- (a) County shall pay:
  - (i) The costs charged by the title insurance company, including costs related to the title commitment, any premiums, and title endorsements;
  - (ii) Documentary stamp tax on the deed;
  - (iii) Recording fees payable in connection with the recording of the deed;
  - (iv) The costs of any survey, environmental assessment or audit, or other due diligence performed by the County; and
  - (v) Closing Agent’s fees.

  - (ii) Any property taxes and assessments for the Property, prorated to Closing Date.

6. Inspection Period and County's Entry on Property. Beginning on the Effective Date and ending sixty (60) days thereafter (the "Inspection Period"), the Seller hereby gives permission to the County or its agents to enter upon any portion of the Property to conduct, at the County's sole expense, any and all surveys, tests, studies, inspections, assessments, or audits as the County may choose to perform, including a Phase I Environmental Site Assessment, provided that the Property is not damaged and is left in a clean and safe condition. The County may, in its sole discretion, extend the Inspection Period by thirty (30) days without obtaining the consent or agreement of the Seller. The Inspection Period may be further extended by mutual agreement of the parties.

(a) Without waiving and subject to and within the limitations set forth in Section 768.28, Florida Statutes, the County shall indemnify and save harmless and defend the Seller from and against any and all claims, suits, actions, damages, liabilities, expenditures or causes of action of whatsoever kind to the extent caused by the County's actions to perform inspections, assessments, audits, or testing on the Property, except for the discovery of conditions not created by the County. Nothing herein is intended to serve as a waiver of the County's sovereign immunity nor does it extend the County's liability beyond the limits established in Section 768.28, Florida Statutes. Additionally, nothing herein will be construed as consent by the County to be sued by third parties in any matter arising out of this Agreement.

7. Closing and Property Condition. Closing shall occur no later than five (5) months after the Effective Date (the "Closing Date") at the offices of the Closing Agent defined in Paragraph 4 above or any other place which is mutually acceptable to the parties. Without limiting the foregoing, Closing may take place by mail or courier, or on an earlier date, by mutual agreement of the parties. Any extension of the Closing Date to a later date shall require a written amendment to this Agreement.

(a) At the Closing, Seller shall execute and deliver to the County a General Warranty Deed conveying marketable record title to the Property to the County, subject only to the Permitted Exceptions, as hereinafter defined. The parties shall execute and deliver all other documents reasonably necessary or otherwise required by the Closing Agent and title insurance company to consummate the transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) Seller recognizes that, following Closing, any buildings and improvements (including residential dwellings) will be removed by the County. Seller agrees to leave the Property free of personal property, refuse, and all other materials other than the buildings and improvements located on the Land. The parties will conduct an inspection of the Property at least five (5) days prior to the Closing Date to review the condition of the Property. If the Property is not in proper condition, then the Closing Date may be extended in the County's sole discretion. Seller will have no access to the Property following the Closing Date unless agreed to by the County in its sole discretion and separately documented by the parties in a written amendment to this Agreement.

8. Survey and Title Examination. The County shall order and obtain a survey of the Property and the appropriate title commitment for an owners title policy on the Property.

(a) Seller is responsible for delivering marketable title to the County. Marketable title shall be determined according to applicable title standards adopted by the Florida Bar in accordance with Florida law subject only to those exceptions that are acceptable to the County (“Permitted Exceptions”). Seller shall be liable for any encumbrances not disclosed in the public records or arising after Closing as a result of actions of the Seller. Title shall transfer as of the Closing Date and Seller shall deliver possession of the Property to the County at Closing free of any tenancies, occupants, or personal property. The Seller may elect to have any outstanding mortgages or liens on the Property paid and satisfied at the Closing from the Purchase Price otherwise due to the Seller.

(b) The County shall have fifteen (15) days after (i) the County’s receipt of both the survey and the title commitment, or (ii) the Effective Date, whichever is later, to examine the same and determine the nature of any defects in title and/or in the state of facts disclosed by the survey. If the title to all or part of the Property is subject to liens, mortgages, encumbrances, easements, judgments, conditions, covenants, defects, or restrictions other than those excepted in this Agreement, or in the event of any encroachment or other defect disclosed by the survey, the County shall give notice to the Seller of such defects. Within fifteen (15) days after receipt of such written notice, at the Seller’s sole expense, Seller shall cure any such defect, lien, encumbrance, easement, condition, restriction, or encroachment, so that the same shall not appear as an exception in the title insurance policy to be issued under the title commitment. If the Seller does not cure such defects before expiration of the earlier of said fifteen (15)-day cure period or the Inspection Period, the County may terminate this Agreement upon notice to the Seller prior to the end of the Inspection Period, or the County may close this transaction notwithstanding the defects, at its sole option.

9. Seller’s Representations and Warranties. Seller represents and warrants to Purchaser on and as of the Effective Date and on and as of the Closing Date, as follows:

(a) Seller owns the Property in fee simple and has the requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and the instruments referenced herein, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) Neither the execution, delivery, or performance of this Agreement, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby is prohibited by, or requires Seller to obtain any consent, authorization, approval, or registration under any law, statute, rule, regulation, judgment, order, writ, injunction, or decree which is binding upon Seller which has not been previously obtained.

(c) There are no leases affecting the Property.

(d) There is no litigation, arbitration, or other legal or administrative suit, action, proceeding, or investigation pending or threatened against or involving Seller or the ownership or operation of the Property, including, but not limited to, any condemnation action relating to the Property.

(e) Seller has not entered into any service, maintenance, supply, leasing, brokerage, listing and/or other contracts relating to the Property (along with all amendments and modifications thereof, the “Service Contracts”) which will be binding upon the Purchaser after the Closing.

(f) Seller has not placed any, and to Seller’s knowledge, there are no Hazardous Materials installed, stored in, or otherwise existing at, on, in, or under the Property in violation of any Environmental Laws. “Hazardous Materials” means “Hazardous Material,” “Hazardous Substance,” “Pollutant or Contaminant,” and “Petroleum” and “Natural Gas Liquids,” as those terms are defined or used in the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. § 9601 et seq.) (“CERCLA”), and any other substances regulated because of their effect or potential effect on public health and the environment, including PCBs, lead paint, asbestos, urea formaldehyde, radioactive materials, putrescible materials, and infectious materials. “Environmental Laws” means, without limitation, the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (42 U.S.C. § 6901 et seq.), CERCLA and all other federal, state, county, municipal, and other local laws governing or relating to Hazardous Materials or the environment together with their implementing regulations, ordinances, and guidelines.

Seller and Purchaser shall each indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the other from and against any claim of any broker or other person for any brokerage commissions, finder’s fees, or other compensation in connection with this transaction if such claim is based in whole or in part by, through, or on account of, any acts of the indemnifying party or its agents, employees, or representatives and from all losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses in connection with such claim, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees, court costs, and interest.

12. Release of County. By execution of this Agreement, Seller acknowledges and agrees that as of the date of Seller's execution and delivery of the Deed, Seller shall thereby release and discharge the County of and from all, and all manner of, causes of action, suits, claims, damages, judgments, in law or in equity, which Seller ever had, then has, or which any personal representative, successor, heir or assign of Seller, thereafter can, shall or may have, against the County, for, upon or by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever, arising out of or in any way connected with Seller's conveyance of the Property to the County, including, without limitation, any claim for loss of access to Seller's remaining property, severance damages to Seller's remaining property, business damages or any other damages. Nothing herein shall be deemed to release County from its obligations or liabilities under this Agreement nor serve as a waiver of sovereign immunity and extend the County's liability beyond the limits established in Section 768.28, Florida Statutes.
