

RESOLUTION 94 - 114

A RESOLUTION HONORING THE WORLD WAR II VETERANS ON THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE NORMANDY INVASION.

WHEREAS, the Normandy Invasion of France was the largest invasion in history; and

WHEREAS, the week of May 30, 1994, to June 6, 1994, should be designated as D-Day Remembrance Week; and

WHEREAS, all of the World War II veterans should be honored for the freedoms we enjoy today because of the heroic efforts of all the veterans of World War II.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED this 9th day of May, 1994, by the Board of County Commissioners of Nassau County, Florida, in recognition of the many Nassau County sons and daughters who served in World War II and the need for all civilization to recall the sacrifices made for freedom and to remember the global changes that were set in motion fifty years ago and to remember the efforts of all the veterans of World War II, black or white, rich or poor, hereby sets the period from May 30, 1994, to June 6, 1994, as D-Day Remembrance Week.
