AN ORDINANCE OF THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF NASSAU COUNTY, FLORIDA, BANNING THE RETAIL SALE OF DOGS OR CATS FROM A COMMERCIAL ESTABLISHMENT OR FROM A PUBLIC ROADWAY, COMMON AREA OR FLEA MARKET; PROVIDING FOR EXCEPTIONS FOR ANIMAL SHELTERS, ANIMAL WELFARE ORGANIZATIONS AND ADOPTION OF ANIMALS; REQUIRING A CERTIFICATE OF SOURCE; PROVIDING FOR PENALTIES; PROVIDING FOR REPUBLICATION IN THE CODE OF ORDINANCES, SEVERABILITY AND AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, pursuant to Article VII, Section 2 of the Florida Constitution and chapter 125 of the Florida Statutes, Nassau County is authorized and required to protect the public health, safety and welfare of its citizens and has the power and authority to enact regulations for valid governmental purposes that are not inconsistent with general or special law; and

WHEREAS, the public health, safety, and welfare is a legitimate public purpose of Nassau County, Florida; and

WHEREAS, other counties in Florida have seen an increase in the commercial sale of dogs and cats which have been bred under conditions which are cruel and endanger the health of such animals; and

WHEREAS, Nassau County finds that it is in the best interest of the residents of Nassau County to prevent the location of commercial “puppy mills” and “kitten factories” in Nassau County because they exploit and endanger the welfare of animals solely for commercial gain; and

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners deems it in the best interest of Nassau County to enact this Ordinance banning the retail sale of dogs and cats in Nassau County.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of County Commissioners of Nassau County, Florida, that:

Section 1. Findings of Fact – The Board of County Commissioners of Nassau County, Florida, hereby makes the following findings of fact:

1. Section 828.27, Florida Statutes, authorizes the Board of County Commissioners to enact an Ordinance relating to Animal Control and Cruelty.
2. Animal control regulations are necessary to protect the public from unvaccinated, diseased, stray, roaming, dangerous, wild, or exotic animals.
3. Animal control regulations establish uniformity in the control and eradication of rabies.
4. Animal control regulations help abate nuisance created by animals that interfere with the enjoyment of property or the peace and safety of the community.
5. Animal control regulations help regulate animal population.
6. Animal control regulations protect animals from abuse or conditions harmful to their well-being.
7. According to the Humane Society of the United States, hundreds of thousands of dogs and cats in the United States have been housed and bred at substandard breeding facilities, known as “puppy mills” or “kitten factories”, the mass-produce animals for sale to the public, many of which are sold in pet stores.
8. Undercover pet store investigations performed by The Humane Society of the United States have repeatedly proven that most pet stores get their puppies from puppy mills, despite claims to the contrary.
9. National animal welfare organizations, including The Humane Society of the United States (HSUS), The Humane Society Veterinary Medical Association (HSVMA) and the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA) all concur that the Animal Welfare Act Standards are insufficient to protect dogs in puppy mills, and that even those breeders who repeatedly violate those weak standards seldom face a significant penalty.
10. Cats and dogs that are bred in puppy mills or kitten factories often suffer from health, social, and/or temperament problems that frequently result in costly treatment or even death.
11. In addition to the congenital and hereditary conditions resulting from substandard breeding facilities, dogs and cats bred at these facilities may arrive in pet stores and their new homes with giardia, parvovirus, and distemper, illnesses that can be transmitted to healthy family animals.

12. According to the Humane Society of the United States, Florida has the highest number of consumer complaints submitted to the Humane Society regarding sick puppies purchased from puppy mills.
13. The Nassau County Board of County Commissioners deems the prohibition of the retail sale of dogs and cats in Nassau County to be in the best interest of the health, safety, and welfare of its residents and citizens and the public at large, that such prohibition constitutes a municipal purpose and will encourage pet consumers to adopt dogs or cats from shelters or home based breeders, thereby promoting consumer protection, saving animals' lives, and reducing the cost to the public of sheltering and euthanizing animals.
