

RESOLUTION 92 - 93

A RESOLUTION BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF NASSAU COUNTY RECOGNIZING THE OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE FLORIDA COMMUNITY COLLEGE AT JACKSONVILLE AND PROCLAIMING THE WEEK OF APRIL 6 THROUGH 10, 1992, AS "FLORIDA COMMUNITY COLLEGE AT JACKSONVILLE WEEK" IN NASSAU COUNTY.

WHEREAS, Florida Community College at Jacksonville (FCCJ) offers educational variety through associate in arts degree programs, preparing students to continue their educations at the university level; associate in science degree programs, training students for immediate employment at the semi-professional level; and postsecondary job training programs, enabling students to work in industrial and technical trades; and

WHEREAS, FCCJ's Center for Economic Development - realizing the undeniable connection between community colleges and their local economics - has forged new partnerships with national corporations such as AT&T American Transtech, Merrill Lynch, American Express, and Jefferson Smurfit, logging more than 1.8 million hours of training to 115 companies; and

WHEREAS, FCCJ continues its commitment to making higher education available to Nassau County residents with the construction of the Nassau County Center in Yulee; and

WHEREAS, FCCJ remains dedicated to meaningful learning and excellent teaching, enabling individuals to achieve their hopes, dreams and full potential, and to being a leading partner in creating a dynamic, prosperous community of enlightened leaders and thoughtful, effective global citizens.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Nassau County Board of County Commissioners that the Board does hereby express its sincere gratitude to the faculty and staff of Florida Community College at Jacksonville for their invaluable contributions to the social, economic, and academic growth of Nassau County, and that the week of April 6 through 10, 1992, be officially proclaimed as "Florida Community College at Jacksonville Week" in Nassau County, Florida.

Dated this 3rd day of April, 1992.
