

RESOLUTION 94 - 148

WHEREAS, a new Department of Juvenile Justice is being created that will rightly bring more highly concentrated focus on the problems associated with juvenile crime; and

WHEREAS, Nassau County has experienced the profound impact of rising juvenile delinquency; and

WHEREAS, the failure to allocate funds for additional supervisory personnel for the Department of Juvenile Justice could result in Nassau County staff members reporting to supervisors in the larger Jacksonville unit; and

WHEREAS, such a system would seriously impair the efficacy which is sought through creation of the new Department.

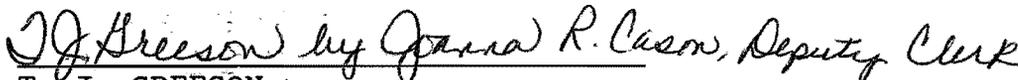

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED this 11th day of July, 1994, by the Board of County Commissioners of Nassau County, Florida, as follows:

1. The Board supports the position of Sheriff Ray Geiger in requesting that the Department of Juvenile Justice supervisory staff be assigned to Nassau County in order to facilitate and expedite the resolution of associative local problems, complaints, and concerns.
