

RESOLUTION 2005 - 15

A RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF NASSAU COUNTY, FLORIDA, DECLARING THE 31ST DAY OF JANUARY, 2005, AND EVERY JANUARY 31ST THEREAFTER AS "AMERICAN BEACH DAY".

WHEREAS, American Beach an African American enclave on Amelia Island in Nassau County, Florida was founded on January 31, 1935 by the Pension Bureau of the Afro-American Life Insurance Company for the purpose of developing an oceanfront resort for its employees and shareholders; and

WHEREAS, during the period of racial segregation in America, American Beach became known to hundreds of thousands as the Negro Playground, and was a home in Paradise to many; and

WHEREAS, since 1982 property owners assumed leadership for the community and began a neighborhood association; through the efforts of the American Beach Property Owners' Association, Inc., a state historic survey of homes and structures on American Beach was completed; and

WHEREAS, after a thorough and certified documentation conducted by the American Beach Property Owners' Association, Inc., American Beach, since January 28, 2002 has been listed as the American Beach Historic District in the National Register of Historic Places; and

WHEREAS, the American Beach Property Owners Association, Inc. as custodian of this natural landmark takes pride and responsibility in the care, preservation and well being of the American Beach community; and

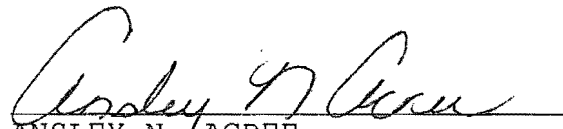

WHEREAS, the American Beach Property Owners' Association, Inc., the entire American Beach community and all those who contribute to the preservation and longevity of this unique community are to be applauded and praised for keeping the dream alive for seventy continuous years.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED this 24th day of January, 2005, by the Board of County Commissioners of Nassau County, Florida, that:

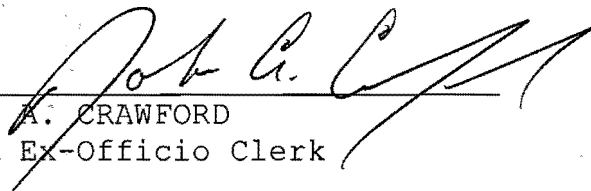

1. January 31, 2005, and every January 31 hereafter are hereby declared as AMERICAN BEACH DAY.

2. The Board hereby applauds every resident of the community who has contributed their hearts and souls towards making American Beach the truly historic jewel that it has been and continues to be.
