Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

ON PREMISE SERVICE AGREEMENT

This On Premise Service Agreement (the "Agreement") sets forth the terms and conditions governing CyberSponse's provision to Customer of a On Premise incident response solution.

ON PREMISE SERVICE AGREEMENT – ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. DEFINITIONS.

"Affiliate" means, with respect to a party, any entity which directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with such party (where "control" means ownership or control, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the voting interests of the subject entity).

"Customer Data" means all electronic data submitted by Customer to the On Premise Service network.

"Deliverable" is any work developed or created by CyberSponse during the course of providing support or Professional Services to Customer. A Deliverable does not include any Customer Data or Customer Confidential Information.

"Documentation" means the description of the software contained in the then current software datasheet, a copy of which will be provided by CyberSponse to Customer upon request.

"On Premise Service" means CyberSponse software provided, under a limited license, for Customer use on Customer systems.

"Mobile SDK" means CyberSponse's mobile/tablet Software Development Kits.

"Professional Services" means the activation, implementation, training, and other consulting and professional services provided by CyberSponse to Customer as specified in a Statement of Work.

"Schedule" means an ordering document for the On Premise Service that is signed by CyberSponse and Customer. Each Schedule will reference and be subject to this Agreement. The initial Schedule entered into under this Agreement is attached as Schedule A-1.

"Statement of Work" or "SOW" means the document that describes the Professional Services provided by CyberSponse to Customer. Each Statement of Work will reference and be subject to this Agreement.

"Subscription Fees" mean the fees paid by Customer for the right to access and use the On Premise Service and receive Support during the applicable Term.

"Transaction" has the meaning specified in the applicable Schedule.

"Users" means Customer's employees, agents, contractors, and consultants who are authorized by Customer to use the On Premise Service.

2. PROVISION OF THE ON PREMISE SERVICE.

a. Availability and Use of the On Premise Service. CyberSponse will make the On Premise Service available to Customer in accordance with each Schedule entered into by the parties and the then current Documentation. Customer's use of the On Premise Service is limited to its internal business purposes solely for the scope and use limitations specified in the applicable Schedule. b. Software Provided for Use with the On Premise Service.

The Application. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, CyberSponse grants Customer the nonexclusive, non-transferable, worldwide, internal use only license during the Term to use the application and its component parts.

Support for the On Premise Service. CyberSponse will provide Customer with the support described in CyberSponse's then current technical support policy, a copy of which is attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A.

3. CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITIES RELATING TO USE OF On Premise SERVICE.

Access to the On Premise Service. Customer is responsible for (i) all activities conducted under its User logins; and (ii) obtaining and maintaining any hardware, software and network infrastructure ("Customer Equipment") and any ancillary services needed to connect to, access or otherwise use the On Premise Service, and ensuring that the Customer Equipment and ancillary services comply with the configuration requirements specified in the Documentation.

Use of the On Premise Service. Customer agrees to use the On Premise Service solely for its internal business purposes. Customer will not: (i) resell, sublicense, lease, time-share or otherwise make the On Premise Service to any third party; (ii) send or store infringing or unlawful material; (iii) attempt to gain unauthorized access to, or disrupt the integrity or performance of, the On Premise Service or the data contained therein; (iv) modify, copy or create derivative works based on the On Premise Service; (v) reverse engineer the On Premise Service; (vi) access the On Premise Service for the purpose of building a competitive product or service or copying its features or user interface; (vii) use the On Premise Service, or permit its use, for purposes of product evaluation, benchmarking or other comparative analysis intended for publication without CyberSponse's prior written consent; or (viii) permit access to the On Premise Service, by a direct competitor of CyberSponse.

Reserved.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OWNERSHIP RIGHTS.

By CyberSponse. CyberSponse retains all ownership rights in the On Premise Service (including Cybersponse software and other software utilized to provide the Service), including all intellectual rights in any of the foregoing. CyberSponse grants Customer the nonexclusive, paid-up right to use Deliverables solely for its internal business purposes in connection with its use of the On Premise Service.

By Customer. Customer retains all ownership rights in the Customer Data, including all intellectual rights in the Customer Data. Customer grants CyberSponse the nonexclusive, paid-up right to use the Customer Data to provide the On Premise Service to Customer, including to monitor and improve the Services.

No Other Rights. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, neither party grants any rights to the other including any license, right or interest in any CyberSponse or Customer trademark, copyright, trade name or service mark.

Reserved.

WARRANTIES.

a. Mutual Warranties. Each party represents and warrants that (i) it has the legal power to enter into and perform under this Agreement; and (ii) it will comply with all other applicable laws in its performance hereunder. b. By CyberSponse.

"AS IS" SERVICE.

DISCLAIMER. The CyberSponse warrants that the SOFTWARE will, for a reasonable period from the date of your receipt, perform substantially in accordance with CyberSponse; SOFTWARE PRODUCT written materials accompanying it. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE FOREGOING, THE SOFTWARE AND SERVICES PROVIDED ARE PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" BASIS. CYBERSPONSE AND ITS LICENSORS DISCLAIM ANY AND ALL WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, RELATING TO THE ON PREMISE SERVICE, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE,

TITLE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT, OR ARISING FROM A COURSE OF DEALING, USAGE OR TRADE PRACTICE. CYBERSPONSE SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTY THAT THE OPERATION OF THE SERVICE WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR FREE.

FURTHER, CYBERSPONSE MAKES NO ADDITIONAL REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES WHATSOEVER, AND SHALL HAVE NO LIABILITY WHATSOEVER, WITH RESPECT TO THE ACCURACY, DEPENDABILITY, PRIVACY, SECURITY, AUTHENTICITY OR COMPLETENESS OF DATA TRANSMITTED OVER THE INTERNET, OR ANY INTRUSION, VIRUS, DISRUPTION, LOSS OF COMMUNICATION, LOSS OR CORRUPTION OF DATA, OR OTHER ERROR OR EVENT CAUSED OR PERMITTED BY OR INTRODUCED THROUGH THE INTERNET OR THE SERVERS UPON WHICH THE ON PREMISE SERVICE IS PROVIDED. CUSTOMERS ARE SOLELY RESPONSIBLE FOR IMPLEMENTING ADEQUATE FIREWALL, PASSWORD AND OTHER SECURITY MEASURES TO PROTECT CUSTOMER SYSTEMS, DATA AND APPLICATIONS FROM UNWANTED INTRUSION, WHETHER OVER THE INTERNET OR BY OTHER MEANS.

NO LEGAL ADVICE. NOTHING CONTAINED WITHIN THE ON PREMISE SERVICE IS TO BE CONSTRUED AS LEGAL ADVICE. CUSTOMER EXPRESSLY AGREES TO CONSULT WITH ITS OWN INDEPENDENT COUNSEL AND TO NOT RELY ON ANYTHING CONTAINED WITHIN ANY OF CYBERSPONSE'S SYSTEMS, SOFTWARE, SERVICES, OR ANY OTHER COMMUNICATIONS FOR LEGAL MATTERS. ANY REFERENCE WITHIN THE SERVICES OR SOFTWARE TO LAWS OR REGULATIONS ARE FOR GENERAL REFERENCE ONLY. CUTOMER UNDERSTANDS THAT IT HAS THE OPPORTUNITY AT ANY TIME DURING THE USE OF THE SERVICES TO REVIEW ALL POTENTIAL COURSES OF ACTION WITH ITS OWN COUNSEL AND AGREES TO TAKE FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR ITS OWN COMPLIANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE LEGAL, REGULATORY, AND CONTRACTUAL REQUIREMENTS.

Warranty for Professional Services. CyberSponse warrants (i) it will provide the Professional Services in a professional and workmanlike manner consistent with good industry standards and practices; and (ii) that for a period of three months after completion the Professional Services will conform to the applicable Statement of Work. In the event of any breach of the foregoing warranty, CyberSponse will re-perform the Professional Services or, if CyberSponse is unable to do so, return the fees paid to CyberSponse for the nonconforming Services.

EXHIBIT A TO

ON PREMISE SERVICE AGREEMENT

CyberSponse Support Policies

CyberSponse provides support for the On Premise Service as described in this Exhibit. Communication
Issues or problems (for convenience, each is referred to as an "issue") with the On Premise Service are reported via the web-based customer support tool. In the event the web-based customer support tool is unavailable, the path outlined in the Escalation Section may be used to seek assistance from CyberSponse.

Severity Level Definitions / Response Time Targets / Resolution Resolution of reported issues with the On Premise Service will depend upon a complete understanding of the variables unique to each situation. CyberSponse will provide routine updates on resolution efforts.

Level / Impact	Definition	Initial Response Target
Severity 1 – Critical	On Premise Service is down, business component is inoperable or critical interface has failed. Customer unable to use, or benefit from the On Premise Service resulting in a critical financial impact on Customer operation. The customer has gone through their internal troubleshooting process to eliminate any and all issues with customer-supplied infrastructure (hardware, network, etc). The condition requires immediate resolution.	Within two hours
Severity 2 – Significant	An issue other than a Severity 1 issue in which the condition makes use or continued use of any one or more functions of the On Premise Service difficult and which Customer, or CyberSponse on Customer's behalf, cannot reasonably circumvent or avoid on a temporary basis without expenditure of significant time or effort.	Within four business hours
Severity 3 – Moderate	An issue other than a Severity 1 or Severity 2 issue which is not critical in that no loss of data occurs and which Customer, or CyberSponse on Customer's behalf, cannot reasonably circumvent or avoid on a temporary basis without the expenditure of significant time or effort.	Within one business day
Severity 4 – Minimal	A non-critical function or component of the On Premise Service is malfunctioning causing minimal impact on Customer's business.	Within two business days

After CyberSponse completes its initial investigation of the issue, CyberSponse will label it with one of the following categories and responses:

- Known Defect
  - Fix or workaround is provided to circumvent or correct the issue.
- If no workaround is available and it is determined that one is required, CyberSponse will work with Customer to find the best feasible workaround.
- CyberSponse will advise Customer when the issue is resolved and ticket closed. • New

Defect

- If CyberSponse determines the defect has not been reported before, resolution efforts will be logged into the web-based customer support tool.
- If the defect is deemed to be high impact, a code fix will be created, tested and released in the On Premise Service. CyberSponse will advise Customer on how soon the fix will be implemented.
- If the defect is determined to be of lesser impact not requiring immediate implementation of a fix, then CyberSponse may defer the fix. In that event, Customer will be apprised accordingly.
  - Once a plan is created for a future fix, CyberSponse will work as appropriate to resolve the issue.

Not Product-Related

- If it is determined that the issue is not related to the On Premise Service, the problem resolution will be Customer's responsibility. NOTE: Professional Services are available (per an executed Statement of Work) to assist Customer in resolving the issue.
  - Ticket will be closed.

Escalation

Escalation may be initiated from either CyberSponse or Customer (via the following escalation path):

Online Support

E-mail Support

Phone escalation

- CyberSponse Escalation Criteria:

Severity 1 issue – If not resolved within 4 hours and no material progress has been made, the issue is escalated within CyberSponse for additional action and resources as needed. Executive management monitors the issue closely until it is resolved.

Severity 2 issues – escalated after one business day.

Severity 3 issues – escalated after three business days.

Severity 4 issues – escalated after five business days.

Requests for Enhancements

Customers are required to use the web-based support tool to submit recommendations or suggestions for enhancements to the On Premise Service. Using the tool for submitting enhancements assists CyberSponse in evaluating and prioritizing the suggestion.

Releases to the On Premise Service

CyberSponse provides and manages all software releases to maintain the On Premise Service at the latest version. CyberSponse does not support versions older than 6 months. Some resolutions may require an upgrade to the most recent release.

Disaster Recovery.

Customer is solely responsible for all Disaster Recovery and Business Continuity plans and operations. CyberSponse cannot make any guarantees for Customer systems.

Data Storage.

Customer is solely responsible for configuring appropriate backups and redundant systems. CyberSponse cannot make any guarantees for Customer data storage.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Cyviz, LLC ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

CONTRACTOR SUPPLEMENTAL PRICELIST INFORMATION AND TERMS

CYVIZ, LLC

CYVIZ LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

I. Return to Factory (RTF) Warranty

All Cyviz solutions come with a two-year return to factory (RTF) hardware and software warranty included in the price of the solution. While under RTF warranty, all defective components will be replaced via advanced parts replacement. If the Ordering Activity operates in a 24/7 environment, 24/7 kits will need to be purchased separately. There are separate 24/7 kits, which cover the color wheels and the fans.

II. Start of the RTF Warranty Period

The hardware and software RTF warranty period starts when the Cyviz Solution Architect (SA) obtains a system sign-off from the Ordering Activity. This normally happens at the completion of the installation of the Cyviz solution. The start of the SLA period will also coincide with the start of the RTF warranty period.

III. Extension of the RTF Warranty Period

After the included two-year RTF Warranty for hardware and software, the Ordering Activity may purchase additional warranties in one-year increments up to a total of three (3) additional years. Therefore, the maximum time for the RTF Warranty period for hardware and software is five (5) years. However, certain conditions must be met. The ability to extend the RTF warranty after the initial purchase is an exclusive benefit from the Contractor, through Cyviz.

IV. Conditions to Extend the RTF Warranty Period

During the initial two-year RTF warranty period, it is strongly encouraged for the Ordering Activity to have an SLA in place for preventative maintenance. Starting with the 3rd year, the customer can extend the warranty through hardware and software of the Cyviz solution for up to three (3) additional years, for a maximum of 5 years of RTF warranty. For each of the three additional years, it is strongly encouraged to also have an active SLA.

V. Factory Location for the Warranty

The return to factory (RTF) location is Cyviz Houston, 5555 San Felipe, Suite 1700, Houston, TX 77056 (unless otherwise noted). The Ordering Activity is responsible for shipping defective equipment to the RTF location, and then Contractor, through Cyviz will pay the shipping back to the Ordering Activity. Cyviz will ship ground, but if an Ordering Activity wishes to expedite shipping, then they will have to incur the additional shipping charges. All RTF shipments must have an RMA number!

VI. Ordering Activity Support During RTF Warranty

An Ordering Activity should e-mail support@cyviz.com as a first step to document any issue(s). A telephone call can also be made to support at (CTC Houston) 713-350-6700 after the initial e-mail.

VII. Covered Items Under the RTF Warranty

During the initial two-year RTF warranty period, if Contractor, through Cyviz, determines a product to be defective in material or workmanship, Cyviz will replace the defective part with a similar or like new part. If the issue is determined to be a manufacturing defect, then Cyviz will replace the product with a similar or like new product.

When a hardware and software warranty is in place, the Ordering Activity will receive advance parts replacement in the form of an equipment swap for such products as the Cyviz scalar, XR301 video processor, XPO cards, Xéd Blending Cards, Cyviz Touch Panel, Cyviz CDC computer, and CDC software BEFORE the defective equipment is shipped back to Cyviz. This will ensure minimal downtime of a Cyviz solution.

The Cyviz projectors and flat panel monitors are not covered under advance parts replacement. They would need to be sent back to the RTF site FIRST where they would need to be repaired or possibly replaced. It is highly recommended to those Ordering Activities who have a mission critical Cyviz solution to purchase one or more Cyviz spares kits. All LCD/LEDs must be shipped on a pallet (ideally in original packaging) and in a vertical position.

VIII. Equipment Swap During RTF Warranty

It is the Ordering Activity's responsibility to swap out the defective components with the replacement components during the hardware and software warranty period. If an SLA is in place, and the Ordering Activity can wait, then Contractor, through a Cyviz Solution Architect (SA) or an authorised Cyviz reseller engineer, will visit at the normal SLA interval to swap out the equipment.

If the Ordering Activity does not have the ability to swap out possible defective equipment and cannot wait for the next SLA visit, then the Ordering Activity may purchase a Cyviz Emergency Site Visit (CESV). The Ordering Activity can also receive training on how to perform the equipment swap.

IX. Cyviz Emergency Site Visit (CESV)

For Ordering Activities who purchase a CESV, the response time is 72 business hours. For example, if the Emergency Call happens on a Monday afternoon, one of the Cyviz SA's would be on-site at the Ordering Activity facility by Friday morning of the same week. If the CESV is not used within a one-year period, it will expire. The CESV cannot be converted to a regular SLA or any portion of an SLA

X. Innovative Cyviz Technical Certification Training

Ordering Activities who wish to learn how to swap out or replace components may attend the Innovative Cyviz Technical Certification (ICTC) Training Level 1 at a separate cost. In order for a Ordering Activity to become certified at the ICTC Training Level 1, the Ordering Activity must attend a one and one-half day training class at one of the Cyviz Technology Centers (CTC). It is the Ordering Activity's responsibility to pay for travel and expenses for the training. A more advanced, ICTC Training Level 2 is held in Stavanger, Norway each year.

XI. Service Level Arrangement (SLA)

The Cyviz (SLA) includes full preventative maintenance of the complete Cyviz solution, and will cover 'regular use' issues that might arise. A SLA is designed as one (1), two (2) or four (4) visits per year. An SLA4 coincides with a 24/7 environment. Contractor, through Cyviz, will initiate contact with the Ordering Activity and find a mutually agreeable time to schedule the next SLA visit. However, the Ordering Activity must take ultimate responsibility for scheduling the SLA visit.

If an Ordering Activity has more than eight (8) total channels of a Cyviz solution at each distinct location (i.e. a location separated by a reasonable distance), then a Cyviz SLA – Extra Channel charge may apply beyond 8 channels. The parties will discuss and determine if there will be an extra channel charge.

The SLA is not a replacement for the RTF (return to factory) warranty on Cyviz projectors, flat panels or on other Cyviz components.

XII. Work Performed During an SLA Visit

Contractor, through a Cyviz solution architect, a Cyviz certified partner, or a Ordering Activity who has been certified at the Intermediate Cyviz Technical Certification (ICTC) Level 2, may perform the tasks associated with the SLA.

On the SLA visit, the following will happen, (1) Check lamp performance and replace lamps if necessary<sup>1</sup>, (2) replace any malfunctioning component<sup>2</sup>, (3) Fine adjustment of projector alignment, projector or flat panel monitor calibration of colors and brightness, (4) Upgrade of projector or flat panel monitor firmware if needed, (5) Source set up of additional Cyviz components if needed<sup>3</sup>, (6) Upgrade of Cyviz Display Control Software<sup>4</sup>, (7) Adjustment of the Cyviz flexible screen, and (8) Possible re-configuration of the complete system to its original state if the system has been changed/altered.

Note<sup>1</sup> – Extra lamps or projector bulbs must be purchased separately and will need to be delivered to the Ordering Activity PRIOR to the SLA visit.

Note<sup>2</sup> – It is the Ordering Activity's responsibility to inform Cyviz of any malfunctioning equipment. If the Ordering Activity would like an equipment swap to be performed at the next Cyviz SLA visit, then Cyviz will either send the equipment prior to the SLA visit or have the Cyviz SA bring the equipment to the next SLA visit.

Note<sup>3</sup> – If the Ordering Activity would like to add additional secondary sources such as monitors, TV tuners, DVD or Blu-ray player, etc., (i.e. non-Cyviz components), then this service will need to be communicated to the Contractor. Additional Cyviz Installation charges may apply.

Note<sup>4</sup> – During the time of an SLA visit, the Ordering Activity's CDC software may be upgraded to the latest version. Unless the Ordering Activity has purchased a Cyviz Multi-touch monitor, it is possible certain versions of the CDC software will not be compatible with a non-Cyviz personal computer system for controlling the Cyviz solution.

XIII. Failure to Purchase an SLA

If the Ordering Activity decides not to purchase an SLA at the time of the equipment purchase, then two things will happen: (a) the maximum RTF warranty period for hardware and software maintenance will be two (2) years, and (b) it will be the Ordering Activity's responsibility to perform preventative maintenance.

XIV. Equipment Outside of the RTF Warranty Period

An Ordering Activity's RTF may expire at the end of two-years, three-years, four-years or at the end of five-years. At the time of the expired Cyviz RTF warranty, it is the Ordering Activity's responsibility to send defective equipment back to Contractor, through Cyviz, at the Ordering Activity's cost for possible repair or replacement. Cyviz will determine if said equipment is repairable, and if so, how much to invoice the Ordering Activity before equipment is sent back. All LCD/LEDs must be shipped on a pallet (ideally in original packaging) and in a vertical position.

XV. Cyviz Spares Kits

For Ordering Activities who have multiple projectors or multiple flat panels, it is recommended to purchase one or more Cyviz Spares Kits. A Cyviz Spares Kit for Viz3D includes; 1 EVO-2 projector, an extra set of glass filters, 10 pair of stereo glasses, and 2 replacement bulbs. The Cyviz Spares Kit for Bizwall, Vizwall or Clusterwall includes; 1 F32 series projector, 4 replacement bulbs, an XPO.3 or XPO.4 card (if applicable), a Cyviz Scalar, and an edge blending card (if applicable). A Cyviz Spares Kit for Flat Panel Monitor includes 1 46" or 55" LCD/LED with redundant power supply, an XPO.3 or XPO.4 card (if applicable), 5 dynamic CDC clients, and a Cyviz Scalar.

XVI. Other Warranty and SLA Items

(a) The RTF warranty and SLA is non-transferrable, (b) The Ordering Activity should have all serial numbers of projectors, flat panel monitors, electronic components and software handy for smoother support. (c) the Contractor reserves the right to refuse RTF warranty coverage to a Ordering Activity who is not current on his or her warranty payments. (d) the Contractor does not make any claims express or otherwise listed outside of this RTF Warranty and SLA document.

(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Dataiku, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

- k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.
- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.
- u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.
- 3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

ATTACHMENT A

DATAIKU SOFTWARE LICENSE AND MAINTENANCE AGREEMENT

This Software License and Maintenance Agreement and its Exhibits (“Agreement”) apply to an order that incorporates these terms and conditions entered into by and between GSA Multiple Award Schedule Contractor acting by and through its supplier, Dataiku Inc. (“Dataiku”), and the Ordering Activity purchasing from the GSA Schedule contract (“Customer” or “Ordering Activity”). This Agreement, the GSA Schedule contract, Schedule pricelist, and all applicable Ordering Documents (“ODs”) represent the complete agreement governing the use of Software provided by Dataiku to Customer. In general, the ODs set forth specific configuration and usage details for the Software. In the event of a conflict, an OD prevails over this Agreement.

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement are defined as follows:

“Affiliate” means an entity Controlling, Controlled by, or under common Control with another entity, where “Control” and its variants means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of management or policies of an entity through ownership of securities or partnership or other ownership interests, by contract or otherwise.

“Documentation” means end user or technical documentation provided with the Software.

“Intellectual Property Rights” means patent rights (including, without limitation, patent applications and disclosures), copyrights, trade secrets, moral rights, know-how, and any other intellectual property rights recognized in any country or jurisdiction.

“Internal Business Purposes” means use of the Software solely for Customer or Customer Affiliates’ internal business projects, and deploying such projects in production mode. This definition does not include providing services using the Software to third parties.

“License Term” means the License Term identified on an OD, including renewals. If no term is specified, the License Term is 1 year.

“Maintenance Releases” takes its meaning from the Support and Maintenance Exhibit A attached below and incorporated by reference.

“Software” means the object code of Dataiku’s proprietary computer programs or modules identified in an OD, backup copies, Maintenance Releases, and modifications to any of the aforementioned.

“User(s)” means any individual authorized by Customer to use the Software.

2. Software Use and License Grant

2.1 Software; Delivery. The Software is an offering provided by Dataiku and is subject to support and maintenance as specified in Exhibit A. Customer will receive electronic license keys enabling activation of the Software after an OD becomes effective.

2.2 License. For the duration of the License Term, Dataiku grants to Customer and Users a non-exclusive, non-transferable, and non-sublicensable license to: (i) install the Software on computers owned or controlled by Customer; and (ii) use the Software to process data owned, licensed, or controlled by Customer or Customer Affiliates for Internal Business Purposes in accordance with the Documentation, this Agreement, and any applicable OD. Customer may maintain a reasonable number of copies of the Software on its systems only for backup purposes.

2.3 Affiliates. Both Dataiku Affiliates and Customer Affiliate may enter into ODs. When a Customer Affiliate enters into an OD, it will be deemed to have made the purchase directly, and be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement as a “Customer.”

2.4 Restrictions. Customer and Users will not (and will not permit any third party to): (i) copy or use the Software other than allowed by this Agreement or an applicable OD; (ii) use the Software with unauthorized equipment or products; (iii) modify the Software, create derivative works based upon the Software, reverse engineer, decompile, decrypt, disassemble, or otherwise reduce the Software to human-readable form; (iv) create programs similar or identical to the Software; (v) use the Software in violation of any applicable laws; (vi) distribute, sell, license or otherwise provide the Software to unauthorized third parties; (vii) install the Software on systems not under control by Customer or Customer Affiliates, or use or permit the Software to be used to perform services for third parties, including as a service bureau, SaaS, time sharing basis or otherwise; (viii) disclose the results of any performance or functional evaluation of the Software including benchmark results or competitive analyses; or (ix) alter or remove proprietary notices or legends contained on or in the Software. No implied licenses are granted by Dataiku under this Agreement. Customer is responsible for all use of the Software by anyone accessing the Software using User credentials.

3. Reserved.

4. Ownership. The Software is licensed and not sold or for perpetual use. Dataiku and its licensors own and retain all title, Intellectual Property Rights, and interest in and to the Software and all copies or portions thereof. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the Ordering Activity shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost. Suggestions or feedback provided by Customer to Dataiku relating to the Software will be Dataiku’s property and deemed Confidential Information of Dataiku, and Customer consents to assignment of suggestions and feedback to Dataiku.

5. Warranties; Disclaimer.

5.1 Mutual Warranties. Each party represents and warrants that: (i) it has full power to enter into this Agreement; and (ii) this Agreement does not conflict with any other agreement with any third party.

5.2 Limited Software Warranty. Dataiku warrants that the Software will materially conform to specifications described in the Documentation under normal use and circumstances.

5.3 Malicious Code. Dataiku will use standard industry practices to test the Software for “Malicious Code” and remove any “Malicious Code” discovered prior to delivery of the Software. “Malicious Code” means viruses, worms, time bombs, Trojan horses, and any other harmful code, files, scripts, agents, or programs which may cause harm to Customer’s files or systems. Malicious Code does not include standard routines in the Software intended to delete data and implicit in the standard functionality of the Software, or any software bugs or errors handled through Support and Maintenance Services specified in Exhibit A, or any license key or other equivalent code which may limit the functionality or scope of use of the Software to the Customer’s specific license.

5.4 Restrictions. The warranties specified above do not apply if the Software or any portion: (i) has been altered, except by Dataiku or an authorized representative; (ii) has not been used, installed, operated, repaired, or maintained in accordance with this Agreement and the Documentation; or (iii) is licensed for beta, evaluation, or testing purposes. These warranties only apply to the original licensee who provides notice within the warranty period and does not apply if any bug, defect, or error is attributable to products or services not supplied by Dataiku.

5.5 Disclaimers; Exclusion of Implied Warranties. Except for the warranties specified above, the Software and Support and Maintenance Services are provided “as is.” Customer and Customer Affiliates assume sole responsibility for any results obtained from using the Software. Dataiku disclaims any and all warranties, conditions or representations (whether express or implied, oral or written), including without limitation any implied warranties of title, non-infringement, information, merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose (whether or not Dataiku knows or has reason to know of such purpose), whether arising by law, custom, usage in trade or by course of dealing. Dataiku and its licensors do not warrant the results of any use of the Software, or that it is bug or error free, or that its use will be uninterrupted. Dataiku does not warrant that the Software or any equipment, system, or network on which the Software is used will be free of vulnerability to intrusion or attack. Dataiku will in no way be held liable for any inability of, error, or fault of Customer or any third party appointed by Customer to install the Software. Data uploaded to the Software and any third-party databases, software, hardware, or services connecting from or to the Software (collectively, “Third Party Materials”) are not the responsibility of Dataiku and Dataiku does not make any warranties or promises with respect to the Third-Party Materials.

6. Reserved.

7. Reserved.

8. Reserved.

10. General

10.1 Open Source. The Software may contain or be provided with components subject to third party open source software licenses (“Open Source Software”). A list of current Open Source Software is provided at <https://doc.dataiku.com/dss/latest/thirdparty.html>. To the extent necessary, the license accompanying the Open Source Software will apply in lieu of the terms of this Agreement specifically with respect to such Open Source Software.

10.2 Reserved.

10.3 Reserved.

10.4 Reserved.

10.5 Reserved.

10.6 Reserved.

10.7 Reserved.

10.8 Reserved.

10.9 Reserved.

10.10 Reserved.

10.11 Reserved.

10.12 Reserved.

10.13 Export. The Software and Documentation, including technical data, may be subject to U.S. export control laws, including the U.S. Export Administration Act and its associated regulations, or other export or import laws and regulations in other jurisdictions. Customer agrees to comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

10.14 Usage Information. The Software contains a usage data tool that collects limited information about use of the Software. Customer agrees that Dataiku may use usage data for development and support purposes relating to the Software. Dataiku does not require, and Customer undertakes not to transmit any personal data to Dataiku.

10.15 Data Privacy. Each party undertakes to process personal data in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations. Dataiku undertakes to process personal data in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of April 27 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such personal data. The obligations of the GDPR shall not apply to the Ordering Activity.

Exhibit A

Support and Maintenance

“Support and Maintenance Services” are provided to all customers paying fees for licensed usage of the Software.

1. Maintenance. Dataiku shall provide access to all generally available Maintenance Releases. “Maintenance Releases” means Maintenance Updates (defined below) and Major Versions (defined below) that are generally released during the License Term free of charge to Dataiku customers receiving Support and Maintenance Services. “Maintenance Update” means error corrections, bug fixes, patches, workarounds, or minor enhancements to the Software designated by a change to the 3rd version digit (e.g. version 3.4.1 to 3.4.2). “Major Version” means a revision to the Software containing new functionalities, major improvements, and generally designated by a change into the 1st or 2nd version digit (e.g. a change from version 3.0 to 4.0 or from 4.1 to 4.2). “Business Day” means a day (other than Saturday or Sunday or U.S. Federal holidays) on which financial institutions are normally open for business in the United States. “Business Hour” means an hour between 9am and 5pm (EST) on any Business Day.

2. Support. (i) Self Service Support Portal (Preferred method). Customers submit cases online, update existing tickets, and track case status 24 x 7 x 365 through a web-based support ticket system including self-service access to an extensive knowledge base. Available at <https://support.dataiku.com>. (ii) Email. Available at support@dataiku.com. Service levels and response times do not apply to questions submitted by email.

3. Error Correction. Customer may submit suspected errors or malfunctions to Dataiku’s case tracking system, or via email, and cooperate with Dataiku in any investigation. Dataiku will acknowledge with a ticket number (“Ticket”) and make commercially reasonable efforts to assign appropriate assets to resolve the issue according to the response expectation table below. Customer may use the ticket number to track the status of any confirmed failure of the Software to meet Dataiku specifications (“Confirmed Error”). If a Confirmed Error is discovered, the Customer will provide a description to Dataiku’s support team and co-operate with Dataiku to classify the error. Failure by Customer to respond to Dataiku’s requests within 5 business days may result in Dataiku closing the Ticket. Customer may add a new Ticket at any time.

4. Classifications of Errors; Service Levels. Dataiku offers the service levels and response times as shown in table below. Classification of Confirmed Errors will be determined by Dataiku based on factors including input obtained from Customer.

5. Limitations. Dataiku shall be responsible for any Confirmed Error. However, Dataiku shall not be responsible for errors that cannot be reproduced by Dataiku on unmodified Software, for software, firmware, or hardware not supplied by Dataiku, or for information or data contained in, stored on or integrated with any Software returned to Dataiku. Support and Maintenance Services do not include support for any failure, defect, or damage of the Software caused by Customer or User(s) through unauthorized use, accident, abuse, or misuse of the Software, or if the Software has not been used or maintained in conformance with the Documentation or the Agreement, or if Software is used by Customer or User(s) on an unsupported platform or hardware, beyond the licensed capacity, or altered or modified by Customer or User(s). Service or repair of the Software by anyone other than Dataiku (or an authorized representative) will void Dataiku’s obligations under this Support and Maintenance Exhibit. Dataiku’s support and maintenance obligations for the Software are applicable to: (a) the latest Major Version; and (b) any Major Version publicly released during the past 1 year for Enterprise Server modules and the past 6 months for Team server modules; so long as the latest Maintenance Update for that Major Version has been installed. Support and Maintenance Services do not include on-site support, consulting (including custom work on Customer’s network) and system design, coding, project or facility management, or support for incompatible or third-party supplier products. If Dataiku agrees to remedy any errors or problems not covered as Support and Maintenance Services, Dataiku will perform such work after receiving Customer’s instruction to proceed at Dataiku’s then-current standard time and material rates.

6. Customer Obligations. Customer will appoint up to 2 individuals knowledgeable in the operation of the Software as primary contacts to initiate support calls with Dataiku (“Designated Support Contacts”). Dataiku shall only be responsible for providing Designated Support Contacts with Support and Maintenance Services. Customer may change Designated Support Contacts at any time with written notification to Dataiku or appoint additional primary contacts by paying additional fees. Customer may not share login credentials or other benefits of Support and Maintenance Services with any other persons unless Customer has purchased additional services. If necessary, Customer will provide Dataiku with administrative access to the Software components (including remote access to end points and console).

7. Changes. Dataiku may make changes at any time to this Exhibit with written notice to Customer; provided the changes do not materially degrade the support and maintenance services to which Customer is entitled.

Classification of errors

Error level	P1	P2	P3	P4
Description	Critical error. “System is down” or Software is completely inoperative, or a condition severely and significantly impacting the API nodes, design nodes, or automation nodes. No procedural work around exists. For example, all API nodes crash, or the design or automation node crashes and the Software does not restart after the crashes.	Serious or high-impact business condition affecting substantial number of users. The Software operates in a severely restricted/reduced capacity causing significant impact to portions of the Customer’s business. No procedural work around exists.	Medium to low-impact problem. Involves partial non-critical functionality loss. May be a minor issue with limited or no loss of functionality or impact to the Customer’s operation for which there is a workaround available. For example, a data transformation function does not work as expected, and a workaround in code is required.	Software is functional. Relates only to proposed feature enhancements or proposed modifications. No material impact on quality, performance or functionality of Software. For example, errors in Documentation, or a proposed feature enhancement.

DevonWay, Inc.*EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions (for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached DevonWay, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded. Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31

U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

MASTER SOFTWARE AGREEMENT

IMPORTANT – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY: THIS MASTER SOFTWARE AGREEMENT ("AGREEMENT") IS A LEGAL AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE ORDERING ACTIVITY UNDER GSA SCHEDULE CONTRACTS IDENTIFIED IN THE PURCHASE ORDER, STATEMENT OF WORK, OR SIMILAR DOCUMENT ("YOU" OR "CUSTOMER") AND DEVONWAY, INC. ("DEVONWAY") AND GOVERNS YOUR USE OF THE DEVONWAY PRODUCTS. BY ACCEPTING THIS AGREEMENT, BY BOTH PARTIES EXECUTING AN ORDER FORM YOU AGREE TO THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT. IF YOU ARE ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT ON BEHALF OF A COMPANY OR OTHER LEGAL ENTITY, YOU REPRESENT THAT YOU HAVE THE AUTHORITY TO BIND SUCH ENTITY AND ITS AFFILIATES TO THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, IN WHICH CASE THE TERM "CUSTOMER" SHALL REFER TO SUCH ENTITY AND ITS AFFILIATES. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE SUCH AUTHORITY, OR IF YOU DO NOT AGREE WITH THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, YOU MUST NOT ACCEPT THIS AGREEMENT AND MAY NOT USE THE DEVONWAY PRODUCTS.

This Agreement was last updated on January 9, 2019. It is effective between Customer and DevonWay as of the date Customer accepts this Agreement ("Effective Date") as set forth above.

You may not access the DevonWay Products if you are DevonWay's direct competitor, except with DevonWay' prior written consent. In addition, you may not access the DevonWay Products for purposes of monitoring its availability, performance or functionality, or for any other benchmarking purposes.

SCOPE OF SERVICES

Deployment and License Models. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the applicable Order Form, DevonWay will make the DevonWay Product available to the Customer during the License Term. The DevonWay Product may be used under the following Deployment and License Models:

Deployment Models: The DevonWay Product may be deployed either as: (a) the online, Web-based platform and applications that are hosted by DevonWay, or a third party hosting facility designated by DevonWay ("On-Demand"), or (b) installed by or for Customer at Customer's premises, or on a Customer-controlled server within a third party data center ("On-Site").

License Models: DevonWay grants Customer either (a) a perpetual, non-exclusive, revocable, non-transferable right to install, use and modify the DevonWay Product solely for Customer's own internal business purposes ("Perpetual License"), or (b) a non-exclusive, revocable, non-transferable right to install, use and modify the DevonWay Product solely for Customer's own internal business purposes during the applicable License Term ("Subscription License").

The Deployment and License Model selected by Customer is as indicated on the Order Form. Customer may elect to migrate from one Deployment Model to another at any time during the License Term. Such migration may be subject to the applicable DevonWay migration fees in effect at the time of the migration in addition to additional terms and conditions that apply to the new deployment model. The parties acknowledge and agree that the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement and the terms of use applicable to the Deployment and License Models selected by Customer, which are set forth in the applicable Order Form, will govern Customer's use of the DevonWay Product, unless explicitly stated otherwise in a written agreement between the parties.

Professional Services and Support. The terms of the Professional Services Agreement ("PSA") detailed in Exhibit A shall apply to the configuration, implementation or installation services offered by DevonWay as set forth in the applicable Order Form ("Professional Services"). The PSA is hereby incorporated into the Agreement by this reference. During the License Term, and at no additional charge to Customer, DevonWay will provide Customer with the standard level of Support Services. DevonWay reserves the right, from time to time, to make modifications to the Support Services or particular components thereof and will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Customer of any material modifications by posting a notice of the modification on DevonWay's Technology Blog or by otherwise notifying Customer in accordance with Section 16. Upgraded Support Services may be purchased by Order Form.

EVALUATION

Evaluation Terms. If Customer receives a free or pilot evaluation of the DevonWay Product(s), DevonWay will make one or more DevonWay Products available to Customer on an evaluation basis until the earlier of (a) the end of the evaluation period for which Customer registers to use the applicable DevonWay

Product(s), (b) the start date of any DevonWay Product(s) ordered by Customer, or (c) termination by DevonWay at DevonWay's sole discretion. Additional evaluation terms and conditions may appear on the Order Form. Any such additional terms and conditions are incorporated into this Agreement by reference and are legally binding.

2.2 Data and Customization. ANY DATA CUSTOMER ENTERS INTO THE DEVONWAY PRODUCT(S), AND ANY CUSTOMIZATIONS MADE TO THE DEVONWAY PRODUCT(S), BY OR FOR CUSTOMER, DURING CUSTOMER'S EVALUATION MAY BE PERMANENTLY LOST UNLESS CUSTOMER PURCHASES A LICENSE TO THE SAME DEVONWAY PRODUCT(S) AS THOSE COVERED BY THE EVALUATION, PURCHASES APPLICABLE UPGRADED SERVICES, OR EXPORTS SUCH DATA, BEFORE THE END OF THE EVALUATION PERIOD.

No Warranty. NOTWITHSTANDING SECTION 10 (WARRANTIES), THE DEVONWAY PRODUCT(S) ARE PROVIDED "AS-IS," WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY DURING THE FREE EVALUATION.

Review. Customer shall review the applicable DevonWay Products' Documentation during the evaluation period in order to become familiar with the features and functions of the DevonWay Product(s) before making a purchase.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

Provision of Products. DevonWay will (a) make the DevonWay Products available to Customer pursuant to this Agreement and the applicable Order Forms, and (b) use commercially reasonable efforts to make the online DevonWay Products available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, except for: (1) planned downtime (of which DevonWay shall give advance electronic notice as provided in the Documentation), and (2) any unavailability caused by circumstances beyond DevonWay's reasonable control, including, for example, an act of God, act of government, flood, fire, earthquake, civil unrest, act of terror, strike or other labor problem (other than one involving DevonWay employees), Internet service provider failure or delay, problems caused by Non-DevonWay Applications, or any denial of service attack. Additional Terms of Use and Service Level Agreements are as referenced in the Order Form.

Protection of Customer Content. DevonWay will maintain administrative, physical, and technical safeguards for protection of the security, confidentiality and integrity of Customer Content, as described in the Documentation. Those safeguards will include, but will not be limited to, measures for preventing access, use, modification, or disclosure of Customer Content by DevonWay personnel except (a) to provide the DevonWay Products and prevent or address service or technical problems, (b) as compelled by law, or (c) as Customer expressly permit in writing. By using the DevonWay Product Customer acknowledges that it meets Customer's requirements and processing instructions. DevonWay will provide Customer notice of any unauthorized third party access to Customer Content of which DevonWay becomes aware and will use reasonable efforts to remediate identified security vulnerabilities. If Customer Content is lost or damaged, DevonWay will assist Customer in restoring it to the DevonWay Product from the last available backup copy in compatible format.

European Economic Area Customers. For Customers located in the European Economic Area (EEA) DevonWay may use processors and subprocessors (including personnel and resources) in locations worldwide to deliver the DevonWay Products. DevonWay may transfer such Customer's personal data across country borders including outside the EEA. A list of countries where content may be processed for a DevonWay Product is described in the Order Form. A list of subprocessors is available upon request. Upon request by either party, DevonWay, Customer or their affiliates will enter into additional agreements required by law for the protection of personal data included in Customer Content, such as the standard unmodified EU Model Clauses agreement pursuant to EC Decision 2010/87/EU with optional clauses removed. The parties agree (and will procure that their respective affiliates agree) that such additional agreements will be subject to the terms of the Agreement.

DevonWay Personnel. DevonWay will be responsible for the performance of its personnel (including DevonWay employees and contractors) and their compliance with DevonWay's obligations under this Agreement.

USE OF THE SERVICES

Customer Responsibilities. Customer will (a) be responsible for all Users' compliance with this Agreement, Documentation and Order Forms, (b) be responsible for the accuracy, quality and legality of Customer Content and the means by which Customer acquired Customer Content,

(c) use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized access to or use of DevonWay Products, and notify DevonWay promptly of any such unauthorized access or use, (d) use DevonWay Products only in accordance with this Agreement, Documentation, Order Forms and applicable laws and government regulations, and (e) comply with terms of service of any Non-DevonWay Applications with which Customer uses the DevonWay Products.

Usage Restrictions. Customer will not, and will not permit any third party to: (a) reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble or otherwise attempt to discover the source code, object code or underlying structure, ideas or algorithms of the DevonWay Products (to the extent such restriction is permitted by law), (b) modify, translate, or create derivative works based on the DevonWay Products or use the DevonWay Products for timesharing or service bureau purposes or for any purpose other than its own use for the benefit of Users; (c) sell, resell, license, sublicense, distribute, make available, rent or lease the DevonWay Products; (d) use the DevonWay Product to store or transmit infringing, libelous, or otherwise unlawful or tortious material, or to store or transmit material in violation of third-party privacy rights, (e) use the DevonWay Product to store or transmit Malicious Code, (f) interfere with or disrupt the integrity or performance of the DevonWay Product or third-party data contained therein, (g) attempt to gain unauthorized access to any DevonWay Product or its related systems or networks, (h) permit direct or indirect access to or use of any DevonWay Product in a way that circumvents a contractual usage limit, or use any of the DevonWay Products to access or use any of DevonWay's intellectual property except as permitted under this Agreement, an Order Form, or the Documentation, (i) copy a DevonWay Product or any part, feature, function or user interface thereof, (j) frame or mirror any part of any DevonWay Product, other than framing on Customer's own intranets or otherwise for Customer's own internal business purposes or as permitted in the Documentation, or (k) access any DevonWay Product in order to build a competitive product or service that operates outside of or independently from the DevonWay Product. Any use of the DevonWay Products in breach of this Agreement, Documentation, or Order Forms, by Customer or Users that in DevonWay's judgment threatens the security, integrity or availability of the DevonWay Products, may result in immediate temporary suspension of Customer's use of the DevonWay Products, however, DevonWay will use commercially reasonable efforts under the circumstances to provide Customer with notice and an opportunity to remedy such violation or threat prior to such suspension.

NON-DEVONWAY PROVIDERS

Third-Party Services. DevonWay or third parties may make available third-party products or services, including, for example, Non-DevonWay Applications and implementation and other consulting services. Any acquisition by Customer of such products or services, and any exchange of data between Customer and any third party provider, product or service is solely between Customer and the applicable third party. DevonWay does not warrant or support Non-DevonWay Applications or other third party products or services, whether or not they are designated by DevonWay as "certified" or otherwise.

Non-DevonWay Applications and Customer Content. If Customer chooses to use a Non-DevonWay Application with a DevonWay Product, Customer grants DevonWay permission to allow the Non-DevonWay Application and its provider to access Customer Content as required for the interoperation of that Non-DevonWay Application with the DevonWay Product. DevonWay is not responsible for any disclosure, modification or deletion of Customer Content resulting from access by such Non-DevonWay Application or its provider.

Integration with Non-DevonWay Applications. The DevonWay Products may contain features designed to interoperate with Non-DevonWay Applications. To use such features, Customer may be required to obtain access to such Non-DevonWay Applications from their providers, and may be required to grant DevonWay access to Customer's account(s) on such Non-DevonWay Applications. DevonWay cannot guarantee the continued availability of such DevonWay Product features, and may cease providing them without entitling Customer to any refund, credit, or other compensation, if for example and without limitation, the provider of a Non-DevonWay Application ceases to make the Non-DevonWay Application available for interoperation with the corresponding DevonWay Product features in a manner acceptable to DevonWay.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Confidential Information. Each party (the "Receiving Party") understands that the other party (the "Disclosing Party") has disclosed or may disclose Confidential Information.

Obligations.

Receiving Party. The Receiving Party agrees: (a) not to divulge to any third person any such Confidential Information, (b) to give access to such Confidential Information solely to those employees, contractors, service providers, and affiliates with a need to have access thereto for purposes of this Agreement, and (c) to take the same security precautions to protect against disclosure or unauthorized use of such Confidential Information that the party takes with its own Confidential Information, but in no event will a party apply less than reasonable precautions to protect such Confidential Information.

Disclosing Party. The Disclosing Party agrees that the foregoing will not apply with respect to any information that the Receiving Party can document (a) is or becomes generally available to the public without fault of the Receiving Party, or (b) was in its possession or known by it prior to receipt from the Disclosing Party, or (c) was rightfully disclosed to it without restriction by a third party, or (d) was independently developed without use of any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent the Receiving Party from disclosing the Confidential Information pursuant to any judicial or governmental order or as otherwise required by operation of law, provided that the Receiving Party gives the Disclosing Party reasonable prior notice of such disclosure to allow Disclosing Party to contest such order.

DevonWay recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which may require that certain information be released, despite being characterized as “confidential” by the vendor.

Restrictions. Customer acknowledges that DevonWay does not wish to receive any Confidential Information from Customer that is not necessary for DevonWay to perform its obligations under this Agreement, and, unless the parties specifically agree otherwise, DevonWay may reasonably presume that any unrelated information received from Customer is not confidential or Confidential Information.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Reservation of Rights. Except as expressly set forth herein, DevonWay alone (and its licensors, where applicable) will retain all intellectual property rights in and to the DevonWay Products. No rights are granted to Customer hereunder other than as expressly set forth herein. This Agreement is not a sale and does not convey to Customer any rights of ownership in or related to the DevonWay Products, or any intellectual property rights.

Suggestions. DevonWay shall have a royalty-free, worldwide, transferable, sub-licensable, irrevocable, perpetual license to use or incorporate into the DevonWay Products any suggestions, enhancement requests, recommendations or other feedback provided by Customer relating to the DevonWay Products.

Customer Content. Customer and its licensors shall retain all right, title and interest in and to the Customer Content.

PAYMENT OF FEES

Fees. Unless otherwise provided in the applicable Order Form or Documentation, (a) fees are based on tiers according to the number of new Operational Records created each year, plus any add-ons, and (b) pricing does not vary according to the number of Users. Customer will pay DevonWay, or the GSA Schedule Contract Holder as applicable, the fees as set forth in the applicable Order Form in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist. Any applicable storage fees are based on actual current usage, are due at the beginning of the License Term and are charged on an annual basis. Fixed fees are due at the beginning of the applicable License Term and are charged on an annual basis. Customer is responsible for all wire transfer and bank fees related to payments made to DevonWay.

Purchase Orders. If not otherwise specified, payments will be due within thirty (30) days of receipt of an invoice. If an annual purchase order is required for multi-year contracts, Customer shall issue the new purchase order at least 30 days prior to the beginning of each subsequent License Term. Any pre-printed or additional contract terms included on any purchase order shall be inapplicable and of no force or effect.

Travel. Travel-related expenses are actual costs incurred to be invoiced a month in arrears. Travel requirements are determined by the DevonWay and Customer project managers. DevonWay makes every effort to minimize travel-related expenses and will adhere to any specific travel guidelines requested by Customer, including the Federal Travel Regulation (FTR)/Joint Travel Regulations (JTR), as applicable.

Late Payment. Unpaid, undisputed fees are subject to a finance charge as specified by the Prompt Payment Act (31 USC 3901 et seq) and Treasury regulations at 5 CFR 1315.

Taxes. Vendor shall state separately on invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Customer agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Future Functionality. Customer agrees that its purchases are not contingent on the delivery of any future functionality or features, or dependent on any oral or written public comments made by DevonWay regarding future functionality or features.

TERMINATION

Term of Agreement. Subject to earlier termination as provided below, this Agreement commences on the Effective Date indicated on the Order Form and continues until all License Terms hereunder have expired or have been terminated.

License Term and Renewal. License Terms and corresponding payment obligations may be renewed for additional periods of one (1) year by both parties executing a new Agreement or purchase order incorporating this Agreement in writing.

Termination for Cause. When the Customer is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, DevonWay shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement according to the Contract Disputes Act, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer according to applicable law.

Effects of Termination. Termination of this Agreement shall not limit the parties from pursuing any other remedies available to it, including injunctive relief.

Data Portability and Deletion. Customer retains all rights to Customer Content. At any time during the License Term, Customer may use DevonWay Product's export facilities to download a copy of Customer Content. Upon termination or for any other reason whatsoever, Customer may request that DevonWay provide a full database backup of Customer Content, which DevonWay will work on providing as soon as the written request is received (additional fees may apply). In the event of termination or expiration of this Agreement or any applicable Order Form, and if requested by Customer within ninety (90) days of such termination or expiration, DevonWay will: (a) return to Customer Content to Customer; or (b) destroy or permanently erase such Customer Content. After such 90-day period, DevonWay will have no other further obligation to maintain or provide access to Customer Content.

Application Portability. If an Order Form specifies that Customer has purchased a Perpetual License for use of DevonWay Products, upon termination of the applicable License Term Customer has the right to receive the binaries and application metadata required to run the application in an On-Site configuration. DevonWay will make the application binaries available free of charge. If Customer requires assistance setting up the On-Site environment, DevonWay will provide that assistance at the Time & Materials rate according to the applicable Customer's support level in effect prior to termination.

Surviving Provisions. All sections of this Agreement which by their nature should survive termination will survive termination, including, without limitation, restrictions, accrued rights to payment, confidentiality obligations, intellectual property rights, warranty disclaimers, and limitations of liability and specifically sections 6, 7, 8, 9, 10.2, 12, 15, 16 and 17.

WARRANTIES

DevonWay Warranties. DevonWay represents and warrants that (a) it will provide the DevonWay Products and Support Services in a professional manner consistent with industry standards and practices; (b) the DevonWay Products will conform in all material respects to the Documentation; (c) the functionality of the DevonWay Product will not be materially decreased during a License Term; and (d) the DevonWay Product will not contain or transmit to Customer any Malicious Code (except for Malicious Code that may be uploaded by Users). The Professional Services warranty is set forth in the PSA.

Disclaimers. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION 10, THE DEVONWAY PRODUCTS, SUPPORT SERVICES, PROFESSIONAL SERVICES, DOCUMENTATION, DEVONWAY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND ANYTHING PROVIDED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT ARE PROVIDED "AS-IS," WITHOUT ANY OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND. DEVONWAY (AND ITS AGENTS, AFFILIATES, LICENSORS AND SUPPLIERS) HEREBY DISCLAIM ALL WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT.

INDEMNIFICATION

Indemnification by DevonWay. DevonWay shall hold Customer harmless from liability to an unaffiliated third party resulting from infringement by the DevonWay Product of any intellectual property right of such third party, provided DevonWay is promptly notified of any and all threats, claims and proceedings related thereto and given reasonable assistance and the opportunity to assume control over defense and settlement. DevonWay will not be responsible for any settlement it does not approve. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516. The foregoing obligations do not apply with respect to portions or components of the DevonWay Products (a) not created by DevonWay, (b) resulting in whole or in part from modifications according to Customer specifications, (c) that are modified after delivery, (d) combined with other products, processes or materials where the alleged infringement relates to such combination, (e) where Customer continues allegedly infringing activity after being notified thereof or after being informed of modifications that would have avoided the alleged infringement, (f) where Customer's use of the DevonWay Products is not strictly in accordance with this Agreement and all Documentation, or (g) where Customer's use of any version of the DevonWay Products is not the most recent version of the DevonWay Products provided by DevonWay to Customer. Customer will indemnify DevonWay from all damages, costs, settlements, attorneys' fees and expenses related to any claim of infringement or misappropriation excluded from DevonWay's indemnity obligation by the preceding sentence.

Reserved.

Exclusive Remedy. This Section 11 states the indemnifying party's sole liability to, and the indemnified party's exclusive remedy against, the other party for any kind of claim described in this Section.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. EXCEPT FOR (a) VIOLATIONS OF EITHER PARTY'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS, (b) BREACHES OF CONFIDENTIALITY OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER (OTHER THAN ANY BREACH AS TO THE SECURITY OR CONFIDENTIALITY OF CUSTOMER CONTENT IN CONNECTION WITH CUSTOMER'S USE OF THE PRODUCTS, FOR WHICH DEVONWAY'S LIABILITY SHALL BE LIMITED BY THIS SECTION), OR (c) INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS, IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY (OR ANY OF ITS AGENTS, AFFILIATES, LICENSORS OR SUPPLIERS) BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, PUNITIVE, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, OR COST OF PROCUREMENT OF SUBSTITUTE GOODS, SERVICES OR TECHNOLOGY, ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH THE USE OF THE DEVONWAY PRODUCTS OR ANYTHING PROVIDED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE DELAY OR INABILITY TO USE THE DEVONWAY PRODUCTS OR ANYTHING PROVIDED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR OTHERWISE ARISING FROM THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, LOSS OF REVENUE OR ANTICIPATED PROFITS OR LOST BUSINESS OR LOST SALES, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR OTHERWISE, EVEN IF THE OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF DAMAGES. THE TOTAL LIABILITY OF DEVONWAY, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT, OR OTHERWISE, WILL NOT EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE FEES PAID AND/OR PAYABLE TO DEVONWAY HEREUNDER FOR THE LENGTH OF THE TERM OF THE AGREEMENT. THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS WILL APPLY NOTWITHSTANDING ANY FAILURE OF ESSENTIAL PURPOSE OF ANY LIMITED REMEDY, AND ONLY TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. THE FOREGOING LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

U.S. GOVERNMENT MATTERS. Notwithstanding anything else, Customer may not provide to any person or export or re-export or allow the export or re-export of the DevonWay Products or any software or anything related thereto or any direct product thereof (collectively "Controlled Subject Matter"), in violation of any restrictions, laws or regulations of the United States Department of Commerce, the United States Department of Treasury Office of Foreign Assets Control, or any other United States or foreign agency or authority. As defined in FAR section 2.101, any software and documentation provided by DevonWay are "commercial items" and according to DFAR section 252.227-7014(a)(1) and (5) are deemed to be "commercial computer software" and “commercial computer software documentation.” Consistent with FAR section 12.212, any use modification, reproduction, release, performance, display, or disclosure of such commercial software or commercial software documentation by the U.S. Government will be governed solely by the terms of this Agreement and will be prohibited except to the extent expressly permitted by the terms of this Agreement.

PUBLICITY. Customer agrees that DevonWay may publish a brief description describing Customer’s deployment of the DevonWay Products and identify Customer as a DevonWay customer on any of DevonWay’s websites, client lists, press releases, and/or other marketing materials to the extent permitted by the General Services Acquisition Regulation (GSAR) 552.203-71.

INSURANCE. DevonWay will procure at its sole cost and expense and maintain in effect during the term of this Agreement the following insurance coverages, which insurance shall be placed with insurance companies rated A minus VII or better by Best’s Key Rating Guide:

Commercial General Liability, including Bodily Injury, Property Damage, Personal Injury, Advertising Liability, Products-Completed Operations, and Contractual Liability coverage with the following limits of liability:

$1,000,000 per occurrence; and

$2,000,000 General Aggregate

Worker’s Compensation with statutory limits, or the local equivalent, if applicable, as dictated by law, statute, or custom.

Employers Liability, with a minimum of $1,000,000 limit of liability per occurrence, or the local equivalent, if applicable, as dictated by law, statute, or custom.

Automobile Liability, with a minimum combined single limit of liability of $1,000,000 per accident covering all owned, non-owned, and hired vehicles.

Excess or Umbrella Liability Insurance, with a minimum $4,000,000 limit of liability.

Professional Liability Coverage (Errors and Omissions) Insurance, with a minimum limit of $1,000,000.

Cyber Liability Insurance, with minimum limits of $2,000,000 for each occurrence or claim and an annual aggregate of $5,000,000 covering claims involving privacy violations, information theft, damage to or destruction of electronic information, extortion, and network security.

MISCELLANEOUS. If any provision of this Agreement is found to be unenforceable or invalid, that provision will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement will otherwise remain in full force and effect and enforceable. This Agreement is not assignable, transferable or sublicensable by Customer except with DevonWay’s prior written consent. Both parties agree that this Agreement is the complete and exclusive statement of the mutual understanding of the parties and supersedes and cancels all previous written and oral agreements, communications and other understandings relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. All waivers and modifications must be in a writing signed by both parties, except as otherwise provided herein. Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f). No agency, partnership, joint venture, or employment is created as a result of this Agreement and Customer does not have any authority of any kind to bind DevonWay in any respect whatsoever. All notices under this Agreement will be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given when received, if personally delivered; when receipt is electronically confirmed, if transmitted by facsimile or e-mail; and upon receipt, if sent by certified or registered mail (return receipt requested), postage prepaid. DevonWay will not be liable for any loss resulting from a cause over which it does not have direct control. This Agreement will be governed by the Federal laws of the United States. DevonWay is permitted to disclose that Customer is one of its customers to any third-party unless Customer notifies DevonWay in writing in advance of such disclosure.

CHANGES. DevonWay may modify the non-material terms and conditions of its standard Agreements by posting revised versions at <https://legal.devonway.com/legal/> and by otherwise notifying Customer in accordance with Section 16. Since this agreement may apply to many future orders, DevonWay may modify the non-material terms and conditions of this agreement by providing Customer at least three months’ written notice. Changes are not retroactive; they apply, as of the effective date, only to new orders, ongoing use of the DevonWay products that do not expire, and renewals. For transactions with a defined renewable License Term, Customer may request that DevonWay defer the change effective date until the end of the current License Term. Customer accepts non-material changes by placing new orders or continuing use after the change effective date or allowing License Terms to renew after receipt of the change notice. Except as provided above, all changes to the Agreement must be in writing accepted by both parties. If there is a conflict, an Order Form prevails over the terms of this agreement.

DEFINITIONS

“Confidential Information” means all confidential and proprietary information of a Disclosing Party disclosed to the Receiving Party, whether orally or in writing, that is designated as confidential or that reasonably should be understood to be confidential given the nature of the information and the circumstances of disclosure, Customer Content, the DevonWay Product, DevonWay’s environmental and operational details including associated security information, business and marketing plans, technology, financial and technical information, product designs, and business processes. Confidential Information (except for Customer Content) shall not include any information that: (a) is or becomes generally known to the public without breach of any obligation owed to the Disclosing Party; (b) was known to the Receiving Party prior to its disclosure by the Disclosing Party without breach of any obligation owed to the Disclosing Party; (c) was independently developed by the Receiving Party without breach of any obligation owed to the Disclosing Party; or (d) is received from a third party without breach of any obligation owed to the Disclosing Party.

“Customer Content” means the electronic information submitted to the DevonWay Product by Customer or on Customer’s behalf.

“DevonWay Product” means the software application listed on an Order Form and made generally available by DevonWay.

“Deployment Model” means the On-Demand or On-Site deployment of the DevonWay Product as set forth in the applicable Order Form.

“Documentation” means DevonWay’s then-current guides and manuals it makes generally available for the DevonWay Product.

“License Model” means the Perpetual License or Subscription License set forth in the applicable Order Form according to which the DevonWay Product is licensed to Customer.

“License Term” means the period of time set forth on the Order Form in which Customer shall have access to the DevonWay Product, commencing on the Effective Date.

“Malicious Code” means viruses, worms, time bombs, Trojan horses and other harmful or malicious code, files, scripts, agents or programs.

“Non-DevonWay Application” means any software application not provided by DevonWay.

“Operational Records” are defined as those belonging to non-reference modules that are workflow-enabled or that contain a “Status” field. An operational record may contain child data, attachments, field history, and task information.

“Order Form” means an ordering document signed by an authorized representative of each party setting forth the DevonWay Products and Professional Services Customer has ordered, the License Term, and the Service Capacity.

“Professional Services” has the meaning ascribed to it in Section 1.2.

“Service Capacity” means any limitations set forth in an Order Form.

“Support Services” means the support services currently set forth at the following URL, corresponding to the DevonWay Product purchased by Customer: <https://docs.devonway.com/docs/common/resources/policies-and-procedures/>.

“Technology Blog” means the DevonWay blog currently made available at <http://dwaytechblog.blogspot.com/>.

“User” means individuals who are authorized by Customer to use the DevonWay Product, and who have been supplied user identifications and passwords by Customer (or by DevonWay at Customer’s request). Users may include but are not limited to Customer’s employees, consultants, contractors and agents, or third parties with whom Customer transacts business.

EXHIBIT A – PROFESSIONAL SERVICES AGREEMENT

Professional Services Provisions

Description of Professional Services. DevonWay will provide the Professional Services and deliverables (“Deliverables”) to Customer as described in one or more “Statements of Work” executed by an authorized representative of each party. Each Statement of Work is hereby deemed incorporated into this Agreement, and shall be governed by the terms herein.

Customer’s Obligations. Customer shall provide assistance, cooperation, information, equipment, data, a suitable work environment and resources reasonably necessary to enable DevonWay to perform the Professional Services. Customer acknowledges that DevonWay’s ability to provide Professional Services as set forth herein may be affected if Customer does not provide reasonable assistance as set forth above. Customer-caused delays may be subject to additional fees as specified in Section B.1.

Project Management. Each party shall designate a project manager who shall work together with the other party’s project manager to facilitate an efficient delivery of Professional Services.

Change Order. In order to change the scope of Professional Services set forth in a Statement of Work, Customer will submit a written request to DevonWay specifying the proposed changes in detail and DevonWay will provide an estimate of the charges and anticipated changes in the delivery schedule that will result from the proposed change in Professional Services. DevonWay will continue performing the Professional Services in accordance with the applicable Statement of Work until the parties agree in writing on the change in scope of work, scheduling, and fees.

Proprietary Rights. DevonWay shall retain all title, copyrights, patents, patent rights, trade secrets, trademarks and other proprietary or intellectual property rights in the Deliverables.

Warranty. DevonWay warrants for ninety (90) calendar days from the performance of any Professional Services by DevonWay pursuant to this Professional Services Agreement, that such Professional Services shall be performed in a manner consistent with generally accepted industry standards. Customer must report in writing any breach of this warranty to DevonWay during the relevant warranty period, and Customer’s exclusive remedy and DevonWay’s entire liability for any breach of such warranty shall be the re-performance of the Professional Services, or if DevonWay is unable to perform the Professional Services as warranted, Customer shall be entitled to recover the fees paid to DevonWay for the nonconforming Professional Services.

Acceptance. Upon completion of any Deliverable, DevonWay shall submit the Deliverable to Customer. At Customer’s request, DevonWay will demonstrate to Customer the functionality of the Deliverable. Customer shall be responsible for any additional review and testing of such Deliverable in accordance with any applicable acceptance criteria and test suites. If Customer, in its reasonable discretion, determines that any submitted Deliverable does not perform the functional requirements specified for such Deliverable in the applicable Statement of Work, Customer shall have five (5) calendar days after DevonWay’s submission of the Deliverable (“Acceptance Period”) to give written notice thereof to DevonWay specifying the deficiencies in detail. DevonWay shall use reasonable efforts to promptly cure any such deficiencies. After completing any such cure, DevonWay shall resubmit the Deliverable for review and testing as set forth above. Upon accepting any Deliverable submitted by DevonWay, Customer shall provide to DevonWay a written acceptance of such Deliverable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Customer fails to reject any Deliverable within the Acceptance Period in the manner described above, such Deliverable shall be deemed accepted at the end of the Acceptance Period. In the event any Deliverable is not accepted by Customer as specified above after the third submission and Acceptance Period, either party may terminate the applicable Statement of Work without further liability to either party, provided however, that Customer shall not be relieved of its payment obligations with respect to the accepted Professional Services delivered prior to any such termination.

DevonWay Service and Products. The Professional Services provided under this Agreement are provided in support of Customer’s license, under the Agreement, to use the DevonWay Product and the Agreement shall govern such use. Neither this Agreement nor any Statement of Work hereunder grants Customer any license or rights to use such DevonWay Product. In addition, Customer agrees that Customer’s purchase of Professional Services under this Agreement is not contingent upon the delivery of any future functionality or features in the DevonWay Product, nor is it dependent upon any oral or written public comments made by DevonWay with respect to future functionality or features.

Third Party Sub-contractors. DevonWay reserves the right to use third-parties (who are under a strict covenant of confidentiality with DevonWay), including, but not limited to, offshore sub-contractors to assist with the data migration, configuration, implementation and custom code development processes. DevonWay will remain responsible for the acts and omissions of its third party contractors as if it were performing the services itself.

Payment Provisions

Fees. Professional Services shall be provided under this Professional Services Agreement at the rates and terms set forth in the applicable Order Form in accordance with the GSA Schedule Contract.

Expenses. Customer will also be responsible for reimbursing DevonWay for all of its customary travel expenses (“Expenses”) incurred in each services engagement in accordance with Federal Travel Regulation (FTR)/Joint Travel Regulations (JTR), as applicable. All Expenses will be pre-authorized by Customer, invoiced promptly and due upon receipt.

Cancellation. Customer will be responsible for payment of any unpaid, uncontested fees for Professional Services rendered prior to the cancellation date if Customer cancels the project and the cancellation is not due to breach of Warranty as specified in Section A.6.

Miscellaneous

Product Mix. Customer acknowledges that the Professional Services acquired hereunder were ordered separately from the DevonWay Product described on DevonWay's Order Form and Customer may acquire either the DevonWay Product or Professional Services without acquiring the other.

Independent Contractor. With respect to one another, the parties are independent contractors and, as such, neither DevonWay nor its personnel shall be considered Customer's employee(s). As a consequence, Customer is not responsible for withholding or deducting any sums for federal or state income taxes, social security, health, workers' compensation, and disability insurance coverage, pension or retirement plan, or the like.

Non-Solicitation. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) year thereafter, Customer shall not solicit for hire, on behalf of itself or any other organization, any employee or sub-contractor of DevonWay's, unless Customer has first obtained DevonWay's written consent. The foregoing shall not apply to general solicitations for employment.

On-Demand Terms of Use and Service Level Agreements

Service. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, DevonWay will make the DevonWay Product available to Customer and its Users through a web browser and/or mobile application and grants Customer a license to use the DevonWay Product according to the License Model set forth on the applicable Order Form.

DevonWay Product Releases. During the License Term, if Customer has paid the applicable fees and is in compliance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement, DevonWay shall provide automatic updates to Customer's instance of the DevonWay Product with DevonWay Product Releases.

Customizations. If Customer decides to customize the DevonWay Product for Customer's environment, Customer agrees that such customization will be DevonWay-certified customizations using the DevonWay-approved methods and procedures and compliant with established industry security standards.

Testing Environments. DevonWay will provide, at no additional charge, one testing environment that is created as a duplicate of Customer's production environment (data application logic, representative data, and configuration) referred to as the User Acceptance Test environment, ("UAT") and two testing environments created without duplication of Customer's production environment ("Build" and "Test"). Any requests for additional test environments or updating of the UAT environment outside of scheduled updates shall be performed through the use of support requests or subject to DevonWay's then-current fees for such services. UAT, Build, and Test are intended to be used for development, testing, or staging of any modifications to Customer's production environment instance, and not for use as a production environment instance. DevonWay rigorously tests all software releases and incident patches in a multi-step quality assurance process before making them available to Customer. As a final pre-production test, DevonWay tests releases and incident patches in UAT, which is configured with Customer data and interfaces.

DevonWay tests new releases and incident fixes in the UAT environment before moving new software to Production. Customer will have the opportunity to use the UAT environment to preview changes or enhancements to DevonWay functionality.

If DevonWay applications interface with Customer applications, Customer is responsible for providing and operating UAT environments for Customer applications to test these interfaces before new DevonWay software is moved to Production.

Monitoring and Administration. DevonWay provides 24/7/365 monitoring and administration of the application environment. DevonWay uses a suite of standard and custom monitors, many running more than once a minute, to pro-actively detect, alert on, and escalate issues to DevonWay on-call staff so they can resolve most issues before they affect end-users. Additionally, DevonWay has automated processes that detect and resolve issues without human intervention.

Incident and Request Management. DevonWay provides 24/7/365 support for issues that cause production operations to cease. DevonWay provides on-line incident reporting for all other issues and responds to incidents or requests that Customer reports under the following terms.

DevonWay accepts support pages and on-line incidents from people whom Customer names as DevonWay support contacts. Customer may identify up to five support contacts. The people whom Customer names as DevonWay support contacts provide first-line support and accept incident reports from other members of Customer organization.

DevonWay responds to incidents differently depending on severity. Details and definitions regarding Severity One through Four incidents are documented at <https://docs.DevonWay.com/docs/common/resources/policies-and-procedures/#maintenance-policy>.

DevonWay takes changes to Production environments seriously, and strives to minimize such changes outside normal upgrade cycles. For this reason, the acceptable resolution of an incident may not always be a patch to the application, but could also be a workaround deemed viable by DevonWay and the Customer business users.

Customer is responsible for maintaining all application-configuration and end-user data. For example, if an end-user forgets his password, Customer application administrators are responsible for resetting it.

DevonWay will provide Customer support contacts a triage document to help them resolve common issues and to explain what constitutes a Severity One incident. The improper filing of Severity One incidents may incur time & materials or support request charges.

Non-incident requests, including data subject requests, are covered under the support procedure documented at <https://docs.devonway.com/docs/common/resources/policies-and-procedures/#support>.

No-downtime Maintenance. DevonWay seeks to reduce the number and amount of scheduled downtime for maintenance (for example, OS patching, software upgrades, server maintenance, etc.) by using its redundant production hardware to transparently perform most maintenance activities. DevonWay communicates these no-downtime maintenances through the DevonWay Technology Blog at least five calendar days in advance, although DevonWay reserves the right to perform no-downtime maintenances of an urgent nature with less notice than that.

Scheduled Downtimes. When downtime is unavoidable for maintenance, DevonWay will communicate the planned downtime to Customer at least seven calendar days in advance. DevonWay never schedules maintenance or downtime during business hours, defined to be 5am CST/CDT to 8pm CST/CDT, Monday through Friday without Customer request or explicit approval. DevonWay seeks to schedule most system maintenance requiring a downtime on Friday or Saturday nights after 8pm CST/CDT. DevonWay seeks to have one or less scheduled downtime lasting one hour or less in duration per month. At no time will DevonWay schedule more than three downtimes per month lasting more than four hours in total duration without Customer explicit approval.

Unscheduled Downtimes. DevonWay maintains fully redundant, highly available production hardware, software, and network architecture. However, from time to time, individual components can fail. Depending on the exact component and nature of the failure, end-users may experience unscheduled application downtime. When a failed component leads to unscheduled application downtime, DevonWay brings the application back up through a combination of automated and manual processes. DevonWay provides 99.9% availability with no more than 2 unscheduled downtimes per month, excluding an event that would trigger a disaster recovery to the secondary datacenter or a database restore, both of which are described in more detail below. Unscheduled application downtime excludes failures within Customer datacenters or the Customer's connection to the internet since DevonWay's level of control ends at the perimeter of its datacenters. It is worth noting that DevonWay's datacenters have several connections to the internet from different vendors, and internet connectivity at DevonWay's datacenter is included in the unscheduled application downtime.

Data Backup and Recovery. DevonWay backs up Customer production application data on a regular basis using a variety of strategies, including on-site disk and tape backups, as well as copies stored off-site in the secondary datacenter on both disk and tape. DevonWay backs up Customer end-user generated data at least hourly and static files and underlying systems at least daily. DevonWay keeps backups for two weeks and can restore data from backup within a timeframe appropriate to the severity and circumstances of the situation. For Customer-caused data loss, the restoration of data may require the use of support requests. DevonWay does not automatically delete any Customer end-user generated data, although DevonWay does rotate log files on a periodic basis.

Disaster Recovery. DevonWay located its primary datacenter in Dallas, TX due to its generally low risk to disasters common to other parts of the country, including low risk to earthquakes, hurricanes, snowstorms, etc. However, in order to mitigate a disaster in the primary datacenter, DevonWay maintains a geographically separate, secondary datacenter in Ashburn, VA. In the unlikely event of a natural disaster, extended power outage that exhausts the UPS and generator systems, or other calamitous event, DevonWay will recover the Customer application in its secondary datacenter with a maximum one hour of lost data. The datacenter space is provisioned and dedicated to DevonWay and its Customers, so there is not a "first-come, first-served" policy to worry about. In the unlikely event of a failover to the secondary datacenter, DevonWay will recover the Customer application in 6 hours or less.

Performance. DevonWay applications will perform as well as or better than reasonably expected, with the majority of actions taking 1-3 seconds to complete. Due to the wide variety in which DevonWay applications can be configured, DevonWay does not offer a Service Level Agreement related to specific response times, but instead makes performance testing a required step in the final acceptance cycle of an implementation. If after go-live performance degrades beyond acceptable levels because of software, hardware, or network problems within DevonWay's control, DevonWay will treat these conditions as either Severity One or Severity Two incidents, depending on the scope and degree of the problem.

Data Security Services. DevonWay provides these data security services with the applications that Customer licenses:

Security: DevonWay primary and secondary datacenters are SSAE 16 Type II certified and its servers are Cisco-firewalled, virus-protected, and safeguarded from unauthorized access by biometric sensors and a full security detail. In addition, low-level network-based Intrusion Detection Systems protect against cracking. DevonWay and/or authorized datacenter personnel (at DevonWay's direction) apply critical operating system and software security patches within 30 days or sooner, depending on criticality, applicability to the DevonWay operating environments, and subject to testing and scheduling any appropriate downtimes.

Encryption: DevonWay allows only secure https access to the Customer application, backed by a 256bit SSL/TLS certificate. All backups are transferred to on-site tape backups and the secondary off-site datacenter through encrypted tunnels and are stored with 256bit encryption.

End-User Passwords: DevonWay encrypts all end-user passwords during logon. However, DevonWay cannot be responsible for unauthorized access to the Customer application caused by the Customer's users sharing or misusing their logon information.

Capacity Planning Policy. DevonWay manages growth by maintaining a 2x capacity in its datacenters as measured against peak load. DevonWay tracks percentage utilization on a daily, weekly, and monthly basis and uses a predictive formula to requisition any additional hardware necessary for new Customers well in advance of hosting them. DevonWay does not publish this formula.

Notifications of Notable Events. DevonWay communicates Notable Events through its Technology Blog, by targeted emails, or both. Notable Events include, but are not limited to:

- Changes to the operating environment, such as planned maintenance
- Descriptions and effects of unplanned downtimes
- End-of-life announcements for deprecated software, such as old browser versions
- Security warnings or breaches

The communication may be to the entire DevonWay community or to affected Customers when the event only applies to them. In the case of a security breach, DevonWay will communicate directly with the affected Customer(s) to develop a plan for mitigating its effects. The communication will occur as soon as possible, but in no case later than 72 hours of DevonWay becoming aware of the breach. Note that to date, no such breach has occurred.

Miscellaneous Statement of Responsibilities. DevonWay is not responsible for the following:

Network issues originating from within the Customer's intranet.

General Internet outages, defined as the Customer's inability to connect to both the Dallas, TX and Ashburn, VA datacenters.

Customer computers that are unsupported or running less than the minimum required configuration as determined and mutually agreed upon during implementation or as specified at <https://docs.DevonWay.com/docs/common/Advanced-documentation/Recommended-Client-Configuration/>.

Customer browsers that are unsupported or running less than the minimum required version as determined and mutually agreed upon during implementation.

Handling of Customer Content Post Termination. Upon any expiration or termination of this Agreement, and upon expiration of the License Term, the rights and licenses granted hereunder will automatically terminate, and Customer may not continue to use the DevonWay Product. If Customer is using the On-Demand DevonWay Product as of the effective date of termination, upon written request by Customer made within ninety (90) days of the effective date of expiration or termination of the Agreement (the "Post-Term Period"), DevonWay agrees to make available to Customer, a copy of Customer's production data. Further, during the Post-Term Period and upon the Customer's request, DevonWay shall grant the Customer limited access to the DevonWay Product for the sole purpose of permitting the Customer to retrieve Customer Content, provided that the Customer has paid in full all good faith undisputed amounts owed to DevonWay. Upon expiration of the Post-Term Period, DevonWay will have no further obligation to maintain for or provide to Customer any of the Customer Content and may thereafter, unless legally prohibited, delete all Customer Content in its systems or otherwise in its possession or under its control.

Service Level Agreement

This Service Level Agreement (“SLA”) describes the availability of the DevonWay Product and is made a part of any DevonWay Master Software Agreement (the “Agreement”) which references its terms and applies when the Order Form specifies a support plan that covers credits for missing SLAs in the DevonWay On-Demand environment. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Agreement.

Availability. DevonWay shall make the DevonWay Product available 99.9% of the time, except as provided below. Availability will be calculated per calendar quarter, as follows:

total means the total number of minutes in the calendar quarter;

downtime means any period of unavailability of the DevonWay Product, where the majority of users cannot log on and view data;

Exclusions to total and downtime calculations:

Any planned or scheduled unavailability of the DevonWay Product, including for the purposes of maintenance or upgrades. DevonWay will use commercially reasonable efforts to schedule all planned downtime during the hours from 8:00 p.m. Friday to 5:00 a.m. Monday, U.S. Central Time.

Non-environmental errors, such as those caused by application configuration changes or data updates.

Any period of unavailability lasting less than 15 minutes.

Any unavailability caused by circumstances beyond DevonWay’s reasonable control, including, without limitation, acts of God, acts of government, flood, fire, earthquakes, civil unrest, acts of terror, strikes or other labor problems (other than those involving DevonWay employees), or third-party internet service provider failures or delays, including denial of service attacks.

For any partial calendar quarter during which Customer subscribes to the DevonWay Product, availability will be calculated based on the entire calendar quarter, not just the portion for which Customer subscribed.

Remedies. If DevonWay fails to make the DevonWay Product available as set forth in Section 1 above, Customer may receive a credit for 1% of the then-current quarter’s subscription fee for the affected DevonWay Product for each full or partial hour of unavailability in violation of Section 1. In no case shall the total credit for any quarter exceed the lesser of $100,000 or 80% of the subscription fees paid by Customer for the then-current quarter. If DevonWay fails to make the DevonWay Product available as set forth in Section 1 above in two consecutive calendar quarters, Customer may, in lieu of receiving the above-described credit for the second quarter, terminate the Agreement by providing notice of termination in accordance with Section 3 below, in which case DevonWay will refund to Customer any prepaid fees for the remainder of the License Term following the date of termination. The remedies described in this paragraph shall be the sole remedies available to Customer for breach of this SLA.

Reporting, Claims and Notices. To claim a remedy under this SLA, Customer shall send DevonWay a written notice, via email addressed to notices@devonway.com, containing the following details:

Billing information, including company name, billing address, billing contact and billing contact phone number

Downtime information with dates and time periods for each instance of downtime during the relevant period

An explanation of the claim, including any relevant calculations.

Claims may be made on a calendar-quarter basis only and must be submitted within 10 business days after the end of the applicable quarter, except where a License Term ends on a date other than the last day of a calendar quarter, in which case any claim related to that subscription must be submitted within 10 business days after the License Term ends.

All claims will be verified against DevonWay's system records. If DevonWay disputes any period of unavailability alleged by Customer, DevonWay will provide to Customer a record of availability for the applicable period. DevonWay will provide such records only in response to claims made by Customer in good faith.

General: Services designated as beta, limited release, developer preview, development or test bed environments, or by descriptions of similar import are excluded from this SLA.

On-Site Terms of Use and Service Level Agreements

License Grant. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, DevonWay will make the DevonWay Product available to Customer and its Users for use at the Customer's premises or on a Customer-controlled server within a third party datacenter, and grants Customer a license to use the DevonWay Product according to the License Model set forth on the applicable Order Form.

Delivery. DevonWay shall electronically deliver or make available the DevonWay Product and the information necessary for Customer's use and installation of the DevonWay Product.

DevonWay Product Releases. During the License Term, DevonWay will provide updates to the DevonWay Product. Customer understands and agrees that Customer may not have immediate access to new or improved features or newer versions of the DevonWay Product until the update is issued to On-Site customers by DevonWay.

Termination. Upon termination of the Agreement, if Customer has purchased a Perpetual License for use of the DevonWay Products, Customer may continue (i) to use DevonWay Products subject to its compliance with the terms of the Agreement; and (ii) may continue to receive maintenance and support from DevonWay, provided that Customer pays DevonWay the then-current fees for such maintenance and support.

Production and Testing Environments. The DevonWay Product must be installed in "appliance mode," meaning on a single web server/app server configuration, with the database server optionally segregated. Multi-server configurations are possible but carry an additional cost. Customer is allowed to create one Production instance and one Testing instance per licensed configuration .

Incident Management. DevonWay is responsible for rigorously testing all software releases and incident patches in a multi-step quality assurance process before making them available to customers. As a final pre-production test, Customer is responsible for testing DevonWay releases and incident patches in a User Acceptance Testing (UAT) environment configured with Customer data and interfaces. In addition to adhering to pre- production testing processes, DevonWay provides on-line incident reporting for all other issues and responds to incidents that Customer reports under the following terms.

DevonWay accepts support pages and on-line incidents from people whom Customer names as DevonWay support contacts. Customer may identify up to five support contacts. The people whom Customer names as DevonWay support contacts provide first-line support and accept incident reports from other members of Customer organization.

Regardless of the root cause, off-hours phone support is still subject to the fee defined by Customer support plan. Beyond that initial fee, the effort expended by DevonWay to address incidents due to platform defects is covered under maintenance, unless the defect leads to a Severity One or Two incident that is uncovered in Production due to insufficient testing or poor change management on Customer's part (for example, if Customer made an environmental change in Production without first validating it in a UAT area). In that case, the effort expended by DevonWay to resolve or address the issue in Customer's Production area is not covered by maintenance.

DevonWay responds to incidents differently depending on severity. Details and definitions regarding Severity One through Four incidents are documented at <https://docs.devonway.com/docs/common/resources/policies-and-procedures/#maintenance-policy>.

DevonWay takes changes to Production environments seriously, and strives to minimize such changes outside normal upgrade cycles. For this reason, the acceptable resolution of an incident may not always be a patch to the application, but could also be a workaround deemed viable by DevonWay and the Customer business users.

Customer is responsible for maintaining all application-configuration and end-user data. For example, if an end-user forgets his password, Customer application administrators are responsible for resetting it.

DevonWay will provide Customer support contacts a triage document to help them resolve common issues and to explain what constitutes a Severity One incident. The improper filing of Severity One incidents may incur time & materials or support request charges.

If Customer files an incident but is not on the latest DevonWay Product or platform release, DevonWay may request that Customer update a Testing environment to the latest release and reproduce the incident before DevonWay investigates, so as to ensure the incident has not already been resolved.

Server Specifications and Third-party Licenses. Customer is responsible for providing a Windows Server 2016 operating system license, a Microsoft Office license, a SQL Server 2016 database license, including SQL Server Reporting Services (SSRS), and licenses for supporting software such as anti-virus and backup tools. DevonWay is responsible for all third-party licenses required by the DevonWay platform, such as Jasper reporting and scheduling software. Customer is also responsible for configuring physical or virtual servers that meet the hardware specifications in the DevonWay On-premise Preparation document, which is provided during the procurement process.

Administration. Customer is responsible for:

Monitoring and administration of the application environment. DevonWay can train Customer to use DevonWay's suite of monitors, or Customer may use its own central monitoring technology.

Data backup and recovery.

Database server maintenance and administration, such as index maintenance, statistics updates, integrity checks, and database server health monitoring.

Disaster recovery.

Data security.

Scheduled and unscheduled downtimes.

Capacity planning.

Hardware and Operating System upgrades and patches, including security updates. Note that this does not include upgrades to components required by the DevonWay platform, such as the Java Virtual Machine, Java Servlet Container (Tomcat), etc. Those must be coordinated with and performed at the same time as upgrades of the DevonWay platform or if needed to be installed ahead of a scheduled upgrade for security reasons, DevonWay must certify that the patch is compatible with the platform version prior to being installed.

DevonWay platform and application upgrades.

Providing and maintaining VPN access to named DevonWay personnel for remote troubleshooting purposes. Implementations that do not allow VPN connections due to internal security policies are encouraged to enable a screen sharing solution or support may require additional fees.

Support. Purchase of a Gold or Platinum plan is required so DevonWay may provide support when needed.

Miscellaneous Statement of Responsibilities. DevonWay is not responsible for the following:

Client computers that are unsupported or running less than the minimum required configuration as determined and mutually agreed upon during implementation or as specified at <https://docs.devonway.com/docs/common/Advanced-documentation/Recommended-Client-Configuration/>.

Client browsers that are unsupported or running less than the minimum required version as determined and mutually agreed upon during implementation.

DELTA BRAVO MASTER AGREEMENT

This Master Agreement (the "Agreement") is by and between the undersigned Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts customer identified in an Order that references this Agreement (the "Customer" or "You" or "Ordering Activity") and Dynamic Data Management, Inc. d/b/a Delta Bravo ("Dynamic Data Management" or "Delta Bravo" or "We" or "Us"). This Agreement governs your use of our service offering and its related documentation (collectively, the "Service") and any related software and/or other technology that we provide you for use in conjunction with the Service, including any updates, modifications or enhancements thereto (collectively, the "Software"). Certain Software is required to access the Service.

LICENSE

Grant of License. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, including any usage restrictions set forth in the applicable Order and the restrictions in your service tier, Delta Bravo grants you a limited, revocable, non-exclusive and non-transferable right and license during the Term to do the following, in each case solely in accordance with documentation or instructions that may be provided by Delta Bravo for such purposes: (a) install, integrate, perform and use the Software on the number of instances set forth in your Order solely to access and use the Service; and (b) access the features and functions of the Service. To the extent Delta Bravo provides you with any updates or upgrades to the Software or Service, such updates and upgrades shall be deemed to constitute part of the Software or Service and shall be subject to all terms and provisions set forth in this Agreement, including, without limitation, terms and provisions related to licenses, use restrictions and ownership of the Software or Service. By both parties executing this Agreement in writing, any download or use of the Software will be governed by this Agreement. 1.2. Access. We will provide or make available to you the Software and any necessary passwords, protocols, or other relevant procedures, as may be necessary to allow: (a) administrative users authorized by you to create accounts for server instances and users; and (b) your users to access the Service. User accounts may only be created for individuals (e.g., team or departmental accounts are prohibited). Use of the Service will be subject to the service limitations based on the service tier set forth in your Order. You must ensure that all information associated with each user account remains complete and accurate. You shall ensure your users keep these passwords and protocols to themselves and do not share them with anyone else, and you shall let us know if there is any breach of the confidentiality of these passwords and protocols. You are solely responsible for any and all use of your user accounts and all activities that occur under or in connection with your passwords and protocols. Each user must provide his or her full legal name, a valid email address, and any other information requested during the account signup process in order to obtain an account.

Availability. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to make the Service available during any calendar month (excluding planned maintenance and force majeure events). If such availability drops below 85% in two (2) consecutive calendar months (excluding planned maintenance or force majeure events), you may, as your sole and exclusive remedy for such unavailability, terminate the Service upon 10 days prior written notice with no penalty. If you choose to terminate the Service due to unavailability, you will receive a prorated refund for any unused portion of the Term for which you have prepaid. We consider our Service to be available if you can log into our Service and access Usage Data (as defined in Section 2.1 below).

Restrictions. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by us, you will not: (a) assign, sublicense, market, sell, lease, rent, distribute, convey or otherwise transfer the Software to any third party; (b) use the Software for any purposes other than accessing and using the Service; (c) adapt, alter, modify, translate or create derivative works of the Software; (d) use the Software or Service in any manner not in compliance with applicable laws; (e) decompile, disassemble, reverse engineer or otherwise attempt to obtain or perceive the source code from which the Software or any software component of the Service are compiled or interpreted, and you acknowledge that nothing in this Agreement will be construed to grant you any right to obtain or use such code; (f) allow third parties other than users you authorize to gain access to the Service or use the Service as a service bureau; (g) access or attempt the access the Software or Service by any means other than what Delta Bravo provides or expressly allows; or (h) interfere with or disrupt the integrity or performance of the Service or the data contained therein. You shall only use the Software and Service for your internal purposes, and you agree that you will not use the Software or Service in the provision of services to any third party without the express written permission by Delta Bravo.

Open Source Software. The Software may contain certain components that are subject to "open source" or "free software" licenses ("Open Source Software"). Some of the Open Source Software is owned by third parties. The Open Source Software is not subject to the terms and conditions of Section 1.1. Nothing herein shall bind the Ordering Activity to any Third Party Open Source Software terms unless the terms are provided for review and agreed to in writing by all parties. Nothing in this Agreement limits your rights under, or grants you rights that supersede, the terms and conditions of any applicable end user license for the Open Source Software. If required by any license for particular Open Source Software, Delta Bravo makes such Open Source Software, and its modifications to that Open Source Software, available by submitting a request to support@deltabravo.ai.

Retained Rights. Except for the rights granted you in this Agreement, Delta Bravo retains all right, title and interest in and to the Software and Service, and you acknowledge that you neither own nor acquire any additional rights in and to the Software or the Service not expressly granted by this Agreement. You further acknowledge that Delta Bravo retains the right to use the Software and Service for any purpose in Delta Bravo's sole discretion. Delta Bravo may choose to modify the Service to enhance a previously purchased capability, add capabilities to, or otherwise improve the functions of the Software, including any portions of the Service as we update our offerings and add more features.

USE

Data. To provide the Service, Delta Bravo will collect data about your databases, infrastructure, networks and applications ("Usage Data") and you hereby authorize such collection. You own such Usage Data, but grant Delta Bravo the right to make use of such Usage Data in order to provide the Service. You also grant us the perpetual right to use, reproduce, adapt, aggregate and otherwise exploit the Usage Data in an anonymized, aggregated format to enhance and improve the licensed Delta Bravo products and services. No Usage Data may be disclosed to or utilized for the benefit of any third party if such disclosure or use would allow a third party to identify Customer from the Usage Data.

Feedback. We may send you questionnaires or surveys on a periodic basis in written or electronic form. You acknowledge and agree that any comments, ideas and/or reports you provide to Delta Bravo regarding installation, product experience, functionality, performance, accuracy, consistency and ease of use of the Software or Service ("Feedback") will be considered Delta Bravo proprietary and confidential information, and you hereby irrevocably transfer and assign to Delta Bravo all intellectual property rights embodied in or arising in connection with such Feedback, and any other rights or claims that you may have with respect to any such Feedback. Delta Bravo, in its sole discretion, may freely utilize all Feedback, whether written or oral, furnished by you to Delta Bravo. Vendor acknowledges that the ability to use this Agreement and any Feedback provided as a result of this Agreement in advertising is limited by GSAR 552.203-71.

Excluded Countries. You may not use, export, import or transfer the Software or Service except as authorized by U.S. law, the laws of the jurisdiction in which you obtained the Software or Service and any other applicable laws. In particular, but without limitation, the Software or Service may not be exported or re-exported (a) into any United States embargoed countries, or (b) to anyone of the U.S. Treasury Department's list of Specially Designated Nationals or the U.S. Department of Commerce's Denied Person's List or Entity List. By using the Software or Service, you represent and warrant that (i) you are not located in a country that is subject to a U.S. Government embargo, or that has been designated by the U.S. Government as a "terrorist supporting" country and (ii) you are not listed on any U.S.

Government list of prohibited or restricted parties. You also will not use the Software or Service for any purpose prohibited by U.S. law, including the development, design, manufacture or production of missiles, nuclear, chemical or biological weapons. You acknowledge and agree that products, services or technology provided by Delta Bravo are subject to the export control laws and regulations of the United States. You shall comply with these laws and regulations and shall not, without prior U.S. government authorization, export, re-export, or transfer the Software or Service, or any portion thereof, either directly or indirectly, to any country in violation of such laws and regulations. If you are found using the product from these countries, your account will be subject to immediate termination.

LIMITED WARRANTY; LIMITATION OF LIABILITIES

General Disclaimer. Delta Bravo warrants that the SOFTWARE AND SERVICE will, for a period of sixty (60) days from the date of your receipt, perform substantially in accordance with SOFTWARE AND SERVICE written materials accompanying it. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE FOREGOING, YOU AGREE THAT THE SOFTWARE AND SERVICE ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "WITH ALL DEFECTS." DELTA BRAVO DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL PROMISES, REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, ANY WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, DATA ACCURACY, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, NON-INTERFERENCE AND/OR QUIET ENJOYMENT. THE SOFTWARE AND SERVICE MAY BE SUBJECT TO LIMITATIONS, DELAYS, AND OTHER PROBLEMS INHERENT IN THE USE OF THE INTERNET AND ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS. DELTA BRAVO IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY DELAYS, DELIVERY FAILURES, OR OTHER DAMAGE RESULTING FROM SUCH PROBLEMS.

Exclusions of Remedies; Limitation of Liability. IN NO EVENT WILL DELTA BRAVO BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ANY INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, REGARDLESS OF THE NATURE OF THE CLAIM, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, LOST PROFITS, COSTS OF DELAY, ANY FAILURE OF DELIVERY, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, COSTS OF LOST OR DAMAGED DATA OR DOCUMENTATION OR LIABILITIES TO THIRD PARTIES ARISING

FROM ANY SOURCE, EVEN IF DELTA BRAVO HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. IN NO EVENT WILL DELTA BRAVO BE LIABLE FOR THE LOSS OF DATA OR THE PROCUREMENT OF SUBSTITUTE SERVICES. EXCEPT FOR LIABILITY ARISING FROM SECTION 7 (INDEMNIFICATION), THE CUMULATIVE LIABILITY OF DELTA BRAVO FOR ALL CLAIMS ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY CAUSE OF ACTION SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT, OR STRICT LIABILITY, WILL NOT EXCEED THE CONTRACT PRICE PAID TO DELTA BRAVO BY YOU UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

3.3. No Professional Advice. All information, materials, content and/or advice in the Service is for informational purposes only and is not intended to replace or substitute for any professional advice. Delta Bravo expressly disclaims, and you expressly release Delta Bravo from, any and all liability concerning any diagnosis, treatment, or action arising or learned from the information offered or provided within or through the Service.

3.4. Essential Basis of Agreement. You acknowledge and agree that the disclaimers, exclusions and limitations of liability set forth in this Section 3 form an essential basis of this Agreement, and that, absent any of such disclaimers, exclusions or limitations of liability, the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, the economic terms, would be substantially different.

TERM; SUSPENSION; TERMINATION.

Term. The term of this Agreement ("Term") will commence on the date an Order between you and Delta Bravo is executed and continue as long as such Order remains in effect.

Suspension. We reserve the right to temporarily suspend Service at any time at our discretion and without notice if you use the Service in a manner that would cause legal liability to Delta Bravo or otherwise disrupt the Service.

Termination. When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Delta Bravo shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer.

4.4. Effect of Termination. Upon the expiration or any termination of this Agreement, the license and all rights granted to you under this Agreement will immediately terminate, and you will promptly purge and destroy all copies of the Software in your possession. Termination of your account includes: (a) removal of access to all offerings within the Service; (b) deletion of your password and all related information; and (c) barring of further use of the Service. The provisions of Sections 1.6, 2.1, 2.2, 3, 5, 7 and 9 will survive termination or expiration of this Agreement. Any Usage Data generated through the Service will be permanently lost upon termination of this Agreement. Delta Bravo will not have any liability whatsoever to you for any temporary suspension or termination pursuant to the Contract Disputes Act, including for deletion of your Usage Data. All provisions of these Terms, which by their nature should survive, shall survive termination of Services, including without limitation ownership provisions, warranty disclaimers and limitations of liability.

CONFIDENTIALITY. We and you acknowledge that, in the course of performance of this Agreement, either may obtain information from the other party which it knows or has reason to know is of a confidential and/or proprietary nature ("Confidential Information"). Without limiting the above, the Software, Service, the documentation, the Feedback and any product roadmap is our Confidential Information and Usage Data is your Confidential Information. Except as expressly stated in this Agreement, during the Term and at all times thereafter, neither party may disclose any such Confidential Information to any third party, nor may either party use such Confidential Information of the other party for any purpose, other than as permitted herein. Confidential Information will not include any information which: (i) are or become readily available to the trade or public through no fault of the recipient of the Confidential Information; (ii) is subsequently lawfully and in good faith obtained by a party from an independent third party without breach of this Agreement; (iii) the recipient can establish that the information was in its possession prior to the date of disclosure of such Confidential Information; or (iv) is developed independently by the recipient without reference to any Confidential Information of the other party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each party may disclose Confidential Information to the limited extent such disclosure is required by applicable law, a court of competent jurisdiction or a governmental agency; provided that such party promptly notifies the other party to the extent legally permissible of such required disclosure to provide the other party an opportunity to object to such disclosure and seek a protective order or other appropriate relief. Delta Bravo recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which requires that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

FEES; TAXES. In consideration for the Service and license to the Software, Customer will pay Delta Bravo the fees ("Fees") set forth in the Order in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist. All Fees will be billed at the frequency specified in the Order and are due within thirty (30) days of receipt of invoice by Customer. Any unpaid and uncontested balance due and owing will incur late interest at the rate governed by the Prompt Payment Act (31 USC 3901 et seq) and Treasury regulations at 5 CFR 1315. Delta Bravo shall state separately on invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Ordering Activity agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

INDEMNIFICATION.

By Delta Bravo. Delta Bravo will defend Customer from any claim brought by a third party that any use of, or access to, the Service or Software by Customer violates, infringes or misappropriates, as applicable, any third-party intellectual property right. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Delta Bravo shall have no obligation or liability to the extent that the alleged infringement or misappropriation arises from Customer's use of the Services or Software other than in accordance with this Agreement. Upon the occurrence of any claim for which indemnification is or may be due under this Section, or in the event that

Delta Bravo believes that such a claim is likely, Delta Bravo may, at its option (i) modify the Service or Software so that it becomes non-infringing but functionally similar, or substitute a functionally similar alternative; (ii) obtain a license to the applicable third-party intellectual property at no cost to Customer; or (iii) terminate the applicable Order on written notice to Customer and refund any unused, pre-paid fees. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516. 7.3. Procedures. The indemnifying party shall pay all damages finally awarded or paid in settlement of any such Claims. The indemnified party must notify the indemnifying party promptly in writing of any claim for indemnification hereunder, and provide, at the indemnifying party's expense (to the extent of out-of-pocket expenses only), all reasonably necessary assistance, information and authority to allow the indemnifying party to control the defense and settlement of such Claim; provided that the failure of the indemnified party to promptly inform the indemnifying party of any Claim shall not excuse the indemnifying party of its obligations hereunder except to the extent such failure materially prejudices the indemnifying party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnifying party shall not enter into any settlement of the defense of such action, other than with respect to the payment of monies, without the Indemnified party's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

The indemnified party may participate at its expense in the defense and/or settlement of any such action with counsel of its choosing and at its sole expense.

FORCE MAJEURE. Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f).

GENERAL. This Agreement, together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule Pricelist, and each Order constitute the complete and exclusive agreement between you and Delta Bravo. The terms and conditions of this Agreement will not be modified unless both you and a Delta Bravo authorized representative execute a separate written instrument. Any notice required to be given under this Agreement will be sent to the address indicated in the Order, or such other address provided by the party in writing. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be unenforceable for any reason, such provision will be reformed only to the extent necessary to make it enforceable, and such decision will not affect the enforceability of such provision under other circumstances and in other jurisdictions, or of the remaining provisions under all circumstances. Any delay or failure by either party to this Agreement to exercise any of its rights hereunder will not constitute or be deemed a waiver or forfeiture of such rights. Neither party will assign this Agreement, whether voluntarily or by operation of law, nor will either party delegate its duties hereunder without consent from the other party and any attempt to do so will be null and void. This Agreement will be construed and enforced in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. The Software and any software components of the Service are a "commercial item" as that term is defined at 48 C.F.R. 2.101, consisting of "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation" as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. 12.212. Consistent with 48 C.F.R. 12.212, all U.S. Government end users acquire the Software and Service with only those rights set forth therein. For contractual purposes, you (i) consent to receive communications from us in an electronic form; and (ii) agree that all terms and conditions, agreements, notices, documents, disclosures, and other communications ("Communications") that we provide to you electronically satisfy any legal requirement that such Communications would satisfy if it were in writing. Your consent to receive Communications and do business electronically, and our agreement to do so, applies to all of your interactions and transactions with us.

DOCKER, INC.
144 TOWNSEND STREET
SAN FRANCISCO, CA 94107

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Docker, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

DOCKER, INC. LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

This U.S. Government Supplement ("Supplement") and the Docker Software End User Subscription Agreement (<https://www.docker.com/docker-software-end-user-subscription-agreement>) ("Enterprise Agreement"), establish the terms and conditions enabling Docker, Inc. ("Docker") to provide Docker's products and services to U.S. Government agencies, including any "Ordering Activity", defined as an entity authorized to order under GSA contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER 4800.2H ADM (the "Customer"). Unless otherwise indicated herein, any capitalized terms which are defined in the Enterprise Agreement shall have the same meaning where used in this Supplement.

The Enterprise Agreement and this Supplement cover the use of Supported Software or Subscription Services by any Ordering Activity. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the use of Software or Services from Docker by an Ordering Activity does not constitute that Ordering Activity's assent or acceptance of the Enterprise Agreement. Docker agrees to comply with 31 U.S.C. 1352 relating to limitations on the use of appropriated funds to influence certain Federal contracts; 18 U.S.C. 431 relating to officials not to benefit; 40 U.S.C. 3701, et seq., Contract Work Hours and Safety Standards Act; 41 U.S.C. 51-58, Anti-Kickback Act of 1986; 41 U.S.C. 265 and 10 U.S.C. 2409 relating to whistleblower protections; and 41 U.S.C. 423 relating to procurement integrity. This Supplement modifies the terms and conditions of the Enterprise Agreement for U.S. Government agencies as follows:

1.0 Enterprise Agreement – Preamble

The following is modified from Enterprise Agreement Preamble "BETWEEN DOCKER, INC., LOCATED AT 475 BRANNAN STREET, SUITE 330, SAN FRANCISCO, CA 94107 ("DOCKER") AND THE INDIVIDUAL OR LEGAL ENTITY" and is replaced with the following: "BETWEEN DOCKER, INC., LOCATED AT 475 BRANNAN STREET, SUITE 330, SAN FRANCISCO, CA 94107 ("DOCKER") AND THE LEGAL ENTITY".

The following is deleted from Enterprise Agreement Preamble "OR IS USING THE APPLICABLE SOFTWARE MADE AVAILABLE BY DOCKER".

2.0 Enterprise Agreement Section 1.0 Definition:

The following is modified from Enterprise Agreement Section 1.11 "Subscription Services means standard support and maintenance services and software updates provided by Docker for the Supported Software, as set forth at: <https://www.docker.com/legal/subscription-services/>" and is replaced with Enterprise Agreement Section 1.11 "Subscription Services means standard support and maintenance services and software updates provided by Docker for the Supported Software, as set forth at: <https://www.docker.com/support/>".

3.0 Enterprise Agreement Section 2.0, License:

The following is deleted from Section 2.3, License Keys: "Customer acknowledges and agrees that any attempt to exceed the use of the Licensed Software beyond the limits configured into the Key will automatically and immediately terminate the licenses granted under this Agreement".

4.0 Enterprise Agreement Section 6.0 Records and Audit:

The following is modified from Enterprise Agreement Section 6.0 Records and Audit "Upon prior notice, Docker or its representative may inspect such records to confirm Customer's compliance with the terms of this Agreement" and is replaced with Enterprise Agreement Section 6.0 Records and Audit "Upon prior notice and in accordance with Customer's security requirements, Docker or its representative may inspect such records to confirm Customer's compliance with the terms of this Agreement".

The following is deleted from Enterprise Agreement Section 6.0 Records and Audit "Prompt adjustments shall be made by Customer as directed by Docker to compensate for any errors or breach discovered by such audit, such as underpayment of the Subscription Fee, with the applicable late payment interest. Additionally, if Customer has underpaid Docker or its authorized reseller by more than 5% of the total amount owed hereunder, the cost of the audit shall be borne by Customer." and is replaced with Enterprise Agreement Section 6.0 Records and Audit "During the term of this Agreement and for one (1) year thereafter: (a) If Customer's security requirements are met, Docker or its designated agent may inspect Customer's facilities and records to verify Customer's compliance with this Agreement. Any such inspection will take place only during Customer's normal business hours and upon no less than ten (10) days prior written notice from Docker. Docker will give Customer written notice of any non-compliance, including without limitation the number of underreported units of Supported Software or Subscription Services ("Notice"); or (b) If Customer security requirements are not met and upon Docker's request, Customer will run a self assessment with tools provided by and at the direction of Docker ("Self Assessment") to verify Customer's compliance with this Agreement. Within thirty (30) days from Docker's request, Customer will finalize the Self Assessment and provide Docker with the results in the form of a written report certified by Customer's authorized officer including the number of underreported Units of Software or Services (the "Report"). In either event, after providing Notice(s) or Report(s) and receipt of an invoice, Customer will make payment to Docker or its authorized channel partner for any errors or breach discovered by such audit, such as underpayment of the Subscription Fee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this section prevents the Government from disputing any invoice in accordance with the Contract Disputes Act (41 U.S.C. §§7101-7109)."

5.0 Enterprise Agreement Section 7.0 Term:

The following is deleted from Enterprise Agreement Section 7.0 Term "Either party may terminate this Agreement and any Order Form incorporating the terms of this Agreement (if Docker is a party to such Order Form) if the other party materially breaches this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within 30 days of receiving written notice thereof." and is replaced with Enterprise Agreement Section 7.0 Term "Recourse against the Customer for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be made under the terms of the Federal Tort Claims Act or as a dispute under the contract disputes clause (Contract Disputes Act) as applicable. Docker shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer".

6.0 Enterprise Agreement Section 9.0 Confidentiality:

The following is deleted from Enterprise Agreement Section 9.0 Confidentiality sub-section 9.5 Injunctive Relief is deleted in its entirety.

The following section heading is deleted from Enterprise Agreement Section 9.0 Confidentiality sub-section 9.6 Return of Confidential Information is replaced with Enterprise Agreement Section 9.0 Confidentiality sub-section 9.5 Return of Confidential Information.

7.0 Enterprise Agreement Section 10. Warranties:

The following section heading is modified from Enterprise Agreement Section 10.0 No Warranties is replaced with Enterprise Agreement Section 10. Limited Warranties.

The following is deleted from Enterprise Agreement Section 10.0 Limited Warranties "CUSTOMER EXPRESSLY UNDERSTANDS AND AGREES THAT ALL USE OF THE SUPPORTED SOFTWARE IS AT CUSTOMER'S SOLE RISK AND THAT THE SUPPORTED SOFTWARE AND SUPPORT SERVICES ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE." " is replaced with Enterprise Agreement Section 10. Limited Warranties "DOCKER WARRANTS THAT (a) THE SUPPORTED SOFTWARE WILL, FOR A PERIOD OF SIXTY (60) DAYS FROM THE DATE OF CUSTOMER'S RECEIPT, PERFORM SUBSTANTIALLY IN ACCORDANCE WITH DOCKER'S WRITTEN MATERIALS ACCOMPANYING IT, AND (b) ANY SUPPORT SERVICES PROVIDED BY DOCKER SHALL BE SUBSTANTIALLY AS DESCRIBED IN APPLICABLE WRITTEN MATERIALS PROVIDED TO CUSTOMER BY DOCKER. EXCLUDING THE FOREGOING..."

8.0 Enterprise Agreement Section 11. Indemnification:

The following section is modified from Enterprise Agreement Section 11. Indemnification sub-section 11.1 By Docker "(b) tenders to Docker sole control of the defense and settlement of the claim, and" is replaced with Enterprise Agreement Section 11. Indemnification sub-section 11.1 By Docker "(b) tenders to Docker control of the defense and settlement of the claim to the extent permitted by 28 USC 516, and".

The following is deleted from Enterprise Agreement Section 11. sub-section 11.3 By Customer is deleted in its entirety.

9.0 Enterprise Agreement Section 12. Limitation of Liability:

The following section is deleted from Enterprise Agreement Section 12. Limitation of Liability sub-section 12.2 Liability Cap. "THE GREATER OF USD $100 OR".

The following section is amended from Enterprise Agreement Section 12. Limitation of Liability sub-section 12.2 Liability Cap. "The foregoing exclusion/limitation shall not apply to (1) personal injury or death resulting from Docker's negligence; (2) for fraud committed by Docker; or (3) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law."

10.0 Enterprise Agreement Section 13. Export Restrictions:

The following section is deleted from Enterprise Agreement Section 13. Export Restrictions. "Customer will defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Docker and its suppliers and licensors from and against any violation of such laws or regulations by Customer or any of its agents, officers, directors or employees."

11.0 Enterprise Agreement Section 14. Miscellaneous:

The following section is deleted from Enterprise Agreement Section 14. Miscellaneous "Agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of California without reference to conflict of law principles." is replaced with Enterprise Agreement Section 14. Miscellaneous "Agreement will be governed by the Federal laws of the United States without reference to conflict of law principles."

The following section is deleted from Enterprise Agreement Section 14. Miscellaneous "Each party agrees to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts located within the county of San Francisco, California to resolve any legal matter arising from this Agreement. Neither party may assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, whether by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other party (not to be unreasonably withheld). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Docker may assign the entirety of its rights and obligations under this Agreement, without consent of the Customer, to its affiliate or in connection with a merger, acquisition, corporate reorganization, or sale of all or substantially all of its assets."

The following section is deleted from Enterprise Agreement Section 14. Miscellaneous "Together with any Order Forms, this is the entire Agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof." is replaced with Enterprise Agreement Section 14. Miscellaneous "Together with any Order Forms, this is the entire Agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof, namely the licensing of the Supported Software."

The following section is modified from Enterprise Agreement Section 14. Miscellaneous after "...signed by both parties and clearly understood by both parties to be an amendment or waiver." is replaced with Enterprise Agreement Section 14. Miscellaneous "...signed by both parties and clearly understood by both parties to be an amendment or waiver. The terms of this Agreement shall not supersede the terms of the underlying GSA Schedule Contract".

“Intellectual Property Rights” means all patents, registered designs, unregistered designs, design rights, utility models, semiconductor topography rights, database rights, copyright and other similar statutory rights, trade mark, service mark and any know how relating to algorithms, drawings, tests, reports and procedures, models, manuals, formulae, methods, processes and the like (including applications for any of the preceding rights) or any other intellectual or industrial property rights of whatever nature in each case in any part of the world and whether or not registered or registerable, for the full period and all extensions and renewals where applicable.

“Order Form(s)” means the order forms through which the Government customer purchases the Duo Security Services from Duo Security under the GSA MAS contract for the initial order for the Service, and any subsequent order forms issued to Duo Security, specifying, among other things, the maximum number of Users, the initial Term, the purchase of any Hardware Tokens, the Fees, telephony credits (if any), and such other charges and terms as agreed between the parties.

“Performance Data” means data with respect to usage and other aggregate measures of the Services’ performance that Duo Security may collect from time to time.

“Services” means the products and services that are ordered by and/or made available to Customer under a free trial or an Order Form (including, where applicable, the Software, Hardware Tokens and services using only the Duo Mobile Software) and made available online by Duo Security, including associated offline components, as described in the Documentation.

“Service Level Agreement” or “SLA” means the description of support provided to Customers and its Users and of the availability of the Services attached to this document as Appendix A.

“Software” means the Integration Software and Duo Mobile Software.

“Telephony Credits” mean credits for Customer’s Users to provide authentication by telephone or SMS.

“Term” means the subscription term indicated on the Order Form and any subsequent renewal terms.

"User" means any user of the Services who Customer may authorize to enroll to use the Services under the terms of this Agreement.

SERVICES FOR CUSTOMER; DUO SECURITY OBLIGATIONS

Subject to and conditioned on the GSA MAS Contractor's receipt of payment of the Fees and in any event, subject to full compliance with all other terms and conditions of this Agreement, Duo Security grants Customer and Users a non-exclusive, nonsublicensable, non-transferrable license to access and use the Services, along with such Documentation as Duo Security may make available during the Term.

The Services and SLA are subject to modification from time to time at Duo Security's sole discretion, provided the modifications do not materially diminish the functionality of the Services provided by Duo Security and the Services continue to perform according to the description of the Services specified in Section 2.3 in all material aspects. Customer shall have the right to terminate the Agreement pursuant to Section 10.2 without any penalty if (i) a material modification to the Services or the SLA is made which materially diminishes the functionality of the Services or materially diminishes the SLA, (ii) Duo Security has not obtained Customer's consent for such modifications and (iii) Duo Security does not provide a remedy in the cure period stated in Section 10.2.

Duo Security will make the Services available and the Services will perform substantially in accordance with the description of the services found at <http://www.duosecurity.com/editions>. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Duo Security reserves the right to suspend Customer's (or any of its Users') access to the Services: (i) for scheduled or emergency maintenance, or (ii) as it deems reasonably necessary to respond to any actual or potential security concerns.

Subject to full compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Duo Security will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide support to Customer as described in the Service Level Agreement. In the event that Customer earns 15 days of service credits, determined in accordance with the terms of the Service Level Agreement, in each of three consecutive months, Customer may notify Duo Security of its intention to terminate the Services and may terminate its Agreement with Duo Security for the provision of the Services to Customer and, as the sole and exclusive remedy, Customer will receive a refund of any pre-paid subscription Fees paid for Services not rendered as of the termination date.

Duo Security collects certain information about Customer and its Users as well as their respective devices, computers and use of the Services. Duo Security uses, discloses and protects this information as described in this Agreement and Duo Security's Privacy Policy (the "Privacy Policy") dated March 24, 2016, attached to this document as Appendix B.

CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITIES

Customer may only use the Services in accordance with the Documentation and as explicitly set forth in this Agreement. Customer will cooperate with Duo Security in connection with the performance of this Agreement as may be necessary, which may include making available such personnel and information as may be reasonably required to provide the Services or support. Customer is solely responsible for determining whether the Services are sufficient for its purposes, including but not limited to, whether the Services satisfy Customer's legal and/or regulatory requirements.

Use of the Services may require Users to install Duo Mobile Software on their mobile devices. In addition, third party terms may apply with respect to third party products and software accessible via the Services and with respect to devices using third party operating systems or software or in the event that Duo Mobile Software is downloaded from third party sites (collectively, "Third Party Services"). Customer's access and use of Third Party Services is governed solely by the terms and conditions of such Third Party Services. Duo Security does not endorse, is not responsible or liable for, makes no representations or warranties and provides no indemnification with respect to any aspect of the Third Party Services, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary. Duo Security is not liable for any damage or loss caused or alleged to be caused by or in connection with enablement, access or use of any such Third Party Services, or Customer's reliance on the privacy practices, data security processes or other policies of such Third Party Services. Duo Security does not provide customer support or assistance with respect to the Third Party Services. Users may be required to register for or log into such Third Party Services on their respective websites or apps.

Customer acknowledges that the Services will require the Users to share with Duo Security certain information for the purposes of providing the Services, such as user names, password and other login information. This information may include personal information (such as email address, and/or phone number) regarding the Users, and Duo Security will use such information for the purposes of providing the Services to Customer and Users. Prior to authorizing an individual to become a User, Customer is fully responsible for obtaining the consent of that individual, in accordance with all applicable laws, to the use of his/her information by Duo Security for purposes of providing the Services, which use shall be governed by the terms of the Privacy Policy. Customer represents and warrants that all such consents have been or will be obtained prior to authorizing any individual to become a User.

Customer will be fully responsible for Users' compliance with this Agreement. Any breach of this Agreement or such other terms by a User shall be deemed to be a breach by Customer. Customer is solely responsible for determining whether the Services are sufficient for Customer's purposes.

There will be no force or effect given to any different or additional terms contained in any purchase order or similar form issued by either party, even if signed by the parties after the date hereof unless such terms are included in an amendment in accordance with the terms of Section 14.3 of this Agreement. Each party's acceptance of this Agreement was and is expressly conditional upon the other's acceptance of the terms contained in the Agreement to the exclusion of all other terms.

RESTRICTIONS

Customer will not, and will not permit any of its Users nor any third party to: reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble or otherwise attempt to discover the source code, object code or underlying structure, ideas or algorithms of the Services, Software, Hardware Tokens or any data related to the Services (except to the extent such prohibition is contrary to applicable law that cannot be excluded by the agreement of the parties); modify, translate, or create derivative works based on the Services or Software; share, rent, lease, loan, resell, sublicense, distribute, use or otherwise transfer the Services or Software for timesharing or service bureau purposes or for any purpose other than its own use; or use the Services or Software other than in accordance with this Agreement and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations (including but not limited to any European privacy laws and intellectual property laws).

PAYMENT OF FEES

Customer will pay the GSA MAS Contractor and the GSA MAS Contractor will pay Duo Security the Fees plus all applicable sales, use and other purchase related taxes (or provide Duo Security with a valid certificate of exemption from the requirement of paying sales, use or other purchase related taxes) in accordance with the Prompt Payment Act and the Order Form. Except as otherwise indicated in the applicable Order Form, all fees and expenses shall be in U.S. dollars. Duo Security will not charge users any fees for their use of the Services or Duo Mobile Software without Customer's authorization. Users' carriers or service providers may charge fees for data usage, messaging, phone calls or other services that are required for them to use the Services.

Customer's Order Form will indicate an initial allotment of Telephony Credits, if applicable. Customer may purchase additional Telephony Credits separately via the billing section of Customer's administrative interface or by contacting a sales representative. U.S. and international rates for telephony can be found at https://www.duosecurity.com/docs/telephony\_credits.

At any time during the Term, and unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the parties, any increase or overage in the maximum number of Users specified in the Order Form will be treated in accordance with this Section 5.3 (a "Subscription Upgrade"). The maximum number of Users shall be increased as follows: For Subscription Upgrades (i) for Customers where the maximum number of Users on the Order Form is fewer than 500 Users, the maximum number of Users will be increased automatically in increments equal to 50 Users, (ii) for Customers where the maximum number of Users on the Order Form is 500 - 1000 Users, the maximum number of Users will be increased automatically in increments equal to 100 Users, and (iii) for Customers where the maximum number of Users on the Order Form is 1001 or greater, the maximum number of Users will be increased automatically in increments equal to 250 Users.

Duo Security shall invoice Customer for the increase in the maximum number of Users at the subscription rate and payment terms specified in the most recent Order Form, which will be prorated for the remainder of the then applicable subscription Term. For any future subscription Term, the number of Users and applicable Fees will reflect any Subscription Upgrades.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Each party (the "Receiving Party") understands that the other party (the "Disclosing Party") has disclosed or may disclose information relating to the Disclosing Party's technology, Users or business (hereinafter referred to as "Confidential Information" of the Disclosing Party).

The Receiving Party agrees: (i) not to disclose the Confidential Information to any third person other than those of its employees, investors and potential acquirers with a need to have access thereto and who have entered into non-disclosure and non-use agreements applicable to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information or are subject to the Federal Trade Secrets Act (18 USC §1905), and (ii) to use such Confidential Information solely as reasonably required in connection with the Services and/or this Agreement. The Receiving Party further agrees to take the same security precautions to protect against unauthorized disclosure or unauthorized use of such Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party that the party takes with its own confidential or proprietary information, but in no event will a party apply less than commercially reasonable precautions to protect such Confidential Information. Each party acknowledges that the use of such precautions is not a guarantee against unauthorized disclosure or use. The Disclosing Party agrees that the foregoing will not apply with respect to any information that the Receiving Party can document (a) is or becomes generally available to the public without any action by, or involvement of, the Receiving Party, or (b) was in its possession without a duty of non-disclosure or known by it prior to receipt from the Disclosing Party, or (c) was rightfully disclosed to it without restriction by a third party, or (d) was independently developed without use of any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent the Receiving Party from disclosing the Confidential Information pursuant to any judicial or governmental order, provided that, to the extent permitted by law, the Receiving Party gives the Disclosing Party reasonable prior notice of such disclosure to contest such order. For the avoidance of doubt, Customer acknowledges that Duo Security utilizes the services of certain third parties in connection with the provision of the Services (such as data hosting and telephony service providers) and the provision of the Third Party Services and such third parties will have access to Customer's Confidential Information, subject to compliance with this Section 6. The parties agree that Performance Data and any other de-identified information in any form or format is not Confidential Information and will not be subject to any confidentiality restrictions or obligations.

Customer acknowledges that Duo Security does not wish to receive any Confidential Information from Customer that is not necessary for Duo Security to perform its obligations under this Agreement, and, unless the parties specifically agree otherwise, Duo Security may reasonably presume that any unrelated information received from Customer is not confidential or Confidential Information, unless such information is marked as "Confidential".

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS; OWNERSHIP

Except as expressly set forth herein, Duo Security alone (and its licensors, where applicable) will retain all Intellectual Property Rights relating to the Services or the Software or any suggestions, ideas, enhancement requests, feedback, recommendations or other information provided by Customer or any third party relating to the Services and/or the Software, which are hereby assigned to Duo Security. Customer will not copy, distribute, reproduce or use any of the foregoing except as expressly permitted under this Agreement. As between the parties, Duo Security will own all Performance Data, all other forms of aggregated information, and all de-identified data relating to any User and/or the Services. This Agreement is not a sale and does not convey to Customer any rights of ownership in or related to the Services or Software, or any Intellectual Property Rights.

US Government Rights. The Services and Software are "commercial items" as that term is defined at FAR 2.101. If Customer is the US Federal Government (Government) Executive Agency (as defined in FAR 2.101), Duo Security provides the Services and Software, including any related technical data, and/or professional services in accordance with the following: If acquired by or on behalf of any Executive Agency (other than an agency within the Department of Defense (DoD), the Government acquires, in accordance with FAR 12.211 (Technical Data) and FAR 12.212 (Computer Software), only those rights in technical data and software customarily provided to the public as defined in this Agreement. If acquired by or on behalf of any Executive Agency within the DoD, the Government acquires, in accordance with DFARS 227.7202-3 (Rights in commercial computer software or commercial computer software documentation), only those rights in technical data and software customarily provided in this Agreement. In addition, DFARS 252.227-7015 (Technical Data – Commercial Items) applies to technical data acquired by DoD agencies. Any Federal Legislative or Judicial Agency shall obtain only those rights in technical data and software customarily provided to the public as defined in this Agreement. If any Federal Executive, Legislative, or Judicial Agency has a need for rights not conveyed under the terms described in this Section, it must negotiate with Duo Security to determine if there are acceptable terms for transferring such rights, and a mutually acceptable written addendum specifically conveying such rights must be included in any applicable contract or agreement to be effective. If this Agreement fails to meet the Government's needs or is inconsistent in any way with Federal law, and the parties cannot reach a mutual agreement on terms for this Agreement, the Government agrees to terminate its use of the Services and return the Software, unused, to Duo Security. This U.S. Government Rights clause in this Section is in lieu of, and supersedes, any other FAR, DFARS, or other clause, provision, or supplemental regulation that addresses Government rights in computer software or technical data under this Agreement.

DATA PROTECTION

In this Section 8, the terms "personal data", "data processor", "data subject", "process and processing" and "data controller" shall be as defined in the DPA. For the purposes of the Data Protection Laws, as between Customer and Duo Security, the parties agree that Customer shall at all times be the data controller and Duo Security shall be the data processor with respect to the processing of Customer Personal Data in connection with this Agreement.

By entering into this Agreement, Customer agrees that Duo Security may collect, retain and use certain Customer Personal Data (which may include, without limitation, names, mobile telephone numbers, IP addresses and email addresses of Users) in connection with the Services. As the data controller of such Customer Personal Data, Customer shall be responsible for ensuring that, and warrants and represents to Duo Security that it shall ensure that any processing of Customer Personal Data in connection with the Services shall comply with the Data Protection Laws. This shall include (without limitation) ensuring that Customer: (a) has given adequate notice and made all appropriate disclosures to the data subjects regarding Customer's and/or Duo Security's use and disclosure of Customer Personal Data, including (but without limitation) for the provision of the Services; and (b) has and/or obtains all necessary rights, and where applicable, all appropriate and valid consents from the data subjects to share such personal data with Duo Security and to permit use of Customer Personal Data by Duo Security for the purposes of the provision of the Services and performing its obligations under this Agreement or as may be required by applicable law ("Purpose"), including (but without limitation) notifying the data subject of the transfer of Customer Data outside of the European Economic Area to countries whose laws they have acknowledged may provide a lower standard of data protection than exists in the European Economic Area ("EEA"). At the request of Customer, Duo Security and Customer shall negotiate a separate data processing agreement, setting forth each Party's obligations in respect of any processing of Customer Personal Data, which agreement will be incorporated herein by reference once executed by the Parties.

Customer acknowledges that Duo Security is reliant on Customer for direction as to the extent to which Duo Security is entitled to use and process Customer Data. Consequently, Duo Security will not be liable for any claim brought by a data subject to the extent that such action or omission resulted directly from Customer's instructions. Customer undertakes to comply in all respects with any applicable laws, regulations, standards and guidelines applicable to personal data and shall use all reasonable endeavors to where possible anonymize personal data sent to Duo Security.

INDEMNIFICATION.

For Customers enrolled in one of the editions of Services requiring purchase, Duo Security shall indemnify and hold Customer harmless from liability to third parties resulting from infringement by the Services of any United States or United Kingdom patent or any copyright or misappropriation of any trade secret, provided Duo Security is promptly notified of any and all threats, claims and proceedings related thereto and given reasonable assistance and the opportunity (subject to the requirements of 28 USC §516, if applicable) to assume sole control over defense and settlement; Duo Security will not be responsible for any settlement it does not approve. The foregoing obligations do not apply with respect to portions or components of the Services (i) not created by Duo Security, (ii) resulting in whole or in part from Customer specifications, (iii) that are modified after delivery by Duo Security, (iv) combined with other products, processes or materials where the alleged infringement relates to such combination, (v) where Customer continues allegedly infringing activity after being notified thereof or after being informed of modifications that would have avoided the alleged infringement, or (vi) where Customer's use of Services is not strictly in accordance with this Agreement and all related Documentation. If Duo Security receives information about an actual or alleged infringement or misappropriation claim that would be subject to indemnification rights set forth in this Section 9, Duo Security shall have the option, at its expense, to (i) modify the Software to be non-infringing; or (ii) obtain for Customer a license to continue using the Software. If Duo Security determines it is not commercially reasonable to perform either of the above options, then Duo Security may at its option elect to terminate the license for the Services and refund the unearned portion of any pre-paid subscription Fees, pro-rated on a monthly basis. THIS SECTION STATES CUSTOMER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR INFRINGEMENT, MISAPPROPRIATION AND/OR CLAIMS ALLEGING INFRINGEMENT OR MISAPPROPRIATION.

TERM; TERMINATION

Subject to earlier termination as expressly provided for in this Agreement, the initial Term of this Agreement shall be for the Term specified in the Order Form, or in the event of multiple Order Forms, until the Term of all Order Forms has expired. Each Order Form and this Agreement shall terminate upon expiration or termination in accordance with this Section 10 unless Customer provides at least forty-five (45) days prior written notice to Duo Security that it wishes to renew by placing an order directly with Duo Security or renews the Services through GSA MAS contract. The Fees per User for each renewal Term will be in accordance with the GSA MAS contract or, if renewed directly with Duo Security, equal to the Fees per User for the immediately prior Term plus a price increase to be agreed upon by Duo Security and Customer. Any pricing increase will not exceed seven percent (7%) per year, unless the pricing was designated in the applicable Order Form as promotional or one-time; provided, however, the Fees for each renewal Term shall not exceed the list price as of the start date of such renewal Term.

In the event of any material breach of this Agreement, the GSA MAS Contractor, on behalf of Duo Security, shall pursue its rights under the Contract Disputes Act or other applicable Federal statute while continuing performance as set forth in GSAR 552.212-4(d).

The Sections of this Agreement which by their nature should survive termination or expiration of this Agreement, including but not limited to Sections 3.1 and 4 through 14 (inclusive), will survive termination or expiration of this Agreement. No refund of Fees shall be due in any amount on account of termination by Duo Security pursuant to this Section 10. In the event of termination by Customer pursuant to this Section 10, Customer shall be entitled as its sole and exclusive remedy, to receive a refund of any pre-paid subscription Fees paid by Customer to Duo Security for Services not rendered as of the termination date. When this Agreement expires or terminates, Duo Security shall cease providing the Service to Customer.

WARRANTIES AND DISCLAIMER OF ADDITIONAL WARRANTIES

For Customers enrolled in one of the editions of Services requiring purchase, Duo Security represents and warrants that it will not knowingly include, in any Duo Security software released to Users and provided to Customer hereunder, any computer code or other computer instructions, devices or techniques, including without limitation those known as disabling devices, trojans, or time bombs, that intentionally disrupt, disable, harm, infect, defraud, damage, or otherwise impede in any manner, the operation of a network, computer program or computer system or any component thereof, including its security or User data. If, at any time, Duo Security fails to comply with the warranty in this Section 11.1, Customer may promptly notify Duo Security in writing of any such noncompliance. Duo Security will, within thirty (30) days of receipt of such written notification, either correct the noncompliance or provide Customer with a plan for correcting the noncompliance. If the noncompliance is not corrected or if a reasonably acceptable plan for correcting them is not established during such period, Customer may terminate this Agreement and receive a refund of any pre-paid but unearned subscription Fees, pro-rated on a monthly basis, as its sole and exclusive remedy for such noncompliance.

For Customers that have purchased Hardware Tokens as part of the Services, Duo Security warrants to Customer only that Hardware Tokens will be free of defects in material and workmanship at the time of sale and for a period of six (6) months thereafter. This limited warranty is limited to replacement of defective Hardware Tokens. This limited Hardware Token warranty is Customer's exclusive remedy for defective Hardware Tokens.

EXCEPT FOR THE EXPRESS WARRANTIES PROVIDED IN THIS SECTION 11, THE SERVICES AND DUO SECURITY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND ANYTHING PROVIDED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT ARE PROVIDED "AS-IS," WITHOUT ANY WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND. DUO SECURITY HEREBY DISCLAIMS FOR ITSELF AND ITS SUPPLIERS ALL WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES, TERMS OR CONDITIONS OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PURPOSE OR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, SATISFACTORY QUALITY, TITLE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT (OR ANY ORDER FORM) SHALL LIMIT OR EXCLUDE EITHER PARTY'S LIABILITY FOR (A) DEATH OR PERSONAL INJURY CAUSED BY ITS NEGLIGENCE, OR THE NEGLIGENCE OF ITS EMPLOYEES, AGENTS OR SUBCONTRACTORS; (B) FRAUD OR FRAUDULENT MISREPRESENTATION; OR (C) ANY OTHER LIABILITY THAT CANNOT BE EXCLUDED OR LIMITED BY LAW.

SUBJECT TO SECTION 12.1, IN NO EVENT WILL DUO SECURITY OR ITS SUPPLIERS BE LIABLE TO CUSTOMER (OR ANY PERSON CLAIMING UNDER OR THROUGH CUSTOMER) FOR ANY INDIRECT, PUNITIVE, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH THE USE OF THE SERVICES OR ANYTHING PROVIDED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE DELAY OR INABILITY TO USE THE SERVICES OR ANYTHING PROVIDED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR OTHERWISE ARISING FROM THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, (I) LOSS OF REVENUE OR ANTICIPATED PROFITS (WHETHER DIRECT OR INDIRECT) OR (II) LOST BUSINESS OR (III) LOST SALES, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING ACTIVE AND PASSIVE NEGLIGENCE AND STRICT LIABILITY) BREACH OF STATUTORY DUTY OR OTHERWISE, EVEN IF DUO SECURITY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF DAMAGES.

SUBJECT TO SECTION 12.1, THE TOTAL LIABILITY OF DUO SECURITY FOR ANY CLAIM, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING ACTIVE AND PASSIVE NEGLIGENCE AND STRICT LIABILITY) OR OTHERWISE, WILL NOT EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE FEES PAID OR TO BE PAID TO DUO SECURITY HEREUNDER IN THE TWELVE MONTH PERIOD ENDING ON THE DATE THAT SUCH CLAIM IS FIRST ASSERTED, PROVIDED, HOWEVER THAT THE MAXIMUM LIABILITY OF DUO SECURITY FOR ALL CLAIMS SHALL BE THE THEN CURRENT ANNUALIZED VALUE OF THE APPLICABLE ORDER FORM. THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS WILL APPLY NOTWITHSTANDING ANY FAILURE OF ESSENTIAL PURPOSE OF ANY LIMITED REMEDY.

U.S. GOVERNMENT MATTERS

Notwithstanding anything else, Customer may not provide to any person or export or re-export or allow the export or re-export of the Services or any software or anything related thereto or any direct product thereof, in violation of any restrictions, laws or regulations of the United States Department of Commerce, the United States Department of Treasury Office of Foreign Assets Control, or any other United States or foreign agency or authority.

MISCELLANEOUS

Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is found to be unenforceable or invalid, that provision will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement will otherwise remain in full force and effect and enforceable.

Assignment. This Agreement is not assignable, transferable or sublicensable by either party except with the other party's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and permitted assigns.

Entire Agreement; Amendment. Both parties agree that this Agreement and the GSA MAS Contract into which the Agreement is incorporated is the complete and exclusive statement of the mutual understanding of the parties and supersedes and cancels all previous written and oral agreements, communications and other understandings relating to the subject matter of this Agreement, and that all waivers, amendments and modifications must be in a writing signed by both parties and specifically reference the provision of this Agreement being waived, amended or modified, except as otherwise provided herein. No agency, partnership, joint venture, or employment is created as a result of this Agreement and Customer does not have any authority of any kind to bind Duo Security in any respect whatsoever.

Notices. All notices under this Agreement will be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given when received, if personally delivered; when receipt is electronically confirmed, if transmitted by facsimile or e-mail; and upon receipt, if sent by certified or registered mail (return receipt requested), postage prepaid. Duo Security may provide notice using the information provided in the most recent Order Form and Customer may provide notice using the contact information provided on duosecurity.com.

Force Majeure. Any delay or failure in the performance of any duties or obligations of either party (except the payment of money owed) will not be considered a breach of this Agreement if such delay or failure is due to a labor dispute, fire, earthquake, flood or any other event beyond the reasonable control of a party, provided that such party promptly notifies the other party thereof and uses reasonable efforts to resume performance as soon as possible.

Governing Law; Arbitration. This Agreement will be governed by the Federal law.

Publicity. Upon the Customer's prior written consent, Duo Security may mention Customer's name in press announcements, case studies, trade shows, or other marketing or advertising materials.

Appendix A
Service Level Agreement

Duo Security SLA During the term of your Duo Security license (the "Agreement", the Duo web admin interface and web services will be operational and available to Customer at least 99.9% of the time in any calendar month (the "Duo Security SLA"). If Duo Security does not meet the Duo Security SLA, and if Customer meets its obligations under this Duo Security SLA, Customer will be eligible to receive the Service Credits described below. This Duo Security SLA states Customer's sole and exclusive remedy for any failure by Duo Security to meet the Duo Security SLA.

Definitions The following definitions shall apply to the Duo Security SLA.

"Downtime" means when there is more than a five percent user error rate across all of a Customer's users.

Downtime is measured based on server side error rate.

"Service" means the Duo Security multifactor authentication service.

"Monthly Uptime Percentage" means total number of minutes in a calendar month minus the number of minutes of Downtime suffered in a calendar month, divided by the total number of minutes in a calendar month.

"Service Credit" means the number of days of Service to be added to the end of the Service term, at no charge to Customer calculated as follows:

Uptime	Days Credited
< 99.9% - ≤ 99.0%
< 99.0% - ≤ 95.0%	3

Customer Must Request Service Credit In order to receive any of the Service Credits described above, Customer must notify Duo Security within thirty days from the time Customer becomes eligible to receive a Service Credit. Failure to comply with this requirement will forfeit Customer's right to receive a Service Credit. Customer may check whether Duo Security's systems are operational by visiting <https://status.duo.com>.

Maximum Service Credit The aggregate maximum number of Service Credits to be issued by Duo Security to Customer for all Downtime that occurs in a single calendar month shall not exceed fifteen days of Service (or the value of 15 days of Service in the form of a monetary credit to a monthly-billing Customer's account). Service Credits may not be exchanged for, or converted to, monetary amounts.

Duo Security SLA Exclusions The Duo Security SLA does not apply to any services that expressly exclude this Duo Security SLA (as stated in the documentation for such services) or any performance issues: (i) caused by "Force Majeure" or (ii) that resulted from one or more of Customer's equipment or third party equipment not within the primary control of Duo Security.

Duo Security reserves the right to modify this Service Level Agreement at any time by updating the terms on <https://www.duo.com/legal/sla>.

Privacy Policy

PRIVACY POLICY

Last updated: March 24, 2016

Who We Are

Duo Security, Inc. is a company incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, USA and whose principal office is located at 123 North Ashley Street, Suite #200, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48104, USA.

In this Privacy Policy when we refer to "Duo Security" or "we", "us" or "our", we mean either Duo Security Inc. or the relevant Duo Security group company which provides you with our services and mobile and web-based applications, (including Duo Security UK Limited) as more completely described on our Website (collectively, the "Services"). Duo Security is committed to protecting the privacy of individuals who visit our websites, including, but not limited to <https://www.duo.com> (collectively, the "Website") and the customers and users of our services and mobile and web-based applications.

Terms not otherwise defined in this Privacy Policy have the meanings assigned to them in Duo Security's Service Terms and Conditions. When you access and use the Services, the Service Terms and Conditions and this Privacy Policy apply.

If you have any questions about how we collect, store and use personal information, or if you have any other privacy-related questions, please contact us by any of the following means:

By post: Duo Security, Inc., 123 North Ashley Street, Suite #200, Ann Arbor, MI 48104, USA

By facsimile: 1-866-760-4247

By email: security@duosecurity.com

Introduction

This Privacy Policy describes how we collect, use, share and transfer Personal Information (as defined below) created, inputted, submitted, posted, transmitted, stored or displayed by individuals who interact with and use the Duo Security Website and Services. This Privacy Policy does not apply to Personal Information (as defined below) we obtain in our capacity as an employer; employment related data is covered under separate policies and/or notices.

This Privacy Policy covers information we collect online, not offline.

Any Personal Information we collect through the Services will be used only in a manner consistent with this Privacy Policy. When you sign up for or access the Services, including blog updates or newsletters, or when you email us for information, you expressly agree to the use of your information for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy.

If you do not agree with the use of personal information as described in this Privacy Policy or any changes to it, you should not sign up for, use or access the Services or any features of the Services.

Changes to Our Privacy Policy

We may revise this Privacy Policy from time to time. The most current version of this Privacy Policy will govern your use of your Personal Information. If we decide to change our Privacy Policy, we will post the updated Privacy Policy on the Website and update the Privacy Policy modification date. Please check back regularly to review any changes to this Privacy Policy. By continuing to use the Service after those changes become effective, you agree to be bound by the revised Privacy Policy.

Personal Information

"Personal Information" is defined slightly differently across the world, but we define "Personal Information" as any information that could be used to identify you or another individual, such as (but not limited to) an individual's name, email address, or telephone number, and that is not otherwise publicly available. Personal Information may include other types of information as well, such as some of the information referred to under the subheadings "Device-Specific Information" and "Service Log Information."

We also collect non-personal information that does not, on its own, identify any individual person. When non-personal information is combined with other information so that it does identify an individual person, we treat that information as Personal Information.

What Information do we collect?

When you use the Services we may collect, store and process certain information about you, including:

Contact Information.

Duo Security may collect, store and process the following contact information in order to provide the Services:

For Organization Users: If your user profile is created by or at the request of an organization (an "Organization") of which you are an employee, contractor, member, agent or other participant (each such user referred to as an "Organization User") your "Organization's Administrator" may provide us with certain Personal Information, such as your name, email address, and telephone number. We also collect your Organization name and assign you an account name based on your Organization name. Prior to authorizing you to become a user of the Services, your Organization is responsible for notifying you and/or obtaining your consent to the collection of such information, in accordance with applicable laws. Even though your Organization has notified you and/or received your consent to provide us with your Personal Information, when you begin using the Services, you are also providing your consent to the terms in this Privacy Policy and our Service Terms and Conditions.

For Personal Edition Users: If you establish a "Personal Edition" account (as compared to an Organization account), and/or if you sign up for our newsletters and email updates we may collect your name, email address, and telephone number.

For Organization Administrators: for each Organization account we may collect the name, email address, and telephone number of any Organization Administrators, or similar points of contact, within the Organization in order to be able to provide you and the Organization with the Services and to manage your account.

We also collect your email address when you email us for information or sign up for our newsletters and email updates. You can unsubscribe from our newsletters and updates by clicking "Unsubscribe" at the bottom of the newsletter or email update or by emailing mops@duosecurity.com.

Public Forums: We collect other information, including Personal Information that you submit to our Website or as you participate in certain interactive features of our Services (such as the publicly accessible blogs or community forums). You should be aware that any information (including Personal Information) you provide in these areas may be read, collected, and used by others who access them. To request removal of your Personal Information from our blog or community forum, contact us at security@duosecurity.com. In some cases, we may not be able to remove your Personal Information, in which case we will let you know if we are unable to do so and why.

Testimonials/Reviews/Feedback: We may post customer testimonials on our Website, which may contain Personal Information. We do obtain the customer's consent via email prior to posting the testimonial to post their name along with their testimonial. If you want your testimonial removed, please contact us at security@duosecurity.com.

Surveys: We may provide you the opportunity to participate in contests or surveys. If you participate, we will request and collect certain Personal Information from you at the time of the survey. Participation in these surveys or contests is completely voluntary and you have a choice whether or not to disclose this information. The requested information typically includes contact information, such as email or phone number.

When you use the Service we may collect, store and process certain information collected by us from your web browser or from interactions with the Services, including:

Device-Specific Information. We also collect device-specific information (e.g. mobile and desktop) from you in order to provide the Services. Device-specific information includes:

attributes (e.g. hardware model, operating system, web browser version, as well as unique device identifiers and characteristics (such as, whether your device is "jailbroken," whether you have a screen lock in place and whether your device has full disk encryption enabled)); connection information (e.g. name of your mobile operator or ISP, browser type, language and time zone, and mobile phone number); and device locations (e.g. internet protocol addresses and Wi-Fi).

We may need to associate your device-specific information with your Personal Information on a periodic basis in order to confirm you as a user and to check the security on your device.

Service Log Information. When you use the Services, we may automatically collect and store certain information in server logs. This may include which users (by reference to certain Personal Information such as the user's: username; email address; name; and other information that may be included in open textual fields) are accessing the Services, how users are accessing the Services (including the device-specific information referenced above and type of integration (i.e. application) being protected), the dates and times you are accessing the Services, from where you are accessing the Services (by internet protocol address) and device event information such as crashes, system activity, and hardware settings. We may need to associate this information with other information we collect about you on a periodic basis in order to confirm you as a user and to check the security on your device. We may also do this to improve the Services that we offer you.

Social Media Widgets: Our website includes plugins of social media platforms, such as facebook.com of Facebook Inc., 1601 S. California Ave, Palo Alto, CA 94304, USA; Twitter.com of Twitter Inc., 795 Folsom St., Suite 600, San Francisco CA 94107, USA; and google+ of Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway Mountain View, California, 94043, USA. Social Media Features and Widgets are either hosted by a third party or hosted directly on our websites.

You can generally identify the plugins by the respective network's logo, for instance in combination with a pictogram of a clenched hand with a raised thumb or the addition of a "recommendation", "like" or "comment."

Details about purpose and extent of data collection as well as processing and usage of the data by the social media networks can be obtained by reading the privacy policies of Facebook [<http://www.facebook.com/policy.php>], Twitter [<http://twitter.com/privacy>] and Google [<https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>].

How do we use the Information We Collect?

Information we collect may be used for the following purposes:

to provide the Services;

for billing purposes;

to personalize the Services and improve your experience;

improving our products, technology and services; for analytical purposes, including use of "Performance Data". Performance Data includes aggregate, de-identified usage information and other aggregate measures of the Services' performance. We may share aggregated, de-identified Performance Data with third parties to help us better understand our customers' needs and improve the Services; for marketing and advertising purposes, including sending you promotional email messages about our products and services and registering you for our events. If you do not want us to use your data in this way, please opt out here: <https://go.duosecurity.com/UnsubscribePage.html> or send an email to mops@duosecurity.com. For more information about how to change your preferences and to unsubscribe from promotional materials, then please see the section headed "Choice and Consent". Duo Security does not market or advertise to Organization Users; to prevent, detect, identify, investigate, respond and protect against potential or actual claims, liabilities, prohibited behavior, and criminal activity; to comply with and enforce applicable legal requirements, agreements and policies;

to perform other activities consistent with this Privacy Policy; to improve the Services and where you have agreed, to provide you updates on how we are improving the Services based on any feedback you might have given; and with respect to Organization Users, to provide you and the Organization with the Services and to manage your account.

Data Retention

The time periods for which we retain your Personal Information depend on the purposes for which we use it. We will retain your information for as long as your account is active or as needed to provide you the Services, unless we are required by law to dispose of it earlier or to keep it longer. We will also retain and use your information as necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements. Please contact us as retained in the Notice section below if you have any questions about the information we collect and/or how we use the information we collect.

Sharing of Personal Information Collected

Duo Security does not sell, rent, or trade and, except as described in this Privacy Policy, does not share any Personal Information with third parties for their promotional purposes.

Duo Security may transmit or share Personal Information as follows:

We may share Personal Information, with our authorized third party vendors, consultants, service providers and hosting partners (currently Amazon Web Services) who perform services for Duo Security (including hardware, software, networking, storage, and other technology and services required to operate, maintain and provide support related to the Services) based on Duo Security's instructions. These third parties may only use or disclose such Personal Information obtained from Duo Security to perform the Services on Duo Security's behalf or comply with legal obligations.

If you have an Organization account, we may also share Personal Information and/or Device-Specific Information with your Organization and/or your Organization's third party vendors (with your employer's consent) in order to operate and maintain the Services. Your device may be subject to your Organization's policies and practices, which are separate from this Privacy Policy. We have no control over your Organization and your Organization's third party vendors' privacy practices, so please read their applicable privacy policies. Our Privacy Policy does not apply to, and Duo Security is not responsible for, use of your Personal Information by these other companies.

We may share your Personal Information with third parties to send emails on our behalf, and/or for cobranded and/or co-sponsored marketing and promotional events (such as conference events) offered in conjunction with another company or companies. If you register for or participate in such marketing and promotional events, both Duo Security and such other companies may receive information collected in conjunction with the co-branded and/or co-sponsored marketing and promotional events. Our Privacy Policy will apply to you with respect to our use of your Personal Information. We have no control over any other companies' privacy practices, so please read their applicable privacy policies before providing any Personal Information. Our Privacy Policy does not apply to, and Duo Security is not responsible for, use of your Personal Information by these other companies.

Duo Security may share information internally with other members of the Duo Security family of companies, including Duo Security UK Limited (a company registered in England and Wales) for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy.

We may also disclose Personal Information; (i) if we are required to do so by law or legal process; (ii) to respond to subpoenas, court orders, or legal process, or to establish or exercise our legal rights or defend against legal claims; (iii) as may be required for the purposes of national security; (iv) when we believe disclosure is necessary and appropriate to prevent physical, mental, financial or other harm, injury or loss; or (v) in connection with an investigation of suspect or actual illegal or inappropriate activity or exposure to liability. We may also share such information if we believe it is necessary in order to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding illegal activities, suspected fraud, situations involving potential threats to the physical safety of any person, violations of our Service Terms and Conditions and any other agreements, or as otherwise required by law or to comply with any legal obligation.

When we share Personal Information with a third party, they must contractually agree to comply with privacy and security standards at least as stringent as Duo Security's when it is handling similar data. When you provide data directly to the third party, the processing is based on their standards (which may or may not be the same as Duo Security's) and your own independent relationship with that provider.

By accessing, signing up for or using the Services, sending us email, or by signing up for email updates, you provide your express consent to our disclosure of your Personal Information to our third party service providers (such as credit card processors, managed hosting service providers, sub-processors of service data, and technology partners) in order to supply our Services. We do not permit our service providers to use your Personal Information for their own marketing purposes or for any other purpose than in connection with the services they provide to us.

Credit Card Information

Some of our customers use credit cards, debit cards or other means to pay for our Services. We do not collect credit card, debit card or personal financial account information through our Website. We use a third party vendor, currently Recurly, Inc., to process our subscription billing. When you provide payment information to pay for the Services, you provide it directly to Recurly, and not to Duo Security. You will automatically be routed to the Recurly website to provide the information Recurly requires to process your transaction. Recurly is a third party vendor and has its own privacy policy, which may be different from this Privacy Policy. This Privacy Policy does not cover information collected by Recurly and Duo Security is not covered by, or responsible for, Recurly's privacy practices or policy. To learn about Recurly's privacy practices, please read their privacy policy at <http://recurly.com/legal/privacy>.

Accessing and Updating Your Personal Information

You can modify your account information at any time by using the Service administrative interface available at <https://admin.duosecurity.com> or by emailing our customer support at support@duosecurity.com. We will respond to your request to access promptly and within no more than 30 days.

Cookies and other Tracking Technologies

When you visit our Website or use our Services, we use "cookies" and other tracking technologies like "web beacons" to allow us to remember your user preferences, to maximize the performance of our Website and Services, enhance and personalize your experience and provide marketing communications. They also help ensure that advertisements you see while you are on our Website are more relevant to your interests.

For further information about cookies and the other tracking technologies we use, along with information about how to disable or block cookies, please see our Cookie Policy at <https://www.duo.com/legal/cookies>.

Security of Information

Duo Security maintains and uses reasonable administrative, organizational, technical and physical safeguards to protect your information from loss, destruction, misuse, unauthorized access or disclosure as required by applicable law. These technologies help ensure that your data is safe, secure, and only available to you and to those you provided authorized access (e.g., your users). For example, when you enter confidential information (such as login credentials or information submitted from within the Service), we encrypt the transmission of that information using secure socket layer technology (SSL). SSL technology is designed to prevent you from inadvertently revealing personal information using an insecure connection. However, no electronic transmission over the Internet or information storage technology can be guaranteed to be 100% secure, so you should take care in deciding what information you send us in this way. If you have any questions about security on our Website, you can contact us at security@duosecurity.com.

Links to Other Sites

Our Website may contain links to other sites that are not owned or controlled by Duo Security. Please be aware that Duo Security is not responsible for the privacy practices of these other sites. We encourage you to review the privacy policies and statements of other sites to understand their information practices. Our Privacy Policy applies only to information collected by our Website and Services.

Choice and Consent

We offer certain choices about how we communicate with our users and what Personal Information we obtain from them.

You can opt out of receiving promotional emails or text messages from us by clicking the "unsubscribe" link in the email or by emailing mops@duosecurity.com;

Many Duo Security products contain settings that allow users or administrators to control how the products collect information. Please refer to the relevant product documentation or contact us through the appropriate technical support channel for assistance.

To remove your Personal Information from a Duo Security website testimonial, please contact us at security@duosecurity.com.

If you choose to no longer receive marketing information, Duo Security may still communicate with you regarding such things as your security updates, product functionality, responses to service requests, or other transactional, non-marketing/administrative related purposes.

Cross-Border Transfer of Your Personal Information

Please be aware that Duo Security may host and process your data and information (including Personal Information), in the United States and other countries through the Duo Security group of companies and third parties that we use to operate and manage the Website and Services, including Amazon Web Services ("AWS"). You may view the AWS privacy policy at <http://aws.amazon.com/privacy>. By signing up for or using the Services, and/or by communicating with us by email, you acknowledge and expressly consent to the transfer and processing of your Personal Information in this way. Any such transfer or processing of your Personal Information will be in accordance with all applicable laws.

Your controls and choices

You may request and obtain from us once a year, free of charge, certain information about the Personal Information (if any) we disclosed to third parties for direct marketing purposes in the preceding calendar year. If applicable, this information would include a list of the categories of Personal Information that was shared and the names and addresses of all third parties with which we shared information in the immediately preceding calendar year. If you would like to make such a request, please submit your request in writing as follows:

By post: Duo Security, Inc., 123 North Ashley Street, Suite #200, Ann Arbor, MI 48104, USA

By facsimile: 1-866-760-4247

By email: security@duosecurity.com

In addition, we currently do not honor Do Not Track signals.

Children's Online Privacy Protection Act Compliance

We are in compliance with the requirements of COPPA (Children's Online Privacy Protection Act), as we do not collect any information from anyone under 13 years of age. The Website and its content are directed to people who are at least 18 years of age or older.

Children

COOKIE POLICY

Last updated: March 24, 2016

The Website and/or Services use cookies to distinguish you from other users of our Website. This helps us provide you with a good experience when you browse the Website and also allows us to improve our Website.

This cookie policy provides you with information about the cookies we use and the purposes for using them. To review the privacy policies that apply to users of duo.com, please read our Privacy Policy at <https://www.duo.com/legal/privacy>. For further information about this policy, please contact privacy@duosecurity.com.

What is A Cookie?

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer or other device. Cookies send data back to the originating website on each subsequent visit, or share data with another website that recognizes that cookie. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies as soon as you visit our Website or use the Services.

Cookies are useful because they allow a website to recognize a user's device. They do lots of different jobs, like letting you navigate between pages efficiently, remembering your preferences, and generally improving the user experience. They can also help to ensure that the advertisements you see online are more relevant to you and your interests.

Cookies do not typically identify you as an individual, just the device you are using. For further information on cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set on your device and how to manage and delete them see the section below headed "Information About Cookies".

What Cookies Do We Use And Why?

When you visit our Website or use our Services, we use cookies, web beacons and other technologies for a variety of purposes, such as, to allow us to remember your user preferences; to maximize and analyze the performance of our Website and Services; and to analyze our performance. We also use cookies to provide, enhance and personalize certain aspects of the Services. Cookies are also used for targeting purposes as described below.

There are four different types of cookies we use:

Essential cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our Services. For example, when you download certain online technologies, a cookie is set that identifies the software, version, and when it expires. We may use this information to alert you that a newer version of such software is available and/or if your subscription is going to expire. These cookies are necessary for the Services to operate properly. Without these cookies, services that you have asked for cannot be provided. We want you to understand these essential cookies, and why we use them, but we don't need to get your consent to use them on our Services as we use these cookies only to provide you with services that you have requested.

Functionality cookies. These cookies allow our Services to remember choices you make, such as: remembering your username, preferences and settings; remembering if you've filled in a survey or taken part in a poll or contest or otherwise reacted to something on or through the Services, so you're not asked to do it again; remembering if you've used any of our Services before; restricting the number of time you are shown a particular advertisement; remembering your location; and enabling social media components like Facebook or Twitter. The aim of these cookies is to provide you with a more personal experience so that you don't have to reset your preferences each time you use our Services. We also use functionality cookies to enable you to comment on an article or provide enhanced services such as enabling you to view a video through the Services. As described below, you may disable any of these functional cookies; but if you do so, then various functions of our Services may be unavailable to you or may not work the way you want them to.

Analytical/Customization cookies. These cookies collect information about how visitors use and interact with our Services, for instance which pages they go to most often. These cookies also enable us to personalize content, greet you by name, and remember your preferences (e.g., your choice of language, country, or region). These cookies help us improve the way our websites work and provide a better, personalized user experience. Some of our analytical/customization cookies are managed for us by third parties. However, we don't allow the third party to use the cookies for any purpose other than those listed above.

Advertising/ targeting cookies. These cookies record your visit to our websites, the pages you have visited, and the links you have clicked. They gather information about your browsing habits and remember that you have visited a website. We (and thirdparty advertising platforms or networks) may use this information to make our websites, content, and advertisements displayed on them more relevant to your interests (this is sometimes called "behavioral" or "targeted" advertising). These types of cookies are also used to limit the number of times you see an advertisement as well as to help measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns.

To find out more about interest-based ads and your choices, visit these sites: Digital Advertising Alliance, the Network Advertising Initiative, and the Interactive Advertising Bureau (IAB) Europe and these links: <http://www.allaboutcookies.org> or <http://www.youronlinechoices.com>.

What Specific Cookies Do We Use In the Website and the Services?

Some of the cookies we commonly use are listed in our cookies chart below This list is not exhaustive, but it is intended to illustrate primary reasons for certain types of cookies set by Duo Security and third parties on our Website and Services. Third parties may also set certain cookies on your device when you use our Services. In some cases, the third party has been hired to provide certain services on Duo Security's behalf (e.g., website analytics).

Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics, a web analysis-tool of Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway Mountain View, California, 94043, USA, ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies" to track visitor interactions, which are textfiles being saved to your computer to help us analyze visits of our Website and how our Services are used. For example, by using cookies, Google can tell us which pages our users view, which are most popular, what time of day our websites are visited, whether visitors have been to our websites before, what website referred the visitor to our websites, and other similar information.

For more information about Google analytic cookies, please see Google's help pages and privacy policy:

Google Privacy Policy: <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>

Google Analytics Help: <https://developers.google.com/analytics/devguides/collection/analyticsjs/cookieusage>

If you do not want your usage of our Website and Services to be analyzed by Google, you can disable Google Analytics by using an add-on in your Internet browser. You can download and install the add-on at: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=fr>.

Google AdWords

We use Google AdWords Remarketing to advertise Duo Security. AdWords Remarketing will display relevant ads tailored to you based on what parts of the Duo Security website you have viewed by placing a cookie on your machine. This cookie does not identify you or give access to your computer. The cookie is used to identify you as a visitor to certain of our web pages and enables use to show you ads relating to that page. Google AdWords Remarketing allows us to tailor our marketing to better suit your needs and only display ads that are relevant to you.

If you do not wish to participate in our Google AdWords Remarketing, you can opt out by visiting Google's Ads Preferences Manager. You can also opt out of any third-party vendor's use of cookies by visiting <http://www.networkadvertising.org/choices/> or <http://www.youronlinechoices.com>. Another way to opt out is to use a Google browser plugin: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout/>

If you wish to opt-out of Google Advertising, you may visit <https://www.google.com/settings/ads> and under "Ads on Google" and/or under "Google Ads Across the Web," and click the "Opt out" link.

Targeting

We give users the option to share our stories on social networks such as Facebook and Twitter. To deliver this service we link to the third party websites AddThis and Shareaholic. If you use our share buttons, you will be directed to a website controlled by AddThis and Shareaholic. We have no control over the cookies that AddThis and Shareaholic set when you use its services. You can opt out of AddThis cookies at <http://www.addthis.com/privacy/opt-out> and Shareaholic cookies at <https://shareaholic.com/privacy/choices>.

Additional Third Party Cookies

We occasionally link to external websites or other third party content. If you click on external links, you will be directed to a website controlled by a third-party. We have no control over the cookies that the third-party sets when you use its service.

How to Delete And Block Our Cookies

You can disable and/or delete cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies), you may not be able to access all or parts of our Website. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies as soon as you visit our Website.

These settings are usually found in the "options" or "preferences" menu of your internet browser. In order to understand these settings, the following links may be helpful. Otherwise you should use the "Help" option in your Internet browser for more details.

The following links provide information on how to modify the cookie settings on some popular browsers.

Can I Withdraw My Consent?

If you wish to withdraw your consent at any time, you will need to delete your cookies using your Internet browser settings. For further information about deleting or blocking cookies, please visit: <http://www.aboutcookies.org> and <http://www.youronlinechoices.com>. While many companies involved in using advertising cookies and serving online behavioral advertising appear at the above links, not all do. Therefore, even if you choose to turn off cookies used by all of the companies listed, you may still receive some advertising cookies and some tailored advertisements from other companies.

You can also manage this type of cookie in the privacy settings on the web browser you are using. Please see above for more information.

Your Consent

By continuing to use the Website or the Services, you are agreeing to our placing cookies on your computer or other device in order to analyze the way you use the Website and in order for us to provide the Services. Please read this cookie policy carefully for more details about the information we collect when you use this Website and the Services.

If you do not wish to accept cookies in connection with your use of this Website or Services, you must stop using our Website and Services.

Information About Cookies

All About Cookies: Useful information about cookies can be found at: <http://www.allaboutcookies.org>

Internet Advertising Bureau: A guide to behavioral advertising and online privacy has been produced by the Internet advertising industry, which can be found at: <http://www.youronlinechoices.com>

Our use of Web Beacons

We may also use electronic images known as web beacons on our Services - sometimes called "clear GIFs," "single-pixel GIFs," or "web bugs." Web beacons are used to deliver cookies on our Services, count clicks/users/visitors, and deliver co-branded content or services. We may include web beacons in our promotional email messages or newsletters to determine whether messages have been opened and acted upon.

The Services may also contain web beacons from third parties to help us compile aggregated statistics regarding the effectiveness of our promotional campaigns or other website operations. These web beacons may allow the third parties to set or read cookies on your device.

Other Similar Technologies

In addition to the aforementioned cookies and web beacons, our Website also uses other technologies to store and retrieve data from your device. This may be done to maintain your preferences or to improve speed and performance by storing certain files locally.

(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Eccentex ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

ECCENTEX

ECCENTEX LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

---

This Agreement describes the terms and conditions that will apply to (i) subscription of Eccentex's proprietary platform, applications templates, or software products that Ordering Activity purchases from time to time as set forth in an applicable order (the "Subscription Schedule"), (ii) maintenance and support services relating to such products as described in Schedule B (referred to herein collectively as the "Services").

Privacy & Security. For informational purposes only, Eccentex's privacy and security policies may be viewed at <http://www.eccentex.com>. Eccentex reserves the right to modify its privacy and security policies in its reasonable discretion from time to time. Eccentex occasionally may need to notify all users of Eccentex's products and services of important announcements regarding the operation of the products and services.

License Grant & Restrictions

a. Eccentex hereby grants Ordering Activity a non-exclusive, non-transferable (except as permitted under Section 23), worldwide right for the number of Users paid for by Ordering Activity to use Eccentex's proprietary platform, applications templates, or software identified on the applicable Subscription Schedule (the "Licensed IP"), solely for Ordering Activity's own internal business purposes set forth on the applicable Subscription Schedule, and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including those provided in the applicable Subscription Schedule. As used herein, "User" means a designated employee or contractor of Ordering Activity who is authorized by Ordering Activity to use the Licensed IP. Access to the Licensed IP will be via a website operated and hosted by Eccentex and provided under a "Platform as a Service" or "Software as a Service" model ("Software Service").

b. The license granted herein does not include the right to sublicense without the prior written consent of Eccentex, except Ordering Activity may sublicense to an affiliate of Ordering Activity and to one or more independent contractors retained by Ordering Activity, but solely for the benefit of Ordering Activity.

c. The license granted above is based on a per User, per case, and per environment subscription basis. Therefore, if Ordering Activity desires for additional employees or contractors beyond the number of authorized Users, cases, and/or environments stated in the Subscription Schedule, Ordering Activity must purchase additional subscriptions for such individuals, cases and environments.

d. Ordering Activity acknowledges that the Licensed IP contains valuable trade secrets of Eccentex and its suppliers. Accordingly, except as expressly permitted under this Agreement, Ordering Activity shall not: (i) license, sublicense, sell, resell, transfer, assign, distribute, timeshare, outsource, lease, rent, or otherwise commercially exploit or make available to any third party the Licensed IP or any data, information, graphics, materials, or other content provided to Ordering Activity through the use of the Licensed IP (the "Content") in any way; (ii) modify or make derivative works based upon the Licensed IP or the Content or merge the Licensed IP or the Content with other software or data; (iii) create Internet "links" to the Licensed IP or "frame" or "mirror" any Content on any other server or wireless or Internet-based device; or (iv) reverse engineer, decompile, or access the Licensed IP in order to (a) build a competitive product or service, (b) build a product using similar ideas, features, functions or graphics of the Licensed IP, or (c) copy any ideas, features, functions or graphics of the Licensed IP.

e. User licenses cannot be shared or used by more than one individual User but may be reassigned from time to time to new Users who are replacing former Users who have terminated employment or otherwise changed job status or function and no longer use the Licensed IP. Ordering Activity will ensure that each username and password issued to a User will be used only by that individual. Ordering Activity is responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of all Users' usernames and passwords and is solely responsible for all activities that occur under these usernames.

f. Ordering Activity may use the Licensed IP only for Ordering Activity's internal business purposes and shall not: (i) send spam or otherwise duplicative or unsolicited messages in violation of applicable laws; (ii) use, send, or store infringing, obscene, threatening, libelous, or otherwise unlawful or tortuous material, including material harmful to children or violate third party privacy rights; (iii) send or store material containing software viruses, worms, Trojan horses or other harmful computer code, files, scripts, agents or programs; (iv) interfere with or disrupt the integrity or performance of the Licensed IP or the data contained therein; (v) attempt to gain unauthorized access to the Licensed IP or its related systems or networks; or (vi) otherwise use the Licensed IP to carry out any infringing or unlawful activities.

Maintenance and Support. Eccentex will provide the maintenance and support services for the Licensed IP to Ordering Activity as set forth in Schedule B.

Ordering Activity Responsibilities

a. Ordering Activity is responsible for all activities occurring under Ordering Activity's User accounts and shall abide by all applicable local, state, national and foreign laws, treaties and regulations in connection with Ordering Activity's use of the Licensed IP, including those related to data privacy, international communications and the transmission of technical or personal data. Ordering Activity shall: (i) notify Eccentex immediately of any unauthorized use of any password or account or any other known or suspected breach of security; (ii) report to Eccentex immediately and use reasonable efforts to stop immediately any copying or distribution of Content that is known or suspected by Ordering Activity or Ordering Activity's Users; and (iii) not impersonate another Eccentex user or provide false identity information to gain access to or use the Licensed IP.

b. To the extent Ordering Activity is licensed to use Eccentex's proprietary platform and/or applications templates to develop or configure a customized application ("Ordering Activity Application"), Ordering Activity acknowledges that it shall be responsible for the accuracy, quality, integrity and legality of the Ordering Activity Application, content and data and for the quality and configuration of the Ordering Activity Application and the performance of the Ordering Activity Application.

Account Information and Data

a. Eccentex does not own any data, information or material that Ordering Activity submits to Eccentex in the course of using the Software Service ("Ordering Activity Data"). Eccentex will not modify the Ordering Activity Data or disclose the Ordering Activity Data; provided however, Eccentex may retain, use, and disclose to any third parties Ordering Activity Data if Ordering Activity Data is aggregated with similar data collected from other Ordering Activity's and does not disclose Ordering Activity as the source of the Ordering Activity Data.

b. Ordering Activity, not Eccentex, shall have sole responsibility for the accuracy, quality, integrity, legality, reliability, appropriateness, and intellectual property ownership or right to use of all Ordering Activity Data, and Eccentex shall not be responsible or liable for the deletion, correction, destruction, damage, loss or failure to store any Ordering Activity Data.

c. During the term of this Agreement and upon termination, Eccentex will make available to Ordering Activity a file of the Ordering Activity Data within 30 days of Ordering Activity's written request. Ordering Activity agrees and acknowledges that Eccentex has no obligation to retain the Ordering Activity Data, and may delete such Ordering Activity Data, if this Agreement is terminated, unless Ordering Activity requests to receive a copy of the Ordering Activity Data at the time of termination and pays for all outstanding fees owed to Eccentex.

d. Upon request and issuance of an order, Eccentex will work with Ordering Activity to design custom reports designed to give access to all Ordering Activity Data. The design and estimated cost of the custom reports will be covered in a time and materials professional services statement of work.

Intellectual Property Ownership. Eccentex alone (and its licensors, where applicable) shall own all right, title and interest, including all related patent rights, copyright rights, trademark rights, trade secret rights, moral rights, and any other intellectual property or proprietary rights of any kind or nature (collectively, "Intellectual Property Rights"), in and to all Licensed IP and any other software, applications templates, websites, systems, and related technology used to provide the Software Services (the "Eccentex Technology"), the Content, and any suggestions, ideas, enhancement requests, feedback, recommendations or other information provided by Ordering Activity or any other party to Eccentex relating to the Licensed IP or the Software Services (collectively, "Suggestions"), and Ordering Activity hereby assigns all right, title, and interest in and to all Suggestions, and all Intellectual Property Rights therein, to Eccentex. This Agreement is not a sale and does not convey to Ordering Activity any rights of ownership in or related to the Eccentex Technology or the Intellectual Property Rights therein owned by Eccentex. There are no implied licenses granted under this Agreement. The Eccentex name, the Eccentex logo, and the product names associated with the Licensed IP and Software Services are trademarks of Eccentex or third parties, and no right or license is granted to use them. For the avoidance of doubt, and subject to the ownership rights of Eccentex in its Licensed IP, including proprietary platform applications templates, software, and any other Eccentex Technology, any Ordering Activity Application shall be owned by Ordering Activity.

Reserved.

Reserved.

Excess Data Storage Fees. The maximum disk storage space provided to Ordering Activity at no additional charge is 1 (One) GB per User and disk storage space between Users may be shared to the extent that total storage space required for Ordering Activity does not exceed maximum space for all Users combined. Eccentex will use reasonable efforts to notify Ordering Activity when the average storage used per license reaches approximately 90% of the maximum.

Reserved.

Reserved.

Reserved.

Reserved.

Representations & Warranties. Each party represents and warrants that it has the legal power and authority to enter into this Agreement. Eccentex represents and warrants that: (a) it has the right to grant to Customer the rights to the Licensed IP granted herein; (b) it will provide the Services in a manner consistent with general industry standards reasonably applicable to the provision thereof; and (c) the Software Services will perform substantially in accordance with the online Eccentex help documentation under normal use and circumstances. As Customer's exclusive remedy, and Eccentex's sole and exclusive liability for any breach of the foregoing representations and warranties by Eccentex, Eccentex will promptly repair or replace the non-conforming Licensed IP or Services at no additional charge.

Reserved.

Disclaimer of Warranties. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 14, ECCENTEX AND ITS LICENSORS MAKE NO REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY, OR GUARANTY AS TO THE RELIABILITY, TIMELINESS, QUALITY, SUITABILITY, TRUTH, AVAILABILITY, ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE LICENSED IP, THE SERVICES INCLUDING THE SOFTWARE SERVICES, OR ANY CONTENT PROVIDED HEREUNDER. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 14, ECCENTEX AND ITS LICENSORS DO NOT REPRESENT OR WARRANT THAT (A) THE USE OF THE LICENSED IP OR THE SERVICES INCLUDING THE SOFTWARE SERVICES WILL BE SECURE, TIMELY, UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE OR OPERATE IN COMBINATION WITH ANY OTHER HARDWARE, SOFTWARE, SYSTEM OR DATA, (B) THE LICENSED IP OR THE SERVICES, INCLUDING THE SOFTWARE SERVICES WILL MEET ORDERING ACTIVITY'S REQUIREMENTS OR EXPECTATIONS, (C) ANY STORED DATA WILL BE ACCURATE OR RELIABLE, (D) ALL ERRORS OR DEFECTS WILL BE CORRECTED, OR (F) THE LICENSED IP, THE SOFTWARE SERVICES OR THE SERVER(S) THAT MAKE THE SOFTWARE SERVICES AVAILABLE ARE FREE OF VIRUSES OR OTHER HARMFUL COMPONENTS. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 14, THE LICENSED IP, THE SERVICES (INCLUDING THE SOFTWARE SERVICES) AND ALL CONTENT ARE PROVIDED TO ORDERING ACTIVITY STRICTLY ON AN "AS IS" BASIS. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 14, ALL CONDITIONS, REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF TITLE, MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, OR NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS, AND IMPLIED INDEMNIFICATION ARE HEREBY DISCLAIMED TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW BY ECCENTEX AND ITS LICENSORS.

Internet Delays. THE SOFTWARE SERVICES MAY BE SUBJECT TO LIMITATIONS, DELAYS, AND OTHER PROBLEMS INHERENT IN THE USE OF THE INTERNET AND ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS. ECCENTEX IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY DELAYS, DELIVERY FAILURES, OR OTHER DAMAGE RESULTING FROM SUCH PROBLEMS.

Reserved.

Reserved.

Reserved.

Reserved.

Government Use. The Licensed IP is a "commercial item," as that term is defined at 48 C.F.R. 2.101 (Oct 1995), consisting of "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation," as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. 12.212 (Sep 1995) and is provided to the U.S. Government only as a commercial end item. Any technical data provided with such Licensed IP is commercial technical data as defined in 48 C.F.R. 12.211 (Sep 1995). Consistent with 48 C.F.R. 12.211 through 12.212, 48 C.F.R. 227.7202-1 through 227.7202-4 (Jun 1995), and 48 C.F.R. 252.227-7015 (Nov 1995), all U.S. Government End Users acquire the Licensed IP with only those rights set forth herein.

Reserved.

Schedule A
Eccentex Subscription Schedule
Contract # _____

Ordering Activity desires to receive a subscription to certain proprietary platform known as AppBase or application developed by or for Eccentex using such platform. All capitalized terms used herein that are not defined herein have the meanings given to them in the Agreement.

Software Service – access to the Licensed IP hosted by or for Eccentex will be made available to Ordering Activity via a restricted website.

Usage Rights: Ordering Activity may use the Licensed IP only on the following terms:

a. License to Platform and/or Applications Templates:

PaaS Service. If Ordering Activity desires to access the Platform and/or Applications Templates through the Software Services, subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, Eccentex hereby grants Ordering Activity during the Term (defined below), a non-transferable (except as permitted under the Agreement), limited, non-exclusive, license for the number of Users stated above to (i) access and use the Platform and/or Applications Templates solely for purposes of configuring and customizing a Ordering Activity Application (described below) based on the Platform and/or Applications Templates according to the user guide provided by Eccentex, and (ii) access and use the Ordering Activity Application for internal business purposes only. Ordering Activity authorizes Eccentex (directly or through a contractor) to host, copy, transmit, display and otherwise use the Ordering Activity Application solely as necessary for Eccentex to provide the Software Services in accordance with the Agreement.

Ordering Activity Application:

License to Application: If Ordering Activity desires to access an Application through the Software Services, subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, Eccentex hereby grants Ordering Activity during the Term a non-transferable (except as permitted under the Agreement), limited, non-exclusive, license for the number of Users stated above to access the Application and use the Application for internal business purposes only.

Service Level Agreement. Eccentex will host the Licensed IP and use commercially reasonable efforts to provide the Software Services in accordance with the Service Level Agreement provided on Attachment 1.

Schedule 1
Service Level Agreement

1. Definitions. As used in this Service Level Agreement, the following capitalized terms shall have the meanings ascribed thereto:

“Eligible Credit Period” is a single calendar month, and refers to the monthly billing cycle in which the most recent Unavailable event for a particular Subscription included in the SLA claim occurred.

“Monthly Uptime Percentage” is calculated by dividing each hour into five minute periods, and then determining during which, if any, of those five minute periods, the Subscription was Unavailable, subtracting that number from the total number of such minute periods in the Subscription Month during which the Subscription was scheduled to be available (the “Scheduled Availability Number”) and dividing that number by the Scheduled Availability Number. If Ordering Activity has been using the Subscription for less than a full calendar month, the Subscription Month is still the preceding calendar month but any days in such month that are prior to the commencement of use of the Subscription will be deemed to have had 100% availability. Monthly Uptime Percentage measurements exclude downtime resulting from a Subscription Suspension.

“Subscription” means the provision of the Instance to Ordering Activity on the terms described in the applicable order.

“Subscription Month” means each applicable calendar month in which the Subscription is contracted to be provided.

“Subscription Suspension” means the unavailability of a Subscription: (a) during weekends or on weekdays between 11:00 p.m. and 5:00 a.m. EST with at least 3 days' notice (provided via email or on Eccentex' web site) for scheduled downtime to permit Eccentex to conduct maintenance or make modifications to the Subscription; (c) at any time in the event of a denial of service attack or other event that Eccentex reasonably determines may create a risk to the applicable Subscription; or (d) at any time in the event that Eccentex reasonably determines that suspension is necessary for legal or regulatory reasons.

“Unavailable” or “Unavailability” means that all of the running Instances are unresponsive during a five minute period and Ordering Activity is unable to launch replacement Instances.

2. Software Service Levels. Eccentex will use commercially reasonable efforts to make each Subscription available within the SLA. If the Monthly Uptime Percentage is less than 90% in more than three (3) months during any twelve (12) months period, Ordering Activity may terminate this Agreement for material breach.

3. Suspension of Subscription

Ordering Activity acknowledges that Ordering Activity's access to and use of a Subscription may be suspended for the duration of any unanticipated or unscheduled downtime for any reason, including as a result of power outages, system failures or other interruptions outside of Eccentex's reasonable control.

Eccentex will have no liability for any damage, liabilities, or other losses that Ordering Activity may incur as a result of any Subscription Suspension. Eccentex will use reasonable efforts to provide Ordering Activity email notice of any Subscription Suspension and updates regarding resumption of the Subscription following any such suspension.

4. Security

Eccentex agrees that it will use commercially reasonable efforts adhere to the security protocols described on Attachment 2.

Other than the Eccentex security protocols described on Attachment 2, Ordering Activity acknowledges that it is responsible for security, protection and backup of its content, data and Ordering Activity Applications. Eccentex strongly encourages Ordering Activity, where available and appropriate, to (a) use encryption technology to protect Ordering Activity's content and data from unauthorized access, and (b) routinely archive Ordering Activity's content and data. Ordering Activity is fully responsible for all Ordering Activity Applications running on, and traffic originating from, each Instance. Ordering Activity should protect its authentication keys and security credentials. Actions taken using Ordering Activity's credentials will be deemed to be actions taken by Ordering Activity and will be the responsibility of Ordering Activity.

Security Protocols

Access Control: Implement access control measures restricting access to applications, data, and software to only those entities that have a documented, current business need. These measures shall meet the requirements of the security policies required by the Ordering Activity (HIPAA, SOX, and/or others as required). Access to the controlled systems shall be locked down by subnet, port, protocol, server, role, and user to allow only the access required for the business function.

Audit Controls: Implement audit control mechanisms to record, monitor, and examine system activity, including data access activities. Maintain full logs of monitored activities for at least three years trailing.

Authorization Control: Implement a mechanism for controlling the authorization of individuals, organizations, and roles to access applications, data, and software. Integrate with Ordering Activity's existing identity management solution where one exists to enable single sign-on and centralized identity management. Assure supervision of personnel performing technical systems maintenance activities by authorized, knowledgeable persons. Ensure that system users, including technical maintenance personnel are trained in system security.

Data Authentication: Create audit trail providing corroboration that data has not been altered or destroyed in an unauthorized manner.

Entity Authentication: Implement entity authentication technologies, including automatic logout and unique user identification through a password or equivalent system. Passwords or other user tokens shall be required to follow robust, documented policy requirements including:

Periodic reset/renewal every six months or less (Password ageing)

Complexity and length requirements in the case of passwords

No dictionary words

No dates

Mixed character types (at least three of lowercase, uppercase, numerals, and punctuation)

Lockouts after five unsuccessful authentication attempts

Encryption at Rest: Sensitive data shall be encrypted whenever stored in the database or in persisted memory using the highest possible encryption in compliance by the specific country.

Encryption in Flight: Communications over a network containing sensitive data shall be encrypted through SSL

Business Continuity: Implement and document business continuity and disaster recovery procedures, including but not limited to incremental data backups taken daily and stored for three weeks trailing, and full data backups taken weekly and stored for three years trailing.

Audits and Policy Compliance: Documentation and implementation of security policy shall be prepared and supplied to the Ordering Activity on demand for ALL of the following policy components:

A data backup plan

A disaster recovery plan

An emergency mode operation plan

Testing and revision procedures

Access authorization policies and procedures

Security testing

Virus checking

Security incident response procedures

Personnel clearance procedures

Assigned Security Responsibility: Assign and document the assignment of security responsibility to a specific individual or role within the Software Service provider organization. This responsibility would include the management and supervision of the use of security measures and the conduct of personnel.

Physical Security: Implement and document physical access controls (limited access) governing the Software Service provider's location(s) that are used to access Ordering Activity's applications, data, and software.

Schedule B

Maintenance and Support Terms

1. General. Eccentex includes support and maintenance services with the Software Services. Support and maintenance services are as described below.

2. Maintenance and Support Services. Maintenance and Support Services include:

(i) Maintenance Releases and Upgrades: During the term, Eccentex agrees to deliver to Ordering Activity without charge any upgrades containing error corrections or enhancements to the Licensed IP ("Upgrades").

(ii) Standard Telephone Support: Subject to Section 3 below, Eccentex will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Ordering Activity live telephone and email support during normal business hours of Eccentex (Monday – Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Pacific Standard Time, excluding Eccentex holidays), or at such other hours as the parties may mutually agree to, for (a) configuration issues, (b) questions regarding the usability and specific functions of the Licensed IP, (c) problem diagnosis, and (d) provision of work-arounds where feasible.

(iii) Critical Telephone Support: Subject to Section 3 below, Eccentex will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Ordering Activity live telephone support 24 hours per day, 7 days a week for problems where there is a complete loss of Licensed IP or a mission-critical system is down or sufficiently impaired and usability is severely affected.

(iv) Support Liaisons: Eccentex will coordinate with up to four Ordering Activity employees designated as support liaisons to manage support calls to Eccentex.

3. Technical Support. Eccentex offers the Ordering Activity a single point of contact for all product support questions. Ordering Activity will call the technical support number and the call coordinator will work to address Ordering Activity issues, with response and escalation based on the severity of the problem.

Eccentex shall use commercially reasonable efforts to respond to problems in accordance with the "Priority Codes" set forth below. The Priority Codes below depict the priority level to be assigned by Eccentex to each issue or problem phoned in by Ordering Activity.

"A Priority" - Licensed IP is completely inoperable. Resources assigned within two (2) hours after notice.

"B Priority" - Licensed IP error is detected for a system module, which seriously impairs system operations, but does not render it inoperable.

Resources assigned within four (4) hours after notice during standard support hours.

"C Priority" –Ordering Activity has a problem with Licensed IP but there is a known workaround which does not seriously impair the operation of Licensed IP. Resources assigned within eight (8) hours after notice during standard support hours.

"D Priority" - Minor problems which Eccentex plans, or will plan to incorporate into a future release of the Licensed IP, to be resolved in connection with the general commercial availability of such future release.

4. Data Backup. Eccentex provides ongoing data backup of configuration data as well as overall user generated data. Eccentex will keep a rolling backup of a full data snapshot per day for a timeframe minimum of 2 days.

5. Conditions. Maintenance and support apply to the standard Licensed IP made generally available by Eccentex to Ordering Activities, and not to modifications delivered as part of any professional services. Eccentex reserves the right to address defects in the next release of the Licensed. Eccentex will not be responsible to provide service or support when the problem is the result of faulty hardware or software that (i) Eccentex did not provide or (ii) Eccentex has not contracted with Ordering Activity to support under this Agreement. Maintenance services are not on-site services.

ELASTICSEARCH FEDERAL, INC.
800 WEST EL CAMINO REAL, SUITE 350
MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA 94040

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached Elasticsearch Federal, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

ELASTICSEARCH FEDERAL, INC.

ELASTICSEARCH FEDERAL, INC. LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

SHIELD SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT

This SHIELD SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into by and between Elasticsearch Federal, Inc. ("Elasticsearch") and the Federal Ordering Activity ("You") that has downloaded Elasticsearch's Shield software to which a Federal Ordering Activity has issued an applicable ordering document to acquire the Shield Software subject to this Agreement. This Agreement is effective as of the earlier of the date You downloaded the Shield Software or the date an applicable ordering document ("Order Form") is entered into by Elasticsearch and You (the "Effective Date").

1. SOFTWARE LICENSE AND RESTRICTIONS

1.1 LICENSE GRANTS.

30 Day Free Trial License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Elasticsearch agrees to grant, and does hereby grant to You for a period of thirty (30) days from the Effective Date (the "Trial Term"), solely for Your internal business operations, a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, fully paid up, right and license (without the right to grant or authorize sublicenses) to: (i) install and use the object code version of the Shield Software; (ii) use, and distribute internally a reasonable number of copies of the documentation, if any, provided with the Shield Software ("Documentation"), provided that You must include on such copies all Elasticsearch trademarks, trade names, logos and notices present on the Documentation as originally provided to You by Elasticsearch; (iii) permit third party contractors performing services on Your behalf to use the Shield Software and Documentation as set forth in (i) and (ii) above, provided that such use must be solely for Your benefit, and You shall be responsible for all acts and omissions of such contractors in connection with their use of the Shield Software. For the avoidance of doubt, You understand and agree that upon the expiration of the Trial Term, Your license to use the Shield Software will terminate, unless you purchase Elasticsearch support services that entitle you to use the Shield Software.

Fee-Bearing Production License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and complete payment of any and all applicable fees, Elasticsearch agrees to grant, and does hereby grant to You during the term and for the restricted scope of this Agreement, solely for Your internal business operations, a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable right and license (without the right to grant or authorize sublicenses) to: (i) install and use the object code version of the Shield Software in connection with the number of nodes for which You have purchased support services from Elasticsearch; (ii) use, and distribute internally a reasonable number of copies of the Documentation, if any, provided with the Shield Software, provided that You must include on such copies all Elasticsearch trademarks, trade names, logos and notices present on the Documentation as originally provided to You by Elasticsearch; (iii) permit third party contractors performing services on Your behalf to use the Shield Software and Documentation as set forth in (i) and (ii) above, provided that such use must be solely for Your benefit, and You shall be responsible for all acts and omissions of such contractors in connection with their use of the Shield Software.

Reservation of Rights; Restrictions. The Shield Software is a Commercial Item as that term is defined in the Federal Acquisition Regulation ("FAR"), Subpart 2.101 (48 C.F.R. 2.101), and specifically is commercial computer software and commercial computer software documentation. As between Elasticsearch and You, Elasticsearch owns all right title and interest in and to the Shield Software and any derivative works thereof, and except as expressly set forth in Section 1.1 above, no other license to the Shield Software is granted to You by implication, estoppel or otherwise. You agree not to: (i) prepare derivative works from, modify, copy or use the Shield Software in any manner except as expressly permitted in this Agreement or applicable law; (ii) transfer, sell, rent, lease, distribute, sublicense, loan or otherwise transfer the Shield Software in whole or in part to any third party; (iii) use the Shield Software for providing time-sharing services, any software-as-a-service offering ("SaaS"), service bureau services or as part of an application services provider or other service offering; (iv) alter or remove any proprietary notices in the Shield Software; or (v) make available to any third party any analysis of the results of operation of the Shield Software, including benchmarking results, without the prior written consent of Elasticsearch.

Open Source. The Shield Software may contain or be provided with open source libraries, components, utilities and other open source software (collectively, "Open Source"), which Open Source may have applicable license terms as identified on a website designated by Elasticsearch or otherwise provided with the applicable Software or Documentation. A hard copy of the Open Source licenses is provided to U.S.

GOVERNMENT RIGHTS.

The Shield Software product is "Commercial Computer Software," as that term is defined in 48 C.F.R. 2.101, and as the term is used in 48 C.F.R. Part 12, and is a Commercial Item comprised of "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation". If acquired by or on behalf of a civilian agency, the U.S. Government acquires this commercial computer software and/or commercial computer software documentation subject to the terms of this Agreement, as specified in 48 C.F.R. 12.212 (Computer Software) and 12.211 (Technical Data) of the Federal Acquisition Regulation ("FAR") and its successors. If acquired by or on behalf of any agency within the Department of Defense ("DOD"), the U.S. Government acquires this commercial computer software and/or commercial computer software documentation subject to the terms of this Agreement as specified in 48 C.F.R. 227.7202-3 and 48 C.F.R. 227.7202-4 of the DOD FAR Supplement ("DFARS") and its successors, and consistent with 48 C.F.R. 227.7202. This U.S. Government Rights clause, consistent with 48 C.F.R. 12.212 and 48 C.F.R. 227.7202 is in lieu of, and supersedes, any other FAR, DFARS, or other clause or provision that addresses Government rights in the Shield Software, associated commercial computer software documentation and commercial technical data, in any contract or Subcontract under which this commercial computer software and commercial computer software documentation is acquired or licensed.

EXPORT CONTROL.

You acknowledge that the goods, software and technology acquired from Elasticsearch are subject to U.S. export control laws and regulations, including but not limited to the International Traffic In Arms Regulations ("ITAR") (22 C.F.R. Parts 120-130 (2010)); the Export Administration Regulations ("EAR") (15 C.F.R. Parts 730-774 (2010)); the U.S. antiboycott regulations in the EAR and U.S. Department of the Treasury regulations; the economic sanctions regulations and guidelines of the U.S. Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control, and the USA Patriot Act (Title III of Pub. L. 107-56, signed into law October 26, 2001), as amended. You are now and will remain in the future compliant with all such export control laws and regulations, and will not export, re-export, otherwise transfer any Elasticsearch goods, software or technology or disclose any Elasticsearch software or technology to any person contrary to such laws or regulations. You acknowledge that remote access to the Shield Software may in certain circumstances be considered a re-export of Shield Software, and accordingly, may not be granted in contravention of U.S. export control laws and regulations.

MARVEL SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT

This MARVEL SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into by and between Elasticsearch Federal, Inc. ("Elasticsearch") and the Federal Ordering Activity ("You") that has downloaded Elasticsearch's Marvel software to which this Agreement is attached ("Marvel Software"), or in the case of a Federal Ordering Activity, has issued a Purchase Order or similar contractual document to acquire the Marvel Software subject to this Agreement. This Agreement is effective as of the date an applicable ordering document ("Order Form") is entered into by Elasticsearch and You, or, if no Order Form applies, the date you download the Marvel Software (the "Effective Date").

SOFTWARE LICENSE AND RESTRICTIONS

1.1 License Grants. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and complete payment of any and all applicable fees (provided that no fee shall be required for use of the Marvel Software for other than production purposes), Elasticsearch agrees to grant, and does hereby grant to You during the term and for the restricted scope of this Agreement, solely for Your internal business operations, a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable right and license (without the right to grant or authorize sublicenses) to: (i) install and use the object code version of the Marvel Software in connection with the number of nodes for which You have purchased a license or support services, as applicable, from Elasticsearch; (ii) use, and distribute internally a reasonable number of copies of the documentation, if any, provided with the Marvel Software ("Documentation"), provided that You must include on such copies all Elasticsearch trademarks, trade names, logos and notices present on the Documentation as originally provided to You by Elasticsearch; (iii) permit third party contractors performing services on Your behalf to use the Marvel Software and Documentation as set forth in (i) and (ii) above, provided that such use must be solely for Your benefit, and You shall be responsible for all acts and omissions of such contractors in connection with their use of the Marvel Software.

1.2 Reservation of Rights; Restrictions. Marvel Software is a Commercial Item as that term is defined in the Federal Acquisition Regulation ("FAR"), Subpart 2.101 (48 C.F.R. 2.101), and specifically is commercial computer software and commercial computer software documentation. As between Elasticsearch and You, Elasticsearch owns all right title and interest in and to the Marvel Software and any derivative works thereof, and except as expressly set forth in Section 1.1 above, no other license to the Marvel Software is granted to You by implication, estoppel or otherwise. You agree not to: (i) prepare derivative works from, modify, copy or use the Marvel Software in any manner except as expressly permitted in this Agreement or applicable law; (ii) transfer, sell, rent, lease, distribute, sublicense, loan or otherwise transfer the Marvel Software in whole or in part to any third party; (iii) use the Marvel Software for providing time-sharing services, any software-as-a-service offering ("SaaS"), service bureau services or as part of an application services provider or other service offering; (iv) alter or remove any proprietary notices in the Marvel Software; or (v) make available to any third party any analysis of the results of operation of the Marvel Software, including benchmarking results, without the prior written consent of Elasticsearch. The Marvel Software may contain or be provided with open source libraries, components, utilities and other open source software (collectively, "Open Source Software"), which Open Source Software may have applicable license terms. The full license terms and conditions of Open Source Software contained in or provided with the Marvel Software are set forth on a website designated by Elasticsearch or otherwise provided with the Marvel Software or Documentation. A hard copy of the Open Source Software licenses is provided to U.S. Federal Government Licensees and End-Users.

1.3 Cluster Metadata. You understand and agree that once deployed, and on a daily basis, the Marvel Software provides metadata to Elasticsearch about Your cluster statistics and associates that metadata with Your IP address. However, no other information is provided to Elasticsearch by the Marvel Software, including any information about the data You process or store in connection with your use of the Marvel Software. At no time does this feature provide access to the data You process or store, or to your network. Instructions for disabling this feature are contained in the Marvel Software, however leaving this feature active enables Elasticsearch to gather cluster statistics and provide an improved level of support to You.

RESERVED.

DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, THE MARVEL SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, AND ELASTICSEARCH AND ITS LICENSORS MAKE NO WARRANTIES WHETHER EXPRESSED, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY REGARDING OR RELATING TO THE MARVEL SOFTWARE OR DOCUMENTATION. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, ELASTICSEARCH AND ITS LICENSORS SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIM ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NONINFRINGEMENT WITH RESPECT TO THE MARVEL SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION, AND WITH RESPECT TO THE USE OF

THE FOREGOING. FURTHER, ELASTICSEARCH DOES NOT WARRANT RESULTS OF USE OR THAT THE MARVEL SOFTWARE WILL BE ERROR FREE OR THAT THE USE OF THE MARVEL SOFTWARE WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED.

(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Elemental Technologies ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

End User License Agreement

1. DEFINITIONS:

1.1 "Product" means the Elemental software program, in object code only, provided to Ordering Activity under this Agreement; all related images, animations, video, audio, and other content incorporated in such software program; all accompanying manuals and other documentation (the "Documentation"); and all enhancements, upgrades, and extensions thereto that may be provided by Elemental to Ordering Activity from time to time.

1.2 "Licensed Configuration" means, to the extent applicable, the choice of features or any other hardware or software specifications, as selected or ordered by Ordering Activity in an Order Form, and upon which the licensing fee was based.

1.3 "License Key" means either (a) the software key code or (b) the physical USB key provided to you by Elemental (or its reseller) (a "USB License Key"), which enables the Product to operate on the Licensed Hardware for the specified Licensed Configuration, if applicable to the Product(s).

1.4 "Licensed Hardware" means the single unit of hardware (workstation, encoder, or otherwise) designated by Ordering Activity for use of the Product.

1.5 "Order Form" means a purchase order or other written or electronic document in which you specify the Licensed Hardware, specific modules and/or choice of features, and any other applicable hardware or software requirements and restrictions.

2. LICENSE AND RESTRICTIONS:

2.1 License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Elemental grants Ordering Activity a non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited license to use the Product, solely in machine-readable form, only on the Licensed Hardware, only for the Licensed Configuration, and only if all related license fees have been paid. Your use is further subject to any limitations set forth in the Order Form. You may use the Product for your own internal benefit and for providing goods or services to your customers; provided that such customers have no access to the Product.

2.2 General Restrictions. You may not copy the Product, in whole or in part, except that you may make and retain a reasonable number of copies solely for back-up purposes in order to re-install the Product. You also shall not use or allow the use of the Product for any of the following purposes:

a) by persons not employed by or under an independent contractor relationship with you that will bind such persons to the terms of this Agreement; or
b) as essential equipment in the operation of any nuclear facility, aircraft navigation, medical or communications systems or air traffic control machines, or any other use in which the failure of the Product could lead to death, personal injury or severe physical or environmental damage.

2.3 Intellectual Property. Ordering Activity acknowledge that the Product, and the underlying source code, algorithms, data structures, methods, processes, screen formats, report formats, ideas and concepts are valuable intellectual property owned by Elemental and its licensors, including all associated patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark, and other intellectual property rights. You agree not to, except as expressly authorized and only to the extent established by applicable statutory law, attempt to (or permit others to) decompile, disassemble or otherwise reverse engineer or attempt to reconstruct or discover any source code, underlying ideas, algorithms or file formats of the Product by any means. You will not develop methods to enable unauthorized parties to use the Product or any copy thereof, or to develop any other product containing any of the concepts and ideas contained in the Product. You will not modify the Product or incorporate any portion of the Product into any other software or create a derivative work of any portion of the Product. You will not remove any copyright or other proprietary notices from the Product or any copies thereof. Elemental reserves all rights not expressly granted hereunder. The license granted herein does not constitute a sale of the Product or any portion or copy of it.

2.4 Upgrades. This Agreement entitles you to receive any future maintenance releases, which includes any bug fixes but does not include any updates or upgrades, releases offered as a separate product or releases subject to a separate license agreement. Your rights to the previously-installed release terminate once you install the new release, except that you may remove the new release and reinstate your rights to the previously-installed release at any time during the term of this Agreement for the remaining term. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT: (1) YOU HAVE NO LICENSE OR RIGHT TO USE ANY ADDITIONAL COPIES OR UPGRADES UNLESS YOU, AT THE TIME OF ACQUIRING SUCH COPY OR UPGRADE, ALREADY HOLD A VALID LICENSE TO THE ORIGINAL PRODUCT AND HAVE PAID THE APPLICABLE FEE FOR THE UPGRADE, IF ANY; (2) IF INSTALLED IN ELEMENTAL EQUIPMENT, USE OF UPGRADES IS LIMITED TO ELEMENTAL EQUIPMENT FOR WHICH YOU ARE THE ORIGINAL END USER PURCHASER OR LESSEE OR YOU OTHERWISE HOLD A VALID LICENSE TO USE THE PRODUCT WHICH IS BEING UPGRADED; AND (3) THE MAKING AND USE OF ADDITIONAL COPIES IS LIMITED TO NECESSARY BACKUP PURPOSES ONLY.

3. MAINTENANCE AND SUPPORT. Elemental shall have no obligation to provide maintenance and support for the Product under this Agreement. Any such maintenance and support shall be provided in accordance with a separate maintenance agreement between the parties.

6. NOTICE TO U.S. GOVERNMENT END USERS: The Product is a "Commercial Item," as that term is defined at 48 C.F.R. §2.101., consisting of "Commercial Computer Software" and "Commercial Computer Software Documentation," as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. § 12.212 or 48 C.F.R. § 227.7202, as applicable. Consistent with 48 C.F.R. § 12.212 or 48 C.F.R. § 252.227-7014, as applicable, the Commercial Computer Software and Commercial Computer Software Documentation are being licensed to U.S. Government end users (a) only as Commercial Items and (b) with only those rights as are granted to all other end users pursuant to this Agreement. Should the foregoing clauses be amended after December, 2007, then their comparable replacements or revisions shall be incorporated herein and automatically apply.

7. LIMITED WARRANTY, WARRANTY DISCLAIMERS AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY:

7.1 Limited Warranty. Elemental warrants that the media on which the Product is furnished will be free from defects in material and workmanship, and that the Product shall substantially conform to its Documentation, as it exists at the date of delivery, for a period of sixty (60) days from the date you receive the original License Key. Elemental's entire liability and your exclusive remedy shall be, at Elemental's option, either: (i) return of the license fee paid to Elemental for the Product, resulting in the termination of this Agreement, or (ii) repair or replacement of the Product or media that does not meet this limited warranty. This offer is void if the media defect results from negligence, accident, abuse, or misapplication.

7.2 Disclaimer. EXCEPT FOR THE LIMITED WARRANTIES SET FORTH IN SECTION 7.1, THE PRODUCT AND ANY SERVICES ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, BOTH EXPRESSED AND IMPLIED. ELEMENTAL, ITS SUPPLIERS AND LICENSORS DO NOT WARRANT THAT THE PRODUCT WILL MEET YOUR REQUIREMENTS OR THAT ITS OPERATION WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR FREE. ELEMENTAL, ITS SUPPLIERS AND LICENSORS DISCLAIM AND EXCLUDE ANY WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, SATISFACTORY QUALITY OR ARISING FROM A COURSE OF DEALING, LAW, USAGE, OR TRADE PRACTICE TO THE EXTENT ALLOWED BY APPLICABLE LAW. TO THE EXTENT AN IMPLIED WARRANTY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED, SUCH WARRANTY IS LIMITED IN DURATION TO THE WARRANTY PERIOD. BECAUSE SOME STATES OR JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW LIMITATIONS ON HOW LONG AN IMPLIED WARRANTY LASTS, THE ABOVE LIMITATION MAY NOT APPLY. THIS WARRANTY GIVES CUSTOMER SPECIFIC LEGAL RIGHTS, AND CUSTOMER MAY ALSO HAVE OTHER RIGHTS WHICH VARY FROM JURISDICTION TO JURISDICTION. This disclaimer and exclusion shall apply even if the express warranty set forth above fails of its essential purpose.

8. GOVERNMENT REGULATION: Ordering Activity agree that the Product and any related technical data will not be shipped, transferred, or exported into any country or used in any manner prohibited by the United States Export Administration Act or any other export law. Ordering Activity will comply with all laws, regulations, permits, orders and other restrictions to the extent that they are applicable to the import or export of the Product and related technical data.

9. HIGH RISK APPLICATIONS: THE PRODUCT IS NOT DESIGNED, MANUFACTURED, OR INTENDED FOR USE IN ENVIRONMENTS REQUIRING FAULT TOLERANCE OR FAIL-SAFE PERFORMANCE, SUCH AS IN THE OPERATION OF NUCLEAR FACILITIES, AIRCRAFT NAVIGATION OR COMMUNICATION SYSTEMS, AIR TRAFFIC CONTROL, DIRECT LIFE SUPPORT MACHINES, OR WEAPON SYSTEMS, IN WHICH THE FAILURE OF THE PRODUCT COULD LEAD DIRECTLY TO DEATH, PERSONAL INJURY, OR SEVERE PHYSICAL OR ENVIRONMENTAL DAMAGE ("HIGH RISK APPLICATIONS"). Elemental and its suppliers specifically disclaim any express or implied warranty of fitness for High Risk Applications.

(for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached Expert Choice, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ)), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER OGP 4800.2I (July 2016), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

1.1 "Active Decision Project" means a Decision Project (a) that is published or otherwise made available to users for the purpose of entering measurable data and/or judgments into such Decision Project; and (b) into which measurable data and/or judgments have been entered. A Decision Project becomes an "Active Decision Project" immediately upon the first time a user enters measurable data and/or a judgment into such Decision Project; provided, however, that a Decision Project will not be considered an "Active Decision Project" during any time period where such Decision Project is inactivated through the archiving feature of the Product.

1.2 "Confidential Information" means all non-public information, whether in oral, written or other tangible or intangible form, that a Party designates as being confidential or which, under the circumstances surrounding disclosure, the receiving Party knows or has reason to know should be treated as confidential, including, without limitation, the Software, and any Ordering Activity data. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information does not include information that the receiving Party can establish: (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than (a) as a result of a disclosure by the receiving Party or its employees or any other person who directly or indirectly receives such information from the receiving Party or its employees or (b) in violation of a confidentiality obligation to the disclosing Party known to the receiving Party; (ii) is or becomes available to the receiving Party on a non-confidential basis from a Third Party which is entitled to disclose it to the receiving Party; or (iii) was developed by employees or agents of the receiving Party independently of, and without reference to, any information communicated to the receiving Party by the disclosing Party.

1.3 "Decision Project" means the Web-based decision-making analytic tool generated by Ordering Activity using the Software and/or the Hosted Services that is designed to elicit data and judgments from users with respect to the business objectives and/or alternatives for which the Decision Project is created.

1.4 "Delivery" means the sooner of the date that Expert Choice: (i) delivers the Software on a CD to Ordering Activity; (ii) delivers the Software on a CD to a common carrier for shipment to Ordering Activity; or (iii) makes the Hosted Services available to Ordering Activity for its access and use, as the case may be.

1.5 "Documentation" means the then-current, generally available, written instructions, user guides, and user manuals for the Products, if applicable, whether in electronic, paper or other equivalent form, provided by Expert Choice and in connection with any updates, modifications and improvements to the Software, regardless of form or media.

1.6 "Hosted Services" means the provision of access over the Internet to the functionality of the Software.

1.7 "Intellectual Property Rights" means, collectively, all rights under patent, trademark, copyright and trade secret laws, and any other intellectual property or proprietary rights recognized in any country or jurisdiction worldwide, including moral rights and similar rights.

1.8 "Named User" means the employees, agents or authorized representatives of Ordering Activity that may be specifically named in the Order Form who are authorized to use the Products. Named Users may include Ordering Activity contractors performing work on Ordering Activity's behalf.

1.9 "Order Form" means the ordering documents, including a Government Purchase Order, representing the initial purchase of the Products as well as any subsequent purchases agreed to between the Parties submitted by Ordering Activity and agreed to by Expert Choice that specify, among other things, the Products purchased, the license type and license grant, the number of Named Users and the number of Active Decision Projects, as applicable, and the Term (as hereinafter defined) and the fees.

1.10 "Products" means one or more of the following products purchased by Ordering Activity as set forth in an Order Form: the Hosted Services, the enterprise version of the Software and/or the desktop version of the Software.

1.11 "Software" means the means the machine-readable, object-code version of Expert Choice's proprietary software, including all related Documentation.

1.12 "Third Party" means any department or division of Ordering Activity not specifically identified herein, or any person, entity or Party other than the Parties, regardless of relation or affiliation with either Party.

Reserved.

Reserved.

Audit Rights. The terms of this Section 4 only apply if Ordering Activity has purchased the desktop and/or enterprise version of the Software.

4.1 Audit. During the Term and subject to Government security requirements, Expert Choice may periodically conduct onsite audits of Ordering Activity's usage of the desktop and/or enterprise version of the Software licensed by Ordering Activity under each applicable Order Form. These audits will be conducted during regular business hours, and Ordering Activity agrees to permit Expert Choice and its representatives, subject to Government security requirements, reasonable access to the premises, facilities, data, and networks necessary to conduct such audits. Expert Choice will use reasonable efforts not to interfere unduly with Ordering Activity's regular business activities. At Expert Choice's option, Ordering Activity shall complete a self-audit questionnaire in a form Expert Choice may provide.

4.2 Additional Licenses. Expert Choice will promptly invoice Ordering Activity additional license fees sufficient to cover the unauthorized use revealed by the audit.

5. Ownership and Proprietary Rights Notices.

5.1 Title. Ordering Activity acknowledges and agrees that title to and ownership of the Products, including all corrections, enhancements, or other modifications to the Software, whether made by Expert Choice or any Third Party, and all Intellectual Property Rights therein, are and shall at all times be deemed the sole and exclusive property of Expert Choice.

5.2 Proprietary Rights Notices. Ordering Activity shall not delete, alter, cover, or distort any copyright, trademark, or other proprietary rights notice placed by Expert Choice on or in the Products, and shall ensure that all such notices are reproduced on all copies thereof.

6. Limited Warranty.

6.1 Assumption of Responsibility. Ordering Activity assumes all responsibility for the selection of, use of, and results obtained from the Products. All warranties, express or implied, extend solely to Ordering Activity and not to any Third Parties.

6.2 DISCLAIMER. Expert Choice warrants that the software will, for a period of sixty (60) days from the date of your receipt ("Warranty Period"), perform substantially in accordance with the software documentation accompanying it. If the software fails to perform substantially in accordance with the documentation during the Warranty Period, Expert Choice shall use commercially reasonable efforts to repair or replace the nonconforming software to make it perform in accordance with the documentation. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE FOREGOING, THE PRODUCTS ARE PROVIDED "AS IS," WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OR NON-MISAPPROPRIATION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF A THIRD PARTY, CUSTOM, TRADE, QUIET ENJOYMENT, ACCURACY OF INFORMATIONAL CONTENT OR RESULTS, OR SYSTEM INTEGRATION, OR ANY WARRANTIES ARISING UNDER ANY OTHER LEGAL REQUIREMENT. EXPERT CHOICE makes no warranty THAT THE SOFTWARE WILL RUN PROPERLY ON ALL HARDWARE, that the SOFTWARE OR THE HOSTED SERVICES WILL MEET the REQUIREMENTS OF THE ORDERING ACTIVITY OR USERS, WILL OPERATE IN THE COMBINATIONS WHICH MAY BE SELECTED FOR USE BY THE ORDERING ACTIVITY OR USERS, OR THAT THE HOSTED SERVICES OR OPERATION OF THE SOFTWARE WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR FREE, OR THAT ALL ERRORS WILL BE CORRECTED.

Reserved.

Reserved.

Term and Termination.

Term. This Agreement shall commence upon the Effective Date and shall continue for the period set forth in the applicable Order Form ("Term"), unless earlier terminated.

Obligations Upon Termination. Upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement: (i) Ordering Activity shall promptly pay in full all outstanding payments to Expert Choice; (ii) all licenses granted hereunder (if any) will immediately terminate and Ordering Activity shall immediately cease all use of the Products; (iii) Ordering Activity shall remove all copies of the Software from its computer systems and shall return or destroy (at Expert Choice's option) all such copies to Expert Choice; and (iv) the receiving Party shall promptly return all Confidential Information of the disclosing Party in its the possession or control. With respect to (iii) and (iv) of the preceding sentence, Ordering Activity shall certify to Expert Choice in writing within ten (10) days of the date on which termination or expiration is effective that it has made no other copies, or has completely destroyed all copies, including backup or archive copies, of the Software or any portion thereof, and that no copies of any portion of the Software are in existence on any network, system, or equipment ever owned or used by Ordering Activity. The expiration or termination of this Agreement does not relieve either Party of any obligations that have accrued on or before the effective date of the termination or expiration.

General.

Export Restrictions. Ordering Activity acknowledges and agrees that the Software is subject to the export control laws and regulations of the United States, including but not limited to the Export Administration Regulations ("EAR"), and sanctions regimes of the U.S. Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Asset Controls. Ordering Activity will comply with these laws and regulations. Ordering Activity shall not without prior U.S. Government authorization, export, re-export, or transfer any goods, software, or technology subject to this Agreement, either directly or indirectly, to any country subject to a U.S. trade embargo (currently Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, and Syria) or to any resident or national of any such country, or to any person or entity listed on the "Entity List" or "Denied Persons List" maintained by the U.S. Department of Commerce or the list of "Specifically Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons" maintained by the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

SERVICE LEVEL AGREEMENT

Expert Choice bases its service level agreement on 'issues.' An 'issue' is defined as an unplanned interruption to Expert Choice Comparion® or Expert Choice Riskion® that causes an interruption or disruption in the Ordering Activity's ability to use either product for its intended purpose. Problems with customer internet service, connections, firewalls, networks, hardware, operating system software, browser software, or other foundational software are not covered under this SLA.

Issue Triage

(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Extreme Networks, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

1. DEFINITIONS. "Affiliates" means any person, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or other form of enterprise that directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with the party specified. "Server Application" shall refer to the License Key for software installed on one or more of Your servers. "Client Application" shall refer to the application to access the Server Application. "Licensed Materials" shall collectively refer to the licensed software (including the Server Application and Client Application), Firmware, media embodying the software, and the documentation. "Concurrent User" shall refer to any of Your individual employees who You provide access to the Server Application at any one time. "Firmware" refers to any software program or code imbedded in chips or other media. "Licensed Software" refers to the Software and Firmware collectively.

2. RESERVED.

3. GRANT OF SOFTWARE LICENSE. Extreme will grant You a non-transferable, non-exclusive license to use the machine-readable form of the Licensed Software and the accompanying documentation if You agree to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. You may install and use the Licensed Software as permitted by the license type purchased as described below in License Types. YOU MAY NOT USE, COPY, OR MODIFY THE LICENSED MATERIALS, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN THIS AGREEMENT.

4. LICENSE TYPES.

Single User, Single Computer. Under the terms of the Single User, Single Computer license, the license granted to You by Extreme when You install the License Key authorizes You to use the Licensed Software on any one, single computer only, or any replacement for that computer, for internal use only. A separate license, under a separate Software License Agreement, is required for any other computer on which You or another individual or employee intend to use the Licensed Software. A separate license under a separate Software License Agreement is also required if You wish to use a Client license (as described below).

Client. Under the terms of the Client license, the license granted to You by Extreme will authorize You to install the License Key for the Licensed Software on your server and allow the specific number of Concurrent Users shown on the relevant invoice issued to You for each Concurrent User that You order from Extreme or Your dealer, if any, to access the Server Application. A separate license is required for each additional Concurrent User.

5. RESERVED. RESTRICTION AGAINST COPYING OR MODIFYING LICENSED MATERIALS. Except as expressly permitted in this Agreement, You may not copy or otherwise reproduce the Licensed Materials. In no event does the limited copying or reproduction permitted under this Agreement include the right to decompile, disassemble, electronically transfer, or reverse engineer the Licensed Software, or to translate the Licensed Software into another computer language. The media embodying the Licensed Software may be copied by You, in whole or in part, into printed or machine readable form, in sufficient numbers only for backup or archival purposes, or to replace a worn or defective copy. However, You agree not to have more than two (2) copies of the Licensed Software in whole or in part, including the original media, in your possession for said purposes without Extreme' prior written consent, and in no event shall You operate more copies of the Licensed Software than the specific licenses granted to You. You may not copy or reproduce the documentation. You agree to maintain appropriate records of the location of the original media and all copies of the Licensed Software, in whole or in part, made by You. You may modify the machine-readable form of the Licensed Software for (1) your own internal use or (2) to merge the Licensed Software into other program material to form a modular work for your own use, provided that such work remains modular, but on termination of this Agreement, You are required to completely remove the Licensed Software from any such modular work. Any portion of the Licensed Software included in any such modular work shall be used only on a single computer for internal purposes and shall remain subject to all the terms and conditions of this Agreement. You agree to include any copyright or other proprietary notice set forth on the label of the media embodying the Licensed Software on any copy of the Licensed Software in any form, in whole or in part, or on any modification of the Licensed Software or any such modular work containing the Licensed Software or any part thereof.

6. TITLE AND PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

(a) The Licensed Materials are copyrighted works and are the sole and exclusive property of Extreme, any company or a division thereof which Extreme controls or is controlled by, or which may result from the merger or consolidation with Extreme (its "Affiliates"), and/or their suppliers. This Agreement conveys a limited right to operate the Licensed Materials and shall not be construed to convey title to the Licensed Materials to You. There are no implied rights. You shall not sell, lease, transfer, sublicense, dispose of, or otherwise make available the Licensed Materials or any portion thereof, to any other party.

7. PROTECTION AND SECURITY.

You agree not to deliver or otherwise make available the Licensed Materials or any part thereof, including without limitation the object or source code (if provided) of the Licensed Software, to any party other than Extreme or its employees, except for purposes specifically related to your use of the Licensed Software on a single computer as expressly provided in this Agreement, without the prior written consent of Extreme. You agree to use your best efforts and take all reasonable steps to safeguard the Licensed Materials to ensure that no unauthorized personnel shall have access thereto and that no unauthorized copy, publication, disclosure, or distribution, in whole or in part, in any form shall be made, and You agree to notify Extreme of any unauthorized use thereof. You acknowledge that the Licensed Materials contain valuable confidential information and trade secrets, and that unauthorized use, copying and/or disclosure thereof are harmful to Extreme or its Affiliates and/or its/their software suppliers.

8. MAINTENANCE AND UPDATES. Updates and certain maintenance and support services, if any, shall be provided to You pursuant to the terms of an Extreme Service and Maintenance Agreement (Exhibit A). Except as specifically set forth in such agreement, Extreme shall not be under any obligation to provide Software Updates, modifications, or enhancements, or Software maintenance and support services to You.

9. RESERVED.

10. EXPORT REQUIREMENTS. You are advised that the Software is of United States origin and subject to United States Export Administration Regulations; diversion contrary to United States law and regulation is prohibited. You agree not to directly or indirectly export, import or transmit the Software to any country, end user or for any Use that is prohibited by applicable United States regulation or statute (including but not limited to those countries embargoed from time to time by the United States government); or contrary to the laws or regulations of any other governmental entity that has jurisdiction over such export, import, transmission or Use.

11. UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT RESTRICTED RIGHTS. The Licensed Materials (i) were developed solely at private expense; (ii) contain "restricted computer software" submitted with restricted rights in accordance with section 52.227- 14 RESTRICTED RIGHTS and its successors, and (iii) in all respects is proprietary data belonging to Extreme and/or its suppliers. For Department of Defense units, the Licensed Materials are considered commercial computer software in accordance with DFARS section 227.7202-3 and its successors, and use, duplication, or disclosure by the U.S. Government is subject to restrictions set forth herein.

12. LIMITED WARRANTY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. The only warranty Extreme makes to You in connection with this license of the Licensed Materials is that if the media on which the Licensed Software is recorded is defective, it will be replaced without charge, if Extreme in good faith determines that the media and proof of payment of the license fee are returned to Extreme or the dealer from whom it was obtained within ninety (90) days of the date of payment of the license fee.

NEITHER EXTREME NOR ITS AFFILIATES MAKE ANY OTHER WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WITH RESPECT TO THE LICENSED MATERIALS, WHICH ARE LICENSED "AS IS". THE LIMITED WARRANTY AND REMEDY PROVIDED ABOVE ARE EXCLUSIVE AND IN LIEU OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, INCLUDING IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WHICH ARE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED, AND STATEMENTS OR REPRESENTATIONS MADE BY ANY OTHER PERSON OR FIRM ARE VOID. ONLY TO THE EXTENT SUCH EXCLUSION OF ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY IS NOT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE DURATION OF SUCH IMPLIED WARRANTY IS LIMITED TO THE DURATION OF THE LIMITED WARRANTY SET FORTH ABOVE. YOU ASSUME ALL RISK AS TO THE QUALITY, FUNCTION AND PERFORMANCE OF THE LICENSED MATERIALS. IN NO EVENT WILL EXTREME OR ANY OTHER PARTY WHO HAS BEEN INVOLVED IN THE CREATION, PRODUCTION OR DELIVERY OF THE LICENSED MATERIALS BE LIABLE FOR SPECIAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, RELIANCE, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING LOSS OF DATA OR PROFITS OR FOR INABILITY TO USE THE LICENSED MATERIALS, TO ANY PARTY EVEN IF EXTREME OR SUCH OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. IN NO EVENT SHALL EXTREME OR SUCH OTHER PARTY'S LIABILITY FOR ANY DAMAGES OR LOSS TO YOU OR ANY OTHER PARTY EXCEED THE LICENSE FEE YOU PAID FOR THE LICENSED MATERIALS.

Some states do not allow limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts and some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitation and exclusion may not apply to You. This limited warranty gives You specific legal rights, and You may also have other rights which vary from state to state. The foregoing exclusion/limitation of liability shall not apply to (1) personal injury or death resulting from Extreme's negligence; (2) for fraud; or (3) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law.

EXHIBIT A

ExtremeWorks Support Program

Extreme Networks, Inc. ("Extreme") agrees to provide the ExtremeWorks Support Program and related Support Plans to you pursuant to the following terms and conditions.

1. Definitions. In addition to the terms defined elsewhere in this Agreement, the following terms have the following meanings:

1.1 "Authorized Users" means those individuals authorized by Ordering Activity to use the Services on behalf of Ordering Activity.

1.2 "Authorized Resellers" means those companies (a) authorized by Extreme to resell, promote or deliver the ExtremeWorks Support Program to the marketplace, and (b) through which Ordering Activity has purchased the ExtremeWorks Support Program.

1.3 "Defect" means a failure of any Product to operate in accordance with Extreme's technical specifications as set forth in the End User Documentation.

1.4 "End User" means a purchaser of the Services who acquires such Services for ordinary business usage and not for purposes of further distribution or resale.

1.5 "End User Documentation" means Product documentation, Product specifications and other related materials.

1.6 "Intellectual Property Rights" means any and all current and future (i) rights associated with works of authorship; including but not limited to copyrights, moral rights, and mask-work rights; (ii) patent rights, rights of priority, and design rights; (iii) trade secret rights, (iv) trademark rights (including service mark rights) and trade dress rights; (v) all other intellectual and industrial property rights of every kind and nature which may exist anywhere in the world, whether registered or unregistered; and (vi) any and all applications and registrations, renewals, extensions, provisionals, continuations, continuations-in-part, divisions, reissues or reexaminations of any of the foregoing.

1.7 Reserved.

1.8 "Products" mean Extreme commercial networking products as identified in the Price List, including (i) hardware products with embedded Software, (ii) Software Products in object code form, (iii) End User Documentation, and (iv) other materials related to the foregoing, if any, supplied to you in a commercial package.

1.9 "Releases" mean Updates and Upgrades, collectively. No Alpha or Beta or non-production versions shall be considered Releases.

1.10 "Services" mean the services provided by Extreme under the ExtremeWorks Support Program, Premier Services Program (PSP) Foundation Services or any other end user services provided by Extreme under this Agreement in accordance with the applicable program guide.

1.11 "Software" or "Software Products" mean Extreme software products in object code form which are either sold separately or embedded into Extreme hardware products. .

1.12 "Trademarks" mean "Extreme Networks" and the applicable Product trademarks as listed in Extreme's usage guidelines, subject to revision from time to time in Extreme's sole discretion.

1.13 "Update" means a new version of a Software Product that includes defect corrections, bug fixes and/or minor enhancements that operate within the framework of the specifications for the current Upgrade of the Software Product, but does not include substantive features or functions not performed by the prior Release of the Software Product.

1.14 "Upgrade" means a new version of a Software Product that includes substantive features or functions not performed by the prior Release of the Software Product.

2. Services. The scope of the Services provided to Ordering Activity hereunder is based on the support plan purchased by Ordering Activity for each unit of the Product purchased. Certain on-site Services may not be available in some geographic regions or may require a "phase-in" period before they can be made available to Ordering Activity. Extreme shall have the right to use subcontractors to perform all or part of the Service(s), as it deems appropriate. To be eligible for the PSP Foundation Service, Ordering Activity must have Extreme equipment with current maintenance support entitlements. Future Services are deemed added to this Agreement at such time as they are added to the Schedule Contract. Extreme has the right to discontinue the distribution or availability of any Service at any time upon sixty (60) days' prior notice. In accordance with the Support Plan purchased for the applicable Product, the Services may include the following:

2.1 Releases. Extreme or its authorized representatives will make available to Ordering Activity all Releases made generally available by Extreme only for Products for which Ordering Activity has an active contract for Services. The content of all Releases shall be decided upon by Extreme in its sole discretion. Updates for Products for which Ordering Activity has an active contract for Services shall be provided to Ordering Activity at no additional charge during the term of this Agreement. Extreme shall impose additional charges for Upgrades. Ordering Activity shall install only one (1) copy of a Release for each Product under an active contract for Services, and Ordering Activity is prohibited from installing Releases on any Product which is not covered under an active contract for Services.

2.2 Corrections. Extreme shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide a correction or workaround for any reported and reproducible Defect in any Product for which Services have been purchased with a level of effort commensurate with the severity level; provided that Extreme shall have no obligation to correct all Defects in the Products. Ordering Activity shall notify Extreme TAC of the nature and severity of such Defect and the specific serial number of the applicable Product, and provide Extreme with enough information to locate and reproduce the Defect. Extreme shall not be responsible for correcting any Defect not attributable to Products or any Defect listed under Section 3 ("Exclusions").

3. Exclusions. The Services provided by Extreme hereunder will not include support and maintenance of any third party software or hardware not provided by Extreme. Extreme is not required to provide any services for problems arising out of: (i) Ordering Activity's failure to implement all Updates issued under the Services; (ii) alterations of or additions to the Products performed by parties other than Extreme; (iii) accident, natural disasters, terrorism, negligence, or misuse of the Products (such as, without limitation, operation outside of environmental specifications or in a manner for which the Products were not designed); (iv) interconnection of the Products with other products not supplied by Extreme, or (v) certain components, including but not limited to the following: spare fan trays, blank panels, cables, cable kits, rack mount kits, brackets, antennas, GBICs and miniGBICs. Extreme shall only be obligated to support the then-current revision of the Products and the immediately prior revision. 4. Ordering Activity Obligations.

4.1 Ordering Activity Assistance. Ordering Activity agrees to provide Extreme with reasonable access to the Products for which problems are reported and all back-ups and Ordering Activity information services, technical personnel, facilities, and premises as required in connection with the performance of the Services as long as Extreme complies with all of Ordering Activity's security requirements. To efficiently resolve problems and perform local hardware diagnostics, Ordering Activity shall provide modem level access for all Ordering Activity sites. Ordering Activity may provide passwords and/or activate the modem when needed. Ordering Activity shall be responsible for any and all cables, hardware or software not provided by Extreme. Ordering Activity's failure to provide such access or information may delay the Services and/or result in Extreme's inability to perform the Services; in such cases, Extreme shall not be liable for any consequences relating to or resulting from such delay or failure to perform.

4.2 Contact People. Ordering Activity shall appoint at least two (2) individuals who have been trained and are knowledgeable on Extreme products within Ordering Activity's organization to serve as the primary contacts between Ordering Activity and Extreme and to receive support as provided herein. Ordering Activity shall provide and shall update as appropriate contact information for the primary contacts, including address, phone number and email address. All of Ordering Activity's support inquiries shall be initiated through these primary contacts.

4.3 Restrictions on Copying and Reverse Engineering. As a material consideration for this Agreement, Ordering Activity expressly agrees not to translate, disassemble, reverse compile or reverse engineer the Products, including the Software Products, in whole or in part, except to the extent such prohibition is restricted by applicable law. Ordering Activity will not copy, modify, create derivative works, rent, lease, loan or use for timesharing or service bureau purposes any Products, including Software Products, in whole or in part without the prior written approval of Extreme, which approval may be withheld in Extreme's sole discretion.

4.4 No Removal of Markings. Ordering Activity agrees to comply with all legends that appear on or in the Products and not to remove or destroy any patent, copyright, logo, trademark, trade name, proprietary marking, or confidentiality legend placed upon or contained within Products, containers or End User Documentation supplied by Extreme.

5. Reserved.

6. Support for End of Life.

6.1 Product End of Life. In the event Extreme discontinues or otherwise ceases to make available to its customers a particular Product model number, Extreme will continue to offer Services for such Product in accordance with its then-current End of Life Policy available at www.extremenetworks.com/libraries/services/EndofLifePolicy.pdf. The Services shall remain in effect with respect to other Products, if any, then covered.

6.2 Support Plan End Of Life. Extreme reserves the right to discontinue any Support Plan in its sole discretion upon sixty (60) days' notice, by email, notification on Extreme's website, or any other method permitted under this Agreement, to Ordering Activity; however, Extreme will continue to provide services under such discontinued Support Plan through the end of any prepaid support period.

7. RESERVED. 8. Return Process. If Ordering Activity is returning a Product to Extreme, Ordering Activity must first obtain a Return Material Authorization ("RMA") number from Extreme. Ordering Activity must return the entire contents of the defective Product and dated End User proof of purchase for the defective Product, if requested by Extreme, marked with the RMA number, to a receiving point designated by Extreme. Shipping cartons that are not marked with RMA numbers will be rejected by Extreme and returned to Ordering Activity. Extreme will pay the transportation charges (excluding taxes, duties and customs) in accordance with the Support Plan purchased for such Product. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Ordering Activity retains sole responsibility for risk of loss or damage to Products during shipment to and from Extreme. Products returned to Extreme may be repaired or replaced by Extreme at Extreme's sole discretion. Replacement Products may be new or refurbished Products.

9. Ownership of Intellectual Property Rights; License; Non-Disclosure.

9.1 Intellectual Property Rights. Ordering Activity acknowledges that the Products are proprietary to Extreme and its suppliers, and that Extreme and its suppliers retain exclusive ownership of all Intellectual Property Rights in and to the Products, including in and to any Software Products and Trademarks. Ordering Activity will take all reasonable measures to protect Extreme's Intellectual Property Rights in any Product. Except as expressly provided herein, Ordering Activity is not granted any right to any Intellectual Property Rights with respect to any Product.

9.2 License. All Releases provided under the Services are licensed subject to the terms and conditions of the then-current Software license agreement for such Software Product in effect at the time the Release is provided.

10. Warranty. All Updates provided hereunder are warranted for the remaining warranty period of the original Software Product, if any, as specified in the warranty card which shipped with the original Software Product. All Upgrades are warranted as set forth in the warranty card for such Upgrade. Replacement Products provided under the Services are warranted for the remaining warranty period of the original Product, if any, as specified in the warranty card which shipped with the original Product. Nothing in the Services shall be construed as expanding or adding to the warranty set forth on the warranty card. Extreme will use all reasonable commercial efforts to provide the support requested by Ordering Activity under this Agreement in a professional and workmanlike manner. In the event that Extreme fails to meet this warranty, Extreme may reperform the Services, but Extreme cannot guarantee that every question or problem raised by Ordering Activity will be resolved. EXTREME WARRANTS THE SERVICES ONLY TO ORDERING ACTIVITY AS THE END USER PURSUANT TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT. EXCEPT AS SET FORTH ABOVE, EXTREME MAKES, AND ORDERING ACTIVITY RECEIVE, NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND. EXTREME EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, TERMS AND CONDITIONS, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED (in fact or by operation of law), STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTY, TERM OR CONDITION OF MERCHANTABILITY, SATISFACTORY QUALITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, CORRESPONDENCE WITH DESCRIPTION, ABSENCE OF HIDDEN DEFECTS, ANY WARRANTY OF NON-INFRINGEMENT, AND ANY WARRANTY, TERM OR CONDITION THAT MAY ARISE BY REASON OF USAGE OF TRADE, CUSTOM, COURSE OF DEALING OR COURSE OF PERFORMANCE.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Fend Incorporated ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.
2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.21, as may be revised from time to time.
  - b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.
  - c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.
  - d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.
  - e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.
  - f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.
  - g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.
  - h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.
  - i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

- j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.
- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.
- u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Payment: Unless payment terms are otherwise stipulated on the front of an invoice, payment is due upon delivery within thirty (30) days of the invoice receipt date. If any payment is not made when due, interest at the interest rate established by the Secretary of the Treasury as provided in 41 U.S.C. 7109, which is applicable to the period in which the amount becomes due, and then at the rate applicable for each six-month period as fixed by the Secretary until the amount is paid. Any change in liability for debts incurred due to a change in the Buyer's form of business shall not be effective until Fend Incorporated receives notice of the change by certified mail.

Title to products sold by Fend Incorporated passes to the buyer upon acceptance in accordance with FAR 552.212-4(n).

Claims of a shortage, misshipment, or damaged goods must be received in writing by Fend Incorporated within 5 business days of Buyer's receipt of the goods or the goods will be deemed delivered and accepted as of the invoice date, subject to the Inspection/Acceptance provisions of FAR 552.212-4(a).

Delivery: Shipments of all products are subject to availability. Fend Incorporated will make every reasonable effort to meet quoted or acknowledged delivery date(s). Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 552.212-4(f). Buyer agrees to accept delivery within ten (10) days of notice that its products are available.

Warranties: Fend Incorporated provides a limited 1-year warranty for all its products from the date of shipment FOB Arlington, Virginia. Fend Incorporated warrants, that at the time of delivery, the goods shipped under this agreement are in accordance with Fend Incorporated's published specifications or are in accordance with "agreed to" written customers' specifications. The warranty delivered to Fend Incorporated by the manufacturer of components used in Fend Incorporated's manufacturing, or other vendor thereof, shall be assigned to the Buyer, to the extent such assignment is permitted by the terms thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such warranty shall apply to any goods which have been altered or repaired, except by Fend Incorporated or the manufacturer, or which have been subjected to misuse, negligence or accident. Such warranties are expressly in lieu of any other, and Fend Incorporated makes no other warranty, expressed or implied, with respect to the goods, and in particular. Fend incorporated disclaims any warranty with respect to the merchantability of such goods or the fitness of such goods for a particular purpose or use. In no event will Fend Incorporated be liable for indirect, special, or consequential damages, including lost profits, even when Fend Incorporated has been advised of the possibility of such damages. The Buyer agrees that Fend Incorporated's liability for any allegedly defective product and/or service shall not exceed the Buyer's purchase price or the fair market value of the product at the time the defect is reported, whichever is less.

Returns must be authorized in advance. Shipping changes are the responsibility of the Buyer. Fend Incorporated may replace the item, provide credit towards the Buyer's next purchase, or a refund of the purchase price, at its option (see Payment above). NO returns will be allowed after 30 days.

Reserved

Order of Precedence: Buyer's signature represents acceptance of these Terms and Conditions of Sale and any attachments, which together constitute the entire understanding between the parties and supersede and previous communications, representations, or agreements by either party, whether verbal or written. No change or modification of any of the terms or conditions herein shall be valid or binding on either party unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of each party. Other than the GSA Scheule Contract, These Terms and Conditions of Sale and any attachments take precedence over Buyer's additional or different terms and conditions, to which notice of objection is hereby given.

Neither Fend Incorporated commencement of performance nor delivery shall be deemed or construed, as acceptance of Buyer's additional or different terms.

Export: Fend products are intended for installation and use in the United States and countries approved for export. Buyer acknowledges that Fend products are subject to U.S. export control and sanctions laws and regulations, including, without limitation, the Export Administration Regulations (15 C.F.R. §§ 730-774), and the regulations, rules, and executive orders administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Department of the Treasury ("OFAC") (collectively, the "Export Controls and Sanctions Laws"). Buyer agrees to comply with all Export Controls and Sanctions Laws applicable to Fend products and shall not take any action that will cause Fend to violate or be subject to penalty under any Export Controls and Sanctions Laws.

In particular, Buyer warrants and covenants that it:

- (a) will not, directly or indirectly, export, reexport, or transfer Fend products to, or transship Fend products through, a country against which the United States maintains economic sanctions or embargoes (hereinafter, "Sanctioned Country");
- (b) will not, directly or indirectly, export, reexport, sell, lease, transfer, or otherwise assign the rights to Fend products to a Prohibited Person;
- (c) will not use Fend products to produce products that will be shipped, sold, or supplied, directly or indirectly, to a Sanctioned Country or a Prohibited Person.
- (d) will not, directly or indirectly, export, reexport, or transfer Fend products to any party or destination without obtaining or relying upon any necessary authorization under applicable Export Controls and Sanctions Laws, including, but not limited to, a general license, specific license, or license exception; and
- (e) will not, directly or indirectly, export, reexport, transfer, sell, or use Fend products in support of activities, end-uses, or end-users prohibited by applicable Export Controls and Sanctions Laws

"Prohibited Person" means (i) any individual or entity that has been determined by competent authority to be the subject of a prohibition in any law, regulation, rule, or executive order administered by OFAC or the U.S. Department of State; (ii) the government, including any political subdivision, agency, or instrumentality thereof, of any Sanctioned Country; (iii) any individual or entity that acts on behalf of or is owned or controlled by the government of a Sanctioned Country; (iv) any individual or entity that has been identified on the OFAC Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List (Appendix A to 31 C.F.R. Ch. V) or the OFAC Consolidated Sanctions List, as amended from time to time, or any entity that is directly or indirectly owned 50% more (individually or in the aggregate) or otherwise controlled by individuals or entities identified on either list; or (v) any individual or entity that has been designated on any similar list or order published by the United States government, including, without limitation, the Denied Persons List, Entity List, or Unverified List of the U.S. Department of Commerce, or the Debarred List or Nonproliferation Sanctions List of the U.S. Department of State.

Limitations on Reverse Engineering, Decompilation, Disassembly, or Modification. Buyer may not reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble or otherwise attempt to discover the hardware, source code, or underlying ideas or algorithms of the hardware, firmware, or software or modify, adapt, translate, recast, alter, or create derivative works from the hardware, firmware, or software or any portion of it, or provide or disclose any such hardware, firmware, or software or any portion of it to any third party, except and only to the extent that such activity is expressly permitted by applicable law, or by prior written approval of Fend (which approval may be conditioned, restricted, or denied in the sole discretion of Fend), notwithstanding this limitation.

End Use Certification. Buyer represents that they are the end-user of the product. Product may not be resold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of to any other organization or person other than authorized end-user(s), either in its original form or after being incorporated into other items, unless intent to distribute/resell is made known in writing to Fend at the time of purchase. Such intention to distribute/resell may be conditioned, restricted, or denied at the sole discretion of Fend.

Cloud Services: These terms do not govern the provision by Fend Incorporated, or purchase by Buyer, of any cloud software or associated services. The Parties acknowledge and agree that any provision or purchase of cloud software or associated services from Fend shall be governed by a separate agreement between the Parties.

Miscellaneous: This Agreement is made in, and is governed by the Federal laws of the United States. The Buyer's remedies herein are exclusive. Any provision hereof which is invalid under an applicable statute or rule of law should be curtailed and limited only to the extent necessary to bring it within the requirements of the law. All other provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

FEND INCORPORATED CUSTOMER TERMS AND CONDITIONS (SOFTWARE AND CLOUD PRODUCTS)

Last Modified: 7/23/2021

These Customer Terms and Conditions (this "Agreement"), effective [DATE] (the "Effective Date"), is by and between Fend Incorporated, a Virginia corporation ("Fend") and the Ordering Activity under GSA

Schedule contracts identified in the Purchase Order ("Customer"). The individual accepting this Agreement hereby represents and warrants that it is duly authorized by the entity on whose behalf it accepts this Agreement to so accept this Agreement. Fend and Customer may be referred to herein collectively as the "Parties" or individually as a "Party."

These terms do not govern the provision by Fend, or purchase by Customer, of any hardware. The Parties acknowledge and agree that any provision or purchase of hardware from Fend shall be governed by a separate agreement between the Parties.

Definitions.

- 1.1 "Authorized User" means Customer's employees, consultants, contractors, and agents (i) who are authorized by Customer to access and use the Platform under the rights granted to Customer pursuant to this Agreement; and (ii) for whom access to the Platform has been purchased hereunder.
- 1.2 "Customer Data" means information, data, and other content, in any form or medium, that is submitted, posted, or otherwise transmitted by or on behalf of Customer or an Authorized User through the Platform; provided that, for purposes of clarity, Customer Data does not include Derivative Data.
- 1.3 "Derivative Data" means data and information related to or derived from Customer Data or Customer's use of the Platform that has been aggregated and/or anonymized by Fend.
- 1.4 "Documentation" means Fend's end user documentation relating to the Platform available at <https://app.fend.tech/support>.
- 1.5 "Fend IP" means the Platform, the Documentation, and any and all intellectual property provided to Customer or any Authorized User in connection with the foregoing. For the avoidance of doubt, Fend IP includes Derivative Data and any information, data, or other content derived from Fend's provision of the Platform but does not include Customer Data.
- 1.6 "Harmful Code" means any software, hardware, or other technology, device, or means, including any virus, worm, malware, or other malicious computer code, the purpose or effect of which is to permit unauthorized access to, or to destroy, disrupt, disable, distort, or otherwise harm or impede in any manner any (i) computer, software, firmware, hardware, system, or network; or (ii) any application or function of any of the foregoing or the security, integrity, confidentiality, or use of any data processed thereby.
- 1.7 "Order" means: (i) the purchase order, order form, or other ordering document entered into by the Parties that incorporates this Agreement by reference; or (ii) if Customer registered for the Platform through Fend's online ordering process, the results of such online ordering process.
- 1.8 "Personal Information" means any information that, individually or in combination, does or can identify a specific individual or by or from which a specific individual may be identified, contacted, or located, including without limitation all data considered "personal data", "personally identifiable information", or something similar under applicable laws, rules, or regulations relating to data privacy.
- 1.9 "Platform" means Fend's proprietary hosted software platform, as made available to Authorized Users from time to time.
- 1.10 "Subscription Period" means the time period identified on the Order during which Customer's Authorized Users may access and use the Platform.
- 1.11 "Third-Party Products" means any third-party products provided with, integrated with, or incorporated into the Platform.
- 1.12 "Usage Limitations" means the usage limitations set forth in this Agreement and the Order, including without limitation any limitations on the number of Authorized Users (if any), and the applicable product, pricing, and support tiers agreed-upon by the Parties.

Access and Use.

- 2.1 Provision of Access. Subject to and conditioned on Customer's compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including without limitation the Usage Limitations, Fend will make available to Customer during the Subscription Period, on a non-exclusive, non-transferable (except in compliance with Section 13.8), and non-sublicensable basis, access to and use of the Platform, solely for use by Authorized Users. Such use is limited to Customer's internal business purposes and the features and functionalities specified in the Order. Each Authorized User must have its own unique account on the Platform and Authorized Users may not share their account credentials with one another or any third party. Customer will be responsible for all of the acts and omissions of its Authorized Users in connection with this Agreement and for all use of Authorized Users' accounts.
- 2.2 Documentation License. Subject to and conditioned on Customer's compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Fend hereby grants to Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable (except in compliance with Section 13.8), and non-sublicensable license to use the Documentation during the Subscription Period solely for Customer's internal business purposes in connection with its use of the Platform.

- 2.3 Use Restrictions. Customer shall not use the Platform for any purposes beyond the scope of the access granted in this Agreement. Customer shall not at any time, directly or indirectly, and shall not permit any Authorized Users to: (i) copy, modify, or create derivative works of any Fend IP, whether in whole or in part; (ii) rent, lease, lend, sell, license, sublicense, assign, distribute, publish, transfer, or otherwise make available the Platform or Documentation to any third party; (iii) reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile, decode, adapt, or otherwise attempt to derive or gain access to any software component of the Platform, in whole or in part; (iv) remove any proprietary notices from any Fend IP; (v) use any Fend IP in any manner or for any purpose that infringes, misappropriates, or otherwise violates any intellectual property right or other right of any person, or that violates any applicable law; (vi) access or use any Fend IP for purposes of competitive analysis of Fend or the Platform, the development, provision, or use of a competing software service or product, or any other purpose that is to Fend's detriment or commercial disadvantage; (vii) bypass or breach any security device or protection used by the Platform or access or use the Platform other than by an Authorized User through the use of valid access credentials; or (viii) input, upload, transmit, or otherwise provide to or through the Platform any information or materials that are unlawful or injurious, or that contain, transmit, or activate any Harmful Code.
- 2.4 Reservation of Rights. Fend reserves all rights not expressly granted to Customer in this Agreement. Except for the limited rights and licenses expressly granted under this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement grants, by implication, waiver, estoppel, or otherwise, to Customer or any third party any intellectual property rights or other right, title, or interest in or to the Fend IP.
- 2.5 Suspension. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Fend may temporarily suspend Customer's and any Authorized User's access to any portion or all of the Platform if: (i) Fend reasonably determines that (A) there is a threat or attack on any of the Fend IP; (B) Customer's or any Authorized User's use of the Fend IP disrupts or poses a security risk to the Fend IP or to any other customer or vendor of Fend; (C) Customer, or any Authorized User, is using the Fend IP for fraudulent or illegal activities; (D) subject to applicable law, Customer has ceased to continue its business in the ordinary course, made an assignment for the benefit of creditors or similar disposition of its assets, or become the subject of any bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, or similar proceeding; (E) Reserved; or (F) Fend's provision of the Platform to Customer or any Authorized User is prohibited by applicable law; (ii) any vendor of Fend has suspended or terminated Fend's access to or use of any Third-Party Products required to enable Customer to access the Platform; or (iii) in accordance with Section 5.1 (any such suspension described in subclause (i), (ii), or (iii)), a "Service Suspension"). Fend shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide written notice of any Service Suspension to Customer and to provide updates regarding resumption of access to the Platform following any Service Suspension. Fend shall use commercially reasonable efforts to resume providing access to the Platform as soon as reasonably possible after the event giving rise to the Service Suspension is cured. Fend will have no liability for any damage, liabilities, losses (including any loss of data or profits), or any other consequences that Customer or any Authorized User may incur as a result of a Service Suspension.
- 2.6 Derivative Data. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Fend may monitor Customer's use of the Platform and collect and compile Derivative Data. As between Fend and Customer, all right, title, and interest in Derivative Data, and all intellectual property rights therein, belong to and are retained solely by Fend. Customer acknowledges that Fend may compile Derivative Data based on Customer Data input into the Platform. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Customer acknowledges that Fend may use and disclose Derivative Data for any lawful purpose.

3. Customer Responsibilities.

- 3.1 General. Customer is responsible and liable for all uses of the Platform and Documentation resulting from access provided by Customer, directly or indirectly, whether such access or use is permitted by or in violation of this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Customer is responsible for all acts and omissions of Authorized Users, and any act or omission by an Authorized User that would constitute a breach of this Agreement if taken by Customer will be deemed a breach of this Agreement by Customer. Customer shall use reasonable efforts to make all Authorized Users aware of this Agreement's provisions as applicable to such Authorized User's use of the Platform and shall cause Authorized Users to comply with such provisions.
- 3.2 Third-Party Products. Fend may from time to time make Third-Party Products available to Customer or Fend may allow for certain Third-Party Products to be integrated with the Platform to allow for the transmission of Customer Data from such Third-Party Products into the Platform. For purposes of this Agreement, such Third-Party Products are subject to their own terms and conditions. If Customer does not agree to abide by the applicable terms for any such Third-Party Products, then Customer should not install or use such Third-Party Products.
- 3.3 Customer Control and Responsibility. Customer has and will retain sole responsibility for: (i) all Customer Data, including its content and use; (ii) all information, instructions, and materials provided by or on behalf of Customer or any Authorized User in connection with the Platform; (iii) Customer's information technology infrastructure, including computers, software, databases, electronic systems (including database management systems), and networks, whether operated directly by Customer or through the use of third-party Platform ("Customer Systems"); (iv) the security and use of Customer's and its Authorized Users' access credentials; and (v) all access to and use of the Platform directly or indirectly by or through the Customer Systems or its or its Authorized Users' access credentials, with or without Customer's knowledge or consent, including all results obtained from, and all conclusions, decisions, and actions based on, such access or use.

4. Support. During the Subscription Period, Fend will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Customer with basic customer support via Fend's standard support channels during Fend's normal business hours.

5. Fees and Taxes.

- 5.1 Fees. The Platform may be provided for a fee or other charge. Customer shall pay Fend the fees ("Fees") identified in the Order in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist without offset or deduction at the cadence identified in the Order (e.g., monthly or annually). Customer shall make all payments hereunder in US dollars by ACH or line credit or debit card payment via the link provided in the applicable invoice to such account as Fend may specify in writing from time to time, or by another mutually agreed-upon payment method. If Customer pays online via credit or debit card, Customer agrees that there are different applicable terms of Fend's third-party payment processors. If Customer fails to make any payment when due, and Customer has not notified Fend in writing within ten (10) days of the payment becoming due and payable that the payment is subject to a good faith dispute, without limiting Fend's other rights and remedies: (i) Fend may charge interest on the undisputed past due amount at the interest rate established by the Secretary of the Treasury as provided in 41 U.S.C. 7109, which is applicable to the period in which the amount becomes due, and then at the rate applicable for each six-month period as fixed by the Secretary until the amount is paid.

- 5.2 Taxes. Vendor shall state separately on invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Customer agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 552.212-4(k).

6. Confidential Information.

- 6.1 Definition. From time to time during the Subscription Period, either Party may disclose or make available to the other Party information about its business affairs, products, confidential intellectual property, trade secrets, third-party confidential information, and other sensitive or proprietary information, whether orally or in written, electronic, or other form or media that: (i) is marked, designated or otherwise identified as "confidential" or something similar at the time of disclosure or within a reasonable period of time thereafter; or (ii) would be considered confidential by a reasonable person given the nature of the information or the circumstances of its disclosure (collectively, "Confidential Information"). Except for Personal Information, Confidential Information does not include information that, at the time of disclosure is: (a) in the public domain; (b) known to the receiving Party at the time of disclosure; (c) rightfully obtained by the receiving Party on a non-confidential basis from a third party; or (d) independently developed by the receiving Party without use of, reference to, or reliance upon the disclosing Party's Confidential Information. 6.2 Duty. The receiving Party shall not disclose the disclosing Party's Confidential Information to any person or entity, except to the receiving Party's employees, contractors, and agents who have a need to know the Confidential Information for the receiving Party to exercise its rights or perform its obligations hereunder ("Representatives"). The receiving Party will be responsible for all the acts and omissions of its Representatives as they relate to Confidential Information hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Party may disclose Confidential Information to the limited extent required (i) in order to comply with the order of a court or other governmental body, or as otherwise necessary to comply with applicable law, provided that the Party making the disclosure pursuant to the order shall first have given written notice to the other Party and made a reasonable effort to obtain a protective order; or (ii) to establish a Party's rights under this Agreement, including to make required court filings. Further, notwithstanding the foregoing, each Party may disclose the terms and existence of this Agreement to its actual or potential investors, debtholders, acquirers, or merger partners under customary confidentiality terms. Fend recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which may require that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

6.3 Return of Materials; Effects of Termination/Expiration. On the expiration or termination of the Agreement, the receiving Party shall promptly return to the disclosing Party all copies, whether in written, electronic, or other form or media, of the disclosing Party's Confidential Information, or destroy all such copies and certify in writing to the disclosing Party that such Confidential Information has been destroyed. Each Party's obligations of non-use and non-disclosure with regard to Confidential Information are effective as of the Effective Date and will expire three (3) years from the date of termination or expiration of this Agreement; provided, however, with respect to any Confidential Information that constitutes a trade secret (as determined under applicable law), such obligations of non-disclosure will survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement for as long as such Confidential Information remains subject to trade secret protection under applicable law.

7. Personal Information. Customer agrees that it shall not, without the prior written consent of Fend, disclose or make available any Personal Information in connection with the Services.

8. Intellectual Property Ownership; Feedback.

- 8.1 Fend IP. Customer acknowledges that, as between Customer and Fend, Fend owns all right, title, and interest, including all intellectual property rights, in and to the Fend IP and, with respect to Third-Party Products, the applicable third-party providers own all right, title, and interest, including all intellectual property rights, in and to the Third-Party Products.
- 8.2 Customer Data. Fend acknowledges that, as between Fend and Customer, Customer owns all right, title, and interest, including all intellectual property rights, in and to the Customer Data. Customer hereby grants to Fend a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide license to reproduce, distribute, and otherwise use and display the Customer Data and perform all acts with respect to the Customer Data as may be necessary for Fend to provide the Platform, and a non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, royaltyfree, worldwide license to reproduce, distribute, modify, and otherwise use and display Customer Data incorporated within the Derivative Data. Customer may export the Customer Data at any time through the features and functionalities made available via the Platform.
- 8.3 Feedback. If Customer or any of its employees or contractors sends or transmits any communications or materials to Fend by mail, email, telephone, or otherwise, suggesting or recommending changes to the Fend IP, including without limitation, new features or functionality relating thereto, or any comments, questions, suggestions, or the like ("Feedback"), Fend is free to use such Feedback irrespective of any other obligation or limitation between the Parties governing such Feedback.

9. Warranty Disclaimer. FEND WARRANTS THAT THE THE FEND IP WILL, FOR A PERIOD OF SIXTY(60) DAYS FROM THE DATE OF YOUR RECEIPT, PERFORM SUBSTANTIALLY IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE FEND IP WRITTEN MATERIALS ACCOMPANYING IT. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE FOREGOING, THE FEND IP IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND FEND HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY, OR OTHERWISE. FEND SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, AND NONINFRINGEMENT, AND ALL WARRANTIES ARISING FROM COURSE OF DEALING, USAGE, OR TRADE PRACTICE. FEND MAKES NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND THAT THE FEND IP, OR ANY PRODUCTS OR RESULTS OF THE USE THEREOF, WILL MEET CUSTOMER'S OR ANY OTHER PERSON'S REQUIREMENTS, OPERATE WITHOUT INTERRUPTION, ACHIEVE ANY INTENDED RESULT, BE COMPATIBLE OR WORK WITH ANY SOFTWARE, SYSTEM OR OTHER PLATFORM, OR BE SECURE, ACCURATE, COMPLETE, FREE OF HARMFUL CODE, OR ERROR FREE.

10. Indemnification.

10.1 Fend Indemnification.

- (a) Fend shall indemnify, have the right to intervene to defend, and hold harmless Customer from and against any and all losses, damages, liabilities, costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) ("Losses") incurred by Customer resulting from any third-party claim, suit, action, or proceeding ("Third-Party Claim") that the Platform, or any use of the Platform in accordance with this Agreement, infringes or misappropriates such third party's US copyrights or trade secrets; provided that Customer promptly notifies Fend in writing of the claim, cooperates with Fend, and allows Fend sole authority to control the defense and settlement of such claim. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516.

(b) If such a claim is made or appears possible, Customer agrees to permit Fend, at Fend's sole discretion: to (i) modify or replace the Platform, or component or part thereof, to make it noninfringing; or (ii) obtain the right for Customer to continue use. If Fend determines that neither alternative is reasonably commercially available, Fend may terminate this Agreement, in its entirety or with respect to the affected component or part, effective immediately on written notice to Customer.

(c) This Section 10.1 will not apply to the extent that the alleged infringement arises from: (i) use of the Platform in combination with data, software, hardware, equipment, or technology not provided by Fend or authorized by Fend in writing; (ii) modifications to the Platform not made by Fend; (iii) Customer Data; or (iv) Third-Party Products.

10.2 Reserved.

10.3 Sole Remedy. THIS SECTION 10.3 SETS FORTH CUSTOMER'S SOLE REMEDIES AND FEND'S SOLE LIABILITY AND OBLIGATION FOR ANY ACTUAL, THREATENED, OR ALLEGED CLAIMS THAT THE PLATFORM INFRINGE, MISAPPROPRIATE, OR OTHERWISE VIOLATE ANY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF ANY THIRD PARTY. IN NO EVENT WILL FEND'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY UNDER THIS SECTION 10 EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNTS PAID TO FEND.

11. Limitations of Liability. IN NO EVENT WILL FEND BE LIABLE UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT UNDER ANY LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY, INCLUDING BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY, AND OTHERWISE, FOR ANY: (i) CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL, ENHANCED, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES; (ii) INCREASED COSTS, DIMINUTION IN VALUE OR LOST BUSINESS, PRODUCTION, REVENUES, OR PROFITS; (iii) LOSS OF GOODWILL OR REPUTATION; (iv) USE, INABILITY TO USE, LOSS, INTERRUPTION, DELAY OR RECOVERY OF ANY DATA, OR BREACH OF DATA OR SYSTEM SECURITY; OR (v) COST OF REPLACEMENT GOODS OR SERVICES, IN EACH CASE REGARDLESS OF WHETHER FEND WAS ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH LOSSES OR DAMAGES OR SUCH LOSSES OR DAMAGES WERE OTHERWISE FORESEEABLE. IN NO EVENT WILL FEND'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT UNDER ANY LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY, INCLUDING BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), STRICT LIABILITY, AND OTHERWISE EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNTS PAID TO FEND UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. THE FOREGOING LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

12. Subscription Period and Termination.

12.1 Subscription Period. The initial term of this Agreement begins on the Effective Date and, unless terminated earlier pursuant to this Agreement's express provisions, will continue in effect for the period identified in the Order (the "Initial Subscription Period"). This Agreement may be renewed for additional successive terms equal to the length of the Initial Subscription Period by executing a written order for the additional successive term (each a "Renewal Subscription Period" and together with the Initial Subscription Period, the "Subscription Period").

12.2 Termination. In addition to any other express termination right set forth in this Agreement:

(a) When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Fend shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer; (b) reserved; or (c) reserved.

12.3 Effect of Expiration or Termination. Upon expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, Customer shall immediately discontinue use of the Fend IP and, without limiting Customer's obligations under Section 6, Customer shall delete, destroy, or return all copies of the Fend IP and certify in writing to the Fend that the Fend IP has been deleted or destroyed. No expiration or termination will affect Customer's obligation to pay all Fees that may have become due before such expiration or termination or entitle Customer to any refund.

12.4 Survival. This Section 12.4 and Sections 1, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12.3, and 13 survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement. No other provisions of this Agreement survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

13.1 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with any other documents incorporated herein by reference, constitutes the sole and entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, and representations and warranties, both written and oral, with respect to such subject matter. In the event of any inconsistency between the statements made in the body of this Agreement, the related Exhibits, and any other documents incorporated herein by reference, the following order of precedence governs: (i) first, this Agreement; and (ii) second, any other documents incorporated herein by reference.

13.2 Notices. All notices, requests, consents, claims, demands, waivers, and other communications hereunder (each, a "Notice") must be in writing and addressed to the Parties at the addresses set forth on the first page of this Agreement (or to such other address that may be designated by the Party giving Notice from time to time in accordance with this Section). All Notices must be delivered by personal delivery, nationally recognized overnight courier (with all fees pre-paid), facsimile or email (with confirmation of transmission) or certified or registered mail (in each case, return receipt requested, postage pre-paid). Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, a Notice is effective only: (i) upon receipt by the receiving Party; and (ii) if the Party giving the Notice has complied with the requirements of this Section.

13.3 Force Majeure. Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 552.212-4(f).

- 13.4 Amendment and Modification. Fend may change this Agreement (except for any Orders) from time to time at its discretion. The date on which the Agreement was last modified will be updated at the top of this Agreement. Fend will provide Customer with reasonable notice prior to any amendments or modifications taking effect, either by emailing the email address associated with Customer's account on the Platform or by another method reasonably designed to provide notice to Customer. If Customer accesses or uses the Platform after the effective date of the revised Agreement, such access and use will constitute Customer's acceptance of the revised Agreement beginning at the next Renewal Subscription Period or, if Customer enters into a new Order with Fend, as of the date of execution of such Order.
- 13.5 Waiver. No failure or delay by either Party in exercising any right or remedy available to it in connection with this Agreement will constitute a waiver of such right or remedy. No waiver under this Agreement will be effective unless made in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Party granting the waiver.
- 13.6 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability will not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect their original intent as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.
- 13.7 Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction. This Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States.
- 13.8 Assignment. Customer may not assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations hereunder, in each case whether voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of Fend. Any purported assignment or delegation in violation of this Section will be null and void. No assignment or delegation will relieve the assigning or delegating Party of any of its obligations hereunder. This Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the Parties and their respective permitted successors and assigns.
- 13.9 Export Regulation. The Platforms utilize software and technology that may be subject to US export control laws, including the US Export Administration Act and its associated regulations. Customer shall not, directly or indirectly, export, re-export, or release the Platform or the underlying software or technology to, or make the Platform or the underlying software or technology accessible from, any jurisdiction or country to which export, re-export, or release is prohibited by law, rule, or regulation. Customer shall comply with all applicable federal laws, regulations, and rules, and complete all required undertakings (including obtaining any necessary export license or other governmental approval), prior to exporting, re-exporting, releasing, or otherwise making the Platform or the underlying software or technology available outside the US.
- 13.10 US Government Rights. Each of the Documentation and the software components that constitute the Platform is a "commercial item" as that term is defined at 48 C.F.R. § 2.101, consisting of "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation" as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. § 12.212. Accordingly, if Customer is an agency of the US Government or any contractor therefor, Customer only receives those rights with respect to the Platform and Documentation as are granted to all other end users, in accordance with 48 C.F.R. § 12.212, with respect to all other US Government users and their contractors.
- 13.11 Reserved.
- 13.12 Publicity. Fend may identify Customer as a user of the Platform and may use Customer's name, in Fend's customer list, press releases, blog posts, advertisements, and website (and all use thereof and goodwill arising therefrom shall inure to the sole and exclusive benefit of Customer) to the extent permitted by the General Services Acquisition Regulation (GSAR) 552.203-71. Otherwise, neither Party may use the name, logo, or other trademarks of the other Party for any purpose without the other Party's prior written approval.

FORCEPOINT LLC.
10900-A STONELAKE BLVD, 3RD FLOOR
AUSTIN, TX 78759

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Forcepoint LLC. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ)), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

FORCEPOINT LICENSE AGREEMENT

THE PRODUCTS ARE PROVIDED ONLY ON THE CONDITION THAT LICENSEE AGREES TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS IN THIS LICENSE AGREEMENT AND THE MATERIALS REFERENCED HEREIN ("AGREEMENT") BETWEEN LICENSEE AND FORCEPOINT. BY ACCEPTING THIS AGREEMENT BY EXECUTING A WRITTEN ORDER UNDER A GSA SCHEDULE CONTRACT, LICENSEE ACKNOWLEDGES IT HAS READ, UNDERSTANDS, AND HAS THE AUTHORITY TO ENTER INTO AND AGREES TO BE BOUND BY THIS AGREEMENT. TO THE EXTENT CUSTOMER IS A PUBLIC SECTOR ENTITY (AS DEFINED BELOW) PURCHASING SUBSCRIPTIONS OR LICENSES TO PRODUCTS THROUGH A U.S. GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT CONTRACT (AS DEFINED BELOW) OF AN AUTHORIZED FORCEPOINT DISTRIBUTOR OR RESELLER THAT IDENTIFIES SUCH PURCHASE IS OCCURRING UNDER SUCH CONTRACT, THE AGREEMENT IS SUPPLEMENTED BY THE PUBLIC SECTOR ADDENDUM ATTACHED HERETO ("ADDENDUM").

1. Definitions.

"Application" or "App" means a third-party cloud-based computing application identified at the time of Product implementation.

"Bulk Mail" means a large number of email messages with similar content sent or received in a single operation or a series of related operations.

"Cloud Services" means one or more of Forcepoint's cloud-based service offerings that have been included in an Order, including their associated components, content, updates, and upgrades thereto (but excludes products for which Forcepoint generally charges a separate fee), if any, and any reports generated as a result of use that are made available to Licensee. "Databases" means proprietary database(s) of URL addresses, email addresses, Malware, applications, analytical models, and other valuable information.

"Database Updates" means changes to the content of the Databases.

"Device" or "Seat" means each computer (whether physical or virtual), electronic appliance or device that is authorized to access or use the Products, directly or indirectly.

"Documentation" means the Product installation instructions, user manuals, release notes, and operating instructions prepared by Forcepoint, in any form or medium, as may be updated from time to time by Forcepoint and made generally available to Licensee.

"Error" means a material failure of the Product to conform to the Documentation, which is reported by Licensee and replicable by Forcepoint.

"Fees" means collectively the License Fees and the Maintenance Fees.

"Forcepoint" means, as the context requires: (i) Forcepoint LLC, a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business at 10900-A Stonelake Blvd., 3rd Floor, Austin, TX 78759, USA; or (ii) Forcepoint International Technology Limited, with a principal place of business at Minerva House, Simonscourt Road, Dublin 4, Ireland; or (iii) Forcepoint Federal LLC, with a principal place of business at 12950 Worldgate Drive, Suite 600, Herndon, VA 20170; or (iv) a corporation or entity controlling, controlled by or under the common control of Forcepoint with whom an Order has been placed referencing this Agreement.

"License" means the limited, personal, non-sublicensable, non-exclusive, nontransferable right to use the Software (including the Database, if any) for the term set forth in the Order, and use the output of the Services Offerings, in accordance with this Agreement and the Order.

"License Fees" means the agreed upon license fees for the Software included in an Order.

"Licensee" means the Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule Contracts that has placed an Order, is the ultimate end user of the Products, and if enrolling in Cloud Services, has registered its details on the Forcepoint portal

"Maintenance" means a limited-term, non-exclusive, non-sublicensable, nontransferable right to: (a) receive Technical Support, and (b) access Cloud Services (when set forth in the Order), in accordance with this Agreement and the Order.

"Maintenance Fees" means the agreed upon fees for the Maintenance in an Order.

"Maintenance Term" means the agreed upon time period for the provision of Maintenance in an Order.

"Malware" means computer software or program code that is designed to damage or reduce the performance or security of a computer program or data.

"Node" means any kind of computer, electronic appliance, or device capable of processing data, including without limitation diskless workstations, personal computer workstations, networked computer workstations, homemaker/teleworker home-based systems, file and print servers, email servers, Internet gateway devices, storage area network servers (SANs), terminal servers or portable workstations connected or connecting to the server(s) or network that is authorized to access or use the Products, directly or indirectly. In the case of a virtual system, each virtual machine or instance running the Product is a Node.

"Open Relay" means an email server configured to receive email from an unauthorized third-party and that forwards the email to other recipients who are not part of the server's email network.

"Order" means a purchase commitment mutually agreed upon between (i) Forcepoint and Licensee, or (ii) a Forcepoint authorized reseller and Licensee.

"Permitted Capacity" means the number of Devices, Nodes, Seats, Users, or other license metrics as set forth in the Order. "Products" means Software, Databases, Database Updates, Software Upgrades, together with applicable Documentation and media, and if purchased pursuant to an Order, Technical Support, Cloud Services, and Services Offerings.

"Services Fees" means the agreed upon fees in an Order for the Services Offerings.

"Services Offerings" means Forcepoint's professional services offerings described in a Forcepoint published services datasheet or services proposal.

"Software" means Forcepoint's proprietary software applications, in object code only.

"Software Upgrades" means certain modifications or revisions to the Software and/or the Database, provided solely pursuant to Maintenance, but excludes products for which Forcepoint generally charges a separate fee.

"Spam" means a large number of unsolicited email messages (typically over 500 per month) with similar content sent or received in a single operation or a series of related operations.

"Technical Support" means the support level purchased pursuant to an Order as further described in Section 5, including if and when available: (i) Error corrections or workarounds so that the Products operate in substantial conformance with the Documentation, and (ii) the provision of Database Updates and Software Upgrades.

"User" means (i) any person utilizing Licensee's network with access to the Products directly or indirectly, who is an employee, temporary employee, customer, contractor, or guest of Licensee; or (ii) for Cloud Services a separate email address or account that receives electronic messages or data within Licensee's email system or network. For the Cloud Services email solutions, up to five aliases may be considered one User. The total number of concurrent browser sessions open for targeted mode Users may not exceed 10% of the Permitted Capacity.

“Web Content” means any data and requests for data processed by Cloud Services including but not restricted to that accessed using the Internet protocols HTTP and FTP.

2. Software License. Subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement, and timely payment of the applicable Fees, Forcepoint hereby grants Licensee a License to use the Software, and Software Upgrades provided pursuant to Maintenance (including any output of the Services Offerings), identified in the Order solely for Licensee's internal business purposes up to the Permitted Capacity set forth in the Order. Provided Licensee pays the Maintenance Fees, Forcepoint will provide Licensee with Maintenance. Subject to compliance with the terms of this Agreement, Licensee may relocate or transfer the on-premise Product for use on a different server within its location. Licensee will not and may not permit any third party to copy the on-premise Products, other than copies made solely for data backup and internal testing purposes. Any source code provided to Licensee by Forcepoint is subject to the terms of this Agreement. Forcepoint may make changes to the Products at any time without notice. In the event that Forcepoint makes a material change to the Product that diminishes functionality of the Product Ordering Licensee has contracted for, Licensee shall be entitled to a pro rata refund for any fees paid not used. Licensee understands that its right to use the Products is limited by the Permitted Capacity purchased, and Licensee use may in no event exceed the Permitted Capacity authorized under the applicable Order. The Permitted Capacity provided in the Order(s) represents minimum amounts that Licensee has committed to for the Maintenance Term. If Licensee's use exceeds the Permitted Capacity, Licensee must purchase additional Permitted Capacity sufficient for the excess use.

3. Provision of Cloud Services.

- 3.1 Forcepoint will use reasonable efforts to provide Cloud Services for the Maintenance Term. The then-current Cloud Services service levels are incorporated by reference into this Agreement and are attached hereto in the Cloud Services Service

Level Agreement. Forcepoint makes no service level commitments when Cloud Services are used in connection with Bulk Mail.

Forcepoint makes no service level commitments for the Cloud Services' functionality to the extent it is used to monitor access to third-party services where the continued availability of the functionality is adversely impacted by the third-party's access policies.

- 3.2 If Forcepoint determines that the Products are being used to distribute Spam or Malware, or that the security or proper function of Cloud Services would be compromised due to hacking, denial of service attacks or other activities originating from or directed at Licensee's network, then Forcepoint may immediately suspend Cloud Services until the problem is resolved. Forcepoint will promptly notify and work with Licensee to resolve the issues.
- 3.3 If Cloud Services are suspended or terminated, Forcepoint will reverse all configuration changes made during Cloud Services enrollment. It is Licensee's responsibility to make the server configuration changes necessary to reroute any email, Web Content, and traffic flowing through the Cloud Services.

- 3.4 Forcepoint may modify, enhance, replace, or make additions to the Products. Forcepoint may use Malware, Spam, and other information passing through the Products for the purposes of developing, analyzing, maintaining, reporting on, and enhancing the Products and services.
- 3.5 Prior to enrollment in Cloud Services and at any time during the Maintenance Term, Forcepoint may test whether Licensee's email system is acting as an Open Relay. If Forcepoint finds the system is an Open Relay, Forcepoint will inform Licensee and may suspend the applicable Cloud Services until the problem is resolved.

- 3.6 If in any one calendar month the total number of emails processed in performance of Cloud Services for inbound and outbound scanning of email traffic divided by the Permitted Capacity is greater than either: (i) 10,000 emails per User, then Licensee will make reasonable efforts to implement and maintain an accurate list of all valid email addresses belonging to Licensee for which Cloud Services scan inbound or outbound email; or (ii) 30,000 emails per User, then Forcepoint may terminate the applicable Cloud Services License and Maintenance upon 30 days' written notice unless Licensee purchases Licenses to increase the Permitted Capacity.
- 3.7 If in any one calendar month the total bandwidth used in the performance of Cloud Services for web access filtering divided by the Permitted Capacity is greater than 0.02Mbps, then Forcepoint may terminate the applicable Cloud Services License and Maintenance upon 30 days' written notice unless Licensee purchases Licenses to increase the Permitted Capacity.
- 3.8 If in any one calendar month the total bandwidth used in the performance of Cloud Services for security access policy enforcement solution divided by the number of Devices or Users is greater than 0.02Mbps, then Forcepoint may terminate the applicable Cloud Services License and Maintenance upon 30 days' written notice unless Licensee purchases Licenses to increase the Permitted Capacity.
- 3.9 If in any one calendar month the total throughput including data sent and received through Cloud Services for internet and internal application access policy enforcement divided by the number of Users is greater than 10 Gigabytes per User, then Forcepoint may terminate the applicable Cloud Services License and Maintenance upon 30 days prior written notice unless Licensee purchases additional Permitted Capacity.

4. Licensee Obligations.

- 4.1 Licensee will (i) comply with all applicable laws, statutes, regulations and ordinances, (ii) only use the Products for legitimate business purposes that may include sending and receiving business and personal email or Web Content by its employees, and (iii) not use the Products to construct or transmit Spam, Malware, or excessive email.
  - 4.2 Licensee acknowledges that certain Products may be configured by Licensee to capture files for submission to other Products for Malware analysis. The Product analyzing files may archive Malware code extracted from such files. If Licensee downloads such extracted Malware code, Licensee recognizes the risk associated with Malware code, and any use by Licensee of Malware code is at Licensee's sole risk and liability.
  - 4.3 Licensee acknowledges that the scoring and content by some Products is based on available information at the time it is gathered and may be incomplete, misinterpreted, and is subject to change at any time. As such it is provided for informational purposes only, and Licensee is solely responsible for decisions Licensee makes regarding its use of Applications or services based on such information.
  - 4.4 Licensee is responsible for (i) having the authority, rights, or permissions to use all domains registered to the Products, (ii) obtaining any necessary consents from its employees, (iii) maintaining all necessary rights to access Application(s), and (iv) maintaining all permissions, authorizations, licenses, and approvals to access and use the data and information inputted, displayed, or processed (including all output and data developed or derived) as a result of Licensee's use of the Products to access and use data sources and systems.
  - 4.5 Reserved.
  - 4.6 Licensee will cooperate with Forcepoint personnel providing any Services Offerings, and to provide reasonable assistance, including: (i) gathering relevant supporting documentation; (ii) ensuring appropriate Licensee personnel are assigned to the project and are able to devote sufficient time to facilitate the project; (iii) granting resource access to information, systems, and licenses related to the scope of the project; (iv) providing building and network access before, during, and after normal business hours, work space, and workstations for each of the Forcepoint personnel, logon IDs and security access to all required Products, and adequate test environment, and any reasonable and appropriate data to perform the Services Offerings.
- 5. Technical Support.
- 5.1 Technical Support is provided under the then-current Forcepoint technical support policies, as described at: Technical Support Description. Technical Support, Database Updates and Software Upgrades will be provided to Licensee only if Licensee has paid the applicable Maintenance Fees. Forcepoint may require Licensee to install Software Upgrades up to and including the latest release.
  - 5.2 Forcepoint's obligation to provide Technical Support is limited to: (i) a Product that has not been altered or modified by anyone other than Forcepoint or its licensors; (ii) a release for which technical support is provided; (iii) Licensee's use of the Product in accordance with the Documentation; and (iv) errors and malfunctions caused by systems or programs supplied by Forcepoint. If an Error has been corrected or is not present in a more current version of the Product, Forcepoint will provide the more current version via Technical Support but will not have any obligation to correct such Error in prior versions.
  - 5.3 Technical Support for on-premise Products may be limited to the most current release and the most recent previous sequential major release of the Product. Forcepoint reserves the right to terminate the Maintenance or increase the associated fees upon 60 days' notice should Licensee not stay current with a supported release in accordance with this Section.
- 6. Intellectual Property Rights. All right, title, and interest in and to the Products, any modifications, translations, or derivatives thereof including any related scripts, tools, and know-how and all applicable intellectual property and proprietary rights thereto remain exclusively with Forcepoint or its licensors. The Products may include software products licensed from third parties. Such third parties have no obligations or liability to Licensee under this Agreement but are third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement. Forcepoint owns any suggestions, ideas, enhancement requests, feedback, or recommendations provided by Licensee relating to the Products. Except as otherwise expressly provided, Forcepoint grants no express or implied right under Forcepoint patents, copyrights, trademarks, or other intellectual property rights, and all rights not expressly granted to Licensee in this Agreement are reserved to Forcepoint and its licensors. Licensee may not remove any proprietary notice of Forcepoint or any third-party from the Products or any copy of the Products, without Forcepoint's prior written consent.
- 7. Protection and Restrictions.
- 7.1 Each party (the "Disclosing Party") may disclose to the other (the "Receiving Party") certain confidential technical and business information that the Disclosing Party desires the Receiving Party to treat as confidential. "Confidential Information" means any information disclosed by either party to the other party, either directly or indirectly, in writing, orally, electronically or by inspection of tangible objects (including without limitation prototypes, technical data, trade secrets and know-how, product plans, Products, customer lists and customer information, prices and costs, databases, inventions, processes, hardware configuration information, finances, budgets and other business information), which is designated as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or some similar designation at or prior to the time of disclosure, or that should otherwise reasonably be considered confidential by the Receiving Party. Confidential Information may also include information disclosed to a Disclosing Party by third parties. Confidential Information will not, however, include any information that the Receiving Party can document (i) was publicly known and made generally available prior to the time of disclosure by the Disclosing Party or an authorized third party; (ii) becomes publicly known and made generally available after disclosure through no action or inaction of the Receiving Party in violation of any obligation of confidentiality; (iii) is already in the possession of the Receiving Party at the time of disclosure; (iv) is lawfully obtained by the Receiving Party from a third party without a breach of such third party's obligations of confidentiality; or (v) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of or reference to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information. The Receiving Party will treat all Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party as non-public confidential information and will not disclose it to any person other than Disclosing Party and employees and contractors of Receiving Party on a need to know basis and that Receiving Party will protect the confidentiality of such Confidential Information in the same manner that it protects the confidentiality of its own proprietary and confidential information, but in no event with less than a reasonable standard of care. Licensee's use of the Products to process data is not a disclosure of Confidential Information to Forcepoint for purposes of this Section. Furthermore, neither party will use the Confidential Information of the other party for any purpose other than carrying out its rights and obligations under this Agreement. Forcepoint recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which may require that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

- 7.2 Licensee will take all reasonable steps to safeguard the Products to ensure that no unauthorized person has access and that no unauthorized copy, publication, disclosure, or distribution, in any form is made. The Products contain valuable, confidential information and trade secrets and unauthorized use or copying is harmful to Forcepoint. Licensee may use the Products only for the internal business purposes of Licensee. Licensee may not assign more than 20 administrators to administer certain Forcepoint products. Licensee will not itself, or through any affiliate, employee, consultant, contractor, agent or other third-party: (i) sell, resell, distribute, host, lease, rent, license or sublicense, in whole or in part, the Products; (ii) decipher, decompile, disassemble, reverse assemble, modify, translate, reverse engineer or otherwise attempt to derive source code, algorithms, tags, specifications, architecture, structure or other elements of the Products, in whole or in part, for competitive purposes or otherwise; (iii) allow access to, provide, divulge or make available the Products to any user other than Licensee's employees and contractors who have a need to such access and who will be bound by nondisclosure obligations that are at least as restrictive as the terms of this Agreement; (iv) write or develop any derivative works based upon the Products; (v) modify, adapt, translate or otherwise make any changes to the Products or any part thereof; (vi) use the Products to provide processing services to third-parties, or otherwise use the same on a 'service bureau' basis; (vii) disclose or publish, without Forcepoint's prior written consent, performance or capacity statistics or the results of any benchmark test performed on the Products; (viii) otherwise use or copy the same except as expressly permitted herein; (ix) use any third-party software included in the Products independently from the Forcepoint proprietary Products. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Licensee may allow its agents and independent contractors to use the Products solely for the benefit of Licensee; provided, however, Licensee remains responsible for any breach of this Agreement. Any other use of the Products by any other entity is forbidden and a violation of this Agreement. Licensee must not use the Products to filter, screen, manage or censor Internet content for consumers without permission from the affected consumers and Forcepoint's express prior written approval, which may be withheld in Forcepoint's sole discretion. If any additional third-party end-user license agreement or open source software license agreement is (a) attached to this Agreement or the Order, or (b) included in the Product "about" file, "readme" file or Documentation, then Licensee's use of the third-party software is further restricted by and subject to such license.

8. Financial Terms. Fees and payment terms are specified in the applicable Order in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist. Except as otherwise expressly specified in the Order: (i) all recurring payment obligations start from the receipt of the Order; (ii) when the Order is placed directly with Forcepoint fees must be paid within 30 days after the invoice receipt date; (iii) upon the expiration of each Maintenance Term, the Maintenance Fees will be Forcepoint's then-current GSA Schedule Pricelist for such Products; and (iv) interest accrues on past due balances at the highest rate allowed by the Prompt Payment Act (31 USC 3901 et seq) and Treasury regulations at 5 CFR 1315. Forcepoint's reasonable travel and lodging expenses incurred in the performance of services on Licensee's site will be billed separately at actual cost in accordance with Federal Travel Regulation (FTR)/Joint Travel Regulations (JTR), as applicable. Vendor shall state separately on invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Licensee agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

9. Limited Warranty; Remedies; Disclaimer.

- 9.1 For 90 days beginning on the date of the Order for the License, Forcepoint warrants that the Products (other than Services Offerings), as updated from time to time by Forcepoint and used in accordance with the Documentation and the Agreement by Licensee, will operate in substantial conformance with the Documentation under normal use ("Warranty Period"). Forcepoint warrants that Services Offerings will be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner and Forcepoint will comply with all applicable laws in providing the Services Offerings. Forcepoint does not warrant that: (A) the Products will (i) be free of defects, (ii) satisfy Licensee's requirements, (iii) operate without interruption or error, (iv) always locate or block access to or transmission of all desired addresses, emails, Malware, applications and/or files, or (v) identify every transmission or file that should potentially be located or blocked; (B) data contained in the Databases will be (i) appropriately categorized or (ii) that the algorithms used in the Products will be complete or accurate; or (C) data contained in and risk scoring from the Cloud Services will be complete or interpreted correctly.

9.2 Licensee must promptly notify Forcepoint during the Warranty Period in writing of a claim. Provided that such claim is reasonably determined by Forcepoint to be Forcepoint's responsibility, Forcepoint will, within 30 days of its receipt of Licensee's written notice, (i) correct the Error or provide a workaround; (ii) provide Licensee with a plan reasonably acceptable to Licensee for correcting the Error; or (iii) if neither (i) nor (ii) can be accomplished with reasonable efforts from Forcepoint at Forcepoint's discretion, then Forcepoint may terminate the affected Product License and Licensee will be entitled to a refund of the Fees paid for the affected Product. This paragraph sets forth Licensee's sole and exclusive remedy and Forcepoint's entire liability for any breach of warranty or other duty related to the Products.

9.3 This warranty is void and Forcepoint is not obligated to provide technical support if a claimed breach of the warranty is caused by: (i) any unauthorized modification of the Products or tampering with the Products, (ii) use of the Products inconsistent with the accompanying Documentation, (iii) Licensee's failure to use any new or corrected versions of the Product made available by Forcepoint; or (iv) breach of this Agreement by Licensee or its users.

9.4 THE WARRANTIES SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION 9 ARE IN LIEU OF, AND FORCEPOINT, ITS LICENSORS

AND SUPPLIERS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, NON-INFRINGEMENT, TITLE OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND FREEDOM FROM PROGRAM ERRORS, VIRUSES OR ANY OTHER MALICIOUS CODE WITH RESPECT TO THE PRODUCTS AND SERVICES PROVIDED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

10. Limitation of Liability. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY IN THIS AGREEMENT, FORCEPOINT, ITS AFFILIATES, ITS LICENSORS OR RESELLERS WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR (I) LOST PROFITS; (II) LOSS OF BUSINESS; (III) LOSS OF GOODWILL, OPPORTUNITY, OR REVENUE; (IV) LICENSEE'S DECISIONS BASED ON ITS INTERPRETATION OF THE OUTPUT FROM THE PRODUCTS; NOR (V) ANY INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT WHETHER FORESEEABLE OR UNFORESEEABLE INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO CLAIMS FOR USE OF THE PRODUCTS, INTERRUPTION IN USE OR AVAILABILITY OF DATA, STOPPAGE OF OTHER WORK OR IMPAIRMENT OF OTHER ASSETS, PRIVACY, ACCESS TO OR USE OF ANY ADDRESSES, EXECUTABLES OR FILES THAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN LOCATED OR BLOCKED, BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE AND THIRD-PARTY CLAIMS, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. IN NO EVENT WILL FORCEPOINT'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNT ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY FORCEPOINT FOR THE LICENSEE'S APPLICABLE LICENSE TO THE PRODUCTS FOR THE PRODUCTS THAT DIRECTLY CAUSED THE LIABILITY. THE FOREGOING LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

11. Intellectual Property Indemnification. In the event of a third-party claim, suit or proceeding against Licensee asserting that use of the Product as permitted in this Agreement infringes a third-party's patent, copyright, or trademark right recognized in any jurisdiction where the Product is licensed, Forcepoint at its expense will have the right to intervene to defend Licensee and indemnify Licensee against costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), and damages payable to any third party in any such suit or cause of action that are directly related to that claim. Forcepoint's obligation under this Section is contingent upon Licensee providing Forcepoint with: (a) prompt written notice of the suit or claim; (b) the right to control and direct the defense of the claim; and (c) reasonable cooperation. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516. Licensee may participate in the defense at its own expense. Forcepoint will have no liability for any claim of infringement resulting from: (i) modification of the Products by anyone other than Forcepoint; (ii) a combination of the Products with other hardware or software not provided by Forcepoint; or (iii) failure by Licensee to implement Software Upgrades and Database Updates. In the event the Products, in Forcepoint's opinion, are likely to or do become the subject of a claim of infringement, Forcepoint may at its sole option and expense: (x) modify the Products to be non-infringing while preserving equivalent functionality; (y) obtain a license for Licensee's continued use of the Products; or (z) terminate this Agreement and the license granted hereunder, accept return of the Products and refund to Licensee the unused pre-paid Maintenance Fees paid for the affected Product applicable to the balance of the then-current Maintenance Term. THIS SECTION SETS FORTH FORCEPOINT'S ENTIRE LIABILITY AND OBLIGATION AND LICENSEE'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR ANY INFRINGEMENT OR CLAIMS OF INFRINGEMENT.

12. Term and Termination.

- 12.1 This Agreement continues in full force and effect until the expiration or termination of the Order(s), unless otherwise terminated earlier as provided hereunder. Upon termination or expiration of the Maintenance Term, Licensee's right to receive Maintenance to the Products terminates.
- 12.2 Product evaluation subscriptions are available for a period of up to 30 days, and limited availability Software licenses may be available for the time period determined by Forcepoint. Software evaluation subscriptions and limited availability Software licenses are each subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, except however that: (i) evaluation subscriptions and limited availability Software licenses may only be used to evaluate and facilitate Licensee's decision to purchase a license to the products; and (ii) evaluation subscriptions and limited availability Software licenses are provided by Forcepoint on an AS IS and AS AVAILABLE basis without warranties of any kind. At the end of the evaluation period or the limited availability Software license period, Licensee must place an Order and pay the applicable Fees, or this Agreement terminates as related to the evaluation subscription or limited availability Software license. Licensee's continued use of the products after an evaluation or limited availability Software license period is subject to this Agreement.

- 12.3 When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Forcepoint shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. Upon notification of termination by either party, Licensee must uninstall any Products, cease using and destroy or return all copies of the Products to Forcepoint, and to certify in writing that all known copies thereof, including backup copies, have been destroyed. Sections 1, 6- 12, and 14-17 will survive the termination of this Agreement.
- 12.4 Reserved.

13. Compliance with Laws. Each party will comply with all applicable laws and regulations, that may apply to issues including the protection of personal data, and anti-bribery. Licensee must obtain any required consents (including employee consent) addressing the interception, reading, copying, analyzing, or filtering of emails and their attachments as well as any local government permits, licenses, or approvals required to use the Products. Neither party will use any data obtained via the Products for any unlawful purpose. Each party's obligations with respect to the treatment of personal data submitted to Forcepoint pursuant to this Agreement are set forth in the terms of the Forcepoint Data Processing Agreement. The then-current agreement attached to the Agreement.

14. Rights of Government Licensees. The Products meet the definition of "commercial item" in Federal Acquisition Regulation ("FAR") 2.101, were developed entirely at private expense, and are provided to Government Licensees exclusively under the terms of this Agreement. Software, including Software Upgrades, is "commercial computer software" and applicable Documentation and media are "commercial computer software documentation," as those terms are used in FAR 12.212. Use of the Products by the U.S. Government constitutes acknowledgment of Forcepoint's proprietary rights therein, and of the exclusive applicability of this Agreement.

15. Export. Commodities, technology, and software, including the Products (collectively referred to as "items") are subject to the export control laws of the United States and other countries that may lawfully control the export of such items. Moreover, the furnishing of support services with respect to items that are controlled as defense or military items may also be subject to such laws. Licensee will not transfer such items or furnish such services except in compliance with the export laws of the United States and any other country that may lawfully control the export of such items or the provision of such services.

16. Verification. Upon Forcepoint's request, Licensee will provide a written certification confirming its compliance with this Agreement. Further, during the License term and one year thereafter, Forcepoint or Forcepoint's independent auditor may review Licensee's records related to Licensee's use of the Products to verify Licensee's compliance with this Agreement. Licensee will provide reasonable assistance, access to personnel, facilities, and systems, as well as information necessary to facilitate Forcepoint's compliance verification. The verification will be performed during regular business hours and will not interfere unreasonably with Licensee's business activities. The cost of the verification will be borne by Forcepoint unless a discrepancy indicating that additional Fees are due to Forcepoint, in which case the reasonable cost of the verification will be borne by Licensee. Licensee will promptly cure any noncompliance and will pay any Fees due as a result of such noncompliance. The rights and remedies under this Section are in addition to any other rights Forcepoint may have under this Agreement. Additionally, Forcepoint may at any time, without notice, during the term of this Agreement access Licensee's system, subject to applicable local law, to determine whether Licensee and its users are complying with the terms of this Agreement. Licensee acknowledges that the Products may include a license manager component to track usage of the Products and Licensee will not impede, disable, or otherwise undermine such license manager's operation.

- 17.1 For the purposes of customer service, technical support, and as a means of facilitating interactions with its end-users, Forcepoint may periodically send Licensee messages of an informational or advertising nature via email and provide account information to related third parties (e.g. Licensee's reseller). Information will be processed by Forcepoint in accordance with applicable data privacy laws. Licensee may at any time update its communications preferences on Forcepoint.com or by sending an email to privacy@forcepoint.com. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that if it chooses not to receive informational or advertising messages, then it will not receive Forcepoint emails concerning upgrades and enhancements to Products. However, Forcepoint may still send emails of a technical nature. Forcepoint may use non-identifying and aggregate usage and statistical information collected in relation to Licensees' and its users' use of the Products for purposes outside of the Agreement. Licensee acknowledges that Forcepoint may use Licensee's company name only in a general list of Forcepoint customers.
- 17.2 Licensee may not transfer any of Licensee's rights to use the Products or assign this Agreement to another person or entity, without first obtaining prior written approval from Forcepoint.
- 17.3 Any notice required or permitted under this Agreement or required by law must be in writing and must be (i) delivered in person, (ii) sent by first class registered mail, or air mail, as appropriate, or (iii) sent by an internationally recognized overnight air courier, in each case properly posted and fully prepaid. Notices sent to Forcepoint must be sent to the attention of the General Counsel at 10900-A Stonelake Blvd., 3rd Floor, Austin, TX 78759 USA. Notices sent to Licensee will be sent to Licensee's address in Forcepoint's system of record. Notices are considered to have been received at the time of actual delivery in person, two business days after deposit in the mail as set forth above, or one day after delivery to an overnight air courier service. Either party may change its contact person for notices and/or address for notice by means of notice to the other party given in accordance with this paragraph.
- 17.4 Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof will be governed by the Federal laws of the United States.
- 17.5 Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f).
- 17.6 This Agreement is the entire agreement between the parties regarding the subject matter herein and the parties have not relied on any promise, representation, or warranty, express or implied, that is not in this Agreement. Licensee agrees that this Agreement is neither contingent on the delivery of any future functionality or features nor dependent on any oral or written comments made by Forcepoint regarding future functionality or features. Any waiver or modification of this Agreement is only effective if it is in writing and signed by both parties or posted by Forcepoint at: Legal Information. Forcepoint is not obligated under any other agreements unless they are in writing and signed by an authorized representative of Forcepoint. All pre-printed or standard terms of any Licensee's purchase order or other business processing document have no effect, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement will prevail over such forms, and any additional, inconsistent, conflicting, or different terms in such forms will be void and of no force and effect. In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the terms of an Order, the terms of this Agreement prevail.

- 17.7 If any part of this Agreement is found invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Agreement will be interpreted so as reasonably to affect the intention of the parties.

FORCEPOINT END USER AGREEMENT PUBLIC SECTOR ADDENDUM

THE PRODUCTS ARE PROVIDED ONLY ON THE CONDITION THAT SUBSCRIBER OR LICENSEE ("CUSTOMER") AGREES TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS IN THE APPLICABLE FORCEPOINT END USER AGREEMENT, AND THE MATERIALS REFERENCED THEREIN ("AGREEMENT"), BETWEEN CUSTOMER AND FORCEPOINT FEDERAL LLC ("FORCEPOINT"). TO THE EXTENT CUSTOMER IS A PUBLIC SECTOR ENTITY (AS DEFINED BELOW) PURCHASING SUBSCRIPTIONS OR LICENSES TO PRODUCTS THROUGH A U.S. GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT CONTRACT (AS DEFINED BELOW) OF AN AUTHORIZED FORCEPOINT DISTRIBUTOR OR RESELLER THAT IDENTIFIES SUCH PURCHASE IS OCCURRING UNDER SUCH CONTRACT, THE AGREEMENT IS SUPPLEMENTED BY THIS PUBLIC SECTOR ADDENDUM ("ADDENDUM"). ANY CAPITALIZED TERMS USED BUT UNDEFINED IN THIS ADDENDUM WILL HAVE THE MEANINGS PROVIDED IN THE AGREEMENT. TO THE EXTENT APPLICABLE, THE TERMS OF THIS ADDENDUM WILL TAKE PRECEDENCE AND CONTROL OVER ANY CONFLICTING TERMS IN THE AGREEMENT. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY MODIFIED IN THIS ADDENDUM, ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE AGREEMENT REMAIN IN EFFECT AND UNCHANGED.

IF A SUBSCRIPTION OR LICENSE TO USE THE PRODUCTS IS OBTAINED THROUGH A U.S. GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT CONTRACT, THEN THE AGREEMENT AND THIS ADDENDUM MUST BE INCORPORATED INTO THE CONTRACT EXECUTED BY CUSTOMER'S CONTRACTING OFFICER OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE AND MUST AUTHORIZE CUSTOMER ACCEPTANCE OF THE AGREEMENT AND THIS ADDENDUM.

NOTICE TO RESELLERS, DISTRIBUTORS, AND NON-CUSTOMERS.
THE PRODUCTS, SUBSCRIPTIONS, AND/OR LICENSES ARE NOT TRANSFERABLE. IF YOU ARE NOT THE CUSTOMER, PLEASE CONTACT FORCEPOINT FOR A TRANSFERABLE SUBSCRIPTION AND/OR LICENSE.

BY ACCEPTING THE AGREEMENT AND THIS ADDENDUM IN WRITING, CUSTOMER ACKNOWLEDGES IT HAS READ, UNDERSTANDS, AND HAS THE AUTHORITY TO ENTER INTO AND AGREES TO BE BOUND BY THE AGREEMENT AND THIS ADDENDUM. IF YOU DO NOT ACCEPT THE AGREEMENT AND THIS ADDENDUM, DO NOT PROCEED WITH THE INSTALLATION/USE OF THE PRODUCT AND PROMPTLY RETURN THE PRODUCT AND ALL ACCOMPANYING ITEMS (INCLUDING DOCUMENTATION, SOFTWARE MEDIA, ETC.) TO FORCEPOINT.

Customer and Forcepoint hereby agree as follows:

1. The following definitions apply:
"Public Sector Entity" means a Customer that is (i) a member of the U.S. government's legislative, judicial, or executive branches; (ii) a U.S. state or local government entity; or (iii) an accredited academic institution organized and operated for educational purposes that receives partial or full funding from a federal, state, or local agency, or administrative offices or boards for such academic institutions.
"U.S. Government Procurement Contract" means, to the extent it includes Forcepoint Products use of which are subject to the terms of the Agreement, the following public sector contract.
2. Governing Law, Venue, And Dispute Resolution. To the extent required by law: any dispute arising out of or relating to the Agreement or the breach thereof will be subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C 7101-7109) and Federal Tort Claims Act (28 U.S.C. 1346(b)), and will be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the Contract Disputes Act, or applicable dispute resolutions process.
3. Indemnities. To the extent required by law: indemnities provided by Public Sector Entity in the Agreement are deemed to be deleted, provided that, Public Sector Entity will, to the extent permitted by law, remain responsible for compliance with any such obligations and requirements in lieu of any such deleted indemnity. For clarity, the judicial department may elect to exercise its right (i.e. 28 U.S.C. 516) to represent a Public Sector Entity in any case and a Public Sector Entity may elect not to give sole control over litigation and/or settlement to Forcepoint by not requesting an indemnity from Forcepoint; provided however, that Forcepoint reserves the right to control litigation and/or settlements related to its intellectual property, including its Products.

4. Renewals. Those Agreement clauses that violate the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. 1341, 41 U.S.C. 11) ban on automatic renewal are hereby deemed to be deleted.
5. Future Fees or Penalties. Those Agreement clauses that violate the Anti-Deficiency Act, which prohibits a Public Sector Entity from paying any fees or penalties beyond the Fees agreed in the Order, unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act, or Equal Access To Justice Act (31 U.S.C. 3901, 5 U.S.C. 504), are hereby deemed to be deleted.
6. Travel and Expenses. Out-of-pocket expenses identified in a quote, statement of work, professional services agreement (or similar agreement) for Services Offerings agreed between Forcepoint and Public Sector Entity to be reimbursed by Public Sector Entity at cost must be submitted for payment no more than sixty (60) days after completion of Services Offerings or such payment may be denied. Forcepoint will ensure that such travel expenses are incurred in accordance with the limitations set forth in FAR 31.205-46. Upon request, Forcepoint will provide budgetary estimates for all travel and expense fees on its quotes (or Statement of Works/Professional Service Agreements) to Public Sector Entity.
7. Limitation of Liability: To the extent the following damages are prohibited by law against a Public Sector Entity: Public Sector Entity is not liable for any indirect, incidental, special, or consequential damages, or any loss of profits, revenue, data, or data use, and Public Sector Entity is not liable for punitive damages. No clause in the Agreement will limit the Public Sector Entity's right to seek recovery for fraud or crimes under applicable fraud statute, such as the False Claims Act (31 U.S.C. 3729-3733).
8. Public Access to Information. Forcepoint agrees that the terms and conditions of the Agreement contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Agreement may be made available to the public.
9. Confidentiality. Those Agreement clauses that require Public Sector Entity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552) and any order by a United States Federal Court. Forcepoint's Products and offerings are and contain valuable, confidential information and trade secrets, and as such, to the extent they may be considered government data, they are trade secret information, "confidential data," and/or not public data. To the extent permitted by law: Public Sector Entity's initial response to any such FOIA request to provide Forcepoint's Products or offerings will be to assert the trade secret information and/or not public data exceptions to the disclosure and provide Forcepoint with advance reasonable written notice and an opportunity to seek protection, at its own cost, prior to releasing such information.
10. Payment Terms. If Customer is purchasing licenses of the Software under a U.S. Government Procurement Contract, the payment terms are as set forth in the U.S. Government Procurement Contract. Customer agrees to pay the applicable fees as set forth in the Order subject to all applicable Federal laws and regulations.
11. Termination.

This Agreement continues in full force and effect until the expiration or termination of the Order(s), unless otherwise terminated earlier as provided in the FAR, the underlying U.S. Government Procurement Contract and/or any applicable Order. Upon termination or expiration of the Term, Customer's right to use the Products ends.

When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be made as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Forcepoint shall proceed diligently with performance of this contract, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the contract, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. Upon expiration or notification of termination, Customer must uninstall any Products, cease using and destroy or return all copies of the Products to Forcepoint, and to certify in writing that all known copies thereof, including backup copies, have been destroyed.

12. Excusable Delays. Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f).
13. Intellectual Property Indemnification: When the purchase is made under a U.S. Government Procurement Contract, the following will replace section 11 of the License Agreement:

In the event of a third-party claim, suit or proceeding against Customer asserting that use of the Product as permitted in this Agreement infringes a third-party's patent, copyright, or trademark right recognized in any jurisdiction where the Product is used, Forcepoint at its expense will defend Customer and indemnify Customer against costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), and damages payable to any third party in any such suit or cause of action that are directly related to that claim to the extent permitted under 28 U.S.C. 516. Forcepoint's obligation under this Section is contingent upon Customer providing Forcepoint with: (a) prompt written notice of the suit or claim; (b) the right to control and direct the defense of the claim as set forth in 28 U.S.C. 516; and (c) reasonable cooperation with Forcepoint. Forcepoint will have no liability for any claim of infringement resulting from: (i) modification of the Products by anyone other than Forcepoint; (ii) a combination of the Products with other hardware or software not provided by Forcepoint; or (iii) failure by Customer to implement Software Upgrades and Database Updates. In the event the Products, in Forcepoint's opinion, are likely to or do become the subject of a claim of infringement, Forcepoint may at its sole option and expense: (x) modify the Products to be non-infringing while preserving equivalent functionality; (y) obtain a license for Customer's continued use of the Products; or (z) terminate this Agreement and the license granted hereunder, accept return of the Products and refund to Customer the unused pre-paid Maintenance or Subscription Fees paid for the affected Product applicable to the balance of the then current Term. SUBJECT TO FAR 52.212-

FORCEPOINT END-USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

THE PRODUCTS ARE PROVIDED ONLY ON THE CONDITION THAT LICENSEE AGREES TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS IN THIS END-USER LICENSE AGREEMENT AND THE MATERIALS REFERENCED HEREIN (“AGREEMENT”) BETWEEN LICENSEE (DEFINED BELOW) AND FORCEPOINT. IF A LICENSE TO USE THE PRODUCTS IS OBTAINED THROUGH A U.S. GOVERNMENT GSA SCHEDULE, THEN THIS AGREEMENT MUST BE INCORPORATED INTO THE CONTRACT EXECUTED BY LICENSEE’S CONTRACTING OFFICER OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE AND MUST AUTHORIZE LICENSEE’S ACCEPTANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT. TO THE EXTENT CUSTOMER IS A PUBLIC SECTOR ENTITY (AS DEFINED BELOW) PURCHASING SUBSCRIPTIONS OR LICENSES TO PRODUCTS THROUGH A U.S. GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT CONTRACT (AS DEFINED BELOW) OF AN AUTHORIZED FORCEPOINT DISTRIBUTOR OR RESELLER THAT IDENTIFIES SUCH PURCHASE IS OCCURRING UNDER SUCH CONTRACT, THE AGREEMENT IS SUPPLEMENTED BY THE PUBLIC SECTOR ADDENDUM ATTACHED HERETO (“ADDENDUM”).

BY ACCEPTING THIS AGREEMENT BY EXECUTING A WRITTEN ORDER UNDER A GSA SCHEDULE, FOR THE PRODUCTS, LICENSEE ACKNOWLEDGES IT HAS READ, UNDERSTANDS, AND HAS THE AUTHORITY TO ENTER INTO AND AGREES TO BE BOUND BY THIS AGREEMENT.

1. Definitions.

“Affiliate” means an entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with Licensee, where control is established by a majority ownership (greater than fifty percent (50%)) in or over an entity; provided, however, that the term “Affiliate” will not include an entity that is a direct competitor of Forcepoint.

“Concurrent User” means the total number of Users simultaneously using the Software at any given time.

“Device” or “Server” means each computer (whether physical or virtual), electronic appliance, or device on which the Software may be installed or otherwise used, directly or indirectly. In the case of virtual systems, each virtual machine or instance running the Software is considered to be a Device or Server. In the case of Forcepoint Data Diode, each Server license includes the right to use of the Software on up to two Servers solely to facilitate the communication between no more than two Networks through a fiber connection.

“Documentation” means the Product installation instructions, user manuals, release notes, and operating instructions prepared by Forcepoint, in any form or medium, as may be updated from time to time by Forcepoint and made generally available to Licensee.

“Error” means a material failure of the Software to conform to the Documentation, which is reported by Licensee and replicable by Forcepoint.

“Fees” means collectively the License Fees, the Maintenance Fees, the Subscription Fees, and the Services Fees.

“License” means the limited, personal, non-sublicensable, non-exclusive, nontransferable right to use the Software for the License Term set forth in the Order, use the output of the Services Offerings, in accordance with this Agreement and the Order. “License Fees” means the agreed upon license fees for the Software included in an Order.

“Licensee” means the Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule Contracts that has placed an Order that is the ultimate end user of the Products.

“License Term” means the period set forth in an Order beginning (i) on the date of the Order if a new purchase, (ii) the date of delivery if the Order is placed through Forcepoint’s GSA Schedule, or (iii) on the renewal date of the expiration of a previous License Term.

“Maintenance” means a limited-term, non-exclusive, non-sublicensable, nontransferable right to receive the support level purchased pursuant to an Order as further described in Section 3, including if and when available: (i) Error corrections or workarounds, and (ii) the provision of Software Updates, in accordance with this Agreement and the Order.

“Maintenance Fees” means the agreed upon fees for the Maintenance in an Order.

“Maintenance Term” means the agreed upon time period for the provision of Maintenance in an Order beginning (i) on the date of the Order if a new purchase, (ii) the date of delivery if the Order is placed through Forcepoint’s GSA Schedule, or (iii) on the renewal date of the expiration of a previous Maintenance Term.

“Network” means a communication path through a network interface controller, using a physical or virtual infrastructure that interconnects a set of endpoints or devices for the purpose of exchanging data.

“Order” means a purchase commitment mutually agreed upon between (1) Forcepoint and Licensee or (2) a Forcepoint authorized reseller(s) and Licensee.

“Permitted Capacity” means the number of Devices, Servers, Concurrent Users, Network, Proxy, Users, or other license metrics as set forth in the Order.

“Products” means Software, together with applicable Documentation and media, and if purchased pursuant to an Order, Maintenance and Services Offerings.

“Proxy” means a software module acting as an intermediary between communicating endpoints or devices that controls access between a set of Network endpoints or devices by inspecting, filtering, and forwarding traffic between the senders and receivers.

“Services Fees” means the agreed upon fees for the Services Offering set forth in an Order, services proposal, or statement of work.

“Services Offerings” means Forcepoint’s professional services offerings described in a Forcepoint published services datasheet, services proposal, or statement of work.

“Software” means Forcepoint’s proprietary software applications, in object code only together with any Software Updates provided pursuant to Maintenance.

“Software Updates” means certain Updates, modifications, or revisions to the Software, provided solely pursuant to Maintenance, but excludes Software Upgrades and other products for which Forcepoint generally charges a separate fee. “Software Upgrades” means a major version change to the software signified by a change in the number to the left of the decimal point and is a product for which Forcepoint charges a separate fee.

“Subscription” means a limited, non-exclusive, personal, non-sublicensable, nontransferable right during the Subscription Term to use the Software and to use the output of the Services Offerings, in accordance with this Agreement and the Order. “Subscription Fees” means the agreed upon fees for the Subscription in an Order.

“Subscription Term” means the agreed upon time period in an Order beginning (i) on the date of the Order if a new purchase, (ii) the date of delivery if the Order is placed through Forcepoint’s GSA Schedule, or (iii) on the renewal date of the expiration of a previous Subscription Term.

“Update(s)” means any corrections or workarounds for substantial defects, fixes of any minor bugs, and corrections for security flaws, issued to Licensee by Forcepoint as part of Maintenance (provided that Licensee has paid the applicable Maintenance Fees).

“User” means any person utilizing Licensee’s or an Affiliate’s network with access to the Software directly or indirectly, who is an employee, temporary employee, contractor, or guest of Licensee or an Affiliate.

2. License/Subscription Grant. Subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement and timely payment of the applicable Fees, Forcepoint hereby grants Licensee a License or if applicable a Subscription to use the Software, Documentation, and Software Updates provided pursuant to Maintenance (including any output of the Services Offerings) identified in the Order solely for Licensee’s internal business purposes up to the Permitted Capacity set forth in the Order. Provided Licensee pays the Maintenance Fees and Services Fees, Forcepoint will provide Licensee with Maintenance and the Services Offerings, respectively. Subject to compliance with the terms of this Agreement, Licensee may relocate or transfer the Software for use on a different server within its location. Licensee will not and may not permit any third party to copy the Products, other than copies made solely for data backup and testing purposes. Any source code provided to Licensee by Forcepoint is subject to the terms of this Agreement. Forcepoint may make changes to the Products at any time without notice. In the event that Forcepoint makes a material change to the Product that diminishes functionality of the Product Ordering Licensee has contracted for, Licensee shall be entitled to a pro rata refund for any fees paid not used. Licensee understands that its right to use the Products is limited by the Permitted Capacity purchased, and Licensee’s use may in no event exceed the Permitted Capacity authorized under the applicable Order. The Permitted Capacity provided in the Order(s) represents minimum amounts that Licensee has committed to for the Maintenance Term. If Licensee’s use exceeds the Permitted Capacity, Licensee must purchase additional Permitted Capacity sufficient for the excess use.

3. Maintenance and Services Offerings.

3.1 Maintenance activities are provided under Forcepoint’s current Forcepoint Global Governments Software Maintenance and Hardware Support Description attached hereto. Maintenance will be provided to Licensee only if Licensee has paid the applicable Maintenance Fees. Forcepoint may require Licensee to install Software Updates up to and including the latest release. In the event Software support expires prior to renewing support, Licensee must also purchase Maintenance to cover the lapsed support period between the date Maintenance expires and the date it is renewed.

3.2 Forcepoint’s obligation to provide Maintenance is limited to: (i) Software that has not been altered or modified by anyone other than Forcepoint or its licensors; (ii) a release for which Maintenance is provided; (iii) Licensee’s use of the Software in accordance with the Documentation; and (iv) errors and malfunctions caused by systems or programs supplied by Forcepoint. If an Error has been corrected or is not present in a more current version of the Software, Forcepoint will provide the more current version via Maintenance but will not have any obligation to correct such Error in prior versions.

3.3 Maintenance may be limited to the most current release and the most recent previous sequential major release of the Software. Forcepoint reserves the right to terminate the Maintenance or increase the associated fees upon sixty (60) days’ notice should Licensee not stay current with a supported release in accordance with this Section.

3.4 Licensee will cooperate with Forcepoint personnel providing any Services Offerings, and to provide reasonable assistance, including: (i) gathering relevant supporting documentation; (ii) ensuring appropriate Licensee personnel are assigned to the project and are able to devote sufficient time to facilitate the project; (iii) granting resource access to information, systems, and licenses related to the scope of the project; (iv) providing building and network access before, during, and after normal business hours, work space, and workstations for each of the Forcepoint personnel, logon IDs and security access to all required Products, and adequate test environment, and any reasonable and appropriate data to perform the Services Offerings.

4. Intellectual Property Rights. All right, title and interest in and to the Products, any modifications, translations, or derivatives thereof including any related scripts, tools, and know-how and all applicable intellectual property and proprietary rights thereto remain exclusively with Forcepoint or its licensors. The Products may include software products licensed from third parties. Such third parties have no obligations or liability to Licensee under this Agreement but are third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement. Forcepoint owns any suggestions, ideas, enhancement requests, feedback, or recommendations provided by Licensee relating to the Products. Except as otherwise expressly provided, Forcepoint grants no express or implied right under Forcepoint patents, copyrights, trademarks, or other intellectual property rights, and all rights not expressly granted to Licensee in this Agreement are reserved to Forcepoint and its licensors. Licensee may not remove any proprietary notice of Forcepoint or any third party from the Products or any copy of the Products, without Forcepoint’s prior written consent.

5. Protections and Restrictions.

5.1 Each party (the “Disclosing Party”) may disclose to the other (the “Receiving Party”) certain confidential technical and business information that the Disclosing Party desires the Receiving Party to treat as confidential. “Confidential Information” means any information disclosed by either party to the other party, either directly or indirectly, in writing, orally, electronically or by inspection of tangible objects (including without limitation prototypes, technical data, trade secrets and know-how, product plans, Products, customer lists and customer information, prices and costs, databases, inventions, processes, hardware configuration information, finances, budgets and other business information), which is designated as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or some similar designation at or prior to the time of disclosure, or that should otherwise reasonably be considered confidential by the Receiving Party. Confidential Information may also include information disclosed to a Disclosing Party by third parties. Confidential Information will not, however, include any information that the Receiving Party can document (i) was publicly known and made generally available prior to the time of disclosure by the Disclosing Party or an authorized third party; (ii) becomes publicly known and made generally available after disclosure through no action or inaction of the Receiving Party in violation of any obligation of confidentiality; (iii) is already in the possession of the Receiving Party at the time of disclosure; (iv) is lawfully obtained by the Receiving Party from a third party without a breach of such third party's obligations of confidentiality; or (v) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of or reference to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information. The Receiving Party will treat all Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party as non-public confidential information and will not disclose it to any person other than Disclosing Party and employees and contractors of Receiving Party on a need to know basis and that Receiving Party will protect the confidentiality of such Confidential Information in the same manner that it protects the confidentiality of its own proprietary and confidential information, but in no event with less than a reasonable standard of care. Licensee's use of the Products to process data is not a disclosure of Confidential Information to Forcepoint for purposes of this Section. Furthermore, neither party will use the Confidential Information of the other party for any purpose other than carrying out its rights and obligations under this Agreement. Forcepoint recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which may require that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

- 5.2 Licensee will take all reasonable steps to safeguard the Products to ensure that no unauthorized person has access and that no unauthorized copy, publication, disclosure or distribution, in any form is made. The Products contain valuable, confidential information and trade secrets and unauthorized use or copying is harmful to Forcepoint. The Products are proprietary to Forcepoint and are exempt from any public disclosure statute or regulation, including without limitation the Freedom of Information Act requirements. Licensee may use the Products only for the internal business purposes of Licensee.

Licensee will not itself, or through any affiliate, employee, consultant, contractor, agent or other third party: (i) sell, resell, distribute, host, lease, rent, license or sublicense, in whole or in part, the Products; (ii) decipher, decompile, disassemble, reverse assemble, modify, translate, reverse engineer or otherwise attempt to derive source code, algorithms, tags, specifications, architecture, structure or other elements of the Products, in whole or in part, for competitive purposes or otherwise; (iii) allow access to, provide, divulge or make available the Products to any user other than Licensee's employees and contractors who have a need to such access and who will be bound by nondisclosure obligations that are at least as restrictive as the terms of this Agreement; (iv) write or develop any derivative works based upon the Products; (v) modify, adapt, translate or otherwise make any changes to the Products or any part thereof; (vi) use the Products to provide processing services to third parties, or otherwise use the same on a 'service bureau' basis; (vii) disclose or publish, without Forcepoint's prior written consent, performance or capacity statistics or the results of any benchmark test performed on the Products; (viii) otherwise use or copy the same except as expressly permitted herein; (ix) use any third-party software included in the Products independently from the Products. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Licensee may allow its agents and independent contractors to use the Products solely for the benefit of Licensee; provided, however, Licensee remains responsible for any breach of this Agreement. Any other use of the Products by any other entity is forbidden and a violation of this Agreement. If any additional third-party end-user license agreement or open source software license agreement is (a) attached to this Agreement or the Order, or (b) included in the Product "about" file, "readme" file or Documentation, then Licensee's use of the third-party software is further restricted by and subject to such license.

6. Financial Terms. Fees and payment terms are specified in the applicable Order in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist. Except as otherwise expressly specified in the Order: (i) all recurring payment obligations start from the receipt of the Order; (ii) when the Order is placed directly with Forcepoint fees must be paid within 30 days after the invoice receipt date; (iii) upon the expiration of each Maintenance Term, the Maintenance Fees will be Forcepoint's then-current GSA Schedule list price for such Products; and (iv) interest accrues on past due balances at the highest rate allowed by the Prompt Payment Act (31 USC 3901 et seq) and Treasury regulations at 5 CFR 1315. Forcepoint's reasonable travel and lodging expenses incurred in the performance of services on Licensee's site will be billed separately at actual cost in accordance with Federal Travel Regulation (FTR)/Joint Travel Regulations (JTR), as applicable. Vendor shall state separately on invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Licensee agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

7. Limited Warranty; Remedies; Disclaimer.

- 7.1 For ninety (90) days beginning on the date of the Order for the License, Forcepoint warrants that the original media (if any) containing the Software is free from defects in material and workmanship, assuming normal use. As the sole and exclusive remedy for defective media, Forcepoint will replace it free of charge if claimed during the 90-day warranty period. The limited warranty specified in this Section 7 sets forth Forcepoint's entire liability and Licensee's exclusive remedy for breach of warranty. Forcepoint warrants that Services Offerings will be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner and Forcepoint will comply with all applicable laws in providing the Services Offerings.
- 7.2 EXCEPT FOR THE ABOVE LIMITED MEDIA WARRANTY, THE PRODUCTS ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" AND FORCEPOINT AND ITS LICENSORS DISCLAIM ALL PROMISES, REPRESENTATIONS, AND WARRANTIES WITH RESPECT TO THE PERFORMANCE, OPERATION, RESULTS, USE OF, OR INABILITY TO USE THE PRODUCTS, AND ANY DATA OR OTHER MATERIALS FURNISHED HEREUNDER. THE WARRANTIES SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION 7 ARE IN LIEU OF, AND FORCEPOINT, ITS LICENSORS AND SUPPLIERS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ALL OTHER PROMISES, REPRESENTATIONS, AND WARRANTIES, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WITH RESPECT TO THE PERFORMANCE, OPERATION, RESULTS, USE OF, OR INABILITY TO USE THE PRODUCTS AND ANY DATA OR OTHER MATERIAL FURNISHED HEREUNDER INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, NON-INFRINGEMENT, TITLE OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND FREEDOM FROM PROGRAM ERRORS, VIRUSES OR ANY OTHER MALICIOUS CODE WITH RESPECT TO THE PRODUCTS PROVIDED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

8. Limitation of Liability. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY IN THIS AGREEMENT, FORCEPOINT, ITS AFFILIATES, ITS LICENSORS OR RESELLERS WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR (I) LOST PROFITS; (II) LOSS OF BUSINESS; (III) LOSS OF GOODWILL, OPPORTUNITY, OR REVENUE; (IV) LICENSEE'S DECISIONS BASED ON ITS INTERPRETATION OF THE OUTPUT FROM THE PRODUCTS; NOR (V) ANY INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT WHETHER FORESEEABLE OR UNFORESEEABLE INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO CLAIMS FOR USE OF THE PRODUCTS, INTERRUPTION IN USE OR AVAILABILITY OF DATA, STOPPAGE OF OTHER WORK OR IMPAIRMENT OF OTHER ASSETS, PRIVACY, ACCESS TO OR USE OF ANY ADDRESSES, EXECUTABLES OR FILES THAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN LOCATED OR BLOCKED, BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE AND THIRD-PARTY CLAIMS, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. IN NO EVENT WILL FORCEPOINT'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNT ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY FORCEPOINT FOR THE LICENSEE'S APPLICABLE LICENSE OR SUBSCRIPTION TO THE PRODUCTS FOR THE PRODUCTS THAT DIRECTLY CAUSED THE LIABILITY. THE FOREGOING LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

9. Intellectual Property Indemnification. In the event of a third-party claim, suit or proceeding against Licensee asserting that use of the Product as permitted in this Agreement infringes a third-party's patent, copyright, or trademark right recognized in any jurisdiction where the Product is licensed, Forcepoint at its expense will have the right to intervene to defend Licensee and indemnify Licensee against costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), and damages payable to any third party in any such suit or cause of action that are directly related to that claim. Forcepoint's obligation under this Section is contingent upon Licensee providing Forcepoint with: (a) prompt written notice of the suit or claim; (b) the right to solely control and direct the defense of the claim; and (c) reasonable cooperation. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516. Licensee may participate in the defense at its own expense. Forcepoint will have no liability for any claim of infringement resulting from: (i) modification of the Products by anyone other than Forcepoint; (ii) a combination of the Products with other hardware or software not provided by Forcepoint; or (iii) failure by Licensee to implement Software Updates. In the event the Products, in Forcepoint's opinion, are likely to or do become the subject of a claim of infringement, Forcepoint may at its sole option and expense: (x) modify the Products to be non-infringing while preserving equivalent functionality; (y) obtain a license for Licensee's continued use of the Products; or (z) terminate this Agreement and the license granted hereunder, accept return of the Products and refund to Licensee the unused pre-paid Maintenance Fees paid for the affected Product applicable to the balance of the then-current Maintenance Term. THIS SECTION SETS FORTH FORCEPOINT'S ENTIRE LIABILITY AND OBLIGATION AND LICENSEE'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR ANY INFRINGEMENT OR CLAIMS OF INFRINGEMENT.

10. Term and Termination.

- 10.1 This Agreement continues in full force and effect until the expiration or termination of the Order(s), unless otherwise terminated earlier as provided hereunder. Upon termination or expiration of the Maintenance Term, Licensee's right to receive Maintenance to the Products terminates. Upon termination or expiration of the License Term and/or Subscription Term, Licensee's right to use the Products terminates.
- 10.2 Product evaluation subscriptions are available for a period of up to thirty (30) days, and limited availability Software licenses may be available for the time period determined by Forcepoint. Software evaluation subscriptions and limited availability Software licenses are each subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, except however that: (i) evaluation subscriptions and limited availability Software licenses may only be used to evaluate and facilitate Licensee's decision to purchase a license to the products; and (ii) evaluation subscriptions and limited availability Software licenses are provided by Forcepoint on an AS IS and AS AVAILABLE basis without warranties of any kind. At the end of the evaluation period or the limited availability Software license period, Licensee must place an Order and pay the applicable Fees, or this Agreement terminates as related to the evaluation subscription or limited availability Software license. Licensee's continued use of the products after an evaluation or limited availability Software license period is subject to this Agreement.
- 10.3 When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Forcepoint shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. Upon notification of termination by either party, Licensee must cease using and uninstall any Software, destroy or return all copies of the Products to Forcepoint, and must certify in writing that all known copies thereof, including backup copies, have been destroyed. Sections 1, 4 – 10, and 12 – 16 will survive the termination of this Agreement.
- 10.4 Reserved.

11. Compliance with Laws.

- 11.1 Each party will comply with all applicable laws and regulations that may apply to issues including the protection of personal data, and anti-bribery. Licensee must obtain any required consents (including employee consent) addressing the interception, reading, copying, analyzing, or filtering of emails and their attachments as well as any local government permits, licenses, or approvals required to use the Products. Neither party will use any data obtained via the Products for any unlawful purpose. Each party's obligations with respect to the treatment of personal data submitted to Forcepoint pursuant to this Agreement are set forth in the terms of the Forcepoint Data Processing Agreement.

12. Rights of Government Licensees. The Products meet the definition of "commercial item" in Federal Acquisition Regulation ("FAR") 2.101, were developed entirely at private expense, and are provided to Government Licensees exclusively under the terms of this Agreement. Software, including Software Updates, is "commercial computer software" and applicable Documentation and media are "commercial computer software documentation," as those terms are used in FAR 12.212. Use of the Products by the U.S. Government constitutes acknowledgment of Forcepoint's proprietary rights therein, and of the exclusive applicability of this Agreement.

13. Export. Commodities, technology and software, including the Products (collectively referred to as “items”) are subject to the export control laws of the United States and other countries that may lawfully control the export of such items. Moreover, the furnishing of support services with respect to items that are controlled as defense or military items may also be subject to such laws. Licensee will not transfer such items or furnish such services except in compliance with the export laws of the United States and any other country that may lawfully control the export of such items or the provision of such services.
14. Verification. Upon Forcepoint’s request, Licensee will provide a written certification confirming its compliance with this Agreement. Further, during the License term and one year thereafter, Forcepoint or Forcepoint’s independent auditor may review Licensee’s records related to Licensee’s use of the Products to verify Licensee’s compliance with this Agreement. Licensee will provide reasonable assistance, access to personnel, facilities, and systems, as well as information necessary to facilitate Forcepoint’s compliance verification. The verification will be performed during regular business hours and will not interfere unreasonably with Licensee’s business activities. The cost of the verification will be borne by Forcepoint unless a discrepancy indicating that additional Fees are due to Forcepoint, in which case the reasonable cost of the verification will be borne by Licensee. Licensee will promptly cure any noncompliance and will pay any Fees due as a result of such noncompliance. The rights and remedies under this Section are in addition to any other rights Forcepoint may have under this Agreement. Additionally, Forcepoint may at any time, without notice, during the term of this Agreement access Licensee’s system, subject to applicable local law, to determine whether Licensee and its users are complying with the terms of this Agreement. Licensee acknowledges that the Products may include a license manager component to track usage of the Products and Licensee will not impede, disable or otherwise undermine such license manager’s operation.
15. General.
- 15.1 For the purposes of customer service, technical support, and as a means of facilitating interactions with its end- users, Forcepoint may periodically send Licensee messages of an informational or advertising nature via email and provide account information to related third parties (e.g. Licensee’s reseller). Information will be processed by Forcepoint in accordance with applicable data privacy laws. Licensee may at any time update its communications preferences on Forcepoint.com or by sending an email to privacy@forcepoint.com. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that if it chooses not to receive informational or advertising messages, then it will not receive Forcepoint emails concerning upgrades and enhancements to Products. However, Forcepoint may still send emails of a technical nature. Forcepoint may use nonidentifying and aggregate usage and statistical information related to Licensee’s and its users’ use of the Products for its own purposes outside of the Agreement. Licensee acknowledges that Forcepoint may use Licensee’s company name only in a general list of Forcepoint customers.
- 15.2 Licensee may not transfer any of Licensee’s rights to use the Products or assign this Agreement to another person or entity, without first obtaining prior written approval from Forcepoint.
- 15.3 Any notice required or permitted under this Agreement or required by law must be in writing and must be (i) delivered in person, (ii) sent by first class registered mail, or air mail, as appropriate, or (iii) sent by an internationally recognized overnight air courier, in each case properly posted and fully prepaid. Notices sent to Forcepoint must be sent to the attention of the General Counsel at 10900-A Stonelake Blvd., 3rd Floor, Austin, TX 78759 USA. Notices sent to Licensee will be sent to Licensee’s address in Forcepoint’s system of record. Notices are considered to have been received at the time of actual delivery in person, two (2) business days after deposit in the mail as set forth above, or one (1) day after delivery to an overnight air courier service. Either party may change its contact person for notices and/or address for notice by means of notice to the other party given in accordance with this paragraph.
- 15.4 Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof will be governed by the Federal laws of the United States.

- 15.5 Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f).
- 15.6 This Agreement is the entire agreement between the parties regarding the subject matter herein and the parties have not relied on any promise, representation, or warranty, express or implied, that is not in this Agreement. Licensee agrees that this Agreement is neither contingent on the delivery of any future functionality or features nor dependent on any oral or written comments made by Forcepoint regarding future functionality or features. Any waiver or modification of this Agreement is only effective if it is in writing and signed by both parties or posted by Forcepoint at: Legal Information. Forcepoint is not obligated under any other agreements unless they are in writing and signed by an authorized representative of Forcepoint. All pre-printed or standard terms of any Licensee's purchase order or other business processing document have no effect, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement will prevail over such forms, and any additional, inconsistent, conflicting, or different terms in such forms will be void and of no force and effect. In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the terms of an Order, the terms of this Agreement prevail.
- 15.7 If any part of this Agreement is found invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Agreement will be interpreted so as reasonably to affect the intention of the parties.

16. Third-Party End-User License Terms and Conditions.

- 16.1 The Software may integrate the McAfee Anti-Virus SDK Virus Scanning software library ("McAfee Software") provided by McAfee Inc. ("McAfee"), and the McAfee Software is provided pursuant to and governed by the terms and conditions of the Agreement except as follows:
- Licensee may not use or copy McAfee Software except as expressly provided herein, and except with McAfee's prior written permission, may not publish any performance or benchmark tests or analysis relating to McAfee Software.
  - McAfee Software may include programs or code that are licensed under an Open Source Software ("OSS") license model. OSS programs and code are subject to the terms, conditions and obligations of the applicable OSS license, and are SPECIFICALLY EXCLUDED FROM ANY WARRANTY AND SUPPORT OBLIGATIONS DESCRIBED ELSEWHERE IN THIS AGREEMENT.
  - Upon termination of Licensee's license to McAfee Software Licensee shall promptly de-install and return or destroy all copies of McAfee Software and related documentation.
  - Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the virus scanning capability of the Software may contain functionality to detect and report threats and vulnerabilities on Licensee's computer network. Such functionality may collect information from Licensee and automatically collect information about Licensee's system and the systems and networks they interact with (including without limitation information regarding network, licenses used, operating system types, versions, total scanners deployed, database size etc.) and submit such information to McAfee. Licensor shall not release any information collected regarding Licensee's systems and the systems and networks they interact with to any person or entity.
  - McAfee Software and any accompanying documentation, which have been developed at private expense and are made generally available to certain private (non-government) end user customers, are deemed to be "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation," respectively, pursuant to FAR Section 12.212, as applicable.
- 16.2 The Software may include Red Hat Enterprise Linux software ("Operating System") provided by Red Hat, Inc. ("Red Hat"), and the Operating System is provided pursuant to and governed by the terms and conditions of the Agreement except as follows:
- Subject to the following terms, Licensee is granted a perpetual, worldwide license to the Operating System (which may include multiple software components) pursuant to the GNU General Public License v.2. The license agreement for each software component is located in the software component's source code and permits Licensee to run, copy, modify, and redistribute the software component (subject to certain obligations in some cases), both in source code and binary code forms, with the exception of (a) certain binary only firmware components and (b) the images identified in Subsection 16.2.b., below. The license rights for the binary only firmware components are located with the components themselves. This Agreement pertains solely to the Operating System and does not limit Licensee's rights under, or grant Licensee rights that supersede, the license terms of any particular component.
  - Title to the Operating System and any component, or to any copy, modification, or merged portion shall remain with Red Hat and other licensors, subject to the applicable license. The "Red Hat" trademark and the "Shadowman" logo are registered trademarks of Red Hat in the U.S. and other countries. This Agreement does not permit Licensee to distribute the Operating System or its components using Red Hat's trademarks, regardless of whether the copy has been modified. Licensee may make a commercial redistribution of the Operating System only if (a) permitted under a separate written agreement with Red Hat authorizing such commercial redistribution, or (b) Licensee removes and replaces all occurrences of Red Hat trademarks. Modifications to the software may corrupt the Operating System. Licensee should read the information found at <http://www.redhat.com/about/corporate/trademark/> before distributing a copy of the Operating System.
  - The Operating System may be distributed with third party software programs that are not part of the Operating System. These third-party programs are not required to run the Operating System, are provided as a convenience to Licensee, and are subject to their own license terms. The license terms either accompany the third party software programs or can be viewed at <http://www.redhat.com/licenses/thirdparty/eula.html>. If Licensee does not agree to abide by the applicable license terms for the third-party software programs, then Licensee may not install them. If Licensee wishes to install the third-party software programs on more than one system or transfer the third-party software programs to another party, then Licensee must contact the licensor of the applicable third-party software programs.
- 16.3 The Software may include Java technology which is subject to the following additional requirements:
- Licensee may not create, modify, or change the behavior of, or authorize Licensee's licensees to create, modify, or change the behavior of, classes, interfaces, or subpackages that are in any way identified as "java", "javax", "sun" or similar convention as specified by Oracle in any naming convention designation.
  - Use of the Commercial Features for any commercial or production purpose requires a separate license from Oracle. "Commercial Features" means those features identified in Table 1-1 (Commercial Features in Java SE Product Editions) of the Java SE documentation accessible at <http://www.oracle.com/technetwork/java/javase/documentation/index.html>.
  - Export Laws: The third-party software may be controlled under the export laws and regulations of the United States. It is the obligation of the Licensee to abide by all applicable export restrictions and license requirements.

16.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the following additional terms and conditions will apply to the Oracle JDBC Driver ("Oracle Driver") included in the Software:

- a. "Open Source" software - software available without charge for use, modification and distribution - is often licensed under terms that require the user to make the user's modifications to the Open Source software or any software that the user 'combines' with the Open Source software freely available in source code form. If you use Open Source software in conjunction with the Oracle Driver, you must ensure that your use does not: (i) create, or purport to create, obligations of us with respect to the Oracle Driver; or (ii) grant, or purport to grant, to any third party any rights to or immunities under our intellectual property or proprietary rights in the Oracle Driver. For example, you may not develop a software program using an Oracle Driver and an Open Source program where such use results in a program file(s) that contains code from both the Oracle Driver and the Open Source program (including without limitation libraries) if the Open Source program is licensed under a license that requires any "modifications" be made freely available. You also may not combine the Oracle Driver with programs licensed under the GNU General Public License ("GPL") in any manner that could cause, or could be interpreted or asserted to cause, the Oracle Driver or any modifications thereto to become subject to the terms of the GPL.

FORCEPOINT NETWORK SECURITY PRODUCTS LICENSE AGREEMENT

THE PRODUCTS ARE PROVIDED ONLY ON THE CONDITION THAT LICENSEE AGREES TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS IN THIS LICENSE AGREEMENT AND THE MATERIALS REFERENCED HEREIN ("AGREEMENT") BETWEEN LICENSEE AND FORCEPOINT. BY ACCEPTING THIS AGREEMENT FOR THE PRODUCTS BY EXECUTING A WRITTEN ORDER UNDER A GSA SCHEDULE, LICENSEE ACKNOWLEDGES IT HAS READ, UNDERSTANDS, AND HAS THE AUTHORITY TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND AGREES TO BE BOUND BY THIS AGREEMENT. TO THE EXTENT CUSTOMER IS A PUBLIC SECTOR ENTITY (AS DEFINED BELOW) PURCHASING SUBSCRIPTIONS OR LICENSES TO PRODUCTS THROUGH A U.S. GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT CONTRACT (AS DEFINED BELOW) OF AN AUTHORIZED FORCEPOINT DISTRIBUTOR OR RESELLER THAT IDENTIFIES SUCH PURCHASE IS OCCURRING UNDER SUCH CONTRACT, THE AGREEMENT IS SUPPLEMENTED BY THE PUBLIC SECTOR ADDENDUM ATTACHED HERETO ("ADDENDUM").

1. Definitions.

"Application" or "App" means a third-party cloud-based computing application identified at the time of Product implementation.

"Cloud Services" means one or more of Forcepoint's cloud-based service offerings that have been included in an Order, including their associated components, content, updates, and upgrades thereto (but excludes products for which Forcepoint generally charges a separate fee), if any, and any reports generated as a result of use that are made available to Licensee. "Database" means proprietary database(s) of IPS rules, URL addresses, email addresses, Malware, applications, analytical models, and other valuable information.

"Database Updates" means changes to the content of the Databases.

"Device" or "Node" means any kind of computer, electronic appliance, or device capable of processing data, including without limitation diskless workstations, personal computer workstations, networked computer workstations, homemaker/teleworker home-based systems, file and print servers, email servers, Internet gateway devices, storage area network servers (SANs), terminal servers or portable workstations connected or connecting to the server(s) or network that is authorized to access or use the Products, directly or indirectly. In the case of a virtual system, each virtual machine or instance running the Product is a Device or Node.

"Documentation" means the Product installation instructions, user manuals, setup posters, release notes, and operating instructions prepared by Forcepoint, in any form or medium, as may be updated from time to time by Forcepoint and made generally available to Licensee.

"Error" means a material failure of the Product to conform to the Documentation, which is reported by Licensee and replicable by Forcepoint.

"Fees" means collectively the License Fees, Maintenance Fees, and Services Fees.

"Forcepoint" means, as the context requires: (i) Forcepoint LLC, a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business at 10900-A Stonelake Blvd., 3rd Floor, Austin, TX 78759, USA; or (ii) Forcepoint International Technology Limited, with a principal place of business at Minerva House, Simonscourt Road, Dublin 4, Ireland; or (iii) Forcepoint Federal LLC, with a principal place of business at 12950 Worldgate Drive, Suite 600, Herndon, VA 20170; or (iv) a corporation or entity controlling, controlled by or under the common control of Forcepoint with whom an Order has been placed referencing this Agreement.

"Hardware" or "Unit" means a single instance of computer hardware purchased from Forcepoint as described in the Order. "License" means the limited, personal, non-sublicensable, non-exclusive, nontransferable right to use the Software (including the Database), including the output of the Services Offerings, for the term set forth in the Order, in combination with the Hardware (if provided in the Order), in accordance with this Agreement and the Order.

"License Fees" means the agreed upon license fees for the Software (including the Database) included in an Order for the License.

"Licensee" means the Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule Contracts that has placed an Order, is the ultimate end user of the Products.

"Maintenance" means a limited, non-exclusive, personal, non-sublicensable, nontransferable right to receive Technical Support during the Maintenance Term.

"Maintenance Fees" means the agreed upon fees in the Order.

"Maintenance Term" means the agreed upon time period for the provision of Maintenance in an Order.

"Malware" means computer software or program code that is designed to damage or reduce the performance or security of a computer program or data.

"Order" means a purchase commitment mutually agreed upon between (i) Forcepoint and Licensee, or (ii) a Forcepoint authorized reseller and Licensee.

"Permitted Capacity" means the number of Devices, Units, Nodes, Users, or other license metrics as set forth in the Order. "Products" means Software, Databases, Database Updates, Software Upgrades, together with applicable Documentation and media, and if purchased pursuant to an Order, Technical Support, Cloud Services, Hardware, and Services Offerings.

"Services Fees" means the agreed upon fees in an Order for the Services Offerings.

"Services Offerings" means Forcepoint's professional services offerings described in a Forcepoint published services datasheet or services proposal.

"Software" means Forcepoint's proprietary software applications, in object code only.

"Software Upgrades" means certain modifications or revisions to the Software and/or the Database, provided solely pursuant to Maintenance but excludes new products for which Forcepoint generally charges a separate fee.

"Subscription" means a limited, non-exclusive, personal, non-sublicensable, nontransferable right during the Subscription Term to: (a) receive and use the Database Updates, and (b) use the Products, in accordance with this Agreement and the Order.

"Subscription Fees" means the agreed upon fees in an Order for the Subscription.

"Subscription Term" means the agreed upon time period in an Order.

"Technical Support" means the support level purchased pursuant to an Order as further described in Section 5, including if and when available: (i) Error corrections or workarounds so that the Products operate in substantial conformance with the Documentation, and (ii) the provision of Software Upgrades.

"User" means any person utilizing Licensee's network with access to the Products directly or indirectly, who is an employee, temporary employee, customer, contractor, or guest of Licensee.

2. Software License. Subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement, and timely payment of the applicable Fees, Forcepoint hereby grants Licensee: (i) a License and if applicable a Subscription to use the Software and Software Upgrades provided pursuant to Maintenance (including any output of the Services Offerings), identified in the Order; and (ii) a Subscription to access the Cloud Services identified in the Order for the Subscription Term, in each case solely for Licensee's internal business purposes up to the Permitted Capacity set forth in the Order. Provided Licensee pays the Maintenance Fees, Forcepoint will provide Licensee with Maintenance. Upon renewal, Maintenance must be purchased for each Product purchased and running in Licensee's environment. Licensee will not and may not permit any third party to copy the Products, other than copies made solely for data backup and internal testing purposes. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, any source code provided to Licensee by Forcepoint is subject to the terms of this Agreement. Forcepoint may make changes to the Products at any time without notice. In the event that Forcepoint makes a material change to the Product that diminishes functionality of the Product Ordering Licensee has contracted for, Licensee shall be entitled to a pro rata refund for any fees paid not used. Licensee understands that its right to use the Products is limited by the Permitted Capacity, and Licensee use may in no event exceed the authorized Permitted Capacity. If Licensee's use exceeds the Permitted Capacity, Licensee must purchase additional Licenses and Maintenance sufficient for the excess use.

3. Provision of Cloud Services.

3.1 Forcepoint will use reasonable efforts to provide Cloud Services for the Subscription Term. The then-current Cloud Services service levels are incorporated by reference into this Agreement and attached hereto in the Cloud Services Service Level Agreement. Forcepoint makes no service level commitments for the Cloud Services' functionality to the extent it is used to monitor access to third-party services where the continued availability of the functionality is adversely impacted by the third-party's access policies.

3.2 If Forcepoint determines that the Products are being used to distribute Spam or Malware, or that the security or proper function of Cloud Services would be compromised due to, hacking, denial of service attacks or other activities originating from or directed at Licensee's network, then Forcepoint may immediately suspend Cloud Services until the problem is resolved. Forcepoint will promptly notify and work with Licensee to resolve the issues.

3.3 If Cloud Services are suspended or terminated, Forcepoint will reverse all configuration changes made during Cloud Services enrollment. It is Licensee's responsibility to make the server configuration changes necessary to reroute traffic flowing through the Cloud Services.

3.4 Forcepoint may modify, enhance, replace, or make additions to the Products. Forcepoint may use Malware, and other information passing through the Products for the purposes of developing, analyzing, maintaining, reporting on, and enhancing the Products and services.

3.5 If in any one calendar month the total bandwidth used in the performance of Cloud Services for the security access policy enforcement solution divided by the number of Devices or Users is greater than 0.02Mbps, then Forcepoint may terminate the applicable Cloud Services Subscription upon 30 days' written notice unless Licensee purchases Subscriptions to increase the Permitted Capacity.

3.6 If in any one calendar month the total throughput including data sent and received through Cloud Services for the internet and intranet application access policy enforcement solution divided by the number of Users is greater than 10 Gigabytes per User, then Forcepoint may terminate the applicable Cloud Services Subscription upon 30 days' written notice unless Licensee purchases additional Permitted Capacity.

3.7 Licensee's use of the Cloud Services is subject to the processing capacity of the Hardware as defined in the Forcepoint datasheet for the unit purchased, and the number of API requests may not exceed 12 submissions per hour per Device with a maximum aggregate of 100 submissions per day per Device.

4. Licensee Obligations.

4.1 Licensee will (i) comply with all applicable laws, statutes, regulations and ordinances, (ii) only use the Products for legitimate business purposes, and (iii) not use the Products to construct or transmit Malware.

4.2 Licensee acknowledges that certain Products may be configured by Licensee to capture files for submission to other Products for Malware analysis. The Product analyzing files may archive Malware code extracted from such files. If Licensee downloads such extracted Malware code, Licensee recognizes the risk associated with Malware code, and any use by Licensee of Malware code is at Licensee's sole risk and liability.

4.3 Licensee acknowledges that the scoring and content by some Products is based on available information at the time it is gathered and may be incomplete, misinterpreted, and is subject to change at any time. As such it is provided for informational purposes only, and Licensee is solely responsible for decisions Licensee makes regarding its use of Applications or services based on such information.

4.4 Licensee is responsible for (i) having the authority, rights, or permissions to use all content flowing through the Products, (ii) obtaining any necessary consents from its employees, (iii) maintaining all necessary rights to access Application(s), and (iv) maintaining all permissions, authorizations, licenses, and approvals to access and use the data and information inputted, displayed, or processed (including all output and data developed or derived) as a result of Licensee's use of the Products to access and use data sources and systems.

4.5 Reserved.

- 4.6 Licensee will cooperate with Forcepoint personnel providing any Services Offerings, and to provide reasonable assistance, including: (i) gathering relevant supporting documentation; (ii) ensuring appropriate Licensee personnel are assigned to the project and are able to devote sufficient time to facilitate the project; (iii) granting resource access to information, systems, and licenses related to the scope of the project; (iv) providing building and network access before, during, and after normal business hours, work space, and workstations for each of the Forcepoint personnel, logon IDs and security access to all required Products, and adequate test environment, and any reasonable and appropriate data to perform the Services Offerings.

5. Technical Support.

- 5.1 The support period is defined in the Order and begins (i) on the date of the Order if a new purchase, or (ii) on the renewal date of the expiration of a previous support period. Technical Support is provided under the then-current Forcepoint technical support policies, as described at: Technical Support Description. Maintenance will be provided to Licensee only if Licensee has paid the appropriate Maintenance Fees for the Support Term. Forcepoint may require Licensee to install Software Upgrades up to and including the latest release. In the event Product support expires prior to renewing support Licensee must also purchase technical support to cover the lapsed support period between the date technical support expires and the date it is renewed. In the event technical support has lapsed for one year or more, Forcepoint may charge a reinstatement fee upon renewal in addition to Licensee's purchase of technical support for the lapsed period.
- 5.2 Forcepoint's obligation to provide Maintenance is limited to: (i) a Product that has not been altered or modified by anyone other than Forcepoint or its licensors; (ii) a release for which Technical Support is provided; (iii) Licensee's use of the Product in accordance with the Documentation; and (iv) errors and malfunctions caused by systems or programs supplied by Forcepoint. If an Error has been corrected or is not present in a more current version of the Product, Forcepoint will provide the more current version via technical support but will not have any obligation to correct such Error in prior versions.
- 5.3 Technical Support for on-premise Products may be limited to the most current release and the most recent previous sequential major release of the Product. Forcepoint reserves the right to terminate the Maintenance or increase the associated fees upon 60 days' notice should Licensee not stay current with a supported release in accordance with this Section.
- 5.4 For the support period set forth in an Order, the Hardware support covers defects in materials and workmanship in the Hardware. The Hardware support does not cover: (a) software, including the operating system and software added to the Hardware, or the reloading of software; (b) non-Forcepoint branded products and accessories; (c) problems to the extent they result from (i) external causes such as accident, abuse, misuse, or problems with electrical power, (ii) servicing not authorized by Forcepoint, (iii) usage that is not in accordance with Hardware instructions, (iv) failure to follow the Hardware instructions or failure to perform preventive maintenance, (v) problems caused by using accessories, parts, or components not supplied or directed by Forcepoint; (d) normal wear and tear; and (e) Hardware with missing or altered service tags or serial numbers.

6. Intellectual Property Rights.

- 6.1 All right, title, and interest in and to the Products, any modifications, translations, or derivatives thereof including any related scripts, tools, and know-how and all applicable intellectual property and proprietary rights thereto remain exclusively with Forcepoint or its licensors. The Products may include software products licensed from third parties. Such third parties have no obligations or liability to Licensee under this Agreement but are third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement. Forcepoint owns any suggestions, ideas, enhancement requests, feedback, or recommendations provided by Licensee relating to the Products. Except as otherwise expressly provided, Forcepoint grants no express or implied right under Forcepoint patents, copyrights, trademarks, or other intellectual property rights, and all rights not expressly granted to Licensee in this Agreement are reserved to Forcepoint and its licensors. Licensee may not remove any proprietary notice of Forcepoint or any third party from the Products or any copy of the Products, without Forcepoint's prior written consent.
- 6.2 The Hardware is sold by Forcepoint subject to the condition that the sale does not convey any license under any patent claim covering complete equipment, or any assembly, circuit combination, method or process in which any such Hardware are used as components. However, upon sale, title for the Hardware equipment will pass to Licensee. Forcepoint, its licensors or suppliers retain all proprietary rights in and to any Hardware sold. Forcepoint and its suppliers reserve all its rights under such patent claims. Any software supplied with the Hardware is proprietary to Forcepoint or its licensors and use of the software is subject to the terms of this Agreement.

7. Protection and Restrictions.

- 7.1 Each party (the "Disclosing Party") may disclose to the other (the "Receiving Party") certain confidential technical and business information that the Disclosing Party desires the Receiving Party to treat as confidential. "Confidential Information" means any information disclosed by either party to the other party, either directly or indirectly, in writing, orally, electronically or by inspection of tangible objects (including without limitation prototypes, technical data, trade secrets and know-how, product plans, Products, customer lists and customer information, prices and costs, databases, inventions, processes, hardware configuration information, finances, budgets and other business information), which is designated as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or some similar designation at or prior to the time of disclosure, or that should otherwise reasonably be considered confidential by the Receiving Party. Confidential Information may also include information disclosed to a Disclosing Party by third parties. Confidential Information will not, however, include any information that the Receiving Party can document (i) was publicly known and made generally available prior to the time of disclosure by the Disclosing Party or an authorized third party; (ii) becomes publicly known and made generally available after disclosure through no action or inaction of the Receiving Party in violation of any obligation of confidentiality; (iii) is already in the possession of the Receiving Party at the time of disclosure; (iv) is lawfully obtained by the Receiving Party from a third party without a breach of such third party's obligations of confidentiality; or (v) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of or reference to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information. that the Receiving Party will treat all Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party as non-public confidential information and will not disclose it to any person other than Disclosing Party and employees and contractors of Receiving Party on a need to know basis and that Receiving Party will protect the confidentiality of such Confidential Information in the same manner that it protects the confidentiality of its own proprietary and confidential information, but in no event with less than a reasonable standard of care. Licensee's use of the Products to process data is not a disclosure of Confidential Information to Forcepoint for purposes of this Section. Furthermore, neither party will use the Confidential Information of the other party for any purpose other than carrying out its rights and obligations under this Agreement. Forcepoint recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which may require that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

Licensee will take all reasonable steps to safeguard the Products to ensure that no unauthorized person has access and that no unauthorized copy, publication, disclosure, or distribution, in any form is made. The Products contain valuable, confidential information and trade secrets and unauthorized use or copying is harmful to Forcepoint. Licensee may use the Products only for the internal business purposes of Licensee. Licensee may not assign more than 20 administrators to administer certain Forcepoint products. Licensee will not itself, or through any affiliate, employee, consultant, contractor, agent or other third party: (i) sell, resell, distribute, host, lease, rent, license or sublicense, in whole or in part, the Products; (ii) decipher, decompile, disassemble, reverse assemble, modify, translate, reverse engineer or otherwise attempt to derive source code, algorithms, tags, specifications, architecture, structure or other elements of the Products, in whole or in part, for competitive purposes or otherwise; (iii) allow access to, provide, divulge or make available the Products to any user other than Licensee's employees and contractors who have a need to such access and who must be bound by nondisclosure obligations that are at least as restrictive as the terms of this Agreement; (iv) write or develop any derivative works based upon the Products; (v) modify, adapt, translate or otherwise make any changes to the Products or any part thereof; (vi) use the Products to provide processing services to third parties, or otherwise use the same on a 'service bureau' basis; (vii) disclose or publish, without Forcepoint's prior written consent, performance or capacity statistics or the results of any benchmark test performed on the Products; (viii) otherwise use or copy the same except as expressly permitted herein; (ix) use any third party software included in the Products independently from the Forcepoint proprietary Products. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Licensee may allow its agents and independent contractors to use the Products solely for the benefit of Licensee; provided, however, Licensee remains responsible for any breach of this Agreement. Any other use of the Products by any other entity is forbidden and a violation of this Agreement. Licensee must not use the Products to filter, screen, manage or censor Internet content for consumers without permission from the affected consumers and Forcepoint's express prior written approval which may be withheld in Forcepoint's sole discretion. If any additional third party end-user license agreement or open source license agreement is (a) attached to this Agreement or the Order, or (b) included in the Product "about" file, "readme" file or Documentation, then Licensee's use of the third party software is further restricted by and subject to such license.

8. Financial Terms. Fees and payment terms are specified in the applicable Order. Except as otherwise expressly specified in the Order accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist: (i) all recurring payment obligations start from the receipt of the Order; (ii) when the Order is placed directly with Forcepoint fees must be paid within 30 days after the invoice receipt date; (iii) upon the expiration of each Maintenance Term and/or Subscription Term, the Maintenance Fees and/or Subscription Fees will be Forcepoint's then-current GSA Schedule list price for such Products; and (iv) interest accrues on past due balances at the highest rate allowed by the Prompt Payment Act (31 USC 3901 et seq) and Treasury regulations at 5 CFR 1315. Forcepoint's reasonable travel and lodging expenses incurred in the performance of services on Licensee's site will be billed separately at actual cost in accordance with Federal Travel Regulation (FTR)/Joint Travel Regulations (JTR), as applicable. Vendor shall state separately on invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Licensee agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

9.1

For 90 days beginning on the date of the Order for the License, Forcepoint warrants that the Products (other than the Services Offerings), as updated from time to time by Forcepoint and used in accordance with the Documentation and this Agreement by Licensee, will operate in substantial conformance with the Documentation under normal use ("Warranty Period"). Forcepoint warrants that Services Offerings will be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner and Forcepoint will comply with all applicable laws in providing the Services Offerings. Forcepoint does not warrant that: (A) the Products will (i) be free of defects, (ii) satisfy Licensee's requirements, (iii) operate without interruption or error, (iv) always locate or block access to or transmission of all desired addresses, emails, Malware, applications and/or files, or (v) identify every transmission or file that should potentially be located or blocked; (B) data contained in the Databases will be (i) appropriately categorized or (ii) that the algorithms used in the Products will be complete or accurate; or (C) data contained in and risk scoring from the Cloud Services will be complete or interpreted correctly.

9.2 Licensee must promptly notify Forcepoint during the Warranty Period in writing of a claim. Provided that such claim is reasonably determined by Forcepoint to be Forcepoint's responsibility, Forcepoint will, within 30 days of its receipt of Licensee's written notice, (i) correct the Error or provide a workaround; (ii) provide Licensee with a plan reasonably acceptable to Licensee for correcting the Error; or (iii) if neither (i) nor (ii) can be accomplished with reasonable efforts from Forcepoint at Forcepoint's discretion, then Forcepoint may terminate the affected Product License and Licensee will be entitled to a refund of the Fees paid for the affected Product. This paragraph sets forth Licensee's sole and exclusive remedy and Forcepoint's entire liability for any breach of warranty or other duty related to the Products.

9.3 This warranty is void and Forcepoint is not obligated to provide technical support if a claimed breach of the warranty is caused by: (i) any unauthorized modification of the Products or tampering with the Products, (ii) use of the Products inconsistent with the accompanying Documentation, (iii) Licensee's failure to use any new or corrected versions of the Product made available by Forcepoint; or (iv) breach of this Agreement by Licensee or its users.

9.4 THE WARRANTIES SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION 9 ARE IN LIEU OF, AND FORCEPOINT, ITS LICENSORS

AND SUPPLIERS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, NON-INFRINGEMENT, TITLE OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND FREEDOM FROM PROGRAM ERRORS, VIRUSES OR ANY OTHER MALICIOUS CODE WITH RESPECT TO THE PRODUCTS AND SERVICES PROVIDED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

10. Limitation of Liability. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY IN THIS AGREEMENT, FORCEPOINT, ITS AFFILIATES, ITS LICENSORS OR RESELLERS WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR (I) LOST PROFITS; (II) LOSS OF BUSINESS; (III) LOSS OF GOODWILL, OPPORTUNITY, OR REVENUE; (IV) LICENSEE'S DECISIONS BASED ON ITS INTERPRETATION OF THE OUTPUT FROM THE PRODUCTS; NOR (V) ANY INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT WHETHER FORESEEABLE OR UNFORESEEABLE INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO CLAIMS FOR USE OF THE PRODUCTS, INTERRUPTION IN USE OR AVAILABILITY OF DATA, STOPPAGE OF OTHER WORK OR IMPAIRMENT OF OTHER ASSETS, PRIVACY, ACCESS TO OR USE OF ANY ADDRESSES, EXECUTABLES OR FILES THAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN LOCATED OR BLOCKED, BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE AND THIRD PARTY CLAIMS, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. IN NO EVENT WILL FORCEPOINT'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNT ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY FORCEPOINT FOR THE LICENSEE'S APPLICABLE LICENSE TO THE PRODUCTS FOR THE PRODUCTS THAT DIRECTLY CAUSED THE LIABILITY. THE FOREGOING LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

11. Intellectual Property Indemnification. In the event of a third-party claim, suit or proceeding against Licensee asserting that use of the Product as permitted in this Agreement infringes a third-party's patent, copyright, or trademark right recognized in any jurisdiction where the Product is licensed, Forcepoint at its expense will have the right to intervene to defend Licensee and indemnify Licensee against costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), and damages payable to any third party in any such suit or cause of action that are directly related to that claim. Forcepoint's obligation under this Section is contingent upon Licensee providing Forcepoint with: (a) prompt written notice of the suit or claim; (b) the right to solely control and direct the defense of the claim; and (c) reasonable cooperation. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28

U.S.C. §516. Licensee may participate in the defense at its own expense. Forcepoint will have no liability for any claim of infringement resulting from: (i) modification of the Products by anyone other than Forcepoint; (ii) a combination of the Products with other hardware or software not provided by Forcepoint; or (iii) failure by Licensee to implement Software Upgrades and Database Updates. In the event the Products, in Forcepoint's opinion, are likely to or do become the subject of a claim of infringement, Forcepoint may at its sole option and expense: (x) modify the Products to be non-infringing while preserving equivalent functionality; (y) obtain a license for Licensee's continued use of the Products; or (z) terminate this Agreement and the license granted hereunder, accept return of the Products and refund to Licensee the unused pre-paid Maintenance Fees paid for the affected Product applicable to the balance of the then current Maintenance Term. THIS SECTION SETS FORTH FORCEPOINT'S ENTIRE LIABILITY AND OBLIGATION AND LICENSEE'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR ANY INFRINGEMENT OR CLAIMS OF INFRINGEMENT.

12. Term and Termination.

12.1 This Agreement continues in full force and effect until the expiration or termination of the Order(s), unless otherwise terminated earlier as provided hereunder. Upon termination or expiration of the Maintenance Term, Licensee's right to receive Maintenance to the Products terminates. Upon termination or expiration of the Subscription Term, Licensee's right to use the subscription-based Products terminates.

12.2 Product evaluation subscriptions are available for a period of up to 30 days and limited availability Software licenses may be available for time period determined by Forcepoint, Product evaluation subscriptions and limited availability Software licenses are each subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, except however that: (i) evaluation subscriptions and limited availability Software licenses may only be used to evaluate and facilitate Licensee's decision to purchase a license to the products; and (ii) evaluation subscriptions and limited availability Software licenses are provided by Forcepoint on an AS IS and AS AVAILABLE basis without warranties of any kind. At the end of the evaluation period or the limited availability Software license period, Licensee must place an Order and pay the applicable Fees or this Agreement terminates as related to the evaluation subscription or limited availability Software license. Licensee's continued use of the products after an evaluation or limited availability Software license period is subject to this Agreement.

12.3 When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Forcepoint shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. Upon notification of termination by either party, Licensee must uninstall any Products, cease using and destroy or return all copies of the Products to Forcepoint, and to certify in writing that all known copies thereof, including backup copies, have been destroyed. Sections 1, 6- 12, and 14-17 will survive the termination of this Agreement.

13. Compliance with Laws. Each party will comply with all applicable laws and regulations that may apply to issues including the protection of personal data, and anti-bribery. Licensee must obtain any required consents (including employee consent) addressing the interception, reading, copying, analyzing, or filtering of emails and their attachments as well as any local government permits, licenses, or approvals required to use the Products. Neither party will use any data obtained via the Products for any unlawful purpose. Each party's obligations with respect to the treatment of personal data submitted to Forcepoint pursuant to this Agreement are set forth in the terms of the Forcepoint Data Processing Agreement.

14. Rights of Government Licensees. The Products meet the definition of "commercial item" in Federal Acquisition Regulation ("FAR") 2.101, were developed entirely at private expense, and are provided to Government Licensees exclusively under the terms of this Agreement. Software, including Software Upgrades, is "commercial computer software" and applicable Documentation and media are "commercial computer software documentation," as those terms are used in FAR 12.212. Use of the Products by the U.S. Government constitutes acknowledgment of Forcepoint's proprietary rights therein, and of the exclusive applicability of this Agreement.

15. Export. Commodities, technology, and software, including the Products (collectively referred to as "items") are subject to the export control laws of the United States and other countries that may lawfully control the export of such items. Moreover, the furnishing of support services with respect to items that are controlled as defense or military items may also be subject to such laws. Licensee will not transfer such items or furnish such services except in compliance with the export laws of the United States and any other country that may lawfully control the export of such items or the provision of such services.

16. Verification. Upon Forcepoint's request Licensee will provide a written certification confirming its compliance with this Agreement. Further, during the term of this Agreement and for a period of one year thereafter Forcepoint or Forcepoint's independent auditor may review Licensee's records related to Licensee's use of the Products to verify Licensee's compliance with this Agreement. Licensee will provide reasonable assistance, access to personnel, facilities, and systems, as well as information necessary to facilitate Forcepoint's compliance verification. The verification will be performed during regular business hours and will not unreasonably interfere with Licensee's business activities. The cost of the verification will be borne by Forcepoint unless a discrepancy indicating that additional Fees are due to Forcepoint, in which case the reasonable cost of the verification will be borne by Licensee. Licensee will promptly cure any noncompliance and will pay any Fees due as a result of such noncompliance. The rights and remedies under this Section are in addition to any other rights Forcepoint may have under this Agreement. Additionally, Forcepoint may at any time, without notice, during the term of this Agreement access Licensee's system, subject to applicable local law, to determine whether Licensee and its users are complying with the terms of this Agreement. Licensee acknowledges that the Products may include a license manager component to track usage of the Products and Licensee will not impede, disable or otherwise undermine such license manager's operation.

17. General.

- 17.1 For the purposes of customer service, technical support, and as a means of facilitating interactions with its end-users, Forcepoint may periodically send Licensee messages of an informational or advertising nature via email and provide account information to related third parties (e.g. Licensee's reseller). Information will be processed by Forcepoint in accordance with applicable data privacy laws. Licensee may at any time update its communications preferences on Forcepoint.com or by sending an email to privacy@forcepoint.com. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that if it chooses not to receive informational or advertising messages, then it will not receive Forcepoint emails concerning upgrades and enhancements to Products. However, Forcepoint may still send emails of a technical nature. Forcepoint may use non-identifying and aggregate usage and statistical information collected in relation to Licensees' and its users' use of the Products for its own purposes outside of the Agreement. Licensee acknowledges that Forcepoint may use Licensee's company name only in a general list of Forcepoint customers.
- 17.2 Licensee may not transfer any of Licensee's rights to use the Products or assign this Agreement to another person or entity, without first obtaining prior written approval from Forcepoint.
- 17.3 Any notice required or permitted under this Agreement or required by law must be in writing and must be (i) delivered in person, (ii) sent by first class registered mail, or air mail, as appropriate, or (iii) sent by an internationally recognized overnight air courier, in each case properly posted and fully prepaid. Notices sent to Forcepoint must be sent to the attention of the General Counsel at 10900-A Stonelake Blvd., 3rd Floor, Austin, TX 78759 USA. Notices sent to Licensee will be sent to Licensee's address in Forcepoint's system of record. Notices are considered to have been received at the time of actual delivery in person, two business days after deposit in the mail as set forth above, or one day after delivery to an overnight air courier service. Either party may change its contact person for notices and/or address for notice by means of notice to the other party given in accordance with this paragraph.
- 17.4 Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof will be governed by the Federal laws of the United States.
- 17.5 In the absence of specific shipping instructions, Forcepoint will ship Hardware by the method it deems most advantageous using standard commercial packaging. Licensee is responsible for obtaining insurance against damage to the Hardware during shipment. At the time Hardware is picked up by the common carrier from a Forcepoint location it is delivered, and title and risk of loss passes to Licensee. Licensee agrees to pay all transportation charges and costs associated with shipment of the Hardware, including any special or export packaging requested or required under the circumstances, as determined by Forcepoint.
- 17.6 Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f).
- 17.7 This Agreement is the entire agreement between the parties regarding the subject matter herein and the parties have not relied on any promise, representation, or warranty, express or implied, that is not in this Agreement. Licensee agrees that its purchases hereunder are neither contingent on the delivery of any future functionality or features nor dependent on any oral or written comments made by Forcepoint regarding future functionality or features. Any waiver or modification of this Agreement is only effective if it is in writing and signed by both parties or posted by Forcepoint at Legal Information. Forcepoint is not obligated under any other agreements unless they are in writing and signed by an authorized representative of Forcepoint. All pre-printed or standard terms of any Licensee's purchase order or other business processing document have no effect, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement will prevail over such forms, and any additional, inconsistent, conflicting, or different terms in such forms will be void and of no force and effect. In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the terms of an Order, the terms of this Agreement prevail.
- 17.8 If any part of this Agreement is found invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Agreement will be interpreted so as reasonably to affect the intention of the parties.

MEASURES

APPLICABLE TO FORCEPOINT PRODUCTS &amp; SERVICES

1. Background

These Data Processing and Protection Measures (the "Measures") are subject to and incorporated by reference into the applicable Forcepoint Customer Agreement. Use of the Products by a Customer shall be deemed to be acceptance of the Forcepoint Customer Agreement and, by incorporation, these Measures. In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Forcepoint Customer Agreement and the terms of these Measures, the relevant terms of these Measures shall prevail, unless otherwise specified below. Exhibit 2, which contains the Standard Contractual Clauses contained in European Commission's Implementing Decision 2021/914 of 4 June 2021, shall prevail in the event of any conflict between the terms of these Measures and Exhibit 2

These Measures incorporate as Exhibit 1, "Forcepoint Technical And Organisational Security Measures" regarding Forcepoint's data security management practices.

These Measures shall be effective for the Subscription Term or Maintenance Term of any Order placed under the Forcepoint Customer Agreement.

2. Definitions

Capitalized terms not specifically defined in these Measures shall have the same meaning as provided for in the Forcepoint Customer Agreement(s) or applicable data protection legislation, such as CCPA or Article 4 of GDPR, e.g. for "processing", "controller", "processor", "personal data" and "data subject". All other capitalized terms have the respective meanings assigned to such terms in the Forcepoint Customer Agreement.

"Affiliates" means an entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with Forcepoint, that may assist in the provisioning of the Product(s) or Services.

"CCPA" means the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018.

"Customer" means the Subscriber and/or Licensee as those terms are defined in the applicable Forcepoint Customer Agreements.

"Customer Data" means any data and/or information submitted by Customer to Forcepoint or accessed by Forcepoint through the provisioning and use of the Products or Services which may include, but is not limited to, (i) "End User Personal Data" as defined in the Forcepoint Privacy Policy available at <https://www.forcepoint.com/company/privacypolicy>; and (ii) Personal Data given or made accessible to Forcepoint by the Customer by virtue of Customer's subscription or license to or use of the Product(s).

"Data Processing and Protection Measures" means these commitments concerning Forcepoint's processing of Customer Data applicable to Forcepoint's Products and Services.

"EU Data Protection Law" means the General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") (EU 2016/679) on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of Personal Data and on the free movement of such data, and any subsequent amending or replacing European legislation governing the Processing of Personal Data by Forcepoint during the Subscription Term or Maintenance Term.

"Forcepoint Customer Agreement(s)" means the terms and conditions governing the provision of the applicable Products or Services to Customers, which may consist of the following terms and conditions located at www.forcepoint.com/product-subscription-agreement, and/or the terms and conditions governing Products and Services provided to Licensees located at: <https://www.forcepoint.com/network-security-products-license-agreement>.

"Standard Contractual Clauses" means the attached Exhibit 2 incorporated into these Measures pursuant to the European Commission's implementing decision 2021/914 of 4 June 2021 on Standard Contractual Clauses and the applicable Data Protection Modules.

"Sub-processor" means any Data Processor engaged by Forcepoint or an Affiliate.

3. Processing of Data

- 3.1. Access to and processing of Customer Data by Forcepoint Products and Services is done in accordance with the terms of the Forcepoint Customer Agreement and any reasonable and lawful directions received in writing from authorised personnel of Customers that obtained such Products and Services. For the avoidance of doubt, the placing of an Order by Customer shall be deemed to be a general authorization for Forcepoint to process Customer Data in accordance with these Measures.
- 3.2. To the extent Customer Data includes Personal Data, the Customer will at all times be deemed to be the Data Controller and Forcepoint will at all times be deemed to be the Data Processor within the meaning of the applicable data protection laws. Customer is responsible for compliance with its obligations as Data Controller under applicable data protection laws, in particular for justification of and liability for any transmission of Customer Data to Forcepoint (including providing any required notices and obtaining any required consents), and for its decisions concerning the Processing and use of such Customer Data.
- 3.3. Forcepoint will promptly notify the Customer about: (a) any legally binding request for disclosure of the Customer Data by a law enforcement authority (where Customer is identified by name by the law enforcement authority and/or the response provided by Forcepoint will result in identifying the Customer by name to the law enforcement authority) unless otherwise prohibited from doing so by law; (b) any request received for the Customer Data directly from an individual regarding that individual's Personal Data (without responding to that request unless it has been otherwise authorised to do so); and (c) a complaint, communication or request relating to Customer's obligations under applicable data protection laws (including requests from a data protection authority with competent jurisdiction). Forcepoint will only process Customer Data in compliance with all applicable laws including the EU or Member State law to which Forcepoint is subject, including the EU Data Protection Law.

- 3.4. Forcepoint will verify the legal basis of any government authority data requests and reject those Forcepoint has reason to believe are not valid.

4. Security of Data

- 4.1. Forcepoint agrees that it shall implement appropriate technical and organisational security measures to seek to prevent unauthorised or unlawful processing of, or accidental loss, destruction or damage to Customer Data, taking into account the state of the art, the costs of implementation and the nature, scope, context and purposes of the processing. Technical and organisational security measures employed by Forcepoint include those described in Exhibit 1 (which may be amended by Forcepoint from time to time).
- 4.2. Forcepoint shall also: (i) ensure that only its employees, agents or sub-processors who may be required by Forcepoint to assist it in performing any obligations imposed by the Forcepoint Customer Agreement will have access to the Customer Data; (ii) ensure the reliability of any Forcepoint employees who have access to the Customer Data; (iii) ensure that all employees involved in the processing of the Customer Data have committed themselves to appropriate obligations of confidentiality and have undergone adequate training in the care, protection and handling of Personal Data; and (iv) notify Customer of any actual or reasonably suspected unauthorised or unlawful processing or any accidental loss, destruction, damage, alteration or disclosure of the Customer Data (to the extent reasonably believed by Forcepoint to have targeted Customer Data) without undue delay and, where feasible, not later than 72 hours once it becomes aware of such an event and keep Customer informed of any related developments.
- 4.3. Forcepoint shall take reasonable steps to ensure that Forcepoint contractors or Sub-processors employees who access Customer Data are obligated to maintain the confidentiality and integrity of Customer Data.

5. Audit

- 5.1. Forcepoint shall audit the security of its data processing facilities used to Process the Customer Data. This audit will be performed annually in accordance with ISO 27001 standards (including for purposes in addition to complying with Section 4).
- 5.2. Upon Customer's request, Forcepoint will provide Customer with a copy of the relevant certification(s), such as the Forcepoint Cloud ISO 27001 Certification, (such certification(s) being Forcepoint's confidential information) so that Customer can reasonably verify Forcepoint's compliance with its obligation to seek to take appropriate security measures in accordance with Section 4 and Exhibit 1 of these Measures.
- 5.3. In addition, upon request in writing by Customer and at Customer's sole expense, Forcepoint and Customer will appoint a mutually agreed upon auditor who is internationally approved by the ISO 27001 certification auditing body so that Customer can reasonably verify Forcepoint's compliance with its obligation to seek to take appropriate security measures in accordance with Section 4 and Exhibit 1 of these Measures.
- 5.4. Any such audit will take place during regular business hours and no more frequently than once in any consecutive twelve-month period, and on a mutually agreed upon date, time, location and duration. Customer agrees that (i) such audits shall not adversely affect other Customers of Forcepoint or Forcepoint's provision of Products; (ii) any such third party auditor shall comply with Forcepoint's policies during such audit; and (iii) Customer shall ensure that any such third party auditor treat all of Forcepoint's Confidential Information disclosed to such third party auditor as a result of such audit in the same manner Customer is required to treat such Confidential Information.
- 5.5. Any audit provided for in this section shall only consist of an audit of the architecture, systems and procedures relevant to the protection of Customer Data at locations where Customer Data is stored and/or the review by such auditor of Forcepoint's regularly-prepared records regarding its obligation to implement appropriate security measures, which in the case of Personal Data take into account the guidelines promulgated in Article 32 of the GDPR.
- 5.6. The parties agree that the audits described in Clause 8.9 of the Standard Contractual Clauses shall be carried out in accordance with the specifications set out in this Section.

6. Sub-Processing

- 6.1. By placing its Order(s), Customer provides Forcepoint a general authorisation to engage third party sub-processors as Forcepoint determines is necessary to assist with respect to the provisioning and use of Products and Services. Forcepoint will ensure such Sub-processors are required to comply with data protection obligations, which are no less onerous than the data protection obligations of Forcepoint contained within these Measures.
- 6.2. Customer may review a current list of sub-processors engaged by Forcepoint to process Customer Data at <https://www.forcepoint.com/sites/default/files/resources/files/datasheet-forcepoint-sub-processors-list-en.pdf>.
- 6.3. If Customer has a reasonable basis to object to Forcepoint's use of a Sub-processor, Customer may terminate the Forcepoint Customer Agreement by providing written notice to Forcepoint.
- 6.4. For the avoidance of doubt, no refund will be due from Forcepoint in the event of termination by Customer pursuant to Section 6.3.

7. Consequences of termination of the Forcepoint Customer Agreement

On termination of the Forcepoint Customer Agreement, Forcepoint shall: (i) cease all Processing of Customer Data on behalf of Customer and upon request by Customer either (i) return to Customer (in a format accessible by Customer) all such Customer Data; or (ii) destroy or otherwise render inaccessible all Customer Data (as far as technically possible and except as may be required by law).

8. Disputes and liability

For the avoidance of doubt, the relevant provisions of the Forcepoint Customer Agreement specify the applicable law, jurisdiction, and liability of the parties in relation to any disputes or claims arising in connection with the subject matter of these Measures.

9. International Transfers and the Application of Standard Contractual Clauses

- 9.1. With respect to Customer Personal Data that originates from Customers established in the European Union, and is Processed by Forcepoint outside of the European Union, Forcepoint shall take appropriate steps to ensure such Personal Data is Processed in accordance with applicable data protection laws. Customer shall execute such further documents and do any and all such further things as may be necessary to ensure that any international transfers and subsequent Processing of Personal Data by Forcepoint, Affiliates or their Sub-processors is in compliance with applicable data protection laws.
- 9.2. Forcepoint and its Sub-Processors will comply with the Standard Contractual Clauses when transferring Customer Personal Data to a third country that has not received an adequacy decision from the EU in accordance with GDPR.
- 9.3. For the purpose of the Standard Contractual Clauses and this Section 9, the Data Exporter shall be (i) Customer and (ii) all Customer's affiliates (as defined in the Forcepoint Customer Agreement) established within the European Economic Area and Switzerland using the Products or Services in accordance with the Forcepoint Customer Agreement, and the Data Importer shall be Forcepoint.
- 9.4. Subject to Section 6 of these Measures and pursuant to Clause 9 of the Standard Contractual Clauses, Customer acknowledges and expressly agrees that Forcepoint and its Affiliates may be retained as Sub-processors and may engage third-party Sub-processors in connection with the provision or use of the Products or Services.

10. Assistance

To the extent technically feasible and consistent with its responsibilities related to the sale of its Products and Services to Customer, Forcepoint will assist Customer through appropriate technical and organisational measures to comply with Customer's Data Controller responsibilities as set forth in Chapter III of GDPR Reg EU 2016/679.

FORCEPOINT TECHNICAL AND ORGANISATIONAL SECURITY MEASURES

Forcepoint implements various technical and organizational measures designed to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risks posed to Customer Data. Such measures seek to prevent unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or access and against all other unlawful forms of access to Customer Data. Consistent with industry standard and guidelines set forth in applicable data protection laws, such measures include:

Access Control of Processing Areas

Forcepoint implements suitable measures in order to prevent unauthorized persons from gaining access to the data processing equipment (namely telephones, database and application servers and related hardware) where the Customer Data is accessed, processed or used. This is accomplished by:

- establishing security areas;
- protection and restriction of access paths;
- securing the decentralized telephones, data processing equipment and personal computers;
- establishing access authorizations for employees and third parties, including the respective documentation;
- regulations on access card-keys;
- restriction on access card-keys;
- all access to the data center where personal data are hosted is logged, monitored, and tracked; and  the data center where personal data are hosted is secured by a security alarm system, and other appropriate security measures.

Access Control to Data Processing Systems

Forcepoint implements suitable measures to prevent its data processing systems from being used by unauthorized persons. This is accomplished by:

- identification of the terminal and/or the terminal user to the Forcepoint systems;
- automatic time-out of user terminal if left idle, identification and password required to reopen;
- User IDs are monitored and access revoked when several erroneous passwords are entered, log file of events (monitoring of break-in-attempts);
- issuing and safeguarding of identification codes and secure tokens;
- strong password requirements (minimum length, use of special characters, re-use etc.);
- protection against external access by means of a state-of-the-art industrial standard firewall whose connection to the intranet [if applicable] shall in addition be safeguarded by a VPN connection;
- dedication of individual terminals and/or terminal users, identification characteristics exclusive to specific functions; and
- all access to data content on machines or computer systems is logged, monitored, and tracked.

Access Control to Use Specific Areas of Data Processing Systems

Forcepoint commits that the persons entitled to use its data processing systems are only able to access the data within the scope and to the extent covered by their respective access permission (authorization) and that Customer Data cannot be read, copied or modified or removed without authorization. This shall be accomplished by:

- employee policies and training in respect of each employee's access rights to the Personal Data;
- allocation of individual terminals and /or terminal user, and identification characteristics exclusive to specific functions;
- monitoring capability in respect of individuals who delete, add or modify the Personal Data;
- effective and measured disciplinary action against individuals who access Personal Data without authorization;
- release of data to only authorized persons;
- control of files, controlled and documented destruction of data; and
- policies controlling the retention of back-up copies.

Transmission Control

Forcepoint implements suitable measures to prevent Customer Data from being read, copied, altered or deleted by unauthorized parties during the transmission thereof or during the transport of the data media and to ensure that it is possible to check and establish to which bodies the transfer of Customer Data by means of data transmission facilities is envisaged. This is accomplished by:

- use of state-of-the-art firewall and encryption technologies to protect the gateways and pipelines through which the data travels;
- use of 128bit SSL-encryption for all http-connections;
- implementation of secure two-factor VPN connections to safeguard the connection to the internet, if applicable;
- encryption of Customer Data by state-of-the-art encryption technology;
- constant monitoring of infrastructure (i.e. ICMP-Ping at network level, disk space examination at system level, successful delivery of specified test pages at application level); and
- monitoring of the completeness and correctness of the transfer of data (end-to-end integrity check).

Input Control

Forcepoint implements suitable measures to ensure that it is possible to check and establish whether and by whom personal data have been input into data processing systems or removed. This is accomplished by:

- an authorization policy for the input of data into hosted service, as well as for the reading, alteration and deletion of stored data;
- authentication of the authorized personnel;
- protective measures for the data input into memory, as well as for the reading, alteration and deletion of stored data;
- utilization of user codes (passwords and tokens);
- providing that entries to data processing facilities (the rooms housing the computer hardware and related equipment) are capable of being locked;
- automatic log-off of user ID's that have not been used for a substantial period of time;  logging or otherwise evidencing input authorization; and  electronic recording of entries.

Instructional Control of Personal Data

Forcepoint ensures that Customer's Personal Data may only be Processed in accordance with the Forcepoint Customer Agreement together with any reasonable and relevant instructions received in writing from authorised personnel of the Customer from time to time which may be specific instructions or instructions of a general nature as set out in the Forcepoint Customer Agreement or as otherwise agreed between the Customer and Forcepoint during the term of the Forcepoint Customer Agreement. This is accomplished by binding policies and procedures for Forcepoint's employees.

Availability Control

Forcepoint implements suitable measures to ensure that Customer Data are protected from accidental destruction or loss. This is accomplished by:

- infrastructure redundancy: reporting data is stored on hardware with redundant disks subsystem backed up in real time with off-site replication backups.

Separation of Processing for different Purposes

Forcepoint implements suitable measures to ensure that data collected for different purposes can be processed separately. This is accomplished by:

- access to data is separated through multiple diverse applications for the appropriate users; and
- interfaces, batch processes and reports are designed for only specific purposes and functions, so data collected for specific purposes is Processed separately.

Subprocessors

Forcepoint engages various sub processors in connection with its cloud infrastructure. Forcepoint ensures that it has robust contractual provisions in place to ensure compliance by such sub processors with the organizational security measures outlined herein.

EXHIBIT 2
STANDARD CONTRACTUAL CLAUSES OF
COMMISSION IMPLEMENTING DECISION (EU) 2021/914 of 4 June 2021

SECTION I

Clause 1

Purpose and scope

- (a) The purpose of these standard contractual clauses is to ensure compliance with the requirements of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (General Data Protection Regulation) <sup>(1)</sup> for the transfer of personal data to a third country.
- (b) The Parties:
  - (i) the natural or legal person(s), public authority/ies, agency/ies or other body/ies (hereinafter 'entity/ies') transferring the personal data, as listed in Annex I.A (hereinafter each 'data exporter'), and
  - (ii) the entity/ies in a third country receiving the personal data from the data exporter, directly or indirectly via another entity also Party to these Clauses, as listed in Annex I.A (hereinafter each 'data importer')have agreed to these standard contractual clauses (hereinafter: 'Clauses').
- (c) These Clauses apply with respect to the transfer of personal data as specified in Annex I.B.
- (d) The Appendix to these Clauses containing the Annexes referred to therein forms an integral part of these Clauses.

Effect and invariability of the Clauses

- (a) These Clauses set out appropriate safeguards, including enforceable data subject rights and effective legal remedies, pursuant to Article 46(1) and Article 46(2)(c) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and, with respect to data transfers from controllers to processors and/or processors to processors, standard contractual clauses pursuant to Article 28(7) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, provided they are not modified, except to select the appropriate Module(s) or to add or update information in the Appendix. This does not prevent the Parties from including the standard contractual clauses laid down in these Clauses in a wider contract and/or to add other clauses or additional safeguards, provided that they do not contradict, directly or indirectly, these Clauses or prejudice the fundamental rights or freedoms of data subjects.
- (b) These Clauses are without prejudice to obligations to which the data exporter is subject by virtue of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

Clause 3

Third-party beneficiaries

- (a) Data subjects may invoke and enforce these Clauses, as third-party beneficiaries, against the data exporter and/or data importer, with the following exceptions:
  - (i) Clause 1, Clause 2, Clause 3, Clause 6, Clause 7;

(1) Where the data exporter is a processor subject to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 acting on behalf of a Union institution or body as controller, reliance on these Clauses when engaging another processor (sub-processing) not subject to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 also ensures compliance with Article 29(4) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC (OJ L 295, 21.11.2018, p. 39), to the extent these Clauses and the data protection obligations as set out in the contract or other legal act between the controller and the processor pursuant to Article 29(3) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 are aligned. This will in particular be the case where the controller and processor rely on the standard contractual clauses included in Decision 2021/915.

- (ii) Clause 8 – Module One: Clause 8.5 (e) and Clause 8.9(b); Module Two: Clause 8.1(b), 8.9(a), (c), (d) and (e); Module Three: Clause 8.1(a), (c) and (d) and Clause 8.9(a), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (g); Module Four: Clause 8.1 (b) and Clause 8.3(b);
  - (iii) Clause 9 – Module Two: Clause 9(a), (c), (d) and (e); Module Three: Clause 9(a), (c), (d) and (e);
  - (iv) Clause 12 – Module One: Clause 12(a) and (d); Modules Two and Three: Clause 12(a), (d) and (f);
  - (v) Clause 13;
  - (vi) Clause 15.1(c), (d) and (e);
  - (vii) Clause 16(e);
  - (viii) Clause 18 – Modules One, Two and Three: Clause 18(a) and (b); Module Four: Clause 18.
- (b) Paragraph (a) is without prejudice to rights of data subjects under Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

Clause 4

Interpretation

- (a) Where these Clauses use terms that are defined in Regulation (EU) 2016/679, those terms shall have the same meaning as in that Regulation.
- (b) These Clauses shall be read and interpreted in the light of the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.
- (c) These Clauses shall not be interpreted in a way that conflicts with rights and obligations provided for in Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

Hierarchy

In the event of a contradiction between these Clauses and the provisions of related agreements between the Parties, existing at the time these Clauses are agreed or entered into thereafter, these Clauses shall prevail.

Clause 6

Description of the transfer(s)

The details of the transfer(s), and in particular the categories of personal data that are transferred and the purpose(s) for which they are transferred, are specified in Annex I.B.

Clause 7 – Optional

Docking clause

- (a) An entity that is not a Party to these Clauses may, with the agreement of the Parties, accede to these Clauses at any time, either as a data exporter or as a data importer, by completing the Appendix and signing Annex I.A.
- (b) Once it has completed the Appendix and signed Annex I.A, the acceding entity shall become a Party to these Clauses and have the rights and obligations of a data exporter or data importer in accordance with its designation in Annex I.A.
- (c) The acceding entity shall have no rights or obligations arising under these Clauses from the period prior to becoming a Party.

SECTION II – OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES

Clause 8

Data protection safeguards

The data exporter warrants that it has used reasonable efforts to determine that the data importer is able, through the implementation of appropriate technical and organisational measures, to satisfy its obligations under these Clauses.

MODULE ONE: Transfer controller to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

8.1 Purpose limitation

The data importer shall process the personal data only for the specific purpose(s) of the transfer, as set out in Annex I. B. It may only process the personal data for another purpose:

- (i) where it has obtained the data subject's prior consent;
- (ii) where necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims in the context of specific administrative, regulatory or judicial proceedings; or
- (iii) where necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person.

8.2 Transparency

- (a) In order to enable data subjects to effectively exercise their rights pursuant to Clause 10, the data importer shall inform them, either directly or through the data exporter:
  - (i) of its identity and contact details;
  - (ii) of the categories of personal data processed;
  - (iii) of the right to obtain a copy of these Clauses;
  - (iv) where it intends to onward transfer the personal data to any third party/ies, of the recipient or categories of recipients (as appropriate with a view to providing meaningful information), the purpose of such onward transfer and the ground therefore pursuant to Clause 8.7.
- (b) Paragraph (a) shall not apply where the data subject already has the information, including when such information has already been provided by the data exporter, or providing the information proves impossible or would involve a disproportionate effort for the data importer. In the latter case, the data importer shall, to the extent possible, make the information publicly available.
- (c) On request, the Parties shall make a copy of these Clauses, including the Appendix as completed by them, available to the data subject free of charge. To the extent necessary to protect business secrets or other confidential information, including personal data, the Parties may redact part of the text of the Appendix prior to sharing a copy, but shall provide a meaningful summary where the data subject would otherwise not be able to understand its content or exercise his/her rights. On request, the Parties shall provide the data subject with the reasons for the redactions, to the extent possible without revealing the redacted information.
- (d) Paragraphs (a) to (c) are without prejudice to the obligations of the data exporter under Articles 13 and 14 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

8.3 Accuracy and data minimisation

- (a) Each Party shall ensure that the personal data is accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date. The data importer shall take every reasonable step to ensure that personal data that is inaccurate, having regard to the purpose(s) of processing, is erased or rectified without delay.
- (b) If one of the Parties becomes aware that the personal data it has transferred or received is inaccurate, or has become outdated, it shall inform the other Party without undue delay.
- (c) The data importer shall ensure that the personal data is adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purpose(s) of processing.

8.4 Storage limitation

The data importer shall retain the personal data for no longer than necessary for the purpose(s) for which it is processed. It shall put in place appropriate technical or organisational measures to ensure compliance with this obligation, including erasure or anonymisation <sup>(2)</sup> of the data and all back-ups at the end of the retention period.

8.5 Security of processing

(a) The data importer and, during transmission, also the data exporter shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of the personal data, including protection against a breach of security leading to accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure or access (hereinafter 'personal data breach'). In assessing the appropriate level of security, they shall take due account of the state of the art, the costs of implementation, the nature, scope, context and purpose(s) of processing and the risks involved in the processing for the data subject. The Parties shall in particular consider having recourse to encryption or pseudonymisation, including during transmission, where the purpose of processing can be fulfilled in that manner.

(b) The Parties have agreed on the technical and organisational measures set out in Annex II. The data importer shall carry out regular checks to ensure that these measures continue to provide an appropriate level of security.

(c) The data importer shall ensure that persons authorised to process the personal data have committed themselves to confidentiality or are under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality.

(d) In the event of a personal data breach concerning personal data processed by the data importer under these Clauses, the data importer shall take appropriate measures to address the personal data breach, including measures to mitigate its possible adverse effects.

(e) In case of a personal data breach that is likely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of natural persons, the data importer shall without undue delay notify both the data exporter and the competent supervisory authority pursuant to Clause 13. Such notification shall contain i) a description of the nature of the breach (including, where possible, categories and approximate number of data subjects and personal data records concerned), ii) its likely consequences, iii) the measures taken or proposed to address the breach, and iv) the details of a contact point from whom more information can be obtained. To the extent it is not possible for the data importer to provide all the information at the same time, it may do so in phases without undue further delay.

(f) In case of a personal data breach that is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of natural persons, the data importer shall also notify without undue delay the data subjects concerned of the personal data breach and its nature, if necessary in cooperation with the data exporter, together with the information referred to in paragraph (e), points ii) to iv), unless the data importer has implemented measures to significantly reduce the risk to the rights or freedoms of natural persons, or notification would involve disproportionate efforts. In the latter case, the data importer shall instead issue a public communication or take a similar measure to inform the public of the personal data breach.

(g) The data importer shall document all relevant facts relating to the personal data breach, including its effects and any remedial action taken, and keep a record thereof.

8.6 Sensitive data

Where the transfer involves personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, genetic data, or biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or a person's sex life or sexual orientation, or data relating to criminal convictions or offences (hereinafter 'sensitive data'), the data importer shall apply specific restrictions and/or additional safeguards adapted to the specific nature of the data and the risks involved. This may include restricting the personnel permitted to access the personal data, additional security measures (such as pseudonymisation) and/or additional restrictions with respect to further disclosure.

(2) This requires rendering the data anonymous in such a way that the individual is no longer identifiable by anyone, in line with recital 26 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, and that this process is irreversible.

8.7 Onward transfers

The data importer shall not disclose the personal data to a third party located outside the European Union <sup>(3)</sup> (in the same country as the data importer or in another third country, hereinafter 'onward transfer') unless the third party is or agrees to be bound by these Clauses, under the appropriate Module. Otherwise, an onward transfer by the data importer may only take place if:

- (i) it is to a country benefitting from an adequacy decision pursuant to Article 45 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 that covers the onward transfer;
- (ii) the third party otherwise ensures appropriate safeguards pursuant to Articles 46 or 47 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 with respect to the processing in question;
- (iii) the third party enters into a binding instrument with the data importer ensuring the same level of data protection as under these Clauses, and the data importer provides a copy of these safeguards to the data exporter;
- (iv) it is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims in the context of specific administrative, regulatory or judicial proceedings;
- (v) it is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person; or
- (vi) where none of the other conditions apply, the data importer has obtained the explicit consent of the data subject for an onward transfer in a specific situation, after having informed him/her of its purpose(s), the identity of the recipient and the possible risks of such transfer to him/her due to the lack of appropriate data protection safeguards. In this case, the data importer shall inform the data exporter and, at the request of the latter, shall transmit to it a copy of the information provided to the data subject.

Any onward transfer is subject to compliance by the data importer with all the other safeguards under these Clauses, in particular purpose limitation.

8.8 Processing under the authority of the data importer

The data importer shall ensure that any person acting under its authority, including a processor, processes the data only on its instructions.

8.9 Documentation and compliance

- (a) Each Party shall be able to demonstrate compliance with its obligations under these Clauses. In particular, the data importer shall keep appropriate documentation of the processing activities carried out under its responsibility.
- (b) The data importer shall make such documentation available to the competent supervisory authority on request.

MODULE TWO: Transfer controller to processor

8.1 Instructions

- (a) The data importer shall process the personal data only on documented instructions from the data exporter. The data exporter may give such instructions throughout the duration of the contract.
- (b) The data importer shall immediately inform the data exporter if it is unable to follow those instructions.

8.2 Purpose limitation

The data importer shall process the personal data only for the specific purpose(s) of the transfer, as set out in Annex I. B, unless on further instructions from the data exporter.

- (3) The Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA Agreement) provides for the extension of the European Union's internal market to the three EEA States Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway. The Union data protection legislation, including Regulation (EU) 2016/679, is covered by the EEA Agreement and has been incorporated into Annex XI thereto. Therefore, any disclosure by the data importer to a third party located in the EEA does not qualify as an onward transfer for the purpose of these Clauses.

8.3 Transparency

On request, the data exporter shall make a copy of these Clauses, including the Appendix as completed by the Parties, available to the data subject free of charge. To the extent necessary to protect business secrets or other confidential information, including the measures described in Annex II and personal data, the data exporter may redact part of the text of the Appendix to these Clauses prior to sharing a copy, but shall provide a meaningful summary where the data subject would otherwise not be able to understand its content or exercise his/her rights. On request, the Parties shall provide the data subject with the reasons for the redactions, to the extent possible without revealing the redacted information. This Clause is without prejudice to the obligations of the data exporter under Articles 13 and 14 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

8.4 Accuracy

If the data importer becomes aware that the personal data it has received is inaccurate, or has become outdated, it shall inform the data exporter without undue delay. In this case, the data importer shall cooperate with the data exporter to erase or rectify the data.

8.5 Duration of processing and erasure or return of data

Processing by the data importer shall only take place for the duration specified in Annex I.B. After the end of the provision of the processing services, the data importer shall, at the choice of the data exporter, delete all personal data processed on behalf of the data exporter and certify to the data exporter that it has done so, or return to the data exporter all personal data processed on its behalf and delete existing copies. Until the data is deleted or returned, the data importer shall continue to ensure compliance with these Clauses. In case of local laws applicable to the data importer that prohibit return or deletion of the personal data, the data importer warrants that it will continue to ensure compliance with these Clauses and will only process it to the extent and for as long as required under that local law. This is without prejudice to Clause 14, in particular the requirement for the data importer under Clause 14(e) to notify the data exporter throughout the duration of the contract if it has reason to believe that it is or has become subject to laws or practices not in line with the requirements under Clause 14(a).

8.6 Security of processing

- (a) The data importer and, during transmission, also the data exporter shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of the data, including protection against a breach of security leading to accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure or access to that data (hereinafter 'personal data breach'). In assessing the appropriate level of security, the Parties shall take due account of the state of the art, the costs of implementation, the nature, scope, context and purpose(s) of processing and the risks involved in the processing for the data subjects. The Parties shall in particular consider having recourse to encryption or pseudonymisation, including during transmission, where the purpose of processing can be fulfilled in that manner. In case of pseudonymisation, the additional information for attributing the personal data to a specific data subject shall, where possible, remain under the exclusive control of the data exporter. In complying with its obligations under this paragraph, the data importer shall at least implement the technical and organisational measures specified in Annex II. The data importer shall carry out regular checks to ensure that these measures continue to provide an appropriate level of security.
- (b) The data importer shall grant access to the personal data to members of its personnel only to the extent strictly necessary for the implementation, management and monitoring of the contract. It shall ensure that persons authorised to process the personal data have committed themselves to confidentiality or are under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality.
- (c) In the event of a personal data breach concerning personal data processed by the data importer under these Clauses, the data importer shall take appropriate measures to address the breach, including measures to mitigate its adverse effects. The data importer shall also notify the data exporter without undue delay after having become aware of the breach. Such notification shall contain the details of a contact point where more information can be obtained, a description of the nature of the breach (including, where possible, categories and approximate number of data subjects and personal data records concerned), its likely consequences and the measures taken or proposed to address the breach including, where appropriate, measures to mitigate its possible adverse effects. Where, and in so far as, it is not possible to provide all information at the same time, the initial notification shall contain the information then available and further information shall, as it becomes available, subsequently be provided without undue delay.
- (d) The data importer shall cooperate with and assist the data exporter to enable the data exporter to comply with its obligations under Regulation (EU) 2016/679, in particular to notify the competent supervisory authority and the affected data subjects, taking into account the nature of processing and the information available to the data importer.

8.7 Sensitive data

Where the transfer involves personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, genetic data, or biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or a person's sex life or sexual orientation, or data relating to criminal convictions and offences (hereinafter 'sensitive data'), the data importer shall apply the specific restrictions and/or additional safeguards described in Annex I.B.

8.8 Onward transfers

The data importer shall only disclose the personal data to a third party on documented instructions from the data exporter. In addition, the data may only be disclosed to a third party located outside the European Union <sup>(4)</sup> (in the same country as the data importer or in another third country, hereinafter 'onward transfer') if the third party is or agrees to be bound by these Clauses, under the appropriate Module, or if:

- (i) the onward transfer is to a country benefitting from an adequacy decision pursuant to Article 45 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 that covers the onward transfer;
- (ii) the third party otherwise ensures appropriate safeguards pursuant to Articles 46 or 47 Regulation of (EU) 2016/679 with respect to the processing in question;
- (iii) the onward transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims in the context of specific administrative, regulatory or judicial proceedings; or
- (iv) the onward transfer is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person.

Any onward transfer is subject to compliance by the data importer with all the other safeguards under these Clauses, in particular purpose limitation.

8.9 Documentation and compliance

- (a) The data importer shall promptly and adequately deal with enquiries from the data exporter that relate to the processing under these Clauses.
- (b) The Parties shall be able to demonstrate compliance with these Clauses. In particular, the data importer shall keep appropriate documentation on the processing activities carried out on behalf of the data exporter.
- (c) The data importer shall make available to the data exporter all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the obligations set out in these Clauses and at the data exporter's request, allow for and contribute to audits of the processing activities covered by these Clauses, at reasonable intervals or if there are indications of non-compliance. In deciding on a review or audit, the data exporter may take into account relevant certifications held by the data importer.
- (d) The data exporter may choose to conduct the audit by itself or mandate an independent auditor. Audits may include inspections at the premises or physical facilities of the data importer and shall, where appropriate, be carried out with reasonable notice.
- (e) The Parties shall make the information referred to in paragraphs (b) and (c), including the results of any audits, available to the competent supervisory authority on request.

- (4) The Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA Agreement) provides for the extension of the European Union's internal market to the three EEA States Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway. The Union data protection legislation, including Regulation (EU) 2016/679, is covered by the EEA Agreement and has been incorporated into Annex XI thereto. Therefore, any disclosure by the data importer to a third party located in the EEA does not qualify as an onward transfer for the purpose of these Clauses.

MODULE THREE: Transfer processor to processor

8.1 Instructions

- (a) The data exporter has informed the data importer that it acts as processor under the instructions of its controller(s), which the data exporter shall make available to the data importer prior to processing.
- (b) The data importer shall process the personal data only on documented instructions from the controller, as communicated to the data importer by the data exporter, and any additional documented instructions from the data exporter. Such additional instructions shall not conflict with the instructions from the controller. The controller or data exporter may give further documented instructions regarding the data processing throughout the duration of the contract.

(c) The data importer shall immediately inform the data exporter if it is unable to follow those instructions. Where the data importer is unable to follow the instructions from the controller, the data exporter shall immediately notify the controller.

(d) The data exporter warrants that it has imposed the same data protection obligations on the data importer as set out in the contract or other legal act under Union or Member State law between the controller and the data exporter <sup>(5)</sup>.

8.2 Purpose limitation

The data importer shall process the personal data only for the specific purpose(s) of the transfer, as set out in Annex I. B., unless on further instructions from the controller, as communicated to the data importer by the data exporter, or from the data exporter.

8.3 Transparency

On request, the data exporter shall make a copy of these Clauses, including the Appendix as completed by the Parties, available to the data subject free of charge. To the extent necessary to protect business secrets or other confidential information, including personal data, the data exporter may redact part of the text of the Appendix prior to sharing a copy, but shall provide a meaningful summary where the data subject would otherwise not be able to understand its content or exercise his/her rights. On request, the Parties shall provide the data subject with the reasons for the redactions, to the extent possible without revealing the redacted information.

8.4 Accuracy

If the data importer becomes aware that the personal data it has received is inaccurate, or has become outdated, it shall inform the data exporter without undue delay. In this case, the data importer shall cooperate with the data exporter to rectify or erase the data.

8.5 Duration of processing and erasure or return of data

Processing by the data importer shall only take place for the duration specified in Annex I.B. After the end of the provision of the processing services, the data importer shall, at the choice of the data exporter, delete all personal data processed on behalf of the controller and certify to the data exporter that it has done so, or return to the data exporter all personal data processed on its behalf and delete existing copies. Until the data is deleted or returned, the data importer shall continue to ensure compliance with these Clauses. In case of local laws applicable to the data importer that prohibit return or deletion of the personal data, the data importer warrants that it will continue to ensure compliance with these Clauses and will only process it to the extent and for as long as required under that local law. This is without prejudice to Clause 14, in particular the requirement for the data importer under Clause 14(e) to notify the data exporter throughout the duration of the contract if it has reason to believe that it is or has become subject to laws or practices not in line with the requirements under Clause 14(a).

(5) See Article 28(4) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and, where the controller is an EU institution or body, Article 29(4) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

8.6 Security of processing

(a) The data importer and, during transmission, also the data exporter shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of the data, including protection against a breach of security leading to accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure or access to that data (hereinafter 'personal data breach'). In assessing the appropriate level of security, they shall take due account of the state of the art, the costs of implementation, the nature, scope, context and purpose(s) of processing and the risks involved in the processing for the data subject. The Parties shall in particular consider having recourse to encryption or pseudonymisation, including during transmission, where the purpose of processing can be fulfilled in that manner. In case of pseudonymisation, the additional information for attributing the personal data to a specific data subject shall, where possible, remain under the exclusive control of the data exporter or the controller. In complying with its obligations under this paragraph, the data importer shall at least implement the technical and organisational measures specified in Annex II. The data importer shall carry out regular checks to ensure that these measures continue to provide an appropriate level of security.

- (b) The data importer shall grant access to the data to members of its personnel only to the extent strictly necessary for the implementation, management and monitoring of the contract. It shall ensure that persons authorised to process the personal data have committed themselves to confidentiality or are under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality.
- (c) In the event of a personal data breach concerning personal data processed by the data importer under these Clauses, the data importer shall take appropriate measures to address the breach, including measures to mitigate its adverse effects. The data importer shall also notify, without undue delay, the data exporter and, where appropriate and feasible, the controller after having become aware of the breach. Such notification shall contain the details of a contact point where more information can be obtained, a description of the nature of the breach (including, where possible, categories and approximate number of data subjects and personal data records concerned), its likely consequences and the measures taken or proposed to address the data breach, including measures to mitigate its possible adverse effects. Where, and in so far as, it is not possible to provide all information at the same time, the initial notification shall contain the information then available and further information shall, as it becomes available, subsequently be provided without undue delay.
- (d) The data importer shall cooperate with and assist the data exporter to enable the data exporter to comply with its obligations under Regulation (EU) 2016/679, in particular to notify its controller so that the latter may in turn notify the competent supervisory authority and the affected data subjects, taking into account the nature of processing and the information available to the data importer.

8.7 Sensitive data

Where the transfer involves personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, genetic data, or biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or a person's sex life or sexual orientation, or data relating to criminal convictions and offences (hereinafter 'sensitive data'), the data importer shall apply the specific restrictions and/or additional safeguards set out in Annex I.B.

8.8 Onward transfers

The data importer shall only disclose the personal data to a third party on documented instructions from the controller, as communicated to the data importer by the data exporter. In addition, the data may only be disclosed to a third party located outside the European Union

- (6) (in the same country as the data importer or in another third country, hereinafter 'onward transfer') if the third party is or agrees to be bound by these Clauses, under the appropriate Module, or if:
    - (i) the onward transfer is to a country benefitting from an adequacy decision pursuant to Article 45 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 that covers the onward transfer;
- (6) The Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA Agreement) provides for the extension of the European Union's internal market to the three EEA States Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway. The Union data protection legislation, including Regulation (EU) 2016/679, is covered by the EEA Agreement and has been incorporated into Annex XI thereto. Therefore, any disclosure by the data importer to a third party located in the EEA does not qualify as an onward transfer for the purposes of these Clauses.
    - (ii) the third party otherwise ensures appropriate safeguards pursuant to Articles 46 or 47 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679;
    - (iii) the onward transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims in the context of specific administrative, regulatory or judicial proceedings; or
    - (iv) the onward transfer is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person.

Any onward transfer is subject to compliance by the data importer with all the other safeguards under these Clauses, in particular purpose limitation.

8.9 Documentation and compliance

- (a) The data importer shall promptly and adequately deal with enquiries from the data exporter or the controller that relate to the processing under these Clauses.
- (b) The Parties shall be able to demonstrate compliance with these Clauses. In particular, the data importer shall keep appropriate documentation on the processing activities carried out on behalf of the controller.
- (c) The data importer shall make all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the obligations set out in these Clauses available to the data exporter, which shall provide it to the controller.
- (d) The data importer shall allow for and contribute to audits by the data exporter of the processing activities covered by these Clauses, at reasonable intervals or if there are indications of non-compliance. The same shall apply where the data exporter requests an audit on instructions of the controller. In deciding on an audit, the data exporter may take into account relevant certifications held by the data importer.
- (e) Where the audit is carried out on the instructions of the controller, the data exporter shall make the results available to the controller.
- (f) The data exporter may choose to conduct the audit by itself or mandate an independent auditor. Audits may include inspections at the premises or physical facilities of the data importer and shall, where appropriate, be carried out with reasonable notice.
- (g) The Parties shall make the information referred to in paragraphs (b) and (c), including the results of any audits, available to the competent supervisory authority on request.

MODULE FOUR: Transfer processor to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

8.1 Instructions

- (a) The data exporter shall process the personal data only on documented instructions from the data importer acting as its controller.
- (b) The data exporter shall immediately inform the data importer if it is unable to follow those instructions, including if such instructions infringe Regulation (EU) 2016/679 or other Union or Member State data protection law.
- (c) The data importer shall refrain from any action that would prevent the data exporter from fulfilling its obligations under Regulation (EU) 2016/679, including in the context of sub-processing or as regards cooperation with competent supervisory authorities.
- (d) After the end of the provision of the processing services, the data exporter shall, at the choice of the data importer, delete all personal data processed on behalf of the data importer and certify to the data importer that it has done so, or return to the data importer all personal data processed on its behalf and delete existing copies.

8.2 Security of processing

- (a) The Parties shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of the data, including during transmission, and protection against a breach of security leading to accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure or access (hereinafter 'personal data breach'). In assessing the appropriate level of security, they shall take due account of the state of the art, the costs of implementation, the nature of the personal data <sup>(7)</sup>, the nature, scope, context and purpose(s) of processing and the risks involved in the processing for the data subjects, and in particular consider having recourse to encryption or pseudonymisation, including during transmission, where the purpose of processing can be fulfilled in that manner.
- (b) The data exporter shall assist the data importer in ensuring appropriate security of the data in accordance with paragraph (a). In case of a personal data breach concerning the personal data processed by the data exporter under these Clauses, the data exporter shall notify the data importer without undue delay after becoming aware of it and assist the data importer in addressing the breach.
- (c) The data exporter shall ensure that persons authorised to process the personal data have committed themselves to confidentiality or are under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality.

8.3 Documentation and compliance

- (a) The Parties shall be able to demonstrate compliance with these Clauses.
- (b) The data exporter shall make available to the data importer all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with its obligations under these Clauses and allow for and contribute to audits.

Clause 9

Use of sub-processors

MODULE TWO: Transfer controller to processor

- (a) OPTION 1: SPECIFIC PRIOR AUTHORISATION The data importer shall not sub-contract any of its processing activities performed on behalf of the data exporter under these Clauses to a sub-processor without the data exporter's prior specific written authorisation. The data importer shall submit the request for specific authorisation at least [Specify time period] prior to the engagement of the sub-processor, together with the information necessary to enable the data exporter to decide on the authorisation. The list of sub-processors already authorised by the data exporter can be found in Annex III. The Parties shall keep Annex III up to date. (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

OPTION 2: GENERAL WRITTEN AUTHORISATION The data importer has the data exporter's general authorisation for the engagement of sub-processor(s) from an agreed list. The data importer shall specifically inform the data exporter in writing of any intended changes to that list through the addition or replacement of sub-processors at least [Specify time period] in advance, thereby giving the data exporter sufficient time to be able to object to such changes prior to the engagement of the sub-processor(s). The data importer shall provide the data exporter with the information necessary to enable the data exporter to exercise its right to object.

- (b) Where the data importer engages a sub-processor to carry out specific processing activities (on behalf of the data exporter), it shall do so by way of a written contract that provides for, in substance, the same data protection obligations as those binding the data importer under these Clauses, including in terms of third-party beneficiary rights for data subjects. <sup>(8)</sup> The Parties agree that, by complying with this Clause, the data importer fulfils its obligations under Clause 8.8. The data importer shall ensure that the subprocessor complies with the obligations to which the data importer is subject pursuant to these Clauses.

- (7) This includes whether the transfer and further processing involves personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, genetic data or biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or a person's sex life or sexual orientation, or data relating to criminal convictions or offences.
  - (8) This requirement may be satisfied by the sub-processor acceding to these Clauses under the appropriate Module, in accordance with Clause 7.
  - (c) The data importer shall provide, at the data exporter's request, a copy of such a sub-processor agreement and any subsequent amendments to the data exporter. To the extent necessary to protect business secrets or other confidential information, including personal data, the data importer may redact the text of the agreement prior to sharing a copy.
  - (d) The data importer shall remain fully responsible to the data exporter for the performance of the sub-processor's obligations under its contract with the data importer. The data importer shall notify the data exporter of any failure by the sub-processor to fulfil its obligations under that contract.
  - (e) The data importer shall agree a third-party beneficiary clause with the sub-processor whereby – in the event the data importer has factually disappeared, ceased to exist in law or has become insolvent – the data exporter shall have the right to terminate the subprocessor contract and to instruct the sub-processor to erase or return the personal data.

MODULE THREE: Transfer processor to processor

- (a) OPTION 1: SPECIFIC PRIOR AUTHORISATION The data importer shall not sub-contract any of its processing activities performed on behalf of the data exporter under these Clauses to a sub-processor without the prior specific written authorisation of the controller. The data importer shall submit the request for specific authorisation at least [Specify time period] prior to the engagement of the sub-processor, together with the information necessary to enable the controller to decide on the authorisation. It shall inform the data exporter of such engagement. The list of sub-processors already authorised by the controller can be found in Annex III. The Parties shall keep Annex III up to date. (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

OPTION 2: GENERAL WRITTEN AUTHORISATION The data importer has the controller's general authorisation for the engagement of sub-processor(s) from an agreed list. The data importer shall specifically inform the controller in writing of any intended changes to that list through the addition or replacement of sub-processors at least [Specify time period] in advance, thereby giving the controller sufficient time to be able to object to such changes prior to the engagement of the sub-processor(s). The data importer shall provide the controller with the information necessary to enable the controller to exercise its right to object. The data importer shall inform the data exporter of the engagement of the sub-processor(s).

- (b) Where the data importer engages a sub-processor to carry out specific processing activities (on behalf of the controller), it shall do so by way of a written contract that provides for, in substance, the same data protection obligations as those binding the data importer under these Clauses, including in terms of third-party beneficiary rights for data subjects. <sup>(9)</sup> The Parties agree that, by complying with this Clause, the data importer fulfils its obligations under Clause 8.8. The data importer shall ensure that the sub-processor complies with the obligations to which the data importer is subject pursuant to these Clauses.
- (c) The data importer shall provide, at the data exporter's or controller's request, a copy of such a sub-processor agreement and any subsequent amendments. To the extent necessary to protect business secrets or other confidential information, including personal data, the data importer may redact the text of the agreement prior to sharing a copy.
- (d) The data importer shall remain fully responsible to the data exporter for the performance of the sub-processor's obligations under its contract with the data importer. The data importer shall notify the data exporter of any failure by the sub-processor to fulfil its obligations under that contract.
- (e) The data importer shall agree a third-party beneficiary clause with the sub-processor whereby – in the event the data importer has factually disappeared, ceased to exist in law or has become insolvent – the data exporter shall have the right to terminate the subprocessor contract and to instruct the sub-processor to erase or return the personal data.

(9) This requirement may be satisfied by the sub-processor acceding to these Clauses under the appropriate Module, in accordance with Clause 7.

Data subject rights

MODULE ONE: Transfer controller to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

- (a) The data importer, where relevant with the assistance of the data exporter, shall deal with any enquiries and requests it receives from a data subject relating to the processing of his/her personal data and the exercise of his/her rights under these Clauses without undue delay and at the latest within one month of the receipt of the enquiry or request. <sup>(10)</sup> The data importer shall take appropriate measures to facilitate such enquiries, requests and the exercise of data subject rights. Any information provided to the data subject shall be in an intelligible and easily accessible form, using clear and plain language.
- (b) In particular, upon request by the data subject the data importer shall, free of charge:
  - (i) provide confirmation to the data subject as to whether personal data concerning him/her is being processed and, where this is the case, a copy of the data relating to him/her and the information in Annex I; if personal data has been or will be onward transferred, provide information on recipients or categories of recipients (as appropriate with a view to providing meaningful information) to which the personal data has been or will be onward transferred, the purpose of such onward transfers and their ground pursuant to Clause 8.7; and provide information on the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority in accordance with Clause 12(c)(i);
  - (ii) rectify inaccurate or incomplete data concerning the data subject;
  - (iii) erase personal data concerning the data subject if such data is being or has been processed in violation of any of these Clauses ensuring third-party beneficiary rights, or if the data subject withdraws the consent on which the processing is based.

- (c) Where the data importer processes the personal data for direct marketing purposes, it shall cease processing for such purposes if the data subject objects to it.
- (d) The data importer shall not make a decision based solely on the automated processing of the personal data transferred (hereinafter 'automated decision'), which would produce legal effects concerning the data subject or similarly significantly affect him/her, unless with the explicit consent of the data subject or if authorised to do so under the laws of the country of destination, provided that such laws lay down suitable measures to safeguard the data subject's rights and legitimate interests. In this case, the data importer shall, where necessary in cooperation with the data exporter:
  - (i) inform the data subject about the envisaged automated decision, the envisaged consequences and the logic involved; and
  - (ii) implement suitable safeguards, at least by enabling the data subject to contest the decision, express his/her point of view and obtain review by a human being.
- (e) Where requests from a data subject are excessive, in particular because of their repetitive character, the data importer may either charge a reasonable fee taking into account the administrative costs of granting the request or refuse to act on the request.
- (f) The data importer may refuse a data subject's request if such refusal is allowed under the laws of the country of destination and is necessary and proportionate in a democratic society to protect one of the objectives listed in Article 23(1) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.
- (g) If the data importer intends to refuse a data subject's request, it shall inform the data subject of the reasons for the refusal and the possibility of lodging a complaint with the competent supervisory authority and/or seeking judicial redress.

MODULE TWO: Transfer controller to processor

- (a) The data importer shall promptly notify the data exporter of any request it has received from a data subject. It shall not respond to that request itself unless it has been authorised to do so by the data exporter.
- (10) That period may be extended by a maximum of two more months, to the extent necessary taking into account the complexity and number of requests. The data importer shall duly and promptly inform the data subject of any such extension.
  - (b) The data importer shall assist the data exporter in fulfilling its obligations to respond to data subjects' requests for the exercise of their rights under Regulation (EU) 2016/679. In this regard, the Parties shall set out in Annex II the appropriate technical and organisational measures, taking into account the nature of the processing, by which the assistance shall be provided, as well as the scope and the extent of the assistance required.
  - (c) In fulfilling its obligations under paragraphs (a) and (b), the data importer shall comply with the instructions from the data exporter.

MODULE THREE: Transfer processor to processor

- (a) The data importer shall promptly notify the data exporter and, where appropriate, the controller of any request it has received from a data subject, without responding to that request unless it has been authorised to do so by the controller.
- (b) The data importer shall assist, where appropriate in cooperation with the data exporter, the controller in fulfilling its obligations to respond to data subjects' requests for the exercise of their rights under Regulation (EU) 2016/679 or Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, as applicable. In this regard, the Parties shall set out in Annex II the appropriate technical and organisational measures, taking into account the nature of the processing, by which the assistance shall be provided, as well as the scope and the extent of the assistance required.
- (c) In fulfilling its obligations under paragraphs (a) and (b), the data importer shall comply with the instructions from the controller, as communicated by the data exporter.

MODULE FOUR: Transfer processor to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

The Parties shall assist each other in responding to enquiries and requests made by data subjects under the local law applicable to the data importer or, for data processing by the data exporter in the EU, under Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

Redress

- (a) The data importer shall inform data subjects in a transparent and easily accessible format, through individual notice or on its website, of a contact point authorised to handle complaints. It shall deal promptly with any complaints it receives from a data subject.

[OPTION: The data importer agrees that data subjects may also lodge a complaint with an independent dispute resolution body <sup>(11)</sup> at no cost to the data subject. It shall inform the data subjects, in the manner set out in paragraph (a), of such redress mechanism and that they are not required to use it, or follow a particular sequence in seeking redress.]

MODULE ONE: Transfer controller to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

MODULE TWO: Transfer controller to processor

MODULE THREE: Transfer processor to processor

- (b) In case of a dispute between a data subject and one of the Parties as regards compliance with these Clauses, that Party shall use its best efforts to resolve the issue amicably in a timely fashion. The Parties shall keep each other informed about such disputes and, where appropriate, cooperate in resolving them.
- (c) Where the data subject invokes a third-party beneficiary right pursuant to Clause 3, the data importer shall accept the decision of the data subject to:
- (i) lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority in the Member State of his/her habitual residence or place of work, or the competent supervisory authority pursuant to Clause 13;
  - (ii) refer the dispute to the competent courts within the meaning of Clause 18.
- (11) The data importer may offer independent dispute resolution through an arbitration body only if it is established in a country that has ratified the New York Convention on Enforcement of Arbitration Awards.
- (d) The Parties accept that the data subject may be represented by a not-for-profit body, organisation or association under the conditions set out in Article 80(1) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.
- (e) The data importer shall abide by a decision that is binding under the applicable EU or Member State law.
- (f) The data importer agrees that the choice made by the data subject will not prejudice his/her substantive and procedural rights to seek remedies in accordance with applicable laws.

Clause 12

Liability

MODULE ONE: Transfer controller to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

MODULE FOUR: Transfer processor to controller

- (a) Each Party shall be liable to the other Party/ies for any damages it causes the other Party/ies by any breach of these Clauses.
- (b) Each Party shall be liable to the data subject, and the data subject shall be entitled to receive compensation, for any material or non-material damages that the Party causes the data subject by breaching the third-party beneficiary rights under these Clauses. This is without prejudice to the liability of the data exporter under Regulation (EU) 2016/679.
- (c) Where more than one Party is responsible for any damage caused to the data subject as a result of a breach of these Clauses, all responsible Parties shall be jointly and severally liable and the data subject is entitled to bring an action in court against any of these Parties.
- (d) The Parties agree that if one Party is held liable under paragraph (c), it shall be entitled to claim back from the other Party/ies that part of the compensation corresponding to its/their responsibility for the damage.

- (e) The data importer may not invoke the conduct of a processor or sub-processor to avoid its own liability.

MODULE TWO: Transfer controller to processor

MODULE THREE: Transfer processor to processor

- (a) Each Party shall be liable to the other Party/ies for any damages it causes the other Party/ies by any breach of these Clauses.
- (b) The data importer shall be liable to the data subject, and the data subject shall be entitled to receive compensation, for any material or non-material damages the data importer or its sub-processor causes the data subject by breaching the third-party beneficiary rights under these Clauses.
- (c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b), the data exporter shall be liable to the data subject, and the data subject shall be entitled to receive compensation, for any material or non-material damages the data exporter or the data importer (or its sub-processor) causes the data subject by breaching the third-party beneficiary rights under these Clauses. This is without prejudice to the liability of the data exporter and, where the data exporter is a processor acting on behalf of a controller, to the liability of the controller under Regulation (EU) 2016/679 or Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, as applicable.
- (d) The Parties agree that if the data exporter is held liable under paragraph (c) for damages caused by the data importer (or its subprocessor), it shall be entitled to claim back from the data importer that part of the compensation corresponding to the data importer's responsibility for the damage.
- (e) Where more than one Party is responsible for any damage caused to the data subject as a result of a breach of these Clauses, all responsible Parties shall be jointly and severally liable and the data subject is entitled to bring an action in court against any of these Parties.
- (f) The Parties agree that if one Party is held liable under paragraph (e), it shall be entitled to claim back from the other Party/ies that part of the compensation corresponding to its/their responsibility for the damage.
- (g) The data importer may not invoke the conduct of a sub-processor to avoid its own liability.

Clause 13

Supervision

MODULE ONE: Transfer controller to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

MODULE TWO: Transfer controller to processor

MODULE THREE: Transfer processor to processor

- (a) [Where the data exporter is established in an EU Member State:] The supervisory authority with responsibility for ensuring compliance by the data exporter with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 as regards the data transfer, as indicated in Annex I.C, shall act as competent supervisory authority.

[Where the data exporter is not established in an EU Member State, but falls within the territorial scope of application of Regulation

(EU) 2016/679 in accordance with its Article 3(2) and has appointed a representative pursuant to Article 27(1) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679:] The supervisory authority of the Member State in which the representative within the meaning of Article 27(1) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 is established, as indicated in Annex I.C, shall act as competent supervisory authority.

[Where the data exporter is not established in an EU Member State, but falls within the territorial scope of application of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 in accordance with its Article 3(2) without however having to appoint a representative pursuant to Article 27(2) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679:] The supervisory authority of one of the Member States in which the data subjects whose personal data is transferred under these Clauses in relation to the offering of goods or services to them, or whose behaviour is monitored, are located, as indicated in Annex I.C, shall act as competent supervisory authority.

- (b) The data importer agrees to submit itself to the jurisdiction of and cooperate with the competent supervisory authority in any procedures aimed at ensuring compliance with these Clauses. In particular, the data importer agrees to respond to enquiries, submit to audits and comply with the measures adopted by the supervisory authority, including remedial and compensatory measures. It shall provide the supervisory authority with written confirmation that the necessary actions have been taken.

SECTION III – LOCAL LAWS AND OBLIGATIONS IN CASE OF ACCESS BY PUBLIC AUTHORITIES

Clause 14

Local laws and practices affecting compliance with the Clauses

MODULE ONE: Transfer controller to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

MODULE TWO: Transfer controller to processor

MODULE THREE: Transfer processor to processor

MODULE FOUR: Transfer processor to controller (where the EU processor combines the personal data received from the third country controller with personal data collected by the processor in the EU) (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

- (a) The Parties warrant that they have no reason to believe that the laws and practices in the third country of destination applicable to the processing of the personal data by the data importer, including any requirements to disclose personal data or measures authorising access by public authorities, prevent the data importer from fulfilling its obligations under these Clauses. This is based on the understanding that laws and practices that respect the essence of the fundamental rights and freedoms and do not exceed what is necessary and proportionate in a democratic society to safeguard one of the objectives listed in Article 23(1) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, are not in contradiction with these Clauses.
- (b) The Parties declare that in providing the warranty in paragraph (a), they have taken due account in particular of the following elements:
- (i) the specific circumstances of the transfer, including the length of the processing chain, the number of actors involved and the transmission channels used; intended onward transfers; the type of recipient; the purpose of processing; the categories and format of the transferred personal data; the economic sector in which the transfer occurs; the storage location of the data transferred;
  - (ii) the laws and practices of the third country of destination— including those requiring the disclosure of data to public authorities or authorising access by such authorities – relevant in light of the specific circumstances of the transfer, and the applicable limitations and safeguards <sup>(12)</sup>;
  - (iii) any relevant contractual, technical or organisational safeguards put in place to supplement the safeguards under these Clauses, including measures applied during transmission and to the processing of the personal data in the country of destination.
- (c) The data importer warrants that, in carrying out the assessment under paragraph (b), it has made its best efforts to provide the data exporter with relevant information and agrees that it will continue to cooperate with the data exporter in ensuring compliance with these Clauses.
- (d) The Parties agree to document the assessment under paragraph (b) and make it available to the competent supervisory authority on request.
- (e) The data importer agrees to notify the data exporter promptly if, after having agreed to these Clauses and for the duration of the contract, it has reason to believe that it is or has become subject to laws or practices not in line with the requirements under paragraph (a), including following a change in the laws of the third country or a measure (such as a disclosure request) indicating an application of such laws in practice that is not in line with the requirements in paragraph (a). [For Module Three: The data exporter shall forward the notification to the controller.]
- (f) Following a notification pursuant to paragraph (e), or if the data exporter otherwise has reason to believe that the data importer can no longer fulfil its obligations under these Clauses, the data exporter shall promptly identify appropriate measures (e.g. technical or organisational measures to ensure security and confidentiality) to be adopted by the data exporter and/or data importer to address the situation [for Module Three: if appropriate in consultation with the controller]. The data exporter shall suspend the data transfer if it considers that no appropriate safeguards for such transfer can be ensured, or if instructed by [for Module Three: the controller or] the competent supervisory authority to do so. In this case, the data exporter shall be entitled to terminate the contract, insofar as it concerns the processing of personal data under these Clauses. If the contract involves more than two Parties, the data exporter may exercise this right to termination only with respect to the relevant Party, unless the Parties have agreed otherwise. Where the contract is terminated pursuant to this Clause, Clause 16(d) and (e) shall apply.

Obligations of the data importer in case of access by public authorities

MODULE ONE: Transfer controller to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

MODULE TWO: Transfer controller to processor

MODULE THREE: Transfer processor to processor

MODULE FOUR: Transfer processor to controller (where the EU processor combines the personal data received from the third country controller with personal data collected by the processor in the EU) (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

(12) As regards the impact of such laws and practices on compliance with these Clauses, different elements may be considered as part of an overall assessment. Such elements may include relevant and documented practical experience with prior instances of requests for disclosure from public authorities, or the absence of such requests, covering a sufficiently representative time-frame. This refers in particular to internal records or other documentation, drawn up on a continuous basis in accordance with due diligence and certified at senior management level, provided that this information can be lawfully shared with third parties. Where this practical experience is relied upon to conclude that the data importer will not be prevented from complying with these Clauses, it needs to be supported by other relevant, objective elements, and it is for the Parties to consider carefully whether these elements together carry sufficient weight, in terms of their reliability and representativeness, to support this conclusion. In particular, the Parties have to take into account whether their practical experience is corroborated and not contradicted by publicly available or otherwise accessible, reliable information on the existence or absence of requests within the same sector and/or the application of the law in practice, such as case law and reports by independent oversight bodies.

15.1 Notification

- (a) The data importer agrees to notify the data exporter and, where possible, the data subject promptly (if necessary with the help of the data exporter) if it:
  - (i) receives a legally binding request from a public authority, including judicial authorities, under the laws of the country of destination for the disclosure of personal data transferred pursuant to these Clauses; such notification shall include information about the personal data requested, the requesting authority, the legal basis for the request and the response provided; or
  - (ii) becomes aware of any direct access by public authorities to personal data transferred pursuant to these Clauses in accordance with the laws of the country of destination; such notification shall include all information available to the importer.

[For Module Three: The data exporter shall forward the notification to the controller.]

- (b) If the data importer is prohibited from notifying the data exporter and/or the data subject under the laws of the country of destination, the data importer agrees to use its best efforts to obtain a waiver of the prohibition, with a view to communicating as much information as possible, as soon as possible. The data importer agrees to document its best efforts in order to be able to demonstrate them on request of the data exporter.
- (c) Where permissible under the laws of the country of destination, the data importer agrees to provide the data exporter, at regular intervals for the duration of the contract, with as much relevant information as possible on the requests received (in particular, number of requests, type of data requested, requesting authority/ies, whether requests have been challenged and the outcome of such challenges, etc.). [For Module Three: The data exporter shall forward the information to the controller.]
- (d) The data importer agrees to preserve the information pursuant to paragraphs (a) to (c) for the duration of the contract and make it available to the competent supervisory authority on request.
- (e) Paragraphs (a) to (c) are without prejudice to the obligation of the data importer pursuant to Clause 14(e) and Clause 16 to inform the data exporter promptly where it is unable to comply with these Clauses.

15.2 Review of legality and data minimisation

- (a) The data importer agrees to review the legality of the request for disclosure, in particular whether it remains within the powers granted to the requesting public authority, and to challenge the request if, after careful assessment, it concludes that there are reasonable grounds to consider that the request is unlawful under the laws of the country of destination, applicable obligations under international law and principles of international comity. The data importer shall, under the same conditions, pursue possibilities of appeal. When challenging a request, the data importer shall seek interim measures with a view to suspending the effects of the request until the competent judicial authority has decided on its merits. It shall not disclose the personal data requested until required to do so under the applicable procedural rules. These requirements are without prejudice to the obligations of the data importer under Clause 14(e).
- (b) The data importer agrees to document its legal assessment and any challenge to the request for disclosure and, to the extent permissible under the laws of the country of destination, make the documentation available to the data exporter. It shall also make it available to the competent supervisory authority on request. [For Module Three: The data exporter shall make the assessment available to the controller.]
- (c) The data importer agrees to provide the minimum amount of information permissible when responding to a request for disclosure, based on a reasonable interpretation of the request.

SECTION IV – FINAL PROVISIONS

Clause 16

Non-compliance with the Clauses and termination

- (a) The data importer shall promptly inform the data exporter if it is unable to comply with these Clauses, for whatever reason.
- (b) In the event that the data importer is in breach of these Clauses or unable to comply with these Clauses, the data exporter shall suspend the transfer of personal data to the data importer until compliance is again ensured or the contract is terminated. This is without prejudice to Clause 14(f).
- (c) The data exporter shall be entitled to terminate the contract, insofar as it concerns the processing of personal data under these Clauses, where:
  - (i) the data exporter has suspended the transfer of personal data to the data importer pursuant to paragraph (b) and compliance with these Clauses is not restored within a reasonable time and in any event within one month of suspension;
  - (ii) the data importer is in substantial or persistent breach of these Clauses; or
  - (iii) the data importer fails to comply with a binding decision of a competent court or supervisory authority regarding its obligations under these Clauses.

In these cases, it shall inform the competent supervisory authority [for Module Three: and the controller] of such non-compliance. Where the contract involves more than two Parties, the data exporter may exercise this right to termination only with respect to the relevant Party, unless the Parties have agreed otherwise.

- (d) [For Modules One, Two and Three: Personal data that has been transferred prior to the termination of the contract pursuant to paragraph (c) shall at the choice of the data exporter immediately be returned to the data exporter or deleted in its entirety. The same shall apply to any copies of the data.] [For Module Four: Personal data collected by the data exporter in the EU that has been transferred prior to the termination of the contract pursuant to paragraph (c) shall immediately be deleted in its entirety, including any copy thereof.] The data importer shall certify the deletion of the data to the data exporter. Until the data is deleted or returned, the data importer shall continue to ensure compliance with these Clauses. In case of local laws applicable to the data importer that prohibit the return or deletion of the transferred personal data, the data importer warrants that it will continue to ensure compliance with these Clauses and will only process the data to the extent and for as long as required under that local law.
- (e) Either Party may revoke its agreement to be bound by these Clauses where (i) the European Commission adopts a decision pursuant to Article 45(3) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 that covers the transfer of personal data to which these Clauses apply; or (ii) Regulation (EU) 2016/679 becomes part of the legal framework of the country to which the personal data is transferred. This is without prejudice to other obligations applying to the processing in question under Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

Governing law

MODULE ONE: Transfer controller to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

MODULE TWO: Transfer controller to processor

MODULE THREE: Transfer processor to processor

[OPTION 1: These Clauses shall be governed by the law of one of the EU Member States, provided such law allows for third-party beneficiary rights. The Parties agree that this shall be the law of Ireland.

[OPTION 2 (for Modules Two and Three): These Clauses shall be governed by the law of the EU Member State in which the data exporter is established. Where such law does not allow for third-party beneficiary rights, they shall be governed by the law of another EU Member State that does allow for third-party beneficiary rights. The Parties agree that this shall be the law of (specify Member State).] (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

MODULE FOUR: Transfer processor to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

These Clauses shall be governed by the law of a country allowing for third-party beneficiary rights. The Parties agree that this shall be the law of __ (specify country).

Clause 18

Choice of forum and jurisdiction

MODULE ONE: Transfer controller to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

MODULE TWO: Transfer controller to processor

MODULE THREE: Transfer processor to processor

- (a) Any dispute arising from these Clauses shall be resolved by the courts of an EU Member State.
- (b) The Parties agree that those shall be the courts of Ireland.
- (c) A data subject may also bring legal proceedings against the data exporter and/or data importer before the courts of the Member State in which he/she has his/her habitual residence.
- (d) The Parties agree to submit themselves to the jurisdiction of such courts.

MODULE FOUR: Transfer processor to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

Any dispute arising from these Clauses shall be resolved by the courts of _____ (specify country).

APPENDIX

EXPLANATORY NOTE:

It must be possible to clearly distinguish the information applicable to each transfer or category of transfers and, in this regard, to determine the respective role(s) of the Parties as data exporter(s) and/or data importer(s). This does not necessarily require completing and signing separate appendices for each transfer/category of transfers and/or contractual relationship, where this transparency can be achieved through one appendix. However, where necessary to ensure sufficient clarity, separate appendices should be used.

B. DESCRIPTION OF TRANSFER

MODULE ONE: Transfer controller to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

MODULE TWO: Transfer controller to processor

MODULE THREE: Transfer processor to processor

MODULE FOUR: Transfer processor to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

Categories of data subjects whose personal data is transferred

Through their use of Forcepoint Products, Data Exporter may submit Personal Data to Forcepoint, the extent of which is determined and controlled by the Data Exporter in its sole discretion, and which may include but is not limited to the categories of Personal Data listed below:

- Forcepoint Customer ID information: Customer ID (i.e. the ID used to identify which customer send files to ThreatScope), User ID or Visitor ID (the ID used to identify client IP visiting the file), network user name, first name, last name, company name, country, and email address.
- Communication information: email metadata, including email addresses of sender and recipient, sender email in SMTP transaction and email subject.
- Traffic data: proxy log, web traffic logs, apache browsing logs, browsing and diagnostic logs, IP addresses, URL information, website session data and files submitted by ForcepointCustomers. Categories of personal data transferred Sensitive data transferred (if applicable) and applied restrictions or safeguards that fully take into consideration the nature of the data and the risks involved, such as for instance strict purpose limitation, access restrictions (including access only for staff having followed specialised training), keeping a record of access to the data, restrictions for onward transfers or additional security measures.

Through their use of Forcepoint Products, Data Exporter may submit Personal Data to Forcepoint, the extent of which is determined and controlled by the Data Exporter in its sole discretion. Forcepoint does not expect to receive sensitive data from the Data Exporter.

The frequency of the transfer (e.g. whether the data is transferred on a one-off or continuous basis).

Customer Personal Data may be transferred for the purposes of the management and administration of customer/client services on a continuous basis.

Nature of the processing

Customer Data is transferred for the purposes of the management and administration of customer/client services, including but not limited to:

- administration of orders and accounts;
- providing Forcepoint Products and associated technical support;
- Forcepoint Product management and development;
- the conduct of Forcepoint's business activities.

Purpose(s) of the data transfer and further processing

Customer Data are transferred for the purposes of the management and administration of customer/client services, including but not limited to:

- administration of orders and accounts;
- providing Forcepoint Products and associated technical support;
- Forcepoint Product management and development;
- the conduct of Forcepoint's business activities.

The period for which the personal data will be retained, or, if that is not possible, the criteria used to determine that period

Forcepoint will only keep the Data Exporter's Personal Data it collects, as long as necessary, for the purpose or purposes (i) for which it was collected; (ii) of performing or fulfilling contractual obligations; (iii) of complying with law; and/or (iv) of responding to legal actions.

For transfers to (sub-) processors, also specify subject matter, nature and duration of the processing

A list of Forcepoint's current sub-processors, along with a description of their services, can be found at:

<https://www.forcepoint.com/sites/default/files/resources/files/datasheet-forcepoint-sub-processors-list-en.pdf>. Forcepoint's sub-processor's will only keep the Data Exporter's Personal Data it collects, as long as necessary, for the purpose or purposes (i) for which it was collected; (ii) of performing or fulfilling contractual obligations; (iii) of complying with law; and/or (iv) of responding to legal actions.

ANNEX II

TECHNICAL AND ORGANISATIONAL MEASURES INCLUDING TECHNICAL AND ORGANISATIONAL MEASURES TO ENSURE THE SECURITY OF THE DATA

MODULE ONE: Transfer controller to controller (Not applicable to Forcepoint Personal Data Processing)

MODULE TWO: Transfer controller to processor

MODULE THREE: Transfer processor to processor

Forcepoint implements various technical and organizational measures designed to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risks posed to Customer Data. Such measures seek to prevent unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or access and against all other unlawful forms of access to Customer Data. Consistent with industry standard and guidelines set forth in applicable data protection laws, such measures include:

Access Control of Processing Areas

Forcepoint implements suitable measures in order to prevent unauthorized persons from gaining access to the data processing equipment (namely telephones, database and application servers and related hardware) where the Customer Data is accessed, processed or used. This is accomplished by:

- establishing security areas;
- protection and restriction of access paths;
- securing the decentralized telephones, data processing equipment and personal computers;
- establishing access authorizations for employees and third parties, including the respective documentation;
- regulations on access card-keys;
- restriction on access card-keys;
- all access to the data center where personal data are hosted is logged, monitored, and tracked; and
- the data center where personal data are hosted is secured by a security alarm system, and other appropriate security measures.

Access Control to Data Processing Systems

Forcepoint implements suitable measures to prevent its data processing systems from being used by unauthorized persons. This is accomplished by:

- identification of the terminal and/or the terminal user to the Forcepoint systems;
- automatic time-out of user terminal if left idle, identification and password required to reopen;
- User IDs are monitored and access revoked when several erroneous passwords are entered, log file of events (monitoring of break-in-attempts);
- issuing and safeguarding of identification codes and secure tokens;
- strong password requirements (minimum length, use of special characters, re-use etc.);
- protection against external access by means of a state-of-the-art industrial standard firewall whose connection to the intranet [if applicable] shall in addition be safeguarded by a VPN connection;
- dedication of individual terminals and/or terminal users, identification characteristics exclusive to specific functions; and
- all access to data content on machines or computer systems is logged, monitored, and tracked.

Access Control to Use Specific Areas of Data Processing Systems

Forcepoint commits that the persons entitled to use its data processing systems are only able to access the data within the scope and to the extent covered by their respective access permission (authorization) and that Customer Data cannot be read, copied or modified or removed without authorization. This shall be accomplished by:

- employee policies and training in respect of each employee's access rights to the Personal Data;
- allocation of individual terminals and /or terminal user, and identification characteristics exclusive to specific functions;
- monitoring capability in respect of individuals who delete, add or modify the Personal Data;
- effective and measured disciplinary action against individuals who access Personal Data without authorization;
- release of data to only authorized persons;
- control of files, controlled and documented destruction of data; and  policies controlling the retention of back-up copies.

Transmission Control

Forcepoint implements suitable measures to prevent Customer Data from being read, copied, altered or deleted by unauthorized parties during the transmission thereof or during the transport of the data media and to ensure that it is possible to check and establish to which bodies the transfer of Customer Data by means of data transmission facilities is envisaged. This is accomplished by:

- use of state-of-the-art firewall and encryption technologies to protect the gateways and pipelines through which the data travels;
- use of 128bit SSL-encryption for all http-connections;
- implementation of secure two-factor VPN connections to safeguard the connection to the internet, if applicable;
- encryption of Customer Data by state-of-the-art encryption technology;
- constant monitoring of infrastructure (i.e. ICMP-Ping at network level, disk space examination at system level, successful delivery of specified test pages at application level); and
- monitoring of the completeness and correctness of the transfer of data (end-to-end integrity check).

Input Control

Forcepoint implements suitable measures to ensure that it is possible to check and establish whether and by whom personal data have been input into data processing systems or removed. This is accomplished by:

- an authorization policy for the input of data into hosted service, as well as for the reading, alteration and deletion of stored data;
- authentication of the authorized personnel;
- protective measures for the data input into memory, as well as for the reading, alteration and deletion of stored data;
- utilization of user codes (passwords and tokens);
- providing that entries to data processing facilities (the rooms housing the computer hardware and related equipment) are capable of being locked;
- automatic log-off of user ID's that have not been used for a substantial period of time;  logging or otherwise evidencing input authorization; and  electronic recording of entries.

Instructional Control of Personal Data

Forcepoint ensures that Customer's Personal Data may only be Processed in accordance with the Forcepoint Customer Agreement together with any reasonable and relevant instructions received in writing from authorised personnel of the Customer from time to time which may be specific instructions or instructions of a general nature as set out in the Forcepoint Customer Agreement or as otherwise agreed between the Customer and Forcepoint during the term of the Forcepoint Customer Agreement. This is accomplished by binding policies and procedures for Forcepoint's employees.

Availability Control

Forcepoint implements suitable measures to ensure that Customer Data are protected from accidental destruction or loss. This is accomplished by:

- infrastructure redundancy: reporting data is stored on hardware with redundant disks subsystem backed up in real time with off-site replication backups.

Separation of Processing for different Purposes

Forcepoint implements suitable measures to ensure that data collected for different purposes can be processed separately. This is accomplished by:

- access to data is separated through multiple diverse applications for the appropriate users; and
  - interfaces, batch processes and reports are designed for only specific purposes and functions, so data collected for specific purposes is Processed separately.

Subprocessors

Forcepoint engages various sub processors in connection with its cloud infrastructure. Forcepoint ensures that it has robust contractual provisions in place to ensure compliance by such sub processors with the organizational security measures outlined herein.

Forcepoint Cloud Services Service Level Agreement

1. Terms and Conditions

- 1.1 Forcepoint provides these SLAs subject to the terms and conditions of the then current Forcepoint Subscription Agreement at: Subscription Agreement, and the Forcepoint Network Security Products License Agreement at: Network Security License Agreement, as applicable and as may be updated by Forcepoint from time to time (the "Agreement").

The defined terms therein have the same meaning when used in this Service Level Agreement. "Subscriber" and "Licensee" under the Agreement are referred to as "Customer" in these SLAs. The current version of these SLAs can be found at: <https://www.forcepoint.com/company/terms-and-conditions> and may be modified or updated by Forcepoint from time to time in its sole discretion with or without notice to the Customer.

- 1.2 A Customer must submit a claim in writing within 5 days of the occurrence of the failure to meet an SLA (or earlier if specifically set forth below) (the "Credit Request"), and promptly provide Forcepoint with reasonable evidence to support the basis for the Credit Request. If Forcepoint confirms that an SLA was not met, then Customer will be eligible for a "Service Credit" entitling the Customer to the free use of the affected Cloud Service for the time period set forth in the applicable SLA.
- 1.3 Service Credits for any failure to meet an SLA will only be provided under a single SLA for a single claim, as identified by the Customer in the Credit Request. One claim cannot result in Service Credits under multiple SLAs.

- 1.4 The SLAs will not apply to situations where:

GENERAL

- The Cloud Service is unavailable for 1 hour or less or the Customer fails to timely submit a Credit Request in compliance with Section 1.2
- The Customer has used the Cloud Service for 30 days or less
- The Customer is a trial or evaluation customer
- The Customer is misusing the Cloud Service (including without limitation acting as an open relay or open proxy, or using the service to send spam or viruses) or is otherwise in violation of the Agreement
- The failure to comply with the SLA is based on reasons beyond Forcepoint's reasonable control as set out in the Agreement

CONFIGURATION

- The Cloud Service is incorrectly configured by the Customer, including use of Customer-provided networking equipment that does not meet the guidance in the Documentation
- The Customer configures equipment, network, or software in a manner such that Customer's connection does not utilize the high-availability capabilities of the Cloud Service
- The Customer provides incorrect or inaccurate information (including change information) to Forcepoint
- For Cloud Email, where an account is not configured to use two or more co-location sites (clusters) Operation
- Forcepoint is performing scheduled or routine maintenance of the Cloud Service, where the Customer has been notified of the maintenance no less than 5 days in advance, or as otherwise set forth below
- Forcepoint is performing emergency maintenance to apply security patches to the Cloud Service Connectivity
- The Customer's applications or equipment or Internet connection has failed, or equipment is switching between service connection points
- There is an issue with the Customer's or a third party's hardware or software, or an issue caused by third parties who gain access to the Cloud Services using Customer's accounts or equipment
- There is an issue with the Customer's routing infrastructure (e.g. router, identity-provider or secure web proxy of a third-party)
- There is a network unavailability outside of Forcepoint-controlled systems (servers, hardware, and associated software) that are responsible for delivering the Cloud Service

1.5 The remedies set forth in this Service Level Agreement are the Customer's sole and exclusive remedy for any failure by Forcepoint to comply with the SLAs. Further information regarding remedies is set forth in the Agreement.

2. SLAs for Forcepoint's security access policy enforcement Cloud Services solution ("CASB")

2.1 Definitions

- "NI" or 'Network Infrastructure' means the group of Forcepoint controlled systems (servers, hardware, and associated software) that are responsible for delivering CASB.
- "NI Outage" means a period when the Forcepoint NI fails to direct web traffic to the Customer site.
- "PI" or 'Peripheral Infrastructure' means the application access, configuration management, and all nonlinear networking capabilities provided by Forcepoint to Customer for use in connection with CASB.
- "PI Outage" means a period when the Forcepoint PI is unavailable, outside a Scheduled Maintenance window.
- "Outage" means a NI Outage or PI Outage, as applicable.
- "Scheduled Maintenance" means maintenance performed (a) in which Customer is provided electronic notice at least 48 hours in advance if Customer has enrolled in automatic notifications, and (b) a recurring weekly maintenance window pertaining to the "PI" every Sunday between 3:00 AM Pacific to 3:00 PM Pacific. During this maintenance window the "PI" might be intermittently unavailable.

2.2 CASB Availability (Uptime)

- CASB will have a NI monthly uptime percentage of 99.999%.
- CASB will have a PI monthly uptime percentage of 99.5%.
- Monthly uptime percentage is calculated by subtracting from 100% the percentage of 60 second periods during the calendar month in which CASB is in a state of Outage. In the event Forcepoint does not meet the Monthly Uptime Percentage commitment, then Customer may be eligible to receive Service Credits calculated and applied as follows:
  - o Forcepoint will use all information reasonably available to it to calculate the Outage length, including analysis of service data immediately prior to the Outage period. If Forcepoint determines that there has been a NI Outage for more than 0.001% or a PI Outage for more than 0.5% of any calendar month, then Forcepoint will make the following Service Credits available to Customer, subject to the conditions of this Service Level Agreement:

Outage Length	Service Credit(s)
1 min. – 120 min.	1 day's credit
Outages of more than 120 min	1 day's credit for every 2 full hours of outage

- A Service Credit due to a Customer will: (a) not exceed 30 days in any one month period; and (b) be applied by Forcepoint to Customer's account. Service Credits for the SLA under this Section 2 will only be credited toward Customer's use of CASB.

3. SLAs for Forcepoint's Internet and internal application access policy enforcement Cloud Services solution ("Private Access")

3.1 Service Availability (Uptime)

- Private Access will be available 99.999% of the time
- Private Access "Service Unavailability" means the inability of Private Access to receive, process and forward web (HTTP/HTTPS) and non-web traffic in substantial conformance with Forcepoint's Documentation, on behalf of the Customer and measured during any given calendar month.
- In the event of Service Unavailability for more than 0.001% of any calendar month, Customer may be eligible for a Service Credit equal to 1 day for each 2 hour period of Service Unavailability, subject to a maximum credit of 5 days in any 1 calendar month.

3.2 Service Latency

- Private Access will process HTTP and HTTPS requests consisting of units of data made into single Internet protocol packages traveling along a network path ("Requests") in no more than 100 milliseconds 95% of the time over any calendar month measured from the time Private Access receives the content to the time Private Access attempts to transmit the content. Communication times outside of Private Access are not included in this SLA
- This service latency SLA only applies to "Qualified Content", which means Requests that are: less than 1 MB HTTP GET request and response; not SSL-intercepted; not related to streaming applications; not subject to bandwidth management rules (e.g. QoS enforcement); and resulting from a reasonable level of consumption (not more than 2,000 Requests per User per day on average).

- If in any one calendar month 5% or more of the Qualified Content is not processed in 100 milliseconds or less as determined by the monthly average Private Access processing time among samples taken by Forcepoint in a given calendar month ("Missed Latency SLA"), Customer may be eligible for a Service Credit equal to 1 week as a result of the Missed Latency SLA subject to a maximum aggregate Service Credit of 4 weeks during any 12-month term.
4. SLAs for Forcepoint's user risk analysis Cloud Services solution ("Dynamic User Protection")
- 4.1 Service Availability
- Dynamic User Protection will be available 99.9% of the time
  - Dynamic User Protection "Service Unavailability" means the inability of Customer to access the Dynamic User Protection management portal as specified in Forcepoint's published documentation (as may be updated by Forcepoint from time to time), and measured over a calendar month.
  - In the event of Service Unavailability for more than 0.1% of any calendar month, Customer may be eligible for a Service Credit equal to 1 day for each 2 hour period of Service Unavailability, subject to a maximum credit of 5 days in any 1 calendar month.
5. SLAs for Forcepoint's inbound and outbound email scanning Cloud Services solution ("Cloud Email")
- 5.1 Message Tracking
- For 95% of all emails processed, the following will be available for review in the Message Center within 5 minutes of receipt of an email: Detailed SMTP logs; and all emails that are quarantined (including those that failed a content filtering rule, were classified as spam or were infected with a virus).
  - If more than 5% of email logs or quarantined emails processed in any calendar month are not available for review within 5 minutes when the Customer is using the portal, Customer may be eligible for a Service Credit equal to 1 day for each email log or quarantined email that did not meet this SLA, subject to a maximum credit of 5 days in any 1 month.
- 5.2 Service Availability
- Cloud Email will be available 99.999% of the time.
  - Cloud Email "Service Unavailability" means the inability of the email filtering service to receive and process email in substantial conformance with Forcepoint's published documentation for the email filtering service, as may be updated by Forcepoint from time to time, on behalf of the Customer and measured during any given calendar month.
  - In the event of Service Unavailability for more than 0.001% of any calendar month, Customer may be eligible for a Service Credit equal to 1 day for each 2 hour period of Service Unavailability, subject to a maximum credit of 5 days in any 1 month.
- 5.3 Service Management
- For 99% of all non-spam emails less than 2 Mega Bytes in size, the time required to process an email will be less than 60 seconds.
  - If in any 1 calendar month, 1% or more of all processed non-spam emails less than 2 Mega Bytes in size takes 60 seconds or longer for Forcepoint to process (following receipt, ready for processing, to attempted delivery), Customer may be eligible for a Service Credit equal to 1 day for each email that takes 60 seconds or longer to receive, process and attempt to deliver, subject to a maximum credit of 5 days in any 1 month. This SLA applies only to legitimate business email (non-bulk email) and does not apply to emails 2 Mega Bytes or larger in size, denial of service (DOS) attacks, or email loops.
- 5.4 Spam Detection Rates
- Spam will be detected at a rate of 99% or above during each calendar month for Customer's use of the antispam service.
  - The spam SLA does not apply to emails using a majority of Asian language (or other non-English or nonEuropean language) or emails sent to invalid mailboxes.
  - In the event the spam detection rate drops below 99% for a period of more than 5 days in any 1 calendar month, Customer may be eligible for a Service Credit equal to 1 month.
- 5.5 Virus Detection
- For Customers subscribing to the anti-virus service, Forcepoint will protect the Customer from infection by 100% of all Known Viruses contained inside email that has passed through Cloud Email. This excludes links (URLs) inside email messages that take the Customer to a website where Viruses can be downloaded.

- A "Known Virus" means a Virus which has already been identified and a Virus definition has been made available by 1 of the anti-virus services whose technology is used within Forcepoint's Cloud Email, at least 30 minutes before the time the email was processed by Cloud Email. This SLA does not apply to forms of email abuse that are not classified as viruses or malware, such as phishing, adware, spyware, and spam.
- In the event that Forcepoint identifies a Known Virus but does not stop the infected email, Forcepoint will use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly notify the Customer, providing information to enable the Customer to identify and delete the Virus-infected email. If such action prevents the infection of the Customer's systems, then the remedy defined in this Section 5.5 shall not apply. Customer's failure to promptly act on such information will also result in the remedy defined in this Section 5.5 being inapplicable.
- In the event that 1 or more Known Viruses in any calendar month passes through the email filtering service undetected and infects the Customer's systems, Customer may be eligible for a Service Credit equal to 1 month, subject to the Customer providing evidence acceptable to Forcepoint that Cloud Email failed to detect the Known Virus within 5 working days of the Virus infection.
- The SLA under this Section 5.5 will not apply if (a) the Virus was contained inside an email that could not be analyzed by the email filtering service, such as an encrypted email or a password-protected file, (b) the Virus infection occurred because an email which had been identified as containing a Virus was released by Forcepoint on the request of the Customer, or by the Customer through the email filtering portal, or (c) there is deliberate self-infection by the Customer or its authorized user.

6. SLAs for Forcepoint's web access filtering Cloud Services solution ("Cloud Web")

6.1 Service Availability

- Cloud Web will be available 99.999% of the time.
- Cloud Web "Service Unavailability" means Cloud Web being unable to receive, process and forward Web Content in substantial conformance with Forcepoint's published documentation as may be updated by Forcepoint from time to time, on behalf of the Customer and measured during any given calendar month.
- In the event of Service Unavailability for 0.001% or more of any calendar month, Customer may be eligible for a Service Credit equal to 1 day for each 2 hour period of Service Unavailability, subject to a maximum credit of 5 days in any 1 calendar month.

6.2 Service Latency

- Cloud Web will process HTTP and HTTPS requests consisting of units of data made into single Internet protocol packages traveling along a network path ("Requests") in no more than 100 milliseconds 95% of the time over any calendar month measured from the time Cloud Web receives the content to the time Cloud Web attempts to transmit the content. Communication times outside Forcepoint's data center are not included in this SLA.
- This service latency SLA only applies to "Qualified Content", which means Requests that are: less than 1 MB HTTP GET request and response; not SSL-intercepted; not related to streaming applications; not subject to bandwidth management rules (e.g. QoS enforcement); and resulting from a reasonable level of consumption (not more than 2,000 Requests per User per day on average).
- If in any 1 calendar month 5% or more of the Qualified Content is not processed in 100 milliseconds or less as determined by the monthly average Cloud Web processing time among samples taken by Forcepoint in a given calendar month ("Missed Latency SLA"), Customer may be eligible for a Service Credit equal to 1 week as a result of the Missed Latency SLA, subject to a maximum aggregate Service Credit of 4 weeks during any 12-month term.

6.3 Virus Detection

- Forcepoint will protect the Customer from infection by 100% of all Known Viruses contained inside Web Content that has passed through the cloud web protection service module of Cloud Web.
- A "Known Virus" means a Virus which has already been identified and a Virus definition has been made available by 1 of the anti-virus services whose technology is used within Forcepoint's Cloud Web, at least 30 minutes before the time the Web Content was processed by the web filtering service. This SLA does not apply to forms of Web Content abuse that are not classified as viruses or malware, such as phishing, adware, spyware, and spam
- In the event that Forcepoint identifies a Known Virus but does not stop the infected Web Content, Forcepoint will use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly notify the Customer, providing information to enable the Customer to identify and delete the Virus-infected Web Content. If such action prevents the infection of the Customer's systems, then the remedy defined in this Section 6.3 shall not apply. Customer's failure to promptly act on such information will also result in the remedy defined in this Section 6.3 being inapplicable.

- In the event that 1 or more Known Viruses in any calendar month passes through Cloud Web undetected and infects the Customer's systems, Customer may be eligible for a Service Credit equal to 1 month, subject to the Customer providing evidence that Cloud Web failed to detect the Known Virus within 5 working days of the Virus infection.
- The SLA under this Section 6.3 will not apply if (a) the Virus was contained inside Web Content that could not be analyzed by the web security service, such as HTTPS or a password-protected file, (b) the user bypassed the web security service when downloading the Web Content, (c) the Customer configured the Cloud Service to not filter the web content, or (d) there is deliberate self-infection by the Customer or its authorized user.

7. SLAs for Forcepoint's Cloud Email archiving Cloud Service solution ("Email Archiving")

7.1 Service Availability

- Email Archiving will be available 99.99% of the time over a calendar month.
- Email Archiving "Service Unavailability" means the inability of the email archiving server to receive and transmit Customer's requests to store and retrieve archived email in conformance with Forcepoint's published documentation, as may be updated by Forcepoint from time to time, and measured over a full calendar month.
- In the event of Service Unavailability for more than 0.01% for any calendar month, Customer may be eligible for a Service Credit equal to 1 day for each calendar month where Service Unavailability exceeds 0.01%.

Foxit Software Inc.
41841 Albrae Street
Fremont, CA 94538

FOXIT SOFTWARE INC. LICENSE AGREEMENT FOR DESKTOP SOFTWARE APPLICATIONS

IMPORTANT-READ CAREFULLY: This Foxit Software Inc. ("Foxit") License Agreement ("License" or "Agreement") is a legal agreement between the General Services Administration (, who will be referred to in this License as "You" or "Your") and Foxit for the use of desktop software applications, and which may include associated media, printed materials, and other components and software modules including but not limited to drivers ("Product"). The Product also includes any software updates and upgrades that Foxit may provide to You or make available to You, or that You obtain after the date You obtain Your initial copy of the Product, to the extent that such items are not accompanied by a separate license agreement or terms of use. BY INSTALLING, COPYING, DOWNLOADING, ACCESSING OR OTHERWISE USING THE PRODUCT, YOU AGREE TO BE BOUND BY THE TERMS OF THIS FOXIT LICENSE AGREEMENT. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT YOU HAVE NO RIGHTS TO THE PRODUCT AND SHOULD NOT INSTALL, COPY, DOWNLOAD, ACCESS OR USE THE PRODUCT.

The Product is protected by copyright laws as well as other intellectual property laws. The Product is licensed and not sold.

GRANT OF LICENSE. Foxit grants You a non-exclusive, nontransferable license to install and use the Product subject to all the terms and conditions set forth here within.

Single-Use Perpetual License. You may permit a single authorized end user to install the Product on a single computer for use by that end user only. Remote access to the paid products (such as Foxit PhantomPDF, Microsoft Active Directory® Rights Management Services ("RMS"), DocuSign feature in Foxit Reader and Foxit Redactor for Office) are not permitted without the express written consent of Foxit.

Single-Use Term License. Same usage terms as the Single-Use Perpetual License. The period of use is limited to a fixed duration, out of which the Product must be uninstalled from the computer unless the license is renewed for an additional period of time.

Subscription License. The Product is licensed on a monthly or annual subscription basis, You may only apply the subscription license on the Permitted Number of Compatible Computer(s) as long as you maintain a currently paid-up subscription of the Product.

ADDITIONAL LIMITATIONS. You may not reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble the Product, except and only to the extent that it is expressly permitted by applicable law notwithstanding this limitation. You may not rent, lease, lend or transfer the Product, or host the Product for third parties without the express written consent of Foxit. The Product is licensed as a single integral product; its component parts may not be separated for use on more than one computer. The Product may include copy protection technology to prevent the unauthorized copying of the Product or may require original media for use of the Product on the computer. It is illegal to make unauthorized copies of the Product or to circumvent any copy protection technology included in the Product. The software may not be resold either by You or a third party customer without the prior written permission of Foxit. All rights not expressly granted to You are retained by Foxit.

Third Party Software. The Product may contain third party software that Foxit can grant sublicense to use or in the case of the Microsoft Corporation AD RMS Client Foxit grants a limited use license, all which is protected by copyright law and other applicable laws.

RMS Plug-in Limitations. Organizational users of the Product who use the RMS functionality will be required to pay RMS encryption and decryption fees. Please contact sales@foxitsoftware.com for further information.

DocuSign Limitations. Organizations having 200 or more registered DocuSign users of the Product will be required to pay the Maintenance Fee for each Product for which Maintenance is desired and as further described in Section 5.4 below. Please contact sales@foxitsoftware.com for further information.

EDUCATIONAL USE. If the Product You have received with this Agreement is an Educational Software Bundle (where the Product is received by virtue of Your participation in a Foxit program designed for educational or research institutions, or is provided by Foxit to You under some other arrangement), You are not entitled to use the Product unless You are an employee or student of such educational institution. Educational Software Products may be used for educational and research purposes only. Commercial and general production use of Educational Software Products are specifically prohibited. The Product is provided under a Single-Use Term License as described above. You may install one copy of the Product on one desktop computer in a designated computer used for educational purposes under Your license agreement. Your Educational license is granted for a period of one year, unless stated otherwise, from when the Product license keys are made available to You. Your Educational license entitles You to email and telephone support for up to two designated employees and product upgrades during the term of Your license. You grant Foxit the right to use material created under such license for marketing and advertising purposes.

SUPPORT, MAINTENANCE, AND UPGRADE PROTECTION TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

Term of Maintenance. Foxit agrees to provide Maintenance (as defined herein) to You pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth herein provided that You pay the Maintenance Fee or Subscription Fee for each Product for which Maintenance is desired and as further described in Section 5.4 below. Maintenance will be provided for a period of one year or as long as a subscription is active and paid-up, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties in writing, from the date of purchase of the Product (the "Initial Support and Maintenance Term"), and with renewals, annually from the expiration date of the prior Support and Maintenance Term. Failure to renew annual maintenance may result in You having to purchase a new license in order to receive future versions of software and associated ongoing support and maintenance.

Maintenance Services. In exchange for the Maintenance Fee, Foxit agrees to provide to You during the term of this Agreement support and maintenance (collectively "Maintenance") as follows:

Support: Foxit will provide email and telephone support to You for current versions of the Product. Foxit will investigate all of Your questions and problems promptly. You agree to provide adequate information to Foxit to assist in the investigation and to confirm that any problems have been resolved. Foxit does not provide guaranteed response time but will make good faith effort to answer emails and voice mails within twenty-four (24) hours or less during weekdays, excluding holidays.

Maintenance: Foxit will supply to You, at no additional charge, any improvements or modifications to the Product that Foxit makes generally available as a minor release such as: 2.1, 2.2, 2.3 etc. Any such improvements or modifications shall become part of the Product for all purposes of this Agreement.

You acknowledge and agree that the Maintenance to be provided by Foxit hereunder is limited to the most current version of the Product and the immediately preceding version.

Term of Upgrade Protection. Foxit agrees to provide Upgrade Protection (as defined herein) to You pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth herein provided that You pay the Upgrade Protection Fee for each Product for which Upgrade Protection is desired and as further described in Section 5.2.1 below. Upgrade Protection will be provided for a period of one year, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties in writing, from the date of purchase of the Product (the "Initial Upgrade Protection Term"), and with renewals (as described in Section 5.4), annually from the expiration date of the prior Upgrade Protection Term. Failure to renew annual Upgrade Protection may result in You having to purchase a new license in order to receive future versions of software and associated ongoing Upgrade Protection.

Upgrade Protection Services. In exchange for the Upgrade Protection Fee, Foxit agrees to provide to You during the term of this Agreement Upgrade Protection (collectively "Upgrade Protection") as follows:

Support: Foxit will provide email and telephone support to You for current versions of the Product. Foxit will investigate all of Your questions and problems promptly. You agree to provide adequate information to Foxit to assist in the investigation and to confirm that any problems have been resolved. Foxit does not provide guaranteed response time but will make good faith effort to answer emails and voice mails within twenty-four (24) hours or less during weekdays, excluding holidays.

Maintenance: Foxit will supply to You, at no additional charge, any improvements, upgrade, or modifications to the Product that Foxit makes generally available. Any such improvements, upgrades, or modifications shall become part of the Product for all purposes of this Agreement.

You acknowledge and agree that the Upgrade Protection Services to be provided by Foxit hereunder is limited to the most current version of the Product and the immediately preceding version.

Exclusions. Foxit's obligation to provide Support is contingent upon proper use of the Product and full compliance with this Agreement. Moreover, Foxit shall be under no obligation to provide Support should such services be required due to (a) failure to operate the Product within the systems requirements provided for the Product (b) any modification or attempted modification of the Product by You or any third party or (C) Your failure or refusal to implement Product changes recommended by Foxit.

Consideration. In payment of the Support, Maintenance and Upgrade Protection services to be provided by Foxit hereunder, You shall pay Foxit, or its authorized agent, the applicable fee for the Initial Support, Maintenance and Upgrade Protection Term as indicated on the related invoice, receipt, purchase order, or other ordering document ("Support, Maintenance and Upgrade Protection Fee"). At the end of the Initial Support, Maintenance and Upgrade Protection Term, or any subsequent Support, Maintenance and Upgrade Protection Term, You may renew participation in Support, Maintenance and Upgrade Protection services for additional annual term(s) provided You (a) are current on all payments due to Foxit and (b) pay Foxit, or its authorized agent, the applicable renewal fee, which Foxit, or its authorized agent, shall invoice prior to the end of the preceding term, unless terminated by You at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the then current Support, Maintenance and Upgrade Protection Term. Support, Maintenance and Upgrade Protection shall be discontinued for any and all subsequent Support, Maintenance and Upgrade Protection Terms for which You fail to pay Foxit the invoice within ten (10) days after the prior Support, Maintenance and Upgrade Protection expiration date.

Exceptions. For use of the Product or a Beta Software Product, only the Maintenance Services and Exclusions paragraphs of this section apply. For use of the Product under Educational Use terms, the Maintenance Services and Exclusion paragraphs apply as long as You pay for the maintenance period defined under Your Single-Use Term License.

1.1 6. PAYMENT TERMS. Customer shall pay all fees in accordance with the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. 3903) and prompt payment regulations at 5 CFR part 1315, and with FAR 52.212-4, subsection (i).

TAXES. The fees and all other amounts due as set forth in this Agreement are net amounts to be received by Foxit, exclusive of all taxes, duties, and assessments, including without limitation all sales, withholding, VAT, excise, ad valorem, and use taxes (collectively, the "Taxes"), and are not subject to offset or reduction because of any Taxes incurred by You or otherwise due as a result of this Agreement. You shall be responsible for and shall pay directly, any and all Taxes relating to the performance of this Agreement, provided that this paragraph shall not apply to taxes based solely on Foxit's income.

CONSENT TO USE OF DATA.

The software (main application and plug-ins) may contact a Foxit server periodically to check for software updates and vulnerability fixes.

The software may collect usage information to support the integrity of features and enhance the quality of the software. Such usage information may contain personally identifiable information when it is reasonably needed for providing necessary services to the user, or when the user consents to providing such information and only to the extent as allowed by the applicable laws. The usage information collected includes:

- File name
- Author
- Created time
- Created device
- Creator application
- Creator location
- Document pages
- Document size
- Document Versions
- Document version description
- Other usage information

You agree that Foxit and its affiliates may collect and use information You provide as a part of any such support services related to the Product. Foxit agrees not to use this information in a form that personally identifies You. Foxit maintains user login information under which Foxit may collect your Foxit product login email only. Collection of this information occurs in accordance with the Foxit Privacy Policy. Such usage information which includes protected data must be safeguarded by Foxit and its third party service providers (if applicable) and shall not used for any purpose other than to fulfill Foxit's obligations under this Agreement and any applicable orders.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS. Subject to the license grant hereunder, all right, title and interest in and to the Product, the accompanying printed materials, and any copies of the Product are owned by Foxit and its licensors.

EXPORT RESTRICTIONS. You acknowledge that Product is of U.S. origin. You agree to comply with all applicable foreign, federal, state and local laws and regulations governing Your use of the Product. Without limiting the foregoing, in the event that this Agreement permits export of the Product outside the U.S., You shall be solely responsible for compliance with all applicable U.S. export laws, rules, and regulations. The Product is subject to the U.S. Export Administration Regulations and other U.S. law, and may not be exported or re-exported to certain countries (currently Cuba, Iran, Libya, North Korea, Sudan and Syria) or to persons or entities prohibited from receiving U.S. exports (including those (a) on the Bureau of Industry and Security Denied Parties List or Entity List, (b) on the Office of Foreign Assets Control list of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons, and (c) involved with missile technology or nuclear, chemical or biological weapons).

WARRANTY

LIMITED WARRANTY ON MEDIA

FOXIT warrants that any media on which the Licensed Software is distributed shall be free from material defects for a period of thirty (30) calendar days from the date of receipt of the License. If Licensee discovers a defect in the media during this thirty (30) day period, Licensee may return the defective media to FOXIT within fifteen (15) calendar days of discovering the defect, and Licensee's sole remedy shall be to have the defective media replaced. The foregoing exclusion/limitation of liability shall not apply to (1) personal injury or death resulting from FOXIT'S negligence; (2) for fraud; (3) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law or (4) express remedies provided under any FAR, GSAR or Schedule 70 solicitation clauses incorporated into the contract

NO WARRANTY ON LICENSED SOFTWARE

1.2 THE LICENSED SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED TO LICENSEE "AS IS". FOXIT, AND FOXIT'S LICENSORS AND SUPPLIERS, MAKE NO WARRANTY AS TO ITS USE OR PERFORMANCE. FOXIT, AND FOXIT'S LICENSORS AND SUPPLIERS, MAKE NO REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, CONDITIONS, OR TERMS (EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WHETHER BY STATUTE, COMMON LAW, CUSTOM, USAGE, COURSE OF DEALING, TRADE PRACTICE OR OTHERWISE) AS TO THE LICENSED SOFTWARE, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION TITLE, NON- INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS, MERCHANTABILITY, SATISFACTORY QUALITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE, EXCEPT FOR, AND ONLY TO THE EXTENT THAT, ANY SUCH REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY CONDITION OR TERM MAY NOT BE EXCLUDED OR LIMITED BY APPLICABLE LAW IN LICENSEE'S JURISDICTION. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Foxit will repair or replacedefective items discovered within a reasonable period of time after acceptance.

11.3. Warranty Disclaimer. Other than the warranty set forth in Section 11.1 above, and to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Foxit, its authorized resellers and their subsidiaries provides the Product and any support services related to the Product ("Support Services") AS IS AND WITH ALL FAULTS, and hereby disclaim all other warranties and conditions, either express, implied or statutory, including, but not limited to, any implied warranties, duties or conditions of merchantability, of fitness for a particular purpose, of accuracy or completeness of responses, of results, of workmanlike effort, of lack of viruses, and of lack of negligence, all with regard to the Product, and the provision of or failure to provide support services.

LIMIT OF LIABILITY AND EXCLUSION OF INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL AND CERTAIN OTHER DAMAGES. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL FOXIT, ITS AUTHORIZED RESELLERS OR THEIR SUBSIDIARIES BE LIABLE FOR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES WHATSOEVER (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF PROFITS OR CONFIDENTIAL OR OTHER INFORMATION, FOR BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, FOR PERSONAL INJURY, FOR LOSS OF PRIVACY, FOR FAILURE TO MEET ANY DUTY INCLUDING OF GOOD FAITH OR OF REASONABLE CARE, FOR NEGLIGENCE, AND FOR ANY OTHER PECUNIARY OR OTHER LOSS WHATSOEVER) ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY RELATED TO THE USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE THE PRODUCT, THE PROVISION OF OR FAILURE TO PROVIDE SUPPORT SERVICES, OR OTHERWISE UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH ANY PROVISION OF THIS LICENSE, EVEN IN THE EVENT OF THE FAULT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF CONTRACT OR BREACH OF WARRANTY OF FOXIT, EVEN IF FOXIT HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. . The foregoing exclusion/limitation of liability shall not apply to (1) personal injury or death resulting from FOXIT's negligence; (2) for fraud;

(3) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law or (4) express remedies provided under any FAR, GSAR or Schedule 70 solicitation clauses incorporated into the contract

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND REMEDIES. Notwithstanding any damages that You might incur for any reason whatsoever (including, without limitation, all damages referenced above and all direct or general damages), the entire liability of Foxit, its resellers and their subsidiaries under any provision of this License and Your exclusive remedy for all of the foregoing shall be limited to the amount actually paid by You for the Product. The foregoing limitations, exclusions and disclaimers shall apply to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, even if any remedy fails its essential purpose. . The foregoing exclusion/limitation of liability shall not apply to (1) personal injury or death resulting from FOXIT's negligence; (2) for fraud;

(3) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law or (4) express remedies provided under any FAR, GSAR or Schedule 70 solicitation clauses incorporated into the contract.

NOTICE TO U.S. GOVERNMENT END USERS

For contracts with agencies of the Department of Defense, the Government's rights in: (1) commercial computer software and commercial computer software documentation shall be governed, pursuant to 48 C.F.R. 227.7201 through 227.7202-4, by Foxit's standard commercial license(s) for the respective product(s); (2) software and software documentation other than commercial computer software and commercial computer software documentation shall be governed by 48 C.F.R. 252.227-7014;

(3) technical data for commercial items other than software or software documentation shall be governed by 48 C.F.R. 252.227- 7015(b); and (4) technical data for non-commercial items other than software or software documentation shall be governed by 48 C.F.R. 252.227-7013.

For contracts with U.S. Government agencies other than the Department of Defense agencies, the Government's rights in:

(1) commercial computer software and commercial computer software documentation shall be governed, pursuant to 48 C.F.R.

2.101 and 12.212, by Foxit's standard commercial license(s) for the respective product(s); (2) software and software documentation other than commercial computer software and commercial computer software documentation shall be governed by 48 C.F.R. 52.227-14, Alternative III; and (3) technical data other than software and software documentation shall be governed by 48 C.F.R. 52.227-14 including, where applicable Alternatives I or II.

GENERAL. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States of America. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods will not apply. You may not assign this Agreement or any right or interest hereunder, by operation of law or otherwise, without Foxit's express prior written consent. Any attempt to assign this Agreement, without such consent, will be null and of no effect. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement will bind and inure to the benefit of each party's successors and permitted assigns. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, the exercise by either party of any of its remedies under this Agreement will be without prejudice to its other remedies under this Agreement or otherwise. If for any reason a court of competent jurisdiction finds any provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable, that provision of the Agreement will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible and the other provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect. All notices or approvals required or permitted under this Agreement will be in writing and delivered by confirmed facsimile transmission, by overnight delivery services, or by certified mail, and in each instance will be deemed given upon receipt. All notices or approvals will be sent to the addresses set forth in the applicable ordering document or invoice or to such other address as may be specified by either party to the other in accordance with this section. The failure by either party to enforce any provision of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of future enforcement of that or any other provision. This Agreement, Foxit's Federal Supply Schedule Contract and price list and any subsequent order and Foxit's support and maintenance services terms constitutes the entire and exclusive agreement between the parties concerning its subject matter and supersedes all prior written and oral understandings and agreements between the parties regarding its subject matter. 14. COMPLIANCE WITH LICENSES. If You are a business, company or organization, You agree that upon request from Foxit or its authorized representative You will within thirty (30) days fully document and certify that use of any and all Foxit Products at the time of the request is in conformity with Your valid licenses from Foxit.

DISCONTINUING OR MODIFYING SERVICES. You acknowledge that Foxit has the right to discontinue the manufacture and development of any of the Product and the support for that Product, in its sole discretion at any time, including the distribution of older Product versions, provided that Foxit agrees not to discontinue the support for that Product during the current annual term of this Agreement, subject to the termination provisions herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Foxit discontinues the manufacture and support for a particular Product, Support for any remaining Products covered by this Agreement shall not be adversely affected. Foxit reserves the right to alter the Support, in its sole discretion but in no event shall such alterations result in: (a) diminished support from the level of support set forth herein; (b) materially diminished obligations for Foxit; or (c) Your materially diminished rights.

Termination and Breach – Your termination rights shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(l) and (m) and Foxit's termination rights shall be governed by the FAR 52.212-4(d). Note: FAR 52.233-1, requires the Foxit to submit a claim to the contracting officer if it believes the Government to be in breach, and to continue performance during the pendency of the claim. Claims shall be addressed in accordance with the Contract Disputes Act.

Should You have any questions concerning this License, or if You desire to contact Foxit for any reason, please call (510) 438-9090.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Fortinet, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

FORTINET, INC.

FORTINET, INC. LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

1. License Grant.

This is a license, not a sales agreement, between Ordering Activity and Contractor. The term "Software", as used throughout this Attachment A, includes all Fortinet and third party firmware and software provided to Ordering Activity with, or incorporated into, Fortinet appliances and any stand-alone software provided to Ordering Activity by Contractor, with the exception of any open source software contained in Fortinet's Products which is discussed in detail in section 15 below, and the term "Software" includes any accompanying documentation, any updates and enhancements of the software or firmware provided to Ordering Activity by Contractor, at its option. Contractor grants to Ordering Activity a non-transferable (except as provided in section 5 ("Transfer") and section 13 ("Open Source Software") below), non-exclusive, revocable (in the event of your failure to comply with these terms or in the event Contractor is not properly paid for the applicable Product) license to use the Software solely for Ordering Activity's internal business purposes (provided, if a substantial portion of Ordering Activity's business is to provide managed service provider services to Ordering Activity's end-customers, Ordering Activity may use the Software embedded in FortiGate and supporting hardware appliances to provide those services, subject to the other restrictions in this Attachment A), in accordance with the terms set forth in this Attachment A and subject to any further restrictions in Fortinet documentation, and solely on the Fortinet appliance, or, in the case of blades, CPUs or databases, on the single blade, CPU or database on which Fortinet installed the Software or, for stand-alone Software, solely on a single computer running a validly licensed copy of the operating system for which the Software was designed, or, in the case of blades, CPUs or databases, on a single blade, CPU or database. For clarity, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, all licenses of Software to be installed on blades, CPUs or databases are licensed on a per single blade, solely for one blade and not for multiple blades that may be installed in a chassis, per single CPU or per single database basis, as applicable. The Software is "in use" on any Fortinet appliances when it is loaded into temporary memory (i.e. RAM). Ordering Activity agrees that, except for the limited, specific license rights granted in this section 1, Ordering Activity receive no license rights to the Software.

2. Limitation on Use.

Ordering Activity may not attempt to, and, if Ordering Activity is a corporation, Ordering Activity is responsible to prevent Ordering Activity's employees and contractors from attempting to, (a) modify, translate, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, create derivative works based on, sublicense, or distribute the Software; (b) rent or lease any rights in the Software in any form to any third party or make the Software available or accessible to third parties in any other manner; (c) except as provided in section 5, transfer assign or sublicense right to any other person or entity, or (d) remove any proprietary notice, labels, or marks on the Software, Products, and containers.

3. Proprietary Rights.

All rights, title, interest, and all copyrights to the Software and any copy made thereof by Ordering Activity and to any Product remain with Fortinet. Ordering Activity acknowledges that no title to the intellectual property in the Software or other Products is transferred to Ordering Activity and Ordering Activity will not acquire any rights to the Software or other Products except for the specific license as expressly set forth in section 1 ("License Grant") above.

4. Limited Warranty.

Contractor provides this limited warranty for its product only to the single Ordering Activity person or entity that originally purchased the Product from Contractor or its authorized reseller or distributor and paid for such Product. The warranty is only valid for Products which are registered on Fortinet's Support Website: <https://support.fortinet.com>; or on the TalkSwitch support website: <http://global.talkswitch.com>; or such other website as provided by Contractor. For the below software warranty to start, registration must take place within three hundred sixty-five (365) days from the date the Product was originally shipped from Contractor's facilities or the warranty is null and void and will not be honored. For the hardware warranty, such warranty starts on the earlier of the date of Product registration on Fortinet's Support Website or ninety (90) days from the date that the Product was originally shipped from Contractor's facilities. It is the Contractor distributor's and reseller's responsibility to make clear to the Ordering Activity the date the product was originally shipped from Contractor, and it is the Ordering Activity's responsibility to understand the original ship date from the party from which the end user purchased the product. All warranty claims must be submitted in writing to Contractor before the expiration of the warranty term or such claims are waived in full, i.e. ninety (90) days from the earlier of registration or the automatically started term for hardware and spare parts claims and three hundred sixty-five (365) days from registration within three hundred sixty-five (365) days from shipment for software claims. Contractor provides no warranty for any beta, donation or evaluation Products, for any spare parts not purchased directly from Contractor by the Ordering Activity, for any accessories, or for any stand-alone software.

Contractor warrants that the hardware portion of the Products, including spare parts unless noted otherwise ("Hardware") will be free from material defects in workmanship as compared to the functional specifications for the period set forth as follows and applicable to the Product type ("Hardware Warranty Period"): a three hundred sixty-five (365) day limited warranty for the Hardware excluding spare parts, and, for spare parts, solely a ninety (90) days limited warranty. Contractor's obligation shall be to repair or replace the defective Hardware at no charge to the original owner. This obligation is exclusive of transport fees, labor or installation costs, and any other cost which are not directly associated to the Product. Such repair or replacement will be rendered by Contractor through Fortinet at an authorized Fortinet service facility as determined by Fortinet. The replacement Hardware need not be new or of an identical make, model, or part; Contractor may, in its discretion, replace the defective Hardware (or any part thereof) with any reconditioned Product that Contractor reasonably determines is substantially equivalent (or superior) in all material respects to the defective Hardware. The Hardware Warranty Period for the repaired or replacement Hardware shall be for the greater of the remaining Hardware Warranty Period or ninety days from the delivery of the repaired or replacement Hardware. If Contractor determines in its reasonable discretion that a material defect is incapable of correction or that it is not practical to repair or replace defective Hardware, the price paid by the original purchaser for the defective Hardware will be refunded by Contractor upon return to Contractor of the defective Hardware. All Hardware (or part thereof) that is replaced by Contractor, or for which the purchase price is refunded, shall become the property of Contractor upon replacement or refund.

Contractor warrants that the software portion of Hardware Products will substantially conform to Contractor's then current functional specifications for the Software, as set forth in the applicable documentation for a period of ninety (90) days ("Software Warranty Period"), if the Software is properly installed on approved Hardware and operated as contemplated in its documentation. Contractor's obligation shall be to repair or replace the non-conforming Software with software that substantially conforms to Contractor's functional specifications. Except as otherwise agreed by Contractor in writing, the replacement Software is provided only to the original licensee, and is subject to the terms and conditions in this Attachment A of the license granted by Contractor for the Software. The Software Warranty Period shall extend for an additional ninety (90) days after any replacement software is delivered. If Contractor determines in its reasonable discretion that a material non-conformance is incapable of correction or that it is not practical to repair or replace the non-conforming Software, the price paid by the original licensee for the non-conforming Software will be refunded by Contractor; provided that the non-conforming Software (and all copies thereof) is first returned to Contractor. The license granted respecting any Software for which a refund is given automatically terminates immediately upon refund. For purpose of the above hardware and software warranties, the term "functional specifications" means solely those specifications authorized and published by Contractor that expressly state in such specifications that they are the functional specifications referred to in this section 6 of this Attachment A, and, in the event no such specifications are provided to you with the Software or Hardware, there shall be no warranty on such Software.

5. Disclaimer of Other Warranties and Restrictions.

EXCEPT FOR THE LIMITED WARRANTY SPECIFIED IN SECTION 4 ABOVE, THE PRODUCT AND SOFTWARE ARE PROVIDED "AS-IS" WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY OF ANY KIND INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY, IMPLIED OR EXPRESS WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, OR WARRANTY FOR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT. IF ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY CANNOT BE DISCLAIMED IN ANY TERRITORY WHERE A PRODUCT IS SOLD, THE DURATION OF SUCH IMPLIED WARRANTY SHALL BE LIMITED TO NINETY (90) DAYS FROM THE DATE OF ORIGINAL SHIPMENT FROM CONTRACTOR. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY COVERED UNDER THE LIMITED WARRANTY PROVIDED HEREIN, THE ENTIRE RISK AS TO THE QUALITY, SELECTION AND PERFORMANCE OF THE PRODUCT IS WITH THE PURCHASER OF THE PRODUCT. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY, THE HARDWARE WARRANTY PERIOD DISCUSSED ABOVE DOES NOT APPLY TO CERTAIN FORTINET PRODUCTS, INCLUDING FORTIFONE WHICH HAS A NINETY (90) DAY LIMITED WARRANTY AND FORTITOKEN WHICH HAS A 365 DAY WARRANTY FROM THE DATE OF SHIPMENT FROM CONTRACTOR'S FACILITIES, AND THE SOFTWARE WARRANTY DOES NOT APPLY TO CERTAIN FORTINET PRODUCTS, INCLUDING FORTIGATE-ONE AND VDOM SOFTWARE.

The warranty in Section 4 above does not apply if the Software, Product or any other equipment upon which the Software is authorized to be used (a) has been altered, except by Contractor or its authorized representative, (b) has not been installed, operated, repaired, or maintained in accordance with instructions supplied by Contractor, (c) has been subjected to abnormal physical or electrical stress, misuse, negligence, or accident; or (d) is licensed for beta, evaluation, donation, testing or demonstration purposes or for which Contractor does not charge a purchase price or license fee. In the case of beta, testing, evaluation, donation or free Software or Product, the end user acknowledges and agrees that such Software or Product may contain bugs or errors and could cause system failures, data loss and other issues, and the Ordering Activity agrees that such Software or Product is provided "as-is" without any warranty whatsoever, and Contractor disclaims any warranty or liability whatsoever. An Ordering Activity's use of evaluation or beta Software or Product is limited to thirty (30) days from original shipment unless otherwise agreed in writing by Contractor.

6. U.S. Government End Users.

The Software and accompanying documentation are deemed to be "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation," respectively, pursuant to DFAR Section 227.7202 and FAR Section 12.212, as applicable. Any use, modification, reproduction, release, performance, display or disclosure of the Software and accompanying documentation by the United States Government shall be governed solely by the terms of this Attachment A and shall be prohibited except to the extent expressly permitted by the terms of this Attachment A and its successors.

7. Open Source Software.

Fortinet's products may include software modules that are licensed (or sublicensed) to the user under the GNU General Public License, Version 2, of June 1991 ("GPL") or GNU Lesser General Public License, Version 2.1, of February 1999 ("LGPL") or other open source software licenses which, among other rights, permit the user to use, copy, modify and redistribute modules, or portions thereof, and may also require attribution disclosures and access to the source code ("Open Source Software"). The GPL requires that for any Open Source Software covered under the GPL, which is distributed to someone in an executable binary format, that the source code also be made available to those users. For any Open Source Software covered under the GPL, the source code is made available on this CD or download package. If any Open Source Software licenses require that Contractor provide rights to use, copy or modify a Open Source Software program that are broader than the rights granted in this Attachment A, then such rights shall take precedence over the rights and restrictions herein. All open source software modules are licensed free of charge. There is no warranty for these modules, to the extent permitted by applicable law. The copyright holders provide these software modules "AS-IS" without warranty of any kind, either expressed or implied. In no event will the copyright holder for the open source software be liable to you for damages, including any special, incidental or consequential damages arising out of the use or inability to use the software modules, even if such holder has been advised of the possibility of such damages. A full copy of this license, including additional open source software license disclosures and third party license disclosures applicable to certain Fortinet products, may be obtained by contacting Contractor through Fortinet's Legal Department at legal@fortinet.com.

SUPPORT AND SUBSCRIPTION SERVICE CONTRACTS OFFERED

Service Contracts Offered. Contractor through Fortinet offers various Support and Subscription Service Contracts ranging in hours of operation and included Services. In addition, Fortinet offers Subscription Services and other Product service offerings to protect Ordering Activity's newly purchased assets.

Ordering and Use. Each Service Contract purchased by Ordering Activity is valid for a single unit of Product. For clarity, use of a Service Contract with a replacement unit, or with certain upgraded units identified by Contractor through Fortinet as applicable to the Service Contract, shall not be considered a material breach of this Attachment A.

TERMS OF SERVICE

Registration. Ordering Activity must register the Product for which the Service Contract was purchased within three hundred sixty-five (365) days from the date of the original shipment by Contractor through Fortinet of the applicable Product and Service Contract to Ordering Activity. SERVICE CONTRACTS WHICH ARE NOT REGISTERED WITHIN THREE HUNDRED SIXTY-FIVE (365) DAYS FROM THE DATE THE SERVICE CONTRACT WAS ORIGINALLY SHIPPED FROM CONTRACTOR THROUGH FORTINET SHALL BE FORFEITED AND CONTRACTOR SHALL HAVE NO OBLIGATION TO THE ORDERING ACTIVITY REGARDING THIS ATTACHMENT A OR ANY RELATED SUPPORT SERVICES. It is Ordering Activity's responsibility to ensure it knows the deadline to register the Service Contract within the three hundred sixty-five (365) day period. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Contractor through Fortinet may register any Renewal Service Contract upon invoicing. Upon renewal of the Service Contract, Ordering Activity authorizes Contractor through Fortinet to automatically register the Renewal Service Contract for subsequent renewal periods for which a purchase order has been placed.

Renewal Registration. In order to maintain a continual service period, the effective date of any Renewal Service Contract shall begin as set forth herein, (the "Renewal Service Contract Effective Date"). In the event that registration of a Renewal Service Contract is beyond ten (10) calendar days following the expiration date of the previous Service Contract, such Renewal Service Contract Effective Date will be the later of (a) the calendar day following the expiration date of the Ordering Activity's previous service Contract and (b) the date that is one hundred eighty (180) calendar days prior to the actual registration date of the Renewal Service Contract. The above does not apply if Renewal Service Contracts are registered and started within ten (10) calendar days following the expiration date of the Ordering Activity's previous Services Contract. In such case the start date shall be the date of registration.

For example and for illustration purposes only, in the event a one year Renewal Service Contract is registered ninety (90) days after the expiration date of the Services contract being renewed, the term of such Renewal Service Contract will terminate 275 days (365 – 90) from the date of registration of such Renewal Service Contract. As another example, in the event a one year Renewal Service Contract is registered two-hundred (200) days after the expiration date of the Services contract being renewed, the term of such Renewal Service Contract will terminate 180 days from the date of registration of such Renewal Service Contract.

Support Policy. The delivery of all Services shall be subject to and provided in accordance with Contractor through Fortinet's then current Customer Support Services Reference Guide ("Reference Guide"). The Reference Guide details the Service and Support process and any service levels provided by Contractor through Fortinet with your specific Fortinet Support Services. The Reference Guide is available at the following link <https://support.fortinet.com/Login/UserLogin.aspx>. The Reference Guide is subject to change and Fortinet shall post notices of any changes on the support website <https://support.fortinet.com/Login/UserLogin.aspx> with no less than thirty (30) days notice prior to the effective date of the change. The Ordering Activity hereby agrees and acknowledges that by continuing to accept Services beyond the effective date of the change as provide for in any notification, the Ordering Activity accepts and agrees the changes to the Reference Guide. Furthermore, the Ordering Activity hereby acknowledges and agrees that Ordering Activity is solely responsible for adhering to and monitoring Contractor through Fortinet's support website for updates and changes to the Reference Guide.

Product Life Cycle Policy. All Services provided hereunder are subject to Fortinet's Product Life Cycle Policy which is available Fortinet's Support website.

POINT OF CONTACT

Contractor through Fortinet may, at its option, provide the Services directly or indirectly, through any of its FortiPartner, agents, or sub-contractors.

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAMS

Principle Period of Services. Services are provided during the hours described in the Reference Guide.

Telephone and Email Support. All telephone and email support will be delivered in accordance with any Service Plan Documentation and Fortinet's Support Policy.

Web-based Support. The Fortinet corporate website www.fortinet.com provides access to a variety of information including on-line documentation. To engage Customer Services and Support on an ongoing basis, an account must be created on the Fortinet support website <https://support.fortinet.com>. This site includes access to the FortiCare ticketing system for product and contract registration as well as creation of ticket and webchat requests. It may also include Subscription Service updates, Maintenance and Feature Releases, and technical support alerts. Login information and passwords are provided upon registration of the account. Ordering Activity hereby agrees and warrants that only authorized information technology personnel shall have access to the login and password information. Contractor through Fortinet shall use reasonable efforts to ensure web access is available on a 24x7x365 basis, but will not be responsible for internet downtime beyond its reasonable control.

Hardware Support. If the Customer's Service Contract includes hardware support, the Services shall be delivered as described in the applicable Service Plan Documentation and shall be provided in accordance with Fortinet's Support Policy. Please refer to Fortinet's Support Policy regarding the Hardware Support claim process. For Service Contracts containing Advanced Hardware repair or replacement, Contractor through Fortinet is not responsible for any delays in delivery related to export or customer regulations or processes. For any Service Contract which incorporates four-hour replacement Services, Ordering Activity acknowledges that Contractor through Fortinet shall have 30-days from the date of Product's Registration Date to stage replacement Product in a local depot ("Staging Period"). As such Ordering Activity's four-hour replacement Services shall not commence until the end of such Staging Period.

Software/Firmware Updates. If Ordering Activity's Service Contract includes software/firmware updates, all official software and firmware maintenance releases and feature updates shall be included in this Attachment A. Ordering Activity may access such updates via password-protected web access. Ordering Activity may install only one (1) copy of the upgrade per product covered by a Service Contract. Support shall be provided on the then-current major release of Product and the previous release of software. At Contractor through Fortinet's option, Fortinet may provide technical assistance on older versions of a registered Product, but such services may be limited and are not guaranteed. Support Services do not include education/training-related services or professional services such as installation or network configuration.

Real-Time Updates. If the Ordering Activity's Service Contract contains Subscription Services, the Ordering Activity will have access to Contractor through Fortinet's real-time Anti-Virus and Network Intrusion Detection System ("NIDS") updates that will protect the Ordering Activity against some of the latest network-based threats. These updates may either be pushed to properly configured and authorized Products, retrieved on a pre-scheduled basis, or retrieved manually by the Ordering Activity.

EXCLUSIONS

General. Ordering Activity acknowledges that software and/or hardware is/are neither perfect nor error-free and that, despite commercially reasonable efforts, Contractor through Fortinet may be unable to provide answers to, or be able to resolve, some or all requests for software or hardware support. The Services provided by Contractor through Fortinet hereunder do not include warranty, support and/or maintenance for any third party software or hardware, whether or not such third party software or hardware is provided by Contractor through Fortinet. Contractor through Fortinet is not required to provide Services for problems arising from: (i) Ordering Activity's failure to implement all maintenance or features issued under this Attachment A; (ii) any alterations of or additions to the Products performed by parties other than Contractor through Fortinet; (iii) accident, negligence, or misuse of the Products (such as, without limitation, operation outside of environmental specifications or in a manner for which the Products were not designed); or (iv) interconnection of the Products with other products not supplied by Contractor through Fortinet.

On-Site Support Not Included. Support Services are strictly limited to telephone and electronic support.

LICENSE

All updates or upgrades to Software or Hardware provided for under this Attachment A shall be deemed to be included within the Products and subject to these Attachment A License terms and conditions. Further, Ordering Activity hereby agrees (i) not to create or attempt to create by reverse engineering, disassembly, decompilation or otherwise, the source code, internal structure, hardware design or organization of the Product or support updates or software, or any part thereof, or to aid or to permit others to do so, except and only to the extent as expressly required by applicable law; (ii) not to remove any identification or notices of any proprietary or copyright restrictions from any Product or support updates or software; (iii) not to copy the Product or support updates or software, modify, translate or, unless otherwise agreed, develop any derivative works thereof or include any portion of the Software in any other software program; (iv) only to use the Product and support updates and software for internal business purposes, and (v) to keep confidential any software and support updates and not share them with third parties.

WARRANTY

Except as expressly stated otherwise, maintenance releases, updates and upgrades provided hereunder are warranted for the remaining software warranty period of the original Product purchased, if any, as specified in this Attachment A. Nothing in this Attachment A shall be construed as expanding or adding to the warranty set forth above. Contractor cannot guarantee that every question or problem raised in connection with the Services will be addressed or resolved. EXCEPT FOR WARRANTIES CLEARLY AND EXPRESSLY STATED HEREIN, NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY, CONTRACTOR MAKES, AND ORDERING ACTIVITY RECEIVE, NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF, RELATED TO, OR UNDER THIS ATTACHMENT A OR THE PROVISION OF MATERIALS OR SERVICES HEREUNDER, AND, TO THE EXTENT PERMISSIBLE BY LAW, FORTINET SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF SATISFACTORY QUALITY, MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions (for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Fujitsu Network Communications, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

FUJITSU NETWORK COMMUNICATIONS

FUJITSU NETWORK COMMUNICATIONS LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

Grant of License. Upon delivery or access of the Licensed Product to Ordering Activity and payment by Ordering Activity of the applicable annual license fee for base software and individually licensed Software features or other consideration as determined by Contractor, Contractor grants to Ordering Activity a restricted, personal, nontransferable and non-exclusive right-to-use license to the Software that is embedded in, loaded, activated, or downloaded into applicable Fujitsu Network Communications ("FNC") equipment and use of the Documentation, solely for Ordering Activity's internal business purposes and only on or for the products Ordering Activity obtains from Contractor.

U.S. Government Rights. If the Licensed Products are being provided to the United States Government they are, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable laws and regulations, provided pursuant to the terms, and subject to the limitations, of this Attachment A. To the extent that applicable laws and regulations grant the Government greater rights than provided by this Attachment A, then the Government receives only the minimum rights required by such laws and regulations. Development of the Licensed Products was privately funded and use, reproduction, or disclosure is subject to restrictions set forth in any of the following that are applicable: paragraph (c) of the Commercial Computer Software - Restricted Rights (June 1987) clause at FAR 52.227-19, the Restricted Rights Notice of subparagraph (g)(3) of the Rights in Data - General (June 1987) clause at FAR 52.227-14, DFARS 227.7202-3, and the Technical Data - Commercial Items (Nov. 1995) clause at DFARS 252.227-7015, all as may be amended from time to time.

Restrictions. Ordering Activity may not: (i) modify, adapt, translate, reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile, or otherwise attempt to derive source code from or create or prepare derivative works of or from the Licensed Products, (ii) distribute, sublicense, rent, lease, loan, or make unauthorized copies of any portion of the Licensed Products, (iii) publicly display visual output or publish any test results of the Software, or (iv) use the Software in inherently high-risk applications such as, but not limited to, aircraft navigation or communications, nuclear facilities, mass transit, or medical emergency communications. Ordering Activity is authorized to make one copy of the Software in any machine-readable medium for backup or archival purposes in support of Ordering Activity's permitted use hereunder. Ordering Activity may not lend, sublicense, rent or lease the Software, or otherwise make it available to any third party, or transfer or assign this Attachment A or any rights hereunder. Any portion of the Software merged into another software program will continue to be subject to the terms and conditions of this Attachment A. The Software is licensed as a single product with individual Software license features, and it may not be separated for use other than as permitted above.

SOFTWARE ACCESS. Ordering Activity may obtain the Software by downloading a copy from the FNC website or a CD, or entering the applicable machine line code ("TL1 Command") on equipment preloaded with the Software.

Ownership of the Licensed Products. The Licensed Products are licensed, not sold. Ordering Activity agrees that all right, title, and interest, including all copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret and other intellectual property rights in and to the Licensed Products and all complete or partial copies thereof belong exclusively to FNC or its licensors, and this Attachment A does not transfer or assign any such rights. The Licensed Products are protected by copyright and other laws and international treaties. Ordering Activity agrees to mark any copies of the Software Ordering Activity is permitted to make under this Attachment A with the applicable copyright notice provided by FNC. Except as expressly granted in this Attachment A, no right or license, whether express or implied, by estoppel or otherwise, is granted in any copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret, or other intellectual property of FNC or its licensors.

Warranty Disclaimer and Limitation. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN CONTRACTOR AND ORDERING ACTIVITY, THE LICENSED PRODUCTS ARE LICENSED TO ORDERING ACTIVITY "AS IS". CONTRACTOR DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY, OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR USE OR PURPOSE, AND ANY WARRANTIES CLAIMED TO ARISE FROM PERFORMANCE OR CUSTOM OR USAGE OF TRADE WITH RESPECT TO THE LICENSED PRODUCTS. ORDERING ACTIVITY ASSUMES ALL RISK RELATING TO USE OF THE LICENSED PRODUCTS. IN NO EVENT WILL CONTRACTOR BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, DAMAGES ARISING FROM LOST PROFITS, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, COST OF PROCUREMENT OF SUBSTITUTE GOODS, LOSS OF DATA, OR ANY OTHER LOSS ARISING OUT OF THE USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE THE LICENSED PRODUCTS, EVEN IF CONTRACTOR HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions (for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached Getvisibility (“Manufacturer”) product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America (“Contractor”) to provide Manufacturer’s information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America’s GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the “Schedule Contract”). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the “Manufacturer Specific Terms” or the “Attachment A Terms”) are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer (“Licensee”) is the “Ordering Activity”, defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

END-USER LICENSE AGREEMENT FOR GETVISIBILITY SYNERGY. IMPORTANT*PLEASE READ THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS LICENSE AGREEMENT CAREFULLY BEFORE CONTINUING WITH THIS PROGRAM INSTALL

End-User License Agreement ("EULA") is a legal agreement between the Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts identified in the Purchase Order, Statement of Work, or similar document ("you" or "Ordering Activity") and Getvisibility for the Getvisibility software product(s) identified above which may include associated software components, media, printed materials, and "online" or electronic documentation ("SOFTWARE PRODUCT"). By both parties executing this EULA, or by executing a purchase order incorporating this EULA, you agree to be bound by the terms of this EULA. This license agreement represents the entire agreement concerning the program between you and Getvisibility, (referred to as "licenser"), and it supersedes any prior proposal, representation, or understanding between the parties. If you do not agree to the terms of this EULA, do not install or use the SOFTWARE PRODUCT.

The SOFTWARE PRODUCT is protected by copyright laws and international copyright treaties, as well as other intellectual property laws and treaties. The SOFTWARE PRODUCT is licensed, not sold.

GRANT OF LICENSE.

The SOFTWARE PRODUCT is licensed as follows:

INSTALLATION AND USE.

Getvisibility grants you the right to install and use copies of the SOFTWARE PRODUCT on your computer running a validly licensed copy of the operating system for which the SOFTWARE PRODUCT was designed which are Windows 7 SP1 and Windows 10.

BACKUP COPIES.

You may also make copies of the SOFTWARE PRODUCT as may be necessary for backup and archival purposes.

DESCRIPTION OF OTHER RIGHTS AND LIMITATIONS.*Maintenance of Copyright Notices.

You must not remove or alter any copyright notices on any and all copies of the SOFTWARE PRODUCT.

DISTRIBUTION.

You may not distribute registered copies of the SOFTWARE PRODUCT to third parties. Evaluation versions available for download from Getvisibility's websites may be freely distributed if available.

PROHIBITION ON REVERSE ENGINEERING, DECOMPILATION, AND DISASSEMBLY.

You may not reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble the SOFTWARE PRODUCT, except and only to the extent that such activity is expressly permitted by applicable law notwithstanding this limitation.

RENTAL.

You may not rent, lease, or lend the SOFTWARE PRODUCT.

SUPPORT SERVICES.

Getvisibility or an approved Getvisibility reseller or partner may provide you with support services related to the SOFTWARE PRODUCT ("Support Services"). Any supplemental software code provided to you as part of the Support Services shall be considered part of the SOFTWARE PRODUCT and subject to the terms and conditions of this EULA.

COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE LAWS.

You must comply with all applicable laws regarding use of the SOFTWARE PRODUCT.

TERMINATION

Without prejudice to any other rights, Getvisibility may terminate this EULA if you fail to comply with the terms and conditions of this EULA. In such event, you must destroy all copies of the SOFTWARE PRODUCT in your possession.

COPYRIGHT

All title, including but not limited to copyrights, in and to the SOFTWARE PRODUCT and any copies thereof are owned by Getvisibility or its suppliers. All title and intellectual property rights in and to the content which may be accessed through use of the SOFTWARE PRODUCT is the property of the respective content owner and may be protected by applicable copyright or other intellectual property laws and treaties. This EULA grants you no rights to use such content. All rights not expressly granted are reserved by Getvisibility.

LIMITED WARRANTY

GETVISIBILITY WARRANTS THAT THE SOFTWARE PRODUCT WILL, FOR A PERIOD OF SIXTY (60) DAYS FROM THE DATE OF YOUR RECEIPT, PERFORM SUBSTANTIALLY IN ACCORDANCE WITH SOFTWARE PRODUCT WRITTEN MATERIALS ACCOMPANYING IT. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE FOREGOING, Getvisibility expressly disclaims any warranty for the SOFTWARE PRODUCT. The SOFTWARE PRODUCT is provided 'As Is' without any express or implied warranty of any kind, including but not limited to any warranties of merchantability, noninfringement, or fitness of a particular purpose. Getvisibility does not warrant or assume responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of any information, text, graphics, links or other items contained within the SOFTWARE PRODUCT. Getvisibility makes no warranties respecting any harm that may be caused by the transmission of a computer virus, worm, time bomb, logic bomb, or other such computer program. Getvisibility further expressly disclaims any warranty or representation to Authorized Users or to any third party.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

In no event shall Getvisibility be liable for any consequential, indirect or special damages (including, without limitation, lost profits, business interruption, or lost information) rising out of 'Authorized Users' use of or inability to use the SOFTWARE PRODUCT, even if Getvisibility has been advised of the possibility of such damages. In no event will Getvisibility be liable for loss of data or for indirect, special, incidental, consequential (including lost profit), or other damages based in contract, tort or otherwise. Getvisibility shall have no liability with respect to the content of the SOFTWARE PRODUCT or any part thereof, including but not limited to errors or omissions contained therein, libel, infringements of rights of publicity, privacy, trademark rights, business interruption, loss of privacy, moral rights or the disclosure of confidential information. The foregoing limitation of liability shall not apply to (1) personal injury or death resulting from Licensor's negligence; (2) for fraud; or (3) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached GitLab, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ)), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

GITLAB, INC.

GITLAB, INC. LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

1. LICENSE AND SUPPORT

1.1 Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, GitLab hereby grants to Customer and its Affiliates (as defined below) a limited, non-exclusive, nontransferable, non-sublicensable license for Customer's and its Affiliates' employees and contractors to (1) internally (a) use, reproduce, modify, prepare derivative works based upon, and display the code of GitLab Enterprise Edition at the tier level selected by Customer with the specifications generally promulgated by GitLab from time to time (the "Software"), excluding additional Products for the Enterprise Edition unless listed on the Quote, solely (i) for its internal use in connection with the development of Customer's and/or its Affiliates' own software, and (ii) by the number of internal users for which Customer has paid GitLab; and (b) use the documentation, training materials or other materials supplied by GitLab (the "Other GitLab Materials"); and (2) modify the Software and publish patches to the Software, solely by the number of internal users for which Customer has paid GitLab. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Customer agrees that GitLab and/or its licensors (as applicable) retain all right, title and interest in and to all Software incorporated in such modifications and/or patches, and all such Software may only be used, copied, modified, displayed, distributed, or otherwise exploited in full compliance with this Agreement, and with a valid GitLab Enterprise Edition subscription for the correct number of user seats. The Software and Other GitLab Materials are collectively referred to herein as the "Licensed Materials." "Affiliate" means any entity(ies) controlling, controlled by, and/or under common control with a party hereto, where "control" means the ownership of more than 50% of the voting securities in such entity.

1.2 Subject to the terms hereof, GitLab will provide reasonable support to Customer for the Licensed Materials as set forth in the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. 1.2.1 GitLab will use reasonable commercial efforts to respond to support questions by phone or email during the next business day at the latest. The number of support questions is not limited.

2. RESTRICTIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

2.1 Except as expressly authorized in Section 1.1, Customer will not, and will not permit any third party to: use the Licensed Materials for any purpose other than as specifically authorized in Section 1, or in such a manner that would enable any unlicensed person to access the Licensed Materials; use the Licensed Materials or any other GitLab software for timesharing or service bureau purposes or for any purpose other than its own internal use (including without limitation, sublicensing, distributing, selling, reselling any of the foregoing); except as expressly permitted herein; use the Licensed Materials in connection with any high risk or strict liability activity (including, without limitation, space travel, firefighting, police operations, power plant operation, military operations, rescue operations, hospital and medical operations or the like); use the Licensed Materials or software other than in accordance with this Agreement and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations (including but not limited to any privacy laws, and laws and regulations concerning intellectual property, consumer and child protection, obscenity or defamation); or use the Licensed Materials in any manner that (1) is harmful, fraudulent, deceptive, threatening, abusive, harassing, tortious, defamatory, vulgar, obscene, or libelous (including without limitation, accessing any computer, computer system, network, software, or data without authorization, breaching the security of another user or system, and/or attempting to circumvent any user authentication or security process), (2) impersonates any person or entity, including without limitation any employee or representative of GitLab, or (3) contains a virus, Trojan horse, worm, time bomb, unsolicited bulk, commercial, or "spam" message, or other harmful computer code, file, or program (including without limitation, password guessing programs, decoders, password gatherers, keystroke loggers, cracking tools, packet sniffers, and/or encryption circumvention programs).

2.2 Customer will cooperate with GitLab in connection with the performance of this Agreement by making available such personnel and information as may be reasonably required, and taking such other actions as GitLab may reasonably request. Customer will also cooperate with GitLab in establishing a password or other procedures for verifying that only designated employees of Customer have access to any administrative functions of the Licensed Materials. Customer shall maintain during the term of this Agreement and through the end of the third year after the date on which the final payment is made under this Agreement, books, records, contracts and accounts relating to the payments due GitLab under this Agreement (collectively, the "Customer Records"). GitLab may, at its sole expense, upon 30 days' prior written notice to Customer and during Customer's normal business hours and subject to industry-standard confidentiality obligations, hire an independent third party auditor to audit the Customer Records only to verify the amounts payable under this Agreement.

2.3 Customer will be responsible for maintaining the security of Customer's account, passwords (including but not limited to administrative and user passwords) and files, and for all uses of Customer account with or without Customer's knowledge or consent.

3. CONFIDENTIALITY

3.1 Each party (the "Receiving Party") understands that the other party (the "Disclosing Party") has disclosed or may disclose information relating to the Disclosing Party's technology or business (hereinafter referred to as "Proprietary Information" of the Disclosing Party). Without limiting the foregoing, the Licensed Materials are GitLab Proprietary Information.

3.2 The Receiving Party agrees: (i) not to divulge to any third person any such Proprietary Information, (ii) to give access to such Proprietary Information solely to those employees with a need to have access thereto for purposes of this Agreement, and (iii) to take the same security precautions to protect against disclosure or unauthorized use of such Proprietary Information that the party takes with its own proprietary information, but in no event will a party apply less than reasonable precautions to protect such Proprietary Information. The Disclosing Party agrees that the foregoing will not apply with respect to any information that the Receiving Party can document (a) is or becomes generally available to the public without any action by, or involvement of, the Receiving Party, or (b) was in its possession or known by it prior to receipt from the Disclosing Party, or (c) was rightfully disclosed to it without restriction by a third party, or (d) was independently developed without use of any Proprietary Information of the Disclosing Party. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent the Receiving Party from disclosing Proprietary Information pursuant to any judicial or governmental order, provided that the Receiving Party gives the Disclosing Party reasonable prior notice of such disclosure to contest such order. In any event, GitLab may collect data with respect to and report on the aggregate response rate and other aggregate measures of the Licensed Materials' performance and Customer's usage of the Licensed Materials; provided that GitLab will not identify Customer as the source of any such data without Customer's prior written consent. However, courts of competent jurisdiction may require certain information to be released. Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5USC 552), and some information may be released despite being characterized as confidential by GitLab.

3.3. Both parties will have the right to disclose the existence but not the terms and conditions of this Agreement, unless such disclosure is approved in writing by both Parties prior to such disclosure, or is included in a filing required to be made by a party with a governmental authority (provided such party will use reasonable efforts to obtain confidential treatment or a protective order) or is made on a confidential basis as reasonably necessary to potential investors or acquirers.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

4.1 Except as expressly set forth herein, GitLab alone (and its licensors, where applicable) will retain all intellectual property rights relating to the Licensed Materials and any suggestions, ideas, enhancement requests, feedback, code, recommendations or other information provided by Customer or any third party relating to the Licensed Materials, which are hereby assigned to GitLab. Customer will not copy, distribute, reproduce or use any of the foregoing except as expressly permitted under this Agreement. This Agreement is not a sale and does not convey to Customer any rights of ownership in or related to the Licensed Materials, or any intellectual property rights.

4.2 Customer shall not remove, alter or obscure any of GitLab's (or its licensors') copyright notices, proprietary legends, trademark or service mark attributions, patent markings or other indicia of GitLab's (or its licensors') ownership or contribution from the Licensed Materials. Additionally, Customer agrees to reproduce and include GitLab's (and its licensors') proprietary and copyright notices on any copies of the Licensed Materials, or on any portion thereof, including reproduction of the copyright notice. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any part of the Licensed Materials distributed by GitLab as part of the GitLab Community Edition is licensed under the terms of the MIT License.

4.3 Customer and its licensors shall (and Customer hereby represents and warrants that they do) have and retain all right, title and interest (including, without limitation, sole ownership of) all software, information, content and data provided by or on behalf of Customer or made available or otherwise distributed through use of the Licensed Materials ("Content") and the intellectual property rights with respect to that Content. Subject to the foregoing, GitLab may participate in the defense and/or settlement of any applicable Claim with counsel of its choosing at its own expense to the extent permitted by 28 U.S.C. 516

4.4 GitLab will defend, indemnify and hold Customer harmless from liability and other amounts paid or payable to unaffiliated third parties resulting from (i) the infringement or violation of any intellectual property or proprietary rights by the Licensed Materials or (ii) the violation of applicable law or regulation by GitLab in performance of its obligations hereunder, provided GitLab is promptly notified of any and all threats, claims and proceedings related thereto and given reasonable assistance and the opportunity to assume control over defense and settlement thereof. Subject to the foregoing, Customer may participate in the defense and/or settlement of any claim that is indemnifiable by GitLab with counsel of its choosing at its own expense. The foregoing obligations do not apply with respect to portions or components of the Licensed Materials (i) not created by GitLab, (ii) that are modified after delivery by GitLab, (iii) combined with other products, processes or materials where the alleged infringement relates to such combination, (iv) where Customer continues allegedly infringing activity after being notified thereof or after being informed of modifications that would have avoided the alleged infringement, or (v) where Customer's use of the Licensed Materials is not strictly in accordance with this Agreement and all related documentation.

5. PAYMENT OF FEES

5.1 Unless and until GitLab and Customer have executed a quote document specifically referencing this Agreement with respect to amounts due on account of the Licensed Materials (a "Quote", which is hereby incorporated by reference, if applicable), Customer will pay GitLab the applicable fees as set forth at <https://about.gitlab.com/pricing/> (the "Pricing") for the Licensed Materials selected and/or used by Customer (the "Fees") without any right of set-off or deduction. To the extent applicable, Customer will pay GitLab for additional services, such as integration fees or other consulting fees agreed by both parties hereto in writing (email to suffice). On each anniversary of the Effective Date, GitLab will invoice Customer with respect to any and all additional Customer users of the Licensed Materials beyond those for whom Customer has pre-paid, as of such date (and for whom the Fees due pursuant to such invoice will be the per-year user fee set forth in the Quote or Pricing (as applicable) with respect to the year just ended, and the per-year user fee set forth in the Quote or Pricing (as applicable) with respect to all subsequent years, unless otherwise agreed in writing by both parties (collectively, a "True-Up"). For Customers that have pre-paid all Fees for multi-year subscriptions for Licensed Materials pursuant to a Quote, on each anniversary of the Effective Date during the term of this Agreement, (i) a new license key will be provided, and (ii) a True-Up will be conducted. All additional users purchased shall be coterminated through the end of the original Subscription period.

5.2 All payments and invoice terms will be made in accordance with FAR 52.212-4 and the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, all Fees paid and/or due hereunder (including any prepaid amounts) are non-refundable, including without limitation if this Agreement is terminated in accordance with Section 6 below. If Customer terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.2 within 45 calendar days from receipt of the initial invoice for the Licensed Materials, GitLab will refund all Fees paid hereunder.

5.3 Payments not received when due shall be governed by the Prompt Payment Act (31 USC 3901 et seq) and Treasury regulations at 5 CCR 1315. Additionally, notwithstanding the terms of the Federal, State, and Local Taxes Clause, the contract price excludes all State and Local taxes levied on or measured by the contract or sales price of the services or completed supplies furnished under this contract. Gitlab shall state separately on its invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Customer agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) to the contractor or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

6. TERMINATION

6.1 When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this agreement must be made as a dispute under the Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Geotab shall proceed diligently with performance of this contract, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the contract, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer.

6.2 Customer's rights to the Licensed Materials, and any licenses granted hereunder, shall terminate upon any termination of this Agreement. 7.

WARRANTY; CUSTOMER SOFTWARE SECURITY

GitLab represents and warrants that (i) it has all rights and licenses necessary for it to perform its obligations hereunder, and (ii) it will not knowingly include, in any GitLab software released to the public and provided to Customer hereunder, any computer code or other computer instructions, devices or techniques, including without limitation those known as disabling devices, Trojans, or time bombs, that are intentionally designed to disrupt, disable, harm, infect, defraud, damage, or otherwise impede in any manner, the operation of a network, computer program or computer system or any component thereof, including its security or user data. If, at any time, GitLab fails to comply with the warranty in this Section, Customer may promptly notify GitLab in writing of any such noncompliance. GitLab will, within thirty (30) days of receipt of such written notification, either correct the noncompliance or provide Customer with a plan for correcting the noncompliance.

8. WARRANTY DISCLAIMER

Gitlab warrants that the SOFTWARE will, for a period of sixty (60) days from the date of your receipt, perform substantially in accordance with SOFTWARE written materials accompanying it. Except as just stated, THE LICENSED MATERIALS, SOFTWARE AND GITLAB PROPRIETARY INFORMATION AND ANYTHING PROVIDED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT ARE PROVIDED "AS-IS," WITHOUT ANY WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND. GITLAB HEREBY DISCLAIM ALL WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY OR THEIR LICENSORS BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, PUNITIVE, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH THE USE OF THE LICENSED MATERIALS OR ANYTHING PROVIDED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, ANY DELAY OR INABILITY TO USE THE LICENSED MATERIALS OR ANYTHING PROVIDED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR OTHERWISE ARISING FROM THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, LOSS OF REVENUE OR ANTICIPATED PROFITS OR LOST BUSINESS OR LOST SALES, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), STRICT LIABILITY, OR OTHERWISE, EVEN IF SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF DAMAGES. THE TOTAL LIABILITY OF EACH PARTY AND ITS LICENSORS, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR STRICT LIABILITY), OR OTHERWISE, WILL NOT EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE GREATER OF (i) ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1,000), OR (ii) THE FEES PAID TO GITLAB HEREUNDER IN ONE YEAR PERIOD ENDING ON THE DATE THAT A CLAIM OR DEMAND IS FIRST ASSERTED. THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS WILL APPLY NOTWITHSTANDING ANY FAILURE OF ESSENTIAL PURPOSE OF ANY LIMITED REMEDY.

The foregoing exclusion/limitation of liability shall not apply to (1) personal injury or death resulting from Gitlab's negligence; (2) for fraud; (3) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law or (4) express remedies provided under any FAR, GSAR or Schedule 70 solicitation clauses incorporated into the GSA Schedule 70 contract.

10. U.S. GOVERNMENT MATTERS

Notwithstanding anything else, Customer may not provide to any person or export or re-export or allow the export or re-export of the Licensed Materials or any software or anything related thereto or any direct product thereof (collectively "Controlled Subject Matter"), in violation of any restrictions, laws or regulations of the United States Department of Commerce, the United States Department of the Treasury Office of Foreign Assets Control, or any other United States or foreign agency or authority. Without limiting the foregoing Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Controlled Subject Matter will not be used or transferred or otherwise exported or re-exported to countries as to which the United States maintains an embargo (collectively, "Embargoed Countries"), or to or by a national or resident thereof, or any person or entity on the U.S. Department of the Treasury's List of Specially Designated Nationals or the U.S. Department of Commerce's Table of Denial Orders (collectively, "Designated Nationals"). The lists of Embargoed Countries and Designated Nationals are subject to change without notice. Use of the Licensed Materials is representation and warranty that the user is not located in, under the control of, or a national or resident of an Embargoed Country or Designated National. The Controlled Subject Matter may use or include encryption technology that is subject to licensing requirements under the U.S. Export Administration Regulations. As defined in FAR section 2.101, any software and documentation provided by GitLab are "commercial items" and according to DFAR section 252.2277014(a)(1) and (5) are deemed to be "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation." Consistent with DFAR section 227.7202 and FAR section 12.212, any use modification, reproduction, release, performance, display, or disclosure of such commercial software or commercial software documentation by the U.S. Government will be governed solely by the terms of this Agreement and will be prohibited except to the extent expressly permitted by the terms of this Agreement.

11. MISCELLANEOUS

If any provision of this Agreement is found to be unenforceable or invalid, that provision will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement will otherwise remain in full force and effect and enforceable. This Agreement is not assignable, transferable or sublicensable by either party without the other party's prior written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided that either party may transfer and/or assign this Agreement to a successor in the event of a sale of all or substantially all of its business or assets to which this Agreement relates. Both parties agree that this Agreement, together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule Pricelist and Purchase Order(s), is the complete and exclusive statement of the mutual understanding of the parties and supersedes and cancels all previous written and oral agreements, communications and other understandings relating to the subject matter of this Agreement, and that all waivers and modifications must be in a writing signed or otherwise agreed to by each party, except as otherwise provided herein. No agency, partnership, joint venture, or employment is created as a result of this Agreement and neither party has any authority of any kind to bind the other in any respect whatsoever. All notices under this Agreement will be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given when received, if personally delivered; when receipt is electronically confirmed, if transmitted by facsimile or

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached Globalscape, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract").

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ)), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be deemed deleted, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The Government Customer is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the Government Order must be signed by a duly warranted contracting officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are hereby deemed to be deleted. Termination shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(l) and (m) and the Contract Disputes Act, subject to the following exceptions:

EC America may request cancellation or termination of the license agreement on behalf of the Manufacturer if such remedy is granted to it after conclusion of the Contracts Disputes Act dispute resolution process or if such remedy is otherwise ordered by a United States Federal Court.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act and the Federal Tort Claims Act (28 U.S.C. §1346(b)), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract. All clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are deemed deleted and not applicable to any Government order.

Force Majeure. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays(FEB 2012), unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a Government Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby deemed to be deleted.

Assignment. All clauses regarding assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements. All clauses governing assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby deemed deleted.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby deemed to be deleted.

Customer Indemnities. Unless otherwise permitted by Federal statute, all Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer Indemnities are hereby deemed to be deleted.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that (1) violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) and/or (2) require that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement are hereby deemed to be deleted.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate the Anti-Deficiency Act ban on automatic renewal are hereby deemed to be deleted.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate the Anti-Deficiency Act prohibition on the Government paying any fees or penalties beyond the contract amount, unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.), or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412), are hereby deemed to be deleted.

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties.

Third Party Terms. Subject to the actual language agreed to in the Order by the Contracting Officer, any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby deemed to be deleted.

Installation and Use of the Software. Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Dispute Resolution and Venue. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with FAR 52.233-1 Disputes and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Unless specifically authorized by an Ordering Activity in writing, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court.

Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract, the terms of this Rider shall control. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

ATTACHMENT A
GLOBAL SCAPE, INC.

GLOBAL SCAPE, INC. LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

1. SOFTWARE. The capitalized term "Software" refers to the object code for the computer program known as Enhanced File Transfer Server Enterprise (or EFT Server Enterprise) Version 7.1, including the Server Program and the Administrator Interface and all Optional Add-On Modules, which may include without limitation the AWE Module (as defined in Section 2 below), you may purchase and any updates, supplemental code or programs provided to you by GlobalSCAPE with or in connection with Enhanced File Transfer Server Enterprise Version 7.1, such as the user's manual and Help file, any components, any related media and printed materials, and any related "online" or electronic documentation.

2. GRANT OF LICENSE.

A. EVALUATION LICENSE. If you acquired the license for any component of the Software on an evaluation or trial basis, you may use the Software without charge for the evaluation period. Your evaluation period begins on the day the evaluation serial number is issued by GlobalSCAPE. You must pay the license fee and activate your copy in the manner required below to continue to use the Software after the evaluation period. An evaluation license for the Software may not be transferred to any other person.

B. STANDARD LICENSE.

(i) SERVER PROGRAM. You may install and use one copy of the Server Program on that number of server computers for which you have purchased a separate license as indicated on your ordering document.

(ii) ADMINISTRATOR INTERFACE. For so long as you have an active license to use the Server Program, you may copy, install and use the Administrator Interface on as many personal desktop computers as you wish.

(iii) OPTIONAL ADD-ON MODULES.

(a) WEB TRANSFER CLIENT. You may concurrently use that number of Web Transfer Clients for which you have paid a separate license fee as indicated on your invoice or sales receipt. If you wish to increase the number of concurrent users after your initial license purchase, upon issuing an order for the additional license fee you will be issued a new registration serial number which will be utilized to activate the additional Web Transfer Client licenses purchased and to re-activate the Web Transfer Client licenses previously purchased.

(b) SECURE AD HOC TRANSFER MODULE. If you have purchased a separate license for the Secure Ad Hoc Transfer module (hereafter referred to as "SAT Module"), you may install and use one copy of the SAT Module on that number of server computers for which you have purchased a license as indicated on your ordering document. The SAT Module shall be installed solely on the same server(s) as the Server Program. It is your duty, at your cost, to install and maintain the SAT Module and to acquire, install and maintain Microsoft IIS and all necessary equipment and connectivity required to use the SAT Module. Notwithstanding the restrictions in Section 7.1 but subject at all times to GlobalSCAPE's rights set forth in Section 13, you may modify the SAT Module solely to customize the web interface to the Software created through the SAT Module. Upon modification, however, GlobalSCAPE shall have no further obligations under Section 8 or any related M & S Plan in relation to the Secure SAT module. If you purchase additional copies of the SAT Module for back-up or archival purposes, you will need to make all applicable modifications to the newly licensed copies.

(c) ADVANCED WORKFLOW ENGINE. If you have purchased a separate license for the Advanced Workflow Engine module ("AWE Module"), you may install and use one copy of the AWE Module on that number of computers for which you have purchased a license as indicated on your invoice or sales receipt. You may not separate the AWE Module for use on more than one computer. Certain consents required to be obtained from GlobalSCAPE pursuant to this Agreement may also require the consent of Network Automation, Inc. ("NAI"). You acknowledge that you have only the limited, non-exclusive right to use and copy the AWE Module as expressly stated in this Agreement and that GlobalSCAPE and NAI, as the case may be, retains title to the Software and all other rights not expressly granted herein.

(d) MOBILE TRANSFER CLIENT. If you have purchased a license for The Mobile Transfer Client (hereafter referred to as "MTC") module, each user for which you have paid may install and use the MTC on as many devices as desired. For example, if you purchase a license to the MTC for up to 99 users, up to 99 individuals can use the MTC on any device(s) on which they choose to install the MTC application, but only up to 99 named individuals, in aggregate, may access and use the MTC module. If you wish to increase the number of users after your initial license purchase, upon issuing an order for the additional license fee, you will be issued a new registration serial number that will be used to activate the additional MTC licenses purchased and to re-activate the licenses previously purchased.

(e) WORKSPACES. If you have purchased a license for Workspaces, each user for which you have paid may create as many Workspaces as desired. For example, if you purchase a Workspaces license for up to 99 Workspace owners, up to 99 individuals can create and maintain Workspaces at a given time. If you wish to increase the number of users after your initial license purchase, upon issuing an order for the additional license fee, you will be issued a new registration serial number that will be used to activate the additional Workspaces licenses purchased and to re-activate the licenses previously purchased.

C. STANDBY OR DEVELOPMENT LICENSE. If you have purchased a license to use the Server Program and/or the Add-On on a non-production basis, then you may use the Server Program and/or Add-On so licensed only as follows:

(i) STANDBY LICENSE: One (1) copy on a standby computer that is not processing traffic or doing work of any kind except in the event that, and only for so long as, the primary production server upon which the Server Program license is associated is offline.

(ii) DEVELOPMENT LICENSE: One (1) copy on a server (and associated desktop personal computers) used solely for testing, evaluation, or API development, so long as such server does not process actual traffic in a production environment.

D. ACTIVATION. You must activate the evaluation or standard license for the Software by entering the evaluation or registration serial number as prompted by the Software and as otherwise instructed by GlobalSCAPE

E. RESERVED.

3. RIGHT TO COPY OR BACKUP. You may make one copy of the Software or the installation media for the Software solely for back-up or archival purposes at no additional charge.

4. UPGRADES. To use Software identified as an upgrade, or new version, you must first be licensed for the Software identified by GlobalSCAPE as eligible for the upgrade and issue an order for the purchase of the upgrade or new version. After upgrading, you may no longer use the Software that formed the basis for your upgrade eligibility and the license for that Software shall be deemed immediately terminated upon your installation of the upgrade.

5. TRANSFER. You may use the Software solely for your internal business process as contemplated by this Agreement and shall not license, sub-license, sell, re-sell, rent, lease, lend, transfer, assign, distribute, time share or otherwise commercially exploit or make the Software available to any third party, other than as contemplated by this Agreement, without the prior written consent of GlobalSCAPE. You shall not sell, sell access to, or sell use of the Software or utilize the Software as the basis for any software as a service or application service provider solution that You offer for sale or license to third parties. You shall not use the Software in connection with the provision of a service to any third party that includes file transfer or any other service that is a substitute for some or all the Software's functions without the prior written consent of GlobalSCAPE. If modifications are made to a SAT Module as permitted herein, such modification may only be used for your internal business purposes and may not be licensed or sublicensed or otherwise provided to any third party. You may, however, make a one-time permanent transfer of all of your license rights to the Software to another party, provided that: (a) the transfer must include all of the Software, including all component parts, programs, media, printed materials, all registration serial numbers, all modules you purchase in conjunction with the Software, and this license in connection with the sale of all or substantially all of the assets for that line of business; (b) you do not retain any copies of the Software, full or partial, including copies stored on a computer or other storage device; (c) the person to whom you transfer the Software agrees to be bound by the terms of this license; and (d) you provide notice to GlobalSCAPE at least 10 days prior to such transfer of the identity and contact information for the transferee and such transferee is not a competitor of GlobalSCAPE as determined by GlobalSCAPE in its sole discretion. If you purchased the license for the Software on a multi-computer basis—that is, one registration serial number valid for the number of computers indicated on your invoice, you may permanently assign your rights under this license to only a single person or entity. Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement to the contrary, a license for the Software provided on a free, promotional, or "not-for-resale" (NFR) basis may be used only for testing, demonstration or evaluation and may not be sold or transferred to another person in any manner.

6. INFORMATION COLLECTION AND PRIVACY. The Software includes a feature that assigns a unique identifier to your computer based on system information. The Software reports this identifier to GlobalSCAPE either when you install the Software, enter your evaluation serial number, or enter your registration serial number, or upon the occurrence of each of these. During the evaluation period, the Software will contact our registration and activation servers periodically to verify that the Software is still eligible for use on an evaluation basis. The Software may also identify and report to us your Windows language identifier setting, IP address, and the date and time of installation and/or activation. GlobalSCAPE uses this information to count installations, detect piracy of the Software, and develop rough statistical data regarding the geographic location of the Software users. GlobalSCAPE may tie this information to personally identifiable information it has about you. GlobalSCAPE may use any non-proprietary information you provide as part of obtaining support services for GlobalSCAPE's business purposes, including product support and development.

7. RESTRICTIONS. You may not reduce the Software to human readable (or source code) form, reverse engineer, de-compile, disassemble, merge, adapt, or modify the Software, except and only to the extent that such activity is expressly permitted by applicable law notwithstanding this limitation. You may not use the Software to perform any unauthorized transfer of information, such as copying or transferring a file in violation of a copyright, in violation of any laws related to the transfer of encrypted data or for any illegal purpose.

8. MAINTENANCE AND TECHNICAL SUPPORT SERVICES. If you purchased a maintenance and support plan ("M & S Plan"), GlobalSCAPE shall provide the support services at the level agreed by you and Contractor in an applicable ordering document and as defined in the GlobalSCAPE Maintenance and Support Guide (Exhibit 1) (the "Guide"). To be eligible for maintenance and support services, the Server Program and the Administrator Interface as well as all associated Add-On Modules must be covered by an active M & S Plan.

9. RESERVED.

10. SECURITY. The Software creates a means for others to gain access to your computer. Although we have taken commercially reasonable measures to prevent unauthorized persons from gaining access to your computer via the Software, we cannot foresee or control the actions of third parties. Therefore, use of the Software will make you vulnerable to security breaches that you might not otherwise face and could result in the loss of your privacy or property. You are responsible for your use of the Software or otherwise. Use of secure passwords and keeping passwords confidential are not the responsibility of GlobalSCAPE or the Software.

11. RESERVED.

13. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY. You acknowledge that you have only the limited, non-exclusive right to use and copy the Software as expressly stated in this Agreement and that GlobalSCAPE retains title to the Software and all other rights not expressly granted. You agree not to remove or modify any copyright, trademark, patent, or other proprietary notices that appear, on, in or with the Software. The Software and all derivatives thereof, including any modifications made to the SAT Module are protected by United States copyright, patent and trademark law and rights granted by international treaties related to intellectual property rights. The Software is copyright (c) 2004-2015 GlobalSCAPE, Inc. All rights reserved.

14. EXPORT RESTRICTIONS. THE SOFTWARE CONTAINS ENCRYPTION TECHNOLOGY THAT IS CONTROLLED FOR EXPORT BY THE U.S. GOVERNMENT. You agree to comply fully with all relevant export laws and regulations of the United States ("Export Laws") to assure that (i) the Software is not exported, directly or indirectly (including as a result of providing access to the Software to a national or resident of and embargoed or restricted country), in violation of Export Laws, or the applicable laws of any other jurisdiction or (ii) or provided to anyone on the U.S. Treasury Department's list of Specially Designated Nationals or the U.S. Commerce Department's Table of Denial Orders or Entity List. Among other things, the Export Laws provide that the Software may not be exported or re-exported to certain countries that are embargoed or restricted, or to certain restricted persons. Embargoed and restricted countries currently include but are not limited to Cuba, Iran, Libya, North Korea, Syria and Sudan. In addition to other restrictions described in this section, you may not use the Software, or export the Software to any destination where you know or have reason to know that the Software may be used, in connection with the proliferation of nuclear, chemical or biological weapons or missiles.

15. WARRANTIES. THE WARRANTY IS LIMITED TO NINETY (90) DAYS FROM YOUR RECEIPT OF A COPY OF THE SOFTWARE. COMPUTER PROGRAMS ARE INHERENTLY COMPLEX, AND THE SOFTWARE MAY NOT BE FREE OF ERRORS. THE SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED WITH ALL FAULTS AND THE ENTIRE RISK AS TO SATISFACTORY QUALITY, PERFORMANCE, ACCURACY AND EFFORT IS WITH YOU. GLOBALSCAPE DISCLAIMS ALL LIABILITY FOR ANY ACTION THAT YOU, YOUR DESIGNEE, OR YOUR AGENTS MIGHT TAKE IN CONNECTION WITH, OR IN RELIANCE UPON, THE TRANSMISSION OR RECEIPT OF ANY MESSAGE USING THE SOFTWARE. SOME STATES DO NOT ALLOW LIMITATIONS ON IMPLIED WARRANTIES SO THESE LIMITATIONS MAY NOT APPLY TO YOU.

Exhibit 1 – Client Support Services Maintenance and Support Guide Meeting Client Needs

Our Client Support Services team is committed to helping you, our trusted partner, be successful! To this end, Globalscape offers world-class client support and product maintenance to help ensure that your Globalscape implementation is a success. We take pride in optimizing the business value of your security solution and realize that one size doesn't always fit all. That's why we've developed varying levels of technical support to ensure that you get the service your business deserves.

Online services include product updates, user guides, a knowledgebase, online help files, printable documentation, a user community discussion forum, and more. In addition to our self-service resources that are available to all customers at the Globalscape website, we offer two Maintenance and Support plans: a Standard Plan and a Platinum Plan. Both plans include the same level of software maintenance protection. The Platinum Maintenance and Support plan provides you with emergency support anytime, 24 hours per day, seven days per week from your assigned support technicians. As part of this commitment, our maintenance and support program includes the following:

World Wide Web Support

Take advantage of the easy-to-use, 24-hour support resources that are available on the Globalscape Support Center Web site at <http://support.globalscape.com>. Online services include product updates/ notifications, user's guides, a knowledge base, online help files, printable documentation, a user community discussion forum and more.

Email Support

Submit your request via our online submission form available on the Globalscape Support Center Web site at <http://www.globalscape.com/support/techsupport.aspx> and receive an answer via email or telephone. Our response will include a ticket number and the name of the assigned support professional.

Telephone Support

Standard Support Plan members can call us at 1-210-366-3993, Monday through Friday from 8:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. (Central Time) for help with any product-related issue.

Additionally, Platinum Support Plan members can receive emergency after-hours technical support 24 hours per day, seven days per week. After hours Platinum Support services are available only via a special telephone number that will be provided when you purchase a Platinum Support Plan.

Maintenance and Support Plans

Included with your active support plan is software maintenance, which provides all major upgrades and minor updates that are publicly released during the term of the agreement at no additional charge. Free upgrades must be requested or obtained while the maintenance and support plan remains in force.

Globalscape offers both Standard and Platinum Support plans for our enterprise software solutions. Both plans include the same level of software maintenance protection. A Platinum Maintenance and Support plan provides you with emergency access to our support professionals anytime, 24 hours per day, seven days per week.

Troubleshooting and Diagnostics

When contacting the Globalscape Technical Support team, it is important to provide as much detail as possible about the problem. Please gather as much diagnostic and logging information as possible to help us in our diagnosis of the issue. Be prepared to provide us with relevant error logs or messages including server log files, screen shots, and event log reports. At a minimum, please gather the following details. If you are submitting an inquiry via our online submission form, please provide these details with your submission:

- Your name and company name
- Your telephone number and email address
- The name of the program and complete version information (From Help > About)
- Product serial number (From Help > About or Platinum Support Plan membership card)
- Your operating system and specific version information
- A complete description of the problem including:
  - o All of the steps necessary to reproduce the problem
  - A description of the environment and the network; useful information includes the data flow, Java runtime version, and database versions

Generally, service tickets are not closed until you and the Globalscape Support Professional both agree that the issue has been satisfactorily resolved. However, Globalscape support may close a service ticket if you have not provided requested information within a reasonable period.

Your Responsibilities

During the course of an issue's diagnosis and resolution, we ask you to respond to all technical information requests as quickly as possible so that our Technical Support team can resolve your case in a timely manner.

1. After-Hours Acknowledgement: An initial call back to acknowledge our receipt of the issue and to determine the level of severity. The acknowledgement may be combined with the Initial Response.
2. Target Initial Response Time: Globalscape uses commercially reasonable efforts to respond within the target response time but cannot guarantee response times.
3. Resolution: A satisfactory resolution may not be immediately available or provided with the initial response, in which case Globalscape will use commercially reasonable means and effort to provide a resolution within a reasonable period.

Issue Escalation

Our support professionals follow predefined processes to gather information for identification and resolution of issues. For some issues, our support professionals may need to escalate the issue to software development in order to resolve it.

The escalation process allows for wider review of the issue, including technical and management directives for applying additional resources to the problem, and increased levels of communication between your organization and Globalscape.

If at any time you are not satisfied with the level of support that is being provided to you, we encourage you to bring this to the attention of Globalscape's management staff. Please contact one of the Globalscape Support managers listed below. At our discretion, we may assign an account manager, product manager, or problem resolution team to focus on your issue.

Scope of Technical Support

While we are happy to support your use of our products, and will help in overcoming any difficulties you may encounter, there are certain limitations to the technical support that we can provide.

- Technical Support is limited to the reporting and correction of product defects and installation and configuration assistance.
  - Technical Support does not include support for problems related to the failure of your system, network, or environment to comply with the system requirements for the software.
  - Technical Support does not include support for development or consulting issues such as COM or other programmatic development. This includes HTML development and custom script creation.
  - While we constantly strive to assist in any way we can, there can be situations that are outside our control. Technical support does not include support for any other issues not directly related to the workings of our software.
  - Technical support is offered for recent versions of Globalscape software only. Technical support for older versions is available only through our online self-help resources.
- It is always recommended that you begin by examining the program help files, knowledgebase articles, and user forums if you are interested in customizing your environment or software beyond the availability of technical support options. You can also engage the services of our Professional Services team, described on our website at <http://www.globalscape.com/services/pro-services.aspx>.

Globalscape End of Life (EOL) and Support Life Policy

Rapidly changing technologies as well as competitive pressures influence the level, timing, and nature of demand for a particular product or group of products. These factors drive the need to introduce new products and services and to actively plan for end-of-life for older software versions as well as specific product lines. With that in mind, we have provided the Globalscape end-of-life (EOL) policy to help customers better manage their end-of-life transition and to understand the role that Globalscape can play in helping to migrate to alternative Globalscape technologies. A copy of the policy can be provided upon request.

Support Agreement

The technical support services described in this Guide are provided pursuant to the terms of the License Agreement you entered into as a condition to the installation of the software indicated below.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Gupta Technologies ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ)), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

1. DEFINITIONS

“Application Solution” defined as the Application Solution developed by Ordering Activity with the Software.

- b.) “Central Processing Unit (CPU)” defined as a computation hardware unit such as a microprocessor that serves as the main arithmetic and logic unit of the computer.
- c.) “Developer Seat” defined as a single computer utilized by a single person at any one time to perform the tasks associated with the development of Application Solutions.
- d.) “Deployment Software” defined as the Deployment Software specified in Exhibit A and licensed by payment of the proper License Fee.
- e.) “Development Software” defined as the Development Software specified in Exhibit A and licensed by payment of the proper License Fee.
- f.) “Services” defined as Unify provided Services for Support and Maintenance, Consulting and Training services.
- g.) “Software” defined as the Development and Deployment Software, including User Documentation as defined in Exhibit A. Unify reserves the right to discontinue Software at its sole discretion. The Software is protected by applicable intellectual property laws including copyright laws and international treaties.
- h.) “User Documentation” defined as the Unify user manual(s) and other materials on the proper installation and use of the Software, which is normally distributed with the Software.

2. LICENSE GRANT AND LIMITATIONS

License Grant. Pursuant to this Attachment A, Ordering Activity agrees to properly license and pay the appropriate License Fee for the Software (as set forth on Exhibit A and or the Contractor quote), and Contractor agrees to grant Ordering Activity a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-assignable license to use the Development Software to design, develop, test and maintain the Application Solutions, and to use the Deployment Software to deploy the Application Solutions into a production environment subject to the conditions set forth in this Attachment A.

Limitations. All rights not expressly granted herein are reserved by Contractor and/or its licensors. Without limiting the generality of the preceding sentence, Ordering Activity agrees: (i) not to modify, port, translate, localize, or create derivative works of the Software; (ii) not to disassemble, decompile, reverse engineer or otherwise reduce the Software to human perceptible form, except as permitted by the 1991 EC Directive; (iii) not to remove, or allow to be removed, any Contractor or its Licensors copyright, trade secret, or other proprietary rights notice from any Software; (iv) not to make copies of the Software except for normal backup purposes; (v) not to transfer, assign, (except as permitted by Section 9.2) re-use or re-license the Software licenses to any third party without the prior written consent of Contractor; and (vi) not to use the Software to develop an Application Solution for re-sale or usage as an Application Service Provider or any other “access fee basis”.

3. GUPTA TECHNOLOGIES SERVICES

3.1 Ordering Activity will purchase Support and Maintenance Services for the first year from Contractor under the terms and conditions set forth in Exhibit B. All items (upgrades and updates) delivered by Contractor through Gupta Technologies shall be deemed to become a part of the applicable Software licensed hereunder and shall be subject to all terms and conditions of this Attachment A.

3.2 Ordering Activity may obtain Consulting Services from Contractor through Gupta Technologies under the terms and conditions as defined in Exhibit C. Ordering Activity may also participate in Gupta Technologies's standard training programs by contacting info@GuptaTechnologies.com.

4. TITLE

4.1 Title, ownership and all intellectual property rights in and to the Software belong exclusively to Gupta Technologies and its licensors (which licensors shall have third party beneficiary rights to the extent permitted by applicable law). This Attachment A grants Ordering Activity no additional express or implied license, right or interest in any copyright, patent, trade secret, trade name, trademark, invention or other intellectual property right of Gupta Technologies. Ordering Activity will not sell, assign, lease, transfer, encumber or allow any security interest on the Software or take any action that would cause the Software to be placed in the public domain.

5. LIMITED WARRANTIES

5.1 Contractor warrants that (i) it has full right to enter into and perform this Attachment A; (ii) to the best of Contractor's knowledge, the Software does not violate any intellectual property rights of a third party under applicable patent or copyright laws; (iii) during the first sixty (60) days of normal use from the date Ordering Activity receives the Software from Contractor, the media will be free of defects in materials and workmanship and the Software will perform substantially in accordance with the Documentation or Contractor will replace the defective media without charge if returned to Contractor during this period; and (iv) Contractor warrants that it will perform the work associated with the Services in accordance with professional standards for similar work.

5.2 EXCEPT FOR THESE EXPRESS LIMITED WARRANTIES, ORDERING ACTIVITY ACCEPTS THE SOFTWARE AND SERVICES “AS IS”, WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, WHETHER EXPRESS, OR IMPLIED BY STATUTE, COMMON LAW, OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. Contractor has no control over the conditions under which Ordering Activity uses the Software and does not and cannot warrant the results obtained by such use. Additionally, Contractor makes no warranties that the Software will satisfy Ordering Activity's data processing needs or function without interruption, errors or defects. Contractor makes no warranties regarding the applications developed with the Software or regarding Software which has been modified or altered by any party other than Contractor or to any problems caused by computer hardware or operating systems. The parties further agree that Contractor shall not be liable to Ordering Activity for any delay or failure of Contractor to perform its obligations hereunder if such delay or failure arises from any cause beyond the reasonable control of Contractor, such as acts of God, delays or non-responsiveness of Ordering Activity, or the temporary unavailability of qualified personnel.

EXHIBIT A - Products licensed by this EULA

DEFINITIONS

“Developer Seat-based” is defined as requiring the Ordering Activity to purchase a license for each computer where the Software is installed and used by a Developer to develop the Application Solutions.

“CPU-based” is defined as requiring the Ordering Activity to purchase a license equal to or greater than the number of CPUs in the computer(s) where the deployed Application Solution, including the Software, is installed.

“User- based” is defined as any machine or device that executes, utilizes or displays the Software. User would include a server, client, or X-terminal as a hardware device or software emulator, batch processes, interactive users, and connecting devices.

SOFTWARE LICENSED:

Product Licensed	License Type
Gupta Technologies Vision AppBuilder	1 User-
Gupta Technologies Vision AppServer Desktop	1 User
Gupta Technologies Vision AppServer Enterprise	_ CPUs

EXHIBIT B - Software Support & Maintenance Services Terms and Conditions

Contractor through Gupta Technologies is pleased to provide the Annual Software Support and Maintenance Services (the “Support Services”) to Ordering Activity. Gupta Technologies has developed multiple Support Service offerings to meet the individual needs of each of our valued customers. Gupta Technologies agrees to provide the Support Services pursuant to the Attachment A terms and conditions and the additional Support Services terms and conditions below:

Annual Software Support and Maintenance Service Programs.

- 1.1 Ordering Activity is required to purchase the first year of Support Services for the Software purchased.
- 1.2 All updates, patches, fixes and other error corrections pertaining to the Software provided to Ordering Activity shall become a part of the Gupta Technologies Software, which is licensed under the terms and conditions of the Attachment A.

EXHIBIT C - Consulting Services Terms and Conditions

1. Consulting Agreement Terms and Conditions

1.1 Pursuant to the Attachment A terms and conditions and the additional Consulting Services terms and conditions as follows, Contractor through Gupta Technologies agrees to provide, upon Ordering Activity’s request, the consulting services (“Assignments”) described on separately executed assignment orders (the “Assignment Orders”).

2. Assignment(s) Scope and Changes

- 2.1 Each Assignment Order shall define a specific Assignment authorized by Ordering Activity, the Assignment schedule or term, the applicable rates and charges, and any other specific terms and conditions as required to complete the Assignment. Each Assignment Order shall be governed by the terms and conditions of this Exhibit C and only the terms or conditions set forth herein.
- 2.2 Contractor through Gupta Technologies reserves the right to select and assign personnel to each Assignment based on the skill classifications required and available personnel resources. Should an employee be unable to perform the required services because of reasons beyond Gupta Technologies’s reasonable control, Gupta Technologies will replace such person within a reasonable period of time. Gupta Technologies shall have the right to use third parties in performance of its obligations and services hereunder and for purposes of this Consulting Agreement all references to Gupta Technologies or its employees shall be deemed to include such third parties. Gupta Technologies shall insure that all such third parties shall execute confidentiality agreements as may be necessary to comply with Gupta Technologies’s obligations or confidentiality under any confidentiality agreements between the parties.

3. Ownership

3.1 All development tools, database management programs, programming languages, or programs provided by Contractor through Gupta Technologies which contain any of Gupta Technologies’s proprietary program code or related documentation (the “Gupta Technologies Software”) are not Works Made for Hire and shall belong exclusively to Gupta Technologies and no ownership rights thereto shall accrue in any manner to Ordering Activity. This Attachment A grants no express or implied license, right or interest in any copyright, patent, trade secret, trade name, trademark, invention or other intellectual property right of Gupta Technologies. Ordering Activity will not sell, assign, lease, transfer, encumber or allow any security interest on the Gupta Technologies Software or take any action that would cause the Gupta Technologies Software to be placed in the public domain. Ordering Activity shall not disassemble, decompile, reverse engineer or otherwise reduce the Gupta Technologies Software to human perceptible form.

3.2 Except as provided in 3.1 above, Contractor through Gupta Technologies agrees that all work undertaken by Gupta Technologies under this Attachment A or any Assignment Order (in whole or in part, either alone or jointly with others) shall be the sole property of Ordering Activity. UOrdering Activity shall be the sole owner of all rights in connection therewith. Furthermore, except as provided in section 3.1 above, all works of authorship will be "works made for hire" to the extent allowed by law. Ordering Activity acknowledges that during the term of this Attachment A Gupta Technologies will be acting as a consultant to other entities and, providing Gupta Technologies does not violate these terms and conditions, Ordering Activity shall have no rights in any such work provided by Gupta Technologies to such entities.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached HackerOne Inc. (“Manufacturer”) product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America (“Contractor”) to provide Manufacturer’s information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America’s GSA MAS contract number GS-35F-0511T (the “Schedule Contract”). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the “Manufacturer Specific Terms” or the “Attachment A Terms”) are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ’s jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

- a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer (“Licensee”) is the “Ordering Activity”, defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.
- b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.
- c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.
- d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.
- e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.
- f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.
- g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.
- h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

- i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.
- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.
- u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

v) Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

ATTACHMENT A

HACKERONE INC.

MANUFACTURER SPECIFIC TERMS (FOR U.S. GOVERNMENT END USERS)

These HackerOne Inc. (“HackerOne”) Manufacturer Specific Terms (these “Terms”) govern the use of HackerOne’s software as a service Solutions (the “Services”) by customers (“Customers” or “Ordering Activities”) purchasing the Services under EC America’s GSA MSA contract number GS- 35F-0511T.

1. DEFINITIONS. The following capitalized terms used herein shall have the meanings given to them below:

- A. “Affiliate” means any entity which controls, is controlled by or under common control with a party, where “control” means ownership or control, direct or indirect, of fifty percent (50%) or more of such entity’s voting capital, and any such entity shall be an affiliate of such party only as long as such ownership or control exists.
- B. “Applicable Law” shall mean all laws (including the requirements of any government or regulatory authority) applicable to a party and/or the Services under these Terms for the time being in force in the relevant jurisdiction. These include but are not limited to anti-money laundering, anti-bribery, data privacy, export and intellectual property laws.
- C. “Confidential Information” means any confidential or proprietary business or technical information about a party disclosed by it or its Affiliates or made available in connection with these Terms, whether disclosed in written, oral, electronic or visual form, which is identified as confidential at the time of disclosure or should reasonably be understood to be confidential given the nature of the information and the circumstances surrounding the disclosure, including without limitation business, operations, finances, technologies, products and services, pricing, personnel, customer and suppliers, including the HackerOne Platform and the content of Finder Submissions. Confidential Information does not include any information that (i) was publicly known and made generally available in the public domain prior to the time of disclosure by the disclosing party; (ii) becomes publicly known and made generally available after disclosure by the disclosing party to the receiving party; (iii) is already in the possession the receiving party at the time of disclosure by the disclosing party; (iv) is obtained by the receiving party from a third party without a breach of such third party’s obligations of confidentiality; or (v) is independently developed by the receiving party without use of the disclosing party’s Confidential Information.
- D. “Customer Report” means a report or similar documentation made available by HackerOne to Customer through the HackerOne Platform or otherwise that summarizes or is based upon Finder Submissions, including, without limitation, penetration test reports, checklist reports, re-testing reports and similar documentation regarding Finder activities related to a Program.
- E. “Feedback” means any feedback, comments or suggestions for improvements to the Services.
- F. “Finder” means an individual or entity using the HackerOne Platform to provide Finder Submissions.
- G. “Finder Submission” means documents and related materials evidencing a Finder’s activities related to a Program, including, without limitation, Vulnerability Reports.
- H. “Finder Terms and Conditions” means the terms and conditions applicable to Finders at <https://www.hackerone.com/terms/finder>.
- I. “HackerOne Aggregate Data” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 6(A) of these Terms.
- J. “HackerOne Fees” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4(A) of these Terms.
- K. “HackerOne Platform” means the software-as-a-service platform offered by HackerOne.
- L. “HackerOne Property” means any property of any kind, tangible or intangible, which is acquired, created, developed or licensed by HackerOne prior to or outside the scope of these Terms and any improvement or modification thereof and all intellectual property rights therein, including without limitation the HackerOne Platform and Services.
- M. “HackerOne Site” means HackerOne or its Affiliate’s website located at hackerone.com and related domains and subdomains.
- N. “Program” means the security initiative(s) for which Customer desires to receive Finder Submissions from Finders, which Customer posts to the HackerOne Platform.
- O. “Program Materials” means the Program Policy, the description of the Program and any other materials made available by Customer to Finders in connection with a Program.
- P. “Program Policy” means a Customer created description of the security-related and other services that Customer is seeking from Finders, which includes, among other things, the terms, conditions and requirements governing the Program to which the Finders must agree, and the Rewards (if applicable) that Customer may award to Finders who participate in the Program.
- Q. “Reward(s)” means bounties, grants, pay for effort payments and other financial or non-financial rewards that are awarded to Finders participating in a Program.
- R. “Services” means HackerOne’s software as a service solution made available by HackerOne to Customer through the HackerOne Platform together with any ancillary services purchased by Customer and as set forth in an Order Form. A general description of HackerOne’s SaaS solution and examples of such ancillary and related Services provided by HackerOne’s program operations and customer success teams or other HackerOne personnel or consultants is set forth in Exhibit A hereto.
- S. “Vulnerability Reports” means bug reports or other vulnerability information, in text, graphics, image, software, works of authorship of any kind, and information or other material that Finders provide or otherwise make available through the HackerOne Platform to Customer resulting from participation in a Program.

2. HACKERONE PLATFORM AND SERVICES.

- A. HackerOne Platform. Customer may access and use the HackerOne Platform solely for its own business purposes in order to connect with Finders and utilize the Services set forth in an Order Form. Among other things, Customer may create Programs and offer Rewards to Finders for Finder Submissions to such Programs. Finders can browse the Programs and contact Customer through the HackerOne Platform if Finders are interested in participating in such Programs and submitting Finder Submissions for the Programs on the terms described in Finder Terms and Conditions and/or the Program Policy. HackerOne may change all or any part of the HackerOne Platform or HackerOne Site provided that such change in compliance with the terms of these Terms and does not diminish the Services provided to Customer. Customer can submit Feedback regarding the HackerOne Platform and Services by emailing HackerOne at feedback@hackerone.com. By submitting any Feedback, Customer grants to HackerOne a worldwide, perpetual, irrevocable, non-exclusive, transferable, sublicenseable, fully-paid and royalty-free license to use, copy, modify, create derivative works based upon and otherwise exploit the Feedback for any purpose. HackerOne acknowledges that the ability to use this Agreement and any Feedback provided as a result of this Agreement in advertising is limited by GSAR 552.203-71.
- B. HackerOne Services. HackerOne will provide the Services purchased by Customer. The Services may contain links to third-party websites or resources. HackerOne provides these links only as a convenience and is not responsible for the content, products or services on or available from those websites or resources or links displayed on such websites. Customer acknowledges sole responsibility for and assumes all risk arising from Customer's use of any third-party websites or resources. HackerOne may delegate certain rights and obligations relating to the performance of these Terms to its Affiliates, provided however, HackerOne shall be the sole responsible party for all obligations under these Terms and shall ensure the compliance of its Affiliates with these Terms.
- C. Service Level Agreement. The HackerOne Service Level Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit B, will apply to HackerOne's provision of the HackerOne Platform and the Services.

3. FINDER SUBMISSIONS AND FINDERS.

- A. Unless otherwise expressly agreed to in writing by HackerOne, any use of or reliance on Finder Submissions that Customer receives is at Customer's own risk. HackerOne does not endorse, represent or guarantee the completeness, truthfulness, accuracy, or reliability of any Finder Submission and HackerOne will not be liable for any errors or omissions in any Finder Submission, or any loss or damage of any kind incurred as a result of the use of any Finder Submission.
- B. Unless otherwise expressly agreed to in writing by HackerOne, HackerOne does not endorse any Finders, or assume any liability for any damage or harm resulting from Customer's communications or interactions with Finders or other HackerOne customers, either through the HackerOne Platform and Services or otherwise. Any reputation ranking or description of any Finder as part of the Services is not intended by HackerOne as an endorsement of any type. Any selection or use of any Finder is at Customer's own risk.
- C. Finders are not employees, contractors or agents of HackerOne, but are independent third parties who want to participate in Programs and connect with Customer through the Services. Unless otherwise expressly agreed to in writing by HackerOne, Customer agrees that any legal remedy that Customer seeks to obtain for actions or omissions of a Finder regarding Customer's Program or Finder Submissions will be limited to a claim against the particular Finder. Any contract or other interaction between Customer and a Finder, including with respect to any Customer Program Policy, will be between Customer and the Finder. HackerOne is not a party to such contracts and disclaims all liability arising from or related to such contracts.

4. FEES.

- A. Fees. Customer agrees to pay the GSA Schedule Contract holder on behalf of HackerOne all fees for HackerOne's Services (collectively, "HackerOne Fees") and any Reward prepayments listed in any applicable Order Form in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist within thirty (30) days of receipt of HackerOne's invoice unless otherwise stated on Order Form. HackerOne, or the GSA Schedule Contract Holder as applicable, will refund any unused Reward prepayments at the end of the term. Except for any amounts disputed in good faith, all undisputed past due amounts will incur interest at a rate indicated by the Prompt Payment Act (31 USC 3901 et seq) and Treasury regulations at 5 CFR 1315.
- B. Taxes. HackerOne shall state separately on invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Customer agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

5. PROGRAMS AND PROGRAM MATERIALS.

- A. HackerOne makes available through the HackerOne Platform both managed Programs, under which HackerOne is responsible for the management and the administration of Customer's Programs with input and approval from Customer as mutually agreed throughout the Program, and Programs that are self-managed by Customers. If an Order Form does not specifically identify HackerOne as being responsible for the management and administration of Customer's Programs, then Customer is solely responsible for the management and administration of Customer's Programs through the Services. HackerOne's Vulnerability Guidelines, the current version of which is attached hereto as Exhibit C and is available at <https://www.hackerone.com/disclosure-guidelines>, describes the default disclosure policy governing vulnerability reporting through the Services and will be applicable to the Services except to the extent Customer adopts its own Program Policy with respect to its Program. In the event of any conflict between Customer's Program Policy and HackerOne's Vulnerability Guidelines, Customer's Program Policy shall prevail.
- B. Where any Program is inactive or unattended by Customer, HackerOne shall have the right to remove or disable access to the relevant Program Material and/or pause Finder Submissions if Customer has not responded to HackerOne's written notice (by email) requiring attention within ten (10) business days of such written notice.

- C. While HackerOne may assist Customer in preparing Customer's Program Material, Customer is solely responsible for Customer's Program Material.

6. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OWNERSHIP AND LICENSES.

- A. HackerOne does not claim any ownership rights in any Program Material or Finder Submissions, and nothing in these Terms or otherwise will be deemed to restrict any rights that Customer may have to use and exploit Customer's Program Material and Finder Submissions. Customer acknowledges and agrees that HackerOne may collect aggregated and anonymized statistical and other information from Finder Submissions and Customer's use of the HackerOne Platform and Services ("HackerOne Aggregate Data"), which information will not identify particular customers, and may use such information for, among other things, reporting, research, improvements of the Platform and the Services, industry collaboration, and other reasonable business purposes. HackerOne and its licensors exclusively own all right, title and interest in and to the HackerOne Property.
- B. By making any Program Material available through the Services, Customer hereby grants to HackerOne a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, worldwide, royalty-free license to use, copy, reproduce, display, modify, adapt, transmit and distribute copies of Customer's Program Material for the sole purpose of providing the Services.
- C. HackerOne hereby grants to Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, worldwide, royalty-free license to access and view the content and other HackerOne Property that HackerOne makes available on the Services solely in connection with Customer's permitted use of the HackerOne Platform and Services.
- D. HackerOne hereby grants to Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, worldwide, royalty-free license to access and view the Finder Submissions that are made available through the HackerOne Platform and the Services solely in connection with Customer's permitted use of the HackerOne Platform and Services.
- E. Subject to HackerOne's ownership of any HackerOne Property contained therein, Customer will own all right, title and interest to each Customer Report. HackerOne hereby grants Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable, perpetual, worldwide license to access, use and reproduce any HackerOne Property included in each Customer Report.

7. CONFIDENTIALITY; PRIVACY; SECURITY. HackerOne understands that it may receive Confidential Information of Customer, and Customer understands that it may receive Confidential Information of HackerOne. Except as expressly provided in these Terms, the receiving party agrees not to divulge to any third person any Confidential Information of the disclosing party and not to use any Confidential Information of the disclosing party for any purpose not contemplated by these Terms, provided the parties acknowledge and agree that the anonymized HackerOne Aggregate Data is not Confidential Information. HackerOne's Privacy Policy, the current version of which is attached hereto as Exhibit D and which is available at <https://www.hackerone.com/privacy>, describes how HackerOne collects, uses and discloses information from HackerOne's Customers and Finders and is applicable to the Services. HackerOne will provide the Services and the HackerOne Platform in accordance with HackerOne's Data and Information Security Terms, the current version of which is attached as Exhibit E and is located at <https://www.hackerone.com/terms/security>. At Customer's request, HackerOne will, on an annual basis, furnish to Customer the current version of any independent third-party attestation report related to the HackerOne Services and Platform.

8. WARRANTY; WARRANTY DISCLAIMER. HackerOne represents and warrants that the HackerOne Platform and the Services provided to Customer will be provided as described in the applicable Order Form, by qualified personnel in a professional manner, and will comply in all material respects with the documentation and content made available by HackerOne with respect thereto. In order to state a claim for breach of the foregoing warranty, Customer must provide notice of such non-compliance within the thirty (30) day period following such non-compliance specifying the details of such non-compliance. If Customer timely provides HackerOne with the required notice, as Customer's sole and exclusive remedy, HackerOne shall re-perform such portion of the Services or otherwise use commercially reasonable efforts to correct any such non-compliance, at its expense, within thirty (30) days of its receipt of such notice. EXCEPT AS SPECIFICALLY SET FORTH HEREIN, THE SERVICES ARE PROVIDED BY HACKERONE "AS IS," WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, HACKERONE EXPLICITLY DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR NON-INFRINGEMENT, AND ANY WARRANTIES ARISING OUT OF COURSE OF DEALING, CUSTOM OR USAGE OF TRADE. HackerOne makes no warranty that the Services will meet Customer's specific requirements or be available on an uninterrupted, secure or error-free basis.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. NEITHER CUSTOMER NOR HACKERONE WILL BE LIABLE FOR ANY INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING LOST PROFITS, LOSS OF DATA OR GOODWILL, SERVICE INTERRUPTION, COMPUTER DAMAGE OR SYSTEM FAILURE OR THE COST OF SUBSTITUTE SERVICES ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR FROM THE USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE THE SERVICES, WHETHER BASED ON WARRANTY, CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), OR ANY OTHER LEGAL THEORY, AND WHETHER OR NOT SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INFORMED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE. SOME JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW THE EXCLUSION OR LIMITATION OF LIABILITY FOR CONSEQUENTIAL OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES, SO THE ABOVE LIMITATION MAY NOT APPLY. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN NO EVENT WILL CUSTOMER'S OR HACKERONE'S TOTAL LIABILITY TO THE OTHER ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR FROM THE USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE THE SERVICES EXCEED THE TOTAL OF THE AMOUNTS PAID BY CUSTOMER TO HACKERONE FOR USE OF THE SERVICES. THE FOREGOING LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH

LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

10. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS. Each party shall comply with all Applicable Laws in connection with the performance of its obligations and the exercise of its rights under these Terms.
11. PUBLICITY. Except for information that is already made public by Customer through the Customer's Programs and Program Materials and except as may be required by law, neither party shall make any public announcement or conduct any advertising or public relations regarding these Terms unless mutually agreed by the parties. With the Customer's prior written consent (which consent may be withdrawn at any time) and to the extent permitted by the General Services Acquisition Regulation (GSAR) 552.203-71, HackerOne may refer to Customer as a customer on its website and utilize Customer's logo for such purpose.
12. TERM AND TERMINATION. These Terms shall continue in effect for the subscription period of the Services purchased by the Customer. The Customer may terminate these Terms and the applicable subscription if HackerOne fails to cure a material breach of hereof or thereof within thirty (30) days after receiving written notice of the breach from the Customer. When the Customer is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, HackerOne shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. Upon any termination or expiration of these Terms or the subscription period of the Services purchased, Customer shall be entitled to a refund of any unused Reward prepayment.
13. GOVERNING LAW. This Agreement and any action related thereto will be governed by the Federal laws of United States. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods does not apply to the transactions contemplated by these Terms. The Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act ("UCITA") will not apply to these Terms regardless of when and howsoever adopted, enacted and further amended under the governing state laws.
14. GENERAL. To the extent of any conflict between these Terms and any of the HackerOne policies or documents linked to or referenced in these Terms, the terms of these Terms shall govern and control. During the Term, HackerOne shall provide notice to Customer of any material changes to any such linked policies or documents and shall not alter any such policies or documents in any way that would derogate or degrade in any way the Services or modify any of its obligations to Customer hereunder. Any waiver, modification or amendment of any provision of these Terms will be effective only if in writing and signed by duly authorized representatives of both parties. Any terms and conditions contained in any Customer purchase order that are inconsistent with or in addition to the terms and conditions of these Terms will be deemed stricken from such purchase order, unless expressly agreed to in writing by HackerOne. If any provision of these Terms is held to be invalid, prohibited or otherwise unenforceable by legal authority of competent jurisdiction, the other provisions of the Agreement shall remain enforceable, and the invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed modified so that it is valid and enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by law. Customer shall not use the Services, or any portion thereof, for the benefit of any third party or in any manner not permitted by these Terms. Any notices or other communications provided by HackerOne under these Terms will be given via email or by posting to the HackerOne Site.

Exhibit A Services Description

HackerOne provides the HackerOne Platform that allows its customers to gain access to Finders and leverage the Finders to, among other things, find security vulnerabilities on the various systems or scope as set forth in the customer's Program Policy or to perform such other tasks as may be set forth in the customer's Program Policy or agreed to by the customer and the Finders. Finders are independent contractors, not HackerOne's employees or consultants. Programs can be run in private mode where only invited Finders will be notified of the existence of such Program and are permitted to participate in the Program. Depending on the Services purchased from HackerOne, HackerOne may perform or assist in performing various vetting of the Finders before invitations are sent out to Finders for private Programs. The Programs can also be run in public mode, in which case all Finders on the HackerOne Platform are notified of the existence of the Program, no specific invitation is needed, and any Finder who meets the condition set forth on the Program Policy will be eligible to participate in the Program. Finders do their tasks independently using their own systems and resources, and then use the HackerOne Platform to describe and submit Finder Submissions. Because Finders discover the vulnerability and create the Vulnerability Report, unless the customer's Program Policy or the details of the specific Services provide otherwise, the intellectual property of the Vulnerability Report belongs to the submitting Finder. Typically, the Finder grants via Finder Terms and Conditions or the customer's Program Policy the necessary license right, free of charge, to allow HackerOne and HackerOne's customer to use the Finder Submissions via the HackerOne Platform, including use via the HackerOne API and integrations with third party tools. All Finders on the HackerOne Platform agree to the HackerOne Finder Terms and Conditions as well as the HackerOne Privacy Policy and the default Disclosure Guidelines when the Finder joins the HackerOne Platform. However, any customer can have its own Program Policy that may be different from or supplement the HackerOne's default Disclosure Guideline and which may set any rules or requirements the customer desires to impose on Finders participating in its Program. When there is a difference between a customer's Program Policy and the default Disclosure Policy or the Finder Terms and Conditions, the Program Policy will govern. HackerOne may also process Reward payments on behalf of a customer after a monetary Reward is awarded under a Program. When a Finder initially signs up on HackerOne Platform, only username and email address are collected. When a Reward is awarded and before payment is processed by HackerOne, HackerOne first requires the Finder to fill out an appropriate tax form, which collects necessary personal data per IRS tax forms. HackerOne checks to make sure the tax form appears valid, and then uses the information from the tax form to perform an OFAC check. If the Finder passes the OFAC check, and payment preference and payment information are supplied, HackerOne will process the payment to the Finder according to the Finder designated payment preference. If the Finder fails the OFAC check, the customer is informed, and the customer and HackerOne will decide jointly the subsequent actions to take.

If purchased by a customer, HackerOne may also provide report management/triage Services, in which HackerOne views the information contained in a Vulnerability Report and performs a series of activities, including attempting to reproduce and validate the vulnerability submitted by the Finder, communicating to Finders, and (if applicable) performing activities on the customer's systems as part of reproducing and validating the vulnerability. HackerOne utilizes staff augmentation contractors to provide such Services. Each such contractor has agreed to confidentiality obligations at least as protective of the Vulnerability Report as HackerOne is subject to under these Terms and HackerOne remains fully liable for all acts or omissions of any such contractors in performing the report management/triage Services. By purchasing such Services, Customer consents to HackerOne's access to and use of the Vulnerability Reports for the purpose of providing such Services and to the use of such staff augmentation contractors.

Exhibit B Service Level Agreement

This is the Service Level Agreement (this “SLA”) by HackerOne for the HackerOne Platform and the associated Services HackerOne provides to its customers who pay for the HackerOne Platform and/or for the Services including all HackerOne Enterprise and Professional offerings. This SLA is not intended for customers who use the HackerOne Platform for free, nor for Finders.

1. Service Level Agreement. HackerOne commits to provide a level of service for the HackerOne Platform demonstrating:

1.1 Platform Uptime. The HackerOne Platform will be operational and available to customers 24 hours per day, 7 days per week at least 99.5% of the time in any calendar month, except for scheduled maintenance and upgrades, and excluding API interruptions or third party system interruptions. HackerOne shall provide at least 24 hours’ advance notice to Customer on scheduled maintenance in excess of 30 minutes. Notice will be delivered via electronic means including via the HackerOne Platform.

1.2 Severity Levels and First Response Time. HackerOne Platform software defects/errors will be classified by the reporting party in accordance with the following severity incident guidelines. HackerOne will respond to Customer and provide a First Response in accordance with the time requirements set forth in the table below. “First Response” means a written electronic response from HackerOne to the customer regarding a reported or discovered error acknowledging receipt. Response may be delivered via the HackerOne Platform.

Incident Severity Level	Definition	SLA for Customers on Enterprise Product Edition	SLA for Customers on Professional Product Edition
Severity 1	A critical problem with the HackerOne Platform software in which any of the following occur: the entire services are down, inoperable, inaccessible or unavailable, the entire services otherwise materially cease operation.	2 business hours	4 business hours
Severity 2	A problem with the HackerOne Platform software in which any of the following occur: the services are severely limited or degraded, major functions are not performing properly, the situation is causing a significant impact to certain portions users’ operations or productivity.	4 business hours	8 business hours (1 business day)
Severity 3	A problem with the HackerOne Platform software in which any of the following occur: the problem is an irritant, affects non-essential functions, has minor impact to business operations; the problem is localized or has isolated impact; the problem is an operational nuisance.	1 business days	3 business days

1.3. Report Management/Triage Services SLA. HackerOne provides report management, or triage, services for customers who have purchased such Services. Triage Services include validating the Vulnerability Reports submitted by Finders. HackerOne commits to the following First Response timelines for the triage Services it performs for its customers:

- Triage First Response to customers generally: 2 business days
- Triage First Response for Enterprise tier customers: 1 business day

2. SLA Exclusions. This SLA and any applicable Service Levels do not apply to any performance or availability issues:

- (a) Due to factors outside HackerOne’s reasonable control;
- (b) That resulted from the customer’s or a third party’s (not within HackerOne’s control) hardware or software;
- (c) That resulted from actions or inactions of the customer (or the customer’s employees, agents, contractors, or vendors gaining access to HackerOne’s Service by means of the customer’s authorized users’ accounts or equipment) or third parties not within HackerOne’s control;
- (d) Caused by the customer’s use of the Service after HackerOne advised the customer to modify its use of the Service, if the customer did not modify its use as advised; or

(e) During any beta, pre-release and/or trial Services.

3. Service Credit Claims.

3.1 In the event HackerOne fails to deliver against the service levels as described above (an “Incident”), the sole and exclusive remedy for such failure shall be in the form of service credit to the customer. If the Service fails to meet the above service levels, a customer can file a claim to and will receive a service credit equal calculated in accordance with Section 4 of this SLA.

3.2 In order to be eligible to submit a claim for a service credit (a “Claim”) with respect to any Incident, the customer must first have notified HackerOne’s Customer Support of the Incident, using the procedures set by HackerOne, within five business days following the Incident.

3.3 To submit a Claim, the customer must submit, by the end of the calendar month following the month in which the Incident occurred, the Claim to claims@hackerone.com and provide to Customer Support all reasonable details regarding the Claim, including but not limited to, detailed descriptions of the Incident(s), the duration of the Incident, network traceroutes, the URL(s) affected and any attempts made by the customer to resolve the Incident.

3.4 HackerOne will use the information submitted and all information reasonably available to it to validate Claims and make a good faith judgment on whether a service credit is due with respect to such Claims.

4. Service Credits. Service credits are a customer’s sole and exclusive remedy for any violation of this SLA. Service credits are provided in the form of a no charge subscription extension and will only be calculated as set forth below.

Outage in a Month (Minutes)	Service Credit in Subscription Extension	Comments
< 216 Minutes	0	This is for 99.5% platform uptime
217 – 500 Minutes	One week	Customer subscription will be extended by one week
500 – 1,000 Minutes	Two weeks	Customer subscription will be extended by two weeks
>1,000 Minutes	Four weeks	Customer subscription will be extended by four weeks

VULNERABILITY DISCLOSURE PHILOSOPHY

Finders should...

- Respect the rules. Operate within the rules set forth by the Security Team, or speak up if in strong disagreement with the rules.
- Respect privacy. Make a good faith effort not to access or destroy another user's data.
- Be patient. Make a good faith effort to clarify and support their reports upon request.
- Do no harm. Act for the common good through the prompt reporting of all found vulnerabilities. Never willfully exploit others without their permission.

Security Teams should...

- Prioritize security. Make a good faith effort to resolve reported security issues in a prompt and transparent manner.
- Respect Finders. Give finders public recognition for their contributions.
- Reward research. Financially incentivize security research when appropriate.
- Do no harm. Not take unreasonable punitive actions against finders, like making legal threats or referring matters to law enforcement.

Safe Harbor

We are committed to protecting the interests of Finders. However, vulnerability disclosure is an inherently murky process. The more closely a Finder's behavior matches these guidelines, the more we'll be able to protect you if a difficult disclosure situation escalates.

Submission Process

Security Teams will publish a program policy designed to guide security research into a particular service or product. You should always carefully review this program policy prior to submission as they will supersede these guidelines in the event of a conflict.

If you believe you have found a vulnerability, please submit a Report to the appropriate program on the HackerOne platform. The Report should include a detailed description of your discovery with clear, concise reproducible steps or a working proof-of-concept. If you don't explain the vulnerability in detail, there may be significant delays in the disclosure process, which is undesirable for everyone.

The Report will be updated with significant events, including when the vulnerability has been validated, when more information is needed from you, or when you have qualified for a bounty.

Vulnerability Disclosure Process

The contents of the Report will be made available to the Security Team immediately, and will initially remain non-public to allow the Security Team sufficient time to publish a remediation. After the Report has been closed, Public disclosure may be requested by either the Finder or the Security Team.

- Default: If neither party raises an objection, the contents of the Report will be made public within 30 days.
- Mutual agreement: We encourage the Finder and Security Team members to remain in open communication regarding disclosure timelines. If both parties are in agreement, the contents of the Report can be made public on a mutually agreed timeline.
- Protective disclosure: If the Security Team has evidence of active exploitation or imminent public harm, they may immediately provide remediation details to the public so that users can take protective action.
- Extension: Due to complexity and other factors, some vulnerabilities will require longer than the default 30 days to remediate. In these cases, the Report may remain non-public to ensure the Security Team has an adequate amount of time to address a security issue. We encourage Security Teams to remain in open communication with the Finder when these cases occur.
- Last resort: If 180 days have elapsed with the Security Team being unable or unwilling to provide a vulnerability disclosure timeline, the contents of the Report may be publicly disclosed by the Finder. We believe transparency is in the public's best interest in these extreme cases.

Private Program

Some Finders may receive invitations to private Programs. Your participation in a private Program is entirely optional and subject to strict non-disclosure by default. Prior to accepting an invitation to a private Program, Finders should carefully review any program policies and non-disclosure agreements required for participation. Finders that intend any form of public disclosure should not participate in private Programs.

HackerOne recommends two alternatives:

- (a) Submit directly to the Security Team outside of the Program. In this situation, Finders are advised to exercise good judgement as any safe harbor afforded by the Program Policy may not be available.

(b) Utilize our disclosure assistance process.

Public Recognition

You may receive public recognition for your find if 1) you are the first person to file a Report for a particular vulnerability, 2) the vulnerability is confirmed to be a valid security issue, and 3) you have complied with these guidelines. If a Finder prefers to remain anonymous, we encourage them to submit under a pseudonym.

Bug Bounty

Some Security Teams may offer monetary rewards for vulnerability disclosure. Not all Security Teams offer monetary rewards, and the decision to grant a reward is entirely at their discretion. The amount of each bounty payment will be determined by the Security Team. Bounty payments are subject to the following eligibility requirements:

- Because we're based in the United States, we aren't able to pay bounties to residents or those who report vulnerabilities from a country against which the United States has trade restrictions or export sanctions as determined by the U.S. Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC).
- Minors are welcome to participate in the program. However, the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act restricts our ability to collect personal information from children under 13, so you will need to claim your bounties through your parent or legal guardian if you are 12 or younger.
- All payments will be made in U.S. dollars (USD) and will comply with local laws, regulations and ethics rules. You are responsible for the tax consequences of any bounty you receive, as determined by the laws of your country.
- It is your sole responsibility to comply with any policies your employer may have that would affect your eligibility to participate in this bounty program.

Definitions

Security Team: A team of individuals who are responsible for addressing security issues found in a product or service. Depending on the circumstances, this might be a formal security team from an organization, a group of volunteers on an open source project, or an independent panel of volunteers (such as the Internet Bug Bounty).

Finder: Also known as hackers. Anyone who has investigated a potential security issue in some form of technology, including academic security researchers, software engineers, system administrators, and even casual technologists.

Report: A Finder's description of a potential security vulnerability in a particular product or service. On HackerOne, Reports always start out as non-public submissions to the appropriate Security Team.

Vulnerability: A software bug that would allow an attacker to perform an action in violation of an expressed security policy. A bug that enables escalated access or privilege is a vulnerability. Design flaws and failures to adhere to security best practices may qualify as vulnerabilities. Weaknesses exploited by viruses, malicious code, and social engineering are not considered vulnerabilities unless the Security Team says otherwise in the program's policy.

Programs: Security Teams may publish a Program and Program Policy designed to guide security research into a particular service or product. If this program is private, your participation is entirely optional and subject to non-disclosure by default.

Contact

HackerOne is always open to feedback, questions, and suggestions. If you would like to talk to us, please feel free to email us at support@hackerone.com or follow us on Twitter @hacker0x01.

Changes to These Guidelines

We may revise these guidelines from time to time. The current version is 1.2, updated on July 29, 2019 will always be at <https://www.hackerone.com/disclosure-guidelines>. If we make changes that we believe will substantially alter your rights, we will email you and prominently display a notice on our site 7 days before we make those changes.

Exhibit D Current Version of Privacy Policy

Effective as of April 12, 2021, HackerOne Inc. and its affiliates (collectively, "HackerOne", "we", "us", or "our") have updated our Privacy Policy.

Your data is just that, YOUR data. HackerOne is committed to ensuring the privacy of your data. We are further committed to preventing unauthorized access to that data. Our Privacy Policy details what data is collected from our Customers and Finders, how we use it, and how it is stored.

1. WHO WE ARE

HackerOne is an industry leader in hacker-powered security. HackerOne partners with the global security researcher community, which may be referred to as hackers or Finders (we will use the term Finder(s) for the purposes of our Privacy Policy), to provide businesses with access to top talent Finders who identify and surface relevant security issues in a business's products or services. HackerOne operates a bug bounty & vulnerability disclosure software-as-a-service platform known as the HackerOne Platform, the website located at hackerone.com and related domains and subdomains, and related services, including live hacking events, marketing, and customer service and ancillary support services (collectively referred to as "Services"). HackerOne is a Delaware corporation headquartered in San Francisco, California with offices currently in London and the Netherlands.

We respect your privacy and take safeguarding your data seriously. Please read this Privacy Policy carefully together with the General Terms and Conditions ("Terms") available at <https://www.hackerone.com/terms/general>, which governs your use of the Services, to understand what Personal Information (defined below) we collect from you, how we use it, and your choices related to our use of your Personal Information. By using the Services, you acknowledge our collection, use, disclosure, and retention of your personal information as described in the Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with the terms of this Policy, please do not use the Services.

2. WHAT IS PERSONAL INFORMATION?

"Personal Information" means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person; an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural, or social identity of that natural person. Under specific laws, Personal Information may include any information relating to a household.

3. WHERE IS (Y)OUR INFORMATION STORED?

As a global company we understand that there are many different privacy and data protection laws where our Customers and Finders are based. We know and understand the value of your information. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that your Personal Information is treated securely and in accordance with the laws and regulations relevant to where you are located.

We are a company headquartered in California and so, our Sites and Servers are hosted here in the United States. Therefore, the Personal Information that we collect from you will be received, transferred and/or stored in the United States.

If you are located outside the United States, please see our section on International Data Transfer below.

4. PERSONAL INFORMATION WE PROCESS

We process Personal Information that you actively submit to us, that we automatically collect through your use of our Services, and that we collect from third-parties for the following reasons. We may, when securing our website and Services, collect details about your device, your computer's internet protocol (IP addresses) and other technical information, through our data security and firewall providers and/or when marketing our Services, we may collect identity and contact data from publicly available sources. For compliance with applicable laws (including but not limited to anti-money laundering and financing laws and regulations), we may through third parties who use verification providers or due diligence, and screening information providers verify your information and collect information from publicly available sources or check data against government sanction lists.

We may process your Personal Information with or without automatic means, including collection, recording, organization, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure, or destruction of your Personal Information.

We DO NOT sell the Personal Information we collect to other parties.

4.1 Personal Information that you actively submit to us.

We collect Personal Information that you actively submit to us through your account, website forms, email subscriptions, surveys, events, conferences, customer service and ancillary support services, inquiries, and other interactions. You will normally know when we collect your Personal Information because we will directly ask you for the information. Examples are provided below. We will require certain Personal Information in order for you to use our Services or for us to be able to contact you. There may also be circumstances where providing Personal Information is optional and does not impact your access to Services.

4.1.1 Your Account. Whether you are a Customer or a Finder (or both), when you create a HackerOne account, you are required to provide us with profile information, including your email address and password. HackerOne stores this information to help identify you when you log in. Once you've registered, you create a user profile. Your profile information includes your name (if you choose to provide it), chosen username, company name (if applicable), and if you choose, a profile photo, your location, your social media and other third-party affiliations, and any other information you include in the "About me" or "Intro" fields. We may display your profile information on our site where other users of the Services and visitors to our website will be able to see that information. If you enable two-factor authentication, we will store a phone number used for account recovery purposes.

If you are a Customer, in addition to your profile information, you may provide us with financial information, such as your credit card or debit card information or your banking information, in order to assist us in awarding bounties, collecting bounty deposits, or collecting HackerOne fees.

If you are a Finder, in addition to your profile information, you may need to provide us with other personally identifying information necessary for background and fraud checking purposes where required. This includes your date of birth, nationality, current and previous addresses, your social security number (or tax identification number), and for Reward purposes, your banking, Coinbase, PayPal, or similar information in order to allow us to pay you monetary Rewards from Customers. In addition, in order that we can award any "swag" where available, we may ask for information such as a mailing address, telephone number, and clothing size. In addition to Personal Information we collect, your profile may be publicly associated with any vulnerability reports or other content that you submit, in the event these are published on the Services.

4.1.2 Events. We host events to bring together industry professionals in a casual setting. We also host live hacking events where top Finders from all over the globe join together to find vulnerabilities on HackerOne Customer programs. To register in advance for these events, we may collect your first name, last name, email address, company name (if applicable), job title (if applicable), and give you an option to provide us a website reference.

4.1.3 Email Subscriptions. We actively communicate with subscribers through newsletters, webinars, and education content, and also send emails about product updates, events, the status of the HackerOne Platform, and updates to the third-party service providers (sub-processors) used to process Personal Information. A subscriber may be required to provide their email address and other contact information to receive communications.

4.1.4 Text Subscriptions. We may communicate with subscribers through text messages concerning the status of the HackerOne Platform. A subscriber is required to provide their phone number to receive texts.

4.1.5 Recruitment. We are always looking out for new employees. So should you decide to apply to us (or a partner recruitment provider or service) for a role, we will collect the information contained in your resume/cv, (information such as where you went to school or previous employment) along with any other relevant information you choose to provide to us.

4.1.6 Surveys. We occasionally conduct surveys in order to gather data central to assessing our business objectives and understanding the Finder community. Participation in surveys is always optional. Information provided in surveys is anonymized and aggregated for analysis.

4.1.7 Contact Us. There are multiple opportunities for you to contact us, including for support, to report a bug, make a suggestion, make a sales inquiry, request a product demonstration, request research, and for customer service and ancillary support services. Online forms collect Personal Information such as a first name, last name, email address, company (if applicable), job title (if applicable), reason for contact, and may provide an option to attach a file. When we contact you in response to your request, we may collect additional Personal Information.

4.2 Personal Information we automatically collect through your use of the Services.

We receive some Personal Information automatically when you visit HackerOne Services. This includes information about the device, browser, and operating system you use when accessing our site and Services, your IP address, the website that referred you, which pages you request and visit, and the date and time of each request you make. If you visit the HackerOne Platform when you are logged into your account, we also collect the user identification number we assign you when you open your account.

4.3 Personal Information we collect from third-party sources.

We are continually expanding our Customer reach. As part of our business-to-business marketing, we collect Personal Information from third-party sources to identify individuals who hold relevant job roles in key industries. Personal Information collected generally includes a first name, last name, job title, company name, email address, and phone number. We generally communicate via email or telephone to provide information about HackerOne programs and offer businesses an opportunity to try out HackerOne Services.

4.4 Personal Information of minors.

We welcome all Finders to register a HackerOne account as a Finder, participate in our programs, and submit reports to HackerOne. We believe that skilled Finders are not determined by age. However, applicable laws may restrict our ability to collect Personal Information from minors unless we have first obtained the consent of the minor's parent or guardian. Please note that the definition of a minor varies by jurisdiction and various laws institute age related requirements. If you are considered a minor and want to submit a vulnerability report to us, please ask your parent or guardian to submit it for you. Please note that in addition, any Reward payments that may apply are only issued to an adult. HackerOne does not otherwise knowingly collect Personal Information of minors, and the HackerOne Services are not directed to minors. If we become aware that we have collected Personal Information from a minor in conflict with applicable law, we will delete that information or obtain the requisite consent from the minor's parent or guardian.

4.5 Personal Information we collect using cookies and similar tracking technologies.

We (and the third-party service providers working on our behalf) use various technologies to collect Personal Information. This may include saving cookies to your device, using pixels and similar technologies. For information on what cookies and pixels are, which ones we use, why we use them, and how you can manage their use, please see our Cookies Policy, which provides more information about how and why we or our commercial partners may process certain personal data relating to you, and should be read in conjunction with this privacy policy.

5. HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We use your Personal Information to operate our Services, fulfill our contractual obligations in our contracts with Customers and Finders or take steps preparatory to entering into those contracts, to review and enforce compliance with our Terms, guidelines, and policies, to analyze the use of the Services in order to understand how we can improve our content and service offerings and products, and for administrative and other business purposes. We process Personal Information for sales leads, subscription services, payments, employee training, marketing, data analysis, security monitoring, auditing, research, and to comply with applicable laws, to exercise legal rights, and meet tax and other regulatory requirements.

In this context, the legal basis for our processing of your Personal Information is either the necessity to perform or enter into contractual and other obligations, our legitimate business interests as a provider of security services (and the other legitimate interests described above), compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, or in some instances your consent.

6. SHARING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

WE DO NOT SELL YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION!

We may share your Personal Information in the following circumstances:

6.1 Third-party Service Providers.

We may share information we collect about you with third-party service providers to perform tasks on our behalf in supporting the Services. The types of service providers, or sub-processors, to whom we entrust Personal Information include: (i) payment providers; (ii) providers of hosting services; (iii) sales and marketing providers; (iv) providers of document and content management tools; (iv) providers of analytic data services; and (v) other services such as system support, subscription services, verification, and ticketing.

6.2 Customers.

For Finders who participate in certain Customer programs, to the extent described in the policies of such Customer programs, HackerOne may share contact information about those Finders (for example, name, company name (if applicable), and email address) to allow those Customers to contact those Finders to allow them to interact directly or as otherwise authorized by the Finder with respect to the specific Customer program or service. For Finders who choose to submit a vulnerability report directly to a Customer outside the HackerOne Platform, HackerOne may provide that Customer with a reference to your public profile information. In the event of a serious security concern, HackerOne may determine, in its sole discretion, that Personal Information will be shared with a Customer to identify and resolve the security concern.

6.3 Regulatory Bodies, Public Authorities, and Law Enforcement.

We may access and disclose your Personal Information to regulatory bodies if required under applicable law or regulation. This may include submitting Personal Information required by tax authorities. We may disclose your Personal Information in response to lawful requests by public authorities or law enforcement, including to meet national security or law enforcement requirements. If we are going to release your Personal Information in this instance, our policy is to provide you with notice unless we are prohibited from doing so by law or court order (including orders under 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b)).

6.4 Merger, Sale, or Other Asset Transfers.

If we are involved in a merger, acquisition, financing due diligence, reorganization, bankruptcy, receivership, sale of company assets, or transition of service to another provider, then your Personal Information may be disclosed or transferred as part of such a transaction as permitted by law and/or contract. Should such an event occur, HackerOne will endeavor to direct the transferee to use Personal Information in a manner that is consistent with the Privacy Policy in effect at the time such Personal Information was collected.

6.5 Other Disclosures.

Where there is agreement by Customers and Finders that Finder Submissions are publicly disclosed, then certain information about the submission associated with your profile may be published through our Services. We may share Personal Information with our affiliated companies. We may also disclose your Personal Information to exercise or defend legal rights; to take precautions against liability; to protect the rights, property, or safety of HackerOne, other users of our Services, of any other individuals, or of the general public; to maintain and protect the security and integrity of our Services or infrastructure; to protect HackerOne and our Services from fraudulent, abusive, or unlawful uses; or to investigate and defend HackerOne against third-party claims or allegations. Disclosures may be made to courts of law, attorneys and law enforcement, or other relevant third parties in order to meet these purposes.

Please note that we share aggregated information and non-identifying information with third parties for industry research and analysis, demographic profiling, and other similar purposes. In addition, our Services may contain links to other websites not controlled by us, and these other websites may reference or link to our Services; we encourage you to read the privacy policies applicable to these other websites.

5.6 California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 ("CCPA").

Pursuant to §§ 1798.110 and 1798.115 of the CCPA, the categories of Personal Information we have collected about consumers and disclosed about consumers for a business purpose in the preceding 12 months are:

- Identifiers such as a real name, alias, postal address, email address, unique personal or online identifier, Internet Protocol address, account name, SSN, driver's license or passport number, or other similar identifiers;
- Other information that identifies, relates to, describes, or is capable of being associated with, a particular individual, including signature, bank account number, credit card number, debit card number, or any other financial information;
- Commercial information, including products or services purchased, obtained, or considered; other purchasing or consuming histories or tendencies;
- Internet or other electronic network activity information, including, browsing history, search history, and information regarding a consumer's interaction with an internet website, or advertisement;
- Professional or employment-related information; and
- Inferences drawn from any of the information identified to create a profile about a consumer reflecting the consumer's preferences, intelligence, abilities, and aptitudes (applies only to Finders who have registered an account and participate in programs and subsequent skill ratings).

Please note that not all of this information is collected or disclosed from all consumers using our Services.

7. RETENTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

HackerOne retains Personal Information for a reasonable time period to fulfill the processing purposes mentioned above. Personal Information is then archived for time periods required or necessitated by legal or regulatory considerations. When archival is no longer required, Personal Information is deleted from our records.

You may choose to disable your HackerOne account at any time. This means your user profile will no longer be visible on the Services. However, for the purposes mentioned above, we may need to retain information within our internal systems. In addition, public vulnerability reports and associated information that you have submitted will still be available on the Services.

We retain Personal Information that we are required to retain to meet our regulatory obligations including tax records and transaction history. We regularly review our retention policies to ensure compliance with our obligations under data protection laws and other regulatory requirements. We regularly audit our databases and archived information to ensure that Personal Information is only stored and archived in alignment with our retention policies.

8. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

HackerOne uses technical and organizational measures to protect the Personal Information that we store, transmit, or otherwise process, against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure, or access. We regularly consider appropriate new security technology and methods as we maintain and develop our software and systems.

However, you should keep in mind that the Services are run on software, hardware, and networks, any component of which may, from time to time, require maintenance or experience problems or breaches of security beyond our control. Please also be aware that despite our best efforts to ensure the security of your data, we cannot guarantee that your information will be 100% secure.

Please recognize that protecting your Personal Information is also your responsibility. We urge you to take every precaution to protect your information when you are on the Internet, such as using a strong password, keeping your password secret, and using two-factor authentication. If you have reason to believe that the security of your account might have been compromised (for example, your password has been leaked), or if you suspect someone else is using your account, please let us know immediately.

9. INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFER

If you are located outside the United States and choose to provide your Personal Information to us, we will transfer your Personal Information to (or receive it in) the United States and process it there. Your Personal Information may be transferred to, and maintained on, computers located outside of your state, province, country, or other governmental jurisdiction where the privacy laws may not be as protective as those in your jurisdiction.

Whenever we transfer your Personal Information, we will take all reasonable steps to ensure that your privacy rights continue to be protected. Wherever you are based, we are responsible for the processing of your Personal Information, including any subsequent transfers to third parties.

9.1 EU - US Data Transfers

If HackerOne transfers Personal Information to a jurisdiction (or to a third party in a jurisdiction) for which the European Commission, Switzerland or the UK (as applicable) has not issued an adequacy decision, HackerOne will implement appropriate technical and security safeguards as required, including Standard Contractual Clauses (see below) approved by competent authorities, to transfer Personal Data in accordance with data protection and privacy laws, either internally between our group entities, or between us and our Finders and Customers (such as where we process personal data on their behalf).

9.2 Standard Contractual Clauses

In order to comply with the transfer of data rules between the US and the UK, Switzerland or EU we offer Standard Contractual Clauses (sometimes also referred to as EU Model Clauses). Standard Contractual Clauses are contractual clauses designed to ensure HackerOne meets the legal and regulatory requirements for Customers and Finders using the Services in the European Economic Area ("EEA"), Switzerland and the UK. A copy of our standard Data Processing Agreement which incorporates the Standard Contractual Clause is available here.

Much like our Privacy Policy, should you or others (on whose behalf you lawfully share Personal Information) be located in the EEA, Switzerland or the UK and use the Services, all parties will be deemed to have accepted these Standard Contractual Clauses. HackerOne is committed to safeguarding Personal Information and will always undertake to meet the approved safeguards and findings of adequacies, under all applicable data protection and privacy laws. Please let us know if you would like more information about the measures we have in place.

10. PRIVACY RIGHTS

Subject to where you are based you may have rights under data protection and privacy laws, including but not limited to the CCPA and the EU General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR"). Under these laws, individuals have the right to access Personal Information and to correct, amend, restrict, or delete that information where it is inaccurate, or has been processed in violation of your rights, except in some cases where their request is manifestly unfounded or excessive, or where certain other circumstances apply, for example where the rights of persons other than the individual will be violated.

If you have a HackerOne account, we rely upon you to keep your information up to date. You may edit your profile information and may also choose to disable your HackerOne account at any time through your account settings. For subscription services, such as newsletters, webinars, events, and the like, we offer you the ability to manage your preferences and choose whether to receive email communication for each service. To manage your preferences, please visit the Email Subscription Preference Center at <https://ma.hacker.one/SubscriptionManagement.html>. Where you are receiving communication from us of a marketing nature, we provide the ability for you to unsubscribe directly from the email.

Where we rely upon consent as a legal basis for processing, you may withdraw your consent at any time. Please note the withdrawal of your consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before withdrawal.

Individuals in the many territories where we operate have certain rights that may be subject to limitations and/or restrictions. These include but are not limited to, the right to: (i) request access to and rectification or erasure of their Personal Information; (ii) obtain restriction of processing or to object to processing of their Personal Information; and (iii) ask for a copy of their Personal Information to be provided to them, or a third party, in a digital format. If you wish to exercise one of the above-mentioned rights, please send us your request to the contact details set out below. Individuals also have the right to lodge a complaint about the processing of their Personal Information with their local data protection authority.

Personal Information subject rights under the CCPA may also apply to certain individuals and households. These rights include the right to: (i) know what Personal Information is being collected about them, (ii) know whether their Personal Information is sold or disclosed to whom, (iii) say no to the sale of Personal information, (iv) access their Personal Information, and (v) equal service and price, even if they exercise their privacy rights.

10.1 Exercising your rights and Privacy Disputes

You may also contact us with your Personal information inquiries or for assistance in modifying or updating your Personal Information and to exercise any additional applicable statutory rights. We respect the privacy of all individuals and invite you to submit your requests, irrespective of where you reside. Our contact details are provided at the end of this Privacy Policy.

11. CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

We may modify this Privacy Policy from time to time, which will be indicated by changing the date indicated at the top of this page. The most current version of the Privacy Policy will govern our use of your Personal Information and will always be at <https://www.hackerone.com/privacy>. If we make changes that we believe will substantially alter your rights, we will notify you by email (sent to the email address specified in your HackerOne account), by means of a notice on our Services prior to the change becoming effective, or as otherwise required by law. In certain cases, we may also seek your consent to further use of your Personal Information where this is required.

Exhibit E

Current Version of Data and Information Security Terms

Last Updated: February 16, 2021

Certain capitalized terms used in this document are defined in the General Terms and Conditions found at <https://www.hackerone.com/terms/general>, which are incorporated by reference. This document shall form a part of the Terms.

1. Policies and Procedures. HackerOne shall maintain written security management policies and procedures to prevent, detect, contain, and correct violations of measures taken to protect the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of HackerOne information systems and/or Customer's Confidential Information. Such policies and procedures shall (i) assign specific data security responsibilities and accountabilities to specific individual(s); (ii) include a formal risk management program, which includes periodic risk assessments; and (iii) provide an adequate framework of controls that safeguard Customer's information systems, including without limitation any hardware or software supporting Customer, and Customer's Confidential Information.
2. Security Evaluations. HackerOne shall engage one or more third parties to periodically (no less than annually) evaluate its processes and systems to ensure continued compliance with obligations imposed by law, regulation, or contract with respect to the confidentiality, integrity, availability, and security of Customer's Confidential Information within HackerOne information systems as well as the maintenance and structure of HackerOne's information systems. The results of these evaluations and any remediation activities taken in response to such evaluations will be documented and available to Customers upon request.
3. Physical Security. HackerOne shall maintain appropriate physical security controls (including facility and environmental controls) to prevent unauthorized physical access to HackerOne information systems and areas in which Customer's Confidential Information is stored or processed.
4. Visitor Access Logs. HackerOne shall maintain sign in access logs for visitors and guests and ensure that such visitors and guests are escorted while in the facility. In addition, these access logs shall be maintained in a secure location for three (3) months.
5. Perimeter Controls. HackerOne shall maintain reasonable network perimeter controls such as firewalls at all perimeter connections. HackerOne shall periodically (no less than annually) evaluate its network perimeter controls.
6. Vulnerability Management. HackerOne shall employ reasonable vulnerability management processes to mitigate data security risks to Customer's Confidential Information. These processes shall include mitigation steps to resolve issues identified by HackerOne, Customer, or any regulator, auditor, or other external constituent of either party.
7. System Hardening. System configuration parameters shall include procedures to disable all unnecessary services on devices and servers. This practice shall at a minimum be applied to all systems that access, transmit, or store Customer's Confidential Information.
8. Patch Management. HackerOne shall establish and adhere to policies and procedures for patching systems. Systems and applications used to access, process or store Customer's Confidential Information shall be maintained at current stable patch level.
9. Anomaly Detection. HackerOne shall install commercially reasonable anomaly detection software, to include anomaly / intrusion detections and deviations from standard system configuration, on all systems used to access, process or store Customer's Confidential Information as well as other information that HackerOne hosts. In addition, definition files shall be updated regularly.
10. Incident Response. HackerOne shall maintain formal processes to detect, identify, report, respond to, and resolve any event that compromises the confidentiality, availability, or integrity of Customer's data or service provider's systems ("Security Incidents") in a timely manner.
11. Incident Notification. HackerOne shall immediately provide Customer with notification of any known or reasonably suspected breach of security relating to Customer Systems or Customer's Confidential Information. HackerOne will notify Customer immediately following discovery of any suspected breach or compromise of the security, confidentiality, or integrity of any Customer's Confidential Information. Written notification provided pursuant to this paragraph will include a brief summary of the available facts and the status of HackerOne's investigation.
12. System Logs. For all systems that access, transmit or store Customer's Confidential Information, system logs shall be in place to uniquely identify individual users and their access to associated systems and to identify the attempted or executed activities of such users. All systems creating system logs shall be synchronized to a central time source. Reasonable processes shall be in place to review privileged access and identify, investigate and respond to suspicious or malicious activity. System log trails shall be secured in a manner to prevent unauthorized access, modification, and accidental or deliberate destruction. These logs shall be maintained in accordance with the retention requirements set forth in the Agreement or upon a mutual written agreement signed by both parties.
13. Background Checks. HackerOne shall maintain processes to determine whether a prospective member of HackerOne's workforce is sufficiently trustworthy to work in an environment which contains HackerOne information systems and Customer's Confidential Information.

14. Change Control Process. HackerOne shall maintain reasonable change control processes to approve and track all changes within HackerOne's computing environment. Substantive changes to the HackerOne production environment require a separate tracking and review process with additional authorizations.
15. Protection of Storage Media. HackerOne shall ensure that storage media containing Customer's Confidential Information is properly sanitized of all Customer's Confidential Information or is destroyed prior to disposal or re-use for non-HackerOne processing. All media on which Customer's Confidential Information is stored shall be protected against unauthorized access or modification. HackerOne shall maintain reasonable and appropriate processes and mechanisms to maintain accountability and tracking of the receipt, removal and transfer of storage media used for HackerOne information systems or on which Customer's Confidential Information is stored.
16. System Accounts. HackerOne shall maintain appropriate processes for requesting, approving, and administering accounts and access privileges for HackerOne information systems and Customer's Confidential Information. HackerOne personnel, who access systems that store, transmit or process Customer's Confidential Information shall be assigned individual system accounts to ensure accountability for access granted. This information is logged and stored in accordance with HackerOne's Data Retention guidelines.
17. Passwords. HackerOne shall implement appropriate password parameters for systems that access, transmit or store Customer's Confidential Information ("Related Systems"). HackerOne shall implement strong authentication services, complex passwords ("Passwords"), and Multi-factor Authentication (where applicable) for all network and systems access to Related Systems. Default manufacturer passwords used in HackerOne's products shall be changed upon installation.
18. Third Parties. HackerOne shall ensure that any agent, including without limitation any third-party subprocessor or subcontractor, to whom HackerOne provides Customer's Confidential Information agrees to maintain reasonable and appropriate safeguards to protect such Customer's Confidential Information.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Haivision (“Manufacturer”) product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America (“Contractor”) to provide Manufacturer’s information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America’s GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the “Schedule Contract”). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the “Manufacturer Specific Terms” or the “Attachment A Terms”) are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ’s jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ)), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer (“Licensee”) is the “Ordering Activity”, defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor’s assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor’s assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ’s jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer’s Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice’s right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

HAIVISION NETWORK VIDEO

HAIVISION NETWORK VIDEO LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

1 DEFINITIONS

1.1. Entitlement. The collective set of applicable documents (e.g., warranty, support and maintenance documents, data sheets, etc.) authorized by Haivision Systems Inc. or its affiliate Haivision (collectively, "Haivision") evidencing your obligation to pay associated fees (if any) for the license, associated Services, and the authorized scope of use of Product under the applicable Ordering Document.

1.2. License Fee. License Fee shall mean the consideration paid to Haivision for use of the Product. The License Fee is part or all of the price paid for the relevant Product in applicable Ordering Document

1.3. Product. Product shall mean the executable version of Haivision's computer software, program or code, in object code format (specifically excluding source code), together with any related material including, but not limited to the hardware, Reference Manuals or database schemas provided for use in connection with the Product and including, without limitation, all Upgrades through the date of installation.

1.4. Reference Manuals. Reference Manuals shall mean the most current version of the documentation for use in connection with the Product provided by Haivision to You.

1.5. Third-Party Content. Services or materials, which are not proprietary to Haivision or may not be part of the materials of the company, entity or individual using the Product.

1.6. Updates. Updates shall mean any periodic software releases, additions, fixes, and enhancements thereto, release notes for the Product and related Reference Manuals, (other than those defined elsewhere in this section as Upgrades) which have no value apart from their operation as part of the Product and which add minor new functions to the Product, but none so significant as to warrant classification as an Upgrade, which may be provided by Haivision to fix critical or non-critical problems in the Product on a scheduled, general release basis. Updates to the Product ("Version") are denoted by number changes to the right of the decimal point for a version and revision number (for example, going from 2.0.0 to 2.1.0).

1.7. Upgrades. Upgrades shall mean any modification to the Product made by Haivision, which are so significant, in Haivision's sole discretion, as to warrant their exclusion under the current license grant for the Product. Upgrades of Product are denoted by number changes to the left of the decimal point for a release number (for example, going from 2.0 to 3.0).

1.8. You (or Your). The ordering activity specified in the Entitlement, or for evaluation purposes, the entity performing the evaluation.

2 RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS

2.1. License to Use. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein and subject to the terms of the applicable Ordering Document, Haivision hereby grants to You a non-exclusive, personal, limited and non-transferable right and license to use the Product in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. This license is granted to You and not, by implication or otherwise, to any parent, subsidiary or affiliate of Yours without Haivision's specific prior written consent. This license is for the limited use of the Product by You for the purpose of creating, managing, distributing and viewing IP Video assets. This license does not grant any license for content whatsoever. All rights not expressly granted to You by this Agreement are reserved by Haivision.

2.2. Restrictions.

(a) Reproduction. You shall not copy, modify, distribute, use or allow access to any of the Product, except as explicitly permitted under this Agreement and only in the quantities designated in the Entitlement. However, You have the right to make copies of the Product solely for archival purposes, but only in quantities necessary and typical for your Organization. You shall not modify, adapt, translate, export, prepare derivative works from, decompile, reverse engineer, disassemble or otherwise attempt to derive source code, hardware designs or other proprietary information from the Product or any internal data files generated by the Product, or use the Product embedded in any third party hardware or software. You shall also not use the Product in an attempt to, or in conjunction with, any device, program or service designed to circumvent technological measures employed to control access to, or the rights in other work protected by copyright laws. You shall not remove, modify, replace or obscure Haivision's copyright and patent notices, trademarks or other proprietary rights notices affixed to or contained within any Product. No right is granted hereunder for any third party who obtains access to any Product through You to use the Product to perform services for third parties. Most sublicensing arrangements are prohibited under this Agreement.

(b) Ownership. The Product is conditionally licensed and not sold. As between the parties, Haivision and/or its licensors owns and shall retain all right, title and interest in and to all of the Product, including all copyrights, patents, trade secret rights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights therein, and nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to transfer to You any ownership or title to the Product. You agree that you will not remove, alter or otherwise obscure any proprietary rights notices appearing in the Product. All Haivision technical data and computer software is commercial in nature and developed solely at private expense.

4 REPRESENTATIONS, DISCLAIMER

4.1. Limited Warranty. Haivision warrants that: (i) the Product will operate substantially in accordance with the Reference Manuals provided and (ii) any media on which the Product is provided will be free of material damage and defects in materials and workmanship under normal use for a term of ninety (90) days (the "Warranty Period") after its delivery date. As Your sole and exclusive remedy for any breach of this warranty, Haivision will use its commercially reasonable efforts to correct any failure of the Product to operate substantially in accordance with the Reference Manuals which is not the result of any improper or unauthorized operation of the Product and that is timely reported by You to Haivision in writing within the Warranty Period, provided that in lieu of initiating commercially reasonable efforts to correct any such breach, Haivision may, in its absolute discretion, either: (i) replace the Product with other software or technology which substantially conforms to the Reference Manuals or (ii) refund to You a portion of the fee paid for the relevant Product, whereupon this Agreement shall terminate. This warranty shall immediately terminate if You or any third party makes or attempts to make any modification of any kind whatsoever to the Product, engages in any improper or unauthorized operation of the Product, including uses prohibited by the Entitlement or installs or uses the Product on or in connection with any hardware or software not specified in the Entitlement or product data sheets.

4.2. Warranty Disclaimers. THE EXPRESS WARRANTIES SET FORTH IN SECTION 4.1 ABOVE IN RESPECT TO THE PRODUCT ARE IN LIEU OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY, REGARDING THE PRODUCT, OR ITS OPERATION, FUNCTIONALITY, PERFORMANCE, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS (ALL OF WHICH ARE DISCLAIMED). HAIVISION DOES NOT WARRANT THAT ANY OF THE PRODUCT(S) WILL MEET ALL OF YOUR NEEDS OR REQUIREMENTS, OR THAT THE USE OF ANY OF THE PRODUCT(S) WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE, OR THAT ALL ERRORS WILL BE DETECTED OR CORRECTED.

4.3. Reserved.

6 OTHER PROVISIONS

6.1. Export and Other Restrictions. This Agreement, and all Your rights and Your obligations under this Agreement, are subject to all applicable U.S. Government laws and regulations relating to exports including, but not limited to, the U.S. Department of Commerce Export Administration Act and its associated Regulations and all administrative acts of the U.S. Government thereunder. In the event the Product or the Hardware is exported from the United States or re-exported from a foreign destination, You shall ensure that the distribution and export/re-export of the Product or the Hardware is in compliance with all laws, regulations, orders, or other restrictions of the U.S. Export Administration Act and its associated Regulations. You agree that neither you nor any of your Affiliates will export/re-export any Product, any hardware on which the Product is loaded or embedded, technical data, process, or service, directly or indirectly, to any country for which the United States government (or any agency thereof) requires an export license, other governmental approval, or letter of assurance, without first obtaining such license, approval or letter.

6.2. Content. Your data and/or your use of the Product may not: (i) interfere in any manner with the functionality or proper working of the Product; (ii) stream any material that is copyrighted, protected by trade secret or otherwise subject to third party proprietary rights, including privacy and publicity rights, unless You are the owner of such rights or have permissions from the rightful owner to post the material; (iii) constitute, promote, facilitate or permit any illegal activities, including without limitation, activities that might be libelous or defamatory, invasive of privacy or publicity rights, abusive or otherwise malicious or harmful to any person or entity; (iv) distribute, share or facilitate unauthorized data, malware, viruses, Trojan horses, spyware, worms or other malicious or harmful distributions; or (v) otherwise violate, misappropriate or infringe the intellectual property, privacy, publicity, contractual or other proprietary rights of any third party.

6.3. Consent to Use Data. You agree that Haivision may collect and use technical data and related information, including but not limited to technical information about Your device, system and application software and peripherals, that is gathered periodically to facilitate the provision of software updates, product support and other services to You (if any) related to the Product. Haivision may use this information, as long as it is in a form that does not personally identify You, to improve its products or to provide services or technologies to You.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Hewlett Packard Enterprises (“Manufacturer”) product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America (“Contractor”) to provide Manufacturer’s information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America’s GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the “Schedule Contract”). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the “Manufacturer Specific Terms” or the “Attachment A Terms”) are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ’s jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer (“Licensee”) is the “Ordering Activity”, defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor’s assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor’s assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

HEWLETT PACKARD ENTERPRISES

HEWLETT PACKARD ENTERPRISES LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

HPE CUSTOMER PASS THROUGH TERMS

HPE's obligations with respect to products or services supplied by HPE and procured by an end-user customer (hereinafter "Customer") from authorized HPE Business Partners are limited to the terms and conditions in these HPE CUSTOMER PASS THROUGH TERMS ("Terms") and the specific Supporting Material included with the HPE supplied products and services. HPE is not responsible for the acts or omissions of HPE Business Partners, for any obligations undertaken by them or representations that they may make, or for any other products or services that they supply to Customer.

Orders. “Order” means the accepted order issued by Customer under the GSA Schedule Contract, including any HPE-branded supporting material which is identified as incorporated either by attachment or reference (“Supporting Material”). Supporting Material may include (as examples) product lists, hardware or software specifications, standard or negotiated service descriptions, data sheets and their supplements and statements of work (SOWs), HPE Care Pack Support Service Agreement, published warranties and service level agreements, and may be available to Customer in hard copy or by accessing a designated HPE website, provided that in the event of inconsistency between the terms of any Supporting Material and the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract (including HPE’s GSA Addendum), the latter shall control to the extent of the inconsistency.

Title. When HPE delivers to Customer directly, risk of loss or damage and title for hardware products will pass upon delivery to Customer or its designee. Where permitted by law, HPE retains a security interest in products sold until full payment is received.

Installation. If HPE is providing installation with the product purchase, HPE’s site guidelines (available upon request) will describe Customer requirements. HPE will conduct its standard installation and test procedures to confirm completion.

Support Services. HPE’s support services will be described in the applicable Supporting Material, which will cover the description of HPE’s offering, eligibility requirements, service limitations and Customer responsibilities, as well as the Customer systems supported.

Software-as-a-Service. HPE’s online software-as-a-service solution that HPE provides to Customer, including support, and related professional services will be described in the Supporting Material (“SaaS”). The SaaS term is specified in the Supporting Material or HPE quotation (the “SaaS Term”). If Customer previously purchased a perpetual license to the on-premise version of the HPE branded software product (“HPE Software”), the price of SaaS shall reflect such purchase and such pre-existing license shall be deemed to be used in relation to SaaS. During the SaaS Term, Customer may not use such HPE Software installed on Customer infrastructure except in connection with receipt of SaaS.

SaaS Rescheduling. Customer has the one-time right to reschedule the Order start date without charge (for a date that is no more than three (3) months after the originally scheduled start date) upon no less than three (3) business days’ written notice prior to the date that delivery is scheduled to begin.

Professional Services. - Reserved

Professional Services Acceptance. - Reserved.

Eligibility. HPE’s service, support and warranty commitments do not cover claims resulting from: improper use, site preparation, or site or environmental conditions or other non-compliance with applicable Supporting Material; modifications or improper system maintenance or calibration not performed by HPE or authorized by HPE; failure or functional limitations of any non-HPE software or product impacting systems receiving HPE support or service; malware (e.g. virus, worm, etc.) not introduced by HPE; or abuse, negligence, accident, fire or water damage, electrical disturbances, transportation by Customer, or other causes beyond HPE’s control.

Dependencies. HPE’s ability to deliver services will depend on Customer’s reasonable and timely cooperation and the accuracy and completeness of any information from Customer needed to deliver the services.

Change Orders. Reserved

Product Performance. All HPE-branded hardware products are covered by HPE’s limited warranty statements that are provided with the products or otherwise made available. Hardware warranties begin on the date of delivery or if applicable, upon completion of HPE installation, or (where Customer delays HPE installation) at the latest 30 days from the date of delivery. Non-HPE branded products receive warranty coverage as provided by the relevant third party supplier.

Software Performance. HPE warrants that its branded software products will conform materially to their specifications and be free of malware at the time of delivery. HPE warranties for software products will begin on the date of delivery and unless otherwise specified in Supporting Material, will last for ninety (90) days. HPE does not warrant that the operation of software products will be uninterrupted or error-free or that software products will operate in hardware and software combinations other than as authorized by HPE in Supporting Material.

Services Performance. Services are performed using generally recognized commercial practices and standards.

SaaS Performance. SaaS is provided consistent with generally recognized practices and standards for software-as-a-service. HPE does not warrant that SaaS will be uninterrupted or error free.

Services with Deliverables. If Supporting Material for services defines specific deliverables, HPE warrants those deliverables will conform materially to their written specifications for 30 days following delivery. If Customer notifies HPE of such non-conformity during the 30 day period, HPE will promptly remedy the impacted deliverables or refund to Customer the fees paid for those deliverables and Customer will return those deliverables to HPE.

SaaS Performance. SaaS is provided consistent with generally recognized practices and standards for software-as-a-service. HPE does not warrant that SaaS will be uninterrupted or error free.

Services with Deliverables. If Supporting Material for services defines specific deliverables, HPE warrants those deliverables will conform materially to their written specifications for 30 days following delivery. If Customer notifies HPE of such non-conformity during the 30 day period, HPE will promptly remedy the impacted deliverables or refund to Customer the fees paid for those deliverables and Customer will return those deliverables to HPE.

Product Warranty Claims. When we receive a valid warranty claim for an HPE hardware or software product, HPE will either repair the relevant defect or replace the product. If HPE is unable to complete the repair or replace the product within a reasonable time, Customer will be entitled to a full refund upon the prompt return of the product to HPE (if hardware) or upon written confirmation by Customer that the relevant software product has been destroyed or permanently disabled. HPE will pay for shipment of repaired or replaced products to Customer and Customer will be responsible for return shipment of the product to HPE.

Remedies. This Agreement states all remedies for warranty claims. To the extent permitted by law, HPE disclaims all other warranties.

Intellectual Property Rights. No transfer of ownership of any intellectual property will occur under these Terms. Customer grants HPE a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free right and license to any intellectual property that is necessary for HPE and its designees to perform the ordered support services. If deliverables are created by HPE specifically for Customer and identified as such in Supporting Material, HPE hereby grants Customer a worldwide, non-exclusive, fully paid, royalty-free license to reproduce and use copies of the deliverable internally.

Intellectual Property Rights Infringement. For Federal government customers, the Government will control litigation or settlement of any patent infringement claims arising out of the performance of this contract and brought against the government notwithstanding anything to the contrary in a "Patent Indemnity" provision of this contract or other related transaction document. HPE reserves the right to intervene in the proceedings at its own expense through counsel of its choice.

License Grant. HPE grants Customer a non-exclusive license to use the version or release of the HPE-branded software listed in the Order. Permitted use is for internal purposes only (and not for further commercialization), and is subject to any specific software licensing information that is in the software product or its Supporting Material.

Updates. Customer may order new software versions, releases or maintenance updates ("Updates"), if available, separately or through an HPE software support agreement. Additional licenses or fees may apply for these Updates or for the use of the software in an upgraded environment. Updates are subject to the license terms in effect at the time that HPE makes them available to Customer.

License Restrictions. HPE may monitor use/license restrictions remotely and, if HPE makes a license management program available, Customer agrees to install and use it within a reasonable period of time. Customer may make a copy or adaptation of a licensed software product only for archival purposes or when it is an essential step in the authorized use of the software. Customer may use this archival copy without paying an additional license only when the primary system is inoperable. Customer may not copy licensed software onto or otherwise use or make it available on any public external distributed network. Licenses that allow use over Customer's intranet require restricted access by authorized users only. Customer will also not modify, reverse engineer, disassemble, decrypt, decompile or make derivative works of any software licensed to Customer under these Terms unless permitted by statute, in which case Customer will provide HPE with reasonably detailed information about those activities.

License Term and Termination. Unless otherwise specified, any license granted is perpetual in the case of a limited-term license, upon expiration, Customer will either destroy all copies of the software or return them to HPE, except that Customer may retain one copy for archival purposes only.

License Transfer. Customer may not sublicense, assign, transfer, rent or lease the software or software license except as permitted by HPE. HPE-branded software licenses are generally transferable subject to HPE's prior written authorization, and payment to HPE of any applicable fees. Upon such transfer, Customer's rights shall terminate and Customer shall transfer all copies of the software to the transferee. Transferee must agree in writing to be bound by the applicable software license terms. Customer may transfer firmware only upon transfer of associated hardware.

License Compliance. HPE may audit Customer compliance with the software license terms. Upon reasonable notice, HPE may conduct an audit during normal business hours (with the auditor's costs being at HPE's expense). If an audit reveals underpayments then Customer will pay to HPE such underpayments. If underpayments discovered exceed five (5) percent of the contract price, Customer will reimburse HPE for the auditor costs.

Confidentiality. Information exchanged under these Terms will be treated as confidential if identified as such at disclosure or if the circumstances of disclosure would reasonably indicate such treatment. Confidential information may only be used for the purpose of fulfilling obligations or exercising rights under these Terms, and shared with employees, agents or contractors with a need to know such information to support that purpose. Confidential information will be protected using a reasonable degree of care to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure for 3 years from the date of receipt or (if longer) for such period as the information remains confidential. These obligations do not cover information that: i) was known or becomes known to the receiving party without obligation of confidentiality; ii) is independently developed by the receiving party; or iii) where disclosure is required by law or a governmental agency.

Personal Information. Each party shall comply with their respective obligations under applicable data protection legislation. HPE does not intend to have access to personally identifiable information ("PII") of Customer in providing services. To the extent HPE has access to Customer PII stored on a system or device of Customer, such access will likely be incidental and Customer will remain the data controller of Customer PII at all times. HPE will use any PII to which it has access strictly for purposes of delivering the services ordered. For SaaS purposes, Customer acknowledges that HPE may route, process or store, and could access business contact information and the data that Customer enters into HPE's SaaS infrastructure, from countries other than the country from which Customer entered such data.

US Federal Government Use. If software is licensed to Customer for use in the performance of a US Government prime contract or subcontract, Customer agrees that consistent with FAR 12.211 and 12.212, commercial computer software, documentation and technical data for commercial items are licensed under HPE's standard commercial license.

Global Trade Compliance. Products and services provided under these Terms are for Customer's internal use and not for further commercialization. If Customer exports, imports or otherwise transfers products and/or deliverables provided under these Terms, Customer will be responsible for complying with applicable laws and regulations and for obtaining any required export or import authorizations. HPE may suspend its performance under these Terms to the extent required by laws applicable to either party.

Limitation of Liability. Reserved

Force Majeure. Neither party will be liable for performance delays nor for non-performance due to causes beyond its reasonable control, except for payment obligations.

General. These Terms represent our entire understanding with respect to its subject matter and supersede any previous communication or agreements that may exist. Modifications to these Terms will be made only through a written amendment signed by HPE and Customer.

Aruba Networks, Inc. End-User Software License Agreement (“Agreement”)

YOU SHOULD CAREFULLY READ THE FOLLOWING TERMS BEFORE INSTALLATION OR USE OF ANY SOFTWARE PROGRAMS FROM ARUBA NETWORKS, INC. AND ITS AFFILIATES OR AIRWAVE WIRELESS (COLLECTIVELY, “ARUBA”). INSTALLATION OR USE OF SUCH SOFTWARE PROGRAMS SHALL BE DEEMED TO CONFIRM YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF THESE TERMS. IF THESE TERMS ARE CONSIDERED AN OFFER, ACCEPTANCE IS EXPRESSLY LIMITED TO THESE TERMS. YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT BEGIN WHEN YOU RECEIVE YOUR LICENSE KEY FROM ARUBA, AND NOT ON THE DATE THAT YOU INSTALL THE SOFTWARE. IT IS UP TO YOU TO INSTALL THE SOFTWARE PROMPTLY UPON RECEIPT OF A LICENSE KEY FROM ARUBA. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE WITH THESE TERMS, YOU MUST PROMPTLY RETURN ALL SUCH SOFTWARE AND HARDWARE PRODUCTS TO ARUBA (OR IF YOU PURCHASED SUCH PRODUCTS FROM A RESELLER, THE RESELLER FROM WHICH YOU PURCHASED SUCH PRODUCTS) AND ANY FEES YOU HAVE PAID FOR SUCH PRODUCTS WILL BE REFUNDED.

1. LICENSE

Subject to your full compliance with all the terms and restrictions set forth in this agreement (“Agreement”), Aruba grants you a non-exclusive, non-transferable (except as expressly permitted below), non-sublicensable license to use the Aruba software programs (“Programs”). Any third party software programs obtained through the use of the Programs are exclusively subject to the terms and conditions accompanying those third party programs (“Third Party Programs”).

The Programs may use certificates, provisioning profiles, keys, and other such authorization and management controls that you provide as part of your use of the Programs (“Controls”). Aruba disclaims any responsibility whatsoever for your usage of such Controls as part of the Program(s) and you agree not to hold Aruba responsible for such usage of such Controls.

2. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

Aruba and its suppliers shall at all times retain title, all ownership rights, and all intellectual property rights in and to the Programs, including any and all rights to error corrections, enhancements, new releases, and other work product that may be created in connection with technical support services that Aruba provides (collectively, “Support Enhancements”). Support Enhancements will be considered Programs for purposes of this Agreement, subject to all of the rights, obligations and restrictions set forth herein. The Programs in source code form remain a confidential trade secret of Aruba and/or its suppliers. The Programs are protected by the copyright and other intellectual property laws of the United States and international treaties. You acknowledge that, in the course of using the Programs, you may obtain or learn information relating to the Programs, which may include, without limitation, information relating to the performance, reliability or stability of the Programs, operation of the Programs, knowhow, techniques, processes, ideas, algorithms, and software design and architecture (“Proprietary Information”). As between the parties, such Proprietary Information shall belong solely to Aruba. During and after the term of this Agreement, you shall hold in confidence and protect, and shall not use (except as expressly authorized by this Agreement) or disclose, Proprietary Information to any third party.

REVISED 04 16 2014

3. RESTRICTIONS ON USE AND TRANSFER

A. Programs from Aruba may be used solely for the internal use and operation of an Aruba network by you or your organization. All Programs may only be run directly on Aruba’s hardware products or an Aruba-provided virtual machine, except that Programs specifically designed by Aruba to operate on third party hardware platforms may be run on such third party hardware platforms. All Programs may be copied solely for installation and back-up purposes in support of your licensed use. You may not modify the Programs in any manner without the prior written approval of Aruba. You may not perform interoperability testing on the Programs without the prior written approval of Aruba. You may physically transfer the base operating system Programs and this Agreement to another party only if (i) all related hardware products are transferred along with the Programs, (ii) the other party accepts the terms and restrictions of this Agreement, (iii) all copies of Programs and related documentation that are not transferred to the other party are destroyed or returned to Aruba, and (iv) you comply with all applicable laws including any import/export control regulations. Separately licensed Programs which have been loaded onto the hardware to add features or enable functions may not be transferred.

B. You shall not (and you shall not permit others to), directly or indirectly, modify, translate, decompile, disassemble, or reverse engineer the Programs (except to the extent applicable laws specifically prohibit such restriction) or any copy, in whole or in part, or otherwise attempt to discover the source code or underlying ideas or algorithms of the Programs; copy (except for the purposes set forth above), rent, lease, distribute, or otherwise transfer rights to the Programs; or remove any proprietary notices or labels on the Programs.

C. You shall not disclose any Proprietary Information, including any information relating to the performance or operation of the Programs (including any benchmarking or other testing results) to any third party without the express prior written consent of Aruba. You may not engage a third party to perform security testing on the Programs unless that third party enters into a written non-disclosure agreement directly with Aruba.

D. You understand and agree that some of the Programs are designed to automatically communicate certain network parameters and other information about the Programs and their performance back to Aruba. Aruba uses this information (a) to monitor the performance of the Programs; (b) to alert You in the event that upgrades or updates are available; and (c) as necessary to comply with Aruba’s legal obligations and to protect Aruba’s legal rights. Aruba will not use any information gathered in this manner for any other purpose.

4. LIMITED WARRANTY AND DISCLAIMER

Aruba warrants to you (and only you) that any media on which the Programs are recorded will be free from defects in materials and workmanship under normal use for a period of ninety (90) days from the date the Programs are delivered to you. If a defect in any such media should occur during this 90-day period, the media may be returned to Aruba (or if you received such Programs from a reseller, to such reseller) and Aruba or the reseller, as applicable, will replace the media without charge to you. Aruba shall have no responsibility to replace media if the failure of media results from accident, abuse or misuse of the media.

ALL THIRD PARTY PROGRAMS ARE PROVIDED AS-IS AND ARUBA EXPLICITLY DISCLAIMS ANY RESPONSIBILITY WHATSOEVER FOR THE PERFORMANCE OR NON-PERFORMANCE OF SUCH THIRD PARTY PROGRAMS.

ARUBA AND ITS SUPPLIERS DO NOT WARRANT THAT THE FUNCTIONS CONTAINED IN THE PROGRAMS WILL MEET YOUR REQUIREMENTS OR THAT THE OPERATION OF THE PROGRAMS WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE.

EXCEPT FOR THE EXPRESS WARRANTY ABOVE, THE PROGRAMS ARE PROVIDED TO YOU WITH NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION,

ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND

NONINFRINGEMENT. THIS LIMITED WARRANTY GIVES YOU SPECIFIC LEGAL RIGHTS, AND YOU MAY ALSO HAVE OTHER RIGHTS WHICH VARY FROM JURISDICTION TO JURISDICTION.

5. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

YOUR EXCLUSIVE REMEDY AND THE ENTIRE LIABILITY OF ARUBA AND ITS SUPPLIERS RELATED TO THE PROGRAMS SHALL BE EXPRESSLY LIMITED TO REPLACEMENT OF MEDIA AS PROVIDED ABOVE. IN NO EVENT WILL ARUBA OR ANYONE ELSE WHO HAS BEEN INVOLVED IN THE CREATION, PRODUCTION, OR DELIVERY OF THE PROGRAMS BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, LOST PROFITS OR LOST DATA, EVEN IF THEY HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

6. TERM

This Agreement is effective until terminated, and shall automatically apply to any future upgrades or updates to any Programs or any additional features of any Program, except as otherwise specified by Aruba. You may terminate this Agreement at any time by destroying all copies of the Programs and related documentation. This Agreement will terminate automatically, with respect to any Program or feature of any Program, at the end of the applicable term of any limited-term license purchased by you, or if you fail to comply with any term or condition of this Agreement, including any failure to pay any associated license and related fees due by you in full and any attempt to transfer a copy of the Programs to another party except as provided in this Agreement. You agree that upon such termination, you will destroy all copies of the Programs and related documentation.

7. U.S. GOVERNMENT

RESTRICTED RIGHTS

If you are acquiring the Programs on behalf of the U.S. Government, the following provisions apply: (i) if the Programs are supplied to the Department of Defense or any related agency of service, the Programs are subject to "restricted rights" as that term is defined in Defense Federal Acquisition Regulations ("DFAR") in Section 252.227-7013(c)(1); and (ii) if the Programs are supplied to any other unit or agency of the United States Government, the Programs are considered "restricted computer software" and the Government's rights in the Programs are set forth in the Federal Acquisition Regulations ("FAR") in Section 52.227-19(c)(2). Use, duplication or disclosure by the Government is subject to the restrictions set forth in such sections. You represent that you are not acquiring the Programs on behalf of a government other than the U.S. Government.

8. GENERAL

You acknowledge that you have read this Agreement, understand it and agree to be bound by its terms and restrictions. You further agree that this license is the complete and exclusive statement of your agreement with Aruba and supersedes any proposal or prior agreement, oral or written, and any other communications relating to the subject matter of this license. This Agreement may only be modified in writing. Any waivers and amendments of this Agreement or any of its terms shall be effective only if made by nonpreprinted agreements clearly understood by both parties to be an amendment or waiver. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the state of California, USA as if made and entered into in that state by two residents thereof and without regard to the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods.

If you are located in the People's Republic of China, all disputes arising from or relating to the subject matter of this Agreement must be resolved in Hong Kong by the Hong Kong

International Arbitration Centre pursuant to its rules of arbitration then in effect, and the arbitration shall be conducted in English. If you are located outside of the People's Republic of China, all disputes arising from or relating to the subject matter of this Agreement shall be resolved by and you hereby consent to binding arbitration conducted in the English language in San Francisco, California, USA pursuant to California law and the rules of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Service (JAMS.) Judgment upon any award so rendered may be entered in any court having jurisdiction or application may be made to such court for judicial acceptance of any award and an order of enforcement, as the case may be.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, each party shall have the right at any time to seek injunctive or other forms of equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, that provision shall be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement shall otherwise remain in full force and effect and enforceable.

HITACHI VANTARA FEDERAL CORPORATION END USER LICENSE AND SERVICES AGREEMENT

SOFTWARE LICENSE TERMS

Unless otherwise provided for in a current signed agreement between Ordering Activity and Hitachi Data Systems Federal Corporation, located at 11921 Freedom Drive, Suite 900, Reston, VA 20190 (“HDS FED”), these Software License Terms (“Software License Terms”) apply to the HDS FED products purchased by Ordering Activity (“Software”). Ordering Activity must read these Software License Terms under which HDS FED will license Software to Ordering Activity. Capitalized terms will have the meanings indicated in Section 15 below.

SOFTWARE LICENSE TERMS

1. License Grant Except as otherwise expressly provided, HDS FED grants Ordering Activity a non-transferable, nonexclusive license:

to Use the Operating Software solely on the HDS FED Equipment with which it is shipped, to enable the Equipment to function; and to Use the Programs solely for Ordering Activity’s internal needs subject to the restrictions specified on any Equipment used in connection with the Programs. For capacity-based Programs, Ordering Activity will Use the Programs up to the specified capacity purchased, on the relevant equipment, network, device or CPU allowed. If Ordering Activity wishes to exceed capacity, Ordering Activity must first execute a new or modified GSA Customer Purchase Order.

Ordering Activity obtains no title or ownership in any Software nor does Ordering Activity obtain any right to sublicense the Software. The Software may be used only as provided in either machine-readable object code form or machine-compressed form, and the related documentation may be used only in printed or electronic form.

Open Source Software. Some Software licensed to Ordering Activity includes Open Source Software, and Ordering Activity can access a complete list of these licenses for the Open Source Software provided with HDS FED’s or Hitachi Ltd.’s proprietary Software from the Open Source License Website. HDS FED is required to notify the Ordering Activity of the foregoing and it is Ordering Activity’s responsibility to review and adhere to all licenses for Open Source Software. These Software License terms do not apply to the licenses for Open Source Software. If the Software licensed by HDS FED includes certain software licensed under the GNU General Public License or other similar Open Source Software with a license that requires the licensor to make the source code publicly available (“GPL Software”) and the applicable source code was not included in the Software, then Ordering Activity may obtain a copy of the applicable source code for the GPL Software by either (a) requesting the open source code be mailed to Ordering Activity by HDS FED or (b) downloading the open source code by following the links on the Open Source License Website.

Use Restrictions. Except to the extent these restrictions are prohibited by applicable federal law or prohibited by the terms of any open source license, Ordering Activity must not, and must not allow any other person to: (a) use the Software to conduct comparative or competitive analyses, including benchmarking; (b) reverse engineer, decompile, reverse compile, reduce in human readable form or otherwise access the source code of the Software (c) sublicense, rent, lease, modify, enhance, supplement, create derivative works from the Software; (d) copy the Software other than as expressly allowed; (e) remove or otherwise tamper with any proprietary notices contained on or in the Software; or (f) use or permit the Software to be used to perform services for third parties, whether on a service bureau or time sharing basis or otherwise, without our express written authorization.

Authorized Copies HDS FED will provide Ordering Activity with one copy of the media and documentation for the Software. For Software licensed under an enterprise license, HDS FED grants to Ordering Activity the right to make copies of the Software solely for Ordering Activity’s own internal use, within the scope of the enterprise license. Ordering Activity may also make one copy of back-up or archival copies of Software solely for Ordering Activity’s own internal use. Ordering Activity must reproduce on all copies made, all proprietary and copyright notices contained on or in the Software.

Software Transfers Except to the extent otherwise provided in any applicable open source license, Ordering Activity must not transfer the Software to any other person or entity, without HDS FED’s prior written consent. Ordering Activity may, however, transfer the Operating Software to a third party (“transferee”) solely with the related HDS FED Equipment, but Ordering Activity must ensure that the transferee agrees to the terms of this Agreement. The Operating Software is provided to the transferee on an “as is” basis, with no extension of any existing warranty or support arrangements. When the transfer is complete, Ordering Activity must remove and destroy all copies of the Operating Software in Ordering Activity’s possession or under Ordering Activity control. Ordering Activity must also permanently remove all Software from any media upon which it is stored prior to disposing of the media.

Location of Software If the Equipment upon which Ordering Activity is authorized to Use the Software becomes temporarily inoperable, Ordering Activity may load and use the Software on another of Ordering Activity’s computer systems located at the same premises, until the original Equipment becomes operable. Otherwise, Ordering Activity must always get HDS FED’s prior written consent before changing the Equipment on which the Software is to be used, or its location.

Limited Warranty Subject to this Section 7, HDS FED warrants to Ordering Activity that, during the Warranty Period, the Software will function in accordance with the Published Specifications. To make a valid warranty claim, Ordering Activity must submit a claim to HDS FED under the procedures set out at http://www.hds.com/pdf/warranty\_and\_basic\_maintenance\_online\_terms.pdf.

EXCEPT AS SPECIFIED IN THESE SOFTWARE LICENSE TERMS, ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED CONDITIONS, REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OR CONDITION OF MERCHANTABILITY, SATISFACTORY QUALITY, OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NONINFRINGEMENT ARE EXCLUDED TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY FEDERAL LAW. HDS FED DOES NOT WARRANT THAT ANY SOFTWARE WILL OPERATE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR FREE.

Ownership and Licenses HDS FED and its licensors own all copyright, trademarks, designs, patents, circuit layout rights, know-how, trade secrets, trade, business or company names, domain names and related registration rights and all other intellectual property rights in the Software, including any modifications (“Hitachi IP”). Hitachi IP is protected by U.S. and other copyright laws and the laws protecting trade secret, other intellectual property rights and confidential information. Ordering Activity only gets license rights in Software, expressly stated in these Software License Terms. Except as otherwise expressly provided by any open source license, Ordering Activity must not do anything to jeopardize HDS FED's or our licensors' rights in the Hitachi IP including to (i) copy, modify, merge, or transmit Hitachi IP; (ii) register or attempt to register any competing intellectual property rights to the Hitachi IP; (iii) delete or tamper with any proprietary notices on or in the Hitachi IP, (iv) take or use any action that diminishes the value of any trademarks included in the Hitachi IP, or (v) use the Software in violation of applicable law. These restrictions are in addition to those stated in Article 3.

Intellectual Property Claims Subject to Section 8 and the exceptions in this Section, if a third party makes a claim against Ordering Activity that the Software infringes that party's patent rights or copyright ("IP Claim"), HDS FED will provide the following recourse (which, to the extent permitted by applicable law, comprises Ordering Activity's sole and exclusive remedy against Us for IP Claims):

HDS FED will indemnify Ordering Activity against liability and will pay the amount of damages, losses and costs finally awarded (or reasonably settled with our written consent), provided that Ordering Activity (i) promptly notifies HDS FED of the IP Claim and (ii) allows HDS FED to intervene in any litigation, at HDS FED's expense and with counsel of our choice ;

HDS FED will, at its option and cost, do any of the following in relation to Software which is or HDS FED considers is likely to be the subject of an IP Claim: (i) work with the Government to secure the rights for Ordering Activity to continue to use the Software without infringement or (ii) modify the Software so that it is not infringing or replace it with something that has similar functionality to the Software. If neither option is reasonably possible, HDS FED will provide Ordering Activity with a refund, provided that Ordering Activity promptly returns the Software to HDS FED.

The above remedies will not apply to any Third Party Software (including without limitation any Open Source Software) or otherwise to any Software that Ordering Activity has, or any person on Ordering Activity's behalf has: (i) modified or combined with any third party product not resold and authorized or approved by HDS FED, (ii) used outside the stated standard operating environment for the Software or for an unauthorized purpose, or (iii) failed to use a more recent version of the Software that was available to Ordering Activity and would have avoided the infringement or where the IP Claim arises due to any material or item that Ordering Activity owns or has sourced from a third party itself. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516.

Liability Limitations. HDS FED acknowledges the full extent of its liability arising from death or personal injury resulting from negligent acts or omissions; the nonexcludable statutory rights of consumers (for example, under laws providing for strict product liability), the breach of any obligation of confidence, and our breaches of these Software License Terms. Except for the immediately preceding sentence, indemnity obligations as described in Section 9 and to the extent not prohibited by applicable law:

HDS FED's and Ordering Activity's maximum aggregate liability for all claims relating to all Software licensed to Ordering Activity under these Software License Terms, whether for breach of contract, breach of warranty or in tort, including negligence, will be limited to the amount paid for the particular Software which is the subject matter of the claim, up to a maximum of two million US dollars (U.S.

$2,000,000); and neither Ordering Activity nor HDS FED will be liable for any indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages in connection with or arising out of the Software License Terms (including, without limitation, loss of business, revenue, profits, goodwill, use, data, or other economic advantage), however they arise, whether in breach of contract, breach of warranty or in tort, including negligence, and even if that party has previously been advised of the possibility of such damages. The foregoing exclusions/limitations of liability shall not apply (1) to personal injury or death caused by HDS FED's negligence; (2) to HDS Fed violations that are finally decided by a court of competent jurisdiction as constituting a false claim pursuant to the False Claims Act at 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729 - 3733; or (3) express remedies provided under any FAR, GSAR or Schedule 70 solicitation clauses incorporated into the GSA Schedule 70 contract (4) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law.

Confidential Information. Each party must keep each other's Confidential Information confidential, using the same degree of care used to protect our own Confidential Information. Each party shall not disclose the other party's Confidential Information to any third party, unless authorized in writing to do so. We can, however, disclose it to our employees and contractors who need to know the information in order to perform obligations under these Software License Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither these Software License Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bona fide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Agreement.

Export Compliance. Ordering Activity acknowledges that United States laws and regulations regulate the export of computer products and technology and may prohibit use, sale or re-export of such products or technology. If Ordering Activity sells or transfers to another person or entity or the right to use any Software, Ordering Activity will ensure that all applicable U.S. export restrictions are observed.

Governing Law. These Software License Terms will be governed by the Federal laws of the United States.

Miscellaneous. Pursuant to FAR 52.212-4(f), neither party will be responsible for any failure to meet any of our obligations due to matters beyond our reasonable control provided reasonable efforts have been made to perform them. Ordering activity must not assign, or otherwise transfer any of Ordering Activity's rights under these Software License Terms without HDS FED's prior written agreement. Assignment by HDS FED is subject to FAR 52.232-23 "Assignment of Claims" (Jan. 1986) and FAR subpart 42.12 "Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements" (Sep. 2013). Notices made under these Software License Terms must be in writing to a senior executive. Notices will be deemed given: where they are hand delivered, when a duly authorized employee or representative of the recipient gives written acknowledgement of receipt; for email communication, at the time the communication enters into the information system of the recipient; for posting, three days after dispatch and for fax, on receipted transmission of the fax. If either party fails to promptly exercise any contractual right, this does not of itself mean that the right has been waived. For a waiver of a right to be valid, it must be written and signed by the waiving party. Any such waiver shall not give rise to an ongoing waiver or any expectation that the right will not be enforced, unless it is expressly stated to do so. These Software License Terms may not be modified except in writing signed by an authorized representative of each party. These Software License Terms, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, the Schedule Price List and any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders constitute the entire agreement relating to its subject matter and supersede any prior written or oral communications.

Definitions.

Confidential Information: information that, at the time of disclosure, is clearly marked as confidential or in the circumstances would be considered to be confidential, and is exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5.U.S.C. §552(b), under one or more exemptions to that Act.

Equipment: hardware and spare parts manufactured by HDS FED or Hitachi Ltd., or that HDS FED has authorized Ordering Activity to use with the Software.

Open Source License Website: the licenses applicable to Open Source Software listed at www.hds.com/corporate/legal/index.html. [This reference is included for attribution purposes, as required by the applicable Open Source Software license(s)]. Open Source Software:

Third party software, which may be available without charge for use, modification or distribution. and generally licensed under the GNU GPL, Lesser General Public License, Apache or other open source software license.

Published Specifications: the published Software specifications existing at the time Ordering Activity ordered Software from HDS FED. These are located at hds.com and may also be included with the products.

Software: the object code format of (i) programming firmware embedded in the Equipment to enable it to perform its basic functions (“Operating Software”) and (ii) software programs supplied by us (“Programs”) and (iii) any updates, related documentation and specifications. Software may include Open Source Software.

Use: to use Software in live production for processing data.

Warranty Period: means the ninety-day period following delivery of the Software.

Ordering Activity: end user of the Software.

IDAPTIVE END USER LICENSE AND SERVICES AGREEMENT

THIS END USER LICENSE AND SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") constitutes a legal agreement between you, the undersigned Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts ("Customer" or "Ordering Activity") and IDaptive, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("IDaptive"), with respect to the Cloud Service identified below. If Customer does not agree to the terms of this Agreement, IDaptive is unwilling to grant Customer any rights to use the Cloud Service. In such event, Customer may not use the Cloud Service, and Customer should promptly cease use of the Cloud Service and accompanying Documentation.

The terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and in any Schedule issued under this Agreement shall control in the event that there are different, inconsistent or additional terms set forth in any other purchase order submitted by Customer or invoice issued by IDaptive. The terms and conditions of any Schedule shall incorporate the terms and conditions of this Agreement and shall have precedence over any conflicting terms and conditions contained in this Agreement. A negotiated Government Purchase Order, signed by both parties, shall supersede the terms of the Agreement.

1. DEFINITIONS

- 1.1. "Affiliate" means any entity that, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with a party to this Agreement, by way of majority voting stock ownership or the ability to otherwise direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of such party. Customer shall notify IDaptive in writing of the identity of its Affiliates and shall be jointly and severally liable for such Affiliate's performance of its obligations under this Agreement.
- 1.2. "Claim" shall have the meaning given to such term in Section 5.1.
- 1.3. "Cloud Service" means any on-line software service operated by IDaptive and accessible to Customer via the internet, specified on a Schedule.
- 1.4. "Cloud Service Addendum" means the Cloud Service Addendum attached hereto as Exhibit A, initially as in effect on the Delivery Date and as such document may be modified from time to time thereafter in accordance with its terms.
- 1.5. "Compute Hour" means access to the Cloud Service for a period of one hour. Any partial hour will be rounded up to the next full hour.
- 1.6. "Confidential Information" shall have the meaning given to such term in Section 10.1.
- 1.7. "Consulting Fees" means the fees charged to Customer by IDaptive for Consulting Services.
- 1.8. "Consulting Materials" shall have the meaning given to such term in Section 3.1.
- 1.9. "Consulting Services" means installation, consulting, implementation or training services, if any, provided to Customer by IDaptive or its representative under this Agreement.
- 1.10. "Delivery Date" means the date on which the notification of the start of the Cloud Service ordered under a Schedule is electronically sent by IDaptive to Customer.
- 1.11. "Distributor" means any independent value added distributor (VAD) authorized by IDaptive to distribute IDaptive software and/or services to Resellers only, unless otherwise provided for in the applicable distribution agreement.
- 1.12. "Documentation" means IDaptive's end user documentation made generally available by IDaptive for use with the Cloud Service, whether published on-line or provided in hard copy. Documentation shall include any revisions, enhancements and new versions of Documentation.
- 1.13. "IDaptive" means IDaptive, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, or a subsidiary of IDaptive, LLC that provides the Cloud Service or Consulting Services to Customer under this Agreement, as the context requires.
- 1.14. "Jump Start Service" means a set of pre-packaged services offered by IDaptive that includes training, on-site fixed deliverables and travel costs for a fixed price. The details of these offerings will be provided in a Statement of Work, if applicable.
- 1.15. "Local Software Components" means the downloadable software components necessary to utilize certain functionality of the Cloud Service that Customer may install on devices such as phones, tablets, PCs or Macs and any revisions, enhancements and new versions of such software components, made generally available by IDaptive for use with the Cloud Service, in each case in its machine-readable object code form.
- 1.16. "Project Authorization" shall have the meaning given to such term in Section 3.1.
- 1.17. "Reseller" means any independent value added reseller (VAR) authorized by IDaptive to distribute IDaptive software and/or services to Customer.
- 1.18. "Schedule" means any addendum, exhibit, quote, schedule or Statement of Work to this Agreement in a form approved by IDaptive.
- 1.19. "Statement of Work" shall have the meaning given to such term in Section 3.1.
- 1.20. "Subscription Fee" means the fee charged to Customer by IDaptive for the Cloud Service (including Technical Support) either for the Subscription Term or for the number of Compute Hours purchased. If Customer purchases the Cloud Service from a Reseller, Customer may pay the Subscription Fee to the Reseller and not to IDaptive directly.
- 1.21. "Subscription Term" means the period during which Customer is subscribed to the Cloud Service as set forth on an applicable Schedule.

1.22. “Technical Support” means the services provided by Idaptive or its representative with each subscription at the level set forth on an applicable Schedule under the Idaptive Technical Support Policy posted at <https://support.idaptive.com>, as such document may be modified from time to time.

1.23. “Third Party Software” means any software that is not owned by Idaptive that is identified in the Documentation or on www.idaptive.com and related Idaptive websites and user portals.

1.24. “User” means an employee, contractor, client or customer of Customer to whom Customer provides access to the Cloud Service, the number or other limitations of which are set forth on an applicable Schedule.

1.25. “User Account” means electronic credentials a User uses to access to the Cloud Service.

SUBSCRIPTION & LICENSE

Cloud Service. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Cloud Service Addendum and Customer’s payment of the applicable Subscription Fee, Idaptive grants Customer a worldwide, non-exclusive, non-transferable right, without the right to sublicense and (except as otherwise provided on a Schedule) solely for its own business operations to use the Cloud Service to manage the number of devices for which Customer has subscribed, and have the number of Users for which Customer has subscribed use the Cloud Service in accordance with the terms of the Documentation and this Agreement. The term of such license shall be the Subscription Term or the number of Compute Hours purchased by Customer.

SAP Online Marketplaces. The terms of this paragraph shall apply to the Cloud Service purchased on SAP Online Marketplaces. Idaptive and Customer acknowledge that Idaptive is solely responsible for providing the Cloud Service and Technical Support services as set forth herein and SAP has no obligation to furnish any such services to Customer. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, SAP will have no warranty obligation to Customer with respect to the Cloud Service and any claims, losses, liabilities, damages, costs or expenses attributable to any failure to conform to the warranties set forth in this Agreement shall be Idaptive’s sole responsibility. Idaptive and Customer acknowledge that Idaptive, not SAP, is responsible for addressing any claims of Customer or any third party relating to the Cloud Service or Customer’s possession and/or use of the Cloud Service. In the event of any third party claim that the Cloud Service infringes the third party’s intellectual property rights, Idaptive and Customer acknowledge that Idaptive, not SAP, will be solely responsible for the investigation, defense, settlement and discharge of any such infringement claim subject to Section 5 of this Agreement.

Local Software Components. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and payment of the applicable Subscription Fee, Idaptive grants Customer a worldwide, non-exclusive, non-transferable license, without the right to sublicense and (except as otherwise provided on a Schedule) solely for its own business operations, to install on and use the Local Software Components to manage the number of devices for which Customer has subscribed, and have the number of Users for which Customer has subscribed use the Local Software Components in accordance with the terms of the Documentation and this Agreement. The term of such license shall be the Subscription Term or the number of Compute Hours purchased by Customer. Customer may reproduce the Local Software Components and Documentation only as necessary to use the Cloud Service. Customer shall ensure that each copy contains all titles, trademarks, and copyright and restricted rights notices as in the original. Customer shall implement all commercially reasonable measures to ensure that its Users comply with the restrictions and limitations of this Agreement.

Evaluation Use License. In the event that the Cloud Service is licensed only for evaluation use, the terms of this paragraph shall apply. Idaptive hereby grants Customer a personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable license, without right of sublicense, to use the Cloud Service commencing upon initial use of the Cloud Service and, unless Customer and Idaptive agree to a different period, will terminate after a period of thirty (30) days (the “Evaluation Period”). Customer may use the Cloud Service for an unlimited number of Users and devices during the Evaluation Period. Cloud Service licensed for evaluation use will automatically disable itself at the end of the Evaluation Period, as it employs a restriction mechanism which restricts the program to a limited working period of time. This restriction mechanism and the manner in which it enforces the restriction is maintained in confidence by Idaptive as a trade secret, and Customer may not publish, disclose or reveal it. Customer agrees not to do anything to circumvent or defeat the restriction mechanism. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Sections 5 (Intellectual Property Indemnity), 7.1 (Cloud Service Warranty) and 7.2 (Consulting Services Warranty) shall not apply to evaluation use.

Restrictions. The rights granted in Section 2.1 through 2.3 are subject to the following restrictions: (i) Customer shall not reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile or otherwise attempt to derive or discover the source code of the Local Software Components or the Cloud Service, in whole or in part, except and only to the extent that it is expressly permitted by applicable law notwithstanding this limitation; (ii) Customer shall not sublicense or use the Cloud Service for commercial time-sharing, rental, outsourcing, application or managed service provision, or service bureau use, or to train persons other than Users, unless previously agreed to in writing by Idaptive; (iii) Customer may not remove any patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret or other proprietary notices or labels on the Cloud Service, Local Software Components or Documentation, (iv) Customer shall not disclose the results of any performance, functional or other evaluation or benchmarking of the Cloud Service to any third party without the prior written permission of Idaptive; (v) Customer may not use the Cloud Service if Customer is a competitor of Idaptive; (vi) Customer shall not modify or create any derivative works of the Cloud Service, Local Software Components or Documentation; and (vii) Customer shall not attempt to gain unauthorized access to, or disrupt the integrity or performance of, the Cloud Service or the data contained therein. In the event that any Third Party Software is required for Customer’s use of the Cloud Service, e.g., GoogleMaps for location services, Customer acknowledges that the terms of use applicable to such Third Party Software are different than those of this Agreement.

Retention of Rights. Idaptive reserves all rights not expressly granted to Customer in this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Customer acknowledges and agrees (i) that Idaptive and its third party licensors retain all rights, title and interest in and to the Cloud Service, Local Software Components and Documentation and (ii) that it does not acquire any rights, express or implied, in or to the foregoing, except as specifically set forth in this Agreement. Any new features, functionality, corrections or enhancements for the Cloud Service or Local Software Components suggested by Customer shall be free from any confidentiality restrictions that might otherwise be imposed upon Idaptive pursuant to Section 10, and may be incorporated into the Cloud Service or Local Software Components by Idaptive. Customer acknowledges that the Cloud Service or Local Software Components incorporating any such new features, functionality, corrections or enhancements shall be the sole and exclusive property of Idaptive.

Compute Hour Usage Certification. The Cloud Service includes functionality that allows Customer to run a report to show the number of Compute Hours used by Customer during a specified period of time. If Customer has subscribed for Compute Hours, Customer will either permit the Cloud Service to automatically send a Compute Hour usage report or provide Idaptive with a Compute Hour usage report within fifteen (15) business days of the end of each calendar quarter. If the report reveals that Customer has used more Compute Hours than Customer has subscribed for, Idaptive shall invoice Customer for the excess Compute Hours used.

CONSULTING SERVICES

Consulting Services. From time to time, Customer may request, through provision of an executed project authorization in the form required by Idaptive, that Idaptive, or its duly authorized representative perform Consulting Services (a Government purchase order, "Statement of Work" or "Quotation" or, each and collectively, "Project Authorization"). Idaptive shall have no obligation to perform Consulting Services until and unless it accepts a Project Authorization. Customer shall be responsible for providing Idaptive's representatives with access to qualified Customer employees and Customer-controlled software and hardware, and safe access to Customer's premises, each as required to allow Idaptive to perform the Consulting Services. Idaptive's representatives will comply with Government security requirements, including reasonable written rules and regulations of Customer with respect to Customer's premises, provided that such rules and regulations are provided to Idaptive sufficiently in advance of the scheduled start date of the Consulting Services. All materials and information used or generated by Idaptive in the performance of Consulting Services ("Consulting Materials"), and all intellectual property rights therein, shall be the sole property of Idaptive. Idaptive grants to Customer a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, non-transferable license, without the right to sublicense and solely for its own business operations, to use and have Users use the Consulting Materials provided to Customer under this Agreement, subject to all of the provisions of this Agreement governing Local Software Components and Documentation, as applicable, and any applicable Schedules. The rights to any of Customer's preexisting proprietary business information, or results of any compilation thereof, which are used in or result from Consulting Services and Consulting Materials, shall remain the sole property of Customer.

3.2. Cancellation. In the event that Idaptive notifies Customer of Customer's failure to perform any of its obligations under a Statement of Work, which failure shall have prevented Idaptive from meeting any deadline, such deadline shall be extended by an amount of time equal to the length of such failure to perform on the part of Customer. Idaptive shall have the right to charge Customer at Idaptive's then applicable daily rates, in accordance with the GSA Schedule pricelist, to the extent that such delays cause Idaptive to provide additional services or to spend additional time on the project. In the case of extended delays as to which Customer provides reasonable advance written notice regarding the expected duration of the delay, Idaptive shall make a good faith effort to redeploy its resources to other projects to mitigate such additional charges. Idaptive shall have the right to rely upon all decisions and approvals of Customer's contracting officer.

TERM AND TERMINATION

Term. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the Delivery Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4. Upon expiration or termination of the then-current Subscription Term, Customer's subscription may be renewed for an additional year by issuing a new purchase order.

Reserved.

Reserved.

Reserved.

Effect of Termination. Except as otherwise set forth herein, termination of this Agreement, any subscription, any Schedule or any Project Authorization shall not limit either party from pursuing other remedies available to it, nor shall such termination relieve Customer of its obligation to pay all fees that have accrued or are otherwise owed by Customer under any Schedule. The parties' rights and obligations under Sections 2.5 (Restrictions), 2.6 (Retention of Rights), 2.7 (Compute Hour Usage Certification), 4.5 (Effect of Termination), 4.6 (Handling of Software and Confidential Information Upon Termination), 7.3 (Disclaimers), 10 (Nondisclosure) and 11 (Miscellaneous), as well as any obligation to pay fees accrued prior to termination, shall survive termination of this Agreement.

Handling of Software and Confidential Information Upon Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement, any subscription, any Schedule or any Project Authorization, Customer shall (i) cease using the applicable Cloud Service, Local Software Components and Documentation and related Confidential Information of Idaptive, and (ii) certify to Idaptive within thirty (30) days after termination that Customer has destroyed, or has returned to Idaptive, the Local Software Components, Documentation, related Confidential Information of Idaptive, and all copies thereof, whether or not modified or merged into other materials. Following termination of this Agreement, and subject to the Cloud Service Addendum, each party will return or destroy the other party's Confidential Information and within thirty (30) days following the other party's written request, the other party shall certify to the requesting party that it has destroyed or returned to the requesting party all Confidential Information of the requesting party, and all copies thereof, whether or not modified or merged into other materials.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INDEMNITY

5.1. Generally. Idaptive will defend, indemnify and hold Customer harmless against any claim brought by a third party to the extent it alleges that the Cloud Service directly infringes any United States patent, copyright or trademark, or misappropriates any trade secret, of that third party ("Claim"), and will pay all costs, damages and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) finally awarded against Customer by a court of competent jurisdiction or agreed to in a written settlement agreement signed by Idaptive arising out of such Claim; provided that: (i) Customer gives Idaptive prompt written notice upon learning of a Claim or potential Claim; (ii) Idaptive may assume control of the defense of such Claim and all related settlement negotiations; and (iii) Customer reasonably cooperates with Idaptive, at Idaptive's request and expense, in the defense or settlement of the Claim, including the provision of all assistance, information and authority reasonably requested by Idaptive. In no event shall Idaptive enter into any settlement or agree to any disposition, without the prior written consent of Customer, that contains an admission of liability or wrongdoing on the part of Customer, or otherwise prejudices the rights of Customer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Idaptive shall have no liability for any claim of infringement based on (a) the modification of the Cloud Service by anyone other than Idaptive or its agents, (b) the use of the Cloud Service other than in accordance with the Documentation and this Agreement, (c) the combination of the Cloud Service with other software or hardware not provided by Idaptive, where the combination causes the infringement and not the Cloud Service standing alone, or (d) subscriptions for no fee, including a trial, beta or evaluation license agreement. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or suit brought against the U.S. pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516.

Additional Remedies. If the Cloud Service, or any material portion thereof, is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to infringe, or if Idaptive believes that the Cloud Service may be subject to a Claim or held to infringe, Idaptive shall in its commercially reasonable judgment and at its expense (a) replace or modify the Cloud Service so as to be non-infringing, provided that the replacement software or service contains substantially similar functionality; or (b) obtain for Customer the rights to continue using the Cloud Service; or (c) if non-infringing software or the rights to use the Cloud Service cannot be obtained upon commercially reasonable terms, terminate the then-current subscription. Upon any such termination of the then-current subscription, Idaptive shall refund any prepaid and unused amounts paid for the then-current subscription. This Section 5.2 shall not apply to subscriptions for no fee, including a trial, beta or evaluation license agreement.

Exclusive Remedy. This Section 5 sets forth Customer's exclusive remedy, and Idaptive's entire liability, with respect to infringement or misappropriation of intellectual property rights of any kind arising out of this Agreement.

7. WARRANTIES AND REMEDIES

7.1. Cloud Service Warranty. Idaptive warrants to Customer that, during the Subscription Term, the Cloud Service will perform in material conformity with the functions described in the applicable Documentation. Such warranty period shall not apply to subscriptions for no fee. Idaptive will use commercially reasonable efforts to remedy any material non-conformity with respect to the Cloud Service at no additional charge to Customer. In the event Idaptive is unable to remedy the non-conformity and such non-conformity materially affects the functionality of the Cloud Service, Customer may promptly terminate the applicable subscription. In the event Customer terminates its subscription pursuant to this Section 7.1, Customer will receive a refund of any prepaid and unused portion of the Subscription Fee. The foregoing shall constitute the exclusive remedy of Customer, and Idaptive's entire liability, with respect to any breach of this Section 7.1.

7.2. Consulting Services Warranty. Idaptive warrants to Customer that the Consulting Services provided by Idaptive will be performed in a professional manner and in accordance with generally prevailing industry standards. Customer must give notice of any breach of this warranty within thirty (30) days from the date that the Consulting Services are completed, as provided in the Project Authorization applicable to the Consulting Services engagement. In such event, at Idaptive's option, Idaptive shall (a) use commercially reasonable efforts to re-perform the Consulting Services in a manner that conforms to the warranty, or (b) refund to Customer the fees paid by Customer to Idaptive for the non-conforming Consulting Services. The foregoing shall constitute the exclusive remedy of Customer, and Idaptive's entire liability, with respect to any breach of this Section 7.2.

7.3. Disclaimers. Idaptive does not warrant that (i) the Cloud Service will meet Customer's requirements, (ii) the Cloud Service will operate in combination with other hardware, software, systems or data not provided by Idaptive (except as expressly specified in the Documentation), (iii) the operation of the Cloud Service will be secure, timely, uninterrupted or error-free, or (iv) all errors in the Cloud Service will be corrected. THE WARRANTIES STATED IN THIS SECTION 7 ARE EXCLUSIVE AND IN LIEU OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT AND QUALITY OF SERVICE. NO WARRANTIES SHALL ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FROM COURSE OF DEALING OR USAGE OF TRADE.

10. NONDISCLOSURE

10.1. Confidential Information. Each party may have access to information of the other party that is confidential and/or proprietary ("Confidential Information"). Confidential Information shall include any information that is clearly identified in writing at the time of disclosure as confidential as well as any information that, based on the circumstances under which it was disclosed, a reasonable person would believe to be confidential (whether disclosed in writing, orally or by inspection of tangible objects). Idaptive's Confidential Information shall include, but not be limited to, the Cloud Service, Local Software Components, Documentation, formulas, methods, know how, processes, designs, new products, developmental work, marketing requirements, marketing plans, customer names, prospective customer names, and the results of any comparative or other benchmarking tests with respect to the Cloud Service, in each case regardless of whether such information is identified as confidential. Confidential Information includes all information received from third parties that either party is obligated to treat as confidential and oral information that is identified by either party as confidential.

10.2. Exceptions. A party's Confidential Information shall not include information that (i) is or becomes a part of the public domain through no act or omission of the other party; (ii) was in the other party's lawful possession prior to the disclosure and had not been obtained by the other party either directly or indirectly from the disclosing party; (iii) is lawfully disclosed to the other party by a third party without restriction on disclosure; or (iv) is independently developed by the other party without use of or reference to the other party's Confidential Information. In addition, Section 10 will not be construed to prohibit disclosure of Confidential Information to the extent that such disclosure is required to by law or valid order of a court or other governmental authority; provided, however, that the responding party shall first have given notice to the other party to enable the disclosing party to seek a protective order or take other appropriate action.

10.3. Restrictions. Unless otherwise required by applicable law, the parties shall not make each other's Confidential Information available in any form to any third party (except third parties who are Users) or use each other's Confidential Information for any purpose other than as authorized under this Agreement. Each party shall take all commercially reasonable steps to ensure that Confidential Information is not disclosed or distributed by its employees or agents in breach of this Agreement. The receiving party shall notify the disclosing party immediately upon discovery of any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information by the receiving party, and will cooperate with the disclosing party in every reasonable way to help the disclosing party regain possession of the Confidential Information and prevent its further unauthorized use. Except as expressly stated in this Agreement, no license or intellectual property right to Confidential Information is granted due to the disclosure by either party to the other party, and each party retains ownership of its Confidential Information. The parties shall hold each other's Confidential Information in confidence both during the term of this Agreement and for a period of five (5) years after any termination of this Agreement. Idaptive recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which requires that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

11.1. Governing Law. This Agreement, and all matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement, shall be governed by the Federal laws of the United States, excluding its conflict of law provisions. The parties agree that the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act are specifically excluded from application to this Agreement.

11.2. Notices. All notices required to be sent under this Agreement shall be in writing, signed by or on behalf of the party giving it, and shall be deemed to have been given upon (i) the date delivered by recognized overnight courier or by hand delivery or (ii) if by certified mail return receipt requested, on the date received, to the addresses set forth on a purchase order by Customer or invoice from Idaptive and to the attention of "Legal Department" and the signatories of the relevant Schedule, or to such other address or individual as the parties may specify from time to time by written notice to the other party.

11.3. Assignment. Neither party shall sell, lease, assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations under this Agreement in whole or in part, and any such attempted assignment shall be void and of no effect without the advance written consent of the other party, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed; Any permitted assignee will assume all obligations and rights of its assignor under this Agreement (or related to the assigned portion in case of a partial assignment).

11.4. Severability. In the event any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force.

11.5. Waiver. The waiver by either party of any default or breach of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any other or subsequent default or breach. Except for actions for nonpayment or breach of Idaptive's proprietary rights in the Cloud Service, Local Software Components or Documentation, no action, regardless of form, arising out of this Agreement may be brought by either party more than one year after the cause of action has accrued.

11.6. Force Majeure. This Agreement is subject to FAR 52.212-4 (f) Excusable delays.

11.7. Successors and Assigns; Third Party Beneficiaries. All provisions of the Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by and against the respective successors and permitted assigns of Idaptive and Customer. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, there are no third party beneficiaries of any of the warranties, rights or benefits of this Agreement.

11.8. Legal and Export Compliance. Customer shall comply fully with all international and U.S. laws and regulations that apply to the Cloud Service, Local Software Components and Documentation and to Customer's use thereof, including but not limited to the U.S. Export Administration Regulations and other end-user, end-use and destination restrictions issued by U.S. and other governments. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Customer expressly agrees that it shall not, and its representatives shall not, directly or indirectly, export, re-export, divert, or transfer the Cloud Service, Local Software Components or Documentation or any direct product or portion thereof, including via remote access, (i) to any country or region so restricted by the U.S. economic sanctions or export controls, including but not limited to applicable regulations of the U.S. Commerce Department, the U.S. Treasury Department, and the U.S. Department of State, to any person or entity controlled by any such country or region, or to any national or resident of any such country or region, other than nationals who are lawfully admitted permanent residents of countries not subject to such restrictions, (ii) to any person or entity on the U.S. Treasury Department's Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List, (iii) to any person or entity on the U.S. Commerce Department's Denied Persons List, or (iv) to any person or entity to which sale is prohibited under the Enhanced Proliferation Control Initiative ("EPCI"). Idaptive shall be entitled to take all actions it deems necessary to ensure compliance with this Section, including but not limited to developing internal compliance practices such as performing checks and implementing use restrictions with respect to the Cloud Service, Local Software Components and Documentation. Customer agrees to the foregoing and represents that Customer is not located in, under the control of, a national or resident of any such country or region, on any such list, or subject to prohibition under EPCI.

11.9. U.S. Government License Rights. The Local Software Components and Documentation covered by this Subscription Agreement are "Commercial Item(s)," consisting of "Commercial Computer Software" and "Commercial Computer Software Documentation," as these terms are defined in 48 C.F.R. §2.101 and used in 48 C.F.R. §12.212. Consistent with 48 C.F.R. §12.212, if such Local Software Components or Documentation are being acquired by or on behalf of the U.S. Government or by a U.S. Government prime contractor or subcontractor (at any tier), such Commercial Computer Software and Commercial Computer Software Documentation are being licensed to U.S. Government end-users for use by such government, or to any such US Government prime contractors or subcontractors for use by such prime contractors or subcontractors in the performance of work under a US Government prime contract or subcontract or for any other use, (a) only as Commercial Items and (b) with only those rights customarily provided to the public and as are granted to all other, non-government-related, end-users, as such commercial license rights are delineated in the terms and conditions of this Agreement. All rights relating to unpublished materials are hereby reserved under the copyright laws of the United States.

11.10. Relationship Between the Parties. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture, employment or agency relationship between the parties.

11.11. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the attached Cloud Service Addendum, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, GSA Schedule Pricelist and any Schedule referring to this Agreement, each of which is incorporated by reference, constitutes the complete agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous agreements or representations, written or oral, concerning the subject matter of this Agreement and such Cloud Service Addendum and Schedules.

Exhibit A – Cloud Service Addendum

This Cloud Service Addendum (this "Addendum") is an addendum to the End User License and Services Agreement (the "Agreement") between Idaptive, LLC, ("Idaptive") and the Customer as defined in the Agreement. Capitalized terms used in this Addendum and not otherwise defined below shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Agreement. In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Addendum and the Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall control. Customer and Idaptive hereby agree to the following:

Idaptive Obligations

Availability of Service. Idaptive uses an industry-leading cloud service provider that provides a monthly uptime availability of at least 99.9% to host the Cloud Service. Idaptive will provide 99.9% availability for the Cloud Service during the cloud service provider's service availability. Idaptive measures the availability of the Cloud Service, monthly. For purposes of the foregoing, "availability" means that the Cloud Service returned the correct, expected data when queried. Idaptive agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to make the Cloud Service generally available 99.9% of the time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, except for: (a) planned downtime (of which Idaptive shall give at least two weeks online or e-mail notice to Customer and which Idaptive shall schedule to the extent reasonably practicable during the weekend hours from 11:00 p.m. PT Friday to 12:00 p.m. PT Sunday); or (b) any unavailability caused by circumstances beyond Idaptive's reasonable control, including the force majeure provisions identified in Section 11.6 of the Agreement and computer, telecommunications, Internet service provider or hosting facility failures or delays involving hardware, software or power systems not within Idaptive's possession or control, and network intrusions or denial of service attacks. Service availability is documented monthly at www.idaptive.com/trust.

Security. Idaptive shall maintain commercially reasonable administrative, physical and technical safeguards to maintain and protect Customer's data that is submitted to the Cloud Service by Customer. Idaptive shall not be responsible for loss of data transmitted on networks not owned or operated by Idaptive, including the Internet. Idaptive shall produce an SSAE 16 (SOC 2) report (or similar alternative report as reasonably selected by Idaptive) on an annual basis, and Customer may request a copy of such report and agrees that such report shall be deemed Idaptive's Confidential Information under the Agreement.

Ownership of Customer Data. Except for software that Idaptive licenses to Customer, as between the parties, Customer retains all right, title, and interest in and to Customer Data, as defined in Section 2.4 of this Addendum. Idaptive acquires no rights in Customer Data other than the right to host Customer Data within the Cloud Service, including the right to use and reproduce Customer Data solely as necessary to provide the Cloud Service.

Use of Customer Data. Idaptive will use Customer Data (other than in aggregate and anonymized form) only to provide Customer with the Cloud Service. This use may include troubleshooting to prevent, find, and fix problems with the operation of the Cloud Service. It may also include improving features for finding and protecting against threats to Users. Idaptive may share aggregated and anonymized Customer Data with business partners for use for their business purposes, but Idaptive de-identifies and aggregates such data so that the data cannot be traced to an individual, a customer, or a device. Idaptive will not use Customer Data or derive information from it for any advertising or other marketing purposes without Customer's consent.

Third-party requests. Idaptive will not disclose Customer Data to a third party (including law enforcement, other government entity, or civil litigant, but excluding Idaptive's subcontractors) except as Customer directs or unless required by law. Should a third party contact Idaptive with a demand for Customer Data, Idaptive will attempt to redirect the third party to request that data directly from Customer. As part of this effort, Idaptive may provide Customer's basic contact information to the third party. If compelled to disclose Customer Data to a third party, Idaptive will promptly notify Customer and provide a copy of the demand, unless legally prohibited from doing so. Customer is responsible for responding to requests by third parties regarding Customer's use of the Cloud Service, such as requests to take down content under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act.

Customer Obligations

Internet Access. Customer must have a high speed Internet connection in order to use the Cloud Service. Customer shall procure and maintain the hardware, software and systems that connect Customer's network to the Cloud Service, and shall implement all reasonable communication and security protocols necessary to use the Cloud Service.

Customer Information. Customer shall provide and maintain with Idaptive accurate and complete information on Customer's legal business name, address, phone number, email address(es) and other information reasonably requested by Idaptive. Customer agrees that Idaptive may provide any and all communications, reports, statements and notices (other than legal notices under the Agreement) to such email address(es), and may rely on any communications, directions or statements received from such email address(es).

Security. Customer shall maintain commercially reasonable administrative, physical and technical safeguards to prevent unauthorized access to or use of the Cloud Service. Customer is responsible for all activity occurring under its User Accounts, including, but not limited to those that access the Cloud Service, www.idaptive.com and related Idaptive websites and user portals, and for abiding by all applicable local, national and international laws. Customer shall promptly notify Idaptive of any unauthorized access to or use of the Cloud Service and any loss or theft of any User's username or password of which Customer becomes aware.

Customer Data. Customer is responsible for the legality, quality, accuracy and integrity of any data and other information that Customer submits to Idaptive in the course of using the Cloud Service ("Customer Data"). Idaptive will not be responsible for any corrections, deletions or damage to Customer Data. Customer Data may include documents, images and other digital information that Customer chooses to transmit to and store in the Cloud Service. Customer is solely responsible for ensuring that Customer Data is not offensive, obscene, inappropriate or unlawful and that it does not contain any viruses or harmful content. Any Customer Data that Idaptive determines, in its sole discretion, may be offensive, obscene, inappropriate or unlawful or that may contain viruses or harmful content may be removed from the Cloud Service.

Changes

Changes to the Cloud Service. Idaptive may make changes to the functionality, user interface, usability of the Cloud Service and related Documentation from time to time. In the event of any material change to the functionality, user interface, usability of the Cloud Service, as Customer's sole remedy in the event of such change, Customer shall have the right to terminate the Agreement and receive a pro-rata refund of fees paid by Customer for the Cloud Service for the terminated portion of the term.

Changes to this Addendum. Idaptive may make changes to this Addendum from time to time, but will not reduce the level of service for which Customer has paid. In the event of any material change to this Addendum, Idaptive will notify Customer by either sending an email to the email address(es) provided by Customer pursuant to this Addendum, or will post a notice in Customer's administrator's account. If Customer does not agree to such change, Customer must notify Idaptive within thirty (30) days of Customer's receipt of such change, in which case the change will not take effect until the end of the then current Subscription Term.

Suspension and Termination

Reserved.

Suspension for Inappropriate Use. Idaptive reserves the right to temporarily suspend Customer's access of the Cloud Service if Idaptive determines that Customer's use is contrary to law or causing material harm to Idaptive or others. Idaptive will provide reasonable notice of such suspension. Customer agrees that Idaptive will not be liable to Customer, any Affiliate or any third party for any temporary suspension under this Section.

Handling of Data on Termination. In the event of any expiration or termination of Customer's use of the Cloud Service, upon Customer's request, Idaptive will export Customer's data that is stored on the Cloud Service to a mobile storage medium and will return such data to Customer. Alternatively, Customer may request that Idaptive delete all such data. Idaptive may delete all of Customer's data that is stored on the Cloud Service thirty (30) days following any expiration or termination of Customer's use of the Cloud Service. Customer agrees that Idaptive will not be liable to Customer, any Affiliate or any third party for any data deleted under this Section 4.3.

IGEL END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT (EULA) FOR UNITED STATES

PLEASE READ THIS END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT (“EULA”) CAREFULLY BEFORE USING IGEL SOFTWARE. BY BOTH PARTIES ACCEPTING THIS AGREEMENT IN WRITING, YOU (A) ACCEPT THIS EULA AND AGREE THAT END USER IS BOUND BY ITS TERMS; AND (B) REPRESENT AND WARRANT THAT YOU HAVE THE RIGHT, POWER, AND AUTHORITY TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT ON BEHALF OF END USER AND BIND END USER TO ITS TERMS. IF END USER DOES NOT AGREE TO THE TERMS OF THIS EULA, IGEL DOES NOT LICENSE THE IGEL SOFTWARE TO END USER, AND END USER SHALL NOT ACCESS, INSTALL OR USE THE IGEL SOFTWARE, AND END USER SHALL PROMPTLY RETURN THE UNUSED IGEL SOFTWARE TO THE RESELLER FROM WHOM IT WAS OBTAINED.

- General. This End User License Agreement (“EULA”) is between IGEL Technology Corp., located at 594 Howard Street, Suite 200, San Francisco, California 94105 (“IGEL”) and the Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts identified in the Purchase Order, Statement of Work, or similar document (“End User”). This EULA applies solely to licenses to IGEL Software granted by IGEL America Sales Corp. as licensor. End User acknowledges and agrees that, as between End User and IGEL, IGEL and its licensors (including IGEL Technology GmbH) are the sole owners of all right, title and interest in and to the IGEL Software, and all Intellectual Property Rights (as defined below) adherent or in connection with the IGEL Software are and shall remain the sole property of IGEL. All rights not expressly granted to End User are retained by IGEL and its licensors. “IGEL Software” means the object code form of the IGEL proprietary software solutions, including “IGEL OS”, the “Universal Management Suite” (“IGEL UMS”) and/or the “IGEL Enterprise Management Pack” (“IGEL EMP”) licensed to End User under this EULA, together with any Updates thereto and Documentation. The full use of the IGEL Software requires the purchase of a Subscription Key as further described in Section 2 below. “Documentation” means, collectively, the official, published IGEL Software operation instructions, release notes and user manuals for the IGEL Software, in electronic or written form, that IGEL has provided or otherwise made available to End User. “Intellectual Property Rights” means all past, present, and future rights of the following types, which may exist or be created under the laws and acts of any jurisdiction in the world: (a) rights associated with utility models and designs, works of authorship, including copyrights, moral rights, and mask work rights; (b) registered and unregistered trademark and trade name rights and similar rights; (c) trade secret rights; (d) patent, industrial property rights, and certain technical and non-technical know-how; (e) other proprietary rights in intellectual property of every kind and nature; and (f) rights in or relating to registrations, renewals, extensions, continuations, combinations, divisions, and reissues of, and applications for, any of the rights referred to in parts (a) through (e) of this sentence.

2. Obtaining and Using IGEL Software. End User obtains IGEL Software, whether as a preinstalled release or as executable installation files, in different ways, for example via a software download or preinstalled on a “Device” (e.g., endpoints or virtual machines). All non-licensed releases (i.e., without any unlocked features) and executable installation files have greatly reduced usability. The fully-intended use of the IGEL Software requires a “Subscription Key”, a technically generated and unique letter/number- combination, to obtain a productive functionality of the IGEL Software by unlocking the features of the IGEL Software through input of the applicable license inside the IGEL Software. With the purchase of the IGEL Software and Maintenance and Support (as defined in Section 15) through a Reseller, the End User receives one or more Subscription Keys. In the IGEL License Portal (“ILP”), the End User can use the Subscription Keys to carry out the technical provisioning of the licenses and services on the Devices. The purchase is executed through a Reseller under a purchase order or other order document between End User and the Reseller where a corresponding order from an IGEL authorized distributor who is distributing to the Reseller has been accepted by IGEL (such purchase order, an “Order Form”). End User agrees to pay the amounts set forth in the relevant purchase order or other order form between End User and the applicable Reseller. Fees for Subscription Keys for licenses for IGEL Software and for Maintenance and Support shall be invoiced as agreed between End User and the Reseller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, End User understands and agrees that fees for Subscription Keys for licenses to IGEL Software and fees for Maintenance and Support shall be paid in advance of the relevant term covered. End User acknowledges that the Reseller and IGEL are independent of each other and that the Reseller does not have any authority to bind IGEL in any way, make any modifications to this EULA or to make any warranties or representations on IGEL’s behalf and that IGEL has no liability whatsoever for any acts or omissions of any Reseller.
3. License Grant. Subject to and conditioned upon End User’s compliance with the restrictions and other terms and conditions of this EULA and full payment of the applicable Subscription Key fees, IGEL hereby grants to End User a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable and non-sublicensable license, without rights to sub-license, to use the IGEL Software for which End User has purchased a Subscription Key for End User’s internal business purposes and solely in accordance with the Documentation. Use of the IGEL Software shall be strictly limited to the number and type of licenses for either a specified period of time or perpetually (as further described in Section 5.1) as set forth on the applicable Order Form pursuant to which Subscription Keys are purchased from IGEL.
4. Third Party Service Provider. End User may permit its Third Party Service Provider (as defined below) to access and use the IGEL Software solely for End User’s and its Affiliates’ (as defined below) benefit and only in accordance with this EULA and the applicable Documentation. End User shall be responsible and liable for all acts and omissions committed by it and its Affiliates, and their respective Third Party Service Providers, as if they were the acts and omissions of End User. End User may not allow any other party to access or use the IGEL Software (except as expressly set forth in Section 6 below). IGEL shall be allowed to take technical measures to protect the IGEL Software and/or with a view to agreed restrictions regarding the license and use of the IGEL Software by End User. End User is not allowed to remove or evade such technical measures. “Third Party Service Provider” means an individual employed by or who provides services as an independent contractor to End User or its Affiliates (excluding Outsourcers addressed in Section 6) and who is supported with or uses the IGEL Software for the sole benefit of End User or its Affiliates. “Affiliate” means any person or legal entity that controls, is controlled by or is under common control with End User or IGEL (as applicable); where ‘control’ means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and operating policies of an entity through the ownership of voting securities (more than fifty percent (50%) of an entity's voting or equity securities, contract, voting trust or otherwise).

5. License Models.

- 5.1. Depending on the purchased version of the IGEL Software, and Maintenance and Support, the license grant in Section 3 shall be either (a) without restriction in terms of time and territory and limited to installation and use of such IGEL Software on the number of Devices or instances corresponding to the number of licenses purchased by End User (“Perpetual License”). or (b) time- limited to the individually purchased duration specified on the Order Form and limited to installation and use of such IGEL Software on the number of Devices or instances corresponding to the number of licenses purchased by End User (“Subscription License”). Details on IGEL Software, Maintenance and Support offerings and their corresponding license structure is available at <https://www.igel.com/igel-license-overview/>. To the extent that multiple instances of IGEL Software are installed and executed on a Device, each instance shall require a separate valid license. End User may create copies of IGEL Software solely to the extent that it is necessary to enable the unlocking of functions on the number of Devices or instances, corresponding to the number of licenses purchased with the Subscription Key, and to use IGEL Software as intended. In addition, End User may create a reasonable number of backup copies of IGEL Software as reasonably necessary to support its internal business continuity and disaster recovery operations in the ordinary course of business. End User shall include on all such copies all proprietary rights legends and notices of the IGEL Software.
- 5.2. If the IGEL Software is provided to End User by way of a download, the purchased license includes the right to copy or download the IGEL Software to a Device that meets the minimum technical requirements to operate the applicable IGEL Software.
- 5.3. The simultaneous use of the purchased IGEL Software license on more than one Device is not permitted.
- 5.4. License Portability. End User is entitled to transfer its License (which is bound to a certain Device) to another Device, if and as far as it ceases to use the unlocked IGEL Software on the originally bound Device (e.g., via uninstalling the IGEL Software).
6. Outsourcer. End User's right of use under this EULA includes the limited right to permit outsourced services providers to access and use the IGEL Software (other than Test Software) within the framework of cloud or data center services contracted by, and solely for the benefit of, the End User (“Outsourcer”), provided that End User shall ensure Outsourcer's compliance with the terms and conditions of this EULA and shall be responsible and liable for all acts and omissions committed by its Outsourcer as if they were the acts and omissions of End User, and any breach by any such Outsourcer of the terms or conditions herein is a breach by End User.
7. Pre-Release Software; Evaluation Software. If the IGEL Software provided under this EULA is software that is designated by IGEL (i) as any pre-commercial release software (e.g. indicated by the terms Release Candidate or Technology Preview, as described at <https://kb.igel.com/licensesmore-igelos11/en/software-releases-overview/>) (“Pre-Release Software”), and/or (ii) for evaluation or similar purposes (“Evaluation Software”, and together with Pre-Release Software, “Test Software”), End User may exercise the license grant in Section 3 only for its own internal, non-production evaluation of the Test Software, and End User may not use the Test Software for any other purpose, including competitive analysis, commercial, professional, or for-profit purposes. End User acknowledges and agrees that the Pre-Release Software may not operate correctly, may be substantially modified prior to first commercial shipment, or may be withdrawn completely at any time. END USER'S DOWNLOAD, INSTALLATION, ACCESS, AND USE OF THE TEST SOFTWARE IS AT END USER'S SOLE RISK AND EXPENSE. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION OF THIS EULA, THE DOWNLOAD, INSTALLATION, ACCESS, AND USE OF TEST SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS IS", AND IGEL DISCLAIMS ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, SUPPORT OBLIGATIONS, AND OTHER LIABILITIES AND OBLIGATIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE INSTALLATION, ACCESS, OR USE OF THE TEST SOFTWARE. The license grant Section 3 for Test Software expires 30 days after download of the Test Software unless otherwise agreed in writing by IGEL.

8. Third Party Software. End User acknowledges and agrees that the IGEL Software may be provided with certain open source software, as well as any other software products of third parties that are provided together with or in relation to IGEL Software (collectively, "Third Party Software"), as referenced in the IGEL Software itself, the Documentation, or on IGEL's website, for use in combination with the IGEL Software. This EULA shall not apply to Third Party Software, and the terms of the license documentation regarding Third Party Software shall govern End User's access to and use of the applicable Third Party Software. Such Third Party Software is distributed to End User solely under the terms set forth in the relevant Third Party Software license agreements (which are referenced in the IGEL Software itself, the Documentation, or on IGEL's website at <https://www.igel.com/terms-conditions/>), and End User acknowledges and agrees that this EULA in no way supplements or detracts from any term or condition therein. Nothing herein shall bind the Ordering Activity to any Third Party Software terms unless the terms are provided for review and agreed to in writing by all parties. ALL THIRD PARTY SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY OF ANY KIND INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. If and to the extent required by the applicable Third Party Software license, IGEL will make available the required source code for the Third Party Software in response to End User's request.
9. Termination. When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, IGEL shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. Upon any expiration or termination of this EULA, the licenses granted herein will automatically terminate and End User must immediately remove and destroy all copies of the IGEL Software and Documentation, including all back-up copies. Any obligations to pay license, Support, and all other fees incurred prior to termination shall survive termination.
10. Audit. During the term of this EULA and for the longer of two (2) years after termination of the EULA or the Support term for the applicable IGEL Software, End User shall maintain accurate and complete records regarding End User's use of the IGEL Software and End User shall (a) permit IGEL (or persons authorized by IGEL) to inspect such records and End User's computer equipment in order to verify that End User's use of the IGEL Software is in compliance with this EULA and that End User has paid the applicable license fees and Support fees for the IGEL Software; (b) if so requested by IGEL, certify through a director or officer of End User, that End User's use of the IGEL Software is, and has been at all times during the applicable license term been, in accordance with this EULA; and (c) permit IGEL (or persons authorized by IGEL) to inspect records regarding End User's use of the IGEL Software, whether through the provision of Support by IGEL using such tools and/or IGEL Software available to IGEL from time to time, or otherwise. IGEL may conduct an audit no more than once per calendar year (or more frequently if IGEL has knowledge or reasonable belief of End User's non-compliance with any material term of this EULA) and such audits shall take place subject to Government security requirements, during normal business hours and on reasonable prior notice. Without prejudice to any other rights and remedies, where such audit reveals any underpayment, End User shall immediately pay such underpayment to IGEL.

11. Intellectual Property Indemnification. IGEL shall (at its own expense) have the right to intervene to defend or settle any unaffiliated third party claim, suit or proceeding brought against End User alleging that the IGEL Software infringes upon any U.S. or Canadian patent or copyright of such third party ("Infringement Claim"), and IGEL shall pay, indemnify, and hold End User harmless from any damages finally awarded to such third party by a court of competent jurisdiction as a result of the Infringement Claim or any settlement of the Claim between IGEL and the third party. IGEL's obligations above are conditioned on End User (a) promptly notifying IGEL in writing of the Infringement Claim or threat thereof such that IGEL is not prejudiced by any delay in such notification, (b) doing nothing which may prejudice IGEL's defense of such Infringement Claim, and (c) giving IGEL the right to control the investigation, defense and settlement of the Infringement Claim and, if so requested by IGEL, End User providing reasonable assistance at IGEL's expense. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516. If any Infringement Claim is made or in IGEL's opinion appears possible, IGEL shall, at its sole expense and option either: (i) procure the right for End User to continue to use the alleged infringing IGEL Software; (ii) replace or modify the IGEL Software to make it non-infringing; or (iii), if neither (i) nor (ii) are reasonably achievable, terminate this EULA, and provide End User with a refund of the license fees actually paid to IGEL for End User's affected IGEL Software subject to a straight line depreciation over a three (3) year period from purchase. IGEL assumes no liability for any Infringement Claim or allegations of infringement based on: (i) the combination, operation, or use of the IGEL Software with products, services, hardware, data or other materials not furnished by IGEL, if such Infringement Claim would have been avoided by the use of the IGEL Software alone; (ii) alterations or modifications to the IGEL Software by End User or its agents or at End User's direction; (iii) the failure to install any Updates made available by IGEL; (iv) End User's use of any IGEL Software after IGEL had provided End User with a subsequent non-infringing release of the IGEL Software or its replacement; (iv) use of the IGEL Software otherwise than in accordance with the Documentation and any Applicable Laws; or (v) if End User settles or makes any admissions with respect to an Infringement Claim without IGEL's prior written consent. THIS SECTION 11 STATES IGEL'S SOLE OBLIGATION AND LIABILITY, AND END USER'S EXCLUSIVE REMEDY, WITH RESPECT TO ANY CLAIM OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INFRINGEMENT OF ANY KIND.

12. Confidentiality. Each party shall keep confidential, and not disclose to any third party (except each party's respective Affiliates, employees and consultants who have a need to know and who agree in writing to keep the information confidential on terms no less restrictive than those contained herein) any Confidential Information which may be provided in connection with this EULA. "Confidential Information" means any non-public information disclosed by one party to the other party, either directly or indirectly, whether communicated in writing, orally or by inspection of tangible objects (including, without limitation, pricing (Excluding GSA Schedule prices), trade secrets, product plans, products, services, customers, software including the IGEL Software (both object and source code), Documentation, designs, inventions, processes, designs, drawings, engineering, hardware configuration information, marketing or financial information), which is designated as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or some similar designation. Information communicated orally will be considered to be Confidential Information if such information is identified as Confidential Information at the time of its disclosure, or if such information by its nature should reasonably be understood by the receiving party to be confidential. Confidential Information will include any and all non-public information relating to any IGEL Software and any associated training, Documentation, and other related materials, regardless of whether or not such materials are marked as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or some similar designation. Confidential Information may also include information that is disclosed to a party by one or more third parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information will not include any information that: (a) was publicly known prior to the time of disclosure by the disclosing party; (b) becomes publicly known after disclosure by the disclosing party to the receiving party through no fault of the receiving party; (c) is already in the possession of the receiving party at the time of disclosure by the disclosing party (as shown by the receiving party's files and records) prior to the time of disclosure; (d) is obtained by the receiving party from a third party without a breach of such third party's obligations of confidentiality; or (e) is independently developed by the receiving party without use of or reference to the disclosing party's Confidential Information (as shown by documents and other competent evidence in the receiving party's possession). In the event Confidential Information is required by law or lawful order to be disclosed by the receiving party, the receiving party will first promptly give the disclosing party written notice of such requirement prior to any disclosure so that the disclosing party may have sufficient time to seek a protective order or other appropriate relief, and disclose only that portion of Confidential Information that the receiving party is legally required to disclose. IGEL recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which may require that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.
13. LIMITED SOFTWARE WARRANTY. IGEL warrants that the IGEL Software will not contain defects that cause the IGEL Software to fail to substantially conform to the applicable Documentation for ninety (90) days following the date of the applicable purchase order authorizing the License Token for the IGEL Software ("Warranty Period"). This Limited Warranty does not apply if the IGEL Software, IGEL Hardware or any other equipment upon which the IGEL Software is authorized to be used: (i) has been altered, except by IGEL or its authorized representative, (ii) has not been installed, operated, repaired or maintained in accordance with instructions supplied by IGEL or its authorized representative, (iii) has been subjected to abnormal physical or electrical stress, abnormal environmental conditions, misuse, negligence or accident; (iv) is licensed for beta, evaluation, testing or demonstration purposes or other circumstances for which the Reseller does not receive payment of a purchase price or license fee; (v) has not been provided by a Reseller; (vi) is not covered by an active IGEL EULA. This Limited Warranty is only available to the original end user customer ("End User") authorized by the EULA.

- 13.1. Exclusive Remedy. IGEL shall use commercially reasonable efforts to repair or replace the non-conforming IGEL Software. This remedy is conditioned on the following: (i) End User reports the non-conformance in writing to IGEL during the Warranty Period, (ii) End User promptly provides any additional information reasonably requested by IGEL, (iii) IGEL is able to reproduce and validate the non-conformance, (iv) End User returns the IGEL Software and/or Documentation if requested as a condition of this remedy, and (v) End User complies with this Limited Warranty. End User acknowledges and agrees that this is the exclusive remedy and IGEL's sole liability under the Limited Warranty and a warranty claim may be performed and/or resolved by IGEL, IGEL's Affiliates or other third parties from within or outside of the United States.
- 13.2. Limitations and Exclusions of Liability for the Limited Warranty. With respect to the Limited Warranty, in no event will IGEL, its suppliers, Affiliates or their Resellers be liable for the following, regardless of the theory of liability or whether arising out of the use or inability to use the IGEL Software or otherwise, even if a party been advised of the possibility of such damages: (a) indirect, incidental, exemplary, special or consequential damages; (b) loss or corruption of data or interrupted or loss of business; (c) loss of revenue, profits, goodwill or anticipated sales or savings; (d) loss of use, and (e) costs of procurement of substitute goods. For the Limited Warranty, all liability of IGEL, its affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents, suppliers and licensors collectively, to End User, whether based in warranty, contract, tort, or otherwise, shall not exceed the license fees paid by End User to any Reseller for the IGEL Software in the preceding twelve (12) months that gave rise to the claim. This limitation of liability for the Limited Warranty is cumulative and not per incident. Nothing in this Limited Warranty limits or excludes any liability that cannot be limited or excluded under applicable law. The foregoing limitation of liability shall not apply to (1) personal injury or death resulting from Licensor's negligence; (2) for fraud; or (3) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law.
- 13.3. Limited Warranty Disclaimer. With respect to the Limited Warranty and except as expressly set forth above, IGEL and its licensors/Reseller provide the IGEL Software "as is" and expressly disclaim all warranties, conditions or other terms, whether express, implied or statutory, including without limitation, warranties, conditions or other terms regarding merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, design, condition, capacity, performance, quality, accuracy, title, and non-infringement. IGEL does not warrant that the IGEL Software will operate uninterrupted or error-free or that all errors will be corrected. In addition, IGEL does not warrant that the IGEL Software or any equipment, system or network on which the IGEL Software is used will be free of viruses, vulnerability to intrusion or attack. This Limited Warranty does not apply to any Third-Party Software. This Limited Warranty supersedes any prior agreements or representations made in IGEL's and its Affiliate's sales literature or advice given by IGEL or its Affiliates, any IGEL channel partner, Reseller, or an agent or employee thereof – that may have been made in connection with the purchase of a license to the IGEL Software. No change to this Limited Warranty is valid unless made in writing and signed by an authorized representative of IGEL.
14. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PARTIES AGREE THAT, EXCEPT FOR EXCLUDED CLAIMS (AS DEFINED BELOW), NEITHER PARTY, ITS RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES, OR ITS OR THEIR LICENSORS, RESELLERS OR DISTRIBUTORS SHALL BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOSS OF USE, LOSS OF INCOME, LOSS OF OPPORTUNITY OR PROFITS, LOSS OF GOODWILL, LOSS OF DATA, COSTS OF PROCUREMENT OF SUBSTITUTE GOODS, OR FOR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, OR INDIRECT DAMAGES ARISING FROM USE OF THE IGEL SOFTWARE INCLUDING UPDATES, DOCUMENTATION, AND THIRD-PARTY SOFTWARE, OR OTHERWISE ARISING IN CONNECTION

WITH THIS EULA, HOWSOEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, AND EXCEPT FOR EXCLUDED CLAIMS, IN NO EVENT SHALL THE LIABILITY OF EITHER PARTY, ITS RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES, OR ITS OR THEIR LICENSORS, RESELLERS, OR DISTRIBUTORS EXCEED THE AMOUNTS PAID TO IGEL FOR END USER'S SPECIFIC IGEL SOFTWARE AT ISSUE DURING THE TWENTY-FOUR (24) MONTH PERIOD IMMEDIATELY PRIOR TO THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM. THIS LIMITATION WILL APPLY EVEN IF A PARTY, ITS AFFILIATES, OR ITS OR THEIR LICENSORS, RESELLERS OR DISTRIBUTORS, AS APPLICABLE, HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES AND REGARDLESS OF WHETHER ANY REMEDY FAILS OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THE LICENSE FEES REFLECTS THIS ALLOCATION OF RISK. SOME JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW THE LIMITATION OR EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY FOR INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, SO THE ABOVE LIMITATIONS OR EXCLUSIONS MAY NOT APPLY TO END USER. MULTIPLE CLAIMS SHALL NOT EXPAND THE LIMITATIONS SPECIFIED IN THIS SECTION 14. THE FOREGOING LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

"EXCLUDED CLAIMS" MEANS (I) A PARTY'S BREACH OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER SECTION 12; (II) END USER'S PAYMENT OBLIGATIONS FOR IGEL SOFTWARE; AND (III) END USER'S MISUSE, VIOLATION, OR MISAPPROPRIATION OF IGEL'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY.

15. Maintenance and Support Services.

- 15.1 End User may purchase maintenance services for the IGEL Software that entitles End User to official IGEL Software product updates, upgrades, enhancements or other modifications ("Maintenance") Under Maintenance, the End User obtains access to software functionality releases that IGEL may, in its sole discretion, release to End User from time to time. New versions of the IGEL Software (known as "Release Versions") are made generally available to End Users with active Maintenance services (or applicable Subscription services that includes Maintenance) at the same level for all its active licenses of IGEL Software. IGEL may also in its sole discretion provide End User with Stable Releases and/or Private Builds for IGEL Software that has not yet reached End of Maintenance status. "Private Builds" are updates to the IGEL Software primarily aimed at fixing errors and "Stable Releases" may, in addition to that, contain new features or functions. IGEL shall not be obligated to release new versions, patches, hotfixes or other adaptations or modifications of any Third Party Software. The installation of new versions, Stable Releases, Private Builds and Third Party Software shall solely be the End User's responsibility. Official updates provided by IGEL under Maintenance, excluding any technology preview or release candidate updates, shall be considered IGEL Software under the terms of this EULA.
- 15.2 End User may also purchase support services for the IGEL Software ("Support"). All Support (including Support levels) provided for the IGEL Software is further described in and subject to IGEL's attached Terms for Maintenance and Support Services as displayed at <https://www.igel.com/terms-conditions/>. If End User purchases Support for the IGEL Software, End User is required to purchase and maintain Support at the same level and for the same number of all active licenses of the IGEL Software.

16. Product Information. All Product information (“Product Information”) provided by IGEL to the End User with respect to the IGEL Software and its use is provided solely on a non-legally binding and liability free basis. IGEL provides all Product Information to the best of its knowledge at the time of publication and on the basis of the information provided by the End User. IGEL does not guarantee the accuracy of its Product Information. Any Product Information provided by IGEL does not release the End User of its obligation to test system changes beforehand. New IGEL Software and Updates must always be tested by End User in advance. The End User is obligated to promptly inform IGEL of all relevant facts and information, so that IGEL can provide the Product Information appropriately.
17. Data Backups. The End User is responsible for performing data backups at regular intervals and for backing up this data on a separate data carrier. This is particularly recommended before installing an Update. In addition, the End User is responsible for protecting itself from the loss of data by using appropriate measures.
18. Compliance With Applicable Laws. End User agrees to abide by and act in accordance with all laws, regulations and rules (“Applicable Laws”) applicable to End User’s access to and use of the IGEL Software and to End User’s conduct in connection with this EULA, in particular relating to applicable privacy and data protection laws and anti-corruption laws in force at any time during the term of this EULA.
19. Restrictions on Use. Except as permitted by law or as expressly authorized by IGEL in writing, End User will not (and will not permit any Affiliate, Operator, or third-party including Outsourcers to):
- (i) Remove, obscure, or modify any copyright or patent notices, trademarks, trade names, service marks, logos, restricted rights legends, or proprietary or confidential notices from any part of the IGEL Software or Documentation;
  - (ii) attempt to ascertain the source code of the IGEL Software or any of its components by any means, decompile, deconstruct, copy or to duplicate, reverse engineer, disassemble or decode the IGEL Software or any copy, adaptation, component, transcription or merged portion of them, or attempt to do any of the foregoing;
  - (iii) use, offer, transfer, or distribute the IGEL Software in competition with IGEL including on a time-sharing or service bureau basis;
  - (iv) modify, adapt, translate or create derivative works based on the IGEL Software, or in any way cause the IGEL Software to be subject to any open source obligations;
  - (v) transfer the IGEL Software;
  - (vi) create, disclose, distribute, sublicense, license or otherwise transfer any implementation of IGEL’s application programming interfaces (APIs) except to support End User’s authorized use of the IGEL Software within End User’s internal organization;
  - (vii) use any software, device or other means designed to circumvent or remove any form of Subscription Key or copy protection used by IGEL in connection with the IGEL Software, or use the IGEL Software together with any Subscription Key, Subscription Key or other copy protection device not supplied by IGEL or through a Reseller; or

- (viii) subject to the limited sublicense right permitted under Section 6 in respect of Outsourcers, assign, sell, resell, rent, lease, distribute, sub-license or otherwise transfer or convey the IGEL Software, any of its components or adaptations, or any Documentation relating to the foregoing.

20. General Provisions.

- 20.1. Privacy Policy. End User's use of the IGEL Software and Support is subject to IGEL's attached Privacy Policy available at: <https://www.igel.com/terms-conditions/>.
- 20.2. High Risk Applications. End User acknowledges and agrees that IGEL Software products have not been tested or certified for use in any high-risk applications, including the operation of nuclear facilities, aircraft navigation, air traffic control, emergency communications systems, life support devices, weapons systems, or any other application where the failure or malfunction of any IGEL Software can reasonably be expected to result in death, personal injury, severe property damage or severe environmental harm ("High Risk Applications"). IGEL makes no warranties or assurances that IGEL Software is suitable for any High Risk Applications and End User shall defend and indemnify IGEL Indemnitees from any claims made by third parties resulting from any such High Risk Applications.
- 20.3. U.S. Government End Users. Each of the components that constitute the IGEL Software is a "commercial item" as that term is defined at 48 C.F.R. 2.101, consisting of "commercial computer software" and/or "commercial computer software documentation" as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. 12.212. Consistent with 48 C.F.R. 12.212, all U.S. Government end users acquire the IGEL Software with only those rights set forth herein. If IGEL Software is acquired for or on behalf of the U.S. Government or any of its agencies, then it is recognized and agreed that the IGEL Software was: (i) developed at private expense; (ii) not required to be originated or developed under a U.S. Government contract; and (iii) not generated as a necessary part of performing a U.S. Government contract.
- 20.4. Assignment. Except as expressly permitted herein, the parties may not assign, transfer, charge, sub-contract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the EULA. Any attempted assignment in violation of the foregoing shall be void and of no effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, IGEL may assign its rights and obligations hereunder to an Affiliate and/or to its successor pursuant to a merger, consolidation or sale of substantially all of its assets related to this EULA, provided it promptly notifies the End User in writing of the assignment and assignee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of this EULA. This EULA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their successors and permitted assigns.
- 20.5. Export Restriction. End User will not, directly or indirectly export or re-export or knowingly permit the export or re-export of any IGEL Software in breach of any applicable export and import control laws and regulations, including, but not limited to, regulations of the United States Bureau of Industry and Security, the United Kingdom Department for Business, Innovation & Skills, Canada, the European Union, and other applicable countries and agencies.
- 20.6. Severance. If any provision of this EULA is held to be unenforceable, void or invalid under Applicable Law, such provision shall be deemed omitted and the remaining provisions will remain in full force.

- 20.7. Entire EULA. Subject to Section 8, this EULA, together with all other attached documents that are incorporated by reference herein, together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule Pricelist, Purchase Order(s), represent the complete and exclusive statement between IGEL and End User with respect to the IGEL Software and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous oral or written communications and arrangements concerning the subject matter contained herein. A negotiated Government Purchase Order, signed by both parties, shall supersede the terms of the Agreement.
- 20.8. No Waiver. No failure or delay to exercise any right or remedy provided under this EULA or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other rights or remedy, nor shall it preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right shall preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.
- 20.9. Force Majeure. Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f).
- 20.10. Third Party Rights. A person who is not a party to the EULA shall not have any rights under or in connection with it.
- 20.11. Variation. Any variation to the EULA shall only be binding when agreed in writing and signed by both parties.
- 20.12. Survival. Sections 1, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 19 and 20, and any other right, obligation or provision under this EULA that, by its nature, should survive termination or expiration of this EULA, shall survive the termination or expiration of this EULA.
- 20.13. This EULA and all claims and actions of End User relating to IGEL Software are governed by the Federal laws of the United States. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act, as currently enacted by any jurisdiction or as may be codified or amended from time to time by any jurisdiction, do not apply to this EULA.

IF YOU ARE LOCATED OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED STATES AND IN A COUNTRY IN WHICH INFINIDAT LTD. DOES NOT HAVE A SUBSIDIARY; (III) THE LOCAL INFINIDAT LTD. SUBSIDIARY IF YOU ARE LOCATED OUTSIDE OF UNITED STATES AND IN A COUNTRY IN WHICH INFINIDAT LTD. HAS A LOCAL SUBSIDIARY ("INFINIDAT", "OUR", "US" OR "WE") AND YOU, AS AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF AN ENTITY ("YOU" OR "YOUR"), THAT HAS OBTAINED THE PRODUCT, AS DEFINED BELOW, DIRECTLY FROM INFINIDAT OR FROM AN AUTHORIZED INFINIDAT PARTNER . BY EXECUTING THE PURCHASE ORDER, YOU ACCEPT THIS AGREEMENT AND AGREE TO BE BOUND BY ITS TERMS. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL GOVERN YOUR USE OF THE PRODUCT UNLESS YOU HAVE A SEPARATE WRITTEN AGREEMENT IN EFFECT WITH INFINIDAT THAT SPECIFICALLY GOVERNS THE SUBJECT MATTER HEREOF AND IS EXPLICITLY STATED TO TAKE PRIORITY.

IF YOU ARE ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT ON BEHALF OF A COMPANY OR OTHER LEGAL ENTITY, YOU REPRESENT THAT YOU HAVE THE RIGHT, AUTHORITY AND CAPACITY TO DO SO AND BIND SUCH ENTITY TO THIS AGREEMENT, AND IN WHICH CASE THE TERMS "YOU" OR "YOUR" SHALL REFER TO SUCH ENTITY.

1. Definitions

"Affiliate" means any corporation, company or other business entity that directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with Infinidat.

"Documentation" means our user manuals, instructions and similar materials that are delivered with the Product, including any updates or supplements thereto.

"Enhancement" means an update (such as a fix or patch), modification, improvement, addition and/or customization to a Product, including those resulting in new features and functionality.

"Intellectual Property Rights" means all rights, titles and interests in, to and under patents, inventions, discoveries, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, trade dress, technical information, data, know-how, show-how, trade secrets, designs, drawings, models, specifications, formulas, methods, techniques, processes, databases, software, code, algorithms, architecture, records, documentation, and other similar intellectual and industrial property, in any form and embodied in any media, whether capable of protection or not, whether registered or unregistered, and including all applications, registrations, renewals, extensions, continuations, divisions or reissues thereof.

"Laws" means any applicable laws, statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations of any jurisdiction (including for the avoidance of doubt any Federal, state, provincial or local laws).

"Product" means, collectively, the hardware and Software, and any Enhancement thereto provided by Infinidat at any time. "Proprietary Legends" means any copyright, trademark, patent, or other proprietary legend, notice or designation.

"Software" means the Infinidat proprietary software product licensed and provided at any time, including firmware embedded in the, software programs provided by Infinidat and any Enhancement thereto.

2. License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Infinidat hereby grants you a limited, nonexclusive, nontransferable, non-sublicensable, revocable (solely in accordance with the termination provisions below) license, to (i) use, in object code only, the Software for your internal business purposes only; and (ii) use the Documentation solely in connection with your use of the Product (collectively, the "License").
3. Limited License Capacity. If the Products are subject to a specified capacity limit, you are only authorized to use the Software at or below the limit you paid for. Infinidat or its authorized partner, may invoice you, and you shall pay, for the additional capacity in the Product after your usage exceeds the specified capacity limit three times in a 30-day period, even if usage subsequently falls below that limit. You shall enable the Product's phone home feature to allow us to monitor capacity usage. We reserve the right to inspect or otherwise verify compliance with this Section.
4. License Restrictions. Except to the extent expressly permitted otherwise in this Agreement, or expressly mandated otherwise by applicable Law, you shall not, and shall not permit or encourage any third party (including, without limitation, your personnel) to, do any of the following without obtaining the prior express written consent of Infinidat: (i) copy or reproduce the Software; (ii) sell, assign, lease, lend, rent, distribute, sublicense, or make available the Software to any third party, or otherwise use the Software to operate in, or as, a time-sharing, outsourcing, or service bureau environment; (iii) modify, alter, adapt, arrange, translate, decompile, disassemble, reverse engineer, or otherwise attempt to derive the source code (or the underlying structure, sequence or organization) of, the Software; (iv) reverse engineer or disassemble the Product's hardware; (v) integrate, incorporate, include, or bundle the Software into or with any other hardware or software; (vi) remove, alter, or conceal, in whole or in part, any Proprietary Legends displayed or contained on/in the Product; (vii) circumvent, disable or otherwise interfere with security-related features of the Software, or with features that are intended to prevent or restrict the use thereof; (viii) make a derivative work of the Software, or use the Software to develop any service or product that is the same as, or substantially similar to, the Software; (ix) use the Software to perform comparisons or other "benchmarking" activities, either alone or in connection with any other software or hardware, or disclose or publish the results thereof or other performance information; x) use the Software for any inappropriate purpose (as Infinidat shall determine in its sole and absolute discretion), or contrary to any Law.
5. Ownership. INFINIDAT DOES NOT SELL OR TRANSFER TITLE, AND SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO HAVE SOLD OR TRANSFERRED TITLE, IN ANY SOFTWARE TO YOU. As between you and Infinidat, Infinidat is and shall remain the sole and exclusive owner of all Intellectual Property Rights in, to and under the Product and the Documentation. Infinidat reserves all rights not expressly granted hereunder, and nothing in this Agreement constitutes a waiver of Infinidat's Intellectual Property Rights under any Law.
6. Limited Software Warranty
  - 6.1. Software Warranty. Infinidat warrants that for a period of ninety (90) days, commencing on the date that the Product is delivered to you, and subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 5, the Software components included in the Product will substantially comply with the applicable specifications set out in the Documentation (the "Software Warranty").
  - 6.2. Warranty Service. If you notify us in writing within the applicable Software Warranty periods as specified above (the "Warranty Period"), of a warranty claim, we will make commercially reasonable efforts to provide a fix, patch or workaround, which may be included in a future Software release, at no additional charge to you. No services provided by us under this Section 5.3 shall be deemed to re-commence any Warranty Period, and any repairs, fixes or replacement parts provided as part of the foregoing warranty service are warranted for the remainder of the applicable Warranty Period, as then in effect.
  - 6.3. Warranty Service Exclusions. Warranty services described herein above exclude, and Infinidat shall have no responsibility hereunder to repair, replace, fix or provide any support or any other remedial services for, any and all of the following: (a) Products that have been altered, reconfigured or modified by you or any third party other than Infinidat's authorized customer support personnel; (b) Software that has been incorporated or bundled with other software or hardware not provided or approved in writing by Infinidat; (c) Products not installed by Infinidat's authorized customer support personnel, and which have not been operated, repaired or maintained in accordance with Infinidat's instructions; (d) Products which have been operated outside of the environmental specifications for the Product; (e) damage to the hardware or Software caused by your negligence, abuse or use other than as specified in the Documentation, or by natural disasters or other factors beyond the control of Infinidat; or (f) Software problems not reproducible by Infinidat.
  - 6.4. Your Warranty Responsibilities. As a condition to Infinidat's obligations under this Section, you agree that if Infinidat determines that in order to perform its Product Warranty services it must do so at your premises on which the Product is located and/or remotely, you must provide free, safe and sufficient access to your facilities and the Product and any associated computer equipment on which the Product is installed. For the avoidance of any doubt, the License referenced herein, together with the warranty remain valid only on the basis of Infinidat's ability to remotely control/ access and/or control the Product as may be required at any time. As part of this remote access the Product will send to Infinidat monitoring data information on a regular basis.
  - 6.5. High Risk Activities. You acknowledge that the Product is not specifically designed or intended for use in environments in which the failure of the Product could lead directly to death, personal injury, or severe physical or property damage, including, without limitation, any nuclear, chemical or weapons production facility or activity, aircraft control devices, aerospace equipment, or medical life support equipment (collectively, "High Risk Activities"). Without limiting the generality of the Warranty Disclaimer referenced below, Infinidat expressly disclaims any express or implied warranty of fitness for High Risk Activities, and any liability for any damage arising as a result of the use of the Product in any High Risk Activity.

- 6.6. INFINIDAT MAKES NO REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY, GUARANTEE OR CONDITION (a) THAT THE SOFTWARE WILL OPERATE IN THE COMBINATIONS WHICH YOU MAY SELECT FOR USE; (b) THAT YOUR USE OF THE PRODUCT WILL MEET YOUR EXPECTATIONS BE ERROR-FREE AND THAT ANY ERROR CONDITIONS WILL BE CORRECTED.
- 6.7. THIS AGREEMENT DOES NOT LIMIT OR DISCLAIM ANY OF THE WARRANTIES SPECIFIED IN THE GSA SCHEDULE 70 CONTRACT UNDER FAR 52.212-4(O). IN THE EVENT OF A BREACH OF WARRANTY, THE U.S. GOVERNMENT RESERVES ALL RIGHTS AND REMEDIES UNDER THE CONTRACT, THE FEDERAL ACQUISITION REGULATIONS, AND THE CONTRACT DISPUTES ACT, 41 U.S.C. 7101-7109.
7. Third Party Software. The Software may contain third party, including open source, software ("Third Party Software") and you acknowledge there may be third party terms and conditions ("Third Party Terms"). In such a case, upon receipt of a written request from you, we will make available a list of any such Third Party Software and related Third Party Terms in the Documentation, and will use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with any reasonable request you submit to us for exercising your rights under such Third Party Terms. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Infinidat does not make any representation, warranty, guarantee, condition, and does not undertake any defense or indemnification, with respect to any Third Party Software.
8. Indemnification
- 8.1. In the event of any claim, action, proceeding or suit by a third party against you claiming that the Product infringes such third party's U.S. patent or copyright (an "Infringement Claim"), Infinidat shall defend and hold you harmless against the Infringement Claim, and will pay
- (a) the amounts awarded (and then-currently payable) against you in such Infringement Claim (to the extent of such infringement); or
- (b) the amounts agreed to settle such Infringement Claim.
- 8.2. Our obligations under this Section shall only apply if you (a) promptly notify us in writing of the Infringement Claim; (b) fully cooperate with us in, but permit us to assume control of, the defense and/or settlement of the Infringement Claim; and (c) refrain from admitting any liability, or otherwise compromising the defense of any part of the Infringement Claim, without our prior express written consent. Infinidat agrees not to settle any Infringement Claim without your prior express written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516.
- 8.3. Should the Product (or any part thereof) become, or in our opinion be likely to become, the subject of any Infringement Claim, then you hereby permit us, at our option and expense, to either (a) procure for you the right to continue using the Product or such part (as the case may be); or (b) replace or modify the Product (or affected part thereof) so that it becomes non-infringing, while maintaining substantially the same functionality. If neither (a) nor (b) is commercially practicable, then we may, in our sole and absolute discretion, terminate your rights under this Agreement with respect to the Product, and: (x) refund to you on a pro rata basis the Fees paid by you to Infinidat or its authorized reseller or distributor (as the case may be) with respect to the Product, subject to a 3 year straight-line depreciation schedule; and (y) in the case of Support Services purchased directly from Infinidat, provide a refund of any periodic fees paid to Infinidat for any portion of such Support Services not yet received with respect to the affected portion of the Product.
- 8.4. Infinidat shall have no obligation or liability with respect to an Infringement Claim that is based upon or results from: (a) the combination of the Product (or part thereof) with any equipment, hardware, firmware, or software not furnished or approved in writing by Infinidat, if there would have been no infringement but for such combination; (b) any modification to/of the Product (or part thereof) not performed by Infinidat; (c) unauthorized use of the Product (or part thereof); (d) your failure to install or have installed any Enhancements to the Product provided by Infinidat, if installation of such Enhancement would have avoided the infringement; and/or (e) our compliance with your specifications, designs and/or instructions. This (Indemnification) states the entire obligation and liability of Infinidat, and your sole and exclusive remedy, with respect to an Infringement Claim.
9. Limitation of Liability. IN NO EVENT WILL INFINIDAT OR ITS AFFILIATES OR BE LIABLE FOR: (I) ANY CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES; (II) ANY LOSS OF PROFITS, LOSS OF BUSINESS, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, LOSS OF REVENUE, OR LOSS OF ANTICIPATED SAVINGS; (III) ANY LOSS OR CORRUPTION OF, OR DAMAGE TO, DATA, REPUTATION, OR GOODWILL; AND/OR (IV) THE COST OF PROCURING ANY SUBSTITUTE GOODS OR SERVICES. THE TOTAL CUMULATIVE LIABILITY OF INFINIDAT AND ITS AFFILIATES UNDER, OR OTHERWISE IN CONNECTION WITH, THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT EXCEED (A) THE AMOUNT PAID BY YOU TO, AND ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY, INFINIDAT OR AN AUTHORIZED PARTNER FOR THE PRODUCT IN WHICH THE LIABILITY WAS INCURRED, OR (B) IF NO SINGLE QUOTE IS SO APPLICABLE, THE AMOUNT OF FEES (IF ANY) PAID BY YOU, AND ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY, INFINIDAT OR AN AUTHORIZED PARTNER DURING THE TWELVE (12) MONTH PERIOD IMMEDIATELY

PRECEDING THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO SUCH LIABILITY. THE FOREGOING EXCLUSIONS AND LIMITATIONS SHALL APPLY: (x) EVEN IF INFINIDAT OR ITS AFFILIATES HAVE BEEN ADVISED, OR SHOULD HAVE BEEN AWARE, OF THE POSSIBILITY OF LOSSES OR DAMAGES; (y) EVEN IF ANY REMEDY IN THIS AGREEMENT FAILS OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE; and (z) REGARDLESS OF THE THEORY OR BASIS OF LIABILITY (SUCH AS, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, BREACH OF CONTRACT OR WARRANTY, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, PRODUCT LIABILITY OR TORT). SOME JURISDICTIONS MAY NOT ALLOW THE LIMITATION OR EXCLUSION OF INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES FOR THE PRODUCTS, SO THE ABOVE LIMITATIONS OR EXCLUSIONS MAY NOT APPLY

TO YOU WHERE, AND TO THE EXTENT THAT, APPLICABLE LAW REQUIRES SUCH LIABILITY. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT IMPAIR THE U.S. GOVERNMENT'S RIGHT TO RECOVER FOR FRAUD OR CRIMES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS CONTRACT UNDER ANY FEDERAL FRAUD STATUTE, INCLUDING THE FALSE CLAIMS ACT, 31 U.S.C. 3729-3733. FURTHERMORE, THIS CLAUSE SHALL NOT IMPAIR NOR PREJUDICE THE U.S. GOVERNMENT'S RIGHT TO EXPRESS REMEDIES PROVIDED IN THE GSA SCHEDULE CONTRACT (E.G., CLAUSE 552.238-75 – PRICE REDUCTIONS, CLAUSE 52.212-4(H) – PATENT INDEMNIFICATION, AND GSAR 552.215-72 – PRICE ADJUSTMENT – FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE INFORMATION).

10. Confidentiality. During the Term, each party may have access to certain information of the other party, whether furnished before or after your entering into this Agreement, and in any form or media and regardless of the manner in which furnished (collectively, "Confidential Information"). The receiving party agrees: (x) not to disclose the disclosing party's Confidential Information to any third parties other than to its employees, consultants or Affiliates on a strict "need to know" basis only; (y) not to use or reproduce any of the disclosing party's Confidential Information for any purposes except to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under this Agreement; (z) use at least reasonable care to keep and protect the disclosing party's Confidential Information confidential. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the disclosing party may disclose Confidential Information if required by law provided that the receiving party has given the disclosing party prompt notice. Infinidat recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which requires that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.
11. Term and Termination. This EULA shall be applicable for the entire duration of the License period granted to you under the purchase documents and as applicable, those clauses that inherently apply post termination, shall accordingly be valid for a period of seven years, following the termination of any License.
12. Export Controls. You shall comply with all, and shall be solely responsible for obtaining all required authorizations and licenses from applicable government authorities under, Export Control Laws, in connection with your use of the Product and Documentation.
13. US Government Rights. To the extent applicable it is confirmed that the Software is "commercial computer software" and the Documentation is "commercial computer software documentation," pursuant FAR Section 12.212, as applicable. If you are an agency, department, employee or other entity of the United States Government, then your access to and use of any part of the Software and/or the Documentation shall be subject solely to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
14. Assignment. This License Agreement and any rights or obligations hereunder: (a) may not be assigned, sublicensed or otherwise transferred by you without the express prior written consent of Infinidat. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement shall bind and benefit and be enforceable by each party and its respective successors and permitted assigns. Any prohibited assignment shall be null and void.
15. Governing Law and Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed exclusively in accordance with (i) the Federal laws of the United States. The U.N. Convention on Contracts for International Sale of Goods shall not apply to the Agreement.
16. General
  - 16.1. Entire Agreement. This License, together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule Pricelist and Purchase Order(s) (i) constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof; and (ii) may be modified only by a writing signed by both parties.
  - 16.2. Notice. You agree that Infinidat may send you notices by email, by regular mail, and/or via postings on or through the Infinidat Website.
  - 16.3. Waiver. No failure or delay by either party in exercising or enforcing any right, power or remedy under this Agreement (or otherwise at law or in equity) will operate as a waiver thereof. Waivers shall apply only in the specific instance in which given. Any waiver by Infinidat of any provision of this Agreement shall only be valid if in writing, duly signed, and sent to you via regular mail.

16.4. Severability. If any court of law that has jurisdiction rules that any provision of this Agreement is invalid, then such invalid provision will not affect any of the remaining provisions of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached HireVue, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

HIREVUE, INC.

HIREVUE, INC. LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

MASTER SERVICE AGREEMENT

HireVue, Inc. ("HireVue") a Delaware corporation located at 10876 S. River Front Parkway, Suite 600, South Jordan, UT 84095, offers Services (defined below) through its proprietary Platform (defined below). HireVue hereby agrees to provide its Services to the Buyer identified on a Service Order (defined below) executed in connection with this Master Service Agreement, who desires to subscribe to and use HireVue Services in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Master Service Agreement ("Agreement"). Buyer and HireVue are referred to herein each individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties".

Definitions.

"Authorized Users" means those individuals designated by or invited by Buyer, in accordance with this agreement, to use the Services.

"Buyer Content" means all content created by or provided by Buyer or its Authorized Users and submitted to the Platform.

"Documentation" shall mean the descriptions of the HireVue Services set forth at <http://hirevue.com/product-documentation>.

"End User" means a user of the Platform that responds to requests from Buyer or its Authorized Users through the Platform.

"Platform" means the HireVue team acceleration platform including any related mobile applications, used to deliver the Services, features and functionality described in the Documentation.

"Responses" means all responses to Buyer Content submitted to the Platform by End User.

"Scheduled Downtime" means the following Scheduled Downtime periods ("Maintenance Windows") currently reserved by HireVue, which may be changed from time to time on notice to Buyer: A maximum of four (4) hours per semi-monthly period between the hours of Midnight (12:00 A.M.) and 4:00 A.M. Mountain Time.

"Services" means, collectively, the Platform and related services provided hereunder, including the Subscription Services, the features and functionality described in the Documentation, and any other professional services and customer support.

"Service Order" means the document that specifies the Services to which the Buyer has subscribed, the applicable subscription term(s), and applicable fees. This document may also be referred to as a "Purchase Order", the form and substance of which must be approved by both Parties in writing.

"Site Availability" means the percentage calculated by dividing (a) the Site Uptime by (b) the difference between the total amount of clock time and the Scheduled Downtime actually used by HireVue, in a given Month.

"Site Uptime" shall mean the total time in a month during which all material parts of the HireVue website are operating properly and available for access and use by Authorized Users.

"Subscription Services" are defined as the HireVue hosted software services to which the Buyer purchases a subscription pursuant to a Service Order.

"Unscheduled Downtime" means the number of seconds the Services are unavailable in a particular month which are due to (i) force majeure events beyond the reasonable control of HireVue or HireVue's service providers, or (ii) a general failure of the Internet.

"Usage Data" means entirely anonymized data not attributable to any Authorized User, End User or Buyer which reflects data points such as volume of interviews and general patterns of use.

Ordering, Services and Data.

Buyer shall order Services by mutual execution of a Service Order which provides, at a minimum, the specific Subscription Services ordered and the price and term for such Subscription Services. The Service Order shall be incorporated into this Agreement by reference and in the event of a conflict between the terms of a Service Order and this Master Service Agreement, the terms of the Service Order shall prevail. Additional Services ordered in any subsequent Service Orders shall be governed by, and incorporated by reference into this Agreement.

HireVue hereby grants to Buyer permission during the applicable subscription term identified in the applicable Service Order to allow Authorized Users to access and use the features and functions of the HireVue Services for which Buyer has paid all applicable fees via a browser or the HireVue mobile application ("Mobile App") for Buyer's internal business use.

Buyer hereby grants HireVue permission during the Term to (i) reproduce, distribute, display and perform Buyer Content to Authorized Users and End User in connection with providing the Subscription Services on behalf of Buyer, and (ii) to access and use the Responses ("Buyer Data") to provide the Subscription Services to and on behalf of Buyer.

Buyer and HireVue acknowledge and agree that, as between Buyer and HireVue, Buyer Data is the property of Buyer. Buyer shall be responsible to ensure the End User has given legally sufficient consent for Buyer's collection, retention and use of their Responses. HireVue shall provide a mechanism in the Platform to collect such consent.

HireVue collects and uses Usage Data for its internal research and development purposes and may disclose Usage Data in an aggregated format that in no way identifies Buyer or any particular Authorized User or End User.

Except for the rights expressly granted herein, no other rights, are granted to Buyer under this Agreement, whether expressly, by implication, estoppel, or otherwise, and all rights not expressly granted herein are reserved by HireVue. All right, title and interest in and to the Services, any software used by HireVue in connection with the Services, and related documentation are and shall remain the exclusive property of HireVue and/or its licensors, and nothing herein grants to Buyer any right to access copies of any such software, whether in source or object code form. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that: (i) the Platform, any software used in connection with the Services and related documentation are protected under U.S. and foreign copyright and other intellectual property laws; (ii) HireVue and its licensors retain all copyrights and other intellectual property rights in the Platform, any software used in connecting with the Platform and related documentation; and (iii) Buyer acquires no ownership in or to the Platform, software, data, or related documentation.

Fees and Payment.

Fees for Subscription Services are invoiced annually in advance, net thirty, or as otherwise expressly agreed and set forth in terms of the GSA Schedule Contract and Service Order or Purchase Order, and payments are due thirty (30) days from date of invoice. If all undisputed invoices are not paid when due, HireVue reserves the right to suspend access to the Services until payment is current. Such suspension shall not extend the expiration date of Services ordered. Except as expressly provided herein all amounts paid hereunder are final and nonrefundable.

The Contract Price excludes all State and Local taxes levied on or measured by the contract or sales price of the services or completed supplies furnished under this contract. HireVue shall include applicable taxes that will be stated separately on invoices issued to the Customer. Customer agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1.

Term, Termination, and Expiration of Agreement and Renewal.

The term of this Agreement shall commence upon execution of this Agreement ("Effective Date") and shall continue until the sooner to occur of: (i) expiration of all Service Orders; or (ii) termination per Section 4.2 ("Term").

When the licensee is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be made as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, HireVue shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer.

Upon any expiration or termination of the Agreement, Buyer will cease all use of the Services and destroy all copies Documentation (if any) that are in Buyer's possession or under Buyer's control. Upon termination or expiration of the Agreement or a specific Service Order, Buyer shall have the following options with regard to Buyer Content and Buyer Data related to each of the terminated or expired Services: 1) if Buyer requests in writing, on or prior to the date of such termination or expiration, HireVue shall provide Buyer with a copy of the Buyer Data stored on HireVue servers, and HireVue shall then delete all such Buyer Data from HireVue servers; 2) Buyer may purchase a read-only subscription to the Platform for an annual fee equal to 15% of the last annualized subscription fee for up to three years or as otherwise mutually agreed by Parties; or 3) HireVue shall purge remaining Buyer Content and Buyer Data from the HireVue servers, and HireVue shall have no further responsibility to retain copies of Buyer Data. The parties agree and acknowledge that the foregoing requirement does not apply to Analytical Data to the extent it does not contain or embody Buyer Data in a form that can be attributed to Buyer.

Unless otherwise stated in a Service Order, the start date for Subscription Services purchased under this Agreement shall be the date Buyer is provided login credentials for the Platform.

Restrictions on Use. Buyer shall not, and shall prevent its Authorized Users from using the Platform to: (i) resell, rent, lend, lease, distribute, or timeshare the Platform or otherwise use the Platform on behalf of any third party (including on a "service bureau" or similar basis), or otherwise provide third parties with access or grant third parties rights to the Platform other than as expressly permitted by HireVue, (ii) alter or remove any marks or proprietary legends contained in the Platform; (iii) circumvent or otherwise interfere with any authentication or security measures of the Platform; (iv) interfere with or disrupt the integrity or performance of the Platform; (v) send SPAM or any other form of duplicative and unsolicited messages, other than marketing and promotional messages to End Users as enabled by the intended features of the Platform; (vi) access all or any portion of the Platform by means of any crawler, scraper, bot, spider, or any other similar script or automated process; (vii) transmit through or post on the Platform unlawful, immoral, libelous, tortious, infringing, or defamatory material; or (viii) transmit material containing software viruses or other harmful or deleterious computer code, files, scripts, agents, or programs. Buyer shall not reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble or otherwise attempt to discover the object code, source code or underlying ideas or algorithms of the Platform, and shall not modify, translate, or create derivative works based on any element of the Platform.

Buyer's Responsibilities.

Buyer understands and acknowledges that HireVue is solely a technology platform provider and does not participate in the interview, selection, or hiring of candidates, which is Buyer's sole responsibility, notwithstanding use of the Service as a part of and in connection with such activities. Accordingly, it is Buyer's sole responsibility to comply with all applicable laws regarding its use of the Service and with the Buyer Content it presents to its Authorized Users and End Users, including without limitation all applicable employment and hiring laws and regulations and all record keeping and data protection regulations in connection with the collection, processing, disclosure, subject access requests, retention, and transfer of personally identifiable data under the laws of the country and any other local jurisdiction in which Buyer is operating or collecting and transferring personal data. HireVue shall have no liability related to the Buyer Content presented to Buyer's Authorized Users or End Users, or for record keeping requirements and data protection obligations applicable to Buyer unless expressly assumed by HireVue pursuant to this Agreement.

Buyer is responsible for providing and maintaining adequate facilities, computer equipment, internet connections, connectivity and firewall access required for the use of the Services. Such technical requirements can be viewed at <http://hir.vu/15S5OOH>.

Buyer agrees not to ask Respondents for, and to instruct Respondents not to provide, any PHI or SPI in any Responses. Should Buyer become aware that any PHI or SPI is provided by an End Users in any Response, Buyer agrees to promptly notify HireVue and request redaction of such information from the interview or deletion of the interview where redaction is not feasible. As used herein PHI means Protected Health Information as that term is defined in the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA). SPI means Sensitive Personal Information consisting of date of birth, social security number, driver's license or other state-issued identification number, or financial account information.

Buyer shall notify HireVue in the event of a subject access request (or equivalent request from Respondents) and provide HireVue direction with regard to correcting or deleting personal data in response to such requests made to Buyer. HireVue shall notify Buyer within five (5) business days if it receives any such subject access requests related to End Users and both parties shall cooperate to provide a response and take action in compliance with applicable legal requirements.

Warranty

HireVue shall provide the Services in a professional and workmanlike manner and in compliance with the Documentation in all material respects. During the subscription term set forth in an applicable Service Order, in the event that Buyer notifies HireVue that the Services do not materially conform to the specifications set forth in such Service Order and the product documentation provided by HireVue, HireVue shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Buyer with support to address such non-conformity. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH HEREIN, THE SERVICES ARE PROVIDED "AS-IS" AND "WHERE-IS", AND HIREVUE MAKES NO OTHER REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, OR CONDITIONS, EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY, TO BUYER OR ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW ANY AND ALL SUCH IMPLIED OR STATUTORY WARRANTIES AND CONDITIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE SERVICES, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION WITH RESPECT TO THE RESPONSES, METRICS, SCORES, AND ANALYTICS, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO THOSE AS TO THE ACCURACY, SECURITY, RELIABILITY, PERFORMANCE, RESULTS, TIMELINESS, COMPLETENESS, TITLE, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE OF THE SERVICES, DELIVERABLES OR ANY INFORMATION PROVIDED IN CONNECTION THEREWITH, OR ANY SELECTIONS OR HIRING DECISIONS MADE BY BUYER IN CONNECTION WITH THE USE OF THE SERVICES OR OTHERWISE. HIREVUE DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE SERVICES WILL ALWAYS BE AVAILABLE OR ERROR-FREE, AND MAKES NO REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY WITH RESPECT TO ANY RESULTS OBTAINED FROM USE OF THE SERVICES. THIS AGREEMENT DOES NOT LIMIT OR DISCLAIM ANY OF THE WARRANTIES SPECIFIED IN THE GSA SCHEDULE 70 CONTRACT UNDER FAR 52.212-4(O). IN THE EVENT OF A BREACH OF WARRANTY, THE U.S. GOVERNMENT RESERVES ALL RIGHTS AND REMEDIES UNDER THE CONTRACT, THE FEDERAL ACQUISITION REGULATIONS, AND THE CONTRACT DISPUTES ACT, 41 U.S.C. 7101-7109.

7.2. HireVue shall provide Buyer and the Authorized Users access to the Subscription Services at all times outside of Scheduled Downtime periods. Excluding Scheduled Downtime, HireVue guarantees a minimum Site Availability of ninety-nine percent (99.0%) during each month. Excluded from this Site Availability calculation shall be Unscheduled Downtime. However, HireVue and its service providers will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide and maintain the Services in accordance with the terms of the Agreement during such Unscheduled Downtime.

7.3. Buyer understands and agrees that Buyer's download and/or use of any third party software or services (e.g. web browser or video plug ins) made available or required in conjunction with or through the Services is at Buyer's own discretion and risk and that Buyer will be solely responsible for any damages to Buyer's computer system or loss of data that results from the download or use of such third party software and services.

7.4. HireVue shall not be liable to Buyer under any circumstances in which a third party mobile application host (i.e. Apple, Google, RIM, etc.) or a third party service provider (i.e. Verizon, ATT, Sprint, etc.) fails to provide continuous connectivity or other service required for download, communication, or other functionality of the Platform.

7.5. Some states or other jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion of implied warranties, so the above exclusions may not apply to Buyer. Buyer may also have other rights that vary from state to state and jurisdiction to jurisdiction.

Optional Features. The following terms apply if Buyer enters a subscription for, uses or enables the following HireVue products, features or functionality.

If Buyer subscribes to use Coordinate (formerly known as Reschedge), Buyer hereby grants to HireVue the right to collect and store credentials for and to access Buyer's email and calendar application solely for the purpose of enabling functionality of Coordinate. Such information shall be considered Buyer's Confidential Information pursuant to section 14 below.

Public Share Links. If Buyer uses HireVue's Public Share Links feature to publish links to Buyer Content or Buyer Data on social media or other public mediums, Buyer agrees: a) Buyer has all the rights and licenses necessary to publicly share any content made accessible through the Public Share Links (including consent from the End User as applicable); b) Buyer shall not publicly share any content through the Public Share Links which is inappropriate, defamatory, profane, libelous, tortuous or in any way illegal; and c) HireVue shall have the right to remove any Public Share Links to content that violate (a) or (b) as solely determined by HireVue.

Direct Access Links. Buyer shall not be permitted to activate Direct Access Links functionality.

Integrations. HireVue and/or Buyer may partner with certain third party applicant tracking and other service providers (each, an "Integration Partner") to provide for integration of certain features of the Subscription Services (each, an "Integration"). If Buyer accesses HireVue's Services through the use of an Integration HireVue hereby authorizes Buyer to access and use the Subscription Services that Buyer has purchased hereunder through such Integrations. Buyer understands that Integration Partners may apply separate terms and charge separately for use of such Integrations, and that Buyer shall be solely responsible for compliance with any such terms and payment of any such fees charged by Integration Partners for Buyer's implementation and use of such Integrations. HIREVUE SHALL HAVE NO LIABILITY TO BUYER IF SUCH INTEGRATION IS UNAVAILABLE DUE TO ACTS OR OMISSIONS OF THE INTEGRATION PARTNER OR OUTAGES OF THE INTEGRATION PARTNER SOLUTION. SHOULD HIREVUE'S RIGHT TO INTEGRATE WITH SUCH INTEGRATION PARTNER SOLUTION TERMINATE, BUYER'S RIGHT TO USE THE INTEGRATION TO ACCESS THE HIREVUE SERVICES HEREUNDER SHALL ALSO TERMINATE AND BUYER MAY ACCESS THE HIREVUE SERVICES DIRECTLY THROUGH THE HIREVUE PLATFORM.

Insights (otherwise known as "IRIS"). Buyer hereby grants to HireVue permission during the Term to perform (or have a third-party service provider perform) certain processing, transcription, transformation, and analytics on the non-personally identifiable information included in Buyer Data and associated meta data and derivatives thereof (such as text transcripts of audio and audiovisual components, subsequent actions and results, etc.), alone and together with Usage Data, to derive certain mathematical, derivative, index, scoring, metric, associative, predictive, comparative, statistical, algorithmic, and contextual data therefrom (the "Analytical Data"). Unless otherwise stated in the Service Order, HireVue may use Analytical Data in connection with developing, enhancing, maintaining, supporting, and providing the HireVue Service to Buyer and HireVue's other customers, provided that HireVue may not disclose Buyer Data to any third party in raw form, or disclose any personal information regarding Authorized Users or End Users, or identify Buyer, Authorized Users or End Users on an individual basis as the source of such Analytical Data. In the event that the applicable Service Order excludes the foregoing rights and the Service Order includes the Insights Service, (a) Analytical Data will only be used to provide the Insights Service to Buyer, and (b) the Insights Service will NOT provide any analytical data derived from any other HireVue customers' use of the HireVue Service.

Publicity. During the term of this Agreement, Buyer hereby agrees that HireVue shall have the right, but not the obligation, to list Buyer as a customer who uses the Services on the HireVue website and/or in presentations and link to Buyer landing pages. HireVue will remove Buyer's name from any such list within thirty (30) days after any termination of this Agreement or upon Buyer's request. Neither party may issue any press release concerning this Agreement without the other party's consent. HireVue acknowledges that advertising is limited by GSAR 552.203-71.

Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable under any applicable statute or rule of law, it is to that extent to be deemed omitted. The remainder of the Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the maximum extent possible.

Assignment. This Agreement may not be assigned by either party without the other party's prior written approval, except that either party may assign this Agreement in connection with any merger, or reorganization or any sale or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets or stock. If the assigning party is Buyer and the merger or acquisition results in the size of the surviving or successor entity being materially larger than the size of Buyer prior to the merger or acquisition, Buyer and HireVue will meet in good faith to determine a commensurate increase in price for the remaining subscription period for any unlimited use subscriptions which will be executed in a new written Service Order and/or Purchase Order. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement shall be binding upon the parties, and upon their heirs, acquirers, executors, personal representatives, administrators, and assignees.

Indemnification and Limitation of Liability

HireVue shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Buyer and its affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents and contractors, from and against, and pay any costs, expenses and amounts finally awarded or agreed to in settlement of, any and all third party claims to the extent such claims are based upon (i) the negligence and/or willful misconduct of HireVue in performing this Agreement, (ii) any allegation that the software underlying the Platform, when used as provided and in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, infringes such third party's intellectual property rights, or (iii) HireVue's violation of applicable laws.

Reserved.

In all requests for indemnification under Section 12.1 above (i) Buyer shall promptly provide HireVue with written notice thereof and, at HireVue's request and expense, reasonable cooperation, information, and assistance in connection therewith; and (ii) HireVue shall have control and authority with respect to the defense, settlement, or compromise thereof, provided that it shall not settle any such claim without prior written consent of the indemnified party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or suit brought against the U.S. pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516.

IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FOR INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, CONSEQUENTIAL OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, DAMAGES TO PROPERTY, DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF USE, LOSS OF TIME, LOSS OF PROFITS OR INCOME, LOSS OF DATA, COST OF PROCUREMENT OF SUBSTITUTE GOODS OR SERVICES) EVEN IF SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. IN ADDITION, EXCEPT FOR INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS SET FORTH IN SECTION 12.1 ABOVE, UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL EITHER PARTY'S TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT EXCEED THE GREATER OF (1) AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE FEES PAID OR PAYABLE BY BUYER FOR THE SERVICE ORDER(S) THE CLAIMS ARE BASED ON OR (2) $50,000. SOME STATES OR OTHER JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW THE EXCLUSION OF CERTAIN DAMAGES, SO THE ABOVE EXCLUSIONS MAY NOT APPLY TO BUYER. BUYER MAY ALSO HAVE OTHER RIGHTS THAT VARY FROM STATE TO STATE AND JURISDICTION TO JURISDICTION.

12.5. THE FOREGOING EXCLUSION/LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM HIREVUE'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

Independent Contractors. HireVue and Buyer are independent contractors, and nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to create any partnership, joint venture, agency, franchise, sales representative, or employment relationship between the Parties. Neither Party is an agent or representative of the other nor is either Party authorized to, and shall not, make any warranties or representations or assume or create any other obligations on behalf of the other.

Confidentiality. 14.1. Each party (each a “Discloser”) agrees that, in the course of performing its obligations hereunder, either might provide to the other (the “Recipient”) or develop information identified as confidential or that reasonably could be construed as confidential (“Confidential Information”). HireVue’s Confidential Information shall include, but shall not be limited to, HireVue’s trade secrets, know-how, user manuals and screens, service development plans, service specifications, computer programs, marketing plans, financial data, and Buyer’s Confidential Information shall include, but shall not be limited to raw Buyer Data (excluding Analytical Data to the extent not embodying raw Buyer data), billing information, software, and systems. During the Term of this Agreement and at all times thereafter, the Recipient and its employees and agents shall maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information and not sell, license, publish, display, distribute, disclose or otherwise make available the Confidential Information to any third party nor use such Confidential Information except, in either case, as authorized by this Agreement or in connection with the performance or enforcement of this Agreement. The Recipient shall not disclose any such Confidential Information to persons not an employee or agent of Recipient nor to its Affiliates without the prior written consent of the Discloser. Any misuse or breach hereof must be reported promptly. Nevertheless and notwithstanding the foregoing statement, each party will attempt to comply with legally executed subpoena served upon such party.

The non-use and non-disclosure obligations of this Section 14 shall not apply to any information that (a) was already known to the Recipient at the time of disclosure, (b) was already in the public domain at the time of disclosure, or (c) was received or developed by the Recipient independent of any information received from the Discloser. Recipient may disclose information pursuant to a request under applicable law. Unless prohibited by law, if the information requested is Discloser Confidential information, Recipient shall notify Discloser of the request and give Discloser a reasonable opportunity to establish that the Discloser Confidential Information is exempt from disclosure under one or more exemptions under applicable law.

HireVue recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which requires that certain information be released, despite being characterized as “confidential” by the vendor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties will utilize best efforts to obtain the maximum protection available for HireVue Confidential Information.

Compliance with Laws. The parties shall, in the performance of all obligations hereunder, fully comply with all applicable international, Federal, State and local laws, ordinances, treaties, rules, regulations, orders and policies applicable to or binding upon them.

E-Business Activities. Either party may use a third party service provider in connection with ebusiness activities (e.g., to route or translate EDI or XML messages, or to host web based services). The party contracting with a service provider must require that such service provider (a) use information disclosed to or learned by such service provider in connection with providing services solely for the purpose of providing the applicable services, and (b) not disclose such information to any third party. Each party will be liable for the acts or omissions of its service provider in connection with activities contemplated by this Agreement.

Survival. The provisions of this Agreement that are intended to survive termination or expiration of this Agreement in order to achieve the fundamental purposes of this Agreement will survive termination or expiration.

Entirety of Agreement. The parties agree that this Agreement, together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule Pricelist Service Order and/or Purchase Order(s), is the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between the parties, which supersedes and merges all prior proposals, understandings and all other agreements, oral or written, between the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. In no event will contractual terms inserted in a Buyer’s purchase order be incorporated into or made a part of this Agreement.

Force Majeure. Except for any obligation to pay amounts due, either Party hereto will be temporarily excused from performance hereunder, in whole or in part, for any period of time that the Party is prevented from performing its obligations as a result of an act of God, governmental regulation or act, war, natural catastrophe, civil disobedience, court order, or other cause beyond the Party’s reasonable control. Such non-performance will not constitute grounds for default.

Governing Law. This Agreement is made in accordance with and is governed and construed under The Federal Laws of The United States, without reference to conflicts of laws principles.

Legal Advice. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that HireVue has not and will not provide Buyer with any legal advice and specifically HireVue has not given legal advice regarding compliance with employment, data privacy, or other relevant laws, rules, or regulations in the jurisdictions in which Buyer uses the Services nor will Buyer construe any HireVue communications as legal advice. Buyer agrees that it is solely responsible for drafting and approving its own Buyer Content, including legal review as necessary.

Reserved.

Acknowledgement. Each party acknowledges that it has read and understands this Agreement, expressly agrees the signatory hereto has full power and authority to execute this Agreement, and agrees to be bound by its terms and conditions. Further, it represents that it has consulted, or has had the opportunity to consult with its legal, tax, and financial advisors in connection with the execution and performance of the Agreement. Buyer understands and agrees that except as expressly set forth in Section 4.2 HireVue offers no buy-backs, money back guarantees, or refunds. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that Buyer is not relying upon any verbal or written representations whatsoever, except as expressly set forth in this Agreement. This Agreement can only be modified in writing, signed by the parties, or their duly authorized representatives. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that HireVue does not guarantee or represent that any software or services conveyed or provided hereunder, when or where accessed, used, provided, or installed, will guarantee any results.

By signing below, the signatory expressly acknowledges and agrees he/she has all requisite power and authority to bind HireVue or Buyer, as applicable, to the terms of this Agreement.

INFOCYTE

InfocYTE HUNT™ End User License Agreement

This End User License Agreement (“EULA”) is between InfocYTE and the Ordering Activity that has placed an order for the InfocYTE HUNT Platform (the “Ordering Activity”). Ordering Activity may not use the Platform unless and until Ordering Activity have consented to be bound by all of the terms, conditions and restrictions of, and have become a party to, this EULA, by signing this EULA if InfocYTE or its authorized reseller has presented the EULA for signature. The Platform license stated below extends only to the entity that is a party to this EULA and not to that entity’s affiliates.

Capitalized terms used in this EULA are defined in the Section where they are first used or are defined in Section 21 (Definitions) below.

Platform. The “Platform” is InfocYTE’s generally available commercial release of InfocYTE HUNT comprised of: (i) the on-premises HUNT and survey module software to be deployed on the Ordering Activity’s network, (ii) the InfocYTE-hosted Incyte Cloud Service, and (iii) Documentation, collectively, as it may be updated by InfocYTE. Ordering Activity may use the Platform for the Subscription Term defined in Ordering Activity’s Order, subject to the terms, conditions, and restrictions stated in this EULA. Ordering Activity’s “Subscription” includes the rights (i) to use the Platform for the Subscription Term and (ii) to receive Support.

Subscription Term. Ordering Activity may use the Platform for the Subscription Term. The initial Subscription Term is stated in the Order. The Subscription Term begins on the day that InfocYTE makes the Platform accessible to Ordering Activity by providing Ordering Activity with access codes and other information that enables Ordering Activity to download the HUNT software and remotely access the Incyte Cloud service. Orders do not automatically renew. If Ordering Activity has not purchased a Subscription renewal before the expiration of a Subscription Term, the Order expires and InfocYTE has no further obligation to provide the Subscription. If Ordering Activity adds Endpoints to Ordering Activity’s Subscription during a Subscription Term, the Subscription Term for the additional Endpoints is coterminous with the then-current initial or renewal Subscription Term of the original Subscription Order.

Payment. In consideration for the rights granted under Ordering Activity Subscription, Ordering Activity agree to pay all fees specified in Ordering Activity’s Order within 30 days of invoice, or as otherwise specified in the applicable Purchase Order.

Support. Support includes assistance to Ordering Activity in connection with Ordering Activity’s use of the Platform, and updates to the Platform software to fix bugs, correct errors, or enhance functionality that InfocYTE releases on a generally available commercial basis to all subscribers of a Platform product without additional charge. InfocYTE Support plans are limited to correcting errors, bugs or other issues with the Platform and do not extend to any Third Party Products or technologies Ordering Activity use with the Platform, any issues arising from modifications to the Platform not made or authorized by InfocYTE, or the use of the Platform other than as authorized by this EULA. If Ordering Activity requests Support that is not covered by Ordering Activity’s Support plan, InfocYTE may invoice Ordering Activity at its then-current GSA Schedule time and materials rates in connection with the request, provided that InfocYTE informs Ordering Activity that Ordering Activity will incur charges promptly on learning that the request is not covered by Ordering Activity’s Support plan.

Incyte Cloud Service. The Incyte Cloud Service element of the Platform will generally be available to Ordering Activity 24 hours per day, 7 days per week, except that InfocYTE may disable access to the Incyte Cloud Service as necessary to perform maintenance. InfocYTE will use commercially reasonable efforts to perform maintenance after 5:00 p.m. and before 6:00 a.m. or after 5:00 p.m. Friday and before 6:00 a.m. Monday, United States Central time (GMT-6). InfocYTE will provide Ordering Activity with notice of maintenance start and completion via the customer portal or an email.

Contact Person. Ordering Activity must designate an employee or agent to act as the contact person for receiving and managing all communications between us related to Ordering Activity’s use of the Platform. Ordering Activity may change Ordering Activity’s contact person upon written notice to InfocYTE.

Security. InfocYTE will provide Ordering Activity with information necessary to access and use the Platform. Ordering Activity must use reasonable care to protect the confidentiality of Ordering Activity’s access information, and Ordering Activity is solely responsible for any use of the Platform that is enabled by means of Ordering Activity's access information, even if the use is unauthorized. Ordering Activity must notify Infocyte immediately if Ordering Activity believes the confidentiality of Ordering Activity's access information has been compromised. Infocyte will maintain reasonable administrative, physical, and technical safeguards for protection of the security, confidentiality and integrity of the Platform. On Ordering Activity's request, Infocyte will provide Ordering Activity with a description of its security measures for the Platform (the "Security Documentation"). Ordering Activity acknowledges that the Security Documentation is sensitive confidential information of Infocyte and agrees that Ordering Activity will not disclose the Security Documentation to any third party or use the Security Documentation for any purpose other than evaluating the security of the Platform. Ordering Activity, and not Infocyte, is responsible for deciding if Infocyte's security measures meet Ordering Activity's requirements in light of Ordering Activity's business goals and any laws or regulations applicable to Ordering Activity's business. Ordering Activity agrees that Infocyte is not responsible for any harm Ordering Activity may suffer as a result of a security incident arising from Ordering Activity's use of the Platform unless the incident resulted from Infocyte's failure to properly implement and maintain the security measures described in its Security Documentation.

Platform License and Restrictions. Ordering Activity may use the Platform to assess the number of Endpoints for which Ordering Activity has purchased a Subscription. Ordering Activity may use the Platform only for Ordering Activity's internal business purposes and not as part of a services offering to any third parties. Ordering Activity may use software provided to Ordering Activity as part of the Platform only in its executable form. Ordering Activity may not transfer or sublicense the Platform to, or make the Platform available for use by, any person except Ordering Activity's employees and Ordering Activity's permitted contractors as described in Section 17 (Assignment, Contractors). Ordering Activity may deploy as many survey modules as reasonably incident to Ordering Activity's licensed use, and Ordering Activity may make a reasonable number of backup or archival copies of the analytics engine, but Ordering Activity may not otherwise copy the Platform. The survey modules are designed to be self-deleting, but in the event a survey module does not self-delete, Ordering Activity must delete the module on completion of the assessment for which the module was deployed. Ordering Activity may not use the Platform in connection with any activity where the failure of the Platform might result in death, personal injury or severe physical or environmental damage, such as controlling aircraft or other modes of human mass transportation, nuclear or chemical facilities, life support systems, implantable medical equipment, motor vehicles, and weaponry systems. Ordering Activity's license is worldwide, subject to applicable export laws. Ordering Activity's license is nonexclusive. Ordering Activity may not modify the Platform or create any derivative works of the Platform. Ordering Activity may not reverse engineer, disassemble or decompile the Platform except as permitted by applicable law notwithstanding this restriction, and then on advance written notice to Infocyte of at least 30 days. Ordering Activity may not publish any benchmark or other performance test results regarding the Platform. Ordering Activity may not remove any copyright, trademark, or other proprietary notices that appear on or with the Platform. The Platform may include software that is licensed under open source licenses. License terms, notices, attributions and other information about the open source elements of the Platform are available in the licensing file distributed with the Platform. If there is a conflict between this EULA and any open source license for software included in the Platform, the open source license will control.

Third Party Products. Any Third Party Products provided by Infocyte are subject to the terms of the license and other agreement terms of the third party provided to Ordering Activity by Infocyte or accompanying the Third Party Product. Specifically, but without limitation, all operating system, virtualization and other general systems software is a Third Party Product subject to separate licensing terms, conditions and restrictions of the third party providers. For example, Ordering Activity's use of Windows Server software or other Microsoft software is subject to the Microsoft Corporation's license terms. Ordering Activity may be required to accept the end user license and other terms of the third party providers as a condition to Ordering Activity's use of the Third Party Products.

Records and Verification. Ordering Activity must keep complete and accurate records regarding Ordering Activity's use of the Platform, and Ordering Activity may not delete or obscure any information regarding the use of the Platform that is generated by the Platform. On Infocyte's request, Ordering Activity will provide reasonable information to evidence Ordering Activity's use of the Services in compliance with this EULA and each Order, certified as "true, complete and correct" by Ordering Activity's chief financial officer. In addition, Infocyte may perform an audit of Ordering Activity's records, either onsite, or by means of remote access, on ten days advance written notice, provided that the audit must be conducted during normal business hours and may not unreasonably interfere with Ordering Activity's normal business operations. Such audit shall also be in accordance with the applicable Government security requirements.

Reserved.

Malware Risk. Ordering Activity's use of the Platform may reveal Malware on Ordering Activity's systems, and the Platform may recover and retain a copy in an inert state for evidence retention. The removal or transfer of Malware may introduce additional risks to Ordering Activity's network. Ordering Activity assumes all risk and responsibility for the possession, handling and use of Malware identified by, or exported from, the Platform.

Termination. On termination of the EULA, Ordering Activity must uninstall all Platform elements from Ordering Activity systems and destroy or render them unusable. On Infocyte's request, Ordering Activity will certify in writing that Ordering Activity has complied with this Section. Those terms of this EULA that are intended by their nature to survive expiration or termination of this EULA shall survive expiration or termination.

Warranty and Warranty Disclaimers.

Warranties. Infocyte warrants that (i) the Incyte Cloud Service elements of the Platform will be available to Ordering Activity without material interruption, except for scheduled or emergency maintenance; (ii) it will use commercially reasonable efforts to update the Incyte Cloud Service with new threat information as it becomes available; and (iii) its support personnel will use commercially reasonable efforts to resolve any Support issue within the target resolution times stated in the Support plan. If the Platform or Services fail to conform to the applicable warranty, Infocyte's sole obligation, and Ordering Activity's sole and exclusive remedy, is: (i) if the failure is curable, Infocyte's cure of the failure in a commercially prompt manner, or (ii) if the failure is not curable, Infocyte's refund of the fees paid for the non-conforming part of the Services, or for Ordering Activity's use of the Platform during the period of nonconformance.

Warranty Exclusions. Infocyte's warranty is void as to Ordering Activity's use of the Platform other than as permitted by this EULA or in a manner not contemplated by the Documentation. The warranty is void as to any version of the Platform if Ordering Activity has not implemented each Infocyte maintenance release for the analytics engine within 45 days of the date that the release is made available to Ordering Activity. Ordering Activity acknowledges that Infocyte is not responsible for the security of Ordering Activity's network generally, and that Infocyte does not represent or warrant that the Platform meets Ordering Activity's particular security requirements or the requirements of any laws or regulations governing Ordering Activity's operations.

Warranty Disclaimer. Except as expressly stated in this Section, Infocyte makes no representation or warranty whatsoever regarding the Platform, and the Platform is provided AS IS. Infocyte makes no representation or warranty whatsoever regarding any Third Party Products, and as between Ordering Activity and Infocyte any Third Party Products are provided AS IS. Infocyte does not warrant that the Platform will be error free or uninterrupted, or that the Platform will identify all threats present on Ordering Activity's network. Infocyte disclaims any implied or statutory warranties, such as a warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and noninfringement, and disclaims any warranty that may arise from a course of dealing. Any warranty that cannot be excluded under applicable law is limited in duration to 30 days from the event giving rise to the warranty.

Reserved.

Indemnification. Infocyte shall defend and hold Ordering Activity harmless from any claim by a third party that the Platform infringes any United States patent, trade secret or copyright of that third party, provided that Ordering Activity (i) notify Infocyte promptly in writing of any such allegation or claim, (ii) reasonably cooperate with Infocyte to settle or defend such allegation or claim, and (iii) grant Infocyte authority and control of the defense or settlement of such allegation or claim to the extent permitted under 28 U.S.C. 516. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Infocyte shall have no obligations under this Section to the extent any infringement allegation or claim is based upon or arises out of (i) any modification or alteration to the Platform not approved in writing by Infocyte, (ii) any combination or use of the Platform with products or services not supplied by Infocyte or approved in writing by Infocyte in advance of such combination, or (iii) use of the Platform not in accordance with applicable Documentation provided by Infocyte or outside the scope of the rights granted under this EULA.

Assignment, Contractors. Neither party may assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder, whether by operation of law or otherwise, without the other party's prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld). Ordering Activity may not allow any person to use the Platform other than: (i) Ordering Activity's employees and individual contractors acting under Ordering Activity's direct supervision, and (ii) the personnel of outsourcers who are performing an internal business function for Ordering Activity and on the condition that the outsourcer has expressly agreed that its use of the Platform is subject to this EULA. Ordering Activity remains responsible for Ordering Activity's contractors and outsourcers' use of the Platform in violation of the terms of this EULA. Infocyte may use subcontractors to perform its obligations under this EULA.

Rights in Data. Ordering Activity retains all right, title and interest in and to Ordering Activity's Data. Infocyte will use Ordering Activity's Data solely for the purpose of providing the Services. Ordering Activity acknowledges that the Platform collects a broad range of system information. The Platform does not target the collection of data stored on or processed by means of the systems assessed, but may unavoidably capture this type of data. Infocyte will not use this data for any purpose and will use reasonable means to protect the security of this data. If Infocyte discovers that it has captured more than an incidental amount of this type of data, Infocyte will inform Ordering Activity and will destroy the data.

Rights in Intellectual Property. Except for the license rights expressly stated in this EULA, Infocyte and its licensors retain all right, title and interest in and to the Platform and all related intellectual property, including all Infocyte trademarks. Ordering Activity's license confers no title or ownership in the Platform and is not a sale of any rights in the Platform. If you provide any feedback, comments, or suggestions for the improvement of the Platform or any other Infocyte products or services ("Suggestions"), you hereby license the Suggestions and all related intellectual property to Infocyte on a non-exclusive, worldwide, fully paid, perpetual, irrevocable basis for Infocyte to use, disclose, modify, reproduce, license, distribute, commercialize and otherwise freely exploit without restriction of any kind, without right of accounting except for as limited in advertising under GSAR 552.203-71. Ordering Activity acknowledges that data generated by Ordering Activity's use of the Services is not Ordering Activity's Data, and that Infocyte may use this data for the purpose of improving its Platform and operations generally and as indicated in Section 18, so long as such use does not entail the disclosure of any information that would identify Ordering Activity or any individual in relation to the data.

Export Compliance. The Platform may be subject to export laws and regulations of the United States and other jurisdictions. Ordering Activity may not permit users to access or use the Platform in a U.S. embargoed country or in violation of any U.S. export law or regulation, or in a manner that causes InfocYTE to be in violation of U.S. export laws, even if the use is permitted under the laws applicable to Ordering Activity or the user. Each party represents that it is not on any restricted persons list maintained by the U.S., Canada, or any member of the European Union. "Export laws" include the U.S. Export Administration Regulations (Title 15 of the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 730 et seq.), International Traffic in Arms Regulations (Title 22 of the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Parts 120-130), the economic sanctions rules and regulations implemented under statutory authority and/or President's Executive Orders and administered by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control (Title 31 of the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 500 et seq.), the EU's restrictive measures as published on the website of the European External Action Service, and the applicable export laws of any other jurisdiction.

Definitions. InfocYTE means InfocYTE, Inc., a Delaware corporation; Documentation means the commercially available, general release version of materials describing the Platform or its use, whether in print or digital form. Examples of Documentation are user manuals, administration guides, installation guides, training manuals, white papers, specifications, designs, test plans and test results, configuration guides, reference architectures, FAQs, and issues documentation. Documentation does not include any advertising or marketing materials; Endpoint means a network endpoint, such as a workstation or server. Virtual servers, virtual desktops and other logically distinct endpoints are each an "Endpoint;" Malware means any virus, malware, spyware, ransomware, adware, or other code or information that is designed to interrupt the normal use of an information system, or destroy or corrupt any data, or covertly transmit information; Order means the written order signed and submitted by Ordering Activity to the InfocYTE authorized reseller (or to InfocYTE as applicable) and accepted by the reseller (or InfocYTE as applicable) that lists the Platform subscription products and Support plan, fees, use limitations, and other transaction terms (which, in the event of any conflict with any term of this EULA, shall prevail over this EULA); Results means information or output that results from the use of the Platform, such as scan results, reports, and raw data, in any form, and on any media that they may be captured, recorded or communicated; Services means any services that InfocYTE has agreed to provide under this EULA; Support has the meaning given in Section 4 (Support); Third Party Product(s) means any software, services, goods or other products or technology that are provided to Ordering Activity by a third party, or that are provided by InfocYTE but are: (i) covered by an open source license, or (ii) identified by InfocYTE with a brand name or logo that is not an InfocYTE brand name or logo, or (iii) provided subject to Ordering Activity's agreement to the third party's legal terms and conditions; Ordering Activity's Data means the data stored on or processed by or through Ordering Activity's information technology systems that are assessed by InfocYTE as part of the Services, including (i) personally identifiable information, health information, financial data or other information regarding Ordering Activity's customers, suppliers, insureds, and end users, (ii) Ordering Activity's financial data, and (ii) Ordering Activity's other business use data.

Government Customers. If Ordering Activity is a government agency, Ordering Activity acknowledges that the Platform and related software has been developed at private expense and is provided with RESTRICTED RIGHTS.

Law. This agreement shall be governed by the Federal laws of the United States.

This EULA, together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule Pricelist and Purchase Order(s) is the complete and exclusive agreement between Ordering Activity and InfocYTE and supersedes and replaces in its entirety any prior or contemporaneous agreement or understanding, written or oral.

INTERCEDE GROUP
LUTTERWORTH HALL, ST. MARY'S ROAD
LUTTERWORTH, LEICESTERSHIRE, UNITED KINGDOM LE17 4PS

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Intercede Group ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

1. Definitions.

(A) Reserved.

(B) "Documentation" means the manuals, handbooks and other written materials related to the use of the MyID Products, whether in hard copy or soft copy form, that Intercede provides and that customarily accompany the MyID Products.

(C) "MyID Products" mean the MyID Software and Documentation provided to Customer under this Agreement.

(D) "MyID Software" means the software licensed by Customer under this Agreement, consisting of a series of instructions or statements in machine-readable, object code form only.

2. License.

(A) License for MyID Software. Intercede hereby grants, and Customer hereby accepts, a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the MyID Software in accordance with the instructions contained in the Documentation. Customer may make a reasonable number of copies of (1) the MyID Software for backup, testing, disaster recovery or archival purposes only and (2) the Documentation for its internal use only, so long as Customer also reproduces on such copies any copyright, trademark or other proprietary markings and notices contained on the MyID Software and Documentation and does not remove any such marks from the original.

(B) Restrictions on License for MyID Software.

(1) Incorporation of Restrictions in Invoice and Other Documents. Customer's purchase order, sales quotation or invoice, or user license certificate for the MyID Products may contain limitations with respect to the number of users, servers, asserting and relying parties, functionality options and/or other restrictions. In such a case, such limitations and restrictions are incorporated herein by reference.

(2) Restrictions on Access, Copying and Sublicensing. Customer shall not cause or permit (a) access (except to its employees, agents and consultants with a "need to know" who are bound in writing by non-disclosure obligations suitable to protect Intercede's interests in the MyID Software but no less restrictive than Customer's obligations herein), (b) copying (except as set forth in Section 2(A) above), (c) disclosure to any third party of the results of any benchmarking or competitive analysis of the MyID Software that Customer may perform, or (d) sublicensing or other dissemination of the MyID Software, in whole or in part, to any third party without Intercede's prior written consent.

(3) Third Party Software. If the MyID Software contains or is bundled with third party software, then Customer may use such third party software solely (a) for the purpose such software is included with the MyID Software and (b) for use with the particular MyID Software that Customer has licensed from Intercede as set forth in the Documentation. Customer shall not use any third-party software embedded in or bundled with the MyID Software as a standalone program or in any way independently from the MyID Software.

(4) No Modification of MyID Software. Customer shall not modify, enhance, translate, supplement, create derivative works from, reverse engineer, reverse compile or otherwise reduce the MyID Software to human readable form without Intercede's prior written consent.

3. Ownership and Intellectual Property Rights.

(A) Ownership of MyID Products. Intercede is the exclusive owner of the MyID Software and Documentation (including revisions, modifications and enhancements thereto) and any other specifications, documentation, ideas, know-how, techniques, processes, inventions or other intellectual property that Intercede may develop, conceive or deliver under this Agreement, including all patents, copyrights and other intellectual property rights thereto.

(B) Ownership of Trademarks. By this Agreement, Customer acquires no rights of any kind in or to any Intercede trademark, service mark, trade name, logo or product designation and shall not make any use of the same for any reason except as expressly authorized by this Agreement or otherwise authorized in writing by Intercede. Customer shall cease to use in any manner such markings or any similar markings upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

4. Reserved.

5. Warranty.

(A) MyID Software Warranty. Intercede warrants that the MyID Software will operate in material conformance to the Documentation for such MyID Software during the first 90 days after Customer's initial receipt of the MyID Software (the "Warranty Period"). Intercede does not warrant, however, that the MyID Software or any portion thereof is error-free. If Customer discovers a non-conformity in the MyID Software during the Warranty Period, then Customer shall submit to Intercede a written report describing the non-conformity in sufficient detail to permit Intercede to reproduce such non-conformity. If Intercede successfully reproduces the reported non-conformity and confirms that it is a non-conformity, then Intercede shall use reasonable efforts, at its option, to (1) correct the non-conformity, (2) provide a work around or software patch (a "Fix"), or (3) replace the MyID Software. If Intercede determines that none of these alternatives is reasonably available, then, upon Customer's request, Intercede shall refund any payments that Customer has made for the affected MyID Software and accept its return. This warranty applies only to the initial delivery of the MyID Software. All Fixes provided by Intercede constitute MyID Software hereunder and are governed by the terms hereof. Intercede warrants that each Fix will operate in material conformance to the Documentation for the applicable MyID Software during the first 30 days after Customer's initial receipt of such Fix or during the remainder of the initial Warranty Period, whichever is greater.

(B) Limitations of Warranty. The foregoing warranties do not apply if (1) repair or replacement is required as a result of causes other than normal use, including, without limitation, repair, maintenance or modification of the MyID Products by persons other than Intercede authorized personnel; Customer's accident, fault or negligence; operator error; Customer's failure to incorporate any Fixes that Intercede makes available to Customer; use of the MyID Products other than as set forth in the Documentation; or causes external to the MyID Products such as, but not limited to, failure of electrical power or fire or water damage; or (2) the MyID Products are used with software or equipment other than that for which they were designed as set forth in the Documentation.

(C) WARRANTY DISCLAIMER. OTHER THAN INTERCEDE'S EXPRESS WARRANTIES SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION 5, INTERCEDE AND ITS LICENSORS DISCLAIM ALL EXPRESS AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES AS TO ANY MATTER WHATSOEVER, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, NON-INFRINGEMENT AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. CUSTOMER'S SOLE REMEDY FOR BREACH OF SUCH EXPRESS LIMITED WARRANTIES IS A CORRECTION, FIX OR REFUND AS SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION 5.

1 INTRODUCTION

1.1 Purpose of the Service Level Agreement

This Service Level Agreement (SLA) provides an understanding of the service level expectation and defines a benchmark for measuring the performance of the service.

1.2 Service Level Agreement Period

This SLA will remain valid for a period specified on an ordering document.

2 Incident Reporting

All incidents must be reported through to the Help/Support Desk. Support will only be available between 9.00 am and 5.00 pm EST during normal US working hours, excluding US public holidays. Support will only be given using the English language.

Any support required outside this agreement must be agreed separately and Intercede reserve the right to make a time and materials based charge for this support.

The help desk can be contacted via support@intercede.com. All requests for support must be made by agreed nominated contacts (NC) from within the ordering activity. There will be 2 valid nominated contacts that have appropriate knowledge of the Intercede product set. Ordering Activity can purchase the right to nominate more than 2 nominated contacts on a separate ordering document.

Prior to any call to the help desk, it is the nominated contacts responsibility to check all basic system pre-requisites as defined in the manual, including troubleshooting. Intercede reserve the right to make a charge for support calls that fall into this category, by not being fully pre-checked.

All requests for support must provide details of the Company Name, Product Name and version, System details and a description of the issue, and where appropriate system and product log files.

All support calls will be registered in a call logging system, assigned a severity code, and allocated a unique reference number. Nominated contacts will be advised of the unique reference number on receipt of the support call. This severity code would be determined by agreement between Intercede Ltd and the nominated contact. The call would then be managed to resolution by Intercede

Any activities relating to each incident will be logged in the call logging system for monitoring and management reporting.

Once reported, all incidents will remain active, until ordering activity agrees to the successful resolution of the issue. At this stage the incident will be closed.

In the unlikely event that an on-site visit is required to resolve the support issue, Intercede reserve the right to make a charge for support and/or expenses dependent on the source of the issue.

2.1 Severity Codes

Severity - High

Critical part of system unavailable or major (or potentially major) impact on business.

Target response: 4hrs (and regular updates every hour) unless the call is placed after 4pm EST during the working day, in which case during the next working morning.

Severity - Medium

Part of system unavailable but non critical as the users can adapt business practices to get around the problem in the short term.

Target response: Same day unless call is placed after 10am EST, in which case next day.

Severity - Low

No immediate impact on business, inconvenient errors.

Target response: Next working day or as agreed with the caller requesting support

2.2 Incident Progressing

Each incident will remain with the support department who will update the status of the incident as each action is taken. Responsibility for the incident will remain with the Intercede Ltd support department to manage through to resolution to sign off by ordering activity.

Should further information be required the Intercede support department will contact the originator of the incident. If the originator contacts the Help/Support Desk with regard to a specific incident, the incident reference number must be quoted.

2.3 Escalation Procedures

Best endeavours will be made to answer calls effectively and it is expected that the customer will provide all such details as are requested by Intercede to help to resolve the given issue. Intercede will process each call log to a completion agreed with the customer.

If the incident is not responded to within the agreed times specified against severity (as in 2.1), ordering activity may initiate the relevant escalation procedure.

The levels of escalation would be agreed and will typically be:

	Intercede	Ordering Activity
Level 1	Help/Support Desk	Nominated Contact
Level 2	Support Manager	IT / Project Manager
Level 3	Product Manager	Director

The levels assigned to the functions above are used in the escalation procedures shown below:

Severity - High	Level 2	When incident reported
	Level 3	Within 4 hours
Severity - Medium	Level 2	Within 1 day
	Level 3	Within 5 days
Severity - Low	Level 2	Within 5 days or As agreed

NOTE: Both Intercede and ordering activity will be responsible for communicating to the appropriate personnel within their respective organisations should escalation be necessary.

3 Problem Management

The Intercede Help/Support Desk would monitor incidents using response and resolution targets.

Response means the support team acknowledging receipt of the incident to the ordering activity nominated contact, agreeing the severity of the call, requesting further information as necessary, and conducting an initial investigation into the incident.

Resolution means providing an agreed solution to the problem. This could take the form of a short-term work around to meet the immediate need, or an agreement that the problem will be resolved in the next product release.

Intercede can 'stop the clock' while awaiting action or information (such as log file) from ordering activity.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions (for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached iStorage Limited (“Manufacturer”) product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America (“Contractor”) to provide Manufacturer’s information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America’s GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the “Schedule Contract”). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the “Manufacturer Specific Terms” or the “Attachment A Terms”) are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer (“Licensee”) is the “Ordering Activity”, defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

These Terms were last updated on: 10th March 2020

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This page tells you information about us and the legal terms and conditions (“Terms”) which govern the use of our site and on which we sell any of the products (“Products”) listed on our website (“our site”) to Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts identified in the Purchase Order, Statement of Work, or similar document (“you” or “Ordering Activity”).

WHO ARE WE?

We operate the website www.istorage-uk.com. We are iStorage Limited, a company registered in England under company no. 6951286, and with our registered office at C/O Arnold Hill & Co, Craven House, 16 Northumberland Avenue, London, WC2N 5AP. Our VAT registration number is GB978989214.

If you have any questions, comments or complaints about these Terms, please get in touch with us by email at: info@istorage-uk.com, by post to: iStorage Limited, iStorage House, 13 Alperton Lane, Perivale, Middlesex, UB6 8DH, or by calling: +44(0)20 8991 6260.

These Conditions shall apply to every agreement between us under which we supply Products to you (“Contract”).

We may amend the non-material terms and conditions of these Terms from time to time. Every time you wish to use our site or order Products, please check these Terms to ensure you understand the terms which will apply at that time. Any material updates to this agreement shall be presented to Ordering Activity for review and will not be effective unless and until both parties sign a written agreement updating these terms.

These Conditions shall take precedence over any conditions which you supply to us.

Please read these terms carefully and make sure that you understand them before ordering Products from us.

If you refuse to accept these Terms, you are not permitted to order any Products from our site.

GENERAL

All quotations are made and all orders are accepted by us subject to these Terms. The placing of an order following any quotation or other (e.g. website) indication of price and delivery shall not be binding on us unless and until accepted by us in writing. We reserve the right to accept or refuse orders without ascribing any reason.

HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We only use your personal information in accordance our Privacy Policy. For details, please see our attached Privacy Policy. Please take the time to read these, as they include important terms which apply to you.

IF YOU ARE A CONSUMER

This clause 4 only applies if you are a consumer.

If you are a consumer, you may only purchase Products from our site if you are at least 18 years old.

As a consumer, you have legal rights in relation to Products that are faulty or not as described. Advice about your legal rights is available from your local Citizens' Advice Bureau or Trading Standards office. Nothing in these Terms will affect these legal rights.

IF YOU ARE A BUSINESS CUSTOMER

This clause 5 only applies if you are a business.

If you are not a consumer, you confirm that you have authority to bind any business on whose behalf you use our site to purchase Products.

These Terms and any document expressly referred to in them constitute the entire agreement between you and us. You acknowledge that you have not relied on any statement, promise or representation made or given by or on behalf of us which is not set out in these Terms or any document expressly referred to in them.

HOW THE CONTRACT IS FORMED BETWEEN YOU AND US

Our order process allows you to check and amend any errors before submitting your order to us. Please take the time to read and check your order at each page of the order process.

After you place an order, you will receive an e-mail from us acknowledging that we have received your order. However, please note that this does not mean that your order has been accepted. Our acceptance of your order will take place as described below.

We will confirm our acceptance to you by sending you an e-mail that confirms that your order has been accepted and which will include our estimated date of delivery (Order Confirmation). The Contract between us will only be formed when we send you the Order Confirmation.

If we are unable to supply you with a Product, for example because of export control restrictions (see clause 10.1) or because that Product is not in stock or no longer available or because of an error in the price on our site, we will inform you of this by e-mail and we will not process your order. If you have already paid for the Products, we will refund you the full amount as soon as possible.

OUR RIGHT TO VARY THESE TERMS

Every time you order Products from us, the Terms in force at that time will apply to the Contract between you and us.

We may revise the nonmaterial Terms of this Agreement from time to time. Changes made to these Terms in accordance with this clause 7.2 will not affect any previous orders made under earlier versions of the Terms. Any material changes will not go into affect until both parties agree to them in writing.

Whenever we revise these Terms in accordance with this clause 7, we will update the date stated at the top of these Terms and we will explain on our site any material changes which have been made to the Terms.

YOUR CONSUMER RIGHT OF RETURN AND REFUND

This clause 8 only applies if you are a consumer.

If you are a consumer, you have a legal right to cancel a Contract under the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 during the period set out below in clause 8.3. This means that during the relevant period if you change your mind or for any other reason you decide you do not want to keep a Product, you can notify us of your decision to cancel the Contract and receive a refund. Advice about your legal right to cancel the Contract under these regulations is available from your local Citizens' Advice Bureau or Trading Standards office.

However, this cancellation right does not apply in the case of:

any made-to-measure or custom-made products;

software, DVDs or CDs which have a security seal which you have opened or unsealed.

Your legal right to cancel a Contract starts from the date of the Order Confirmation. If the Products have already been delivered to you, you have a period of 14 (fourteen) days in which you may cancel, starting from the day you receive the Products.

To cancel a Contract, please contact us in writing to tell us by sending an e-mail to: info@istorage-uk.com, or by sending a letter to: iStorage Limited, iStorage House, 13 Alperton Lane, Perivale, Middlesex, UB6 8DH, or by calling +44(0)20 8991 6260 to tell us. You may wish to keep a copy of your cancellation notification for your own records. If you send us your cancellation notice by e-mail or by post, then your cancellation is effective from the date you sent us the e-mail or posted the letter to us. If you call us to notify us of your cancellation, then your cancellation is effective from the date you telephone us.

Providing you return the goods to us in a good and saleable condition, you will receive a full refund of the price you paid for the Products and any applicable delivery charges you paid for. However, if the goods have been damaged by you or are returned in an unsaleable state, we will be entitled to deduct from your refund such reasonable amount to account for the loss or damage. We will process any refund due to you as soon as possible and, in any case, within 14 days of the day we receive the Products back from you. If you returned the Products to us because they were faulty or mis-described, please see clause 8.6.

If you have returned the Products to us under this clause 8 because they are faulty or mis-described, we will refund the price of a defective Product in full together with any reasonable delivery charges incurred by you in returning the items to us.

We refund you on the credit card or debit card used by you to pay.

If the Products were delivered to you:

you must return the Products to us as soon as reasonably practicable.

unless the Products are faulty or not as described (in this case, see clause 8.6), you will be responsible for the cost of returning the Products to us;

you have a legal obligation to keep the Products in your possession and to take reasonable care of the Products while they are in your possession.

Details of your legal right to cancel and an explanation of how to exercise it are provided in the Order Confirmation.

As a consumer, you will always have legal rights in relation to Products that are faulty or not as described. These legal rights are not affected by the returns policy in this clause 8 or these Terms. Advice about your legal rights is available from your local Citizens' Advice Bureau or Trading Standards office.

YOUR RIGHT OF RETURN AND REFUND FOR BUSINESS CUSTOMERS

This clause 9 applies if you are a business customer.

If you receive Products which are faulty or mis-described, we will refund the price of a defective Product in full together with any reasonable delivery charges incurred by you in returning the items to us.

We refund you on the credit card or debit card used by you to pay.

If the Products were delivered to you:

you must return the Products to us as soon as reasonably practicable.

you have a legal obligation to keep the Products in your possession and to take reasonable care of the Products while they are in your possession.

Details of your legal right to cancel and an explanation of how to exercise it are provided in the Order Confirmation.

We are unable to accept the cancellation of any orders or the return of any Products other than as set out in this clause 9.

DELIVERY

We will use our reasonable endeavours to fulfil your order by the estimated delivery date set out in the Order Confirmation, unless there is an Event Outside Our Control. If we are unable to meet the estimated delivery date because of an Event Outside Our Control, we will contact you with a revised estimated delivery date.

If we are unable to fulfil your order by the estimated delivery date in accordance with clause 10.1, we shall notify you of a revised delivery date. If the revised delivery date is not acceptable to you, we shall at your request cancel your order and refund to you the price of the Product(s) which you have ordered.

Delivery of the Products to your address or any other place stipulated by you shall constitute delivery.

The Products will be your responsibility from the completion of delivery.

We shall be entitled to make partial deliveries by instalments and these Terms shall apply to each partial delivery.

Title in the Products will pass to you once we have received payment in full, including all applicable delivery charges.

INTERNATIONAL DELIVERY

We deliver to various countries around the world and we have distributors as listed on this page where to buy (International Delivery Destinations). However, we reserve the right not to supply any Product if its delivery to the requested International Delivery Destination may breach any export control restrictions, or where the costs of us having to comply with applicable export laws or regulations have not already been factored into our prices or delivery charges. If this happens, we will inform you by email that your order has been cancelled and, if you have already paid for the Product, we will refund you the full amount as soon as possible.

You and we shall comply fully with applicable laws and regulations governing the export of technical data, encryption technologies and other export laws and regulations of the US, EU and other states. You shall cooperate with us in our efforts to ensure that the Products comply with all applicable export laws and regulations. However, this clause does not affect our ability to cancel an order as described in clause 11.1.

If you order Products from our site for delivery to one of the International Delivery Destinations, your order may be subject to import duties and taxes which are applied when the delivery reaches that destination. Please note that we have no control over these charges and we cannot predict their amount.

Vendor shall state separately on invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Ordering Activity agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

You must comply with all applicable laws and regulations of the country for which the Products are destined. We will not be liable or responsible if you break any such law.

PRICE OF PRODUCTS AND DELIVERY CHARGES

The prices of the Products will be as quoted on our site in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist from time to time. We take all reasonable care to ensure that the prices of Products are correct at the time when the relevant information was entered onto the system. However if we discover an error in the price of Product(s) you ordered, please see clause 12.5 for what happens in this event.

Prices for our Products may change from time to time in accordance with the GSA Schedule Contract and Pricelist, but changes will not affect any order which we have confirmed with an Order Confirmation.

Reserved.

Reserved

Our site contains a variety of Products. It is always possible that, despite our best efforts, some of the Products on our site may be incorrectly priced. If we discover an error in the price of the Products you have ordered we will inform you of this error and we will give you the option of continuing to purchase the Product at the correct price or cancelling your order. We will not process your order until we have your instructions. If we are unable to contact you using the contact details you provided during the order process, we will treat the order as cancelled and notify you in writing. Please note that if the pricing error is obvious and unmistakable and could have reasonably been recognised by you as a mispricing, we do not have to provide the Products to you at the incorrect (lower) price.

HOW TO PAY

You can only pay for Products using a debit or credit card or Pay Pal, or other method allowed pursuant to the GSA Schedule Contract. We accept all major debit or credit cards

We will not charge your debit card or credit card until we dispatch your order.

PRESENTATION OF PRODUCTS

The images of the Products on our site are for illustrative purposes only. Although we have made every effort to display the colours accurately, we cannot guarantee that your computer's display of the colours accurately reflect the colour of the Products. Your Products may vary slightly from those images.

Although we have made every effort to be as accurate as possible, all sizes, weights, capacities, dimensions and measurements indicated on our site have a 2% tolerance.

The packaging of the Products may vary from that shown on images on our site.

All Products shown on our site are subject to availability. We will inform you by e-mail as soon as possible if the Product you have ordered is not available and we will not process your order if made.

We shall not be responsible for adapting or modifying any Products to conform to statutory requirements not current at the time of our acceptance of your order.

We reserve the right without prior approval from or notice to you to make changes to the Products which do not affect physical or functional interchangeability or performance or are required for purposes of safety or to meet the Products' specification.

You must not rely on the Products we supply to you under these Terms as your primary method of storing any data, you must back-up any data which you store on the Products on another device.

WARRANTY

We warrant that on delivery and for a period of 36 months from delivery, the products shall be free from material defects. However, this warranty does not apply in the circumstances described in clause 15.3.

We warrant that the Products comply with the standards listed in the relevant data sheet on our website at the time you place your order.

The warranty in clause 15.1 does not apply to any defect in the Products arising from:

fair wear and tear;

wilful damage, abnormal storage or working conditions, accident, negligence by you or by any third party;

if you or a third party fail(s) to operate or use the Products in accordance with the user instructions;

any alteration or repair by you or by a third party who is not one of our authorised repairers; or any specification provided by you.

Under these warranties we will, at our option, either repair, replace, or refund you for, any Products found to have material defects provided that upon delivery:

you inspect the Products to check whether they have any material defects; and you test the encryption mechanism in the Products.

We shall not be liable for any material defects or defects in the encryption mechanism of the Products ascertainable upon inspection on delivery unless you notify such defects to us within 30 days of delivery. We shall not be liable for any material defects or defects in the encryption mechanism of the Products which are not ascertainable upon inspection on delivery unless you notify such defects to us within 7 days of the time when you discover or ought to have become aware of such defects.

We shall not be liable for a breach of any of the warranties in this clause 15 if you make or anyone else makes any further use of the Products after discovering a defect.

Upon notification of any defect, you should return the defective product to us. If you are a business, we will be responsible for the transportation costs incurred by you in sending any Products or parts of the Products to us under the warranty, and we will be responsible for any transportation costs we incur in sending you a repaired or replacement Product. If you are a consumer, please see clause 8.

Products returned must be in the original packaging and in clean condition. Products returned otherwise will, at the Company's discretion, either be refused or a further additional fee charged to cover the additional costs involved. Products returned for repair under warranty must be accompanied by a copy of the original invoice, or must quote the original invoice number and date of purchase.

If you are a consumer, this warranty is in addition to your legal rights in relation to Products that are faulty or not as described. Advice about your legal rights is available from your local Citizens' Advice Bureau or Trading Standards office.

The warranties set out in this clause apply only to the original purchaser of a Product from iStorage or an iStorage authorized reseller or distributor. These warranties are non-transferable.

OUR LIABILITY

So far as legally possible, we are not liable if there are any defects in the Products you purchase from us. For example, if you lose any data or if someone hacks into your Product, if we are liable, it is only up to the price you paid for the Product. You should therefore always make sure you have a back-up of your content. You must not rely on the products we supply to you under these Terms as your primary method of storing your data. We are not liable to you for any data loss whatsoever.

Nothing in these Terms limit or exclude our liability for:

death or personal injury caused by our negligence;

fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation;

breach of the terms implied by section 12 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 (title and quiet possession); or defective products under the Consumer Protection Act 1987.

Subject to clause 16.3, we will under no circumstances whatever be liable to you, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, arising under or in connection with the Contract for:

any loss of profits, sales, business, or revenue; loss or corruption of data, information or software, including by malicious hacking; loss of business opportunity;

loss of anticipated savings;

loss of goodwill; or any indirect or consequential loss.

Subject to clause 16.3 and clause 16.4, our total liability to you in respect of all other losses arising under or in connection with the Contract, whether in contract, tort, breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall in no circumstances exceed the price of the Products.

Except as expressly stated in these Terms, we do not give any representation, warranties or undertakings in relation to the Products. Any representation, condition or warranty which might be implied or incorporated into these Terms by statute, common law or otherwise is excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law. In particular, we will not be responsible for ensuring that the Products are suitable for your purposes.

COPYRIGHT, PATENTS, TRADE MARKS AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

This website contains material which is owned by or licensed to us. This material includes, but is not limited to, the content, design, layout, look, appearance and graphics.

You are granted a licence to use the material contained in this website subject to the restrictions described in these Terms.

You are granted a licence to download, store, view, edit, use, reproduce, copy, print, any material contained in this website for your own personal use.

You are not permitted to:

republish material from this Website (including republication on another Website, except in the case of publishing extracts from the Website on social media, such as Facebook or Twitter, for the purpose of directing users to the Website);
sell, rent, license, sublicense, lease, distribute, copy, duplicate, publish or reproduce material from the Website and any material or any part thereof for use by any third party;
exploit material on our Website for a commercial purpose;
use any material in any way that is unlawful or in breach of any person's legal rights under any applicable law, or in any way that is offensive, indecent, discriminatory or otherwise objectionable.

When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, we shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer.

All material contained in this website is and shall remain at all times the copyright of the Company or its licensors. You acknowledge that rights in respect of trademarks, trade names, copyrights, patents and other intellectual property rights connected with the Products do not pass to you. You shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products. You are not permitted to use our trademarks or trade or product names without our prior written permission.

You must retain, and must not delete or remove all copyright notices and other proprietary notices placed by us on any material.

EVENTS OUTSIDE OUR CONTROL

We will not be liable or responsible for any failure to perform, or delay in performance of, any of our obligations under a Contract that is caused by an Event Outside Our Control. An Event Outside Our Control is defined below in clause 18.2.

Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f).

If an Event Outside Our Control takes place that affects the performance of our obligations under a Contract:

we will contact you as soon as reasonably possible to notify you; and our obligations under a Contract will be suspended and the time for performance of our obligations will be extended for the duration of the Event Outside Our Control. Where the Event Outside Our Control affects our delivery of Products to you, we will arrange a new delivery date with you after the Event Outside Our Control is over.

OTHER IMPORTANT TERMS

The Anti-Assignment Act, 41 USC 6305, prohibits the assignment of Government contracts without the Government's prior approval. Procedures for securing such approval are set forth in FAR 42.1204. We reserve the right to subcontract any part of any work or supply of any Products. We shall remain liable for the actions and services provided by such subcontractors at all times.

You may only transfer your rights or your obligations under these Terms to another person if we agree in writing. However if you are a consumer and you have purchased a Product as a gift, you may transfer the benefit of our warranty in clause 15 to the recipient of the gift without needing to ask our consent.

This contract is between you and us. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of its terms, whether under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties Act) 1999 or otherwise. However, if you are a consumer, the recipient of your gift of a Product will have the benefit of our warranty at clause 15, but we and you will not need their consent to cancel or make any changes to these Terms.

Each of the paragraphs of these Terms operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful or unenforceable, the remaining paragraphs will remain in full force and effect.

If we fail to insist that you perform any of your obligations under these Terms, or if we do not enforce our rights against you, or if we delay in doing so, that will not mean that we have waived our rights against you and will not mean that you do not have to comply with those obligations. If we do waive a default by you, we will only do so in writing, and that will not mean that we will automatically waive any later default by you.

These Terms are governed by the Federal law of the United States .

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Keysight Technologies, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ)), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.21, as may be revised from time to time.

b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

v) Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

IXIA BRANDED SOFTWARE END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

This KEYSIGHT SOFTWARE END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is a legal agreement between the undersigned Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts ("Licensee" or "Ordering Activity") and Keysight Technologies, Inc. ("Keysight") for Keysight's Ixia branded software product(s) identified in the related purchase order, including all associated media (collectively, the "SOFTWARE," as further defined below). By both parties executing this Agreement in writing, you are binding the business entity that you represent (i.e., Licensee) to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. If Licensee does not agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement, Licensee may not use the SOFTWARE in any way, and must promptly return the SOFTWARE (including, without limitation, any software media), unused, to Keysight.

1. KEYSIGHT PRODUCT

The "Keysight Product" may contain any combination of the following six categories of software:

- (a) "Server Software" is software that is intended for use on a Keysight Ixia branded Hardware Chassis or other Keysight Ixia branded hardware product, and that provides certain services on that product.
- (b) "Client Software" is software that is intended for use on a computer workstation, and that allows an end user to access and utilize the services of Server Software.
- (c) "Console Software" refers to that portion of the IxChariot Software that is intended for use on a computer workstation, and that allows an end user to control Endpoint Software. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall Console Software be deemed to be Server Software or Client Software.
- (d) "Endpoint Software" refers to the Performance Endpoint Software and/or the Qcheck Software.
- (e) "License Management Software" is software that provides certain software license management services on a computer server.
- (f) "GPL Software" consists of open source software as selected by Keysight for inclusion in the Keysight Product. GPL Software is not owned by Keysight. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, GPL Software is distributed by Keysight to Licensee for Licensee's use solely under the terms of the GNU General Public License, Version 2, June 1991, a copy of which is attached to this Agreement. The GNU General Public License governs the GPL Software and the copying, distribution, and modification of the GPL Software. GPL Software source code is available upon request, consistent with the requirements of the GNU General Public License.

2. GRANT OF LICENSE

Subject to the terms, conditions, and restrictions in this Agreement, Keysight grants to Licensee a non-exclusive, non-transferable, and non-sublicenseable license to (i) install and use the Server Software, the Client Software, the Console Software, the Endpoint Software and/or the License Management Software (collectively, and together with any copies thereof made in accordance with this Agreement, the "SOFTWARE") for which Licensee has paid or will pay to Keysight any required license fees, in object code form only, and (ii) use the provided end user documentation, whether printed or electronic (together with any copies thereof made in accordance with this Agreement, the "Documentation"), in support of Licensee's use of the SOFTWARE. The license(s) granted above are subject to the following terms and conditions, as well as all other terms and conditions in this Agreement:

- (a) Server Software. Any Server Software included in the SOFTWARE may be installed and/or used only on the particular Keysight Ixia branded Hardware Chassis or other Keysight Ixia branded hardware product for which such Server Software is designated.
- (b) Client Software. Except as otherwise provided in the applicable Keysight invoice, any Client Software included in the SOFTWARE may be installed and/or used on an unlimited number of computer workstations. Such use is subject to any further restrictions in the applicable purchase order, including but not limited to any restrictions limiting the number of Client Software copies that can concurrently access and utilize the services of a particular copy of Server Software,
- (c) Console Software. Except as otherwise provided below, any Console Software included in the SOFTWARE may be installed and/or used only on the number of designated computer workstations corresponding with the total number of licenses specified in the applicable Keysight invoice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Licensee has purchased one or more "floating licenses" for the IxChariot Software, then Licensee may install the corresponding Console Software on an unlimited number of computer workstations, but may only use concurrently the number of copies of such Console Software that is equal to the number of such "floating licenses" purchased by Licensee. Licensee's use of Console Software is subject to any further restrictions in the applicable purchase order, including but not limited to any restrictions limiting the number of simultaneous tests that may be run with such Console Software.
- (d) Endpoint Software. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Licensee may install and use the Endpoint Software on an unlimited number of computers and may make an unlimited number of copies of such SOFTWARE for backup and archival purposes.

(e) License Management Software. Any License Management Software included in the SOFTWARE may be installed and/or used only on the number of designated servers corresponding with the total number of licenses specified in the applicable purchase order.

(f) Updates and Releases. To the extent that, under the Keysight Limited Warranty or any Keysight Extended Warranty, Keysight provides Licensee with any revised, modified, or replacement SOFTWARE, or additional or supplemental SOFTWARE, or any updates, releases, error correction, or bug fixes related to the SOFTWARE, the same shall become part of the "SOFTWARE" licensed hereunder when delivered to Licensee and shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions contained herein. With respect to any technical information Licensee provides to Keysight in connection with the license(s) granted to Licensee hereunder, Keysight may use such information for any purpose without restriction, including, without limitation, for product support and development. Keysight will not use such technical information in a form that identifies Licensee.

(g) Media; License Keys. Licensee may receive the SOFTWARE in more than one medium, or Licensee may receive copies of the SOFTWARE that are compatible with operating systems not specified on the applicable Keysight quote. Regardless, Licensee may use the SOFTWARE only as expressly permitted in this Agreement. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that installation and/or use of certain SOFTWARE may be subject to activation by license key.

(h) Copies. Except as is otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, Licensee may make only one copy of the SOFTWARE, and may use that copy only for backup and archival purposes. Licensee may copy the Documentation to the limited extent reasonably necessary to facilitate Licensee's use of the SOFTWARE in accordance with this Agreement.

(i) Reservation of Rights. Keysight reserves all rights not expressly granted herein.

3. TITLE; COPYRIGHT; PATENTS; NO SALE

(a) Ownership. Certain of the SOFTWARE contains or is based upon software and/or other materials licensed to Keysight by third party licensors (e.g., Cisco Systems, Inc.). Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the SOFTWARE (including but not limited to any proprietary protocols implemented therein) constitutes valuable trade secrets of Keysight, its affiliates, and/or its licensors (as applicable). Licensee further acknowledges and agrees that Keysight, its affiliates, and/or its licensors (as applicable) own all right, title, and interest in and to the SOFTWARE (including, without limitation, any all copies, extracts, and associated media thereof, all concepts, logic, protocols, and specifications related thereto, and all images, "applets," photographs, animations, video, audio, and/or text incorporated therein), as well as all patents, trademarks, trade names, inventions, copyrights, know-how, trade secrets, and other intellectual and industrial property rights, and any related applications or extensions, relating to the design, manufacture, operation, or service of the SOFTWARE.

(b) Copyright; Copies. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the SOFTWARE is protected by United States copyright laws and international treaty provisions. Licensee must treat the SOFTWARE like any other copyrighted material except as otherwise provided herein with respect to making copies of the SOFTWARE.

(c) Licensed Not Sold. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the SOFTWARE has been licensed to Licensee pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and that the SOFTWARE has not been sold to Licensee.

(d) PESQ; PAMS/PESQ; PAMS/PESQ/PSQM+; PAMS/PSQM. Licensee acknowledges that any PESQ, PAMS/PESQ, or PAMS/PESQ/PSQM+ software included in the SOFTWARE is protected by copyright and by U.S. patents. Licenses from Psytechnics Limited and Malden Electronics Limited may have terms and conditions different than those of this Agreement. Keysight acknowledges FAR 52.232-39 applies to this EULA. To the extent additional restrictions are permitted by third party software Agreements, further distribution of third party software is prohibited. Liability for any breach of this Agreement shall be determined under the Federal Torts Claims Act, the Tucker Act, the Contract Disputes Act, or other applicable federal law. Licensee also acknowledges that any PAMS/PSQM software included in the SOFTWARE was developed by KPN Research, the Netherlands, and is used by permission under license from OPTICOM Dilp.-Ing. M. Keyhl GmbH, Erlangen, Germany.

4. RESTRICTIONS AND LIMITATIONS

(a) General Use Restrictions. Licensee shall not use, copy, merge, or transfer copies of the SOFTWARE or the Documentation except as may be expressly and specifically authorized in this Agreement. Licensee shall not knowingly take any action that would cause the SOFTWARE to be placed in the public domain.

(b) No Reverse Engineering; No Modification. Licensee may not, under any circumstances, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or otherwise attempt to discover, reconstruct, or identify the source code for the SOFTWARE or any user interface techniques, algorithms, logic, protocols, or specifications included, incorporated, or implemented therein. Furthermore, Licensee may not, under any circumstances and except as expressly authorized by Keysight in the Documentation, modify, port, translate, or create derivative works of the SOFTWARE.

(c) Rental; Leasing. Licensee may not, and agrees that it will not, transfer, assign, rent, lease, lend, resell, or in any way distribute or transfer any rights in this Agreement or the SOFTWARE to third parties, including by operation of law, without Keysight's prior written approval and subject to written agreement by the recipient to the terms of this Agreement.

(d) Export Restrictions; Compliance with Laws. Licensee agrees that Licensee will not, directly or indirectly, export or transmit the SOFTWARE to any country to which such export or transmission is restricted by any applicable U.S. regulation or statute, without the prior written consent, if required, of the Bureau of Export Administration of the U.S. Department of Commerce or such other governmental entity as may have jurisdiction over such export or transmission. Licensee agrees to comply with and conform to all applicable laws, regulations, ordinances, and executive orders relating to Licensee's use of the SOFTWARE.

5. USE AUDIT

Keysight shall have the right, upon reasonable notice and not more than once in a 12 month period, to conduct and/or have an independent accounting firm to conduct, during normal business hours on Licensee's premises under Licensee's reasonable supervision, an audit to verify Licensee's compliance with the terms of this Agreement. Keysight or an independent accounting firm shall comply with all of Licensee's security requirements prior to entering the premises or accessing Licensee's systems.

6. TERM AND TERMINATION

(a) General. Except as provided below with respect to evaluation and limited term licenses, this Agreement and the license(s) granted herein will remain effective until terminated. Licensee may terminate this Agreement and the license(s) granted herein by ceasing all use of the SOFTWARE and any related Documentation, and returning all copies of the SOFTWARE and the related Documentation to Keysight. When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Keysight shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer.

(b) Evaluation and Term Licenses. If SOFTWARE has been licensed to Licensee for evaluation purposes, this Agreement will be effective only until the end of the designated evaluation period. If SOFTWARE has been licensed to Licensee for a limited term as specified in the applicable purchase order, then this Agreement will be effective only until the end of such term. SOFTWARE that is subject to any evaluation or limited term license may contain code that can disable most or all of the features of such SOFTWARE upon expiration of such evaluation or limited term license, and unless Licensee has purchased from Keysight the applicable license fee for any additional licenses, Licensee shall have no rights to use the SOFTWARE or the Documentation upon expiration of any such license.

(c) Licensee Obligations Upon Termination or Expiration. Licensee agrees, upon any termination or expiration of this Agreement, to cease use of, and to destroy or return to Keysight, all copies of the SOFTWARE and any related Documentation

7. LIMITED WARRANTY; DISCLAIMER; LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

(a) LIMITED WARRANTY. Keysight warrants that the SOFTWARE will, for a period of sixty (60) days from the date of your receipt, perform substantially in accordance with SOFTWARE written materials accompanying it. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE FOREGOING, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, AND EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH HEREIN OR IN KEYSIGHT'S LIMITED WARRANTY OR ANY KEYSIGHT EXTENDED WARRANTY DESCRIBED IN THE WARRANTY AGREEMENT ATTACHED HERETO, THE SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS IS", AND KEYSIGHT AND ITS SUPPLIERS AND LICENSORS DO NOT MAKE AND SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIM, ALL EXPRESS AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF EVERY KIND RELATING TO THE SOFTWARE AND/OR USE OF THE SOFTWARE (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ACTUAL AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT), AS WELL AS ANY WARRANTIES THAT THE SOFTWARE (OR ANY ELEMENTS THEREOF) WILL ACHIEVE A PARTICULAR RESULT, OR WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE.

(b) GPL Software. Licensee acknowledges that the GPL Software is third-party software that has not been manufactured, tested, or otherwise approved by Keysight. THE GPL SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS IS," AND KEYSIGHT DOES NOT MAKE AND SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ALL EXPRESS AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF EVERY KIND RELATING TO THE GPL SOFTWARE AND/OR USE OF THE GPL SOFTWARE (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ACTUAL AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT), AS WELL AS ANY WARRANTIES THAT THE GPL SOFTWARE (OR ANY ELEMENTS THEREOF) WILL ACHIEVE A PARTICULAR RESULT, OR WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE. Nothing in this Agreement shall obligate Keysight to provide any support for the GPL Software.

(c) LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL KEYSIGHT OR ITS LICENSORS BE LIABLE UNDER ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY FOR ANY CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES OF ANY KIND, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, DAMAGES ARISING FROM LOSS OF PROFITS, REVENUE, DATA, OR USE, OR FROM INTERRUPTED COMMUNICATIONS OR DAMAGED DATA, OR FROM ANY DEFECT OR ERROR, OR IN CONNECTION WITH LICENSEE'S ACQUISITION OF SUBSTITUTE GOODS OR SERVICES OR MALFUNCTION OF THE KEYSIGHT PRODUCT, OR ANY SUCH DAMAGES ARISING FROM BREACH OF CONTRACT OR WARRANTY OR STRICT LIABILITY, EVEN IF KEYSIGHT OR ANY OF ITS LICENSORS OR ANY OTHER PERSON HAS BEEN ADVISED OR SHOULD KNOW OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES, AND NOTWITHSTANDING THE FAILURE OF ANY REMEDY TO ACHIEVE ITS INTENDED PURPOSE. THE FOREGOING EXCLUSION/LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM KEYSIGHT'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

(d) KEYSIGHT LIMITED AND EXTENDED WARRANTIES. THE SOFTWARE IS LICENSED HEREUNDER SUBJECT TO ALL OF THE "OTHER LIMITATIONS" SET FORTH IN KEYSIGHT'S LIMITED WARRANTY AND ANY KEYSIGHT EXTENDED WARRANTY PURCHASED BY LICENSEE.

(e) Responsibilities of Licensee. As a licensee of the SOFTWARE, Licensee is solely responsible for the proper installation and operation of the SOFTWARE in accordance with the instructions and specifications set forth in the Documentation. Keysight shall have no responsibility or liability to Licensee, under Keysight's Limited Warranty or otherwise, for improper installation or operation of the SOFTWARE. Any output or execution errors resulting from improper installation or operation of the SOFTWARE shall not be deemed "defects" for purposes of Keysight's Limited Warranty.

8. NON-DISCLOSURE

Licensee shall take all reasonable steps necessary to ensure that the SOFTWARE, the Documentation, and any related Keysight information, or any portion thereof, is not made available or disclosed by Licensee (or by any of its employees, representatives, or agents) to any person other than as may be necessary to Licensee's employees, representatives, and agents to use the same as expressly permitted herein. Licensee agrees that all of its employees, representatives, and agents having access to the SOFTWARE and/or the Documentation shall observe and perform the terms of this Section. Keysight recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

9. U.S. GOVERNMENT RESTRICTED RIGHTS

(a) Commercial Software. The SOFTWARE and its accompanying Documentation are deemed to be "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation," respectively, for purposes of Federal Acquisition Regulations ("FAR") 12.212, and the restrictions set forth in such regulations, and this Agreement shall be deemed to be the license described in such regulations. Any use, modification, reproduction, release, performance, display, or disclosure of the SOFTWARE or its accompanying Documentation by any agency, department, or entity of the United States Government (the "Government") shall be governed solely by the terms of this Agreement and is prohibited except to the extent expressly permitted by the terms of this Agreement. The SOFTWARE and its accompanying Documentation are also deemed to be "restricted computer software" for purposes of FAR 52.227-14(g)(3) (Alternate III (June 1987)), which clauses are incorporated herein by reference subject to the express restrictions and prohibitions set forth above.

(b) Certain Technical Data. Any technical data provided that is not covered by the above provisions is deemed to be "technical information related to commercial computer software or commercial computer software documentation" for purposes of FAR 12.212 and the restrictions set forth therein, and is deemed to be "technical data or information related or pertaining to commercial items or processes" developed at private expense and this Agreement shall be deemed to be the license described in such regulations. Any use, modification, reproduction, release, performance, display, or disclosure of such technical data by the Government shall be governed solely by the terms of this Agreement and is prohibited except to the extent expressly permitted by the terms of this Agreement. Such technical data is also deemed to be "limited rights data" as defined in FAR 52.227-14(a) (Alternate I (June 1987)) and for purposes of FAR 52.227-14(g)(2) (Alternate II (June 1987)), which clauses are incorporated herein by reference subject to the express restrictions and prohibitions set forth above.

(c) Third Party Acceptance of Restrictions. Licensee shall not provide the SOFTWARE, its accompanying Documentation, or the technical data to any party, unless such third party accepts the same restrictions as are set forth in this Section 10. Licensee is responsible for ensuring that the proper notice is given to all such third parties and that the SOFTWARE, its accompanying Documentation, and the technical data are properly marked with the required legends. Nothing in this Section 10(c) shall be deemed to modify the restrictions on transfer or disclosure set forth elsewhere in this Agreement.

10. GOVERNING LAW; ENFORCEMENT

(a) Governing Law. This Agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties hereunder shall be governed by the Federal laws of the United States. IN ADDITION, THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE GOVERNED OR INTERPRETED IN ANY WAY BY REFERRING TO ANY LAW BASED ON THE UNIFORM COMPUTER INFORMATION TRANSACTIONS ACT (UCITA), AND THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION ON CONTRACTS FOR THE INTERNATIONAL SALE OF GOODS IS HEREBY EXCLUDED.

11. INVALIDITY OF PROVISIONS

If any provision in this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be construed, limited, or altered, as necessary, to eliminate the invalidity or unenforceability and all other provisions of this Agreement shall remain in effect.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

(a) This Agreement together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule pricelist, the specific, negotiated terms on the accepted GSA Customer Purchase Order(s), and Keysight's Limited Warranty and any Keysight Extended Warranty purchased by Licensee set forth the entire agreement between Keysight and Licensee with respect to the SOFTWARE and Licensee's use thereof.

No provision of this Agreement or of Keysight's Limited Warranty or any Keysight Extended Warranty may be waived, modified, or superseded except by a written instrument signed by each of Keysight and Licensee. No failure or delay in exercising any right or remedy shall operate as a waiver of any such (or any other) right or remedy. The language of this Agreement shall be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning and intent, and not strictly for or against either party, regardless of who drafted or was principally responsible for drafting this Agreement or any specific term or conditions hereof. This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties and their successors and permitted assigns. Both parties are acting as independent contractors with respect to the activities hereunder.

Version 2, June 1991

Copyright (C) 1989, 1991 Free Software Foundation, Inc. 59 Temple Place, Suite 330, Boston, MA 02111-1307 USA Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute verbatim copies of this license document, but changing it is not allowed.

Preamble

The licenses for most software are designed to take away your freedom to share and change it. By contrast, the GNU General Public License is intended to guarantee your freedom to share and change free software—to make sure the software is free for all its users. This General Public License applies to most of the Free Software Foundation's software and to any other program whose authors commit to using it. (Some other Free Software Foundation software is covered by the GNU Library General Public License instead.) You can apply it to your programs, too.

When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, not price. Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that you have the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge for this service if you wish), that you receive source code or can get it if you want it, that you can change the software or use pieces of it in new free programs; and that you know you can do these things.

To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbid anyone to deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights. These restrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if you distribute copies of the software, or if you modify it.

For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whether gratis or for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights that you have. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the source code. And you must show them these terms so they know their rights.

We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright the software, and (2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy, distribute and/or modify the software.

Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certain that everyone understands that there is no warranty for this free software. If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, we want its recipients to know that what they have is not the original, so that any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the original authors' reputations.

Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by software patents. We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a free program will individually obtain patent licenses, in effect making the program proprietary. To prevent this, we have made it clear that any patent must be licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all.

The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution and modification follow.

GNU GENERAL PUBLIC LICENSE TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION

This License applies to any program or other work which contains a notice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributed under the terms of this General Public License. The "Program", below, refers to any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program" means either the Program or any derivative work under copyright law: that is to say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it, either verbatim or with modifications and/or translated into another language. (Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation in the term "modification".) Each licensee is addressed as "you".

Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are not covered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act of running the Program is not restricted, and the output from the Program is covered only if its contents constitute a work based on the Program (independent of having been made by running the Program). Whether that is true depends on what the Program does.

1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Program's source code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you conspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate copyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all the notices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty; and give any other recipients of the Program a copy of this License along with the Program.

You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, and you may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee.

2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portion of it, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy and distribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1 above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions:

- a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent notices stating that you changed the files and the date of any change.
- b) You must cause any work that you distribute or publish, that in whole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or any part thereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all third parties under the terms of this License.
- c) If the modified program normally reads commands interactively when run, you must cause it, when started running for such interactive use in the most ordinary way, to print or display an announcement including an appropriate copyright notice and a notice that there is no warranty (or else, saying that you provide a warranty) and that users may redistribute the program under these conditions, and telling the user how to view a copy of this License. (Exception: if the Program itself is interactive but does not normally print such an announcement, your work based on the Program is not required to print an announcement.)

These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. If identifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program, and can be reasonably considered independent and separate works in themselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to those sections when you distribute them as separate works. But when you distribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work based on the Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms of this License, whose permissions for other licensees extend to the entire whole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it.

Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contest your rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is to exercise the right to control the distribution of derivative or collective works based on the Program.

In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Program with the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume of a storage or distribution medium does not bring the other work under the scope of this License.

3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it, under Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following:

- a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readable source code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,
- b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least three years, to give any third party, for a charge no more than your cost of physically performing source distribution, a complete machine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,
- c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offer to distribute corresponding source code. (This alternative is allowed only for noncommercial distribution and only if you received the program in object code or executable form with such an offer, in accord with Subsection b above.)

The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work for making modifications to it. For an executable work, complete source code means all the source code for all modules it contains, plus any associated interface definition files, plus the scripts used to control compilation and installation of the executable. However, as a special exception, the source code distributed need not include anything that is normally distributed (in either source or binary form) with the major components (compiler, kernel, and so on) of the operating system on which the executable runs, unless that component itself accompanies the executable.

If distribution of executable or object code is made by offering access to copy from a designated place, then offering equivalent access to copy the source code from the same place counts as distribution of the source code, even though third parties are not compelled to copy the source along with the object code.

4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Program except as expressly provided under this License. Any attempt otherwise to copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program is void, and will automatically terminate your rights under this License. However, parties who have received copies, or rights, from you under this License will not have their licenses terminated so long as such parties remain in full compliance.

5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have not signed it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify or distribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions are prohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, by modifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on the Program), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, and all its terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifying the Program or works based on it.

6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any work based on the Program), the recipient automatically receives a license from the original licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject to these terms and conditions. You may not impose any further restrictions on the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein. You are not responsible for enforcing compliance by third parties to this License.

7. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or allegation of patent infringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues), conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement or otherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do not excuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannot distribute so as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under this License and any other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence you may not distribute the Program at all. For example, if a patent license would not permit royalty-free redistribution of the Program by all those who receive copies directly or indirectly through you, then the only way you could satisfy both it and this License would be to refrain entirely from distribution of the Program.

If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable under any particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended to apply and the section as a whole is intended to apply in other circumstances.

It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe any patents or other property right claims or to contest validity of any such claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting the integrity of the free software distribution system, which is implemented by public license practices. Many people have made generous contributions to the wide range of software distributed through that system in reliance on consistent application of that system; it is up to the author/donor to decide if he or she is willing to distribute software through any other system and a licensee cannot impose that choice.

This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed to be a consequence of the rest of this License.

8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted in certain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, the original copyright holder who places the Program under this License may add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excluding those countries, so that distribution is permitted only in or among countries not thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporates the limitation as if written in the body of this License.

9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versions of the General Public License from time to time. Such new versions will be similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail to address new problems or concerns.

Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Program specifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "any later version", you have the option of following the terms and conditions either of that version or of any later version published by the Free Software Foundation. If the Program does not specify a version number of this License, you may choose any version ever published by the Free Software Foundation.

10. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other free programs whose distribution conditions are different, write to the author to ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by the Free Software Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; we sometimes make exceptions for this. Our decision will be guided by the two goals of preserving the free status of all derivatives of our free software and of promoting the sharing and reuse of software generally.

NO WARRANTY

11. BECAUSE THE PROGRAM IS LICENSED FREE OF CHARGE, THERE IS NO WARRANTY FOR THE PROGRAM, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. EXCEPT WHEN OTHERWISE STATED IN WRITING THE COPYRIGHT HOLDERS AND/OR OTHER PARTIES PROVIDE THE PROGRAM "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. THE ENTIRE RISK AS TO THE QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE OF THE PROGRAM IS WITH YOU. SHOULD THE PROGRAM PROVE DEFECTIVE, YOU ASSUME THE COST OF ALL NECESSARY SERVICING, REPAIR OR CORRECTION.

12. IN NO EVENT UNLESS REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW OR AGREED TO IN WRITING WILL ANY COPYRIGHT HOLDER, OR ANY OTHER PARTY WHO MAY MODIFY AND/OR REDISTRIBUTE THE PROGRAM AS PERMITTED ABOVE, BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR DAMAGES, INCLUDING ANY GENERAL, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE PROGRAM (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO LOSS OF DATA OR DATA BEING RENDERED INACCURATE OR LOSSES SUSTAINED BY YOU OR THIRD PARTIES OR A FAILURE OF THE PROGRAM TO OPERATE WITH ANY OTHER PROGRAMS), EVEN IF SUCH HOLDER OR OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS

How to Apply These Terms to Your New Programs

If you develop a new program, and you want it to be of the greatest possible use to the public, the best way to achieve this is to make it free software which everyone can redistribute and change under these terms.

To do so, attach the following notices to the program. It is safest to attach them to the start of each source file to most effectively convey the exclusion of warranty; and each file should have at least the "copyright" line and a pointer to where the full notice is found.

<one line to give the program's name and a brief idea of what it does.> Copyright (C) <year> <name of author>

This program is free software; you can redistribute it and/or modify it under the terms of the GNU General Public License as published by the Free Software Foundation; either version 2 of the License, or (at your option) any later version.

This program is distributed in the hope that it will be useful, but WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY; without even the implied warranty of MERCHANTABILITY or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. See the GNU General Public License for more details.

You should have received a copy of the GNU General Public License along with this program; if not, write to the Free Software Foundation, Inc., 59 Temple Place, Suite 330, Boston, MA 02111-1307 USA

Also add information on how to contact you by electronic and paper mail.
If the program is interactive, make it output a short notice like this when it starts in an interactive mode:

Gnomovision version 69, Copyright (C) year name of author
Gnomovision comes with ABSOLUTELY NO WARRANTY; for details type `show w`.

This is free software, and you are welcome to redistribute it under certain conditions; type `show c` for details.

The hypothetical commands `show w` and `show c` should show the appropriate parts of the General Public License. Of course, the commands you use may be called something other than `show w` and `show c`; they could even be mouse-clicks or menu items-- whatever suits your program.

You should also get your employer (if you work as a programmer) or your school, if any, to sign a "copyright disclaimer" for the program, if necessary. Here is a sample; alter the names:

Yoyodyne, Inc., hereby disclaims all copyright interest in the program 'Gnomovision' (which makes passes at compilers) written by James Hacker.

<signature of Ty Coon>, 1 April 1989 Ty Coon, President of Vice

This General Public License does not permit incorporating your program into proprietary programs. If your program is a subroutine library, you may consider it more useful to permit linking proprietary applications with the library. If this is what you want to do, use the GNU Library General Public License instead of this License.

NETWORK VISIBILITY SOFTWARE END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

This KEYSIGHT SOFTWARE END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is a legal agreement between the undersigned Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts ("Licensee" or "Ordering Activity") and Keysight regarding Keysight's Ixia-branded software product(s) identified in the related purchase order, including all associated media (collectively, the "SOFTWARE," as further defined below). By both parties executing this Agreement in writing, you are binding the business entity that you represent (i.e., Licensee) to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

If Licensee does not agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement, Licensee may not use the SOFTWARE in any way, and must promptly return the SOFTWARE (including, without limitation, any software media), unused, to Keysight.

1. CERTAIN DEFINITIONS

(a) "Server Software" is software that is intended for use on an Keysight Ixia-branded Hardware Chassis or other Keysight-approved hardware product, and that provides certain services on that product.

(b) "Client Software" is software that is intended for use on a computer workstation, and that allows an end user to access and utilize the services of Server Software.

(c) "License Management Software" is software that provides certain software license management services on a computer server.

(d) "Open Source Software" is any software or software component, module, or package that contains, or is derived in any manner (in whole or in part) from, any software that is distributed as free software, open source software, or under similar licensing or distribution models, including, without limitation, software licensed or distributed under any of the following licenses or distribution models, or licenses or distribution models similar to any of the following: (i) GNU's General Public License (GPL) or Lesser/Library GPL (LGPL); (ii) the Artistic License (e.g., PERL); (iii) the Mozilla Public License; (iv) the Netscape Public License; (v) the Sun Community Source License (SCSL); (vi) the Sun Industry Standards License (SISL); (vii) the BSD License; and (viii) the Apache License.

2. GRANT OF LICENSE

Subject to the terms, conditions, and restrictions in this Agreement, Keysight grants to Licensee a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, and non-sublicensable license to (i) install and use the Server Software, the Client Software the License Management Software, and the Open Source Software (collectively, and together with any copies thereof made in accordance with this Agreement, the "SOFTWARE") for which Licensee has paid or will pay to Keysight any required license fees, in object code form only, and (ii) use the provided end user documentation, whether printed or electronic (together with any copies thereof made in accordance with this Agreement, the "Documentation"), in support of Licensee's use of the SOFTWARE. The license(s) granted above are subject to the following terms and conditions, as well as all other terms and conditions in this Agreement:

(a) Server Software. Any Server Software included in the SOFTWARE may be installed and/or used only on the particular Keysight Ixia-branded Hardware Chassis or other Keysight-approved hardware product for which such Server Software is designated.

(b) Client Software. Except as otherwise provided in the applicable purchase order, any Client Software included in the SOFTWARE may be installed and/or used on an unlimited number of computer workstations. Such use is subject to any further restrictions in the applicable purchase order, including but not limited to any restrictions limiting the number of Client Software copies that can concurrently access and utilize the services of a particular copy of Server Software.

(c) License Management Software. Any License Management Software included in the SOFTWARE may be installed and/or used only on the number of designated servers corresponding with the total number of licenses specified in the applicable Keysight quote.

(d) Open Source Software. Licensee hereby acknowledges that the SOFTWARE may utilize or include Open Source Software that may have specific license terms applicable to that Open Source Software ("Open Source License") different from the terms of this Agreement. Open Source License terms are available at <https://support.ixiacom.com/support-services/warranty-license-agreements> or in other materials provided by Keysight. Any Open Source License associated with Open Source Software applies only to that Open Source Software and not the other software included in the SOFTWARE.

(e) Updates and Releases. To the extent that, the Limited Warranty and Technical Support Agreement (the "Limited Warranty Agreement"), Keysight or an affiliate provides Licensee with any revised, modified, or replacement SOFTWARE, or additional or supplemental SOFTWARE, or any updates, releases, error corrections, or bug fixes related to the SOFTWARE, the same shall become part of the "SOFTWARE" licensed hereunder when delivered to Licensee and shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions contained herein. With respect to any technical information Licensee provides to Keysight or an affiliate in connection with the license(s) granted to Licensee hereunder, Keysight may use such information for any purpose without restriction, including, without limitation, for product support and development. Keysight will not use such technical information in a form that identifies Licensee.

(f) Media: License Keys. Licensee may receive the SOFTWARE in more than one medium, or Licensee may receive copies of the SOFTWARE that are compatible with operating systems not specified on the applicable quote. Regardless, Licensee may use the SOFTWARE only as expressly permitted in this Agreement. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that installation and/or use of certain SOFTWARE may be subject to activation by license key.

(g) Copies. Except as is otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, Licensee may make only one copy of the SOFTWARE, and may use that copy only for backup and archival purposes. Licensee may copy the Documentation to the limited extent reasonably necessary to facilitate Licensee's use of the SOFTWARE in accordance with this Agreement.

(h) Reservation of Rights. Keysight reserves all rights not expressly granted herein.

3. TITLE; COPYRIGHT; PATENTS; NO SALE

(a) Ownership. Certain of the SOFTWARE may contain or be based upon software and/or other materials licensed to Keysight by third party licensors. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the SOFTWARE (including but not limited to any proprietary protocols implemented therein) constitutes valuable trade secrets of Keysight, its affiliates, and/or its licensors (as applicable). Licensee further acknowledges and agrees that Keysight, its affiliates, and/or its licensors (as applicable) own all rights, title, and interest in and to the SOFTWARE and the Documentation (including, without limitation, any all copies, extracts, and associated media thereof, all concepts, logic, protocols, and specifications related thereto, and all images, "applets," photographs, animations, video, audio, and/or text incorporated therein), as well as all patents, trademarks, trade names, inventions, copyrights, know-how, trade secrets, and other intellectual and industrial property rights, and any related applications or extensions, relating thereto or relating to the design, manufacture, operation, or service of the SOFTWARE.

(b) Copyright; Copies. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the SOFTWARE and the Documentation is protected by United States copyright laws and international treaty provisions. Licensee must treat the SOFTWARE and the Documentation like any other copyrighted material and may only make copies as expressly permitted herein.

(c) Licensed Not Sold. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the SOFTWARE and the Documentation has been licensed to Licensee pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and that neither the SOFTWARE nor the Documentation has been sold to Licensee.

RESTRICTIONS AND LIMITATIONS

(a) General Use Restrictions. Licensee shall not use, copy, merge, or transfer copies of the SOFTWARE or the Documentation except as may be expressly and specifically authorized in this Agreement. Licensee shall not knowingly take any action that would cause the SOFTWARE or the Documentation to be placed in the public domain.

(b) No Reverse Engineering: No Modification. Licensee may not, under any circumstances, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or otherwise attempt to discover, reconstruct, or identify the source code for the SOFTWARE or any user interface techniques, algorithms, logic, protocols, or specifications included, incorporated, or implemented therein. Furthermore, Licensee may not, under any circumstances and except as expressly authorized by Keysight in the Documentation, modify, port, translate, or create derivative works of the SOFTWARE or the Documentation. The forgoing restrictions will not apply to the extent any such restriction is prohibited by applicable mandatory law or by licensing terms governing the use of open source components that may be included with the SOFTWARE.

(c) Rental: Leasing. Licensee may not, and agrees that it will not, transfer, assign, rent, lease, lend, resell, or in any way distribute or transfer any rights in this Agreement, the SOFTWARE, or the Documentation to third parties, including by operation of law, without Keysight's prior written approval and subject to written agreement by the recipient to the terms of this Agreement.

(d) Export Restrictions: Compliance with Laws. Licensee agrees that Licensee will not, directly or indirectly, export or transmit the SOFTWARE or the Documentation to any country to which such export or transmission is restricted by any applicable U.S. regulation or statute, without the prior written consent, if required, of the Bureau of Export Administration of the U.S. Department of Commerce or such other governmental entity as may have jurisdiction over such export or transmission. Licensee agrees to comply with and conform to all applicable laws, regulations, ordinances, and executive orders relating to Licensee's use of the SOFTWARE and the Documentation.

5. USE AUDIT

Keysight shall have the right, upon reasonable notice and not more than once in a 12 month period, to conduct and/or have an independent accounting firm to conduct, during normal business hours on Licensee's premises under Licensee's reasonable supervision, an audit to verify Licensee's compliance with the terms of this Agreement. Keysight or an independent accounting firm shall comply with all of Licensee's security requirements prior to entering the premises or accessing Licensee's systems.

6. TERM AND TERMINATION

(a) General. Except as provided below with respect to evaluation and limited term licenses, this Agreement and the license(s) granted herein will remain effective until terminated. Licensee may terminate this Agreement and the license(s) granted herein by ceasing all use of the SOFTWARE and the Documentation, and returning all copies of the SOFTWARE and the Documentation to Keysight. When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Keysight shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer.

(b) Evaluation and Term Licenses. If the SOFTWARE has been licensed to Licensee for evaluation purposes, then the term of this Agreement will continue only until the end of the designated evaluation period. If the SOFTWARE has been licensed to Licensee for a limited period as specified in the applicable purchase order, then the term of this Agreement will continue only until the end of that period. SOFTWARE that is subject to any evaluation or limited term license may contain code that can disable most or all of the features of such SOFTWARE upon expiration of such evaluation or limited term license, and unless Licensee has purchased from Keysight the applicable license fee for any additional licenses, Licensee shall have no rights to use the SOFTWARE or the Documentation upon expiration of any such license.

(c) Licensee Obligations Upon Termination or Expiration. Licensee agrees, upon any termination or expiration of this Agreement, to cease use of, and to destroy or return to Keysight, all copies of the SOFTWARE and any related Documentation. Sections 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13 of this Agreement shall survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason and continue in full force and effect.

7. LIMITED WARRANTY; DISCLAIMER; LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

(a) LIMITED WARRANTY Keysight warrants that the SOFTWARE will, for a period of sixty (60) days from the date of your receipt, perform substantially in accordance with SOFTWARE written materials accompanying it. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE FOREGOING, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, AND EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH HEREIN OR IN THE LIMITED WARRANTY AGREEMENT ATTACHED HERETO, THE SOFTWARE AND THE DOCUMENTATION IS PROVIDED "AS IS", AND KEYSIGHT AND ITS SUPPLIERS AND LICENSORS DO NOT MAKE AND SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIM ALL EXPRESS AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF EVERY KIND RELATING TO THE SOFTWARE, THE DOCUMENTATION, AND/OR USE OF THE SOFTWARE OR THE DOCUMENTATION (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ACTUAL AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT), AS WELL AS ANY WARRANTIES THAT THE SOFTWARE, THE DOCUMENTATION, OR ANY ELEMENTS THEREOF WILL ACHIEVE A PARTICULAR RESULT, OR WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE.

(b) LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL KEYSIGHT OR ITS LICENSORS BE LIABLE IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE SOFTWARE, THE DOCUMENTATION, AND/OR ANY USE OF THE SOFTWARE OR THE DOCUMENTATION, UNDER ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, FOR ANY CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES OF ANY KIND, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, DAMAGES ARISING FROM LOSS OF PROFITS, REVENUE, DATA, OR USE, OR FROM INTERRUPTED COMMUNICATIONS OR DAMAGED DATA, OR FROM ANY DEFECT OR ERROR, OR IN CONNECTION WITH LICENSEE'S ACQUISITION OF SUBSTITUTE GOODS OR SERVICES OR MALFUNCTION OF THE SOFTWARE OR THE DOCUMENTATION, OR ANY SUCH DAMAGES ARISING FROM BREACH OF CONTRACT OR WARRANTY OR FROM NEGLIGENCE OR STRICT LIABILITY, EVEN IF KEYSIGHT OR ANY OF ITS LICENSORS OR ANY OTHER PERSON HAS BEEN ADVISED OR SHOULD KNOW OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES, AND NOTWITHSTANDING THE FAILURE OF ANY REMEDY TO ACHIEVE ITS INTENDED PURPOSE. FURTHER, IN NO EVENT SHALL KEYSIGHT'S MAXIMUM, AGGREGATE LIABILITY IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE SOFTWARE, THE DOCUMENTATION, AND/OR ANY USE OF THE SOFTWARE OR THE DOCUMENTATION EXCEED THE CONTRACT PRICE. THE FOREGOING EXCLUSION/LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM IXIA'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

(c) KEYSIGHT LIMITED AND EXTENDED WARRANTIES. THE SOFTWARE IS LICENSED HEREUNDER SUBJECT TO ALL OF THE "OTHER LIMITATIONS" SET FORTH IN THE LIMITED WARRANTY AGREEMENT.

Responsibilities of Licensee. As a licensee of the SOFTWARE, Licensee is solely responsible for the proper installation and operation of the SOFTWARE in accordance with the instructions and specifications set forth in the Documentation. Keysight shall have no responsibility or liability to Licensee, under the Limited Warranty Agreement or otherwise, for improper installation or operation of the SOFTWARE. Any output or execution errors resulting from improper installation or operation of the SOFTWARE shall not be deemed "defects" for purposes of the Limited Warranty Agreement

8. NON-DISCLOSURE

Licensee shall take all reasonable steps necessary to ensure that the SOFTWARE, the Documentation, and any related Keysight information, or any portion thereof, is not made available or disclosed by Licensee (or by any of its employees, representatives, or agents) to any person other than as may be necessary to Licensee's employees, representatives, and agents to use the same as expressly permitted herein. Licensee agrees that all of its employees, representatives, and agents having access to the SOFTWARE and/or the Documentation shall observe and perform the terms of this Section. Keysight recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

9. U.S. GOVERNMENT RESTRICTED RIGHTS

(a) Commercial Software. The SOFTWARE and its accompanying Documentation are deemed to be "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation," respectively, for purposes of Federal Acquisition Regulations ("FAR") 12.212, and the restrictions set forth in such regulations, and this Agreement shall be deemed to be the license described in such regulations. Any use, modification, reproduction, release, performance, display, or disclosure of the SOFTWARE or its accompanying Documentation by any agency, department, or entity of the United States Government (the "Government") shall be governed solely by the terms of this Agreement and is prohibited except to the extent expressly permitted by the terms of this Agreement. The SOFTWARE and its accompanying Documentation are also deemed to be "restricted computer software" for purposes of FAR 52.227-14(g)(3) (Alternate III (June 1987)), which clause is incorporated herein by reference subject to the express restrictions and prohibitions set forth above.

(b) Certain Technical Data. Any technical data provided that is not covered by the above provisions is deemed to be "technical information related to commercial computer software or commercial computer software documentation" for purposes of FAR 12.212 and the restrictions set forth therein, and is deemed to be "technical data or information related or pertaining to commercial items or processes" developed at private expense and this Agreement shall be deemed to be the license described in such regulations. Any use, modification, reproduction, release, performance, display, or disclosure of such technical data by the Government shall be governed solely by the terms of this Agreement and is prohibited except to the extent expressly permitted by the terms of this Agreement. Such technical data is also deemed to be "limited rights data" as defined in FAR 52.227-14(a) (Alternate I (June 1987)) and for purposes of FAR 52.227-14(g)(2) (Alternate II (June 1987)), which clauses are incorporated herein by reference subject to the express restrictions and prohibitions set forth above.

(c) Third Party Acceptance of Restrictions. Licensee shall not provide the SOFTWARE, its accompanying Documentation, or the technical data to any party, including the Government, unless such third party accepts the same restrictions as are set forth in this Section 10. Licensee is responsible for ensuring that the proper notice is given to all such third parties and that the SOFTWARE, its accompanying Documentation, and the technical data are properly marked with the required legends. Nothing in this Section 10(c) shall be deemed to modify the restrictions on transfer or disclosure set forth elsewhere in this Agreement.

10. GOVERNING LAW; ENFORCEMENT

(a) Governing Law. This Agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties hereunder shall be governed by the Federal laws of the United States. IN ADDITION, THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE GOVERNED OR INTERPRETED IN ANY WAY BY REFERRING TO ANY LAW BASED ON THE UNIFORM COMPUTER INFORMATION TRANSACTIONS ACT (UCITA), AND THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION ON CONTRACTS FOR THE INTERNATIONAL SALE OF GOODS IS HEREBY EXCLUDED.

11. INVALIDITY OF PROVISIONS

If any provision in this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be construed, limited, or altered, as necessary, to eliminate the invalidity or unenforceability and all other provisions of this Agreement shall remain in effect.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

(a) This Agreement and the Limited Warranty Agreement together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule pricelist and applicable purchase order(s) set forth the entire agreement between Keysight and Licensee with respect to the SOFTWARE, the Documentation, and Licensee's use thereof. No provision of this Agreement or of the Limited Warranty Agreement may be waived, modified, or superseded except by a written instrument signed by each of Keysight and Licensee. No failure or delay in exercising any right or remedy shall operate as a waiver of any such (or any other) right or remedy. The language of this Agreement shall be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning and intent, and not strictly for or against either party, regardless of who drafted or was principally responsible for drafting this Agreement or any specific term or conditions hereof. This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties and their successors and permitted assigns. Both parties are acting as independent contractors with respect to the activities hereunder.

LIMITED WARRANTY AND TECHNICAL SUPPORT AGREEMENT FOR IXIA BRANDED KEYSIGHT PRODUCTS

Ixia is a business of Keysight Technologies.

Congratulations on your purchase of one or more Ixia branded products. References herein to Ixia branded products include Ixia branded products and professional services sold by Keysight Technologies, Inc. and its affiliates ("Keysight"). Only those Ixia branded products listed on the quote that you received from Keysight or its authorized reseller are covered under this Limited Warranty and Technical Support Agreement (this "Warranty Agreement"). By using any of the products or services that are covered by this Warranty Agreement, you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions set forth herein.

Limited Hardware Warranty

Subject to the exceptions in Section VII below, Keysight provides a limited warranty that covers the hardware and software media (e.g., USB drives) that Keysight ships as part of its Ixia branded products (the "Hardware Warranty"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Hardware Warranty does not cover third party products that are separate and distinct from Keysight products and merely resold by Keysight.

What Is Covered: The Hardware Warranty covers only material defects in the hardware and software media shipped as part of Ixia branded products (each, a "Defect").

For How Long: The Hardware Warranty is effective for twelve (12) months from the date on which Keysight first ships the corresponding product or any part or portion thereof (such time period is referred to herein as the "Initial Hardware Warranty Term"). Further, for each item that is repaired or replaced by Keysight pursuant to the Hardware Warranty, the Hardware Warranty will remain effective for the longer of (i) the remainder of the Initial Hardware Warranty Term and (ii) three (3) months following the date on which Keysight first ships the repaired or replaced item. If you purchase additional hardware functionality during the Hardware Warranty Term, including but not limited to adding or changing the configuration of ports, such purchase shall not extend the Hardware Warranty Term for the underlying hardware base unit.

What Keysight Will Do: Except as otherwise expressly set forth in the paragraph below titled "Advanced Replacement," Keysight's sole obligation under the Hardware Warranty is, at Keysight's option, to either repair or replace the hardware or software media that contains the Defect, or refund (or cause the authorized reseller to refund) the purchase price of the corresponding Ixia branded product in exchange for your return of that product. Keysight may use refurbished items and/or substantially similar items to satisfy its obligations hereunder.

What You Must Do: If, during the applicable Hardware Warranty Term, you believe you have discovered a Defect, please contact Customer Support using one of the methods listed online at support.ixiacom.com. Customer Support may require some or all of the following information in order to assist in resolving your problem:

Model number of the hardware.

Serial number of the hardware.

Software version.

Software license key number or registration information.

Detailed problem description.

Customer name and telephone number, and an address to where any repaired or replaced hardware is requested to be shipped.

If Customer Support believes that there is a Defect in the hardware or software media that is covered by the Hardware Warranty and Customer Support cannot resolve that Defect remotely, then Customer Support will issue you a Return of Material Authorization ("RMA") number. Any item that is returned without an RMA number may be refused by Keysight and returned to you at your sole cost and expense.

All defective hardware and software media that is returned to Keysight must be shipped in its original packaging (including any antistatic bags) to the shipping address specified by Customer Support. Hardware packaged incorrectly may be damaged in shipping, which will invalidate the Hardware Warranty with respect to that item and may cause you to incur a repair or replacement charge. THE ASSIGNED RMA NUMBER MUST BE CLEARLY POSTED ON THE OUTSIDE OF THE BOX. Keysight is responsible for all packing, shipping, insurance costs, taxes, tariffs, and duties (collectively, "Shipping Costs") due in connection with your return of any item, and you assume the risk of loss and damage for all such items in transit to the shipping address specified by Customer Support. Except as otherwise provided below, Keysight is solely responsible for all Shipping Costs due in connection with Keysight's return of any repaired or replacement item under the Hardware Warranty, and Keysight assumes the risk of loss and damage for all such items in transit to your return address. If Keysight must return any repaired or replacement item to a location outside of the United States of America, then the foregoing sentence will not apply and, instead, the transportation terms will be the same as those of the initial product sale. Title to any replacement items will transfer to you when risk of loss transfers from Keysight to you pursuant to the foregoing. If Keysight is requested to return any repaired or replacement item to a country that is different from the country in which the item was originally purchased, then Keysight may, at its sole option, either return the item to the country in which it was originally purchased or charge you for any additional costs incurred by Keysight as a result of that change. If a returned item is determined by Keysight to not contain a Defect or otherwise not be covered by the Hardware Warranty, then Keysight may, at its sole option, charge you for any related costs incurred by Keysight, and you will be responsible for the return of that item to you and for all related Shipping Costs.

IMPORTANT: Before shipping any hardware in accordance with the instructions above, you must (1) back up the data on any hard drive(s) or on any other storage device(s) in that hardware, (2) remove any confidential, proprietary, or personal information (collectively, "Confidential Information"), (3) remove any removable media, such as DVDs, and (4) de-register all Ixia branded software licenses that are registered to that hardware. Keysight will not be responsible for any loss of or damage to your data or your removable media. Further, except as expressly set forth in a written agreement that has been signed by Keysight, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, Keysight will have no liability for any use or disclosure of your Confidential Information.

Advanced Replacement: Ixia branded hardware covered by the Hardware Warranty will be entitled to Advanced Replacement if (i) within the ninety (90) day period immediately following the date on which Keysight first ships such hardware, you notify Customer Support in the manner specified above that such hardware contains a potential Defect, and (ii) Customer Support issues an RMA number for such hardware. "Advanced Replacement" means that, at your request, Keysight will use commercially reasonable efforts to initiate shipment of replacement hardware within two (2) business days following Keysight's issuance of such RMA. If you make use of Advanced Replacement, you must return the hardware that contains the potential Defect (the "Defective Hardware") to Keysight as instructed above within fifteen (15) days following your receipt of the replacement hardware, or you will be charged Keysight's then-current, applicable list price for the replacement hardware. Ownership of the Defective Hardware will transfer to Keysight upon Keysight's receipt thereof. You acknowledge that the replacement hardware may be refurbished hardware and/or may be a different model than the Defective Hardware (so long as it is a substantially similar model).

2. Limited Software Warranty

Subject to the exceptions in Section VII below, Keysight provides a limited warranty with respect to its Software (the "Software Warranty"). The term "Software" refers to Ixia branded software and firmware programs that are provided by Keysight, but excludes any Third Party Software. The term "Third Party Software" refers to third party software programs that are provided by Keysight but that are separate and distinct from Keysight's proprietary software (e.g., a third party operating system or antivirus program).

What Is Covered: The Software Warranty only covers the most current General Availability (GA) version of the Software and the most current Early Adopter (EA) version of the Software. Further, the Software Warranty only covers programming defects and errors in the Software that materially and adversely affect the operation of the Software in accordance with its documentation (each, an "Error"). The Software Warranty does not cover Third Party Software.

For How Long: The Software Warranty is effective for twelve (12) months from the Delivery Date (such time period is referred to herein as the "Initial Software Warranty Term"). The term "Delivery Date," as used herein, means the first date on which Keysight (i) has shipped the media containing the corresponding Software or has made it available for electronic download and (ii) has provided you with any required license key needed to download, install, and/or activate such Software.

What Keysight Will Do: Keysight's sole obligation under the Software Warranty is to use commercially reasonable efforts to correct or provide a work around for each Error.

What You Must Do: If, during the applicable Software Warranty term, you believe you have discovered an Error, please contact Customer Support using one of the methods listed online at support.ixiacom.com. Customer Support may require some or all of the following information in order to assist in resolving your problem:

Software version.
Software license key number or registration information.
Model number of corresponding hardware.
Serial number of corresponding hardware.
Detailed problem description.
Customer name, address, and telephone number.

Third Party Software: All Third Party Software is provided by Keysight "AS IS" and with no warranty. However, Third Party Software may be covered by a separate warranty provided by the third party licensor of that software. Further, if any Ixia branded hardware or Software product fails to operate substantially in accordance with its documentation as the result of any defect in any Third Party Software, then Keysight will use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a remedy for that defect, provided that such Ixia branded hardware or Software product (i) is covered under the Hardware Warranty or Software Warranty (as applicable), and (ii) is designated by Keysight as compatible with that Third Party Software. For assistance with any such defect, please contact Customer Support using one of the methods listed at support.ixiacom.com.

3. Professional Services Warranty

Keysight warrants that all Professional Services will be performed in a good and workmanlike manner, consistent with applicable industry standards (the "Professional Services Warranty"). As used herein, the term "Professional Services" refers to services provided by Keysight for a fee that are separate and distinct from the warranty, maintenance, and support services described elsewhere in this Warranty Agreement. The Professional Services Warranty will be in effect for thirty (30) days following completion of the corresponding services (the "Warranty Period"). Customer's sole and exclusive remedy for any breach of the Professional Services Warranty will be for Keysight, at its option, to either re-perform the non-conforming services or refund the corresponding fees paid by Customer hereunder, and Keysight will have no obligation with respect to any such breach that is first reported to Keysight after the Warranty Period.

4. Technical Support

Subject to the product-specific exceptions in Section VII below, Keysight will provide you with technical support services to assist you with the installation, operation, and/or configuration of each Ixia branded product that you have purchased or licensed, and to assist you with any Defects or Errors that you believe you have identified ("Technical Support"). Technical Support will only be provided for so long as that product is covered under the Hardware Warranty or Software Warranty (as applicable), and you must be registered with Keysight as the original owner/licensee of that product to receive Technical Support. Except as otherwise determined by Keysight in its sole discretion, all Technical Support will be provided remotely (e.g., via telephone and/or email, or through ixiacom.com). Further, except as expressly set forth in Section VI below or as otherwise determined by Keysight in its sole discretion, Technical Support will only be provided during the hours specified on our website at support.ixiacom.com ("Business Hours") for the region in which the applicable Support Center is located. To locate the applicable contact information for Customer Support, or to access any online Technical Support resources available with respect to the Ixia branded product that you have purchased or licensed, please visit that website.

5. Software Updates

Subject to the exceptions in Section VII below, Keysight will make available to you all Updates for Software that you have licensed for so long as that Software is covered under the Software Warranty. The term "Updates" refers to modifications, enhancements, and upgrades to Software that Keysight makes generally available, at no additional fee, to its other customers who are covered by the same Software Warranty. For the avoidance of doubt, the term "Updates" does not include any modifications, enhancements, or upgrades to Software that are licensed separately for an additional fee. All Updates and Error corrections provided for Software pursuant to this Warranty Agreement will constitute part of that Software and are provided to you under the terms of the applicable software end user license agreement for that Software.

6. Additional Services

You may purchase, for an additional fee, the services described below in this Section VI (individually and collectively, the "Additional Services") to supplement the warranties, support, and services described above. Keysight may, in its sole discretion, not offer or cease offering any of the Additional Services for any products. Notwithstanding anything in this Warranty Agreement to the contrary, for so long as a product is covered by the Additional Services, that product shall also be covered by, as applicable, the Hardware Warranty, the Software Warranty, Technical Support, and Updates.

Essential Support. For each Ixia branded product covered by Essential Support, Keysight will use commercially reasonable efforts to respond to each of your requests for Technical Support regarding that product within two (2) Business Hours following Keysight's initial receipt of that request. For so long as an Ixia branded hardware product is covered by Essential Support, that product will be eligible for Advanced Replacement. Use of Advanced Replacement is conditioned upon the issuance of an RMA number for that product by Customer Support.

Enterprise 24x7 Support: For each Ixia branded product covered by Enterprise 24x7 Support, (i) Keysight will use commercially reasonable efforts to respond to each of your requests for Technical Support regarding that product within two (2) hours following Keysight's initial receipt of that request, and (ii) a senior Support Advocate (either Director level or above and designated by Keysight) will, at your request and up to once per calendar quarter, meet with you at the time and location agreed upon by you and Keysight (a "Support Advocate Meeting") to discuss your existing and closed Technical Support cases with respect to that product, any proposals you may have for Keysight to improve its support services, and any recent or anticipated improvements to Keysight's support services that may benefit you. Support Advocate Meeting rights for a particular calendar quarter expire at the end of that calendar quarter and may not be accrued or rolled over to subsequent quarters. For so long as an Ixia branded hardware product is covered by Enterprise 24x7 Support, that product will be eligible for Advanced Replacement. Use of Advanced Replacement is conditioned upon the issuance of an RMA number for that product by Customer Support.

7. Exceptions

BreakingPoint Software Products: You will only be entitled to Technical Support and Updates for the BreakingPoint Software that you have licensed if, and for so long as, that Software is covered by an Application Threat Intelligence (“ATI”) subscription. An ATI subscription also entitles you to StrikePack Updates. StrikePack Updates contain new security attacks and application protocols for BreakingPoint Software. You must pay an additional fee for an ATI subscription.

BreakingPoint Hardware Products: For so long as your BreakingPoint hardware product is covered by the Hardware Warranty, that product will be eligible for Advanced Replacement. Use of Advanced Replacement is conditioned upon the issuance of an RMA number for that hardware by Customer Support.

IxCatapult Products: For all IxCatapult products that are delivered to you outside of Japan, both the Initial Hardware Warranty Term and the Initial Software Warranty Term shall be three (3) months in length.

ThreatARMOR Products: ThreatARMOR products are not covered by either the Hardware Warranty or the Software Warranty unless such products are also covered by either Essential Support or Enterprise 24x7 Support. Further, Essential Support and Enterprise 24x7 Support for a ThreatARMOR product must be purchased together with an ATI subscription. You must pay additional fees for Essential Support, Enterprise 24x7 Support, and the bundled ATI subscriptions.

TradeView Products: You will not receive any Updates to the Market Data Feeds Decoder for any TradeView products that you have purchased unless you have an active Feed Decoder subscription. You must pay an additional fee for a Feed Decoder subscription.

Mobile Applications: From time to time, Keysight may make one or more mobile software applications (“Apps”) available for use in conjunction with one or more of the Ixia branded products. Apps may be made available through the Apple App Store, the Google Play Store, or otherwise. All Apps are provided “AS IS,” and you shall not be entitled to any warranty, support, or software updates of any kind with respect thereto.

Professional Services: You will not be entitled to the Hardware Warranty, the Software Warranty, or Technical Support in connection with any goods or services provided to you as part of the Professional Services.

8. Coverage Limitations

WHAT IS NOT COVERED: NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING IN THIS WARRANTY AGREEMENT TO THE CONTRARY and in addition to all other limitations set forth in this Warranty Agreement, the Hardware Warranty, Software Warranty, the Professional Services Warranty, Technical Support, Updates, any Additional Services that you have purchased, and any other services identified herein that you have purchased (collectively, the “Services”) do not cover:

Products with missing or altered serial numbers.

Hardware products that have been opened, or for which any of the security screws have been removed without Keysight’s prior authorization.

Products for which Keysight (or Keysight’s authorized reseller, if applicable) has not received full payment in accordance with the applicable payment terms.

Lost or stolen products.

Non-serialized accessories, such as cables, baffles, and mounting brackets (unless the corresponding Ixia branded hardware base unit for such item is covered under the Hardware Warranty, in which case Keysight’s sole obligation shall be to use commercially reasonable efforts to provide the Services for such item).

Problems that result from:

external causes such as accident, abuse, misuse, or problems with electrical power;

servicing not authorized by Keysight;

installation or usage that is not in accordance with the corresponding documentation provided by Keysight;

failure to perform commercially reasonable preventative maintenance; or use of accessories, parts, components, or software not supplied by Keysight.

Problems that are first reported after the effective period of the applicable Services.

The physical installation or physical deployment of any products (except if and to the extent that such services were to be provided as part of the corresponding Professional Services).

Repairs Do Not Extend Warranty Periods: Except as otherwise expressly provided above with respect to hardware products, the effective periods of the Services will not be extended as the result of any repairs, replacements, Error corrections, or Software updates provided hereunder.

Not Transferable: Only the original end user authorized by Keysight to use the Ixia branded product(s) may receive the corresponding Services. None of the Services may be assigned or transferred, directly or indirectly, by operation of law or otherwise. Any such termination will not affect any amounts due from you hereunder, and you will not be entitled to any refund of any pre-paid amounts as a result of any such termination.

Services Provided in English: Except as otherwise determined by Keysight in its sole discretion, all Services shall be provided in the English language only.

Force Majeure: Keysight shall not be liable for failing to perform any of its obligations under this Warranty Agreement if such failure is due to a cause beyond Keysight's reasonable control.

9. Other Limitations

DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES: Keysight warrants that ALL HARDWARE, SOFTWARE, SOFTWARE MEDIA, THIRD PARTY HARDWARE INTEGRATED INTO A KEYSIGHT SOLUTION, AND THIRD PARTY SOFTWARE INTEGRATED INTO A KEYSIGHT SOLUTION PROVIDED BY KEYSIGHT OR ITS AUTHORIZED RESELLERS AS PART OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH ANY IXIA BRANDED PRODUCT, OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS WARRANTY AGREEMENT (Collectively, THE "KEYSIGHT DELIVERABLES") will, for a period of sixty (60) days from the date of your receipt, perform substantially in accordance with Keysight's published specifications for the KEYSIGHT DELIVERABLES. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE FOREGOING, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH HEREIN, THE "KEYSIGHT DELIVERABLES, THIRD PARTY HARDWARE OR THIRD PARTY SOFTWARE THAT IS NOT INTEGRATED INTO A KEYSIGHT SOLUTION, PROFESSIONAL SERVICES, AND OTHER SERVICES ARE PROVIDED "AS IS", AND KEYSIGHT AND ITS SUPPLIERS AND LICENSORS DO NOT MAKE AND SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIM ALL EXPRESS AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF EVERY KIND RELATING TO THE KEYSIGHT DELIVERABLES AND/OR USE OF THE KEYSIGHT DELIVERABLES (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ACTUAL AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT), AS WELL AS ANY WARRANTIES THAT THE KEYSIGHT DELIVERABLES (OR ANY ELEMENTS THEREOF) WILL ACHIEVE A PARTICULAR RESULT OR WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE.

LIMITATIONS ON LIABILITY: TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, IN NO EVENT WILL KEYSIGHT BE LIABLE UNDER ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY FOR ANY CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES OF ANY KIND, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, DAMAGES ARISING FROM LOSS OF PROFITS, REVENUE, DATA, OR USE, OR FROM INTERRUPTED COMMUNICATIONS OR DAMAGED DATA, OR IN CONNECTION WITH CUSTOMER'S ACQUISITION OF SUBSTITUTE GOODS OR SERVICES, OR ANY SUCH DAMAGES ARISING FROM BREACH OF CONTRACT OR WARRANTY OR STRICT LIABILITY, EVEN IF KEYSIGHT OR ANY OTHER PERSON HAS BEEN ADVISED OR SHOULD KNOW OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, KEYSIGHT'S MAXIMUM AGGREGATE LIABILITY IN CONNECTION WITH THIS WARRANTY AGREEMENT AND/OR IN CONNECTION WITH ANY DELIVERABLES (OR YOUR LICENSING, PURCHASE, OR USE THEREOF) WILL NOT EXCEED THE CONTRACT PRICE. THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS WILL APPLY NOTWITHSTANDING ANY FAILURE OF ESSENTIAL PURPOSE OF ANY LIMITED REMEDY. THE FOREGOING EXCLUSION/LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL NOT APPLY TO (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM KEYSIGHT'S NEGLIGENCE; (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

Unauthorized Persons Cannot Change Terms: Additional statements by agents, employees, or resellers of Keysight do not constitute warranties by Keysight, do not bind Keysight, and may not be relied upon. This Warranty Agreement may only be amended by a written agreement signed by both parties.

Export Restrictions: You expressly agree that you assume full responsibility for obtaining any and all required export authorizations from all applicable government authorities prior to exporting, re-exporting or transferring any items, technology or technical data and for complying with all applicable laws and regulations relating to any such transfer or transaction. You shall not sell or transfer any items, technology or technical data to any entity designated or identified by the U.S. Government as a restricted person or included on any U.S. Government-maintained restricted person list, including, but not limited to, (i) the Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List, (ii) the Foreign Sanctions Evaders List, (iii) the Sectoral Sanctions Identification List, (iv) the Entity List, (v) the Denied Persons List, and (vi) the Unverified List (collectively, "US Restricted Lists"). Further information on these and other applicable lists can be found at www.treasury.gov or www.bis.doc.gov. Keysight may, in its sole discretion, suspend performance or cancel all or part of the order if you are designated on US Restricted Lists or you do not comply with the provisions of this section and may, in its sole discretion, refuse to perform any post-sale services with respect to the items (including, but not limited to, any repair or replacement under warranty) if such activities would involve in any way, an entity on any US Restricted Lists. Keysight may, in its sole discretion, require you to provide an end user certificate and/or an export license prior to Keysight's delivery of any item to you.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction: This Warranty Agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties hereunder will be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States without giving effect to principles of conflicts of law. THIS WARRANTY AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE GOVERNED OR INTERPRETED IN ANY WAY BY REFERRING TO ANY LAW BASED ON THE UNIFORM COMPUTER INFORMATION TRANSACTIONS ACT (UCITA), AND THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION ON CONTRACTS FOR THE INTERNATIONAL SALE OF GOODS IS HEREBY EXCLUDED.

Termination: Any such termination will not affect any amounts due from you hereunder. For subscription licenses, this Warranty Agreement will terminate when your subscription expires or is terminated.

Severability: If any provision of this Warranty Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions of this Warranty Agreement will remain in full force and effect, and the provision affected will be construed so as to be enforceable to the maximum extent permissible by applicable law.

Survival: This Section IX of this Warranty Agreement will survive any expiration or termination of this Warranty Agreement for any reason and continue in full force and effect in perpetuity.

10. Renewals

You may renew the Services for one or more additional, successive terms, subject to your issuance of a purchase order and subject to the following conditions and limitations:

The renewal agreement be in writing and signed by both parties.

Renewal fees and renewal term lengths will be as determined by Keysight in accordance with the GSA pricelist and as set forth in the applicable purchase order.

Renewal terms must be continuous with no gaps in coverage. Any reinstatement of coverage after a gap in coverage is to Keysight's approval.

Except as otherwise set forth in a written agreement signed by Keysight, all of the terms, conditions, and limitations set forth in this Warranty Agreement will apply with respect to each such renewal order.

Certain Services may only be renewed together with certain other Services. Please contact the Support Renewals team at renewals@ixiacom.com or your account representative for an explanation of these dependencies.

Notwithstanding anything in this Warranty Agreement to the contrary, on and after the End-of-Development Date for an Ixia branded product, Keysight may refuse to provide code changes to correct Errors in that product. Such End-of-Development Dates are set forth in Keysight's End of Life Policy for Ixia branded products, which is posted at support.ixiacom.com.

Keysight may, at any time and in its sole discretion, cease offering renewal terms for any of the Services, refuse to renew any of the Services, or condition any such renewal upon your acceptance of terms and conditions that are in addition to, or different than, the terms and conditions set forth in this Warranty Agreement which must be agreed to in writing by both parties.

KBZ COMMUNICATIONS, INC.
2003 SOUTH EASTON ROAD, SUITE 308
DOYLESTOWN, PA 18901

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached KBZ Communications, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

SERVICE SUMMARY

This document describes the services offerings of the KBZ ZCare Technical Support Program (“ZCare”). It outlines the deliverables by Contractor through KBZ ZCare Technical Support Services to an Ordering Activity of Contractor (“Ordering Activity”). An “Ordering Activity” is defined as either an End User customer who has purchased ZCare from Contractor for Cisco TelePresence equipment and/or systems.

Service definitions herein will focus on three core deliverables by Contractor through ZCare Technical Support Services:

- SoftCare Software Support
- Advanced Replacement Service
- RMA Process in Support of Advance Equipment Replacement
- Delivery and Collection RMA
- End of Life Statement
- Help Desk Telephone Technical Support
- Help Desk Call Flow
- ZCare Service Level Commitment
- Escalation Procedure

This document additionally addresses Call Flow and Escalation Management for critical situations.

1. SOFTCARE SOFTWARE SUPPORT

SoftCare support is a maintenance component of the ZCare Technical Support program that makes available to the Ordering Activity, all applicable software releases. To ensure better communication and awareness of this software notification program, ZCare Technical Support Services will automatically alert the Ordering Activity when new releases are available.

The SoftCare it e-mail notification will contain, at minimum, the following key information:

- Feature list (a brief explanation of the contents and benefits of the software release)
- Download instructions
- Release Key information
- WEB Release Key Generator

2. ADVANCED REPLACEMENT SERVICE

The ZCare Advanced Replacement Service provides for replacement equipment, return paperwork, and arrangement for collection of faulty equipment.

Next-day support for advanced parts exchange is available until 5:00 EST within the United States. It is the responsibility of the Ordering Activity to (1) ensure that faulty equipment is returned in original packaging provided with delivery of the replacement parts, and (2) to return and ship faulty equipment within 15 working days of receipt of the replacement equipment (unless special conditions are agreed to in advance; reviewed on a case-by-case basis).

Disclaimer: ZCare technical Support Service endeavors to deliver replacement equipment within 24 hours in the United States. However, neither Contractor nor ZCare Technical Support Services can be held liable for delays caused by events outside of our direct control.

RMA Process in Support of Advanced Parts Replacement

ZCare Technical Support Services will open a Work Order on an existing trouble ticket. ZCare will complete an RMA with Ordering Activity shipping information, product information (serial number, part number, software version, installed options) and a fault description.

ZCare will forward the RMA to Cisco for processing and product shipment.

Replacement equipment will be dispatched from Cisco’s warehouse the next business day after receipt of a correctly completed RMA. *

Once replacement equipment has been shipped, the warehouse will forward tracking information to ZCare Technical Support Services.

Contractor through a KBZ representative will then forward this information to the Ordering Activity.

This policy applies Monday through Friday, local holidays excluded; regional delivery lead times apply; shipped the same day, up to 5:00 local time, for next day delivery.

Larger equipment shipped as freight may take 3 to 5 days for delivery.

Note: Due to the weight and dimensions of plasmas and monitors delivery time may vary for these items.

Delivery & Collection RMA

Contractor through Cisco will send replacement parts together with return paperwork. * In this case, The Ordering Activity must:

Return all faulty units in the factory –supplied packaging delivered and containing the replacement parts
 Sign and return shipping invoice and shipping documents
 Schedule pick-up/collection of failed/replaced equipment
 Cisco will pay shipping costs in both directions *

It is the responsibility of the Ordering Activity to ensure that faulty parts (1) returned in original packaging provided with delivery of the replacement parts, and (2) return shipped within 15 working days of receipt of the replacement parts (unless special conditions are agreed to in advance. This will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis).

END OF LIFE STATEMENT

The ZCare Technical Support Services commits to providing technical support and development on all components manufactured by Cisco for a period of five years beyond the announced en-of-sale-date. This support will include the following items:
Spare or replacement parts in accordance with the KBZ Return Materials Authorization (RMA) process.
Access to ZCare Help Desk availability 20 hours a day, 7 days a week.
SoftCare email notifications of related Cisco software maintenance releases.

TELEPHONE TECHNICAL SUPPORT

The Ordering Activity may report product problems and failures to Contractor through ZCare Technical Support Services via the designated toll free number: 1-888-492-2734. All calls are entered into the call tracking system.

Help Desk Call Flow and Escalation Process

When a call or email comes into the Help Desk, the problem tracking and resolution process proceeds as follows:
 Technical support representative assigns a unique Trouble Ticket Number.
 Technical support representative requests the system serial number from the Ordering Activity. If the serial number is not available, representative will still open a ticket, but shipping and troubleshooting delays may result.
 Technical support representative assess problem, and then assigns a Case Priority Level based on criteria explained in Table 1: Case Priority Levels and Response Time Targets.
 Technical support representative dispatches technician in accordance with priority level response time.
 As deployments or milestones occur within the troubleshooting process, the ZCare Online Ticketing System is updated.
 ZCare Service level offering is based on the criteria explained in Table 1: Case Priority Levels and Response Time Targets. If escalation is required outside of this regular process, the Ordering Activity should use the escalation procedure defined under “ZCare Service Level Commitment” on page 4.

Table 1: Case Priority Levels and Response Time Targets

Priority Level	Definition of Need	Response Time Target
1. Urgent	An event or combination of events causing 100% loss of system availability	30 Minutes
2. Critical	An event or multiple events causing a continuous or chronic impact to operation	1 Hour
3. High	An event or multiple events with the potential to cause an impact to operation	4 Hours
4. Normal	A condition having no immediate impact on operation but requiring maintenance action	8 Hours/ Next Business Day aid

ZCARE SERVICE LEVEL COMMITMENT

In addition to problem solving related to Cisco TelePresence equipment, Contractor through ZCare Technical Support Services will work with the Ordering Activity to collaborate in solving network issues impacting equipment used and deployment. Table 2 describes the ZCare Service level commitment by the priority level assigned to the case.

Table 2: ZCare Service Level Commitment by Priority Level

Priority Level	Service Level
1. Urgent	An existing network is down or there is a critical impact to the Ordering Activity’s business operation. Cisco, Partner and End User will commit full-time resources to resolve the situation.
2. Critical	Operation of an existing network is severely degraded, or significant aspects of the Ordering Activity’s business operation are being negatively impacted by unacceptable product performance. Cisco, KBZ, and Contractor will commit full-time resources during Standard Business Hours to resolve the situation.
3. High	Operational performance of the network is impaired while most business operations remain functional. Cisco, Partner, and Ordering Activity are willing to commit resources during Standard Business Hours to restore services to satisfactory levels.
4. Normal	Information or assistance is required on Cisco product capabilities, installation, or configuration. There is clearly little or no impact to the Ordering Activity’s business operation. Cisco, Partner, and Ordering Activity are willing to provide resources during Standard Business Hours to provide information or assistance as requested.

ESCALATION OVERVIEW

The ZCare Technical Support Services 24/7 Help Desk provides services escalation resulting from support that is not meeting the actual service levels outlined herein, or in a service emergency where support requirements dictate a response outside of the scope outlined herein. In this event, all escalations are to be directed to Shamus Doyle, KBZ Technical Services Manager by any of the following means:

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached Kony, Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination, suspension and/ or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent an express statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The FAR 12.216 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.). The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.).

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

KONY, INC.

KONY, INC. LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

1. Definitions:

1.1 "Ordering Activity Application" means a Platform-enabled mobile application developed by or for Ordering Activity or the pre-configured mobile application included in the Kony Pre-Packaged Application that is configured for its use.

1.2 "Hosting Services" means the Program hosting services provided by Kony, if applicable, pursuant to an executed hosting agreement ("Hosting Agreement").

1.3 "Kony Studio" or "IDE" means the Kony Studio software, which is an integrated development environment that enables the development modification and deployment of a Ordering Activity Application or configuration of a Kony Pre-Packaged Application by or on behalf of Ordering Activity.

1.4 "Kony Development Cloud" or "Platform" means Kony's standard (non-Ordering Activity-specific) unified application platform for the design, development & deployment of native on-device and web based applications, comprising of Kony's integrated development environment and Kony's middleware server software, all of which support the operation and use of the Ordering Activity Application.

1.5 "Kony Pre-Packaged Applications" means a specific pre-configured mobile application that is designed and developed as a single code base with common and selectable features and functionality that will be configured using Kony Studio to provide for unique branding presentation, selectable integration capabilities, and flexibility to generate native on-device, mobile web, and/or SMS/MSS clients. A Pre-Packaged Application is bundled with an application specific run-time license to a single User of the Kony Studio and Kony's middleware server software.

1.6 "Maintenance / Support Services" means the support services provided by Contractor as described in Section 4 hereunder.

1.7 "Order" means an ordering document between Contractor and Ordering Activity that specifically references this Agreement and describes the Programs(s) licensed, pricing, license term and other terms associated with a transaction.

1.8 "Program(s)" means the executable code of the commercially released version of the Kony Studio, Kony Pre-Packaged Applications and Kony Development Cloud computer software program(s) or portion thereof made available to Ordering Activity by Kony hereunder, as specified on an Order. Programs also include releases, updates and upgrades to the Programs and documentation as may be made available to Ordering Activity by Contractor as part of Support Services.

2. Licensing.

2.1 Delivery. Upon execution of this Agreement, Contractor will provide a copy of the applicable Program(s) to Ordering Activity.

2.2 Grant of License. Contractor hereby grants to Ordering Activity a perpetual, limited, non-exclusive and non-transferable license, for the Programs specified on the applicable Order, to do the following but only to the extent that Programs are licensed by Ordering Activity on an Order (each such situation a permitted "Use"):

(a) Kony Studio. To install, execute and configure the documented development features of the Kony Studio, solely to create customized applications (including the right to embed and distribute Contractor's redistributable .exe libraries therein provided Ordering Activity maintains a fully paid production license to the Platform), improvements, extensions or interfaces to a Ordering Activity Application or Pre-Packaged Application. Kony Studio is licensed on a per "User" basis which is a single individual designated by Ordering Activity, which may include employees, agents, independent contractors or consultants located at Ordering Activity's facility.

(b) Kony Platform. To (i) as specified on an Order, install and execute a single User license of Kony Studio at Ordering Activity's site and execute a single or multiple production implementation of Kony's middleware server software by means of the Hosting Services, if hosted by Kony pursuant to an executed Hosting Agreement; or (ii) if not so hosted by Kony, as specified on an Order to install and execute a single User license of Kony Studio at Ordering Activity's site and a single or multiple production implementation of Kony's middleware server software on Ordering Activity's server(s), each of which to (a) access and use the administrative and other functions and features of the Platform by Ordering Activity internally; and (b) allow Ordering Activity's authorized end users to access and use the end user features and functions of the Platform through supported channels; in accordance with the Order, documentation and this Agreement.

(c) Kony Pre-Packaged Applications. To (i) as specified on an Order execute a single or multiple production implementation of the Pre-Packaged Application enabled by the Platform by means of the Hosting Services, if hosted by Kony pursuant to an executed Hosting Agreement; or (ii) if not so hosted by Kony, as specified on an Order to install and execute a single or multiple production implementation of the Pre-Packaged Application enabled by the Platform on Ordering Activity's server(s); and (iii) unlimited rights to distribute the client portion of the Pre-Packaged Application to Ordering Activity authorized end users for their personal use; both of which to allow (a) Ordering Activity to access and use the administrative and other functions and features of the Pre-Packaged Application internally; and (b) Ordering Activity's authorized users to access and use the end user features and functions of the Pre-Packaged Application through supported channels all in accordance with the Order, documentation and this Agreement.

(d) Documentation. To use the documentation provided by Contractor in support of Ordering Activity's permitted Use of the Programs, and to reproduce the documentation (or excerpts thereof) as are reasonably necessary to support Ordering Activity's end users.

(e) Back-Up. To reproduce and install Programs(s) on a back-up server, and execute such Programs(s) on that back-up server only for back-up, back-up testing, disaster recovery and Programs fail-over purposes when Ordering Activity's production servers are inoperative. Ordering Activity agrees to maintain accurate and current records of all locations of backup copies.

3. Restrictions. Ordering Activity acknowledges that the Programs and their structure, organization, source code and related documentation constitute valuable trade secrets of Kony and its suppliers. Accordingly, except as expressly permitted in Section 2.2, Ordering Activity agrees not to:

- allow Use of the Programs other than as specified on an applicable Order for which Ordering Activity has paid; or
- distribute, sell, rent, transfer, lease, lend, sublicense, loan, assign, pledge, grant a security interest in, or otherwise make available the Programs or any part or copies thereof to any third party; or
- use the Programs in any service-bureau, timesharing, outsourcing or fee-for-service arrangement; or
- combine or merge a Program with or into another software or incorporate any Program or portion thereof into any compilation; or
- disassemble, decompile, reverse engineer or otherwise attempt to derive the structure, sequence or organization of source code, except as permitted by applicable law to achieve interoperability with other software if Kony does not offer the means to do so; or
- remove or alter product identification, copyright, trademark or other proprietary markings contained in or on the Programs or documentation; or
- modify, adapt, recast, transform or otherwise prepare a derivative work of a Program or portion thereof; or
- otherwise use or copy the Programs or permit any third party to do any of the foregoing.

4. Maintenance / Support Services.

During the term, Contractor will provide Ordering Activity with Maintenance / Support Services for the Programs in accordance with its Support Services policy as follows:

KonyOne™ Platform
SUPPORT SERVICE POLICY

Kony Support Services Overview

Support Services for the KonyOne Platform Programs (hereinafter "Programs") will include the following:

- Standard Web support on weekdays, excluding India holidays
- Telephone support for Severity 1 incidents on a 24x7x365 basis
- Error resolution and escalation support
- 24x7x365 access to Kony's Support Portal for trained and certified users
- Access to technical support bulletins
- Patches, corrections, updates and releases to the Program(s) as made available by Kony under Support Services.

Contractor through Kony will provide Ordering Activity's designated employee(s) access to its technical support team ("Kony Help Desk"), for technical support. Ordering Activity may contact the Kony Help Desk for Support Services through the following means:

Web: <http://support.kony.com> - For Kony trained and certified individuals (log error reports)

Web: <https://developer.kony.com> – For Ordering Activities who have valid Program licenses (downloads, documentations, developers forum)

Phone: 1-877-777-7684 (for Severity 1 Incidents)

Definition of Support Severity and Response Times

Contractor through Kony will provide Support Services based on Error Reports logged by Ordering Activity in Kony's support portal (following Ordering Activity's initial investigation and confirmation the Error is related to the Programs). With respect to the Kony Studio "IDE" (Developer's Toolkit) and Kony Client Platforms, to ensure the validity of Error request, the submission of Error Reports must be reviewed and submitted by those employees or agents of Ordering Activity who have received Kony's IDE Developer Certification. Error Reports will be logged by Ordering Activity in accordance with the severity level definitions below. Contractor and Ordering Activity will work together to achieve consensus, should there be any disagreement in assigned severities. Severities assigned to Error Reports may change with time if mutually agreed to by both parties. For example, an issue may be initially categorized as Severity Low and upon further investigation; it may be mutually concluded by Contractor and Ordering Activity that the issue should be reclassified as Severity Medium. Response and Target Resolution times for Errors will be measured from the time the Error Report is logged by Ordering Activity into Kony's support portal. Error Report activity will subsequently be managed and tracked through the portal.

"Error" means a Program function which does not operate in substantial conformance to Program documentation. Any feature request initiated by the Ordering Activity which is not documented in the Program documentation for the given release will be considered an enhancement feature request.

A "Critical" or "Severity 1" Error renders the Program completely unusable or nearly unusable or introduces a high degree of operational risk in Production environment. No Workaround is available. Until this Error is resolved, the Program's use is essentially halted. A large number of users and/or core Program functionality is severely impacted.

A "High" or "Severity 2" Error renders essential functionality of the Program to be consistently unavailable or obstructed, and causes a moderate level of hindrance or risk. Workarounds may be available, but use of the Program is acutely degraded and causes continuing operational risk. A moderate number of users are significantly impacted, but overall the Program continues to function.

A "Medium" or "Severity 3" Error is an inconvenience or causes inconsistent behavior, which does not impede the normal functioning of the Program. It could be an Error that occurs inconsistently and affects nonessential functions or is an inconvenience which impacts a small number of users or small number of devices. It may also contain visual errors where the graphical display of the Program is not ideal, but still functioning correctly.

A "Low" or "Severity 4" Error has a small degree of significance, or is a minor cosmetic issue, or is a "one off" case. A "one off" case occurs when the Error occurs infrequently and cannot be reproduced easily. These are Errors that do not impact the daily use of the Program. A Low Error is something that does not affect normal use, and can be accepted for a period of time, but user would eventually want changed.

5. Ordering Activity Acknowledgement and Obligations.

5.1 Ordering Activity acknowledges and agrees that Contractor nor Kony does not monitor communications or data transmitted through the Programs or Ordering Activity Applications, nor does Contractor nor Kony have access to such communications or data, and that Contractor nor Kony shall not be responsible for the content of any such communications or transmissions. Ordering Activity shall use the Programs and Ordering Activity Applications for authorized and legal purposes. Ordering Activity is solely responsible for the activity of its users and shall ensure that they abide by all applicable laws (including but not limited to international copyright and US Export laws) in connection with Ordering Activity's and its users' use of the Programs and Ordering Activity Applications including, without limitation, those related to data privacy, international communications and the transmission of technical or personal data.

5.2 Ordering Activity acknowledges and agrees that Ordering Activity's and its users' use of the Programs and Ordering Activity Applications are dependent upon access to telecommunications and Internet services. Ordering Activity and its users shall be solely responsible for acquiring and maintaining all telecommunications and Internet services and other hardware and software required to access and use the Programs and Ordering Activity Applications, including, without limitation, any and all costs, fees, expenses, and taxes of any kind related to the foregoing. Contractor nor Kony shall not be responsible for any loss or corruption of data, lost communications, or any other loss or damage of any kind arising from any such telecommunications and Internet services.

6. Reports.

6.1 Reserved.

6.2 Reserved.

6.3 Reserved.

6.3 Reserved.

6.4 Verification and Audit. Within reasonable agency regulations, and at Contractor's written request, Ordering Activity will furnish Contractor with a certification signed by an officer of Ordering Activity verifying that the Programs are being used pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and any applicable Order. Upon at least thirty (30) days prior written notice, Contractor may audit Ordering Activity's use of the Programs to ensure that Ordering Activity is in compliance with the terms of this Agreement and the applicable Order. Any such audit will be conducted during regular business hours at Ordering Activity's facilities and will not unreasonably interfere with Ordering Activity's business activities. Ordering Activity will provide Contractor with access to the relevant Ordering Activity records and facilities. If an audit reveals that Ordering Activity has underpaid license fees to Kony during the period audited, then Ordering Activity and Contractor will work diligently to true-up the account.

7. Ownership. The Programs are licensed to Ordering Activity subject to the terms of this Agreement. Contractor reserves all rights not expressly granted to Ordering Activity. Contractor retains ownership of all copies of the Programs. Ordering Activity acknowledges that the Programs contain and embed valuable, unpublished information that is proprietary and confidential to Contractor and its suppliers; Ordering Activity agrees to keep all such information confidential.

8. Reserved:

9. Confidentiality.

9.1 Definition. By virtue of this Agreement, the parties may have access to each other's Confidential Information. "Confidential Information," as used in this Agreement, means any written, machine-reproducible and/or visual materials that are clearly labeled as proprietary, confidential, or with words of similar meaning, and all information that is orally or visually disclosed, if not so marked, if it is identified as proprietary or confidential at the time of its disclosure or in a writing provided within thirty (30) days after disclosure, and any information of any nature described in this Agreement as confidential. Contractor Confidential Information includes, without limitation, the nonpublic aspects of the Programs and any software whether in source or executable code, documentation, nonpublic financial information, pricing, business plans, techniques, methods, processes, and the results of any performance tests of the Programs. The terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be deemed the Confidential Information of both parties and neither party shall disclose such information except to such party's employees and advisors, that have a reasonable need to know such information, provided that any such third parties shall, before they may access such information, either (a) execute a binding agreement to keep such information confidential or (b) be subject to a professional obligation to maintain the confidentiality of such information.

9.2 Exclusions. Confidential Information shall not include information that: (a) is or becomes publicly known through no act or omission of the receiving party; (b) was in the receiving party's lawful possession prior to the disclosure without restriction on use or disclosure; (c) is rightfully disclosed to the receiving party by a third party without restriction on use or disclosure; or (d) is independently developed by the receiving party, which independent development can be shown by written evidence.

9.3 Use and Nondisclosure. Neither party shall make the other's Confidential Information available to any third party or use the other's Confidential Information for any purposes other than exercising its rights and performing its obligations under this Agreement. Each party shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the other's Confidential Information is not disclosed or distributed by its employees or agents in violation of the terms of this Agreement, but in no event will either party use less effort to protect the Confidential Information of the other party than it uses to protect its own Confidential Information of like importance. Each party will ensure that any agents or subcontractors that are permitted to access any of the other's Confidential Information are legally bound to comply with the obligations set forth herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information may be disclosed as required by any governmental agency or court, provided that before disclosing such information the disclosing party must provide the non-disclosing party with sufficient advance notice of the request for the information to enable the non-disclosing party to exercise any rights it may have to challenge or limit the disclosure.

10. Warranty and Disclaimer.

10.1 Limited Warranty. Contractor warrants to Ordering Activity that for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of delivery ("Performance Warranty Period"), the Programs, when used as permitted hereunder and in accordance with its documentation, will operate substantially as described in the documentation. If during the Performance Warranty Period, Ordering Activity notifies Contractor of a non-conformity in breach of the foregoing warranty through the applicable technical support Programs in writing, Contractor will, use commercially reasonable efforts to correct the non-conformity or provide a work-around within a reasonable period of time, or, if Contractor determines that it is unable to do so, Contractor will refund to Ordering Activity, any license fees paid for the non-conforming Program prorated from the date the non-conformity was reported to the end of the annual license term. In the event of a refund remedy, Ordering Activity's license to use the affected Program will be terminated. This provision states Contractor's entire liability and Ordering Activity's sole remedy for any non-conformity in a Program.

10.2 Disclaimer. Ordering Activity assumes sole responsibility and liability for results obtained from the use of the Programs and Ordering Activity Applications and for conclusions drawn from such use. Ordering Activity acknowledges and agrees that Contractor makes no guarantee that the Programs or the use thereof by Ordering Activity or its users will satisfy Ordering Activity's obligation to comply with industry standards or legal or other regulatory requirements, including without limitation those pertaining to data privacy and security or internal controls. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN SECTION 10.1, CONTRACTOR MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR THE PROGRAMS OR SERVICES. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, KONY DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTY THAT THE PROGRAMS WILL BE ERROR FREE OR UNINTERRUPTED OR THAT ALL ERRORS WILL BE CORRECTED. CONTRACTOR FURTHER DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES WITH RESPECT TO THE PROGRAMS AS TO MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

11. Infringement Indemnification.

11.1 By Contractor. Subject to the limitations set forth below, and within the parameters of federal regulations, Contractor shall indemnify and defend Ordering Activity against any damages awarded against Ordering Activity in, or payable by Ordering Activity in settlement of, any suit or action brought against Ordering Activity to the extent that it is based upon a claim that the Programs, provided by Contractor hereunder, infringes or misappropriates the intellectual property rights of any third party. Contractor shall at Contractor's expense, defend any such claim for which indemnity is sought. Ordering Activity shall provide reasonable cooperation to Contractor in Contractor's defense of any such claim. Contractor's obligations under this Section are contingent upon: (a) Ordering Activity providing Contractor with prompt written notice of such claim; (b) Ordering Activity granting to Contractor sole authority and control over the defense and settlement of such claim, provided that Contractor shall not agree to any settlement unless Ordering Activity has expressly approved of the settlement in advance, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; and (c) Ordering Activity keeping Contractor informed of all material developments related to such claim and (where applicable) providing reasonable cooperation to Contractor, at Contractor's expense, in Contractor's defense and settlement of such claim. In the event that Contractor's right to provide the license, or the use of the Programs, is enjoined or in Contractor's reasonable opinion is likely to be enjoined, Contractor may elect to obtain the necessary rights, or replace or modify the relevant portions thereof, so that they become non-infringing, or, if the foregoing cannot be achieved on a commercially reasonable basis, terminate this Agreement without liability to Ordering Activity and provide Ordering Activity a pro-rated refund of any pre-paid fees. EXCLUDING THE COST OF DEFENSE, THE FOREGOING STATES THE ENTIRE OBLIGATION OF CONTRACTOR AND ITS LICENSORS WITH RESPECT TO ANY ALLEGED OR ACTUAL INFRINGEMENT OR MISAPPROPRIATION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS BY THE PROGRAMS.

Contractor shall have no liability or obligation under this Section 11.1 to the extent that any third-party claims described herein are based on (a) use of the Programs in a manner that violates this Agreement; (b) any combination of the Programs with any software, programs, product, service, component, method, and/or other element that is not supplied by Contractor, to the extent the claim would have been avoided but for such combination; (c) any modification to the Programs is made by any person other than Contractor; (d) Contractor's compliance with particular specifications, instructions, or requirements furnished by Ordering Activity; or (e) any claim for which Ordering Activity is responsible.

11.2 Reserved.

12. Reserved

13. General.

13.1 Reserved.

13.2 Waiver. The waiver by either party of any default or breach of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any other or subsequent default or breach. This Agreement may not be modified or amended except in a writing signed by a duly authorized representative of each party.

13.3 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is found invalid or unenforceable, that provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible, and the other provisions of this Agreement will remain in force. The parties agree that neither party shall be deemed the drafter of this Agreement and, in the event any provision in this Agreement is alleged to be ambiguous, such provision will not be construed in favor of one party on the ground that the provision was drafted by the other party.

13.4 Reserved.

13.5 U.S. Government End Users. The Programs and documentation are “commercial items” as that term is defined in FAR 2.101, consisting of “commercial computer software” and “commercial computer software documentation,” respectively, as such terms are used in FAR 12.212 and DFARS 227.7202. If the Programs and documentation are being acquired by or on behalf of the U.S. Government, then, as provided in FAR 12.212 and DFARS 227.7202-1 through 227.7202-4, as applicable, the U.S. Government’s rights in the Programs and documentation will be only those specified in this Agreement.

13.6 Assignment/Successors. The parties may not assign or transfer this Agreement, in whole or in part, without the other Party’s prior written consent. Any attempted assignment or transfer in violation of this Section will be null and void. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may assign or transfer this Agreement to its successor as part of a corporate reorganization, consolidation, merger or sale of substantially all assets of such party, provided the assignee assumes all obligations in this Agreement. Subject to the foregoing restrictions, this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

13.7 Non-Exclusive Remedies. Except as set forth in this Agreement, the exercise by either party of any remedy under this Agreement will be without prejudice to its other remedies under this Agreement or otherwise, subject to the limitations set forth in this Agreement.

13.8 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is intended for the sole and exclusive benefit of the signatories and is not intended to benefit any third party. Only the parties to this Agreement may enforce it.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions (for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached Lastline, Inc. (“Manufacturer”) product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America (“Contractor”) to provide Manufacturer’s information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America’s GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the “Schedule Contract”). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the “Manufacturer Specific Terms” or the “Attachment A Terms”) are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer (“Licensee”) is the “Ordering Activity”, defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in eitherits sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

ATTACHMENT A

END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT
(Commercial Terms and Conditions)

The GSA Schedule Contractor acting by and through its supplier, Lastline, Inc., (“Lastline”) and the user of the Licensed Product(s) purchasing under the GSA Schedule Contract (“Customer” or “Ordering Activity”), enter into this agreement including any schedules, exhibits or other attachments (collectively, this “Agreement”) effective as of the date set forth on the Order Form.

RECITAL

Lastline has developed several anti-malware software application solutions for use in protecting computers and computer network systems. Customer desires to license certain of such solutions pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

In consideration of their respective rights and obligations as set forth in this Agreement, the parties agree as follows;

AGREEMENT

Definitions:

API A set of web-based services providing programmatic access to Lastline systems and data, together with all updates, revisions, any associated tools and Documentation that Lastline may make available.

Artifact Means any potentially malicious file, URL, email content, or other material submitted by the Customer to the Licensed Product for analysis.

Business Purpose Use of the Licensed Products and Documentation for the protection of Customer’s networks in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

Comparative Information The criteria measured as part of a competitive analysis, including, but not limited to, performance, latency, usability, efficacy, effectiveness, identification, and detection capability, or comparison of a product’s capability to another product.

Documentation User manuals regarding the Licensed Product and made available to Customer.

Fees The Fees identified in the Order Form and any other Fees that may become due pursuant to this Agreement.

Installation Environment The location of the data center at which the Licensed Products are hosted and accessed and as indicated on any Order Form as either Air Gap, Hosted, or On-Premises Data Share or On- Premises Private.

Licensed Product As specifically indicated on any Order Form, the Licensed Product that is able to identify malicious content within Artifacts, as well as any Updates, Upgrades and new Versions that Lastline develops and makes available to Customer during the License Term.

Malicious Artifact A file made available to Customer by Lastline for downloading individual Malicious Artifacts collected from the internet

Order Form Customer’s purchase order identifying the Licensed Products by SKU, complete product description and associated Fees (derived from the GSA Schedule pricelist) and incorporating the terms and conditions of this Agreement by reference.

Term License The period of time that Customer is authorized to Use the Licensed Product, as set forth in the Agreement, and Fees are paid pursuant to the Order Form.

Update Enhancements, modifications, or improvements of the Licensed Product that contains bug fixes and/or minor enhancements or improvements that are made generally available by Lastline to its Customers for no additional license Fee. For clarification, Updates do not contain significant new features or functions that materially impact the performance and/or the nature of services rendered.

Update Server Lastline's site on the internet from which Customer may download updates for Licensed Products including blacklists.

Upgrades A Version or upgraded Version of the Licensed Product that contains significant new features and is made generally available by Lastline to its Customers. Upgrades are only for items that do not require an additional license.

Use Authorized access to and Use of (without the right to modify) only the Licensed Products and Documentation as set forth in the Order Form and pursuant to the Agreement and solely for Business Purposes.

User The number of employees, contractors or individuals within an organization who Use or have the access to Use the Customer systems and networks on which Customer intends to Use the Licensed Product. A User who uses or has access to Customer systems and networks across multiple devices is nonetheless counted as a single User.

Version An update or upgrade of the Licensed Product that adds new functionality to the software.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

License Grant; Restrictions; Malware Artifact Access

License Subject to the terms hereof, payment of all Fees, and in accordance with applicable User/Use limitations, Lastline hereby grants Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited Term License, without the right to sublicense, for Customer to Use the Licensed Products, in executable object code format only and the Documentation for Business Purposes. The Term License is limited to the term, number of Users and Installation Environment indicated on the Order Form. Customer agrees to notify Lastline at the time of renewal of any changes in the number of Users being protected or any changes to the Installation Environment.

Restrictions Customer may not rent, lease, sell, transfer (by sublicense, assignment or otherwise), time share, modify, adapt, alter, translate, reproduce, copy, make derivative works from, distribute, publish, use to provide rental or service bureau services, or publicly display the Licensed Products or Comparative Information. Customer may only Use the Licensed Products and Documentation for Business Purposes. Customer may not reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble or otherwise attempt to discover or reconstruct the source code, underlying ideas, algorithms, programming interfaces or configuration files for the Licensed Products, except as may be allowed under applicable law and only to the extent that applicable law prohibits or restricts reverse engineering restrictions, and then only with prior written notice to the respective owners. Customer may not use the Licensed Products or Documentation to build similar or competitive products. Customer may not publish or disclose to any third party any performance or benchmark tests, analyses, or any Comparative Information relating to the Licensed Products or the use thereof. Customer may not permit any person or entity to breach the restrictions in this Subsection 2b (Restrictions). Any future release, Update, Upgrade or Version to the Licensed Products or Documentation shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement, unless Lastline expressly states otherwise.

Reservation of Rights Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, except for the limited license rights expressly granted herein, Lastline and its suppliers and any Third Party Licensors have and will retain all rights, title and interest (including, without limitation, all patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret and other intellectual property rights) in and to the Licensed Product, to include the underlying software, the APIs, the Malware Artifacts and Documentation, and all copies, modifications and derivative works thereof. Customer acknowledges that it is obtaining only a limited Term License right to Use the Licensed Products and that irrespective of any use of the words "purchase", "sale" or like terms hereunder, no ownership rights are being conveyed to Customer under this Agreement or otherwise.

Third Party Code The Licensed Products contain certain items of independent, third party code for which Lastline is required to provide attribution to the third party ("Third Party Code"). The Third Party Code is provided with certain third party data, information and feeds (collectively "Feeds") that are owned by the applicable third party. The restrictions in Subsection 2b (Restrictions) apply to all such Feeds. A list of this Third Party Code is available at <https://update.lastline.com/updates/distros/open-source-licenses.txt>. Lastline represents that these Third Party Code providers will not diminish the license rights provided herein or limit Customer's ability to Use the Licensed Product in accordance with the applicable Documentation, and neither the inclusion of Third Party Code in any Licensed Product or use of Third Party Materials will create any obligation on Customer's part to license Third Party's Code under any open source or similar license.

Malware Artifacts Access Customer has access to download individual Malicious Artifacts from the Licensed Product during the Term, Customer may download and Use the Malicious Artifacts solely for the purposes of testing the Licensed Products or research of the Malicious Artifact. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Customer shall only use the Malicious Artifacts in a secure and isolated lab environment. Customer assumes all risk and liability for using the Malicious Artifacts and Customer shall not distribute the Malicious Artifacts to any third parties or use the Malicious Artifacts for any purposes other than those identified herein.

TERM

Term Unless otherwise set forth on the Order Form, this Agreement will commence on the Effective Date and shall remain in full force unless earlier terminated (the "Agreement Term").

Licensed Product Term The Licensed Product Term commences with the issuance of a license key and the license start date stated on the Order Form and expires on the end date set forth in the Order Form (“Initial Term”). Customer agrees to install the Licensed Product within 30 days of the license start date. Upon expiration of the Initial Term, the license for the Licensed Product may be renewed by Customer for successive 1-year terms by both parties executing a new Purchase Order, or option to an existing Purchase Order in writing, or a different period if so indicated on the Order Form for renewal (each a “Renewal Term”). The Initial Term and Renewal Term(s) shall be collectively referred to as the “License Product Term.”

Confidentiality The Licensed Product in source code form remains a confidential trade secret of Lastline and/or its suppliers. The Licensed Product is protected by the copyright and other intellectual property laws of the United States. Customer acknowledges that, in the course of using the Licensed Product, including the Software, Customer may obtain or learn information relating to the Licensed Product, which may include, without limitation, information relating to the performance, reliability or stability of the Licensed Product, operation of the Licensed Product, knowhow, techniques, processes, ideas, algorithms, and software design and architecture (“Proprietary Information”). As between the parties, such Proprietary Information shall belong solely to Lastline. Subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, during and after the term of this Agreement, Customer shall hold in confidence and protect, and shall not use (except as expressly authorized by this Agreement) or disclose, Proprietary Information to any third party.

RESERVED.

Installation Environment/Third Party Software When the Licensed Product is deployed in an On-Premises Installation Environment, Customer will be responsible for the cost of any third party software required to Use and enable deployments of the Licensed Product’s Sandbox functionality (e.g., Microsoft Windows, Microsoft Office.). Information related to the third party software requirements is provided in the Documentation. If Customer accesses Lastline’s Malicious Artifacts, Customer is solely responsible for providing all equipment necessary for testing and researching the Artifact, including but not limited to, the secure and isolated lab environment.

Additional Licenses Subject to reasonable prior notice and upon Customer’s issuance of an Order Form for additional licenses, Lastline may increase the scope of Customer’s license to the Licensed Products.

Provide Accurate Information In consideration of Customer’s Use of the Licensed Products, Customer agrees to (i) provide true, accurate, current, and complete information about the number of Users as prompted by Lastline and (ii) maintain and promptly update the registration data to keep it truthful, accurate, current, and complete. Customer may receive account information (such as a username, password, API key or token) to use to access Customer’s account for the Licensed Product.

RESERVED.

Support and Upgrades

Support Service Lastline will provide support to assist Customer in installing the License Products and achieving operational status for the Licensed Products in accordance with the Documentation. Additional application support services shall be made by mutual written agreement on: (i) the schedule for the performance of the additional services, (ii) Lastline’s Fees, if any, for the additional services, and (iii) any additional service terms and conditions that may be required and added by mutual consent as an Exhibit to this Agreement.

Software Upgrades Lastline will periodically make available to Customer through the Lastline Update Server, Updates, Upgrades and current Versions of the Licensed Products which will include corrections, and/or enhancements, and/or improvements. These will be made available at no additional Fee to Customer with an active and fully paid Licensed Product in effect during their License Term. Release of these Updates, Upgrades, and current Versions may impact the on-going support and upgrades to previous Versions of the Licensed Product as outlined in the Lastline Software Lifecycle Policy available from the Lastline Customer Support Portal at <https://support.lastline.com>, and as updated by Lastline from time to time, Customer is responsible for maintaining a currently supported Version for any On-Premises deployments of the Licensed Product(s), to include Hybrid, On- Premises and Air Gap Configurations.

Access to the Lastline Update Server Lastline will use commercially reasonable efforts to make the Lastline Update Server accessible, but Lastline does not warrant or guarantee continuous availability.

Standard Term Application support services and access to the Lastline Update Server are subject to this Agreement’s terms and timely payment of all Fees.

RESERVED.

Warranty

Performance Warranty For the duration of the License Product Term of an active and fully paid Lastline Licensed Product, Lastline warrants that the Licensed Products, will perform substantially as specified in the Documentation. Lastline does not warrant that the Licensed Products or Documentation, will meet Customer's requirements and expectations, that Licensed Products will be uninterrupted or error-free, or that the Licensed Products will protect Customer's networks from specific threats.

Remedy for Performance Warranty Breach Lastline's sole obligation with respect to a breach of this Section 12 is to use commercially reasonable efforts to correct the breach. If Lastline is unable to correct the breach despite its use of commercially reasonable efforts, then Lastline will notify Customer and Customer may terminate this Agreement. In the event Customer terminates this Agreement, Lastline will issue to Customer a pro-rata refund of the prepaid fees based on the balance of the then-current Term remaining for the applicable Licensed Products. THE FOREGOING REMEDY IS CUSTOMER'S EXCLUSIVE REMEDY AND LASTLINE'S SOLE LIABILITY FOR A BREACH OF THE WARRANTY AS SET FORTH HEREIN.

WARRANTY DISCLAIMER EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED HEREIN, NEITHER LASTLINE NOR ITS THIRD PARTY LICENSORS MAKE ANY ADDITIONAL WARRANTY WITH REGARD TO THE LICENSED PRODUCT, INCLUDING THAT OF ANY OF LASTLINE'S THIRD PARTY LICENSORS AND DOCUMENTATION. CUSTOMER EXPRESSLY UNDERSTANDS AND AGREES THAT TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, CUSTOMER'S USE OF THE MALWARE ARTIFACTS IS AT CUSTOMER'S SOLE RISK AND CUSTOMER SHALL BE SOLELY RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY DAMAGE TO CUSTOMER'S PROPERTY OR PERSON, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, DAMAGE TO CUSTOMER'S COMPUTER NETWORKS AND SYSTEMS OR ANY OTHER LOSS THAT RESULTS FROM ACCESSING THE MALWARE ARTIFACTS. CUSTOMER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT, EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED HEREIN, NO ADDITIONAL WARRANTIES ARE MADE WITH REGARD TO THE MALWARE ARTIFACTS COLLECTED FROM THE INTERNET. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT ALLOWED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, LASTLINE DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, AND STATUTORY WARRANTIES WITH REGARD TO THE LICENSED PRODUCTS INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. LASTLINE DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE LICENSED PRODUCTS WILL PERFORM ERROR FREE OR WITHOUT INTERRUPTIONS.

Limitation of Liability. IN NO EVENT SHALL LASTLINE BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING COSTS OF PROCUREMENT OF SUBSTITUTE GOODS) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY PRODUCT OR SERVICES, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. LASTLINE'S TOTAL LIABILITY ARISING OUT OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY PRODUCTS OR SERVICES WILL NOT EXCEED THE AMOUNT PAID FOR THE LICENSED PRODUCT TO WHICH THE CLAIM RELATES, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER ANY REMEDY SET FORTH HEREIN FAILS OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE OR OTHERWISE. This clause shall not impair the U.S. Government's right to recover for fraud or crimes arising out of or related to this Contract under any federal fraud statute, including the False Claims Act, 31. U.S.C. §§ 3729-3733, and the foregoing limitation of liability shall not apply to personal injury or death resulting from Licensor's negligence, or for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law.

RESERVED.

Ownership Customer agrees that as a condition of its rights hereunder, Customer will not remove any product identification, copyright, proprietary or any other notices on the media, within the code and on all copies thereof, and on the Documentation, which appear on the media or within the code of the Licensed Products, and/or on all materials delivered by Lastline.

RESERVED.*Reserved.

Privacy Customer agrees to Lastline's collection, use, and disclosure of information as set forth in Lastline's attached Privacy Policy ("Privacy Policy"). Lastline uses Customer personal information only in connection with the administration of Customer's account as set forth in the Privacy Policy. In a Hosted or Hybrid Installation Environment, Lastline uses information gained during the analysis of Artifacts to assess if a subject is malicious and will use and share that information regarding Malicious Artifacts and any malware samples collected in such analysis according to the terms of our Privacy Policy.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

United States Government Restricted Rights All Products are commercial in nature and developed solely at private expense. The Product(s) are delivered as Commercial Computer Software as defined in DFARS 252.227-7014 (June 1995) or as a commercial item as defined in FAR 2.101(a) and as such is provided with only such rights as are provided in Lastline's Software License Agreement for such software. Technical data is provided with limited rights only as provided in DFARS 252.227-7015 (Nov. 1995) or FAR 52.227-14 (June 1987), whichever is applicable.

Export Customer is responsible for listing the country or countries in which any Lastline technology is deployed/used in the Order Form. Customer may not use, export, import, or transfer the Licensed Products and Documentation except as authorized by U.S. law, the laws of the jurisdiction in which Customer obtained the Licensed Products and Documentation, and any other applicable laws. In particular, but without limitation, the Licensed Products and Documentation, may not be exported or re-exported (a) into any United States embargoed countries, or (b) to anyone on the U.S. Treasury Department's list of Specially Designated Nationals or the U.S. Department of Commerce's Denied Person's List or Entity List. By using the Licensed Products and Documentation, Customer represents and warrants that (i) Customer is not located in a country that is subject to a U.S. Government embargo, or that has been designated by the U.S. Government as a "terrorist supporting" country and (ii) Customer is not listed on any U.S. Government list of prohibited or restricted parties. Customer also will not use the Licensed Products, Documentation, or Malicious Artifacts for any purpose prohibited by U.S. law, including the development, design, manufacture or production of missiles, nuclear, chemical or biological weapons. Customer acknowledges and agrees that products, services or technology provided by Lastline are subject to the export control laws and regulations of the United States. Customer shall comply with these laws and regulations and shall not, without prior

U.S. government authorization, export, re-export, or transfer Lastline products, services or technology, either directly or indirectly, to any country in violation of such laws and regulations.

LASTLINE PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date: December 23, 2019

This Privacy Policy applies to our Service platform owned and operated by Lastline, Inc. (“Lastline”) that uses our customer’s Personal Data only in connection with the administration of their account as set forth in this Privacy Policy (“Policy”). Lastline respects the privacy of our customers and is committed to protecting the Personal Data that they share with us. This Policy describes how Lastline collects, uses, shares, secures and processes information from the networks of our customers in the course of providing threat detection Services (“Services”), and outlines the ways in which our customers can control our use of that information. The use of information collected through our service shall be limited to the purpose of providing the service for which the Client has engaged Lastline.

Terms

Artifact – means any potentially Malicious file, URL, email content, or other material collected by the Sensor or submitted by the Customer to the Licensed Product for analysis.

Artifact Sharing – means the sharing of Suspicious and Malicious Artifacts with Lastline as determined by the product SKU purchased by the customer. Customers not wishing to share Suspicious or Malicious Artifacts with Lastline can purchase an On-Premises Private or On- Premises Air Gap deployment.

Benign – Those Artifacts Lastline scores as 0-29.

Hosted –The Licensed Product is installed in a hybrid deployment where the Lastline deployment leverages a multi-tenant Hosted platform installed in the Lastline Datacenter and sensors deployed at various sites in the customer’s network.

Malicious – Those Artifacts Lastline scores as 70 or higher.

Meta data – Is data that describes the Artifact and results of the analysis of the Artifact.

On-Premises Artifact Sharing – The Licensed Product is installed in a data center located at a Customer’s site. The Customer’s deployment shares information about Suspicious and Malicious Artifacts identified by their system with Lastline.

On-Premises Private – The Licensed Product is installed in a data center located at a Customer’s site. The Customer’s system does not share any Artifacts with Lastline but is capable of receiving information about Malicious Artifacts from Lastline.

On-Premises Air Gap – The Licensed Product is installed in a data center located at a Customer’s site. The Customer’s system shares no information with Lastline and does not receive any information about Malicious Artifacts from Lastline.

Personal Data – means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (“data subject”) who can be directly or indirectly identified in particular by reference to an identifier, such as name, location etc.

Services – Means the analysis of Artifacts provided by Lastline to Company.

Suspicious – Those Artifacts Lastline scores between 30 and 69.

EU-U.S. Privacy Shield and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield

Lastline participates in, and has certified its compliance with, the EU-US Privacy Shield Framework and the Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield Framework. We are committed to subjecting all Personal Data received from European Union (EU) member countries and Switzerland, respectively, in reliance on each Privacy Shield Framework, to the Framework's applicable Principles. To learn more about the Privacy Shield Frameworks, and to view our certification, visit the U.S. Department of Commerce's Privacy Shield List.

[<https://www.privacyshield.gov>]

Lastline is responsible for the processing of personal data it receives under each Privacy Shield Framework and subsequently may transfer it to a third party acting as an agent on its behalf. Lastline complies with the Privacy Shield Principles for all onward transfers of personal data from the EU and Switzerland, including the onward transfer of liability provisions.

With respect to personal data received or transferred pursuant to the Privacy Shield Frameworks, Lastline is subject to the regulatory enforcement powers of the U.S. Federal Trade Commission. In certain situations, we may be required to disclose personal data in response to lawful requests by public authorities, including to meet national security or law enforcement requirements.

If you have unresolved privacy or data use concerns that we have not addressed satisfactorily, please contact our U.S.-based third-party dispute resolution provider (free of charge) at <https://feedback-form.truste.com/watchdog/request>.

Under certain conditions, more fully described on the Privacy Shield website, you may be entitled to invoke binding arbitration when other dispute resolution procedures have been exhausted.

Lastline commits to cooperate with the panel established by the EU data protection authorities (DPAs) and the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (FDPIC) and comply with the advice given by such authorities with regard to human resources data transferred from the EU and Switzerland in the context of the employment relationship.

Information the Lastline Product Collects

Lastline analyzes the traffic on a network and is designed to detect threats posed by malware, as well as communication with Malicious hosts on the internet. Lastline will collect and analyze certain Artifacts (files, URLs, as well as web and email content that could pose a threat to the organizations) that are transmitted via web traffic and as email attachments.

Lastline takes steps to avoid collecting information from our customer's network that could personally identify their end users or collect or view any data that could be reasonably associated to such information. However, the data we collect through our Services to identify security risks may also contain some Personal Data (i.e. username, email address or IP address). This information is only used in protecting the IT infrastructure of the organization

INFORMATION LASTLINE INSPECTS

Network traffic, including:

The domain names resolved on the network including the host (IP Address) that resolved the domain.
The content of some network connections that could pose a risk to an organization.
Network flows to which Lastline network sensors have visibility.
Executable programs, scripts, documents or other potential Artifacts that may contain executable code downloaded via the web (if Lastline network sensors are deployed) or sent as email messages and attachments (if Lastline email sensors are deployed).
This includes email headers and any potentially malicious content in the email body.
Refer to the Lastline Technical Support Knowledge Base for explicit details on files Lastline is able to analyze.

In On-Premises deployments of Lastline product offerings, with Artifact Sharing enabled (default behavior), the following Artifacts are shared with Lastline:
Artifacts Lastline identifies and scores as Suspicious (30+) or Malicious (70+) [default; users customizable] are shared with Lastline for additional analysis.

These sharing options can be altered by the customer pursuant to their license agreement to expand file types shared with Lastline. (customers may refer to the Lastline Technical Support Knowledge Base or the user documentation for additional information regarding this functionality.)

Email contents, including:

Header information from email messages inspected by the Lastline Sensor or submitted via the API.

In hosted Deployments: Potentially Suspicious or Malicious Email Attachments

On-Premises Artifact Sharing Deployments: Any submitted Suspicious and Malicious content.

INFORMATION LASTLINE RETAINS

Alert information, as well as activity that could become an alert, is collected whenever a computer is attached to a customer's network and performs Malicious activity for the purpose of providing organizations with meaningful reports regarding their security posture.

In On-Premises deployments, this data is stored on the local Manager, and not share with Lastline

In Hosted deployments, this data is stored in the Lastline Data Center.

Lastline will retain versions of all content submitted to the Lastline Hosted infrastructure, directly leveraging the UI or via the API. Artifacts are retained if submitted via the API, unless the delete after analysis flag has been set in the API call. Artifacts are always retained when submitted via the UI.

For customers with a Hosted deployment, Lastline will retain all Artifacts captured by the Lastline Sensor as well as any file the user uploaded or has configured to be uploaded to the system.

Lastline will generate and retain metadata as well as subsequent stage Artifacts generated during the Lastline analysis. This includes metadata about the file and behaviors observed during analysis, process snapshots, screenshots of analyzed content.

Customers with On-Premises systems can use the configuration options provided in the product portal to view, manage, and disable information that should never be shared/transmitted to Lastline. All data is retained for customers with a Hosted deployment for 30 days after the term of the agreement.

INFORMATION LASTLINE SHARES

Lastline will share the hashes and Meta data about Malicious Artifacts that are detected within a Hosted or On-Premises deployment (if Artifact Sharing is enabled).

Metadata about the file is not available to a customer, unless that customer's Lastline deployment has analyzed the same Artifact, or the Artifact is publicly available on the Internet.

Lastline may exchange some Malicious Artifacts and Artifact metadata submitted to the Lastline Platform with other cyber security vendors, with whom we have a confidentiality agreement, to allow both vendors to improve and enhance their respective technologies to defend against new threats or attack vectors.

Pursuant to the license agreement, Customers can opt-out of this level of sharing any Malicious Artifacts with Lastline by sending an email to support@lastline.com.

Information Lastline Collects

In order for a customer to license our products and obtain technical support Services, we will collect certain Personal Data, such as the first and last names of our contacts, mailing address (including postal code), email address, cell phone or work phone. This information is used only in connection with the administration of a customer's account with Lastline and for no other purpose.

For the purpose of marketing activities, we may collect the following Personal Data from you: name, title, location, company name, phone number and email address via our website, if you wish to request some types of product or company related content, a product demo or contact us for other reasons.

If you believe that we have inappropriately collected your Personal Data and you would like to request that it be removed from our databases, please contact our Data Protection Officer at privacy@lastline.com.

USER DATA SUPPLEMENTATIONS

We may receive information about you from other sources, including publicly available databases or third parties from whom we have purchased data and may combine this data with information we already have about you. This is to help us update, expand and analyze our records, identify new customers, and provide products and Services that may be of interest to you. If you provide us Personal Data about others, or if others give us your information, we will only use that information for the specific purpose for which it was provided to us.

Examples of the types of Personal Data that may be obtained from public sources or purchased from third parties and combined with information we already have about you, may include:

Address information about you from third party sources, such as the U.S. Postal Service, to verify your address so we can properly send necessary correspondence.

Purchased marketing data about our prospects or customers from third parties that is combined with information we may already have about you to create more tailored information about our products.

In order to opt-out of our marketing communications, please send a request to our Data Protection Officer at privacy@lastline.com.

HOW WE USE THE DATA WE COLLECT

Lastline does not sell, trade or rent to third parties any of the information we collect from our customer's network, or Personal Data (together "the Data"). We may use the Data that we collect for the following purposes:

- To provide our customers with our Services;
- To provide our customers with customized content;
- To process and respond to inquiries related to the Services or to our customer's account;
- To provide our customers with important notices relating to the Services, including scheduled downtime and updates to the software;
- To provide, maintain, protect and improve our Services; and
- To protect Lastline and our customers.

Tracking Technologies

Lastline and its partners use cookies or similar technologies to analyze trends, administer the website, track users' movements around the website, and to gather demographic information about our user base as a whole. You can control the use of cookies at the individual browser level, but if you choose to disable cookies, it may limit your use of certain features or functions on our website or service.

As is true of most websites, we gather certain information automatically. This information may include Internet protocol (IP) addresses, browser type, Internet service provider (ISP), referring/exit pages, the files viewed on our site (e.g., HTML pages, graphics, etc.), operating system, date/time stamp, and/or clickstream data to analyze trends in the aggregate and administer the site.

We partner with a third party to implement marketing programs promoting Lastline and our products on third-party websites using cookies or similar technology. As part of this process we do not collect any Personal Data about website visitors. Anyone can remove themselves from these programs simply by erasing the cookies on their computer. Please note that you will continue to receive generic ads on some websites other than Lastline.com; this is outside of the control of Lastline.

The use of cookies by our partners, affiliates, tracking utility company, and service providers is not covered by this Policy. We do not have access or control over these cookies. Our partners, affiliates, and service providers use session ID cookies to understand usage patterns on the website. These companies are obligated to protect our customer's Personal Data in accordance with their own policies, and Lastline is not responsible for the privacy practices of other companies' websites or Services to which our products and Services may link or otherwise refer.

In order to personalize communications with our customers and to improve our Services, we may also ask you to provide consumer satisfaction information regarding your experience with our Services. You have the option of choosing not to provide that information.

Third Party Partners

To provide the Lastline Hosted and some On-Premises Services, we may share submitted Artifacts and other meta data with third parties that provide Services, such as information processing, data storage and security Services, for instance Cloud hosting and data service providers. These third parties are only authorized to use our customer's data as necessary to provide Services to Lastline and are obligated to protect our customer's network data with provisions at least as protective as those contained in this Policy, and each such provider has security measures in place at least as protective as those described in this Policy.

SHARING WITH SERVICE PROVIDERS

We may share your information with third parties who provide services on our behalf to help with our business activities. These companies are authorized to use your Personal Data only as necessary to provide these services to us. These services may include:

- Delivering letters or packages
- Payment processing
- Providing customer service
- Sending marketing communications
- Conducting research and analysis
- Providing cloud computing infrastructure Legal Notice

We may disclose your Personal Data as required by law, such as to comply with a subpoena or other legal process, when we believe in good faith that disclosure is necessary to protect our rights, protect your safety or the safety of others, investigate fraud, or respond to a government request.

If Lastline is involved in a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of its assets, you will be notified via email and/or a prominent notice on our website of any change in ownership, uses of your Personal Data, and choices you may have regarding your Personal Data.

We may also disclose your Personal Data to any other party with your prior consent.

Protection of Personal Data

Lastline takes precautions, including administrative, technical, and physical measures, to safeguard our customer's Data against loss, theft, and misuse, as well as against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction.

Lastline uses industry-standard efforts to safeguard the confidentiality of Data, including encryption, firewalls and SSL (Secure Sockets Layer). We have implemented reasonable administrative, technical, and physical security controls to protect against the loss, misuse, or alteration of our customer's Data.

Lastline as a Service Provider

Lastline collects information under the direction of its customers and has no direct relationship with the individuals whose Personal Data it processes. If you are an employee or client of one of our customers and have questions, please contact your IT Security Team or Managed Service Provider for additional information. We may transfer contact information of customers and prospects to companies that help us provide our Service. Transfers to subsequent third parties are covered by the service agreement with our customers.

Lastline acknowledges that you have the right to access your Personal Data. An individual who seeks access, or who seeks to correct, amend, or delete inaccurate data should direct their query to our customer (the data controller). If requested to remove data, we will respond within a reasonable timeframe.

Access & Data Retention

Upon request, Lastline will provide you with information about whether we hold any of your Personal Data. If you wish to correct, amend, cancel your account or request that we no longer use your information to provide Services, you may contact us at: info@lastline.com. We will respond to your request within a reasonable timeframe. We will retain your information for as long as your account is active or as needed to provide you with our Services. We will retain and use your information only as necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements.

Newsletter Preferences

You may sign up to receive an email or newsletter or other communications from us. If you would like to discontinue receiving this information, you may update your email preferences by using the “Unsubscribe” link found in emails we send to you or at your member profile on our website or by contacting us at support@lastline.com.

Notification of Privacy Policy Changes

We may update this Policy from time to time to reflect changes to Lastline’s information practices. If we make any material changes, we will notify you by email (sent to the email address specified in your account) or by means of a notice on this website prior to the change becoming effective. We encourage our customers to periodically review this page for the latest information on our privacy practices.

ATTACHMENT A

LOGRHYTHM, INC.

LOGRHYTHM, INC. LICENSE, WARRANTY AND SUPPORT TERMS

---

These Terms and Conditions (the "Agreement") set forth the terms and conditions agreed to by LogRhythm, Inc. ("LogRhythm") and the Customer identified on the Order to which this Agreement is attached and incorporated ("Customer") under which Customer may license the software and purchase the hardware specified on the Order and other purchase orders submitted by Customer and accepted by LogRhythm. No Order shall be binding upon LogRhythm until accepted by LogRhythm in writing. In consideration of the mutual covenants and conditions set forth below, LogRhythm and Customer agree as follows:

DEFINITIONS.

"Appliance" means the appliance listed on an Order comprised of the Hardware and the Software installed on the Hardware.

"Documentation" means the user manuals provided to Customer with the Software or an Appliance in either electronic, online help files or hard copy format. All Documentation is provided in English.

"Delivery Date" means the date of delivery of the Appliance or the Software only, as applicable.

"Effective Date" means the date the Order was signed.

"Intellectual Property Rights" means all copyrights, trademarks, service marks, trade secrets, patents, patent applications, moral rights, contract rights and other proprietary rights.

"Hardware" means the hardware purchased from LogRhythm as set forth on an Order.

"Software" means the LogRhythm software programs identified in an Order, all Documentation for the Software, and any Updates (as defined in Exhibit A) that LogRhythm may provide to Customer in connection with Support Services.

SOFTWARE LICENSE GRANT AND OTHER RIGHTS.

Software License Grant. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, LogRhythm grants to Customer a perpetual, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the Software, solely for internal business purposes in accordance with the Documentation and the limitations set forth in this Agreement. If Customer has purchased an Appliance, then the Software may only be used on the Hardware on which the Software has been installed. If Customer licenses the Software for use in a virtual environment each virtual instance requires its own Software license. Customer may make a copy of the Software as necessary for back up and disaster recovery purposes.

Restrictions On Use. Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, Customer will not (a) modify, adapt, alter, translate, or create derivative works from the Software; (b) sublicense, distribute, sell or otherwise transfer the Software to any third party; (c) use the Software in any service bureau or time sharing arrangement; (d) reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or otherwise attempt to derive the source code for the Software or (e) otherwise use or copy the Software except as expressly permitted in Section 2.1.

License Keys. Customer acknowledges that the Software uses a license key mechanism and that use of the Software on a perpetual basis (as opposed to a temporary basis for evaluation purposes) requires authorized and valid license keys ("License Keys") that must be installed by Customer. Customer agrees not to use unauthorized license keys or otherwise circumvent LogRhythm's license key mechanism. LogRhythm will provide the License Keys upon payment in full of all applicable Fees. If LogRhythm has not received the License Fee payment from Customer within the payment time period set forth in Section 5.6, LogRhythm will not be obligated to provide Customer with the License Keys and the Software will cease functioning unless Customer requests and obtains an extension of the evaluation period from LogRhythm.

System Files. All system files, including SQL Server database files and transaction logs, used by an Appliance must reside on either the Appliance or an external storage device purchased from LogRhythm ("Supported Equipment"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, system files do not include LogRhythm archive files.

DELIVERY, INSPECTION AND INSTALLATION.

HARDWARE PURCHASE AND DELIVERY. If Customer is purchasing Hardware, then, subject to terms and conditions of this Agreement, Customer hereby agrees to purchase the Hardware from LogRhythm, and LogRhythm hereby agrees to sell the Hardware to Customer, pursuant to the applicable Order and the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract.

License of Software Only. If Customer is licensing the Software and not purchasing Hardware, then this Section 3.2, the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract and the task/delivery order will govern the delivery of Software. If Customer has not already obtained a copy of the Software prior to the Effective Date, LogRhythm will ship to Customer the Software and Documentation and/or provide Customer a support account from which Customer can download the Software and Documentation in accordance with LogRhythm's reasonable instructions. Customer is responsible for configuring customerprovided hardware or virtual environment in accordance with the configuration parameters as noted in the Documentation. Improper hardware or virtual environment configuration may prevent the Software from operating properly and any such nonstandard configuration may not be supported by LogRhythm.

Software Delivery. Without limiting the warranties in Section 6.1 below, the Software will be deemed delivered the day the License Key is provided to Customer. Unless otherwise mutually agreed to in writing, Customer is responsible for installing the Software and License Keys in accordance with the Documentation.

MAINTENANCE; DEPLOYMENT; TRAINING.

Maintenance. Customer may obtain technical support and Software maintenance described in Exhibit A attached to this Agreement and incorporated herein ("Support Services") in accordance with the applicable Order and the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 Contract. Upon termination of Support Services Customer may continue to use the Software without the benefits provided under the Support Services Exhibit.

Professional Services. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the payment by Customer of the professional service fees ("Professional Service Fees") set forth in an Order, LogRhythm will provide to Customer the professional services described in Exhibit B attached to this Agreement and incorporated herein ("Professional Services"). Customer must use any contracted Professional Services within one year of the Effective Date.

Training. Subject to payment of any training fees ("Training Fees"), Customer may obtain training services from LogRhythm in accordance with the applicable Order and the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract.

FEES AND PAYMENT.

Fees. Customer will pay LogRhythm the applicable Appliance price ("Appliance Fee") or Software license fees ("License Fees" and collectively, "Fees") as set forth in and in accordance with the applicable Order. All Fees are nonrefundable unless otherwise expressly stated herein.

Professional Service Fees. Customer will pay the Professional Services Fees set forth in and in accordance with the applicable Order and the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract.

Support Services Fees. Customer will pay the Support Services Fees as set forth in the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract.

Additional Orders. Customer may order more

Appliances, Software product modules and additional usage of the Software as permitted under this Agreement by executing the LogRhythm Order in addition to submitting written purchase orders to LogRhythm in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract.

Records. Customer will maintain complete and accurate records of its use of the Software and all other data reasonably necessary for verification of compliance with this Agreement.

Audit Rights. LogRhythm will have the right, during normal business hours, in accordance with United States Government security requirement and upon at least five (5) days prior written notice, to have an independent audit firm selected by LogRhythm audit Customer's records relating to Customer's activities pursuant to this Agreement in order to verify that Customer has complied with the terms of this Agreement. The audit will be conducted at LogRhythm's expense. LogRhythm may submit a request for payment of alleged owed amounts in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 Contract. Such audits will be conducted no more than once in any period of twelve (12) consecutive months.

WARRANTY; DISCLAIMER.

Software Warranty. For a period of ninety (90) days after the Effective Date (the "Software Warranty Period"), LogRhythm warrants that the Software, when used in accordance with the instructions in the Documentation, will operate as described in the Documentation in all material respects. LogRhythm does not warrant the Customer's use of the Software will be error-free or uninterrupted. LogRhythm will, at its own expense and as its sole obligation, correct any reproducible error in the Software reported to LogRhythm by Customer in writing during the Software Warranty Period. If LogRhythm determines that it is unable to correct the error or replace the Software, LogRhythm will refund to Customer all License Fees and Support Service Fees actually paid for the defective Software, in which case this Agreement and Customer's right to use the Software will terminate.

Hardware and Third Party Software Warranty. All Hardware and third party software is provided to Customer under the applicable warranty for such Hardware or third party software that is made available from the Hardware manufacturer or third party software licensor. LogRhythm provides no warranties directly to Customer for any Hardware or third party software.

Disclaimers. THE EXPRESS WARRANTIES IN SECTION 6.1 ARE IN LIEU OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY, REGARDING THE SOFTWARE, HARDWARE AND SUPPORT SERVICES, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT AND ANY WARRANTIES ARISING FROM COURSE OF DEALING OR COURSE OF PERFORMANCE WHICH ARE HEREBY DISCLAIMED. EXCEPT FOR THE EXPRESS WARRANTIES STATED IN SECTION 6.1, THE SOFTWARE AND HARDWARE ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" WITH ALL FAULTS.

INFRINGEMENT CLAIMS.

Indemnity. LogRhythm will pay those costs and damages finally awarded against Customer in any such action, brought by a third party to the extent that the action is based upon a claim that the Software infringes any U.S. patents or any copyrights or misappropriates any trade secrets of a third party, that are specifically attributable to such claim or those costs and damages agreed to in a monetary settlement of such action. Customer shall give LogRhythm sole control of the defense of any such claim and any related settlement negotiations unless the Department of Justice ("DOJ") jurisdictional statute (28 USC 516) vests the right to defend the Government with the DOJ, and consequently the right to exercise sole control, solely in the DOJ. In such cases, Customer and the DOJ shall consult with LogRhythm regarding any such claim and LogRhythm shall have the right to intervene in the proceedings at its own expense through counsel of its choice.

Injunction. If the Software becomes, or in LogRhythm's opinion is likely to become, the subject of an infringement claim, LogRhythm may, at its option and expense, either (a) procure for Customer the right to continue using the Software, (b) replace or modify the Software so that it becomes non-infringing and remains functionally equivalent, or (c) accept return of the Software, terminate this Agreement upon written notice to Customer and refund Customer the Software Fees paid for such Software upon such termination, computed according to a thirty-six (36) month straight-line amortization schedule beginning on the Effective Date.

Exclusions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, LogRhythm will have no obligation under this Section 7 or otherwise with respect to any infringement claim based upon (a) any use of the Software not in accordance with this Agreement or the Documentation, (b) any use of the Software in combination with other products, hardware, equipment, software, or data not authorized by LogRhythm to be used with the Software, (c) any use of any release of the Software other than the most current release made available to Customer, or (d) any modification of the Software by any person other than LogRhythm or its authorized agents or subcontractors.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FOR ANY CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL, OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING ANY LOST DATA AND LOST PROFITS, ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT EVEN IF SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. LOGRHYTHM'S TOTAL CUMULATIVE LIABILITY IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE SOFTWARE AND ANY SERVICES, WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR TORT OR OTHERWISE, WILL NOT EXCEED THE AMOUNT OF FEES PAID TO LOGRHYTHM DURING THE TWELVE (12) MONTH PERIOD PRECEDING THE EVENTS GIVING RISE TO SUCH LIABILITY. IN ADDITION, LOGRHYTHM DISCLAIMS ALL LIABILITY OF ANY KIND OF LOGRHYTHM'S LICENSORS. THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY WILL NOT APPLY TO BREACH OF SECTIONS 2 OR 9 OR ANY INDEMNITY OBLIGATIONS IN SECTION 7. THIS CLAUSE SHALL NOT IMPAIR THE U.S. GOVERNMENT'S RIGHT TO RECOVER FOR FRAUD OR CRIMES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS CONTRACT UNDER ANY FEDERAL FRAUD STATUTE, INCLUDING THE FALSE CLAIMS ACT, 31 U.S.C. 3729-3733. FURTHERMORE, THIS CLAUSE SHALL NOT IMPAIR NOR PREJUDICE THE U.S. GOVERNMENT'S RIGHT TO EXPRESS REMEDIES PROVIDED IN THE GSA SCHEDULE CONTRACT (E.G., CLAUSE 552.238-75 – PRICE REDUCTIONS, CLAUSE 52.212-4(H) – PATENT INDEMNIFICATION, AND GSAR 552.215-72 – PRICE ADJUSTMENT – FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE INFORMATION).

CONFIDENTIALITY.

Confidential Information. "Information" means information that is disclosed by a party ("Discloser") to the other party ("Recipient"), or which Recipient has access to in connection with this Agreement, and that should reasonably have been understood by Recipient to be proprietary and confidential to Discloser or to a third party, because of legends or other markings, the circumstances of disclosure or the nature of the information itself. Information may be disclosed in written or other tangible form (including on magnetic media) or by oral, visual or other means. Information includes, without limitation, information of or relating to the Discloser's present or future products, know-how, formulas, designs, processes, ideas, inventions and other technical, business and financial plans, processing information, pricing information, specifications, research and development information, customer lists, the identity of any customers or suppliers, forecasts and any other information relating to any work in process, future development, marketing plans, strategies, financial matters, personnel matters, investors or business operations of the Discloser.

Protection of Information. Recipient will not use any Information of Discloser for any purpose not expressly permitted by the Agreement, and will disclose the Information of Discloser only to the employees or contractors of Recipient who have a need to know such Information for purposes of the Agreement and who are under a duty of confidentiality no less restrictive than Recipient's duty hereunder. Recipient will protect Discloser's Information from unauthorized use, access, or disclosure in the same manner as Recipient protects its own confidential or proprietary information of a similar nature and with no less than reasonable care.

Exceptions. Recipient's obligations under Section 9.2 with respect to any Information of Discloser will terminate if such information: (a) was already known to Recipient at the time of disclosure by Discloser; (b) was disclosed to Recipient by a third party who had the right to make such disclosure without any confidentiality restrictions; (c) is, or through no fault of Recipient has become, generally available to the public; or (d) was independently developed by Recipient without access to, or use of, Discloser's Information. In addition, Recipient will be allowed to disclose Information of Discloser to the extent that such disclosure is (i) approved in writing by Discloser, (ii) necessary for Recipient to enforce its rights under the Agreement in connection with a legal proceeding; or (iii) required by law or by the order of a court of similar judicial or administrative body, provided that Recipient notifies Discloser of such required disclosure promptly and in writing and cooperates with Discloser, at Discloser's request and expense, in any lawful action to contest or limit the scope of such required disclosure.

Return of Information. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, Recipient will return to Discloser or destroy all Information of Discloser in Recipient's possession or control and permanently erase all electronic copies of such Information promptly upon the written request of Discloser upon the expiration or termination of the Agreement. Recipient will certify in writing signed by an officer of Recipient that it has fully complied with its obligations under this Section 9.4.

TERM AND TERMINATION

Term. The term of the Agreement will begin on the Effective Date and will continue until terminated.

Termination for Breach. Termination may only be conducted in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract.

Effects of Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement, Customer must promptly discontinue all use of the Software, erase all copies of the Software from Customer's computers, and return to LogRhythm or destroy all copies of the Software, Documentation and other LogRhythm Information in Customer's possession or control. Sections 1, 2.2, 5, 6.3, 7, 8, 9, 10.3 and 11 together with any accrued payment obligations, will survive expiration or termination of the Agreement for any reason.

GENERAL

Proprietary Rights. The Software and Documentation, and all worldwide Intellectual Property Rights therein, are the exclusive property of LogRhythm and its licensors. All rights in and to the Software not expressly granted to Customer in this Agreement are reserved by LogRhythm and its licensors. Customer will not remove, alter, or obscure any proprietary notices (including copyright notices) of LogRhythm or its licensors on the Software or the Documentation.

Third Party Software. All third party software included with an Appliance is subject to the third party license agreements and/or additional terms and conditions provided with the Appliance that are imposed by LogRhythm's applicable third party manufacturers and licensors. Customer agrees that Customer will be bound to and comply with all such applicable license agreements and terms and conditions.

Compliance with Laws. Each party will comply with all applicable export and import control laws and regulations in its use of the Software and Appliances and, in particular, Customer will not export or re-export Software or Appliances without all required government licenses and Customer agrees to comply with the export laws, restrictions, national security controls and regulations of the all applicable foreign agencies or authorities.

Assignment. Neither party may assign or transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, this Agreement or any of its rights under the Agreement (including the license rights granted to Customer to the Software) to any third party without the other party's prior written consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Force Majeure. Except for any payment obligations, neither party shall be liable hereunder by reason of any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder for any cause which is beyond the reasonable control of such party.

U.S. Government End Users. If Customer is a branch or agency of the United States Government, the following provision applies. The Software is comprised of "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation" as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. 12.212 and are provided to the Government (a) for acquisition by or on behalf of civilian agencies, consistent with the policy set forth in 48 C.F.R. 12.212; or (b) for acquisition by or on behalf of units of the Department of Defense, consistent with the policies set forth in 48 C.F.R. 227.7202-1 and 227.7202-3.

Notices. All notices, consents, and approvals under this Agreement must be delivered in writing by courier, by electronic mail, facsimile (fax), or by certified mail, (postage prepaid and return receipt requested) to the other party at the address set forth on the Order, and will be effective upon receipt or when delivery is refused. Either party may change its address by giving notice of the new address to the other party.

Governing Law and Venue. This Agreement and all Statements of Work will be governed by and interpreted in accordance with applicable Federal laws. If it is in the best interests of the Government, any action or proceeding arising from or relating to this Agreement shall be brought in a Federal District Court in Denver, Colorado, and each party irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction and venue of any such court in any such action or proceeding.

Waivers. All waivers must be in writing. Any waiver or failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement on one occasion will not be deemed a waiver of any other provision or of such provision on any other occasion.

Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is unenforceable, such provision will be changed and interpreted to accomplish the objectives of such provision to the greatest extent possible under applicable law and the remaining provisions will continue in full force and effect. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Section 8 will remain in effect notwithstanding the unenforceability of any provision in Section 6.

Construction. The headings of Sections of this Agreement are for convenience and are not to be used in interpreting this Agreement. As used in this Agreement, the word "including" means "including but not limited to."

Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract and the task/delivery order constitutes the entire agreement between the parties regarding the subject hereof and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, and communication, whether written or oral. This Agreement may be amended only by a written document signed by both parties.

Exhibit A

Support Services

Subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable software license agreement between Customer and LogRhythm (“Agreement”), the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract and this Support Services exhibit (including payment of the applicable fees (“Support Fees”), LogRhythm will provide the Support Services in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth below. Customer must purchase identical Support Services for all installed Software and/or Appliances within a Designated Deployment (defined below) and may not select different Support Services options to cover different installations of Software and/or Appliances across deployments within a Designated Deployment. LogRhythm will be responsible for providing Support Services only for the most current release and the immediately preceding major release of the Software. End-of-Life Support for third party optional software components are in accordance with the End-of-Life policy for each such component as announced. LogRhythm reserves the right to modify its Support Services offering at any time, by providing notice to its Customers, provided such Support Services modification will not be less than what is stated in this Support Services Exhibit and the modification is agreed to in writing and signed by an authorized Government Contracting Officer.

DEFINITIONS.

“Business Day” means 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. (Mountain Time), Monday through Friday (excluding LogRhythm holidays).
 “Designated Deployment” shall mean the deployment of the LogRhythm Software that enables complete logging and processing of Customer data.
 “Enhanced Support Services” shall mean the optional purchase by Customer of 24/7 support subject to the payment of any required additional fees.
 “Error” shall mean a reproducible defect in the Supported Program when operated on a Supported Environment, which causes the Supported Program not to operate substantially in accordance with the Documentation.
 “Resolution” shall mean a modification or workaround to the Supported Program and/or Documentation and/or other information provided by LogRhythm to Customer intended to resolve an Error.
 “Support Hour” shall mean an hour during a Business Day.
 “Supported Environment” shall mean any hardware and operating system platform which LogRhythm supports.
 “Supported Program” shall mean the current version of the Software used in a Supported Environment in use at the Designated Deployment, for which Customer has paid the then current Support Fees.
 “Update” means subsequent minor maintenance releases of the Software (e.g., 3.1 to 3.2) and patches that LogRhythm generally makes available for Software licensees at no additional license fee to Customers provided the Customers are under a current Support Services Agreement with LogRhythm. Updates shall not include any release, option or future product which LogRhythm licenses separately from Support Services for an additional fee.
 “Upgrade” means subsequent major releases of the Software (e.g. 2.0 to 3.0) that LogRhythm generally makes available for Software licensees at no additional license fee to Customers provided the Customers are under a current Support Services Agreement with LogRhythm.

SERVICES PROVIDED.

First Call. LogRhythm is the first tier of support for the Software and Hardware purchased through LogRhythm.
Telephone Support. LogRhythm will provide telephone support to the designated users during the Support Hours. Customer understands and acknowledges that Support Services are provided in English. Customers purchasing Enhanced Support Services will be given instructions for receiving Support Services after the end of a Business Day. Telephone support will include the following:
 Assistance in identifying and verifying the causes of suspected Errors in the Supported Program;
 Advice on bypassing identified Errors in the Supported Program, if reasonably possible;
 Assistance in troubleshooting and identifying Hardware-related problems;
 Clarification of the Documentation; and (e) Guidance in updates of the Supported Program. 2.3 E-Mail Support. Customers may contact LogRhythm support via email 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Support emails may be sent to support@logrhythm.com.

2.4 Response Times.

LogRhythm will respond to new support cases whether received via a telephone call or email within (i) four (4) Support Hours after receipt if received during a Business Day or (ii) by 12:00 p.m. Mountain Time the following Business Day if received after the end of a Business Day. LogRhythm will respond to new support cases via email or by directly contacting the applicable designated users. Response times for open support cases will vary depending on the specifics of the case and any Escalation required. If a response will require more than one business day to prepare, Customer will be notified and informed when a response can be expected.
 If Customer has purchased Enhanced Support Services LogRhythm will respond to new support cases received via a telephone call within four (4) hours after receipt.

LogRhythm Support Site. LogRhythm maintains a product support site containing product manuals and additional support related information (e.g., FAQ’s, Knowledge Base). Subject to the payment of Support Fees, Customer will be provided 24/7 access to the support site. Customer will be provided support accounts to use when accessing the support site.

Escalation and Severity Levels. All calls are received by Tier 1 or Tier 2 support personnel. LogRhythm’s best attempts are made to solve support issues with Tier 1 support personnel. Issues that are not able to be resolved by the Tier 1 support personnel will be escalated as outlined below:

Tiered Support Definitions: Support requests will be answered and/or escalated based on the following generalized criteria. The Tier I support engineer will be the first contact and will determine escalation if an issue is not solved within 1 hour. Additional escalation will be issue specific and will remain within current contractual guidelines:

Tier I – General questions and minor configuration changes
Tier II – Functionality specific questions, advanced configuration changes and initial error investigation
Tier III – Advanced functionality and configuration questions and detailed error investigation

Tier IV (Sustaining Engineering) – Advanced error investigation to determine SW configuration changes and/or failed functionality

Tier IV software support is reserved for consultation on development related issues only during business hours.

All incoming tickets are automatically assigned to Tier I
Escalate to Tier II if issue is not resolved within one hour, with the following exceptions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>o Awaiting customer response o</li> <li>Awaiting internal response or follow up</li> </ul>
Tier II – If the issue is not resolved within two hours of escalation to Tier II, Escalate to Tier III
Tier III – If the issue is not resolved by the following business day, escalate to Tier IV

Support Ticket Escalation:

Support calls are generally not escalated if work is under way and/or a solution is being researched or created. However, severity levels are designed as means to provide escalation in cases of an inability to make systems operational as outlined below.

Ticket Severity:

Critical (Severity 1) – The system has crashed or is in a “hung” state, or displays a fatal error - resulting in data loss or corruption.
High (Severity 2) – System is severely degraded such that a component or feature does not meet requirements or are inaccessible or inoperable.
Medium (Severity 3) – System is slightly degraded such that a component or feature does not meet minimum or expected requirements.
Low (Severity 4) – System is functional with a minor defect or customer has general question or is requesting minor configuration change information.

Support Cases. Each support case will be assigned a case number. Customer must provide the number when providing communications to LogRhythm regarding the support case. Support cases will be closed when Customer has verified the issue is resolved, where possible. Support cases will also be closed after three (3) Business Days of inactivity on the part of Customer and can be re-opened upon request.

Qualified Support Cases. Qualified support cases are limited to questions that cannot be easily answered by referring to LogRhythm product documentation or information made available on the LogRhythm support site. Qualified support cases also include reporting any abnormal functioning of LogRhythm software. Qualified support cases do not include questions pertaining to the normal deployment, configuration, and operation of LogRhythm products as described in LogRhythm product documentation.

Unqualified Support Cases. Unqualified support cases include questions that could have been answered by reviewing LogRhythm Documentation or information made available via the LogRhythm support site. If Customer is submitting a high volume of Unqualified Support Cases, LogRhythm and Customer will work together to determine the areas of operation underlying the cases submitted and will jointly determine a corrective course of action as required.

Travel and Other Expenses. Support Services provided hereunder shall be provided at LogRhythm’s principal place of business, or at the Designated Deployment at Customer’s expense, as mutually agreed upon in writing by the parties and authorized by a Government Contracting Officer in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract, the Federal Acquisition Regulation and Agency Supplemental Regulations, as applicable.

Exceptions. LogRhythm shall have no responsibility under this Agreement to fix any Errors arising out of or related to the following causes: (a) Customer’s modification or combination of the Supported Program (in whole or in part), (b) use of the Supported Program in an environment other than a Supported Environment; or (c) problems related to nonLogRhythm provided hardware. Any corrections performed by LogRhythm for such Errors shall be made, in LogRhythm’s reasonable discretion, at LogRhythm’s then-current time and material charges.

SOFTWARE SUPPORT. Subject to the payment of the Support Services Fees or additional license fees set forth in the task/delivery order and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract, LogRhythm will provide:

Updates. LogRhythm will provide Updates for the Supported Programs as and when developed for general release in LogRhythm's sole discretion. Each Update will consist of a set of programs and files made available from LogRhythm's web site and will be accompanied by Documentation adequate to inform Customer of the problems resolved and any significant operational differences resulting from such Update.

Upgrades. Customer will be entitled to major Software release upgrades (e.g. 2.0 to 3.0) at no additional cost while a Support Services contract is in effect. An upgrade to LogRhythm provided Hardware may be required in order to utilize any such Upgrades.

Third-Party Software Updates. LogRhythm approves and makes available information regarding Updates of Third Party software included in the Software to Customers via LogRhythm's web site support.

Knowledge Base Updates. Customer will be entitled to knowledge base updates at no additional cost.

HARDWARE SUPPORT. Subject to the payment of the Support Services Fees or additional license fees set forth in the task/delivery order and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract, LogRhythm will provide:

Basic Hardware Services. As part of Support Services, LogRhythm will facilitate Hardware warranty coverage with the Hardware manufacturer on servers and their components for a period of three (3) years after delivery for Hardware purchased through LogRhythm.

If Hardware is replaced in whole or in part under a warranty program Customer will be responsible for the cost of any Hardware or components not returned as may be required to comply with the warranty.

Modification, alteration, or any other changes to the Hardware may violate and/or void the Hardware warranty and/or Support Services agreement. In no instances should the Customer open the external case of the Hardware without direction from LogRhythm personnel.

Hardware shipped to customer will support the release of the Software installed on the Hardware at time of delivery and the next major release. If a second or subsequent major release of the Software requires an upgrade to the Hardware, Customer may choose to either (i) upgrade the Hardware at their cost and install the second or subsequent major release or (ii) receive Support Services on their current Hardware and Software through the life cycle of the second or subsequent major release.

Hardware upgrades for enhancements to Software features included in Customers initial Software release will be provided by LogRhythm. Hardware upgrades to support new Software features provided to customer via a Software Upgrade or Update will not be provided by LogRhythm and Customer, at its option, may upgrade the Hardware to utilize such new Software features.

Enhanced Hardware Services. Hardware that is subject to an Enhanced Support Services agreement will be provided with 24/7 support with 4-hour onsite response, after troubleshooting.

Extended Warranty. Upon Customer's renewal of Support Services in years four (4) and five (5); LogRhythm will facilitate an extended hardware warranty service for each of those years, provided such warranty service is offered by the hardware manufacturer. Hardware warranty services beyond year five (5) will continue to be facilitated by LogRhythm provided such are offered at the discretion of the hardware manufacturer.

Pre-Replacement of Defective Hardware. Hardware warranty repairs will be made in accordance with the Basic Hardware Services or Enhanced Hardware Services as contracted by Customer. Replacements for defective Hardware to be provided to Customer under the warranty program will be sent on a pre-replacement basis when possible. Customer will have ten (10) business days to return to the defective Hardware to LogRhythm. If the replacement of a complete Appliance is required, the replacement Appliance will be shipped fully configured for Customer's use unless an alternative course of action is mutually agreed upon by LogRhythm and Customer.

CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITIES.

Supervision and Management. Customer is responsible for undertaking the proper supervision, control and management of its use of the Supported Programs, including, but not limited to: (a) assuring proper Supported Environment configuration, Supported Programs installation and operating methods; and (b) following industry standard procedures for the security of data, accuracy of input and output, and back-up plans, including restart and recovery in the event of hardware or software error or malfunction.

Training. Customer is responsible for ensuring that all appropriate personnel are trained and familiar with the operation and use of the Supported Programs and associated equipment.

Designated Users. Customer shall designate a reasonable number of individuals to serve as the designated users with LogRhythm for the Support Services provided hereunder. To receive notification of any new Updates available from LogRhythm Customer must subscribe to the LogRhythm user forums.

Access to Personnel and Equipment. Customer shall provide LogRhythm with access to Customer's personnel and, at Customer's discretion, its equipment during Support Hours.

LogRhythm will, to the best of its ability, provide Support Services to Customer in accordance with Customer's internal security and/or network access policies. If Customer requests Support Services for an Error that requires remote access and Customer is unable to provide such access, then the Government Contracting Officer may elect to pay LogRhythm additional Support Fees and Expenses incurred for onsite Support Services so long as the additional Support was agreed to in writing by an authorized Government Contracting Officer prior to the services being rendered. If Customer does not wish to pay for such onsite Support Services, LogRhythm's obligation to provide any Resolution for the Error shall be excused.

Customer Introduced Third-Party Software.

Customer may elect to install additional software on to the Hardware on the drive specified in the LogRhythm Documentation. It is recommended that Customer contact LogRhythm before installing any software on to the Hardware. In such instance, Customer acknowledges and assumes the risk that (a) LogRhythm is not responsible for the functionality of any such software; (b) LogRhythm reserves the right to require the removal of any and all such software when addressing support issues (failure to remove such software after requested by LogRhythm will void LogRhythm's Support Service obligations); (c) any such installation may negatively impact the performance, reliability and/or security of the Software and/or Hardware; (d) the Software may not perform as intended or in accordance with the LogRhythm Documentation; and (e) any such software which adversely affects the performance of the LogRhythm Appliance will void all warranties and cancel all Support Services obligations.

EXHIBIT B LOGRHYTHM PROFESSIONAL SERVICES ATTACHMENT

Subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable software license agreement between Customer and LogRhythm to which this Exhibit B is attached and incorporated therein ("Agreement"), the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract and this Professional Services Attachment (including payment of the applicable fees, LogRhythm will provide the Professional Services in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth below.

Scope of Services. LogRhythm will provide the Professional Services to Customer under this Professional Services Attachment ("PSA"). At the start of the deployment planning, Customer and LogRhythm will develop a mutually agreed upon deployment plan that will be detailed in one or more Statements of Work ("SOW") (the "Services"). Deployment Services include but are not limited to the process of configuring the Software and/or Appliance and deploying in Customer's environment.

Assumptions and Responsibilities

Assumptions. The following assumptions are hereby acknowledged by the parties and apply to the performance of the Services under this PSA:

Changes to this PSA will be documented using a Project Change Request form in accordance with the process outlined in this PSA.

Customer will ensure that data backup is performed. LogRhythm will not be responsible for the loss or corruption of any Customer data or for any system downtime. Except as may be purchased under a separate LogRhythm Services Agreement, LogRhythm will not be responsible for any application or host system access that encompasses coding, scripting, application analysis, system performance, troubleshooting, or applications logins outside of the Services described in this PSA.

LogRhythm Responsibilities. Performance of the Services includes, without limitation, LogRhythm's undertaking of the following responsibilities as reasonably applicable to the Services being performed under this PSA:

LogRhythm will use commercially reasonable efforts to complete the Services described in this PSA in a timely manner.

LogRhythm will perform all appropriate

Services either onsite at the Customer facilities or remotely, via a remote desktop session. Services not requiring presence onsite may be performed at LogRhythm facilities by mutual agreement between Customer and LogRhythm.

LogRhythm reserves the right to subcontract any or all portions of the Services that LogRhythm is obligated to perform under this PSA.

LogRhythm will submit written or verbal status reports on the Services being performed under this PSA as necessary and mutually agreed upon by Customer and LogRhythm.

LogRhythm will provide a Project Lead with the qualifications, expertise, and knowledge to fulfill LogRhythm's obligations under this PSA, as necessary and applicable to the PSA requirements of Section 1.

Customer Responsibilities. Completion of the contingent upon Customer fulfilling the following responsibilities:

Customer will complete all necessary facilities arrangements prior to the commencement of the Services which will include but not be limited to such items as power, network connections, floor space, and cooling. Such required facility arrangements must be in place for the duration of this PSA.

Customer will make knowledgeable staff available to LogRhythm promptly upon a request via pager, telephone, or cell phone to provide background information and clarification of information required to perform the Services outlined in this PSA.

Documentation and information provided to LogRhythm staff by Customer must be accurate, complete and up-to-date.

Customer will be responsible for any business and data application testing and all necessary data backup in preparation for and during the performance of the Services.

Customer will assign system administrators and operators available by phone or pager for the duration of this PSA.

For the duration of this PSA and where applicable, Customer will provide LogRhythm adequate onsite access to office space and equipment, and to telephones with outside lines and a dedicated, secure line for internet access.

Should the project plan rely on electronic/network transfer of data, customer will provision and enable any network components or Services required to facilitate the data transfer.

Where applicable, Customer will provide security passes to cover the duration of this PSA to allow LogRhythm access, and the ability to enter and leave Customer facilities, with laptop personal computers and any other materials related to the Services to be performed under this PSA.

If required by LogRhythm, Customer will participate in testing as directed by LogRhythm.

Customer will provide a Project Lead with the requisite qualifications, expertise, and knowledge who is authorized by Customer to act as a liaison between Customer and LogRhythm and assume the responsibilities detailed in Section 2.4.

Joint Project Management Responsibilities and Tasks. Both the LogRhythm and Customer Project Leads will ensure the following responsibilities and tasks are met as are reasonably applicable to the Services being performed:

Each Project Lead will ensure that an authorized representative of its respective party will approve documents and specifications and accept Services provided in accordance with the acceptance procedures outlined in this PSA

. Coordinate, schedule and monitor all resources and activities related to the Services described in this PSA.

Coordinate and monitor all project change process activities related to the Services described in this PSA.

Act as the focal points for communications between Customer and LogRhythm during the provision of all Services described in this PSA.

Attend LogRhythm and Customer status meetings, as applicable.

Upon becoming aware of a situation which may delay, or threatens to delay, the timely performance of this PSA, promptly initiate the Project Change Process as described in Section 4 of this PSA, to address the potential delay.

Status Notification. LogRhythm will notify Customer of the status of Professional Services hours consumed on a regular basis. Additionally, LogRhythm will also notify customer when Deployment Services have been completed in accordance with the agreed upon Statement(s) of Work.

Project Change Process. In accordance with the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract, any change to a PSA will be coordinated with the LogRhythm Project Lead.

Change Initiation. LogRhythm or the Customer may initiate change requests. The reasons for a change may include: customer requests; regulatory changes; changes in technical scope; or other detail program issues or requirements. The Project Lead of the party initiating a change will submit each change request to the other party's Project Lead, and then both Project Leads will review such request for validation. Project changes must be submitted in a clear and concise manner in the form of a Change Request Form (Attachment A). Upon the initiation of a change request, both parties must agree within twenty-four (24) hours of the receipt of the Change Request Form by the non-initiating party whether or not to continue performance of the Services or to stop all Services being performed until a mutually agreed upon Change Request Form has been signed by both parties.

Change Request Review. After the submission of a Change Request Form to a Project Lead and validation of the requested change, the LogRhythm Project Lead will review the requested change to determine if it is within the scope of the SOW.

Within Services Scope. If the LogRhythm Project Lead determines that the change requested by Customer is within the scope of the SOW, the Project Leads of both parties will execute the Change Request Form and implement the change into performance of the Services as appropriate.

Outside Services Scope. If the LogRhythm Project Lead determines that the requested change is outside the scope of Services the SOW, the LogRhythm Project Lead will then determine whether such requested change impacts the pricing or scheduling projections for the performance of the Services.

If the LogRhythm Project Lead

determines that the requested change does not impact the pricing or scheduling projections of the SOW, the Project Leads will execute the Change Request Form and implement the requested change into the performance of the Services as appropriate.

If the LogRhythm Project Lead

determines that the requested change does impact the pricing or scheduling projections of the SOW, the terms of Section 4.3 will apply.

This process is not intended to handle change requests which would constitute a cardinal change to the SOW. Additionally, LogRhythm reserves the right to reject change requests at its discretion.

Cost Estimate Preparation. Upon determination that the Change Request impacts the pricing or scheduling of the Services under the SOW, a cost estimate applicable to the performance of the requested change will be prepared by LogRhythm and provided to the Customer. The cost estimate will fully document the scope of the change, and provide a basis of estimate for the proposed adjustments in price, schedule, and/or other factors as applicable. If applicable, a schedule (separate from but integrated with the implementation plan) will be developed and maintained for each such authorized change.

Change Implementation. The execution of the Change Request Form by both the Multiple Award Schedule 70 Contractor, acting on behalf of LogRhythm and an authorized Government Contracting Officer, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract and the Federal Acquisition Regulation and Agency Supplemental Regulations, as applicable, will cause the Change Request Form to become part of and incorporated into the SOW. Commencement of the performance of the requested change is conditioned upon the mutual execution of the Change Request, and LogRhythm's receipt of an additional P.O. authorization to cover the agreed upon price for each requested change.

Fee Description and Payment

Professional Services Fees. In accordance with the terms and conditions of the Multiple Award Schedule 70 contract, Customer will pay the Professional Service Fees for the performance of the Services under this PSA.

Rights to Development. LogRhythm will retain all right, title and interest in and to development tools, know-how, methodologies, processes, technologies or algorithms used in providing the Services, which are based on trade secrets or proprietary information. No license to any patents, trade secrets, trademarks or copyrights is deemed to be granted by either party to any of its patents, trade secrets, trademarks or copyrights except as otherwise expressly provided in the Agreement. Rights associated with any joint development projects will be subject to future discussion and under a separate agreement with terms to be mutually agreed upon by both parties.

Constructive changes. LogRhythm and Customer agree that: (a) Customer has knowledge of and control over the conditions and constraints of Customer's facilities, and IT environment; and administers how the services on Customer's IT infrastructure are performed; (b) LogRhythm may undertake a course of action under this engagement which was unforeseen at the time the PSA was executed but is necessary, arises from a latent or unusual condition, is at the direction of the Customer, or results from an act of omission of the Customer and, by changing LogRhythm's manner, method, or scope of work, increases LogRhythm's cost or schedule to perform; (c) should LogRhythm's cost or schedule to perform so increase, LogRhythm will have the right to an equitable adjustment to the price, schedule, and/or terms of the PSA for such changes even if these changes have not been submitted through the Project entire agreement between the parties regarding the delivery of Change Process set forth in Section 4. professional services and supercedes all prior or 8. Entire Agreement. This PSA, the Multiple Award contemporaneous agreements, understandings, and Schedule 70 contract and the task/delivery order constitute the communication, whether written or oral. This Agreement may be amended only by a written document signed by both parties.

END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

This End User License Agreement, including any Order which by this reference is incorporated herein (this “Agreement”), is a binding agreement between LogZilla Corporation (“LogZilla”) and the undersigned Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts receiving the Software (as defined below) accompanied by this Agreement (“Ordering Activity” or “Customer” or “You”). The Ordering Activity may have received an “evaluation edition”, “alpha”, “beta”, or other non-commercial release version of the Software (“Evaluation Edition”) or a commercially released or generally available version of the Software and the Ordering Activity’s rights will vary depending on the version that it received.

LogZilla provides the software solely on the terms and conditions set forth in this agreement and on the condition that Customer accepts and complies with them. By both parties executing this Agreement in writing, you accept this agreement and agree that Ordering Activity is legally bound by its terms; If the Ordering Activity does not agree to the terms of this agreement, LogZilla will not and does not license the software to the Ordering Activity and it may not install the software or documentation.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this agreement or the Ordering Activity 's acceptance of the terms and conditions of this agreement, no license is granted (whether expressly, by implication or otherwise) under this agreement, and this agreement expressly excludes any right, concerning any software that the Ordering Activity did not acquire lawfully or that is not a legitimate, authorized copy of LogZilla's software.

Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms have the following meanings:

“Development Use” means use of the Software by Ordering Activity to design, develop and/or test new applications for Production Use.

“Documentation” means user manuals, technical manuals and any other materials provided by LogZilla, in printed, electronic or other form, that describe the installation, operation, use or technical specifications of the Software.

“Fees” are the License Fees and the Support Fees in accordance with the GSA Pricelist.

“License Fees” means the license fees, paid by Ordering Activity in accordance with the GSA Pricelist for the license granted under this Agreement.

“License Package” means the type of license selected by Ordering Activity depending on the number of hosts and messages Ordering Activity needs. License Packages are available in evaluation, small business and enterprise sizes.

“Order” means the document by which the Software and any Support Services are ordered by Ordering Activity.

“Person” means an individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, governmental authority, unincorporated organization, trust, association or other entity.

“Production Use” means using the Software with Ordering Activity’s applications for internal business purposes only, which may include third party Ordering Activity’s access to or use of such applications. “Production Use” does not include the right to reproduce the software for sublicensing, resale, or LogZilla EULA Final Version distribution, including without limitation, operation on a time sharing or service bureau basis or distributing the software as part of an ASP, VAR, OEM, distributor or reseller arrangement.

“Software” means the object code versions of the software set forth in the Order.

“Support Fees” means the support fees to be paid by Ordering Activity for the Support Services ordered under this Agreement.

“Third Party” means any Person other than Ordering Activity or LogZilla. “Use” means Development Use or Production Use.

License Grant and Scope. Subject to and conditioned upon Ordering Activity’s strict compliance with all terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, LogZilla hereby grants to Ordering Activity a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable (except as expressly set forth in Section 2(d)), limited license during the Term (as defined below) to use the Software and Documentation, solely as set forth in this Section 2 and subject to all conditions and limitations set forth in Section 4 or elsewhere in this Agreement. This license grants Ordering Activity the right to:

Download and install in accordance with the Documentation the Software and Documentation solely for Ordering Activity’s Use and in accordance with the number messages or events associated with the License Package, each as specified in the Order. In addition to the foregoing, Ordering Activity has the right to make one copy of the Software solely for archival purposes, provided that Ordering Activity does not, and does not allow any Person to, install or use any such copy other than if and for so long as the copy installed in accordance with the preceding sentence is inoperable and, provided, further, that Ordering Activity uninstalls and otherwise deletes such inoperable copy. All copies of the Software made by Ordering Activity:

will be the exclusive property of LogZilla;

will be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement; and must include all trademark, copyright, patent and other intellectual property rights notices contained in the original.

Use and run the Software as properly installed in accordance with this Agreement and the Documentation, solely as set forth in the Documentation and solely for Ordering Activity’s internal business purposes. If Ordering Activity has acquired Software for Development Use, Ordering Activity is not permitted to use the Software for Production Use. If Ordering Activity has acquired Software for Production Use, Ordering Activity is not permitted to use the Software for Development Use.

Download or otherwise make a reasonable number of copies of the Documentation depending on the License Package and use such Documentation, solely in support of its licensed use of the Software in accordance herewith. All copies of the Documentation made by Ordering Activity:

will be the exclusive property of LogZilla;

will be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement; and must include all trademark, copyright, patent and other intellectual property rights notices contained in the original.

Permit third party consultants to access and use the Software solely for Ordering Activity's internal business operations, provided that such consultants execute an agreement with Ordering Activity with terms and conditions no less protective of LogZilla than those in this Agreement. Ordering Activity remains liable for any breach of this Agreement by a third party consultant.

Third-Party Materials. The Software may include software, content, data or other materials, including related documentation, that are owned by Persons other than LogZilla and that are provided to Ordering Activity on terms that are in addition to and/or different from those contained in this Agreement ("Third-Party Licenses"). Ordering Activity is not bound by any Third-Party Licenses that it has not executed in writing with the third party.

Use Restrictions. Ordering Activity will not:

use (including make any copies of) the Software or Documentation beyond the scope of the license granted under Section 2;

except as may be permitted by Section 2(d) and strictly in compliance with its terms, provide any other Person, including any subcontractor, independent contractor, affiliate or service provider of Ordering Activity, with access to or use of the Software or Documentation; modify, translate, adapt or otherwise create derivative works or improvements, whether or not patentable, of the Software or Documentation or any part thereof;

combine the Software or any part thereof with, or incorporate the Software or any part thereof in, any other programs;

reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile, decode or otherwise attempt to derive or gain access to the source code of the Software or any part thereof;

remove, delete, alter or obscure any trademarks or any copyright, trademark, patent or other intellectual property or proprietary rights notices from the Software or Documentation, including any copy thereof;

except as expressly set forth in Section 2(a) and Section 2(c), copy the Software or Documentation, in whole or in part; rent, lease, lend, sell, sublicense, assign, distribute, publish, transfer or otherwise make available the Software or any features or functionality of the Software, to any Third Party for any reason, whether or not over a network and whether or not on a hosted basis, including in connection with the internet, web hosting, wide area network (WAN), virtual private network (VPN), virtualization, time-sharing, service bureau, software as a service, cloud or other technology or service;

use the Software in, or in association with, the design, construction, maintenance or operation of any hazardous environments or systems, including:

power generation systems;

aircraft navigation or communication systems, air traffic control systems or any other transport management systems;

safety-critical applications, including medical or life-support systems, vehicle operation applications or any police, fire or other safety response systems; and military or aerospace applications, weapons systems or environments; use the Software in violation of any Federal law, regulation or rule; or use the Software for purposes of competitive analysis of the Software, the development of a competing software product or service or any other purpose that is to LogZilla's commercial disadvantage.

Responsibility for Use of Software. Ordering Activity is responsible and liable for all uses of the Software through access thereto provided by Ordering Activity, directly or indirectly. Specifically, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Ordering Activity is responsible and liable for all actions and failures to take required actions with respect to the Software by any other Person to whom Ordering Activity may provide access to or use of the Software, whether such access or use is permitted by or in violation of this Agreement.

Feedback. If Ordering Activity provides any feedback to LogZilla concerning the functionality and performance of the Software (including identifying potential errors and improvements) (“Feedback”), Ordering Activity hereby assigns to LogZilla all right, title, and interest in and to the Feedback, and LogZilla is free to use the Feedback without any payment or restriction to the extent permitted by the General Services Acquisition Regulation (GSAR) 552.203-71.

Compliance Measures.

The Software may contain technological copy protection or other security features designed to prevent unauthorized use of the Software, including features to protect against use of the Software: (i) beyond the scope of the license granted pursuant to Section 2; or (ii) prohibited under Section 4. Ordering Activity will not, and will not attempt to, remove, disable, circumvent or otherwise create or implement any workaround to, any such copy protection or security features.

Upon reasonable notice to Ordering Activity, during the Term and for three years thereafter, Ordering Activity will keep current, complete, and accurate records regarding the reproduction, distribution, and use of the Software. Ordering Activity will provide such information to LogZilla and certify that it has paid all fees required under this Agreement within five business days of any written request, so long as no more than one request in a 12 month period is made. LogZilla may, in LogZilla's sole discretion, audit Ordering Activity's use of the Software under this Agreement at any time during the Term and for three years thereafter to ensure Ordering Activity's compliance with this Agreement, provided that (i) any such audit will be conducted on not less than 30 days' prior notice to Ordering Activity, and (ii) no more than 1 audit may be conducted in any 12 month period except for good cause shown. LogZilla also may, in its sole discretion, audit Ordering Activity's systems within 3 months after the end of the Term to ensure Ordering Activity has ceased use of the Software and removed the all copies of the Software from such systems as required hereunder. Ordering Activity will fully cooperate with LogZilla's personnel conducting such audits and subject to Government Security requirements provide all reasonable access requested by LogZilla to records, systems, equipment, information and personnel, including machine IDs, serial numbers and related information. LogZilla will only examine information related to Ordering Activity's use of the Software. LogZilla may conduct audits only during Ordering Activity's normal business hours and in a manner that does not unreasonably interfere with Ordering Activity's business operations. If any of the measures taken or implemented under this Section 6 determines that Ordering Activity's use of the Software exceeds or exceeded the use permitted by this Agreement then:

Ordering Activity will, within thirty (30) days following the date of receipt of written notice and invoice from LogZilla, pay to LogZilla the retroactive License Fees for such excess use and obtain and pay for a valid license to bring Ordering Activity's use into compliance with this Agreement. In determining the Ordering Activity Fee payable pursuant to the foregoing, the rates for such licenses will be determined in accordance with the GSA Schedule Pricelist.

Maintenance and Support.

Subject to Section 8(d), the license granted hereunder entitles Ordering Activity to the technical support and maintenance services ("Support Services") identified on the Order, if any, during the Term.

Support Services will include provision of such updates, upgrades, bug fixes, patches and other error corrections (collectively, "Updates") as LogZilla makes generally available at no additional charge to the Ordering Activity of the Software then entitled to Support Services. LogZilla may develop and provide Updates in its sole discretion, and Ordering Activity agrees that LogZilla has no obligation to develop any Updates at all or for particular issues. Ordering Activity further agrees that all Updates will be deemed "Software," and related documentation will be deemed "Documentation," all subject to all terms and conditions of this Agreement. Ordering Activity acknowledges that LogZilla may provide Updates via download from a website designated by LogZilla and that Ordering Activity's receipt thereof will require an internet connection, which connection is Ordering Activity's sole responsibility. LogZilla has no obligation to provide Updates via any other media. Support Services do not include any new version or new release of the Software LogZilla may issue as a separate or new product, and LogZilla may determine whether any issuance qualifies as a new version, new release or Update in its sole discretion.

If Ordering Activity reports a bug or error to LogZilla, LogZilla will use commercially reasonable efforts to begin development on an Update for such bug or error within 12 hours of receipt of notification from Ordering Activity.

LogZilla reserves the right to condition the provision of Support Services, including all or any Updates, on Ordering Activity's registration of the copy of Software for which support is requested. LogZilla has no obligation to provide Support Services, including Updates:

for any but the most current version or release of the Software; for any copy of Software for which all previously issued Updates have not been installed;

if Ordering Activity is in breach under this Agreement; or for any Software that has been modified other than by or with the authorization of LogZilla, or that is being used with any hardware, software, configuration or operating system not specified in the Documentation or expressly authorized by LogZilla in writing.

Collection and Use of Information.

Ordering Activity acknowledges that LogZilla may, directly or indirectly through the services of Third Parties, collect and store information regarding use of the Software and about equipment on which the Software is installed or through which it otherwise is accessed and used, through:

the provision of maintenance and support services; and security measures included in the Software as described in Section 6.

Ordering Activity agrees that LogZilla may use such information for any purpose related to any use of the Software by Ordering Activity or on Ordering Activity's equipment, including but not limited to:

improving the performance of the Software or developing Updates; and verifying Ordering Activity's compliance with the terms of this Agreement and enforcing LogZilla's rights, including all intellectual property rights in and to the Software.

Intellectual Property Rights. Ordering Activity acknowledges and agrees that the Software and Documentation are provided under license, and not sold, to Ordering Activity. Ordering Activity does not acquire any ownership interest in the Software or Documentation under this Agreement, or any other rights thereto other than to use the same in accordance with the license granted, and subject to all terms, conditions and restrictions, under this Agreement. LogZilla and its licensors and service providers reserve and retain their entire right, title and interest in and to the Software and all intellectual property rights arising out of or relating to the Software, except as expressly granted to Ordering Activity in this Agreement. Ordering Activity will safeguard all Software (including all copies thereof) from infringement, misappropriation, theft, misuse or unauthorized access. Ordering Activity will promptly notify LogZilla if Ordering Activity becomes aware of any infringement of LogZilla's intellectual property rights in the Software and fully cooperate with LogZilla, at LogZilla's sole expense, in any legal action taken by LogZilla to enforce its intellectual property rights. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or suit brought against the U.S. pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516.

Confidentiality. By virtue of this Agreement, the parties may have access to information that is confidential to one another ("Confidential Information"). Confidential Information includes the Software, Documentation, and all information clearly identified as confidential. A party's Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is or becomes a part of the public domain through no act or omission of the other party; (b) was in the other party's lawful possession prior to the disclosure and had not been obtained by the other party either directly or indirectly from the disclosing party; (c) is lawfully disclosed to the other party by a third party without restriction on disclosure; or (d) is independently developed by the other party. The parties agree to hold each other's Confidential Information in confidence during the term of this Agreement and for a period of 2 years after termination of this Agreement. The parties agree, unless required by law, not to make each other's Confidential Information available in any form to any third party for any purpose other than the implementation of this Agreement. LogZilla may reasonably use Ordering Activity's name and a description of Ordering Activity's use of the Software for its investor relations and marketing purposes to the extent permitted by the General Services Acquisition Regulation (GSAR) 552.203-71, unless Ordering Activity provides written notice within 7 days of installation of the Software to LogZilla that it may not do so. LogZilla recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which requires that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

Payment. All License Fees and Support Fees are payable within 30 days of the receipt date of invoice from LogZilla and. Any renewal of the license or maintenance and support services hereunder will not be effective until the fees for such renewal have been paid in full. Late payments accrue interest at a rate governed by the Prompt Payment Act (31 USC 3901 et seq) and Treasury regulations at 5 CFR 1315. The contract price excludes all state and local taxes levied or measured by the contract or sales price of the services or completed supplies furnished under this agreement. LogZilla shall state separately on its invoices that taxes are excluded from the fees and the Ordering Activity agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes to LogZilla or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Term and Termination.

This Agreement and the license granted hereunder will remain in effect for the term set forth on the Order or until earlier terminated as set forth herein (the "Initial Term" This Agreement may be renewed for additional successive one (1) year terms by executing a new Agreement in writing (each, a "Renewal Term" and both the Initial Term and the Renewal Term are the "Term"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, for Evaluation Edition licenses, this Agreement and the license granted hereunder will end upon completion of the testing or evaluation period specified by LogZilla, which shall not exceed 30 days from delivery of the Software to Ordering Activity unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by LogZilla.

when the end user is an instrumentality of the u.s., recourse against the united states for any alleged breach of this agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract disputes clause (contract disputes act). during any dispute under the disputes clause, logzilla shall proceed diligently with performance of this agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the agreement, and comply with any decision of the contracting officer.

Reserved.

Upon expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, the license granted hereunder will also terminate, and Ordering Activity will cease using and destroy all copies of the Software and Documentation. No expiration or termination will affect Ordering Activity's obligation to pay all Fees that may have become due before such expiration or termination, except as set forth in Section 14(c).

Limited Warranties, Exclusive Remedy and Disclaimer/Warranty Disclaimer.

If you are using Evaluation Edition of the Software, the Software is provided “AS IS” and without any warranties. Solely with respect to Software for which LogZilla receives a Fee, LogZilla warrants that, for a period of 90 days following the first installation of the Software, the Software will substantially contain the functionality described in the Documentation, and when properly installed on a computer meeting the specifications set forth in, and operated in accordance with, the Documentation, will substantially perform in accordance therewith. THE FOREGOING WARRANTY DOES NOT APPLY, AND LOGZILLA STRICTLY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, WITH RESPECT TO ANY THIRD-PARTY MATERIALS.

The warranties set forth in Section 14(a) will not apply and will become null and void if Ordering Activity or any other Person provided access to the Software by Ordering Activity, whether or not in violation of this Agreement:

installs or uses the Software on or in connection with any hardware or software not specified in the Documentation or expressly authorized by LogZilla in writing;

modifies or damages the Software; or misuses the Software, including any use of the Software other than as specified in the Documentation or expressly authorized by LogZilla in writing.

If, during the period specified in Section 14(a), any Software covered by the warranty set forth in such Section fails to perform substantially in accordance with the Documentation, and such failure is not excluded from warranty pursuant to the Section 14(b), LogZilla will, subject to Ordering Activity’s promptly notifying LogZilla in writing of such failure, either:

repair or replace the Software, provided that Ordering Activity provides LogZilla with all information LogZilla requests to resolve the reported failure, including sufficient information to enable LogZilla to recreate such failure; or if LogZilla is unable to repair or replace the Software, refund the License Fees paid for such Software, subject to Ordering Activity’s ceasing all use of and, if requested by LogZilla, returning to LogZilla all copies of the Software or certifying in writing that all copies of the Software have been destroyed.

If LogZilla repairs or replaces the Software, the warranty will continue to run from the installation date, and not from Ordering Activity’s receipt of the repair or replacement. The remedies set forth in this Section 14(c) are Ordering Activity’s sole remedies and LogZilla’s sole liability under the limited warranty set forth in Section 14(a).

EXCEPT FOR THE LIMITED WARRANTY SET FORTH IN Section 14(a) AND THE SUPPORT SERVICES SET FORTH IN Section 8, THE SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION ARE PROVIDED TO ORDERING ACTIVITY “AS IS” AND WITH ALL FAULTS AND DEFECTS WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, LOGZILLA, ON ITS OWN BEHALF AND ON BEHALF OF ITS AFFILIATES AND ITS AND THEIR RESPECTIVE LICENSORS AND SERVICE PROVIDERS, EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, WITH RESPECT TO THE SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION, INCLUDING ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF

MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT, AND WARRANTIES THAT MAY ARISE OUT OF COURSE OF DEALING, COURSE OF PERFORMANCE, USAGE OR TRADE PRACTICE. WITHOUT LIMITATION TO THE FOREGOING, LOGZILLA PROVIDES NO WARRANTY OR UNDERTAKING, AND MAKES NO REPRESENTATION OF ANY KIND THAT THE LICENSED SOFTWARE WILL MEET ORDERING ACTIVITY'S REQUIREMENTS, ACHIEVE ANY INTENDED RESULTS, BE COMPATIBLE OR WORK WITH ANY OTHER SOFTWARE, APPLICATIONS, SYSTEMS OR SERVICES, OPERATE WITHOUT INTERRUPTION, MEET ANY PERFORMANCE OR RELIABILITY STANDARDS OR BE ERROR FREE OR THAT ANY ERRORS OR DEFECTS CAN OR WILL BE CORRECTED.

Limitation of Liability. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW:

IN NO EVENT WILL LOGZILLA OR ITS AFFILIATES, OR ANY OF ITS OR THEIR RESPECTIVE LICENSORS OR SERVICE PROVIDERS, BE LIABLE TO ORDERING ACTIVITY FOR ANY USE, INTERRUPTION, DELAY OR INABILITY TO USE THE SOFTWARE, LOST REVENUES OR PROFITS, DELAYS, INTERRUPTION OR LOSS OF SERVICES, BUSINESS OR GOODWILL, LOSS OR CORRUPTION OF DATA, LOSS RESULTING FROM SYSTEM OR SYSTEM SERVICE FAILURE, MALFUNCTION OR SHUTDOWN, FAILURE TO ACCURATELY TRANSFER, READ OR TRANSMIT INFORMATION, FAILURE TO UPDATE OR PROVIDE CORRECT INFORMATION, SYSTEM INCOMPATIBILITY OR PROVISION OF INCORRECT COMPATIBILITY INFORMATION, BREACHES IN SYSTEM OR NETWORK SECURITY OR OTHER SECURITY INCIDENTS OF ANY KIND, OR FOR ANY CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, WHETHER ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE) OR OTHERWISE, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER SUCH DAMAGES WERE FORESEEABLE AND WHETHER OR NOT LOGZILLA WAS ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. The foregoing limitation of liability shall not apply to

- (1) PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH RESULTING FROM LICENSOR'S NEGLIGENCE;
- (2) FOR FRAUD; OR (3) FOR ANY OTHER MATTER FOR WHICH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED BY LAW.

IN NO EVENT WILL LOGZILLA'S AND ITS AFFILIATES', INCLUDING ANY OF ITS OR THEIR RESPECTIVE LICENSORS AND SERVICE PROVIDERS', COLLECTIVE AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE, EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF THE CONTRACT PRICE.

THE LIMITATIONS SET FORTH IN Section 15(a) AND Section 15(b) WILL APPLY EVEN IF ORDERING ACTIVITY'S REMEDIES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FAIL OF THEIR ESSENTIAL PURPOSE.

Export Regulation. The Software and Documentation may be subject to U.S. export control laws, including the U.S. Export Administration Act and its associated regulations. Ordering Activity will not, directly or indirectly, export, re-export or release the Software or Documentation to, or make the Software or Documentation accessible from, any jurisdiction or country to which export, re-export or release is prohibited by law, rule or regulation. Ordering Activity will comply with all applicable federal laws, regulations and rules, and complete all required undertakings (including obtaining any necessary export license or other governmental approval), prior to exporting, re-exporting, releasing or otherwise making the Software or Documentation available outside the US.

US Government Rights. The Software is commercial computer software, as such term is defined in 48 C.F.R. §2.101. Accordingly, if Ordering Activity is the U.S. Government or any contractor therefor, Ordering Activity will receive only those rights with respect to the Software and Documentation as are granted to all other end users under license, in accordance 48 C.F.R. §12.212, Ordering Activity and their contractors.

Miscellaneous.

This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States and not including the provisions of the 1980 U.N. Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods.

Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4.

All notices, requests, consents, claims, demands, waivers and other communications hereunder will be in writing and will be deemed to have been given: (i) when delivered by hand (with written confirmation of receipt); (ii) when received by the addressee if sent by a nationally recognized overnight courier (receipt requested); (iii) on the date sent by facsimile or e-mail of a PDF document (with confirmation of transmission) if sent during normal business hours of the recipient, and on the next business day if sent after normal business hours of the recipient; or (iv) on the third day after the date mailed, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid. Such communications must be sent to the respective parties at the addresses set forth on the Order (or to such other address as may be designated by a party from time to time in accordance with this Section 18(c)).

This Agreement (including the Order) and , together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule Pricelist, Purchase Order(s), that are incorporated by reference herein, constitutes the sole and entire agreement between Ordering Activity and LogZilla with respect to the subject matter contained herein, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, representations and warranties, both written and oral, with respect to such subject matter. In the event of a conflict between the terms in the body of this Agreement and the Order, the terms of the Order will prevail.

Ordering Activity will not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights, or delegate or otherwise transfer any of its obligations or performance, under this Agreement, in each case whether voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law, merger, a sale of all or substantially all of Ordering Activity's assets, business reorganization or otherwise, without LogZilla's prior written consent. Any purported assignment, delegation or transfer in violation of this Section 18(e) is void LogZilla may not assign or otherwise transfer all or any of its rights, or delegate or otherwise transfer all or any of its obligations or performance, under this Agreement without Customer's consent. This Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns.

This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or will confer on any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

This Agreement may only be amended, modified or supplemented by an agreement in writing signed by each party hereto. No waiver by any party of any of the provisions hereof will be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and signed by the party so waiving.

If any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction.

This Agreement will be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting an instrument or causing any instrument to be drafted. The Order referred to herein will be construed with, and as an integral part of, this Agreement to the same extent as if they were set forth verbatim herein.

The headings in this Agreement are for reference only and will not affect the interpretation of this Agreement.

The following Sections survive termination of this Agreement: 1, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, and 18.

The waiver of a breach of any provision of this Agreement will not operate or be interpreted as a waiver of any other or subsequent breach.

LOOKINGGLASS CYBER SOLUTIONS INC.
11091 SUNSET HILLS ROAD SUITE 210
RESTON, VA 20190

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

Scope. This Rider and the attached Lookingglass Cyber Solutions Inc. ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT70 contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.

Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with federal law (e.g., the Anti-Deficiency Act (31 U.S.C. § 1341), the Contracts Disputes Act of 1978 (41 U.S.C. §§ 7101 et seq.), the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.), the Anti-Assignment statutes (31 U.S.C. § 3727 and 41 U.S.C. § 15), DOJ's jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516 (Conduct of Litigation Reserved to the Department of Justice (DOJ), and 28 U.S.C. § 1498 (Patent and copyright cases)). To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:

Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA ORDER ADM 4800.2G (Feb 2011), as may be revised from time to time.

Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.243-72, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (July 2000) (Deviation I – SEPT 2010), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.

Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.

Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.

Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.

Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.

Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.

Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.

Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.

Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific Terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.

Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.

Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).

Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included verbatim (not by reference) in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that incorporate third party terms by reference are hereby superseded.

Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.

Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.

Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.

Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.

Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

Ownership of Derivative Works. Provisions purporting to vest exclusive ownership of all derivative works in the licensor of the standard software on which such works may be based are superseded. Ownership of derivative works should be as set forth in the copyright statute, 17 U.S.C. § 103 and the FAR clause at 52.227-14, but at a minimum, the GSA Customer shall receive unlimited rights to use such derivative works at no further cost.

Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

DEFINITIONS. Certain capitalized terms, if not otherwise defined on herein shall have the meanings set forth below in this Section 1.

“Appliance” shall mean, collectively, the Computer Equipment, the Licensed Software, and any third party software and any patches, updates, improvements, additions and other modifications or revised versions that may be provided by Lookingglass from time to time ordered and paid for by Ordering Activity pursuant to an Order Form.

“Computer Equipment” means Lookingglass’ network information management hardware equipment, including the various hardware components that comprise such equipment.

“Confidential Information” means any material or information relating to a Party’s research, development, products, product plans, services, customers, customer lists, markets, software, developments, inventions, processes, formulas, technologies, designs, drawings, marketing, finances, or other business information or trade secrets that such disclosing Party treats as proprietary or confidential. Without limiting the foregoing, the software and any databases (including any data models, structures, non-customer specific data and aggregated statistical data contained therein) of Lookingglass shall constitute Confidential Information of Lookingglass.

“Customer Content” means the data, media and content (structured and unstructured) generated, collected or recorded by the Ordering Activity or by any supplier or licensor to Ordering Activity that is uploaded, stored, analyzed and made available to and through the Licensed Software.

“Data” shall mean Lookingglass’ commercially available proprietary analysis and information and third party information regarding the characteristics of certain security threats and vulnerabilities, data and analysis of malicious software and executables that is periodically provided to Lookingglass customers and the Ordering Activity through a Data Service Subscription pursuant to the terms of this Attachment A.

“Data Service Subscription” shall mean Lookingglass’ service that Lookingglass customers may purchase through an Order Form, whereby the Data is delivered to the Appliance(s) at Ordering Activity’s site for use by Ordering Activity.

“Documentation” shall mean Lookingglass’ standard user manuals and/or related documentation generally made available to Ordering Activities of the Licensed Software.

“Effective Date” shall have the meaning set forth in Order Form placed with Contractor.

“Initial Term” shall have the meaning given such term in Section 8.1.

“Installation Services” shall have the meaning given such term in Section 6.2.

“Intellectual Property Rights” shall have the meaning given such term in Section 4.

“Licensed Products” shall mean, collectively, the Licensed Software, Data and the Documentation.

“Licensed Software” shall mean, collectively, the executable, object code version(s) of Lookingglass’ proprietary software, procedures, rules or routines, including Upgrades and updates that are furnished or developed under this Attachment A or the Maintenance Services, excluding any third party applications, that is included on an Appliance.

“Maintenance and Support Services” shall mean the services described in Section 6.1 and Exhibit B.

“Professional Services” shall have the meaning given such term in Section 6.3.

“Term” means the period during which the Order Form remains in force and effect in accordance with Section 8.1.

“Training Services” shall have the meaning given such term in Section 6.4.

“Updates” means a new issuance of any Licensed Software that provides: (i) minor improvements to existing features; and/or (ii) minor additions in functionality compared to the previous issuance; and/or (iii) bug fixes, corrections, patches, or work-arounds. An Update shall be identified by the numeral change to the right of the first decimal point (e.g. a change from version 1.5 to 1.6 or from 1.4.1 to 1.4.2).

“Warranty Period” shall have the meaning given such term in Section 7.1.

PURCHASE OF APPLIANCE.

Purchase of Appliance. During the Term, Ordering Activity may purchase, and Contractor agrees to sell, the Appliance pursuant to one or more standard Order Forms, provided, however, that Ordering Activity’s rights in, and the use of, any Licensed Software, installed on such Appliance, shall be governed by the license grant and restrictions contained in Section 3.

Order Forms. During the Term, Ordering Activity may order the Appliance, Data Service Subscription and/or the Maintenance and Support Services by submitting an executed Order Form.

SOFTWARE & DATA LICENSE.

Software License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Attachment A, Contractor hereby grants to Ordering Activity a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicenseable, perpetual license (“Lookingglass License”) to use the Licensed Products for Ordering Activity’s internal use. Ordering Activity may use the Licensed Software embedded on an Appliance only with the Appliance for which the Licensed Software is provided and registered for use. If any Licensed Software is provided on separate media, Ordering Activity may (i) only use it in accordance with the terms set forth in this Attachment A and (ii) make a reasonable number of copies solely for internal backup purposes.

Data License. During the Term and subject to the terms and conditions of this Attachment A, Ordering Activity may purchase a Data Service Subscription from Contractor for use with the Appliance. Upon payment of applicable GSA fees by Ordering Activity, Contractor hereby grants to Ordering Activity a non-transferable, non-sub-licensable, non-exclusive license to download, install and use the Data on the Appliance(s) only for internal Ordering Activity purposes. Ordering Activity may install and use only a single copy of the Data on a single Appliance.

OWNERSHIP.

Appliances and Licensed Products. Ordering Activity acknowledges that Lookingglass and its licensors own all right, title, and interest, including all patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark, moral rights, mask work rights, and other intellectual property rights (“Intellectual Property Rights”) in and to the Appliances and the Licensed Products (including all components thereof), and Lookingglass expressly reserves all rights not expressly granted to Ordering Activity in this Attachment A. Ordering Activity shall not engage in any act or omission that would impair Lookingglass’ and/or its licensors’ Intellectual Property Rights in the Licensed Products and any other materials, information, processes or subject matter proprietary to Lookingglass. Raw data shall not be redistributed, republished, or posted for others not a party to this Attachment A to view, use, or otherwise manipulate.

Customer Content. Contractor through Lookingglass acknowledges that, as between the Ordering Activity and Lookingglass, Ordering Activity owns all Intellectual Property Rights in and to the Customer Content. Ordering Activity agrees that Lookingglass may copy, store, process, analyze and display such Customer Content through the Licensed Software and hereby grants to Lookingglass a non-exclusive, non-transferable right and license to use the Customer Content during the Term for the limited purposes of performing Lookingglass’ obligations under this Attachment A, solely as authorized hereunder, and to collect and use any such data, in non-user specific and aggregated statistical form, for the development and maintenance of its products and services and for Lookingglass’ other business purposes. Ordering Activity hereby represents and warrants that it has sufficient right to grant Lookingglass access to and use of the Customer Content, solely as authorized in accordance with the terms of this Attachment A. Ordering Activity shall be solely responsible for, and assumes the risk of, any problems resulting from, the content, accuracy, completeness, consistency integrity, legality, reliability, and appropriateness of all Customer Content. Lookingglass shall not be responsible or liable for the deletion, correction, destruction, damage, loss or failure to store any Customer Content.

GENERAL USAGE RESTRICTIONS.

Prohibited Uses. Ordering Activity will not use the Appliances or the Licensed Products for any purposes beyond the scope of the licenses granted in this Attachment A. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Ordering Activity will not: (i) authorize or permit use of the Licensed Products by persons; (ii) distribute any copies of the Licensed Products; (iii) assign, sublicense, sell, lease or otherwise transfer or convey, or pledge as security or otherwise encumber, Ordering Activity’s rights under the licenses granted in Section 3; (iv) modify or create any derivative works of the Licensed Products (or any component thereof), except with the prior written consent of Contractor through Lookingglass; or (v) decompile, disassemble, reverse engineer or otherwise attempt to obtain or perceive the source code from which any component of the Licensed Products are compiled or interpreted, and Ordering Activity hereby acknowledges that nothing in this Attachment A shall be construed to grant Ordering Activity any right to obtain or use such source code.

Proprietary Notices. Ordering Activity shall duplicate all proprietary notices and legends of Lookingglass and its suppliers or licensors upon any and all copies of the Appliances and the Licensed Products made by Ordering Activity. Ordering Activity shall not remove, alter or obscure any Lookingglass proprietary notice or legend.

MAINTENANCE AND SUPPORT; OTHER SERVICES.

Maintenance and Support Terms and Conditions. Pursuant to an Order Form, the Ordering Activity may purchase Lookingglass’ Maintenance and Support Services by paying Contractor the then-applicable annual maintenance and support GSA fee. The terms and conditions that govern the Maintenance and Support Services as provided by Contractor through Lookingglass are attached hereto as Exhibit B. Any Updates provided to Ordering Activity pursuant to the Maintenance and Support Services shall be deemed part of the Licensed Software and shall be licensed under the terms and conditions of the grant of License in Section 3 above.

Installation Services. Pursuant to an Order Form, the Ordering Activity may purchase Lookingglass' installation services, either on-sight or remotely, for the Appliance ("Installation Services").

Professional Services. Pursuant to an Order Form, the Ordering Activity may purchase Lookingglass' professional services under which support shall be provided to Ordering Activity by Contractor through Lookingglass ("Professional Services").

Training Services. Pursuant to an Order Form, the Ordering Activity may purchase Lookingglass' training services ("Training Services"), under which a representative of Lookingglass shall be present at Ordering Activity's designated location to provide training services on the operation of the Appliance(s) to the Ordering Activity.

WARRANTIES AND LIMITATIONS.

Limited Lookingglass Warranties. Contractor hereby warrants, for the benefit of Ordering Activity only, that the unmodified Appliances and Licensed Software will conform in all material respects to the specifications within the Documentation for a period of ninety (90) days after the delivery date ("Warranty Period"), provided that such warranty will not apply to failures to conform to the specifications to the extent such failures arise, in whole or in part, from: (i) any use of the Appliances or the Licensed Software other than in accordance with the Documentation; (ii) modification of the Appliances or the Licensed Software by Ordering Activity or any third party; or (iii) any combination of the Appliances and the Licensed Softwares with software, hardware or other technology not provided by Contractor through Lookingglass under this Attachment A. Contractor further warrants that the media on which the Licensed Products are delivered to Ordering Activity will be free of material defects for Warranty Period. During the Warranty Period, Contractor will replace the Appliances, Licensed Software, and media, free of charge to Ordering Activity, provided Ordering Activity promptly notifies Contractor of such defect and returns the Products to Contractor.

ORDERING ACTIVITY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT DATA AND INFORMATION PROVIDED MAY BE UNEVALUATED AND UNVERIFIED, AND SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY. ORDERING ACTIVITY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THEY MUST USE ITS OWN JUDGMENT IN ASSESSING THE NATURE AND ACCURACY OF THE DATA AND INFORMATION PROVIDED.

No Other Warranties. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY WARRANTED IN SECTION 7.1 OF THIS ATTACHMENT A, THE APPLIANCES AND THE LICENSED PRODUCTS, AND ANY OTHER MATERIALS, SOFTWARE, DATA AND/OR SERVICES PROVIDED BY CONTRACTOR ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "WITH ALL FAULTS," AND CONTRACTOR EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND OR NATURE, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, ANY WARRANTIES OF OPERABILITY, CONDITION, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, NON-INTERFERENCE, QUIET ENJOYMENT, VALUE, ACCURACY OF DATA, OR QUALITY, AS WELL AS ANY WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, SYSTEM INTEGRATION, WORKMANSHIP, SUITABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, OR THE ABSENCE OF ANY DEFECTS THEREIN, WHETHER LATENT OR PATENT. ORDERING ACTIVITY IS RESPONSIBLE FOR IMPLEMENTING APPROPRIATE PROCEDURES TO MAKE ONSITE BACK-UP COPIES OF ORDERING ACTIVITY'S PROGRAM FILES AND DATA FILES TO MINIMIZE ANY DAMAGE THAT MIGHT ARISE FROM AN ERROR OR DEFECT IN THE APPLIANCES OR THE LICENSED PRODUCTS. NO WARRANTY IS MADE BY CONTRACTOR ON THE BASIS OF TRADE USAGE, COURSE OF DEALING OR COURSE OF TRADE. CONTRACTOR DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE APPLIANCES OR THE LICENSED PRODUCTS OR ANY OTHER INFORMATION, MATERIALS, TECHNOLOGY OR SERVICES PROVIDED UNDER THIS ATTACHMENT A WILL MEET ORDERING ACTIVITY'S REQUIREMENTS OR THAT THE OPERATION THEREOF WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR-FREE, OR THAT ALL ERRORS WILL BE CORRECTED. ORDERING ACTIVITY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT CONTRACTOR'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS ATTACHMENT A ARE FOR THE BENEFIT OF ORDERING ACTIVITY ONLY.

MISCELLANEOUS.

8.1. U.S. Government End-Users. Each of the components that constitute the Licensed Software is a "commercial item" as that term is defined at 48 C.F.R. 2.101, consisting of "commercial computer software" and/or "commercial computer software documentation" as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. 12.212. Consistent with 48 C.F.R. 12.212 and 48 C.F.R. 227.7202-1 through 227.7202-4, all U.S. Government end users acquire the Licensed Software with only those rights set forth herein.

EXHIBIT B MAINTENANCE AND SUPPORT SERVICES TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Definitions.

"Error" means any reproducible failure of the Software to perform any material function set forth in the accompanying documentation.

"New Release" means a new release of the Software issued by Lookingglass provided for the purpose of materially enhancing the functionality or performance of the Software. New Release shall be identified by the numeral to the left of the first decimal point (e.g. a change from version 1.1 to 2.0).

"Maintenance Release" means a bug fix or minor enhancement to the Software, which is identified by the numeral to the right of the first decimal point in the Software (e.g., a change from version 1.1 to 1.2).

“Maintenance and Support Services” means that (a) Contractor through Lookingglass shall provide Ordering Activity with all Maintenance Releases released during the term for which Maintenance and Support Services fees have been paid; (b) Contractor through Lookingglass shall answer questions from Ordering Activity regarding the operation of the Software via telephone and e mail, according to the escalation procedures set forth below; and (c) Contractor through Lookingglass shall use commercially reasonable efforts to correct any Errors in the Software reported by Ordering Activity and confirmed by Lookingglass in accordance with the priority level assigned to the Error by Lookingglass, as described in the escalation procedures set forth below.

Ordering Activity Obligations.

Ordering Activity shall furnish descriptions and machine readable examples of Errors in the form requested by Lookingglass technical support personnel. Ordering Activity shall also assist Lookingglass’ efforts to duplicate any Errors or problems reported by Ordering Activity.

Contractor through Lookingglass reserves the right to limit the number of individuals who are authorized to make requests for Maintenance and Support Services, and requests Ordering Activity to designate two (2) initial primary contacts. Such technical support contacts must be knowledgeable in the use of the Software and the Ordering Activity’s operating environment. Ordering Activity agrees to notify Lookingglass of any changes in primary support contacts within a reasonable time period.

Help Desk; Escalation Procedures.

Contractor through Lookingglass shall provide the following support: answering of telephone calls placed to the customer support telephone number 888-SCOUT93 (726-8893), and e-mail support at support@lgscout.com. Lookingglass shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide such support from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in each Continental United States Time Zone, excluding Alaska, Monday through Friday excluding U.S. holidays. Errors may be reported any time.

Contractor through Lookingglass shall respond to Errors in accordance with the priority level indicated in the chart below, which priority level shall be determined by Lookingglass.

Priority	Definition	Target Response for Initial Requests*	Actions
Priority 1	Error that renders the Software inoperative or causes the Software to fail catastrophically	Within 4 business hours	Lookingglass shall promptly initiate the following procedures upon confirmation of the Error by Lookingglass: (1) assign a senior technical support manager to correct the Error; (2) notify senior Lookingglass management that a Priority 1 defect has been reported and that steps are being taken to correct the defect; (3) provide Ordering Activity with periodic reports on the status of the resolution; (4) commence work to provide Ordering Activity with a workaround or fix.
Priority 2	Error that materially restricts Ordering Activity’s use of the Software	Within 1 business day	Lookingglass shall (1) assign technical support to correct the Error; (2) provide Ordering Activity with periodic reports on the status of the resolution; and (3) commence work to provide Ordering Activity with a workaround or fix.
Priority 3	Error that causes only a minor impact on Ordering Activity’s use of the Software and/or a defect for which a workaround is available.	Within 2 business days	Lookingglass shall (1) assign technical support to correct the Error; (2) provide Ordering Activity with periodic reports on the status of the resolution; and (3) commence work to provide Ordering Activity with a workaround or fix.
Priority 4	A cosmetic or documentation Error that does not impact use of the Software	Within 2 business days	Lookingglass shall (1) assign technical support to correct the Error; (2) provide Ordering Activity with periodic reports on the status of the resolution; and (3) commence work to provide Ordering Activity with a workaround or fix.

* Target response time for support requests by e-mail or other on-line facility is within one (1) business day.

c. The response times set forth in the chart above are target response times only. Lookingglass’ sole obligation is to use commercially reasonable efforts to respond to Errors within such time frames, not to have resolved them.

4. Exclusions and Limitations. Lookingglass shall have no obligation to support:

Altered, damaged or modified Software;

Software that is not the current release or the most recent previous release;

Errors or other software problems caused by Ordering Activity's negligence, changes made by any party other than Lookingglass, hardware malfunction, and/or other causes beyond the reasonable control of Lookingglass;

Software installed in an operating or hardware environment not supported by Lookingglass.

5. Maintenance Releases. Contractor through Lookingglass' obligations to provide Maintenance Releases shall only require Lookingglass to supply such releases as soon as reasonably possible after such releases become generally available. This Maintenance and Support Services Exhibit shall not be construed to obligate Lookingglass to provide Maintenance Releases to Ordering Activity on any specific timetable.

MICRO FOCUS GOVERNMENT SOLUTIONS

ATTACHMENT A
CONTRACTOR SUPPLEMENTAL PRICELIST INFORMATION AND TERMS

MICRO FOCUS GOVERNMENT SOLUTIONS LLC

END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT – ENTERPRISE VERSION

---

APPLICABILITY. This end user license agreement (the "Agreement") governs the use of accompanying software, unless it is subject to a separate agreement between Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts ("you" or "Ordering Activity") and Micro Focus LLC and its subsidiaries ("Micro Focus"). By downloading, copying, or using the software you agree to this Agreement. By both parties executing this Agreement in writing, you agree to this Agreement.

TERMS. This Agreement includes attached supporting material, which may be software license information, additional license authorizations, software specifications, published warranties, supplier terms, open source software licenses and similar content ("Supporting Material"). Nothing herein shall bind the Ordering Activity to any Supporting Material terms unless the terms are provided for review and agreed to in writing by all parties.

AUTHORIZATION. If you agree to this Agreement on behalf of another person or entity, you warrant you have authority to do so.

CONSUMER RIGHTS. If you obtained software as a consumer, nothing in this Agreement affects your statutory rights.

ELECTRONIC DELIVERY. Micro Focus may elect to deliver software and related software product or license information by electronic transmission or download.

LICENSE GRANT. If you abide by this Agreement, Micro Focus grants you a non-exclusive nontransferable license to use one copy of the version or release of the accompanying software for your internal purposes only, and is subject to any specific software licensing information that is in the software product or its Supporting Material.

Your use is subject to the following restrictions, unless specifically allowed in Supporting Material:

You may not use software to provide services to third parties.

You may not make copies and distribute, resell or sublicense software to third parties.

You may not download and use patches, enhancements, bug fixes, or similar updates unless you have a license to the underlying software. However, such license doesn't automatically give you a right to receive such updates and Micro Focus reserves the right to make such updates only available to customers with support contracts.

You may not copy software or make it available on a public or external distributed network.

You may not allow access on an intranet unless it is restricted to authorized users.

You may make one copy of the software for archival purposes or when it is an essential step in authorized use.

You may not modify, reverse engineer, disassemble, decrypt, decompile or make derivative works of software. If you have a mandatory right to do so under statute, you must inform Micro Focus in writing about such modifications.

REMOTE MONITORING. Some software may require keys or other technical protection measures and Micro Focus may monitor your compliance with the Agreement, remotely or otherwise. If Micro Focus makes a license management program for recording and reporting license usage information, you will use such program no later than 180 days from the date it's made available.

OWNERSHIP. No transfer of ownership of any intellectual property will occur under this Agreement.

COPYRIGHT NOTICES. You must reproduce copyright notices on software and documentation for authorized copies.

OPERATING SYSTEMS. Operating system software may only be used on approved hardware and configurations.

90-day Limited Warranty for Micro Focus Software.

Micro Focus -branded software materially conforms to its specifications, if any, and is free of malware at the time of delivery; if you notify Micro Focus within 90 days of delivery of non-conformance to this warranty, Micro Focus will replace your copy. This Agreement states all remedies for warranty claims. Micro Focus does not warrant that the operation of software will be uninterrupted or error free, or that software will operate in hardware and software combinations other than as authorized by Micro Focus in Supporting Material. To the extent permitted by law, Micro Focus disclaims all other warranties.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS INFRINGEMENT. Micro Focus will defend and/or settle any claims against you that allege that Micro Focus -branded software as supplied under this Agreement infringes the intellectual property rights of a third party. Micro Focus will rely on your prompt notification of the claim and cooperation with our defense. Micro Focus may modify the software so as to be noninfringing and materially equivalent, or we may procure a license. If these options are not available, we will refund to you the amount paid for the affected product in the first year or the depreciated value thereafter. Micro Focus is not responsible for claims resulting from any unauthorized use of the software. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. Micro Focus's liability to you under this Agreement is limited to the amount actually paid by you to Micro Focus for the relevant software, except for amounts in Section 12 ("Intellectual Property Rights Infringement"). Neither you nor Micro Focus will be liable for lost revenues or profits, downtime costs, loss or damage to data or indirect, special or consequential costs or damages. This provision does not limit either party's liability for: unauthorized use of intellectual property, death or bodily injury caused by their negligence; acts of fraud; willful repudiation of the Agreement; or any liability that may not be excluded or limited by applicable law.

TERMINATION. This Agreement is effective until terminated or in the case of a limited-term license, upon expiration; however When the End User is an instrumentality of the U.S., recourse against the United States for any alleged breach of this Agreement must be brought as a dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Micro Focus shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer. Immediately upon termination or expiration, you will destroy the software and documentation and any copies, or return them to Micro Focus. You may keep one copy of software and documentation for archival purposes. We may ask you to certify in writing you have complied with this section. Warranty disclaimers, the limitation of liability, this section on termination, and Section 15 ("General") will survive termination.

GENERAL.

Assignment. You may not assign this Agreement without prior written consent of Micro Focus, payment of transfer fees and compliance with Micro Focus's software license transfer policies. Authorized assignments will terminate your license to the software and you must deliver software and documentation and copies thereof to the assignee. The assignee will agree in writing to this Agreement. You may only transfer firmware if you transfer associated hardware. Micro Focus is also prohibited from assigning this Agreement without prior written consent.

U.S. Government. If the software is licensed to you for use in the performance of a U.S. Government prime contract or subcontract, you agree that, consistent with FAR 12.211 and 12.212, commercial computer software, computer software documentation and technical data for commercial items are licensed under Micro Focus's standard commercial license.

Global Trade Compliance. You agree to comply with the trade-related laws and regulations of the U.S. and other national governments. If you export, import or otherwise transfer products provided under this Agreement, you will be responsible for obtaining any required export or import authorizations. You confirm that you are not located in a country that is subject to trade control sanctions (currently Cuba, Iran, N. Korea, N. Sudan, and Syria) and further agree that you will not retransfer the products to any such country.

Audit. Micro Focus may audit you for compliance with the software license terms. Upon reasonable notice, and subject to Government security requirements, Micro Focus may conduct an audit during normal business hours (with the auditor's costs being at Micro Focus's expense). If an audit reveals underpayments then you will pay to Micro Focus such underpayments within thirty (30) days of the invoice receipt date.

Open Source Components. Nothing herein shall bind the Ordering Activity to any Open Source License terms unless the terms are provided for review and agreed to in writing by all parties. To the extent Supporting Material includes the GNU General Public License or the GNU Lesser General Public License: (a) the software includes a copy of the source code; or (b) if you downloaded the software from a website, a copy of the source code is available on the same website; or (c) if you send Micro Focus written notice, Micro Focus will send you a copy of the source code for a reasonable fee.

Notices. Written notices under this Agreement may be provided to Micro Focus via the method provided in the Supporting Material.

Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by the Federal laws of the United States. You and Micro Focus agree that the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods will not apply.

Force Majeure. Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f).

Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule Pricelist, Purchase Order(s), represents our entire understanding with respect to its subject matter and supersedes any previous communication or agreements that may exist. Modifications to the Agreement will be made only through a written amendment signed by both parties. If Micro Focus doesn't exercise its rights under this Agreement, such delay is not a waiver of its rights.

Notwithstanding the terms of the Federal, State, and Local Taxes Clause, the contract price excludes all State and Local taxes levied on or measured by the contract or sales price of the services or completed supplies furnished under this contract. Vendor shall state separately on its invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Customer agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) to the contractor or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

The Anti-Assignment Act, 41 USC 6305, prohibits the assignment of Government contracts without the Government's prior approval. Procedures for securing such approval are set forth in FAR 42.1204.

Vendor recognizes that Federal agencies are subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, which requires that certain information be released, despite being characterized as "confidential" by the vendor.

EC America Rider to Product Specific License Terms and Conditions
(for U.S. Government End Users)

1. Scope. This Rider and the attached MariaDB plc ("Manufacturer") product specific license terms establish the terms and conditions enabling EC America ("Contractor") to provide Manufacturer's information technology products and services to Ordering Activities under EC America's GSA MAS IT contract number GS-35F-0511T (the "Schedule Contract"). Installation and use of the information technology shall be in accordance with this Rider and Manufacturer Specific Terms attached hereto, unless an Ordering Activity determines that it requires different terms of use and Manufacturer agrees in writing to such terms in a valid delivery order placed pursuant to the Schedule Contract.
2. Applicability. Whereas GSA and EC America agreed at the time of Schedule Contract award upon a base set of terms and conditions applicable to all manufacturers and items represented on the Schedule Contract; and Whereas, the parties further agreed that all product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms and conditions would be submitted at the time each new manufacturer was to be added to the Schedule Contract; Now, Therefore, the parties hereby agree that the product specific license, warranty and software maintenance terms set forth in Attachment A hereto (the "Manufacturer Specific Terms" or the "Attachment A Terms") are incorporated into the Schedule Contract, but only to the extent that they are consistent with Federal law, including but not limited to GSAR 552.212-4 Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items. To the extent any Attachment A Terms are inconsistent with Federal law (See, FAR 12.212(a)), such inconsistent terms shall be superseded, unenforceable and of no legal force or effect in all resultant orders under the Schedule Contract, including but not limited to the following provisions:
  - a) Contracting Parties. The GSA Customer ("Licensee") is the "Ordering Activity", defined as the entity authorized to order under GSA MAS contracts as set forth in GSA Order OGP 4800.2I, as may be revised from time to time.
  - b) Changes to Work and Delays. Subject to GSAR Clause 552.238-81, Modifications (Federal Supply Schedule) (April 2014) (Alternate I – JUN 2016) and (Alternate II – JUN 2016), and 52.212-4(f) Excusable Delays (JUN 2010) regarding which the GSAR and the FAR provisions take precedence.
  - c) Contract Formation. Subject to FAR 1.601(a) and FAR 43.102, the GSA Customer Purchase Order must be signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer, in writing. The same requirement applies to contract modifications affecting the rights of the parties. All terms and conditions intended to bind the Government must be included within the contract signed by the Government.
  - d) Termination. Clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing termination or cancellation are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order. Termination shall be governed by the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract and the terms in any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders. If the Contractor believes the GSA Customer to be in breach, it must file a claim with the Contracting Officer and continue to diligently pursue performance. In commercial item contracting under FAR 12.302(b), the FAR provisions dealing with disputes and continued performance cannot be changed by the Contracting Officer.
  - e) Choice of Law. Subject to the Contracts Disputes Act, the validity, interpretation and enforcement of this Rider shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Federal laws of the United States. In the event the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act (UCITA) or any similar Federal laws or regulations are enacted, to the extent allowed by Federal law, they will not apply to this Rider or the underlying Schedule Contract.
  - f) Equitable remedies. Equitable remedies are generally not awarded against the Government absent a statute providing therefore. In the absence of a direct citation to such a statute, all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing equitable remedies are superseded and not applicable to any GSA Customer order.
  - g) Unilateral Termination. Unilateral termination by the Contractor does not apply to a GSA Customer Purchase Order and all clauses in the Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing unilateral termination rights of the Manufacturer are hereby superseded.
  - h) Unreasonable Delay. Subject to FAR 52.212-4(f) Excusable delays, the Contractor shall be liable for default unless the nonperformance is caused by an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor and without its fault or negligence such as, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, unusually severe weather, and delays of common carriers. The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in writing as soon as it is reasonably possible after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch and shall promptly give written notice to the Contracting Officer of the cessation of such occurrence.

- i) Assignment. All clauses regarding the Contractor's assignment are subject to FAR 52.232-23, Assignment of Claims (JAN 1986) and FAR 42.12 Novation and Change-of-Name Agreements (Sep. 2013). All clauses governing the Contractor's assignment in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- j) Waiver of Jury Trial. Waivers of Jury Trials are subject to FAR 52.233-1 Disputes (JULY 2002). The Government will not agree to waive any right that it may have under Federal law. All clauses governing a waiver of jury trial in the Manufacturer Specific Terms are hereby superseded.
- k) Government Indemnities. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered. The Interim FAR Rule dated June 21, 2013 and the Office of Legal Counsel opinion dated March 12, 2012 prohibit such indemnifications. All Manufacturer Specific Terms referencing customer indemnities are hereby superseded.
- l) Contractor Indemnities. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that violate DOJ's jurisdictional statute (28 U.S.C. § 516) by requiring that the Government give sole control over the litigation and/or settlement to the Contractor are hereby superseded. Nothing contained in the Manufacturer's Specific terms shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute.
- m) Renewals. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that provide for automatic renewals violate the Anti-Deficiency Act and are hereby superseded. This is an obligation in advance of an appropriation that violates anti-deficiency laws (31 U.S.C. § 1341 and 41 U.S.C. § 6301), since the GSA Customer commits to pay an unknown amount at an unknown future time. The violation occurs when the commitment is made, i.e., when the agreement featuring this clause is incorporated into a Government contract, and not when the clause is triggered.
- n) Future Fees or Penalties. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Government to pay any future fees, charges or penalties are hereby superseded unless specifically authorized by existing statutes, such as the Prompt Payment Act (31 U.S.C. § 3901 et seq.) or Equal Access To Justice Act (5 U.S.C. § 504; 28 U.S.C. § 2412).
- o) Taxes. Taxes are subject to FAR 52.212-4(k), which provides that the contract price includes all applicable federal, state, local taxes and duties. Contractor shall state separately on its invoices, taxes excluded from the fees, and the GSA Customer agrees to either pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment or services) to Contractor or provide it evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.
- p) Third Party Terms. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S., no license terms bind the GSA Customer unless included in the EULA, and the EULA is made an attachment to the underlying GSA Schedule Contract. All terms and conditions affecting the GSA Customer must be contained in a writing signed by a duly warranted Contracting Officer. Any third party manufacturer shall be brought into the negotiation, or the components acquired separately under federally-compatible agreements, if any.
- q) Dispute Resolution and Standing. Any disputes relating to the Manufacturer Specific Terms or to this Rider shall be resolved in accordance with the FAR, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, and the Contract Disputes Act. The Ordering Activity expressly acknowledges that EC America as contractor, on behalf of the Manufacturer, shall have standing to bring such claim under the Contract Disputes Act.
- r) Advertisements and Endorsements. Pursuant to GSAR 552.203-71, use of the name or logo of any U.S. Government entity is prohibited. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to use the name or logo of a Government entity are hereby superseded.
- s) Public Access to Information. EC America agrees that the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms and this Rider contain no confidential or proprietary information and acknowledges the Rider shall be available to the public.
- t) Confidentiality. Any provisions in the attached Manufacturer Specific Terms that require the Ordering Activity to keep certain information confidential are subject to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), and any order by a United States Federal Court. When the end user is an instrumentality of the U.S. Government, neither this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms nor the Schedule Price List shall be deemed "confidential information" notwithstanding marking to that effect. Notwithstanding anything in this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms or the Schedule Contract to the contrary, the GSA Customer may retain such Confidential Information as required by law, regulation or its bonafide document retention procedures for legal, regulatory or compliance purposes; provided however, that such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Rider, the Manufacturer's Specific Terms and the Schedule Contract.
- u) Alternate Dispute Resolution. The GSA Customer cannot be forced to mediate or arbitrate. Arbitration requires prior guidance by the head of a Federal agency promulgated via administrative rulemaking according to 5 U.S.C. § 575(c). GSA has not issued any because it considers the Board of Contract Appeals to be an adequate, binding ADR alternative. All Manufacturer Specific Terms that allow the Contractor to choose arbitration, mediation or other forms of alternate dispute resolution are hereby superseded.

3. Order of Precedence/Conflict. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of the underlying Schedule Contract or a conflict between the terms of this Rider and the terms of an applicable GSA Customer Purchase Order, the terms of the GSA Schedule Contract or any specific, negotiated terms on the GSA Customer Purchase Order shall control over the terms of this Rider. Any capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meaning assigned to them in the underlying Schedule Contract.

Introduction

MariaDB subscription customers have access to technical support services, including Problem Resolution Support, Engineering Support, Consultative Support, Remote Login Support, and Telephone Support for MariaDB Enterprise via the Customer Support Portal (see table of Support Services below). Customers may also purchase Remote Database Administrator (“DBA”) or SkyDBA services for additional support options.

These MariaDB Subscription Services Policies describe (a) the types of support provided by MariaDB, (b) issue priority designations and service level agreements, and (c) supported products. The latest version of this policy is always available at Subscription Services Policies.

Each of the Customer’s designated technical contacts will receive a Customer Support Portal login (based on their associated email address) that can be used to report new support issues, monitor ongoing support issues, or review historical support issues. Information regarding making changes to technical contacts can be found in the “Welcome Letter” provided after signup and is also available in the “Contact Us” section of the Customer Support Portal. If you have any difficulty initially logging into the Customer Support Portal, you will be prompted to email support@mariadb.com for further assistance.

If Remote DBA or SkyDBA services are purchased, an onboarding call will be scheduled to gather the necessary information for the relevant MariaDB DBA team to remotely access supported products. Information about the architecture, operating systems, database server versions, backup schedules, etc. will also be documented during this call. Once the required information has been collected, monitoring software will be installed and set up as required to alert MariaDB about database and environment health. Certain alerts such as server availability, replication health, and others will be configured to open issues automatically in the Customer Support Portal.

All services are delivered in English. MariaDB will use reasonable efforts to provide technical support in languages other than English using MariaDB’s available personnel via voice calls and in-person meetings, but may not have such resources available in general or at the time of a particular support request. All communication via the Customer Support Portal should be in English. There are no Service Level Agreements for non-English support at this time.

Notable Changes in this Version

- Replaced occurrences of “MariaDB Corporation” and “MariaDB Corporation Ab” with “MariaDB plc”.

Types of Support Provided

Through the Customer Support Portal, MariaDB and SkySQL subscribers have access to our global team of MariaDB Certified Support Engineers who are available to assist with product questions and tasks as they relate to MariaDB Enterprise.

Subscriber Service	Support	Remote DBA and SkyDBA
Problem Resolution Support	✓	✓
Engineering Support	✓	✓
Consultative Support	✓	✓
Remote Login Support		✓
Telephone Support (escalation for callback)	✓	✓
Real-Time Chat Support (Slack)		✓

Problem Resolution Support

The focus of Problem Resolution Support is helping to restore service (due to outages caused by crashes, replication failures, table corruption, etc.) and assisting with command syntax, installation, configuration, upgrades, and other general product usage topics.

ENGINEERING SUPPORT

Engineering Support can include bug fixes, patches, hotfixes, and topics that require communication with and/or escalations to the product engineering teams. Hot fixes are provided to address critical failures and may not receive the full QA and regression testing performed on regular maintenance releases due to the urgent nature of the situation. Hot fixes are generally built upon the last GA release of a product and are intended for temporary use until a fixed GA release is available.

Custom feature development (Non-Recurring Engineering) is a separate service and is not included in Engineering Support.

Engineering Support is available on those platforms for which we or our partners produce supported product binaries, subject to the relevant Maintenance and Lifecycle policies for the specific product and platform. Engineering Support is unavailable for products or platforms that have reached their maintenance end of life.

Review MariaDB plc Engineering Policies for more information. For other products, please see the respective vendor's website.

Consultative Support

Consultative Support covers issues that are specific to a customer's deployment on subscribed database servers, such as performance tuning, best practice recommendations, and basic code reviews, rather than general product usage, service failures, or software defects. MariaDB Remote DBA and SkyDBA are separate services and are not included in Consultative Support. At the discretion of the assigned MariaDB Subscription Services Engineer, long running consultative support tasks (ie: greater than 2 hours) may be referred to MariaDB Professional Services.

Consultative Support is intended for narrow, specific topics and is not a replacement for a dedicated, on-site or remote consulting engagement to address systemic, architectural, or wide-ranging subjects.

The MariaDB Subscription Services Engineer will provide assistance resolving performance problems caused by server configuration, poorly performing queries, table definitions, indexing strategies, storage engines, and more, suggesting changes and identifying alternative implementations suited to a particular environment.

MariaDB Subscription Services Engineers can review source code to assist with following best practices and ensuring code correctness regarding the various client APIs, stored procedures and server extensions, recommending changes as necessary to support particular needs.

Requests for support of non-subscribed database servers may be declined at the discretion of the assigned MariaDB Subscription Services Engineer.

REMOTE LOGIN SUPPORT (REMOTE DBA AND SKYDBA)

A MariaDB Remote DBA or SkyDBA subscription provides remote login support as well as the following services listed below. The main distinguisher between Remote DBA or SkyDBA Support and Technical Support is that the DBA has the ability to log into your environment and do the work for you, whereas a Technical Support Engineer will walk you through the needed resolution steps via communication within the Customer Support Portal through the relevant support ticket.

What Is Included with Remote DBA or SkyDBA Subscriptions?

- Installation of a supported monitoring and alerting solution
- Real-time chat service via MariaDB provided Slack
- Telephone support as necessary and available (limitations apply)
- Initial environment and configuration review
- Ongoing database configuration recommendations
- Backup configuration and monitoring (limitations apply)
- Review and recommend best practices
- Database recovery assistance
- Backup verification via automatic restore (limitations apply)
- Replication setup, configuration, and repair
- Assistance with schema related migrations and changes
- Reactive tuning assistance (limitations apply)
- Quarterly upgrades of MariaDB products (limitations apply)
- Semi-annual security audits as requested
- Semi-annual performance audits as requested
- Semi-annual architecture review as requested
- Other database administration-related tasks as agreed

Connectivity. The MariaDB Remote DBA team requires the use of SSH from secured jump boxes via a linux based command line, with VPN optional. Remote DBA services may not be provided via screen sharing applications such as Zoom and WebEX as the primary connectivity solution.

Virtual Desktop Infrastructure (VDI) products such as Citrix or VMware Horizon View, which virtualize desktops or applications through a GUI, can be used in specific pre-agreed scenarios. The VDI must provide access to a linux based jump host within the customer's environment. Use of VDI based access will affect included services, including, but not limited to, all regular quarterly services can only be provided once per calendar year. Customers must agree to install MariaDB access and configuration packages in a timely manner. No SLAs or 24x7 coverage can be guaranteed for customers that require VDI based access unless otherwise agreed between MariaDB and customer in writing.

Server and Database Accounts. It is preferred to have one vendor account for server and database access (and VPN, if required). However, in some circumstances, security policies or regulations may prevent use of a single vendor account (PCI, HIPAA, etc). In those circumstances, individual accounts for each Remote DBA will be permitted. The customer is responsible for timely creation of the vendor account or, when permitted, the individual Remote DBA accounts.

No SLAs or 24x7 coverage can be guaranteed for customers that require individual accounts unless otherwise agreed between MariaDB and customer in writing. Additionally, the use of SSH keys and/or two-factor authentication (Authy, Google Authenticator, RSA SecurID, etc.) is highly recommended.

Monitoring and Administration Tools. The MariaDB Remote DBA team prefers to have a server within the customer's infrastructure for monitoring and other utilities. This can be the same server as the SSH jumpbox.

GEOGRAPHICAL RESTRICTIONS

Due to security policies or regulations, a customer may require that employees be located in a single region or regions and will not allow MariaDB employees outside of those designated regions to access their environment. Any geographical restrictions on the locations of DBAs must be agreed between MariaDB and the customer in writing.

Full Geographical Restrictions. Only business hours coverage is available. SLAs will only be guaranteed during business hours for the given region. Outside of these hours, SLAs will be paused and best efforts will be made to provide help and support to a customer as available.

Partial Geographical Restrictions. A customer may only require that employees outside of a certain region cannot access data (read or write) in their environment, while still allowing for DDL, replication and infrastructure types of assistance from other regions.

In such a case, MariaDB will place database and system controls in place so that DBAs outside of the acceptable region are unable to read or write data but can work on issues that do not require those permissions. A customer must ensure that database root password is not available on the host file system, MariaDB Enterprise Server with fully encrypted logs and tablespaces can be installed and all query logs must use tables within the database and not be logged to files.

If database recovery or other operations require one of the removed privileges, they are not subject to SLA guarantees.

REAL-TIME CHAT

Real time chat support is available to customers with an Enterprise Architect, Remote DBA or SkyDBA subscription.

Customer technical contacts will be invited to join real-time chat facilitated through a private channel in MariaDB's Slack instance.

Real-time chat allows for better communication between Customer and MariaDB. There is no response SLA or expectation of immediacy for chat requests. Chat is a first come, first served, as available channel for communication and does not replace the Customer Support Portal as the primary way to receive support.

The Slack channel will either be a private channel with Customer technical contacts or a shared cross-organizational Slack private channel.

DBA DATA PROCESSING & ACCESS POLICIES

The security of customer data is important to MariaDB. As used in this section, “Customer Data” refers to all customer data and information that Remote DBAs or SkyDBAs are provided access to in order to perform the services.

If Customer has a data processing agreement in place with MariaDB, MariaDB Remote DBAs will comply with the terms of such data processing agreement. In addition, MariaDB takes the following security measures:

- DBA Access to the Customer Environment
  - “Customer Environment” refers to the operating environment, physical, virtual or containerized servers, networks, operating systems, software and databases that MariaDB Remote DBAs are provided access to in order to perform the services.
  - Customer Environments are accessed through a dedicated jumphost. This dedicated jumphost is kept up to date with security patches, and is only accessible by the Remote DBA team.
  - Passwords are kept in a PCI-compliant, password-protected vault that is accessible only to the Remote DBA team and certain members of MariaDB IT.
    - Geographically restricted customer credentials are only accessible to employees within acceptable regions.

- Customer Data
  - Remote DBAs will not remove Customer Data from the Customer Environment, e.g. by storing or copying it onto MariaDB or third-party systems (laptops, servers, etc).
  - When a Remote DBA must access Customer Data in order to perform troubleshooting and performance tuning, the Remote DBA team will perform the work in a secured Customer Environment and will track tasks via MariaDB’s ticketing system
  - Notwithstanding the foregoing, MariaDB may include error codes, error messages, logs, and similar metrics in the ticketing system to track progress until resolution and to improve performance.
  - Customers are instructed not to include personal data, as such term is defined in the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679, in any submissions to the MariaDB ticketing system. If a Customer does submit a file that contains personal data, a member of the RDBA team will take commercially reasonable efforts to delete the customer data from the file before adding it to the ticketing system.

P1 Voice Support (Callback as requested)

Voice support from the Technical Support Team is reserved for P1 production outages only. As such, for P1 emergency production outages, customers may request that a MariaDB Subscription Services Engineer make contact by voice. Resolving technical issues generally requires analysis of system logs and other data that must be transmitted via file attachments to the support issue or uploading to our FTP server rather than by telephone. Including this information when reporting the support issue dramatically hastens the process of resolving the problem and restoring production functionality.

ISSUE PRIORITY AND SERVICE LEVEL AGREEMENTS

All issues are assigned a priority level (P1-P4) reflecting the impact to production operations.

This is set initially by the customer technical contact when reporting a new issue via the Customer Support Portal, and MariaDB Subscription Services Engineers will confirm the issue receives an appropriate rating in their sole discretion. Each priority level has a corresponding Service Level Agreement (SLA).

Priority	Description	Initial Response Time
P1	Catastrophic problem that severely impacts the ability to conduct business. This means that production systems are down (completely non-responsive or not functioning) and no known workaround exists.	30 minutes 24x7
P2	High impact problem in which production operations are disrupted but remain somewhat productive or have an available workaround.	2 hours 24x5
P3	Medium or lower impact problem that involves partial loss of non-critical functionality. This may be a minor issue with limited or no loss of functionality or impact to production operations. This includes administrative requests and errors in product documentation.	4 hours 24x5
P4	Low level problem that does not significantly affect system function or operations. This includes new feature requests.	8 hours 24x5

REMOTE DBA VDI BASED ACCESS SERVICE LEVEL AGREEMENT

Due to the nature of graphical Virtual Desktop Infrastructure based access (e.g. Citrix) and the time it may take to verify connectivity or complete routine tasks, SLAs times are increased as defined below.

Priority	Description	Initial Response Time
P1	Catastrophic problem that severely impacts the ability to conduct business. This means that production systems are down (completely non-responsive or not functioning) and no known workaround exists.	1 hour 24x7
P2	High impact problem in which production operations are disrupted but remain somewhat productive or have an available workaround.	3 hours 24x5

P3	Medium or lower impact problem that involves partial loss of non-critical functionality. This may be a minor issue with limited or no loss of functionality or impact to production operations. This includes administrative requests and errors in product documentation.	6 hours 24x5
P4	Low level problem that does not significantly affect system function or operations. This includes new feature requests.	12 hours 24x5

Escalation Requests

Customers may request escalation of a specific support issue directly within the Customer Support Portal by clicking the Escalate Issue link at the top of any issue detail page, then selecting the type of escalation and supplying other relevant information.

Available escalations include:

- Emergency Callbacks for P1 emergency production outages
- Higher Priority Handling when an issue has become more serious than reported
- Engineer in Different Timezone

Technical Account Managers

MariaDB Technical Account Managers (TAM) are a technical liaison for our customers to ensure their satisfaction with MariaDB Services and Enterprise Portfolio. A TAM will educate and work with customers to ensure that the MariaDB suite of products can help to move their business forward.

Technical Account Managers work closely with MariaDB Support, SkyServices, Sales, Product Managers, development engineers and various other departments to help streamline and expedite resolution. TAMs also directly interface with customers to implement solutions and drive adoption that adhere to golden standards and best practices.

The Technical Account Managers are experienced Subject Matter Experts (SME) that come with extensive database and architecture backgrounds. The program provides:

- A Single Technical Point of Contact
- Customers will have access to a TAM's calendar, work phone and email address
  - Customers can chat with TAMs via Slack
  - May not be a named resource, but a team available to Customer
- Assistance expediting and/or escalating support requests
- Evaluation of customer needs and goals to suggest upgrades or recommend additional features
- Data collection from customers to inform recommendations and accelerate troubleshooting information for the support team
- Answers to product-related queries as available
- Basic implementation reviews, discussion on product features, and assurance of prompt resolution of technical challenges
- Weekly (or less frequent meeting cadence) with customer and key MariaDB stakeholders
- Discussions on current and future customer projects
  - Tracking of issues and tickets with an intent towards expedited resolution
- Coordination of efforts between different teams within MariaDB and customer organizations
- Help during incidents, as available

- Does not have an SLA and is an "as available" service, usually during business hours in the applicable region
- At least one on-site visit per year (as health norms, government mandates and MariaDB or customer company policy allow)
- On average, the expected allocation is 4 hours per week per TAM subscription
- MariaDB reserves the right to reduce available hours if TAM usage exceeds the average over an extended period

Enterprise Architect Program

Enterprise Architects (EA) solve issues specific to the overall business goals and architecture of a customer. The EA performs as a trusted technical customer advisor and provides advice on strategy, architecture and migrations by learning the details of every customer's unique use case. The EA program provides one-on-one proactive and reactive support, performance tuning, check-ups and on-site reviews. Through the program, MariaDB helps drive successful business outcomes across a broad set of enterprise customers through the EA team's passion for educating, training, designing and building world-class solutions.

Enterprise Architects represent MariaDB's highest level experts that directly interface with customers. They have the ability to work and support various customer personas including developers, database administrators, and architects as well as leadership. The Enterprise Architect is also an advocate for the customer within MariaDB, straddling both worlds to help ensure success is the paramount priority.

The Enterprise Architect is a dedicated, responsive, proactive technical resource who:

- Provides architectural and roadmap reviews on a regular cadence (at least once per month)
- Coordinates efforts with stakeholders in both organizations (MariaDB and customer)
- Designs and delivers a technical roadmap following the initial onboarding engagement that is maintained and updated annually as customer needs evolve
- Helps streamline customer projects and processes around SkySQL, MariaDB Enterprise Platform, other MariaDB products, and commonly used open source or cloud products
- Recommends best practices and preparation guidance for migrations, backup, security, replication, etc. based upon golden standards with MariaDB and similar products in production environments and internal benchmarks
- Proactively suggests optimizations based on usage and ticket history
- Manages escalations (as available) resulting in quicker turnarounds for research and resolution
- Holds regular status calls, at least once per month (but usually once per week) to review roadmap, performance, issues, deployments, tuning, and maintenance
- Visits the customer on-site at least once per quarter, as health norms, government mandates and MariaDB or customer company policy allow
- Provides general guidance and support (as available) up to an average total of one day (8 hours) per week per Enterprise Architecture subscription
  - MariaDB reserves the right to reduce available hours if EA usage exceeds the average over an extended period
- Reviews security and common vulnerabilities/exposures on a regular cadence and evaluates patches and hotfixes for customer use cases
- Does not have an SLA and is an "as available" service, usually during business hours in the applicable region

While the Enterprise Architect is like an "embedded" MariaDB expert in your organization, the program as a whole provides greater visibility within MariaDB for the Customer and their needs. Recognizing that any single architect, no matter how senior, cannot be a deep expert in all possible technical topics- the program seeks to also provide access to experts on any applicable topic within MariaDB via the assigned Enterprise Architect.

Additional Information

Contact Sales for more information regarding available MariaDB Subscription Services.

Consulting services and commercially reasonable “best effort” Support services for additional products and technologies may be delivered at MariaDB’s discretion and availability. The overall level of support available for a particular product and platform combination may vary from version to version.

Support for community or legacy versions of products that no longer receive Engineering Support may require an additional fee. Contact Sales for more information regarding support for legacy products.

Support for issues specific to a platform that lacks Engineering Support may be limited to problems that can be reproduced on a platform that has Engineering Support. Examples include those platforms that have reached their maintenance end of life (such as RHEL 6 and Windows 2008 Server), and platforms for which we or our partners do not produce supported product binaries (such as FreeBSD).

New versions and fixes for MariaDB Subscription Services customers will be provided on MariaDB Enterprise Server or other Platform X or Enterprise products.

MariaDB will make commercially reasonable efforts to work with other product and platform vendors to resolve issues affecting our supported products.

MariaDB may modify these MariaDB Subscription Service Policies by providing notice on the Customer Support Portal. It is the customer's obligation to keep up to date on changes to these Policies.

Appendix A

Microsoft License Terms and Conditions

MICROSOFT CORPORATION (“MICROSOFT”) IS A FIRST TIER SUBCONTRACTOR UNDER THIS CONTRACT. THESE MICROSOFT LICENSE TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLY TO MICROSOFT PRODUCTS THAT YOU ORDER FROM THE CONTRACTOR UNDER THE CONTRACTOR’S GSA SCHEDULE CONTRACT (THE “CONTRACT”). THESE MICROSOFT LICENSE TERMS AND CONDITIONS SHALL TAKE PRECEDENCE OVER ANY CONFLICTING TERMS IN AN ORDER OR ORDERING DOCUMENTATION.

---

In this agreement, the following definitions apply:

“Additional Product” means any Product identified as such in the Product List and chosen for Enrolled Affiliate under the applicable Enrollment and identified on your Order.

“Affiliate” means any legal entity that a party owns, that owns a party, or that is under common ownership with a party. “Ownership” means, for purposes of this definition, control of more than a 50% interest in an entity.

“Community” means the community consisting of one or more of the following: (1) a Government, (2) an Enrolled Affiliate using eligible Government Community Cloud Services to provide solutions to a Government or a qualified member of the Community, or (3) an Enrolled Affiliate with Customer Data that is subject to Government regulations for which the Enrolled Affiliate determines and Microsoft agrees that the use of Government Community Cloud Services is appropriate to meet the Enrolled Affiliate’s regulatory requirements. Membership in the Community is ultimately at Microsoft’s discretion, which may vary by Government Community Cloud Service.

“Customer Data” means all data, including all text, sound, software, or image files that are provided to Microsoft by, or on behalf of, Enrolled Affiliate through its use of the Online Services.

Any reference in this agreement or an Enrollment to a “day” means a calendar day, except references that specify “business day”.

“Enrollment” means the document that Government Partner submits to Microsoft to place orders for Enrolled Affiliate.

“Enrolled Affiliate” or “you” means any entity of the United States or entity authorized by the United States that enters into a Government Contract for Products with Government Partner.

“Enterprise” means Enrolled Affiliate and the Affiliates listed on an Enrollment.

“Enterprise Product” means any Desktop Platform Product that Microsoft designates as an Enterprise Product in the Product Terms for which Government Partner chooses to order License(s) under an Enrollment for Enrolled Affiliate. Enterprise Products must be licensed for all Qualified Devices and Qualified Users on an Enterprise-wide basis under this program.

“Federal Agency” means a bureau, office, agency, department or other entity of the United States Government.

“Fixes” means Product fixes, modifications or enhancements or their derivatives that Microsoft releases generally (such as Product service packs), or provides to Enrolled Affiliate to address a specific issue.

“Government” means a Federal Agency, State/Local Entity, or Tribal Entity acting in its governmental capacity.

“Government Community Cloud Services” means Microsoft Online Services that are provisioned in Microsoft’s multi-tenant data centers for exclusive use by or for the Community and offered in accordance with the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Special Publication 800-145. Microsoft Online Services that are Government Community Cloud Services are designated as such in the Use Rights and Product Terms.

“Government Contract” means the Government Partner’s GSA Schedule Contract, which incorporates these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions.

“Government Partner” means the entity from whom you place your order for Products under the Government Contract.

“Industry Device” (also known as line of business device) means any device that: (1) is not useable in its deployed configuration as a general purpose personal computing device (such as a personal computer), a multi-function server, or a commercially viable substitute for one of these systems; and (2) only employs an industry or task-specific software program (e.g. a computer-aided design program used by an architect or a point of sale program) (“Industry Program”). The device may include features and functions derived from Microsoft software or third-party software. If the device performs desktop functions (such as email, word processing, spreadsheets, database, network or Internet browsing, or scheduling, or personal finance), then the desktop functions: (1) may only be used for the purpose of supporting the Industry Program functionality; and (2) must be technically integrated with the Industry Program or employ technically enforced policies or architecture to operate only when used with the Industry Program functionality.

“License” means Enrolled Affiliate’s right to use the quantity of a Product ordered. For certain Products, a License may be available on a subscription basis (“Subscription License”). Licenses for Online Services will be considered Subscription Licenses under these Additional Use Right and Restrictions.

“Managed Device” means any device on which any Affiliate in the Enterprise directly or indirectly controls one or more operating system environments. Examples of Managed Devices can be found in the Product Terms.

“Online Services” means the Microsoft-hosted services identified in the Online Services section of the Product Terms.

“Online Services Terms” means the additional terms that apply to Customer’s use of Online Services published on the Volume Licensing Site and updated from time to time.

“Order” means the order placed by you to the Government Partner under the Government Partner’s GSA Schedule contract.

“Product” means all products identified on the Product Terms, such as software, Online Services and other web-based services, including pre-release or beta versions. Product availability may vary by region.

“Product Terms” means the document that provides information about Microsoft Products available through volume licensing. The Product Terms document is published on the Volume Licensing Site at <http://explore.ms.com> and is updated from time to time.

“Qualified Device” means any device that is used by or for the benefit of Enrolled Affiliate’s Enterprise and is: (1) a personal desktop computer, portable computer, workstation, or similar device capable of running Windows Pro locally (in a physical or virtual operating system environment), or (2) a device used to access a virtual desktop infrastructure (“VDI”). Qualified Devices do not include any device that is: (1) designated as a server and not used as a personal computer, (2) an Industry Device, or (3) not a Managed Device.

At its option, the Enrolled Affiliate may designate any device excluded above (e.g., Industry Device) that is used by or for the benefit of the Enrolled Affiliate’s Enterprise as a Qualified Device for all or a subset of Enterprise Products or Online Services the Enrolled Affiliate has selected.

“Qualified User” means a person (e.g., employee, consultant, contingent staff) who: (1) is a user of a Qualified Device, or (2) accesses any server software requiring an Enterprise Product Client Access License or any Enterprise Online Service. It does not include a person who accesses server software or an Online Service solely under a License identified in the Qualified User exemptions in the Product Terms.

“Reserved License” means for an Online Service identified as eligible for true-ups in the Product Terms, the License reserved by Enrolled Affiliate prior to use and for which Microsoft will make the Online Service available for activation.

“SLA” means Service Level Agreement, which specifies the minimum service level for Online Services and is published on the Volume Licensing Site.

“Software” means licensed copies of Microsoft software identified on the Product Terms. Software does not include Online Services, but Software may be part of an Online Service.

“Software Assurance” means an offering that provides new version rights and other benefits for Products as described in the Product Terms.

“Trade Secret” means information that is not generally known or readily ascertainable to the public, has economic value as a result, and has been subject to reasonable steps under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

“Tribal Entity” means a federally-recognized tribal entity performing tribal governmental functions and eligible for funding and services from the U.S. Department of Interior by virtue of its status as an Indian tribe.

“Use Rights,” means the use rights or terms of service for each Product published on the Volume Licensing Site and updated from time to time. The Use Rights supersede the terms of any end user license agreement that accompanies a Product. The Use Rights for Software are published by Microsoft in the Product Terms. The Use Rights for Online Services are published in the Online Services Terms.

“use” or “run” means to copy, install, use, access, display, run or otherwise interact.

LICENSES FOR PRODUCTS.

Upon Microsoft’s acceptance of Government Partner’s Enrollment for an Enrolled Affiliate, the Enrolled Affiliate has the following rights during the term of its Order. These rights apply to the Licenses obtained under the Order.

License Grant. By accepting an Enrollment, Microsoft grants the Enterprise a non-exclusive, worldwide and limited right to download, install and use software Products, and to access and use the Online Services, each in the quantity ordered under the Enrollment. The rights granted are subject to the terms of the Use Rights and the Product Terms and are conditions on Enrolled Affiliate’s continued compliance with the terms of this agreement, including, without limitation, payment for the Licenses. Microsoft reserves all rights not expressly granted in this agreement.

Duration of Licenses. Subscription Licenses and most Software Assurance rights are temporary and expire when the applicable Enrollment is terminated or expires, unless the Enrollment is renewed or Enrolled Affiliate exercises a buy-out option, which is available for some Subscription Licenses. Except as otherwise noted in the applicable Enrollment or Use Rights, all other Licenses become perpetual only when all payments for that License have been made and the initial Enrollment term has expired.

Applicable Use Rights.

Products (other than Online Services). The Use Rights in effect on the effective date of the Enrollment will apply to Enterprise’s use of the version of each Product that is current at the time. For future versions and new Products, the Product Use Rights in effect when those versions and Products are first released will apply. Changes Microsoft makes to the Use Rights for a particular version will not apply unless the Enrolled Affiliate chooses to have those changes apply. The Use Rights applicable to perpetual Licenses that were acquired under a previous agreement or Enrollment are determined by the agreement or Enrollment under which they were acquired. Renewal of Software Assurance does not change which Use Rights apply to those Licenses.

Online Services. For Online Services, the Use Rights in effect on the subscription start date will apply for the subscription term as defined in the Product Terms.

More restrictive use rights. If a new version of a Product has more restrictive use rights than the version that is current at the start of the applicable initial or renewal term of the Enrollment, those more restrictive use rights will not apply to the Enterprise's use of that Product during the term.

Downgrade rights. Enterprise may use an earlier version of Product than the version that is current on the effective date of the Enrollment. In that case, the Use Rights for the current version apply to the use of the earlier version. If the earlier Product version includes features that are not in the new version, then the Use Rights applicable to the earlier version apply with respect to those features.

New Version Rights under Software Assurance. Enrolled Affiliate must order and maintain continuous Software Assurance coverage for each License ordered. With Software Assurance coverage, Enterprise automatically has the right to use a new version of a licensed Product as soon as it is released, even if Enterprise chooses not use the new version immediately.

Except as otherwise permitted under an Enrollment, use of the new version will be subject to the new version's Use Rights.

If the License for the earlier version of the Product is perpetual at the time the new version is released, the License for the new version will also be perpetual. Perpetual Licenses obtained through Software Assurance replace any perpetual Licenses for the earlier version.

License confirmation. The Government Contract, the Order, the Enrolled Affiliate's order confirmation, and any documentation evidencing transfers of Licenses, together with proof of payment, will be the Enrolled Affiliate's evidence of all Licenses ordered by the Government Partner under an Enrollment for an Enrolled Affiliate.

Reorganizations, Consolidations, and Privatizations. If the number of Licenses covered by an Enrollment changes by more than ten percent as a result of a reorganization, consolidation, or privatization of any member of the Enterprise, Microsoft will work with Government Partner in good faith to determine how to accommodate the Enterprise's changed circumstances in the context of these Additional Use Rights and Restrictions.

Modification or termination of an Online Service for regulatory reasons. Microsoft may modify or terminate an Online Service in any country or jurisdiction where there is any current or future government requirement or obligation that: (1) subjects Microsoft to any regulation or requirement not generally applicable to businesses operating there; (2) presents a hardship for Microsoft to continue operating the Online Service without modification; and/or (3) causes Microsoft to believe these terms or the Online Service may be in conflict with any such requirement or obligation.

Program updates. Microsoft may make a change to the Enterprise and/or Enterprise Subscription programs that will make it necessary for Enrolled Affiliates to enter into a new agreement and Enrollments with Government Partner at the time of an Enrollment renewal. If any such updates occur during a current contract, including option periods, such change(s) will be made at no increase in cost to Enrolled Affiliate: all pricing in the current contract, including contract options will be honored despite any such change(s).

MAKING COPIES OF PRODUCTS AND RE-IMAGING RIGHTS.

General. Enrolled Affiliate may make as many copies of the Products as it needs to distribute them within the Enterprise. Copies must be true and complete (including copyright and trademark notices), from master copies obtained from a Microsoft approved fulfillment source. Enrolled Affiliate may use a third party to make these copies, but Enrolled Affiliate agrees that it will be responsible for any third party's actions. Enrolled Affiliate agrees to make reasonable efforts to notify its employees, agents, and any other individuals who use the Products that the Products are licensed from Microsoft and subject to the terms of the Government Contract and the Order.

Copies for training/evaluation and back-up. For all Products other than Online Services, Enrolled Affiliate may (1) use up to 20 complimentary copies of any Product in a dedicated training facility on its premises for purposes of training on that particular Product, (2) use up to 10 complimentary copies of any Product for a 60-day evaluation period, and (3) use one complimentary copy of any licensed Product for back-up or archival purposes for each of its distinct geographic locations. Trials for Online Services may be available if specified in the Use Rights.

Right to re-image. In certain cases, re-imaging is permitted using the Product media. If the Microsoft Product(s) is licensed (1) from an original equipment manufacturer (OEM), (2) as full packaged Product through a retail source, or (3) under another Microsoft program, then media provided under the Order may be generally used to create images for use in place of copies provided through that separate source. This right is conditional upon the following:

Separate Licenses must be acquired from the separate source for each Product that is re-imaged.

The Product, language, version and components of the copies made must be identical to the Product, language, version, and all components of the copies they replace and the number of copies or instances of the re-imaged Product permitted remains the same.

Except for copies of an operating system and copies of Products licensed under another Microsoft program, the Product type (e.g., Upgrade or full License) re-imaged must be identical to the Product type from the separate source.

Enrolled Affiliate must adhere to any Product specific processes or requirements for re- imaging identified in the Product Terms.

Re-imaged Products remain subject to the terms and use rights of the License acquired from the separate source. This subsection does not create or extend any warranty or support obligation.

TRANSFERRING AND ASSIGNING LICENSES.

License transfers. License transfers are not permitted, except that Enrolled Affiliate may transfer only fully-paid perpetual Licenses to:

an Affiliate, or a third party solely in connection with the transfer of hardware or employees to whom the Licenses have been assigned as part of (1) a reorganization or privatization of an Affiliate or a division of an Affiliate or (2) a consolidation involving Enrolled Affiliate or an Affiliate.

Upon such transfer, Enrolled Affiliate must uninstall and discontinue using the licensed Product and render any copies unusable.

Notification of License Transfer. Enrolled Affiliate must notify Microsoft of a transfer of License by completing a license transfer form, which can be obtained from <http://www.microsoft.com/licensing/contracts> and sending the completed form to Microsoft before the license transfer. No License transfer will be valid unless Enrolled Affiliate provides to the transferee, and the transferee accepts in writing, documents sufficient to enable the transferee to ascertain the scope, purpose and limitations of the rights granted by Microsoft under the licenses being transferred (including, without limitation, the applicable Use Rights, use and transfer restrictions, warranties and limitations of liability. Any license transfer not made in compliance with this section will be void.

Internal assignment of Licenses and Software Assurance. Licenses and Software Assurance must be assigned to a single user or device within the Enterprise. Licenses and Software Assurance may be reassigned as described in the Use Rights.

USE, OWNERSHIP, RIGHTS, AND RESTRICTIONS.

Products. Use of any Product is governed by the Use Rights specific to each Product and version and by these Additional Use Rights and Restrictions.

Fixes. Each fix is under the same license terms as the Product to which it applies. If a Fix is not provided for a specific Product, any use terms Microsoft provides with the Fixe will apply.

Non-Microsoft software and technology.

Enrolled Affiliate is solely responsible for any non-Microsoft software or technology that it installs or uses with the Products or Fixes.

Microsoft is not a party to and is not bound by any terms governing Enrolled Affiliate's use of non-Microsoft software or technology. Without limiting the foregoing, non-Microsoft software or scripts linked to or referenced from any Product website, are governed by the open source licenses used by the third parties that own such code, not by Microsoft and Microsoft's licensing terms.

If Enrolled Affiliate installs or uses any non-Microsoft software or technology with the Products or Fixes, it directs and controls the installation in and use of such software or technology in the Products or Fixes, through its actions (e.g., through Enrolled Affiliate's use of application programming interfaces and other technical means that are part of the Online Services). Microsoft will not run or make any copies of such non-Microsoft software or technology outside of its relationship with Enrolled Affiliate.

Restrictions Enrolled Affiliate must not (and must not attempt to): (1) reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble any Product, Fix, or Services Deliverable, (2) install or use non- Microsoft software or technology in any way that would subject Microsoft's intellectual property or technology to obligations beyond those included in this agreement; or (3) work around any technical limitations in the Products or restrictions in Product documentation. Except as expressly permitted in this agreement, Enrolled Affiliate must not (i) separate and run parts of a Product on more than one device, upgrade or downgrade parts of a Product at different times, or transfer parts of a Product separately; or (ii) distribute, sublicense, rent, lease, lend, or use any Product, or Fix to offer hosting services to a third party.

No transfer of ownership; Reservation of rights. Products and Fixes are protected by copyright and other intellectual property rights laws and international treaties. Microsoft (1) does not transfer any ownership rights in any Products or Fixes and (2) reserves all rights not expressly granted to Enrolled Affiliate.

CONFIDENTIALITY.

“Confidential Information” is non-public information that is designated “confidential” or that a reasonable person should understand is confidential, including Customer Data. Confidential Information does not include information that (1) becomes publicly available without a breach of this agreement, (2) the receiving party received lawfully from another source without a confidentiality obligation, (3) is independently developed, or (4) is a comment or suggestion volunteered about the other party’s business, products or services.

Each party will take reasonable steps to protect the other’s Confidential Information and will use the other party’s Confidential Information only for purposes of the parties’ business relationship. Neither party will disclose that Confidential Information to third parties, except to its employees, Affiliates, contractors, advisors and consultants (“Representatives”) and then only on a need-to-know basis under nondisclosure obligations at least as protective as this agreement. Each party remains responsible for the use of the Confidential Information by its Representatives and, in the event of discovery of any unauthorized use or disclosure, must promptly notify the other party.

A party may disclose the other’s Confidential Information if required by law; but only after it notifies the other party (if legally permissible) to enable the other party to seek a protective order.

Neither party is required to restrict work assignments of its Representatives who have had access to Confidential Information. Each party agrees that the use of information retained in Representatives’ unaided memories in the development or deployment of the parties’ respective products or services does not create liability under this agreement or trade secret law, and each party agrees to limit what it discloses to the other accordingly.

These obligations apply (i) for Customer Data until it is deleted from the Online Services, and (ii) for all other Confidential Information, for a period of five years after the Confidential Information is received.

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). Notwithstanding anything in this section to the contrary, the parties acknowledge and agree that Enrolled Affiliate is subject to the United States Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552) and may disclose information in response to a valid request in accordance with FOIA. Should Enrolled Affiliate receive a request under FOIA for Microsoft’s confidential information, Enrolled Affiliate agrees to give Microsoft adequate prior notice of the request and before releasing Microsoft’s confidential information to a third party, in order to allow Microsoft sufficient time to seek injunctive relief or other relief against such disclosure.

PRIVACY AND COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS.

Enrolled Affiliate consents to the processing of personal information by Microsoft and its agents to facilitate the subject matter of these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions and the applicable Order. Enrolled Affiliate will obtain all required consents from third parties (including Enrolled Affiliate’s contacts, resellers, distributors, administrators, and employees) under applicable privacy and data protection law before providing personal information to Microsoft.

Unless otherwise specified in the Enrollment or the Use Rights, personal information collected under these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions (i) may be transferred, stored and processed in the United States or any other country in which Microsoft or its contractors maintain facilities and (ii) will be subject to the privacy terms specified in the Use Rights. Microsoft abides by the EU Safe Harbor and the Swiss Safe Harbor frameworks as set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce regarding the collection, use, and retention of data from the European Union, the European Economic Area, and Switzerland.

U.S. export. Products and Fixes are subject to U.S. export jurisdiction. Enrolled Affiliate must comply with all applicable international and national laws, including the U.S. Export Administration Regulations, the International Traffic in Arms Regulations, and end-user, end use and destination restrictions by U.S. and other governments related to Microsoft products, services, and technologies.

WARRANTIES.

Limited warranties and remedies.

Software. Microsoft warrants that each version of the Software will perform substantially as described in the applicable Product documentation for one year from the date Enrolled Affiliate is first licensed for that version. If it does not and Enrolled Affiliate notifies Microsoft within the warranty term, then Microsoft will, at its option (1) return the price Customer paid for the Software license, or (2) repair or replace the Software.

Online Services. Microsoft warrants that each Online Services will perform in accordance with the applicable SLA during the Enrolled Affiliate's use. Enrolled Affiliate's remedies for breach of this warranty are in the SLA.

The remedies above are Enrolled Affiliate's sole remedies for breach of the warranties in this section. Enrolled Affiliate waives any breach of warranty claims not made during the warranty period.

Exclusions. The warranties in this agreement do not cover problems caused by accident, abuse or use in a manner inconsistent with this agreement, including failure to meet minimum system requirements. These warranties do not apply to free, trial, pre-release, or beta Products, or to components of Products that Enrolled Affiliate is permitted to redistribute.

DISCLAIMER. Microsoft provides no other warranties or conditions and disclaims any other express, implied or statutory warranties, including warranties of quality, title, non-infringement, merchantability, and fitness for a particular purpose.

DEFENSE OF THIRD PARTY CLAIMS.

By Microsoft. Microsoft will defend Enrolled Affiliate against any claims made by an unaffiliated third party that (i) any Product or Fix made available by Microsoft infringes its patent, copyright or trademark or makes unlawful use of its Trade Secret, or (ii) that arises from Microsoft's provision of an Online Service in violation of laws applicable to all online services providers. Microsoft will pay the amount of any resulting adverse final judgment or approved settlement. This does not apply to claims or awards based on (i) Customer Data; (ii) non-Microsoft software; (iii) modifications to a Product or a Fix Enrolled Affiliate makes or any specifications or materials Enrolled Affiliate provides; (iv) Enrolled Affiliate's combination of a Product or Fix with (or damages based on the value of) a non-Microsoft product, data, or business process; (v) Enrolled Affiliate's use of a Microsoft trademark without express, written consent or the use or redistribution of a Product or Fix in violation of this agreement;

(vi) Enrolled Affiliate's continued use of a Product or Fix after being notified to stop due to a third party claim; or (vii) Products or Fixes provided free of charge.

Your agreement to protect. Enrolled Affiliate agrees that use of Customer Data or non-Microsoft software Microsoft hosts on Enrolled Affiliate's behalf will not infringe any third party's patent, copyright or trademark or make unlawful use of any third party's Trade Secret. . In addition, Enrolled Affiliate will not use an Online Service to gain unauthorized access to or disrupt any service, data, account or network in connection with the use of the Online Services

Rights and remedies in case of possible infringement or misappropriation. If Microsoft reasonably believes that a claim under this section may result in a legal bar prohibiting Enrolled Affiliate's use of the Product or Fix, Microsoft will seek to obtain the right for Enrolled Affiliate to keep using it or modify or replace it with a functional equivalent, in which case Enrolled Affiliate must discontinue use of the prior version immediately. If these options are not commercially reasonable, Microsoft may terminate Enrolled Affiliate's right to the Product or Fix and refund any amounts Enrolled Affiliate has paid for those rights to Software and Fixes and, for Online Services, any amount paid for a usage period after the termination date.

Other terms. Enrolled Affiliate must notify Microsoft promptly in writing of a claim subject to this section; give Microsoft sole control over the defense and settlement; and provide reasonable assistance in defending the claims. Microsoft will reimburse Enrolled Affiliate for reasonable out of pocket expenses that it incurs in providing assistance. The remedies provided in this section are the exclusive remedies for the claims described in this section.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Microsoft's rights set forth in this section (and the rights of the third party claiming infringement) shall be governed by the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1498.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, for each Product, each party's maximum, aggregate liability to the other under this Agreement is limited to direct damages finally awarded in an amount not to exceed the amounts Enrolled Affiliate was required to pay for the applicable Products during the term of the Agreement, subject to the following:

Online Services. For Online Services, Microsoft's maximum liability to Enrolled Affiliate for any incident giving rise to a claim will not exceed the amount Enrolled Affiliate paid for the Online Service during the 12 months before the incident.

Free Products and Distributable Code. For Products provided free of charge and code that Enrolled Affiliate is authorized to redistribute to third parties without separate payment to Microsoft, Microsoft's liability is limited to direct damages finally awarded up to US$5,000.

Exclusions. In no event will either party be liable for indirect, incidental, special, punitive, or consequential damages, including loss of use, loss of profits, or interruption of business, however caused or on any theory of liability.

Exceptions. No limitation or exclusions will apply to liability arising out of either party's (1) confidentiality obligations (except for all liability related to Customer Data, which will remain subject to the limitations and exclusions above); (2) defense obligations; or (3) violation of the other party's intellectual property rights.

This clause shall not impair the U.S. Government's right to recover for fraud or crimes arising out of or related to these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions under any federal fraud statute, including the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729-3733.

TRUE-UP REQUIREMENTS

True-Up Order. Enrolled Affiliate must submit an annual true-up order that accounts for changes since the initial order or last true-up order. If there are no changes, then an update statement must be submitted instead of a true-up order. Microsoft, at its discretion, may validate the true-up data submitted through a formal product deployment assessment using an approved Microsoft partner.

Enterprise Products. Enrolled Affiliate must determine the number of Qualified Devices and Qualified

Users (if ordering user-based Licenses) at the time the true-up order is placed and must order additional Licenses for all Qualified Devices and Qualified Users that are not already covered by existing Licenses, including any Enterprise Online Services.

Additional Products. For Additional Products that have been previously ordered, Enrolled Affiliate must determine the maximum number of Additional Products used since the latter of the initial order, the last true-up order, or the prior anniversary date and submit a true-up order that accounts for any increase.

Online Services. For Online Services identified as eligible for true-up in the Product Terms, Enrolled Affiliate may reserve the additional Licenses prior to use, and payment may be deferred until the next true-up order. Microsoft will provide a report of Reserved Licenses in excess of existing orders to Enrolled Affiliate's Government Partner. Reserved Licenses will be invoiced retroactively to the month in which they were reserved.

Subscription License reductions. Enrolled Affiliate may reduce the quantity of Subscription Licenses at the enrollment anniversary date on a prospective basis if permitted in the Product Terms as follows:

For Subscription Licenses part of an Enterprise-wide purchase, Licenses may be reduced if the total quantity of Licenses and Software Assurance for an applicable group meets or exceeds the quantity of Qualified Devices identified on the Product Selection Form and includes any additional Qualified Devices and Qualified Users added in any prior true-up orders. Step-up Licenses and add-on subscription licenses do not count towards this total count.

For Enterprise Online Services not a part of an Enterprise-wide purchase, Licenses can be reduced as long as the initial order minimum requirements are maintained.

For Additional Products available as Subscription Licenses, Enrolled Affiliate may reduce the Licenses. If the License count is reduced to zero, then Enrolled Affiliate's use of the applicable Subscription License will be cancelled.

Invoices will be adjusted to reflect any reductions in Subscription Licenses at the true-up order Enrollment anniversary date and effective as of such date.

Update statement. An update statement must be submitted instead of a true-up order if, since the initial order or last true-up order, Enrolled Affiliate's Enterprise has not: (1) changed the number of Qualified Devices and Qualified Users licensed with Enterprise Products or Enterprise Online Services; and (2) increased its usage of Additional Products. This update statement must be signed by Enrolled Affiliate's authorized representative. The update statement must be received by Microsoft between 60 and 30 days prior to the Enrollment anniversary date. The last update statement is due within 30 days prior to the Expiration Date.

True-up order period. The true-up order or update statement must be received by Microsoft between 60 and 30 days prior to each Enrollment anniversary date. The third- year true-up order or update statement is due within 30 days prior to the Expiration Date, and any license reservations within this 30 day period will not be accepted. Enrolled

Affiliate may submit true-up orders more often to account for increases in Product usage, but an annual true-up order or update statement must still be submitted during the annual order period.

Late true-up. If the true-up order or update statement is not received when due:

Enrolled Affiliate will be invoiced for all Reserved Licenses not previously ordered; and .

Subscription License reductions cannot be reported until the following Enrollment anniversary date (or at Enrollment renewal, as applicable).

Step-up Licenses. For Licenses eligible for a step-up under this Enrollment, Enrolled Affiliate may step-up to a higher edition or suite as follows:

For step-up Licenses included on an initial order, Enrolled Affiliate may order according to the true-up process.

If step-up Licenses are not included on an initial order, Enrolled Affiliate may step-up initially by following the process described in the Section titled "Adding new Products not previously ordered," then for additional step-up Licenses, by following the true-up order process.

VERIFYING COMPLIANCE.

Right to verify compliance. Enrolled Affiliate must keep records relating to all use and distribution of Products by Enrolled Affiliate and its Affiliates. Microsoft has the right, at its expense, to verify Enrolled Affiliate's and its Affiliates compliance with the Product's license terms.

Verification process and limitations. Microsoft will provide Enrolled Affiliate at least 30 days' notice of its intent to verify compliance. Verification will take place during normal business hours and in a manner that does not interfere unreasonably with Enrolled Affiliates operations. Microsoft will engage an independent auditor, which will be subject to a confidentiality obligation and subject to Enrolled Affiliate's security requirements. Enrolled Affiliate must promptly provide the independent auditor with any information it reasonably requests in furtherance of the verification, including access to systems running the Products and evidence of licenses for Products Enrolled Affiliate hosts, sublicenses, or distributes to third parties. Enrolled Affiliate agrees to complete Microsoft's self-audit process; which Microsoft may require as an alternative to a third party audit. Any information collected in the self-audit will be used solely for purposes of determining compliance.

Remedies for non-compliance. If verification or self-audit reveals any unlicensed use or distribution, then, within 30 days, Contractor will invoice Enrolled Affiliate for sufficient Licenses to cover that use or distribution. If unlicensed use or distribution is 5% or more, Enrolled Affiliate may be completely responsible for the costs Microsoft has incurred in verification, to the extent permitted by 31 U.S.C. § 1341 (Anti-Deficiency Act) and other applicable Federal law or similar state law (as applicable). The unlicensed use percentage is based on the total number of Licenses purchased compared to actual install base. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this section prevents the Enrolled Affiliate from disputing any invoice in accordance with the Contract Disputes Act (41 U.S.C. §§7101-7109). If there is no unlicensed use, Microsoft will not subject Enrolled Affiliate to another verification for at least one year. By exercising the rights and procedures described above, Microsoft does not waive its rights to enforce this agreement or to protect its intellectual property by any other means permitted by law.

GOVERNMENT COMMUNITY CLOUD.

Community requirements. Agency certifies that all Enrolled Affiliates in the Enterprise are members of the Community and represents that all Enrolled Affiliates in the Enterprise have agreed to use Government Community Cloud Services solely in their capacities as members of the Community and for the benefit of end users that are members of the Community. Use of Government Community Cloud Services by an entity that is not a member of the Community or to provide services to non-Community members is strictly prohibited and could result in termination of Government Partner's or an Enrolled Affiliate's license(s) for Government Community Cloud Services. Agency acknowledges that only Community members may use Government Community Cloud Services.

All terms and conditions applicable to non-Government Community Cloud Services also apply to their corresponding Government Community Cloud Services, except as otherwise noted in the Use Rights and this Amendment.

Enrolled Affiliate may not deploy or use Government Community Cloud Services and corresponding non-Government Community Cloud Services in the same domain.

Any Enrolled Affiliate in the Enterprise that uses Government Community Cloud Services must maintain its status as a member of the Community. Maintaining status as a member of the Community is a material requirement for such services.

Use Rights for Government Community Cloud Services. For Government Community Cloud Services, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Use Rights:

Government Community Cloud Services will be offered only within the United States.

Additional European Terms, as set forth in the Use Rights, will not apply.

References to geographic areas in the Use Rights with respect to the location of Customer Data at rest, as set forth in the Use Rights, refer only to the United States.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Severability. If any provision in this agreement is found unenforceable, the balance of the agreement will remain in full force and effect.

Management and Reporting. Enrolled Affiliate must provide and manage account details (e.g., contacts, orders, Licenses, software downloads) on Microsoft's Volume Licensing Service Center web site (or successor site) at <https://www.microsoft.com/licensing/servicecenter>. On the effective date of this agreement and any Enrollments, the contact(s) Enrolled Affiliate has identified for this purpose will be provided access to this site and may assign additional users and contacts.

Waiver. Failure to enforce any provision of this agreement will not constitute a waiver. Any waiver must be in writing and signed by the waiving party.

Free Products. Any free Product provided to Enrolled Affiliate is for the sole use and benefit of the Enrolled Affiliate purposes only, and is not provided for use by or personal benefit of any specific government employee.

Assignment. Enrolled Affiliate may assign all its rights under this agreement to an Affiliate, but it must notify Microsoft in writing of the assignment. Any other proposed assignment under this agreement must be approved by the other party in writing. Any assignment will not relieve the assigning party of its obligations under the assigned agreement. Any attempted assignment without required approval will be void.

Use of contractors. Microsoft may use contractors to support services but will be responsible for their performance subject to the terms of this agreement.

Third party beneficiary. Microsoft is a third party beneficiary of this agreement and may enforce its terms.

Survival. All provisions survive termination or expiration of this agreement except those requiring performance only during the term of the agreement.

Privacy and Compliance with applicable Laws, privacy and security.

Microsoft and Enrolled Affiliate will each comply with all applicable laws and regulations (including applicable security breach notification law). However, Microsoft is not responsible for compliance with any laws applicable to Enrolled Affiliate or Enrolled Affiliate's industry that are not also generally applicable to information technology services providers.

Natural disaster. In the event of a natural disaster, Microsoft may provide additional assistance or rights to Enrolled Affiliate than are set forth in this agreement by posting them on <http://www.microsoft.com> at such time.

Disputes. Any breach of these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions, including Enrolled Affiliate's obligations set forth herein, shall be handled in accordance with the Contracts Disputes Act (41 U.S.C. §§7101-7109).

Voluntary Product Accessibility Templates. Microsoft supports the government's obligation to provide accessible technologies to its citizens with disabilities as required by Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and its state law counterparts. The Voluntary Product Accessibility Templates ("VPATs") for Products and the Microsoft technologies used in providing the Online Services can be found at Microsoft's VPAT page. Further information regarding Microsoft's commitment to accessibility can be found at <http://www.microsoft.com/enable>.

If any document incorporated by reference into these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions, including the Use Rights and terms included and/or referenced or incorporated herein and/or therein, contains a provision (a) allowing for the automatic termination of your license rights or Software Assurance services; (b) allowing for the automatic renewal of services and/or fees; (c) requiring the governing law to be anything other than Federal law; and/or (d) otherwise violates applicable Federal law, then, such terms shall not apply with respect to the Federal Government. If any document incorporated by reference into these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions, including the Use Rights and terms included and/or referenced or incorporated herein and/or therein contains an indemnification provision, such provision shall not apply as to the United States indemnifying Microsoft or any other party.

No provisions of any shrink-wrap or any click-through agreement (or other similar form of agreement) that may be provided in conjunction with any product(s) or services acquired under these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions shall apply in place of, or serve to modify any provision of these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions, even if a user or authorized officer of Enrolled Affiliate purports to have affirmatively accepted such shrink-wrap or click-through provisions. For the avoid of doubt and without limiting the foregoing, in the event of a conflict between any such shrink-wrap or click-through provisions (irrespective of the products or services that such provisions attach to) and any term or condition of these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions, then the relevant term or condition of these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions shall govern and supersede the purchase of such product(s) or services to the extent of any such conflict. All acceptance of agreements and renewals shall be executed in writing.

Section headings. All section and subsection headings used in this agreement are for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of this agreement

Appendix A

Microsoft License and Services Terms and Conditions

MICROSOFT CORPORATION (“MICROSOFT”) IS A FIRST TIER SUBCONTRACTOR UNDER THIS CONTRACT. THESE MICROSOFT LICENSE TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLY TO MICROSOFT PRODUCTS THAT YOU ORDER FROM THE CONTRACTOR UNDER THE CONTRACTOR’S GSA SCHEDULE CONTRACT (THE “CONTRACT”). THESE MICROSOFT LICENSE TERMS AND CONDITIONS SHALL TAKE PRECEDENCE OVER ANY CONFLICTING TERMS IN AN ORDER OR ORDERING DOCUMENTATION.

In this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

“Additional Product” means any Product identified as such in the Product List and chosen for Enrolled Affiliate under the applicable Enrollment and identified on your Order.

“Affiliate” means any legal entity that a party owns, that owns a party, or that is under common ownership with a party. “Ownership” means, for purposes of this definition, control of more than a 50% interest in an entity.

“Azure Government Services” means one or more of the services or features Microsoft makes available to Enrolled Affiliate under this Enrollment and identified at <http://azure.microsoft.com/en-us/regions/#services>, which are Government Community Cloud Services.

“Community” means the community consisting of one or more of the following: (1) a Government, (2) an Enrolled Affiliate using eligible Government Community Cloud Services to provide solutions to a Government or a qualified member of the Community, or (3) an Enrolled Affiliate with Customer Data that is subject to Government regulations for which the Enrolled Affiliate determines and Microsoft agrees that the use of Government Community Cloud Services is appropriate to meet the Enrolled Affiliate’s regulatory requirements. Membership in the Community is ultimately at Microsoft’s discretion, which may vary by Government Community Cloud Service.

“Compliance Trust Center Page” means the compliance page of the Microsoft Trust Center, published by Microsoft at <https://www.microsoft.com/en-us/TrustCenter/Compliance/default.aspx> or a successor site Microsoft later identifies.

“Customer Data” means all data, including all text, sound, software, or image files that are provided to Microsoft by, or on behalf of, Enrolled Affiliate through its use of the Online Services or provided in connection with the delivery of Professional Services.

Any reference in this agreement or an Enrollment to a “day” means a calendar day, except references that specify “business day”.

“Enrollment” means the document you submit to Microsoft to place orders for Enrolled Affiliate.

“Enrolled Affiliate” or “you” means any entity of the United States or entity authorized by the United States that enters into a Government Contract for Products.

“Enterprise” means Enrolled Affiliate and the Affiliates listed on an Enrollment.

“Enterprise Product” means any Desktop Platform Product that Microsoft designates as an Enterprise Product in the Product Terms for which Enrolled Affiliate chooses to order License(s) under an Enrollment. Enterprise Products must be licensed for all Qualified Devices and Qualified Users on an Enterprise-wide basis under this program.

“Federal Agency” means a bureau, office, agency, department or other entity of the United States Government.

“Fixes” means Product fixes, modifications or enhancements or their derivatives that Microsoft releases generally (such as Product service packs), or provides to Enrolled Affiliate to address a specific issue.

“Government” means a Federal Agency, State/Local Entity, or Tribal Entity acting in its governmental capacity.

“Government Community Cloud Services” means Microsoft Online Services that are provisioned in Microsoft’s multi-tenant data centers for exclusive use by or for the Community and offered in accordance with the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Special Publication 800-145. Microsoft Online Services that are Government Community Cloud Services are designated as such in the Use Rights and Product Terms.

“Government Contract” means the Government Partner’s GSA Schedule Contract, which incorporates these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions.

“Government Partner” means the entity from whom you place your order for Products under the Government Contract.

“Industry Device” (also known as line of business device) means any device that: (1) is not useable in its deployed configuration as a general purpose personal computing device (such as a personal computer), a multi-function server, or a commercially viable substitute for one of these systems; and (2) only employs an industry or task-specific software program (e.g. a computer-aided design program used by an architect or a point of sale program) (“Industry Program”). The device may include features and functions derived from Microsoft software or third-party software. If the device performs desktop functions (such as email, word processing, spreadsheets, database, network or Internet browsing, or scheduling, or personal finance), then the desktop functions: (1) may only be used for the purpose of supporting the Industry Program functionality; and (2) must be technically integrated with the Industry Program or employ technically enforced policies or architecture to operate only when used with the Industry Program functionality.

“Joint Ownership” means each party has the right to independently exercise any and all rights of ownership now known or hereinafter created or recognized, including without limitation the rights to use, reproduce, modify and distribute the Service Deliverable for any purpose, without the need for further authorization to exercise any such rights or any obligation of accounting or payment of royalties;

“License” means Enrolled Affiliate’s right to use the quantity of a Product ordered. For certain Products, a License may be available on a subscription basis (“Subscription License”). Licenses for Online Services will be considered Subscription Licenses under these Additional Use Right and Restrictions.

“Managed Device” means any device on which any Affiliate in the Enterprise directly or indirectly controls one or more operating system environments. Examples of Managed Devices can be found in the Product Terms.

“Office 365 Service Descriptions” means the Service Descriptions for Office 365 GCC High, published by Microsoft at <https://technet.microsoft.com/en-us/library/mt774581.aspx> (for the product superset, Office 365 US Government) and <https://technet.microsoft.com/en-us/library/mt774968.aspx> (for the product subset, Office 365 GCC High), or at successor sites Microsoft later identifies.

“Office 365 US Government” means the Government Community Cloud Service described by the Office 365 Service Descriptions, and purchased by Enrolled Affiliate pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Enrollment.

“Office 365 GCC High” means the Government Community Cloud Service described by the Office 365 Service Descriptions, and purchased by Enrolled Affiliate pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Enrollment.

“Online Services” means the Microsoft-hosted services identified in the Online Services section of the Product Terms.

“Online Services Terms” means the additional terms that apply to Customer’s use of Online Services published on the Volume Licensing Site and updated from time to time. Notwithstanding anything in the Mandatory Addendum License Agreement or Service Level Agreement included in the Government Contract to the contrary, the Online Services Terms are hereby incorporated into this agreement and the Government Contract and a binding on the parties.

“Order” means the order placed by Government Partner on your behalf under the Government Partners’ GSA Schedule contract or Blanket Purchase Agreement issued thereunder.

“Pre-Existing Work” means any computer code or materials developed or otherwise obtained independently of the efforts of a party under a Statement of Services;

“Product” means all products identified on the Product Terms, such as software, Online Services and other web-based services, including pre-release or beta versions. Product availability may vary by region.

“Product Terms” means the document that provides information about Microsoft Products available through volume licensing. The Product Terms document is published on the Volume Licensing Site at <https://www.explore.ms/> and is updated from time to time. Notwithstanding anything in the Mandatory Addendum License Agreement or Service Level Agreement included in the Government Contract to the contrary, the Product Terms are hereby incorporated into this agreement and the Government Contract and a binding on the parties.

“Professional Services” means all Product support services and Microsoft research or engineering services or advice provided to Customer under this Agreement. “Professional Services” or “services” does not include Online Services;

“Qualified Device” means any device that is used by or for the benefit of Enrolled Affiliate’s Enterprise and is: (1) a personal desktop computer, portable computer, workstation, or similar device capable of running Windows Pro locally (in a physical or virtual operating system environment), or (2) a device used to access a virtual desktop infrastructure (“VDI”). Qualified Devices do not include any device that is: (1) designated as a server and not used as a personal computer, (2) an Industry Device, or (3) not a Managed Device. At its option, the Enrolled Affiliate may designate any device excluded above (e.g., Industry Device) that is used by or for the benefit of the Enrolled Affiliate’s Enterprise as a Qualified Device for all or a subset of Enterprise Products or Online Services the Enrolled Affiliate has selected.

“Qualified User” means a person (e.g., employee, consultant, contingent staff) who: (1) is a user of a Qualified Device, or (2) accesses any server software requiring an Enterprise Product Client Access License or any Enterprise Online Service. It does not include a person who accesses server software or an Online Service solely under a License identified in the Qualified User exemptions in the Product Terms.

“Reserved License” means for an Online Service identified as eligible for true-ups in the Product Terms, the License reserved by Enrolled Affiliate prior to use and for which Microsoft will make the Online Service available for activation.

“Service Deliverables” means any computer code or materials, other than Products or Fixes, that Microsoft leaves with Enrolled Affiliate at the conclusion of Microsoft’s performance of the Professional Services;

“Services”. The precise scope of the Professional Services will be specified in a Statement of Services. Enrolled Affiliate or any of Enrolled Affiliate’s Affiliates may enter into Statements of Services under this Agreement with Microsoft’s local Affiliates. Microsoft’s ability to deliver the Professional Services depends upon Enrolled Affiliate’s full and timely cooperation, as well as the accuracy and completeness of any information Enrolled Affiliate provides. This Agreement does not obligate either party or its Affiliates to enter into any Statements of Services.

“SLA” means Service Level Agreement, which specifies the minimum service level for Online Services and is published on the Volume Licensing Site.

“Software” means licensed copies of Microsoft software identified on the Product Terms. Software does not include Online Services, but Software may be part of an Online Service.

“Software Assurance” means an offering that provides new version rights and other benefits for Products as described in the Product Terms.

“Statement of Services” means any work orders, services descriptions, or other description of Professional Services that incorporates this Agreement;

“Trade Secret” means information that is not generally known or readily ascertainable to the public, has economic value as a result, and has been subject to reasonable steps under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

“Tribal Entity” means a federally-recognized tribal entity performing tribal governmental functions and eligible for funding and services from the U.S. Department of Interior by virtue of its status as an Indian tribe.

“Use Rights,” means the use rights or terms of service for each Product published on the Volume Licensing Site and updated from time to time. The Use Rights supersede the terms of any end user license agreement that accompanies a Product. The Use Rights for Software are published by Microsoft in the Product Terms. The Use Rights for Online Services are published in the Online Services Terms. Notwithstanding anything in the Mandatory Addendum License Agreement or Service Level Agreement included in the Government Contract to the contrary, the Use Rights are hereby incorporated into this agreement and the Government Contract and a binding on the parties.

“use” or “run” means to copy, install, use, access, display, run or otherwise interact.

LICENSES FOR PRODUCTS.

Upon Microsoft’s acceptance of an Enrollment for an Enrolled Affiliate, the Enrolled Affiliate has the following rights during the term of its Order. These rights apply to the Licenses obtained under the Order.

License Grant. By accepting an Enrollment, Microsoft grants the Enterprise a non-exclusive, worldwide and limited right to download, install and use software Products, and to access and use the Online Services, each in the quantity ordered under the Enrollment. The rights granted are subject to the terms of the Use Rights and the Product Terms and are conditions on Enrolled Affiliate’s continued compliance with the terms of this agreement, including, without limitation, payment for the Licenses. Microsoft reserves all rights not expressly granted in this agreement.

Duration of Licenses. Subscription Licenses and most Software Assurance rights are temporary and expire when the applicable Enrollment is terminated or expires, unless the Enrollment is renewed or Enrolled Affiliate exercises a buy-out option, which is available for some Subscription Licenses. Except as otherwise noted in the applicable Enrollment or Use Rights, all other Licenses become perpetual only when all payments for that License have been made and the initial Enrollment term has expired.

Applicable Use Rights.

Products (other than Online Services). The Use Rights in effect on the effective date of the Enrollment will apply to Enterprise's use of the version of each Product that is current at the time. For future versions and new Products, the Product Use Rights in effect when those versions and Products are first released will apply. Changes Microsoft makes to the Use Rights for a particular version will not apply unless the Enrolled Affiliate chooses to have those changes apply. The Use Rights applicable to perpetual Licenses that were acquired under a previous agreement or Enrollment are determined by the agreement or Enrollment under which they were acquired. Renewal of Software Assurance does not change which Use Rights apply to those Licenses.

Online Services. For Online Services, the Use Rights in effect on the subscription start date will apply for the subscription term as defined in the Product Terms.

More restrictive use rights. If a new version of a Product has more restrictive use rights than the version that is current at the start of the applicable initial or renewal term of the Enrollment, those more restrictive use rights will not apply to the Enterprise's use of that Product during the term.

Downgrade rights. Enterprise may use an earlier version of Product than the version that is current on the effective date of the Enrollment. In that case, the Use Rights for the current version apply to the use of the earlier version. If the earlier Product version includes features that are not in the new version, then the Use Rights applicable to the earlier version apply with respect to those features.

e.New Version Rights under Software Assurance. Enrolled Affiliate must order and maintain continuous Software Assurance coverage for each License ordered. With Software Assurance coverage, Enterprise automatically has the right to use a new version of a licensed Product as soon as it is released, even if Enterprise chooses not use the new version immediately.

Except as otherwise permitted under an Enrollment, use of the new version will be subject to the new version's Use Rights.

If the License for the earlier version of the Product is perpetual at the time the new version is released, the License for the new version will also be perpetual. Perpetual Licenses obtained through Software Assurance replace any perpetual Licenses for the earlier version.

License confirmation. The Government Contract, the Order, the Enrolled Affiliate's order confirmation, and any documentation evidencing transfers of Licenses, together with proof of payment, will be the Enrolled Affiliate's evidence of all Licenses ordered by an Enrollment for an Enrolled Affiliate.

Reorganizations, Consolidations, and Privatizations. If the number of Licenses covered by an Enrollment changes by more than ten percent as a result of a reorganization, consolidation, or privatization of any member of the Enterprise, Microsoft will work with Enrolled Affiliate in good faith to determine how to accommodate the Enterprise's changed circumstances in the context of these Additional Use Rights and Restrictions.

Modification or termination of an Online Service for regulatory reasons. Microsoft may modify or terminate an Online Service in any country or jurisdiction where there is any current or future government requirement or obligation that: (1) subjects Microsoft to any regulation or requirement not generally applicable to businesses operating there; (2) presents a hardship for Microsoft to continue operating the Online Service without modification; and/or

(3) causes Microsoft to believe these terms or the Online Service may be in conflict with any such requirement or obligation.

Making copies of Products and re-imaging rights.

General. Enrolled Affiliate may make as many copies of the Products as it needs to distribute them within the Enterprise. Copies must be true and complete (including copyright and trademark notices), from master copies obtained from a Microsoft approved fulfillment source. Enrolled Affiliate may use a third party to make these copies, but Enrolled Affiliate agrees that it will be responsible for any third party's actions. Enrolled Affiliate agrees to make reasonable efforts to notify its employees, agents, and any other individuals who use the Products that the Products are licensed from Microsoft and subject to the terms of the Government Contract and the Order.

Copies for training/evaluation and back-up. For all Products other than Online Services, Enrolled Affiliate may (1) use up to 20 complimentary copies of any Product in a dedicated training facility on its premises for purposes of training on that particular Product, (2) use up to 10 complimentary copies of any Product for a 60-day evaluation period, and (3) use one complimentary copy of any licensed Product for back-up or archival purposes for each of its distinct geographic locations. Trials for Online Services may be available if specified in the Use Rights.

Right to re-image. In certain cases, re-imaging is permitted using the Product media. If the Microsoft Product(s) is licensed (1) from an original equipment manufacturer (OEM), (2) as full packaged Product through a retail source, or (3) under another Microsoft program, then media provided under the Order may be generally used to create images for use in place of copies provided through that separate source. This right is conditional upon the following:

Separate Licenses must be acquired from the separate source for each Product that is re-imaged.

The Product, language, version and components of the copies made must be identical to the Product, language, version, and all components of the copies they replace and the number of copies or instances of the re-imaged Product permitted remains the same.

Except for copies of an operating system and copies of Products licensed under another Microsoft program, the Product type (e.g., Upgrade or full License) re-imaged must be identical to the Product type from the separate source.

Enrolled Affiliate must adhere to any Product specific processes or requirements for re- imaging identified in the Product Terms.

Re-imaged Products remain subject to the terms and use rights of the License acquired from the separate source. This subsection does not create or extend any warranty or support obligation.

Transferring and assigning licenses.

License transfers. License transfers are not permitted, except that Enrolled Affiliate may transfer only fully-paid perpetual Licenses to:

an Affiliate, or a third party solely in connection with the transfer of hardware or employees to whom the Licenses have been assigned as part of (1) a reorganization or privatization of an Affiliate or a division of an Affiliate or (2) a consolidation involving Enrolled Affiliate or an Affiliate. Upon such transfer, Enrolled Affiliate must uninstall and discontinue using the licensed Product and render any copies unusable.

Notification of License Transfer. Enrolled Affiliate must notify Microsoft of a transfer of License by completing a license transfer form, which can be obtained from <http://www.microsoft.com/licensing/contracts> and sending the completed form to Microsoft before the license transfer. No License transfer will be valid unless Enrolled Affiliate provides to the transferee, and the transferee accepts in writing, documents sufficient to enable the transferee to ascertain the scope, purpose and limitations of the rights granted by Microsoft under the licenses being transferred (including, without limitation, the applicable Use Rights, use and transfer restrictions, warranties and limitations of liability). Any license transfer not made in compliance with this section will be void.

Internal assignment of Licenses and Software Assurance. Licenses and Software Assurance must be assigned to a single user or device within the Enterprise. Licenses and Software Assurance may be reassigned as described in the Use Rights.

Use, ownership, rights, and restrictions.

Products. Use of any Product is governed by the Use Rights specific to each Product and version and by these Additional Use Rights and Restrictions.

Fixes. Each fix is under the same license terms as the Product to which it applies. If a Fix is not provided for a specific Product, any use terms Microsoft provides with the Fixe will apply.

Non-Microsoft software and technology.

Enrolled Affiliate is solely responsible for any non-Microsoft software or technology that it installs or uses with the Products or Fixes.

Microsoft is not a party to and is not bound by any terms governing Enrolled Affiliate's use of non-Microsoft software or technology. Without limiting the foregoing, non-Microsoft software or scripts linked to or referenced from any Product website, are governed by the open source licenses used by the third parties that own such code, not by Microsoft and Microsoft's licensing terms.

If Enrolled Affiliate installs or uses any non-Microsoft software or technology with the Products or Fixes, it directs and controls the installation in and use of such software or technology in the Products or Fixes, through its actions (e.g., through Enrolled Affiliate's use of application programming interfaces and other technical means that are part of the Online Services). Microsoft will not run or make any copies of such non-Microsoft software or technology outside of its relationship with Enrolled Affiliate.

Restrictions. Enrolled Affiliate must not (and must not attempt to): (1) reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble any Product, Fix, or Services Deliverable, (2) install or use non-Microsoft software or technology in any way that would subject Microsoft's intellectual property or technology to obligations beyond those included in this agreement; or (3) work around any technical limitations in the Products or restrictions in Product documentation. Except as expressly permitted in this agreement, Enrolled Affiliate must not (i) separate and run parts of a Product on more than one device, upgrade or downgrade parts of a Product at different times, or transfer parts of a Product separately; or (ii) distribute, sublicense, rent, lease, lend, or use any Product, or Fix to offer hosting services to a third party.

No transfer of ownership; Reservation of rights. Products and Fixes are protected by copyright and other intellectual property rights laws and international treaties. Microsoft (1) does not transfer any ownership rights in any Products or Fixes and (2) reserves all rights not expressly granted to Enrolled Affiliate.

Confidentiality.

"Confidential Information" is non-public information that is designated "confidential" or that a reasonable person should understand is confidential, including Customer Data and any Statement of Services.

Confidential Information does not include information that (1) becomes publicly available without a breach of this agreement, (2) the receiving party received lawfully from another source without a confidentiality obligation, (3) is independently developed, or (4) is a comment or suggestion volunteered about the other party's business, products or services.

Each party will take reasonable steps to protect the other's Confidential Information and will use the other party's Confidential Information only for purposes of the parties' business relationship. Neither party will disclose that Confidential Information to third parties, except to its employees, Affiliates, contractors, advisors and consultants ("Representatives") and then only on a need-to-know basis under nondisclosure obligations at least as protective as this agreement. Each party remains responsible for the use of the Confidential Information by its Representatives and, in the event of discovery of any unauthorized use or disclosure, must promptly notify the other party.

A party may disclose the other's Confidential Information if required by law; but only after it notifies the other party (if legally permissible) to enable the other party to seek a protective order.

Neither party is required to restrict work assignments of its Representatives who have had access to Confidential Information. Each party agrees that the use of information retained in Representatives' unaided memories in the development or deployment of the parties' respective products or services does not create liability under this agreement or trade secret law, and each party agrees to limit what it discloses to the other accordingly. These obligations apply (i) for Customer Data until it is deleted from the Online Services, and (ii) for all other Confidential Information, for a period of five years after the Confidential Information is received.

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). Notwithstanding anything in this section to the contrary, the parties acknowledge and agree that Enrolled Affiliate is subject to the United States Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552) and may disclose information in response to a valid request in accordance with FOIA. Should Enrolled Affiliate receive a request under FOIA for Microsoft's confidential information, Enrolled Affiliate agrees to give Microsoft adequate prior notice of the request and before releasing Microsoft's confidential information to a third party, in order to allow Microsoft sufficient time to seek injunctive relief or other relief against such disclosure.

Privacy and Compliance with Laws.

Enrolled Affiliate consents to the processing of personal information by Microsoft and its agents to facilitate the subject matter of these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions and the applicable Order. Enrolled Affiliate will obtain all required consents from third parties (including Enrolled Affiliate's contacts, resellers, distributors, administrators, and employees) under applicable privacy and data protection law before providing personal information to Microsoft.

Unless otherwise specified in the Enrollment or the Use Rights, personal information collected under these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions (i) may be transferred, stored and processed in the United States or any other country in which Microsoft or its contractors maintain facilities and (ii) will be subject to the privacy terms specified in the Use Rights. Microsoft abides by the EU Safe Harbor and the Swiss Safe Harbor frameworks as set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce regarding the collection, use, and retention of data from the European Union, the European Economic Area, and Switzerland.

U.S. export. Products and Fixes are subject to U.S. export jurisdiction. Enrolled Affiliate must comply with all applicable international and national laws, including the U.S. Export Administration Regulations, the International Traffic in Arms Regulations, and end-user, end use and destination restrictions by U.S. and other governments related to Microsoft products, services, and technologies.

Warranties.

Limited warranties and remedies.

Software. Microsoft warrants that each version of the Software will perform substantially as described in the applicable Product documentation for one year from the date Enrolled Affiliate is first licensed for that version. If it does not and Enrolled Affiliate notifies Microsoft within the warranty term, then Microsoft will, at its option (1) return the price Customer paid for the Software license, or (2) repair or replace the Software.

Online Services. Microsoft warrants that each Online Services will perform in accordance with the applicable SLA during the Enrolled Affiliate's use. Enrolled Affiliate's remedies for breach of this warranty are in the SLA.

Professional Services. Microsoft warrants that all Professional Services will be performed with professional care and skill. If Microsoft fails to do so and Enrolled Affiliate notifies Microsoft within 90 days of the date of performance, then Microsoft will either re-perform the Professional Services or return the price paid for them as Enrolled Affiliate's sole remedy for breach of the Professional Services warranty.

Enrolled Affiliate will perform its applicable responsibilities and obligations to support Microsoft's performance of the Professional Services, as specified in the applicable Statement of Services.

The remedies above are Enrolled Affiliate's sole remedies for breach of the warranties in this section. Enrolled Affiliate waives any breach of warranty claims not made during the warranty period.

Exclusions. The warranties in this agreement do not cover problems caused by accident, abuse or use in a manner inconsistent with this agreement, including failure to meet minimum system requirements. These warranties do not apply to free, trial, pre-release, or beta Products, or to components of Products that Enrolled Affiliate is permitted to redistribute.

DISCLAIMER. Microsoft provides no other warranties or conditions and disclaims any other express, implied or statutory warranties, including warranties of quality, title, non-infringement, merchantability, and fitness for a particular purpose.

Defense of third party claims.

By Microsoft. Microsoft will defend Enrolled Affiliate against any claims made by an unaffiliated third party that (i) any Product or Fix or Service Deliverable made available by Microsoft infringes its patent, copyright or trademark or makes unlawful use of its Trade Secret, or (ii) that arises from Microsoft's provision of an Online Service in violation of laws applicable to all online services providers. Microsoft will pay the amount of any resulting adverse final judgment or approved settlement. This does not apply to claims or awards based on (i) Customer Data; (ii) non-Microsoft software; (iii) modifications to a Product or a Fix or a Service Deliverable Enrolled Affiliate makes or any specifications or materials Enrolled Affiliate provides; (iv) Enrolled Affiliate's combination of a Product or Fix or Service Deliverable with (or damages based on the value of) a non-Microsoft product, data, or business process; (v) Enrolled Affiliate's use of a Microsoft trademark without express, written consent or the use or redistribution of a Product or Fix or Service Deliverable in violation of this agreement; (vi) Enrolled Affiliate's continued use of a Product or Fix or Service Deliverable after being notified to stop due to a third party claim; or (vii) Products or Fixes or Service Deliverables provided free of charge.

Your agreement to protect. Enrolled Affiliate agrees that use of Customer Data or non-Microsoft software Microsoft hosts on Enrolled Affiliate's behalf will not infringe any third party's patent, copyright or trademark or make unlawful use of any third party's Trade Secret. In addition, Enrolled Affiliate will not use an Online Service to gain unauthorized access to or disrupt any service, data, account or network in connection with the use of the Online Services.

Rights and remedies in case of possible infringement or misappropriation. If Microsoft reasonably believes that a claim under this section may result in a legal bar prohibiting Enrolled Affiliate's use of the Product or Fix or Service Deliverable, Microsoft will seek to obtain the right for Enrolled Affiliate to keep using it or modify or replace it with a functional equivalent, in which case Enrolled Affiliate must discontinue use of the prior version immediately. If these options are not commercially reasonable, Microsoft may terminate Enrolled Affiliate's right to the Product or Fix or Service Deliverable and refund any amounts Enrolled Affiliate has paid for those rights to Software and Fixes and Service Deliverables and, for Online Services, any amount paid for a usage period after the termination date.

Other terms. Enrolled Affiliate must notify Microsoft promptly in writing of a claim subject to this section; give Microsoft sole control over the defense and settlement (subject to 28 U.S.C.

§ 516); and provide reasonable assistance in defending the claims. Microsoft will reimburse Enrolled Affiliate for reasonable out of pocket expenses that it incurs in providing assistance. The remedies provided in this section are the exclusive remedies for the claims described in this section.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Microsoft's rights set forth in this section (and the rights of the third party claiming infringement) shall be governed by the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1498.

Limitation of liability.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, for each Product, each party's maximum, aggregate liability to the other under this Agreement is limited to direct damages finally awarded in an amount not to exceed the amounts Enrolled Affiliate was required to pay for the applicable Products during the term of the Agreement, subject to the following:

Online Services. For Online Services, Microsoft's maximum liability to Enrolled Affiliate for any incident giving rise to a claim will not exceed the amount Enrolled Affiliate paid for the Online Service during the 12 months before the incident.

Professional Services. Each party's total liability for all claims relating to Professional Services will be limited to the amounts Enrolled Affiliate was required to pay for the Professional Services or the limitation of liability for the Online Service with which the Professional Services are offered, whichever is greater.

Free Products, Professional Services and Distributable Code. For Professional Services, products provided free of charge and code that Enrolled Affiliate is authorized to redistribute to third parties without separate payment to Microsoft, Microsoft's liability is limited to direct damages finally awarded up to US$5,000.

Exclusions. In no event will either party be liable for indirect, incidental, special, punitive, or consequential damages, including loss of use, loss of profits, or interruption of business, however caused or on any theory of liability.

Exceptions. No limitation or exclusions will apply to liability arising out of either party's (1) confidentiality obligations (except for all liability related to Customer Data, which will remain subject to the limitations and exclusions above); (2) defense obligations; or (3) violation of the other party's intellectual property rights.

This clause shall not impair the U.S. Government's right to recover for fraud or crimes arising out of or related to these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions under any federal fraud statute, including the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729-3733.

True-up requirements

True-Up Order. Enrolled Affiliate must submit an annual true-up order that accounts for changes since the initial order or last true-up order. If there are no changes, then an update statement must be submitted instead of a true-up order. Microsoft, at its discretion, may validate the true-up data submitted through a formal product deployment assessment using an approved Microsoft partner.

Enterprise Products. Enrolled Affiliate must determine the number of Qualified Devices and Qualified Users (if ordering user-based Licenses) at the time the true-up order is placed and must order additional Licenses for all Qualified Devices and Qualified Users that are not already covered by existing Licenses, including any Enterprise Online Services.

Additional Products. For Additional Products that have been previously ordered, Enrolled Affiliate must determine the maximum number of Additional Products used since the latter of the initial order, the last true-up order, or the prior anniversary date and submit a true-up order that accounts for any increase.

Online Services. For Online Services identified as eligible for true-up in the Product Terms, Enrolled Affiliate may reserve the additional Licenses prior to use, and payment may be deferred until the next true-up order. Microsoft will provide a report of Reserved Licenses in excess of existing orders to Enrolled Affiliate. Reserved Licenses will be invoiced retroactively to the month in which they were reserved.

Subscription License reductions. Enrolled Affiliate may reduce the quantity of Subscription Licenses at the enrollment anniversary date on a prospective basis if permitted in the Product Terms as follows:

For Subscription Licenses part of an Enterprise-wide purchase, Licenses may be reduced if the total quantity of Licenses and Software Assurance for an applicable group meets or exceeds the quantity of Qualified Devices identified on the Product Selection Form and includes any additional Qualified Devices and Qualified Users added in any prior true-up orders. Step-up Licenses and add-on subscription licenses do not count towards this total count.

For Enterprise Online Services not a part of an Enterprise-wide purchase, Licenses can be reduced as long as the initial order minimum requirements are maintained.

For Additional Products available as Subscription Licenses, Enrolled Affiliate may reduce the Licenses. If the License count is reduced to zero, then Enrolled Affiliate's use of the applicable Subscription License will be cancelled.

Invoices will be adjusted to reflect any reductions in Subscription Licenses at the true-up order Enrollment anniversary date and effective as of such date.

Update statement. An update statement must be submitted instead of a true-up order if, since the initial order or last true-up order, Enrolled Affiliate's Enterprise has not: (1) changed the number of Qualified Devices and Qualified Users licensed with Enterprise Products or Enterprise Online Services; and (2) increased its usage of Additional Products. This update statement must be signed by Enrolled Affiliate's authorized representative. The update statement must be received by Microsoft between 60 and 30 days prior to the Enrollment anniversary date. The last update statement is due within 30 days prior to the Expiration Date.

True-up order period. The true-up order or update statement must be received by Microsoft between 60 and 30 days prior to each Enrollment anniversary date. The third-year true-up order or update statement is due within 30 days prior to the Expiration Date, and any license reservations within this 30 day period will not be accepted. Enrolled Affiliate may submit true-up orders more often to account for increases in Product usage, but an annual true-up order or update statement must still be submitted during the annual order period.

Late true-up. If the true-up order or update statement is not received when due:

Enrolled Affiliate will be invoiced for all Reserved Licenses not previously ordered; and

Subscription License reductions cannot be reported until the following Enrollment anniversary date (or at Enrollment renewal, as applicable).

Step-up Licenses. For Licenses eligible for a step-up under this Enrollment, Enrolled Affiliate may step-up to a higher edition or suite as follows:

For step-up Licenses included on an initial order, Enrolled Affiliate may order according to the true-up process.

If step-up Licenses are not included on an initial order, Enrolled Affiliate may step-up initially by following the process described in the Section titled "Adding new Products not previously ordered," then for additional step-up Licenses, by following the true-up order process.

Verifying compliance.

Right to verify compliance. Enrolled Affiliate must keep records relating to all use and distribution of Products by Enrolled Affiliate and its Affiliates. Microsoft has the right, at its expense, to verify Enrolled Affiliate's and its Affiliates compliance with the Product's license terms.

Verification process and limitations. Microsoft will provide Enrolled Affiliate at least 30 days' notice of its intent to verify compliance. Verification will take place during normal business hours and in a manner that does not interfere unreasonably with Enrolled Affiliates operations. Microsoft will engage an independent auditor, which will be subject to a confidentiality obligation and subject to Enrolled Affiliate's security requirements. Enrolled Affiliate must promptly provide the independent auditor with any information it reasonably requests in furtherance of the verification, including access to systems running the Products and evidence of licenses for Products Enrolled Affiliate hosts, sublicenses, or distributes to third parties. Enrolled Affiliate agrees to complete Microsoft's self-audit process; which Microsoft may require as an alternative to a third party audit. Any information collected in the self-audit will be used solely for purposes of determining compliance.

Remedies for non-compliance. If verification or self-audit reveals any unlicensed use or distribution, then, within 30 days, Contractor will invoice Enrolled Affiliate for sufficient Licenses to cover that use or distribution. If unlicensed use or distribution is 5% or more, Enrolled Affiliate may be completely responsible for the costs Microsoft has incurred in verification, to the extent permitted by 31 U.S.C. § 1341 (Anti-Deficiency Act) and other applicable Federal law or similar state law (as applicable). The unlicensed use percentage is based on the total number of Licenses purchased compared to actual install base. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this section prevents the Enrolled Affiliate from disputing any invoice in accordance with the Contract Disputes Act (41 U.S.C. §§7101-7109). If there is no unlicensed use, Microsoft will not subject Enrolled Affiliate to another verification for at least one year. By exercising the rights and procedures described above, Microsoft does not waive its rights to enforce this agreement or to protect its intellectual property by any other means permitted by law.

Professional services.

Description of Supplier Services. The precise scope of the Professional Services will be specified in a Statement of Services. Enrolled Affiliate or any of Enrolled Affiliate's Affiliates may enter into Statements of Services under this Agreement with Microsoft's local Affiliates. Microsoft's ability to deliver the Professional Services depends upon Enrolled Affiliate's full and timely cooperation, as well as the accuracy and completeness of any information Enrolled Affiliate provides. This Agreement does not obligate either party or its Affiliates to enter into any Statements of Services.

Use, ownership, rights and restrictions.

Fixes. Each Fix is licensed under the same terms as the Product to which it applies (e.g., Azure Government Services). If the Fix is not provided for a specific Product, any use terms Microsoft provides with the Fix will apply. If no use terms are provided, Enrolled Affiliate shall have a non-exclusive, perpetual, fully paid-up license to use and reproduce the Fix solely for its internal business use. Enrolled Affiliate may not modify, change the file name or combine any Fix with any non-Microsoft computer code, except as expressly permitted in a licensing agreement.

Pre-Existing Work. All rights in Pre-Existing Work will remain the sole property of the party providing the Pre-Existing Work. Each party may use, reproduce and modify the other party's Pre-Existing Work only as needed to perform obligations related to Professional Services. Upon payment in full and subject to Enrolled Affiliate's compliance with this Agreement, Microsoft grants Enrolled Affiliate a non-exclusive, perpetual, fully paid-up license to use, reproduce and modify (excluding object code) any Microsoft Pre-Existing Work provided as part of a Service Deliverable, solely in the form delivered to Enrolled Affiliate and solely for Enrolled Affiliate's internal business purposes.

Service Deliverables. Except as may be otherwise explicitly expressed in a Statement of Services, upon payment in full, Microsoft grants to the Enrolled Affiliate a non-exclusive, perpetual, fully paid up license to use, reproduce and modify any Service Deliverables for the Enrolled Affiliates internal governmental purposes only and not for sale or distribution to any unaffiliated third party. Microsoft or the Enrolled Affiliate will be the sole owner of any modifications that each makes based upon the Service Deliverables. If any Service Deliverables are determined not to be commercial items and are delivered subject to: (i) the Department of Defense FAR Supplement ("DFARS") in the course of performance of this Agreement, Microsoft assigns to the Enrolled Affiliate unlimited rights in the Service Deliverables if the conditions at DFARS 252.227-7014(b)(1) are present; or with government purpose rights if the conditions at DFARS 252.227-7014(b)(2) are present; or with restricted rights if the conditions at DFARS 252.227-7014(b)(3) are present; or (ii) the Federal Acquisition Regulation ("FAR"), Microsoft assigns to the Enrolled Affiliate unlimited rights in the Service Deliverables if the conditions at FAR 52.227-14(b) are present; or limited rights or restricted rights if the conditions at FAR 52.227-14(g) are present. Any modification made to Service Deliverables or other data with Enrolled Affiliate funds shall remain the property of the party making the modification.

Affiliates rights. Enrolled Affiliate may only sublicense its rights to the Services Deliverables and Sample Code granted hereunder to its Affiliates, but Enrolled Affiliate's Affiliates may not sublicense these rights. Enrolled Affiliate is responsible for ensuring its Affiliates' compliance with this Agreement.

Materials. All rights in any Materials developed by Microsoft (other than Software code) and provided to Customer in connection with the services shall be owned by Microsoft except to the extent such Materials constitute Customer's Pre-Existing Work. Upon payment in full, Microsoft grants Customer a non-exclusive, perpetual, fully paid-up license to use, reproduce and modify the Materials solely for Customer's internal business operations and without any obligation of accounting or payment of royalties.

Non-Microsoft Software and Technology. Enrolled Affiliate is solely responsible for any non-Microsoft software or technology that it installs or uses. Enrolled Affiliate may not install or use non-Microsoft software or technology in any way that would subject Microsoft's intellectual property or technology to obligations beyond those included in this Agreement.

Sample Code. Upon payment in full, Microsoft grants Enrolled Affiliate a non-exclusive, perpetual, non-transferable license to use and modify any Software code provided by Microsoft for the purposes of illustration ("Sample Code") and to reproduce and distribute the object code form of the Sample Code for Enrolled Affiliate's internal business purposes only and not to any unaffiliated third party.

General Use Restrictions and Reservations. Enrolled Affiliate must not (and must not attempt to) reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble any Microsoft proprietary products, services and/or intellectual property, including, without limitation, Azure Government Services, Microsoft Products and/or Pre-Existing Work. Except as expressly permitted in this Agreement, Enrolled Affiliate must not (a) separate and run parts of a Microsoft Product on more than one computer, upgrade or downgrade parts of a Microsoft Product at different times, or transfer parts of a Microsoft Product separately or (b) distribute, sublicense, rent, lease, lend, or host any Microsoft Product, Fixes, or Services. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, all rights not expressly granted are reserved to Microsoft.

Restrictions on use. The U.S. Government must agree to not reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble any Product, Fix or Service Deliverable, except to the extent expressly permitted by applicable law despite this limitation. Except as expressly permitted in this Agreement, the U.S. Government must agree not to distribute, sublicense, rent, lease, lend or host any Product, Fix or Service Deliverable.

Reservation of Rights. Products, Fixes, and Service Deliverables are protected by copyright and other intellectual property rights laws and international treaties. Microsoft reserves all rights not expressly granted in this Agreement. No rights will be granted or implied by waiver or estoppel.

Supportability of Products. Support for Products is available under the terms of a licensing agreement, a separate Statement of Services or under the terms set forth at <http://support.microsoft.com> or a successor site.

Segmentation.

The purchase of any Products and related Professional Service Offerings or other Service offerings are all separate offers and separate from any other order for any Products and related Professional Service offerings or other Service offerings you may receive or have received from Microsoft. You understand that you may purchase and/or acquire any Products and related Professional Service offerings or other Service offerings independently of any other Products or Service offerings. Your obligation to pay for (a) any Products and related Professional Service offerings is not contingent on performance of any other Professional Service offerings or delivery of any other Products or (b) other Professional Service offerings is not contingent on delivery of any Products or performance of any additional/other Professional Service offerings

Government Community Cloud.

Community requirements. Agency certifies that all Enrolled Affiliates in the Enterprise are members of the Community and represents that all Enrolled Affiliates in the Enterprise have agreed to use Government Community Cloud Services solely in their capacities as members of the Community and for the benefit of end users that are members of the Community. Use of Government Community Cloud Services by an entity that is not a member of the Community or to provide services to non-Community members is strictly prohibited and could result in termination of an Enrolled Affiliate's license(s) for Government Community Cloud Services. Agency acknowledges that only Community members may use Government Community Cloud Services.

All terms and conditions applicable to non-Government Community Cloud Services also apply to their corresponding Government Community Cloud Services, except as otherwise noted in the Use Rights and this Amendment.

Enrolled Affiliate may not deploy or use Government Community Cloud Services and corresponding non-Government Community Cloud Services in the same domain.

Any Enrolled Affiliate in the Enterprise that uses Government Community Cloud Services must maintain its status as a member of the Community. Maintaining status as a member of the Community is a material requirement for such services.

Use Rights for Government Community Cloud Services. For Government Community Cloud Services, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Use Rights:

Government Community Cloud Services will be offered only within the United States.

Additional European Terms, as set forth in the Use Rights, will not apply.

References to geographic areas in the Use Rights with respect to the location of Customer Data at rest, as set forth in the Use Rights, refer only to the United States.

All terms and conditions applicable to non-Government Community Cloud Services also apply to their corresponding Government Community Cloud Services, except as otherwise noted herein.

Enrolled Affiliate may not deploy or use Government Community Cloud Services and corresponding non-Government Community Cloud Services in the same domain.

The Compliance Trust Center Page describes the control standards and frameworks with which Azure Government Services comply.

Enrolled Affiliate may not deploy or use Government Community Cloud Services and corresponding non-Government Community Cloud Services in the same domain. Additionally, Office 365 US Government may not be deployed or used in the same domain as other Government Community Cloud Services

Notwithstanding the Data Processing Terms section of the Online Services Terms, Office 365 GCC High and Azure Government Services are not subject to the same control standards and frameworks as the Microsoft Azure Core Services. The Compliance Trust Center Page describes the control standards and frameworks with which Office 365 GCC High and Azure Government Services comply.

Operational and ordering considerations for Office 365 GCC High

Enrolled Affiliate (i) acknowledges that its Tenant administrator console (when available) will appear to include more licenses than it has ordered and is entitled to; and (ii) agrees that it must order licenses for every User account it assigns. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Enrollment and Product Terms, Licenses will be deemed "Reserved" for each user (and thereby subject to a True-Up Order requirement in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Enrollment), as of the day that User's account is reserved, unless a License for each such User is ordered in advance. Enrolled Affiliate is solely responsible for keeping accurate records of the month each User is assigned to a User account, and will provide such records to Microsoft with its True-Up orders.

ii. Enrolled Affiliate acknowledges that (i) availability of its Office 365 GCC High tenant may follow several weeks after its initial order, and (ii) the service components provided pursuant to its orders for "Suite" SKUs such as E1 and E3, as listed in the Office 365 Service Descriptions, may differ from those components available in similar suites available in other forms of Office 365 Services.

Miscellaneous.

Severability. If any provision in this agreement is found unenforceable, the balance of the agreement will remain in full force and effect.

Management and Reporting. Enrolled Affiliate must provide and manage account details (e.g., contacts, orders, Licenses, software downloads) on Microsoft's Volume Licensing Service Center web site (or successor site) at: <https://www.microsoft.com/licensing/servicecenter>. On the effective date of this agreement and any Enrollments, the contact(s) Enrolled Affiliate has identified for this purpose will be provided access to this site and may assign additional users and contacts.

Waiver. Failure to enforce any provision of this agreement will not constitute a waiver. Any waiver must be in writing and signed by the waiving party.

Free Products. Any free Product provided to Enrolled Affiliate is for the sole use and benefit of the Enrolled Affiliate purposes only, and is not provided for use by or personal benefit of any specific government employee.

Assignment. Enrolled Affiliate may assign all its rights under this agreement to an Affiliate, but it must notify Microsoft in writing of the assignment. Any other proposed assignment under this agreement must be approved by the other party in writing. Any assignment will not relieve the assigning party of its obligations under the assigned agreement. Any attempted assignment without required approval will be void.

Use of contractors. Microsoft may use contractors to support services but will be responsible for their performance subject to the terms of this agreement.

Third party beneficiary. Microsoft is a third party beneficiary of this agreement and may enforce its terms.

Survival. All provisions survive termination or expiration of this agreement except those requiring performance only during the term of the agreement.

Privacy and Compliance with applicable Laws, privacy and security.

Microsoft and Enrolled Affiliate will each comply with all applicable laws and regulations (including applicable security breach notification law). However, Microsoft is not responsible for compliance with any laws applicable to Enrolled Affiliate or Enrolled Affiliate's industry that are not also generally applicable to information technology services providers.

Natural disaster. In the event of a natural disaster, Microsoft may provide additional assistance or rights to Enrolled Affiliate than are set forth in this agreement by posting them on <http://www.microsoft.com> at such time.

Disputes. Any breach of these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions, including Enrolled Affiliate's obligations set forth herein, shall be handled in accordance with the Contracts Disputes Act (41 U.S.C. §§7101-7109).

Voluntary Product Accessibility Templates. Microsoft supports the government's obligation to provide accessible technologies to its citizens with disabilities as required by Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and its state law counterparts. The Voluntary Product Accessibility Templates ("VPATs") for Products and the Microsoft technologies used in providing the Online Services can be found at Microsoft's VPAT page. Further information regarding Microsoft's commitment to accessibility can be found at <https://www.microsoft.com/en-us/accessibility>.

If any document incorporated by reference into these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions, including the Use Rights and terms included and/or referenced or incorporated herein and/or therein, contains a provision (a) allowing for the automatic termination of your license rights or Software Assurance services; (b) allowing for the automatic renewal of services and/or fees; (c) requiring the governing law to be anything other than Federal law; and/or (d) otherwise violates applicable Federal law, then, such terms shall not apply with respect to the Federal Government. If any document incorporated by reference into these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions, including the Use Rights and terms included and/or referenced or incorporated herein and/or therein contains an indemnification provision, such provision shall not apply as to the United States indemnifying Microsoft or any other party.

No provisions of any shrink-wrap or any click-through agreement (or other similar form of agreement) that may be provided in conjunction with any product(s) or services acquired under these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions shall apply in place of, or serve to modify any provision of these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions, even if a user or authorized officer of Enrolled Affiliate purports to have affirmatively accepted such shrink-wrap or click-through provisions. For the avoid of doubt and without limiting the foregoing, in the event of a conflict between any such shrink-wrap or click-through provisions (irrespective of the products or services that such provisions attach to) and any term or condition of these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions, then the relevant term or condition of these Microsoft License Terms and Conditions shall govern and supersede the purchase of such product(s) or services to the extent of any such conflict. All acceptance of agreements and renewals shall be executed in writing.

Insurance while performing Professional Services on Enrolled Affiliate's premises. Microsoft will maintain industry-appropriate insurance coverage at all times when performing Professional Services on Enrolled Affiliate's premises under this Agreement via commercial insurance, self insurance, or any other similar risk financing alternative. Microsoft will provide Enrolled Affiliate with evidence of coverage on request.

Cost or pricing data. Microsoft will not, under any circumstances, provide Enrolled Affiliate with, or accept any Statement of Services that would require the submission of, cost or pricing data as defined by 48 CFR 15.4 or the submission of noncommercial items.

Section headings. All section and subsection headings used in this agreement are for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of this agreement.

EXHIBIT A

Microsoft Cloud Agreement

US Government Community Cloud

This Microsoft Cloud Agreement is incorporated into the Customer Agreement entered into between the Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts customer who is a Community member (“Customer” or “Ordering Activity”) and the person or entity who has entered into a prime contract with the Customer (“Contractor”) as an addendum and governs Customer’s use of the Microsoft Products. It consists of the terms and conditions below, Use Rights, SLA, and all documents referenced within those documents (together, the “agreement”). It is effective on the date that the Contractor provisions the Customer’s Subscription. Key terms are defined in Section 9.

Grants, rights and terms.

All rights granted under this agreement are non-exclusive and non-transferable and apply as long as neither Customer nor any of its Affiliates is in material breach of this agreement.

Software. Upon acceptance of each order, Microsoft grants Customer a limited right to use the Software in the quantities ordered.

Use Rights. The Use Rights in effect when Customer orders Software will apply to Customer’s use of the version of the Software that is current at the time. For future versions and new Software, the Use Rights in effect when those versions and Software are first released will apply. Changes Microsoft makes to the Use Rights for a particular version will not apply unless Customer chooses to have those changes apply.

Temporary and perpetual licenses. Licenses available on a subscription basis are temporary. For all other licenses, the right to use Software becomes perpetual upon payment in full.

Online Services. Customer may use the Online Services as provided in this agreement.

Online Services Terms. The Online Services Terms in effect when Customer orders or renews a Subscription to an Online Service will apply for the applicable Subscription term. For Online Services that are billed periodically based on consumption, the Online Services Terms current at the start of each billing period will apply to usage during that period

Suspension. Microsoft may temporarily suspend use of an Online Service during Customer’s violation of the Acceptable Use Policy or failure to respond to a claim of alleged infringement. Microsoft will give Customer notice before suspending an Online Service when reasonable.

End Users. Customer controls access by End Users and is responsible for their use of the Product in accordance with this agreement. For example, Customer will ensure End Users comply with the Acceptable Use Policy.

Customer Data. Customer is solely responsible for the content of all Customer Data. Customer will secure and maintain all rights in Customer Data necessary for Microsoft to provide the Online Services to Customer without violating the rights of any third party or otherwise obligating Microsoft to Customer or to any third party. Microsoft does not and will not assume any obligations with respect to Customer Data or to Customer’s use of the Product other than as expressly set forth in this agreement or as required by applicable law.

Responsibility for your accounts. Customer is responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of any non-public authentication credentials associated with Customer's use of the Online Services.

Customer must promptly notify customer support about any possible misuse of Customer's accounts or authentication credentials or any security incident related to the Online Services.

Reservation of rights. Products are protected by copyright and other intellectual property rights laws and international treaties. Microsoft reserves all rights not expressly granted in this agreement. No rights will be granted or implied by waiver or estoppel. Rights to access or use Software on a device do not give Customer any right to implement Microsoft patents or other Microsoft intellectual property in the device itself or in any other software or devices.

Restrictions. Customer may use the Product only in accordance with this agreement. Customer may not (and is not licensed to): (1) reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble any Product or Fix, or attempt to do so; (2) install or use non-Microsoft software or technology in any way that would subject Microsoft's intellectual property or technology to any other license terms; or (3) work around any technical limitations in a Product or Fix or restrictions in Product documentation. Customer may not disable, tamper with, or otherwise attempt to circumvent any billing mechanism that meters Customer's use of the Online Services. Except as expressly permitted in this agreement or Product documentation, Customer may not distribute, sublicense, rent, lease, lend, resell or transfer and Products, in whole or in part, or use them to offer hosting services to a third party.

Preview releases. Microsoft may make Previews available. Previews are provided "as-is," "with all faults," and "as-available," and are excluded from the SLA and all limited warranties provided in this agreement. Previews may not be covered by customer support. Previews may be subject to reduced or different security, compliance, and privacy commitments, as further explained in the Online Services Terms and any additional notices provided with the Preview. Microsoft may change or discontinue Previews at any time without notice. Microsoft also may choose not to release a Preview into "General Availability."

Verifying compliance for products.

Right to verify compliance. Customer must keep records relating to all use and distribution of Products by Customer and its Affiliates. Microsoft has the right, at its expense, to verify compliance with the Products' license terms. Customer must promptly provide any information reasonably requested by the independent auditors retained by Microsoft in furtherance of the verification, including, subject to the Government's reasonable security requirements, access to systems running the Products and evidence of licenses for Products that Customer hosts, sublicenses, or distributes to third parties. Customer agrees to complete Microsoft's self-audit process, which Microsoft may request as an alternative to a third-party audit. Such an audit request shall not occur more than once in a twelve month period.

Remedies for non-compliance. If verification or self-audit reveals any unlicensed use of Products, then Customer will, within 30 days, order sufficient licenses to cover any unlicensed use of products and Contractor will invoice Customer for additional license fees sufficient to cover the unauthorized use revealed by the audit and payment will be due 30 days after receipt of the invoice . If unlicensed use or distribution is 5% or more, the Customer may be completely responsible for the costs Microsoft has incurred in verification, to the extent permitted by 31 U.S.C. § 1341 (Anti-Deficiency Act) and other applicable Federal law or similar state law (as applicable). The unlicensed use percentage is based on the total number of licenses purchased compared to actual install base. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this section prevents the Customer from disputing any invoice in accordance with the Contract Disputes Act (41 U.S.C. §§7101-7109), if and as applicable. If there is no unlicensed use, Microsoft will not subject Customer to another verification for at least one year. By exercising the rights and procedures described above, Microsoft does not waive its rights to enforce this agreement or to protect its intellectual property by any other legal means.

Verification process. Microsoft will notify Customer at least 30 days in advance of its intent to verify Customers' compliance with the license terms for the Products Customer and its Affiliates use or distribute. Microsoft will engage an independent auditor, which will be subject to a confidentiality obligation. Any information collected in the self-audit will be used solely for purposes of determining compliance. This verification is subject to the Government's reasonable security requirements, will take place during normal business hours, and in a manner that does not unreasonably interfere with Customer's operations.

Subscriptions, ordering.

Available Subscription offers. The Subscription offers available to Customer will be established by the Customer Agreement and generally can be categorized as one or a combination of the following:

Online Services Commitment Offering. Customer commits in advance to purchase a specific quantity of Online Services for use during a Term and to pay upfront or on a periodic basis for continued use of the Online Service.

Consumption Offering (also called Pay-As-You-Go). Customer pays based on actual usage with no upfront commitment.

Limited Offering. Customer receives a limited quantity of Online Services for a limited term without charge (for example, a free trial) or as part of another Microsoft offering (for example, MSDN). Provisions in this agreement with respect to the SLA and data retention may not apply.

Software Commitment Offering. Customer commits in advance to purchase a specific quantity of Software for use during a Term and to pay upfront or on a periodic basis for continued use of the Software.

Ordering.

Orders must be placed through the Contractor. Customer may place orders for its Affiliates under this agreement and grant its Affiliates administrative rights to manage the Subscription, but, Affiliates may not place orders under this agreement. Customer also may assign the rights granted under Section 1.a and 1.b to a third party for use by that third party in Customer's internal business. If Customer grants any rights to Affiliates or third parties with respect to Software or Customer's Subscription, such Affiliates or third parties will be bound by this agreement and Customer agrees to be responsible for any actions of such Affiliates or third parties related to their use of the Products

The Contractor may permit Customer to modify the quantity of Online Services ordered during the Term of a Subscription. Additional quantities of Online Services added to a Subscription will expire at the end of that Subscription.

Pricing and payment. Prices for each Product and any terms and conditions for invoicing and payment will be in accordance with the GSA Pricelist.

reserved

Eligibility for Academic, Government and Nonprofit versions. Customer agrees that if it is purchasing an academic, government or nonprofit offer, Customer meets the respective eligibility requirements listed at the following sites:

For academic offers, the requirements for educational institutions (including administrative offices or boards of education, public libraries, or public museums) listed at <https://azuregov.microsoft.com/general>;

For government offers, the requirements listed at <https://azuregov.microsoft.com/general> and

For nonprofit offers, the requirements listed at <https://azuregov.microsoft.com/general> As an exception to the foregoing, if Customer is not a government entity but has been verified by Contractor to be an eligible member of the Community, then the requirements in (ii) above shall not apply. Microsoft reserves the right to verify eligibility at any time and submit a claim to the Contracting Officer under the Contract Disputes Act if Microsoft believes the eligibility requirements are not met.

Security, privacy, and data protection.

Reseller Administrator Access and Customer Data. Customer acknowledges and agrees that (i) the Contractor will be the primary administrator of the Online Services for the Term and will have administrative privileges and access to Customer Data, however, Customer may request additional administrator privileges from its Contractor; (ii) Customer can, at its sole discretion and at any time during the Term, terminate its Contractor's administrative privileges; (iii) the Contractor's privacy practices with respect to Customer Data or any services provided by the Contractor are subject to the terms of the Customer Agreement and may differ from Microsoft's privacy practices; and (iv) the Contractor may collect, use, transfer, disclose, and otherwise process Customer Data, including personal data. Customer consents to Microsoft providing the Contractor with Customer Data and information that Customer provides to Microsoft for purposes of ordering, provisioning and administering the Online Services.

If Customer plan to include criminal justice information or federal tax information with its Customer Data, it is Customer's responsibility to ensure compliance with FBI CJIS Policy, including ensuring that all of Customer's and/or Contractor's employees that will have unencrypted access to Customer Data meet the FBI background check. Customer must contract Contractor to obtain an applicable amendment to this Government Agreement for that purpose.

Customer consents to the processing of personal information by Microsoft and its agents to facilitate the subject matter of this agreement. Customer may choose to provide personal information to Microsoft on behalf of third parties (including your contacts, resellers, distributors, administrators, and employees) as part of this agreement. Customer will obtain all required consents from third parties under applicable privacy and data protection laws before providing personal information to Microsoft.

Additional privacy and security details are in the Online Services Terms. The commitments made in the Online Services Terms only apply to the Online Services purchased under this agreement and not to any services or products provided by the Contractor.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 448752AF-311F-4353-B76F-276B7D751EBC

As and to the extent required by law, Customer shall notify the individual users of the Online Services that their data may be processed for the purpose of disclosing it to law enforcement or other governmental authorities as directed by the Contractor or as required by law, and Customer shall obtain the users' consent to the same.

Customer appoints the Contractor as its agent for purposes of interfacing with and providing instructions to Microsoft for purposes of this Section 4.

Warranties.

Limited Warranty.

Software. Microsoft warrants that each version of the Software will perform substantially as described in the applicable Product documentation for one year from the date Customer is first licensed for that version. If it does not, and Customer notifies Microsoft within the warranty term, then Microsoft will, at its option, (1) return the price Customer paid for the Software license or (2) repair or replace the Software.

Online Services. Microsoft warrants that each Online Service will perform in accordance with the applicable SLA during Customer's use. Customer's remedies for breach of this warranty are in the SLA. The remedies above are Customer's sole remedies for breach of the warranties in this section. Customer waives any breach of warranty claims not made during the warranty period.

Exclusions. The warranties in this agreement do not apply to problems caused by accident, abuse or use inconsistent with this agreement, including failure to meet minimum system requirements. These warranties do not apply to free or trial products, Previews, Limited Offerings, or to components of Products that Customer is permitted to redistribute.

DISCLAIMER. EXCEPT FOR THE LIMITED WARRANTIES ABOVE, TO THE EXTENT NOT PROHIBITED BY APPLICABLE LAW, MICROSOFT PROVIDES NO WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS FOR PRODUCTS AND DISCLAIMS ANY OTHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY WARRANTIES FOR PRODUCTS, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF QUALITY, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

Defense of third party claims.

By Microsoft. Microsoft will defend Customer against any third-party claim to the extent it alleges that a Product or Fix made available by Microsoft for a fee and used within the scope of the license granted under this agreement (unmodified from the form provided by Microsoft and not combined with anything else), misappropriates a trade secret or directly infringes a patent, copyright, trademark or other proprietary right of a third party. If Microsoft is unable to resolve a claim of infringement under commercially reasonable terms, it may, as its option, either: (1) modify or replace the Product or fix with a functional equivalent; or (2) terminate Customer's license and refund any prepaid license fees (less depreciation on a five-year, straight-line basis) for perpetual licenses and any amount paid for Online Services for any usage period after the termination date. Microsoft will not be liable for any claims or damages due to Customer's continued use of a Product or Fix after being notified to stop due to a third-party claim. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or suit brought against the U.S. pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. § 516.

Customer's agreement. Customer agrees that use of Customer Data or non-Microsoft software Microsoft provides or otherwise makes available on Customer's behalf will not infringe any third party's patent, copyright or trademark or make unlawful use of any third party's trade secret. In addition, Customer will not use an Online Service to gain unauthorized access to or disrupt any service, data, account or network in connection with the use of the Online Services.

Rights and remedies in case of possible infringement or misappropriation. If Microsoft reasonably believes that a claim under this section may result in a legal bar prohibiting Customer's use of the Product or Fix, Microsoft will seek to obtain the right for Customer to keep using it or modify or replace it with a functional equivalent, in which case Customer must discontinue use of the prior version immediately. If these options are not commercially reasonable, Microsoft may terminate Customer's right to the Product or Fix and refund any amounts Customer has paid for those rights to Software and Fixes and, for Online Services, any amount paid for a usage period after the termination date.

Other terms. Customer must notify Microsoft promptly in writing of a claim subject to this section; give Microsoft control over the defense and settlement (provided that for any Federal Agency Customers, the control of the defense and settlement is subject to 28 U.S.C. 516); and provide reasonable assistance in defending the claim. Microsoft will reimburse Customer for reasonable out of pocket expenses that it incurs in helping. The remedies provided in this section are the exclusive remedies for the claims described in this section.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, and solely with respect to Federal Agency Customers, Microsoft's rights set forth in this section (and the rights of the third party claiming infringement) shall be governed by the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1498.

Limitation of liability.

For each Product, each party's maximum, aggregate liability to the other under this agreement is limited to direct damages finally awarded in an amount not to exceed the amounts Customer was required to pay for the applicable Products during the term of this agreement, subject to the following:

Online Services. For Online Services, Microsoft's maximum liability to Customer for any incident giving rise to a claim will not exceed the amount Customer paid for the Online Service during the 12 months before the incident; provided that in no event will Microsoft's aggregate liability for any Online Service exceed the amount paid for that Online Service during the Subscription.

ii. Free Products and distributable code. For Products provided free of charge and code that Customer is authorized to redistribute to third parties without separate payment to Microsoft, Microsoft's liability is limited to direct damages finally awarded up to US$5,000.

iii. EXCLUSIONS. IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR LOSS OF REVENUE OR INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE, OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES, OR DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF USE, LOST PROFITS, REVENUES, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, OR LOSS OF BUSINESS INFORMATION, HOWEVER CAUSED OR ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY.

iv. Exceptions. The limits of liability in this section apply to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, but do not apply to: (1) the parties' obligations under section 6; (2) violation of the other's intellectual property rights,

For Customers that are Federal Agencies, this Section shall not impair the Customer's right to recover for fraud or crimes arising out of or related to this agreement under any federal fraud statute, including the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729-3733.

ITAR Covered Services. This section applies to only the ITAR Covered Services, defined below, Customer buys subject to this Agreement. These terms only apply if Customer provides express notice to Microsoft of Customer's intent to manage ITAR controlled data in the Customer Data during the eligibility validation phase of the online application process.

Customer Prerequisites:

Customer is responsible for ensuring that the prerequisites established or required by the ITAR are fulfilled prior to introducing ITAR-controlled data into the ITAR Covered Services.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 448752AF-311F-4353-B76F-276B7D751EBC

Customer acknowledges that the ITAR Covered Services ordered by Customer under this Agreement enable End Users optionally to access and use a variety of additional resources, applications, or services that are (a) provided by third parties, or (b) provided by Microsoft subject to their own terms of use or privacy policies (collectively, for convenience, “add-ons”), as described in services documentation and/or in the portal through which Customer’s administrator(s) will manage and configure the ITAR Covered Services.

Customer is responsible for reviewing Online Services documentation, configuring the ITAR Covered Services, and adopting and implementing such policies and practices for Customer’s End Users’ use of ITAR Covered Services, together with any add-ons, as Customer determines are appropriate to comply with the ITAR or other legal or regulatory requirements applicable to Customer and not generally applicable to Microsoft as an IT service provider.

Customer acknowledges that only ITAR Covered Services will be delivered subject to the terms of this Section. Processing and storage of ITAR-controlled data in other services, including without limitation add-ons, is not supported. Without limiting the foregoing, data that Customer elects to provide to the Microsoft technical support organization, if any, or data provided by or on Customer’s behalf to Microsoft’s billing or commerce systems in connection with purchasing or ordering ITAR Covered Services, if any, is not subject to the provisions of this Section. Customer is solely responsible for ensuring that ITAR-controlled data is not included in support information or support case artifacts.

Special Terms.

(i) ITAR Covered Services. The ITAR Covered Services are cloud services operated in a standardized manner with features and processes common across multiple customers. As part of Customer’s preparation to use the ITAR Covered Services for the storage, processing, or transmission of ITAR-controlled data, Customer should review applicable services documentation. Customer’s compliance with the ITAR will be dependent, in part, on Customer’s configuration of the services and adoption and implementation of policies and practices for Customer’s End Users’ use of ITAR Covered Services. Customer is solely responsible for determining the appropriate policies and practices needed for compliance with the ITAR.

Personnel. Microsoft personnel and contractors authorized by Microsoft to access Customer Data (that may include ITAR-controlled data) in the ITAR Covered Services, will be limited to U.S. persons, as that term is defined in the ITAR. Customer may also authorize Microsoft personnel and contractors to access its Customer Data. Customer is solely responsible for ensuring any such authorization is permissible under the ITAR.

Use of Subcontractors. As set forth in the OST, Microsoft may hire subcontractors to provide services on its behalf. Any such subcontractors used in delivery of the ITAR Covered Services will be permitted to obtain Customer Data (that may include ITAR-controlled data) only to deliver the ITAR Covered Services Microsoft has retained them to provide and will be prohibited from using Customer Data for any other purpose. Storage and processing of Customer Data in the ITAR Covered Services is subject to Microsoft security controls at all times and, to the extent subcontractor personnel perform services in connection with ITAR Covered Services, they are obligated to follow Microsoft’s policies, including without limitation the geographic restrictions and controls selected by you in the configuration of the ITAR Covered Services. Microsoft remains responsible for its subcontractors’ compliance with Microsoft’s obligations.

Notification. The Security Incident handling process defined in the OST will apply to the ITAR Covered Services. In addition, the parties agree to the following:

DocuSign Envelope ID: 448752AF-311F-4353-B76F-276B7D751EBC

Customer acknowledges that effective investigation or mitigation of a Security Incident involving ITAR-controlled data may be dependent upon information or services configurations within Customer's control. Accordingly, proper treatment of ITAR-controlled data will be a joint obligation between Microsoft and Customer. If Customer becomes aware of any unauthorized release of ITAR-controlled data to Microsoft or the use of a service other than the ITAR Covered Service to store, process, or transmit ITAR-controlled data, Customer will promptly notify Microsoft of such event and provide reasonable assistance and information necessary for Microsoft to investigate and report such event.

If, subsequent to notification of a Security Incident by Microsoft, Customer determines that ITAR-controlled data may have been subject to unauthorized inspection or disclosure, it is Customer's responsibility to notify the appropriate authorities of such event, or to notify impacted individuals, if Customer determines such notification is required under applicable law or regulation or your internal policies.

If either party determines it is necessary or prudent to make a voluntary disclosure to the Directorate of Defense Trade Controls regarding the treatment of ITAR-controlled data in the Online Services, such party will work in good faith to notify the other party of such voluntary disclosure prior to providing such voluntary disclosure. The parties will work together in good faith in the development and reporting of any such voluntary disclosure.

f. Conflicts. If there is any conflict between any provision in this Section and any provision in the agreement, this Section shall control.

IRS 1075 Covered Services. If the Customer is subject to IRS 1075 with respect to its use of the Online Services, then this section applies but only to the IRS 1075 Covered Services, defined below, Customer buys under the Subscription

Customer Prerequisites

Customer is responsible to ensure that the prerequisites established or required by IRS Publication 1075 are fulfilled prior to introducing FTI into the IRS 1075 Covered Services.

Customer acknowledges that the IRS 1075 Covered Services ordered by Customer under the Subscription enable End Users optionally to access and use a variety of additional resources, applications, or services that are (a) provided by third parties, or (b) provided by Microsoft subject to their own terms of use or privacy policies (collectively, for convenience, "add-ons"), as described in services documentation and/or in the portal through which your administrator(s) will manage and configure the IRS 1075 Covered Services.

Customer is responsible for reviewing Online Services documentation, configuring the services, and adopting and implementing such policies and practices for your End Users' use of IRS 1075 Covered Services, together with any add-ons, as Customer determines are appropriate in order for Customer to comply with IRS Publication 1075 or other legal or regulatory requirements applicable to Customer and not generally applicable to Microsoft as an IT service provider.

Customer acknowledges that only IRS 1075 Covered Services will be delivered subject to the terms of this Section 9. No other services are supported by the terms of this Section 9. Without limiting the foregoing, data that Customer elects to provide to the Microsoft technical support organization ("Support Data"), if any, or data provided by or on Customer's behalf to Microsoft's billing or commerce systems in connection with purchasing/ordering IRS 1075 Covered Services ("Billing Data"), if any, is not subject to the provisions of this Section 9. Customer is solely responsible for ensuring that FTI is not provided as Support Data or Billing

Data.

IRS Publication 1075 Special Terms.

IRS 1075 Covered Services. The IRS 1075 Covered Services are cloud services operated in a standardized manner with features and processes common across multiple customers. As part of your preparation to use the services for FTI, Customer should review applicable services documentation.

Customer's compliance with IRS Publication 1075 will be dependent, in part, on Customer's configuration of the services and adoption and implementation of policies and practices for Customer's End Users' use of IRS 1075 Covered Services. Customer is solely responsible for determining the appropriate policies and practices needed for compliance with IRS Publication 1075.

Attachment 1 contains the Safeguarding Contract Language for Technology Services specified by IRS Publication 1075. Microsoft and Customer has agreed that certain requirements of the Safeguarding Contract Language and IRS Publication 1075 will be fulfilled as set forth in the remainder of this section 9.

Personnel Records and Training. Microsoft will maintain a list of screened personnel authorized to access Customer Data (that may include FTI) in the IRS 1075 Covered Services, which will be available to Customer or to the IRS upon written request. Customer will treat Microsoft personnel personally identifiable information (PII) as Microsoft trade secret or security-sensitive information exempt from public disclosure to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, and, if required to provide such Microsoft personnel PII to the IRS, will require the IRS to treat such personnel PII the same.

Training Records. Microsoft will maintain security and disclosure awareness training records as required by IRS Publication 1075, which will be available to Customer upon written request.

Confidentiality Statement. Microsoft will maintain a signed confidentiality statement, and will provide a copy for inspection upon request.

Cloud Computing Environment Requirements. The IRS 1075 Covered Services are provided in accordance with the FedRAMP System Security Plan for the applicable services. Microsoft's compliance with controls required by IRS Publication 1075, including without limitation encryption and media sanitization controls, can be found in the applicable FedRAMP System Security Plan.

Use of Subcontractors. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Attachment 1, as set forth in the OST, Microsoft may use subcontractors to provide services on its behalf. Any such subcontractors used in delivery of the IRS 1075 Covered Services will be permitted to obtain Customer Data (that may include FTI) only to deliver the services Microsoft has retained them to provide and will be prohibited from using Customer Data for any other purpose. Storage and processing of Customer Data in the IRS 1075 Covered Services is subject to Microsoft security controls at all times and, to the extent subcontractor personnel perform services in connection with IRS 1075 Covered Services, they are obligated to follow Microsoft's policies. Microsoft remains responsible for its subcontractors' compliance with Microsoft's obligations. Subject to the preceding, Microsoft may employ subcontractor personnel in the capacity of augmenting existing staff, and understands IRS Publication 1075 reference to employees to include employees and subcontractors acting in the manner specified herein. It is the responsibility of the Customer to gain approval of the IRS for the use of all subcontractors.

Microsoft maintains a list of subcontractor companies who may potentially provide personnel authorized to access Customer Data in the Online Services, published for Azure branded services at <http://azure.microsoft.com/en-us/support/trust-center/>, or successor locations identified by Microsoft.

Microsoft will update these websites at least 14 days before authorizing any new subcontractor to access Customer Data, Microsoft will update the website and provide Customer with a mechanism to obtain notice of that update.

Security Incident Notification. The Security Incident handling process defined in the OST will apply to the IRS 1075 Covered Services. In addition, the parties agree to the following:

Customer acknowledges that effective investigation or mitigation of a Security Incident may be dependent upon information or services configurations within Customer's control. Accordingly, compliance with IRS Publication 1075 Incident Response requirements will be a joint obligation between Microsoft and Customer.

If, subsequent to notification from Microsoft of a Security Incident, Customer determines that FTI may have been subject to unauthorized inspection or disclosure, it is Customer responsibility to notify the appropriate Agent-in-Charge, TIGTA (Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration) and/or the IRS of a Security Incident, or to notify impacted individuals, if Customer determines this is required under IRS Publication 1075, other applicable law or regulation, or Customer internal policies.

Audit by Customer. Customer will, (i) be provided quarterly access to information generated by Microsoft's regular monitoring of security, privacy, and operational controls in place to afford you an ongoing view into the effectiveness of such controls, (ii) be provided a report mapping compliance of the IRS 1075 Covered Services with NIST 800-53 or successor controls, (iii) upon request, be afforded the opportunity to communicate with Microsoft's subject matter experts for clarification of the reports identified above, and (iv) upon request, and at Customer's expense, be permitted to communicate with Microsoft's independent third party auditors involved in the preparation of audit reports. Customer will use this information above to satisfy with any inspection requirements under IRS Publication 1075 and agrees that the audit rights described in this section are in full satisfaction of any audit that may otherwise be requested by the Customer.

Confidentiality of Audit Materials. Audit information provided by Microsoft to Customer will consist of highly confidential proprietary or trade secret information of Microsoft. Microsoft may request reasonable assurances, written or otherwise, that information will be maintained as confidential and/or trade secret information subject to this agreement prior to providing such information to Customer, and Customer will ensure Microsoft's audit information is afforded the highest level of confidentiality available under applicable law.

This Section 9.c is in addition to compliance information available to Customer under the OST.

Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS). If the Customer is subject to CJIS with respect to its use of the Online Services, then this section applies but only to the Government CJIS Covered Services, defined below, you buy under the Subscription.

Customer Prerequisites

Microsoft's representations as it relates to its CJIS Covered Services' compliance with the FBI Criminal Justice Information Systems ("CJIS") Security Addendum (Appendix H of FBI CJIS Policy) are subject to Customer's incorporation of applicable state-specific CJIS Amendment terms and conditions into Customer's order with the Contractor. They are also subject to Customer's incorporation and flow down of such terms in Customer's contracts with a Covered Entity.

Please visit <https://www.microsoft.com/en-us/TrustCenter/Compliance/CJIS> for additional information about CJIS Covered States and CJIS Covered Services. Note that not all states are CJIS Covered States and that different CJIS Covered Services may apply in different CJIS Covered States. For more information about how to sign up for CJIS Covered Services through an Enterprise Agreement, please visit <https://azure.microsoft.com/en-us/pricing/enterprise-agreement/>. For purposes of this section, if Customer is not in a CJIS Covered State, then Microsoft is unable to provide CJIS-related representations at this time, and no CJIS Amendment will apply.

Customer can access the terms and conditions of Microsoft's adherence to the FBI CJIS

DocuSign Envelope ID: 448752AF-311F-4353-B76F-276B7D751EBC

Policy by contacting the CSA in a CJIS Covered State. The Security Addendum for Private Contractors (Cloud Providers) referenced in the FBI CJIS Policy and CSA-provided terms and conditions is incorporated herein by reference, and you acknowledge that Microsoft's support for CJIS will be in accordance with those terms agreed to and/or signed by the applicable state CSA. Customer also acknowledges that it is Customer's responsibility to contact the applicable state CSA for this and any additional information. Customer is required to, and acknowledge it will, work directly with the applicable state CSA for any CJIS-related documentation and audit requirements.

Customer is responsible to ensure that the CJIS Security Addendum has been signed by the CSA, that the CSA has approved Customer's use of the Covered Services to store or process CJIS, and that any other prerequisites established or required by either the FBI, state CSA, or Customer is fulfilled prior to introducing CJIS into the Covered Services.

Customer acknowledges that it will keep records of any Covered Entity to which it provides CJIS State Agreements or other CJIS-related documentation Customer obtains from the state CSA and shall make such records available to Microsoft promptly upon request.

If there is any conflict between any provision in this Section and any provision in the agreement, this Section shall control.

Government Community requirements. Customer certifies that it is a member of the Community and agrees to use Government Community Cloud Services solely in its capacities as a member of the Community and for the benefit of end users that are members of the Community. Use of Government Community Cloud Services by an entity that is not a member of the Community or to provide services to non-Community members is strictly prohibited. Customer acknowledges that only Community members may use Government Community Cloud Services.

All terms and conditions applicable to non-Government Community Cloud Services also apply to their corresponding Government Community Cloud Services, except as otherwise noted in the Use Rights and this Agreement.

Customer may not deploy or use Government Community Cloud Services and corresponding non-Government Community Cloud Services in the same domain.

Any Customer that uses Government Community Cloud Services must maintain its status as a member of the Community. Maintaining status as a member of the Community is a material requirement for such services.

Use Rights for Government Community Cloud Services. For Government Community Cloud Services, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Use Rights:

Government Community Cloud Services will be offered only within the United States.

Additional European Terms, as set forth in the Use Rights, will not apply.

References to geographic areas in the Use Rights with respect to the location of Customer Data at rest, as set forth in the Use Rights, refer only to the United States.

All terms and conditions applicable to non-Government Community Cloud Services also apply to their corresponding Government Community Cloud Services, except as otherwise noted herein.

Enrolled Affiliate may not deploy or use Government Community Cloud Services and corresponding non-Government Community Cloud Services in the same domain. Additionally,

DocuSign Envelope ID: 448752AF-311F-4353-B76F-276B7D751EBC

Office 365 US Government may not be deployed or used in the same domain as other Government Community Cloud Services.

Notwithstanding the Data Processing Terms section of the Online Services Terms, Office 365 GCC High and Azure Government Services are not subject to the same control standards and frameworks as the Microsoft Azure Core Services. The Compliance Trust Center Page describes the control standards and frameworks with which Office 365 GCC High and Azure Government Services comply.

Operational and Ordering Consideration for GCC High:

Customer (a) acknowledges that its Tenant administrator console (when available) will appear to include more licenses than it has ordered and is entitled to; and (ii) agrees that it must order licenses for every User account it assigns. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the order and Product Terms, Licenses will be deemed "Reserved" for each user (and thereby subject to a True-Up Order requirement in accordance with the terms and conditions of the order), as of the day that User's account is reserved, unless a License for each such User is ordered in advance. Customer is solely responsible for keeping accurate records of the month each User is assigned to a User account, and will provide such records to Microsoft with its True-Up orders.

Customer acknowledges that (a) availability of its Office 365 GCC High tenant may follow several weeks after its initial order, and (a) the service components provided pursuant to its orders for "Suite" SKUs such as E1 and E3, as listed in the Office 365 GCC High, may differ from those components available in similar suites available in other forms of Office 365 Services.

The parties acknowledge that, as of the date this Agreement was executed, the Office 365 ProPlus "click-to-run" (C2R) feature is not yet available in Office 365 GCC High, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Use Rights. Accordingly, the following terms and conditions shall apply:

Until C2R functionality is made available, Customer may install up to two (2) local copies of Office Professional Plus for each User to whom E3 licenses are assigned, for the sole use of those assigned Users on Qualified Devices in Customer's Enterprise.

Once C2R functionality is made available (the "C2R release date," to be announced in the Office 365 Service Descriptions), Customer must cease installing additional local copies of Office Professional Plus, and shall as soon as practicable (but in no event later than 12 months following the C2R release date) replace each local copy that was installed pursuant to the preceding paragraph with a C2R-installed copy.

Miscellaneous.

Notices. You must send notices by mail, return receipt requested, to the address below.

Customer agrees to receive electronic notices from us, which will be sent by email to the account administrator(s) named for your Subscription. Notices are effective on the date on the return receipt or, for email, when sent. You are responsible for ensuring that the email address for the account administrator(s) named for your Subscription is accurate and current. Any email notice that we send to that email address will be effective when sent, whether or not Customer actually receives the email.

Assignment. Neither Customer, Contractor nor Microsoft may assign this agreement either in whole or in part without the other party's prior written consent. Any prohibited assignment is void.

C. Severability. If any part of this agreement is held unenforceable, the rest remains in full force and effect.

Waiver. Failure to enforce any provision of this agreement will not constitute a waiver.

No agency. This agreement does not create an agency, partnership, or joint venture.

No third-party beneficiaries. There are no third-party beneficiaries to this agreement.

Use of contractors. Microsoft may use contractors to perform services, but will be responsible for their performance, subject to the terms of this agreement.

Microsoft as an independent contractor. The parties are independent contractors. Customer and Microsoft each may develop products independently without using the other's confidential information.

Agreement not exclusive. Customer is free to enter into agreements to license, use or promote non-Microsoft products or services.

Entire agreement. In the case of a conflict between any documents in this agreement that is not expressly resolved in those documents, their terms will control in the following order of descending priority: (1) this agreement, (2) the Product Terms, (3) the Online Services Terms, and (4) any other documents in this agreement.

Survival. All provisions survive termination of this agreement except that requiring performance only during the term of the agreement.

U.S. export jurisdiction. Products are subject to U.S. export jurisdiction. Customer must comply with all applicable international and national laws, including the U.S. Export Administration Regulations, the International Traffic in Arms Regulations, and end-user, end-use and destination restrictions issued by U.S. and other governments related to Microsoft products, services, and technologies.

Force majeure. Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f).

Contracting authority. If you are an individual accepting these terms on behalf of an entity, you represent that you have the legal authority to enter into this agreement on that entity's behalf.

ADDITIONAL TERMS APPLICABLE WHEN THE CUSTOMER IS A U.S. FEDERAL AGENCY.

No provisions of any shrink-wrap or any click-through agreement (or other similar form of agreement) that may be provided in conjunction with any Product(s) acquired under this agreement shall apply in place of, or serve to modify any provision of this agreement, even if a user or authorized officer of Customer purports to have affirmatively accepted such shrink-wrap or click-through provisions. For the avoid of doubt and without limiting the foregoing, in the event of a conflict between any such shrink-wrap or click-through provisions (irrespective of the products or services that such provisions attach to) and any term or condition of this agreement, then the relevant term or condition of this agreement shall govern and supersede the purchase of such Product(s) to the extent of any such conflict. All acceptance of agreements and renewals shall be executed in writing.

If any document incorporated by reference into this agreement, including the Product Terms and Online Service Terms included and/or referenced or incorporated herein and/or therein, contains a provision (1) allowing for the automatic termination of your license rights or Online Services; (2) allowing for the automatic renewal of services and/or fees; (3) requiring the governing law to be anything other than Federal law; and/or (4) otherwise violates applicable Federal law, then, such terms shall not apply with respect to the Federal Government. If any document incorporated by reference into this agreement, including the Product Terms and Online Service Terms included and/or referenced or incorporated herein and/or therein contains an indemnification provision, such provision shall not apply as to the United States indemnifying Microsoft or any other party.

Definitions.

Any reference in this agreement to “day” will be a calendar day. “Acceptable Use Policy” is set forth in the Online Services Terms.

“Affiliate” means any legal entity that a party owns, that owns a party, or that is under common ownership with a party. “Ownership” means, for purposes of this definition, control of more than a 50% interest in an entity.

“Azure Government Services” means one or more of the services or features Microsoft makes available to Enrolled Affiliate under this Enrollment and identified at <http://azure.microsoft.com/en-us/regions/#services>, which are Government Community Cloud Services.

“CJI” means Criminal Justice Information, as defined in FBI CJIS Policy.

“CJIS Covered State” means a state, as shown at <https://www.microsoft.com/en-us/TrustCenter/Compliance/CJIS> or another site Microsoft may provide, with which Microsoft and the applicable state have entered into a CJIS State Agreement.

“CJIS Covered Service” means, for any state-specific CJIS Amendment, the Microsoft Online Services that are listed as such in that amendment, and for which Microsoft’s CJIS representations apply.

“CJIS State Agreement” means an agreement between Microsoft and a Covered State’s CSA (or another entity to which the CSA has delegated its duties) containing terms and conditions under which the Covered State and Microsoft will comply with the applicable requirements of the CJIS Policy. Each CJIS State Agreement is consistent with the applicable state-specific CJIS Amendment, and includes Microsoft CJIS Security Addendum Certifications. For clarity, a CJIS State Agreement may be titled “CJIS Information Agreement” or “CJIS Management Agreement.”

“Community” means the community consisting of one or more of the following: (1) a Government, (2) a Customer using eligible Government Community Cloud Services to provide solutions to a Government or a qualified member of the Community, or (3) a Customer with Customer Data that is subject to Government regulations for which the Customer determines, and Microsoft agrees, that the use of Government Community Cloud Services is appropriate to meet the Customer’s regulatory requirements. Membership in the Community is ultimately at Microsoft’s discretion, which may vary by Government Community Cloud Service.

Microsoft online subscription agreement

This Microsoft Online Subscription Agreement is between the Ordering Activity under GSA Schedule contracts("you" or "your"), and Microsoft Corporation ("Microsoft", "we", "us", or "our"). It consists of the terms and conditions below, as well as the Online Services Terms, the SLAs, and the Offer Details for your Subscription or renewal (together, the "agreement"). It is effective on the date we provide you with confirmation of your Subscription or the date on which your Subscription is renewed as applicable. Key terms are defined in Section 8.

Use of Online Services.

Right to use. We grant you the right to access and use the Online Services and to install and use the Software included with your Subscription, as further described in this agreement. We reserve all other rights.

Acceptable use. You may use the Product only in accordance with this agreement. You may not reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or work around technical limitations in the Product, except to the extent applicable law permits it despite these limitations. You may not disable, tamper with, or otherwise attempt to circumvent any billing mechanism that meters your use of the Online Services. You may not rent, lease, lend, resell, transfer, or host the Product, or any portion thereof, to or for third parties except as expressly permitted in this agreement or the Online Services Terms.

End Users. You control access by End Users, and you are responsible for their use of the Product in accordance with this agreement. For example, you will ensure End Users comply with the Acceptable Use Policy.

Customer Data. You are solely responsible for the content of all Customer Data. You will secure and maintain all rights in Customer Data necessary for us to provide the Online Services to you without violating the rights of any third party or otherwise obligating Microsoft to you or to any third party. Microsoft does not and will not assume any obligations with respect to Customer Data or to your use of the Product other than as expressly set forth in this agreement or as required by applicable law.

Responsibility for your accounts. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of any non-public authentication credentials associated with your use of the Online Services. You must promptly notify our customer support team about any possible misuse of your accounts or authentication credentials or any security incident related to the Online Services.

Preview releases. We may make Previews available. Previews are provided "as-is," "with all faults," and "as-available," and are excluded from the SLAs and all limited warranties provided in this agreement. Previews may not be covered by customer support. We may change or discontinue Previews at any time without notice. We also may choose not to release a Preview into general availability.

Managed Services for Microsoft Azure. You may use Microsoft Azure Services to provide a Managed Service Solution provided (1) you have the sole ability to access, configure, and administer the Microsoft Azure Services, (2) You have administrative access to the virtual OSE(s), if any, in the Managed Service Solution, and (3) the third party has administrative access only to its application(s) or virtual OSE(s). You are responsible for the third party's use of Microsoft Azure Services in accordance with the terms of this agreement. Your provision of Managed Services remains subject to the following limitations in the Online Services Terms:

you may not resell or redistribute the Microsoft Azure Services, and you may not allow multiple users to directly or indirectly access any Microsoft Azure Services feature that is made available on a per user basis.

Additional Software for use with the Online Services. To enable optimal access to and use of certain Online Services, you may install and use certain Software in connection with your use of the Online Service as described in the Online Services Terms. We license Software to you; we do not sell it. Proof of your Software license is (1) this agreement, (2) any order confirmation, and (3) proof of payment. Your rights to access Software on any device do not give you any right to implement Microsoft patents or other Microsoft intellectual property in software or devices that access that device.

Purchasing services.

Available Subscription offers . The Portal provides Offer Details for available Subscription offers, which generally can be categorized as one or a combination of the following:

Commitment Offering . You commit in advance to purchase a specific quantity of Online Services for use during a Term and to pay upfront or on a periodic basis in advance of use as long as it does not violate 31 U.S.C. 3324. With respect to Microsoft Azure Services, additional or other usage (for example, usage beyond your commitment quantity) may be treated as a Consumption Offering. Committed quantities not used during the Term will expire at the end of the Term.

Consumption Offering (also called Pay-As-You-Go) . You pay based on actual usage in the preceding month with no upfront commitment. Payment is on a periodic basis in arrears.

Limited Offering. You receive a limited quantity of Online Services for a limited term without charge (for example, as a Trial Subscription) or as part of another Microsoft offering (for example, MSDN). Provisions in this agreement with respect to pricing, cancellation fees, payment, and data retention may not apply.

Ordering.

By ordering or renewing a Subscription, you agree to the Offer Details for that Subscription. Unless otherwise specified in those Offer Details, Online Services are offered on an "as available" basis. You may place orders for your Affiliates under this agreement and grant your Affiliates administrative rights to manage the Subscription, but Affiliates may not place orders under this agreement. You also may assign the rights granted under Section 1.a to a third party for use by that third party in your internal business. If you grant any rights to Affiliates or third parties with respect to Software or your Subscription, such Affiliates or third parties will be bound by this agreement and you agree to be jointly and severally liable for any actions of such Affiliates or third parties related to their use of the Products.

Some offers may permit you to modify the quantity of Online Services ordered during the Term of a Subscription. Additional quantities of Online Services added to a Subscription will expire at the end of that Subscription.

Pricing and payment. Payments are due and must be made according to the Offer Details for your Subscription.

For Commitment Offerings, the price level may be based on the quantity of Online Services you ordered. Some offers may permit you to modify the quantity of Online Services ordered during the Term and your price level may be adjusted accordingly in accordance with the GSA Pricelist, but price level changes will not be retroactive. During the Term of your Subscription, prices for Online Services will not be increased, as to your Subscription, from those in the GSA Pricelist the time your Subscription became effective or was renewed, except where prices are identified as temporary in the Offer Details, or for Previews or Non- Microsoft Products. All prices are subject to change at the beginning of any Subscription renewal in accordance with the GSA Pricelist.

Reserved.

Renewal.

Upon renewal of your Subscription, this agreement will terminate, and your Subscription will thereafter be governed, by the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule Pricelist, and Purchase Order(s), on the date on which your Subscription is renewed (the "Renewal Terms"). If you do not agree to any Renewal Terms, you may decline to renew your Subscription.

For Commitment Offerings, a Subscription terminates upon expiration of the Term. .

For Consumption Offerings, your Subscription will terminate upon expiration of the term and subsequent Subscription terms will be purchased separately.

For Limited Offerings or Trial Subscriptions, renewal may not be permitted.

Eligibility for Academic, Government and Nonprofit versions. You agree that if you are purchasing an academic, government or nonprofit offer, you meet the respective eligibility requirements listed at the following sites:

For academic offers, the requirements for educational institutions (including administrative offices or boards of education, public libraries, or public museums) listed at <http://go.microsoft.com/?linkid=9862882>;

For government offers, the requirements listed at <http://go.microsoft.com/?linkid=9862883>; and

For nonprofit offers, the requirements listed at <http://www.microsoftvolumelicensing.com/DocumentSearch.aspx?Mode=3&DocumentType=19>.

Taxes .Notwithstanding the terms of the Federal, State, and Local Taxes Clause, the contract price excludes all State and Local taxes levied on or measured by the contract or sales price of the services or completed supplies furnished under this contract. Microsoft shall state separately on its invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Customer agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) to the contractor or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Term, termination, and suspension.

Agreement term and termination. This agreement will remain in effect until the expiration, termination, or renewal of your Subscription, whichever is earliest.

Subscription termination. You may terminate a Subscription at any time during its Term; however, you must pay all amounts due and owing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the invoice.

One-Month Subscription. A Subscription having a one-month Term may be terminated anytime without any cancellation fee.

Subscriptions of more than one-month . If you terminate a Subscription to Microsoft Azure Services within 30 days of the date on which the Subscription became effective or was renewed, you must pay for the initial 30 days of the Subscription, but no payments will be due for the remaining portion of the terminated Subscription.

For all other Online Services, if you terminate a Subscription before the end of the Term, you you will receive a refund of any portion of the Subscription fee you have paid for the remainder of the Term; provided, however, no refunds will be provided for partially unused months.

Suspension. We may suspend an End User from use of the Online Services if: (1) it is reasonably needed to prevent unauthorized access to Customer Data; or an End User does not abide by the Acceptable Use Policy or violates other terms of this agreement.

We may temporarily suspend your use of the Online Services if you fail to respond to a claim of alleged infringement under Section 5 within a reasonable time; or you do not pay amounts due under this agreement.

For all other Subscriptions, a temporary suspension will apply to the minimum necessary part of the Online Services and will be in effect only while the condition or need exists. We will give notice before we temporarily suspend, except where we reasonably believe we need to suspend immediately. If you do not fully address the reasons for the suspension within 60 days after we temporarily suspend, we may bring dispute under the contract Disputes Clause (Contract Disputes Act). During any dispute under the Disputes Clause, Microsoft shall proceed diligently with performance of this Agreement, pending final resolution of any request for relief, claim, appeal, or action arising under the Agreement, and comply with any decision of the Contracting Officer.

WARRANTIES.

Limited warranty.

Online Services. We warrant that the Online Services will meet the terms of the SLA during the Term and perform substantially in accordance with the Online Service written materials accompanying it. Your only remedies for breach of this warranty are those in the SLA.

Software. We warrant for one year from the date you first use the Software that it will perform substantially as described in the applicable user documentation. If Software fails to meet this warranty we will, at our option and as your exclusive remedy, either (1) return the contract price paid for the Software or (2) repair or replace the Software.

Limited warranty exclusions. This limited warranty is subject to the following limitations:

any implied warranties, guarantees or conditions not able to be disclaimed as a matter of law will last one year from the start of the limited warranty;

this limited warranty does not cover problems caused by accident, abuse or use of the Products in a manner inconsistent with this agreement or our published documentation or guidance, or resulting from events beyond our reasonable control;

this limited warranty does not apply to problems caused by a failure to meet minimum system requirements; and this limited warranty does not apply to Previews or Limited Offerings.

DISCLAIMER. Other than this warranty, we provide no warranties, whether express, implied, statutory, or otherwise, including warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. These disclaimers will apply to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law.

Defense of claims.

Defense.

We will defend you against any claims made by an unaffiliated third party that a Product infringes that third party's patent, copyright or trademark or makes unlawful use of its trade secret. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in derogation of the U.S. Department of Justice's right to defend any claim or action brought against the U.S., pursuant to its jurisdictional statute 28 U.S.C. §516.

Reserved.

Limitations. Our obligations in Section 5a won't apply to a claim or award based on: (i) any Customer Solution, Customer Data, Non-Microsoft Products, modifications you make to the Product, or services or materials you provide or make available as part of using the Product; (ii) your combination of the Product with, or damages based upon the value of, Customer Data, or a Non-Microsoft Product, data, or business process; (iii) your use of a Microsoft trademark without our express written consent, or your use of the Product after we notify you to stop due to a third-party claim; (iv) your redistribution of the Product to, or use for the benefit of, any unaffiliated third party; or (v) Products provided free of charge.

Remedies. If we reasonably believe that a claim under Section 5.a.(i) may bar your use of the Product, we will seek to: (i) obtain the right for you to keep using it; or (ii) modify or replace it with a functional equivalent and notify you to stop use of the prior version of the Product. If these options are not commercially reasonable, we may terminate your rights to use the Product and then refund any advance payments for unused Subscription rights.

Obligations. Each party must notify the other promptly of a claim under this Section. The party seeking protection must (i) give the other sole control over the defense and settlement of the claim; and (ii) give reasonable help in defending the claim. The party providing the protection will (1) reimburse the other for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that it incurs in giving that help and (2) pay the amount of any resulting adverse final judgment or settlement. The parties' respective rights to defense and payment of judgments (or settlement the other consents to) under this Section 5 are in lieu of any common law or statutory indemnification rights or analogous rights, and each party waives such common law or statutory rights.

Limitation of liability.

Limitation. The aggregate liability of each party for all claims under this agreement is limited to direct damages up to the contract price under this agreement for the Online Service during the 12 months before the cause of action arose; provided, that in no event will a party's aggregate liability for any Online Service exceed the contract price for that Online Service during the Subscription. For Products provided free of charge, Microsoft's liability is limited to direct damages up to $5,000.00 USD.

EXCLUSION. Neither party will be liable for loss of revenue or indirect, special, incidental, consequential, punitive, or exemplary damages, or damages for lost profits, revenues, business interruption, or loss of business information, even if the party knew they were possible or reasonably foreseeable. The foregoing limitation of liability shall not apply to (1) personal injury or death resulting from Licensor's negligence; (2) for fraud; or (3) for any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law.

Exceptions to limitations. The limits of liability in this Section apply to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, but do not apply to: (1) the parties' obligations under Section 5; or (2) violation of the other's intellectual property rights.

Miscellaneous.

Notices. You must send notices by mail, return receipt requested, to the address below.

Notices should be sent to:	Copies should be sent to:

You agree to receive electronic notices from us, which will be sent by email to the account administrator you specify in the Portal. Notices are effective on the date on the return receipt or, for email, when sent. You are responsible for ensuring that the account administrator email address that you specify in the Portal is accurate and current. Any email notice that we send to that email address will be effective when sent, whether or not you actually receive the email.

License Transfers and Assignment. You or Microsoft may not assign this agreement either in whole or in part or transfer licenses without the other party's prior written consent.

Reserved

Severability. If any part of this agreement is held unenforceable, the rest remains in full force and effect.

Waiver. Failure to enforce any provision of this agreement will not constitute a waiver.

No agency. This agreement does not create an agency, partnership, or joint venture.

No third-party beneficiaries. There are no third-party beneficiaries to this agreement.

Applicable law and venue. This agreement is governed by the Federal laws of the United States.

Entire agreement. This agreement, together with the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, Schedule Pricelist, Purchase Order(s), is the entire agreement concerning its subject matter and supersedes any prior or concurrent communications. In the case of a conflict between any documents in this agreement that is not expressly resolved in those documents, their terms will control in the following order of descending priority: (1) The Government Purchase Order, (2) the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, (3) this Microsoft Online Subscription Agreement, (4) the Online Services Terms, (5) the applicable Offer Details, and (6) any other documents in this agreement.

Survival. The terms in Sections 1, 2.e, 3.b, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 will survive termination or expiration of this agreement.

U.S. export jurisdiction. The Products are subject to U.S. export jurisdiction. You must comply with all applicable laws, including the U.S. Export Administration Regulations, the International Traffic in Arms Regulations, and end-user, end-use and destination restrictions issued by U.S. and other governments. For additional information, see <https://www.microsoft.com/exporting/>.

Force majeure. Excusable delays shall be governed by FAR 52.212-4(f).

Contracting authority. If you are an individual accepting these terms on behalf of an entity, you represent that you have the legal authority to enter into this agreement on that entity's behalf. If you specify an entity, or you use an email address provided by an entity you are affiliated with (such as an employer) in connection with a Subscription purchase or renewal, that entity will be treated as the owner of the Subscription for purposes of this agreement.

Government customers should consult with Microsoft. Government customers should consult with Microsoft prior to acceptance. If you are a government customer, before accepting this agreement, you should consult with your Microsoft representative to assure full compliance with local laws and governmental procurement processes.

Stamp tax. Notwithstanding the terms of the Federal, State, and Local Taxes Clause, the contract price excludes all State and Local taxes levied on or measured by the contract or sales price of the services or completed supplies furnished under this contract. Microsoft shall state separately on its invoices taxes excluded from the fees, and the Customer agrees either to pay the amount of the taxes (based on the current value of the equipment) to the contractor or provide evidence necessary to sustain an exemption, in accordance with FAR 52.229-1 and FAR 52.229-3.

Introduction

USING THIS DOCUMENT

These License Agreement/Product Use Rights are an important part of the License between Microsoft and Microsoft Volume Licensing customers.

These License Agreement/Product Use Rights apply to the Microsoft Products that you order from the authorized Microsoft reseller or Government Partner under such party’s contract with you (your “Volume Licensing Agreement”). If you are an entity of the United States Government, these Microsoft License Agreement/Product Use Rights constitute an addendum to your Volume Licensing Agreement and govern your use of the Microsoft Products. For all other entities, these Microsoft License Agreement/Product Use Rights are incorporated into your Volume License Agreement and govern your use of the Microsoft Products. References to “Enterprise Agreement” or “Select Agreement” in these License Agreement/Product Use Rights refer to the volume licensing program agreement executed between Microsoft and your authorized Microsoft reseller or Government Partner. Any program terms that apply to you are expressly incorporated into your Volume Licensing Agreement.

LICENSE TYPES

The type of License you acquire depends on what is available under your agreement and what you order. Some Products, such as Online Services, are available under Subscription Licenses only. Other Products are available under either perpetual or fixed-term licenses or on a subscription basis, depending on the Microsoft Volume Licensing Program under which they are licensed. See your Volume Licensing Agreement and the Microsoft Product List at <http://go.microsoft.com/?linkid=9839207> for more information about the License types available under your agreement and for a particular Product.

HOW TO DETERMINE WHICH LICENSE TERMS APPLY TO A PRODUCT

The License terms that apply to your use of a given licensed Product include the Universal License Terms, the General License Terms for the licensing model under which the Product is licensed, and any Product-specific License Terms.

Universal License Terms

Universal License Terms apply to every Product licensed through Microsoft Volume Licensing (except where specifically noted in the General License Terms and/or Product-Specific License Terms).

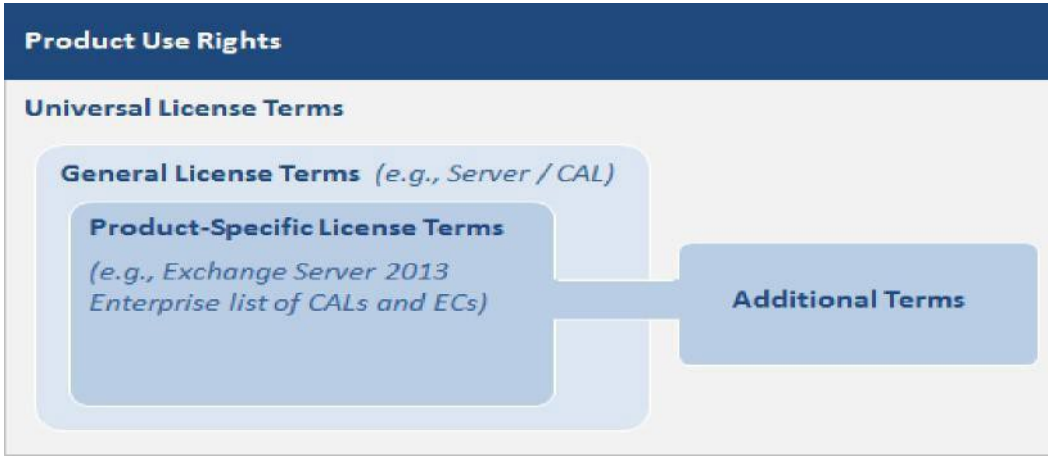

Introduction      -+ Universal Terms -+ Desktop Apps -+ Desktop OS      -+ Processor/CAL -+ Server/CAL      -+ Per Core

General License Terms

General License terms apply to all Products licensed under a given Licensing Model (except where specifically noted in the Product-Specific License Terms).

Product-Specific License Terms

Product-Specific License Terms apply specifically to the Product or Products under which they are listed.

LICENSING MODELS

There are nine different Licensing Models used for acquiring licensed Products through Microsoft Volume Licensing:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Desktop Applications</li> </ul>	Servers: Server/CAL	Specialty Servers
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Desktop Operating Systems</li> </ul>	Servers: Per Core	Developer Tools
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Servers: Processor/CAL</li> </ul>	Management Servers	Online Services

Note that some Products may be available under more than one Licensing Model. Also, some Products use a combination of two or more Licensing Models and are included in the Combined Licensing Models section after the sections for each Licensing Model.

Notices

Appendix 1 includes notices relevant to various Products as noted in the Product-Specific terms.

Software Assurance Benefits

Appendix 2 contains License terms that apply to Software Assurance benefits. The Microsoft Volume Licensing Product List describes these benefits.

Additional Software

Appendix 3 includes the additional software for the listed server Products.

PRIOR VERSIONS AND PRODUCTS NO LONGER AVAILABLE WORLDWIDE

These License Agreement/Product Use Rights cover the most recent version of Microsoft Products. Earlier versions of this ~~document containing License terms for earlier versions of Products are available at~~ <http://www.microsoftvolumelicensing.com/userights/PURRetired.aspx>. You will also find some archived versions of the License Agreement/Product Use Rights at <http://www.microsoft.com/licensing/about-licensing/product-licensing.aspx>. If you cannot find the version you need, please contact your account manager or reseller.

CLARIFICATIONS AND SUMMARY OF CHANGES

We designed these License Agreement/Product Use Rights to help you License and manage your use of Microsoft Products. Below ~~are recent additions, deletions and other changes to the License Agreement/Product Use Rights. Also listed below, as necessary,~~ are clarifications of Microsoft licensing policy in response to common customer questions.

UNIVERSAL LICENSE TERMS

These license terms apply universally to your use of Microsoft software and Online Services licensed under your Volume Licensing Agreement.

We do not transfer any ownership rights in any licensed Product or Online Service, and we reserve all rights not expressly granted.

No provisions of any shrink-wrap or any click-through agreement (or other similar form of agreement) that may be provided in conjunction with any Product(s), including Online Services available through Microsoft's Volume Licensing program shall apply in place of, or serve to modify any provision of this License Agreement/Product Use Rights, even if a user or authorized officer of you or your Affiliate purports to have affirmatively accepted such shrink-wrap or click-through provisions. For the avoidance of doubt and without limiting the foregoing, in the event of a conflict between any such shrink-wrap or click-through provisions (irrespective of the Products that such provisions attach to) and any term or condition of this License Agreement/Product Use Rights, then the relevant term or condition of this License Agreement/Product Use Rights shall govern and supersede the purchase of such Product(s) to the extent of any such conflict.

If any document or provision referenced in a URL or otherwise incorporated into this License Agreement/Product Use Rights contains terms that (a) allow for the automatic termination of a License; (b) allow for the automatic renewal of fees; (c) require the governing law to be anything other than Federal law; (d) require you to indemnify Microsoft or any third party; and/or (e) otherwise violate applicable law, then such provision shall not apply.

Definitions

Terms used in these License Agreement/Product Use Rights but not defined will have the definition provided in your Volume Licensing Agreement. The following definitions also apply:

Additive CAL means a CAL that must be used on conjunction with a base CAL.

Additive External Connector License means an External Connector License that must be used in conjunction with a base External Connector License.

Affiliate means any legal entity that a party owns, that owns a party, or that is under common ownership with a party. "Ownership" means, for purposes of this definition, control of more than a 50% interest in an entity.

CAL means client access License. There are two kinds of CALs: user and device. A user CAL allows access to the server software from any device by one user. A device CAL allows access to the server software from one device by any user.

Client OSE means an OSE running a client operating system.

Clustered HPC Application means high performance computing applications that solve complex computational problems, or a set of closely related computational problems in parallel. Clustered HPC applications divide a computationally complex problem into a set of jobs and tasks which are coordinated by a job scheduler, such as provided by Microsoft HPC Pack, or similar HPC middleware, which distributes these in parallel across one or more computers operating within an HPC cluster.

Cluster Node means a device that is dedicated to running Clustered HPC Applications or providing job scheduling services for Clustered HPC Applications.

Core Factor means a numerical value associated with a specific physical processor for purposes of determining the number of Licenses required to license all of the physical cores on a server.

Core Infrastructure Server (CIS) software means the set of individual Microsoft Products for which you are granted use, access or management rights under a particular edition of the CIS Suite License. CIS software includes the latest versions of those Products made available during the term of your Software Assurance coverage (and any prior version).

Customer Data means all data, including all text, sound, or image files and software that are provided to us by, or on behalf of, you through your use of the Online Service.

Cycle Harvesting Node means a device that is not dedicated to running Clustered HPC Applications or job scheduling services for Clustered HPC Applications.

Enrollment means the document that Government Partner submits to Microsoft under a Microsoft Volume Licensing program to place orders for you.

Enterprise means you and the Affiliates specifically designated in your Volume Licensing Agreement and the Enrollment.

Enterprise Online Service means any Online Service designated as an Enterprise Online Service in the Product List and chosen for you by the Government Partner under your Enrollment. Enterprise Online Services are treated as Online Services, except as otherwise noted.
