 and was developed entirely at private expense and without the use of any governmental funds. Any use modification, reproduction, release, performance, display, or disclosure of the Product by any government shall be governed solely by the terms of this Agreement and shall be prohibited except to the extent expressly permitted by the terms of this Agreement, and no license to the Product is granted to any government requiring different terms.

11.7 This is the entire agreement between Tufin Technologies and the Customer relating to the Product, and it supersedes any prior representations, discussions, undertakings, end-user agreements, communications, or advertising relating to the Product.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached UMT 360 LLC ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.
2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.
  - b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.
  - c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.
  - d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.
  - e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.
  - f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.
  - g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.
  - h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

- i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.
- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.2293.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.
- u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All

Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

- 3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Unitrends, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ)), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

v) Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Any use of the Software that is inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including without limitation the transfer of the Software to another computer or a third party shall be in violation of this Agreement. All rights not expressly granted to Ordering Activity are retained by Licensor. Ordering Activity agrees that its use of the Software will comply with all Federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations of the United States and any foreign country in which the Software is used. The license granted herein is subject to the specific terms set out in this Agreement, the technical restrictions of the Software and/or any additional licensing terms specified by Licensor in the Documentation. Ordering Activity shall pay all applicable license fees as set forth in the applicable purchase order for the Software to Licensor or the Channel Partner through which Ordering Activity issued its purchase order for the Software in accordance with the payment terms set forth on the applicable purchase order.

1.2. Third Party Contractors. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Ordering Activity may permit its Third Party Contractors to use the Software on Ordering Activity's behalf solely in connection with providing information processing and computing services to Ordering Activity. Ordering Activity may not use the Software for providing computing services to third parties. "Third Party Contractor" means a third party engaged by Ordering Activity to provide services to Ordering Activity that is not a competitor of Licensor. Ordering Activity shall require its Affiliates and Third Party Contractors to agree to the terms of this Agreement and shall be liable for any breach of this Agreement by its Affiliates or Third Party Contractors.

1.3 License Keys. In order to use the Software, a license key may be required. After Licensor has received a valid purchase order issued by Ordering Activity which specifies the proper fees and identifies the platform and host name of each computer, server or other equipment on which the Software is installed or will be installed, Licensor will issue a license key to Ordering Activity.

1.4 Restrictions.

(i) General. Except as otherwise expressly permitted herein, Ordering Activity shall not and shall not permit any third party to: (a) translate, adapt, reverse engineer, decompile, decrypt, disassemble, or create derivative works based on the Software; (b) copy (except for one archival copy and provided all of Licensor's trademark, copyright, patent and other notices of proprietary rights are reproduced on all copies), modify or create derivative works of the Software; (c) rent, lease, transfer, assign, sublicense or otherwise transfer rights to the Software; (d) transfer, distribute, resell, rent, lease, sublicense or loan the Software to any third party; (e) use the Software in a service bureau, or application service provider environment, or in any commercial time share arrangement or otherwise use or make available the Software or any part of the Software for the benefit of any third party, or make the Software or any part of the Software publicly available for download or use via an internet website; (f) distribute any software or device incorporating a part of the Software; (g) use the Software except on the Approved Systems on Ordering Activity's own internal computer networks; (h) attempt to circumvent, disable or defeat any Licensor license key encoded into the Software; (i) use the Software in contravention to any applicable laws or government regulations, including without limitation export laws, and shall not remove the Software or, if applicable, the license keys from the country in which such use was originally licensed; (j) disclose to any third party or publish the results of Software performance benchmarks obtained using the Software; (k) remove any proprietary rights, trademark or copyright notices or other notices contained in the Software. If 1.4(i)(a) is prohibited by applicable law, Ordering Activity shall provide Licensor with a detailed prior written notice of any such intention to reverse engineer the Software and shall provide Licensor with a right of first refusal to perform such work at rates equal to those proposed by a recognized third-party software services provider for such work. Ordering Activity shall take all reasonable precautions to prevent unauthorized or improper use or disclosure of the Software.

(ii) Software Embedded In Approved System. If the Software is delivered as embedded in an Approved System, Ordering Activity agrees not to remove the Software from the Approved System without Licensor's prior written consent.

(iii) Reserved

(iv) Use Where Invoiced. Ordering Activity's use of the Software under a paid license is limited to the country where Ordering Activity has been invoiced for the Software under the applicable purchase order.

(v) Prior Versions. If the Software is a version that Ordering Activity has converted or exchanged from a valid licensed prior version (i.e., an Upgrade), Ordering Activity agrees that by using the Upgrade, Ordering Activity will no longer use the prior version. Licensor reserves the right to require the certification of the destruction of such previous version of the Software.

1.5 Third Party Software. The Software may include certain third party open source components that are distributed under their own licensing terms. For more details, see the User Guide document in the Documentation available at the Licensor web site (www.unitrends.com) or accompanying the Software. All terms herein are offered by Licensor and not by the rightsholders of such components, and are without prejudice to the terms thereof. Ordering Activity may obtain the location of a copy of the source code of these components by contacting Licensor.

1.6 Continual Development. This Agreement governs any updates, upgrades, new versions, bug fixes, corrections, improvements, revisions or enhancements to the Software which Licensor may furnish to Ordering Activity pursuant to support services or otherwise (collectively, "Upgrades") and any additional copies of the Software licensed or provided to Ordering Activity for which Ordering Activity has purchased and, if applicable, holds the corresponding license keys, all of which are deemed included in the definition of "Software." Ordering Activity acknowledges that the Software may change and that future versions of the Software may be incompatible with prior versions of the Software. Ordering Activity further acknowledges and agrees that Licensor has no obligation to provide any Upgrades or additional copies of the Software under this Agreement. If any Upgrades or additional copies are provided (i) Ordering Activity does not have a license or right to use any such Upgrades or additional copies unless Ordering Activity, at the time of acquiring such Upgrade or copy already hold a valid license and corresponding license key, if applicable, to the original Software and (ii) use of the Upgrades is limited to Approved Systems for which the original Software was purchased.

1.7 Support Services. Licensor will not provide, and Ordering Activity is not entitled to, any support services under this Agreement. Ordering Activity may procure support services separately and such support services will be subject to the terms and conditions of the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule pricelist, and the applicable purchase order. Any of the foregoing updates, upgrades, extensions or enhancements may be available at Licensor's discretion and Ordering Activity will be notified in the event of their availability.

1.8 APIs. Licensor may provide to Ordering Activity Application Programming Interface ("API's") for Ordering Activity's use solely for the purpose of creating software that communicates with the Software ("Interfaces"). Ordering Activity hereby acknowledge and agree that Ordering Activity will not (1) use the APIs to create, design or develop anything other than Interfaces; (2) make any more copies of the APIs than are reasonably necessary for the authorized use and backup and archival purposes; (3) modify, create derivative works of, reverse engineer, reverse compile, or disassemble the APIs, except that Ordering Activity may modify and create derivative works of, and distribute any code provided in the APIs that is designated by Licensor in the API's documentation as "distributable code" solely as part of Interfaces; (4) distribute, sell, lease, rent, lend, or sublicense any part of the APIs to any third party or; (5) use the APIs to (a) create, design or develop software or services to circumvent, enable, modify or provide access, permissions or rights which would violate the technical restrictions of the Software or this Agreement; or (b) upload or otherwise transmit any material containing software viruses or other computer code, files or programs designed to interrupt, destroy, or limit the functionality of any software or hardware.

1.9 Additional Terms Applicable to Boomerang. If Ordering Activity has licensed Licensor's Boomerang Software the following terms apply and shall supersede any conflicting terms in Section 1.1.

1.9.1 License. Licensor grants to the Ordering Activity a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable license during the subscription period selected by Ordering Activity as part of the ordering process (the "Subscription Period") to use the Boomerang Software for the "Permitted Purpose" on the terms and conditions of this Agreement and limited to the number of virtual machines selected by Ordering Activity in the ordering process ("VM Quota Entitlement"). Ordering Activity acknowledges and agrees that the Boomerang Software is provided as a virtual OVA appliance only. The license granted in this Agreement is solely for the following "Permitted Purpose": to replicate, cloudburst, and migrate virtual machines ("VMs") between Ordering Activity's VMware environment and AWS cloud, and perform services for Ordering Activity's internal business purposes only. If Ordering Activity has issued a purchase order for the "Migration Only" offering, Ordering Activity acknowledges and agrees that the Subscription Period is sixty (60) days and Boomerang may be used on only one virtual machine. Ordering Activity may not use the Boomerang Software except on Ordering Activity's own VMware environment and Amazon Web Services ("AWS") cloud.

1.9.2 Reserved.

2. Reserved.

3. Reserved.

4. Ownership

4.1 Software. The Software and APIs are licensed and not sold. Ordering Activity acknowledges and agrees that the Software and the APIs are the sole property of Licensor and its suppliers, and has been developed at great expense; therefore, Ordering Activity agrees to protect the Software and APIs from unauthorized disclosure to third parties. As between Licensor and Ordering Activity, all right, title and interest in and to the Software and the APIs, and all enhancements, updates, modifications, new versions, and derivative works thereof, and all intellectual property rights therein and thereto, are solely owned by Licensor and Licensor reserves all rights not expressly granted hereunder.

4.2 Reserved.

4.3 Feedback. Ordering Activity and its users may, from time to time, make known to Licensor suggestions, enhancement requests, techniques, know-how, comments, feedback or other input to Licensor with respect to the Software (collectively, "Suggestions"). Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the parties with respect to any Suggestion, Licensor shall have a royalty-free, worldwide, irrevocable, perpetual license to use, disclose, reproduce, license, distribute and exploit any Suggestion without restriction or obligation of any kind, on account of confidential information, intellectual property rights or otherwise, and may incorporate into its services any service, product, technology, enhancement, documentation or other development ("Improvement") incorporating or derived from any Suggestion with no obligation to license or to make available the Improvement to Ordering Activity or any other person or entity. To assist Licensor in its efforts to enhance the features available in the Software in order to improve Ordering Activity's experience in using the Software, Ordering Activity agrees that Licensor may collect log and usage information from the Software, which may be used by Licensor for its business purposes. Licensor may use any technical information Ordering Activity provides to Licensor for any Licensor business purposes without restriction, including for product support and development. Licensor will not use technical information in a form that personally identifies Ordering Activity.

6. Limited Warranty; Disclaimer

6.1. Reserved.

6.2 Limited Warranty. Subject to the provisions of this Section 6, Licensor warrants only that the Software will conform in all material respects to its published Documentation for a period of sixty (60) days from the earlier of (i) the date Ordering Activity first downloads and is able to use the Software and

(ii) the date Licensor or its Channel Partner provides Ordering Activity with the associated license key(s). Ordering Activity's sole and exclusive remedy for any breach of this warranty is for Licensor or its designated third party service provider to, at Licensor's option and in its sole discretion, to either (i) repair or replace, without charge, any Software which is not in conformity with the foregoing warranty or (ii) to terminate this Agreement and refund the license fees paid by Ordering Activity for the Software instead of repairing or replacing the Software. This limited warranty extends only to the original Ordering Activity. This warranty is subject to the following conditions: (i) the Software is installed by Licensor or its authorized representatives or installed in accordance with all of Licensor's installation instructions by personnel trained by Licensor; and (ii) Ordering Activity notifies Licensor within the sixty (60) day warranty period of the breach of warranty. This warranty does not cover (x) any defect or deficiency which is not reproducible or which results from: (1) any alteration, repair or maintenance of the Software by anyone other than Licensor or its authorized contractors; (2) failing to follow in all material respects Licensor's written recommendations or instructions; (3) use the Software on other than the Approved Systems or using or combining the Software with products or services of others, other than under Licensor's direction; (4) any of Ordering Activity's designs, specifications or instructions; or (5) any abnormal physical or electrical stress, or any accident, misuse, abuse or other cause external to the Software as furnished by Licensor and beyond Licensor's reasonable control; (y) any software support not strictly necessary to correct warranty defects as provided herein and (z) any Approved Systems, third party software, supplies or accessories included with the Software. Such Approved Systems and other third party products are provided with the owner's or manufacturer's warranties, if any, which Licensor is permitted to pass on to Ordering Activity. OTHERWISE, SUCH THIRD PARTY PRODUCTS ARE PROVIDED TO ORDERING ACTIVITY "AS IS".

6.3 DISCLAIMER. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, LICENSOR AND ITS SUPPLIERS DISCLAIM ALL WARRANTIES AND REPRESENTATIONS, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT WITH RESPECT TO THE SOFTWARE, THE TRIAL VERSION AND ANY FREE SOFTWARE. LICENSOR DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE SOFTWARE, THE TRIAL VERSION OR ANY FREE SOFTWARE WILL BE ERROR-FREE, SECURE, ACCURATE, RELIABLE, OR WILL OPERATE WITHOUT INTERRUPTION OR THAT LICENSOR WILL BE ABLE TO CORRECT ALL DEFECTS. THE SOFTWARE, THE TRIAL VERSION AND ANY FREE SOFTWARE ARE NOT DESIGNED, INTENDED OR LICENSED FOR USE IN HAZARDOUS ENVIRONMENTS REQUIRING FAIL-SAFE CONTROLS, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE DESIGN, CONSTRUCTION, MAINTENANCE OR OPERATION OF NUCLEAR FACILITIES, AIRCRAFT NAVIGATION OR COMMUNICATION SYSTEMS, AIR TRAFFIC CONTROL, AND LIFE SUPPORT OR WEAPONS SYSTEMS. LICENSOR SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ANY EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTY OF FITNESS FOR SUCH PURPOSES. Ordering Activity assumes the risk of any and all liability, damage or loss from use, or inability to use the Software, the Trial Version, and any Free Software. If applicable law requires any warranties other than those set forth in this Section 6, all such warranties are limited in duration to sixty (60) days from the earlier of the date the Software is first made available for download or is delivered.

7. Reserved.

8. Government End Users: This section applies to all acquisitions of the Software by or for the United States Federal Government, or by any prime contractor or subcontractor (at any tier) under any contract, grant, cooperative agreement or other activity with the Federal Government. The Software was developed at private expense and is Commercial Computer Software, as defined in Section 12.212 of the Federal Acquisition Regulation (48 CFR 12.212 (October 1995)) and Sections 227.7202-1 and 227.7202-3 of the Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement (48 CFR 227.7202-1, 227.7202-3 (June 1995)). Accordingly, any use, duplication or disclosure by the Government or any of its authorized users is subject to restrictions as set forth in this standard license agreement for the Software. If for any reason, Sections 12.212, 227.7202-1 or 227.7202-3 are deemed not applicable, then the Government's rights to use, duplicate or disclose the Software are limited to "Restricted Rights" as defined in 48 CFR Section 52.227-14, or DFARS 252.227-7014(a)(14) (June 1995), as applicable. If this Agreement fails to meet the Government's needs or is inconsistent in any respect with Federal law, the Government agrees to return the Software, unused, to Licensor at the address set forth above.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Uplogix, Inc. (“Manufacturer”) product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America (“Contractor”) to provide Manufacturer’s information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America’s GSA MAS contract number GS-35F-0511T (the “Schedule Contract”). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the “Manufacturer Specific Terms” or the “Attachment A Terms”) are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer (“Licensee”) is the “Ordering Activity”, defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

  - b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

  - c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

  - d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

- e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.
- f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.
- g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.
- h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.
- i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.
- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.
- u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Uplogix Limited Warranty, Disclaimer of Warranty and End User License Agreement

LIMITED WARRANTY

The following terms of this Limited Warranty govern, except to the extent there is a separate signed agreement between Customer and Uplogix with a different limited warranty. To the extent of a conflict, the order of precedence will be: (a) the signed agreement, and (b) this Agreement.

Hardware. Uplogix, Inc. (“Uplogix”) warrants that commencing from the date of shipment to Customer (and in the case of resale by an Uplogix reseller, commencing not more than 90 days after original shipment by Uplogix to the reseller), and continuing for a period of (a) one year, or (b) if there is a Warranty Card accompanying the Product, the warranty period specified in the Warranty Card (which may be a shorter or longer period than one year), the Hardware will be free from defects in material and workmanship under normal use. The date of shipment of a Product by Uplogix is set forth on the packaging material in which the Product is shipped. This limited warranty extends only to the original user of the Product. Customer’s sole and exclusive remedy and the entire liability of Uplogix and its suppliers under this limited warranty will be, at Uplogix’s option, shipment of a replacement within the warranty period and according to the replacement process described in the Warranty Card (if any), or if no Warranty Card, according to Uplogix’s then-current Return Material Authorization (RMA) process (available through Uplogix’s support desk), or a refund of the purchase price of the Hardware if the Hardware is returned to the party supplying it to Customer, freight and insurance prepaid. Uplogix replacement parts used in Hardware replacement may be new or equivalent to new. Uplogix’s obligations hereunder are conditioned upon the return of the affected Hardware in accordance with Uplogix’s then-current RMA process.

Software. Uplogix warrants that commencing from the date of shipment to Customer (but in case of resale by an authorized Uplogix reseller, commencing not more than 90 days after original shipment by Uplogix to reseller), and continuing for a period of 90 days, or (b) if there is a Warranty Card accompanying the Product, the warranty period specified in the Warranty Card (which may be a shorter or longer period than one year): (i) the media on which the Software is furnished will be free from defects in materials and workmanship under normal use, and (ii) the Software substantially conforms to its documentation. The date of shipment of the Software by Uplogix is set forth on the packaging material in which the Product is shipped. Except for the foregoing, the Software is provided “AS IS”. This limited warranty extends only to the Customer who is the original licensee. Customer’s sole and exclusive remedy and the entire liability of Uplogix and its suppliers and licensors under this limited warranty will be, at Uplogix’s option, repair, replacement, or a refund of the Software fee paid by Customer if reported (or, upon request, returned) to Uplogix or the party supplying the Software to Customer. In no event does Uplogix warrant that the Software is error-free or that Customer will be able to operate the Software without problems or interruptions. In addition, due to the continual development of new techniques for intruding upon and attacking networks, Uplogix does not warrant that the Software or any equipment, system or network on which the Software is used will be free of vulnerability to intrusion or attack.

Restrictions: This warranty does not apply if the Hardware or Software or any other equipment on which the Software is authorized to be used: (a) has been altered, except by Uplogix or its authorized representative, (b) has not been installed, operated, repaired, or maintained in accordance with instructions supplied by Uplogix or its authorized representative, (c) has been subjected to abnormal physical or electrical stress, misuse, negligence, or accident, (d) has not been updated with provided or available modifications or corrections, or (e) is licensed for beta, evaluation, testing or demonstration purposes for which Uplogix does not charge a purchase price or license fee. In addition, Uplogix makes no warranty with respect to any of the following: (i) Products whose external housing or cover has been opened, (ii) Products which have had their serial numbers or date of manufacture removed or altered, (iii) unsupported network devices, accessories or expendable items, or (iv) with respect to defects related to Customer's database errors.

Third Party Products. Certain third party products provided by Uplogix (“Third Party Products”) may have a separate warranty statement from the third party vendor; such warranty statements may or may not be included in the Third Party Product packaging for Hardware, but will be included in the packaging for Third Party Products for Software. Warranty support for such Third Party Products will be provided pursuant to such third party vendors’ warranty terms and conditions, and Uplogix will pass on such third party warranty coverage to Customer. Uplogix will notify Customer at the time of any warranty support inquiries of any such separate third party warranty statements and provide Customer with contact information for warranty support from the applicable third party vendor. ALL THIRD PARTY PRODUCTS ARE PROVIDED BY UPLOGIX ON AN "AS IS" BASIS.

DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTY

EXCEPT AS SPECIFIED IN THIS WARRANTY, ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED CONDITIONS, REPRESENTATIONS, AND WARRANTIES INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OR CONDITION OF MERCHANTABILITY, NON-INFRINGEMENT, FITNESS FOR PARTICULAR PURPOSE, SATISFACTORY QUALITY, NON-INTERFERENCE, ACCURACY OF INFORMATIONAL CONTENT, OR ARISING FROM A COURSE OF DEALING, LAW, USAGE OR TRADE PRACTICE ARE HEREBY EXCLUDED TO THE EXTENT ALLOWED BY APPLICABLE LAW AND ARE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED BY UPLOGIX, ITS SUPPLIERS AND LICENSORS. TO THE EXTENT AN IMPLIED WARRANTY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED, SUCH WARRANTY IS LIMITED IN DURATION TO THE EXPRESS WARRANTY PERIOD. BECAUSE SOME STATES OR JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW LIMITATIONS ON HOW LONG AN IMPLIED WARRANTY LASTS, THE ABOVE LIMITATION MAY NOT APPLY. THIS WARRANTY GIVES CUSTOMER SPECIFIC LEGAL RIGHTS, AND CUSTOMER MAY ALSO HAVE OTHER RIGHTS WHICH VARY FROM JURISDICTION TO JURISDICTION. This disclaimer and exclusion will apply even if the express warranty above fails of its essential purpose.

(“UPLOGIX”) IS WILLING TO LICENSE THE SOFTWARE TO ORDERING ACTIVITY UNDER GSA SCHEDULE CONTRACTS IDENTIFIED IN THE PURCHASE ORDER, STATEMENT OF WORK, OR SIMILAR DOCUMENT (“YOU”) ONLY UPON THE CONDITION THAT YOU ACCEPT ALL OF THE TERMS CONTAINED IN THIS END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT (“AGREEMENT”). BY BOTH PARTIES EXECUTING THIS AGREEMENT IN WRITING, YOU ARE BINDING THE BUSINESS ENTITY THAT YOU REPRESENT (“CUSTOMER”) TO THIS AGREEMENT. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO ALL OF THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT, THEN UPLOGIX IS UNWILLING TO LICENSE THE SOFTWARE TO YOU AND

(a) DO NOT DOWNLOAD, INSTALL OR USE THE SOFTWARE, AND (b) YOU MAY RETURN THE SOFTWARE FOR A FULL REFUND, OR, IF THE SOFTWARE IS SUPPLIED AS PART OF ANOTHER PRODUCT, THEN YOU MAY RETURN THE ENTIRE PRODUCT FOR A FULL REFUND.

The following terms of this Agreement govern Customer's access and use of the Software, except to the extent: there is a separate signed agreement between Customer and Uplogix governing Customer's use of the Software, or. To the extent of a conflict between the provisions of the foregoing documents, the order of precedence will be:

(i) the signed agreement, and (ii) this Agreement.

License. Subject to compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement including but not limited to payment of the required license fees, Uplogix grants to Customer a non-exclusive and non-transferable license to use the Software (including the accompanying Documentation) for Customer's internal business purposes and in accordance with the Documentation. Customer may allow its agents and contractors to use the Software on Customer's behalf for the purposes set forth, and subject to the terms and conditions in this Agreement, provided that Customer will remain responsible for such agents' and contractors' compliance with this Agreement. Uplogix reserves all rights and licenses in and to the Software not expressly granted herein. Documentation means written information (whether contained in user or technical manuals, training materials, specifications or otherwise) specifically pertaining to the Software and made available by Uplogix with the Software in any manner (including via CD or on-line).

Customer's license to use the Software is limited to, and Customer will not use the Software in excess of, a single hardware chassis or card or that number of agents, concurrent users, sessions, IP addresses, ports, seats, servers or sites specified in the applicable purchase order which has been accepted by Uplogix or its authorized representative and for which Customer has paid the required license fee. Customer will not transfer the Software to another hardware device except in the event of a hardware malfunction.

Unless otherwise expressly provided in the Documentation, Customer will use the Software solely as embedded in, for execution on, or (where the applicable Documentation permits installation on non-Uplogix equipment) for communication with Uplogix equipment owned or leased by Customer and used for Customer's internal business purposes.

Certain third party software products provided by Uplogix ("Third Party Software Products") may have a separate license directly from the third party vendor, which license is included in the Third Party Software Product packaging. Such Third Party Software Product license will apply instead of the license set forth in this Agreement. Further, the Software may include open source software ("OSS"). The license terms associated with OSS require that Uplogix provide copyright and license information to Customer. A list of the OSS included in the Software and applicable license terms are available at Uplogix's website (www.uplogix.com) or in Uplogix's on-line user documentation for the Software. ALL THIRD PARTY SOFTWARE PRODUCTS AND OSS ARE PROVIDED BY UPLOGIX ON AN "AS IS" BASIS.

Evaluation copies of the Software are provided only for the term set forth in Customer's applicable purchase order accepted by Uplogix or its authorized representative or as set forth in the applicable quote provided by Uplogix or its authorized representative. For evaluation or beta Software copies for which Uplogix does not charge a license fee, and for any OSS, the above requirement to pay license fees does not apply.

General Limitations. This is a license, not a transfer of title, to the Software and Documentation, and Uplogix retains ownership of all copies of the Software and Documentation. The Software and Documentation contain trade secrets of Uplogix, its suppliers and licensors, including, without limitation, the specific internal design and structure of individual programs and associated interface information. Accordingly, except as otherwise expressly provided under this Agreement, Customer will have no right, and Customer will not:

- (a) transfer, assign or sublicense its license rights, or provide an interest, to any other person or entity, or use the Software on unauthorized or secondhand Uplogix equipment; any attempted transfer, assignment, sublicense or use will be void and any security interest granted will not allow the secured party to use or transfer the Software;
- (b) make error corrections to or otherwise modify or adapt the Software or create derivative works based upon the Software, or permit third parties to do the same;
- (c) reverse engineer or decompile, disassemble or otherwise reduce the Software to human-readable form, except to the extent such a prohibition would violate applicable law;
- (d) use or permit the Software to be used to perform services for third parties, whether on a service bureau, time sharing, subscription or rental basis or otherwise, without the express written authorization of Uplogix;

- (e) disclose results of any Software benchmark tests without Uplogix's prior written consent;
- (f) install any portion of the Software except solely for the purpose of integration with the Uplogix components as specified in the Documentation;

(g) make copies of the Software, except to the extent for a sufficient number of copies for Customer's licensed use and backup purposes; or

(h) disclose, provide, or otherwise make available trade secrets contained within the Software and Documentation in any form to any third party without the prior written consent of Uplogix. Customer will implement reasonable security measures to protect such trade secrets.

To the extent required by law, and at Customer's written request, Uplogix will provide Customer with interface information needed to achieve interoperability between the Software and another independently created program, on payment of Uplogix's applicable fee, if any. Customer will observe strict obligations of confidentiality with respect to such information and will use such information in compliance with applicable terms and conditions upon which Uplogix makes such information available.

Software, Upgrade and Additional Copies. For purposes of this Agreement, "Software" includes (and the terms and conditions of this Agreement will apply to) computer programs including, without limitation, firmware, as provided to Customer by Uplogix or an authorized Uplogix reseller, and any upgrades, updates, bug fixes or modified versions thereto (collectively, "Upgrades") or backup copies of the Software licensed or provided to Customer by Uplogix or an authorized Uplogix reseller. The term "Software" does not include Third Party Products. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT: (a) CUSTOMER HAS NO LICENSE OR RIGHT TO USE ANY ADDITIONAL COPIES OR UPGRADES UNLESS CUSTOMER, AT THE TIME OF ACQUIRING SUCH COPY OR UPGRADE, ALREADY HOLDS A VALID LICENSE TO THE ORIGINAL SOFTWARE AND HAS PAID THE APPLICABLE FEE FOR THE UPGRADE OR ADDITIONAL COPIES, (b) USE OF UPGRADES IS LIMITED TO UPLOGIX EQUIPMENT FOR WHICH CUSTOMER IS THE ORIGINAL END USER PURCHASER OR LESSEE OR WHO OTHERWISE HOLDS A VALID LICENSE TO USE THE SOFTWARE WHICH IS BEING UPGRADED, AND (c) THE MAKING AND USING OF ADDITIONAL COPIES IS LIMITED TO NECESSARY BACKUP PURPOSES ONLY.

Proprietary Notices. Customer will maintain and reproduce all copyright and other proprietary notices on all copies, in any form, of the Software in the same form and manner that such copyright and other proprietary notices are included on the Software. Except as expressly authorized in this Agreement, Customer will not make any copies or duplicates of any Software without the express prior written permission of Uplogix.

Term and Termination. This Agreement and the license granted herein will remain effective until terminated. Customer may terminate this Agreement and the license at any time by destroying all copies of the Software and Documentation. When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Uplogix shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. All confidentiality obligations of Customer and all limitations of liability and disclaimers and restrictions of warranty will survive termination of this Agreement. In addition, the provisions of the sections titled "U.S. Government End User Purchasers" and "General Terms Applicable to the Limited Warranty Statement and End User License" will survive termination of this Agreement.

Customer Records. Customer grants Uplogix and its independent accountants the right to examine Customer's books, records and accounts during Customer's normal business hours and subject to Government security requirements to verify compliance with this Agreement. In the event such audit discloses non-compliance with this Agreement, Customer will promptly pay to Uplogix or its authorized reseller the appropriate license fees, plus the reasonable cost of conducting the audit.

Export. Software and Documentation, including technical data, may be subject to U.S. export control laws, including the U.S. Export Administration Act and its associated regulations, and may be subject to export or import regulations in other countries. Customer will comply with all such regulations and acknowledges that it has the responsibility to obtain licenses to export, re-export, or import Software and Documentation.

U.S. Government End User Purchasers. If Customer is an agency, department, or other entity of the United States Government (“Government”), the use, duplication, reproduction, release, modification, disclosure or transfer of the Software, Documentation, Specifications or other related materials of any kind, including technical data (“Software and Documentation”), is restricted in accordance with Federal Acquisition Regulation (“FAR”) 12.212. The Software and Documentation is commercial computer software and commercial computer software documentation. The use of the Software and Documentation is further restricted in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, or any modification thereto.

Third Party .. The programs provided by Oracle included in the Software are subject to a restricted license and may only be used in conjunction with the Software. Oracle is not required to perform any obligations for Customer. The results of the audit performed by Uplogix with respect to the Oracle programs may be reported to Oracle. Some Oracle programs provided with the Software may contain source code and such source code is subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

General Terms Applicable to the Limited Warranty Statement and End User License Agreement.

Disclaimer of Liabilities. REGARDLESS OF WHETHER ANY REMEDY SET FORTH HEREIN FAILS OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE OR OTHERWISE, IN NO EVENT WILL UPLOGIX OR ITS SUPPLIERS OR LICENSORS BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOST REVENUE, PROFIT, OR LOST OR DAMAGED DATA, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, LOSS OF CAPITAL, OR FOR SPECIAL, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, HOWEVER CAUSED AND REGARDLESS OF THE THEORY OF LIABILITY OR WHETHER ARISING OUT OF THE USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE SOFTWARE OR OTHERWISE AND EVEN IF UPLOGIX OR ITS SUPPLIERS OR LICENSORS HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF

THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. In no event will Uplogix’s or its suppliers’ or licensors’ liability to Customer, whether in contract, tort breach of warranty, or otherwise, exceed the price paid by Customer for the Software that gave rise to the claim or if the Software is part of another Product, the price paid for such other Product. BECAUSE SOME STATES OR JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW LIMITATION OR EXCLUSION OF CONSEQUENTIAL OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES, THE ABOVE LIMITATION MAY NOT APPLY TO YOU. THE FOREGOING LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR’S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

Customer agrees that the limitations of liability and disclaimers set forth herein will apply regardless of whether Customer has accepted the Software or any other product or services delivered by Uplogix. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Uplogix has set its prices and entered into this Agreement in reliance upon the disclaimers of warranty and the limitations of liability set forth herein, that the same reflect an allocation of risk between the parties (including the risk that a contract remedy may fail of its essential purpose and cause consequential loss), and that the same form an essential basis of the bargain between the parties.

The Limited Warranty and the End User License Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act as it may be enacted in the applicable jurisdiction will not apply to this Agreement. If any portion hereof is found to be void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of the Agreement will remain in full force and effect. Except as expressly provided herein, this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the license of the Software and Documentation and supersedes (except as set forth in the order of precedence paragraph set forth at the beginning of this Agreement) any conflicting or additional terms contained in any purchase order or elsewhere, all of which terms are excluded. This Agreement has been written in the English language, and the English version will govern.

License Agreement

THE TERMS OF THIS LICENSE SUPERSEDE IN THEIR ENTIRETY ANY CONFLICTING TERMS OF ANY LICENSE AGREEMENT WHICH ACCOMPANIES THE SOFTWARE, AS APPLICABLE, BASED ON THE SOFTWARE KEY THE GSA CUSTOMER HAS BEEN ASSIGNED (THE "SOFTWARE").

Grant of License. Varonis Systems, Inc. ("Licensor") grants the Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts ("the GSA Customer") a limited, , non-exclusive, nontransferable, non-sublicensable license to (i) use the Software as provided herein, during the Evaluation Period (as defined below), solely for the trial and evaluation of the Software (a "Temporary License"), and/or (ii) subject to the full payment of the applicable license fee, to use the Software, in executable form only, internally (the " License") solely during the term set forth in Section 5 below. The GSA Customer may not make any commercial use of the Software, nor grant any third party any right to use the Software, whether or not for any consideration. This License Agreement allows the GSA Customer to run and use the Software on the GSA Customer's internal network, subject to the number of users (i) limited by the software key provided to the GSA Customer by the Licensor, if a Temporary License is granted to the GSA Customer, or (ii) indicated in the GSA Customer Purchase Order pursuant to which a License is granted to the GSA Customer. For the purpose of this Agreement, with respect to each Software, a "user" shall include any account that is monitored by such Software during the term of the License.

Other Rights and Limitations. The GSA Customer may not, and may not permit or aid others to, translate, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, update, modify, reproduce, duplicate, copy, distribute, place the Software onto a server so that it is accessible by third parties via a public network or otherwise disseminate all or any part of the Software, or extract source code from the object code of the Software. The GSA Customer may not publish or make available to the public, without Licensor's prior written approval, its impressions, evaluations, notes or recommendations from the use of the Temporary License. The Software is licensed as a single product. The GSA Customer may not separate its component parts for use on more than one computer or for any other purpose. The GSA Customer may not assign, sublicense, transfer, pledge, lease, rent, or share the GSA Customer's rights under this Agreement. Any data processed, shared, transferred or otherwise used by the GSA Customer, including any of its users, is the GSA Customer's sole responsibility. The GSA Customer must comply with applicable federal data protection laws and regulations. The GSA Customer must verify that no unauthorized users have access to its data. THE GSA CUSTOMER SOLELY, IS RESPONSIBLE TO BACK UP ITS DATA. Under no circumstances will Licensor be liable for any inaccuracy, loss of or damages to the GSA Customer's data used by it including any of its users by means of the Software.

Proprietary Rights; Confidentiality. The GSA Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Software is a proprietary product of Licensor, protected under copyright laws and international treaties. The GSA Customer further acknowledges and agrees that all right, title and interest in and to the Software, including associated intellectual property rights, are and shall remain with Licensor. All intellectual property rights (including, without limitation, copyrights, trade secrets, trademarks, etc.) evidenced by or embodied in and/or attached/connected/related to the Software, including any revisions, corrections, modifications, enhancements, updates and/or upgrades thereof (to the extent provided by Licensor) are and shall be owned solely by Licensor. This Agreement does not convey to the GSA Customer any interest in or to the Software, except for a limited right of use as set forth herein, terminable in accordance with the Federal Acquisition Regulation (the "FAR"), the GSA Schedule Contract and/or any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. The GSA Customer will maintain all copies of the Software and all related documentation in confidence, and in a manner that the Software and all related documentation are not publicly accessible, and that only those that need access to Software shall be able to access it. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this EULA nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Agreement. Licensor recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which requires that certain information be released, despite being characterized as “confidential” by the vendor.

License Fees. In consideration of the License, the GSA Customer shall pay the applicable license fees in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist.

Term and Termination. The Temporary License shall be effective upon delivery of the Software, and shall continue until the lapse of thirty (30) days from the delivery day (or such longer period as approved in writing by the Licensor), unless terminated earlier as set forth in the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, and/or any GSA Customer Purchase Orders (the "Evaluation Period"). Depending on the type of License purchased, the License shall be valid: (i) in perpetuity, if a perpetual license is purchased, or (ii) during the subscription period indicated on the relevant purchase order, if a term license is purchased, unless the License (whether term or perpetual) is: (a) terminated by Licensor in accordance with the Contract Disputes Act (if and as applicable) due to a breach by the GSA Customer of any term hereof, or (b) terminated by Licensor in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, and/or any GSA Customer Purchase Orders. When the end user is an instrumentality of the US Government, recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be made as a dispute under the contract disputes clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the disputes clause, Varonis shall proceed diligently with performance of this contract, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the contract and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer.

Limited Warranty. With respect to the Temporary License, no warranties are provided by the Licensor in connection with the Software. With respect to the License, Licensor warrants, for the GSA Customer's benefit only, that the media on which the Software is provided will be free from defects in material and workmanship under normal use for a period of twelve (12) months from the date on which a License was granted to the GSA Customer. Licensor does not warrant that the Software shall be error free or that it shall meet the GSA Customer's requirements. This limited warranty is void if failure of the Software has resulted from accident, abuse, unauthorized use or misapplication. LICENSOR WARRANTS THAT THE SOFTWARE WILL, FOR A PERIOD OF SIXTY (60) DAYS FROM THE DATE OF YOUR RECEIPT, PERFORM SUBSTANTIALLY IN ACCORDANCE WITH SOFTWARE WRITTEN MATERIALS ACCOMPANYING IT. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE FOREGOING, EXCEPT FOR THE WARRANTY SET FORTH ABOVE, THE SOFTWARE MEDIA AND THE SOFTWARE ARE LICENSED "AS IS", AND LICENSOR DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, PERFORMANCE, ACCURACY, RELIABILITY AND NON-INFRINGEMENT.

Maintenance and Support. Following the Evaluation Period, and in connection with Software granted a License, the GSA Customer may purchase maintenance and support services pursuant to the execution of a new GSA Customer Purchase Order. The use and installation of any updates, upgrades, patches or other software the GSA Customer may receive or purchase from Licensor or its resellers in connection with the GSA Customer's use of the Software, shall also be subject to and governed by the terms of this Agreement and the terms of Licensor's Support Principles attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Limitation of Liability. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Licensor's cumulative liability to the GSA for any loss, cost or damage resulting from any claims, demands, or actions arising out of or relating to this License Agreement, the Temporary License and/or the License shall not exceed the total Purchase Order price, including license fees actually paid to Licensor hereunder, if any. In no event shall Licensor be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, or exemplary damages or lost profits, even if Licensor has been advised of the possibility of such damages. The foregoing limitation of liability shall not apply to (1) personal injury or death resulting from Licensor's negligence; (2) for fraud; or (3) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law.

Qualifications and Limitations Basis of Bargain. The limited warranty, exclusive remedies and limited liability provisions set forth herein are fundamental elements of this License Agreement and the license granted hereunder, and the GSA Customer accepts and confirms that Licensor would not be able to provide the Software on an economic basis without such limitations. The foregoing exclusions/limitations of liability shall not apply (1) to personal injury or death caused by Varonis' negligence; (2) for fraud; or (3) for express remedies under law or the contract; or (4) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law.

U.S.-Related Special Provisions. The GSA Customer agrees that the Software is not being or will not be shipped, transferred or re-exported, directly or indirectly, into any country prohibited by the United States Export Administration Act and the regulations thereunder, nor will it be used for any purposes prohibited by such Act. If any part of the Software is acquired by or on behalf of a unit or agency of the U.S. Government, the Government agrees that the Software and all related documentation are "commercial computer software" or "commercial computer software documentation" and that, absent a written agreement to the contrary, the Government's rights with respect to the Software and the related documentation are limited by the terms of this Agreement, pursuant to FAR 12.212(a), FAR 52.227-14 "Rights in Data" (MAY 2014) and/or DFARS 252.227. 7015 "Technical Data- Commercial Items"(Jun. 2013), as applicable.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction; Litigation Costs. This Agreement shall be construed and governed in accordance with Federal the laws of the United States of America without reference to conflict of laws, and dispute resolution shall take place in a forum, and within the time period, prescribed by applicable federal law. No equitable or injunctive relief, and no shifting of legal fees or costs, may be sought against the GSA Customer except as, and then only to the extent, specifically authorized by applicable federal statute.

Auto-updates & Environment Settings survey. The following functionality shall automatically be available to the GSA Customer with the Software: (i) if the GSA Customer purchases software subscription services, and subject to Government Information Security Requirements, including but not limited to those imposed by the Federal Information Security Management Act (FISMA), Licensor will regularly download and install software fixes and improvements to the installed DatAdvantage® environment. This includes only database scripts and does not compromise the data collected at the GSA Customer's environment. Use of the software fixes and improvements shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement; and (ii) if the GSA Customer purchases support services, subject to Government information security requirements, Licensor will monitor and collect general information about the GSA Customer's installed Software environment. This includes general information (the number of probes, shadows, file servers, folders, users and permissions that are monitored), as well as health status (database sizes, jobs and status of executables). This information can be used by Licensor's support engineers to improve the service if a problem arises, or to contact the customer proactively to prevent problems. Note that the GSA Customer may choose not to activate these functions by manually selecting "I Refuse" during the installation process.

Miscellaneous. Should any term of this Agreement be declared void or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such declaration shall have no effect on the remaining terms hereof. This Agreement, together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, the Schedule Price List and any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders represents the entire agreement concerning the program between the GSA Customer and Licensor and it supersedes any prior proposal, representation, or understanding between the parties. This Agreement, however shall not take precedence over the terms of the underlying GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer's Purchase Order. The GSA Customer may not assign this Agreement to any third party without the prior written consent of Licensor. Assignment by Varonis is subject to FAR 52.232-23 "Assignment of Claims" (Jan. 1986) and FAR subpart 42.12 "Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements" (Sep. 2013). The failure of either party to enforce any rights granted hereunder or to take action against the other party in the event of any breach hereunder shall not be deemed a waiver by that party as to subsequent enforcement of rights or subsequent actions in the event of future breaches.

Third Party Software. The Software contains software provided by third parties. The restrictions contained in this Agreement shall apply to all such third party software providers and third party software as if they were Licensor's and the Software, respectively. In addition, the Software may contain software provided by Oracle, Inc. Such software is subject to the provisions in Exhibit B hereto, in addition to those contained in this Agreement.

Relief Goals: Relief Goals describe the target time period for Varonis to provide a temporary resolution of an issue. Varonis reserves the right to request a customer to download an Update (as defined below) or to upgrade to the Current Version (as defined below) in order to resolve a known problem or a technical issue.

ESCALATION PROCEDURES:

Varonis’ escalation procedures raise the visibility of your most important issues internally. Varonis may, at its discretion, pass any issue into the escalation process. Our normal escalation process includes evaluating the severity level of the issue. Our goal is to solve issues in a timely manner taking into consideration the severity of the issue.

In general, if you are not satisfied with a response from the Technical Support staff, you may request that the issue be escalated to a Support Team Lead or to the Director of Technical Support. Once an issue has been escalated, Varonis Technical Support will coordinate internal and customer resources in gathering relevant data required to identify and solve the issue. Varonis expects our customers to provide adequate resources and the requested data to assist in resolution of the issue.

Updates shall not include any new functionality, features or modules offered by Varonis as separate or additional products, components or add-ons.

All Updates and upgrades are subject to the terms and conditions of the customer’s license agreement.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached VBrick Systems, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ)), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

GRANT OF LICENSE

The Software Product is being licensed, not sold, to Ordering Activity. In accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Attachment A, Contractor grants Ordering Activity a personal, non-transferable, non-exclusive license to use the object code version of the Software Product and Documentation. All rights and title in and to the Software Product and Documentation and all derivative works thereof (as such term is defined by the United States Copyright Act (as amended) at Title 17 U.S.C. and in accordance with FAR 52.227-19), including without limitation copyrights and trade secret rights, belong to Contractor and/or its partners, licensors and suppliers (collectively, "Suppliers"), and Contractor and its Suppliers hold title to each copy of the Software Product and Documentation, and any portion thereof. Contractor and its Suppliers reserve all rights to the Software Product and Documentation not expressly granted to Ordering Activity herein. This Attachment A grants Ordering Activity the following rights:

Software Product. Ordering Activity may install and use one copy of the Software Product, or any prior version for the same operating system, only on the number of computers and users for which the license is given pursuant to Ordering Activity's Purchase Order. In addition, Ordering Activity may make a copy of the Software Product for backup purposes at no cost. Except as expressly provided herein, Ordering Activity may not copy, nor encourage or allow copying of, the Software Product or Documentation. Ordering Activity may not cause or permit the disclosure, copying, renting, licensing, sublicensing, leasing, dissemination or other distribution of the Software Product or the Documentation by any means or in any form without Contractor's prior written consent.

Storage/Network Use. Ordering Activity may also store or install a copy of the Software Product on a storage device, such as a network server, used only to install or run the Software Product on Ordering Activity's other computers over an internal network; however, Ordering Activity must acquire either a Single User License for each separate computer on which the Software Product is installed or run from the storage device, or a Single Building License or an Enterprise License (defined below). If Ordering Activity have acquired appropriate licenses to allow installation of the Software Product on a computer file server within Ordering Activity's internal network Ordering Activity may also use such server to push firmware updates to other VBrick products. No server or network use of the Software Product is permitted except the uses expressly permitted in this Attachment A.

Single User License. Ordering Activity may use the Software Product on one computer only, or must have a license for each computer on which the Software Product is installed. A Single User License for the Software Product may not be shared or used concurrently on different computers or by separate users unless otherwise specified in Ordering Activity's Purchase Order.

Connection License. Ordering Activity is granted license to interconnect a single external server to Ordering Activity's VBrick Server Software; additional connections require purchase of additional connection licenses.

No Modification. Ordering Activity may not alter or modify the Software Product or create a new installer for the Software Product. The Software Product is licensed and distributed for viewing, distributing, and sharing media files. Ordering Activity is not authorized to integrate or use the Software Product with any software except software authorized by Contractor.

Automatic Connection. THE SOFTWARE PRODUCT MAY INCLUDE PRODUCT ACTIVATION AND OTHER TECHNOLOGY DESIGNED TO PREVENT UNAUTHORIZED USE AND COPYING. THIS TECHNOLOGY MAY CAUSE ORDERING ACTIVITY'S COMPUTER TO AUTOMATICALLY CONNECT TO THE INTERNET. ADDITIONALLY, ONCE CONNECTED, THE SOFTWARE PRODUCT MAY TRANSMIT ORDERING ACTIVITY'S SERIAL NUMBER TO CONTRACTOR OR ITS SUPPLIERS AND IN DOING SO MAY PREVENT USES OF THE SOFTWARE THAT ARE NOT PERMITTED.

Third-Party Website Access. The Software Product may allow Ordering Activity to access third-party websites ("Third-Party Sites"). Ordering Activity's access to and use of any Third-Party Sites, including but not limited to any goods, services, or information made available for such sites, is governed by the terms and conditions found at each Third Party Site, if any. Third-Party Sites are not owned or operated by Contractor or its Suppliers. ORDERING ACTIVITY'S USE OF THIRD-PARTY SITES IS AT ORDERING ACTIVITY'S OWN RISK. NEITHER CONTRACTOR NOR ITS SUPPLIERS MAKES ANY WARRANTIES, CONDITIONS, INDEMNITIES, REPRESENTATIONS, OR TERMS, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WHETHER BY STATUTE, COMMON LAW, CUSTOM, USAGE, OR OTHERWISE AS TO ANY OTHER MATTERS, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO NONINFRINGEMENT OF THIRD-PARTY RIGHTS, TITLE, INTEGRATION, ACCURACY, SECURITY, AVAILABILITY, SATISFACTORY QUALITY, MERCHANTABILITY, OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE WITH RESPECT TO THE THIRD-PARTY SITES.

Compliance With Licenses. If Ordering Activity is an entity, Ordering Activity agree that upon request from Contractor or Contractor's authorized representative, Ordering Activity will within thirty (30) days fully document and certify that use of any and all Software Products at the time of the request is in conformity with Ordering Activity's valid license(s) from Contractor and/or its Suppliers.

OTHER RIGHTS AND LIMITATIONS

Limitations on Reverse Engineering, Decompilation, and Disassembly. Ordering Activity may not reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble the Software Product, except and only to the extent that such activity is expressly permitted by applicable law notwithstanding this limitation. Ordering Activity may not use the Software Product to conduct a service bureau or similar business for the benefit of third parties. Ordering Activity may not modify, adapt, translate, or otherwise create derivative works based on the Software Product or Documentation.

Separation of Components. The Software Product is licensed as a single product. Its component parts may not be separated for use on more than one computer beyond the licensed number of users. If the Software Product is an upgrade or a revision of a component of a package of software programs that Ordering Activity licensed as a single product, the Software Product may be used and transferred only as part of that single product package and may not be separated for use on more than one computer.

Dual Media Software. Ordering Activity may receive the Software Product in more than one medium. Regardless of the type or size of medium Ordering Activity receive, Ordering Activity may use only one medium that is appropriate for the computer or computers for which the license is given (pursuant to the Purchase Order). Ordering Activity may not use or install the other medium on another computer. Ordering Activity may not loan, rent, lease, or otherwise transfer the other medium to another user, except as part of the permanent transfer (as provided below) of the Software Product.

Support Services. Contractor through VBrick may or may not provide Ordering Activity with support services related to the Software Product ("Support Services"). Any supplemental software code provided to Ordering Activity as part of the Support Services shall be considered part of the Software Product and subject to the terms and conditions of this Attachment A. With respect to any technical information Ordering Activity may provide as part of the Support Services, Contractor through VBrick may use such information for its business purposes, including but not limited to product support and development.

COPYRIGHT

Copyright laws and international treaty provisions protect the Software Product. Contractor through VBrick is not responsible for any customs or tax charges related to any country other than the U.S.A. A replacement Equipment may be new or reconditioned of like kind, functionality, and quality. The defective Product or part must be returned to VBrick within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the replacement product; all shipping costs are borne by Ordering Activity.. Any single request for a single shipment of five (5) or more Equipment of the same type may be subject to delays.

DOA (Dead on arrival): A product can be deemed as DOA, after troubleshooting by Contractor through VBrick Technical Support Services, if it is not fully functioning when it is setup for the first time or received with damage. It does not have to be completely dead or non-functioning to qualify for DOA. It could be anything from a unit not powering up to a unit with a bent connector. If it's not fully functional or has damage when opened and setup for the first time, it qualifies as "DOA" and eligible for a cross ship replacement if within 30 days of the original ship date and registered runtime of the product is not more than 4 days. After 30 days, follow normal RMA process unless Manager of Support Services approves expedited RMA process.

VIII. REPLACEMENT PARTS.

Parts replaced during the Limited Warranty Period, as applicable, will be covered for the remaining term of such period or for thirty (30) days from time of replacement, whatever is longer. Periods must be consecutive one to each other. Ordering Activity shall not be allowed to renew the program for their Equipment and/or Software in the case the program period expired for the Equipment and/or Software in question and Ordering Activity missed to renew between 30 days of renewal due date.

Hardware coverage/warranty under this program is provided up to 5 years from the date the equipment is shipped from Contractor through VBrick's facilities. After this period this program only covers technical support and minor software releases.

XI. SOFTWARE COVERAGE

Software: means all computer programming code, entirely in binary form, which is directly executable by a computer and includes those computer programs which have been licensed to Ordering Activity either as a separate product or as part of another VBrick Product.

Software coverage includes the following:

Major Software Release (Software Upgrade): initial or new version of a software product or application. It means a version of the Software as classified by Contractor through VBrick which has been enhanced, improved and/or modified and replaces the existing version of the Software. This includes any minor software releases, user interface changes, usability changes, and new features and functions. As an example a major release is denoted by a version change from 2.0 to 3.0

Minor Software Release (Software Update): piece of software designed to correct discovered deficiencies and/or bugs affecting performance to the software description, program or its supporting data. This includes improved performance, bugs fixes, or graphics replacement. As an example a minor releases is denoted by version changing from 2.0 to 2.1.

Software upgrades during the Extended Warranty/Maintenance Program period. The upgrades will be provided to the Ordering Activity via CD-ROM or VBrick's website. The Ordering Activity is required to perform the upgrade.

Software upgrades may not include upgrades that require disassembly of the Equipment.

XII. HARDWARE COVERAGE

Hardware coverage includes the following:

Repair or replacement of defective Equipment during Warranty Program period.

Firmware upgrades (upgrades of code that require disassembly of Equipment).

XIII. TECHNICAL SUPPORT SERVICES

The following is an explanation of services performed at each level:

Level 1: provide answers and helpdesk for Equipment features. Basically all the "what" questions. This information can be found in the Equipment Documentation.

Level 2: diagnose and troubleshoot complex network problems including multicast issues. Diagnose and troubleshoot Server software related problems. Provide answers on how to perform upgrades. Basically able to answer the entire "how" questions. This information can be found in the Equipment documentation and in training materials.

Level 3: diagnose and troubleshoot "error and abnormal Equipment behaviors".

Onsite Support: When a problem cannot be resolved by utilizing remote technical support, Contractor through VBrick will dispatch an engineer to arrive on-site pursuant to the Service level purchased by Ordering Activity. VBrick will not be held responsible for delays in the delivery of the services due to Ordering Activity's stoppage to provide access to Ordering Activity's facilities or due to security requirements. Contractor through VBrick may comply with all Ordering Activity imposed security requirements.

The Extended Warranty/Maintenance Program is obtained in the manner outlined in Part IX, X above and is limited as provided in the introduction and Parts III, IV, V, VII, VII and XI, XII, XIII above.

XIV. PRODUCTS OUT OF WARRANTY RE-JOINING A WARRANTY PROGRAM

No product can be renew under the old warranty program except for products from Ordering Activity and only until the new GSA pricing becomes effective.

If warranty coverage has lapsed, there can be NO Hardware repair claim made for a minimum of 60 days after the renewal. If a claim is made within the first 60 days - it will be billed to the Ordering Activity at then-current GSA repair rate.

XV. REPAIR SERVICE OUTSIDE WARRANTY OR MAINTENANCE PROGRAM POLICY.

In the event that Equipment requires service that is not covered by Contractor's Limited Warranty or any other Program, Equipment may be shipped to Contractor through VBrick for repair. Ordering Activity must notify VBrick's Technical Customer Support of the problem via telephone at (203) 303-0222, or via website at <http://www.vbrick.com/support>, obtain a RMA and ship the Equipment to VBrick, at Ordering Activity's expense. Repairs are performed under flat fee charges (please refers to latest Contractor's GSA price list for charges). Contractor through VBrick will repair the Equipment within five (5) business days from the date the equipment is delivered at VBrick's facilities and will, at VBrick's expense, return the Equipment to Ordering Activity in the same or equivalent manner that the Equipment was delivered to VBrick.

Limited Services Warranty. THE PROVISION OF SOFTWARE SUPPORT SERVICES DOES NOT EXTEND, MODIFY OR ENHANCE THE ORIGINAL SOFTWARE WARRANTIES, IF ANY, FOR THE VBRICK PRODUCT (S). CONTRACTOR DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND ANY WARRANTIES WITH RESPECT TO INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS.

CONTRACTOR NEITHER ASSUMES NOR AUTHORIZES ANY OTHER PARTY TO ASSUME ANY OTHER LIABILITIES IN CONNECTION WITH THE SOFTWARE SUPPORT SERVICE(S) PROVIDED HEREUNDER.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Vectra Networks, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Company warrants that it shall comply with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA") in all dealings with, by, for or on behalf of VECTRA, and shall not offer, promise, give, demand, seek or accept, directly or indirectly, any gift or payment, consideration or benefit in kind that would or could be construed as an illegal or corrupt practice.

EXHIBIT A

Maintenance Services

Maintenance Term. Maintenance service as set forth in this Exhibit A ("Maintenance Services") commence on the Effective Date (or other applicable start date specified in the Order) and will continue until the end of the Subscription Term. If Ordering Activity elects not to renew Maintenance Services or fees are not kept current, Ordering Activity may re-enroll only upon prior written consent of VECTRA and payment of the applicable subscription fee for the coming period and all fees that would have been paid had Ordering Activity not discontinued Maintenance Services.

Maintenance Services. If Ordering Activity purchases such Maintenance Services, the following Maintenance Services will be made available during the applicable Subscription Term: (a) Updates released during the Subscription Term, and (b) Error resolution assistance for Errors in the Software reported by Ordering Activity during the Subscription Term, as further described below. Maintenance Services and Support will be provided only with respect to the then current version of the Software and only for active Subscriptions. VECTRA shall have no obligation to provide Maintenance Services or Support for: (i) altered or damaged Software or any portion of the Software incorporated with or into other software; (ii) Software or Subscription problems caused by Ordering Activity's negligence, abuse or misapplication, use of the Software or Subscriptions other than as specified in VECTRA's user manual or other causes beyond the control of VECTRA; or (iii) Software or Subscriptions installed or used on any hardware that is not supported by VECTRA. Support requests may be submitted online 24/7 at support.vectranetworks.com. For Error resolution assistance, VECTRA will use commercially reasonable efforts to correct any Error reported by Ordering Activity in the Software attributable to VECTRA, employing a level of effort commensurate with the severity of the Error, provided, however, that VECTRA shall have no obligation to correct all errors in the Software.

Ordering Activity Responsibilities. Ordering Activity is responsible for providing sufficient information and data to allow VECTRA to readily reproduce all reported Errors. If VECTRA believes that a problem reported by Ordering Activity may not be due to an Error in the Software or cannot be readily reproduced VECTRA will so notify Ordering Activity. Ordering Activity shall document and promptly report all Errors to VECTRA and take all steps necessary to carry out procedures for the rectification of Errors or malfunctions within a reasonable time after such procedures have been received from VECTRA.

Certain Definitions. For the purpose of this Exhibit only, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Error" means a reproducible programming error in the Software which significantly degrades the Software as compared to VECTRA's published performance specifications. Correction may be provided by patch, correction in the next Update, work-around or avoidance procedure, or other resolution to remedy the Error.

"Support" means technical support telephone or email assistance provided by VECTRA to a designated Ordering Activity support contact during normal business hours concerning the installation and use of the Product.

"Update" means a maintenance release of the Software designated as such by VECTRA and released on a general, regularly scheduled basis as part of standard maintenance to VECTRA's other maintenance customers for the same version of the Software without additional charge.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Veeam Software Corporation ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Important - Read Carefully

This EULA is a legally binding agreement between licensee end user ("End User") and Veeam setting forth the terms and conditions governing the use and operation of Veeam's proprietary computer software products (the "Software") and the written technical specifications for the use and operation of the Software (the "Documentation"). Where the sense and context permit, references in this EULA to the Software include the Documentation. By downloading and installing, copying or otherwise using the Software, and/or otherwise accepting this EULA, End User agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions of this EULA. If End User does not agree to or accept the terms of this EULA, End User may not access or use the Software.

1.0 Definitions

1.1 "Fee(s)" means any License, Maintenance, professional services, consulting or other Fees agreed to by the parties as set forth in a Transaction Document.

1.2 "Maintenance" and "Maintenance Policies" have the respective meanings set forth in Section 7.0.

1.3 "Transaction" and "Transaction Document" have the following meanings: "Transaction(s)" is a License transaction pursuant to which End User: i) accepts this EULA as provided above and ii) takes actual or constructive possession of the Software. A Transaction may take place by any lawful means, electronically or in writing, and may be confirmed by a) purchase orders, credit orders, commitment letters, license keys, amendments to this EULA or other similar materials, signed or unsigned, (each a "Transaction Document(s)"), or b) by the conduct of the affected parties. A Transaction may be initiated and implemented by any entity that is directly or indirectly a party to it, including End User, Veeam, or authorized third party distributors, dealers, and/or other resellers of the Software. A Transaction Document may contain usage, business, legal and other terms and conditions agreed to by the parties. The foregoing notwithstanding, each Transaction will require that: i) this EULA be accepted by End User and ii) End User obtains actual or constructive possession of the Software. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the terms and conditions of this EULA and those set forth in a Transaction Document, the terms and conditions of this EULA will govern and control.

1.4 "Open Source" means various open source software components licensed under the terms of applicable open source license agreements included in the materials relating to such software. Open Source Software is composed of individual software components, each of which has its own copyright and its own applicable license conditions. A current list of Open Source Software used by Veeam can be found at <http://www.veeam.com/eula-oss.html>.

2.0 Grant of License

2.1 License Grant. When the Software is delivered to End User as part of a Transaction, End User will have, subject to the terms and conditions of this EULA, a perpetual, non-transferable, non-exclusive, license ("License"), to use the Software in object code format, solely for government purpose for the management and processing of its own data and not the data of any third party(ies). Veeam Software License is perpetual, unless the Software is delivered to End User as part of a Transaction on a non-perpetual basis for a defined period, in such case, the End User's right to use such Software will cease on the end date of the defined period.

The data processing restriction set forth in the preceding paragraph will not apply to End User if End User a) has been accepted by Veeam, under "Veeam Cloud Provider Program" at <http://www.veeam.com/veeam-cloud-providers.html> and b) has accessed and is utilizing the Software with a stock-keeping unit number that designates End User as a "Cloud Provider" or similar description, thus authorizing End User to utilize the Software to perform systems management services for its customers.

3.0 Additional Terms

Nothing contained in this EULA is intended to prohibit or restrict the parties from mutually agreeing to enter into separate terms and conditions that i) modify or supplement the terms and conditions (including business and/or financial terms) of this i) EULA or the License granted to End User pursuant to this EULA; or ii) create or modify the terms a particular Transaction.

4.0 Evaluation License

A License designated as an "Evaluation" License in a Transaction Document authorizes End User to use one (1) copy of the Software for a 30 day period for non-production evaluation or demonstration purposes only.

5.0 Not for Resale License

A License designated as a "Not for Resale" License in a Transaction Document authorizes End User to use one (1) copy of the Software with full functionality for evaluation or demonstration purposes only, and for a defined period of time.

6.0 Limited Term License

A license designated as a "Limited Term" License in a Transaction Document authorizes End User to use one (1) copy of the Software in production environment at End User's site for a defined period of time. The defined period for a "Limited Term" License commences immediately upon generation of the license key.

7.0 Maintenance

Maintenance and support ("Maintenance") for the Software will be available in accordance with Veeam's applicable Maintenance Policies then in effect and shall commence on delivery of the Software. Provided End User is current on Maintenance, End User will receive (a) online support and (b) any Software updates, enhancements and/or improvements that are included or otherwise separately defined under the Maintenance Policies and are not licensed by Veeam at its discretion to its customers for a separate charge. Veeam's current Maintenance Policies can be found at <http://www.veeam.com/support.html>.

8.0 Copyright and Other Restrictions

The Software is protected by copyright laws and international copyright treaties, as well as other intellectual property laws and treaties. The Software is licensed, not sold. The Software contains copyrighted material, trade secrets and other proprietary material of Veeam. All right, title and interest in the Software remains at all times with Veeam. In no event will End User directly or indirectly permit the Software to be decompiled, reverse engineered, or disassembled. End User will not disclose, transfer or otherwise make available the Software, or the results of any benchmark or other tests of the Software, to any third party without the prior written consent of Veeam. End User shall not remove any proprietary notices from the Software. End User may make one copy of the Software solely for backup or archival purposes.

9.0 Limited Warranty and Limitation of Liability

Veeam warrants that it has the right and authority to grant the License under this EULA. Veeam will defend or, at its option, settle any action against End User based upon a claim that its use of the Software infringes any patent, copyright or other intellectual property right of a third party, and will indemnify End User against any amounts awarded against End User as a result of the claim, provided Veeam is promptly notified of the assertion of the claim and has control of its defense or settlement. Veeam warrants that the Software, in its unmodified form as initially delivered or made available to End User, will perform substantially in accordance with the Documentation for a warranty period of ninety (90) days from the date the Software is delivered to End User. In the event the Software fails in a material respect to operate in accordance with the Documentation during the warranty period and Veeam is unable to correct the defect, Veeam's sole and exclusive liability and End User's sole and exclusive remedy shall be a refund of the License fee, if any, paid by End User for the Software. The foregoing limited warranty will not apply if failure of the Software is the result of damage or misuse caused by End User.

EXCEPT FOR THE LIMITED WARRANTY SET FORTH ABOVE, THE SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS IS", WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY THAT THE SOFTWARE IS FREE OF DEFECTS, MERCHANTABILITY OR FIT FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. NO ORAL OR WRITTEN INFORMATION OR ADVICE GIVEN BY VEEAM OR ANY THIRD PARTY, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY VEEAM DISTRIBUTORS OR RESELLERS, SHALL CREATE ANY WARRANTY IN ADDITION TO, OR IN ANY WAY INCREASE THE SCOPE OF, THE LIMITED WARRANTY.

In no event will Veeam, its affiliates, resellers, or distributors or suppliers be liable for any indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages arising out of the use of or inability to use the Software, including, without limitation, damages for lost profits, loss of goodwill, work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, or any and all other commercial damages or losses, even if advised of the possibility thereof.

10.0 Assignment

Except in the event of a sale or transfer by Veeam of all or substantially all of its assets or voting securities, neither party will assign all or any portion of its rights or obligations under this EULA to any third party without the prior written consent of the other party.

11.0 U.S. Government End Users

Use, duplication, or disclosure of the Software to or by the U. S. Government is subject to the provisions and restrictions as set forth in FAR 52.227-14 and FAR 52.227-19, or equivalent restrictions and provisions as set forth in DFAR 252.227-7013 and DFAR 252.227-7014.

12.0 General

This Agreement sets forth Veeam's entire obligation and End User's exclusive rights with respect to the Software and, except to the extent otherwise specifically provided in a purchase order or other written communication or advertising signed or jointly issued by both parties with respect to the Software, supersedes any conflicting terms of any purchase order and any other communication or advertising with respect to the Software. No failure of either party to exercise or enforce any of its rights under this EULA will act as a waiver of those rights. If any provision of this EULA is found illegal or unenforceable, it will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible, and the legality and enforceability of the other provisions of this EULA will not be affected. To the extent not preempted by federal law or regulation, this EULA will be governed by the laws of the State of Ohio, without regard to its choice of law principles. The United Nations Convention for the International Sale of Goods will not apply.

13.0 Export Controls

The Software is subject to U.S. Export Administration Regulations. Veeam prohibits any export or re-export of Veeam Software products, services, or technical data to any destinations subject to U.S. embargoes or trade sanctions, except in compliance with the United States Export Administration Act and the related rules and regulations and similar non-U.S. government restrictions, if applicable. End User agrees not to use or make available the Software to or on behalf of any person that is a citizen, national, or resident of, or that is controlled by the government of the countries with which the U.S. may prohibit export transactions. The following countries are subject to the United States embargo or restricted trade sanctions: Burma (Myanmar), Cuba, Iran, North Korea, the Republic of South Sudan, the Republic of the Sudan, Syria, or any other country with which the United States may prohibit export transactions.

Veeam Licensing Policy

Definitions for all capitalized terms are found in Definitions section below.

13. Multiyear Subscription Billing Options

Multiyear Subscriptions with Upfront Billing contain all years in one SKU. Customer commits to pay for the entire length of the contract upfront. Multiyear Subscriptions with Annual Billing require all yearly options to be purchased together on initial order. Customer commits to pay annual amount by the yearly anniversary each year for the length of contract.

14. Gifted (Built-in) Product License

For all Perpetual Licenses with Sockets, Veeam Backup & Replication and Veeam ONE products will enable additional FREE Instance licenses to be available for use — one Instance per each Socket with maximum of 6 gifted Instances.

For Veeam ONE, these FREE instances can only be used on monitoring and reporting on all non-VM workloads from the connected Veeam Backup & Replication.

15. Combining Socket and Instance licenses in Veeam Backup & Replication

Customers who need to combine purchased Socket and Instance licenses into one License Key can do so on the Customer Portal (<https://my.veeam.com>). Read more about License Key merges.

Starting with version 10, Veeam Backup & Replication allows installing separate Socket and Instance License Keys at the same time without prior merging of keys at the customer portal. The following conditions will apply:

- Both Socket and Instance licenses are valid product licenses
- Company name matches between licenses
- Socket License Key will define the Support level, Support ID and Product Edition
- Only one Socket and one Instance License Key can be installed into the product at the same time
- Sockets will only protect VMware vSphere and Microsoft Hyper-V VMs

Instances, when in the presence of sockets, will protect NAS, Agents, Plug-Ins, AHV and Cloud VMs, and any workload excluding VMware and Hyper-V VMs.

Instance license expiration will, following the grace period, disable all product functionality until the expired license is removed from the product installation.

Socket license support expiration will not have any impact on the product's functionality, except for the limitation to install product updates shipped after the support expiration date.

Important note: To receive Production Support for combined license, the Socket license must be at the Production Support and Maintenance level.

16. Product Edition

When present, Product Edition of the license regulates the Software capabilities level. In case when both Perpetual per Socket and Subscription VUL licenses are installed, the Software will follow the Perpetual License edition.

17. Downgrades

1. Only Customers who are current on Support and Maintenance are eligible for a downgrade.
2. Veeam does not refund the difference in price for downgrades.
3. Offering Downgrades are only offered for Perpetual Licenses, may require a downgrade SKU, and a penalty or fee may be charged.
4. Product Edition Downgrades have no penalty or fee. Support and Maintenance expiration date(s) and licensing terms are not altered in the event of Product Edition Downgrade. Downgrades to Product Editions that Customer does not currently own are not available.
5. Support and Maintenance Downgrades are not available.

1.8. Upgrades

2. Upgrades may require a fee — even in cases where Customer is upgrading to what they were previously entitled to.
3. Product Edition Upgrades are only offered for Perpetual Licenses and may require an upgrade SKU.
4. Product Edition Upgrades to Enterprise Plus Product Edition are available. Product Edition Upgrades to Enterprise Product Edition are not available unless Customer currently owns Enterprise Product Edition. Support and Maintenance expiration date(s) and licensing terms are not altered in the event of Product Edition Upgrades.

6. Support and Maintenance Upgrades are available.

For more information, please contact Veeam Renewals at renewals@veeam.com or by submitting a format <https://www.veeam.com/renewal.html>.

1.9. License Purchase Terms

Except as expressly agreed otherwise, Veeam reserves the right to change Packaging as needed without advanced or written notification. Except as expressly agreed otherwise, renewals or extensions of Perpetual License Support and Maintenance or Subscription Licenses will be at Veeam's GSA Schedule list price in effect at the time of the applicable renewal.

1.10. Migrations

Customers with "Active" Support and Maintenance Agreement may migrate their Socket-based Veeam Backup & Replication, Veeam Availability Suite or Veeam Backup Essentials Perpetual License to a Veeam Universal License (VUL) Subscription for additional benefits. Migrations from Socket-based Perpetual License to Perpetual VUL are also available.

For more information, please contact Veeam Renewals by submitting a format <https://www.veeam.com/renewal.html>.

1.11. Veeam License Keys

Veeam issues License Key for each license purchased. The End User is authorized to use each License Key to activate and use the Software within the parameters of this Licensing Policy according to this License Policy terms.

Veeam License Key contains specific licensing terms and a signature record that proves the integrity of the License Key file for the product. Only those License Keys that are marked as "Active" in Veeam's records are considered legitimate and valid License Keys. Customer's Active License Keys are always visible on the Customer Portal.

In the event where a License Key is revoked and a written confirmation has been sent, Customer must stop usage of License Key.

Please refer to technical documentation for product license installation help. The Veeam License Key defines the maximum number of License Units for the Software to consume or process from all objects of the connected Source Infrastructure.

Customers can use copies of the Software and one License Key to manage same or multiple Source Infrastructures. In this scenario, Customers are required to implement centralized license management (for example, Veeam Enterprise Manager) to control total license consumption and compliance with the licensing terms.

Customers can use multiple License Keys with different license terms, but only for separate backup infrastructures (which are defined as not sharing servers or storage between each other and are protecting different Source infrastructures). Veeam centralized management is not available/allowed for such use cases. In these cases, Customers will be provided with separate license files for each separate backup infrastructure.

With certain conditions, Customers can combine License Keys with different license terms to manage multiple Source Infrastructures with the same backup infrastructure. Customers are advised to implement centralized license management (Veeam Enterprise Manager) to control total license consumption and compliance with the licensing terms.

1.11.1 License Start Date

The license expiration date and license support expiration date are calculated from the license start date which is the date when Veeam accepts the Purchase Order from distribution and delivers the License Key to the Customer portal at <https://my.veeam.com>.

When purchasing a renewal of Perpetual or Subscription Licenses, the updated License Keys become available at the Customer portal. If the License Key auto-update functionality is enabled, the updated License Key will be installed into the product automatically.

1.11.2 License Key Merge

Customers that are current on maintenance have an option to merge several Production License Keys into a single License Key to use in a product installation. Merge functionality for current versions is available at Customer Portal (<https://my.veeam.com>). For cases when merge is required for older versions of Veeam products, the Licensing support case needs to be opened.

When several License Keys are merged, the lowest Edition terms are selected for the resulting key (e.g. merging a 10 Socket Standard Edition license with the Veeam Universal License will result in a Standard Edition License Key). Similarly, the earliest license expiration date and support expiration date with respective Support ID will be provided.

License Key merge is only available for compatible licenses with up-to-date License Administrator information.

To revert the License Key merge operation, Customers may choose "Undo merge" to destroy the merged license and revert to original product License Keys.

Below are clarifications and exceptions to general merge rules:

License key merge exception	Merge rules
Veeam Backup Essentials	This product offering is not allowed for merging between License Types or with other products.
Veeam Backup Starter	This product offering is not allowed for merging between License Types or with other products. This product will no longer be offered on October 1, 2020. Support will be discontinued with v11 release.
Veeam Universal Licenses	Merge is allowed between Veeam Universal Licenses and other types of supported licenses.

The resulting License Key will contain combined License Units from Perpetual and Subscription Licenses.

Legacy Instance licenses will be re-calculated based one-to-one match (e.g. 10 Instances Standard Edition will match 10 Instances of Veeam Universal Licenses).

All other License Key parameters will follow License Key merge rules

License key merge exception*Merge rules*Merging License Keys with Sockets and Instances

Customers can combine Socket Perpetual and Instance Subscription License Keys to use with previous versions of the Veeam Backup & Replication. Below are merging directions for resulting key:

- License type: Subscription
- License expiration: the earliest expiration date of selected Instance Subscriptions License Keys
- Support expiration: the earliest support expiration date of all involved licenses
- Support ID: Socket Perpetual License Key with the earliest support expiration date.

Please note that:

- Sockets will be used to protect VMs on VMware and Hyper-V hosts
- Instances will cover Agents, Plug-Ins, AHV VMs, excluding VMware and Hyper-V VMs.

1.113. License Auto-update

Customers who enable the license auto-update feature will benefit from having automatic installation of Software updates and version upgrades, if their Subscription or Support and Maintenance Agreement is current. If separate environments are merged, please contact support to understand how this will affect the auto-update function.

1.114. Legacy Licenses

In case a Customer on maintenance needs a License Key for a legacy product version Veeam may provide such a License Key, with the condition that the License terms and License Units are available for that legacy product version. Please see if the "Previous version" action is available for the License Key on the Customer portal.

1.115. Promotional License Key

When Veeam gives a free production license or adds licenses/features at no cost for a limited time, the duration of the offer is defined by the promotion's specific terms and conditions or by the License Key parameters. Promotional licenses do not change any pre-existing licensing agreement for paid products.

1.116. License Transfer

To initiate the license transfer process to another License Administrator or to another Company, Customers are required to open a licensing case on the Customer portal \(https://my.veeam.com/\)

The licensing case must be opened by the current Veeam License Administrator or a representative of the Customer with a proof of purchase submitted via the case.

1.12. License Administrator

The End User is responsible for providing correct contact information about License Administrator and keep it up to date. The End User is required to submit any changes to License Administrator data to Veeam's Customer Support service via the Customer portal (<https://my.veeam.com/>).

1.13. Source Infrastructure

Customers can use copies of the Software under the same License Key and license terms to manage same or multiple Source Infrastructures. In this scenario, Customers are required to implement centralized license management (for example, Veeam Backup Enterprise Manager) to control total license consumption and compliance with the licensing terms.

Sharing of the Source Infrastructure between different Licenses and license terms is prohibited.

1.14. Licensed Objects

Licensed Objects are associated with License Units by the Software. Some Software allows revoking License Units from Licensed Objects and re-applying to other License Objects. For example, you can revoke the license from some hosts or virtual machines (VMs) and assign it to other hosts or VMs.

1.15. License Units

Older versions of Veeam products prior to Veeam Backup & Replication v10 include the following License Units: VM, Server, Workstation with 1 (one) License Unit consumed by each Protected Workload.

2. Support and Maintenance

2.1. Paid Offerings

Customers are entitled to the Service Level Agreements (SLAs) associated with the Offering as described in the support policy.

Please note that support may NOT be provided for Customers with expired license or Support and Maintenance agreement.

2.2. Free Software

FREE/Community/NFR Licenses DO NOT include Support and Maintenance.

2.3. Eligibility

Support and Maintenance is offered with both Subscription and Perpetual License Types. With "Active" Subscriptions, Customers are eligible for Support and Maintenance; however, with Perpetual Licenses, Customers must renew their annual Support and Maintenance agreement in order to stay eligible. Read more details on Support and Maintenance renewal costs.

Please open a licensing support ticket at the Customer portal for such a request.

2.4. Requirement for Software Re-activation

Customers are advised to keep a copy of the Software and License Key file provided to them from the purchase of Veeam products to re-activate the Software as needed. For Customers with an active maintenance contract, Veeam may provide a copy of the Software and the license file for supported versions in response to a Customer request. Customers with expired maintenance contracts may not be granted such a service.

25. Support

Veeam has three support programs which may or may not be available for all Offerings: Premier, Production, and Basic. Additionally, there is an Evaluation support program for 30 days following product downloads. Each program provides a guarantee for support via Web, E-mail and Phone, and the ability to open cases via Web or Phone. Support for Customers with the Community Edition/Free License/NFR licensed products is provided on a best-effort basis. For more information, please refer to the Veeam Customer Support Policy.

New product releases and maintenance updates are also available only to Customers with a current maintenance contract. Product updates may be refused by the Software where the License Key Support Expiration date has past.

Support level for Customers always defaults to their lowest contracted level. For example, if a Customer has 90% of their licenses contracted to Production Support and 10% of their licenses contracted to Basic Support, Veeam will only provide Basic Support.

26. Support and Maintenance Included in License Types

Perpetual License includes a Production or Basic Support and Maintenance agreement for the first year.

Subscription License includes a Production or Basic Support and Maintenance agreement for the full term of the license.

27. Basic Level Agreement Renewal

The annual renewal of Basic level Support and Maintenance is equal to the listed GSA Schedule Pricelist fee for Basic level Support and Maintenance for each product purchased under perpetual licensing.

28. Production Level Agreement Renewal

The annual renewal of Production level Support and Maintenance is equal to the listed GSA Schedule Pricelist fee for Production level Support and Maintenance for each product purchased under perpetual licensing.

29. Public, Educational or Internal Licensing Discounts

Veeam may provide discounts for public, educational and 'internal use' sectors on Subscription renewals. There are no sector discounts for Perpetual Support and Maintenance Agreement renewals. Contact Veeam Renewals Team for discounts available in your region.

2.10. Prepaid Support and Maintenance Availability

Prepaid discounted SKUs may be purchased within the first six months of the original new License purchase. After this period, standard annual renewal SKUs are required.

2.11. Maximum Prepaid Term

Maximum prepaid term for Support and Maintenance is five years for each License. The first year of support included with new Perpetual Licenses counts towards this maximum. Please note that SKUs may not be 'doubled' to increase length of time for support.

2.12. Maintenance Upgrades

Customers who upgrade Product Editions which have future years of support remaining on the product contract must also purchase annual and monthly edition maintenance upgrade SKUs to cover the price difference between previous and new product.

2.13. Expired Maintenance & Reinstatement Fee

Support renewals past due will be assessed a reinstatement fee equal to the fee for Support and Maintenance had Support and Maintenance remained continuous during the lapsed period. Fee is included in Expired Renewal SKUs, which are required for renewal of agreements expired at time of purchase. Expired Fee Waived SKUs can be used with Veeam approval only.

If support agreement is expired, please contact Veeam Renewals team to confirm needed SKUs.

2.14. Pricing Adjustments

Veeam strives to provide its customers with the best technology support for a broad alliance ecosystem, in a flexible, cost-effective manner. We reserve the right to evaluate our Packaging and Pricing, and adjust Pricing for subscription, subscription renewal and maintenance renewal of any Offering in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist. Please refer to License Purchase Terms section.

2.15. End of Support

When a product version reaches end of support stage, this version will no longer be supported by Veeam. No further updates, patches or hotfixes will be created for it (exceptions may be made on case-by-case basis). For more information, read <https://www.veeam.com/kb1530>.

2.16. Product Lifecycle

All Software goes through product lifecycles which can affect the licenses and support associated with that Software. To read more about Veeam product lifecycles, read https://www.veeam.com/releasestatus\_rn.pdf.

Severity definitions and response time SLA

Severity level guidelines

Severity levels provide an indication of the urgency of an issue, and help us provide a rapid and effective response. Categorizing severity levels incorrectly hinders the overall case-handling process, and can adversely affect you. When you report an issue, you and the Veeam Support Engineer should discuss and agree upon an appropriate severity level. You have the option to change the severity level of an issue as business conditions change around the impact.

Response goals are intended to provide a target for initial response to an issue or query. We will work a Severity 1 issue around the clock for Basic, Production and Premier Support if you have a technical resource available to work with us until:

- A resolution or workaround is in place and business impact has been mitigated.
- The severity is mutually downgraded.

Severity	Initial Production Response SLA
	Premier	Production	Basic	Evaluation	Free/NFR
Severity 1	30 minutes	1 hour	2 business hours	Best effort to provide 2 business hours	Best effort
Severity 2	30 minutes	3 hours	8 business hours	8 business hours	Best effort
Severity 3	30 minutes	6 hours	12 business hours	12 business hours	Best effort
Severity 4	30 minutes	8 hours	24 business hours	24 business hours	Best effort

Severity level descriptions

Severity 1

A business critical software component or a Veeam managed system is inoperable or unavailable; production system is down; or there is an emergency condition. Requires an immediate workaround or solution. Examples: Excessive abnormal terminations impacting all monitoring, backups and schedules or a down/ offline production system cannot be restored; application or system failure caused by Veeam product.

Severity 2

Adversely impacting Production operations, but the production system is not down; product operates, but is seriously restricted. Examples: Production application response times or system performance are slow, system is available. Some monitoring or backups are impacted.

Severity 3

A non-production issue; the majority of functions are still usable, a limited condition that can be readily circumvented. Example: non- Production application response times or system performance are slow, system is available. Some monitoring or backups are impacted.

Severity 4

Minor issue or question that does not affect the product function, and can be readily circumvented. For example: "How to" questions; the text of a message, or page of documentation is worded poorly or misspelled, General Feedback.

Contacting Customer Support

If at any point you have concerns or would like Management oversight regarding your Veeam Support Experience, you can escalate the issue directly to Support Management using the Talk to a Manager link from the Case Portal.

Case Management

Your organization will need to designate a few case administrators who are responsible for opening cases with Veeam, and receiving maintenance information. They should have the appropriate technical skills and system-level access to work with Veeam Support Engineers in resolving open issues. These support contacts will be your interface to Veeam Support, and should be notified of all issues that surface within your organization. They will escalate issues to Veeam Support as necessary. Be prepared to provide the following information:

- Your name, company name, and Support ID
- Case number (if applicable)
- Product name, release level, and any maintenance applied to the product

Submitting a support case

Only case administrators, partner administrators and license administrators are able to submit support cases. Please make sure to define valid case administrators for your Veeam® licenses. For further information on managing your case administrators, see the user guide here. For quicker support, please have your valid Support ID, if calling to open a support case.

Any information you can provide regarding the issue you are experiencing could have a significant impact on how fast the issue is diagnosed and resolved. You will be asked to provide the following information:

- Issue description, impact on your system and business operations, issue severity, and the exact text of error messages and diagnostic details.
- Steps to reproduce the problem, known workarounds
- Contact number where you can be reached
- Best time to reach you, and contact method (i.e. email/phone)

To file a case, you may use any method below. We encourage you to set the initial severity level for the problem when submitting a case, and highly recommend submitting Severity 1 issues by phone.

Via the web

Only the license administrator or designated case administrators can file a case using a web browser in the Customer Center: support.veeam.com. Please follow the new case wizard to open a case. Upon submitting the case, you will receive an electronic confirmation with a unique case number sent to your email address. You will also be able to see the case in the open cases management tab.

Via the phone

To open a case using the phone, you will need to have your Support ID. Call one of the phone numbers mentioned in Contacts below. After you log the case with the Veeam Support Engineer, your case will be assigned a unique number given to you over the phone.

If the issue you have reported requires collecting and analyzing diagnostic information, the Veeam Support Engineer may request such information from you or collect it during a brief remote session. While the Veeam Support Engineer will attempt to gather as much detail as possible, they will not investigate the log files online. To make log analysis efficient, we use log parsing tools and other resources available only internally. Once the Veeam Support Engineer receives the required diagnostic information, they will investigate it offline and get back to you.

Premier Support Customers

Contact your SAM who will assign a ticket to the most appropriate Senior Support Engineer. We start issue analysis within 30 minutes after a call/ticket is logged. Your dedicated Support Account Manager is available to you during your local business hours and will act as the direct point of contact for the coordination of issue management and problem resolution.

United States Federal Government support

As a US Federal Government agency, Veeam Support will assist you to determine the problem and solution utilizing the methods described above. US based Federal Support is available Monday through Friday 8 a.m.–9 p.m. EST, Saturday 12 p.m.–12 a.m. EST, and Sunday 12 p.m.–8 p.m. EST (weekend support for Production SLA or Severity 1 cases only). To contact Veeam Support at any time, call our US Federal Government phone number listed in the phone number section below. Further information pertaining to our solutions for US Federal Government can be found at www.veeam.com/federal.html.

Customer Support issue resolution

A Veeam Support Engineer will contact you by phone and/or email or a combination of both as appropriate during the resolution process. Severity levels may be adjusted with customer consent and mutual agreement on the degree of the impact based on the Severity definitions.

Veeam Support provides trained resources to research and resolve issues on a timely basis. While an issue is open, the support team will keep you informed of the resolution status, and will notify you when a reported issue has been resolved. If at any point during the resolution process, you become dissatisfied with the handling of your issue, simply contact the case owner and request an escalation to the manager. This allows us to understand your concerns and make adjustments in resources if necessary.

We will make three attempts, on separate business days, to contact you for updates or information on an open case. If we are unable to make contact with you, we may close the case without your consent. If the issue continues to exist, you may open a new case and reference the old one.

Resolution of a support case can include any of the following actions:

- Software that provides a fix for the problem (case closed)
- Permanent business or system workaround (case closed)
- Temporary business or system workaround (case severity level is reduced)
- Action plan for the development of a fix or workaround: Milestones and dependencies are set, communicated, and tracked (case severity level might be changed)
- Issue is a customer-specific customization or enhancement, and is not covered under maintenance (customer notification, case closed)
- Customer may be required to upgrade if fix is included in the current GA release

Beyond the scope of Veeam Support's responsibility

- It is beyond the scope of Veeam Support's responsibility to provide installation, configuration, and upgrades of our products. Walkthroughs of installations and upgrades are not supported.
- Veeam Support does not write scripts on demand. Custom script troubleshooting is not supported.

Third-party software support

We will assist you in problem analysis to determine whether the issue is caused by third-party software or hardware. In order to isolate the problem, and if we believe we have reason, we may ask you to remove third-party software or hardware product.

If it is impossible to identify the cause of the problem we may contact the third-party vendor using TSANet or ask you to open support case with the third-party vendor support organization.

Feature requests

Veeam always welcomes feature requests, as we highly value feedback from our community on how to continue to make our products even better. If you have a suggestion for our software's functionality or feature set, please visit our Veeam Community Forums and create a topic describing your request or create a case with our Support Team and describe the desired behavior and a use case, and the Veeam Support Engineer will submit a Feature Request on your behalf.

Customer satisfaction surveys

We periodically survey customers to obtain additional feedback on recent experiences with Veeam Customer Support, and the survey results are reviewed by management. When a support case is closed, an email may be sent to the customer contact associated with the case.

Product lifecycle

Level of support services provided depends on the lifecycle phase determined for specific version of the product. Current versions of the products are eligible for full support that includes support services and updates/fixes, while support for older versions may be limited. A list of known workarounds or existing fixes and assistance with upgrading to a supported version is available for customers using old or discontinued versions.

The list is updated each time there is a release. For the current list of products and their status please see the product release matrix located at www.veeam.com/support/releasestatus.pdf

Previous versions support

- New Releases — All new products issued for General Availability (GA).
- Current Releases — To maximize the quality of our service, Veeam limits technical support to the products listed on the release matrix.
- Releases designated as End of Fixes — Support is available, existing program fixes are available, but no new fixes will be created and no enhancements will be made.
- Releases designated as End of Support or Withdrawal from the Market — No support is available.
- For unsupported releases, new product enhancements and fixes will not be available. Veeam does not have an obligation to provide support for software that has been publicly designated End of Support, Withdrawn from the Market, or similarly designated.

Product maintenance

Our goal is to go beyond quickly solving problems, and actually prevent similar problems from occurring in future in the first place.

As a result, stringent quality control procedures are built into the development and release cycle of new products and releases. A typical product goes through multiple test phases – Quality Assurance, Alpha Test, Beta Test, and Controlled Release before it is made generally available.

Issues sometimes occur with complex software operating in equally complex and demanding environments. Fixes and resolutions are often rolled into the next product release, and others are included as part of the next maintenance release, and most urgent are addressed with a hotfix that can be applied on specific product version. Please note that access to hotfixes, patches and updates requires active maintenance contract. Users of Community, Free and NFR licensed products receive fixes by downloading periodic generally available product releases. When applicable, we announce the availability of new releases on the web and through email.

VERIATO*4440 PGA BOULEVARD SUITE 500
PALM BEACH GARDENS FL 33410*EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Veriato ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.
2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.
  - b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.
  - c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.
  - d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.
  - e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.
  - f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.
  - g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.
  - h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.
  - i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
  - j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
  - k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the _____ Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.
- u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.
- v) Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.
1. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.
2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.21, as may be revised from time to time.
  - b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.
  - d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.
  - e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

  - h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

- k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.
- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. - m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally compatible agreements, if any.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.
- u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.
3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached X1 Discovery, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.
2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.
  - b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.
  - c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.
  - d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.
  - e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.
  - f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.
  - g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.
  - h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.
  - i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
  - j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
  - k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.
- u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.
- v) Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Xirrus ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.
2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ)), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - w) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.
  - x) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.
  - y) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.
  - z) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.
  - aa) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.
  - bb) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.
  - cc) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.
  - dd) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.
  - ee) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
  - ff) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
  - gg) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

- hh) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- ii) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- jj) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- kk) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- ll) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.
- mm) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.
- nn) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- oo) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- pp) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.
- qq) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.
- rr) Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

55 E. MONROE, SUITE 3600
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60603

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached RECSOLU, Inc., DBA Yello (“Manufacturer”) product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America (“Contractor”) to provide Manufacturer’s information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America’s GSA MAS contract number GS-35F-0511T (the “Schedule Contract”). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the “Manufacturer Specific Terms” or the “Attachment A Terms”) are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer (“Licensee”) is the “Ordering Activity”, defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

  - b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

  - c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

  - d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

  - e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

  - f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

  - g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

- h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.
- i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

- j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.
- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

5) CONFIDENTIALITY

- a) Each Receiving Party agrees to keep confidential the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 5. The Receiving Party will safeguard the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party using the same degree of care as it uses to safeguard its own Confidential Information, but in no case less than a reasonable degree of care. The Receiving Party will limit (i) access to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information to those of its personnel and agents with a need to know such Confidential Information for the performance of obligations under this Agreement and (ii) use of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information to the exclusive purposes set forth in this Agreement. Unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties in writing, the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party is and will remain the sole and exclusive property of the Disclosing Party, and the Receiving Party will have no right in or to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information.
- b) Confidential Information will not include information to the extent that the Receiving Party can show that (i) such information is or became publicly available other than through any act or omission of the Receiving Party in breach of this Agreement; (ii) such information was received by the Receiving Party from a third party, which third party, to the Receiving Party's knowledge, had no obligation of confidentiality to the Disclosing Party; (iii) such information was in the possession of the Receiving Party at the time of the disclosure; or (iv) such information was independently developed by the Receiving Party without reference to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information.

- c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event a subpoena or other legal process is served upon the Receiving Party that, pursuant to the requirement of a governmental agency or law with jurisdiction over the Receiving Party, compels disclosure of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information, the Receiving Party may disclose such portion of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information required to be disclosed, provided that the Receiving Party notifies the Disclosing Party promptly of such request (unless such notice is prohibited by law, rule or regulation), and cooperates with the Disclosing Party, at the Disclosing Party's expense, in the Disclosing Party's efforts to contest the legal validity or scope of such subpoena or other legal process.
- d) Each Party acknowledges that it would be difficult to fully compensate for damages that may result from the breach or threatened breach of the provisions of this Section 5 and, accordingly, the other Party shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief, including temporary restraining orders, preliminary injunctions and permanent injunctions, to enforce such provisions. This provision with respect to injunctive relief will not, however, diminish a Party's right to seek other legal, contractual or equitable remedies, or to claim and recover damages in the event of a breach of this Section 5.

- e) Except when disclosure is permitted pursuant to this Section 5 or as may otherwise be required pursuant to the requirement of a governmental agency or law with jurisdiction over the Receiving Party, neither Party will disclose the economic terms of this Agreement to any third party without prior written approval from the other Party, provided that Yello may note in its marketing materials that Customer is a client (but may disclose no other terms or conditions of the relationship) during the term of this Agreement to the extent permitted by the General Services Acquisition Regulation (GSAR) 552.203-71.
- f) In the event Yello becomes aware of any security breach that compromises Customer's Confidential Information, Yello will promptly notify Customer, investigate, and use its commercially reasonable efforts to remedy said breach.

6) INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- b) Except for (i) the limited rights to access the System pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth herein or any Order and (ii) Customer's rights in the Customer Data, Customer agrees that, as between Customer and Yello, Yello owns all, and Customer is not granted any rights in, to, or with respect to (A) the System and all IP Rights therein or (B) any other IP Rights of Yello, and all such rights therein are reserved for Yello. Customer agrees to use the System and the Cloud Services solely for the legitimate business purposes for which they are intended and to not operate the System or the Cloud Services for the benefit of any other person or entity. Customer further agrees not to modify, adapt, translate, disassemble or reverse engineer any aspect or portion of the System.

7) INDEMNIFICATION

- a) Yello shall indemnify and hold Customer harmless from any and all losses, damages, costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees), settlements and liabilities (collectively, "Losses") resulting from third party claims, suits, actions or proceedings arising from or relating to (i) the infringement, misappropriation or other violation by Yello of any United States IP Rights of any third party and (ii) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Yello or its personnel or agents; provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, Yello shall not be liable for any Losses relating to any alleged infringement, misappropriation or other violation of any IP Rights of any third party to the extent based upon Customer's use of the Cloud Services or System: (i) in combination with other products or services if such Losses would have been avoided but for such combination; or (ii) in violation of this Agreement.
- b) Customer shall indemnify and hold Yello harmless for any and all Losses resulting from third party claims, suits, actions or proceedings arising from or relating to (i) the use by Customer or the Authorized Users of the Cloud Services or the System other than in accordance with this Agreement and any Order (including using the Cloud Services or System for illegal purposes) or (ii) the gross negligence, willful misconduct, or a violation of law of Customer or its personnel or agents in connection with this Agreement or the Cloud Services.

- c) Upon becoming aware of events giving rise to an indemnification claim under Section 7(a) or 7(b) above, the Indemnified Party shall provide prompt written notice of such claim, including a reasonable description of the basis thereof, to the Indemnifying Party and allow the Indemnifying Party to control the defense of such third party claim at the Indemnifying Party's expense. The Indemnifying Party shall not settle any claim without the Indemnified Party's written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) if such settlement would result in injunctive relief against, a monetary contribution from, or admission of wrongdoing by, the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnifying Party elects to control the defense of such third-party claim, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to participate in such defense at its own expense. The Indemnified Party shall provide reasonable non-monetary assistance to the Indemnifying Party in connection with the defense and/or settlement of any third-party claim.

- d) If a third party claim alleging infringement of any IP Rights with respect to the Cloud Services or System is successful against Yello or Customer, Yello may, at its option and expense, either (i) procure from such third party the right for Customer to continue using the System and receiving the Cloud Services or (ii) modify the System and Cloud Services to make them non-infringing, but functionally substantially equivalent. If Yello determines that neither of these alternatives is reasonably available, either Party may terminate this Agreement and Customer will receive a refund of any prepaid but unused fees. THIS SECTION STATES YELLO'S ENTIRE OBLIGATION TO CUSTOMER WITH RESPECT TO ANY CLAIM OF INFRINGEMENT OF ANY THIRD-PARTY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS.

8) LIMITATIONS ON LIABILITY

- a) THE AGGREGATE LIABILITY OF YELLO FOR ALL CLAIMS OR LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING PRODUCT LIABILITY), STRICT LIABILITY, INFRINGEMENT OR OTHERWISE, ARISING OUT OF, CONNECTED WITH, OR RESULTING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY FROM THIS AGREEMENT, ANY ORDER OR THE SERVICES OR SYSTEM SHALL NOT EXCEED AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE FEES PAID BY CUSTOMER TO YELLO UNDER THE APPLICABLE ORDER(S). THE FOREGOING LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.
- b) NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION IN THIS AGREEMENT TO THE CONTRARY, EXCEPT IN THE EVENT OF WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, DAMAGES FOR LOST PROFITS OR REVENUE, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, ANY ORDER OR THE SERVICES OR SYSTEM, EVEN IF THE PARTIES HAD KNOWLEDGE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES OR COSTS AND WHETHER OR NOT SUCH DAMAGES ARE FORESEEABLE.

9) INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS

- a) During the Term of this Agreement, Yello shall maintain commercially reasonable levels of insurance coverage to secure the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, comprehensive general liability, automobile/umbrella liability, and worker's compensation.
- b) Upon written request, Yello will provide Customer with written evidence of the coverage described in Section 9(a).

10) INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR RELATIONSHIP

- a) In connection with this Agreement, the Parties acknowledge that they are independent contractors. Neither this Agreement nor any Order shall create a relationship of employment, agency, or partnership between the Parties, nor shall they give either Party any authority to bind or commit the other Party.
- b) Neither Yello nor any of its personnel or agents shall be entitled to any benefits provided by Customer to its employees. Yello shall be solely responsible for payment of all employment related and compensation related charges to its personnel and agents in connection with the performance of the Services.
- c) This Agreement shall not be deemed to be an exclusive contract. Subject to the Parties' obligations in Section 5, Customer may utilize any other vendor to provide similar services, and Yello may provide similar services to any other customer.

11) TERMINATION

- a) This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date of the respective Order, and shall continue in full force and effect until terminated pursuant to the provisions of this Section 11.
- b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time upon the mutual written agreement of the Parties.
- c) Either Party may terminate this Agreement or any Order if the other Party materially breaches any provision of this Agreement or any Order, as applicable, and such breach is not cured within thirty (30) days following written notice, where such written notice provides a reasonable description of such breach.

- d) Yello may immediately terminate this Agreement or any Order if Customer materially breaches either Section 5 (Confidentiality) or Section 6 (Intellectual Property) of this Agreement.
- e) Sections 1, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 12, and this Section 11(e), and any other provisions of this Agreement which expressly provide that they survive shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement. Other than with respect to the provisions of this Agreement which survive expiration or termination, neither Party will be liable to the other Party for damages in connection with this Agreement following expiration or termination of this Agreement or any Order except for those arising due to a material breach by a Party of this Agreement or any Order prior to such expiration or termination. Both Parties waive any right it may have to receive compensation or reparation under the law of any jurisdiction in the event of such an expiration or termination other than as a result of a material breach of this Agreement or any Order arising prior to such expiration or termination.

PALO ALTO, CA 94301

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Yubico Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.
2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.21, as may be revised from time to time.
  - b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.
  - c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.
  - d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.
  - e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.
  - f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.
  - g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

- h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.
- i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.
- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential

Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

- u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.
  - v) Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.
3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Grant of License. The Product may contain certain object code software deployed onto its secure hardware prior to delivery to the user ("Firmware") and/or provided separately for use with the Product ("Driver Code") ("collectively, "Software"). ALL OTHER STATUTORY AND IMPLIED CONDITIONS, REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF NON-INFRINGEMENT, ARE DISCLAIMED. The Limited Warranty gives Ordering Activity specific legal rights, and Ordering Activity may also have other rights which vary by jurisdiction.

TO THE EXTENT NOT PROHIBITED BY LAW, IN NO EVENT WILL YUBICO OR ITS AFFILIATES BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOST DATA OR UNAUTHORIZED ACCESS TO COMPUTER SYSTEMS, DATA OR OTHER INFORMATION.

YUBICO, ITS AFFILIATES, LICENSORS, EMPLOYEES, DISTRIBUTORS AND RESELLERS DO NOT ASSUME ANY RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DAMAGES RESULTING FROM THE USE OF THE PRODUCT, THE SERVICE OR ANY INFORMATION CONTAINED IN ANY DOCUMENTATION PROVIDED TO USER.

ZEROFOX, INC.
1834 S CHARLES STREET
BALTIMORE, MD 21224

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached ZeroFox, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.
2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.
  - b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.
  - c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.
  - d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.
  - e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.
  - f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.
  - g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.
  - h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.
  - i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
  - j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

- k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.
- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.
- u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.
- v) Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Ordering Activity acknowledges and agrees that compliance with the restrictions set forth in this Article 3 is an essential basis of this Agreement.

Ordering Activity further understands that the Application Services may include features that enable Ordering Activity to specify Third Party Content to be retrieved via the Application Services automated functionality from a variety of third-party websites and other third-party resources, including Social Media Sites. Information provided as part of any Licensed Materials may be updated on an ongoing basis and provided according to the criteria used to define the scope of the subscribed Services. Licensee understands and acknowledges that the contents of Licensed Materials will change over time as the data is updated, and that at any given time it has a right to access and use the data to which it is subscribed as it exists at that time. Features and functions of the ZoomInfo Technology are provided "as is". ZoomInfo shall have no liability to Licensee for any modification to any Service, provided that the product or service provided substantially conforms to the description in the Ordering Document.
- 1.3 Ownership. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that, as between Licensee and ZoomInfo, the Licensed Materials, the ZoomInfo Technology, and any related documentation (including, without limitation, the content, layout, functions, design, appearance, trademarks, service marks, copyrights, patents, and other intellectual property comprising the Licensed Materials or ZoomInfo Technology) are the property of ZoomInfo, whether or not they are trademarked, copyrighted, or patented. ## ZOOMINFO PRIVACY POLICY

Updated: August 22, 2021

ZoomInfo understands that you care about how information about you is used. This Privacy Policy (the “Policy”) explains how we collect information pertaining to businesses and business people (“Business Information”) and all other types of information, including personal information, through our online services (the “Services”), website, and mobile applications (collectively with the Services, the “Site”); how we maintain, use, and share that information; and how you can manage the way information about you is handled.

“ZoomInfo” for purposes of this Privacy Policy includes DiscoverOrg Data, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, and its affiliates, including Zoom Information, Inc.

For individuals residing in the EEA, the UK, or Switzerland, please click here to find out more information.

For residents of the State of California, please click here to find out more about your rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (“CCPA”).

I. How we Collect Information

A. Where does ZoomInfo get the Business Information for its Business Profiles?

ZoomInfo creates profiles of business people and companies, which we call “Business Profiles,” from different sources. Once we have collected Business Information about a person or company, we combine multiple mentions of the same person or company into a Business Profile. The resulting directory of Business Profiles (the “Directory”) is then made available to the users of the Site and our customers and strategic partners. Business Information that may be provided in a Business Profile includes name, email address, job title and department, phone number, company name, postal address of company and business-related postal address of the person, employment history, and education history. Business Profiles may also include links to articles by, about, or quoting an individual and links to an individual’s social media profiles.

ZoomInfo obtains the data for its Business Profiles in several ways, including:

1. Our search technology scans the web and gathers publicly-available information.
2. We license information from other companies.
3. Users contribute Business Information about themselves or other people and companies. (See “ZoomInfo Community Edition,” below)
4. Through market research surveys and phone interviews conducted by our in-house research team.

ZoomInfo also makes certain limited Business Information from its Business Profiles publicly available in our directory pages on our Site (the “Public Directory”). The categories of Business Information that may be made available in the Public Directory include past or current name, company, company headquarters telephone number, office address, job title, and/or education information.

B. How does the ZoomInfo Community Edition and the ZoomInfo Contact Contributor Work?

ZoomInfo offers a service called ZoomInfo Community Edition (“Community Edition”). To subscribe to Community Edition, you are required to install software offered on the Site, known as the ZoomInfo Contact Contributor (the “Software”) or otherwise provide ZoomInfo with access to your email account. When you subscribe to Community Edition, you allow ZoomInfo to access certain Business Information stored by the application that your computer uses to manage your email and contacts, known as an “email client” (e.g., Microsoft Outlook) or stored by a provider of cloud services for email (e.g., Google Apps). If required to access this Business Information stored on your computer’s email and contact application(s), you may need to provide ZoomInfo with the necessary username and password information. We use this Business Information to improve the size and quality of our Directory. In exchange for allowing this access, you receive a subscription to Community Edition at no charge under specified terms and conditions (available at /about-zoominfo/ce-terms-conditions).

From the contacts within your email client and “signatures” within email messages, we collect the following Business Information, if available, for each person:

- Name
- Email address
- Job title and department
- Business phone numbers (general, direct, and fax)
- Company name
- Postal address of company
- Business related postal address of person
- Corporate website URLs
- Social Networking URLs

From the headers of your emails, we collect the following Business Information, if available:

- Metadata such as Internet Protocol addresses and the dates email messages are sent or received
- Email addresses, names, and job titles of recipients and senders

To ensure the integrity of the Directory, we take the following steps:

- Business Information Only – ZoomInfo only wants business-related information. Therefore, any contacts that have an address from a consumer-oriented service such as Gmail, Hotmail, or Yahoo are disregarded.
- Unattributed – We do not disclose who contributed particular information using the ZoomInfo Contact Contributor software or other contribution methods. (The only exceptions: See “Disclosures to Service Providers,” “Disclosures for Legal Reasons,” and “Disclosures to a Buyer of the Company,” below.)
- Opt Out – Anyone added to the Directory may request to be removed at any time, via email, web, or a toll-free number. We promptly honor such requests.

ZoomInfo does not “read” the body of your email messages; our technology automatically extracts only the data we describe in this Policy. We do not collect data from custom fields or notes in your email client.

Information from your email client will continue to be shared as described above as long as the Software remains installed. If you choose to stop sharing information from your email client with ZoomInfo, you can uninstall the Software at any time following the instructions at /cefaq. You may not, however, retroactively “unshare” the Business Information you have already made available to ZoomInfo.

C. Customer Information

Customer Information Collected. ZoomInfo may collect the following information from or regarding its customers: (1) personal contact information regarding users of the Services (“User Information”); (2) information uploaded to our system by a user of the Services (“Uploaded Information”); and (3) usage logs regarding the use of the Site and Services, including logins and other actions taken, time stamps, IP address, and other usage data (“Usage Logs”) (collectively, “Customer Information”).

You may be a user that has been provided access to the Site through your company license agreement. Your employer may require that one or more users have global rights to access any and all information of every user that has access through the company. If you have questions or concerns regarding the rights of other individuals in your company to access your User Information, Uploaded Information, or Usage Logs, you should raise those concerns with the appropriate person at your company.

Use of Customer Information. Customer Information may be used for ZoomInfo’s legitimate business interests in connection with your use of the Site, including to respond to user inquiries and fulfill user requests, complete transactions, provide customer service, send administrative information, and to personalize user experience with the Site. We may use Customer Information to better understand our users in general and to improve the content and functionality of the Site. We may use Customer Information to contact you in the future to tell you about services, promotions, opportunities, and other general information about ZoomInfo we believe will be of interest to you. We may use Customer Information to investigate and prosecute potential breaches of ZoomInfo’s security or license agreements.

ZoomInfo will not disclose Customer Information to any third party except in connection with a legitimate use as set forth herein, in connection with a bona fide legal dispute to which such information is relevant, in response to valid, compulsory legal process, or as otherwise required by law. ZoomInfo will, whenever possible, obtain confidentiality agreements from any person or entity to whom Customer Information is disclosed and ensure any recipients are committed to employing appropriate technological security measures.

ZoomInfo employs reasonable security and back-up procedures to protect Customer

Information. However, in the unlikely event there is a loss or corruption of Customer Information, ZoomInfo is not responsible or liable for such loss or corruption. We encourage our users to retain copies of all Uploaded Information on their own system. D. How else does ZoomInfo Collect

If you use our mobile app calendar integration, certain information will be collected from your calendar meetings, including meeting participants, meeting description, subject, and date and time of the meeting.

This information is collected to provide you with certain app features, such as meeting briefs with meeting and contact details within the app.

When you use ZoomInfo Integrations. As part of the Services, ZoomInfo may make available to its customers certain “Integrations.” In using ZoomInfo’s Integrations, such as ZoomInfo’s SFNA and web browser extensions, Business Information from customer’s CRM, MAT, or sales enablement software may be transmitted to ZoomInfo for purposes of matching or cleansing the customer’s data against ZoomInfo’s database as a feature of the Services. In that event, ZoomInfo may retain and store such Business Information for purposes of identifying potential contacts to supplement the Services, verifying the accuracy of such Business Information, removing out-of-date Business Information from the Services, or otherwise improving ZoomInfo’s research processes and the content provided through the Services. Information so received will not be attributable to the source. In the event that any customer wishes to opt out of ZoomInfo’s use of such information, they may do so by visiting the ‘Privacy Center’ within the ZoomInfo Salesforce Native Application and adjusting the appropriate controls.

When you connect the Services to your email or calendar. In order to provide certain Services, ZoomInfo may require access to your email account and/or calendar (e.g., through G-Suite or Office 365). Depending on the specific Services being used, we may collect email header information, email subjects, email bodies and attachments, and calendar meeting information such as meeting participants, meeting description, subject, and date and time of the meeting. Customers have control over what data is collected, including which mailboxes are connected, whether message attachments or content is collected, and which emails or email domains should not be collected. ZoomInfo’s access to and use of information received from Google Accounts will adhere to the Google API Services User Data Policy, including the Limited Use requirements.

Creation of information from inferences. We may use the information we already have about you in order to draw inferences about you or to produce scores or ratings such as the Likely to Listen score. We use scoring models and algorithms that evaluate selected data points to produce a score predicting the likeliness of a candidate to respond to a recruiter’s outreach efforts. We do not make any decisions about individuals, and we do not tell our customers whether to reach out to a particular candidate or not.

Automated information collection. We also collect information using cookies, as described below under the “Cookies and Similar Technologies” section.

V. Your Choices

A. How Can You Change or Delete Your Professional Information?

To find out if you are in the ZoomInfo database, search for your first name and last name on the ZoomInfo home page. If you have a common name, you can limit your search based on geographical location or companies where you have worked.

Once you have located one or more ZoomInfo profiles in your name, consider these options for managing your professional profile on ZoomInfo:

Update Your Own Professional ZoomInfo Profile. Make sure your ZoomInfo profile is up to date for recruiters and others who may want to reach you. Simply verify your ZoomInfo profile and you can update your work history, education history, and contact information. You can also consolidate multiple ZoomInfo profiles in your name to create a comprehensive snapshot of your professional background. Please Click here to view, verify, and update your ZoomInfo Directory profile.

Remove Your ZoomInfo Profile Completely. If you wish to completely remove your existing individual profile from the Directory, please visit Remove Your Zoominfo Professional Profile or email remove@zoominfo.com. If you make this choice, your name, employment history, education history, web references, and contact information (including email address) will be removed from our search results as soon as possible.

B. How Can You Change or Delete Your Company Information?

To find out if your company is in the ZoomInfo database, search for your organization on the ZoomInfo home page. Once you have located the ZoomInfo profile, consider these options for managing your company profile on ZoomInfo:

Update Your Company Profile on ZoomInfo. Simply verify your ZoomInfo company profile to update your company description, industry, company location, and more. You can also consolidate multiple ZoomInfo profiles to create a comprehensive snapshot of your company. Please click here to view, verify, and update your ZoomInfo company profile.

Remove Your Company ZoomInfo Profile Completely. ZoomInfo is a specialized web search engine, similar to Google but focused on finding information about companies and professionals. We gather all information about companies from corporate web sites, press releases, and/or SEC documents filed with the US government. The company summaries are created automatically by ZoomInfo’s software based on the information we find on those documents.

As a company policy, ZoomInfo does not remove company information from our search engine. If any of the company information is incorrect, please update your company profile. C. How Can You Opt-Out of Certain Uses of Your Information?

ZoomInfo gives you the opportunity to “opt out” of having your information used for certain purposes.

If you no longer wish to receive our newsletter and promotional communications, you may optout of receiving them by following the instructions included in each newsletter or communication or by visiting /unsubscribe. After we receive your request, we will send you an email message to confirm that you have been unsubscribed.

ZoomInfo will not share information about you that you submit when you register for our Services with third parties for promotional uses unless you opt in to such sharing within your ZoomInfo account or ZoomInfo has separately acquired such information from other sources, in which case ZoomInfo will give you the opportunity to opt out via email.

If you have registered for a ZoomInfo account and opted in to share your information with ZoomInfo subscribers, you may opt out by signing in to your ZoomInfo account and changing your preferences by clicking “Edit” next to your contact information on the Profile page.

If you have subscribed to Community Edition and opted in to share your business contacts with ZoomInfo in exchange for free access to our premium services, you may opt out of any further sharing of business contacts by uninstalling the Software, as described on /cefaq. If you uninstall the Software, your subscription to Community Edition will immediately expire and ZoomInfo will no longer collect Business Information from you through this method (however, you will not be able to ‘unshare’ the Business Information you have previously provided to ZoomInfo).

You may also communicate your opt-out request to ZoomInfo by telephone or postal mail by using the contact information at the bottom of this Policy.

VI. How Do We Keep Your Information Secure?

The security of your information is important to us. When you enter sensitive information (such as a credit card number) on our registration forms, we encrypt that information using secure socket layer technology (SSL).

We follow generally accepted industry standards to protect the information submitted to us, both during transmission and once we receive it. However, no method of Internet transmission or electronic storage is 100% secure. Therefore, while we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

VII. Data Retention

We will retain your information for a period of time consistent with the original purpose(s) for which we collected it, as described in this Privacy Policy. We will retain your information (i) for as long as we have an ongoing relationship with you and as needed to provide you Services; (ii) as necessary to comply with our legal obligation(s); (iii) as necessary to resolve disputes or to protect ourselves from potential future disputes; or (iv) as necessary to enforce our agreements. Retention periods will be determined taking into account the amount, nature, and sensitivity of your information and the purpose(s) for which it was collected. After the retention period ends, we will delete your information. Where we are unable to do so, we will ensure that appropriate measures are put in place to prevent any further use of your information.

X. Information for Users in Europe and Elsewhere Outside the U.S.

If you use our Site outside of the United States, you understand that we may collect, process, and store your personal information in the United States and other countries in which we or our affiliates or subcontractors maintain facilities. The laws in the U.S. regarding personal information may be different from the laws of your state or country.

A. Users in the European Union (EEA), the UK, and Switzerland

If you are a resident of the EEA, the UK, or Switzerland, the following information applies.

Purposes of processing and legal basis for processing: As explained above, we process personal information in various ways depending upon your use of our Sites. We process personal information on the following legal bases:

1. with your consent;
2. as necessary to perform our agreement to provide Services;
3. as necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject; and
4. as necessary for our legitimate interests in providing the Sites where those interests do not override your fundamental rights and freedom related to data privacy.

ZoomInfo’s collection of Business Information, and the creation and licensing of ZoomInfo’s Business Profiles and Directory, are within ZoomInfo’s legitimate interests to organize and make available business contact information given the limited impact of this data on an individual’s private life and that this information, unlike personal contact details, is widely disclosed. ZoomInfo has put in place safeguards to protect personal privacy and individual choice, including disclosures of its data processing activities, the use of consent or opt-outs wherever possible, and the implementation of a privacy center: /about-zoominfo/privacycenter.

Right to lodge a complaint: Users that reside in the EEA, the UK, or Switzerland have the right to lodge a complaint about our data collection and processing actions with the supervisory authority concerned. Contact details for data protection authorities are available here.

Transfers: Personal information we collect may be transferred to, and stored and processed in, the United States or any other country in which we or our affiliates or subcontractors maintain facilities. Per the applicable requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”), we will ensure that transfers of personal information to a third country or an international organization are subject to appropriate safeguards as described in Article 46 of the GDPR, such as the EU Standard Contractual Clauses. Please see “Privacy Shield Frameworks” below regarding our compliance with the EU- and Swiss-US Privacy Shields.

Individual Rights: If you are a resident of the EEA, the UK, or Switzerland, you are entitled to the following rights under the GDPR. Please note: In order to verify your identity, we may require you to provide us with personal information prior to accessing any records containing information about you.

- The right to access, correction, and restriction of processing. You have the right to request access to, and a copy of, your personal information at no charge, as well as certain information about our processing activities with respect to your data. You have the right to request correction or completion of your personal information if it is inaccurate or incomplete. You have the right to restrict our processing if you contest the accuracy of the data we hold about you, for as long as it takes to verify its accuracy.
- The right to data portability. You have the right to ask for a copy of your data in a machine-readable format. You can also request that we transmit your data to another entity where technically feasible.
- The right to request data erasure. You have the right to have your data erased from our Site if the data is no longer necessary for the purpose for which it was collected, you withdraw consent and no other legal basis for processing exists, or your fundamental rights to data privacy and protection outweigh our legitimate interest in continuing the processing.
- The right to object to our processing. You have the right to object to our processing if we are processing your data based on legitimate interests or the performance of a task in the public interest as an exercise of official authority (including profiling); using your data for direct marketing (including profiling); or processing your data for purposes of scientific or historical research and statistics.

When ZoomInfo is a Controller. ZoomInfo acts as a data controller when we collect and use information about data subjects who are visitors to our Site, as well as when we collect and use information about data subjects for purposes of creating and maintaining our Business Profiles and providing the Services. ZoomInfo’s Data Protection Officer can be contacted by email at privacy@zoominfo.com.

When ZoomInfo is a Processor. When our customers use our Services, they are acting as the data controller and are responsible for ensuring that personal information collected about data subjects is being processed lawfully. In those circumstances, we are acting as the data processor, and receive personal information as agents of our customers merely for processing as instructed by our customers. Our customers are solely responsible for determining whether and how they wish to use our Services, and for ensuring that all third-party individuals that are a visitor to or user of a website, application, or service on which a customer uses our Services have been provided with adequate notice regarding the processing of their personal information, have given informed consent where such consent is necessary or advised, and that all legal requirements applicable to the collection, use, or other processing of personal information through our Services have been met by such customers. Our customers are also responsible for handling data subject rights requests under applicable law, by their users and other individuals whose data they process through the Services. ZoomInfo’s obligations with respect to personal information for which we are solely a data processor are defined in our agreements with our customers and are not covered by this Policy.

B. The General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”) 2016/679

ZoomInfo endeavors to comply with the provisions of the GDPR as to any information in its possession regarding European Union-based persons (“data subjects”). As such, ZoomInfo only processes personal information on data subjects where it has a lawful basis to do so, which may include the consent of the person (especially in the case of website visitors who provide their information), performance of a contract, compliance with a legal obligation, or the legitimate interest of the controller or a third party. ZoomInfo provides notice to all data subjects as required by GDPR Article 13 or 14, as appropriate, and honors the rights of data subjects provided in Articles 12-23, including the right to be forgotten. For any opt-out requests or other inquiries related to privacy, please visit our privacy center at </about-zoominfo/privacy-center> or email remove@zoominfo.com.

In the course of obtaining data to be included on the Site, if ZoomInfo obtains Business

Information regarding an individual that ZoomInfo has reason to believe is based in the European Union, ZoomInfo will provide such individual with a notice detailing the information ZoomInfo has on such person, the purpose for which it will be used, and informing such person of their rights with respect to such information, including the right to know what information ZoomInfo possesses on them, to correct such information, or to opt out of data collection entirely. Such persons may opt out of the ZoomInfo database by visiting </update/remove> or emailing remove@zoominfo.com.

C. Privacy Shield Frameworks

While ZoomInfo continues to be certified by and adhere to the principles of the Privacy Shield Frameworks, in light of the Court of Justice of the European Union decision regarding the legal effect of the EU-US Privacy Shield Framework, ZoomInfo does not rely upon the Frameworks to ensure the lawful transfer of data from EEA to non-EEA countries.

ZoomInfo complies with the EU-US Privacy Shield Framework and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield Framework as set forth by the US Department of Commerce regarding the collection, use, and retention of personal information transferred from the European Union and Switzerland to the United States. ZoomInfo has certified to the Department of Commerce that it adheres to the Privacy Shield Principles. If there is any conflict between the policies in this Policy and the Privacy Shield Principles, the Privacy Shield Principles shall govern. To learn more about the Privacy Shield program, any rights you may have to binding arbitration before a Privacy Shield Panel, and to view our certification page, please visit <https://www.privacyshield.gov>.

For information received under the Privacy Shield, ZoomInfo will require third parties to whom we disclose personal information to safeguard that personal information consistent with this Policy by contract, obligating those third parties to provide at least the same level of protection as is required by the Privacy Shield Principles. EU and Swiss citizens may choose to opt-out of such disclosures. ZoomInfo may have liability to you in case of failure to comply with the law or this policy in handling onward transfer of your information to third parties.

In compliance with the Privacy Shield Principles, ZoomInfo commits to resolve complaints about your privacy and its collection or use of your personal information. European Union or Swiss individuals with inquiries or complaints regarding this Policy should first contact ZoomInfo at privacy@zoominfo.com. European Union and Swiss individuals have the right to access their personal information.

ZoomInfo further has committed to refer unresolved privacy complaints under the Privacy Shield Principles to JAMS (Judicial Arbitration & Mediation Services), an independent alternative dispute resolution provider located in the United States and recognized for this purpose by the US Department of Commerce. If you do not receive timely acknowledgment of your complaint, or if your complaint is not satisfactorily addressed, please visit <https://www.jamsadr.com/eu-us-privacy-shield> for more information, and to file a complaint.

The Federal Trade Commission has enforcement authority regarding ZoomInfo’s compliance with the Privacy Shield Principles.

XI. Your California Privacy Rights

If you are a California resident, California law permits you to request certain information regarding the disclosure of your personal information by us to third parties for the third parties’ direct marketing purposes. To make such a request, please send your request, by mail or email, to the address at the end of this Policy under the “Contact Us” section.

XII. Do Not Track Signals

Your browser or device may include ‘Do Not Track’ functionality. Our information collection and disclosure practices, and the choices that we provide to visitors, will continue to operate as described in this Policy, whether or not a Do Not Track signal is received.

XIII. Children’s Privacy

Our Site is not directed to or intended for individuals under the age of 16. We do not knowingly collect or use any personal information from users of our Site who are under the age of 16. The effective date of the purchase will be specified in the unilateral modification and may be any time during the period of the contract, including any extensions thereto.
- (b) Except for final payment and transfer of title to the Government, the lease or rental portion of the contract becomes complete and lease or rental charges shall be discontinued on the day immediately preceding the effective date of purchase specified in the unilateral modification required in paragraph (a) of this clause.
- (c) The purchase conversion cost of the equipment shall be computed as of the effective date specified in the unilateral modification required in paragraph (a) of this clause, on the basis of the purchase price set forth in the contract, minus the total purchase option credits accumulated during the period of lease or rental, calculated by the formula contained elsewhere in this contract.
- (d) The accumulated purchase option credits available to determine the purchase conversion cost will also include any credits accrued during a period of lease or rental of the equipment under any previous Government contract if the equipment has been on continuous lease or rental. The movement of equipment from one site to another site shall be “continuous rental.”

52.222-1 NOTICE TO THE GOVERNMENT OF LABOR DISPUTES (FEB 1997)

(a) Upon receipt of a notice of protest (as defined in FAR 33.101) or a determination that a protest is likely (see FAR 33.102(d)), the Contracting Officer may, by written order to the Contractor, direct the Contractor to stop performance of the work called for by this contract. The order shall be specifically identified as a stop-work order issued under this clause. Upon receipt of the order, the Contractor shall immediately comply with its terms and take all reasonable steps to minimize the incurrence of costs allocable to the work covered by the order during the period of work stoppage. Upon receipt of the final decision in the protest, the Contracting Officer shall either—

- (1) Cancel the stop-work order; or
- (2) Terminate the work covered by the order as provided in the Default, or the Termination for Convenience of the Government, clause of this contract.

(b) If a stop-work order issued under this clause is canceled either before or after a final decision in the protest, the Contractor shall resume work. The Contracting Officer shall make an equitable adjustment in the delivery schedule or contract price, or both, and the contract shall be modified, in writing, accordingly, if—

In addition to any other remedy available, and pursuant to the requirements of Subpart 32.6, the Government may collect this debt by offsetting the amount against any payment due the Contractor under any contract between the Contractor and the Government.

If the Contractor fails or refuses to make such repair or replacement, the Contractor shall be liable for the cost, which may be deducted from the contract price.

52.237-3 CONTINUITY OF SERVICES (JAN 1991)

The plan shall specify a training program and a date for transferring responsibilities for each division of work described in the plan, and shall be subject to the Contracting Officer's approval. The Contractor shall provide sufficient experienced personnel during the phase-in, phase-out period to ensure that the services called for by this contract are maintained at the required level of proficiency.

(c) The Contractor shall allow as many personnel as practicable to remain on the job to help the successor maintain the continuity and consistency of the services required by this contract. The Contractor also shall disclose necessary personnel records and allow the successor to conduct on-site interviews with these employees. If selected employees are agreeable to the change, the Contractor shall release them at a mutually agreeable date and negotiate transfer of their earned fringe benefits to the successor.

(d) The Contractor shall be reimbursed for all reasonable phase-in, phase-out costs (i.e., costs incurred within the agreed period after contract expiration that result from phase-in, phase-out operations) and a fee (profit) not to exceed a pro rata portion of the fee (profit) under this contract.

52.239-1 PRIVACY OR SECURITY SAFEGUARDS (AUG 1996)

This notification shall be furnished within five days of the initiation of the proceedings relating to bankruptcy filing. This notification shall include the date on which the bankruptcy petition was filed, the identity of the court in which the bankruptcy petition was filed, and a listing of Government contract numbers and contracting offices for all Government contracts against which final payment has not been made. This obligation remains in effect until final payment under this contract.

52.242-15 STOP-WORK ORDER (AUG 1989)

(a) The Contracting Officer may, at any time, by written order to the Contractor, require the Contractor to stop all, or any part, of the work called for by this contract for a period of 90 days after the order is delivered to the Contractor, and for any further period to which the parties may agree. The order shall be specifically identified as a stop-work order issued under this clause. Upon receipt of the order, the Contractor shall immediately comply with its terms and take all reasonable steps to minimize the incurrence of costs allocable to the work covered by the order during the period of work stoppage. Within a period of 90 days after a stop-work is delivered to the Contractor, or within any extension of that period to which the parties shall have agreed, the Contracting Officer shall either —

(1) Cancel the stop-work order; or

(2) Terminate the work covered by the order as provided in the Default, or the Termination for Convenience of the Government, clause of this contract.

(b) If a stop-work order issued under this clause is canceled or the period of the order or any extension thereof expires, the Contractor shall resume work. The Contracting Officer shall make an equitable adjustment in the delivery schedule or contract price, or both, and the contract shall be modified, in writing, accordingly, if —

(1) The stop-work order results in an increase in the time required for, or in the Contractor's cost properly allocable to, the performance of any part of this contract; and

(2) The Contractor asserts its right to the adjustment within 30 days after the end of the period of work stoppage; provided, that, if the Contracting Officer decides the facts justify the action, the Contracting Officer may receive and act upon the claim submitted at any time before final payment under this contract.

(c) If a stop-work order is not canceled and the work covered by the order is terminated for the convenience of the Government, the Contracting Officer shall allow reasonable costs resulting from the stop-work order in arriving at the termination settlement.

(d) If a stop-work order is not canceled and the work covered by the order is terminated for default, the Contracting Officer shall allow, by equitable adjustment or otherwise, reasonable costs resulting from the stop-work order.

“Rental period” means the calendar period during which Government property is made available for nongovernmental purposes.

“Rental time” means the number of hours, to the nearest whole hour, rented property is actually used for nongovernmental purposes. It includes time to set up the property for such purposes, perform required maintenance, and restore the property to its condition prior to rental (less normal wear and tear).

(b) Use of Government property. The Contractor may use the Government property without charge in the performance of —

- (1) Contracts with the Government that specifically authorize such use without charge;
- (2) Subcontracts of any tier under Government prime contracts if the Contracting Officer having cognizance of the prime contract —
  - (i) Approves a subcontract specifically authorizing such use; or
  - (ii) Otherwise authorizes such use in writing; and
- (3) Other work, if the Contracting Officer specifically authorizes in writing use without charge for such work.

(c) Rental. If granted written permission by the Contracting Officer, or if it is specifically provided for in the Schedule, the Contractor may use the Government property (except material) for a rental fee for work other than that provided in paragraph (b) of this clause. Authorizing such use of the Government property does not waive any rights of the Government to terminate the Contractor’s right to use the Government property. The rental fee shall be determined in accordance with the following paragraphs.

(d) General.

- (1) Rental requests shall be submitted to the Administrative Contracting Officer (ACO), identify the property for which rental is requested, propose a rental period, and compute an estimated rental charge by using the Contractor’s best estimate of rental time in the formulae described in paragraph (e) of this clause.
- (2) The Contractor shall not use Government property for nongovernmental purposes, including Independent Research and Development, until a rental charge for real property, or estimated rental charge for other property, is agreed upon. Rented property shall be used only on a non-interference basis.

(e) Rental charge.—

(1) Real property and associated fixtures.

(i) The Contractor shall obtain, at its expense, a property appraisal from an independent licensed, accredited, or certified appraiser that computes a monthly, daily, or hourly rental rate for comparable commercial property. The appraisal may be used to compute rentals under this clause throughout its effective period or, if an effective period is not stated in the appraisal, for one year following the date the appraisal was performed. The Contractor shall submit the appraisal to the ACO at least 30 days prior to the date the property is needed for nongovernmental use. Except as provided in paragraph (e)(1)(iii) of this clause, the ACO shall use the appraisal rental rate to determine a reasonable rental charge.

(ii) Rental charges shall be determined by multiplying the rental time by the appraisal rental rate expressed as a rate per hour. Monthly or daily appraisal rental rates shall be divided by 720 or 24, respectively, to determine an hourly rental rate.

(iii) When the ACO believes the appraisal rental rate is unreasonable, the ACO shall promptly notify the Contractor. The parties may agree on an alternative means for computing a reasonable rental charge.

(iv) The Contractor shall obtain, at its expense, additional property appraisals in the same manner as provided in paragraph (e)(1)(i) if the effective period has expired and the Contractor desires the continued use of property for nongovernmental use. The Contractor may obtain additional appraisals within the effective period of the current appraisal if the market prices decrease substantially.

(2) Other Government property. The Contractor may elect to compute the rental charge using the appraisal method described in paragraph (e)(1) of this clause subject to the constraints therein or the following formula in which rental time shall be expressed in increments of not less than one hour with portions of hours rounded to the next higher hour: The hourly rental charge is calculated by multiplying 2 percent of the acquisition cost by the hours of rental time, and dividing by 720.

(3) Alternative methodology. The Contractor may request consideration of an alternative basis for computing the rental charge if it considers the monthly rental rate or a time-based rental unreasonable or impractical.

(f) Rental payments.

(1) Rent is due 60 days following completion of the rental period or as otherwise specified in the contract. The Contractor shall compute the rental due, and furnish records or other supporting data in sufficient detail to permit the ACO to verify the rental time and computation. Payment shall be made by check payable to the Treasurer of the United States and sent to the contract administration office identified in this contract, unless otherwise specified by the Contracting Officer.

(2) Interest will be charged if payment is not made by the date specified in paragraph (f)(1) of this clause. Interest will accrue at the "Renegotiation Board Interest Rate" (published in the Federal Register semiannually on or about January 1st and July 1st) for the period in which the rent is due.

(3) The Government's acceptance of any rental payment under this clause, in whole or in part, shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of any rights it may have against the Contractor stemming from the Contractor's unauthorized use of Government property or any other failure to perform this contract according to its terms.

(g) Use revocation. At any time during the rental period, the Government may revoke nongovernmental use authorization and require the Contractor, at the Contractor's expense, to return the property to the Government, restore the property to its pre-rental condition (less normal wear and tear), or both.

(h) Unauthorized use. The unauthorized use of Government property can subject a person to fines, imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. 641.

(b) Information about this requirement and these products is available at <http://www.biopreferred.gov>.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, the Contractor shall honor any order exceeding the maximum order limitations in paragraph (b), unless that order (or orders) is returned to the ordering office within TBD days after issuance, with written notice stating the Contractor's intent not to ship the item (or items) called for and the reasons. Upon receiving this notice, the Government may acquire the supplies or services from another source.

Note: Regulation 52.216-19

"Due to a system limitation, a Maximum Order value of $250,000 has been identified for the Order-Level Materials SIN. However, as Order-Level Materials are only acquired in direct support of an individual task or delivery order, the contractor's right to decline an order as outlined in FAR 52.216-19 Order Limitations paragraph (b) Maximum Order shall be based on the SINs that are the primary basis or purpose of the order, not the Maximum Order value associated with the Order-Level Materials SIN.

Additionally, Ordering agencies are reminded that the Maximum Order value identified for a Schedule SIN does not limit the value of an individual task or delivery order. Ordering limitations and procedures applicable to task or delivery orders inclusive of Order-Level Materials are outlined in GSAR 552.238-115, Special Ordering Procedures for the Acquisition of Order-Level Materials."

computer software it means data identifying source, functional characteristics, and performance requirements but specifically excludes the source code, algorithms, processes, formulas, and flow charts of the software.

“Limited rights” means the rights of the Government in limited rights data as set forth in the Limited Rights Notice of paragraph (g)(3) if included in this clause.

“Technical data” means recorded information (regardless of the form or method of the recording) of a scientific or technical nature (including computer databases and computer software documentation). This term does not include computer software or financial, administrative, cost or pricing, or management data or other information incidental to contract administration. The term includes recorded information of a scientific or technical nature that is included in computer databases (See 41 U.S.C. 116).

“Unlimited rights” means the rights of the Government to use, disclose, reproduce, prepare derivative works, distribute copies to the public, and perform publicly and display publicly, in any manner and for any purpose, and to have or permit others to do so.

(i) Data first produced in the performance of this contract;

(ii) Form, fit, and function data delivered under this contract;

(iii) Data delivered under this contract (except for restricted computer software) that constitute manuals or instructional and training material for installation, operation, or routine maintenance and repair of items, components, or processes delivered or furnished for use under this contract; and

(iv) All other data delivered under this contract unless provided otherwise for limited rights data or restricted computer software in accordance with paragraph (g) of this clause.

(2) The Contractor shall have the right to--

(i) Assert copyright in data first produced in the performance of this contract to the extent provided in paragraph (c)(1) of this clause;

(ii) Use, release to others, reproduce, distribute, or publish any data first produced or specifically used by the Contractor in the performance of this contract, unless provided otherwise in paragraph (d) of this clause;

(iii) Substantiate the use of, add, or correct limited rights, restricted rights, or copyright notices and to take other appropriate action, in accordance with paragraphs (e) and (f) of this clause; and

(iv) Protect from unauthorized disclosure and use those data that are limited rights data or restricted computer software to the extent provided in paragraph (g) of this clause.

(c) Copyright--

(1) Data first produced in the performance of this contract.

(i) Unless provided otherwise in paragraph (d) of this clause, the Contractor may, without prior approval of the Contracting Officer, assert copyright in scientific and technical articles based on or containing data first produced in the performance of this contract and published in academic, technical or professional journals, symposia proceedings, or similar works. The prior, express written permission of the Contracting Officer is required to assert copyright in all other data first produced in the performance of this contract.

(ii) When authorized to assert copyright to the data, the Contractor shall affix the applicable copyright notices of 17 U.S.C. 401 or 402, and an acknowledgment of Government sponsorship (including contract number).

(iii) For data other than computer software, the Contractor grants to the Government, and others acting on its behalf, a paid-up, nonexclusive, irrevocable, worldwide license in such copyrighted data to reproduce, prepare derivative works, distribute copies to the public, and perform publicly and display publicly by or on behalf of the Government. For computer software, the Contractor grants to the Government, and others acting on its behalf, a paid-up, nonexclusive, irrevocable, worldwide license in such copyrighted computer software to reproduce, prepare derivative works, and perform publicly and display publicly (but not to distribute copies to the public) by or on behalf of the Government.

(2) Data not first produced in the performance of this contract. The Contractor shall not, without the prior written permission of the Contracting Officer, incorporate in data delivered under this contract any data not first produced in the performance of this contract unless the Contractor--

(i) Identifies the data; and

(ii) Grants to the Government, or acquires on its behalf, a license of the same scope as set forth in paragraph (c)(1) of this clause or, if such data are restricted computer software, the Government shall acquire a copyright license as set forth in paragraph (g)(4) of this clause (if included in this contract) or as otherwise provided in a collateral agreement incorporated in or made part of this contract.

(3) Removal of copyright notices. The Government will not remove any authorized copyright notices placed on data pursuant to this paragraph (c), and will include such notices on all reproductions of the data.

(d) Release, publication, and use of data. The Contractor shall have the right to use, release to others, reproduce, distribute, or publish any data first produced or specifically used by the Contractor in the performance of this contract, except--

(1) As prohibited by Federal law or regulation (e.g., export control or national security laws or regulations);

(2) As expressly set forth in this contract; or

(3) If the Contractor receives or is given access to data necessary for the performance of this contract that contain restrictive markings, the Contractor shall treat the data in accordance with such markings unless specifically authorized otherwise in writing by the Contracting Officer.

(e) Unauthorized marking of data.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this contract concerning inspection or acceptance, if any data delivered under this contract are marked with the notices specified in paragraph (g) (3) or (g) (4) if included in this clause, and use of the notices is not authorized by this clause, or if the data bears any other restrictive or limiting markings not authorized by this contract, the Contracting Officer may at any time either return the data to the Contractor, or cancel or ignore the markings. However, pursuant to 41 U.S.C. 4703, the following procedures shall apply prior to canceling or ignoring the markings.

(i) The Contracting Officer will make written inquiry to the Contractor affording the Contractor 60 days from receipt of the inquiry to provide written justification to substantiate the propriety of the markings;

(ii) If the Contractor fails to respond or fails to provide written justification to substantiate the propriety of the markings within the 60-day period (or a longer time approved in writing by the Contracting Officer for good cause shown), the Government shall have the right to cancel or ignore the markings at any time after said period and the data will no longer be made subject to any disclosure prohibitions.

(iii) If the Contractor provides written justification to substantiate the propriety of the markings within the period set in paragraph (e)(1)(i) of this clause, the Contracting Officer will consider such written justification and determine whether or not the markings are to be cancelled or ignored. If the Contracting Officer determines that the markings are authorized, the Contractor will be so notified in writing. If the Contracting Officer determines, with concurrence of the head of the contracting activity, that the markings are not authorized, the Contracting Officer will furnish the Contractor a written determination, which determination will become the final agency decision regarding the appropriateness of the markings unless the Contractor files suit in a court of competent jurisdiction within 90 days of receipt of the Contracting Officer's decision. The Government will continue to abide by the markings under this paragraph (e)(1)(iii) until final resolution of the matter either by the Contracting Officer's determination becoming final (in which instance the Government will thereafter have the right to cancel or ignore the markings at any time and the data will no longer be made subject to any disclosure prohibitions), or by final disposition of the matter by court decision if suit is filed.

(2) The time limits in the procedures set forth in paragraph (e)(1) of this clause may be modified in accordance with agency regulations implementing the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552) if necessary to respond to a request thereunder.

(3) Except to the extent the Government's action occurs as the result of final disposition of the matter by a court of competent jurisdiction, the Contractor is not precluded by paragraph (e) of the clause from bringing a claim, in accordance with the Disputes clause of this contract, that may arise as the result of the Government removing or ignoring authorized markings on data delivered under this contract.

(f) Omitted or incorrect markings.

(1) Data delivered to the Government without any restrictive markings shall be deemed to have been furnished with unlimited rights. The Government is not liable for the disclosure, use, or reproduction of such data.

(2) If the unmarked data has not been disclosed without restriction outside the Government, the Contractor may request, within 6 months (or a longer time approved by the Contracting Officer in writing for good cause shown) after delivery of the data, permission to have authorized notices placed on the data at the Contractor's expense. The Contracting Officer may agree to do so if the Contractor--

(i) Identifies the data to which the omitted notice is to be applied;

(ii) Demonstrates that the omission of the notice was inadvertent;

(iii) Establishes that the proposed notice is authorized; and

(iv) Acknowledges that the Government has no liability for the disclosure, use, or reproduction of any data made prior to the addition of the notice or resulting from the omission of the notice.

(3) If data has been marked with an incorrect notice, the Contracting Officer may--

(i) Permit correction of the notice at the Contractor's expense if the Contractor identifies the data and demonstrates that the correct notice is authorized; or

(ii) Correct any incorrect notices.

(g) Protection of limited rights data and restricted computer software.

(1) The Contractor may withhold from delivery qualifying limited rights data or restricted computer software that are not data identified in paragraphs (b)(1)(i), (ii), and (iii) of this clause. As a condition to this withholding, the Contractor shall--

(i) Identify the data being withheld; and

(ii) Furnish form, fit, and function data instead.

(2) Limited rights data that are formatted as a computer database for delivery to the Government shall be treated as limited rights data and not restricted computer software.

(3) [Reserved]

(h) Subcontracting. The Contractor shall obtain from its subcontractors all data and rights therein necessary to fulfill the Contractor's obligations to the Government under this contract. If a subcontractor refuses to accept terms affording the Government those rights, the Contractor shall promptly notify the Contracting Officer of the refusal and shall not proceed with the subcontract award without authorization in writing from the Contracting Officer.

(i) Relationship to patents or other rights. Nothing contained in this clause shall imply a license to the Government under any patent or be construed as affecting the scope of any license or other right otherwise granted to the Government.

The interest rate shall be the interest rate established by the Secretary of the Treasury as provided in 41 U.S.C. 7109, which is applicable to the period in which the amount becomes due, as provided in paragraph (b) of this clause, and then at the rate applicable for each six-month period as fixed by the Secretary until the amount is paid.

52.232-36 PAYMENT BY THIRD PARTY (MAY 2014)

(a) General.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (a)(2) of this clause, the Contractor agrees to accept payments due under this contract, through payment by a third party in lieu of payment directly from the Government, in accordance with the terms of this clause. The third party and, if applicable, the particular Governmentwide commercial purchase card to be used are identified elsewhere in this contract.

(2) The Governmentwide commercial purchase card is not authorized as a method of payment during any period the System for Award Management (SAM) indicates that the Contractor has delinquent debt that is subject to collection under the Treasury Offset Program (TOP). Information on TOP is available at <http://fms.treas.gov/debt/index.html>. If the SAM subsequently indicates that the Contractor no longer has delinquent debt, the Contractor may request the Contracting Officer to authorize payment by Governmentwide commercial purchase card.

(b) Contractor payment request.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (b)(2) of this clause, the Contractor shall make payment requests through a charge to the Government account with the third party, at the time and for the amount due in accordance with those clauses of this contract that authorize the Contractor to submit invoices, contract financing requests, other payment requests, or as provided in other clauses providing for payment to the Contractor.

(2) When the Contracting Officer has notified the Contractor that the Governmentwide commercial purchase card is no longer an authorized method of payment, the Contractor shall make such payment requests in accordance with instructions provided by the Contracting Officer during the period when the purchase card is not authorized.

(c) Payment. The Contractor and the third party shall agree that payments due under this contract shall be made upon submittal of payment requests to the third party in accordance with the terms and conditions of an agreement between the Contractor, the Contractor's financial agent (if any), and the third party and its agents (if any). No payment shall be due the Contractor until such agreement is made. Payments made or due by the third party under this clause are not payments made by the Government and are not subject to the Prompt Payment Act or any implementation thereof in this contract.

(d) Documentation. Documentation of each charge against the Government's account shall be provided to the Contracting Officer upon request.

(e) Assignment of claims. Notwithstanding any other provision of this contract, if any payment is made under this clause, then no payment under this contract shall be assigned under the provisions of the assignment of claims terms of this contract or the Assignment of Claims Act of 1940 (31 U.S.C. 3727, 41 U.S.C. 6305).

(f) Other payment terms. The other payment terms of this contract shall govern the content and submission of payment requests. If any clause requires information or documents in or with the payment request, that is not provided in the third party agreement referenced in paragraph (c) of this clause, the Contractor shall obtain instructions from the Contracting Officer before submitting such a payment request.

52.233-1 DISPUTES (MAY 2014)

(a) This contract is subject to 41 U.S.C chapter 71, Contract Disputes.

(b) Except as provided in 41 U.S.C chapter 71, all disputes arising under or relating to this contract shall be resolved under this clause.

(c) "Claim as used in this clause, means a written demand or written assertion by one of the contracting parties seeking, as a matter of right, the payment of money in a sum certain, the adjustment or interpretation of contract terms, or other relief arising under or relating to this contract. However, a written demand or written assertion by the Contractor seeking the payment of money exceeding $100,000 is not a claim under 41 U.S.C chapter 71 until certified. A voucher, invoice, or other routine request for payment that is not in dispute when submitted is not a claim under 41 U.S.C chapter 71. The submission may be converted to a claim under 41 U.S.C chapter 71, by complying with the submission and certification requirements of this clause, if it is disputed either as to liability or amount or is not acted upon in a reasonable time.

(d) (1) A claim by the Contractor shall be made in writing and, unless otherwise stated in this contract, submitted within 6 years after accrual of the claim to the Contracting Officer for a written decision. A claim by the Government against the Contractor shall be subject to a written decision by the Contracting Officer.

(2) (i) The Contractor shall provide the certification specified in paragraph (d)(2)(iii) of this clause when submitting any claim exceeding $100,000.

(ii) The certification requirement does not apply to issues in controversy that have not been submitted as all or part of a claim.

(iii) The certification shall state as follows: "I certify that the claim is made in good faith; that the supporting data are accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief; that the amount requested accurately reflects the contract adjustment for which the Contractor believes the Government is liable; and that I am authorized to certify the claim on behalf of the Contractor."

(3) The certification may be executed by any person authorized to bind the Contractor with respect to the claim.

(e) For Contractor claims of $50,000 or less, the Contracting Officer must, if requested in writing by the Contractor, render a decision within 60 days of the request. For Contractor-certified claims over $50,000, the Contracting Officer must, within 60 days, decide the claim or notify the Contractor of the date by which the decision will be made.

(f) The Contracting Officer's decision shall be final unless the Contractor appeals or files a suit as provided in 41 U.S.C chapter 71.

(g) If the claim by the Contractor is submitted to the Contracting Officer or a claim by the Government is presented to the Contractor, the parties, by mutual consent, may agree to use alternative dispute resolution (ADR). If the Contractor refuses an offer for ADR, the Contractor shall inform the Contracting Officer, in writing, of the Contractor's specific reasons for rejecting the offer.

(h) The Government shall pay interest on the amount found due and unpaid from (1) the date that the Contracting Officer receives the claim (certified, if required); or (2) the date that payment otherwise would be due, if that date is later, until the date of payment. With regard to claims having defective certifications, as defined in FAR 33.201, interest shall be paid from the date that the Contracting Officer initially receives the claim. Simple interest on claims shall be paid at the rate, fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury as provided in the Act, which is applicable to the period during which the Contracting Officer receives the claim and then at the rate applicable for each 6-month period as fixed by the Treasury Secretary during the pendency of the claim.

(i) The Contractor shall proceed diligently with performance of this contract, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the contract, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer.

I-FSS-969 ECONOMIC PRICE ADJUSTMENT—FSS MULTIPLE AWARD SCHEDULE (OCT 2014)

Price adjustments include price increases and price decreases. Adjustments will be considered as follows:

(a) Contractors shall submit price decreases anytime during the contract period in which they occur. Price decreases will be handled in accordance with the provisions of the Price Reduction Clause.

(b) There are two types of economic price adjustments (EPAs) possible under the Multiple Award Schedules (MAS) program for contracts not based on commercial catalogs or price lists as described below. Price adjustments may be effective on or after the first 12 months of the contract period on the following basis:

(1) Adjustments based on escalation rates negotiated prior to contract award. Normally, when escalation rates are negotiated, they result in a fixed price for the term of the contract. No separate contract modification will be provided when increases are based on negotiated escalation rates. Price increases will be effective on the 12-month anniversary date of the contract effective date, subject to paragraph (f), below.

(2) Adjustments based on an agreed-upon market indicator prior to award. The market indicator, as used in this clause, means the originally released public index, public survey or other public, based market indicator. The market indicator shall be the originally released index, survey or market indicator, not seasonally adjusted, published by the [to be negotiated], and made available at [to be identified]. Any price adjustment shall be based on the percentage change in the designated (i.e. indicator identification and date) market indicator from the initial award to the latest available as of the anniversary date of the contract effective date, subject to paragraph (e), below. If the market indicator is discontinued or deemed no longer available or reliable by the Government, the Government and the Contractor will mutually agree to a substitute. The contract modification reflecting the price adjustment will be effective upon approval by the Contracting Officer, subject to paragraph (g), below. The adjusted prices shall apply to orders issued to the Contractor on or after the effective date of the contract modification.

(c) Notwithstanding the two economic price adjustments discussed above, the Government recognizes the potential impact of unforeseeable major changes in market conditions. For those cases where such changes do occur, the contracting officer will review requests to make adjustments, subject to the Government's examination of industry-wide market conditions and the conditions in paragraph (d) and (e), below. If adjustments are accepted, the contract will be modified accordingly. The determination of whether or not extra-ordinary circumstances exist rests with the contracting officer. The determination of an appropriate mechanism of adjustment will be subject to negotiations.

(d) Conditions of Price change requests under paragraphs b(2) and c above.:

(1) No more than three increases will be considered during each succeeding 12-month period of the contract. (For succeeding contract periods of less than 12 months, up to three increases will be considered subject to the other conditions of subparagraph (b)).

(2) Increases are requested before the last 60 days of the contract period, including options.

(3) At least 30 days elapse between requested increases.

(4) In any contract period during which price increases will be considered, the aggregate of the increases during any 12-month period shall not exceed SEE CLAUSE NOTE percent (SEE CLAUSE NOTE%) of the contract unit price in effect at the end of the preceding 12-month period. The Government reserves the right to raise the ceiling when market conditions during the contract period support such a change.

(e) The following material shall be submitted with request for a price increase under paragraphs b(2) and c above:

(1) A copy of the index, survey or pricing indicator showing the price increase and the effective date.

(2) Commercial Sales Practice format, per contract clause 52.215-21 Alternate IV, demonstrating the relationship of the Contractor's commercial pricing practice to the adjusted pricing proposed or a certification that no change has occurred in the data since completion of the initial negotiation or a subsequent submission.

(3) Any other documentation requested by the Contracting Officer to support the reasonableness of the price increase.

(f) The Government reserves the right to exercise one of the following options:

(1) Accept the Contractor's price increases as requested when all conditions of (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this clause are satisfied;

(2) Negotiate more favorable prices when the total increase requested is not supported; or,

(3) Decline the price increase when the request is not supported. The Contractor may remove the item(s) from contract involved pursuant to the Cancellation Clause of this contract.

(g) Effective Date of Increases: No price increase shall be effective until the Government receives the electronic file updates pursuant to GSAR 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule).

(h) All MAS contracts remain subject to contract clauses GSAR 552.238-75, "Price Reductions"; and 552.215-72, "Price Adjustment -- Failure to Provide Accurate Information." In the event the application of an economic price adjustment results in a price less favorable to the Government than the price relationship established during negotiation between the MAS price and the price to the designated customer, the Government will maintain the price relationship to the designated customer.

Note: Regulation I-FSS-969

The EPA Ceiling Limit for this clause is hereby established as 4% for the Human Capital Category, 5% for the Professional Services Category, 5% for the Travel Category and 10% for all other Large Categories.

52.223-16 ACQUISITION OF EPEAT®-REGISTERED PERSONAL COMPUTER PRODUCTS (OCT 2015)

(a) Definitions. As used in this clause –

Computer means a device that performs logical operations and processes data. Computers are composed of, at a minimum:

- (1) A central processing unit (CPU) to perform operations;
- (2) User input devices such as a keyboard, mouse, digitizer, or game controller; and
- (3) A computer display screen to output information. Computers include both stationary and portable units, including desktop computers, integrated desktop computers, notebook computers, thin clients, and workstations. Although computers must be capable of using input devices and computer displays, as noted in (2) and (3) above, computer systems do not need to include these devices on shipment to meet this definition. This definition does not include server computers, gaming consoles, mobile telephones, portable hand-held calculators, portable digital assistants (PDAs), MP3 players, or any other mobile computing device with displays less than 4 inches, measured diagonally.

Computer display means a display screen and its associated electronics encased in a single housing or within the computer housing (e.g., notebook or integrated desktop computer) that is capable of displaying output information from a computer via one or more inputs such as a VGA, DVI, USB, DisplayPort, and/or IEEE 1394–2008TM, Standard for High Performance Serial Bus. Examples of computer display technologies are the cathode-ray tube (CRT) and liquid crystal display (LCD).

Desktop computer means a computer where the main unit is intended to be located in a permanent location, often on a desk or on the floor. Desktops are not designed for portability and utilize an external computer display, keyboard, and mouse. Desktops are designed for a broad range of home and office applications.

Integrated desktop computer means a desktop system in which the computer and computer display function as a single unit that receives its AC power through a single cable. Integrated desktop computers come in one of two possible forms:

- (1) A system where the computer display and computer are physically combined into a single unit; or
- (2) A system packaged as a single system where the computer display is separate but is connected to the main chassis by a DC power cord and both the computer and computer display are powered from a single power supply. As a subset of desktop computers, integrated desktop computers are typically designed to provide similar functionality as desktop systems.

Notebook computer means a computer designed specifically for portability and to be operated for extended periods of time either with or without a direct connection to an AC power source. Notebooks must utilize an integrated computer display and be capable of operation off of an integrated battery or other portable power source. In addition, most notebooks use an external power supply and have an integrated keyboard and pointing device. Notebook computers are typically designed to provide similar functionality to desktops, including operation of software similar in functionality to that used in desktops. Docking stations are considered accessories for notebook computers, not notebook computers. Tablet PCs, which may use touch-sensitive screens along with, or instead of, other input devices, are considered notebook computers.

Personal computer product means a computer, computer display, desktop computer, integrated desktop computer, or notebook computer.

(b) Under this contract, the Contractor shall deliver, furnish for Government use, or furnish for Contractor use at a Federally controlled facility, only personal computer products that, at the time of submission of proposals and at the time of award, were EPEAT® bronze-registered or higher.

I-FSS-969 ECONOMIC PRICE ADJUSTMENT – FSS MULTIPLE AWARD SCHEDULE (OCT 2014) (ALTERNATE II – JUL 2016)

Price adjustments include price increases and price decreases. Adjustments will be considered as follows:

(a) Contractors shall submit price decreases anytime during the contract period in which they occur. Price decreases will be handled in accordance with the provisions of the Price Reductions clause.

(b) There are two types of economic price adjustments (EPAs) possible under the Multiple Award Schedules (MAS) program for contracts not based on commercial catalogs or price lists as described below. Price adjustments may be effective on or after the first 12 months of the contract period on the following basis:

(1) Adjustments based on escalation rates negotiated prior to contract award. Normally, when escalation rates are negotiated, they result in a fixed price for the term of the contract. No separate contract modification will be provided when increases are based on negotiated escalation rates. Price increases will be effective on the 12-month anniversary date of the contract effective date, subject to paragraph (f), below.

(2) Adjustments based on an agreed-upon market indicator prior to award. The market indicator, as used in this clause, means the originally released public index, public survey or other public-based market indicator. The market indicator shall be the originally released index, survey or market indicator, not seasonally adjusted, published by the [to be negotiated], and made available at [to be identified]. Any price adjustment shall be based on the percentage change in the designated (i.e. indicator identification and date) market indicator from the initial award to the latest available as of the anniversary date of the contract effective date, subject to paragraph (e), below. If the market indicator is discontinued or deemed no longer available or reliable by the Government, the Government and the Contractor will mutually agree to a substitute. The contract modification reflecting the price adjustment will be effective upon approval by the Contracting Officer, subject to paragraph (g), below.

(c) Notwithstanding the two economic price adjustments discussed above, the Government recognizes the potential impact of unforeseeable major changes in market conditions. For those cases where such changes do occur, the contracting officer will review requests to make adjustments, subject to the Government's examination of industry-wide market conditions and the conditions in paragraph (d) and (e), below. If adjustments are accepted, the contract will be modified accordingly. The determination of whether or not extra-ordinary circumstances exist rests with the contracting officer. The determination of an appropriate mechanism of adjustment will be subject to negotiations.

(d) Conditions of Price change requests under paragraphs b(2) and c above:

(1) No more than three increases will be considered during each succeeding 12-month period of the contract. (For succeeding contract periods of less than 12 months, up to three increases will be considered subject to the other conditions of subparagraph (b)).

(2) Increases are requested before the last 60 days of the contract period, including options.

(3) At least 30 days elapse between requested increases.

(4) In any contract period during which price increases will be considered, the aggregate of the increases during any 12-month period shall not exceed SEE CLAUSE NOTE percent (SEE CLAUSE NOTE%) of the contract unit price in effect at the end of the preceding 12-month period. The Government reserves the right to raise the ceiling when market conditions during the contract period support such a change.

(e) The following material shall be submitted with request for a price increase under paragraphs b(2) and c above:

(1) A copy of the index, survey or pricing indicator showing the price increase and the effective date.

(2) Any other documentation requested by the Contracting Officer to support the reasonableness of the price increase.

(f) The Government reserves the right to exercise one of the following options:

(1) Accept the Contractor's price increases as requested when all conditions of (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this clause are satisfied;

(2) Negotiate more favorable prices when the total increase requested is not supported; or,

(3) Decline the price increase when the request is not supported. The Contractor may remove the item(s) from contract involved pursuant to the Cancellation Clause of this contract.

(g) Effective Date of Increases: The increased contract prices shall apply to orders issued to the Contractor on or after the effective date of the contract modification.

Note: Regulation I-FSS-969

The EPA Ceiling Limit for this clause is hereby established as 4% for the Human Capital Category, 5% for the Professional Services Category, 5% for the Travel Category and 10% for all other Large Categories.

NOTE: This clause applies to contracts participating in the Transactional Data Reporting (TDR) Pilot.

(2) Increases are requested before the last 60 days of the contract period.

(3) At least 30 days elapse between requested increases.

(c) In any contract period during which price increases will be considered, the aggregate of the increases during any 12-month period shall not exceed SEE CLAUSE NOTE percent of the contract unit price in effect at the end of the preceding 12-month period. The Government reserves the right to raise the ceiling when market conditions during the contract period support such a change.

(d) Documentation supporting the reasonableness of the price increase shall be submitted with the request for a price increase.

(e) The Government reserves the right to exercise one of the following options:

(1) Accept the Contractor's price increases as requested when all conditions of (b), (c), and (d) of this clause are satisfied;

In the event the agency believes that revisions to the Contractor reported information are warranted, the agency will notify the Contractor no later than November 15. By November 30, the Contractor shall revise the report, or document its rationale for the agency.

(f) (1) The Contractor shall require each first-tier subcontractor providing services under this contract, with subcontract(s) each valued at or above the thresholds set forth in 4.1703(a)(2), to provide the following detailed information to the Contractor in sufficient time to submit the report:

(i) Subcontract number (including subcontractor name and unique entity identifier), and

(ii) The number of first-tier subcontractor direct-labor hours expended on the services performed during the previous Government fiscal year.

(2) The Contractor shall advise the subcontractor that the information will be made available to the public as required by section 743 of Division C of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2010.

52.222-41 SERVICE CONTRACT LABOR STANDARDS (AUG 2018)

(a) Definitions. As used in this clause –

Contractor when this clause is used in any subcontract, shall be deemed to refer to the subcontractor, except in the term "Government Prime Contractor."

Service employee means any person engaged in the performance of this contract other than any person employed in a bona fide executive, administrative, or professional capacity, as these terms are defined in Part 541 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, as revised. It includes all such persons regardless of any contractual relationship that may be alleged to exist between a Contractor or subcontractor.

(b) Applicability. This contract is subject to the following provisions and to all other applicable provisions of 41 U.S.C. chapter 67, Service Contract Labor Standards, and regulations of the Secretary of Labor (29 CFR Part 4). This clause does not apply to contracts or subcontracts administratively exempted by the Secretary of Labor or exempted by 41 U.S.C. 6702, as interpreted in Subpart C of 29 CFR Part 4.

(c) Compensation. (1) Each service employee employed in the performance of this contract by the Contractor or any subcontractor shall be paid not less than the minimum monetary wages and shall be furnished fringe benefits in accordance with the wages and fringe benefits determined by the Secretary of Labor or authorized representative, as specified in any wage determination attached to this contract.

(2) (i) If a wage determination is attached to this contract, the Contractor shall classify any class of service employee which is not listed herein and which is to be employed under the contract (i.e., the work to be performed is not performed by any classification listed in the wage determination), so as to provide a reasonable relationship (i.e., appropriate level of skill comparison) between such unlisted classifications and the classifications listed in the wage determination. Such conformed class of employees shall be paid the monetary wages and furnished the fringe benefits as are determined pursuant to the procedures in this paragraph (c).

(ii) This conforming procedure shall be initiated by the Contractor prior to the performance of contract work by the unlisted class of employee. The Contractor shall submit Standard Form \(SF\) 1444, Request for Authorization of Additional Classification and Rate, to the Contracting Officer no later than 30 days after the unlisted class of employee performs any contract work. The Contracting Officer shall review the proposed classification and rate and promptly submit the completed SF 1444 (which must include information regarding the agreement or disagreement of the employees' authorized representatives or the employees themselves together with the agency recommendation), and all pertinent information to the Wage and Hour Division, U.S. Department of Labor. The Wage and Hour Division will approve, modify, or disapprove the action or render a final determination in the event of disagreement within 30 days of receipt or will notify the Contracting Officer within 30 days of receipt that additional time is necessary.

(iii) The final determination of the conformance action by the Wage and Hour Division shall be transmitted to the Contracting Officer who shall promptly notify the Contractor of the action taken. Each affected employee shall be furnished by the Contractor with a written copy of such determination or it shall be posted as a part of the wage determination.

(iv) (A) The process of establishing wage and fringe benefit rates that bear a reasonable relationship to those listed in a wage determination cannot be reduced to any single formula. The approach used may vary from wage determination to wage determination depending on the circumstances. Standard wage and salary administration practices which rank various job classifications by pay grade pursuant to point schemes or other job factors may, for example, be relied upon. Guidance may also be obtained from the way different jobs are rated under Federal pay systems (Federal Wage Board Pay System and the General Schedule) or from other wage determinations issued in the same locality. Basic to the establishment of any conformable wage rate(s) is the concept that a pay relationship should be maintained between job classifications based on the skill required and the duties performed.

(B) In the case of a contract modification, an exercise of an option or extension of an existing contract, or in any other case where a Contractor succeeds a contract under which the classification in question was previously conformed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this clause, a new conformed wage rate and fringe benefits may be assigned to the conformed classification by indexing (i.e., adjusting) the previous conformed rate and fringe benefits by an amount equal to the average (mean) percentage increase (or decrease, where appropriate) between the wages and fringe benefits specified for all classifications to be used on the contract which are listed in the current wage determination, and those specified for the corresponding classifications in the previously applicable wage determination. Where conforming actions are accomplished in accordance with this paragraph prior to the performance of contract work by the unlisted class of employees, the Contractor shall advise the Contracting Officer of the action taken but the other procedures in subdivision (c)(2)(ii) of this clause need not be followed.

(C) No employee engaged in performing work on this contract shall in any event be paid less than the currently applicable minimum wage specified under section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended.

(v) The wage rate and fringe benefits finally determined under this paragraph (c)(2) of this clause shall be paid to all employees performing in the classification from the first day on which contract work is performed by them in the classification. Failure to pay the unlisted employees the compensation agreed upon by the interested parties and/or finally determined by the Wage and Hour Division retroactive to the date such class of employees commenced contract work shall be a violation of the Service Contract Labor Standards statute and this contract.

(vi) Upon discovery of failure to comply with subparagraphs (b)(2) of this clause, the Wage and Hour Division shall make a final determination of conformed classification, wage rate, and/or fringe benefits which shall be retroactive to the date such class or classes of employees commenced contract work.

(3) Adjustment of Compensation. If the term of this contract is more than 1 year, the minimum monetary wages and fringe benefits required to be paid or furnished thereunder to service employees under the contract shall be subject to adjustment after 1 year and not less often than once every 2 years, under wage determinations issued by the Wage and Hour Division.

(d) Obligation to Furnish Fringe Benefits. The Contractor or subcontractor may discharge the obligation to furnish fringe benefits specified in the attachment or determined under subparagraph (c)(2) of this clause by furnishing equivalent combinations of bona fide fringe benefits, or by making equivalent or differential cash payments, only in accordance with Subpart D of 29 CFR Part 4.

(e) Minimum Wage. In the absence of a minimum wage attachment for this contract, neither the Contractor nor any subcontractor under this contract shall pay any person performing work under this contract (regardless of whether the person is a service employee) less than the minimum wage specified by section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938. Nothing in this clause shall relieve the Contractor or any subcontractor of any other obligation under law or contract for payment of a higher wage to any employee.

(f) Successor Contracts. If this contract succeeds a contract subject to the Service Contract Labor Standards statute under which substantially the same services were furnished in the same locality and service employees were paid wages and fringe benefits provided for in a collective bargaining agreement, in the absence of the minimum wage attachment for this contract setting forth such collectively bargained wage rates and fringe benefits, neither the Contractor nor any subcontractor under this contract shall pay any service employee performing any of the contract work (regardless of whether or not such employee was employed under the predecessor contract), less than the wages and fringe benefits provided for in such collective bargaining agreement, to which such employee would have been entitled if employed under the predecessor contract, including accrued wages and fringe benefits and any prospective increases in wages and fringe benefits provided for under such agreement. No Contractor or subcontractor under this contract may be relieved of the foregoing obligation unless the limitations of 29 CFR 4.1b(b) apply or unless the Secretary of Labor or the Secretary's authorized representative finds, after a hearing as provided in 29 CFR 4.10 that the wages and/or fringe benefits provided for in such agreement are substantially at variance with those which prevail for services of a character similar in the locality, or determines, as provided in 29 CFR 4.11, that the collective bargaining agreement applicable to service employees employed under the predecessor contract was not entered into as a result of arm's length negotiations. Where it is found in accordance with the review procedures provided in 29 CFR 4.10 and/or 4.11 and Parts 6 and 8 that some or all of the wages and/or fringe benefits contained in a predecessor Contractor's collective bargaining agreement are substantially at variance with those which prevail for services of a character similar in the locality, and/or that the collective bargaining agreement applicable to service employees employed under the predecessor contract was not entered into as a result of arm's length negotiations, the Department will issue a new or revised wage determination setting forth the applicable wage rates and fringe benefits. Such determination shall be made part of the contract or subcontract, in accordance with the decision of the Administrator, the Administrative Law Judge, or the Administrative Review Board, as the case may be, irrespective of whether such issuance occurs prior to or after the award of a contract or subcontract (53 Comp. Gen. 401 (1973)). In the case of a wage determination issued solely as a result of a finding of substantial variance, such determination shall be effective as of the date of the final administrative decision.

(g) Notification to employees. The Contractor and any subcontractor under this contract shall notify each service employee commencing work on this contract of the minimum monetary wage and any fringe benefits required to be paid pursuant to this contract, or shall post the wage determination attached to this contract. The poster provided by the Department of Labor (Publication WH 1313) shall be posted in a prominent and accessible place at the worksite. Failure to comply with this requirement is a violation of 41 U.S.C. 6703 and of this contract.

(h) Safe and Sanitary Working Conditions. The Contractor or subcontractor shall not permit any part of the services called for by this contract to be performed in buildings or surroundings or under working conditions provided by or under the control or supervision of the Contractor or subcontractor which are unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous to the health or safety of the service employee. The Contractor or subcontractor shall comply with the safety and health standards applied under 29 CFR Part 1925.

(i) Records. (1) The Contractor and each subcontractor performing work subject to the Service Contract Labor Standards statute shall make and maintain for 3 years from the completion of the work, and make them available for inspection and transcription by authorized representatives of the Wage and Hour Division, a record of the following:

(i) For each employee subject to the Service Contract Labor Standards statute —

(A) Name and address and social security number;

(B) Correct work classification or classifications, rate or rates of monetary wages paid and fringe benefits provided, rate or rates of payments in lieu of fringe benefits, and total daily and weekly compensation;

(C) Daily and weekly hours worked by each employee; and

(D) Any deductions, rebates, or refunds from the total daily or weekly compensation of each employee.

(ii) For those classes of service employees not included in any wage determination attached to this contract, wage rates or fringe benefits determined by the interested parties or by the Administrator or authorized representative under the terms of paragraph (c) of this clause. A copy of the report required by subdivision (c)(2)(ii) of this clause will fulfill this requirement.

(iii) Any list of the predecessor Contractor's employees which had been furnished to the Contractor as prescribed by paragraph (n) of this clause.

(2) The Contractor shall also make available a copy of this contract for inspection or transcription by authorized representatives of the Wage and Hour Division.

(3) Failure to make and maintain or to make available these records for inspection and transcription shall be a violation of the regulations and this contract, and in the case of failure to produce these records, the Contracting Officer, upon direction of the Department of Labor and notification to the Contractor, shall take action to cause suspension of any further payment or advance of funds until the violation ceases.

(4) The Contractor will permit authorized representatives of the Wage and Hour Division to conduct interviews with employees at the worksite during normal working hours.

(j) Pay Periods. The Contractor shall unconditionally pay to each employee subject to the Service Contract Labor Standards statute all wages due free and clear and without subsequent deduction (except as otherwise provided by law or regulations, 29 CFR Part 4), rebate, or kickback on any account. These payments shall be made no later than one pay period following the end of the regular pay period in which the wages were earned or accrued. A pay period under this statute may not be of any duration longer than semi-monthly.

(k) Withholding of Payments and Termination of Contract. The Contracting Officer shall withhold or cause to be withheld from the Government Prime Contractor under this or any other Government contract with the Prime Contractor such sums as an appropriate official of the Department of Labor requests or such sums as the Contracting Officer decides may be necessary to pay underpaid employees employed by the Contractor or subcontractor. In the event of failure to pay any employees subject to the Service Contract Labor Standards statute all or part of the wages or fringe benefits due under the Service Contract Labor Standards statute, the Contracting Officer may, after authorization or by direction of the Department of Labor and written notification to the Contractor, take action to cause suspension of any further payment or advance of funds until such violations have ceased. Additionally, any failure to comply with the requirements of this clause may be grounds for termination of the right to proceed with the contract work. In such event, the Government may enter into other contracts or arrangements for completion of the work, charging the Contractor in default with any additional cost.

(l) Subcontracts. The Contractor agrees to insert this clause in all subcontracts subject to the Service Contract Labor Standards statute.

(m) Collective Bargaining Agreements Applicable to Service Employees. If wages to be paid or fringe benefits to be furnished any service employees employed by the Government prime Contractor or any subcontractor under the contract are provided for in a collective bargaining agreement which is or will be effective during any period in which the contract is being performed, the Government prime Contractor shall report such fact to the Contracting Officer, together with full information as to the application and accrual of such wages and fringe benefits, including any prospective increases, to service employees engaged in work on the contract, and a copy of the collective bargaining agreement. Such report shall be made upon commencing performance of the contract, in the case of collective bargaining agreements effective at such time, and in the case of such agreements or provisions or amendments thereof effective at a later time during the period of contract performance such agreements shall be reported promptly after negotiation thereof.

(n) Seniority List. Not less than 10 days prior to completion of any contract being performed at a Federal facility where service employees may be retained in the performance of the succeeding contract and subject to a wage determination which contains vacation or other benefit provisions based upon length of service with a Contractor (predecessor) or successor (29 CFR 4.173), the incumbent prime Contractor shall furnish to the Contracting Officer a certified list of the names of all service employees on the Contractor's or subcontractor's payroll during the last month of contract performance. Such list shall also contain anniversary dates of employment on the contract either with the current or predecessor Contractors of each such service employee. The Contracting Officer shall turn over such list to the successor Contractor at the commencement of the succeeding contract.

(o) Ruling and Interpretations. Rulings and interpretations of the Service Contract Labor Standards statute are contained in Regulations, 29 CFR Part 4.

(p) Contractor's Certification. (1) By entering into this contract, the Contractor (and officials thereof) certifies that neither it nor any person or firm who has a substantial interest in the Contractor's firm is a person or firm ineligible to be awarded Government contracts by virtue of the sanctions imposed under 41 U.S.C. 6706.

(2) No part of this contract shall be subcontracted to any person or firm ineligible for award of a Government contract under 41 U.S.C. 6706.

(3) The penalty for making false statements is prescribed in the U.S. Criminal Code, 18 U.S.C. 1001.

(q) Variations, Tolerances, and Exemptions Involving Employment. Notwithstanding any of the provisions in paragraphs (b) through (o) of this clause, the following employees may be employed in accordance with the following variations, tolerances, and exemptions, which the Secretary of Labor, pursuant to 41 U.S.C. 6707 prior to its amendment by Pub. L. 92-473, found to be necessary and proper in the public interest or to avoid serious impairment of the conduct of Government business:

(1) Apprentices, student-learners, and workers whose earning capacity is impaired by age, physical or mental deficiency, or injury may be employed at wages lower than the minimum wages otherwise required by 41 U.S.C. 6703\(1\) without diminishing any fringe benefits or cash payments in lieu thereof required under 41 U.S.C. 6703\(2\), in accordance with the conditions and procedures prescribed for the employment of apprentices, student-learners, persons with disabilities, and disabled clients of work centers under section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, in the regulations issued by the Administrator (29 CFR parts 520, 521, 524, and 525).

(2) The Administrator will issue certificates under the statute for the employment of apprentices, student-learners, persons with disabilities, or disabled clients of work centers not subject to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, or subject to different minimum rates of pay under the two statutes, authorizing appropriate rates of minimum wages (but without changing requirements concerning fringe benefits or supplementary cash payments in lieu thereof), applying procedures prescribed by the applicable regulations issued under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 CFR parts 520, 521, 524, and 525).

(3) The Administrator will also withdraw, annul, or cancel such certificates in accordance with the regulations in 29 CFR Parts 525 and 528.

(r) Apprentices. Apprentices will be permitted to work at less than the predetermined rate for the work they perform when they are employed and individually registered in a bona fide apprenticeship program registered with a State Apprenticeship Agency which is recognized by the U.S. Department of Labor, or if no such recognized agency exists in a State, under a program registered with the Office of Apprenticeship Training, Employer, and Labor Services (OATELS), U.S. Department of Labor. Any employee who is not registered as an apprentice in an approved program shall be paid the wage rate and fringe benefits contained in the applicable wage determination for the journeyman classification of work actually performed. The wage rates paid apprentices shall not be less than the wage rate for their level of progress set forth in the registered program, expressed as the appropriate percentage of the journeyman's rate contained in the applicable wage determination. The allowable ratio of apprentices to journeymen employed on the contract work in any craft classification shall not be greater than the ratio permitted to the Contractor as to his entire work force under the registered program.

(s) Tips. An employee engaged in an occupation in which the employee customarily and regularly receives more than $30 a month in tips may have the amount of these tips credited by the employer against the minimum wage required by 41 U.S.C. 6703\(1\), in accordance with section 3(m) of the Fair Labor Standards Act and Regulations, 29 CFR Part 531. However, the amount of credit shall not exceed $1.34 per hour beginning January 1, 1981. To use this provision —

(1) The employer must inform tipped employees about this tip credit allowance before the credit is utilized;

(2) The employees must be allowed to retain all tips (individually or through a pooling arrangement and regardless of whether the employer elects to take a credit for tips received);

(3) The employer must be able to show by records that the employee receives at least the applicable Service Contract Labor Standards minimum wage through the combination of direct wages and tip credit;

(4) The use of such tip credit must have been permitted under any predecessor collective bargaining agreement applicable by virtue of 41 U.S.C. 6707\(c\).

(t) Disputes Concerning Labor Standards. The U.S. Department of Labor has set forth in 29 CFR Parts 4, 6, and 8 procedures for resolving disputes concerning labor standards requirements. Such disputes shall be resolved in accordance with those procedures and not the Disputes clause of this contract. Disputes within the meaning of this clause include disputes between the Contractor (or any of its subcontractors) and the contracting agency, the U.S. Department of Labor, or the employees or their representatives.

Note: Regulation 52.222-41

NOTE: This clause does not apply to the following 5 subcategories under Large Category C - Furniture and Furnishings: Office Furniture; Healthcare Furniture; Household, Dormitory & Quarters Furniture; Packaged Furniture; Miscellaneous Furniture.

52.222-43 FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT AND SERVICE CONTRACT LABOR STANDARDS—PRICE ADJUSTMENT
(MULTIPLE YEAR AND OPTION CONTRACTS) (AUG 2018)

- (a) This clause applies to both contracts subject to area prevailing wage determinations and contracts subject to collective bargaining agreements.
- (b) The Contractor warrants that the prices in this contract do not include any allowance for any contingency to cover increased costs for which adjustment is provided under this clause.
- (c) The wage determination, issued under the Service Contract Labor Standards statute, (41 U.S.C. chapter 67), by the Administrator, Wage and Hour Division, U.S. Department of Labor, current on the anniversary date of a multiple year contract or the beginning of each renewal option period, shall apply to this contract. If no such determination has been made applicable to this contract, then the Federal minimum wage as established by section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, (29 U.S.C. 206) current on the anniversary date of a multiple year contract or the beginning of each renewal option period, shall apply to this contract.
- (d) The contract price, contract unit price labor rates, or fixed hourly labor rates will be adjusted to reflect the Contractor's actual increase or decrease in applicable wages and fringe benefits to the extent that the increase is made to comply with or the decrease is voluntarily made by the Contractor as a result of:
- (1) The Department of Labor wage determination applicable on the anniversary date of the multiple year contract, or at the beginning of the renewal option period. For example, the prior year wage determination required a minimum wage rate of $4.00 per hour. The Contractor chose to pay $4.10. The new wage determination increases the minimum rate to $4.50 per hour. Even if the Contractor voluntarily increases the rate to $4.75 per hour, the allowable price adjustment is $.40 per hour;
  - (2) An increase or decrease wage determination otherwise applied to the contract by operation of law; or
  - (3) An amendment to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 that is enacted after award of this contract, affects the minimum wage, and becomes applicable to this contract under law.
- (e) Any adjustment will be limited to increases or decreases in wages and fringe benefits as described in paragraph (d) of this clause, and the accompanying increases or decreases in social security and unemployment taxes and workers' compensation insurance, but shall not otherwise include any amount for general and administrative costs, overhead, or profit.
- (f) The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer of any increase claimed under this clause within 30 days after receiving a new wage determination unless this notification period is extended in writing by the Contracting Officer. The Contractor shall promptly notify the Contracting Officer of any decrease under this clause, but nothing in the clause shall preclude the Government from asserting a claim within the period permitted by law. The notice shall contain a statement of the amount claimed and the change in fixed hourly rates (if this is a time-and-materials or labor-hour contract), and any relevant supporting data, including payroll records, that the Contracting Officer may reasonably require. Upon agreement of the parties, the contract price, contract unit price labor rates, or fixed hourly rates shall be modified in writing. The Contractor shall continue performance pending agreement on or determination of any such adjustment in its effective date.

(g) The Contracting Officer or an authorized representative shall have access to and the right to examine any directly pertinent books, documents, papers and records of the Contractor until the expiration of 3 years after final payment under the contract.

52.223-17 AFFIRMATIVE PROCUREMENT OF EPA-DESIGNATED ITEMS IN SERVICE AND CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS (AUG 2018)

- (1) Competitively within a timeframe providing for compliance with the contract performance schedule;
- (2) Meeting contract performance requirements; or
- (3) At a reasonable price.

(b) Information about this requirement is available at EPA's Comprehensive Procurement Guidelines web site, <https://www.epa.gov/smm/comprehensive-procurement-guideline-cpg-program>. ### 52.204-13 SYSTEM FOR AWARD MANAGEMENT MAINTENANCE (OCT 2018)

(a) Definitions. As used in this clause —

“Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) indicator” means a four-character suffix to the unique entity identifier. The suffix is assigned at the discretion of the commercial, nonprofit, or Government entity to establish additional System for Award Management (SAM) records for identifying alternative EFT accounts (see subpart 32.11) for the same entity.

“Registered in the System for Award Management (SAM)” means that —

- (1) The Contractor has entered all mandatory information, including the unique entity identifier and the EFT indicator (if applicable), the Commercial and Government Entity (CAGE) code, as well as data required by the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act of 2006 (see subpart 4.14), into SAM;
- (2) The Contractor has completed the Core, Assertions, Representations and Certifications, and Points of Contact sections of the registration in SAM;
- (3) The Government has validated all mandatory data fields, to include validation of the Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The Contractor will be required to provide consent for TIN validation to the Government as a part of the SAM registration process; and
- (4) The Government has marked the record “Active”.

“System for Award Management (SAM)” means the primary Government repository for prospective Federal awardee and Federal awardee information and the centralized Government system for certain contracting, grants, and other assistance-related processes. It includes—

- (1) Data collected from prospective Federal awardees required for the conduct of business with the Government;
- (2) Prospective contractor-submitted annual representations and certifications in accordance with FAR subpart 4.12; and
- (3) Identification of those parties excluded from receiving Federal contracts, certain subcontracts, and certain types of Federal financial and non-financial assistance and benefits.

“Unique entity identifier” means a number or other identifier used to identify a specific commercial, nonprofit, or Government entity. See www.sam.gov for the designated entity for establishing unique entity identifiers.

(b) If the solicitation for this contract contained the provision 52.204–7 with its Alternate I, and the Contractor was unable to register prior to award, the Contractor shall be registered in SAM within 30 days after award or before three days prior to submission of the first invoice, whichever occurs first.

(c) The Contractor shall maintain registration in SAM during contract performance and through final payment of any contract, basic agreement, basic ordering agreement, or blanket purchasing agreement. The Contractor is responsible for the currency, accuracy and completeness of the data within SAM, and for any liability resulting from the Government’s reliance on inaccurate or incomplete data. To remain registered in SAM after the initial registration, the Contractor is required to review and update on an annual basis, from the date of initial registration or subsequent updates, its information in SAM to ensure it is current, accurate and complete. Updating information in SAM does not alter the terms and conditions of this contract and is not a substitute for a properly executed contractual document.

- (d) (1) (i) If a Contractor has legally changed its business name or doing business as name (whichever is shown on the contract), or has transferred the assets used in performing the contract, but has not completed the necessary requirements regarding novation and change-of-name agreements in subpart 42.12, the Contractor shall provide the responsible Contracting Officer a minimum of one business day’s written notification of its intention to —

(A) Change the name in SAM;

(B) Comply with the requirements of subpart 42.12 of the FAR; and

(C) Agree in writing to the timeline and procedures specified by the responsible Contracting Officer. The Contractor shall provide with the notification sufficient documentation to support the legally changed name.

(ii) If the Contractor fails to comply with the requirements of paragraph (d)(1)(i) of this clause, or fails to perform the agreement at paragraph (d)(1)(i)(C) of this clause, and, in the absence of a properly executed novation or change-of-name agreement, the SAM information that shows the Contractor to be other than the Contractor indicated in the contract will be considered to be incorrect information within the meaning of the "Suspension of Payment" paragraph of the electronic funds transfer (EFT) clause of this contract.

(2) The Contractor shall not change the name or address for EFT payments or manual payments, as appropriate, in SAM record to reflect an assignee for the purpose of assignment of claims (see FAR subpart 32.8, Assignment of Claims). Assignees shall be separately registered in the SAM. Information provided to the Contractor's SAM record that indicates payments, including those made by EFT, to an ultimate recipient other than that Contractor will be considered to be incorrect information within the meaning of the "Suspension of Payment" paragraph of the EFT clause of this contract.

(3) The Contractor shall ensure that the unique entity identifier is maintained with the entity designated at www.sam.gov for establishment of the unique entity identifier throughout the life of the contract. The Contractor shall communicate any change to the unique entity identifier to the Contracting Officer within 30 days after the change, so an appropriate modification can be issued to update the data on the contract. A change in the unique entity identifier does not necessarily require a novation be accomplished.

(e) Contractors may obtain additional information on registration and annual confirmation requirements at <https://www.sam.gov>.

52.209-9 UPDATES OF PUBLICLY AVAILABLE INFORMATION REGARDING RESPONSIBILITY MATTERS (OCT 2018)

(a) The Contractor shall update the information in the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System (FAPIS) on a semi-annual basis, throughout the life of the contract, by posting the required information in the System for Award Management via <https://www.sam.gov>.

(b) As required by section 3010 of the Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2010 (Pub. L. 111-212), all information posted in FAPIS on or after April 15, 2011, except past performance reviews, will be publicly available. FAPIS consists of two segments —

(1) The non-public segment, into which Government officials and the Contractor post information, which can only be viewed by —

(i) Government personnel and authorized users performing business on behalf of the Government; or

(ii) The Contractor, when viewing data on itself; and

(2) The publicly-available segment, to which all data in the non-public segment of FAPIS is automatically transferred after a waiting period of 14 calendar days, except for —

(i) Past performance reviews required by subpart 42.15;

(ii) Information that was entered prior to April 15, 2011; or

(iii) Information that is withdrawn during the 14-calendar-day waiting period by the Government official who posted it in accordance with paragraph (c)(1) of this clause.

(c) The Contractor will receive notification when the Government posts new information to the Contractor's record.

(1) If the Contractor asserts in writing within 7 calendar days, to the Government official who posted the information, that some of the information posted to the nonpublic segment of FAPIIS is covered by a disclosure exemption under the Freedom of Information Act, the Government official who posted the information must within 7 calendar days remove the posting from FAPIIS and resolve the issue in accordance with agency Freedom of Information procedures, prior to reposting the releasable information. The contractor must cite 52.209-9 and request removal within 7 calendar days of the posting to FAPIIS.

(2) The Contractor will also have an opportunity to post comments regarding information that has been posted by the Government. The comments will be retained as long as the associated information is retained, i.e., for a total period of 6 years. Contractor comments will remain a part of the record unless the Contractor revises them.

(3) As required by section 3010 of Pub. L. 111-212, all information posted in FAPIIS on or after April 15, 2011, except past performance reviews, will be publicly available.

(d) Public requests for system information posted prior to April 15, 2011, will be handled under Freedom of Information Act procedures, including, where appropriate, procedures promulgated under E.O. 12600.

52.232-33 PAYMENT BY ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER-SYSTEM FOR AWARD MANAGEMENT (OCT 2018)

(a) Method of payment.

(1) All payments by the Government under this contract shall be made by electronic funds transfer (EFT), except as provided in paragraph (a)(2) of this clause. As used in this clause, the term "EFT" refers to the funds transfer and may also include the payment information transfer.

(2) In the event the Government is unable to release one or more payments by EFT, the Contractor agrees to either—

(i) Accept payment by check or some other mutually agreeable method of payment; or

(ii) Request the Government to extend the payment due date until such time as the Government can make payment by EFT (but see paragraph (d) of this clause).

(b) Contractor's EFT information. The Government shall make payment to the Contractor using the EFT information contained in the System for Award Management (SAM). In the event that the EFT information changes, the Contractor shall be responsible for providing the updated information to SAM.

(c) Mechanisms for EFT payment. The Government may make payment by EFT through either the Automated Clearing House (ACH) network, subject to the rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association, or the Fedwire Transfer System. The rules governing Federal payments through the ACH are contained in 31 CFR Part 210.

(d) Suspension of payment. If the Contractor's EFT information in SAM is incorrect, then the Government need not make payment to the Contractor under this contract until correct EFT information is entered into SAM; and any invoice or contract financing request shall be deemed not to be a proper invoice for the purpose of prompt payment under this contract. The prompt payment terms of the contract regarding notice of an improper invoice and delays in accrual of interest penalties apply.

(e) Liability for uncompleted or erroneous transfers.

(1) If an uncompleted or erroneous transfer occurs because the Government used the Contractor's EFT information incorrectly, the Government remains responsible for—

- (i) Making a correct payment;
- (ii) Paying any prompt payment penalty due; and
- (iii) Recovering any erroneously directed funds.

(2) If an uncompleted or erroneous transfer occurs because the Contractor's EFT information was incorrect, or was revised within 30 days of Government release of the EFT payment transaction instruction to the Federal Reserve System, and—

- (i) If the funds are no longer under the control of the payment office, the Government is deemed to have made payment and the Contractor is responsible for recovery of any erroneously directed funds; or
- (ii) If the funds remain under the control of the payment office, the Government shall not make payment, and the provisions of paragraph (d) of this clause shall apply.

(f) EFT and prompt payment. A payment shall be deemed to have been made in a timely manner in accordance with the prompt payment terms of this contract if, in the EFT payment transaction instruction released to the Federal Reserve System, the date specified for settlement of the payment is on or before the prompt payment due date, provided the specified payment date is a valid date under the rules of the Federal Reserve System.

(g) EFT and assignment of claims. If the Contractor assigns the proceeds of this contract as provided for in the assignment of claims terms of this contract, the Contractor shall require as a condition of any such assignment, that the assignee shall register separately in SAM and shall be paid by EFT in accordance with the terms of this clause. Notwithstanding any other requirement of this contract, payment to an ultimate recipient other than the Contractor, or a financial institution properly recognized under an assignment of claims pursuant to Subpart 32.8, is not permitted. In all respects, the requirements of this clause shall apply to the assignee as if it were the Contractor. EFT information that shows the ultimate recipient of the transfer to be other than the Contractor, in the absence of a proper assignment of claims acceptable to the Government, is incorrect EFT information within the meaning of paragraph (d) of this clause.

(h) Liability for change of EFT information by financial agent. The Government is not liable for errors resulting from changes to EFT information made by the Contractor's financial agent.

(i) Payment information. The payment or disbursing office shall forward to the Contractor available payment information that is suitable for transmission as of the date of release of the EFT instruction to the Federal Reserve System. The Government may request the Contractor to designate a desired format and method(s) for delivery of payment information from a list of formats and methods the payment office is capable of executing. However, the Government does not guarantee that any particular format or method of delivery is available at any particular payment office and retains the latitude to use the format and delivery method most convenient to the Government. If the Government makes payment by check in accordance with paragraph (a) of this clause, the Government shall mail the payment information to the remittance address contained in SAM.

552.238-105 DELIVERIES BEYOND THE CONTRACTUAL PERIOD - PLACING OF ORDERS (MAY 2019)

In accordance with Clause 552.238-113, Scope of Contract (Eligible Ordering Activities), this contract covers all requirements that may be ordered, as distinguished from delivered during the contract term. This is for the purpose of providing continuity of supply or operations by permitting ordering activities to place orders as requirements arise in the normal course of operations. Accordingly, any order mailed (or received, if forwarded by other means than through the mail) to the Contractor on or before the expiration date of the contract, and providing for delivery within the number of days specified in the contract, shall constitute a valid order.

To obtain shipping instructions, the Contractor shall forward completed copies of GSA Form 1611, Application for Shipping Instructions and Notice of Availability, to the GSA office designated on the purchase order at least 15 days prior to the anticipated shipping date. Copies of GSA Form 1611 will be furnished to the Contractor with the purchase order. Failure to comply with this requirement could result in nonacceptance of the material by authorities at the port of exportation. When supplies for export are ordered by other Government agencies the Contractor should obtain shipping instructions from the ordering agency.

552.238-86 DELIVERY SCHEDULE (MAY 2019)

(a) Time of delivery. The Contractor shall deliver to destination within the number of calendar days after receipt of order (ARO) in the case of F.O.B. Offerors shall insert in the "Time of Delivery (days ARO)" column in the schedule of Items a definite number of calendar days within which delivery will be made. In no case shall the offered delivery time exceed the Contractor's normal business practice. The Government requires the Contractor's normal delivery time, as long as it is less than the "stated" delivery time(s) shown below. If the Offeror does not insert a delivery time in the schedule of items, the Offeror will be deemed to offer delivery in accordance with the Government's stated delivery time, as stated below [The contracting officer shall insert the solicited items or Special Item Numbers (SIN) as well as a reasonable delivery time that corresponds with each item or SIN, if known]:

552.238-89 DELIVERIES TO THE U.S. POSTAL SERVICE (MAY 2019)

(a) Applicability. This clause applies to orders placed for the U.S. Postal Service (USPS) and accepted by the Contractor for the delivery of supplies to a USPS facility (consignee).

(b) Mode/method of transportation. Unless the Contracting Officer grants a waiver of this requirement, any shipment that meets the USPS requirements for mailability (i.e., 70 pounds or less, combined length and girth not more than 108 inches, etc.) delivery shall be accomplished via the use of the USPS. Other commercial services shall not be used, but this does not preclude the Contractor from making delivery by the use of the Contractor's own vehicles.

(c) Time of delivery. Notwithstanding the required time for delivery to destination as may be specified elsewhere in this contract, if shipments under this clause are mailed not later than five (5) calendar days before the required delivery date, delivery shall be deemed to have been made timely.

552.238-92 VENDOR MANAGED INVENTORY (VMI) PROGRAM (MAY 2019)

(a) The term "Vendor Managed Inventory" describes a system in which the Contractor monitors and maintains specified inventory levels for selected items at designated stocking points. VMI enables the Contractor to plan production and shipping more efficiently. Stocking points benefit from reduced inventory but steady stock levels.

(b) Contractors that commercially provide a VMI-type system may enter into similar partnerships with ordering agencies under a Blanket Purchase Agreement.

552.238-93 ORDER ACKNOWLEDGMENT (MAY 2019)

Contractors shall acknowledge only those orders which state "Order Acknowledgment Required." These orders shall be acknowledged within 10 calendar days after receipt. Such acknowledgment shall be sent to the ordering activity placing the order and contain information pertinent to the order, including the anticipated delivery date.

When the Federal Supply Schedule contract delivery period does not meet the bona fide urgent delivery requirements of an ordering activity, the ordering activity is encouraged, if time permits, to contact the Contractor for the purpose of obtaining accelerated delivery. The Contractor shall reply to the inquiry within three (3) business days after receipt. (Telephonic replies shall be confirmed by the Contractor in writing.) If the Contractor offers an accelerated delivery time acceptable to the ordering activity, any order(s) placed pursuant to the agreed upon accelerated delivery time frame shall be delivered within this shorter delivery time and in accordance with all other terms and conditions of the contract.

552.238-95 SEPARATE CHARGE FOR PERFORMANCE ORIENTED PACKAGING (POP) (MAY 2019)

(a) Offerors are requested to list the hazardous material item to which the separate charge applies in the spaces provided in this paragraph or on a separate attachment. (b) Ordering activities will not be obligated to utilize the Contractor's services for Performance Oriented Packaging, and they may obtain such services elsewhere if desired. However, the Contractor shall provide items in Performance Oriented Packaging when such packing is specified on the delivery order. The Contractor's contract price and the charge for Performance Oriented Packaging will be shown as separate entries on the delivery order.

552.238-96 SEPARATE CHARGE FOR DELIVERY WITHIN CONSIGNEE'S PREMISES (MAY 2019) 538.273\(d\)\(20\)

(a) Offerors are requested to insert, in the spaces provided below or by attachment hereto, a separate charge for "Delivery Within Consignee's Premises" applicable to each shipping container to be shipped. (Articles which are comparable in size and weight, and for which the same charge is applicable, should be grouped under an appropriate item description.) These additional charges will be accepted as part of the award, if considered reasonable, and shall be included in the Contractor's published catalog and/or price list.

(b) Ordering activities are not obligated to issue orders on the basis of "Delivery Within Consignee's Premises," and Contractors may refuse delivery on that basis provided such refusal is communicated in writing to the ordering activity issuing such orders within 5 days of the receipt of such order by the Contractor and provided further, that delivery is made in accordance with the other delivery requirements of the contract. Failure of the Contractor to submit this notification within the time specified shall constitute acceptance to furnish "Delivery Within Consignee's Premises" at the additional charge awarded. When an ordering activity issues an order on the basis of "Delivery Within Consignee's Premises" at the accepted additional charge awarded and the Contractor accepts such orders on that basis, the Contractor will be obligated to provide delivery "F.o.b. Destination, Within Consignee's Premises" in accordance with FAR 52.247-35, which is then incorporated by reference, with the exception that an additional charge as provided herein is allowed for such services. Unless otherwise stipulated by the Offeror, the additional charges awarded hereunder may be applied to any delivery within the 48 contiguous States and the District of Columbia.

(c) When exercising their option to issue orders on the basis of delivery service as provided herein, ordering activities will specify "Delivery Within Consignee's Premises" on the order, and will indicate the exact location to which delivery is to be made. The Contractor's delivery price and the additional charge(s) for "Delivery Within Consignee's Premises" will be shown as separate entries on the order..

552.238-101 FOREIGN TAXES AND DUTIES (MAY 2019)

Prices offered must be net, delivered, f.o.b. to the destinations accepted by the Government.

(a) The Contractor warrants that such prices do not include any tax, duty, customs fees, or other foreign Governmental costs, assessments, or similar charges from which the U.S. Government is exempt.

552.238-103 ELECTRONIC COMMERCE (MAY 2019)

(a) General background. The Federal Acquisition Streamlining Act (FASA) of 1994 requires the Government to evolve its acquisition process from one driven by paper to an expedited process based on electronic commerce/electronic data interchange (EC/EDI). EC/EDI encompasses more than merely automating manual processes and eliminating paper transactions. EC/EDI improves business processes (e.g. procurement, finance, logistics) into a fully electronic environment and fundamentally changes the way organizations operate.

(b) Trading partners and Value-Added Networks (VAN's).

(1) Within the electronic commerce architecture, electronic documents (e.g., orders, invoices, etc.) are carried between the Federal Government's procuring office and Contractors (now known as "trading partners"). These transactions are carried by commercial telecommunications companies called Value-Added Networks (VAN's).

(2) EDI can be performed using commercially available hardware, software, and telecommunications. The selection of a VAN is a business decision Contractors must make. There are many different VAN's which provide a variety of electronic services and different pricing strategies. If the VAN only provides communications services, you may also need a software translation package.

(c) Registration instructions. To perform EDI with the Government, Contractors shall register as a trading partner. Contractors will provide regular business information, banking information, and EDI capabilities to all agencies in this single registration. A central repository of all trading partners is the Systems for Award Management (SAM) <http://www.sam.gov>. Contractors shall follow the instructions on the SAM website regarding how to register for EDI.

(d) Implementation conventions. All EDI transactions must comply with the Federal Implementation Conventions (ICs). The ICs are available on a registry maintained by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST). It is accessible via the INTERNET at <http://www.nist.gov/itl>. ICs are available for common business documents such as Purchase Order, Price Sales Catalog, Invoice, Request for Quotes, etc.

(e) Additional information. GSA has additional information available for Contractors who are interested in using EC/EDI on its website, <http://www.gsa.gov>.

(1) GSA Advantage!® uses electronic commerce to receive catalogs, invoices and text messages; and to send purchase orders, application advice, and functional acknowledgments. GSA Advantage!® enables customers to:

- (i) Perform database searches across all contracts by manufacturer; manufacturer's model/part number; Contractor; and generic supply categories.
- (ii) Generate EDI delivery orders to Contractors, generate EDI delivery orders from the Federal Supply Service to Contractors, or download files to create their own delivery orders.
- (iii) Use the credit card.

(2) GSA Advantage!® may be accessed via the GSA Home Page. The Internet address is: <http://www.gsa.gov>.

552.238-104 DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION BY CONTRACTOR (MAY 2019)

However, it is the responsibility of the Contractor to furnish all sales outlets authorized to participate in the performance of the contract with the terms, conditions, pricing schedule, and other appropriate information.

552.238-106 INTERPRETATION OF CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS (MAY 2019)

No interpretation of any provision of this contract, including applicable specifications, shall be binding on the Government unless furnished or agreed to in writing by the Contracting Officer or his designated representative.

552.238-112 DEFINITION (FEDERAL SUPPLY SCHEDULES) - NON-FEDERAL ENTITY (MAY 2019)

If the Contractor elects to cancel this contract, the Government will not reimburse the minimum guarantee.

552.238-81 PRICE REDUCTIONS (MAY 2019)

(a) Before award of a contract, the Contracting Officer and the Offeror will agree upon (1) the customer (or category of customers) which will be the basis of award, and (2) the Government's price or discount relationship to the identified customer (or category of customers). This relationship shall be maintained throughout the contract period. Any change in the Contractor's commercial pricing or discount arrangement applicable to the identified customer (or category of customers) which disturbs this relationship shall constitute a price reduction.

(b) During the contract period, the Contractor shall report to the Contracting Officer all price reductions to the customer (or category of customers) that was the basis of award. The Contractor's report shall include an explanation of the conditions under which the reductions were made.

(c) (1) A price reduction shall apply to purchases under this contract if, after the date negotiations conclude, the Contractor

(i) Revises the commercial catalog, pricelist, schedule or other document upon which contract award was predicated to reduce prices;

(ii) Grants more favorable discounts or terms and conditions than those contained in the commercial catalog, pricelist, schedule or other documents upon which contract award was predicated; or

(iii) Grants special discounts to the customer (or category of customers) that formed the basis of award, and the change disturbs the price/discount relationship of the Government to the customer (or category of customers) that was the basis of award.

(2) The Contractor shall offer the price reduction to the eligible ordering activity with the same effective date, and for the same time period, as extended to the commercial customer (or category of customers).

(d) There shall be no price reduction for sales —

(1) To commercial customers under firm, fixed-price definite quantity contracts with specified delivery in excess of the maximum order threshold specified in this contract;

(2) To Federal agencies;

(3) Made to Eligible Ordering Activities identified in GSAR Clause 552.238-113 when the order is placed under this contract (and the Eligible Ordering Activities identified in GSAR Clause 552.238-113 is the agreed upon customer or category of customer that is the basis of award); or

(4) Caused by an error in quotation or billing, provided adequate documentation is furnished by the Contractor to the Contracting Officer.

(e) The Contractor may offer the Contracting Officer a voluntary Governmentwide price reduction at any time during the contract period.

(f) The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer of any price reduction subject to this clause as soon as possible, but not later than 15 calendar days after its effective date.

(g) The contract will be modified to reflect any price reduction which becomes applicable in accordance with this clause.

Note: Regulation 552.238-81

This clause does not apply to contracts participating in the Transactional Data Reporting (TDR) Pilot. Please refer to clause 552.238-81 Alternate I.

552.238-81 PRICE REDUCTIONS (MAY 2019) (ALTERNATE I - APR 2014)

(a) The Government may request from the Contractor, and the Contractor may provide to the Government, a temporary or permanent price reduction at any time during the contract period.

(b) The Contractor may offer the Contracting Officer a voluntary price reduction at any time during the contract period.

Note: Regulation 552.238-81

This clause applies to contracts participating in the Transactional Data Reporting (TDR) Pilot.

552.238-83 EXAMINATION OF RECORDS BY GSA (FEDERAL SUPPLY SCHEDULES) (MAY 2019)

The Contractor agrees that the Administrator of General Services or any duly authorized representative shall have access to and the right to examine any books, documents, papers and records of the contractor involving transactions related to this contract for overbillings, billing errors, compliance with contract clauses 552.238-81, Price Reductions and 552.238-80, Industrial Funding Fee and Sales Reporting. This authority shall expire 3 years after final payment. The basic contract and each option shall be treated as separate contracts for purposes of applying this clause.

552.238-84 DISCOUNTS FOR PROMPT PAYMENT (MAY 2019)

(a) Discounts for early payment (hereinafter referred to as "discounts" or "the discount") will be considered in evaluating the relationship of the Offeror's concessions to the Government vis-a-vis the Offeror's concessions to its commercial and Federal non-schedule customers, but only to the extent indicated in this clause.

(b) Discounts will not be considered to determine the low Offeror in the situation described in the "Offers on Identical Products" provision of this solicitation.

(c) Uneconomical discounts will not be considered as meeting the criteria for award established by the Government. In this connection, a discount will be considered uneconomical if the annualized rate of return for earning the discount is lower than the "value of funds" rate established by the Department of the Treasury and published quarterly in the Federal Register. The "value of funds" rate applied will be the rate in effect on the date specified for the receipt of offers.

(d) Discounts for early payment may be offered either in the original offer or on individual invoices submitted under the resulting contract. Discounts offered will be taken by the ordering activity if payment is made within the discount period specified.

(e) Discounts that are included in offers become a part of the resulting contracts and are binding on the Contractor for all orders placed under the contract. Discounts offered only on individual invoices will be binding on the Contractor only for the particular invoice on which the discount is offered.

(f) In connection with any discount offered for prompt payment, time shall be computed from the date of the invoice. For the purpose of computing the discount earned, payment shall be considered to have been made on the date which appears on the payment check or the date on which an electronic funds transfer was made.

552.238-85 CONTRACTOR'S BILLING RESPONSIBILITIES (MAY 2019)

(a) The Contractor is required to perform all billings made pursuant to this contract. However, if the Contractor has dealers that participate on the contract and the billing/payment process by the Contractor for sales made by the dealer is a significant administrative burden, the following alternative procedures may be used. Where dealers are allowed by the Contractor to bill ordering activities and accept payment in the Contractor's name, the Contractor agrees to obtain from all dealers participating in the performance of the contract a written agreement, which will require dealers to

- (1) Comply with the same terms and conditions as the Contractor for sales made under the contract;
- (2) Maintain a system of reporting sales under the contract to the manufacturer, which includes
  - (i) The date of sale;
  - (ii) The ordering activity to which the sale was made;
  - (iii) The service or supply/model sold;
  - (iv) The quantity of each service or supply/model sold;
  - (v) The price at which it was sold, including discounts; and
  - (vi) All other significant sales data.
- (3) Be subject to audit by the Government, with respect to sales made under the contract; and
- (4) Place orders and accept payments in the name of the Contractor in care of the dealer.

(b) An agreement between a Contractor and its dealers pursuant to this procedure will not establish privity of contract between dealers and the Government.

552.238-87 DELIVERY PRICES (MAY 2019)

(a) Prices offered must cover delivery as provided below to destinations located within the 48 contiguous States and the District of Columbia.

- (1) Delivery to the door of the specified Government activity by freight or express common carriers on articles for which store-door delivery is provided, free or subject to a charge, pursuant to regularly published tariffs duly filed with the Federal and/or State regulatory bodies governing such carrier; or, at the option of the Contractor, by parcel post on mailable articles, or by the Contractor's vehicle. Where store-door delivery is subject to a charge, the Contractor shall place the notation "Delivery Service Requested" on bills of lading covering such shipments, and pay such charge and add the actual cost thereof as a separate item to his invoice.

(2) Delivery to siding at destinations when specified by the ordering office, if delivery is not covered under paragraph (a)(1) of this section.

(3) Delivery to the freight station nearest destination when delivery is not covered under paragraph (a)(1) or (2) of this section.

(b) The Offeror shall indicate in the offer whether or not prices submitted cover delivery f.o.b. destination in Alaska, Hawaii, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

552.238-80 INDUSTRIAL FUNDING FEE AND SALES REPORTING (JUL 2020)

(a) Reporting of Federal Supply Schedule Sales. The Contractor shall report all contract sales under this contract as follows:

- (1) The Contractor shall accurately report the dollar value, in U.S. dollars and rounded to the nearest whole dollar, of all sales under this contract by calendar quarter (January 1-March 31, April 1- June 30, July 1-September 30, and October 1-December 31). The dollar value of a sale is the price paid by the Schedule user for products and services on a Schedule task or delivery order. The reported contract sales value shall include the Industrial Funding Fee (IFF). The Contractor shall maintain a consistent accounting method of sales reporting, based on the Contractor's established commercial accounting practice. The acceptable points at which sales may be reported include—

- (i) Receipt of order;
- (ii) Shipment or delivery, as applicable;
- (iii) Issuance of an invoice; or
- (iv) Payment.

(2) Contract sales shall be reported to Federal Acquisition Services (FAS) within 30 calendar days following the completion of each reporting quarter. The Contractor shall continue to furnish quarterly reports, including “zero” sales, through physical completion of the last outstanding task order or delivery order of the contract.

(3) Reportable sales under the contract are those resulting from sales of contract items to authorized users unless the purchase was conducted pursuant to a separate contracting authority such as a Governmentwide Acquisition Contract (GWAC); a separately awarded FAR Part 12, FAR Part 13, FAR Part 14, or FAR Part 15 procurement; or a non-FAR contract. Sales made to state and local governments under Cooperative Purchasing authority shall be counted as reportable sales for IFF purposes.

(4) The Contractor shall electronically report the quarterly dollar value of sales, including “zero” sales, by utilizing the automated reporting system at an Internet website designated by the General Services Administration (GSA)'s Federal Acquisition Service (FAS). Prior to using this automated system, the Contractor shall complete contract registration with the FAS Vendor Support Center (VSC). The website address, as well as registration instructions and reporting procedures, will be provided at the time of award. The Contractor shall report sales separately for each National Stock Number (NSN), Special Item Number (SIN), or sub-item.

(5) The Contractor shall convert the total value of sales made in foreign currency to U.S. dollars using the “Treasury Reporting Rates of Exchange” issued by the U.S. Department of Treasury, Financial Management Service. The Contractor shall use the issue of the Treasury report in effect on the last day of the calendar quarter. The report is available from Financial Management Service, International Funds Branch, Telephone: (202) 874-7994, Internet: http://www.fiscal.treasury.gov/fsreports/rpt/treasRptRateExch/treasRptRateExch\_home.htm.

(b) The Contractor shall remit the IFF at the rate set by GSA's FAS.

(1) The Contractor shall remit the IFF to FAS in U.S. dollars within 30 calendar days after the end of the reporting quarter; final payment shall be remitted within 30 days after physical completion of the last outstanding task order or delivery order of the contract.

(2) The IFF represents a percentage of the total quarterly sales reported. This percentage is set at the discretion of GSA's FAS. GSA's FAS has the unilateral right to change the percentage at any time, but not more than once per year. FAS will provide reasonable notice prior to the effective date of the change. The IFF reimburses FAS for the costs of operating the Federal Supply Schedules Program. FAS recoups its operating costs from ordering activities as set forth in 40 U.S.C. 321: Acquisition Services Fund. Net operating revenues generated by the IFF are also applied to fund initiatives benefitting other authorized FAS programs, in accordance with 40 U.S.C. 321. Offerors must include the IFF in their prices. The fee is included in the award price(s) and reflected in the total amount charged to ordering activities. FAS will post notice of the current IFF at <https://srp.fas.gsa.gov/> or successor website as appropriate.

(c) Within 60 days of award, an FAS representative will provide the Contractor with specific written procedural instructions on remitting the IFF. FAS reserves the unilateral right to change such instructions from time to time, following notification to the Contractor.

(d) Failure to remit the full amount of the IFF within 30 calendar days after the end of the applicable reporting period constitutes a contract debt to the United States Government under the terms of FAR Subpart 32.6. The Government may exercise all rights under the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, including withholding or setting off payments and interest on the debt (see FAR clause 52.232-17, Interest). Should the Contractor fail to submit the required sales reports, falsify them, or fail to timely pay the IFF, this is sufficient cause for the Government to terminate the contract for cause.

End of Clause

Note: Regulation 552.238-80
 FSS contractors are required to report sales and remit IFF for Schedule items sold via FedMall, just as they would for any other Schedule sale. FedMall sales of Schedule items are treated no differently than sales earned via GSA Advantage! or from orders directly placed by an ordering activity.

 This clause does not apply to contracts participating in the Transactional Data Reporting (TDR) Pilot. Please refer to clause 552.238-80 Alternate I.

(1) For items shipped to consignees, the Contractor shall include a copy of the MSDS with the packing list or other suitable shipping document which accompanies each shipment. Alternatively, the Contractor is permitted to transmit MSDS's to consignees in advance of receipt of shipments by consignees, if authorized in writing by the Contracting Officer.

(2) For items shipped to consignees identified by mailing address as agency depots, distribution centers or customer supply centers, the Contractor shall provide one copy of the MSDS's in or on each shipping container. If affixed to the outside of each container, the MSDS must be placed in a weather resistant envelope.

Upon completion of the required action(s), the Contracting Officer shall consider an equitable adjustment to the contract (see also paragraph (f)(1)(ii)(A) of this clause).

(iii) The Government may, at its option, furnish property in an "as-is" condition. The Contractor will be given the opportunity to inspect such property prior to the property being provided. In such cases, the Government makes no warranty with respect to the serviceability and/or suitability of the property for contract performance. Any repairs, replacement, and/or refurbishment shall be at the Contractor's expense.

(3)

(iii) Records of Government property. The Contractor shall create and maintain records of all Government property accountable to the contract, including Government-furnished and Contractor-acquired property.

(A) Property records shall enable a complete, current, auditable record of all transactions and shall, unless otherwise approved by the Property Administrator, contain the following:

(v) Subcontractor control.

(B) The Contractor shall assure its subcontracts are properly administered and reviews are periodically performed to determine the adequacy of the subcontractor's property management system.

(vi) Reports. The Contractor shall have a process to create and provide reports of discrepancies, loss of Government property, physical inventory results, audits and self-assessments, corrective actions, and other property-related reports as directed by the Contracting Officer.

  - (2) Property Administrator grants relief of responsibility and liability for loss of Government property;
  - (3) Property is delivered or shipped from the Contractor's plant, under Government instructions, except when shipment is to a subcontractor or other location of the Contractor; or

(2) The Contractor shall establish and maintain Government accounting source data, as may be required by this contract, particularly in the areas of recognition of acquisitions, loss of Government property, and disposition of material and equipment.

(g) Systems analysis.

(1) The Government shall have access to the Contractor's premises and all Government property, at reasonable times, for the purposes of reviewing, inspecting and evaluating the Contractor's property management plan(s), systems, procedures, records, and supporting documentation that pertains to Government property. This access includes all site locations and, with the Contractor's consent, all subcontractor premises.

(2) Records of Government property shall be readily available to authorized Government personnel and shall be appropriately safeguarded.

(3) Should it be determined by the Government that the Contractor's (or subcontractor's) property management practices are inadequate or not acceptable for the effective management and control of Government property under this contract, or present an undue risk to the Government, the Contractor shall prepare a corrective action plan when requested by the Property Administrator and take all necessary corrective actions as specified by the schedule within the corrective action plan.

(h) Contractor Liability for Government Property.

(1) Unless otherwise provided for in the contract, the Contractor shall not be liable for loss of Government property furnished or acquired under this contract, except when any one of the following applies-

(ii) Loss of Government property that is the result of willful misconduct or lack of good faith on the part of the Contractor's managerial personnel.

(iii) The Contracting Officer has, in writing, revoked the Government's assumption of risk for loss of Government property due to a determination under paragraph (g) of this clause that the Contractor's property management practices are inadequate, and/or present an undue risk to the Government, and the Contractor failed to take timely corrective action. If the Contractor can establish by clear and convincing evidence that the loss of Government property occurred while the Contractor had adequate property management practices or the loss did not result from the Contractor's failure to maintain adequate property management practices, the Contractor shall not be held liable.

(2) The Contractor shall take all reasonable actions necessary to protect the property from further loss. The Contractor shall separate the damaged and undamaged property, place all the affected property in the best possible order, and take such other action as the Property Administrator directs.

(3) The Contractor shall do nothing to prejudice the Government's rights to recover against third parties for any loss of Government property.

(4) The Contractor shall reimburse the Government for loss of Government property, to the extent that the Contractor is financially liable for such loss, as directed by the Contracting Officer.

(5) Upon the request of the Contracting Officer, the Contractor shall, at the Government's expense, furnish to the Government all reasonable assistance and cooperation, including the prosecution of suit and the execution of instruments of assignment in favor of the Government in obtaining recovery.

(1) Predisposal requirements.

(i) If the Contractor determines that the property has the potential to fulfill requirements under other contracts, the Contractor, in consultation with the Property Administrator, shall request that the Contracting Officer transfer the property to the contract in question, or provide authorization for use, as appropriate. In lieu of transferring the property, the Contracting Officer may authorize the Contractor to credit the costs of Contractor-acquired property (material only) to the losing contract, and debit the gaining contract with the corresponding cost, when such material is needed for use on another contract. Property no longer needed shall be considered contractor inventory.

(ii) For any remaining Contractor-acquired property, the Contractor may purchase the property at the unit acquisition cost if desired or make reasonable efforts to return unused property to the appropriate supplier at fair market value (less, if applicable, a reasonable restocking fee that is consistent with the supplier's customary practices.)

(2) Inventory disposal schedules.

(i) Absent separate contract terms and conditions for property disposition, and provided the property was not reutilized, transferred, or otherwise disposed of, the Contractor, as directed by the Plant Clearance Officer or authorizing official, shall use Standard Form 1428, Inventory Disposal Schedule or electronic equivalent, to identify and report-

(A) Government-furnished property that is no longer required for performance of this contract;

(B) Contractor-acquired property, to which the Government has obtained title under paragraph (e) of this clause, which is no longer required for performance of that contract; and

(C) Termination inventory.

(ii) The Contractor may annotate inventory disposal schedules to identify property the Contractor wishes to purchase from the Government, in the event that the property is offered for sale.

(iii) Separate inventory disposal schedules are required for aircraft in any condition, flight safety critical aircraft parts, and other items as directed by the Plant Clearance Officer.

(iv) The Contractor shall provide the information required by FAR 52.245-1(f)(1)(iii) along with the following:

(A) Any additional information that may facilitate understanding of the property's intended use.

(C) For precious metals in raw or bulk form, the type of metal and estimated weight.

(D) For hazardous material or property contaminated with hazardous material, the type of hazardous material.

(v) Property with the same description, condition code, and reporting location may be grouped in a single line item.

(vi) Scrap should be reported by "lot" along with metal content, estimated weight and estimated value.

(3) Submission requirements.

(i) The Contractor shall submit inventory disposal schedules to the Plant Clearance Officer no later than-

(A) 30 days following the Contractor's determination that a property item is no longer required for performance of this contract;

(B) 60 days, or such longer period as may be approved by the Plant Clearance Officer, following completion of contract deliveries or performance; or

(C) 120 days, or such longer period as may be approved by the Termination Contracting Officer, following contract termination in whole or in part.

(ii) Unless the Plant Clearance Officer determines otherwise, the Contractor need not identify or report production scrap on inventory disposal schedules, and may process and dispose of production scrap in accordance with its own internal scrap procedures. The processing and disposal of other types of Government-owned scrap will be conducted in accordance with the terms and conditions of the contract or Plant Clearance Officer direction, as appropriate.

(4) Corrections. The Plant Clearance Officer may-

(i) Reject a schedule for cause (e.g., contains errors, determined to be inaccurate); and

(ii) Require the Contractor to correct an inventory disposal schedule.

(5) Post submission adjustments. The Contractor shall notify the Plant Clearance Officer at least 10 working days in advance of its intent to remove an item from an approved inventory disposal schedule. Upon approval of the Plant Clearance Officer, or upon expiration of the notice period, the Contractor may make the necessary adjustments to the inventory schedule.

(6) Storage.

(i) The Contractor shall store the property identified on an inventory disposal schedule pending receipt of disposal instructions. The Government's failure to furnish disposal instructions within 120 days following acceptance of an inventory disposal schedule may entitle the Contractor to an equitable adjustment for costs incurred to store such property on or after the 121st day.

(ii) The Contractor shall obtain the Plant Clearance Officer's approval to remove property from the premises where the property is currently located prior to receipt of final disposition instructions. If approval is granted, any costs incurred by the Contractor to transport or store the property shall not increase the price or fee of any Government contract. The storage area shall be appropriate for assuring the property's physical safety and suitability for use. Approval does not relieve the Contractor of any liability for such property under this contract.

(7) Disposition instructions.

(i) The Contractor shall prepare for shipment, deliver f.o.b. origin, or dispose of Contractor inventory as directed by the Plant Clearance Officer. Unless otherwise directed by the Contracting Officer or by the Plant Clearance Officer, the Contractor shall remove and destroy any markings identifying the property as U.S. Government-owned property prior to its disposal.

(ii) The Contracting Officer may require the Contractor to demilitarize the property prior to shipment or disposal. In such cases, the Contractor may be entitled to an equitable adjustment under paragraph (i) of this clause.

(8) Disposal proceeds. As directed by the Contracting Officer, the Contractor shall credit the net proceeds from the disposal of Contractor inventory to the contract, or to the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts.

(9) Subcontractor inventory disposal schedules. The Contractor shall require its Subcontractors to submit inventory disposal schedules to the Contractor in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (j)(3) of this clause.

(k) Abandonment of Government property.

(1) The Government shall not abandon sensitive property or termination inventory without the Contractor's written consent.

(2) The Government, upon notice to the Contractor, may abandon any nonsensitive property in place, at which time all obligations of the Government regarding such property shall cease.

(3) Absent contract terms and conditions to the contrary, the Government may abandon parts removed and replaced from property as a result of normal maintenance actions, or removed from property as a result of the repair, maintenance, overhaul, or modification process.

(4) The Government has no obligation to restore or rehabilitate the Contractor's premises under any circumstances; however, if Government-furnished property is withdrawn or is unsuitable for the intended use, or if other Government property is substituted, then the equitable adjustment under paragraph (i) of this clause may properly include restoration or rehabilitation costs.

(l) Communication. All communications under this clause shall be in writing.

(m) Contracts outside the United States. If this contract is to be performed outside of the United States and its outlying areas, the words "Government" and "Government-furnished" (wherever they appear in this clause) shall be construed as "United States Government" and "United States Government-furnished," respectively.

Nonmanufacturer means a concern, including a supplier, that provides an end item it did not manufacture, process, or produce.

(b) Applicability.

(1) This clause does not apply to contracts awarded pursuant to the unrestricted portion of a partial set-aside or to a contractor that is the manufacturer of the product or end item.

(2) This clause applies to—

(i) Contracts that have been awarded pursuant to a set-aside, in total or in part, for any of the small business concerns identified in 19.000(a)(3);

(ii) Contracts that have been awarded on a sole-source basis in accordance with subparts 19.8, 19.13, 19.14, and 19.15;

(iii) Orders expected to exceed the simplified acquisition threshold and that are—

(iii) Take ownership or possession of the item(s) with its personnel, equipment, or facilities in a manner consistent with industry practice; for example, providing storage, transportation, or delivery.

(2) When the end item being acquired is a kit of supplies, at least 50 percent of the total cost of the components of the kit shall be manufactured, processed, or produced in the United States or its outlying areas by small business concerns.

(End of clause)

52.219-16 LIQUIDATED DAMAGES—SUBCONTRACTING PLAN
(SEP 2021)

(a) "Failure to make a good faith effort to comply with the subcontracting plan," as used in this clause, means a willful or intentional failure to perform in accordance with the requirements of the subcontracting plan approved under the clause in this contract entitled "Small Business Subcontracting Plan," or willful or intentional action to frustrate the plan.

(b) Performance shall be measured by applying the percentage goals to the total actual subcontracting dollars or, if a commercial plan is involved, to the pro rata share of actual subcontracting dollars attributable to Government contracts covered by the commercial plan. If, at contract completion or, in the case of a commercial plan, at the close of the fiscal year for which the plan is applicable, the Contractor has failed to meet its subcontracting goals and the Contracting Officer decides in accordance with paragraph (c) of this clause that the Contractor failed to make a good faith effort to comply with its subcontracting plan (see 19.705-7), established in accordance with the clause in this contract entitled "Small Business Subcontracting Plan," the Contractor shall pay the Government liquidated damages in an amount stated. The amount of probable damages attributable to the Contractor's failure to comply shall be an amount equal to the actual dollar amount by which the Contractor failed to achieve each subcontract goal.

(c) Before the Contracting Officer makes a final decision that the Contractor has failed to make such good faith effort, the Contracting Officer shall give the Contractor written notice specifying the failure and permitting the Contractor to demonstrate what good faith efforts have been made and to discuss the matter. Failure to respond to the notice may be taken as an admission that no valid explanation exists. If, after consideration of all the pertinent data, the Contracting Officer finds that the Contractor failed to make a good faith effort to comply with the subcontracting plan, the Contracting Officer shall issue a final decision to that effect and require that the Contractor pay the Government liquidated damages as provided in paragraph (b) of this clause.

(d) With respect to commercial plans, the Contracting Officer who approved the plan will perform the functions of the Contracting Officer under this clause on behalf of all agencies with contracts covered by the commercial plan.

(e) The Contractor shall have the right of appeal, under the clause in this contract entitled, Disputes, from any final decision of the Contracting Officer.

(f) Liquidated damages shall be in addition to any other remedies that the Government may have.

(d) Reporting requirement.

(1) In the event the Contractor identifies covered telecommunications equipment or services used as a substantial or essential component of any system, or as critical technology as part of any system, during contract performance, or the Contractor is notified of such by a subcontractor at any tier or by any other source, the Contractor shall report the information in paragraph (d)(2) of this clause to the Contracting Officer, unless elsewhere in this contract are established procedures for reporting the information; in the case of the Department of Defense, the Contractor shall report to the website at <https://dibnet.dod.mil>. For indefinite delivery contracts, the Contractor shall report to the Contracting Officer for the indefinite delivery contract and the Contracting Officer(s) for any affected order or, in the case of the Department of Defense, identify both the indefinite delivery contract and any affected orders in the report provided at <https://dibnet.dod.mil>.

(b) The offeror shall insert in the spaces provided in this section, the manufacturer's and/or distributor's name and the "EPA Registration Number" for each item offered. Any offer which does not specify a current "EPA Registration Number" in effect for the duration of the contract period, and including the manufacturer's and/or distributor's name will be rejected.

Items
Item Numbers	Name of Manufacturer / Distributor	EPA Registration Number	Date of Expiration

(c) If, during the performance of a contract awarded as a result of this solicitation, the EPA Registration Number for products being furnished is terminated, withdrawn, canceled, or suspended, and such action does not arise out of causes beyond the control, and with the fault or negligence of the Contractor or subcontractor, the Government may terminate the contract pursuant to either the Default Clause or Termination for Cause Paragraph (contained in the clause 52.212-4, Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Products and Commercial Services), whichever is applicable to the resultant contract.

552.238-114 USE OF FEDERAL SUPPLY SCHEDULE CONTRACTS
BY NON-FEDERAL ENTITIES (JAN 2022)

(a) If an entity identified in paragraph (d) of the clause at 552.238-113, Scope of Contract (Eligible Ordering Activities), elects to place an order under this contract, the entity agrees that the order shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) When the Contractor accepts an order from such an entity, a separate contract is formed which incorporates by reference all the terms and conditions of the Schedule contract except the Disputes clause, the patent indemnity clause, and the portion of the Commercial Product and Commercial Service Contract Terms and Conditions that specifies "Compliance with laws unique to Government contracts" (which applies only to contracts with entities of the Executive branch of the U.S. Government). The parties to this new contract which incorporates the terms and conditions of the Schedule contract are the individual ordering activity and the Contractor. The U.S. Government shall not be liable for the performance or nonperformance of the new contract. Disputes which cannot be resolved by the parties to the new contract may be litigated in any State or Federal court with jurisdiction over the parties, applying Federal procurement law, including statutes, regulations and case law, and, if pertinent, the Uniform Commercial Code. To the extent authorized by law, parties to this new contract are encouraged to resolve disputes through Alternative Dispute Resolution. Likewise, a Blanket Purchase Agreement (BPA), although not a contract, is an agreement that may be entered into by the Contractor with such an entity and the Federal Government is not a party.

(2) Where contract clauses refer to action by a Contracting Officer or a Contracting Officer of GSA, that shall mean the individual responsible for placing the order for the ordering activity (e.g., FAR 52.212-4 at paragraph (f) and FSS clause I-FSS-249 B.)

(3) As a condition of using this contract, eligible ordering activities agree to abide by all terms and conditions of the Schedule contract, except for those deleted clauses or portions of clauses mentioned in paragraph (a)(1) of this clause. Ordering activities may include terms and conditions required by statute, ordinance, regulation, order, or as otherwise allowed by State and local government entities as a part of a statement of work (SOW) or statement of objective (SOO) to the extent that these terms and conditions do not conflict with the terms and conditions of the Schedule contract. The ordering activity and the Contractor expressly acknowledge that, in entering into an agreement for the ordering activity to purchase goods or services from the Contractor, neither the ordering activity nor the Contractor will look to, primarily or in any secondary capacity, or file any claim against the United States or any of its agencies with respect to any failure of performance by the other party.

(4) The ordering activity is responsible for all payments due the Contractor under the contract formed by acceptance of the ordering activity's order, without recourse to the agency of the U.S. Government, which awarded the Schedule contract.

(5) The Contractor is encouraged, but not obligated, to accept orders from such entities. The Contractor may, within 5 days of receipt of the order, decline to accept any order, for any reason. The Contractor shall fulfill orders placed by such entities, which are not declined within the 5-day period.

(6) The supplies or services purchased will be used for governmental purposes only and will not be resold for personal use. Disposal of property acquired will be in accordance with the established procedures of the ordering activity for the disposal of personal property.

(b) If the Schedule Contractor accepts an order from an entity identified in paragraph (d) of the clause at 552.238-113, Scope of Contract (Eligible Ordering Activities), the Contractor agrees to the following conditions:

(1) The ordering activity is responsible for all payments due the Contractor for the contract formed by acceptance of the order, without recourse to the agency of the U.S. Government, which awarded the Schedule contract.

(2) The Contractor is encouraged, but not obligated, to accept orders from such entities. The Contractor may, within 5 days of receipt of the order, decline to accept any order, for any reason. The Contractor shall decline the order using the same means as those used to place the order. The Contractor shall fulfill orders placed by such entities, which are not declined within the 5-day period.

(c) In accordance with clause 552.238-80, Industrial Funding Fee and Sales Reporting, the Contractor must report the quarterly dollar value of all sales under this contract. When submitting sales reports, the Contractor must report two dollar values for each Special Item Number:

(1) The dollar value for sales to entities identified in paragraph (a) of the clause at 552.238-113, Scope of Contract (Eligible Ordering Activities), and

(2) The dollar value for sales to entities identified in paragraph (d) of clause 552.238-113 Scope of Contract (Eligible Ordering Activities).

This clause applies to contracts participating in the Transactional Data Reporting (TDR) Pilot.

552.238-78 IDENTIFICATION OF PRODUCTS THAT HAVE ENVIRONMENTAL ATTRIBUTES (JAN 2022)

(a) Several laws, Executive orders, and Agency directives require Federal buyers to purchase products that are less harmful to the environment, when they are life cycle cost-effective (see FAR Subpart 23.7). The U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) requires contractors to highlight environmental products under Federal Supply Service schedule contracts in various communications media (e.g., publications and electronic formats).

(b) Definitions. As used in this clause —

“Energy-efficient product” means a product that—

(1) Meets Department of Energy and Environmental Protection Agency criteria for use of the ENERGY STAR® trademark label; or

(2) Is in the upper 25 percent of efficiency for all similar products as designated by the Department of Energy's Federal Energy Management Program.

“GSA Advantage!” is an on-line shopping mall and ordering system that provides customers with access to products and services under GSA contracts.

“Other environmental attributes” refers to product characteristics that provide environmental benefits, excluding recovered materials and energy and water efficiency. Several examples of these characteristics are biodegradable, recyclable, reduced pollutants, ozone safe, and low volatile organic compounds (VOCs).

“Post-consumer material” means a material or finished product that has served its intended use and has been discarded for disposal or recovery, having completed its life as a consumer item. Postconsumer material is part of the broader category of “recovered material.” The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has developed a list of EPA-designated products in their Comprehensive Procurement Guidelines (CPGs) to provide Federal agencies with purchasing recommendations on specific products in a Recovered Materials Advisory Notice (RMAN). The RMAN contains recommended recovered and post-consumer material content levels for the specific products designated by EPA (40 CFR part 247 and <http://www.epa.gov/cpg/>).

“Recovered materials” means waste materials and by-products recovered or diverted from solid waste, but the term does not include those materials and by-products generated from, and commonly reused within, an original manufacturing process (Executive Order 13101 and 42 U.S.C. 6903(19) and <http://www.epa.gov/cpg/>). For paper and paper products, see the definition at FAR 11.301 (42 U.S.C. 6962(h)).

“Remanufactured” means factory rebuilt to original specifications.

“Renewable energy” means energy produced by solar, wind, geothermal, and biomass power

“Renewable energy technology” means –

(1) Technologies that use renewable energy to provide light, heat, cooling, or mechanical or electrical energy for use in facilities or other activities; or

(2) The use of integrated whole-building designs that rely upon renewable energy resources, including passive solar design.

(c) Identification Requirements.

(1) The offeror must identify products that —

- (i) Are compliant with the recovered and post-consumer material content levels recommended in the Recovered Materials Advisory Notices (RMANs) for EPA-designated products in the CPG program (<http://www.epa.gov/cpg/>);
- (ii) Contain recovered materials that either do not meet the recommended levels in the RMANs or are not EPA-designated products in the CPG program (see FAR 23.401 and <http://www.epa.gov/cpg/>);
- (iii) Are energy-efficient, as defined by either ENERGY STAR® and/or FEMP's designated top 25th percentile levels (see ENERGY STAR® at <http://www.energystar.gov/> and FEMP at <http://www.eere.energy.gov/femp/procurement/>);
- (iv) Are water-efficient
- (v) Use renewable energy technology;
- (vi) Are remanufactured; and
- (vii) Have other environmental attributes.

(2) These identifications must be made in each of the offeror's following mediums:

- (i) The offer itself.
- (ii) Printed commercial catalogs, brochures, and pricelists.
- (iii) Online product website.
- (iv) Electronic data submission for GSA Advantage! submitted via GSA's Schedules Input Program (SIP) software or the Electronic Data Inter-change (EDI). Offerors can use the SIP or EDI methods to indicate environmental and other attributes for each product that are translated into respective icons in GSA Advantage!.
- (d) An offeror, in identifying an item with an environmental attribute, must possess evidence or rely on a reasonable basis to substantiate the claim (see 16 CFR part 260, Guides for the Use of Environmental Marketing Claims). The Government will accept an offeror's claim of a product's environmental attribute on the basis of—
  - (1) Participation in a Federal agency sponsored program (e.g., the EPA and DOE ENERGY STAR® product labeling program);
  - (2) Verification by an independent organization that specializes in certifying such claims; or

(3) Possession of competent and reliable evidence. For any test, analysis, research, study, or other evidence to be “competent and reliable,” it must have been conducted and evaluated in an objective manner by persons qualified to do so, using procedures generally accepted in the profession to yield accurate and reliable results.

52.203-6 RESTRICTIONS ON SUBCONTRACTOR SALES TO THE GOVERNMENT (JUN 2020) (ALTERNATE I-NOV 2021)

(a) Except as provided in (b) below, the Contractor shall not enter into any agreement with an actual or prospective subcontractor, nor otherwise act in any manner, which has or may have the effect of restricting sales by such subcontractors directly to the Government of any item or process (including computer software) made or furnished by the subcontractor under this contract or under any follow-on production contract.

(b) The prohibition in paragraph (a) of this clause does not preclude the Contractor from asserting rights that are otherwise authorized by law or regulation. For acquisitions of commercial products or commercial services, the prohibition in paragraph (a) applies only to the extent that any agreement restricting sales by subcontractors results in the Federal Government being treated differently from any other prospective purchaser for the sale of the commercial product(s) and commercial service(s).

(c) The Contractor agrees to incorporate the substance of this clause, including this paragraph (c), in all subcontracts under this contract which exceed the simplified acquisition threshold, as defined in Federal Acquisition Regulation 2.101 on the date of subcontract award.

(i) The Contractor shall post the relevant contents of the compliance plan, no later than the initiation of contract performance, at the workplace (unless the work is to be

(i) Subcontracts.

(b) Executive Order Minimum wage rate.

(1) The Contractor shall pay to workers, while performing in the United States, and performing on, or in connection with, this contract, a minimum hourly wage rate of $15.00 per hour beginning January 30, 2022.

(2) The Contractor shall adjust the minimum wage paid, if necessary, beginning January 1, 2023, and annually thereafter, to meet the applicable annual E.O. minimum wage. The Administrator of the Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division (the Administrator) will publish annual determinations in the Federal Register no later than 90 days before the effective date of the new E.O. minimum wage rate. The Administrator will also publish the applicable E.O. minimum wage on <https://www.sam.gov> (or any successor website), and a general notice on all wage determinations issued under the Service Contract Labor Standards statute or the Wage Rate Requirements (Construction) statute, that will provide information on the E.O. minimum wage and how to obtain annual updates. The applicable published E.O. minimum wage is incorporated by reference into this contract.

(3) (i) The Contractor may request a price adjustment only after the effective date of the new annual E.O. minimum wage determination. Prices will be adjusted only for increased labor costs (including subcontractor labor costs) as a result of an increase in the annual E.O. minimum wage, and for associated labor costs (including those for subcontractors). Associated labor costs shall include increases or decreases that result from changes in social security and unemployment taxes and workers' compensation insurance, but will not otherwise include any amount for general and administrative costs, overhead, or profit.

(7) The Contractor shall not discharge any part of its minimum wage obligation under this clause by furnishing fringe benefits or, with respect to workers whose wages are governed by the Service Contract Labor Standards statute, the cash equivalent thereof.

However, wage increases under such other laws or municipal ordinances are not subject to price adjustment under this subpart.

(9) The Contractor shall pay the E.O. minimum wage rate whenever it is higher than any applicable collective bargaining agreement(s) wage rate.

(10) The Contractor shall follow the policies and procedures in 29 CFR 23.240(b) and 23.280 for treatment of workers engaged in an occupation in which they customarily and regularly receive more than $30 a month in tips.

(ii) Individuals exempted from the minimum wage requirements of the FLSA under 29 U.S.C. 213(a) and 214(a) and (b), unless otherwise covered by the Service Contract Labor Standards statute, or the Wage Rate Requirements (Construction) statute. These individuals include but are not limited to—

(A) Learners, apprentices, or messengers whose wages are calculated pursuant to special certificates issued under 29 U.S.C. 214(a) ;

With respect to workers covered by the Service Contract Labor Standards statute or the Wage Rate Requirements (Construction) statute, the Contractor may meet this requirement by posting, in a prominent and accessible place at the worksite, the applicable wage determination under those statutes. With respect to workers whose wages are governed by the FLSA, the Contractor shall post notice, utilizing the poster provided by the Administrator, which can be obtained at www.dol.gov/agencies/whd/government-contracts, in a prominent and accessible place at the worksite. Contractors that customarily post notices to workers electronically may post the notice electronically provided the electronic posting is displayed prominently on any Web site that is maintained by the contractor, whether external or internal, and customarily used for notices to workers about terms and conditions of employment.

(e) Payroll Records.

(1) The Contractor shall make and maintain records, for three years after completion of the work, containing the following information for each worker:

(i) Name, address, and social security number;

(ii) The worker's occupation(s) or classification(s);

(2) The Contractor shall make records pursuant to paragraph (e)(1) of this clause available for inspection and transcription by authorized representatives of the Administrator. The Contractor shall also make such records available upon request of the Contracting Officer.

(3) The Contractor shall make a copy of the contract available, as applicable, for inspection or transcription by authorized representatives of the Administrator.

(4) Failure to comply with this paragraph (e) shall be a violation of 29 CFR 23.260 and this contract. Upon direction of the Administrator or upon the Contracting Officer's own action, payment shall be withheld until such time as the noncompliance is corrected.

(5) Nothing in this clause limits or otherwise modifies the Contractor's payroll and recordkeeping obligations, if any, under the Service Contract Labor Standards statute, the Wage Rate Requirements (Construction) statute, the Fair Labor Standards Act, or any other applicable law.

(f) Access. The Contractor shall permit authorized representatives of the Administrator to conduct investigations, including interviewing workers at the worksite during normal working hours.

(g) Withholding. The Contracting Officer, upon his or her own action or upon written request of the Administrator, will withhold funds or cause funds to be withheld, from the Contractor under this or any other Federal contract with the same Contractor, sufficient to pay workers the full amount of wages required by this clause.

(h) Disputes. Department of Labor has set forth in 29 CFR 23.510, Disputes concerning contractor compliance, the procedures for resolving disputes concerning a contractor's compliance with Department of Labor regulations at 29 CFR part 23. Such disputes shall be resolved in accordance with those procedures and not the Disputes clause of this contract. These disputes include disputes between the Contractor (or any of its subcontractors) and the contracting agency, the Department of Labor, or the workers or their representatives.

(i) Antiretaliation. The Contractor shall not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against any worker because such worker has filed any complaint or instituted or caused to be instituted any proceeding under or related to compliance with the E.O. or this clause, or has testified or is about to testify in any such proceeding.

(j) Subcontractor compliance. The Contractor is responsible for subcontractor compliance with the requirements of this clause and may be held liable for unpaid wages due subcontractor workers.

(k) Subcontracts. The Contractor shall include the substance of this clause, including this paragraph (k) in all subcontracts, regardless of dollar value, that are subject to the Service Contract Labor Standards statute or the Wage Rate Requirements (Construction) statute, and are to be performed in whole or in part in the United States.

- (2) Other actual monetary losses sustained as a direct result of the violation; and
- (3) Liquidated damages.

(f) Payment suspension/contract termination/contractor debarment.

(1) In the event of a failure to comply with E.O. 13706, 29 CFR part 13, or this clause, the contracting agency may, on its own action or after authorization or by direction of the Department of Labor and written notification to the Contractor take action to cause suspension of any further payment, advance, or guarantee of funds until such violations have ceased.

(2) Any failure to comply with the requirements of this clause may be grounds for termination for default or cause.

(3) A breach of the contract clause may be grounds for debarment as a contractor and subcontractor as provided in 29 CFR 13.52.

(g) The paid sick leave required by E.O. 13706, 29 CFR part 13, and this clause is in addition to the Contractor's obligations under the Service Contract Labor Standards statute and Wage Rate Requirements (Construction) statute, and the Contractor may not receive credit toward its prevailing wage or fringe benefit obligations under those Acts for any paid sick leave provided in satisfaction of the requirements of E.O. 13706 and 29 CFR part 13.

(h) Nothing in E.O. 13706 or 29 CFR part 13 shall excuse noncompliance with or supersede any applicable Federal or State law, any applicable law or municipal ordinance, or a collective bargaining agreement requiring greater paid sick leave or leave rights than those established under E.O. 13706 and 29 CFR part 13.

(i) Recordkeeping

(1) The Contractor shall make and maintain, for no less than three (3) years from the completion of the work on the contract, records containing the following information for each employee, which the Contractor shall make available upon request for inspection, copying, and transcription by authorized representatives of the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor:

- (i) Name, address, and social security number of each employee.
- (ii) The employee's occupation(s) or classification(s).
- (iii) The rate or rates of wages paid (including all pay and benefits provided).
- (iv) The number of daily and weekly hours worked.
- (v) Any deductions made.
- (vi) The total wages paid (including all pay and benefits provided) each pay period.
- (vii) A copy of notifications to employees of the amount of paid sick leave the employee has accrued, as required under 29 CFR 13.5(a)(2).
- (viii) A copy of employees' requests to use paid sick leave, if in writing, or, if not in writing, any other records reflecting such employee requests.

- (ix) Dates and amounts of paid sick leave taken by employees (unless the Contractor's paid time off policy satisfies the requirements of E.O. 13706 and 29 CFR part 13 as described in 29 CFR 13.5(f)(5), leave shall be designated in records as paid sick leave pursuant to E.O. 13706).
- (x) A copy of any written responses to employees' requests to use paid sick leave, including explanations for any denials of such requests, as required under 29 CFR 13.5(d)(3).
- (xi) Any records reflecting the certification and documentation the Contractor may require an employee to provide under 29 CFR 13.5(e), including copies of any certification or documentation provided by an employee.
- (xii) Any other records showing any tracking of or calculations related to an employee's accrual or use of paid sick leave.
- (xiii) The relevant contract.
- (xiv) The regular pay and benefits provided to an employee for each use of paid sick leave.
- (xv) Any financial payment made for unused paid sick leave upon a separation from employment intended, pursuant to 29 CFR 13.5(b)(5), to relieve the Contractor from the obligation to reinstate such paid sick leave as otherwise required by 29 CFR 13.5(b)(4).
- (2) (i) If the Contractor wishes to distinguish between an employee's covered and noncovered work, the Contractor shall keep records or other proof reflecting such distinctions. Only if the Contractor adequately segregates the employee's time will time spent on noncovered work be excluded from hours worked counted toward the accrual of paid sick leave. Similarly, only if the Contractor adequately segregates the employee's time may the Contractor properly refuse an employee's request to use paid sick leave on the ground that the employee was scheduled to perform noncovered work during the time he or she asked to use paid sick leave.
- (ii) If the Contractor estimates covered hours worked by an employee who performs work in connection with contracts covered by the E.O. pursuant to 29 CFR 13.5(a)(i) or (iii), the Contractor shall keep records or other proof of the verifiable information on which such estimates are reasonably based. Only if the Contractor relies on an estimate that is reasonable and based on verifiable information will an employee's time spent in connection with noncovered work be excluded from hours worked counted toward the accrual of paid sick leave. If the Contractor estimates the amount of time an employee spends performing in connection with contracts covered by the E.O., the Contractor shall permit the employee to use his or her paid sick leave during any work time for the Contractor.
- (3) In the event the Contractor is not obligated by the Service Contract Labor Standards statute, the Wage Rate Requirements (Construction) statute, or the Fair Labor Standards Act to keep records of an employee's hours worked, such as because the employee is exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act's minimum wage and overtime requirements, and the Contractor chooses to use the assumption permitted by 29 CFR 13.5(a)(1)(iii), the Contractor is excused from the requirement in paragraph (i)(1)(iv) of this clause and 29 CFR 13.25(a)(4) to keep records of the employee's number of daily and weekly hours worked.
- (4) (i) Records relating to medical histories or domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, created for purposes of E.O. 13706, whether of an employee or an employee's child, parent, spouse, domestic partner, or other individual related by blood or affinity whose close association with the employee is the equivalent of a family relationship, shall be maintained as confidential records in separate files/records from the usual personnel files.

(ii) If the confidentiality requirements of the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (GINA), section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and/or the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) apply to records or documents created to comply with the recordkeeping requirements in this contract clause, the records and documents shall also be maintained in compliance with the confidentiality requirements of the GINA, section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and/or ADA as described in 29 CFR 1635.9, 41 CFR 60-741.23(d), and 29 CFR 1630.14(c)(1), respectively.

(iii) The Contractor shall not disclose any documentation used to verify the need to use 3 or more consecutive days of paid sick leave for the purposes listed in 29 CFR 13.5(c)(1)(iv) (as described in 29 CFR 13.5(e)(1)(ii)) and shall maintain confidentiality about any domestic abuse, sexual assault, or stalking, unless the employee consents or when disclosure is required by law.

(5) The Contractor shall permit authorized representatives of the Wage and Hour Division to conduct interviews with employees at the worksite during normal working hours.

(6) Nothing in this contract clause limits or otherwise modifies the Contractor's recordkeeping obligations, if any, under the Service Contract Labor Standards statute, the Wage Rate Requirements (Construction) statute, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, E.O. 14026, their respective implementing regulations, or any other applicable law.

(j) Interference/discrimination.

(1) The Contractor shall not in any manner interfere with an employee's accrual or use of paid sick leave as required by E.O. 13706 or 29 CFR part 13. Interference includes, but is not limited to —

(i) Miscalculating the amount of paid sick leave an employee has accrued;

(ii) Denying or unreasonably delaying a response to a proper request to use paid sick leave;

(iii) Discouraging an employee from using paid sick leave;

(iv) Reducing an employee's accrued paid sick leave by more than the amount of such leave used;

(v) Transferring an employee to work on contracts not covered by the E.O. to prevent the accrual or use of paid sick leave;

(vi) Disclosing confidential information contained in certification or other documentation provided to verify the need to use paid sick leave; or

(vii) Making the use of paid sick leave contingent on the employee's finding a replacement worker or the fulfillment of the Contractor's operational needs.

(2) The Contractor shall not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against any employee for —

(i) Using, or attempting to use, paid sick leave as provided for under E.O. 13706 and 29 CFR part 13;

(ii) Filing any complaint, initiating any proceeding, or otherwise asserting any right or claim under E.O. 13706 and 29 CFR part 13;

(iii) Cooperating in any investigation or testifying in any proceeding under E.O. 13706

and 29 CFR part 13; or

(iv) Informing any other person about his or her rights under E.O. 13706 and 29 CFR part 13.

(k) Notice. The Contractor shall notify all employees performing work on or in connection with a contract covered by the E.O. of the paid sick leave requirements of E.O. 13706, 29 CFR part 13, and this clause by posting a notice provided by the Department of Labor in a prominent and accessible place at the worksite so it may be readily seen by employees. Contractors that customarily post notices to employees electronically may post the notice electronically, provided such electronic posting is displayed prominently on any website that is maintained by the Contractor, whether external or internal, and customarily used for notices to employees about terms and conditions of employment.

(l) Disputes concerning labor standards. Disputes related to the application of E.O. 13706 to this contract shall not be subject to the general disputes clause of the contract. Such disputes shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures of the Department of Labor set forth in 29 CFR part 13. Disputes within the meaning of this contract clause include disputes between the Contractor (or any of its subcontractors) and the contracting agency, the Department of Labor, or the employees or their representatives.

(m) Subcontracts. The Contractor shall insert the substance of this clause, including this paragraph (m), in all subcontracts, regardless of dollar value, that are subject to the Service Contract Labor Standards statute or the Wage Rate Requirements (Construction) statute, and are to be performed in whole or in part in the United States.

552.238-115 SPECIAL ORDERING PROCEDURES FOR THE ACQUISITION OF ORDER-LEVEL MATERIALS (APR 2022)

- (a) Definition.
- “Order-level materials”, as used in this clause, means supplies and/or services acquired in direct support of an individual task or delivery order placed against a Federal Supply Schedule (FSS) contract or FSS blanket purchase agreement (BPA), when the supplies and/or services are not known at the time of Schedule contract or FSS BPA award. The prices of order-level materials are not established in the FSS contract or FSS BPA. Order-level materials acquired following the procedures in paragraph (d) of this clause are done so under the authority of the FSS program, pursuant to 41 U.S.C. 152(3), and are not open market items, which are discussed in FAR 8.402(f).
- (b) FAR 8.403(b) provides that GSA may establish special ordering procedures for a particular FSS.
- (c) The procedures in FAR subpart 8.4 apply to this contract, with the exceptions listed in this clause. If a requirement in this clause is inconsistent with FAR subpart 8.4, this clause takes precedence pursuant to FAR 8.403(b).

(d) Procedures for including order-level materials when placing an individual task or delivery order against an FSS contract or FSS BPA.

(1) The procedures discussed in FAR 8.402(f) do not apply when placing task and delivery orders that include order-level materials.

(2) Order-level materials are included in the definition of the term "material" in FAR clause 52.212-4 Alternate I, and, therefore, all provisions of FAR clause 52.212-4 Alternate I that apply to "materials" also apply to order-level materials.

(3) Order-level materials shall only be acquired in direct support of an individual task or delivery order and not as the primary basis or purpose of the order.

(4) The value of order-level materials in a task or delivery order, or the cumulative value of order-level materials in orders against an FSS BPA awarded under a FSS contract, shall not exceed 33.33%.

(5) All order-level materials shall be placed under the Order-Level Materials SIN.

(6) Prior to the placement of an order that includes order-level materials, the Ordering Activity shall follow the procedures in FAR 8.404(h).

(7) To support the price reasonableness of order-level materials—

(i) The Contractor proposing order-level materials as part of a solution shall obtain a minimum of three quotes for each order-level material above the simplified acquisition threshold.

(A) One of these three quotes may include materials furnished by the Contractor under paragraph (i)(1)(ii)(A) of FAR clause 52.212-4 Alternate I.

(B) If the Contractor cannot obtain three quotes, the Contractor shall maintain documentation of why three quotes could not be obtained to support their determination.

(C) A Contractor with an approved purchasing system, per FAR subpart 44.3, shall instead follow its purchasing system requirement and is exempt from the requirements in paragraphs (d)(7)(i)(A) through (B) of this clause.

(ii) The Ordering Activity Contracting Officer must make a determination that prices for all order-level materials are fair and reasonable. The Ordering Activity Contracting Officer may base this determination on a comparison of the quotes received in response to the task or delivery order solicitation or other relevant pricing information available.

(iii) If indirect costs are approved per paragraph (i)(1)(ii)(D)(2) of FAR clause 52.212-4 Alternate I, the Ordering Activity Contracting Officer must make a determination that all indirect costs approved for payment are fair and reasonable. Supporting data shall be submitted in a form acceptable to the Ordering Activity Contracting Officer.

(8) Prior to an increase in the ceiling price of order-level materials, the Ordering Activity Contracting Officer shall follow the procedures at FAR 8.404(h)(3)(iv).

(9) In accordance with GSAR clause 552.238-83, Examination of Records by GSA (Federal Supply Schedules), GSA has the authority to examine the Contractor's records for compliance with the pricing provisions in FAR clause 52.212-4 Alternate I, to include examination of any books, documents, papers, and records involving transactions related to the contract for overbillings, billing errors, and compliance with the Industrial Funding Fee (IFF) and the Sales Reporting clauses of the contract.

(10) Order-level materials are exempt from the following clauses:

(i) 552.216-70 Economic Price Adjustment - FSS Multiple Award Schedule Contracts.

(ii) 552.238-77 Submission and Distribution of Authorized Federal Supply Schedule (FSS) Price Lists.

(b) Delivery or performance shall be made only as authorized by orders issued in accordance with the Ordering clause. The Contractor shall furnish to the Government, when and if ordered, the supplies or services specified in the Schedule up to and including the quantity designated in the Schedule as the "maximum." The Government shall order at least the quantity of supplies or services designated in the Schedule as the "minimum."

(c) Except for any limitations on quantities in the Order Limitations clause or in the Schedule, there is no limit on the number of orders that may be issued. The Government may issue orders requiring delivery to multiple destinations or performance at multiple locations.

(d) Any order issued during the effective period of this contract and not completed within that period shall be completed by the Contractor within the time specified in the order. The contract shall govern the Contractor's and Government's rights and obligations with respect to that order to the same extent as if the order were completed during the contract's effective period; provided, that the Contractor shall not be required to make any deliveries under this contract after the completion of customer order, including options, 60 months following the expiration of the FSS contract ordering period.

The Contractor shall follow the applicable verification requirements at (b)(1) or (b)(2), respectively, except that any requirement for verification of new employees applies only to new employees assigned to the contract.

(4) Option to verify employment eligibility of all employees. The Contractor may elect to verify all existing employees hired after November 6, 1986 (after November 27, 2009, in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands), rather than just those employees assigned to the contract. The Contractor shall initiate verification for each existing employee working in the United States who was hired after November 6, 1986 (after November 27, 2009, in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands), within 180 calendar days of – accordance with the terms of the MOU. In such case, the Contractor will be referred to a suspension or debarment official.

(ii) During the period between termination of the MOU and a decision by the suspension or debarment official whether to suspend or debar, the Contractor is excused from its obligations under paragraph (b) of this clause. If the suspension or debarment official determines not to suspend or debar the Contractor, then the Contractor must reenroll in E-Verify.

(1) The Ordering Activity Contracting Officer is encouraged to request a scope review from the GSA Federal Acquisition Service (FAS) Office of Information Technology Category (ITC) before placing a task order in accordance with these special ordering procedures.

(a) Definition. "Transactional data" encompasses the historical details of the products or services delivered by the Contractor during the performance of task or delivery orders issued against this contract.

(b) Reporting of Transactional Data. The Contractor must report all transactional data under this contract as follows:

(1) The Contractor must electronically report transactional data by utilizing the automated reporting system at an Internet website designated by the General Services Administration (GSA) or by uploading the data according to GSA instructions. GSA will post registration instructions and reporting procedures on the Vendor Support Center website, <https://vsc.gsa.gov>. The reporting system website address, as well as registration instructions and reporting procedures, will be provided at the time of award or inclusion of this clause in the contract.

(2) The Contractor must provide, at no additional cost to the Government, the following transactional data elements, as applicable:

(i) Contract or Blanket Purchase Agreement (BPA) Number.

(ii) Delivery/Task Order Number/Procurement Instrument Identifier (PIID).

(iii) Non Federal Entity.

(iv) Description of Deliverable.

(v) Manufacturer Name.

(vi) Manufacturer Part Number.

(vii) Unit Measure (each, hour, case, lot).

(viii) Quantity of Item Sold.

(ix) Universal Product Code.

(x) Price Paid per Unit.

(xi) Total Price.

Note to paragraph (b)(2): The Contracting Officer may add data elements to the standard elements listed in paragraph (b)(2) of this section with the approvals listed in GSAM 507.105(b)(3).

(3) The contractor must report transactional data within 30 calendar days from the last calendar day of the month. If there was no contract activity during the month, the Contractor must submit a confirmation of no reportable transactional data within 30 calendar days of the last calendar day of the month.

(4) The Contractor must report the price paid per unit, total price, or any other data elements with an associated monetary value listed in (b)(2) of this section, in U.S. dollars.

(5) The reported price paid per unit and total price must include the Industrial Funding Fee (IFF).

(6) The Contractor must maintain a consistent accounting method of transactional data reporting, based on the Contractor's established commercial accounting practice.

(7) Reporting Points.

(i) The acceptable points at which transactional data may be reported include-

(A) Issuance of an invoice; or

(B) Receipt of payment.

(ii) The Contractor must determine whether to report transactional data on the basis of invoices issued or payments received.

(8) The Contractor must continue to furnish reports, including confirmation of no transactional data, through physical completion of the last outstanding task or delivery order of the contract.

(9) Unless otherwise expressly stated by the ordering activity, orders that contain classified information or other information that would compromise national security are exempt from this reporting requirement.

(10) This clause does not exempt the Contractor from fulfilling existing reporting requirements contained elsewhere in the contract.

(11) GSA reserves the unilateral right to change reporting instructions following 60 calendar days' advance notification to the Contractor.

(c) Industrial Funding Fee (IFF).

(1) This contract includes an IFF charged on orders placed against this contract. The IFF is paid by the authorized ordering activity but remitted to GSA by the Contractor. The IFF reimburses GSA for the costs of operating the Federal Supply Schedule program, as set forth in 40 U.S.C. 321: Acquisition Services Fund. Net operating revenues generated by the IFF are also applied to fund initiatives benefiting other authorized GSA programs, in accordance with 40 U.S.C. 321.

(2) GSA has the unilateral right to change the fee amount at any time, but not more than once per year; GSA will provide reasonable notice prior to the effective date of any change. GSA will post notice of the current IFF on the Vendor Support Center website at <https://vsc.gsa.gov>.

(3) Offerors must include the IFF in their prices. The fee is included in the awarded price(s) and reflected in the total amount charged to ordering activities. The fee will not be included in the price of non-contract items purchased pursuant to a separate contracting authority, such as a Governmentwide Acquisition Contract (GWAC); a separately awarded Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Part 12, FAR Part 13, FAR Part 14, or FAR Part 15 procurement; or a non-FAR contract.

(4) The Contractor must remit the IFF to GSA in U.S. dollars within 30 calendar days after the last calendar day of the reporting quarter; final payment must be remitted within 30 calendar days after physical completion of the last outstanding task order or delivery order issued against the contract.

(5) GSA reserves the unilateral right to change remittance instructions following 60 calendar days' advance notification to the Contractor.

(d) The Contractor's failure to remit the full amount of the IFF within 30 calendar days after the end of the applicable reporting period constitutes a contract debt to the United States Government under the terms of FAR Subpart 32.6. The Government may exercise all rights under the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, including withholding or offsetting payments and interest on the debt (see FAR clause 52.232-17, Interest). If the Contractor fails to submit the required transactional data reports, falsifies them, or fails to timely pay the IFF, these reasons constitute sufficient cause for the Government to terminate the contract for cause.

Note: Regulation 552.238-80

FSS contractors are required to report sales and remit IFF for Schedule items sold via FedMall, just as they would for any other Schedule sale. FedMall sales of Schedule items are treated no differently than sales earned via GSA Advantage! or from orders directly placed by an ordering activity.

This clause applies to contracts participating in the Transactional Data Reporting (TDR) Pilot.

The Government reserves the right to inspect or test any supplies or services that have been tendered for acceptance. The Government may require repair or replacement of nonconforming supplies or reperformance of nonconforming services at no increase in contract price. If repair/replacement or reperformance will not correct the defects or is not possible, the Government may seek an equitable price reduction or adequate consideration for acceptance of nonconforming supplies or services. The Government must exercise its post-acceptance rights —

- (1) Within a reasonable time after the defect was discovered or should have been discovered; and
- (2) Before any substantial change occurs in the condition of the item, unless the change is due to the defect in the item.

(b) Assignment. The Contractor or its assignee may assign its rights to receive payment due as a result of performance of this contract to a bank, trust company, or other financing institution, including any Federal lending agency in accordance with the Assignment of Claims Act (31 U.S.C. 3727). (c) Changes. Changes in the terms and conditions of this contract may be made only by written agreement of the parties.

(d) Disputes. This contract is subject to 41 U.S.C. chapter 71, Contract Disputes. (e) Definitions. The clause at FAR 52.202-1, Definitions, is incorporated herein by reference.

(f) Excusable delays. The Contractor shall be liable for default unless nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after the commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch, and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

(5) Overpayments. If the Contractor becomes aware of a duplicate contract financing or invoice payment or that the Government has otherwise overpaid on a contract financing or invoice payment, the Contractor shall —

Subject to the terms of this contract, the Contractor shall be paid a percentage of the contract price reflecting the percentage of the work performed prior to the notice of termination, plus reasonable charges the Contractor can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Government using its standard record keeping system, have resulted from the termination. The Contractor shall not be required to comply with the cost accounting standards or contract cost principles for this purpose. This paragraph does not give the Government any right to audit the Contractor's records. (m) Termination for cause. The Government may terminate this contract, or any part hereof, for cause in the event of any default by the Contractor, or if the Contractor fails to comply with any contract terms and conditions, or fails to provide the Government, upon request, with adequate assurances of future performance. In the event of termination for cause, the Government shall not be liable to the Contractor for any amount for supplies or services not accepted, and the Contractor shall be liable to the Government for any and all rights and remedies provided by law. If it is determined that the Government improperly terminated this contract for default, such termination shall be deemed a termination for convenience.

(t) [Reserved]

(u) Unauthorized Obligations.

(1) Except as stated in paragraph (u)(2) of this clause, when any supply or service acquired under this contract is subject to any commercial supplier agreement (as defined in 502.101) that includes any language, provision, or clause requiring the Government to pay any future fees, penalties, interest, legal costs or to indemnify the Contractor or any person or entity for damages, costs, fees, or any other loss or liability that would create an Anti-Deficiency Act violation (31 U.S.C. 1341), the following shall govern:

(i) Any such language, provision, or clause is unenforceable against the Government.

(ii) Neither the Government nor any Government authorized end user shall be deemed to have agreed to such clause by virtue of it appearing in the commercial supplier agreement. If the commercial supplier agreement is invoked through an “I agree” click box or other comparable mechanism (e.g., “click-wrap” or “browse-wrap” agreements), execution does not bind the Government or any Government authorized end user to such clause.

(iii) Any such language, provision, or clause is deemed to be stricken from the commercial supplier agreement.

(2) Paragraph (u)(1) of this clause does not apply to indemnification or any other payment by the Government that is expressly authorized by statute and specifically authorized under applicable agency regulations and procedures.

(v) Incorporation by reference. The Contractor’s representations and certifications, including those completed electronically via the System for Award Management (SAM), are incorporated by reference into the contract.

(w) Commercial supplier agreements – unenforceable clauses. When any supply or service acquired under this contract is subject to a commercial supplier agreement (as defined in 502.101), the following language shall be deemed incorporated into the commercial supplier agreement. As used herein, “this agreement” means the commercial supplier agreement:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this agreement, when the end user is an agency or instrumentality of the Government, the following shall apply:

(i) Applicability. This agreement is a part of a contract between the commercial supplier and the Government for the acquisition of the supply or service that necessitates a license (including all contracts, task orders, and delivery orders under FAR Part 12).

(ii) End user. This agreement shall bind the Government as end user but shall not operate to bind an Government employee or person acting on behalf of the Government in his or her personal capacity.

(iii) Law and disputes. This agreement is governed by Federal law.

(A) Any language purporting to subject the U.S. Government to the laws of a U.S. state, U.S. territory, district, or municipality, or a foreign nation, except where Federal law expressly provides for the application of such laws, is hereby deleted.

(B) Any language requiring dispute resolution in a specific forum or venue that is different from that prescribed by applicable Federal law is hereby deleted.

(C) Any language prescribing a different time period for bringing an action than that prescribed by applicable Federal law in relation to a dispute is hereby deleted.

(iv) Continued performance. The supplier or licensor shall not unilaterally revoke, terminate or suspend any rights granted to the Government except as allowed by this contract. If the supplier or licensor believes the Government to be in breach of the agreement, it shall pursue its rights under the Contract Disputes Act or other applicable Federal statute while continuing performance as set forth in subparagraph (d) (Disputes).

(v) Arbitration; equitable or injunctive relief. In the event of a claim or dispute arising under or relating to this agreement, a binding arbitration shall not be used unless specifically authorized by agency guidance, and equitable or injunctive relief, including the award of attorney fees, costs or interest, may be awarded against the U.S. Government only when explicitly provided by statute (e.g., Prompt Payment Act or Equal Access to Justice Act).

(vi) Updating terms.

(A) After award, the contractor may unilaterally revise commercial supplier agreement terms if they are not material. A material change is defined as:

- (1) Terms that change the Government's rights or obligations;
- (2) Terms that increase Government prices;
- (3) Terms that decrease overall level of service; or
- (4) Terms that limit any other Government right addressed elsewhere in this contract.

(B) For revisions that will materially change the terms of the contract, the revised commercial supplier agreement must be incorporated into the contract using a bilateral modification.

(C) Any agreement terms or conditions unilaterally revised subsequent to award that are inconsistent with any material term or provision of this contract shall not be enforceable against the Government, and the Government shall not be deemed to have consented to them.

(vii) No automatic renewals. If any license or service tied to periodic payment is provided under this agreement (e.g., annual software maintenance or annual lease term), such license or service shall not renew automatically upon expiration of its current term without prior express consent by an authorized Government representative.

(viii) Indemnification. Any clause of this agreement requiring the commercial supplier or licensor to defend or indemnify the end user is hereby amended to provide that the U.S. Department of Justice has the sole right to represent the United States in any such action, in accordance with 28 U.S.C. 516.

(ix) Audits. Any clause of this agreement permitting the commercial supplier or licensor to audit the end user's compliance with this agreement is hereby amended as follows:

(A) Discrepancies found in an audit may result in a charge by the commercial supplier or licensor to the Government. Any resulting invoice must comply with the proper invoicing requirements specified in the underlying Government contract or order.

(B) This charge, if disputed by the Government, will be resolved in accordance with subparagraph (d) (Disputes); no payment obligation shall arise on the part of the Government until the conclusion of the dispute process.

(C) Any audit requested by the contractor will be performed at the contractor's expense, without reimbursement by the Government.

(x) Taxes or surcharges. Any taxes or surcharges which the commercial supplier or licensor seeks to pass along to the Government as end user will be governed by the terms of the underlying contract or order and, in any event, must be submitted to the Contracting Officer for a determination of applicability prior to invoicing unless specifically agreed to otherwise in the Government contract.

(xi) Non-assignment. This agreement may not be assigned, nor may any rights or obligations thereunder be delegated, without the Government's prior approval, except as expressly permitted under subparagraph (b) of this clause.

(xii) Confidential information. If this agreement includes a confidentiality clause, such clause is hereby amended to state that neither the agreement nor the contract price list, as applicable, shall be deemed "confidential information." Issues regarding release of "unit pricing" will be resolved consistent with the Freedom of Information Act. Notwithstanding anything in this agreement to the contrary, the Government may retain any confidential information as required by law, regulation or its internal document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided, however, that all such retained confidential information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this agreement.

(2) If any language, provision, or clause of this agreement conflicts or is inconsistent with the preceding paragraph (w)(1), the language, provisions, or clause of paragraph (w)(1) shall prevail to the extent of such inconsistency.

performed under this contract, to the extent practicable at all places and times, including the period of performance, and in any event before acceptance. The Government may also inspect the plant or plants of the Contractor or any subcontractor engaged in contract performance. The Government will perform inspections and tests in a manner that will not unduly delay the work.

(2) If the Government performs inspection or tests on the premises of the Contractor or a subcontractor, the Contractor shall furnish and shall require subcontractors to furnish all reasonable facilities and assistance for the safe and convenient performance of these duties.

(3) Unless otherwise specified in the contract, the Government will accept or reject services and materials at the place of delivery as promptly as practicable after delivery, and they will be presumed accepted 60 days after the date of delivery, unless accepted earlier.

Except as otherwise specified in paragraph (a)(6) of this clause, the cost of replacement or correction shall be determined under paragraph (i) of this clause, but the "hourly rate" for labor hours incurred in the replacement or correction shall be reduced to exclude that portion of the rate attributable to profit. Unless otherwise specified below, the portion of the "hourly rate" attributable to profit shall be 10 percent. The Contractor shall not tender for acceptance materials and services required to be replaced or corrected without disclosing the former requirement for replacement or correction, and, when required, shall disclose the corrective action taken. [Insert portion of labor rate attributable to profit.]

(5) (i) If the Contractor fails to proceed with reasonable promptness to perform required replacement or correction, and if the replacement or correction can be performed within the ceiling price (or the ceiling price as increased by the Government), the Government may —

(A) By contract or otherwise, perform the replacement or correction, charge to the Contractor any increased cost, or deduct such increased cost from any amounts paid or due under this contract; or

(B) Terminate this contract for cause.

(ii) Failure to agree to the amount of increased cost to be charged to the Contractor shall be a dispute under the Disputes clause of the contract.

(6) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a)(4) and (5) above, the Government may at any time require the Contractor to remedy by correction or replacement, without cost to the Government, any failure by the Contractor to comply with the requirements of this contract, if the failure is due to —

(i) Fraud, lack of good faith, or willful misconduct on the part of the Contractor's managerial personnel; or

(ii) The conduct of one or more of the Contractor's employees selected or retained by the Contractor after any of the Contractor's managerial personnel has reasonable grounds to believe that the employee is habitually careless or unqualified.

(7) This clause applies in the same manner and to the same extent to corrected or replacement materials or services as to materials and services originally delivered under this contract.

(8) The Contractor has no obligation or liability under this contract to correct or replace materials and services that at time of delivery do not meet contract requirements, except as provided in this clause or as may be otherwise specified in the contract.

(9) Unless otherwise specified in the contract, the Contractor's obligation to correct or replace Government-furnished property shall be governed by the clause pertaining to Government property.

(b) Assignment. The Contractor or its assignee may assign its rights to receive payment due as a result of performance of this contract to a bank, trust company, or other financing institution, including any Federal lending agency in accordance with the Assignment of Claims Act (31 U.S.C. 3727). However, when a third party makes payment (e.g., use of the Governmentwide commercial purchase card), the Contractor may not assign its rights to receive payment under this contract.

(c) Changes. Changes in the terms and conditions of this contract may be made only by written agreement of the parties.

(d) Disputes. This contract is subject to 41 U.S.C. chapter 71, Contract Disputes. (viii) Name, title, and phone number of person to notify in event of defective invoice; and

(ix) Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN). The Contractor shall include its TIN on the invoice only if required elsewhere in this contract.

(x) Electronic funds transfer (EFT) banking information.

(A) The Contractor shall include EFT banking information on the invoice only if required elsewhere in this contract.

(B) If EFT banking information is not required to be on the invoice, in order for the invoice to be a proper invoice, the Contractor shall have submitted correct EFT banking information in accordance with the applicable solicitation provision, contract clause (e.g., 52.232-33, Payment by Electronic Funds Transfer—System for Award Management, or 52.232-34, Payment by Electronic Funds Transfer—Other Than System for Award Management), or applicable agency procedures.

(C) EFT banking information is not required if the Government waived the requirement to pay by EFT.

(2) The due date for making invoice payments by the designated payment office is the later of the following two events:

(i) The 10th day after the designated billing office receives a proper invoice from the Contractor. If the designated billing office fails to annotate the invoice with the date of receipt at the time of receipt, the invoice payment due date shall be the 10th day after the date of the Contractor's invoice; provided the Contractor submitted a proper invoice and no disagreement exists over quantity, quality, or Contractor compliance with contract requirements.

(ii) The 10th day after Government acceptance of supplies delivered or services performed by the Contractor.

(h) Patent indemnity. The Contractor shall indemnify the Government and its officers, employees and agents against liability, including costs, for actual or alleged direct or contributory infringement of, or inducement to infringe, any United States or foreign patent, trademark or copyright, arising out of the performance of this contract, provided the Contractor is reasonably notified of such claims and proceedings.

(i) Payments.

(1) Work performed. The Government will pay the Contractor as follows upon the submission of commercial invoices approved by the Contracting Officer:

(i) Hourly rate.

(A) The amounts shall be computed by multiplying the appropriate hourly rates prescribed in the contract by the number of direct labor hours performed. Fractional parts of an hour shall be payable on a prorated basis.

(B) The rates shall be paid for all labor performed on the contract that meets the labor qualifications specified in the contract. Labor hours incurred to perform tasks for which labor qualifications were specified in the contract will not be paid to the extent the work is performed by individuals that do not meet the qualifications specified in the contract, unless specifically authorized by the Contracting Officer.

(C) Invoices may be submitted once each month (or at more frequent intervals, if approved by the Contracting Officer) to the Contracting Officer or the authorized representative.

(D) When requested by the Contracting Officer or the authorized representative, the Contractor shall substantiate invoices (including any subcontractor hours reimbursed at the hourly rate in the schedule) by evidence of actual payment, individual daily job timecards, records that verify the employees meet the qualifications for the labor categories specified in the contract, or other substantiation specified in the contract.

(E) Unless the Schedule prescribes otherwise, the hourly rates in the Schedule shall not be varied by virtue of the Contractor having performed work on an overtime basis.

(1) If no overtime rates are provided in the Schedule and the Contracting Officer approves overtime work in advance, overtime rates shall be negotiated.

(2) Failure to agree upon these overtime rates shall be treated as a dispute under the Disputes clause of this contract.

(3) If the Schedule provides rates for overtime, the premium portion of those rates will be reimbursable only to the extent the overtime is approved by the Contracting Officer.

(ii) Materials.

(A) If the Contractor furnishes materials that meet the definition of a commercial product at FAR 2.101, the price to be paid for such materials shall not exceed the Contractor's established catalog or market price, adjusted to reflect the —

(1) Quantities being acquired; and

(2) Any modifications necessary because of contract requirements.

(B) Except as provided for in paragraph (i)(1)(ii)(A) and (D)(2) of this clause, the Government will reimburse the Contractor the actual cost of materials (less any rebates, refunds, or discounts received by the contractor that are identifiable to the contract) provided the Contractor —

(1) Has made payments for materials in accordance with the terms and conditions of the agreement or invoice; or

(2) Makes these payments within 30 days of the submission of the Contractor's payment request to the Government and such payment is in accordance with the terms and conditions of the agreement or invoice.

(C) To the extent able, the Contractor shall —

(1) Obtain materials at the most advantageous prices available with due regard to securing prompt delivery of satisfactory materials; and

(2) Give credit to the Government for cash and trade discounts, rebates, scrap, commissions, and other amounts that are identifiable to the contract.

(D) Other Costs. Unless listed below, other direct and indirect costs will not be reimbursed.

(1) Other Direct Costs. The Government will reimburse the Contractor on the basis of actual cost for the following, provided such costs comply with the requirements in paragraph (i)(1)(ii)(B) of this clause: Each order must list separately the elements of other direct costs for that order.

(2) Indirect Costs (Material Handling, Subcontract Administration, etc.). The Government will reimburse the Contractor for indirect costs on a pro-rata basis over the period of contract performance at the following fixed price: Each order must list separately the fixed amount for the indirect costs and payment schedule; if no indirect costs are approved, insert "None."

(2) Total cost. It is estimated that the total cost to the Government for the performance of this contract shall not exceed the ceiling price set forth in the Schedule and the Contractor agrees to use its best efforts to perform the work specified in the Schedule and all obligations under this contract within such ceiling price. If at any time the Contractor has reason to believe that the hourly rate payments and material costs that will accrue in performing this contract in the next succeeding 30 days, if added to all other payments and costs previously accrued, will exceed 85 percent of the ceiling price in the Schedule, the Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer giving a revised estimate of the total price to the Government for performing this contract with supporting reasons and documentation. If at any time during the performance of this contract, the Contractor has reason to believe that the total price to the Government for performing this contract will be substantially greater or less than the then stated ceiling price, the Contractor shall so notify the Contracting Officer, giving a revised estimate of the total price for performing this contract, with supporting reasons and documentation. If at any time during performance of this contract, the Government has reason to believe that the work to be required in performing this contract will be substantially greater or less than the stated ceiling price, the Contracting Officer will so advise the Contractor, giving the then revised estimate of the total amount of effort to be required under the contract.

(3) Ceiling price. The Government will not be obligated to pay the Contractor any amount in excess of the ceiling price in the Schedule, and the Contractor shall not be obligated to continue performance if to do so would exceed the ceiling price set forth in the Schedule, unless and until the Contracting Officer notifies the Contractor in writing that the ceiling price has been increased and specifies in the notice a revised ceiling that shall constitute the ceiling price for performance under this contract. When and to the extent that the ceiling price set forth in the Schedule has been increased, any hours expended and material costs incurred by the Contractor in excess of the ceiling price before the increase shall be allowable to the same extent as if the hours expended and material costs had been incurred after the increase in the ceiling price.

(4) Access to records. At any time before final payment under this contract, the Contracting Officer (or authorized representative) will have access to the following (access shall be limited to the listing below unless otherwise agreed to by the Contractor and the Contracting Officer):

(i) Records that verify that the employees whose time has been included in any invoice meet the qualifications for the labor categories specified in the contract;

(ii) For labor hours (including any subcontractor hours reimbursed at the hourly rate in the schedule), when timecards are required as substantiation for payment —

(A) The original timecards (paper-based or electronic);

(B) The Contractor's timekeeping procedures;

(C) Contractor records that show the distribution of labor between jobs or contracts; and

(D) Employees whose time has been included in any invoice for the purpose of verifying that these employees have worked the hours shown on the invoices.

(iii) For material and subcontract costs that are reimbursed on the basis of actual cost —

(A) Any invoices or subcontract agreements substantiating material costs; and

(B) Any documents supporting payment of those invoices.

(5) Overpayments/Underpayments. Each payment previously made shall be subject to reduction to the extent of amounts, on preceding invoices, that are found by the Contracting Officer not to have been properly payable and shall also be subject to reduction for overpayments or to increase for underpayments. The Contractor shall promptly pay any such reduction within 30 days unless the parties agree otherwise. The Government within 30 days will pay any such increases, unless the parties agree otherwise. The Contractor's payment will be made by check. If the Contractor becomes aware of a duplicate invoice payment or that the Government has otherwise overpaid on an invoice payment, the Contractor shall —

(i) Remit the overpayment amount to the payment office cited in the contract along with a description of the overpayment including the —

(A) Circumstances of the overpayment (e.g., duplicate payment, erroneous payment, liquidation errors, date(s) of overpayment);

(B) Affected contract number and delivery order number, if applicable;

(C) Affected line item or subline item, if applicable; and

(D) Contractor point of contact.

(ii) Provide a copy of the remittance and supporting documentation to the Contracting Officer.

(6) (i) All amounts that become payable by the Contractor to the Government under this contract shall bear simple interest from the date due until paid unless paid within 30 days of becoming due. The interest rate shall be the interest rate established by the Secretary of the Treasury, as provided in 41 U.S.C. 7109, which is applicable to the period in which the amount becomes due, and then at the rate applicable for each six month period as established by the Secretary until the amount is paid.

(ii) The Government may issue a demand for payment to the Contractor upon finding a debt is due under the contract.

(iii) Final Decisions. The Contracting Officer will issue a final decision as required by 33.211 if —

(A) The Contracting Officer and the Contractor are unable to reach agreement on the existence or amount of a debt in a timely manner;

(B) The Contractor fails to liquidate a debt previously demanded by the Contracting Officer within the timeline specified in the demand for payment unless the amounts were not repaid because the Contractor has requested an installment payment agreement; or

(C) The Contractor requests a deferment of collection on a debt previously demanded by the Contracting Officer (see FAR 32.607-2).

(iv) If a demand for payment was previously issued for the debt, the demand for payment included in the final decision shall identify the same due date as the original demand for payment.

(v) Amounts shall be due at the earliest of the following dates:

(A) The date fixed under this contract.

(B) The date of the first written demand for payment, including any demand for payment resulting from a default termination.

(vi) The interest charge shall be computed for the actual number of calendar days involved beginning on the due date and ending on —

(A) The date on which the designated office receives payment from the Contractor;

(B) The date of issuance of a Government check to the Contractor from which an amount otherwise payable has been withheld as a credit against the contract debt; or

(C) The date on which an amount withheld and applied to the contract debt would otherwise have become payable to the Contractor.

(vii) The interest charge made under this clause may be reduced under the procedures prescribed in FAR 32.608-2 in effect on the date of this contract.

(viii) Upon receipt and approval of the invoice designated by the Contractor as the "completion invoice" and supporting documentation, and upon compliance by the Contractor with all terms of this contract, any outstanding balances will be paid within 30 days unless the parties agree otherwise. The completion invoice, and supporting documentation, shall be submitted by the Contractor as promptly as practicable following completion of the work under this contract, but in no event later than 1 year (or such longer period as the Contracting Officer may approve in writing) from the date of completion.

(7) Release of claims. The Contractor, and each assignee under an assignment entered into under this contract and in effect at the time of final payment under this contract, shall execute and deliver, at the time of and as a condition precedent to final payment under this contract, a release discharging the Government, its officers, agents, and employees of and from all liabilities, obligations, and claims arising out of or under this contract, subject only to the following exceptions.

(i) Specified claims in stated amounts, or in estimated amounts if the amounts are not susceptible to exact statement by the Contractor.

(ii) Claims, together with reasonable incidental expenses, based upon the liabilities of the Contractor to third parties arising out of performing this contract, that are not known to the Contractor on the date of the execution of the release, and of which the Contractor gives notice in writing to the Contracting Officer not more than 6 years after the date of the release or the date of any notice to the Contractor that the Government is prepared to make final payment, whichever is earlier.

(iii) Claims for reimbursement of costs (other than expenses of the Contractor by reason of its indemnification of the Government against patent liability), including reasonable incidental expenses, incurred by the Contractor under the terms of this contract relating to patents.

(8) Prompt payment. The Government will make payment in accordance with the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. 3903) and prompt payment regulations at 5 CFR part 1315.

(9) Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT). If the Government makes payment by EFT, see 52.212-5\(b\) for the appropriate EFT clause.

(10) Discount. In connection with any discount offered for early payment, time shall be computed from the date of the invoice. For the purpose of computing the discount earned, payment shall be considered to have been made on the date that appears on the payment check or the specified payment date if an electronic funds transfer payment is made.

(j) Risk of loss. Unless the contract specifically provides otherwise, risk of loss or damage to the supplies provided under this contract shall remain with the Contractor until, and shall pass to the Government upon:

(1) Delivery of the supplies to a carrier, if transportation is f.o.b. origin; or

(2) Delivery of the supplies to the Government at the destination specified in the contract, if transportation is f.o.b. destination.

(k) Taxes. The contract price includes all applicable Federal, State, and local taxes and duties.

(l) Termination for the Government's convenience. The Government reserves the right to terminate this contract, or any part hereof, for its sole convenience. In the event of such termination, the Contractor shall immediately stop all work hereunder and shall immediately cause any and all of its suppliers and subcontractors to cease work. Subject to the terms of this contract, the Contractor shall be paid an amount for direct labor hours (as defined in the Schedule of the contract) determined by multiplying the number of direct labor hours expended before the effective date of termination by the hourly rate(s) in the contract, less any hourly rate payments already made to the Contractor plus reasonable charges the Contractor can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Government using its standard record keeping system that have resulted from the termination. The Contractor shall not be required to comply with the cost accounting standards or contract cost principles for this purpose. This paragraph does not give the Government any right to audit the Contractor's records. The Contractor shall not be paid for any work performed or costs incurred that reasonably could have been avoided.

(m) Termination for cause. The Government may terminate this contract, or any part hereof, for cause in the event of any default by the Contractor, or if the Contractor fails to comply with any contract terms and conditions, or fails to provide the Government, upon request, with adequate assurances of future performance. In the event of termination for cause, the Government shall not be liable to the Contractor for any amount for supplies or services not accepted, and the Contractor shall be liable to the Government for any and all rights and remedies provided by law. If it is determined that the Government improperly terminated this contract for default, such termination shall be deemed a termination for convenience.

(n) Title. Unless specified elsewhere in this contract, title to items furnished under this contract shall pass to the Government upon acceptance, regardless of when or where the Government takes physical possession.

(o) Warranty. The Contractor warrants and implies that the items delivered hereunder are merchantable and fit for use for the particular purpose described in this contract.

(p) Limitation of liability. Except as otherwise provided by an express warranty, the Contractor will not be liable to the Government for consequential damages resulting from any defect or deficiencies in accepted items.

(q) Other compliances. The Contractor shall comply with all applicable Federal, State and local laws, executive orders, rules and regulations applicable to its performance under this contract.

(r) Compliance with laws unique to Government contracts. The Contractor agrees to comply with 31 U.S.C. 1352 relating to limitations on the use of appropriated funds to influence certain Federal contracts; 18 U.S.C. 431 relating to officials not to benefit; 40 U.S.C. chapter 37, Contract Work Hours and Safety Standards; 41 U.S.C. chapter 87, Kickbacks; 10 U.S.C. 4701 relating to whistleblower protections; 49 U.S.C. 40118, Fly American; and 41 U.S.C. chapter 21 relating to procurement integrity.

(s) Order of precedence. Any inconsistencies in this solicitation or contract shall be resolved by giving precedence in the following order:

- (1) The schedule of supplies/services.
- (2) The Assignments, Disputes, Payments, Invoice, Other Compliances, Compliance with Laws Unique to Government Contracts, Unauthorized Obligations, and Commercial Supplier Agreements - Unenforceable Clauses paragraphs of this clause.
- (3) The clause at 52.212-5.
- (4) Addenda to this solicitation or contract, including any commercial supplier agreements as amended by the Commercial Supplier Agreements - Unenforceable Clauses provision.
- (5) Solicitation provisions if this is a solicitation.
- (6) Other paragraphs of this clause.
- (7) The Standard Form 1449.

(8) Other documents, exhibits, and attachments.

(9) The specification.

(t) [Reserved].

(u) Unauthorized Obligations.

(1) Except as stated in paragraph (u)(2) of this clause, when any supply or service acquired under this contract is subject to any commercial supplier agreement (as defined in 502.101) that includes any language, provision, or clause requiring the Government to pay any future fees, penalties, interest, legal costs or to indemnify the Contractor or any person or entity for damages, costs, fees, or any other loss or liability that would create an Anti-Deficiency Act violation (31 U.S.C. 1341), the following shall govern:

(i) Any such language, provision, or clause is unenforceable against the Government.

(ii) Neither the Government nor any Government authorized end user shall be deemed to have agreed to such clause by virtue of it appearing in the commercial supplier agreement. If the commercial supplier agreement is invoked through an "I agree" click box or other comparable mechanism (e.g., "click-wrap" or "browse-wrap" agreements), execution does not bind the Government or any Government authorized end user to such clause.

(iii) Any such language, provision, or clause is deemed to be stricken from the commercial supplier agreement.

(2) Paragraph (u)(1) of this clause does not apply to indemnification or any other payment by the Government that is expressly authorized by statute and specifically authorized under applicable agency regulations and procedures.

(v) Incorporation by reference. The Contractor's representations and certifications, including those completed electronically via the System for Award Management (SAM), are incorporated by reference into the contract.

(w) Commercial supplier agreements—unenforceable clauses. When any supply or service acquired under this contract is subject to a commercial supplier agreement (as defined in 502.101), the following language shall be deemed incorporated into the commercial supplier agreement. As used herein, "this agreement" means the commercial supplier agreement:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this agreement, when the end user is an agency or instrumentality of the U.S. Government, the following shall apply:

(i) Applicability. This agreement is a part of a contract between the commercial supplier and the U.S. Government for the acquisition of the supply or service that necessitates a license or other similar legal instrument (including all contracts, task orders, and delivery orders under FAR Part 12).

(ii) End user. This agreement shall bind the Government as end user but shall not operate to bind an Government employee or person acting on behalf of the Government in his or her personal capacity.

(iii) Law and disputes. This agreement is governed by Federal law.

(A) Any language purporting to subject the U.S. Government to the laws of a U.S. state, U.S. territory, district, or municipality, or a foreign nation, except where Federal law expressly provides for the application of such laws, is hereby deleted.

(B) Any language requiring dispute resolution in a specific forum or venue that is different from that prescribed by applicable Federal law is hereby deleted.

(C) Any language prescribing a different time period for bringing an action than that prescribed by applicable Federal law in relation to a dispute is hereby deleted.

(iv) Continued performance. The supplier or licensor shall not unilaterally revoke, terminate or suspend any rights granted to the Government except as allowed by this contract. If the supplier or licensor believes the Government to be in breach of the agreement, it shall pursue its rights under the Contract Disputes Act or other applicable Federal statute while continuing performance as set forth in subparagraph (d) (Disputes).

(v) Arbitration; equitable or injunctive relief. In the event of a claim or dispute arising under or relating to this agreement, a binding arbitration shall not be used unless specifically authorized by agency guidance, and equitable or injunctive relief, including the award of attorney fees, costs or interest, may be awarded against the Government only when explicitly provided by statute (e.g., Prompt Payment Act or Equal Access to Justice Act).

(vi) Updating terms.

(A) After award, the contractor may unilaterally revise commercial supplier agreement terms if they are not material. A material change is defined as:

- (1) Terms that change Government rights or obligations;
- (2) Terms that increase Government prices;
- (3) Terms that decrease overall level of service; or
- (4) Terms that limit any other Government right addressed elsewhere in this contract.

(B) For revisions that will materially change the terms of the contract, the revised commercial supplier agreement must be incorporated into the contract using a bilateral modification.

(C) Any agreement terms or conditions unilaterally revised subsequent to award that are inconsistent with any material term or provision of this contract shall not be enforceable against the Government, and the Government shall not be deemed to have consented to them.

(vii) No automatic renewals. If any license or service tied to periodic payment is provided under this agreement (e.g., annual software maintenance or annual lease term), such license or service shall not renew automatically upon expiration of its current term without prior express consent by an authorized Government representative.

(viii) Indemnification. Any clause of this agreement requiring the commercial supplier or licensor to defend or indemnify the end user is hereby amended to provide that the U.S. Department of Justice has the sole right to represent the United States in any such action, in accordance with 28 U.S.C. 516.

(ix) Audits. Any clause of this agreement permitting the commercial supplier or licensor to audit the end user's compliance with this agreement is hereby amended as follows:

(A) Discrepancies found in an audit may result in a charge by the commercial supplier or licensor to the Government. Any resulting invoice must comply with the proper invoicing requirements specified in the underlying Government contract or order.

(B) This charge, if disputed by the Government, will be resolved in accordance with subparagraph (d) (Disputes); no payment obligation shall arise on the part of the Government until the conclusion of the dispute process.

(C) Any audit requested by the contractor will be performed at the contractor's expense, without reimbursement by the Government.

(x) Taxes or surcharges. Any taxes or surcharges which the commercial supplier or licensor seeks to pass along to the Government as end user will be governed by the terms of the underlying Government contract or order and, in any event, must be submitted to the Contracting Officer for a determination of applicability prior to invoicing unless specifically agreed to otherwise in the Government contract.

(xi) Non-assignment. This agreement may not be assigned, nor may any rights or obligations thereunder be delegated, without the Government's prior approval, except as expressly permitted under subparagraph (b) of this clause.

(xii) Confidential information. If this agreement includes a confidentiality clause, such clause is hereby amended to state that neither the agreement nor the contract price list, as applicable, shall be deemed "confidential information." Issues regarding release of "unit pricing" will be resolved consistent with the Freedom of Information Act. Notwithstanding anything in this agreement to the contrary, the Government may retain any confidential information as required by law, regulation or its internal document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided, however, that all such retained confidential information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this agreement.

(2) If any language, provision, or clause of this agreement conflicts or is inconsistent with the preceding paragraph (w)(1), the language, provisions, or clause of paragraph (w)(1) shall prevail to the extent of such inconsistency.

For indefinite delivery contracts, the Contractor shall report to the Contracting Officer for the indefinite delivery contract and the Contracting Officer(s) for any affected order or, in the case of the Department of Defense, identify both the indefinite delivery contract and any affected orders in the report provided at <https://dibnet.dod.mil>.

(1) Proposals submitted in response to this solicitation shall include a subcontracting plan that separately addresses subcontracting with small business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, HUBZone small business, small disadvantaged business, and women-owned small business concerns. If the Offeror is submitting an individual subcontracting plan, the plan must separately address subcontracting with small business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, HUBZone small business, small disadvantaged business, and women-owned small business concerns, with a separate part for the basic contract and separate parts for each option (if any). The plan shall be included in and made a part of the resultant contract. The subcontracting plan shall be negotiated within the time specified by the Contracting Officer. Failure to submit and negotiate a subcontracting plan shall make the Offeror ineligible for award of a contract.

(i) The Contractor may accept a subcontractor's written representations of its size and socioeconomic status as a small business, small disadvantaged business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, or a women-owned small business if the subcontractor represents that the size and socioeconomic status representations with its offer are current, accurate, and complete as of the date of the offer for the subcontract.

(ii) The Contractor may accept a subcontractor's representations of its size and socioeconomic status as a small business, small disadvantaged business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, or a women-owned small business in the System for Award Management (SAM) if—

(d) The Offeror's subcontracting plan shall include the following:

(1) Separate goals, expressed in terms of total dollars subcontracted, and as a percentage of total planned subcontracting dollars, for the use of small business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, HUBZone small business, small disadvantaged business, and women-owned small business concerns as subcontractors. For individual subcontracting plans, and if required by the Contracting Officer, goals shall also be expressed in terms of percentage of total contract dollars, in addition to the goals expressed as a percentage of total subcontract dollars. The Offeror shall include all subcontracts that contribute to contract performance, and may include a proportionate share of products and services that are normally allocated as indirect costs. In accordance with 43 U.S.C. 1626:

(i) Subcontracts awarded to an ANC or Indian tribe shall be counted towards the subcontracting goals for small business and small disadvantaged business concerns, regardless of the size or Small Business Administration certification status of the ANC or Indian tribe; and

(ii) Where one or more subcontractors are in the subcontract tier between the prime Contractor and the ANC or Indian tribe, the ANC or Indian tribe shall designate the appropriate Contractor(s) to count the subcontract towards its small business and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals.

(A) In most cases, the appropriate Contractor is the Contractor that awarded the subcontract to the ANC or Indian tribe.

(B) If the ANC or Indian tribe designates more than one Contractor to count the subcontract toward its goals, the ANC or Indian tribe shall designate only a portion of the total subcontract award to each Contractor. The sum of the amounts designated to various Contractors cannot exceed the total value of the subcontract.

(C) The ANC or Indian tribe shall give a copy of the written designation to the Contracting Officer, the prime Contractor, and the subcontractors in between the prime Contractor and the ANC or Indian tribe within 30 days of the date of the subcontract award.

(D) If the Contracting Officer does not receive a copy of the ANC's or the Indian tribe's written designation within 30 days of the subcontract award, the Contractor that awarded the subcontract to the ANC or Indian tribe will be considered the designated Contractor

(2) A statement of—

(i) Total dollars planned to be subcontracted for an individual

A firm may rely on the information contained in SAM as an accurate representation of a concern's size and ownership characteristics for the purposes of maintaining a small, veteran-owned small, service-disabled veteran-owned small, HUBZone small, small disadvantaged, and women-owned small business source list. Use of SAM as its source list does not relieve a firm of its responsibilities (e.g., outreach, assistance, counseling, or publicizing subcontracting opportunities) in this clause.

(10) Assurances that the Offeror will—

- (i) Cooperate in any studies or surveys as may be required;
- (ii) Submit periodic reports so that the Government can determine the extent of compliance by the Offeror with the subcontracting plan;
- (iii) After November 30, 2017, include subcontracting data for each order when reporting subcontracting achievements for indefinite-delivery, indefinite-quantity contracts with individual subcontracting plans where the contract is intended for use by multiple agencies;
- (iv) Submit the Individual Subcontract Report (ISR) and/or the Summary Subcontract Report (SSR), in accordance with paragraph (l) of this clause using the Electronic Subcontracting Reporting System (eSRS) at <http://www.esrs.gov>. The reports shall provide information on subcontract awards to small business concerns (including ANCs and Indian tribes that are not small businesses), veteran-owned small business concerns, service-disabled veteran-owned small business concerns, HUBZone small business concerns, small disadvantaged business concerns (including ANCs and Indian tribes that have not been certified by the Small Business Administration as small disadvantaged businesses), women-owned small business concerns, and for NASA only, Historically Black Colleges and Universities and Minority Institutions. Reporting shall be in accordance with this clause, or as provided in agency regulations;
- (v) Ensure that its subcontractors with subcontracting plans agree to submit the ISR and/or the SSR using eSRS;
- (vi) Provide its prime contract number, its unique entity identifier, and the e-mail address of the Offeror's official responsible for acknowledging receipt of or rejecting the ISRs, to all first-tier subcontractors with subcontracting plans so they can enter this information into the eSRS when submitting their ISRs; and

(11) A description of the types of records that will be maintained concerning procedures that have been adopted to comply with the requirements and goals in the plan, including establishing source lists; and a description of the offeror's efforts to locate small business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, HUBZone small business, small disadvantaged business, and women-owned small business concerns and award subcontracts to them. The records shall include at least the following (on a plant-wide or company-wide basis, unless otherwise indicated):

(i) Source lists (e.g., SAM), guides, and other data that identify small business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, HUBZone small business, small disadvantaged business, and women-owned small business concerns.

(ii) Organizations contacted in an attempt to locate sources that are small business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, HUBZone small business, small disadvantaged business, or women-owned small business concerns.

(iii) Records on each subcontract solicitation resulting in an award of more than the simplified acquisition threshold, as defined in FAR 2.101 on the date of subcontract award, indicating-

(C) Whether service-disabled veteran-owned small business concerns were solicited and, if not, why not;

(D) Whether HUBZone small business concerns were solicited and, if not, why not;

(E) Whether small disadvantaged business concerns were solicited and, if not, why not;

(F) Whether women-owned small business concerns were solicited and, if not, why not; and

(G) If applicable, the reason award was not made to a small business concern.

(iv) Records of any outreach efforts to contact-

(A) Trade associations;

(B) Business development organizations;

(C) Conferences and trade fairs to locate small, HUBZone small, small disadvantaged, service-disabled veteran-owned, and women-owned small business sources; and

(D) Veterans service organizations.

(v) Records of internal guidance and encouragement provided to buyers through-

(A) Workshops, seminars, training, etc.; and

(B) Monitoring performance to evaluate compliance with the program's requirements.

(vi) On a contract-by-contract basis, records to support award data submitted by the offeror to the Government, including the name, address, and business size of each subcontractor. Contractors having commercial plans need not comply with this requirement.

(12) Assurances that the Offeror will make a good faith effort to acquire articles, equipment, supplies, services, or materials, or obtain the performance of construction work from the small business concerns that it used in preparing the bid or proposal, in the same or greater scope, amount, and quality used in preparing and submitting the bid or proposal. Responding to a request for a quote does not constitute use in preparing a bid or proposal. The Offeror used a small business concern in preparing the bid or proposal if-

(i) The Offeror identifies the small business concern as a subcontractor in the bid or proposal or associated small business subcontracting plan, to furnish certain supplies or perform a portion of the subcontract; or

(ii) The Offeror used the small business concern's pricing or cost information or technical expertise in preparing the bid or proposal, where there is written evidence of an intent or understanding that the small business concern will be awarded a subcontract for the related work if the Offeror is awarded the contract.

(13) Assurances that the Contractor will provide the Contracting Officer with a written explanation if the Contractor fails to acquire articles, equipment, supplies, services or materials or obtain the performance of construction work as described in (d)(12) of this clause. This written explanation must be submitted to the Contracting Officer within 30 days of contract completion.

(14) Assurances that the Contractor will not prohibit a subcontractor from discussing with the Contracting Officer any material matter pertaining to payment to or utilization of a subcontractor.

(15) Assurances that the offeror will pay its small business subcontractors on time and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the underlying subcontract, and notify the contracting officer when the prime contractor makes either a reduced or an untimely payment to a small business subcontractor (see 52.242-5).

(e) In order to effectively implement this plan to the extent consistent with efficient contract performance, the Contractor shall perform the following functions:

(1) Assist small business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, HUBZone small business, small disadvantaged business, and women-owned small business concerns by arranging solicitations, time for the preparation of bids, quantities, specifications, and delivery schedules so as to facilitate the participation by such concerns. Where the Contractor's lists of potential small business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, HUBZone small business, small disadvantaged business, and women-owned small business subcontractors are excessively long, reasonable effort shall be made to give all such small business concerns an opportunity to compete over a period of time.

(2) Provide adequate and timely consideration of the potentialities of small business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, HUBZone small business, small disadvantaged business, and women-owned small business concerns in all "make-or-buy" decisions.

(3) Counsel and discuss subcontracting opportunities with representatives of small business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, HUBZone small business, small disadvantaged business, and women-owned small business firms.

(4) Confirm that a subcontractor representing itself as a HUBZone small business concern is certified by SBA as a HUBZone small business concern by accessing SAM or by accessing the Dynamic Small Business Search (DSBS) at https://web.sba.gov/pro-net/search/dsp\_dsbs.cfm

(5) Provide notice to subcontractors concerning penalties and remedies for misrepresentations of business status as small, veteran-owned small business, HUBZone small, small disadvantaged, or women-owned small business for the purpose of obtaining a subcontract that is to be included as part or all of a goal contained in the Contractor's subcontracting plan.

(6) For all competitive subcontracts over the simplified acquisition threshold, as defined in FAR 2.101 on the date of subcontract award, in which a small business concern received a small business preference, upon determination of the successful subcontract offeror, prior to award of the subcontract the Contractor must inform each unsuccessful small business subcontract offeror in writing of the name and location of the apparent successful offeror and if the successful subcontract offeror is a small business, veteran-owned small business, service-disabled veteran-owned small business, HUBZone small business, small disadvantaged business, or women-owned small business concern.

(7) Assign each subcontract the NAICS code and corresponding size standard that best describes the principal purpose of the subcontract.

(f) A master subcontracting plan on a plant or division-wide basis that contains all the elements required by paragraph (d) of this clause, except goals, may be incorporated by reference as a part of the subcontracting plan required of the Offeror by this clause; provided-

(1) The master subcontracting plan has been approved;

(2) The Offeror ensures that the master subcontracting plan is updated as necessary and provides copies of the approved master subcontracting plan, including evidence of its approval, to the Contracting Officer; and

(3) Goals and any deviations from the master subcontracting plan deemed necessary by the Contracting Officer to satisfy the requirements of this contract are set forth in the individual subcontracting plan.

(g) A commercial plan is the preferred type of subcontracting plan for contractors furnishing commercial products and commercial services. The commercial plan shall relate to the offeror's planned subcontracting generally, for both commercial and Government business, rather than solely to the Government contract. Once the Contractor's commercial plan has been approved, the Government will not require another subcontracting plan from the same Contractor while the plan remains in effect, as long as the product or service being provided by the Contractor continues to meet the definition of a commercial product or commercial service. A Contractor with a commercial plan shall comply with the reporting requirements stated in paragraph (d)(10) of this clause by submitting one SSR in eSRS for all contracts covered by its commercial plan. A Contractor authorized to use a commercial subcontracting plan shall include in its subcontracting goals and in its SSR all indirect costs, with the exception of those such as the following: Employee salaries and benefits; payments for petty cash; depreciation; interest; income taxes; property taxes; lease payments; bank fees; fines, claims, and dues; original equipment manufacturer relationships during warranty periods (negotiated up front with the product); utilities and other services purchased from a municipality or an entity solely authorized by the municipality to provide those services in a particular geographical region; and philanthropic contributions. This report shall be acknowledged or rejected in eSRS by the Contracting Officer who approved the plan. This report shall be submitted within 30 days after the end of the Government's fiscal year.

(h) Prior compliance of the offeror with other such subcontracting plans under previous contracts will be considered by the Contracting Officer in determining the responsibility of the offeror for award of the contract.

(i) A contract may have no more than one subcontracting plan. When a contract modification exceeds the subcontracting plan threshold in FAR 19.702(a), or an option is exercised, the goals of the existing subcontracting plan shall be amended to reflect any new subcontracting opportunities. When the goals in a subcontracting plan are amended, these goal changes do not apply retroactively.

(j) Subcontracting plans are not required from subcontractors when the prime contract contains the clause at FAR 52.212-5, Contract Terms and Conditions Required to Implement Statutes or Executive Orders-Commercial Products and Commercial Services, or when the subcontractor provides a commercial product or commercial service subject to the clause at FAR 52.244-6, Subcontracts for Commercial Products and Commercial Services, under a prime contract.

(k) The failure of the Contractor or subcontractor to comply in good faith with (1) the clause of this contract entitled "Utilization Of Small Business Concerns;" or (2) an approved plan required by this clause, shall be a material breach of the contract and may be considered in any past performance evaluation of the Contractor.

(l) The Contractor shall submit ISRs and SSRs using the web-based eSRS at <http://www.esrs.gov>. Purchases from a corporation, company, or subdivision that is an affiliate of the Contractor or subcontractor are not included in these reports. Subcontract awards by affiliates shall be treated as subcontract awards by the Contractor. Subcontract award data reported by the Contractor and subcontractors shall be limited to awards made to their immediate next-tier subcontractors. Credit cannot be taken for awards made to lower tier subcontractors, unless the Contractor or subcontractor has been designated to receive a small business or small disadvantaged business credit from an ANC or Indian tribe. Only subcontracts involving performance in the United States or its outlying areas should be included in these reports with the exception of subcontracts under a contract awarded by the State Department or any other agency that has statutory or regulatory authority to require subcontracting plans for subcontracts performed outside the United States and its outlying areas.

(1) ISR. This report is not required for commercial plans. The report is required for each contract containing an individual subcontracting plan.

(i) The report shall be submitted semi-annually during contract performance for the periods ending March 31 and September 30. A report is also required for each contract within 30 days of contract completion. Reports are due 30 days after the close of each reporting period, unless otherwise directed by the Contracting Officer. Reports are required when due, regardless of whether there has been any subcontracting activity since the inception of the contract or the previous reporting period. When the Contracting Officer rejects an ISR, the Contractor shall submit a corrected report within 30 days of receiving the notice of ISR rejection.

(ii)

(A) When a subcontracting plan contains separate goals for the basic contract and each option, as prescribed by FAR 19.704(c), the dollar goal inserted on this report shall be the sum of the base period through the current option; for example, for a report submitted after the second option is exercised, the dollar goal would be the sum of the goals for the basic contract, the first option, and the second option.

(B) If a subcontracting plan has been added to the contract pursuant to 19.702 a)(1)(iii) or 19.301-2(e), the Contractor's achievements must be reported in the ISR on a cumulative basis from the date of incorporation of the subcontracting plan into the contract.

(iii) When a subcontracting plan includes indirect costs in the goals, these costs must be included in this report.

(iv) The authority to acknowledge receipt or reject the ISR resides—

(A) In the case of the prime Contractor, with the Contracting Officer; and

(B) In the case of a subcontract with a subcontracting plan, with the entity that awarded the subcontract.

(2) SSR.

(i) Reports submitted under individual contract plans—

(A) This report encompasses all subcontracting under prime contracts and subcontracts with an executive agency, regardless of the dollar value of the subcontracts. This report also includes indirect costs on a prorated basis when the indirect costs are excluded from the subcontracting goals.

(B) The report may be submitted on a corporate, company or subdivision (e.g. plant or division operating as a separate profit center) basis, unless otherwise directed by the agency.

(C) If the Contractor or a subcontractor is performing work for more than one executive agency, a separate report shall be submitted to each executive agency covering only that agency's contracts, provided at least one of that agency's contracts is over the applicable threshold specified in FAR 19.702(a), and the contractand contains a subcontracting plan. For DoD, a consolidated report shall be submitted for all contracts awarded by military departments/agencies and/or subcontracts awarded by DoD prime contractors.

(D) The report shall be submitted annually by October 30 for the twelve month period ending September 30. When a Contracting Officer rejects an SSR, the Contractor shall submit a revised report within 30 days of receiving the notice of SSR rejection.

(E) Subcontract awards that are related to work for more than one executive agency shall be appropriately allocated.

(F) The authority to acknowledge or reject SSRs in eSRS, including SSRs submitted by subcontractors with subcontracting plans, resides with the Government agency awarding the prime contracts unless stated otherwise in the contract.

(ii) Reports submitted under a commercial plan-

(A) The report shall include all subcontract awards under the commercial plan in effect during the Government's fiscal year and all indirect costs.

(B) The report shall be submitted annually, within thirty days after the end of the Government's fiscal year.

(C) If a Contractor has a commercial plan and is performing work for more than one executive agency, the Contractor shall specify the percentage of dollars attributable to each agency.

(D) The authority to acknowledge or reject SSRs for commercial plans resides with the Contracting Officer who approved the commercial plan.

(End of clause)

52.219-28 POST-AWARD SMALL BUSINESS PROGRAM REPRESENTATION (SEP 2023)

(a) Definitions. As used in this clause-

Long-term contract means a contract of more than five years in duration, including options. However, the term does not include contracts that exceed five years in duration because the period of performance has been extended for a cumulative period not to exceed six months under the clause at 52.217-8, Option to Extend Services, or other appropriate authority.

Small business concern-

(1) Means a concern, including its affiliates, that is independently owned and operated, not dominant in its field of operation, and qualified as a small business under the criteria in 13 CFR part 121 and the size standard in paragraph (d) of this clause.

(2) Affiliates, as used in this definition, means business concerns, one of whom directly or indirectly controls or has the power to control the others, or a third party or parties control or have the power to control the others. In determining whether affiliation exists, consideration is given to all appropriate factors including common ownership, common management, and contractual relationships.
