David,

Good Morning

Here is the paperwork for the Florida Statutes Annotated book discount. Because of your new Westlaw subscription, the statute set will be on a very steep discount and a guaranteed rate for the term of three years. The guaranteed rate will not exceed a 5% annual rate increase (compared to 15%-20% historically for this set). This will be a savings for your office for as long as you have this agreement.

On the top of the second page is discusses that the rate will not increase more than 5% annually during the contracted term. There is also a place to initial on the same page in regards to the renewal after the contracted term. It states that the agreement will be renewed automatically unless give notice not to renew.

We will meet several times before this book agreement term expires and therefore very likely discussing the renewal options.

Action:

- Initial on the second page
- Sign on the last page
- Email back the completed document

Thanks

David,

Good News!

The monthly difference to get all three options is very minimal. I updated the quote. I think you will like it.

In addition, I have approval to put your Florida Statutes on a new discount program called "West Complete". It has the same level of steep discount like the "WestPack 50%" but also guarantees a price for three years (that locks the price so you therefore know exactly how much to budget for the book title). It actually puts the Florida Statutes in a monthly rate that offers level pricing. As you know the Florida Statutes updates a few times a year with variable charges and shipments. However, the new "West Complete" includes all of the updates and volumes in a monthly rate (much like how Westlaw works).

Therefore, you have a choice to do either the "WestPack" or "West Complete". You had "Westpack" in the past which guarantees 50% off the future updates. However, the future discounts on this title increases approximately 15% per year. "West Complete" provides the same level of discount but also guarantees that the rate won't increase more than 5% annually. Both are three year terms.

The "West Complete" provides the best pricing option.

Sincerely,

Tim Chambers

You have two accounts. One if for the books and the other is for the Westlaw. That is why there are two different account numbers listed. I'm not doing anything different with the account numbers.

The Florida Statutes will be on the new flat rate billing plan called "West Complete" and the Westlaw (online) will be enhanced with the new databases.

Please sign and send back when possible.

Thanks
