

RESOLUTION 2000 - 86

A RESOLUTION LIFTING THE BURN BAN ESTABLISHED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS IN THE CITY OF FERNANDINA BEACH, FLORIDA

WHEREAS, the Nassau County Board of County Commissioners had previously issued a burn ban on May 1, 2000; and

WHEREAS, the burn ban was based upon a high fire index level having been existing in Nassau County; and

WHEREAS, the fire index on Amelia Island is now at an acceptable level; and

WHEREAS, the City of Fernandina Beach Fire Marshal has indicated that he would issue a permit for the utilization of fireworks in the City of Fernandina Beach to take place for Shrimp Fest; and

WHEREAS, based upon the information regarding the fire index level and the Fire Chief's recommendation, the burn ban may be lifted for Fernandina Beach.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED this 3rd day of May,
2000, by the Board of County Commissioners of Nassau County, Florida, as follows:

1. The burn ban pursuant to Ordinance 2000-06 is hereby lifted in Fernandina Beach until further Resolution signed by the Chairman or the full Board of County Commissioners.

2. The lifting of the ban is to take place immediately upon its execution by the Chairman.

TO: Mr. Walt Gossett, County Coordinator
FROM:  Cooper, Deputy Chief
DATE: May 3, 2000
SUBJECT: Burn Ban Amendment

On this date, May 3, 2000, a phone conversation took place regarding the Burn Ban for Nassau County and the City Limits of Fernandina Beach, with the Fire Chief, Michael E. Greene. He as well as the City of Fernandina Beach, concurred that the burn ban be lifted immediately for the fireworks to take place for Shrimp Fest.

This amendment will be in place until May 8, 2000, until a re-consideration would be determined.
